

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

ARMEX

Moreri

Sophia Brooks

A N

Clayton

Universal, Historical, Geographical, Chronological and Poetical

DICTIONARY,

EXACTLY DESCRIBING

The Situation, Extent, Customs, Laws,
Manners, Commodities, &c. of all Kingdoms, Common-Wealths, Provinces, Islands and Cities, in the known World.

Containing Likewise

The Lives of the Patriarchs, Prophets, Apostles, and Primitive Fathers; Emperors, Kings, Princes, Popes, Cardinals, Bishops, and other eminent Persons; with an Account of the Inventors and Improvers of ARTS and SCI-ENCES, Philosophers, and all Celebrated Authors.

A L S O

The History of the Pagan Gods, very useful for the Understanding of Classick Authors; of the several Sects among the Jews, Christians, Heathens and Mahometans, with their principal Ceremonies, Games and Festivals; of General Councils and Synods, when, and where Assembled; of the Establishment and Progress of Religious and Military Orders; and of the Genealogies of the most Illustrious Families, especially our English, Scotch and Irish.

The Whole consisting of a curious Miscellany of Sacred and Prophane History, Extracted from Moreri, Bayle, Baudrand, Hoffman, Danet, and many more of the best and choicest Historians, Geographers, Chronologers and Lexicographers, Antient and Modern.

In Two Volumes.

*Quid Bodleianam, Vaticanamque objicis Hospes?
Unicus est nobis Bibliotheca Liber.*

L O N D O N :

Printed for J. Hurd next the Kings-head Tavern in Holborn; W. Turner, at the Angel at Lincolns-Inn Back Gate; and Tho. Hodgson, over against Grays-Inn Gate in Holborn, 1703.

...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...

...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...

...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...

THE PREFACE.

BEFORE we inform the Reader what Method has been observ'd by us in the following Abridgment of MORERI, and the best Lexicographers now extant, we presume it will not be improper to enquire in the first Place, Whether Works of this nature Contribute to the Propagation or Decay of Learning: Secondly, What sort of Books are most Capable or Proper to be Abbreviated; and particularly, whether an Author, that comprehends so infinite a variety of Matter, as MORERI for instance does, comes within the Pale of Abbreviation.

My Lord Bacon; and abundance of second-hand Criticks upon so great an Authority, have been pleas'd to fall very severely upon Abridgments, as destructive to the Growth of the Belles Lettres, and positively charge them with having occasion'd the loss of the greater and nobler Volumes, out of which they were compiled. As for the latter Branch of this Accusation, suppose it were true, as I am satisfy'd 'tis not, yet it does not affect us at present; for whatever Mischiefs of this nature Abridgments are fancy'd to have done, before the Invention of Printing, yet since that useful Discovery, we have nothing to apprehend from them upon that Score.

The PREFACE.

But the most plausible Objection against them is, that they prostitute Learning, and encourage Laziness. The generality of Mankind, say the Objectors, affect to be thought more knowing than they are, but as the purchase of solid Learning requires a greater Expence of Time and Pains, than most People are willing to be at, this naturally makes them fly to Abridgments, and sit down content with a superficial Knowledge of Things.

I must own, indeed, that a Divine, who carries his Views no higher than the German Synagogs, will never make a considerable Figure in Theology, and that a Man who pores continually upon Compendiums of Chronology is in no danger of becoming a profound Historian. The same may be affirm'd of the Arts and Sciences. But if a few lazy Sots, and empty Pretenders, for Abridgments to a wrong Use, must therefore the Industrious and Intelligent part of the World be debarr'd the Benefit of them?

In case there had been no such things as Abridgments, 'tis true, the lazy Sots, and the empty Pretenders, had not troubled themselves with their impertinent No's, nor set up for Men of Learning. But to our Comfort be it allow'd, the Gentlemen

THE PREFACE

WE come now, in the second Place, to consider what sorts of Books are most Capable and Proper to be Abbreviated. Not to enter then into too particular a Discussion of this Question, 'tis enough for our purpose, to observe that Books, in all Faculties and Degrees, provided they are written by eminent Masters, (for what Man of sense would condescend to Copy a worthless Original?) do naturally fall under this Class; but then the brighter the Original is, the Abridger ought to take the more Care to do it justly.

Upon this Head I cannot forbear to remark en Passant, that making Abridgements requires so much Nicety and Judgment as to compose a new Abridgement, that will command an universal Applause. As all superfluous Decorations are to be cut off, so Things of Importance, tho' thrown into a less Room, are certainly to be retained, (for surely there's a vast Difference between letting the Nails grow too long, and paring them to the Quick) and 'tis in this particular chiefly that an Abbreviator shows the dexterity of his Quill. There ought to be a Justness and Symmetry in the whole, and in every part of his Performance; he ought not to be too unmerciful a Retrencher in one Place, nor too diffusive a Talker in another; but as a skilful Painter that Works in Miniature, preserves the true Mien and Shape of the Person whom he delineates, and does not tack a Gigantick Leg or Arm to a Pygmies Body; so a skilful Epitomizer will not only endeavour to maintain, as far as his intended Brevity will allow him, the true Character and Spirit of his Author, but also to be equally Concise every where, and Uniform to himself. Not to mention some of our modern Performers, who have been enormously Guilty of this Fault, this is the constant, as it is the most crying Sin of Justin's otherwise admirable Work, who runs out into impertinent Descriptions, and affects an unreasonable Eloquence where he has no Occasion, as he skims over important Revolutions and Actions, where he ought to be more particular.

I would not be thought so vain as to apply the following Objections to this Performance of ours, however 'tis undeniably true, that an Abridgement Carefully and Judiciously perform'd, if it does not equal the masterly Strokes of the Original, yet as to the Merit of Industry and Judgment, does not fall short of it. 'Tis easie for a Man of a flowing Eloquence, to indulge his Genius in describing Battels and Places, in putting proper Speeches into
the

The PREEACE.

the Mouths of his Generals, and the like, but 'tis a severe Task to throw all this into a narrow Room, and yet lose nothing of the sequence. There is as perfect Architecture, if I may be allowed the expression, in the Composition of a Fly, as in that of an Elephant and I remember I once saw, at an Auction, a small Print of Italian Piece of Painting, go at a greater Price than one of same design that was six times larger. Who does not read the most Perfect Compendium in its kind, the Bishop of Meaux Histoire Universelle, with Infinitely more satisfaction than tedious Unweildy Volumes out of which 'tis Composed? A fiere Chevreau's Histoire du Monde too, lately publish'd in English, deserves the same Character, being a most Elaborate well digested Abridgment.

Of our Modern Histories, none has been more deservedly universally esteem'd than P. Paul's noble History of the Council of Trent, and yet 'tis plain, that the Theological Debates too Prelux and Tiresom for the generality of Readers, who know little of these Controversies. Upon this Account I think it some Variation has been much oblig'd the World be Content

The PREFACE.

And now I expect some Persons will cry, What ! an Abridgement of an Abridgement, that is certainly false Heraldry, or, how is it possible, without destroying the Fabric, to Abbreviate a Writer that comprehends so prodigious a variety of Matter, and that too delivered in so Succinct a Manner?

To this, his Reply suffices to observe, that if we consider in Moreri, and the rest of them, the References that so frequently occur in their Works, the same individual Stories so often related under various Heads, and even of Persons and Things that deserve to be known, so many Particulars recounted, which we might as well be ignorant; If we add to this such long fulsome Genealogies, that were rather design'd to satisfy the Vanity of particular Families, than promote any useful Knowledge, (altho' we have paid that Acknowledgment to Merit, as still to mention the most eminent Names) as also of obscure Towns, which a Man will never meet but in Authors of equal Obscurity, of worthless Foreign Scriblers, insignificant Founders of Orders, Enthusiastic Madmen, and the like, (all which may be left off, or at least but briefly handled, without doing the least injury to the main Work) I believe he will readily own, with me, that few Books admit of an Abbreviation sooner than these.

I speak not this with the least Intention to Derogate from the Merit of Mr. Collier's Undertaking; I should justly call my own Judgment in question to offer at any thing like that. But Mr. Collier and we, went upon two different Schemes: It was his Aim to take all he found in Moreri, and throw in large Additions of his own; Ours, to retain nothing but what was necessary: His, to frame a large and noble Volume for Persons of Fortune and Quality: Ours, to bring down so useful a design to the Pockets of the greatest part of Mankind; for tho' a Dictionary, at one time or other, may be necessary to most Men, yet most Men cannot afford to part with three or four Pounds to Purchase One.

I have nothing now left to Inform the Reader, but that all imaginable Care has been taken to retain what was useful in Moreri, &c. whether relating to Mythology, History, Geography, Antiquity; in short, whatever may contribute to the better Understanding of the Antient and Modern Authors, which is the proper end of Works of this Nature, that are not to be read through, like other Books, but only consulted upon occasion. The Narrations, wherever we found them too much encumber'd, we have made no scruple to Abridge, and struck out abundance of Insignificant Names out of this Temple of Immortality, as an Universal Historical Dictionary may justly be call'd) or if we admitted some of them there, we just mention'd them, and no more. What the success of this Performance will be, we dare not pretend to determine; but whatever it is, we meant a Benefit to the Publick, and surely 'tis no little Service to Mankind, to put a Work of so Universal use into their Hands, without any of those Trifles, with which the rest of this kind are over-loaded, that are only fit to Fade and Burthen the Memory, but not to Instruct or Cultivate the Understanding.

The P R E E A C E.

A N
ABRIDGMENT
O F

loreri's, Baile's, Hoffman's and Da-net's, &c.

reat Historical, Geographical, Genea- logical, and Poetical

DICTIONARIES.

B E I N G

Curious MISCELLANY of Sacred and Prophane HISTORY.

A

A. According to Valerius
Probus, was us'd by the Ancients as a Numeral ter, which stood for 500.
ere are some Latin Verses relaby Baronius; and others; which cribe the Letters signifying umbers, whereof this is the first.

Possidet A numeros quingentos or-dine recto.

When a strait Line was drawn over the ā (thus) it stood for 5000.

Aa is the Name of a Fountain in Bearn, which the Natives call Arquebúsade: Also the Name of several

B

Aich, or Aeg, Little Town of Germany in the Cir. of Saxia, and Ter. of Hegow, sub. to the Emperor.

Aich, see Aix la Chapelle.

Aid, or Aide, a small River of Brabant.

Agram, or Agram. See Zagabria.

Aalam, or Enn i Aalam, the Name of Ali Elmo i Hofain, a famous Arabian Astrologer of the 9th Age.

Aalborg, or Aiberg, Lat. Aalborgum, a City of Denmark, in the Prov. of North-jutland, and a R. under the A of Lunden. It stands on the Bay of Limforn.

Aalen, or Aalen, or Aulm, a small Imperial Town in Saxia.

Aalst, see Halst.

Aalsj, or Aalsj, see Aalsj.

Aar, or Aar. Lat. Arola, or Arols, a River of Switzerland, which falls into the Rhine between Basle and Constance.

Aar, a River in the Province of Hesse in Germany, which runs into the Esar.

Aar, or Aar. Lat. Athensia, another R. of Germany, which falls into the Rhine near Bonn.

consecrated.

Appointment

Aab, Aibin, &

The two first and using stran

fers, dy'd sud nacle. Some chap, and Abir

of the Isradite

gainst Moses, & pers of the G

hood, the Ea

low'd up the

and Fire fr

their 250 Acc

the People r

with his Cen

prevented th

died on Mow year of his A

Aaron, Calif

by the Arabia

one of the mo

nate Monarch

bout the 783d

was a Favour

Poetry; and

and Valiant.

Bartels, and 17

of the greatest

A A R

which Aaron not only sent him the Keys of laces. Aaron was also the Peace concluded ween Charlemagne, and Greek Emperor, whose being made his Pague in the Empire, enter into a War with but was totally de- both he and his Fa- Tributaries to Aaron. the 47th year of his 1th, or 807th of Christ. Magician; who having Emperor Emanuel Com- ridiculous Promises, lign Punishment.

Aaron of Alexandria, a f the 7th Age, who k of Physick.

Afir, a famous Rabbi, he assistance of Jacob, invented the Hebrew Accents.

Caraites, or Anti-Talmu- is Rabbi of the 13th d'd to be one of the eters of the Old Testa- e say he is the same vision, who wrote an umar, Printed at Con- 158.

Welsh Saint of Caerleon shire, who was Martyr'd 1 of Dioclesian. Ann. 303. City of Babrain in Ara- 5. m. N. W. of Hems.

Fifth Month among nsisting of 29 Days.

Mountain of the Greater m. from Simyra, which to be the Town now um. Also a City of

: Daughter of Zenopha- of Olbus in Cilicia; done Antioch and Cleo- patra some Services, was by them made Sovereign of the Place.

A B A

Aba, or Aban, the 3d K. of Hun- gary, who usurp'd that Kingdom, Ann. 1042. having depos'd Peter the German, Successor to Stephen I. He was kill'd in 1044. and Peter restor'd.

Aba, a City of Phocis in Greece, famous of Old for the Temple and Oracle of Apollo, it being burnt by Xerxes; its Inhabitants call'd Aban- ter, retir'd to the Island of Negrop- ent, and call'd it Abantis.

Ababa, or Abagua, an Alan by Birth, was married in Thrace to a Goth, call'd Mecca, or Micca, by whom she had Maximin, who suc- ceeded Alexander Severus in the Em- pire, Ann. 235.

Abach, or Welsenburg, a Borough of Germany in the Cir. and D. of Bavaria, with a Fort upon the Danube, 5. m. S. W. of Ratisbonne.

Abachares, a People in the S. of America, on the R. Madera.

Abachu, see Bachu.

Abacoa, one of the Lucia Islands in the N. of America, sub. to the Englsh.

Abudair, the Name of the Stone that Saturn swallow'd instead of Jupiter; for he being forewarn'd that one of his Sons would expel him his Kingdom, sent for his Male-Off-spring as soon as his Wife Rhea was deliver'd, that he might devour 'em: But she being once so serv'd, sent him at other times a Stone wrapt up in swadling Cloaths, and so deceiv'd him. By Saturn is meant Time, who is so call'd in La- tin; because Saturatur annis, he feeds upon years, or his own Children.

Ab-Addires, certain God's wor- shipp'd by the Carthaginians.

Abadden, so St. John in his Rev. calls the K. of Locusts, an Infernal Angel, whom he also calls the D- stroyer.

B 2

Abafai,

A A R

which Aaron not only sent him the Keys of Places. Aaron was also in the Peace concluded between Charlemagne, and the Greek Emperor, whose son being made his Pa-lague in the Empire, did enter into a War with er, but was totally dei both he and his Fa-: Tributaries to Aaron.
 in the 47th year of his loth, or 807th of Christ.

Magician; who having ie Emperor Emanuel Coma ridiculous Promises, indign Punishment.

or Aaron of Alexandria, a of the 7th Age, who tok of Physick.

Am-Aser, a famous Rabbi,
 i the assistance of Jacob eli, invented the Hebrew
 l Accents.

ie Caraise, or Anti-Talmu- ious Rabbi of the 13th end'd to be one of the preters of the Old Testame say he is the same ith

Harifien, who wrote an ramar, Printed at Con-
 in 158.

a Welsh Saint of Caerleon ishyre, who was Martyr'd gn of Dioclesian. Ann. 303.
 a City of Babrynia in Ara- 25. m. N. W. of Hems.

e Fifth Month among consisting of 29 Days.

Mountain of the Greater 12 m. from Simyra, which at to be the Town now arum. Also a City of Ux.

the Daughter of Zenopha- nt of Olbus in Cilicia;
 ing done Antony and Cleo-

A B A

patra some Services, was by them made Sovereign of the Place.

Abas, or Aban, the 3d K. of Hun- gary, who usurp'd that Kingdom,
 Ann. 1041. having depos'd Peter
 the German, Successor to Stephen I.
 He was kill'd in 1044. and Peter restor'd.

Abas, a City of Phocis in Greece, famous of Old for the Temple and Oracle of Apollo, it being burnt by Xerxes; its Inhabitants call'd Aban- tes, retir'd to the Island of Negre- pent, and call'd it Abantis.

Ababa, or Abogua, an Alan by Birth, was married in Thrace to a Goth, call'd Mecca, or Micca, by whom she had Maximin, who succeeded Alexander Severus in the Empire, Ann. 235.

Abach, or Welsenburg, a Borough of Germany in the Cir. and D. of Bavaria, with a Fort upon the Danube, 5. m. S. W. of Ratisbonne.

Abachares, a People in the S. of America, on the R. Madera.

Abachu, see Bachu.

Abaco, one of the Lucia's Islands in the N. of America, sub. to the English.

Abodair, the Name of the Stone that Saturn swallow'd instead of Jupiter; for he being forewarn'd that one of his Sons would expel him his Kingdom, sent for his Male-Off-spring as soon as his Wife Rhea was deliver'd, that he might devour 'em: But she being once so serv'd, sent him at other times a Stone wrapt up in swadling Cloaths, and so deceiv'd him. By Saturn is meant Time, who is so call'd in La- tin; because Saturatur annis, he feeds upon years, or his own Children.

Ab-Addires, certain God's worshipp'd by the Carthaginians.

Abaddon, so St. John in his Rev.
 calls the K. of Locusts, an Infernal Angel, whom he also calls the D. strayer.

B 2

Abajm,

ents or His story; till the having discover'd his se-igues, seiz'd upon his ty.

a K. of the Tartars toe end of the 13th Age, aded, and subdued the ind often vanquish'd the

He sent Ambassadors
General Council of Lyons.

us, see Abgarus.

People of Scythia on this nt Imaus, and bordering ra.

see Abaimbe.

d, or Abelard, (Peter) a , famous for his Know-Philosophy, Divinity, and ages. He suffer'd in his on by his Amours with s Scholars, call'd Heloissa,

Niece to Fulkert, a Cae Cathedral of Paris; who rag'd at their unlawful resolv'd upon Revenge.
o pacify him, agreed with arry Heloissa clandestinely;
ie consented to tho' un-
, as fearing she might prevent his Ecclesiastical nt. This Reparation of where the Nun y. In 1140, he demna in the Council and Sens (for mixing hi Philosophy with Divini

he appeal'd to the Po his way to Rome was sc Peter the Venerable, Ab that he put on a Mo
there. He died in 1 63d year of his Age.

were printed in one Vo 1616. containing his o loisse's Letters in Lat tender and passionate piece.

Abaimbe, or Abaibe, Ab
tains of Southern Ame Province of Carthage

Abala, a Sea-Port i Sicily, whither Cesar fle
pey, with one Servant

Abalus, an Island in Sea, call'd Baltia by which some believ'd flow'd from the Trees.

Abana, a pleasant R from Mount Lebanon. to the Syrian Sea: It's Amanah 2 K. 5.

Acanho, Lat. Aban'us
bus, a R. of Upper Ethi

A B A

ma, Lat. Apennus, a Village in Com. of Venice, and Ter. of ..., remarkable for its wholesomeness, and for the Birth of Titus ..., and of the great Physician .... It stands 5. m. S. W. ....

Antes, or Abantis, A Town Parnassus, famous for a Temple of Apollo. There is a little Precinct in Epyrus in the Prov. of Car... now call'd Abantis.

Antes, a People descended from Thracia, who retir'd to Phocis, and there built a Town ..., after their Chief: where they passed into the Isle then Macris, next Abantis, Thalcis and Euboea, now Negrop....

Antidas, General or K. of the ..., Successor to Clinias, Father of Aratus, who surpriz'd the King of Corinth.

Antis, see Aba, Abantes, & Ne...

Antivivar, Abanvivar, or Abantia Prov. of the Upper Hungary towards the Carpathian Mountains, the Capital of which is Cas...

Antwi, is the Name of the Nile in Ethiopian, which signifies ...

Antwer, a T. in Armenia the same on the R. Alingiac, apparently the same with the T. of Ar... which Cedrenus calls Abara. the usual Residence of the Shop of Nassavian.

Antus, & Aboras, an African River, on the R. Volta, about 100 miles from the Sea.

Antarea, a Nymph, one of the by whom Bucolion, Eldest Son of Laomedon, had Esepus and ...

Antbinel, or Abravinel, or Abravinel (a famous Rabbi born at Lisbon in 1437; who being banish'd from Spain, with the rest of the Jews, died at Venice in 1508.

A B A

Abarca, the Surname of Sancha II. 5th K. of Navarre, so call'd from a kind of Shoe which he wore. He succeeded his Father Garcias II. Ann. 925, or 891. He gain'd many Victories over the Moors, and in the 37th year of his Reign, was kill'd in a Battel against the Castilians.

Abares, see Auaries.

Abarim, a high, steep Mountain in Arabia Petraea, which divides the Countries of Ammon and Moab from Canaan.

Abarimo, Part of Scythia, near Mount Imaus.

Abarino, See Navarino, or Navarino.

Abaris, a Scythian Philosopher; who by virtue of a Golden Arrow, given him by Apollo, pretended to go as swiftly as the said Arrow when shot from a Bow; as also to give Oracles, and foretell Things to come. Jamblichus says he was Disciple to Pythagoras; and some will have him to have flourish'd before Solon. He compos'd several Books, chiefly a Theogony, a Collection of Oracles, and a Tract of Conjurations, or Exorcisms. He is also suppos'd to be the Author of an Epistle to Phalaris.

Abarus, call'd Mezerus, by Florus; Andromachus, by Plutarch, and Agbarus by Sextus Rufus, was an Arabian General, who led Crassus into an Ambuscade, and occasion'd his Defeat by the Parthians.

Abas, the 12 K. of the Argives, Son of Belus, or of Lyncus, and Hypermnestra, famous for his Valour and Wit. He was Father to Prætus and Acrisius, and Grandfather to Perseus. From him the Argives were call'd Abasians.

canry.

K. of Persia, see Scha

Philosopher, who left orical Commentaries be-
, and wrote a Book of
There was another writ an account of the s.

Mountain, see Abn.

os, one of the Names of he God of the Herfiarch

, or Abyssinia, a Kingdom

in the Upper Æthiopia.

ive its Name from the others think that the ssinia, is Ægyptian, how-

Natives call themselves

ut Æthiopianns. The Emp.

affines is by some call'd

lw, or Prest-John, either illery, or Mistake of the

or the true Prest-John, tar Prince, in the King-enduc in Asia. As for the us, or Abassine Emp. He Beldi-gian, or Belul-gian,

Respected John. Others

halidans call him John-en- is. Great and Valuable

ter: Straken, and A

on the Red-Sea, the Ala

not so much as one Sea-

'em. The Provinces w.

remain in their hands

Dambla, Bazamedry, Goy

bara, Naren, Magazi, Oga

Holcad, Semen, Segurda, Sal

Doba, and some others

they were formerly M

Angotz, Doare, Adea, Bal

and many others. This is so fruitful, that the Harvests in a year, partic

Millet and Pulse; but t is not general. There

Vines in some places, wh afford good Wine. How common Drink of the

Crab-Cyder, and Mead,

mel, which they call B

Alr is temperate enoug

in the Valleys, where it

try. There are many

Gold, Silver, Copper, I

and Sulphur; but the I have no skill to work th

Abassins are generally

witty, and judicious, bu

ly idle and lazy; yet

as C have given them

A B A

Arrows, Darts, and Slings. Portuguese taught them the use of Arms, and have been very useable to them in their Wars. said likewise that the Abassines good-natur'd, Virtuous, Religious, even to Superstition, and Obedient to their Prince. Their Language is particular to themselves, tho' some say it has affinity with the Chinese.

The Abassines boast of a long Genealogy of Kings, even before the time of Sheth; but the Relation is Pedigree is fabulous. The antient Kings draw their descent from one David, who was a very great and potent Prince. About the year 1265. Jerm Neumelach retook the Throne, which, for some time, had been usurp'd from the family of this David. In the year 1507. David succeeded his Father. The Kings of the Abassines generally keep their Court in the Field, in Tents regularly and somely set up, which they remove from one place to another. For Religion, the Abassines pretend to have been instructed in the Law by their Queen Maqueda, or Maqueda; and in the Christian by Queen. Their Traditions say, that Maqueda had a Son by Solomon, whom she call'd David, by others call'd David, who succeeded his Mother.

But these fabulous Reports, are not such'd neither by Josephus, nor any other credible Writer. 'Tis likely that the Eunuch of Queen was their Apostle for Christianity; but in time they were corrupted by Hereticks, especially the Disciples of Eutyches and others. 'Tis said that they Circumcised even their Women, and they gave the Eucharist to Children. But now they are most of 'em Roman-Catholicks, being instructed by Portuguese Missionaries.

A B B

Abasia (Bernard) a Physician, Lawyer, and Mathematician, who flourish'd in France towards the end of the 16th Cent. and wrote several Treatises.

Abaster, one of the three fabulous Horses that drew Pluto's Chariot, signifying Black; the Second Metheus signifies Obscure, the third Nomius, signifies warm. Some speak of four Horses, viz. Orpheus, Alastor, Aethon, and Nycteus, signifying Anxiety, Blindness, Wickedness, and Eternal Destruction, the Effects of Covetousness.

Abaton, a Word signifying inaccessible, was the Name of an Edifice at Rhodes, which no Body was suffer'd to enter, it being built to cover two Brazen Statues, which Artemisia, Queen of Caris in Asia-Minor, had caus'd to be erected in that City, as a Trophy of her possessing her self of Rhodes by a Stratagem: The Rhodians durst not break them, because their Religion made them look upon Trophies as Things sacred.

Abatos, an Island in the Fens of Memphis, in Egypt, famous for the Tomb of Osiris.

Abbeft, a Sea-Port Town of Norway, about 30 Leagues from Amfissa.

Abbeville, a Strong, Beautiful, and Trading City of France in Picardy, the chief of the Co. of Normandy, on the R. Somme, a Bpk under the A. of Rouen. It stands 55 S. of Calais, and 84 al. N. of Paris. It's call'd the Virgin City, because never taken, nor its Charter violated by any; built by St. Pieter the Abbot, and is call'd Abbeville, or Abbeville City.

History of this siege in 10' somewhat uncouth.
ake this Abbon, for Abbo
Fleury.

Name which signifies l which is given to the a Monastery of Canons
Some are call'd, Cardinal
he Abbot of Cluny; some ts, because their Abbies erected into Bishopricks, i, Mitred Abbots, who wear hen they officiate, and are nt on any but the Pope.

Geo.) a very grave pious ed Divine, born at Guil- rey, and bred at Oxford, became Master of Uni- ge, in 1597. In 1599. he Dean of Winchester; in an of Glocester, and soon
p of Litchfield. In 1610.

London, and the same
f Cant. by K. James I. and so, till suspended by
I. either for being una-promoting the Loan, ac-Rushworth; or according lived in the 14th Age, in of Edward III. and Rich whose time the French vaded the County of carried away the Prior our Abbot, tho' no She the Posse Comitatus, with marched to Winchelsea, an

it. There he was soon by the French, who at this the first that planted gre this Island; but the Co
liged 'em to retire speed

Abbotsbury, a Market comb Hundred in the S. & Dorsetshire, near the Char

Abcassi, a People of Geo of Mingrelia, well-pro fair complexion'd, indus stout. They feed up Meats, and what they tak ing. They live in grea nies, on the tops of Hill Huts, surrounded with deep Ditches. They ste one another for Slaves to There's a Wall 60 Mile prevent their Inroads in

A B D

Abdala, Almoades, the first of the Family of the Almoades, who were formerly Masters of the Kingdom of Fez. See Almoades.

Abdala, K. of Fez and Morocco, liv'd in the 16th Cent. and was Son to Mahomet Cheriff, a valiant and wise Prince; but his Son soften'd by pleasures, lost several Battels, his Father yet living. However, having put to Death his nearest Relations, he Reign'd quietly, and divided his Dominions amongst his three Sons, and died in 1574.

Abdala, a K. of Persia, and 27th Caliph of Babylon, tho' disinherited by his Father, yet after the Death of his Brothers succeeded to the Throne, enlarg'd his Dominions, and made himself formidable by Arms. He Defeated the Greeks in several Battels; possess'd himself of part of Candy, and struck a terror into the Kingdom of Naples, and Calabria. He died in the year 833.

Abdala, Son of Aben Mauzi, K. of the African Saracens, being dethron'd by his Brother, regain'd his Right by the assistance of Charlemagne.

Abdala, K. of Toledo, a Mahometan, married Teresia, Daughter of Wermund Prince of Leon, a Christian, who by that Alliance, sav'd his Dominions, tho' much against her Will, so that after his Death she retired into a Nunnery.

Abdala, Son of Lopez, K. of Toledo, being forc'd to follow his Father, whom one Mahomet had turn'd out of his Kingdom, by his Courage and Conduct, he retook Saragossa, where he Reign'd in spite of Mahomet and Alphonfus, III. K. of Castile.

Abdala, K. of Tremesen, finding his younger Brother preferr'd before him, betook himself to the Protection of Charles V. The Imp. order'd the Governor of O. to furnish him with 600 Men to conduct him to Tremesen; who being all kill'd except 25, the Governor march'd out with 9000 Men against Tremesen; and being victorious, plunder'd the City. Abdala, upon his Return, thought to have enter'd the City, but found the Gates shut against him: Whereupon flying, with 60 Horse, to the Arabians for help, they treacherously slew him in 1546.

A B D

Abdala I. Caliph of Arabia being dethron'd by his Subjects, he slew Marvan the Usurper in Battel; but pursuing his Son Abdulmaric, he was routed himself, and forc'd to fly to Damascus; but being denied admittance both there and at Cairo, he embark'd; and being cast, by a Storm, on a certain Island, he was known, and kill'd, Ann. 686.

Abdala II. Caliph of Arabia, being inform'd at Mecca that another Abdala was elected Caliph of Syria, and that Amir was possess'd of all Syria, he wheedled the first to a Parley, and made away with him. The other he own'd for Caliph; but at next Meeting, as they went aside to talk, he stabb'd him, and afterwards routed the Persians, and seiz'd their Country. After this, he ravag'd Romania, and Cappadocia; and coming to Jerusalem, he order'd that all Jews and Christians should be mark'd in the hand, or else laid in Irons. He died in 781.

Abdala Muley, Cheriff, or Xeriff, of Morocco, and a valiant Prince, took Cape D'Aguer in Africa from the Portuguese in the 16th Century.

Abdala, a Mahometan Prince, famous for his Enterprizes during the Wars of the Cheriffs in Africa. He made a League with Philip III. K. of Spain, in 1607. and was murder'd two years after.

Attendants.

urnam'd Mohammedin, a Barlary, kept a School class. He was the Au-sect of the Mohammedins, and was so much esteem'd for his hat having got toge-Number of People, insolence to attack A- borish Emp. who negpress the Rebellion, Crown and Life, by General of the Imes.

Abdelasis, a Valiant being ill rewarded for he had done the Turks de cruel War upon at last kill'd fighting.
n-Abo, a proud unince, who was elected by the Moors in Spain,

it, an Arabian. Nab- ther, was the hand-of his time.

, Vid. Adoleminas.

ian Bishop (in the

ngui or the Almoravi kill'd Abdady, the Lawful for. Afterwards he exercis Cruelties against the Chris- Spain. He made Morocco t of his Empire about the ye.

Abdelquivir, Eldest Son
cen Cheriff, who was a Philosopher and Magician.
Esteem. He bred his Sor own Principles at Meccha, a by Enthusiastical Pretence the unthinking Rabble af
They obtain'd the Govern Morocco, Susa, Tremesen, &c. pretence of defending them
the Christians; but Taini. sus assisted by the Portugu whom he was Tributary) p to flight; and in another Abdelquivir lost his Life.

Abdelarise, Grand Cham
Tartars, the last of the Fa- Chinguis (who boasted of th scnt from Tamerlan) died in Abdcrallas, a Christian,

with Simon Bishop of Selen Martyr'd by Sapor K. of Per

A B D

died, Abdemelek in a Litter, set in a Morass, and the K. of ugal was either kill'd, or taken made a Slave.

Abdemonaph, or Abdemonaphes, a wealthy Ishmaelite Merchant. bought Mahomet for his Slave, & he broach'd his Impostures, afterwards married his Wife. See Mahomet.

Abdemon, a Young Tyrian, was us for interpreting Solomon's Questions.

Abdera, a Sea-Port T. of Thrace, built by the Clazomenians, and enlarg'd and embellish'd by the us, that it was call'd Abdera the. It afterwards had the Name Asprizza, and now that of Aspe.

It was a Bishoprick under the of Philippopolis.

Abderama, the 1st King of the Ams in Spain, who made Corduba Seat. He ravag'd Castile, conquer'd Aragon, Navarr, and Portugal. Insomuch that he was accounted the Second Destroyer of Spain, several of their Kings being forc'd buy a shameful Peace with the by Tribute of 100 Virgins. He died in 790 in the 53d year of his age.

Abderama II. King of Corduba, made a League at first with Ramirus of Castile, which he broke at the occasion of a prodigious Number of Moors who pass'd over into Spain, and re-demanded the Tribute of 100 Virgins. Upon which Ramirus took the Field, and routed Abderama; who from that time mov'd the Christians no more. He was the first that set his Name upon the Arabick Coin. He died in 859, leaving 42 Children and him.

Abderama III. was prefer'd to the Kingdom of Corduba before his Elder Brother. He lost much in Spain by the Courage of Don Garcias; and ascribing his Losses to the inter-marriage of Christians and Moors, he commanded all the Christians that were married to Moors, to turn Mahometans; but rather than obey him, many suffer'd Martyrdom. He died in 958, or 961.

A B D

Abderama IV. Son of Almansor, the last of the Race, who Reign'd at Corduba, Succeeded Abdumalich his Elder Brother. He was so Effeminate, that the Moors revolted from him, and divided themselves into two Factions; those of Africa being headed by Solyman; and those of Spain by Mahomet, who poison'd Abderama, and made himself King in 1062.

Abderama, a Moorish Prince, Son of K. Alimatan, surpriz'd Toledo, and put above 6000 of the Inhabitants to the Sword in 809.

Abderama, usurp'd the Sovereignty of Sofia, in the Kingdom of Morocco, having murder'd his Nephew the Governor. He was at length murder'd himself in a Mosque.

Abderama, Viceroy of Spain, was so great a Captain, that Americus Memanin, or Isam, or Miramomolim, Emp. of the African Saracens, hop'd by his Assistance to conquer France and Italy. He began with Languedoc and Provence, and sent part of his Army, (which consisted of 400 000 Men) into Aquitaine, where they were defeated by Duke Eudo. To be reveng'd for this disgrace, he left the Siege of Arles, and sent his whole Force towards Aquitaine, making himself Master of Languedoc, Quercy, Auvergne, &c. After which, Charles Martel, General of France, gave him Battel in a Plain near Tours, where Abderama was slain with 375000, or, as the Moderns say, only 75000 of his Men, Charles losing only 1300. An. 732. Ab-

1000000's Son, and sent to the Persian Court, where dly treated; but being a some Man, Reims, His Queen fell in love with erefore the King resolend him into his own and give him his Daugh-riage; hoping thereby to lasting Amity with the Tartar. But the Persian using to consent to the the King being positive flew Abdilchair in the ce.

s, a K. of the Saracens, ously oppos'd Charles the d passing the R. Garonne, and sack'd Bordeaux.
 r Abdiesu, of the Family id of the City of Gesre was made Patriarch of f Mosul, or Muzal in As- was well skill'd in the ick, and Syriack. In me to Rome; where haomage to Pius IV. the Trent sitting then. Car- stula, Protector of the urches, sent Abdiesu's 1000000 and Interruption

, and gave 1 Patients.

Aldon, Son of Hilli, wa
 Judge of Israe', and 60 years. He had 40 Son Nephews.

Adon, and Senn, two Princes that turn'd Chris-were put in Prison by the rians, for burying certain After this, Decius carried Rome, in 254, and put Death for refusing to sa-his Idols.

Abdula, a Cham of Tar- towards the end of the 1 ravag'd the Frontiers of P- Heri and 32 Cities more, upon the approach of Sophi of Persia. Afterwar turn'd with 200000 Men, Turbeth.

Abdulach, a King of F-
 Family of the Merim's, w the Year 1210. very much his Kingdom.

Ai'ulach, The last of th
 ly of the Merim's, was so Coward, that he durst no
 the Christians, when th
Genta, for which he was 1

A B D

pugnant to the Law of Mahomet, they murder'd both him and Wife.

Abdalmalik, having possess'd himself of what the Aravians held in Spain, he pass'd into Africk, took several other places, put all to the Sword. Then, finding that Abd-el-aziz was made K. of Spain, he hasten'd back into Spain, and slew him. Lastly, he took Granada from the Christians.

Abdalmalik, Caliph of the Arabs
in Spain, at first war'd successfully against Habul-Agek, his Rival at Cordova, but was at last by him taken and beheaded.

Abdalmalik, Son of the K. of Granada, went into Spain to assist the King of Granada, against the Christian Princes of Castile and Leon;
having perform'd great Exploits there, he was recall'd to aid his Father in the War of Tremesen, which Kingdom he won, with that Title, and became a great Prince;

having pass'd once more into Spain, he was surpriz'd by the Christians, and kill'd in 1339.

Abdalmalik, Brother to Mulek of Tunis, expell'd his Brother out of the Kingdom of Tunis, and burnt his Eyes with a red-hot Bason, to revenge the like Barbarity he committed on his own Father.
He reign'd about 36 days.

Abdalmalik, Son of Murvan, 7th successor to Mahomet, first extirpated all the Remains of the Family of Abdala. He defeated Abdala, Chief of the Saracens, who had set himself for Caliph of Mesopotamia, and thus means he became Master of Syria, Mesopotamia, Persia, and Armenia. In 699, he won Carthage, Sardinia, and the greatest part of Sicily. In 700, he re-con-quer'd Armenia. He died in 708.

Abdalmumen, General of Abdala

A B E

Mohamedin's Forces, having defeated Abraham Emp. of the Moors in Africk, was, after the Death of Al-dala, chosen High-Priest and Emperor of the Saracens in Africk. He besieg'd and took Morocco; and having found Isaac, the unfortunate Abraham's Son in it, he strangled him with his own hands, and destroy'd all those of the Family of the Almoravides, that he could find out. Notwithstanding his Success, the Governors refus'd to submit to the Almohades; and set up distinct Kings at Algier, Tremesen, Tenez, Tunis, &c. But Abdul-mumen having conquer'd Fez, and Morocco, possess'd himself of all Mauritania Tingitana, and became Master of Tunis and Tremesen, stretching his Empire as far as Tripoli. He rais'd a great Army for an Expedition into Spain, but died in 1156, before the Execution of his design.

Abduluter, the Names of the Kings of Tremesen, of the Family of the Magazas's, and Zinhagians, who expell'd the Abderama's out of A-frick in 986.

Abdus, a Parthian Eunuch; who having conspir'd against Artaban, to set up Phrahates, was by Artanban poison'd at a Banquet.

Alex, or Alexa, anciently a City of Phocis, built by Abas, Son of Lyneus: Also a City of Peloponnus, now call'd Chiores, or Catamata, on the Gulph of Coron.

Abdeli, A Spanish Moor, who during the Absence of K. Abdul-me-lik, having usurp'd the Throne of Cordova, occasion'd the War of the Great Men of Spain, but was afterwards kill'd by Abdul-melik.

Abednego, one of the 3 Children thrown into the fiery Furnace, for refusing to Worship Nebuchadne-zar's Image, and deliver'd by an Angel.

ABE

Abel, second Son of Adam and Eve, murder'd by his brother Cain, Ann. Mundi 130.

Abel, K. of Denmark, Son to Valdemar II and Brother to Eric VI. his Father's Successor. Abel thinking he ought to have a share, kill'd Eric, and seiz'd his Throne in 1250. He was slain himself 2 years after in the Priestland War.

Abela, Abel Bashmaacha, Abelmaacha, Bashmaacha, a strong City in the Tribe of Naphtali, besieg'd by Joab for Solon, a Rebel to K. David, and deliver'd by a wise Woman that dwelt in it.

Abelara, Vid. Abailard.

Abelians, or Abelites, or Abelians, African Hereticks in the B of Hippo, who liv'd continent with their Wives, adopting Sons and Daughters, deeming Children by their Wives illegitimate taken, he rallied again, drove the Portuguese, and set her berry.

ABE

Aben-el-Hack, an Arabian K. of Cordova by his Comp who hang'd Alcatraz the King: and having defeat Sons of his Predecessors, th from Narbonne, He died of P or of Poison.

Aben-Ezza, a famous Rabbi, of the 12th Age, of the Wife, who wrote very Comments on the Scripture wrote also upon Grammar, metick, Astronomy, and otherjects. He died at Rhodes An or 1217.

Aben-Humeys, first call'd and Abul-Fazl, renounc'd his I upon his being made King of India, and Abul-Fazl by the Mugh, and was Courageous,

A B E

end to their Dominion in

-Mahomet, a famous Arabian, iz'd the Kingdom of Cordoba, ledo, and vigorously oppos'd hat disputed it with him, and supported by the Almohades.

-Meloch, a Learned Rabbi, a Grammatical Explanation whole Bible.

-Neden, an Arabian, who the Lives of the Philoso- of his own Country.

-Sparg, or Ahenberg, a little of Germany, in the Cir. and Bavaria, on the R. Ahenfe. Birth and Surname to Jo- Aveninus, a Learned Hi-

-Tamem, a brave Prince of ce of Abdala VI. Caliph of ew, fled into Mauritania Tin-, whereof he was made King, arr'd successfully against the u, and Goths.

-Tesphin, a Numidian, who : 12th Cent. drove the Sara- at of Africa. The Spanish Sa- having sued to him for aid st the Christians, he not only the Christians out of Castile, so slew some of the Saracen es, and made the rest Tribu- o his Sons, whom he left mors of Spain.

-Tyben, a famous Rabbi, e 14th Age, who wrote di- Treatises.

-verge, a Rabbi, who wrote nomical Tables: It is not m what Age he liv'd in.

-Xauinar, a Spanish Moor, a good Family, and for- y call'd Ferdinand, who turn'd metan, and was the most for- l in advising the Mungrel to revolt. The Rebels would made him K. of Gracida, but hose rather to have this Honour conferr'd on his Cousin Ferdin- and de Valor, who was call'd Aben- Humeys.

A B E

Ateena, was the Goddess of Tra- vellers.

Aberconway, Lat. Conovium, a Market-Town in the N. E. Parts of Carnarvonshire in Wales, at the Mouth of the R. Conway, on the Irish Sea, a strong place both by Nature and Art.

Aberdeen, Lat. Aberdonia, or Abri- denia, or Devana, a trading City of the County of Marr, in Scotland, 85 Miles N. E. of Edinburgh, and 60 of St. Andrews. Long. 17. 15. Lat. 57. 20. It stands on the Mouth of the R. Don; and there is another T. of the same Name at 2 Miles distance, on the Mouth of the R. Dec, so that they are distinguish'd by the Names of Old and New Aber- deen. The Latter is famous for Salmon Fishing, and the other for an University founded in 1494. By K. James IV. and William Elphing- ston Bishop of the Place, and endow- ed with ample Immunities by Pope Alexander VI. This University con- sists of Two Colleges, viz. King's- College. and Mareschal-College. There have been Earls of Aberdeen; and it was also a B. till Episcopacy was abolish'd in Scotland.

Aberfraw, Lat. Gadiva, a T. in the Isle of Angelsey, the Royal Seat of Eleven Kings of N-Wales. Amara the First began his Reign there in 877, and Llewelin the last of all the British Kings was kill'd in Battel in 1282.

Bergavenny, Lat. Gobanium, a trading Market-T. of Bergavenny, Hundred, in the N. W. of Mon- mouthshire in Wales, has its Name from Gavenny, a small R. which runs on the E-side of it into the Usk. It belong'd to the Silures when the Romans conquer'd them.

Its

A B G

It's still large, neat, wall'd, and fortified with an Ancient Castle
It gives the Title to the first Baron of England, who is now the Right Honourable George Nevill.

Abingdon, a Market-T. of Lan-deshire, hundred in the N. W. of Cambridge in Wales, so call'd from its standing in the R. Istwith, within a Mile of its Fall into the English Sea

Abneth, a T. on the R. Tay, in Aberdeenshire in Scotland, anciently
the Seat of the Kings of the Picts;
and a B. until remov'd thence to St. Andrew, by Pope Sixtus IV. in 1471

Abneth, A Sea-Port of Norway in the Bay of Abneth, is 60 Miles
W. of Abneth

Abneth, a Town of Abneth, is 60 Miles
W. of Abneth

A B I

Abibuz, a Prince of Prizal who wrote a Romantick Account of Charlemaigne's Expedition Palestine, and the Indies

Abishek, a Jewish High-Priest who alone escap'd the Slaughter the Priests at Neb. He was true David, but plotted against Solo who both depos'd and condemn'd him.

Abibatus, K. of Tyre, was Father to Hiram, Solomon's Friend.

Abigail, Wife of Nabal the melite, afterwards contracted David. There was also another Abigail, Daughter of Nahash.

Abihu, one of the Sons of Aaron, who was destroy'd by Fire from Heaven. V. Aaron

Abishek, or Abishek, K. of Abneth defeated Abneth and took his Kingdom

A B I

help, to rid themselves of their cruel King, whom Abimelech defeated, raised Sherbem, and pursued him to Thebez, where a Woman beat him down with a piece of a Millstone; upon which he ordered his Armour-Bearer to run him through.

Abinadab, second Son of Jesse, and Brother of David: Also the Father of one of Solomon's Purveyors, who had Married one of Solomon's Daughters.

Abington, Lat. Abingdonia, a Corporation in Berkshire, seated on the R. Thames, 5 Miles S. of Oxford. The Right Honourable James Bertue was Created Earl of this Place in 1682.

Abiolica, now Le Bullet, a T. in Switzerland, 6 M. from Ambrun.

Abiosi, (John) a Professor of Physick and Mathematicks at Naples, about the year 1494. has left several good Treatises behind him.

Abiram, the Eldest Son of Hiel, the Bethelite, who rebuilt Jericho in the Reign of Ahab.

Abiram, Son of Eliab, was swallow'd up by the Earth, with Korah and Dathan, for Conspiring against Moses and Aaron.

Abisares, an Indian K. whom Alexander treated kindly, because he had submitted his Kingdom to him.

Abisca, a Prov. in the S. of America, in the Kingdom of Pern.

Abishag, a beautiful Virgin, who cherish'd David in his old Age.

Abishai, Son of Zeruiah, Brother of Joab, one of David's Worthies, who rescued that Prince out of the Hands of a Giant, whom he slew.

Abissina, or the Upper Athiopia, see Abassinia. The Emp. makes use of Slaves of several Nations for his Pages, who are afterwards prefer'd to Places of Trust, being thought to be more true to the Crown than the Nobility of the Country. The Emperor's Force consists usually of about 35000 Foot, and 5000 Horse, whose principal Arms are Zagayes, or Demi-Lances. Among these Troops they entertain 1000 Musqueteers. The Emp. and Empress go into the Field with the whole Court. Both in time of Peace and War, the Emperor's Camp, is, as it were, the Capital of the Empire; for there are no great Towns in Abissinia for him to reside in. But there are so great number of Villages in several Provinces, that the whole Country looks almost like a Town. Their Houses or Cabbins are but one Story high. Formerly the Emp. never appear'd publick, but now he is pleas'd to become visible, especially to his Soldiers. The Abissines profess the Religion of the Copti, or Christians of Egypt, and have but one Bishop, who is sent 'em by the Patriarch of the Copti, residing at Grand Cairo.

A B N

Ablaudus, wrote a History of the Goths, which is cited by Jornandes.

Ablavius, Consul of Rome, in 331. was afterwards put to Death by Constantine.

Ablavius, or Ablabius, a good Rhetorician, and Disciple of Troilus the Sophist, was Bishop of the Novatians at Nice, where he also Taught Rhetorick, in the Reign of Ikeodosius the Younger.

Ablon, a small Village, with a Castle, on the Seine, 5 Leagues above Paris, where the Protestants assembled before they had a Church at Charenton.

Abnaguiois, Abnaguoi, a People in New-England.

Abn-arraheb, one of the Copti of Egypt, who wrote a Book, called Chronicum Orientale, translated into Latin by Abraham Ecchelenfis.

Abner, Saul's Father-in-Law, and General of his Armies, after that Prince's Death, endeavour'd to Set up Ishbosheth, but was prevented by Joab.

Abo, or Aboa, a great City of Sweden, a B. under the A. of Uppl, C in

A B R

in Scotland, and the chief of that Duty. Queen Christina founded an University etc in 1640. and most of the It. was burnt in 1678.

Ab Hamz, a City of Arabia Felix, located in a Mountain, that there is but one narrow way to it. Here the Sultan keeps his Treasure.

Abodrites, an ancient People in Germany, whose Country is now call'd the Duchy of Mecklenburgh, near the Baltic.

Abolimus, chief of the Bacotians, who was defeated by the Asolians at Charonet, in the time of Aratus, General of the Acheans.

Aborigines, the old Inhabitants of Italy, are so call'd by Aurelius Victor, as who should say Aberrigenes, i. e. Vagabonds, or People whose Original was not known. Berosus and others pretend they were sent into Italy by Chimæ; Cicero says, they were a People that J. frax drove out of Canan; Lucy, Dionysius Halicarnassensis, and others, make them

A B R

Side with Cyrus, he was kill'd in the first Battle, whereupon she stabb'd her self.

Abraham, first called Abram, one of the Patriarchs, Son of Terah, was Born in Ur of the Chaldees, 425 Y. before Moses, and died in the 165th year of his Age.

Abraham, Emp. of the Moors in Africk, succeeded his Father Ali in the 12th Cent. but neglecting at first the Rebellion of Abdala the Schoolmaster, he was at last defeated by Abdul-Mumen, and being denied admittance at Agmes, one of his own Towns, he threw himself with his Wife, headlong from a Precipice.

Abraham, a Bishop, who liv'd only upon Raw Herbs, yet entertain'd others Hospitably with good Victuals and Wine.

Abraham, Archbishop of Bassora in Arabia Deserta, wrote several Epistles in Syriac, and Notes on the Works of Theodorus Mops. Steuus.

Abraham, famous Rabb, of the

A B R

fight of both Armies ; where Breux, the French Captain, was killed, with 16 of his Men : Abrahami also fell with his Brother, and two more of his Party.

Abram, (Nicholas) a Famous Jesuit, born in the Diocess of Toul in Lorraine, in 1589. was made Professor of Divinity at the University of Pont-a-Mousson, where he died in 1655. and left several Works behind him.

Abravanel, (Isaac) a Spanish Jew, (expelled with the rest from Spain in 1492.) writ large Comments on the Scripture, wherein he Boasts his Descent from David.

Abrener, a T. in Armenia.

Abrentius, being left Governor of Tarentum in Italy by Hannibal, fell so desperately in Love with a fair Lady, that at her Persuasion he surrendered the City to Fabius Maximus, because her Brother serv'd under him.

Abreos, or Baxos de Bauccha, are dangerous Rocks on the N. of America, near Hispagiola, called by the Spaniards, Abreos, i. e. Open thy Eyes, to bid Seamen stand clear of 'em.

Abvil, a Spanish Grammarian of the 16th Age, who translated divers Pieces of Antiquity, and wrote some Originals.

Abvina, or Abvina, see Avantia.

Avriva, a River, commonly called Av, running between Andernach and Bonne, and falling into the Rhine.

Abro, or Abron, an Athenian, who wrote an Account of the Ancient Festivals and Sacrifices. There were Four more of that Name, viz. A Probian, a famous Grammarian ; A Sanian, a skillful Painter ; A Son of Lyargus, K. of Sparta, a Rhetorician ; and one of Argos, who sav'd 1000 young Corinthians, whom Philo Captain of the Argives, would have slain.

Abromicus, a Noble Athenian, who served under Themistocles in the Persian War.

A B S

Abromus, Son of Darius, who followed Xerxes into Greece, and was kill'd at the Streights of Thermopylae.

Abuckbanaya, Lat. Auraxianum, a T. in Transylvania.

Abruzzi, Abruzzi, or Abruzzo, Lat. Apulium, a Country of the Kingdom of Naples, in the Gulph of Venice ; It was the Seat of the ancient and valiant Sammites and Piceni, and is now the greatest, richest, most fertile, and most populous of any part of the Kingdom of Naples.

Abisalom, Son of David, a beautiful, but bold and aspiring Pr. who Rebelling and Usurping the Government, was at length slain by Ishb, David's General.

Abisalom, a learned and pious Bishop of Roskilde in Denmark, in the 12th Cent. was first a Canon Regular of the Augustin Friars in the Abby of St. Genevieve in Paris, when Ulademar I. K. of Denmark made Bishop, Chief Minister of State, and his Ambassador into France.

Abisalom, the 19th K. of Athen, who succeeded Hippomenes.

Abisalom, (William) Born at Beet, was a worthy Person, who turn'd Carthian, wrote divers pious Treatises, and died in 1471.

Abismarus, or Abismarus, Tiberius, made Emp. of the East by the Soldiers instead of Leontius, subdued the Sarmatians, and was an Enemy to Pope John VI. He was put to Death at Constantinople by Justinian II. assisted by Trebellius K. of Bulgaria.

Abisus, now Agro, an Isle near the Shore of Libania, with an Episcopal City of the same Name, and to Crophi by a Bridge ; Now under the Venetians. Its also the Name of a T. built by the Colchians, who came with Affyrus in Search of his Sister Medea.

Abstemius, (Lawrence) born in Macerata in Italy, taught a School in the Anomæans, (a sort of more refined Arians) of which being Condemn'd, the Semi-Arians depos'd him; and in return he condemn'd them in the Council of Constantinople in 360.

ACA

Acasius, of Alexandria, a Captain under Arian, was hang'd for being a Christian. Another Acacius was also Martyr'd under Decius the Emp.

Acatis, Lat. Sargarius, a R. of India &c.

Academy, a Grove without the Wall of Athens, where Plato first taught his Academy, and hence his Academy and Academick. Some call it Academy from Academos, an Athenian, and others from Cadmus, a Phoenician, and the Restorer of Polite Learning. There were three sorts of Academy, the Ancient, the Middle, and the New. Plato was the Author of the Ancient, Aristotle the Middle, and the New of Plato. The New Academy was a Platonic Academy of Plato.

ACA

Academy Royal of Sciences, consisting of Physicians and Mathematicians, settled by Mr. Colbert in 1666. Likewise an Academy Royal of Architecture, settled by the same Mr. Colbert in 1671.

Acadens, a Fountain or Lake in Sicily, sacred to the Pallad, and famous for detecting the Truth of an Oath, by Writing the Oath upon Boards, and throwing these into the Bason. If the Boards sunk, the Person was Forsworn; if they swam, the Oath was accounted true.

Acasran, Chinasul, a R. of Mauritania.

Acalls, or Acacalis, said to be Daughter to Minos, and one of Mercury's Wives, by whom he got Cydon, the reputed Founder of Cydonia, now Canea, in Candia.

Adamant, one of the ten Tribes of the Athenians, so called from Academy, Sent Hippocritus.

Acamajitli I. Acamajitli Mexico, im-

A C C

Ecolia by the R. Acbelous, and or Swift strong Horses, and for tury and Lechery of its Inha-

There was also a T. in Si-the same Name.

as, and Amphoterus, sons of and Alphesibaea, kill'd by other's Brothers, in Revenge Father's Death, whom these had Murther'd. Some say, as built a T. called Acar- Epirus.

us, Son to Pelius, K. of Ibes-
He Married Hippolita, who in Love with Peleus, her Son-and he denying her, she acm to her Husband of a Rape, neupon flew 'em both.

horus, a great Bay in the A-ica towards Egypt.

bistos, a Hymn which the Cler-Constantinople sung standing in ght, to the Blessed Virgin.

ci, a City of Japan, 25 Leag.
Masio, the Capital of that on.

ulta, the Port of St. Salva- Gustimale, on the South Sea.
2. 13 Deg.

h, (Laurentia) Wife of Faustu- Nunitor's Shepherd, nurs'd s and Remus. She was also Lups, from her whorish, rapa-temper.

, or Accas, a famous English
cated by the Care of Boja, A. h, and Friend of venerable to whom he writ a Letter cong the Explanation of the Evan-
He died about the Y. 740.

dia, a Prov. of New-France in erica. The English possess'd and called it, New-Scotland;
y gave it up to the French by ace of Breda in 1567. The Place in it is Port-Royal.

ra, the Great and Less, two in Guinea, between the R. de and Fort St. George de Mina- vise, (Francis) a famous It-wyer born at Ancona, who was

A C C

Professor of the Civil Law first at Si- enza, and then at Pisa. He died in 1622.

Accarisi, (James) of Bologna in Italy, was a Philosopher, a Doctor in Divinity, Taught Rhetorick, and liv'd about the Y. 1627.

Accaron, Ekron, formerly a famous
C. of the Philistines, now a poor Village called by the same Name.

Acceptus, Liv'd towards the end of the 4th Cent. and was chosen Bp. of Friuli, notwithstanding his declining that Dignity by accusing himself falsely of several Crimes.

Accbo, a T. of Palestine, never subdued by the Israelites.

Acci, or Acci Guadix, once an Episcopal C. of Spain, in the Kingdom of Granada, taken from the Moors in 1489. V. Guadix.

Accia, a C. and Bishoprick of the Island of Corfica, now ruin'd, and the Bishoprick united with that of Ma- riana.

Accia, or Adia, daughter to M. Adi- us Balbus, 2d Wife to C. Octavius, and Mother of the Emp. Augustus; died
Ann. 711. at Rome.

Acciaioli, a noble and ancient Family of Florence. once Sovereigns of Corinth, Thebes, and Athens.

Acciaioli, (Donatus) of the same Family, was famous for his Learning, and his Translations of some of Pla- tarch's Lives, and his Epitome of Charlemagne's Life.

Acciaioli, (Reiner) Duke of Athens, expelled the Arragonians from thence.
Having no Legitimate Sons, he left Athens to the Venetians, and Beotia and Thebes to his Natural Son Anto- nio, who possess'd himself likewise of Athens.

Acciaioli, (Zenobius) a Florentine, and a Learned Monk of the Order of St. Dominique, was Keeper of the Vatican Library from the Y. 1518. to the Y. 1520. when he died. He left some Latin Translations of the Fathers behind him. There are also extant

A C H

Achates, a Trojan, who assist the English
 was kill'd by the English, and died Ann. 809.
Achates, a Trojan, who assist the English.

Achates, a Trojan, who assist the English.
Achates, a Trojan, who assist the English.

Achates, a Trojan, who assist the English.

Achates, a Trojan, who assist the English.
 killed by the English, and died Ann. 809.

Achates, a Trojan, who assist the English.
 killed by the English, and died Ann. 809.

Achates, a Trojan, who assist the English.

Achates, a Trojan, who assist the English.
 killed by the English, and died Ann. 809.

Achates, a Trojan, who assist the English.
 killed by the English, and died Ann. 809.

A C H

his. fought with Hercules for Deidamia, but being over-match'd, he turn'd himself into a Serpent, and then into a Bull, one of whose Horns Hercules having cut off, he fled to the R. Idas, afterwards called Achelous by his Name.

Achelous, (now Pa. bichlione) a R. rising out of Mount Pinus. There is another R. of that Name in the Morea.

Achem, a C. of Sumatra in India, standing by the Sea-side, about 5 Deg. from the A. equator, with the King's Palace in the midst of it. In 1616, the K. put to Sea, and expell'd the Portuguese from the Fort in Pacem. Achem was since taken by the Portuguese.

Achemenes, or Achamenes, was Father to Cambyses, and Grandfather to Cyrus, first K. of Persia, according to Herodotus; but the same Author seems to intimate, that there was

A C H

ly, that he let 'em go. Hence came the Proverb, Ne in Melampygum incidas.

Asberry, a T. in Ireland, of the Co. of Slego, in the Prov. of Conaught, 16 Miles S. of Slego, very much decay'd since its Bishoprick was united to Elphin in Roscommon.

Asbequi, K. of Japan, slew Nobie-naga, the lawful King, because he would be ador'd like a God.

Acherius, (Luke) a pious and learned Person of the Order of St. Bennet, publish'd the Works of Lawfrank Abp. of Canterbury in 1647. and 12 Vol. in 4to. of curious Pieces, collected from many Libraries: The Title of 'em is Spicilegium. He died in Paris, Ann. 1635.

Acheron, a R. of Epirus, running into the Bay of Ambracia. The Poets feign'd it to be the Son of Ceres, whom she had in Hell, for fear of the Titans, that threatened the Ruin of her Family, and chang'd into a R. over which Souls departed were Ferried. The Ancients plac'd Hell in Epirus, because the Mines there destroyed abundance of Slaves.

Acherrez, K. of Egypt, call'd Pharaoh in Scripture, the same that so often refus'd to let the Israelites go, and was drown'd in the Red Sea.

Acherusia, now Lago de la Colancia, a Lake in Campania. Also a Lake in Epirus, whence Acheron flows. Also a Cavern in Bithynia near Heraclea, through which Hercules drew Cerberus out of Hell, at the Mouth of the Lake of the same Name, where Charon kept his Ferry.

Acheus, a Tragick Greek Poet of Eretria, Son to Pistodorus.

Acheus, another Greek Tragedian of Syracuse. Achaia had its Name from one Acheus, Son to Xuthus and Creaus.

Achizab, Grandson to K. Herod the Great, who hindred this Prince from stabbing himself.

Achill Islands, are in the W. of Ireland and belong to the Co. of Mayo, in the Prov. of Conaught.

A C H

Achillaum, now Capo di Croce, a Cape of Asiatick Sarmatia, in the Cimmerian Bosphorus, at the Mouth of the Palus Maotis. Also a T. of Troas near Achilles's Tomb.

Achillas, a Captain under the last of the Ptolemies, Kings of Egypt, at whose instigation he Murder'd Pompey.

Achillea, a Fountain nigh Miletum, whose Waters are brackish in the Spring, and sweet in the Stream: It has its Name from Achilles, who Bath'd himself in it.

Achillea, Achilles his Race, a Peninsula near the Mouth of Borisphenus, where Achilles used to Exercise himself and his Men by Running.

Achilleius, a Roman Captain, who having rebell'd in Egypt against the Emperor Dioclesian, was afterwards taken, and expos'd to the Lions.

Achilles. There have been several Persons of this Name. The first was Born of the Earth, and persuaded Juno to Marry Jupiter; wherefore Jupiter promis'd him, that all who should bear his Name should be famous. The Centaur Chiron's Tutor was called Achilles, and that's the Reason Chiron gave the Name of Achilles to Thetis's Son, his Disciple. He that invented the Gymnastic in Athens, was called Achilles. There was also a Son of Jupiter and Lamia of that Name, to whom the God Pan, gave the Prize of Beauty. There have been 55 other celebrated Achilles's, (Vide Baile's Dict.) the most remarkable of which is,

Achilles, a Grecian Hero, Son of Peleus and Thetis. His Mother had him Taught by the Centaur Chiron, who fed him with Lion's Marrow to make him Valiant; and being foretold that he should be kill'd at the Siege of Troy, she hid him in Women's Apparel, among the Daughters of Lycomedes, K. of Ogyros, where he deflower'd Deianira; but being discovered by Ulysses, he was thereupon forced to go. Disgusted at Claudius) of Bologna, famous in Philosophy, Poetry, Oratory, Mathematics. He died in 1640.

captain of the Ammonites, fought with Holofernes for the sake of the Israelites, Holofernes was dead, and defeated, he was himself son of Gath, to whose house he retired when he fled

deft Son of Bajazet II. the Turks, strangled by his brother who did the same by him to make way to the Crown. Son of Seirim, an Author of the Interpretation of the Prophecies relating to the Doctrines of the Persians, and Egyptians. Son of the Turks, succeeded Mahomet III. at 15. The Sophy of Persia, at the age of his Youth, took the name of Ertzerum. He was in Silvania, Valachia, and by the means of Bostany, who was at the Emp. of Germany, attack'd on every side.

in 1664; and renewed Peace with the Emp. in 1664. In 1666. he died of a Dropsy, and died in 1667.

Acho, K. of Norway, took away the brides from the Scots; and in that Kingdom with a Fleet of Ships, seiz'd the Castle of Alesund, was routed by Alexander III.

Achilius, Abp. of Thessalonica, the 4th Age, shut himself up in a Monastery when very young, he came so famous for his Learning and Piety, that he was soon removed to the See of Constantinople.

Achilius, an Historian, was Master of the Ceremonies to the Emperor Galienus. He writ the Life of Emperor Severus, and several other Histories.

Achomet, Son to Cherses, Petty K. of Illyria. His Father having seen the Lady he was just to marry, fell so desperately in love with her, that he married her the same day; which so enraged the young Prince, that he turn'd out his Father, changing the Name of Stephen that of Achomet; and got so into the Favour of Bajazet II. that he gave him his Daughter. He was still faithful to the Christians, and persuaded the Sultan to make Peace with them.

A C I

the Metropolis of Macedonia, as it stands, and of Bulgaria. the Turks called Giustandi, and strong C. 118 Miles E. of ium.

, Lat. Acbyrum, a C. of Polonia the R. Werslow, in the Polbinia, towards the Borders ny, with a strong Castle, as Polonian Miles N. of the nes.

onda, a Sea-Port-T. of the E. beyond Ganges, near the Bay cala, in the Kingdom of Pegu. lalia, Venus, so called from a in in Bazotia.

alins, (Vaiens) Rector of the of Strijje in Silesia, had been the best Criticks of these latter and he liv'd to bring to Per- the Trients he receiv'd from . He died in 1595.

mo, a small C. in the Co. of uo, a Bp. under the Abp. of , from whence it is distant 25 to the S. E.

izo, or Acilius, a R. in Sicily, larfalla, Leander Albertus lays e same with the Acitibus of iv.

ius, head of the illustrious of the Acilii in Rome.

ius, (Halbus) Consul with Cato, 635. ab U. C. in whose ship it rain'd Blood and Milk. las, (Caius) Butas, once Præ- rew so Poor, that he was forc'd the Assistance of Iberius, who him with this cold Answer, ew ak'd a little too late, alluding former Custom of turning Day ight.

ias, (Caius) Glabrio, Tribune of ople, ab. U. C. 533. Decemvir trator 558. and Consul 562. ame Antiochus at Thermopylae, ich he Triumph'd.

lius, (Caius) a Valiant Soldier lius Caesar's Army, who signa- imfel in a Sea-fight near Mur-

A C M

Acilius Glabrio, (Marcus) M. F. Duumvir, built a Temple in the Herb-Market, to make good his Fa- thers Vow, when he routed K. An- tiochus at Thermopylae, and therein placed a gilded Statue to his Father, the first that ever was in Italy, U. C. 573.

Acilius Glabrio, (Marcus) made a severe Law against Bribery.

Acilius Glabrio, (Marcus) Consul, U. C. 843. under Domitian, who kill'd his Son, on pretence that he fought with wild Beasts, but really because he dreaded his Strength, ha- ving killed a Lion in Africa.

Acindynus, (Gregory) a Greek Monk of the XIVth Cen. in Conjunction with Barlaam, undertook to confound the Hesychastes, a sort of Quierists of those times, but they prov'd too strong and powerful for them.

Acis, a beautiful Sicilian Swain, of whom Polyphemus was so Jealous, on Galatea's Account, that he dash'd his Brains out against a Rock. After- wards Galatea chang'd him into a R. of his own Name, now called Freddo.

Acitani, an ancient People of Spain, who ador'd Mars.

Ackersundt, a small Island on the S. of Norway toward Frederickstadt.

Adamar, Lat. Mantiana, a Great Lake in Turcomania, called Geluchelus by some, and Vastan, or Abamas by others.

Acle, Aclea, or Aclech, a Place in the Diocels of Durham, where the Bishops met in Council in 788. and there regulated Church-Discipline.

Acme, a Jewish Maid, Servant to Julius Caesar's Wife. Bribed by Antipater, Herod's Son, she accus'd Salome Herod's Sister of a Plot; but the Falsity being found out, Acme was ad- judg'd to Die by Caesar.

Acmales, Acmodæ, or Æmode, Islands in the N. of Scotland, menti- oned by Pliny, and taken for the Hebrides, but are no other than the Iles of Schetland in the Deucalido-

they continued Night in the Temple, singing and God, first founded at Constantinople in 459. They embraced the Opinions of Nestorius, and were condemned in 532.

Acathari, so the Greeks called the heretics, because they would never alter their Opinions; afterwards appeared such as persisted in the Faith;
and an Inferiour Order of the Acapulco, a T. of N. America in Mexico, a fortified Castle: It is commonly called St. Stephen d'Acapulco.

Acch, a little T. and Castle in Saxony, 2 Miles from Dessau.

Accon, or Acone, a Sea-Port-T. in Syria, on the Euxine Sea, near the Mouth of the River, now called Lagula, about 10 E. of Heraclea. Its famous Poisonous Plants: Hence Aconitum.

Acropolis, a Hill in Bithynia, near Constantinople, where the Herb Aconitum

Adonis, a youth of Crete, who went to Delos to pay his Vows to Venus, fell in Love with Cydippe, a Maid as much above his Condition;
and not knowing how to obtain her, wrote these two Verses on a Golden

Y. or the Julian Period considerable Succours to England, his Ally against

Acosta, (Christopher)

Acosta, (Joseph) an Italian, born at Medina del Campo in the Kingdom of Leon, studied at Salamanca.

He spent 17 Y. in continual Travels. Returning in 1591, he was made Rector of the University of Salamanca, where he left behind several Books

Acosta, or Zacosta, (Diego)
a Spaniard, Grand Master of the Order of St. Nicholas's Mouth of the Haven of the Colossus formerly stood
in 1457.

Acquapendente, a C.
in Italy in St. Peter's Patient Terr. of Crete; w
See.

Acquaria, or Acqu
C. of Italy in the Duk of Calabria, famous for the Me about it.

Acqs, See Dax.

A C

Acath, or Bedey Velez, now Acra, a C. in the Kingdom of Spain, on the Mediterranean Sea, 30 Leagues from Malaga. It's in the Spaniards.

Acates, or Acates, the Gen of the Barchinens, whose Mouth was painted in Figures.

Acatus, one of the wicked Ministers of Mir's Impieties, Propriations and Sacrileges.

Acra, St. John d'Acra, an Antient, a very ancient Episc C. of Palestine, under the A. C. It was a Colony of the Emp. Ch. Afterwards it fell into the Hands of the Arabian Turks, who kept it till the 15th War, when it was retaken by the Christians, An. 1104. in 1187. The Turks took it a second time under Saladin, and it was wrested from them in 1191, by Guy K. of Jerusalem, Rich. K. of England, and Ph of France: But the Christians disagreeing about the Possession of it, Sultan Melech Seraf took it the 3d time, and demolished it. The T. is well fortified, and had formerly a very good Haven, but now the Mole being ruin'd, its full of dangerous Shelves.

Acridophagi, a People of Ethiopia, so call'd from their feeding on Locusts, dried and salted. They are light, nimble, and swift, but short-liv'd; and die, having their Guts eat out by Worms, which proceeds partly from the Air, and partly from the Food.

Acritus, K. of Argos, being told he should be kill'd by his Grandchild, he caus'd his only Daughter Danae to be lock'd up in a Brazen Tower: But Jupiter finding his way through the Tiles in a Golden Shower, begot Persus on her, whom Acritus, having put into a Chest, with his Mother, threw them into the Sea, and they were luckily cast on the Isle Serphus; when a Fisherman found the Chest, and presented it to K. Pisum

A C R

mus, who fell in Love with Danae, and Married her. After Persus had slain the Gorgons, he carried Medusa's Head to Argos, at the sight whereof Acritus was turn'd into a Stone.

Acroasbon, by the Greeks called Holy Mountain, now Cima de Monte Santo, is a Hill, in that part of Macedon, called Famboli, where is a great Monastery of the Greeks.

Acrocerania Fuga, now Mont de le Chimere, or Montes Diaboli, are a ridge of Mountains 'twixt Albania and Epirus.

Acrocomes, a People of Thrace, so call'd, because they wore their Hair long before, like Women.

Acro-Corinthus, a Hill hanging over Corinth, serving for a Citadel, being Wall'd about.

Acron, a Captain, or K. of the Ceninaes, near Rome, who warr'd against Romulus, for having taken 643 of their Women and Virgins at some Festivals. Romulus slew him in Battle.

Acron, or Acronius, (John) Physician and Mathematician of Friesland, who wrote several Tracts, and taught Physick and the Mathematicks at Basil, where he died, in 1563.

Acron, of Agrigentum in Sicily, was a famous Physician in the Reign of Artaxerxes Longimanus, K. of Persia, who founded the Sect of Empiricks, and wrote several Physical Tracts.

Acron, a Grammarian, who Commented upon Horace.

Acronius, (John) See Acron.

Acronius, an Isle just below Constance on the Rhine, about 12 Miles long. The Lake of Constance is also called by this Name.

Acropolis, a Citadel belonging to Athens, built on a steep Rock, having but one Ascent; at the bottom whereof stood the Magnificent Temples of Minerva and Victory. Minerva's Temple is yet in being.

Acrotatus, Son of Cleomenes, K. of Sparta, opposing the Power of the Ephori, in Love with him, which is Neonymus, that he sent for to Besiege Sparta, and re-Quarrel; but Pyrrhus be-off and defeated by Acro- Spartans applauded him, financed his Amours with in Lake in Bithynia, and a R. ne Name.

Asferai, Am-Zarba, Ana-
C. of Cilicia, on the R. Py- formerly an Abp. under the Antioch; now ruined by the

, or Acstede, a T. in Ger-
the Dukedom of Bremen, the Swedes.

, Son of Aristeus, was a er of Hunting. One day, pursuing a Hart, he spied athing her self with her
; which so enraged the
that she threw Water upon chang'd him into a Hart, wards he was torn in pieces
n Dogs.

, Son of Melissus, a most and modest Boy, refus'd to be brutish Passion of Archias, st of the Corinthians, who or . II III Antiochus. time or yeptiba.

Adium, a Cape of Epi-
Capo Figulo, near which, A.
Augustus overcame Mark built the City Nicopolis, in of the Victory; instituted Games, and repair'd the T
Apollo there, new dedicati Mars and Neptune.

Actius Nervius, a famous and an Augur in Tarquin who cut a Whetstone in to Razor, to confirm the S
Augury, which Tarquin dis

Actius Tullius, P. of the Vols- tain'd Coriolanus, an Exile fr and having by a Stratagem the Volsi against the Rom took up Arms and Belieged der the Conduct of Coriolan.

Acton, (Ralph) a Doctor nity bred at Oxford in the
He wrote several Comment Tracts.

Acton, an English learned the Order of St. Dominiq 15th Age, who wrote son and Sermons.

Acton, a little T. 5 Miles London, where are Phyf

A D A

Artemia, by his Mother's Name. There have been several other Astors.

Astortes, so is called Patroclus, son of Menetias, and Grandchild of Astor. Also two Brothers, Charioteers, so unanimous, that one held the Reins, the other the Whip, which caused them to be pictur'd with two Heads, four Hands, and one Body, to represent Unity.

Astorius, (Naso) a Latin Historian in the time of Julius or Augustus Cæsar.

Atusrius, a famous Greek Physician, who lived about the Y. 1100. and writ several Tracts of Physick in Greek.

Acuna, (Christopher de) a Spanish Jesuit, who enter'd the Society in 1612. He was sent to preach the Gospel in the Kingdoms of Chili and Feru in America, from whence he return'd in 1640. and the next year publish'd an exact Account of the R. of the Amazons.

Acusilaus and Damagetas, two Brothers, Sons of Diagoras, both victorious in the Olympick Games, and much honour'd by the Greeks for their Valour.

Acusilaus, an Athenian Rhetorician, who got a 100000 Crowns at Rome, by keeping a School, which sum he left to the Athenians.

Azum Fromontorium, Gall. Cape des Aiguilles, is the furthest part of the Cape of Good Hope, in the Southern Africa.

Acud, Lat. Acudis, a little T. in Moldavia, on the R. Missovo, below the T. of Brainslow.

Ala, Countess of Holland, succeeded her Father Thierry VII. 1203. She Married a Count of Loes, which so displeas'd her Subjects and Neighbouring Princes, that they set up her Uncle William I. against her, who seiz'd Holland in 1204.

Ala, Sister to Artemisia, Q. of Cæria, Married her own Brother Hystaspes, and Reign'd with him after the Death of Artemisia. Hydreus Reign'd 7 Y. and died without Issue. His Widow having Reign'd 4 years longer, was dispossels'd by Pexidorus her younger Brother, who Married his Daughter (called also Ala) to Orontobates a Fersian Lord, who 6 Y. after succeeded his Father-in-Law, and defended Halicanassus against Alexander the Great. Ala retir'd into the Fortrefs of Alinda, and afterwards put it into Alexander's Hands. The Conqueror having taken Halicanassus, restor'd her to her Kingdom of Caria.

A D A

Adad, the Deity of the Assyrians, signifying One, and intimating the sun; They allow'd him for Wife the Goddess Adargyris, by which they meant the Earth.

Adad, or Hadad, (or Benhadad) I. of that Name, K. of Damascus and Syria, coming to help Hadarezer K. of Zobab against David, was defeated with the loss of 22000 of his Men.

Adad, or Hadad, an Edomite Prince, whom God suffer'd to give some Disturbance to K. Solomon, to punish him for his Impieties.

Adalbert, Son of Ladislaus, K. of Hokemia, and chosen Abp. of Salzburg in Bavaria, in 1168.

Adalagus, Abp. of Hamburg, and Chancellor to Three Emperors, was Author of many of the good Laws they made, and erected three Bishopricks in Futland.

Adalgarius, a Monk, afterwards Bishop of Bremen, being cited to Rome by Formosus, to make good his Title to the Bpk. he neither went, nor sent. He instituted a College of Preachers to propagate the Faith in the North, and died in 909.

Adalgisus, Son of D. Ferrius the last K. of the Lombards, fled to Verona, and from thence to Constantinople, after his Father had been beaten and dispossels'd by Charlemagne. In 775 the Greek Emp. lent him some Troops, with which he made a Descent into Hell, but was forced to retire.

A D A

Adam, the first and Father of all Mankind, created immediately by God, with his first wife, and call'd Adam, to signify First, to denote his Extraction. What is related of his Knowledge, his Powers, and especially his Fall, is all conjecture.

Adam, or Adm, born at Hereford in the 14th Age. He was Doctor of Law, and afterwards Bp. of Hereford, Worcester, and Manchester. He occupied great Buisness in the Kingdom, and was the Author of that famous Annals, which cost K. Edward the 1st. his Life. Adm Regem occidit, was the last of his best. He died in the 12th Age, in 1175.

Adam, or Adm, a famous Astronomer, who lived in the 16th Age, was the first who discovered the Comet of 1680. He was the first who discovered the Comet of 1680.

A D A

Adam recanted, and writ Books addressed to his Countrymen, to bring 'em over to the Church of Rome.

Adam, (John) a French Jesuit of the 17th Age, famous for his bold way of Preaching, and the Controversies he maintain'd against the Protestants of France. He was last of all Superior of the Jesuit's College in Bourdeaux, where he died in 1680.

Adam, (Melchior) a famous Rector of the College of Heidelberg, has writ the Lives of several illustrious Philosophers, Divines, Lawyers, and Physicians, and some other Books. He died in 1622.

Adamantæ, nurs'd Jupiter in the Isle of Crete, having his Cradle on the top of a Tree, that his Father Jove might not find him, either in Heaven, Earth, or the Sea; calling Boreas to make a rattling noise round the Tree to draw Jove's search.

A D E

in Syria, who was beaten by David. Jesepbus calls him Adrazar.

Adargatis, Adergatis, or Atergatis, a Syrian Goddess, half human Shape, and half a Fish, worshipped by the Name of Dagon.

Adorgyris, See Adad.

Adisa, a C. of Judea, near Beth-toron, where Judas Maccabeus defeated and slew Nicanor.

Ad-muanus, Captain of the Son-tines, (a People of Gaul in Guienne) hearing of the coming of Crassus, whom Cesar had sent before him to check the Rebels, he met him in his march, and so stoutly defended the Capital City, that Crassus was oblig'd to grant him honourable Terms to bring him to a Surrender.

Adia, a R. that parts the Dukedom of Milan from the State of Venice. It rises in the Alps, and falls into Po, 6 Miles above Cremona.

Adda, called also Giera d'Adda, a little Country in the Dutchy of Milan, between the Rivers Adda and Serio.

Alea, a Prov. of Upper Aethiopia, bordering on the Red-Sea E. once subject to the K. of Abissinia, but now to the Portuguese. It is a fruitful Woody Country.

Adezele, Chrysorrhoas, a R. of Damascus, in Scripture called Ebarpar, rises in Libanus, and is lost in the Fields of Damascus before it reaches the Sea.

Adel, a Kingdom of Africa, (formerly called Azaniz) between the Abyssines, the Kingdom of Aler, the Streights of Babel-Mandel, and the Oriental Sea. The K. is a Mahometan, and a profest Enemy to the Christians, chiefly to the Abyssines, from under whose Dominion his Subjects revolted in 1540.

Adel I. K. of Sweden, is said to have Reign'd before the Birth of our Lord. He was the Son of Gorkar, and died with a fall from his Horse.

Adel II. K. of Sweden, reign'd from the Year 427. to 433.

A D E

Adelais, Daughter of Rodolphus, K. of Burgundy, Wife of Lothaire II. called the Young K. of Italy, and Mother of Lewis V. surnamed Do-Little. After Lothaire's Death, she refusing the Courtship of Berenger II. Usurper of her Kingdom, he besieg'd her in Pavia, took and sent her to a strong Castle, where she was forced to beg her Bread; whence escaping, she Married Otho the Great, Emp. of Germany, bore him three Sons, and govern'd the Empire during her Son Otho II's Non-Age. She died in 999.

Adelbert, Son of Berenger II. Crown'd K. of Italy, by means of Otho the Great; but revolting from him, with his Brother Guy, they were both defeated in 965. by Duke Burchard, Otho's Lieutenant. In 958. Adelbert trying another Battel lost it, and died with Grief.

Adelbert, a Bp. of Frage, in the 10th Age, left the Bukemians because of their Enormities. He converted Stephen K. of Hungary, and almost all his Country, and was made Abp. of Gnesna in Poland.

Adelbert, Count of Hieret, Father of Berenger K. of Italy. He was very charitable, but so ambitious, that he endeavour'd to Dethrone K. Lambert, afterwards his Father-in-Law, who surprized and took him hiding himself in a Hedge.

Adelbert, Abp. of Mentz, incens'd Henry the Son against the Emp. Henry IV. his Father, and the Emp. against the Pope; and then persuaded Calixtus II. to Excommunicate the Emp. which kindled a Civil War in Germany.

Adelbert, a Bp. of Prague, in 997. who endeavouring to Convert the Heathenish Prussians, was by 'em cut in pieces, and thrown to the Fowls of the Air.

Adelbert, called the East, Lord of East Sclavia, having extirpated the Rebellious Sclavi, repopled their

Urban II. The
 and advised her to go into
 C. of Germany, after his
 ; in his Reign the ech'd out of Asia into his Prince forc'd them to again.
 , Wife to Frederick Pr. of istful, but unchaste, and nic Marquess of Thurin- or Contrivance kill'd her and afterwards Married a People of Spain, so their foretelling Futuri-rping of Birds, Meet-
 .
Arthelmus, or Altilinus, earned English Bp. of the son of Kenlennus, who to Ina, K. of the West
 le was first Abbot of and then Bishop of the
 . He wrote several role and Verse. or Adhermar, much in Charlemagne, writ a Hi-which Almoiu has

C
 now subject to the Duke of Ne
 14 Miles almost N. E. of Colog
Aleodarus, a Pope, who d 676.
Aleona, a Goddess worshipt Heathens for Liberty of Access Aderbern, a T. of Germany
merania, on the R. Oder, a lit low Stetin, subject to the Swea
Aderburg, a small C. on Oder, in the Marquisate of B
burgh, 9 Leagues from Stetin Ales, or Hades, the God o so call'd by the Greeks, and Latins, Dis and Pluto. Also the Molossi, by the R. Acheron Daughter Piritheus would h vish'd, which occasion'd the S his going into Hell. Also Epirus, who employ'd a grea Men in Mines, where most he was called the God of H Riches.
Adgandestrius, Pr. of tin a People of Germany, having Rome for Poison, in order to away with Arminius, Genera Cherusci. he was answer'd, T

A D L

Adonias, Agrios, a Jewish Soldier with two more, got into the Camp, while he Besieged Jerusalem, and set it on Fire.

Adrianus, Tetrarch of Galatia, to give Favour with Mark Anthony, sold the whole Roman Colony Bractes Pennae; and being taken off by Augustus, at the Battle of Actium, was led in Triumph, and slain.

Aquis, Lat. Aquis, Germ. Esch, of Italy, springs out of Mount St. Michael in Tyrol; it waters Trent, discharges Verona, and passing Legnano, Como, and Anguilara, falls into the Lake of Como, 18 Miles S. of Venice.

Alcibiades, an Athenian General, driven with his whole Fleet by the Boeotians, who kill'd all his Companions, because they design'd to cut the Hands of all such Lacedaemonians as they should take; but spar'd him because he was against their Religion. Also a Corinthian General, who reproached Themistocles as an exile; to which he answer'd, That was no Exile, who had 200 Gallies depending on him. Also a K. of Philistines, killed by a Thunderbolt, because he thought Jove unworthy of his Sacrifice. Also the name of Plato.

Alcides, K. of Thessaly, whose Wife Apollo kept 9 Y. being depriv'd of his Godship, Apollo obtain'd the Parce, that they would not cut the Thread of Alcides's Life, where could be found any that would Die for him. Alceste his Wife the only Person that offer'd her to save her Husband, whom Proserpine pitying, restored her to life.

Adelphi, Adelphi, a small Isle in the Coast of Nova Sembla, N. of Crete.

Adela, a Bp. of Vienne in Dauphine, reigned in the 9th Age.

Adonis, a K. of Phoenicia, whom the Greeks call K. of the Gods, ador'd by the Assyrians, under the Name of Adad.

A D M

Adolphus, Count of Nassau, chosen Emp. by the Arts of Gerard ab Appenstem, Abp. of Mentz, to the Disappointment of Albert of Austria; who at length made War upon him, and kill'd him with his own Hand in a Battle near Speers in 1298. after he had reign'd 6 Y. Adolphus had Children by Imagina, Daughter of Gerard Count of Limburgh, which make the Branch of the House of Nassau-Sarbruck.

Adolphus, K. of Sweden, before Christ: He vanquish'd the K. of Denmark, and made him his Tributary.

Adolphus, Abp. of Cologne, was a great Enemy to the Protestants, and rose on the Ruins of his Predecessor Herman, to whom he was Coadjutor, till he was depos'd by Charles V. He died in 1556.

Adolphus, Count of Berg, kept Sigefrid of Westerburgh 7 Y. in Prison, but was afterwards taken in Battle by the said Sigefrid in 1296. put naked into a Cage, and dawb'd with Honey in the Heat of Summer, which drew such Swarms of Flies about him, that he died a most miserable Death, being allowed no Sustenance.

Adonibezek, K. of the Canaanites, formidable to the Israelites, by his Victories over 70 Kings, whose Thumbs and great Toes he had cut off; but Joshua took him in Battle, and serv'd him in the same kind. He died at Jerusalem.

Adonijah, Son of David, supported by Joab and Abiathar the High-Priest, set up for Successor to the Crown, which occasion'd his Ruin.

Adoniram, Son of Abda, was over Solomon's Tribute, and Overseer of the Levy of 30000 Labourers sent to fell down Cedar in Mount Libanus for the Temple.

Adonis, a beautiful Youth, Son of Cinyras,

A D O

Cinyras, K. of Cyprus, (and Myrrha his Daughter) the Dardanio, kill'd by a Wild Boar in the Woods, and by Venus turn'd into a flower, suppos'd to be Anemone. Afterwards Proserpine promis'd to restore Adonis to her for 6 Months in the Year, provided she might have him to her self the rest; by which Fable the Ancients explain the Summer and Winter. Some confound Adonis with Cyprius of the Phoenicians, and others take Adonis for the same as the Boar which kill'd him, the Winter Hoar-frosts, which being over, he revives again.

Adoni, a Root Thenicis, so called from the above-mentioned Adonis, by the name of the Country called Nabir-Alalib, and by Modern Geographers, Cann. It lies near Mount Libanus.

Adonized, K. of Thur, who

A D R

succeeded, but was chas'd from the Government in 27 days. After this, Prosper Adorne was Chosen, but forthwith Depos'd; and then Restor'd by the D. of Milan, who Subdued Genoa. On the 25th of November next year, he and those of Milan were Expell'd the City. In 1488. Augustino and John Adorne were made Dukes, till 1499. when the City submitted to Lewis XII. who made Antonio Adorne Governor, and afterwards Antonio was Elected Duke in 1527. and soon after Expell'd.

Adorni, (John Augustin) of the same Family, Founded the Society of Regular Clerks Minors, and died in 1591.

Adonis, Lat. Adonis, or Adonis, a Root of the same name. It is a kind of Adonis, which is the same as the Adonis of the Phoenicians.

ADR

Airastia, or Nemesis, Daughter of Fortune and Necessity, feign'd by the Poets to be the Goddess of Justice and Revenge.

Adrastia, a T. of Troas, so called from Adrastus who built it, and famous for the Temple of Nemesis and the Oracle of Apollon.

Adrastus, K. of Argos, Son of Talaus and of Lysimassa, Daughter to Polybus K. of Sicyon, being Expell'd Argos by Amphiarus, retired to Sicyon, where he succeeded his Grandfather Polybus, and made the C. of Sicyon famous by the Institution of the Pythian Games. Amphiarus having Married Eriphile, Adrastus's Sister, was reconciled to his Brother-in-Law, who thereupon returned to Argos, and got great Reputation in the Theban War, wherein he engaged to maintain the Right of Polynices, his Son-in-Law. Adrastus, together with Polynices, and Tydeus, his other Son-in-Law; Capaneus and Hippomedon his Sister's Sons; Amphiarus his Brother-in-Law, and Parthenopæus, march'd out against Thebes. This is the Expedition of the 7 Worthies, so much celebrated by the Poets, wherein all perished except Adrastus, who was forc'd to fly. Upon his return he fir'd up the Sons of the said Princes to Revenge their Father's Death, which they did, and defeated the Thebans. In this second War, none of the Chiefs were kill'd except Ægialeus Adrastus's Son, which loss so much afflicted his Aged Father, that he died with Grief at Megara.

Adrastus, Son of Nilus, and Grandson of Gordius, a Phrygian Pr. having accidentally killed his Brother, fled to Craesus K. of Lydia, who received him kindly. A little after, Hunting with Atys, Craesus's Son, he killed him as he shot at a Bear; and for Grief slew himself upon his Corps.

Adrastus, of Philippopolis, was Disciple of Aristotle, and wrote 3 Books of Harmony, now in the Vatican Library.

ADR

Adrets, (Francis de Beaumont, Baron des Adrets) a Native of Dauphiné, out of a Pique against the Duke of Guise, headed 8 or 10000 Protestants in 1562. seiz'd the greatest part of Dauphiné, Lyonnois, and Languedoc; and taking Grenoble, forced the Parliament of that City to go to Church and hear a Protestant Sermon. Popish Writers accuse him of many Cruelties against the Papists. He turn'd Papist again, because the Prince of Conde took the Government of Lyons from him.

Adrevaldus, Adeluvaldus, or Adoaldus, a K. of Lombardy, with his Mother Theodelinda, was dispossess'd by his Subjects, who set Ariobaldus, an Arrian upon the Throne, Ann. 626.

Adria, or Adriaticum Mare, the Adriatick Sea, is now call'd the Gulph of Venice.

Adria, an Episcopal C. in Polesina di Rovigo, in the State of Venice, now inhabited only by Fishermen.

Adrian I. a noble Roman, elected Pope after Stephen III. in 772. In the beginning of his Pontificate, Didier K. of Lombardy, invaded and ravaged St. Peter's Patrimony; but Charlemagne having taken him Prisoner in Pravia, all Hostilities ceas'd. Charlemagne having subdued Lombardy, went to Rome, where, in an Assembly of the Clergy, Adrian gave him Power to Create Popes, and Charlemagne confirm'd to him what Pepin his Father had granted to the Roman See. He sat near 24 Years, and died in 795.

Adrian II. Pope, succeeded Nicholas I. in 867. against the Emperor's Consent. Presently after his Election, he Excommunicated Photius, Patriarch of Constantinople; and the Emp. Lothaire, because he had Divorc'd his Wife Dietberga for Love of Valdred his Concubine. He sat near 5 y. and died in 872.

Adrian

A D R

Adrian III. son of Benedict, a Valiant man, Elected Pope in 884. called himself Ratified by the Senate and People of Rome, That the Pope should not be Elected by the Clergy only, but only by the Clergy and People. He also refused to submit to the Communion of the Pope of Rome, Photius the Patriarch of Constantinople, which induced the Pope of the East against him.

Adrian IV. an Englishman, named Norman, of mean Extraction, was daily at the Gate of the Normans, and did much for it; At last, finding it in vain to be a Lord of the Normans, he went to Rome, where he was admitted to the Canon of the Archbishop of Canterbury. He was made Cardinal and Pope in 1154. He was the first Englishman who was made Pope.

A D R

Jourdain, being afterwards created Cardinal, 1517. by Pope Leo, whom thro' the Emperor's Interest he succeeded Ann, 1522. He died in 1523.

Adrian, V. Adrian.

Adrian, VI. Adrian, (John Baptist) a Noble Florentine, of good Sense and Learning, born in 1522. Besides several Orations, he wrote a Continuation of the History of Constantine: He died in 1579.

Adrianist, Disciples of Simon Magus, Ann. Ch. 33. The Followers of Adrian Hunsford, the Anabaptist, were also so called.

Adrianople, anciently Uscutima, or Oryza, now Andernopolis, by the Turks called Endere, and by the French, Andrinople, is a famous City of Thrace, now Romania, seated on the R. Propontis, 15 miles from Constantinople. It was taken by the Turks in 1452, and made the capital of the Province.

A D R

of them, he caus'd a City to be built on the Ruins of Jerusalem, and call'd it Alia; and having overcome them in a second Revolt, he erected a Temple to Jupiter on Mount Calvary, and a Statue of Atonis in the Manger of Bethlehem. He caus'd also the Images of Swine to be Engraven on the Gates of Jerusalem. He was extremely Superstitious, and so great a Lover of Learning, that he was jealous of his Secretary Phavorinus on that Score. He died of the Bloody Flux, in the 21st Y. of his Reign.

Adriacornis, (Cornelia) a Woman of the Order of St. Austin in the 16th Cent. Daughter to a Dutch Gentleman, made her self famous by her Poems, on Sacred Subjects.

Adriaticus, (Christian) born at Delft in Holland in 1533. was a zealous and learned Priest, sometime Director of the Nunnery at Delft, who writ the Description of the Holy Land.

Adria, the present Name of Assyria.

Adrope, a R. of that part of the Asian Taurus, which is subject to the Moscovites. It falls into the Volga beneath Caspia.

Adrumetum, now Mobometta, a strong T. built by the Phœnicians between Carthage and the Syrtes, where a Council was held in 394.

Aëta, now Mount St. Gothard, one of the Alps in the Canton of Uri in Switzerland.

Adulaton, or Adulis, a T. on the Red Sea in Africa, now called Erecco.

Adymabyle, an ancient People of Libya next to Egypt. They presented their Daughters, when Marriageable, to be first deflowered by the King he pleas'd; and were such strict Observers of Lex Talionis, that if they caught a Louse or a Flea biting of 'em, they would only bite 'em again, and let 'em go.

Æa, a Virgin, who was a great Lover of Hunting. Being detrons to shun the pursuits of Phæsis, she pray'd the Gods to assist her, who thereupon chang'd her into an Island of that Name. This Fable comes from the R. Iphis, making the Isle of Æa by its Turnings and Windings.

Æ A C

Æacidus, Son of Neoptolemus, made himself so burdensome to his People by his continual Wars, that he was forced to fly his Kingdom, and leave his only Son of 2 Years old to be Educated by Claucus K. of Illyrium.

Æacides, a Name given to all the Princes descended from Æacus.

Æacus, supposed Son of Jupiter and Ægina, pray'd his Father to Repopulate the Island of Ægina, almost Depopulated by Poison'd Waters; whereupon Jupiter chang'd an innumerable heap of Emmets or Pismires into Men, which were call'd Myrmidons, from Μύρμηξ, an Emmet. He had 3 Sons by 2 Wives. Phocus by Psammathe, Daughter of Nereus; and Telamon, Father of Ajax, and Peleus, Father of Achilles, by Endeis, Daughter of Ckiron. The Poets also feign'd him to be one of the Judges of Hell.

Ææus, Brother to Polydeus, both Sprung from Hercules; of whom the Oracle said, That which soever of 'em set first Foot on Land after crossing the R. Achelous, should enjoy the Kingdom. Polydeus feigning her self Lame, desir'd her Brother to carry her over on his Back, which he did, suspecting nothing; but she coming near the Shore, jump'd off his Back, and claim'd the Kingdom by the Decision of the Oracle; which Ææus was so far from taking ill, that he commended her Wit, Married her, and so they Reign'd together.

Æbora, or Æbura, now Talavera, a C. of Spain on the Tagus, in New Castile, 12 Leagues W. of Toledo, in the Road of Lisbon.

Æchmacoras, Son of Hercules by Philone, Daughter of Alcimedon, whom he Deflowered, was by Alcimedon, expos'd

Æ D O

Ædon, a King's Mother, as soon as he was born, was devour'd of wild Beasts; but she, and he both happily deliver'd by Ædon.

Ædon, a City, now Vadana, was the Capital C. of Amathia in Macedonia. It was of many Ages the Burying Place of the Kings of Macedonia, upon a pretended Oracle, That the Line should not fail as long as this was observ'd; and they ascribed the extinguishting the Race of Alexander the Great, to his being Buried out of this City.

Ædiles, Annual Roman Magistrates, of which there were 3 sorts, and 2 of each sort. The Ædiles of the People, called Plæbii; the Patrician Ædiles, called Curules or Majores; and the Ædiles of the Corn, called Ceresales. The Ædiles of the People were Surveyors of Bandings, and of the Highways,

Æ G Æ

Hisband Eat him; which, as soon as he understood, he pursued her to her Fathers; whose Family, to Revenge the Affront he had put upon them, stript, bound, and anointed him with Honey, exposing him to the Flies; but his Wife pitying him, drove 'em away; which so enraged her Father and Brothers, that they design'd to kill her. At last, Jupiter commiserating their Misfortunes, turn'd them into Birds; Pandareus into a Pelican; Aedon into a Nightingale; and Chelidonia the Sister into a Swallow.

Ædui, an ancient and potent People of Gallia Celtica.

Æga, or Æga, see Ædessa. Also an Episcopal C. of Cilicia, under the Abp. of Anazarbenus, on the Sea-Coast, next to Mallo and Iffus. It's now ruin'd.

Ægon, sometimes called Brizæus,

1851
permuta, .
inceus.

a K. of Æthiopia, whom, Matthew Converted to Christ.

a C. of Arabia Petraea, on the Gulph, 60 Miles from Sinai, now call'd Eltor, or

Ælia Crispis, the Name of a inscription in the Senator country-House near Bologna in which some think was fram'd Modern Wit, meerly to puzzle. See Spondanus's Travels

us, (Claudius) born at Pre- the Reign of Adrian, was for his Skill and Eloquence in Greek Tongue, and wrote a mixt a Tract of Animals, and of Martial Discipline.

and Ælia, two Roman Names from the Ælii descended, who the poorest Family in Rome.

Patus, a Roman whom the said, If he sav'd a Magpye that on his Head, he should make it flourish, but the Common fortune unfortunate; if he killed

whereupon he hit

thru the n ing down the Rock, by the us, for W gainst him.

Ælius Sejanus, a Roman C much in favour with Tiber
he called him his Associate in pire; wherewith he grew so that despising Tiberius, he c
the chief Men of Rome; T iberius understanding, secretly his Ruin.

Ælius Sextus Catus, Ce
M. Cethegus, made distinct the Commonalty at their Shews, who before sat prom with the Patricians.

Ælius Sextus, a Lawyer philosopher. who wrote a T Personal Actions, called Fas.

Æmon, having commit with his own Daughter Re Gods turned 'em both into statues. Others say, that h Antigone, Oedipus's Daugh following her Father into R
Æmon was torn in pieces b
But Propertius says, That Antigone to that degree killed himself on her Gra

Æ M Y

Valerian, Æmylianus's Soldier, because of his mean join'd with Valerian. He and reigned 5 Months. us, (Tiberius Cestius Alex- de Governor of Egypt by rebell'd against him, and Emp. by the Soldiers, but was pursued and taken by one of Galienus's Generals, Emperor caus'd him to be in Prison.

or the Æmylian Family, most Illustrious in Rome, from Mamercus the Son was the Philosopher, called by the Greeks, for Sweet-Temper. Of this Family great Men following.

us, (Paulus) firnam'd Macedon Son to Lucius Paulus, he Battle of Canna, was killed, and during his first, triumph'd over the Livians. V. C. 572. In his 2d, Ann. 586. he subdued Macedonia, reduced his into a Province, and had a of 3 days allow'd him. among the other Prisoners, his Triumphal Chariot, by misfortunes Æmylius was so that he could not refrain. But this Noble Roman, exalted to the height of the Morning, was drown'd ere the Evening, having his Sons amidst the Trial. He was also made Censor year, 586. in which he us Mamercus, 3 times Conquered the Æqui. His Son Mamercus, was twice Conquered the Sabines. His Æmylius was first, High-Priest, and Tribune. Afterwards, he first made Dictator, he reduced the Fidenates, the Volsci, and was Triumph'd. In his 2d year he reduced the Office of Censor from 5 y. to one and a half; which tho' it enraged the Censors, so pleas'd the People, that he was chosen a 3d time Dictator, when he reduced the Fidenates. His Grandson, Titus Æmylius Mamercus, was Consul with Q. Publius Philo, who defeated the Latins, and Triumph'd; which Honour being denied to Titus Æmylius, who had subdued those of Præneste and Velitrae, he, out of spite, took a Plebeian for his Partner in the Dictatorship.

Æ M Y

Æmylius Lepidus, being a Youth, threw himself into the Battel, rescued a Citizen, and slew his Enemy, for which he had a Statue erected in the Capitol.

Æmylius, (Anthony) History Professor in the University of Utrecht, was a Man famous for his Learning and Eloquence. He was born at Aix-la-Chapelle, in 1589. and died in 1660.

Æmylius Censorinus, Tyrant of Sicily, rewarded such as brought to him any Instrument newly invented for Torment; whereupon Aruntius Paternus having made a brazen Bull to burn People alive in, Æmylius caus'd himself to make the first Trial on himself. The same story is related of Perillus and Phalaris.

Æmylius, a handsome young Man, and a great Hunter, whose Wife being Jealous, bid her self in the Woods to watch him; His Dogs lighting on her tore in pieces, which Æmylius perceiving, killed himself in Despair.

Æmylius Papinianus, Overseer of the Exchequer next after Septimius Severus, by whom, when advanced to the Empire, he was made Captain of the Prætorian Bands. Severus dying, he recommended his Sons, Geta and Caracalla to his care: But Caracalla killing Geta, and Papinian Condemning the Murder, was stabb'd by the Soldiers before the Tyrant's Face. He wrote many Tracts in the Civil Law. His Son was also put to Death by Caracalla.

Æmylius,

Æ N E

Ænæas Silius, a Patrician, but Preferr'd rather selling Coals for a Penny a Day. He acquir'd so much Fame by his Eloquence, as to be choic'd Consul, then Prætor, (when he kill'd the King of Fugurtha) and afterwards Consul. He built a Theatre, the greatest Work of the kind, both for Magnificence and Strength.

Ænæas Silvius, concerning whom an Epistle is extant at Parma, related to Æneas Silvius, wherein 'tis said, that when his Health, he did kill himself
 by using Coals, put in a hanging Bath.

Æneas, Bp. of Paris in the 9th Century, was a Person of Quality and deep Sense, at the Desire of the Pope, and Henry the Bald, K. of France, wrote an excellent Book against the Errors of the Gregorian Church, where he Controversies several Questions of Faith, Idem on the same Church.

Æneas, a Teut. Prince, Son of Æ P A

countenanced and preferred the Aborigenes, and reign'd 29 Y.

Æneas Silvius, reign'd

Æneas Sylvius, was choic'd in 1458. by the Name of Pius I.

Æneas of Gaza, a Platonic philosopher in the 4th Age, wth Treatise of the Immortality of Soul, Intituled, Theophrastus.

Æneas Tacitus, Contempor^y Aristotle, wrote concerning the Art of War, and is cited by Polybi-us.

Æneas, being declar'd Vic^e
 the 5 chief Olympic Games, for Joy as soon as he receiv'd his lands.

Ænotherus, a Giant, born in his, who served under Charlemagne Horseback.

Æneas, a Country of Asia,
Æneas Sea, now call'd S. Sea,
 by the ancient Greeks, the same

Æ S C

ik, and others, that he fled himself.

, a K. of Arcadia, entring Temple on Horseback, tho' was suddenly struck blind later which sprung upon d afterwards kill'd by the a Serpent as he was a a Presbyter and Heresiarch a Cent. turn'd Arian be- ras not made Bp. of Sebastia is. His Followers called made no difference betwixt and Presbyters; They op- or, Prayers for the Dead, rating Easter; They held o differ from the Father, strument from the Artift; he Spiris differs from them, nd Place differ from those them. They condemn'd , and urg'd Abstinence.

Daughter of Atreus, being l by her Uncle Thyestes, had by him at a Birth, both ers flew, and let before his o Eat. Also the Daughter , who being deflowred by d in Childbed.

r, K. of Macedon, succeed- ther Philip I. while an In- M. 3456. The Illyrians dvantage of his Minority, the Macedonians and de- hem; whereupon setting ig K. at the Head of the ey were so encourag'd, that ied again, and beat the

, Priam's Son, and a great fell so desperately in Love Paris, that he followed her ods. She riving from him, g to Death by a Serpent; n he threw himself from a the Sea. However, Thetis im into a Dolphin.

es, an Athenian Tragick Poet ent Orator, was defeated Eschines his Rival in Fame, and Banish'd his Country: There were 7 more noted Orators or Philo- sophers of the same Name, and one Statuary.

Æ S C

Æschines, one of the three Sects that sprung out of the Heresie of the Montanists, who affirm'd Christ to be both Father and Son.

Æschylus, the 12th Judge of Athens, in the 2d Y. of whose Reign, A. M. 3174. the Olimpick Games were in- stituted at Elis.

Æschylus, Brother to Cynegros, a valiant Man, and an excellent Tragick Poet, left Athens, where he was Born, because Sophocles's Plays met with greater Applause than his own; and retired to Sicily. Being told by the Oracle, That he should be killed by the fall of a House, he left Syracuse to dwell in the open Field, where an Eagle flying over his Head with a Tortoise in her Bill, took his Bald- Head for a Stone, and dropping the Tortoise to break the Shell, beat out his Brains.

Æsculapus and Argentinus, two Deities, who were suppos'd to have Power to enrich Men. Also Memory ador'd under the same Name by the Romans.

Æsculapius, Son of Apollo, was de- livered to Chiron to be instructed in Physick. Others say, he was ex- pos'd on a Mountain, and Suckled by a Goat. At the Request of Diana, he restored Hippolitus to life, for which Jupiter killed him with a Thunderbolt. He freed Rome from the Plague, for which they built him a Temple near the City, and wor- shipped him under the Form of a Serpent. He had two Sons eminent Physicians also, Machron and Pollis- lirus; and three Daughters Hygias, Ægle, and Panacea.

Jason, was by Medea, at the Re- quest of his Son Jason, restored to his youthful Vigour when very old. Also a R. in Thessaly which falls into the R. Metz, with a C. upon it of the same Name.

Æjop

Æ S O

Æsop, a Native of Ammorium in Thrace, was meanly Born, and of deplorable Presence, being hunch-backed, flat-Nos'd, blubber-Lipp'd, having a long, ill-shaped Head, crooked body, a big-Belly, bandy-Legs, and swarthy Complexion, whence he was called ἰσχυρὸς Ἰθίοπος, Æthiopus. He is said to have had a great Impudence in his Speech, which was the most affecting part of his Misfortune. He lived when Crasus governed Asia, and had been twice Enslaved and Sold, where he was purchased by Anaximenes, a Philosopher of Samos, who in Service he grew famous by the acuteness of his Wit, and the sharpness of his Answers. Having at last got his Liberty by explaining an Oracle that threatened the Syrrians; He advised them not to pay the Tribute which they demanded of them. Cyrus offered to stop the Council of Asia, if they would the Princes of those days challeng'd one another.

Æ S O

Æsopus, a Greek (but unknown) Historian, who writ a Romantick Account of the Life of Alexander the Great; translated into Latin by one Julius Valerius.

Æsopus, a famous Historian, Contemporary of, and Reader to, Mithridates, who writ a Panegyricall Character of this Prince, and another fine Piece about the Rape of Helen.

Æsopus Claudus, or The Lame, a famous Tragedian, and Jully's intimate Friend: He got such a vast Estate by Acting, that one day he made a Banquet, where there was a Dish of those Birds that imitate Man's Voice, which was thought to cost 100 Sesterces, or 2000 Crowns. He had a Son as Extravagant as himself, who at a least drank several Peats of great value in Pot-Drinking, and Dissolved in Vagaries.

Æ T I

and who, whether Alive remembered whatever he Pythagoras boasted Æol was Transmigrated

a Privy-Councillor of istafus I. famous for his texture.

is about one half of divided into two Parts, and the Lower. The ended on the N. by *E-*ia; on the W. and S. : Æthiopia; and on the d Sea, and the Arabian r Bays. It contains Nu-, and the Kingdoms of coci, and Zanguebar. Æthiopia is bounded on bia, on the E. by the ia, on the W. and S. by i Ocean. It contains is of Monomotapa and nd the Western Æthio- are divided into the Congi, Loangi, and An- more Southern part of was little known to the found out by the For- Abassinia, or Abissinia. ighter of Oceanus and ife of Atlas, by whom aughters and one Son, ing to Death by a Ser- ifters killed themselves . Jupiter turn'd them ellation called Hyades, nly brings Rain. Also Egeus, and Mother of reticks, the Disciples Actius. They were omians, and Anomians, eld the Son to be every from the Father; and and Trogodytes, from in private Houses and Sett was soon extin-

Action, a famous anci- io made the celebrated

A E I

Piece of the Amours of Roxana and Alexander.

Ætion, the Father of Andromache, the Wife of Hector, who was slain at Thebes by the Greeks, with his 7 Sons.

Ætius, called the Atheist, lived in the 4th Cent. He was first a Vine-dresser, then a Tinker; afterwards he work'd with a Goldsmith, where having Cheated a Woman of a Gold Chain, which she brought him to Mend, (returning her a Brass one for it) he was punished for his Knavery, and afterwards put himself to Sopolus a Quack. Arius's Heresie being spread about this time, Ætius became one of the most zealous sticklers for it. After many Ram-bles, he came to Alexandria, where having learn'd Logick, he was supplied with now Subtilties to Dispute against the Son and Holy Ghost, and was Ordain'd Deacon by Leutius an Arian Bishop. He had some Gno-stick Opinions, and was at last dismiss'd by the Arians and banish'd.

Ætius, Governor of Gallia Nar- bonensis, and the greatest General under Valentinian the III. forc'd the Franks, who were pouring into Gaul, to repass the Rhine; defeated the Goths that ravag'd the Lower Lan- guedoc and Provence, and routed Gun- dicair K. of the Burgundians, and then made a Peace. After this, At- tila, K. of the Huns, invading Gaul with 70000 Men, Ætius persuaded the Franks, the Visigoths, and the Burgundians, to join with him against the common Enemy, and falls upon Attila, whom he first forced to raise the Siege of Orleans, and then pur-suing him to the Catalaunian Fields, (near Chalons in Champagne) enga-ged him to a general Battel, where- in 180000 Men were slain on both sides, and the Huns quite defeated, Attila narrowly escaping. After these great Actions, Ætius was recall'd to Rome; where the Emp. Valentinian

A F R

Afranius kill'd him with his own hand, Afranius 454. upon some slight Suspicion, as if he had held secret Intelligence with Attala.

Afranius, the chief Eunuch in the Palace of the Empress Severus, and in his great Power, that only Strucastus could Balance his Authority. At length he became so odious to the Patricians, that they proclaim'd Nepotianus Emperor.

Afranius, the Mongibello, the greatest Mountain in Sicily, 8 miles high, and 6 in compass, continually vomiting up Fire and Smoke, and often throwing up calcin'd Stones, and burning Clouds. On the tops of this Mountain, Snow and Fire are to be seen at the same time, while the sides are covered with pleasant Woods and Vineyard.

Africa, now Libyana, a small Country of Africa, on the North of

A F R

Afrania, Wife to Licinius Burrus, a Roman Senator, who Pleaded his own Law-Suits before the Pretor, filling the Court with Clamor. Hence all bold, impudent Womankind were called Afraniae.

Afranius Positum, a Plebeian, coming to Calpurnia, lying sick, told him, He could willingly Die so if he might recover. This the Emp. made him Swear, and when he recovered caused the Man to be put to Death, that he might not be Perjur'd.

Afranius, one of Pompey's Generals; who, together with Petrius was defeated by Julius Caesar in Spain. He was Consul with Cicilius Metellus Celer. There was another Afranius Consul with Asclepiodorus: also a Afranius, surnam'd Barbarus, in Captain of the Guards under Caligula, by Agrippina Nero's Mot. See Barbarus.

A F R

the Romans. This Country fruitful on the Sea-Coasts, but Parts are generally barren, Defart, by reason of the venomous Creatures, hurtful and want of Water. Yet the part of those Regions under the Line are pleasant, abounding with Woods, and Fountains. The People lack, some tawny, and some, and very ill reported of, as crafty, perfidious, drunken, lustful, impudent, covetous, and blasphemous also said, That Africa nothing but Extraordinary-Men being either Monstrous, or Prodigies of Wit; of the last sort are reckoned, Augustine, Cyprian, are not so good Soldiers in Parts of the World, but Barbary, are of late pretty well, because of their Wars &c. For Government, the Romans, and then of Cham were. The Carthaginians and had great Power, and against the Romans, till the Vandals drove them out, and about the year Romans recovered Africa. In the 7th Cent. the Arabians and Moslems over-run it, and possess it. Now the French, Dutch, and Spaniards, have several Places on the Coasts. In Religion, they anciently worshipp'd the Stars, the Elements, Onions, and every living Creature met first in the morning. They have 5 Religions: The Moors, divided into 62 Sects; the Christians, without God or Law; Idolaters; Jews; and Christians of them Papists, others Protestants Church, and a few Protestants and Merchants. The Inhabitants spoke all one Language, called Abimalik; but now they speak different Languages, tho' that called the Beribere, or the African, deriv'd both from the Punick and Arabick is the most Universal. Africa is divided into 8 Parts, viz. Egypt, Barbary, Numidia, or Biledulgerid, Zara, or the Desarts of Libya, Nigritia, the Regions in the Sea beyond it, and the Islands.

A G A

Africa, a C. of Africa in the Kingdom of Tunis, the Aphrodium of the Ancients; 20 Miles from Mabometia, or Adrumetum. It was built upon a Cape, with a convenient Harbour, and a strong Castle, and being won by Pirates of Sicily, they called it Africa. But at length, coming into the Hands of Charles V. he utterly demolish'd it.

Africanus, (Julius) an Historian of the 3d Age, was a Christian, and got much Honour by a Deputation from the Inhabitants of Emmusa, to the Emp. Heliogabalus, of whom he obtain'd the Re-establishment of their City. He compos'd a Chronicle from the beginning of the World to the Y. of Christ 221. part of which is extant in Eusebius.

Agá, is a Title given by the Turks to the General or Colonel of the Fanizaries, and to the Deputy-Governors of Towns. It signifies Master or Lord.

Agá, or Agag, a Kingdom of Abbyssinia, with a T. of the same Name, near the Lake of Zaire, between the Nile, and the Provinces of Ambian and Nová.

Agabo, a K. of Aethiopia, who lived 200 Y. ago, and of whom the Historians of this Country, relate many pleasant Stories.

Agabus, a Prophet who foretold a Famine, which came to pass in the Reign of Claudius Caesar.

Agades, a Country in the middle of Africk, near the R. Ghir.

Agadez, a Prov. and C. of Africa in Nigritia, wall'd round. This Country pays 150000 Ducats Tribute to the K. of Tombuto; It lies N. of Niger.

directs who built a temple of extraordinary Workmanship, which when they pray'd for them what he thought the Benefit that could be to Mankind, they were both in their Beds 3 days after.
Hector, Son of Priamus, Brother of Priamus, and K. of Troy, General of the Greeks, in expedition against Troy. After the fall of Troy, amongst other Princes fell to his Lot, who gave him his Death; but he not hearing Words, return'd home, to be slain by Aegisthus, the Son of Agamemnon, who had debauch'd his wife Clytemnestra before his arrival.
Agathangelus, the 11th K. of the Goths, who reign'd 20 years in the 11th, great Grandson of Agathar, who was the Son of Hier-

Agathar, or Tarshish, one of the Islands of the Indies, where Magellan was Murdered in Search of the Moluc- cas, through the South Sea.

Agathar, or Agathar,
a River on this side the Ganges.
Agathar, a famous Fountain of

Agathar, a famous Fountain of Affociations, a Council of the Late- cil, under Innocent II. utlith'd them.

Agapetus I. created Bp. of the K. of the Goths, succeeded in the Pontificate, and reign'd 10 Months. Being sent to the Pope to appease Justinian, who waged Iberodorus with a War, endeavour'd to draw him to the Nicene Heresie; but instead the Pope Converted the En-brace the Orthodox Faith.

Agapetus II. made Pope in 946. called Otho into Italy against Berengarius, being Tyrannical over the
He died in 955.

Agapetus, a Deacon of the of Constantinople, in the wrote an excellent Letter to Justinian, a little after his tation, wherein he has laid do-down how a Christian Pr. ought to Agar, see Hagar.

Agarenians, or Agarens, of Arabia, said to be descended from Agar and Ishmael. 'Tis be-liev'd they gave their Name to the Country to the T. of Agadum, c

A G A

Agasticles, a famous K. of Lacedæmon, Son of Archidamas, and Father of Ariston.

Agassimeneus, first K. of the Island Naxos, in the Ægean Sea, was chosen by the Thracians, who settled in this Island called before Strongyle. He Married Panocratis, Daughter of Alceus, one of the Giants; but sometime after, Otus and Æphialtes, the Sons of Alceus, were ordered by their Father to take their Sister away from him, in executing of which they depriv'd him of his Crown and Life.

St. Agatha, born at Palermo in Sicily, of a noble Family, and very beautiful, was Martyr'd by the Proconsul Quintianus, because she refus'd to turn Pagan, and Marry him.

St. Agatha, of the Goths, an Episcopal C. of Campania, under the Abp. of Beneventum, 16 Miles from thence, towards Capua. Long. 36. 35. Lat. 41. 15.

Agatharchides, of Gnidos, a Peripatetick Philosopher, in the Time of Ptolemy Philometer, who wrote several pieces of History, among the rest, that of Alexander's Successors.

Agatharchus, a famous Athenian Painter, who was the first that drew Scenes for the Stage, according to the Rules of Perspective. He lived about the 75th Olympiad.

Agathias, the Scholastick or Lawyer, of the 6th Age, is esteemed both for his Poetry, and his Continuation of Justinian's History after Procopius.

Agathis, a Pythagorean Philosopher, being 80 Y. old, K. Archelaus ask'd him, Whether he had any Strength still remaining, to which he answer'd, That Autumn afforded Flowers and Fruit as well as the Spring.

Agathe, a Sicilian Monk, was made Pope, in 5-8. He Condemn'd the Monothelites, and sent Legates to the 3d General Council of Constantinople. He died in 652. or 683.

Agatho, a Musician, who sung so sweetly, that none could resist the Charms of his Voice.

A G A

Agathoclea, a famous, beautiful Courtezan, with whom Ptolemy Philometer fell so desperately in Love, that to Marry her he killed his Wife, and Sister, Euridice, by whom he had Ptolemy Epiphanes. Ptolemy Philometer being dead, Agathoclea, with her Mother, and a Brother of hers govern'd the Kingdom, and would have put to Death the young Ptolemy, but the People of Alexandria sav'd him, upon which Agathoclea fled.

Agathocles, Tyrant of Sicily, either the Son of a Potter, or only bred up in a Potters House, being a handsome lovely Youth, he became a Catamite, and after that turn'd Thief. Weary of that Trade, he lifted himself a Soldier, and was first rais'd to a Centurion, then a Tribune; and lastly, General. He twice attempted the Government of Syracuse, and was twice banish'd. He several times routed the Carthaginians in Sicily, but was himself defeated in one Battle near the R. Thymara; yet Recruiting his Forces, and having won Messina, and other Cities, he first made himself Tyrant of Syracuse, and then of all Sicily, and after that overcame the Carthaginians again, both in Sicily and Africa; where at length having ill Success, his Soldiers mutinied, forc'd him to fly the Camp, and kill'd his Children. Recovering himself again, he reliev'd Corona, burnt the Macedonian Fleet, and returning to Sicily, put these Soldiers to the Sword, with their Wives and Children, who had Murd'rd his. At last he was Poison'd by his Grand-Child Archagathus, in the 122d Olympiad, being 72 years old.

Agathocles, Son of Thymarchus, was taken in the War which his Father wag'd with the Greeks. and being returned, he sail'd over into Asia, subdued Antigonus's Kingdom, and built the City of Ephesus by the Sea.

Lysimachus

A G A

Zyfmachus growing old, took to W. Africe, who contrived Azabacles's death, either because, falling in Love with him, he refus'd to answer her Expectations, or because she was afraid lest her Children should come into the Power after Zyfmachus's Death.

Agathangus, a Babylonian, who wrote a History in Greek.

Agathangus, a Grecian, who wrote a Geography and History of Asia, quoted by some Authors.

Agathyrsi, a People of Scythia, wrote a Law to the Provinces of Carpagoria, and Thracia, in Macedon. Virgil gave them the epithet of Pillars; and once sent many, as if they went naked, and adorned themselves with Sky-colour, to say, That the Ends of the World came from these People; and sent from a Colony of the same to the Cities and Prov. of Asia, to be the same Names.

Agathangus, a Scythian, who wrote a History of Asia, who made some Geo-

A G E

Innovations of the Jesuits, revolted against the K. of Abyssinia, and headed by Melacaxus, one of the Royal Family, forced the K. to confirm their Ancient Religion.

Agde, Lat. Agatha, a little neat C. of France, in the Lower Languedoc, strongly seated by the Sea, at the Mouth of the R. Erant, which makes it a Trading Place. It has a B. under the A. of Narbon. It stands 24 Miles E. of Narbon, and 26 almost W. of Mompeller.

Agas, a Rock in the Borders of Phrygia, of a prodigious bigness, out of which Deduction and Pyræa took the Stones, which by the Command of Ihemir, they threw behind their Backs; whence the World was Peopled according to the Poets.

Agelas, or Agelaus, the 3d K. of Corinth, succeeded Ixion, A. M. 2024, and 27 Y. and was succeeded by Ixion.

Agathangus, a Scythian called Cræsus, Grandfather of him that was killed

A G E

to whom the Romans erected a Temple on Mount Aventine.

Agernius, Agrippina's Servant, who being sent to Nero with the News of her Escape, the most unwelcome Message he could have brought him; Nero threw his Sword between the Fellows Legs, as he was relating the Story, and then caus'd him to be seiz'd, as one who was sent by his Mistress to kill him; with design, that when he had murder'd her, as he afterwards did, he might give out that she killed her self, finding her contrivance, against the Emp. her Son, had miscarried.

Ages of the World, are certain Limits or Periods of Time, distinguish'd by the most memorable Accidents and Revolutions in the World, for the convenience of Chronology and History. Of these, the generality of Chronologers make seven.

The 1st from the Creation of the World to Noah's Flood, } years which lasted ————— } 1655

The 2d from the Flood to the Birth of Abraham, lasted — } 382

The 3d from the Birth of Abraham, to the Departure of Moses out of Egypt, } 505 lasted ————— }

The 4th from Moses's Departure out of Egypt, to the Building of the Temple of Solomon ————— } 479

The 5th from the Foundation of the Temple, to the Reign of Cyrus in Babylon ————— } 453

The 6th from Cyrus's Reign, to the coming of the Messiah ————— } 532 last ————— }

The 7th from the Birth of Christ, to this present year 1702. ————— } 1702

Which in all makes, from the Creation of the World, to this present year 1702. } 5755

The Chronologers for the most part agree as to the Division of Time into 7 Ages, yet there are above 50 different Opinions as to the number of years, which every Age contains, as the Reader may see in Chevreau's History of the World.

A G E

Agefander, a famous Rhodian Architect, who clubb'd with Polydorus and Alexander in making Laocoon's Statue, the Priest of Apollo, which is counted one of the greatest Curiosities in Sculpture; and was found at Rome in the 16th Century.

Agefilas, Son of Archidamus, who after the Death of his Brother Agis, was made K. of Sparta, notwithstanding the Pretensions of Leotichides his Brother's Natural Son. He haras'd all Phrygia, took several Towns from the Persians, and defeated the General Tissaphernes; whereupon the Persian King cut off Tissaphernes's Head, and sent presently to Agefilas to buy his Peace; which Agefilas refus'd, saying, He would not enrich himself with the Booty of his Overthrows. After this, he fought the Thebans, took Corinth, defeated the Acarnanians, ruined Beotia, took a City from the Mantineans, check'd the Progress of Epaminondas, prevented Sparta from being taken by Assault, and died in the 84th y. of his Age, 360 Y. before Christ.

Agefilas, the Son of Neocles, or rather of Themistocles, employ'd as a Spy in Xerxes's Army, where he at length coming up to the King's Tent, he kill'd Mardonius instead of the K. Thereupon being brought to the K. who was then at the Altar of the Sun, he thrust his right hand into the Fire, saying, Such are all the Athenians, O King, and if you will not believe me, I will thrust my left hand also into the same Flames; which undaunted Act so surpriz'd the K. that he set him at liberty.

Agapetus, Uncle to Alis III. K. of Sparta, being deeply in Debt, persuaded his Nephew to make a Law, whereby all Debts were abolish'd, and an equal Division ordain'd to be made made of all Lands. Accordingly all Bonds and Notes were publicly burnt; but the Lands not being divided, the People recalled Leonidas, who reveng'd the Death of Agamemnon upon Agamemnon and his Family, Agamemnon narrowly escaped.

A G H

Agamemnon, was also called Pluto the God of Hell.

Agamemnon, King of Sparta, laid waste the Kingdom of Myrmidon, and divided it into 4 Volumes. After the death of his Victim, he died of a Fever, 8 Y. before Christ. Agamemnon, and according to Herodotus, King of this Name, but the name is ascrib'd to either of them.

Agamemnon, a virtuous, resolute, and brave Man, was the King of Sparta, when he was at the first battle of Marathon.

A G I

Site of this City, at the foot of Mount Atlas, is one of the most beautiful in all the Earth; The Climate the most pleasant, the Soil the richest, the Water the sweetest, and the Air the most healthful. It had once more than 6000 Families; but in Leo Africanus his Time it was inhabited by none but Wolves, Foxes, &c. and one Hermite, who by the help of an too of his Disciples, would have made himself a King if he had been strong enough.

Agiam-Oglans, or, the Children of Strangers in Italy, are young Slaves, either taken in War, or purchas'd from the Tartars, or taken from their Christian Parents. They amount every year to the number of 2000; and being presented to the Grand Signor, are disposed to various Trades, and afterwards employed in the service, &c.

A G I

and a half long, which Xerxes is said to have cut through. The Turks call it Monastir, there being in it 24 Cloisters of Greek Monks. It's the University of Greece.

Agira, or Agyra, a T. in Sicily near Mount Aeus, called now San Philip d'Argirone: It is famous for being the Birth-Place of Diodorus Siculus.

Agis I. K. of Sparta, about A. M. 2998. reign'd but one year.

Agis II. waged a most cruel War against the Athenians, restor'd the Cities of Greece to their Liberty, and conquer'd the Eleans. He was kill'd by his Subjects in Prison, for executing too rigorously Lysurgus's Laws.

Agis III. K. of Sparta, of the Family of the Euryponides, defeated the Athenians and Argives at Manthras, and got the Lacedaemonians many Advantages during the Peloponnesian War: However, Thrasippus drove him out of Attica. He died without Legitimate Issue in the 94th Olympiad.

Agis IV. also K. of Sparta, solicited the Greeks to shake off the Macedonian Yoke, and was assisted to that purpose by the Persian King; but being overthrown by Antipater, one of Alexander the Great's Generals, he lost his Life in the Battel; Olympiad 112.

Agitors, or Aljurators, were a Council erected by Becon's Advice in Cromwell's Army, consisting of two Men chosen out of every Troop or Company. These were the Usurpers great Instruments, and perfectly manag'd by him, in the Execution of his Designs.

Aglais, or Aglais, one of the 3 Graces, Daughter of Jupiter, and Eryone. Her two Sisters were Laphrogae and Iphelia.

Aglauice, the Daughter of Hege- mon, a famous She-Astronomer. When she saw an Eclipse of the Moon, she us'd to brag, That she had ordered that Planet to keep out of the way; but her Vanity being found out, she was but laugh'd at for her Pains.

A G N

Aglauris, Daughter of Cecrops, K. of Athens, was turn'd into a Stone by Mercury, for falsifying her Promise to admit him to her Sister Herse, with whom he was in Love.

Aglans, or Aglains, a Psopidian, the poorest of all the Arcadians, adjudg'd to be much happier than Gyges K. of Lydia.

Aglibolus, a Syrian Deity, particularly worshipp'd in the City of Palmyra. Some will have it to be the Sun, and others the Moon.

Agmet, a T. situated near Mount Atlas, 8 Leagues from Morocco, and which was the Capital of the Empire before Morocco was built.

Agmondesham, a B. T. in the C. of Bucks, sending two Burgesses to Parliament, who now are are R. H. Will. Lord Cheyne, and John Drake Esq.

Agnabet, or Agnettin, one of the chief Towns in Transylvania.

Agnellus, was made Abp. of Re- venna in 555. He obtain'd what had belonged to the Goths, for the Use of his Church, by means of Narses, Justinian's General. He died in 556, being 94 y. old.

Agnes, a Virgin, who was Martyr'd at the Age of 18 Y. under Dioclesian, in the Y. 303.

Agnestio, (John Bystiff) liv'd in the 6th Age, and wrote divers Tracts in Prose and Verse.

Agnestus, or Agnellus, (Andrew) a learned Abp. of Revenna, in the 9th Age. He wrote the History of the Prelates of the Church there.

Agno, one of the Nymphs that bred Jupiter, who gave her Name to a Fountain in Mount Lycus, which, ('tis Fabled) being stirr'd by an Oaken-stick by the Priest of Jupiter Lycus, a thick Vapour rose like a Mist, that at last dissolved into Showers.

H

Agno

A G O

Aglaia, an Athenian Virgin, who being in the School of Hierophilus in Miletus, attain'd to the profoundest Knowledge of Physick, and the proper Care of Diseases and Contagious Women. was afterwards married with her Sex. Phaedra was questioned by the Heavenly Father of Women, and for her Sex before the Heavenly Father only clear'd her Order, where-Aglaia Men were said to Admire the Modesty.

Aglaia, Heavenly, about the Y. 47. Aglaia, Heavenly, Aglaia, who questioned the Heavenly Father of God. Aglaia, Heavenly, Aglaia of that Heavenly Father, the Y. 425. Disciples of Heavenly, who believed that Christ knew not what the Day of Judgment should be.

Aglaia, Heavenly, and Germania, Heavenly, the Heavenly War, who had been Success.

Aglaia, Heavenly, Latin, Heavenly,

A G R

he was worsted by Thebes; and so the Athenians were freed from this Tribute. Agon Olympius was instituted by Hercules, from whence to the first Olympiad are reckon'd 430 Y. Agon Capitolinus, was instituted at Rome by Domitian, in Honour of Jupiter Capitolinus, A. C. 88.

Agonalia, Annual Festivals in Rome in Honour of Janus.

Agonax, Agonax, or Agonach, learnt Astronomy of Shem, or Heber, and taught it Zoroaster.

Agones, a People of Insubria, now la Val di Cogna, in the Territory of Ticinum, or Pavia. There is a R. here also called Agona. Those that killed the Sacrifice in the Agonalia were also called Agones.

Agonius, a Deity, in whose Honour the Romans celebrated the Agonalia.

Agonius, a Deity, was called the Judge of the Combats at the Olympia, and other Public Games.

Agonius, Heavenly of the 8th

A G R

Aganthe, the Daughter of Corymbus, K. of Athena, being too curious to open a Wicker-Hamper, wherein Minerva had enclosed young Erichonius, the Goddess struck her with such a Frenzy, that she threw her self head-long from a Precipice.

Agreeable, an Island made by the R. Liff in the Kingdom of Fer.

Agreda, a T. in Arragon, on the R. Quiles, bordering upon Old Castile.

Agremanes, an Indian K. of the Gangarides, who opposed Alexander the Great.

Agria, by the Germani called Ager, by the Hungarians, Eslem, a C. of Upper Hungary, on a R. of the same Name. It is small, but well fortified. Solyman besieg'd it without Success in 1552. Mahomet III. took it in 1596. It was retaken by the Imperialists in 1687. after a Blockade of 3 years. It stands 7 German Miles from Tackay, 17 N. E. of Buda, and 10 N. of Zelach.

Agricola, (Cneus Julius) a Native of the C. of Frejus in Provence, who lived in the Reigns of Galba, Vespasian, and Domitian, and whose Merits raised him to great Employments.

Agricola, (George) a German Physician of the 16th Century, famous for his Writings, more particularly for his Treatises of Minerals, and of Subterranean Creatures.

Apuleius, (Modestus) a Frislander of prodigious Wit, and universal Learning, who wrote a History and other Treatises. Erasmus wrote his Economian. He was born in 1442. and died in 1485.

Agricola, (John) a very learn'd Man, Contemporary, Townsman, and Follower of Luther; who wrote afterwards in Defence of the Saxon Confession, and died at Berlin, where he was Minister.

Agricola, (Francis) born in Leiden, a T. of the Dutchy of Guiliers, is famous for his Writings and Devotion.

A G R

Agriante, or Agrement, Lat. Grumentum, was formerly a considerable T. in Italy in the Basilicate, with a Bpk. since united to that of Marfica.

Agriensis, certain Annual Feasts solemnized by the Pastor Women in Honour of Bacchus.

Agrippa, (Silvius) a K. of the Latins, who succeeded Tiberius.

Agrippa, (Caster) confuted the Errors of Basilides, and of his Son Siodorus, about A. C. 132.

Agrippa, surnamed Herodes, the Son of Arifobulus by Berenice. After the Death of Herod Antipas his Uncle, he went to Rome, where his Wit and Liberality acquir'd him the Friendship of many Persons in Tiberius's Court, particularly of Drusus and his Wife Antonia. He was imprisoned for wishing, that Caius his Friend might Reign. Caius Caligula being made Emperor, not only Releas'd him, but made him K. of Judas. He put St. James to Death, imprisoned St. Peter, and for his Pride, was eaten up with Worms. There was also Herodes Agrippa, the 2d Tetrarch of Galilee, well-skill'd in Hebrew Customs, before whom St. Paul was glad to be heard. He was the last K. of the Jews, who Stoned him from his Throne; whereupon he retired to Rome, where he lived in much Esteem with Titus and Vespasian.

Agrippa, (Menenius) a Roman General, who Triumph'd over the Sabines; and when the Commonalty of Rome withdrew themselves into the Aventine Mount, not able to endure the Burden of Tribute, nor continual Warfare, Agrippa, by telling them the Apologue of the Members of Man's Body quarrelling with the Belly, brought them to Terms of Accommodation, which were, That popular Magistrates should be chosen, called Tribunes. He died so poor, that he was Buried at the publick Charge.

A G R

Agrippa, (Publius Vipsanius) the intimate Friend and Son-in-Law of Augustus, with whom he was twice Consul, and on a War Carminius Gallus. He was the greatest Captain of his time, and one of the most confident Men that ever Rome had, though a young Man. When he was Adopted, he adorned the City at his own Charge. He was the first that considered Fairs, and was made Consul and Augur.

Agrippa, the Philomous Son of M. Vipsanius Agrippa, was banish'd by his Grandfather Augustus into the Island Hangar, for some treasonable Designs, where he was murder'd by the Command of Tiberius.

Agrippa, (the younger) a noble Gentleman and Orator. Doctor of Law and History, and kept one of the Military Orders. He was a Brother of Lucius Agrippa, and Publius Agrippa, both of them Consuls.

A G U

of Augustus, was an Ambitious, Courageous and Virtuous Woman, Married to Germanicus. Tiberius banish'd her into the Island Pandateria, with her Sons Nero and Drusus, whom he put to Death. She reproaching his Cruelty, he order'd a Centurion to beat her, after which she Starv'd herself to Death.

Agrippina, the Daughter of Germanicus, Sister of Caligula, Wife of Claudius, and Mother of Nero, all Caesars. She was born in a C. of the Ubiens, which she aggrandiz'd, and called Colonia Agrippina, now Cologne. She was witty, handsome, vicious, proud; and thrice Married, the last time to her Uncle Claudius. She persuaded Claudius to adopt her Son Nero, and poison'd her Husband to make way for him. But at length she was order'd to be Murder'd. Agrippina was the Mother of Emperor Nero.

Agrippina, the Daughter of Claudius, was the Mother of Emperor Nero.

A G U

fell passionately in Love with Menrol the Governor's Daughter, and Married her; but upon her proving with Child, his other Wives grew Jealous and poison'd her; yet out of Respect to her Memory, he gave her Father his Liberty.

Agui, or Sultan Agui, K. of Bantam, in 1688. was the Son of Sultan Agum, who resigned his Crown to him. But the young K. displeasing his Father and the People, Agum took Arms to recover the Kingdom. Thereupon Agui craved Aid of the Dutch, by whose Assistance, he defeated his Father, and put him in Prison.

Aguila, a ruinous C. in the Kingdom of Fez, on the R. Enguila. The Lions in the Neighbouring Forests are so fearful, that 'tis a Proverb in Fez, to say of a Coward, He's as fierce as a Lion of Aguila, that lets the Calves eat his Tail.

Aguilameuf, a French Name of a certain Ceremony of the ancient Druids, who being to gather Mistletoe against New-Years-Day, they went about the Fields adjoining to their Forests, crying out, A Gui-l'an-neuf, that is, To the Mistletoe the New-Year, to the Mistletoe, Druids, the New-Y. This Name was also given to a certain Begging in some Diocesses on New-Years-Day, for the Tapers in Churches, which Custom was put down in 1592.

Agulard, Lat. Agilaria, a considerable T. in Old Castile in Spain.

Aguillon, (France) a learned Jesuit of Brussels, who wrote of Opticks, and died in 1617.

Agens, a Name given to Apollo by the Athenians, because they rais'd Altars to him in their Streets.

Agynii, or Agynians, Hereticks of the 10th Age, who said, God forbade Eating of Flesh and Marriage.

Agwis, a Potent Tyrant of the Agyni in Sicily, with whom Dionysius made a League in the first Y. of the 97th Olympiad, against Mago, who invaded Sicily. His principal City was called Agyrium.

A H I

Aba, was a famous Rabbi in the 7th Century.

Abab, or Achab, K. of Israel, a great Idolater, but Victorious over Benhadad, K. of the Syrians. His violent seizing of Naboth's Vineyard cost him the Extirpation of his Posterity.

Abasuerus, was Darius, the Son of Hystaspes, who put away his Wife Vashti to Marry Esther; others will have the Persian Monarch that Married Esther to be Xerxes.

Abar, K. of Judah, an Idolater, who with the Silver and Gold of the Temple, hired Tiglath Pilnezer the K. of Assyria, to assist him against Peckab, K. of Israel, and Rezin K. of Syria. Tiglath Pilnezer took Damascus, and slew Rezin.

Abaziah, K. of Israel, falling down through a Lattice, he sent to enquire of Baalzebub, the God of Ekron, Whether he should recover or no? for which he was foretold his Death by Elijah.

Abijah, a Prophet of Shilo, who meeting Jeroboam, rent his Raiment in 12 pieces, and gave him 10 back again, to shew him God had design'd him to be K. of the 10 Tribes of Israel.

Abimelech, the Priest who reliev'd David coming to Nob, and furnish'd him with Goliath's Sword; for which Saul put both him and all the rest of the Priests to the Sword.

Ahitophel, or Achitophel, one of Abisalom's Counsellors, when he Revolted from his Father; and who hang'd himself for fear of falling into the hands of David.

Abmet, or Achmet, Governor of Egypt for the Saracens in 878. he took Antiochia, and so well establish'd his Dominion, that he left Syria and Egypt to his Children, and resided himself at Damascus. He had 25 Sons who survived him. Abusa,

A I A

Achut, Acher, a Sea-Port T. in Setentrional Atlantic Sea, under the Line.

Achut, Achut, a learned Ancient Author of the 6th Age, who wrote of Medicine &c. &c. Gabriel A-chut, a Jew, Poet and Contemporary, was a Learned Physician, who wrote several Tracts in Verse and Prose.

Achut, or Achut Perez of Ajala, a learned Author of Tracts in Spain, of the 16th Age, wrote several Tracts.

Achut, Achut, of the Tribe of Dan in Canaan, who belong'd to the Levites, and the 1st of Jerusalem between the 1st and 2d.

Achut, Achut, of Avon, a Regent of the 7th Age, Africa, on the Sea Coast, a learned Author of Tracts, who wrote of the Constitution of the Human Body
&c. &c.

Achut, Achut, of the 1st Age, a learned Author of Tracts, who wrote of the Constitution of the Human Body &c. &c.

A I L

Aichstad, Eistadium, and Ala Na-riska, a T. in Germany in the Upper Palatinate, a B. under the A. of Mentz.

Aidanus, the 49th K. of Scotland, succeeded Kinnatellus about the Y.
570. He was the Son of K. Goranus, who reign'd before Eugenius II. for fear of whom he fled into Ireland, from whence he came in the Reign of Kinnatellus, by the Persuasion of Columba, a Scots Wiseman; by whose Interest he was well receiv'd by the King, and after his Death, mounted his Throne. He entered into Confederacy with the Ancient Britons, and wag'd War against the Saxons, with various Success. He died in 604. Aidanus, is also the Name of a Scottish Bp. about 625. who converted Northumbria, and receiv'd
the Pope's Legation.

Aidanus, Aidanus, a learned
Author of Tracts, who wrote of the Constitution of the Human Body &c. &c.

Aidanus, Aidanus, a learned
Author of Tracts, who wrote of the Constitution of the Human Body &c. &c.

A I R

is Bruce the present Earl of Argyll.

mer, an English Benedictine, is in the 12th Age.

re, Alze, or Alisa, a rocky in the W. of Scotland, 24 miles Arran, only inhabited at certain ns of the Year, when Bulles thither to Fish for Cod and ing.

moir, a famous Monk of the 10th of the Order of St. Bennet, wrote the History of France, Gr. uson, or Abinson, an Island on side of China, with a T. of the Name.

rs, a R. of France, common to and Bugey, which discharges it into the Rhofne at Loyettes, to the Port d'Ansin.

semes, a small T. over against Cairo, N. of Memphis, on the le of the Nile, famous for the ns of Balm.

ulphus, an Holy Hermit of the l British Blood. Anulphsbury, a n the Borders of Bedford and ingdonshires, was erected in his dry, part whereof called Aims-s still extant.

rr, a small Country N. W. of n in Scotland.

m, an English Monk who wrote Memoirs of his Monastery of nd, from the Y. 700. to 970.

ra, (Gonsalvus) of Corduba, ist a Soldier, and then the K. in's Historiographer in the 16th

r, Lat. Arria, an ancient Trad- and R. of the County of Kyle : S. W. of Scotland.

ras, an Heretick of the 4th Age, mid, That the Holy Ghost was Consubstantial with the Father he Son.

rank, (Peter) a Lieutenant inal, or Recorder of Angers in r, who wrote several Law s, a strong T. and Castle on the

A I X

Frontiers of Flanders, within three Leagues of St. Omers, on the R. Lys. The French took it in 1641. but it was quickly after retaken by the Spaniards. The French took it again in 1676.

Aire, Lat. Adurium, a C. of France in Gascony, with a Bpk. under the Abp. of Auch, formerly considerable, as being the Residence of the Kings of the Visigoths, but now ruinous.

Airiacum, Airy, a Castle in the Diocels of Auxerre in Burgundy, where in 1020. a Council was held.

Aisne. Lat. Axonis, a R. in France, often mentioned in Cesar's Commentaries.

Aistulfus, K. of the Lombards, was forced by Fepin K. of France to restore to Pope Stephen III. whatever he had Usurp'd from the Holy See, viz. The Exarchate of Ravenna, with all the Country between the Po and the Appennine, from Piacenza to the Morass of Venice, and the Adriatick Sea. Some time after he was killed as he rode a Hunting in 758.

Aius, or Locustius, a Deity, to whom the Romans erected a Temple in the new way.

Aix, Lat. Aqua Sextia, the capital C. of Provence in France, founded by the Romans, 14 Leagues from Arles, and 13 from Avignon. It was ruin'd by the Goths and Saracens, but always rebuilt. It has now noble Buildings, large Streets and Piazzas, and fine Churches. It is also an Apbk. University and Parliament-Town. The Prelates have held many Provincial Councils here. Their Hot Baths are used both for Bathing and Drinking. In the great Church they have a side Chapel, into which, they say, if any Woman enters, she is immediately struck Blind.

Aix-la-Chapelle, in French; Lat. Aquisgranum, called by the Inhabitants Aken, an Imperial T. in Germany, on the Borders of Fuliers and Limburg, and protected by the Duke of Fuliers.

A K I

Aquis-Grana. It is said to have been built by Constantine the Father of Nero, A.C. 50, and it is then called Aquis-Grana. This City having been ruined by the K. of the Huns, it was rebuilt by the Emp. Charlemagne, who granted it great Privileges upon it, and made it the seat of the Empire on the 10th of Aug, ordaining that the K. of the Franks should be Crowned there with a Crown of Iron, and a Stole with one of Silver, and at Fonse with one of Gold. This C. has been destroyed 832, when it was destroyed by the Normans. It was afterwards repaired, but it has suffered much by the Fire divers times since, particularly in 1655. The more remarkable Structures here, are the Town-House and the Church of our Lady built by Charlemagne, in which are kept aundance of Relicks. The City is particularly famous for its Hospitals, which are much respected by the People. It is also famous for its Hospitals, which are much respected by the People. It is also famous for its Hospitals, which are much respected by the People.

A L A

deavoured to corrupt the Scripture by shortning the Lives of the Patriarchs, with design to prove, That the Messiah was not yet come. There was another Rabbi of the same Name and his Contemporary.

Alilus, a K. of Æthiopia, who lived in the first Century.

Akingis, or Acanges, a sort of Volunteers or Freebooters among the Turks.

Alaba, a small Country of Castile in Spain, lying along the R. Hebro, whose capital is Vitoria.

Alaba, (Diego) a Bp. of Cordaba, and afterwards of Astorga in Spain, who wrote concerning Universal Councils, and assisted at that of Trent.

Alabanda, there were anciently two Cities of Caria of that Name: One of them was before called Aradusa, and had its new Name from Alab, the Son of Erippus; the other was built by the Cars, and also called Alabanda.

ALA

al, John d'Alagon, a Gentle-Providence, who laid a Design on the City of Marseilles into the hands of the Spaniards, but was betrayed, and put to Death for treason.

al, Abu-mohamet Abusard,
K. of Granada, who rais'd his Reputation by the Disorders of the King of Spain, about the Y. 1237.
His reign'd for 250 Y. by the Name of Alahameres.

al, the first, surnam'd the Do- main II. surnam'd the Long;
III. the Son of Pasquissans, takes of Bretagne in France;
of which in the Y. 890. destroy'd 15000 Normans, leaving but al, first surnam'd Wry-beard;

L. Alain III. surnam'd Fer- blein IV. surnam'd the Black, Count of Bretagne; of Alain III. was at the Recovery of Holy Land by the Christians.

al, K. of the Goths, ravaged Spain, and Thessaly, which he took from the Emp. Valens, thro'
the Advice of Maximus their Goal de Insulis, surnam'd the Universal, on account of his Learning. He was Rector of the University of Paris, and died in 1294.

He was above 100 Y. old. He was sent to Dispute at the Lateran Council, and ordered by the Pope to al, a Beneditine Monk, who wrote several Works, particularly the History of Thomas of Becket's Banish-

al, Lat. Alani, a barbarous Mongol Nation that over-ran Eu- rope in the 4th, 5th, and 6th C. Some say they were the Scythians, others the Scythians, or Alani.

al, a T. in the Lower Languedoc
in the Bpk. of Nismes.

al, little Islands in the Ara-

ALA

bian Gulph, where Tortoises are caught.

Alalcomena, anciently a small C.
of Beotia, built by a Pr. of that Name, famous for the Temple of Minerva, and the Tomb of Tiresias.
The T. of Abac, in the Island of the same Name, was also called Alal- comena.

Alamander, K. of the Sassanians, being about turning Christian, and the Disciples of the Heresiarch Seve- rus, contending for the Honour of Baptizing him, to put 'em off, he told 'em, He had News brought him that the Arch-Angel Michael was Dead: They answering, that it was impossible: How? said he, Is it im- possible that an Angel should Die?
How then could Christ suffer Death,
if as you say, he had but one Nature.

Alamat VI. the last K. of the Persians, of the Race of Ussun-Cassan, Dethron'd and Slain by Ismael, the first of the Sophis in 1499.

Alambater, Gall. L'Isle-de-Dieu, on the Sea-Coast of the Prov. of Gu- zarate in India, 50 Leagues from the Mouth of the R. Indus, with a good Haven, and a Castle belonging to the Portuguese.

Alamir, Pr. of Tarsus, assumed the Name of Calypso, and with a great Army invaded the Empire in the 9th Age, but was defeated and slain by Andrew Scyba, Governor of the Levant.

Alan, or Allen, (William) a Lan- cashire Man, bred in Oriel Colledge in Oxford, became Head of St. Mary's Hall, and going beyond Sea, was the first Founder of the English Seminary at Dowry. Pope Sixtus V. made him Cardinal in 1587. for his Zeal for the Church of Rome.

Aland, a Swedish Island at the Mouth of the Bothnick Gulf, E. of Finland.

Alap, a Soldan of Egypt and Baby- lon, who retook Fleiss from the Christians,

A L A

Chaldeans over which he exercis'd great Barbarities.

Alans, a Clan of Arabian Robbers settled in Barbary.

Alaric I. K. of the Goths, ravag'd the West, 408. being invited thither by Aspar after the Death of Theodoric the Great. In 413. he march'd into Italy, but was defeated by Stilicho, who gave him liberty to retreat but, at the promise of a great Sum of Money, he would assist him to Detest the Emperor Honorius, which being discover'd, Stilicho was kill'd at Polenta. Alaric return'd again into Italy, and took Rome in 409. but being suddenly passing into Sicily at Mazara, he died in his return at Cumae, and was Buried in a River.

Alaric II. K. of the Visigoths, succeeded Furc in 484. or 485. tho' in Spain, he refused the Catholick Religion. He was slain at Agde; and his Body was Abandoned to Theodoric the Great K. of France. Theodoric, who, attacked Alaric, not

A L B

Alba Regalis, or Sibul-Weissenburg, a City of Upper Hungary. It stands in a Morass (which fortifies one side of it) on a Lake and the River Sarvitz, W. of Buda 45 M. And here the Kings of Hungary were Crown'd and Buried. It was recover'd from the Turks in 1688.

Alban, an eminent Painter of Bologna in the 17th Cent. To be able to draw Venus and the Cupid's to the Life, he Married a poor but beautiful Virgin, who with her naked Boy gave to him. He died in 1660.

St. Alban, was the first that was Martyr'd in Britain for Christianity under Dioclesian in 303. from the place of whose Martyrdom or Birth, Veneriam assum'd the Name of St. Alban's in Hertsfordshire.

Albans, a T. of the Asiatick Albania on the Caspian Sea of considerable Trade.

Albanus, Tarcan Abp. of Graciana, wrote an Abridgment of the Hist. of Spain, and some other Books.

A L B

, a T. in the K. of Naples, Title of Principality.

is, a sort of Hereticks in the who renewed most of the Errors. They held two the one Good, and Father Christ; and the other Bad, of the Patriarchs, and the of the Old Testament.

olis, a C. of Macedonia, the is of the Albanesi, about 40 n Dyrrachium, now Duraz- us, Lat. Fanum St. Albani, and M.-T. in Hertsfordshire, from St. Alban the Proto-Britain, in whose Honour was founded here in 795. It was built out of the Ruins of Verulam. It has been with the several Titles of Earl, and Duke. With the Person of Francis Baverulam, Viscount St. Alb Lord High Chancellor of With the 2d in the Person de Burgh: And with the Person of Charles Beauclair, Son of Charles II. It sends Members to Parliament, who George Churchill and John ires.

, a Mountain now called Alano: Also a Lake known name of Castell Gondolpho: the Campagna di Roma, a- from Rome.

Braidalbin, Lat. Albania, he W. of Scotland, N. of some Derive this Word at Album, which they think ame with Alpum, i.e. High; ey pretend that Albanus igh Scotland, or the highest land. This Country gives of Duke to the Eldest Son d.

in, Lat. Albaracinum, a in Arragon on the R. Vir.

À L B

Albategnius, a Syrian Prince of the 9th Age, who is also known by the Name of Mahomet of Ara?, which is a City in Chaldea. He wrote very curious Observations on the Sun, the Moon, &c.

Albati, a sort of Hermits, so called from the White Linnen which they wore Ann. 1399. in Pope Bonifacius IX's time: They came down from the Alps into several Provinces of Italy, headed by a Priest Cloathed in White, and a Crucifix in his Hand, who passed for a Saint.

Albemarle, the most Northern part of Carolina in the W. Indies, where there are two English Colonies settled.

Alben, a Mo. in Carniola, where are Mines of Quick-silver. 'Tis called in Latin, Albanum, Albius, and Albium.

Albenga, Lat. Albiga, or Albingaunum, a large well-built, but ill-peopled Sea-Port T. belonging to the Republick of Genova, with a Bpk. under the Abp. of the Capital.

Albergati, (Nicolas) a Cardinal under the Title of Santa Croce, Bp. of Bologna. Pope Eugenius IV. sent him to Preside in the Council of Basel, but the Fathers of that Council would not acknowledge him. He died Ann. 1443.

Alberic, Marquis of Heiruria, Son of Adelbert and Marozia, was put to Death by the Romans, Ann. 950. for having called in the Hungarians into Italy.

Alberic, Abp. of Reims, who undertook a Crusade against the Albigenses and Saracens, Ann. 1212.

Alberic, a French Monk, who wrote several pieces of Poetry, and a Chronicle from the beginning of the World to the Y. 1241.

Alberic, or Albrice, a learned English-Man born at London, Ann. 1217. who wrote several Pieces.

Alberic, or Aubrey Vere, a Canon

A L B

Regular of the Order of St. Austin, celebrated Charles's League concerning the Edict of Restituti, & lived Ann. 1250.

Albert I. Son of Rodolphus the Emp. and the first of the Arch Dukes of Austria. Having killed in a Battle, Ann. 1248. with his own Hand, Adrian King of Italy, who had been preferred before him to the Empire; he was Crowned at Aix-la-Chapelle. He was Successor to Frederick D. of Saxony.

Albert II. was Son-in-Law of the Emp. Sigismund, and after Sigismund's Death, was Crown'd K. of Hungary and Bohemia. He drove the Poles out of the Empire, and reduced the Moravians to Obedience. He died Ann. 1435.

Albert III. Duke of Meckelburg, was Elected King by the Nobility of Sweden, who could not bear the Tyranny of Magnus IV. but being afterwards fallen from the Throne, Diord, was overthrown in a Battle by Magnus Q. of Denmark and Norway, and ry. He Besieged Ostend, and at the end of 3 years, 3 months, and 3 days, took it, Ann. 1609. He died 1621. without Issue.

A L B

Albert III. Duke of Bavaria, refused the Kingdom of Bohemia, and died Ann. 1460.

Albert IV. D. of Bavaria, died Ann. 1500.

Albert V. D. of Bavaria, succeeded his Father William III. Ann. 1550.

Albert I. D. of Saxony, surnamed The Proud, rebell'd against his Father, Ann. 1195. and kept him in Prison.

Albert II. D. of Saxony, surnamed The Degenerate, being fallen in Love with a mean Woman, called Cunegunda, attempted to Poison his Wife, who was Daughter to the Emperour Frederick II. but she escaped to Frankfort, where she died. When Albert Married Cunegunda, and by her had a Son called John, whom he designed for Heir.

A L B

and Fox of Germany, had Wars in Silesia, Bokemia, Prussia, and Germany, which were advantageous to him. He died Ann. 1486.

Albert, Grand Master of the Teutonic Order, and first Hereditary Duke of Prussia, embraced the Protestant Religion, and died Ann. 1568.

Albert-Frederick, of Brandenburgh, was Invested with the Dukedom of Prussia by Sigismund II.

Albert, Marquis of Brandenburgh, Son of Casimir, was called, The Alcibiades of Germany. The Emperor Charles V. sent him Ann. 1547. to the Elector of Saxony to receive from him the Town of Roslitz. Ann. 1552. he entered into a League against the Emperor, and raising an Army, pillaged Prussia, railed vast Sums from D. Albert, took the Town and Castle of Lichtenau; burnt it with 100 Villages, and 70 Castles. The Bps. of Bamberg and Wirtsburg, as well as the T. of Nuremberg, and several others of Swabia, were forced to Treat with him, and give him vast Sums of Money. He also wasted the Territories of the Electors of Mentis and Treves, took the C. of Spire and Worms, and harra's'd Lorraine and Luxemburgh. At length he agreed with the Emp. but soon after he continued his Outrages, and being routed, Ann. 1554. he was put into the Imperial Ban; whereupon he retired into France. But having leave to return home to defend his own Cause: He died of a Melancholy, Ann. 1557.

Albert I. surnamed, The Great, D. of Brunswick, and Son of Otto I. died Ann. 1297.

Albert II. D. of Brunswick, younger Son to Albert I.

Albert, Abp. of Mayence, Duke of Lorraine, Chancellor to the Emperor Henry V. who made him one of his Electors, died Ann. 1137.

Albert Aquensis, a Canon of Aix-

A L B

la-Chapelle, writ the History of the Duke of Bouillon's Expedition into the Holy Land; He lived Ann. 1180.

Albert Argentinesis, wrote a Chronicle of the German Empire, from Rodolphus I. to Charles IV.

Albert of Padua, a Monk of the Order of St. Austin, was in great Reputation in the 4th Cent. for his Learning and his Theological Writings.

Alberti, (James) of Bologna in Italy, in the 4th Cent. wrote a Treatise shewing the Difference between the Civil and Canon-Law.

Alberti, (John) a German Lawyer, very learned in the Oriental Languages, published an Abridgment of the Alcoran, Ann. 1543. with Remarks.

Alberti, (Leo Baptista) of Florence, famous for his Skill in Architecture, lived in the 16th Cent.

Albertus Magnus, a German Dominican, born at Lawingen in Suabia, Ann. 1193. or 1205. (or according to others, an Austin Friar born at Padua) was an extraordinary learned Man. Urban IV. forced him to accept of the Bpk. of Ratisbonne. He died at Cologne, Ann. 1280.

Albi, Lat. Albia, or Albiga, a C. of France in the Upper Languedoc, with an Archbishop's See.

Albius, Bp. of Prague, a great Friend to John Hus, and the Disciple of Wicliff, was a Person of Wit and Learning.

Albigenses, in French, Albigois, were so called because they liv'd first in the Country about Albi, from whence they spread themselves all over Lionnois, Languedoc, and Guienne. Their Opinions were near the same with those of the Waldenses. They were Excommunicated and Persecuted by the Pope, but Feder K. of Arragon, and the Earls of Troulouse, Foix, Cominges, &c. undertook their Protection. These Confederates

A L B

Aldobrandi having been defeated by Simon Earl of Montfort, a Peace was made between Raymond Count of Toulouse, and Levis the Godly; so that the Albigenses were most of them reconciled to the Roman Church; The remainder retired to the Alps and Piedmont, where they formed a Church some what after, upon the Model of Catharism.

Albion, an Enchanter or Magician in S. Augustine's time.

Albion, a name of Frutus, the supposed Father of Britain, who had perished in Scotland if he had not been killed by Humber K. of the Flavians.

Albion, a name of Alfred, a Poet, Contemporary with Alfred.

Albion, a name of Alfred, a Poet, Contemporary with Alfred, who had himself to be Prince and King of England.

A L C

quent Disputes about Philosophical Questions.

Albategen, Hali, an Arabian Astronomer, who lived in the 12th Age.

Alboin, K. of the Lombards, extirpated the Goths, and then falling into Italy, took Milan, Pavia, Ravenna, and was at last Assassinated by his Wife Rosmund's Gallant, called Helmiges, Ann. 574.

Albon, a Co. of the Viennois in the Prov. of Dauphiné.

Alboran, or Albusma, a little Island in Africa near the Kingdom of Fex.

Alborg, a T. of Denmark in Futland, a Bpk. under the A. of Lunden.

Albornoz, (Giles Alvarez) Abp. of Toledo, was made a Cardinal by Clement VI. Ann. 1342. His Successor was Albornoz, a name of Alfred, a Poet, Contemporary with Alfred, who had himself to be Prince and King of England.

ALC

Alcaraz, a learned Arabian geographer in the 10th Cent.

Alcaz, a Goddess, worshipp'd by the Indians in a Grove near Tyburum. Alburnus, now Alborno, a Mo. of Italy.

Alquerque, a small C. of Portugal, the Title of Dukedom, which was enjoy'd by the famous Alphonso Alquerque, Viceroy of the East who died, Ann. 1515.

Alquerque, (Edward) Knight of the Order of Christ, wrote the History of the War of Brazil.

Alcibiades Silus, an Orator of Novus very much esteemed at Rome, being tormented with an Immense Pain, starved himself to Death of that Pain.

Alcibiades, the Father of Canida, famous for his extraordinary Conquests.

Alcibiades, a Lyrick Poet, born in Greece, in the Island of Lesbos, a Enemy to Pittacus one of the Seven Wise-Men.

Alcibiades, a high Mo. in the Kingdom of Spain.

Alcaide, a Name given in Barbary to that hath the Administration of Rice, and the Guard of the Prison.

Alcala de Henarez, Lat. Complutum, a Town of the New Castile famous for its Univerlity.

Alcala Real, Lat. Alcala Regalis, a City in the Kingdom of Granada.

Alcibiades, the 9th K. of the Argives, succeeded Teleclus, and reigned 17 Y. He is celebrated for his Justice, Abstinence, and Witty Repartees.

Alcibiades, a young Man of Sparta who put out one of Lysurgus's Eyes in a popular Insurrection. Also, a son of Sarpedon, K. of Lydia killed by Ulysses before Troy.

Alcantara, a small fortified C. of Spain on the River Tagus or Tajo, remarkable for its Antiquities, and noted for an Order of Knights, who take the Denomination of Alcantara, formerly Knights of the Pear-Tree.

ALC

Alcaraz, a C. of New Castile in Spain, on the R. Guadiana, 125 M. S. E. of Madrid.

Alcatraz, made K. of Cordova by the Arabians, but because he favour'd the Foreign Mahometans, his Subjects rebelled against him, and his Favourites hung him up in the Fortref of Cordova.

Alcibious, the Son of Pelops, who succeeded Euripus in the Kingdom of Megara. See Megara.

Alcazar, the Name which the Moors gave to their Royal Palaces.

Alcazar, Quivir, or the Great, the Chief T. of the Prov. of Asgar, upon the Coasts of Barbary, famous for that Battel where Sebastian K. of Portugal lost both the Field and his Life.

Alcazar-eguer, or, the Little Palace, a C. of the Prov. of Hobes, in the Kingdom of Fez.

Alcenor, or rather Alcinor, an Argive, one of the two that escaped in the Combat of 300 Argives with 300 Lacedemonians, to determine the Bounds of their Territories.

Alceste, the Daughter of Pelias, and Wife of Admetus King of Thes-saly, who offered to Die for her Husband.

Alcetas, K. of Macedon, Son of Eropus, and Father of Amyntas, died A. M. 3527.

Alcetas, Son of Arybdas, and K. of the Epirotes; who because of his Cruelties and Extravagancies, was murdered by his Subjects.

Alchymy, the Art of Purifying Metals, turning the less perfect into Gold and Silver, and Extracting of the Spirits of Minerals and Plants. The Alchymists pretend, that Adam taught it Enoch, and that from him it descended to Moses and others.

Alciati, (Andrew) a famous Milanese

ALC

Alce Lawyer. Francis I. invited him to France, where he Read upon his Profession at Align n, Bourges, &c. He died at Padua, Ann. 1550.

Alciu, (Tirentius) a learned Jesuit of Rome, wrote the Acts of the Council of Trent, &c. He died Ann. 1551.

Alciut, (Paul John) a Milanese, who being banished by the K. of Poland for his Soliman Opinions, died at Dantzick.

Alcibiades, the Son of Neatides, and Sovereign of Lampjaceum, join'd with Cassander to expel Pisistratus from Athens; but growing too potent, he was banished by Cleisthenes.

Alcibiades, General of the Athenians in the Peloponnesian War. His Envyers accusing him of Sacrilege, he fled to Ikber, and caused the Lacedaemonians to enter into a League with the K. of Perse to besiege Athens. But being recall'd by the Athenians, he constrained the Lacedaemonians to retire by Land, of Aolus; who seeing her Husband the King Ceryx wreck'd, threw her self into the Sea, near the place where she saw his Corps.

ALC

Alcioneus, a Gyant, the Brother of Porphyrius, who was kill'd by Hercules.

Alcippe, the Daughter of Mars and Aglaure, who was pursued by Halirrotius the Son of Neptune, with a design to Ravish her, for which he was killed by Mars.

Alcippe, the Daughter of Oenomaus Mother of Marpissa, born away from her Husband Evenus by Idas. Also the Name of a Woman in Pliny that brought forth an Elephant. Also the Wife of Alcippus, a Lacedaemonian, who to Revenge her self on that State for Banishing her Husband, seizing all his Substance, and forbidding the Marriage of her Daughters, first burnt the Noble Women in the Temple, then kill'd her self and two Daughters.

Alcius, a Name of the fore-

A L C

not well fir; on which Cresus caused him with his Burthen to be carried home. Also the Name of a Disciple of Pythagoras, and Son of Pirithus of Croton, the first Writer on Natural Philosophy, he believed the Stars were animated, and mov'd about the Sun by their own Soul.

Alcmaeonidae, Alcmaeon's Posterity, of great Esteem in Athens, and vigorous opposers of the Tyranny of Pisistratus, from whose Tyranny they delivered their Country; being expell'd their Country by the House of Pisistratus, with the Amphictions, They built the Temple of Delphos, its Front all of Parian Marble; and so manag'd the Priests, that by their frequent Admonitions of the Lacedaemonians to set Athens free, their Fleet drove out the Pisistratidae their Allies from that City.

Alcmaer, the capital C. of the N. of Holland, and one of the finest of the Low Countries, built A. C. 550. first fortified by William K. of the Romans, in 1517. It was plunder'd 8 days successively: In 1573. by the help of additional Fortifications, it repulsed the Spaniard. It sends Deputies to the States of Holland, States General, &c. and stands in a fruitful Country, 5 L. N. of Harlem, and N. W. of Amsterdam, whence you pass to it through the R. Yssel.

Alcman, a Lacedaemonian Lyrick Poet in the 27th Olympiad. 655 Y. before Christ, one of the oldest Greek Poets.

Alcmena, Amphitryon's Wife and Daughter of Electryo, and Lysidice: Jupiter being in Love with her, in her Husband's absence, at the War he had undertaken in Revenge of the Death of Telebais Alcmena's Brother, enjoy'd her in Amphitryon's shape, and begot Hercules, who was born with lutescent got by her Husband.

Alcock, (John) being born at Beverly in Yorkshire, and bred at Cambridge. when he was made Bp. of

A L C

Ely, and Chancellor of England built a Chappel at Beverly, and founded Jesus Colledge, Cambridge, out of the old Nunnery of St. Radegonda, erected by Malcolm King of Scotland.

Alcon, Son of Erethbeus King of Athens, who killed a Dragon, with his Arrows, without hurting his Child that was seiz'd by it.

Alcoran, an Arabick Word, that signifies Reading or Collection, and is given as a peculiar Name to the Book of Mahomet's Law. Though Mahomet himself first made this Book by the help, as People imagine, of two Monks, one a Jacobin, the other a Nestorian, and some Jews; yet sure whoever reads it, will never think that there needed any Club to such a Mess of Stuff, that exceeds Gargantua, &c. in monstrous Absurdities and foolish Stories. 'Tis divided into 4 Parts, and each into several Chapters; as the Chapter of the Cow, the Emmet, the Spider, &c. 'Tis composed of Moral Doctrines, and blind Tales; the Sacred History blended with Fables; Predestination is a Fundamental of their Law, as well as Propagation of it by the Sword. Mohavia, Calyph of Babylon, out of 200 different Comments on this Book, made the present Alcoran, by locking up the most learned in the Law, to write and distinguish the Truth from the Errors: But notwithstanding all the Prohibitions of the Caliph to other Opinions; There are sprung four Sects among them; viz. The Imenian, or Sect of Haly, of which are the Persians; The Sect of Melich followed by the Arabians and Moors; The Sect of Omar, of which are the Turks; And the Sect of Odman, of which the Tartars are.

Alcoraz, a C. in New Castile, memorable for a mighty Victory over the Moors, Ann. 1094.

Alcoffir, a Port on the Red Sea, where the Europeans take Shipping for Abyssinia.

A I D

Aldrich, (Ælfric) an Orator, Historian, Poet, Mathematician, and Doctor, Disciple of Venerable Bede, and S. J. of York. The Fame of his Learning prevail'd with Charlemagne to beg him of Offa K. of Mercia. His favour with that Emperor, enrich'd, enrich'd, and instructed the Universities of Tours and Jumi. In 754. he was one of the Fathers of the Synod of Transfont, and died at his Abby at Tours in 840.

Aldrich, the words called Merth, (Merth) standing on the River of Mercia. Here Philip of Mercia lost one of his Eyes: A sore Eye, so deep, that Neve could not with pain'd could not get the bottom of it; 'twas call'd Merth, (Amphiarus, the son of Phrygia).

Aldrich, (Ælfric) a Spiritual Counselor, and a learned Man, who wrote many Books, and was his own, John of Leyden, and Knipperdolling; his Drawings with a Pen were admirable.

A L D

Alderbury, a small Village in Shropshire, remarkable only for old Pare's being born there, who liv'd 152 Y. and saw 10 Reigns.

Aldernay, an Isle on the Norman Coast, noted for the Sea-fight betwixt the English and the French in 1692.

Aldhelmus, was the Son of Kemen, of a Family very Noble, if not Royal, in 705. He was Bp. of Exeter, and applied to as the Oracle of Learning by all the Men of Letters in Europe. He was a mighty Stickler for the Romish Celebration of Easter; was said to be the first English-Man that writ in Latin Verse. He wrote several Things; was very Religious and Chast, and the Monk, h Writers attribute not a few glorious and ridiculous Miracles to him. He founded a Monastery at Milton, Bet-died at Horn-Castle in Lincolnshire,

A L E

Ann. 1555.

Aldrovandus, (Ulysses) a great Physician and Philosopher of Bologna, was Author of 120 Books on several Subjects, yet extant, and died Ann. 1605. Maphew Barbarini writ his Panegyrick.

Aldraius, born in England, and of so great Knowledge in Natural Philosophy, &c. that the Ignorant Age thought him a Conjuror.

Aldrich, a good K. of the E. Angles, succeeded his Uncle Ethelwald in 664.

Ale, a Kingdom of the most barbarous Negro's in Africa: When the King is advised by his Subjects in Matters of Peace and War, they speak into the Ditch, which after is fill'd up, that it may not discover their Resolutions; no Man daring to utter them for fear of Punishment. The Women beautifie their Persons by Carrying on their Flesh in rais'd Work, Birds, Beasts, Flowers, &c.

Aleth, Daughter of Acheron and Night, or Pluto and Proserpina, one of the Furies, and her Name imports Wither: Repose.

Aletris, transform'd by Mars from his Beloved Youth, into a Cock, for letting the Sun (by his Sleeping, as he kept the Door) discover the Intrigue betwixt Mars and Venus.

Aletris, or Geographus Nubentis, a Geographer that divided the World into 7 Climates, 500 Y. since, in the time of Roger K. of Sicily.

Aletrius, (Philip) a Jesuit of Brussels of the 17th Cen. who continued and made Additions to the Bibliotheca of the Writers of that Order begun by Beladenius.

Aletrius, a small Island not far from the Cannaries, with a good Harbour commanded by a strong Fort.

Alegrinus, (John) born at Abbeville in Flanders, of a noble Family; who having by his Learning and Abilities attain'd the Cardinal's Cap, and the Patriarchate of Constantinople, died Ann. 1240.

A L E

Alemanni, the old Germans, on the Confines of Gallia Belgica, and Rhaetia. The Etymologists can't agree in the meaning of the Name, more than the Geographers on the Ancient People to whom it belong'd. 'Tis now taken for Germans in general.

Alemannus, succeeded his Father Teuta, (the German Hercules) in the Kingdom of the Ancient Germans, who are thought to derive that Appellation from him: He us'd to have a Lion in Chains led after him; whence the Lion is put in the Achievements of the German Princes.

Alemar, Mahomet's Green Standard-Bearer, on the Grand Signior's publick Appearances.

Alemia, a large and powerful C. 4 miles W. of Hispania, and at Wars with it. They both were subdued by the King of Ier.

Alemont, a C. of Normandy, once dignified with an Earldom in the Family of Valois, erected into a Dukedom by Charles VI. Ann. 1414. now annexed, with the most considerable Bailliage in that Province, to the Crown. The City is large and fair on the Sarre, over which, and the Brume, which it there receives, there is a Bridge, and in an Island made in the City by these Streams, stands the Convent of St. Clere: in the Parish of Our Lady, are the Tombs of the Dukes of Alemont. Here the Protestants were saved from the Massacre in 1572. by Mr. de Maignon, who afterwards took it for the Leaguers: It suffered much in the last Civil War.

Alemont, an Hallam C. on the R. Water, frequented and noted for its Salt Spring.

Alemos, a Prov. of Portugal, 25 L. long, and 34 broad, betwixt the Tago, or Tages, and Gualiana, whence its Name, in a wonderful rich and plentiful Soil; nor less noted for Evora, the ancient Seat of their Kings; and the Victory of Orique,

K 2

over

A L E

over 5 Moorish Kings, by Alphonfus 1. of Portugal.

Alexandria, on the small R. C. Nile, where Circuit it takes in 4 Hrs. for the guest of which stand 100000 In. Building but meanly, and lined with Marble Pillars, &c. It has 26 Mosques, 70000000 Dones; 3 Colleges of Divinity, Philosophy, and Law, and 40 Caravanserays, or Inns, and 50 publick Baths, 12 Gates, and 3 Suburbs. There is a few Maronites and Romanists, but more 16000 Greek Christians under an Abp. 12000 Armenians under a Bp. and as many Jacobites and Coptics under their Bp. each in their distinct Churches. 'Tis the 3d City of Lower for Wealth, largeness and populousness, 120000 dying of the Plague there in 3 months. 'Tis the Residence of the Bp. of the Archiepiscopate, who has 2 guards of 10000 Men, but is still of the R. Drin, fam'd for the Tomb of George Castriot, or Scanderbeg, the Scourge of the Turks.

A L E

Alestry, (Richard) born at Upton in Shropshire, Ann. 1619. of an ancient Derbyshire Family. In 1636. he was admitted of Christ Church, Oxford, which he left in the Civil Wars for the King's Service, but returned to his Studies again, when Oxford was made a Garrison; and after having served the King again, as a Soldier, and in other Posts being very active for the Restoration, he was made Canon of Christ Church, Chaplain to the King, Regius Professor, Provost of Eaton, and Doctor of Divinity. * He died and was buried at Eaton, Ann. 1680.

Aletb, a C. of Languedoc in France, at the foot of the Pyrrean Hills, 4 M. W. of Narbon, and 16 S. of Carriffon, a Bp. and a Maritime.

Alethea, a C. of France, Ann. 1619. a small and cast. city, the Sc. in fam'd of the Alexandrians, he was d by Cereas, a Pilot, in 3964. under II. Son of the former, from Mithridates, was re- his Crown by Sylla, but d by his Subjects 19 days Coronation.

A L E

under III. succeeding his Bro- exander II. after a happy 17 Y. was expelled by his , and died at Tyre.

under I. K. of Epirus, Brother ias, Alexander the Great's , leaving Epire to avoid dying . Acheron, as foretold, War'd via, and complain'd that he with Men in Italy, while his , only with Women in Asia. kill'd in Lucania near a River me Name Acheron.

under II. K. of Epire, and Son bus, beaten from his Invasion olon, by Demetrius, Son of us, and then out of his King- which yet he recovered by p of those of Acarnania.

under I. K. of Macedon, the Amintas, and the first that e Name of the Macedonians , in his Youth often been Victor Olympick Games, and slain the Ambassador for his Familia- ish the Court-Ladies. He d 41 Y. in great Honour, and L. M. 3508.

under II. of Macedon, Son ntas III. was treacherously 'd by his Brother Ptolemy , in 102d Olympiade.

under III. K. of Macedon, d the Great. Son of Philip of , and Olympias a Daughter of , was born in the 106 Olympiad, . before Christ, on the very that Diana's Temple of Ephesus . He discharg'd the Ad- ration of the Government in hers abience to Admiration, ing a dangerous Revolt at 15 . Sav'd his Fathers Life at : soon after, and gained the Wonder and Love of the most ex- perientc'd Officers. He first killed Attalus, Cleopatra's Brother, whom Philip, having Divorced himself from Olympias, had Married; then retired to his Mother; whence recalled, he punished all that had a hand in his Father's Death; and having subdued Illyrium, Thrace, Thebes, &c. in the 111th Olympiad, declar'd War against Persia; and routing Darius at the Granic Flood, he over-ran Lydia, Ionia, Caria, Pamphylia, and Cappa- docia; and by two other Victories over Darius, and some over Cleopbis and Porus Indian Kings, he possessed great part of Asia and Egypt. Jose- phus tells of his Sacrificing to God at Jerusalem, &c. On the news of Darius's Death he wept, and observ'd a wonderful Mastery of his Passions towards the Wife and Daughter of Darius, whom he kept inviolable and honour'd. He was a Lover of Poe- try and Philosophy, as his magnificent Presents to Aristotle and to Charibus show. At the Sack of Thebes he spar'd the House and Family of Pin- dar; And in the 114th Olympiad, in the 32d year of his Age, he died at Babylon, either by intemperate Drink- ing or Poison. He either out of Policy or Vanity would needs pass for the Son of Jupiter Ammon, not of Philip, and so his Mother was re- ported to be impregnated by that God in the shape of a Dragon, or by Nisanebo, an Egyptian King, and Magus in the form of Jupiter.

A L E

Alexander Lyncestes, the Son of Eropus, was pardoned by Alexander the Great, tho' accused of having a Hand in K. Philip's Death, for being the first that saluted him King; but on discovery of his Treason of agree- ing to destroy his King, he had him Seiz'd and put to Death.

Alexander Epiphanes K. of Syria, vanquishing Demetrius Soter, he gain'd his Throne, and Married Cleopatra, Daughter of Ptolomæus Philometer, who who after 4 years took her away and gave her to Demetrius Nicator; for whom, they drove Alexander out of the Kingdom, and had his Head sent him by Abdolan Arabian, to whom he had fled.

A L E

Alexander II. Zebias: Ptolomæus Philometor made him K. of Syria, by the untimely Death of Demetrius Nicator, whose Son, Antiochus Gryphus, was slain by him again, by a Battel, in which Alexander fell.

Alexander I. King of the Jews, was the Son of Hyrkanus, and Brother of Antiochus; he gained the Kingdom by the Favour of Salome. Was slain by Death his Brother and Countrymen for the Crown, by the Order of Antiochus.

Alexander was the Son of Antiochus, and was slain by him for the Crown, by the Order of Antiochus.

A L E

Puſſillanimity overcome by Maximus, and was sent to Maximus. Strangled.

Alexander Emp. of the East succeeding his Brother Leo Philoſophus of a sloathful and voracious Temper having eaten too much, broke his Vein by getting on Horſeback and died of it, at one infamous Reign.

Alexander, K. of Poland, the Crown being chosen, from the great Duke of Lithuania, he gave that Dutchy to Poland, on condition that the Lithuanians should give their Voices in the Election of their King. On his Death-Bed he heard the Slaughter of 20000 of his Enemies in the Battel.

Alexander was the Son of Antiochus, and was slain by him for the Crown, by the Order of Antiochus.

and, in 1263. By his K. of Norway, killing e 20000 Men he had ir, in Claim of the We-

In 1285. he broke his Horse, having Married dy after the Death of Daughter, in the 45th y.
nd 37th of his Reign.
st of his Race, having
e Crown.

, Duke of Albany, Bro-ames II. of Scotland, ha-Escape from Edinburgh
ngland, by the assistance
V. of England, he was his Dignity, and van-Enemies; being made restored his Brother to who, however resolvfor what was past; on of it, Alexander fled and, and thence to France,
ed, leaving two Sons,
his first Wife, and John d, who was afterwards eland.

of Hales from the place
ation the Monastery of

by Margaret of Austria his Natural Daughter. At 12 years old he was at the Battel of Lepanto. In 1578.
he was made Governour of the Low Countries, and by his Moderation, Conduct and Valour, recover'd most of what his Predecessors Cruelty or Cowardice had lost. He relieved Rome and Paris against Henry IV. defeated and drove the Duke of Alencon's French out of the Low Countries, but being wounded in his Retreat out of France in 1592. he died at Arras, in the 46 year of his Age.

Alexander I. Pope, was born in Rome. In the 10th year, and 7th month, he sat in that Chair, he ordered Holy Water to be in its Benediction mingled with Salt, and Sprinkl'd in private Houses, Ad Demons Morbosque fugandos, to drive away Devils and Diseases; and Water to be mingl'd with the Wine, as a token of Christ's Union with his Church;
and that the Host should be of Unleavened Bread, and added Præ-quam præteritur before hoc est corpus meum, and was Martyr'd in Adrian's time.

Alexander II. elected Pope in

A L E

your'd it's Ham I. in his Pretences to England. Sat 11 years, and died in 1173.

Alexander III. not without great Difficulties succeeded Adrian IV. in 1159. but vanquishing the 3 Anti-Popes set up by Frederick Barbarossa Emp. As he pronounced his Pardon at Venice, set his Foot on his Neck, with these Words, Super Aspidem, & Es Inimici ambulabo. He called the 3d Council of Lateran.

Alexander IV. chose Pope in 1254. was an mighty Favourer of the Mendicant Orders: He Warr'd with the Emperors with various Success; all Italy at this time being over-run by the factions of Guelphs and Gibelines. Spent much Money out of England for a Crown, for which being disappointed by the War of the Venetians and Genoese, died of Grief in 1261. in the 7th year of his Papacy.

Alexander V. was a poor Friar taken up in the street by a French Merchant, and transported by him to the Redoubt of aged 72. in 1503. having sat 4 and 3 days.

A L E

Alexander VII. his Family Chigi of Stens, and he succeeded Innocent X. in the Papacy; he the Venetians against the Turks liberal to the Romans, made betwixt France and Spain the Match of Lewis XIV. with Catalants; He Canoniz'd Vida Nov Francis de Sales Bishop of Geneva Christened the K. of Morocco And having Sat above 12 died 1657.

Alexander VIII. See Octobor Alexander, The Collier, Chose of Comana by St. Gregory of Nicea, at the instance of the People that City, from a Collier in France, in 232. He proved a le Bp. and suffer'd Martyrdom the Emp. Decius.

Alexander Bishop of Cappadocia in 312. and then Coadjutor of Nicomedia, and then Bishop of Constantinople in 325. and died in 340.

A L E

mission to the Church, being unable to hinder by his Interest at Court, by his Prayers (as they tell you) he made Arrius void his Bowels. He died in 337. in the Empire of Constantine.

Alexander, in 408. chosen Patriarch of Antioch, was a good Divine, and by his Conduct and Application united the Schism in his Diocess betwixt the Orthodox, about the Succession, and invited the Communion of Pope Innocent I.

Alexander, Son of the Count of Fuliers, was chosen B. of Liege, when in that Chapter were 9 Sons of Kings, 24 of Dukes, 38 of Earls, 7 of Barons, &c. he was deposed by Innocent II.

Alexander, a Follower of Valentinian the Heretick. He held that Christ's Flesh must be of the Substance of Man, or it could not be humane, &c. He wrote of what Christ did in the Flesh, &c.

Alexander, by Nation a Jew, and Converted in the 4th Cent. on his return into Judea narrowly escaped with Life; on which Account 'twas made Punning for any Jew to torment a Christian.

Alexander ab Alexandro, born at Naples, where in the 15th Cent. he was an eminent Lawyer: He writ a Book De Diebus Genialibus, &c.

Alexander Aphrodisiensis, a Peripatetic, was the first that led the way to the Commentators on Aristotle, and the first Professor of that Philosophy at Rome, there established by Marcus Aurelius.

Alexander of Abonoteichos, a Pseudo-Prophet of great Note for his Impositions on the credulous Vulgar: He first bred up two Serpents till their full Growth; then he put a young one into the Shell of a Goose-Egg, artificially clos'd up, and conveyed it into the foundation of Apollo's Temple, then a building; and pretending to find it publicly, he show'd it to the People: Æsculapius, and soon after exposed one of his tame full grown Serpents, as if that little one, declaring, that Æsculapius would give his Oraculous Answers, to Seal'd up Questions, without breaking the Seals; which he did himself so artificially, that it got him both a great deal of Money, and a great deal of Authority with the People. Lucian has a good Account of him. He died miserably of an Ulcer, and not Thunderstruck as he had Prophesied.

A L E

Alexander Tralliensis, Son and Scholar of Dioscorus, born, as his surname imports at Trallis in Bithynia, in what Age uncertain; he was a great Physician, and wrote several Physical Books.

Alexandretta, or Scanderoon, a Port, and C. of Syria, on the Mediterranean, where is a French Vice-Consul, and an English Consul: 'Tis the Port to Aleppo. See Scanderoon.

Alexandria, now call'd Scandaria, founded in the 112th Olympiad, by Alexander the Great, betwixt the Sea and the R. Nile. It was the Seat of the Ptolemaique Race, which gave it Beauty, Wealth, and Magnificence, and that was rather added to by the Possession of the Romans, till Caracalla; for a Jest on whom, abundance of the Youth of that City were Massacred: the Cisterns of Water, which was conveyed by Aqueducts from the Nile, but once a year, growing Corrupt, make the Air unwholesome. On one side is the new Haven, on the other the old. Join'd to this City by Cleopatra, was the Pharos, one of the old Wonders of the World. Of all this vast City, scarce the Ruins remain, with but 8000 Inhabitants, (which once contain'd 300000 Freemen besides Slaves) who Trade in Medicinal Roots, Spices, &c. the Portuguese discovery of a way to the Indies by Sea, having ruined this City more than the Turks. Here is St. Mark's Church or Tomb, in the Coptic or Egyptian Christians

A L E

Chilias, Islands, the Ruins of Cleopatra's Palace, the Cells of the Seventy-two Interpreters, and the Remains of Isis's Pillar, &c. are to be seen. And here once was the Library of Ptolemy Philadelphus, containing 5000 Vol. burnt by Julius Cæsar, when he took Alexandria by Storm, Ann. 3903; taken again by Augustus 3920; besides Tribute, it supply'd Rome with four Month Corn. It was taken by the Saracens 641, and in 1147, the Venetians, and K. of Cyprus took it, but soon lost it: In 1167, the K. of Jerusalem took it again; its present Inhabitants are Fews, Moors, Cypriots, and Armenians, who live by Trade, there yet being 100 Mosques and Churches in it. The Church of Alexandria, was founded by St. Maria the Evangelist, and it has been famous for several Synods and Councils against Arians, and other Hereticks; nor is it less remarkable for Learned Fathers, as Crisostom, &c. more in p. 25 St. Crisostom.

A L E

Alexandrinus di Neustatus (Julio), a Native of Trem, a Learned Physician of the 16. Cent. who wrote several Books.

Alexandrium, a Castle of Judea, on the W. of Jordan, remarkable for being the place where Aristobolus, K. of the Jews, surrendered himself to Pompey; and for the Custody of Marianne, Wife of Herod the Great, while he went to Rhodes to Augustus.

Alexas, a Jew, and an intimate Friend of Herod, whom he caus'd to Marry his Sister Salome, tho' against her Will; but she at last consented, in compliance with the Empress Livia's Commands.

Alexas of Laodicea, presented by Timagines, to Mark Anthony, was the occasion of the Amours of this Roman with Cleopatra, and of his Divorce from Octavia, Augustus's Sister; for which, he was afterwards severely punish'd by that Emperor.

Alexis, son of Alis, a C. of Rome.

L E

d forsaken by every

Porphyrogennetes, suc-
 er Manuel Comnenus
 the Tuition of An- cle, who murder'd
 s Mother Xena, and s Widow, a Daugh-1183.

nam'd Comnenus and , tho' his Name was
 as a brutish, cruel, since. He depriv'd both of his Empire ereupon Alexius, the w'd aid of the Vene-
 1203 took Constanti-
Isaac out of Prison, Isaac, who was aftera Cloyster, by The-
 is Son in Law.

ad the pleasure to restor'd, and was l Emp. in 1203; but next year, Alexius
 the Empire, and ith his own Hands.

(Ducas) surnamed ecause of his bushy
 he had strangled A- upon the Empire; but rry, Brother to Bald- enders, in his march inople, was totally being taken, he is, where old Alex- be seiz'd, and his

Old Alexius flying Baldwin, Murispbi- brought to Constan- own head-long from and his body torn multitude.

was, was first Emp. of a Empire continued at of Constantinople, ve the Christians out

14, Patriarch of Con- 1025, being corrupted
 n'd the Parricide Mj-

A L F

Michael Papblagonus, and Married him to the Adulteress Zoa the Empress.

Alexius Michalowitz, Czar of Mus- covy, succeeded his Father Michael in 1656. He took all Lithuania, which was restor'd to the Polanders
 in 1656, except the C. of Sinolen- sko. He renew'd the Polish War with ill success, and died in 1676.

Alfenus Varus, first a Shoemaker, became a famous Lawyer, and Antiquary at Rome, under Sulpitius Severus, and was Consul, A. C. 2.
Horace reflects on him in a Satyr.

Alfesus, or Alphesus, a Rabbi of the 12th Age, who wrote an Epi-tome of the Talmud.

Alfissib, a Country in the S. part of the Island Madagascar.

Alford, a m-T. in the E. parts of Lincolnshire, about 107 m. from London.

Alfred, or Alpbred, an English
 Historian of the 12th Age.

Alfred, the youngest of Ethelred's Sons, surnamed the Unready, was cruelly us'd by Canute, the Danish
 K. of England.

Alfred, K. of England, the 4th Son of Ethelwolf, succeeded his Brother Ethelred in 871. He fought several Battels with the Danes, with various success; till in the year 879.
 They pass'd over from England into France, and Flanders, to seek their Fortunes in those Parts; wherein they made such Progress, that it appear'd, the French and Flemish were no more able than the English, to keep off the Danish Inundation. In 885, a vast Fleet of Danes put to Sea against England, but being Landed, Alfred drove 'em back to their Ships; and sending his Fleet towards the Count. of the East Angles, then Inhabited by the Danes, they took 16 Danish Ships; but in their return, the Danes fell upon 'em, and worsted them. In 893, two Danish Fleets came upon our Coasts, and Landed their Men, the first in the E. of Kent,

A L F

the other at the Thames Mouth: Alfred fought 'em at Earnham in Surrey, and put 'em to flight; yet the Danes continued to be troublesome in several Parts, tho' generally to their loss. At last they gave some respite to Alfred, and let him Reign 3. years in Peace, before his Death, which happen'd in 900. He was handsome, of ready Wit and Memory, a lover of good Men, a great encourager of Learning, and the Founder of University-College in Oxford. No Man was more frugal of his Time, and Revenue, nor wiser in the disposal of both. Wimington in Berkshire was his Birth place, and Winchester that of his Sepulcher.

Alfred, call'd the Eastard, K. of Northumbria, was son of Oswin, by a C. Saxon. He was a great Warrior, and wrote several Tracts in Latin. He died in 700.

Alfred, an English Bishop, was in the Mon. State of Mecklenburg, was made Bp. of Exeter, and is reported to be the first that brought the

A L G

Protection of Egbert, the Potent K. of the West Saxons.

Algarbia, or Algarve, a small part of Spain, united to Portugal, the Capital of which is Favara.

Algerus, a Learned Priest of the Church of Liege, in the 12th Age, who wrote against Beringerius concerning Transubstantiation.

Algerus (Pomponius) of Nola in Italy, studied at Pavia, where he turn'd Protestant, and endeavour'd to propagate his Persuasion in private; but being found out, he was carried to Rome, and there burnt for a Heretick in 1545.

Alger, a Sea-Port of Sardinia, and a Bpk. under the Apb. of Sassari.

Algiers, Lat. Algiris, or Algaria, the Capital C. of a Kingdom of the same Name, is call'd by the Africans, Cheer de Beni Me'sina, and by the Turks, Alger. It is the wealthiest C. of Africa, seated on the side of H. M., near the Mediterranean Sea, with the whole Building on have kept with the English since. In 1688 the French Bombarded this C. and destroy'd two thirds of it.

A L I

Algionus, a Learned Venesian, in the 16th Age, who corrected the Impressions of the Greek and Latin Authors, Publish'd by Allus Manus.

Algizra, a ruinous Sea Port T. in Spain, upon the Streights of Gibraltar.

Algow, a Country of Germany in Saxia, where stand Ausburg, Kempten, Munichen, &c.

Alguer, or El-Alguer, a T. in the W. of Sardinia, in the Neighbourhood of which, they Fish Coral.

Altus, a T. of Spain, in the Kingdom of Granada.

Alhazen, or Alharon, a Learned Arabian of the 11th Age, who has writ several Tracts of Opticks, &c.

Ali, Mahomet's Son in Law, whom, at the point of Death, he declar'd his Successor; but being frustrated by Osor, and Osmar, he retired into Arabia, of which he was Governor; and by the gentleness of the Alterations he made in Mahomet's Doctrines, drawing Multitudes of Arabians after him, he made himself Chief of the Saracens, and Agreni, and defeated Mahomet, Osman's Son; but by the procurement of Muriz, Osman's General, he was murder'd in a Mosque.

Ali, the Son of Joseph, 3d. K. of Morocco, of the Race of the Almoravides, invaded Spain in 1114, and ravag'd the Country about Toledo. The next year Alphonfus II. gave him Battel, and slew him, with 3000 of his Moors.

Ali Bassa, a great and experienced Turkish General, under Amurath II. who Married him to one of his Sisters. He died in 1663, being 70 y. old.

Alian, a K. of the Moors in Spain, who sent out a Fleet to ra-vage the Coast of Italy, and the Adjacent Islands in 780. But Charlemaign oppos'd him with another Fleet, that sunk 2 of his Gallies. Afterwards Charlemaign join'd his Forces with Alphonfus, II. K. of Castile, took Lisbon, and slew 6000 of the Barbarians. At length Alian died of a Fever in 819.

A L I

Alattes, or Aly Attes K. of Lydia, routed the Cimmerians, by letting loose amongst 'em a great Number of Mastiffs, which put them in Disorder. He ravag'd the C. of the Milesians, and after 5 Y. War with the Medes, made a Peace with Cyaxares, and gave his Daughter Arienz in Wedlock to his Son Astages.

Alibaluc, an Island in the Caspian Sea, over against the Mouth of Araxis, belonging to the K. of Persia.

Alicant, Lat. Alone, a rich and populous, tho' a small City of Spain, on the Mediterranean Sea, in the Km. of Valencia, with a Harbour, famous for the Trade of Wine, and other Commodities.

Alicata, a T. on the Coasts of Sicily, which some falsely imagine to be the ancient Gela.

Alisa, or Alipka, a C. in the Terra di Lavoro, on the Banks of the Vulturnus, with a Bpk. under the Abp. of Beneventum.

Alipius, the Companion of St. Austin, with whom he was baptiz'd by St. Jerome. He was deputed to the Emp. Honorius against the Pelagians, and chosen one of the Disputants against the Donatists. There was a Geographer of this Name, suppos'd to be him who govern'd England for the Romans, and to whom Julian the Apostate committed the Rebuilding of the Temple of Jerusalem.

Alizees so the French call Trade Winds, which blow periodically in different Parts of the Atlantick, Aethiopic, Indian, and Pacifick Seas.

All-

ALL

Aliquiber one of Mahomet's Captains, very Stout, but very humour-some.

Adm of Fle K. of the South Saxons, and the 2d. K. of the He-ptarchy, Essex and Surrey, in 483.

... by the Help of the further North Kingdom of Northum-
... which continued 370

a K. of the Lusins, named Lusins, and by others Ro-

He was so proud that he equal'd
 The great Caesar, and would impeach the gods; but was himself

Admitted with real Thunder, A.
M. ...
Admitted, twice repeated in

... a Learned Man, of the 1930s. A. G. Kerner of the University of Illinois, Urbana, and the late J. H. R. MacArthur of the University of California, Berkeley, were the first to suggest that the 1451. Phaeocephalus ruber (Linn.)

Greenish above, white below.

ALL

Abertson, North Abertson, 2 Bo and m. T. of Abertson Huan the W. Riding of Yorkshire, 16 from London.

Allia, a R. of the Sabines, call'd Criminata, or Riviera di, which runs into the Tiber, near . It was held in Abomination by Romans, because they were defeated by the Gauls, comma by Brennus.

Allier, Lat. Flavir, a R. of P. which falls into the Loire at Allier below Nevers.

Albin, (Edward) a Londoner, a famous Stage-Player, who had a good Estate, built a fair lodge at Dunwich in Kent, for the relief of poor People.

Allington, (Giles;) the pr
Lord Allington, is the Son of Mr who was Lieutenant of the 7 and was, I think, a Peer, wa an Englishman. A younger brother of the family, who was a Major-General, was killed at the Battle of Waterloo.

A L M

Amberge, Wife of Hermenfroy, part of Thuringia, Brother to and Bertier, who had equal with him. Her Husband hacaus'd Baudry to be murder'd, perswaded him to rid himself of ier. Whereupon he joyn'd with y K. of Meiz, and routed and l Bertier. But being treacheto Thierry, he caus'd him to be in headlong from the Walls leiac, Anno 531. And the crumberge fled to Albalarick, K.
e Ostrogots.

Almagra, (Diego) a Spaniard of ire Birth and Education, who,
Pizarro discover'd and conquer'd
; both of them being brutish fellows, exercised great Crus upon the Indians. At last gr was put to Death by Pizarro, his Son reveng'd, by causing to be Beheaded in 1545.

Almaguer, or Almagra, a small the S. of America.

Alma (Jane) a famous School-of Paris, who has written severtreatises.

Almace, Lat. Almensis, formerly chief T. of Gallia Belgica in Lor-
2. Leagues from Nancy.

Almorav, usurp'd the Kingdom
after the Death of Albaca.
was successful against the Christi- and died in 1002.

Almorav, I. (Joseph) K. of Mo- n, being invited by the Spanish n, invaded Spain in 1158. But beaten by the Christians, he into Africa, and afterwards ing with a more numerous was kill'd at the Siege of San- in Portugal.

Almorav II. (Jacob) Son of Jo- man'd Emir el Memounim, over into Spain with 40000 and won the famous Battel in 1159. Then returning Africa, where his Subjects were ed, he took Morocco, and pu-the Rebels contrary to his

A L M

Word; for which, being reprov'd by a Marabout, he wandred about the World in Penitance, and died a Baker at Alexandria.

Almedine, formerly a rich and populous, now a ruinous C. of Africa, in the Kingdom of Morocco.

Almeida (Immanuel) a Portuguese
Missionary Jesuite, who was above 40 years in the East-Indies, and died at Goa in 1646. He has writ several Books.

Almeria, a C. of Spain, with a Bpk. under the Abp. of Grenada, from whence it lies 21 Leagues.
In the Times of the Saracens, it had a K. of its own call'd Aben Hus: It was Founded by Almericus, a Go-thick K. and was the usual Port at which the *Moor*s Landed in Spain.

Almeria, or Villa-Rica. a T. of New- Spain, on the Gulph of Mexico; the Natives call it Nzotbalan.

Almissia, a strong T. in Dalma- tia on the Sea, 16 M. E. of Spalatro, Long. 39. 33. Lat. 36. 50.

Almo, a Brook which falls into the Tiber at Rome.

Almohades, the Names of the 4th Race of the Kings of Morocco, and Fez, the first of them being Ab- dalla Elmohadi: See Abdalla.

Almohadi, Bill, a Caliph of Persia, who recover'd what the Generals of his Predecessors had usurp'd, and died in 1151.

Almondbury, Lat. Camelodunum, formerly a famous C. now a Village in the W. Riding of York-shire, 7-m. S. E. of Halifax.

Almonstacen, the last Caliph of the Race of Abax, was slain by the Tatars, who took Bagdat in 1238.

Almops, one of the Gyants that Warr'd against Jupiter, from whom part of Macedon was call'd Alma- pis.

Almoravides, a People of Africa, who expell'd the Zenets out of Fez
in 1052. Their first K. was Abul Texif, their Line was extinguish'd by Abdalla Almohadi. Al-

A L O

Almouchiquois, or Almouquiquois, a Sort of Savages in Canada, in America that dwell towards the R. of Choucouer, and the Island of Baccha.

Almunecar, a T. of Spain on the Coast of Granada, 13 Leagues from it to the S. formerly call'd Moenobz.

Aine, a R. of Northumberland, on which stands Almick.

Ainey, a small Island in the Severn nigh to Glocester, where a famous Duel was fought for the Crown of England, between K. Edmond Ironside, and Canute the Dane: The Dane finding himself wounded, propos'd, That the Kingdom should be divided, to which Edmund agreed. Canute had the North, and Edmund the South part.

Alnwick, a m. T. in Northumberland, 226 m. N. from London, seat

A L P

1667 the French took it; but now the Spaniard has it unfortified.

Alpes, or the Alps, great Mountains, dividing Italy from France, Switzerland, Rhatis, and Germany, extending from the Ligurian Sea at Genoa, to the Adriatick at Frioul, and call'd by several Names, according to the variety of the Situation. The Emperor Augustus subdued all the People inhabiting the Alps. Some of those Mountains are continually cover'd with Snow, from whence, or from the white Rocks, some think they derive their Name.

Alphenus Varus, a Friend of Virgil, who with Pollio and Gallus, preserv'd the Poet's Estate from being given to Augustus's Veterans.

Alberghinus, or Alfraganus (Ma-bomet) an Arabian Mathematician of the 9th Age, who wrote a Book of Astronomy, and some other

A E P

to the Kingdom of Naples, lepted by Joan the Queen,
 the City of that Name, whole Realm, and died in

of Leon and Castile.

is I. Son of Peter Duke of Navarre, was successful against the Moors, and 1157. Alphonfus II. the of Lisbon, and several o-from the Saracens, of 70000 in one Battel: 11821, or 824. Alphonfus was a great Benefa-e Church, and a valiant of Mahomet and Abdalla, Kings. His Son Garcia
 ainst him, and forc'd him his Crown after he had years. He died in 912.

IV. call'd the Monk, be-row'd a Religious Life, broke, and assumed the 1114. His Brother Ramir up again in a Cloyster.

V. corrected the Laws of wag'd war against the was kill'd with an Ar-Siege of Vijco, in Por-

1128. Alphonfus VI. the took Toledo in 1085, and her considerable places:
 60 years old. Alphonfus warrior, fought 29 pitch'd ainst the Moors, and was e last in 1134, or 1137.

III. Emperor of Spain.
 VIII. sought aid of the K. of France, against the which Joseph the 2d.
 in Spain: At first he prov'd but hastning to relieve sieg'd by the Moors, he died on the Mountains torrens in 1157. He also the Kings of Navarre and Alphonfus the VIII. or able and Good, was pro-after the Death of his Fa-he desired in 1158 at

A L P

4 years of Age: Of which his Neighbours taking advantage, encroach'd upon his Dominions, which he afterwards recover'd. He also reduced the Moors to send for Almonfor
Emir to their relief; upon which Alphonfus, being abandon'd by the other Christian Princes, came off with loss; but was quickly reveng'd by the Death of 20000 of the Inf-dels. Mahomet Emir breaking the League, Alphonfus defeated him, with the slaughter of 150000 Foot, and 30000 Horse at Muradst. His Queen was Elianor, Daughter to Henry the II. K. of England. He died in 1214. Alphonfus IX. reign'd in Peace, and died in 1230. Alphon- fus X. the Wise and the Astrologer, succeeded his Father Ferdinand III.
 in 1252. He made the Astronomical Tables, call'd Tabula Alphonfina, in which work he spent 40000 Crowns. He refused the Imperial Crown of Germany, contenting himself with the Title of Emp. which he resign'd to Pope Gregory X. whereof he repented, and would have re-assumed the Imperial Title and Arms, but for the fear of an Excommunication: he was dethron'd by his own Son Sancho, and died for Grief in 1284. He was successful against the Moors. Alphonfus XI. kill'd 200000 Moors in one Battel in 1340, and took many Prisoners. He died of the Plague at the Siege of Gibraltar.

Kings of Naples.

Alphonfus I. See Alphonfus V. K.
 of Arragon. Alphonfus II. K. of Naples in 1494, was hated for his cruelty by his Subjects, who call'd in Charles VIII. K. of France, upon whose taking of Naples, Alphonfus resign'd his Crown to his Son Fer- dinand, and retired into a Monastery in Sicily, where he died soon after.

Kings of Portugal.

Alphonfus I. (Henrique) the Son of Henry of Burgundy, of the House M of

A L P

of France, routed five Kings of the Moors at Corsique in 1139, and that year was crown'd K. of Portugal. He instituted the Order of Aviz, and took for his Arms the same number of Crown-pieces, or Fezans, as he had overcome Kings of the Moors, which are the Arms of Portugal to this day. Alphonfus II. the Fat, maintain'd a Bloody War with the K. of Leon, which was compos'd by Innocent III. He was Valiant, had success against the Moors, and died in 1232. Alphonfus III. being excommunicated by Alexander IX. and Gregory X. he fought at their vain Tomb, and carried on his Wars with success. He died in 1279. Alphonfus IV. (the Brave) Warr'd against the *M.*s and Castilians, and triumph'd the latter to win the famous Battel of Turiffa, in 1340. He died in 1350. Alphonfus V. call'd the Affirmant, because he took Tombes, Algar, Algarve and Agues, from the *M.*s. He was protect ed his Countries, by the Protection of Charles V. on condition, that he should hold Modena and Reggio of the Empire. He married for a second Wife one of his Mistresses, by whom he had Alphonfus, Father of Cesar, since Duke of Modena. He died in 1524. Alphonfus II. Duke of Ferrara, Modena, &c. signaliz'd his Valour in the Emperor's Service against the Turk, and died in 1597. Alphonfus III. Duke of Modena, and Reggio, succeeded his Father Cesar in 1628, and after the Death of his Wife, turn'd Capuchin, and died in 1644. Alphonfus IV. Duke of Modena and Reggio, succeeded Francis I. in 1658, and was several times General of the French Forces in Italy, and died in 1662. He married Cardinal Mazarin's Sister, by whom he had Francis II. now Duke.

A L P

Alphonfus was a Scamard of the 16th Age, who turn'd a Few, turn'd a 16th Man, and was made Rector of the University of Salamanca, and Professor of Physick at Padua, the Author of several Books. He died in 1644.

ALS

Alpinus, K. of Scotland, in the 9th Age, made an unsuccessful War with the Picts, whose Government Frederick had arrogated to himself. Alpinus fought this Usurper at Restenor, a Village of Angus, where Frederick was slain, and the Scots got the Day; but Brudus being chosen K. by the Picts, he by a Stratagem routed and took Alpinus in 834, and put him to Death, with many of his Nobles, which was afterwards severely reveng'd by the Scots, who call the place where he was slain Bas-Alpin.

Alpinus (Cornelius) a Poet, Contemporary with Horace, who in a buxkin-Style wrote the History of Memnon, slain by Achilles.

Alpaxaræ, Alpujares, the Mountains of the Sun, in the Kingdom of Grenada in Spain.

Alresford, a m. T. in Hampshire, 39 Miles from London.

Alric, a Saxon K. of Kent, usurp'd the Regal Power, after the Death of Alaric, the last of the Line of Hengist. Kenulph K. of Mercia took him Prisoner, and soon after set him free; but his own Subjects would not receive him.

Alric, an English-Man, born in Cumberland, who liv'd a Hermit's Life in a Forest near Carlisle, and died in 1107.

Alsasia, Germ. Alsatz, a Prov. of Germany, 9 German Leagues in length, and 3 in breadth; The Seat of the ancient Tribocchi. It had the Rhine on the E. Lorrain on the W. the Palatinate on the N. and Sunt-gau, and Franche-Comptè on the S. It is one of the most fertile and best water'd Parts of Germany, and remarkable for numbers of Cities, of which the chief are, Strasburg, Colmar, Haguenaw, Schelstad, Landsow, &c. The House of Austria enjoy'd it, till the French in the late Wars made it almost a Wilderness.

ALT

Alsen, an Island in the Baltick Sea, E. of the Dukedom of Sleswick, belonging to the K. of Denmark. In it stands the Magnificent Castle of Sunderburg, and the Fortreis of Nordeburg, belonging to the Dukes of Hollatia.

Alsfeldt, a very ancient T. in Hesse in Germany.

Alsford, a m. T. in *Hants*shire.

Alstedius, a German, who has writ several Books, particularly an Encyclopedia, in 4 Vol. He died in 1646.

Alston-Moor, a m-T. in Cumberland, 209 M. from London.

Alta, Alten, and Aenbotten, a R. and Road for Ships in Normay.

Altidas, or Althalas (or Sethos) the 11th K. of the Affrymans, who liv'd in Peace and Tranquillity.

Altubeim, or Altthiem, an ancient T. of the Grifons.

Altai, and Althai, by some call'd Belgian, are Mountains of Asia, in the Northern Tartary, on which are buried several Kings of the Tartars.

Altamont, a fair T. in the Kingdom of Naples, 23. Miles W. of Rossano.

Alta-Villa, by some Altamura, a small T. and Principality in the Kingdom of Naples, but thinly inhabited.

Altdorf, the chief C. of the Canton of Uri in Switzerland. The Houses are here generally painted with the Victories won by the Inhabitants. It has no Walls, nor does it need any, there being no way to it, but thro' narrow Defiles. This Canton is Roman Catholick.

Altemberg, a C. of Transilvania, built out of the Ruins of Zalnatra.

Altemburg, a C. and Dukedom of Germany in Misnia, 24 M. South of Leipsick.

A L V

Altemburg, Hung. Owar, a strong T. of the Lower Hungary, 6 Leagues from Al.

Altemburgh, a ruinous Castle in Argow, in Switzerland, from whence the Earls of that name take their Title, and from whence some derive the House of Austria.

Alta, a small T. about a Mile from Amboise, famous for the Treaty concluded there in 1689, between the K. of Denmark, and Duke of Holstein Gottorp, chiefly by the Mediation of William III. K. of England.

Alterius, a Mountain of Caria, that breeds abundance of Scorpions.

Alth, a R. which parts Palaschia, and Transylvania, and falls into the Danube.

Althea, the W. of Aeneas K. of Calydon, and Mother of Meleager, who hearing that all his other Sons were killed in a Sedition, in a passion flung the brand into the Fire, upon which the fate of Meleager depend-

A M A

Alvarez, (Emmanuel) a Jesuit born at Malera, was a good Grammarian. He died in 1582.

Alvarez, (Diego) Archp. of Trani in the Kingdom of Naples, liv'd about the year 1640, and wrote several Polemical Tracts.

Alvaratus, (Felix) a famous Lawyer of Padua, of the 15th Age, who wrote several Tracts.

Alvernus, now Monte d'Alverno, a Mountain near Florence in Tuscany, where the Papists say Christ appear'd to St. Francis.

Alyattes, K. of the Indians, and Father of Crasus, wag'd War against the Cimmerians, the Medes, and Milissians. The Lydian Virgins erected him a Tomb at Sardin, raising the Money for that charge by prostituting their Bodies. †

Alyxothoe, a Nymph, by whom Prizus had Ejapus, who was turn'd into a Didapper.

Am, a C. of Armenia, wherein were 10000 Houses, and 1000 and Turkey. It stands on a Mountain, which is two hours march to the top.

A M A

Amset, a little, but very fruitful Island of Denmark, divided from Copenhagen, only by a small Arm of the Sea, which is past over by a Draw-bridge. The Inhabitants are descended from the Norrb-Hollenders, to whom this Island was assign'd to make Butter and Cheese for the Court, and still retain their Habit, Language and Customs. It is, as it were, the Kitchen-Garden of Copenhagen.

Amaguan, an Island of the N. America, and one of the Lucayes near Hispaniola.

Amaj, (Francis) a famous Spanish Lawyer, who wrote several Treatises, and died in 1640.

Amalaric, K. of the Visigoths in Spain, and Lower Languedoc, routed and pursued to Death by Childebert K. of France.

Amalarius Fortunatus, a famous Abp. of Triers in the Reign of Charlemain. He wrote the Book of the Sacrament of Baptism, dedicated to that Emperor, which goes under the name of Alcuin.

Amalarius, a Deacon of the Cathedral of Metz, liv'd a little before Andorinus of Triers, tho' Authors often mistake the one for the other. The Deacon liv'd in the Reign of Louis the Debonair, by whose direction he wrote the Book De Ecclesiasticis seu Divinis Officiis. He wrote also other Tracts.

Amalasuntha, Daughter of Theodoric K. of the Ostrogoths, a Princess of great Wit, and who understood Greek, Latin, and all the Dialects of the Barbarians in the Roman Empire. Her Husband Attabric being dead, she married her Kinsman, who made her his y. Justinian the Emp. streng'd her, extirpating the Goths in Italy.

Amaleck, S. of Eliphaz, (the Son of Esau) from whom the Amalekites descended.

A M A

Amalphi, or Amalfi, a small ill built C. of Naples, with a Dutchy and Abpk. It stands 24 m. E. of Naples, and is remarkable for Masfianello's Birth.

Amalric I. K. of Jerusalem, succeeded his Brother Baldwin III. took Pelusium, and expell'd Sirakon twice out of Egypt. He might also have taken Grand Cairo, but thro' his Avarice, he gave Sirakon the opportunity to re-establish himself, after he had wheedled him with a Promise of two Millions of Gold; so that Amalric retir'd with shame. He withstood Saladin with great Bravery, and died in 1174.

Amalric II. bought the Kingdom of Cyprus of Richard I. K. of England. having also the Kingdom of Jerusalem, which he lost in 1187, and died in 1194.

Amalric of Chartres, broach'd several absur'd Tenets in Religion in 1204, which he was made to abjure by Innocent III. and his Disciples were condemn'd by a Council held at Paris in 1209, where they were deliver'd to the Magistrate, who hang'd all the Men, but pardon'd the Women.

Amalthea, Daughter of Melissus, K. of Crete, and Nurse of Jupiter, who fed him with Goat's Milk and Honey. Others say, It was a Goat call'd Amalthea, which Jupiter afterwards Translated into the Skie, with her two Kidds, and gave one of her Horns to the Daughter of Melissus, which supplied them with all they desired. This Horn is the Cornucopia.

Amalthea, Demophile, or Hierophile, the Cumean Sybil, offer'd Tarquin the Proud, 9. Books of the Destinies of Rome, and demanded 300 Pieces of Gold for them. Tarquin thinking it too much, derided her, whereupon she threw 3. Books into into the Fire, and demanded the same for the Rest, which being also denied her, she burnt 3. more, still requiring the same price. Tarquin came on, and seeing the Pontiff, was advised to give Money. These demands were made, in great confidence, and the Magistrates were obliged to look after, and consult

AMA

... a Mountain
... to be that men-
... Amens is
... Islands in Nor-
... to the Eng.

...renamed Fayiz,
of the Y. M. C. B. at Ghent in the year 1906. He vigorously opposed the ...
H. H. ...

American de Zorzi, 22-23-24 and 25-26 in March, 1911-12

A M A

Amasa, Absalom's General when he revolted against his father David, who incensed against Joab, for killing Absalom, made Amasa General of all his forces in his room, which Joab not enduring, treacherously slew him.

Amasia, by the Turks call'd Amasja, a famous C. of Cappadocia in Pontus on the R. Irux, now the Metropolis of the Kingdom. It gives the Title of Abp. to Seignior d'Adda, the late Nuncio in England in K. James II's Time.

Amasis, I. or Ammohis, or Amos Pharaoh, Reign'd in Egypt, from A. M. 2312 to 2337. Amasis. II of a private Soldier, was made K. of Egypt by the Revolted Troops A. M. 2448. and by his Measures, overcame the Persian and Egyptians, and put them to flight near Bath-Habath the Temple of Isis, gave several

A M B

, a famous Portuguese Phy-liv'd about the Year 1550.
several excellent Tracts.

, an ancient C. of Troas, erected an Altar to Also a C. of Cilicia, which gave to Cleopatra.

, King of Judea, Son of became the Amalevites, and Gabalitans; but rem God to adore the Idols mies, and afterwards sal-rich the K. of Israel, he ted and carried to Jerusa- meph, to see the dismantchief City, and the plunthe Temple.

, warlike Women of Sar-
the R. Thermodon, who Men to live among 'em, mitted the Conversation
m of neighbouring Coun-a Year; if they brought

Male Children, they ei-or maim'd them; but the hey bred up to the use of hey are said to have made quests, but were defeated
The Story of their Queen and Alexander the Great, upon as a meer Fable, as e whole Story relating to was.

iver of Amazons, in Spa- de las Amazons, a great he South America, by some bana from Juan Orelban, ered it in 1541. It rises ountains near the City Peru, and having receial Rivers, falls into the ween Brasilia and Gajana.

Source to its Mouth are mes. The Tortoise and are very common here.
ire of the Great Amazone ghited, and the People are onable, and less cruel, Americans.

is, or Ambarri, a People
t Gaul, mention'd by Ju-

A M B

Julius Caesar. They seem to have inhabited the Diocess of Mascon and Charolois.

Ambarvalia, Festivals, or Hal-lowings of the Ground and Harvest, us'd by the Romans before they went to Reaping. They were call'd the Arval Brethren, who presided over this Ceremony.

Amberg, a C. of Germany, Capital of the Upper Palatinate, seated on the River Wills, between Rain- bonne and Nuremberg. The Trade of this C. consists in Iron, and other Metals. It has many Privileges, and is subject to the Duke of Bavaria.

Amberkelebus, the 58th King of Scots, about A. C. 700. of a sluggish cowardly Temper. He was kill'd by the Picts in the 2d Year of his Reign.

Ambiatinum, a T. of Germany, near Coblentz, the Native Place of the Emperor Caligula.

Ambibari, a People of Ancient Gaul, mention'd by Caesar, and suppos'd to be those of the Diocess of Auranches in Normandy, and the T.
of Ambie is still thought to retain their Name. It stands within 6 Leagues of Mount St. Michael.

Ambigatus, a King of the Celts, in the time of Tarquin the Ancient, who sent two great Colonies of the Senones, the one into Italy, under Belovesus, who settled in Lombardy;
and the other beyond the Hyrcanian Forest, under Segovesus, who fix'd his Followers in Bohemia, Friesland, and Westphalia, from whence the Franks march'd again into Gaul, under the Conduct of Pharamond and Clodion.

Ambiorix, King of the Eburones,
now the Bishoprick of Liege, wag'd War against the Romans at first with Success, but was at last routed by Julius Caesar.

Amboise, Lat. Ambacia, an Ancient City of Touraine in France, the Birth place of Charles VIII. where-he

A M B

he built a Royal Castle. Here the Protestants of France made a Conspiracy against Catherine de Medici, France II's Mother, and the Princes of Guise, their inveterate Persecutors, but with a Protestation, that the King's Name was sacred to them. However the Lord Castelnau and others, were executed for it. The Order of St. Michael was instituted here in 1459.

Ambroise, an Ancient and Illustrious Family in France. Charles II. d'Ambroise, was Grand-Master of the Order of St. Michael, as also Mareschal and Admiral of France. Aimery was Great Master of Rhodes; as was also Emeric d'Ambroise, who defeated the Egyptian Fleet. George d'Ambroise, Cardinal, was chief Minister to Louis XII. and General of his Army, in the reducing of Milan in 1500.

Amboulz, a T. in a most fruitful Valley in the Island of Madagascar, towards the E. and to the North of

A M B

Ambresbury, Lat. Ambrosi Vtom, a T. in Wiltshire, 5. M. W. of Salisbury, on the R. Avon. Its Name comes from Ambrosius, the first K. of the Britains, after the Romans forsook them. A Council was held here in 977.

Ambrones, a People about Ambrun, in Switzerland, Provence, &c. who were defeated by Marinus, A. V. C. 652. There are yet to be seen the Remainder of a Monument of that Victory.

Ambrosia, the Immortal Food of the Fabulous Gods.

Ambrosius, or Ambrosius Aurelianus, a K. of the Britains, after the Romans had left this Island. He succeeded Vortigern in 480. and was the last of the Roman Stock here; Vortigern having usurp'd the Crown, his jealousy of Ambrose made him call in the Saxons. Ambrose being in Possession, prov'd a good King, and defeated the Saxons.

Ambrosius, St. Ambrose, was a Na-

A M E

of Alexandria, a Discipfamous blind Didymus, in Age. He wrote a Poem, Tracts of Divinity.

or Emdrun, a consider-at C. of France, the Methe Upper Dauphiné, with boprick. It was taken by f Savoy in 1692. and soon
ntled and left. It stands Durance, 68 m. S. E. of , a sort of Italian Gyp-who got their Living by and playing on the Fla-

, the Name of several
roy. Amedeus I, II, and n is nothing considerable.

was made Vicar-Gene-Empire by Frederick II.

ike Great, a Prince of nce, who made 32 Sieges, ich enlarg'd the Dutchy Amedeus VI. call'd the
, because he appear'd
blour at a Tournament.

John of France against England, fought the bail, and instituted the Annunciade. In 1336:

ad deliver'd the Empece, and died of the 383. having reign'd 40
edeus VII. call'd the Red Vice, assisted Charles VI. nce, and died by a Fall
orse a Hunting. Ame-

the first that erected Sa- Dutchy in 1415. and then minions to his Children, to the Priory of Repaile, founded the Order of

. He was chosen Anti-genius IV. by the Name

. But at the desire of of France, left the Ponticholas V. in 1449. who Cardinals Cap, made him
e S. College, and Legate

by Amedeus IX. a bigot.

A M E

ted Prince, was governed by the Princess Roland of France, on which his Nobles rebell'd; but by the Assistance of Lewis XI. were reduc'd.
He died in 1503.

Ameland, an Island in the German Sea, on the Coast of W. Frize- land, 6 L. from Leewarden, subject to the Hollanders; a Fishery for Sea- dogs.

Amelesagoras, one of the ancient-est Greek Historians, liv'd in the 87th Olympiad.

Amelia, a City of Italy, in the Papacy and the Dm. of Spoletto; it is a free Bishoprick subject to the Pope; and stands on a Hill, 15 m. S. W. of Spoletto; 32 m. N. of Rome: Long. 34.
12. Lat. 42. 23. Built some say in the 153d Olym. as others long before Rome.

Amenophis, first K. of Egypt, succeeding Chebron, A.M. 2362. reign'd 20 Years; he is thought to be him that order'd the killing of the He- brews Children. Amenophis II. or Memnon, conquer'd Greece, Syria, Phœnicia, Part of Scythia and Thrace; nam'd also Vexores and Sesostrius, the first that enslav'd the Israelites. A- menophis III. or Pheron. Ameno- phis IV. dethron'd for his Cruelties, by Artifanes, K. of Ethiopia.

Amerbachius, (John) a famous Printer of Basil.

America, or the West-Indies, one of the four Parts of the World, so call'd from Americo Vespuccio, a Flo- rentine; tho' first discover'd by Chri- stoph. Columbus, a Genoese, in 1492.
consists of two large Peninsula's, which joyn at Panama and Nombre di dios, by an Isthmus, not 17 m. broad. The S. Peninsula extends 1000 m. to the Streights of Magel- lan, the other much farther. 'Tis surrounded by the Sea, and is at the Streights of Anian 100 m. from Tar- tary. On the E. lies the North and Aethiopi Sea; W. the South or Paci- fick Sea toward China and Japan.

N

S. the

A M E

S. the Straights of Magellan and Mary's Strait. Its N. Bounds are not known, though some make 'em the Frozen Sea towards Greenland. 'Tis divided into N. and S. America. The N. call'd America Mexicana, contains Canada or New France, Estotiland, Florida, New England, New Netherland, New Denmark, New Spain, or the Kingdom of Mexico, consisting of Fucatin, Nicaragua, Nova Calixa, Mexicoan, Guatimala, and Honduras, Virginia, Maryland, the Islands of California, Cuba, Hispaniola, and innumerable others call'd Antiles. S. America, call'd Iberian, contains Brasil, Chili, Guaiana, Terra Magellanica, New Andalus, New-Granada, Paraguay, Parana, Pait, Popayan, the Kingdom of Teren, the Terra Firma, Terra del Fuego, Lucuman, Venezuela. The Inhabitants are English, Spaniards, Portugals, Dutch, French, Americans, Japanese, and those betwixt Eurasians and Natives; the Climate ar the Gods for her Health, and dismember'd Arrayntis for Jealousy.

A M I

Ambara, the noblest Kingdom of Aethiopia, in the midst of Abyssinia; on its N. is the Kingdom of Bagemder, W. the R. Nile, and E. Angola; it contains 56 large Provinces.

Amianus, Bishop of Alexandria, St. Mark's Disciple.

Amida, a Japanese Idol, with a Man's Body, and Dog's Head, mounded on a Horse of 7 Heads; he's represented also as a Young Man with a Golden Crown, circled with Rays.

Amida, an ancient C. of Mesopotamia, on a high Hill by the River Tygrus, call'd Constantia by Constantine Emperor, who beauti'd and enlarg'd it before 'twas taken by Sapor, King of Persia, A. C. 359. 'Twas now in Possession of the Turks, who call it Cizamin.

Amida, or Amide, seiz'd the Kingdom of Tunis in his Father's Absence, in 1549. warr'd with his Father and Brother, was a cruel Tyrant, and

A M I

Amilcar E Admiral of the Carthaginians, vanquish'd at Sea by the Romans, began the 2d Punic War; he dy'd (after vanquishing 100000 Rebels) before he came into Italy, A. R. 526.

Amilcar, a Carthaginian Leader, first beat the Consuls, Ser. Geminus and Claudius Nero, A. R. 550. then was defeated with the loss of 30000 Men by L. Furius.

Amiker Rhodanus, was a Carthaginian Captain, and a Spy for the Athenians on Alexander's Designs, being very Eloquent.

Amila, a R. in the Forest of Mauritania, where Elephants are said to Bath themselves, on first sight of the New Moon, and after to adore that Planet.

Amir, (James) Born in 1514. ran from his Parents Severity, and begg'd about Paris; but being taken to wait on a Lady's Sons, he grew so learn'd in Latin, Greek, &c. that he was made Bishop of Auxere, Grand Almoner of France, and Tutor to the King's Children, viz. Francis II. Charles IX. and Henry III. outliving the Queen-Mother's Rage, he dy'd in 1595. He was at the Council of Trent, and made there a bold Protestation.

Amiprias, Ameptius, or Amiphius, a Comic Poet of Athens, expos'd by Aristophanes.

Amir, K. of the Saracens, who conquer'd Hormisdas, King of Persia, took Hierusalem, Egypt, Antiochia, Palmyra, and Syria, A. C. 632.

Amir-el-Moselemin, the surname of the Calyphs of Persia, of the Sect of Heli. It signifies Emperor of the Children of Salvation.

Amisodorus, or Isarus, one of the Pirate Chimera's Crew, slain by Belshazzar.

Amisernum, an ancient C. of Italy, said for giving Birth to Salust; its Ruins are yet in Abruzzo; 'twas once a Bishoprick, but now a Village, call'd St. Vittorino.

A M M

Amixocores, a People of Brasil in America, near the R. Fanciro.

Am-kas, the Hall where the Great Mogul, on his Throne of Gold, gives Audience, and Exposes his Magnificence on Publick Days, and Festivals.

Amman, the Name of the chief Magistrate in several of the Swiss Cantons.

Ammianus Marcellinus, a Latin Historian, tho by Birth a Greek of Antioch, Writ 30 Books of the Roman History, 13 of which are lost; he was a Heathen, yet favourable to the Christians.

Ammirali, (Scipio) a Canon of Florence, who wrote the History of that City, with a Volume of the Noble Families thereof, and two more of those of Naples.

Ammon, or the Sandy; under this Name was Jupiter worship'd in the Shape of a Ram, in a Temple built by Bacchus.

Ammon, a R. of Judea, Son of Idolatrous Manasseh, murder'd by his Servants in the 2d Year of his Reign.

Ammonites, a Nation deriv'd from Ben-Ammi, Son of Lot, by his youngest Daughter, inhabiting Part of Syria the Hollow, invaded Canaan, made the Israelites Tributary, and were defeated by Jephtha; but invading again in Saul's time, by him were vanquish'd; by Joab they were subdued, made Tributary by Joabham, and defeated by Judas Maccabeus.

Ammonius, an Eastern Monk, made Bishop by Theophilus, tho' he had cut off his Right Ear to avoid it.

Ammonius of Alexandria, call'd Saccus from his being a Corn-Porter, and Theodidas from his Learning; Origen and Plotinus were his Disciples; he is quoted by St. Jerome, and by some term'd an Apostate, by others a Christian.

A M P

Amorgos, now Morges, an Island in the Agion Sea, the Country of the Poet Strophilos, some reckon it one of the Cyclades, some of the Sporades.

Amrites, a People descended from Canaan, the Son of Ham, driving out the Nat, inhabited between Fab and L, but denying to Am the F, were expell'd by them, and the Country was given to the Am the G.

Amurru, an Amorite, at and once between Am and Am, near Galata, a Phrygian and the Patriarch of Constantinople, raised by Ameramunus, Caliph of the Sarracens, in the 9th Age, he was the Birth-place of the Emperor Harphag.

Amurru, one of the Am the P, a Herdman, possessed of Am the Am, Am the Am, and Am the Am, of Fab the Am the Am, Name of the Am the Am the Am.

A M P

Amphiaras, Son of Orpheus and Hypermetra, a Greek Magician, foreseeing his Death in going with Atraxus against Thebes, hid himself; but being discover'd by his Wife, Euriphyle, for a Gold Chain, he was swallow'd by the Earth, made a God, and ador'd under the Name of Hiarna, or the Charon.

Amphibalus, Brito, Bishop of Anglesey, was Pious and Learned, and Martyr'd A. C. 291. though this is thought fabulous.

Amphitea, a Town in Greece, in which was the Temple of Esculap, whose Priests pretended to know Futurity.

Amphichon, Son of Dentalion and Pyrrhus, who first unriddled Dreams and Portents, was third King of Attica, from Crete. He re gn'd 10 Years.

Amphidromus, Son of Helorus, who was the first to call an Assembly on then washing their Hands, deliver'd it to the Nurse; after which they were entertain'd with Feasting and Presents.

A M P

Amphifitus, a Southsayer of Acræus, who by a Verbe advis'd Pisistratus to fall upon the Athenians after Supper, while some were Gaming, others Drinking; whereby he a third time became Master of Athens.

Amphilochius, Bishop of Konium, in Thrace in's time, was a Man of great Learning, and a strenuous Opposer of Arianism.

Amphitachus, was a Demi-god, and Deliverer of Oracles.

Amphilochus, Son of Melanbius, Sacrificer to Penelope, was kill'd by Telemachus, Ulysses's Son.

Amphimedea, Jason's Mother, stab'd her self for her Son's Absence.

Amphinomus and Anapir, Brothers of Sisyphus, that ventur'd through the Waves of Cæcum, fix'd by Jæns, to fetch off their Father and Mother.

Amphion, Son of Jupiter and Antiope, charm'd by his Lyre, the Stones into the Walls of Thebes.

Amphion, Archon, or Magistrate, established by Timoleon at Syracuse, on the Expulsion of Dionysius the younger, A. R. 481, who reigned 30 Years.

Amphipolis, a City and Apk. of Thrace, toward Macedon, now called Hadrian; the R. Strymon; a Colony was sent here by Agamemnon, Son of Nestor, driving away the Edonians, who then kept it. Perdiccas took it in the 8th Olym.

Amphipoli, are the Inhabitants between the Tropicks, whose Shadows reach to both Poles. These of the Arctic and the Temperate Zones, point always one way. But the Perisæi under the Arctic Circles, have theirs round them.

Amphipolus, a Man that could never count more than five, tho' Scythians dious of Arithmetick. Hence Dionysius in that Art art call'd Amphistides.

A M P

Amphistratus and Reus, Charoetes to Castor and Pollux, on whom Jason bestowed the Government of several Towns.

Amphitheatre, a publick Place for Spectacles, as of Gladiators and Beasts, who in the Pit or Area fought on Sand; its Form was Round or Oval, with Benches raised over one another for the convenience of Sight.

Amphirryo, King of Thebes, Husband to Alcmena; accidentally slew his Father-in-Law, and vanquished the Teleboans by the Assistance of Comethe, Daughter of Pterelæus, whose golden fatal Lock, she cut off for Love of Amphirryo.

Amphitrite, Wife of Neptune, Daughter of Nereus and Doris, a Sea-Goddess; her Name was given from encompassing the Earth, and grating the Margin thereof.

Amphorites, a Game or Prize, contest in the Island Ægina, where the Poets that praised Bacchus in the best Dithyrambicks, had an Ox for Reward.

Amphotermus, Brother to Craterus, one of Alexander's Captains, Admiral of 60 Ships against Coos and Peloponnesus, who behaved himself bravely and successfully every where.

Amphrysus, a R. of Phrygia in Asia Minor, whose Waters drank, made Women barren: Also the Name of a Town in Phocis.

Amphrysus, a River of Thessaly, at the foot of the Mountain Ossrys, on whose Banks Apollo fed Admetus's Sheep.

St. Ampulius, an Order of Knight-hood established by Clotius I. King of France, in Memory of the Viol of Oyl, brought by an Angel to St. Remigius, to Christen the said Clotius. What's certain, is that the four Knights Feudatories to the Church of Rheims, bear the Canopy in in the Coronation of the Kings of France, under which the Ampulla is carried; they bear a Gold-Cross enamell'd with Silver, in a black Ribbon, charg'd with a Dove and a Viol in her Beak, with St. Remigius on the Reverse.

A M U

Aaron, Son of Kobab, the Son of Levi, was Father of Aaron, Moses, and Miriam.

Aurifer, K. of Spain, was vanquish'd by Abraham and the Sodomites, under Lot.

Amstelredam, once a small Castle by the Name of Amstel, then grew to a Village for Convenience and Trade, and at last confirm'd Liberties, rais'd it to one of the most considerable Cities of Europe, both for Wealth and Beauty, number of Merchants, its Publick Banks, its State-house and Shipping. Long. 24. 00. Lat. 52. 29. 'Tis Metropolis of all the United Netherlands, and stands in Northern, and Territory of Holland; 'Twas once Impregnable, but was burnt to the

A M U

Amulius, (Silvius) K. of Latium, was Son of Proas, younger Brother of Numitor, whom he depos'd; he murdered his Son, and confin'd Ilia, his Daughter, to the Vestal Nuns, to deprive her of Issue; but she bore Romulus and Remus to Mars, who slew Amulius, and restor'd Numitor.

Amundus, or Amond I. King of Sweden, Son of Sihlager, is fabled by those Historians to have been long before Christ; he conquer'd Normy and Gotland, and united them to Sweden, and dying, was buried at Upsal with Gumildis his Wife. Amund II. Son of Ragnald, began his Reign A. C. 220. and reign'd 2 Years.

Amurath I. Emperor of the Turks, the Illustrious, who began his Reign in 1357. succeeded Solyman I. his Brother, and made Anisette his Son & Impressor. He first formed the Body of Janizaries; he conquer'd Macedon, defeated the Prince of the Sulzerline, and the Prince of Car of Venus. He was often defeated by Sinderbeg, and quitting the Government in Despair, return'd to it again by the Janizaries Importunities; but being again foil'd at the second Siege of Croy in Albania; he died raving at Adrianople, in 1451. and the 75th of his Age.

AMY

Amurath III. began his Reign in 1574. he kill'd his 5 Brothers, took the City of Tauris from the Persians, defeated the Maronites, set Bathori Prince of Transylvania, on the Polish Throne, in Opposition to Maximilian the Emperor. But vex'd by the Revolt Janizaries, and the Vayrods of Transylvania and Moldavia, and the Torments of the Stone, he died in 1594. and the 48th of his Age.

Amurath IV. Son to Achmet, began his Reign in 1623. at 15 Years old. In 1626. he besieged Bagdat, but was driven thence by the Persians, and compell'd to make Peace with the Cossacks and Poles. He after besieged Bagdat a second time, took it in 40 Days, and soon after died in 1640.

Amurath, Prince of Graves, Count of Egmont, Governor of Flanders and Artois, was fam'd for civil and warlike Acts, especially the Battels of St. Quirin and Graveling, where he took the French Marechal Prisoner. He was executed with Count Born for High-Treason at Brussels, in 1568. by the Duke of Alva, because Patron of the Liberties of his Country.

Amici Portus, a Harbor of the Thracian Bosphorus, now call'd Lania, or Scals Marmorea, fam'd for the Tomb of Amicus, King of the Bebryces.

Amyle, a City of Italy, between Caia and Terracina, took its Name from Amyle in Laconia, and was built by its Inhabitants; near this is a Den, called Specus Amycleum, now Sperlinga, and the next Sea

AMY

Mare Amycleum, now Mar d' Spertlinga; the Bay Sinus Amyclanus, now Golpo di Gaeta. Also a Town in Laconia, at the Foot of the Mountain Taygeta, not far from Sparta, famous for the Birth of Castor and Pollux, for courageous Dogs, and a Temple of Apollo.

Amymas, Master of the small Shallop wherein Caesar spoke that fam'd Saying, Fear not, thou carriest Caesar and his Fortunes.

Amymas, fifth King of Sparta, Lacedemon's Son and Successor, and Father to Hyacinthus, the Minion of Apollo.

Amydon, an ancient T. in Macedon, on the River Axius, called by some Verdari. ✦

Amymone, one of Danaus's Daughters, ravished by Neptune, and taken away, in whose Place he substituted a Fountain. She bore him Nauplius.

Amynas I. King of Macedon, succeeded Alcetas, his Father, A. M. 3527. He reign'd 48 Years, and died near A. M. 3575.

Amynas II. succeeded Archelaus, A. M. 3662. and reigned one Year.

Amynas III. succeeded Pausanias, was Father to Philip, and Grandfather to Alexander the Great.

Amynas, Son of Perdiccas III. of Macedon; his Uncle and Guardian, Philip, deprived him of the Crown. He married one of Philip's Daughters; and lost his Life for attempting that of Alexander.

Amynas the 17th, K. of the Assyrians, after Ninus succeeded Assarades, reigned 45 Years, and died A. M. 2624. Several others have been of the same Name, one a Favourite of Alexander, another a Deserter from him to Darius, &c.

Amynianus, a Greek Historian in the time of Marcus Antoninus the Philosopher, to whom he Dedicated a Panegyrick on Alexander the Great. He writ the Life of Thymon, and compared Dionysius of Sicily with Domitian, and Philip of Macedon with Augustus.

A N A

Amynor, King of the Delopians in Frægia, was kill'd by Hercules. Hippodamia was his Wife, and Clytiæ his Concubine.

Amrys, a Scythian, who fled his Country, as foretelling the Destruction of his Country from an Oracle he had heard, when sent by the Scythians to Delfos, that said it was near when they paid more Respect to Man than the Gods, as they did in sparing a Slave at a Man's Entreaties, that had denied it to the Altar he had fled too.

Amrysus, a Peripatetick Philosopher, lived in the Court of David, last Emperor of Trebizond in 1461. He wrote against the Council of Florence, but after turned Turk with his Children, and got a great Post in the Seraglio.

Amrha v., Son of Creshus, King of Ely, reigned at Pilæ in Peelopon-

A N A

insus: He invented the Potter's Wheel, and was put to Death by his Brother, King of Scythia, for endeavouring to introduce the Athenian Laws.

Anachis, one of the four Penates, or Household-Gods, that from their Birth attended every Body, viz. Dymon, Lyche, Herm, and Anachis; otherwise Dynamin Power, Lyche Fortune, Eros Love, Anachis Necessity.

Anacletus, Pope, A. C. 103. he decreed that three Bishops at least, should be present at the Ordination of one; and that Priests should not wear long Hair or long Beards. He sat 11 Years, and was martyr'd in Trajan's time; being otherwise called Anencletus.

Anacletus, an Anti-pope to Innocent II. died after 8 years Possession of the Chair; having Excommunicated Innocent, and been Excommunicated by him.

Anaxion, Born in Tee, a City of

A N A

seated with the rest by Thra-

a, Anfa, a considerable T. Aslanick Ocean, in the Pro-Temesna in the Kingdom of ilt by the Romans, 60 m. N.
Rebas; it
ruyed almost by the Portu-

nia, Anagni, a Bishop's See, in St. Peter's Patrimony.
Ansborn coined Money with a's Image. Here also were four Popes, Innocent III.
IX. Alexander IV. and Boni-
III. 'tis now decayed.

a, Son of Zibeon, the Horite, that found Mules by Conjun-
of Asses and Mares.

Am, fifth K. of the Assyrians, his Father Aries, and 40 Years, viz. from A. M.
2198.

a and Save-Sirei, Rabbins vived the Sect of the Sadduces
th Cent.

anket, an old Samaritan Idol, ish some give the Form of a some of a Pheasant, suppobe Mars.

ankle, a small Country in the of Scotland, nam'd from Anan
It gives the Title of Earl to head of the Family of Johnson.

ankel, one of a very obscure Fa-who was made by Heracl the High-Priest of the Jews, forced to Surrender it to Ari- stus, after whose Death he retook it again.

ankus, or Anas, High-Priest of Jews, Father of Caiaphas, had 5 who succeeded him, one after that Post. Jesus Christ thought before him.

ankus, one of Daniel's Compa-put into the fiery Furnace, he would not Worship the by Nebuchadnezzar; but the others delivered with-and converted that King

A N A

to own the God of Israel, A. M. 3464
or 3455.

Ananias, a Jew, converted by the Apostles, who for lying to the Holy Ghost in St. Peter, was with his Wife struck Dead.

Ananias of Damascus, ordered by a Vision to go pray with Paul, and open his Eyes, which he did, and then St. Paul was baptized.

Ananias, a Jewish Priest, of so great Reputation with Albinus, Governor of Judea, that he set ten Robbers at Liberty, to secure his Son in the Hands of their Gang.

Ananus II. of the Sect of the Sad- duces, put St. James, the Brother of our Lord, to Death; he was deposed by Agrippa from the Priesthood.

Ananus III. opposed the Zealots, and was Slain by them on the coming of the Recruits of Idumeans.

Anapaumene, a Fountain in Mo- lossia, a Province of Epirus in Greece.
Its Waters cease flowing at Noon and Midnight.

Anaphe, Nausio, an Island in the Elguen Sea, about 30 m. in Com-pals, 100 from Scilly, and 10 from Sankrini; 'twill suffer no Serpents.

Anapeus, a R. of Sicily, near Sy- racuse; its Waters mix with Cyane, (fabled to be his Mistress) and run together into the Sicilian Sea.

Anaphas, King of Cappadocia in Lower Asia, came to the Throne through the Blood of Isaphernes, who made Insurrections in Persia; though Darius assisted his Election, he refused to hold the Crown as Tributary, but was made Grandee of Per- sia by Darius.

Anapliste, an ancient Sea-Port in Attica, near Athens, whither the wreck of the Persian Fleet, after the Battel of Salamine, was driven.
'Twas famous for the Temples of Pan, Ceres, and Venus, and the Goddesses call'd Genityllides.

Anaquiro, a great Plain in the Kingdom of Quiro in Peru, fam'd for
the

A N A

the great Battel betwixt Almagro and Pizarro, in 1546.

Anasthas I., ordain'd standing at the Council, and that none Lame or Infirm should be admitted to Orders. He died Pope, A. C. 438.

Anasthas II. a favourer of the Eutyrians and Nestorians, in 496. was Pope 2 Years, and died voiding 15 Bowels. Anasthas III. succeeded Sergius III. A. 910. late 2 Years. Anasthas IV. succeeding Eugenius III. late one Year, five Months; and died in 1154. and Built Maria Rotunda. He has a Porphyry Tomb.

Anasthas, Anti-pope against Benedict III. about 855. was expell'd by Leo IV. Emperor, at the Request of the Romans.

Anasthas, Patriarch of Antioch, call'd Sinaita, from Mount Sinai; he writ much, was Learned and Pious, hated by Fulgentius, and banished by Felix the Younger. He died in 547.

A N A

Anasthas, Bp. of Nice, a L. Prelate of the 8th Century Author of several Tracts, attr to Anasthas Sionita.

Anasthas, Author of the 1 St. Maximus, and his Scholar.

Anasthas Bibliothecarius, a Abbot of the 9th Century, w Acts and Canons of several cils; as the third of Constantinople second of Nice, and several things.

Anasthas, one of the Perfians was converted and baptiz'd at Jerusalem, and died a Martyr own Country, A. C. 672.

Anatolia, Vid. Asia.

Anatolius of Alexandria, Bish of Laodicea, was the best Interpreter of Aristotle, of great Piety and general Learning, he lived 283.

Anatolius, by force of G raised himself to be Head of sch, but was devour'd by V at Constantinople an Idolater.

A N C

who threaten'd to cut it so great a Master bu Harp, that March An
the Revenue of three

King of Sparta, Son reign'd with Alex whom he reduc'd the King of the Regini, fam'd and Moderation, and his People, that they his Servant, that friendship of his Chil like.

der, a Milesian Philo first Inventer of the for Dialing and Geo

er, a Milesian Philoso Inventer of the Qua
the Air to be the things.

er of Lampsacus, was an African, and one of Tutors; he sav'd his the Oath of Alexander

son of Neptune and Asti
by a Wild Boar that his Vineyard, before he
the Wine in his Hand, res'd Servant foretold

in the Loire, a Town of France, Capital of the old Town is still populous, ruinous.

, a famous Lawyer of 1409. defended the Pope, during the Schism

a Goddess worship'd in a Roman Senator, kill'd Soldiers.

us, a Sophist that liv'd Water, tho' Robust

, a City on the Euxine

A N C

Sea in Thrace, an Archbishoprick under the Patriarch of Constantino ple, by the Turks call'd Pentis. Also another City in Cilicia, where Sir danapalus was buried.

Anchisilius, Michael, Patriarch of Constantinople, in 1166. forbid the Clergy Secular Employes.

Anchieta, (Josepb) a Jesuit, sur nam'd the Apostle of Brazile, in the 16th Century.

Anchimolius, Son of Rhetus, King of the Marnibians, corrupted his Mother-in-Law, Calperis, for which flying, he attended Turnus to the Field.

Anchises, belov'd by Venus, by whom he had Aeneas, was of the Royal Blood of Troy, he attended his Son in his Voyage till he died in Sicily.

Anchite, Queen of Sparta, whose Son, Pausanias, flying to the Tem ple of Minerva, she commanded to shut in, and Starve him as a Traytor Convict against his Country.

Anchurus, Son of Midas, King of Phrygia, who to close a great Gulph in compliance with the Oracle, threw himself in, thinking the Heir to the Crown the most precious thing in the Kingdom.

Ancile, a Brass Buckler, which the Romans thought to have fallen from Heaven, and to be a Defence while preserv'd against ill Fortune and contagious Distempers. Twelve Salian Priests had the Custody of this and Eleven more, were made so like it by Egeria's Command, as not to be distinguish'd if attempted to be stolen.

Anclam, a strong City of Pomerania, in the Circle of Upper Saxony in Germany, subject to the Sweeds, on the River Pene. 40 m. N. W. of Astin. Long. 34. 28. Lat. 43. 26.

Ancona, a City and Bishop's See, under the Archbishop of Fermo, on the Adriatick, 'tis Metropolis of Marca d'Anconia in the Papacy, Sub bred at Marbont-Taylor's School, and Fellow of Cambridge. He was first made Fellow of Jesús-College, Oxon, by Mr. J. J. its Founder: attended the Parish of Huntingdon, he was a very many Converts from Paganism to the North. Sir Francis H. was appointed to be Vicar of St. Andrew's in Cripple-Gate, London, and Procurator and President of St. Andrew's, and Prebendary of Southwark. On Dr. Hall's Death he was elected Master of Pembroke-Hall. Queen Elizabeth made him her Chaplain, then Canon, and Dean of Westminster. King James created him Bishop of Exeter, whence he was translated first to Ely, then to Windsor, and was then made Dean of the Cathedral. He died September 25 1626. Lat. Lat. Prim. and Gift of the Archbishop. He was buried in St. Andrew's Church. His Works were printed at London in 1626. See the Index of the Works of the Archbishop of Exeter in 1626.

A N D

A N D

Andromeda, a Roman Slave, that being exposed to a Lion for running away from his Master, was saved on by the Beast, in Return of his having formerly pull'd a Thorn out of his Foot; and thus sav'd, was made the Lion's Keeper. †

Androgeus, the Son of Minos, King of Crete, who being always Victor at the Attila Games, was out of Envy, Slain of a young Man of Athens, which being taken by Minos, was oblig'd to send seven Boys and seven Virgins Annually, to be devour'd by the Minotaur, till Athenes slew him, and ended the Tribute.

Androgynæ, ancient Inhabitants of Africa, who were Hermaphrodites.

Andromache, the Wife of Hector, and as some fable the Mother of Fraxion, or Francis I. King of the Gauls.

Antimony, a metallic substance, which is found in the Mountain, a Compound of

A N D

Part, he was declared Em-perour being seiz'd, his son, and hang'd on Tentwixt two Pillars, expir'd at, with wonderful Patience, after 2 Years

John II. succeeded Michael
I. he lost great part of Asia Minor, who vanquish'd the Saracens, sent against Andronicus, who not being of the Mercenary Forces of the, found them more dangerous beneficial. Now Blind in Age, he was dethron'd and son, Andronicus, and put up in a Monastery, died 332. having pull'd his own body out of the Grave, restoring the Union of the Greek Churches, and perform'd that were for it.

John III. surnam'd The Young, reign'd over the Empire through his Brother, and Grand-father's whom he had dethron'd:
Help of the Turks he vanquish'd the Mycenians and Phocensians, and the revolted Thessalians that eagerness, that he in the keeping the Turks out of, who by that means settled enlarg'd their Empire. He 1341. in the 45th of his

John Paleologus, being accused of conspiring the Death of his son John, Emperor of Constantinople, was seiz'd, and had his eyes put out with boiling Vinegar, to Bajeaz, he by his son dethron'd, and put his son in Prison, with his Brother who making his Escape to Constantinople by him set on the same Condition to hold it as before; tho' some say Andro-nicus his Father, and I his Coronation

A N G

Andronicus of Rhodes, a Peripate-tick Philosopher, who publish'd Aristotle's Works Correct, which he bought of Tyrannius, Library-keeper of Sylla.

Andronicus, Praefect. of Pentapolis in Egypt, in the 5th Century, who being excommunicated for his Impieties and his Outrages against the Clergy, submitted to the Censure, and under-went the Penance.

Andronicus Tranquillus, a Learned Greek, who escaping from Constautinople, when taken by the Turks, in 1453. came first into Italy, then to Basil, where he was Greek Professor, as he was afterward at Paris with Hermonymus of Sparta.

Andropompus, elected by the Athenians on his accepting the Challenge of the Theban King, which Timocles, their King had refus'd, to end the War by a single Combate, A. M.
2875. He descended from Neleus,
King of Theffaly.

Andros, Andro, one of the Cyclades, Islands in the Aegean Sea, with an Episcopal City, under the Archbishoprick of Athens, 93 m. in Circuit, 10 m. from the Euboean Promontory of Gereffo, and 20 from Delos.
Here anciently was a Temple of Bacchus, whose Fountains on the 7th of January us'd to taste like Wine.

Anduze sur le Gardon, a City in Lower Languedoc, formerly fortify'd;
it declar'd for the Protestants under the Duke of Rohan, but surrendering to Lewis the XIII. was dis-mantl'd.

Anet, a Town and Promontory, on the River Eure, in the Island of France, belonging to the Duke of Fendosme; the Cattle is very Magnificent, over whose Portal is a Hart of Brass, and a Pack of Beagles that move.

Angamala, a small City and Bpk. on the R. Aicotta, in Malabar; whose Bishop's See. was translated to Cras-ganor

A N G

given by Paul V. in 1609. in which, and round about, live the Christians at St. Thomas.

Angelus, Hereticks that were for Woll-pet Angels, suppos'd to have begun in the Apostles time, but the spread most about 180.

Angelus, a kind of Sabelian Hereticks, call'd so from Agellus or Agellus, a place in Alexandria, where they had their Meetings.

Angelus, worship'd by the old Romans as the Goddess of Silence; her statue was plac'd on the Altar of Fortune; her Name is deriv'd from Angina, as having cur'd the Romans of the Squinancy.

Angers, a large City, Capital of Artois, on the River Mayenne, which divides it into two Parts, is a Bishoprick, under the Archbishoprick of Tours. It was a University, founded by John VI. in 1298. and an Academy of Mathematics, was never to meddle with Christian Religion, St. John de Angers is a Frenchman.

A N G

Anglesey, Idon or Firmin; British, and Money in Saxon now Anglesey quasi English Island, an Island in the Irish parted N. W. by a narrow Str call'd Menas from Carnarvon. 'Tis 20 Miles long, and 17 1 divided into 12 Hundreds, in are 74 Parishes, and two N Towns, call'd Beaumaris and burg; 'tis fruitful, and affords Iron or Copperas. It sends Members of Parliament, who are the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Bulkeley, and Bulkeley, Esq;.

Angola, a Kingdom S. of Africa, contains eight Provinces, Senja, Ilamba, Iscob, Massingim, Cambamba, and basca. The Country by the Angere is found fruitful. 'Twas formerly govern'd by several Princes, but now is a Province of the Portuguese Kingdom of Angola. It is a Province of the Portuguese Kingdom of Angola.

Prefidial, Seneschallship, Bishop's See, Suffragan to Bourne, one of the most ancient of the Kingdom. 'Tis built on the Top of a Mountain, betwixt rivers Charente and Anguienne, at one end of it meet together, which is well fortify'd as the is, though the Citadel is ruin'd. K. Clovis in 508 took the Goths. It suffer'd by the war, but more by the last Civil

Angoumois, a Province of Aquitaine, between Poitou, Xaintonge, Limousin, and Limousin, 25 Leagues long, 16 or 18 broad. Besides Poitiers, its Capital, it has Cognac,
St. Roch-Foucault, &c. Its chief River is Charente. The People are brave, and good Wits.

Anguilla, a City of the Island of one of the Azores, a Bishop's under the Archbishoprick of Lisbon. Though small, yet 'tis well fortify'd with the strong Castle of St. Peter, which is the Capital of all the Islands.

Angern, Angern and Encern, a Patrimony, subject to the Pope, on the Lake Bracciano, or Sabbatinum, or Angularia, whence Waters were convey'd to the Vatican at the charge of Adrian I. 'Tis 5 m. from Bracci-ano, and 8 from Rome.

Angus, a Country in the N. E. of Scotland, on the S. bounded by the River Tay, on the N. by Norib-Esk.
It has long given Title of Earl to the Family of Douglas, as it does now to the eldest Son of the Marquis of Douglas.

Anhalt, a Principality in Upper Saxony, with a little City of the same Name almost ruin'd; on the E. 'tis bounded by Saxony, by Halberstadt on the W. and on the N. by Magdeburgh, and on the S. by Mansfeldt and County of Hall. The House of Anhalt is one of the most ancient Families of Europe, and Brandenburgh and Saxony derive themselves from it.

Anhalt, (George) a Prince of that House, Born Aug. 14. 1507. a great Civilian, Linguist, and Divine, was Privy-Counsellor to the Elector of Mentz, and Provost of Magdeburgh.
He became a Protestant Minister,

A N I

Anianus, an Abbot, Born at Cassel in Flanders about 450. who Writ a Chronicle from the beginning of the World to his time.

Anianus, a Monk of Egypt, his Chronological Tract sometimes agrees, sometimes differs from Eusebius Casariensis.

Anicetus, Bishop of Rome, Successor of, or Predecessor to St. Pius; he order'd the Clergy to wear short Hair, and was martyr'd in 178. after sitting Bishop 11 Years. In his time the Gnosticks came to Rome, and St. Polycarp, to confer about the keeping of Easter, in which, though disagreeing, they receiv'd the Sacrament together, and were good Friends.

Anicetus, a freed Man of Nero's, who was his Admiral and Tutor. He contriv'd the snare for Agrippina's Death, and accus'd Nero's Wife, Octavia, of Adultery with himself, to drive Nero from both his Mother

A N N

Anilem and Asnenu, two Brothers, that liv'd at Nee Babylon, who being ill us'd Master, took Arms, and in of the Euphrates, by the Co of the Youth of that Count formidable; beat the Parthians and maintain'd their Post; but Anilem was poison'd by the Widow of the Parthian nor, whom he had kill'd; Asnenu after many successful against Mithridates, was in the Night by the Babylonians.

Anjou, a Province of France divided into Higher and Lower a County, but now a Dutch People were anciently call'd Andegavi. The County is N. of it, Britany W. Ten and Pontu S. 'T's in Length Breadth 20 Leagues. It's R. the Loire, Mayenne, Orne, & Anger, it's Capital, stand Lower, and Samur in the U

A N N

Anne, Sister to Pygmalion, King of Tyrr; she fled first with Dido to Carthage, after her Death to Barrus, King of Malta, thence to Italy, where she was drown'd in the River Nemiscus, to avoid the Anger of Levinia. On the Ides of March the Romans worshipp'd her under the Name of Anna Perennis, with Drunkennells, believing every Glass they drank to her Honour, gave them a Year of Life.

Ana Comena, Daughter of Alexis, Emperor of Constantinople, who, on her Mother's and Husband's Death, apply'd her self wholly to Study; she writ her Father's Reign in 15 Books, call'd Alexiada; and was a wonder in all sorts of Learning.

Ana Kinga, eldest Daughter of the King of Angels, on whose Death she seiz'd the Throne; to command the better, she assum'd Mens Cloaths and Name; she fought the Pygmies, beat the Jago's, and in 1645, took'd all the Villages of Oriss, and bore off the Inhabitants Prisoners.

Ananias, a Luxurious King of Babylon, us'd to sit in Women's Cloaths at perform'd at Dinner, surrounded with 150 Eunuchs.

Ana, Mother of the Virgin Mary, Daughter to Matthan, the Priest of Issachar, of the Tribe of Aaron. She had Mary the 8th of September, by her Husband Joachim after 20 or 25 Years Barrenness. She had three Daughters either by him or several Husbands.

Ana, Wife of Eltana, a Levite, Mother to Samuel, whom she committed to EH, having vow'd him to the Lord.

Ana, the Prophetess, Daughter of Amiel, she join'd with Simeon in publick Praise when Christ was first presented in the Temple, where she spent her Widow-hood in Fast and Prayer; and died in the first Year of our Lord.

A N N

Anne, Dutches of Brisany, Heiress to her Father Francis II. Born in 1476. first married Charles VIII. who dying in 1498. she married Lewis XII. She govern'd France wisely in the Absence of Charles, and bestow'd the Revenue of Brisany, left to her disposal, among the most meritorious of her Husband's Soldiers.

Anne, Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, Daughter of Ladislaus VI. King of Hungary, &c. was married to Ferdinand of Austria, Brother to Charles, and succeeded her Father in both Kingdoms. Ferdinand was Crown'd at Alba Regalia. She died of her fifteenth Child, Anno 1547. having born patiently the Invasion of her Country by Solyman, invited by John de Zapol, who was declar'd King by some Malecontents.

Anne, Daughter of Frederick II. K. of Denmark, married to James VI. of Scotland, and First of England, Anno 1589.

Anne of Cleves, Daughter of John III. Duke of Cleves and Fuliers, married to Henry VIII. King of England, and afterwards divorc'd from him.

Anne of Austria, eldest Daughter of Philip III. King of Spain and Margaret of Austria, was married to Lewis XIII. Novemb. 13. 1615. She had the Regency in the Minority of her Son.

Anneau, a Town of Chartres in la Beaufe in France, fam'd for being the place of the Germans defeat by the Duke of Guise, in 1517.

Annebaud, Claude, Baron of Reis, Commandant of the Order of St. Michael, Marshal and Admiral of France, defended Mezieres, in 1521. against Count Nassau; he was taken at the Battel of Pavia; defended Turin against the Imperialists; took Quieras, Salucer, &c. in Piedmont, was again taken near Paronane, in 1537. He was sent Ambassador to Venice,

A N N

and two Years after beat the English thrice at Sea, and manag'd the Treaty of Peate betwixt France, England, and the Empire, being Chief Minister of France I.

Annecy, a City in France,
Savoy, a part of the N.
of say Lake.
Name of the Capital of that Duchy, and 6 Leagues South of Geneva, where the Titular Bishops of that See reside. The Lake is 4 Leagues long, and half a League over, where rises the River Troud.

Annesley, the Name of a Family in England, and particulary of the Earls of Anglesey.

Anastasius of Campanis, Deacon of Constantinople, Anastasiensis to Pelagius, and a Defender of his Heresy, w'd a Treatise writ against St. Jerome, and translated St. Chrysostom's Homilies.

Anthonis, a Duke of Arras, was Baron of Flanders, and was Victorious at the Battle of the Scales.

A N S

Anunciade, the Name (in several other) of an Order of Kn instituted by Amadeus, Count of Savoy, in 1260.

Amadeus, a Prince of Savoy, and Duke of Achaia, was King of Sicily, i.e. Fortitudo ejus dominavit, his Valour maintain'd Rhodes, meaning Amadeus the who rais'd the Siege of Rhodes 1310.

Annonciation, a Feast kept by Church of Rome, in Memory of Virgin Mary. It was first celebrated on the 25th of March, and by the Order of the Council of Lede, in 559. on the 10th of December: now 'tis again restor'd to former time.

Anossi and Carcanossi, a Province of Madagascar, where the French have a Settlement, a City of Province, that has a Viceroy, and is at present, being the

A N S

St. Pope's Legate, in 1101, prepared to perform it.
Anselm, Archbishop of Canterbury, end of the XIth, and be-of the XIIth Age. He was of Le See, near six from Rouen in Normandy, in of Will. Rufus and Henry I.
 He was a persecutor of of Clergy, and a violent of the Pope's Right of Inof Bishops against the King, he was Banish'd by Rufus,
 by Henry I. and after again.
 He confuted the Greeks at of Bari in Naples, and in 1109, and 400 Years af-Canonized. He was Au-great many Books.

Anselm, Deacon of Laon, in the France, a famous Learned his time, some of whose were attributed to Anselm of
 of.

Anselm, Abbot of Gembloers in liv'd in the XIIth Century.
 and the Chronicle of Sigi- Predecessor, from 1112 to

Anselm, a Benedictine of Rheims, the XIth Century, and writ of Pope Leo Xth's Travels
 in 1049.

Anselm, a favourite Poet of Marc who gave him a Country-Falerum for writing his Verse.

Anselm, a People of the Upper of Congo, towards the Anselm, one of the most consider-of Norway, near the Sea, Miles W. of Stockholm.

 convenient Port on a Streight
 the Name, a Sovereign Court, of See, Suffragan to the of Dronheim, near the of Aggerhus towards Fre-

Anselm, a City of Francia, with on a Small River of the same

A N T

Ant, call'd by some Antipater, six Leagues from Strevigny. The Princes of Antipater of the House of Brandenburg derive their Title from hence.

Ant, a Giant of Libya, Son of Nephele and the Earth, who destroyed all the Men he could, in order to Build a Temple to Nephele of Mens Skulls. He was assauit'd by Hercules; but gathering new force from his Mother Earth, each time Hercules beat him down, he was squetz'd to Death by Hercules in his Arms; from whose Wife and Herc- cles, Juba, King of Mauritania, would have deriv'd himself.

Ant, a Poet of Rhodes, much favour'd by Antigonus, King of Ma- cedon.

Ant, a People of the South of Madagascar, between the Country of Manan to the S. and the Politi- menes to the N. There are some Mines of Gold in the Hills.

Ant, one of the Caribby Islands in the West-Indies, subject to Eng- land, Lat. 16. between Barbadoes, Guadaloupe, and Pessée, 6 or 7 Leagues long, and in some places as broad. 'Tis dangerous for the Access of Ships, being encompass'd with Rocks. Its subject to violent Heats and Hurricanes.

Ant, being accus'd of conspiring Nero's Death, he first took Poyson, and then cut his Veins to hasten Death.

Ant, a Trojan Prince, accus'd of betraying his Country; with Aeneas he came into Italy with great numbers, drove out the Eugubians, and built Padua.

Ant or Caster-Love, ador'd
 by the Athenians as God, the Brother of Cupid.

Ant, 19th Bishop of Rome. He liv'd in the Reign of Machabeus, and late 11 Years, according to some;
 but to others, only one. He order'd the Acts of Martyrs to be carefully collected

A N T

collected, and forbid Bishops to be Translated for Lucre.

Antevener, worshipped by the Romans for things past, as Posterior for things to come, as Counsellors of Princes.

Antivars or Antharus, Son of Clephus, dethroned King of the Lombards, dethroned on their laying aside the 3^d Dec.

Antiochus, King of the Sicambrians, Son of the Romans after he had taken the City, and plunder'd Mycenae, a Roman Colony, 37 Y. before Christ.

Antipater, a famous Architect, Straton, and Mathematician. He fringed Zenon the Rhetorician, who lay'd Antipater, out of his House by the Son of Tander, L.

Antiphon, a famous Orator, and Philosopher, who lived at Athens, 440 Y. before Christ.

A N T

Antiadiphorists, a Party of civil Lutherans, that disallow Shops and Ceremonies.

Antibes, a City and Sea-Port in Provence in France, once a Bishopric, under the Archbishop of Arles, since translated to Grasse, Colony of Marseilles. 'Tis defended by a Castle.

Antinomies, the Name of 6 Books against Jolly's Case Major.

Antichrist, believed by the Catholics to be a certain Prince to appear at the end of the World to destroy Christianity. The Protestant divided about it.

Anticyre, an Island of Thessaly, famous for Hellebore, good to purge the Brain.

Antichristian, a Name given to those who are against the Christian Religion, as the Antichrist, who is the Son of Perdition.

N T

Nircaus, his Uncle; and slew Josephus, He; but was defeated, sent by the Romans to in Egypt, where he

Son of Demetrius Po-King of Macedon; he and his Camp plunder'd and his Gauls; after expell'd his Kingdom recover'd it, and left metrias, having reign'd

King of Macedon, from Sparta to Æ- d the Illyrians, &c. the 12th Year of his or Antigonius Carystius, rian, in the time of he writ the Lives of bo, Antipater, &c. a als; of the manage- oice, &c.

a, a Mountain in Sy- banon, inhabited now call'd Druses.

lands that lie betwixt e Continent, and the Porto-Rico; there are discover'd by Colum- ate Climate and fruit- by Canibals, French,

Dutch. Desiderade, deloupe, Marigalante, Crcix, St. Alouze, are French; St. Chri- and English. Angui- Barbadoes, Bermudas, Mevis, English. Saba, and Walkeren, Dutch. inique, and St. Vincent, Thomas, the Danes pos- lo and La Margarita;

Son of Euridice and by Menmon at the Siege an Jonian Poet, wrote War, esteem'd next to Homer, but prefer'd to him by Adrian the Emperor.

A N T

Antimachus, a Trojan Commander, engag'd by Paris to dissuade the re- turning of Helena.

Antinoe, Antios, and Antinopolis; a City and Bishop's See under Thebes, now demolish'd. Its Ruins are not 10 Leagues from the Nile; 'Twas Built by Adrian in Honour to Antin- nomus, his Favourite, to whom he built Altars, and from whom it took its Name; 'twas from its Founder too, call'd Adrianople.

Antinomians, Hereticks that hold the Law useless under the Gospel; that all Works are alike to the Godly, who cannot Sin, for Christ only works in them; and being once certain of Salvation they never doubt: Also that none are to be exhort'd to Chri- stian Duty; that Holiness makes not God love us; that Sanctification is no Sign of Justification, &c. John Agricola, was Author of them.

Antiochia, now Antachia, the Ca- pital of Syria, now Ruins; once Great, and a Patriarchate; divided by the River Oromes; part on a Hill, and part on a Plain. It was taken and retaken several times by the Sarazens and Christians. A Council of the Apostles was held here; and it was the Seat of much Controversy be- twixt the Orthodox and Arians. Upon which, and other Heresies were at several times held here above ten Councils and Synods, factious or re- gular. There were more than ten other Cities of this Name, of which the most considerable now is on the River Meander, call'd Tachiali, one in Cilicia, call'd by the Turks, Islenos, and one on Euphrates, and one in S. America, 15 Leagues from St. Foy.

Antiochus I. King of Syria, only Son of Seleucus Nicator. He con- quer'd the Galatians; for which he was call'd Soter, or Saviour. He reign'd 19 Year; and died. A. M.

ANT

3793. to his desperate Love, his old Father surrendered his young Wife, Sirastone, to save his Life.

Antiochus II. whom for putting the Tyrant Timarchus to Death, the Antiochians call'd Theos, succeeded So-zer, he warr'd with Ptolemy Phila- delphus, put away his Wife, Leodice, to marry Berenice, Ptolemy's Daughter; but was poyson'd for it by Leo- dice, though he had taken her again.

Antiochus Hierax, Brother to Seleucus Callinicus, Son of Laodice, first fought for his Brother, then was perjur'd by him; forsaken by his Brother-in-law, King of Cappadocia, order'd to be seiz'd by his Uncle, Ptolemy Evergetes, to whom he fled; whence escaping, he was slain by Robbers, A. Rom. 527.

Antiochus III. the Great, vanquished great part of Greece, made War on Ptolemy Epistates, but was forced by the Romans to pursue it; afterwards persuaded by Lælius, &c.

A N T

At the Death of his Father Hostage in Rome, but made a chance.

Antiochus V. Epiphanes, his Father Epiphanes; having Judea with 10000 Foot, an Horse, he took Balthazar, at Peace with the Jews, to set on against Philip of Persia. Demetrius, Son of Seleucus, the Syrians repairing to their Heir, soon got Antiochus into his Hands, and put Death.

Antiochus VI. the Noble, 1 Grandson to Antiochus Epiph
on the Throne by Tryphon, discontented Soldiers, who d
Demetrius; he was made a Tryphon to raise himself.

Antiochus VII. Sideres, Son metrius Soter, by the help of H. L. P. of the Jews, and Tigranes, and retook the Hellespont, and being married to Cleopatra, sister of Ptolemy, reigned 10 years.

A N T

A N T

Ant. X. (Phu) Son of Antiochus, killed Silenus, Widow both her and Uncle; and Burnt E. at Mopsus in Cilicia, sended himself against Demetrius's Son, and Philip III. and in the Queen of the Quarrel fighting against her.

Ant. XI. Son of Gryphus, endeavoured to recover what his Brother was kill'd in Battel by Antiochus.

Ant. XII. (Dionysius) in his Father's Absence, usurp'd the Crown, and was kill'd fighting against him, An. Reg. 1. A. M. was the Son of Gryphus.

Ant. XIII. nam'd Antiochus, for hiding himself in Cilicia, and King of Armenia's Crown. The Son of Antiochus was restor'd by Lucius, and again depos'd by Pompey.

There were three other Antiochus's, one of Armenia, a Province of Syria first vanquish'd and restor'd by Pompey, whom he sided with Caesar, and was beheaded for murdering his Brother, the 2d there is nothing of the 3d being depos'd by Pompey, restor'd by Claudius, and Vespasian, persecuted the 4th, who was put to Death by the Emperor, for entering into an Alliance with the Parthians.

Ant. of Ascalon a Philosopher, famous by Cicero, and admired by Brutus.

Ant. Bishop of Ptolemais in Syria, an Eloquent Prelate, but he was in Conjunction with other Bishops, a Persecution of Chrysostom, whom they expelled from his See.

Ant. a Persian Lord of Hormuz by Alexander to be Governor of the Younger, he was admirably distinguished.

Antiope, Queen of the Antiochi, invading Attica, was vanquish'd by Theseus. The Wife also of Lycus, King of Thebes, ravish'd by Jupiter, who brought forth Amphion and Zethus.

Antipater I. King of Macedonia, Cassander's Son. He slew his Mother, Thessalonice, fearing she favour'd his Brother Alexander; flying the Power of Pyrrhus of Epirus, and Demetrius, Son of Antigonus, arm'd by Alexander against him, to Lysimachus his Father-in-law, King of Thrace, he was by him, for his Crime, put to Death.

Antipater II. King of Macedonia, was depos'd after 45 Days Reign, and Sophocles succeeded him.

Antipater, an Idumean, Father to Herod, continued Governor of Judaea for his following Caesar in the Egyptian Expedition, but he was poison'd by his Favourite Malchus, because he was a Foreigner.

Antipater, the eldest Son of Herod the Great, by an Idumean, nam'd Doris, oppos'd by the Father to Alexander and Aristobulus, Sons of Mariamne, whom at Rome he accus'd of conspiring his Father's Death; who being Dead, he was himself convicted of such Designs before Varus, and put to Death, Anno 1.

Antipater, one of Alexander the Great's Commanders, his Lieutenant in Greece, reduc'd revolted Thracia, drove the Lacedaemonians from the Siege of Megalopolis, An. Rom. 430. He poison'd Alexander for recalling him at his Mother Olympias's Desire; he was heat by the Athenians, and vanquish'd the Thebans, and was chosen Guardian to Alexander's Children, and died An. 433.

Antipater, (Galen) the Latin Historian; he wrote of the Punic Wars, he was abridg'd by Brutus, and by Tully, and perfect'd by Adrian, Emperor, in 117.

Antipater,

A N T

Antipater, of Hieropolis, was Secretary first to Severus, then Tutor to his Sons, Caraalla and Geta, and lastly Governor of Hieropolis, where he starv'd himself to Death for Grief that Caraalla had kill'd Geta.

Antipater, Son of Selenus Ceraunus, he commanded the Horse under his Uncle Antiochus the Great, against Ptolemy Philopater, and made Peace betwixt them, and between the Romans and Antiochus.

Antipater of Sydon, a Poet, and great Philosopher in the 17th Olympiad, celebrated by Tully and Seneca; some of his Epigrams are yet Extant. Also another Poet of Thessalonica in the time of Augustus, his Remains are yet in the Greek Epigrams.

Antipatrum, a Town of Phanicia, on the Mediterranean, 16 m. from Foppa. St. Paul was conveyed hither in his Luggage to Cajarea; 'twas well-seated for War or Trade, though inconsiderable till Rebuilt by Herod, and nam'd in Honour to his Father a Catalogue of them since Age.

A N T

1. Novatian against Cornelius
2. Ursicin against Damasc
3. Eulalius against Bonifac
4. Laurence against Symmac
5. Dioscorus against Bonifac
6. Peter and Theodorus, rents, 686. till Conon was
7. Theodorus and Paschal set Sergius, 687. 8. Theophila
- Paul* I. 757. 9. Constantin
- Paul* died, 757. 10. Phil
11. Zinzime against Eugen
12. Anastasi against Be
855. 13. Sergius against
891. 14. Boniface after
- died, 896. 15. Leo disp
- Papacy with John XII. and
- 955, and 964. 16. Grego
- Bennet VIII.* 1012. 17. Syl
- and John XX. yielded to Gr 1044. 18. Minutus nam'd
- against Nickola II. 1054.
- noris* II. against Alexander
2. Clement III. against C

A N T

herian, those that deny who are also call'd Uni-

a Town of Debania, on Sea, 10 m. E. of Dol- 6 of Sauari, once a Bion an Archbishop's, with a, now under the Turks.
 w Antio Rynians, once dican of the Velfci, whire retir'd. In it was a ple to Fortane, &c.
 who live under the m, but in different Palles equally distant from

Daughter to Cleandus, elding to Marry Nero, accus'd of Conspiring against, and forc'd to kill

Mamari Regio, part of
 He, discover'd by Antio-
 Governor of the Dutch aperry, in 1642. and lies it, not yet known whean Island or Continent, mid-way between New Zealand.

a Pius, Born A. D. 86.
 , and succeeded Adrian, earned and good Prince.
 he he had rather spare one to kill 5000 Enemies; he Father of his Country, persecuted the Christians.
 He lived 74 Year old, and left Successors, M. An- tonius and L. Aurelius Ve-

the Emperors had this up Commodus, Caracalla, in Geta, Dialanensis, and
 the

the uncertain Author story, that bears his

(Marcus) an Orator, that at any thing, and spoke up to all Causes, as Tully

A N T

Antonius, (Marcus) M. Antonius, Grandson to the foregoing Orator, and a Partizan of J. Caesar in all his Attempts and Wars. One of the Triumvirs which he form'd betwixt Octavian, Lepidus, and himself; and on which he put off Palus, and took Octavia, Sister to Augustus, whom he forsook for Cleopatra, Q.
 of Egypt; on pretence of which,
Augustus attack'd and beat him at Actium, and pursued him to Alex- andria. He slew himself in the 56th Year of his Age.

Antonius Nebriffensis, a Spaniard,
 Born in 1445. died at Alcala, in 1522. 77 Years old. He Studied at Belagun in Italy, Taught at Salerna- cha, and lastly in Ximner's new University of Alcala. He was esteem'd the greatest Scholar of his time, and left many Works.

Antonius Augustinus, Archbishop of Tarragon, one of the most Learned Men that ever Spain produc'd; he was Son of the Under Chancellor of Aragun, and writ Civil-Law at 25, was at the Council of Trent, and died at his Archbishoprick, in 1586, leaving many Works.

Antonius Galatensis, from Galatia,
 a Village in Oranto in Italy, was a Philosopher, Physician, Poet, and Geographer: Among various other things, he writ the Praise of the Gent; and died near 1490.

Antonius de Godis, (Henry) of Vicenza in Italy, a famous Lawyer of Venice, in the 4th Century.

Antonius Primus Becro, a great Commander, who vanquish'd the Forces of Vitellius for Vespasian near Cremona. He had Elocution as well as Courage.

St. Anthony the Great, was born in 251. and died in 356. being 105
 Years old; having been the Founder of Monastick Orders, in the Desert of Thebais in Egypt.

St. Antony, a Monastick Order, whose principal Monastery is the Abbey

A N T

Abbey of St. Anthony of Viennois in Dauphine. They observe St. Austine's Rules.

St. Antony's Knights, are a Military Order, instituted by Albert, Duk of Fal. via, Holland, and Zealand, in 1352, when he design'd War on the Turks. They wore a Gold Chain, like a Hermit's Cord, from which hung a Stick like a Crutch, and a little Bell.

Antony of Barbone, King of Naples, Prince of Bearn, Duke of Calabria, &c. declar'd Lieutenant-Governor of France, in the Minority of Charles IX. He took Bruges, and was wounded in the Shoulder at the Siege of Am., of which he died. He was Father of Henry IV. of France, and Zealous for the Protestants.

Antony, Son of Louis, by a Concubine in Ireland, born in 1600, was Poet Laureate. He took the Name of Knight, and Duke of Salisbury. He was a great favourite of the King, and a great enemy to the

A N T

Antony of Lorrain, Count of demont, &c. the Under-taker, was of Anjou, King of Sicily, (favour'd by the Emperor) by Assistance of France, he took Isabel, eldest Daughter to Charles of Lorrain, and sending him to Paris, made him yield to severe Terms before he granted his Liberty. He died in 1447.

Antony of Messina, an excellent Painter, about 1430.

Antrim, a Barony, County, Boerough-Town of the Province of Ulster, in the North of Ireland. Town stands on the Lake Lough Neagh, 4 m. S. of Connor, along the N. E. Coast of the County; is divided into nine Baronies, Antrim is one of them; on the E. 'tis bounded by St. George's Channel; A River runs N. by N. to the Sea, called the Carrickfergus. It is a great Town, and a great Trade.

A O R

City lies 18 Leagues from the Sea, between Malines, Louvain, Brussels, and Bruges; the Harbour is lovely, there are 8 Channels for Ships, 100 of which may Ride in the chieftest of them, over which are 74 Bridges. It suffer'd by the Revolt of the Low-Countries. Amsterdam robs it of much Trade. It was taken by the Duke of Arms from the Confederates, &c. Long. 2°. 51. Lat. 41. 16.

Amnis, an Aegyptian Deity, with a Dog's Head, a Palm in one Hand, a Calaceum in to'cher, fabled to be the Son of Osiris; his Temple in Rome, was destroy'd by Tiberius for Atinus his Enjoyment of Paulina, under the Shap of the God, and his Priests cruci'y'd, &c.

Amyr, a Blind Aegyptian Prince, Born in a Town of the same Name; he succeeded Afybis in Agypt, and having been a while dethron'd by Sabab, King of Athiopia; on his Retreat he reassum'd the Government, and dying, left it to Setbon, Priest of Vulcan.

Amyr, an Athenian Rhetorician, whose Hate to Socrates, for exposing the Knavery of such as he, made him combine with Melitus, (after Aristophanes had expos'd him on the Stage) to take away his Life, which by false Allegations they did; but his Accusers were forc'd to fly soon after, and Amyr was ston'd to Death at Eleusis.

Amis, Inhabitants of the East of the Kingdom of Loango, govern'd by an Emperor, over many Kings. They are Cannibals, but Stout and valiant.

Amon, Son of Neptune, being exiled from Apulia, he fixt in Æthiopia, call'd Amon from himself.

Aonia, the hilly part of Boeotia, the Seat of the Muses, thence call'd Aonia; hence also Aonium Nemus, Aonia, &c.

Aorn, a val high Rock in India, conquer'd in vain by Hercules, but taken by Alexander. Also a River of Arcadia, a contagious Lake of Epirus, and a Lake of Italy.

A P A

Aoste, a Dutchy of Savoy, containing six large Vallies in the Alps, divided by the River Doera, now call'd La Val d'Aosta from its principal City, a Bishop's See, under the Archbishop of Tarentaise. Anselm, Bishop of Canterbury, was Born here. It was the Country of Salassi, and a Roman Colony.

Apaci, Apaches, Inhabitants of N. America, in New Mexico; their large Country consisting of Four Nations; S. of Apaches de Parillo; Apaches de Xilla, and Apaches de Novaio, N. and Apaches Vaqueros, E. They are Idolaters not under the Spaniards.

Apalachi or Apalachites, People near the Mountains of Apalatai in Florida, in N. America, they inhabit several small Provinces, some bounded by the Apalatain Mountains, N. and E. S. by the Province of Togavesta, W. by the River Hittanactri. Bermarin is the Chief Province, the next Amana, the third Mariqua. Melior is the Capital, and the Seat of the King. They were converted to Christianity by the French.

Apamea, now Hama or Aman, a City of Syria on the Orontes, Built by Seleucus Nicanor, and nam'd from his Wife; it was the Rival then of Antioch, but since a Bishop's See, under the Archbishoprick of Antioch, tho now decay'd; still Populous next to Aleppo, Long. 70. Lat. 34. 45.

Apamea, Apami, an Archbishop's See of Phrygia, on the River Marsyas, where it falls into the Meander, 80 m. S. of Synnada, 100 W. of Laodicea, Long. 59. 50. Lat. 39. 50. Also a City in Bithynia, and an Archbishoprick; now call'd by the Turks, Myrlea, on the Propontis, near the Gulph of Polmeure, between Bursa and Cizicum, L. 56. 50. L. 49. 56.

Apamea or Miana, a T. of Media, bordering on Parthia. There are two other other Towns of the same Name is Mesopotamia, one on Euphrates, the other on Tigris.

A P E

Apurimac, a Province of the S. America, is a Country betwixt the Lake of Tarima, and River of Amazons, extends to the W. of Caropa.

Apurimac, a Province of Peru, near the River of Amazons, where it receives the Carapa, N. of Pocomoro, on the other side bounded by Cachabamba.

Apurimac, Festivals in Aibens, in Honour of Isis, Æbra ordain'd that the Interimian Virgins before W. day should offer their Girdles to Isis at Apurimac.

Apurimac, a Festival in the 12th Century at the 122d of Rome, and was celebrated by three Painters. None but Apurimac was permitted to Paint Alexander, the Master piece was reckon'd the greatest of the 12th C. The Apurimac was an Apurimac, the Apurimac was a head man of the Apurimac, the last and Pernambuco, stretching under Water 50 Leagues.

A P I

Aphel, a City of Palestine, fam'd for a Temple of Venus devoted to Lasciviousness, as the place where he embrac'd Adonis, but more remarkable for the overthrow of the Israelites, and the Victory of Abab over Benbadad, King of Affyria.

Apheta, a City of Magnesia, in a Province of Thessaly, on the Gulph of Volos: The Argonauts began thence their Voyage to Colchos.

Aphgash, Tartars on the West-side of the Volga S. of Astracan on the Caspian Sea to the River Cupa.

Aphrodisium, a fortify'd City of Tunis, on the Sea 20 Leagues distant from Adrumetum or Mithumeta.

Aphrodisius, an Aegyptian Disciple of St. Peter, Bishop of Bourges in France.

Aphrodite, a Name of Venus, from Aphrodisium, being poetically her birth place.

Aphrodisia, a Soft Country in

A P O

Apola, an ancient City of Italy, taken by Lucius Tarquinius Antiquus, with the Plunder of it he Built the Capitol.

Apis, King of the Argives, Son of Jupiter and Niohe, reign'd 35 Years in Achaia, leaving which to his Brother Aegialeus, he went into Egypt, and was known there under the Name of Osiris, and married Isis. He civiliz'd and govern'd the Egyptians prudently, for which he was made a God, and worshipp'd under the Shape of a Living Bull in the Iste Delta, which Bull being kill'd by the Priests in their Fountain, another was sought with Cries, and welcom'd with Joy, but was suffer'd to live long. There was another Apis of Egypt, the Inventer of Phynick. Others will have Apis a great Merchant of Egypt, that supply'd Alexandria in the time of Famine. His Temple there was destroy'd by Theodosius I. He had another at Cnopos.

Apis, King of Sicyon in Peloponnesus, succeeded his Father Teleclus, and subdued the Corinthian Isthmus: from him Part of Greece, was call'd Apia. After 25 Years Reign, he died A.M. 1016.

Apodisia, or Aphrodisia, once a Bishop's See under Stauropolis in Caria, now almost ruin'd under the Turks. Fam'd for the Birth of Alexander Aphrodisias, and other Prelates and Hereticks of Name and Figure.

Apollinarius Ludi, the Apollinarian Games, instituted by Augustus in Honour of Apollo, in Memory of his Asian Victory obtained by his Father, the Days uncertain, till fix'd by La. Vetus on the 4th of July.

Apollinaris, Bishop of Laodicea, and a great Rhetorician of the 4th Century, who at length turn'd Heretic, and held many Heterodox Opinions, all which were added by heretics to his name.

A P O

and in the Oecumenical Council at Constantinople. He was Author of many Books, among which, one was part of the Scriptures in Verse, and others to instruct Youth instead of School-Masters, who had been prohibited by Julian the Apostate.

Apollinaris, (Caius Sulpicius) a Learned Carthaginian, Grammarian of the 11d. Century. He is suppos'd Author of the Arguments in Verse before Terence's Comedies: As also of an extraordinary good Distick upon Virgil's having order'd his Aeneids to be burnt. The Emperor Helvius Pertinax and Aulus Gellius, were both his Scholars; the former having succeeded him in his Profession, whilst he led a private Life.

Apollo, (the Sun) the God of Wisdom, begot by Jupiter on Latona at Delos. His killing the serpent Python was the Sun's drying up the Pestilential Vapours. His long Hair was to resemble its Rays; his Harp to denote the Harmony of the Spheres; his Buckler to shew his Defence of the Earth; and his Arrows the Power he has over Mankind. His feeding Admetus's Sheep, has relation to his nourishing Warmth, and his killing the Cyclops for making Thunderbolts for Jupiter, alludes to his dispersing Vapours that cause Alterations in the Air to the prejudice of Mens Health.

Apollodorus, the Name of divers learned Men, whereof first an Epicurean Philosopher was Author of 300 Tracts, and of Epicurus's Life. A Second taught Augustus Caesar Rhetorick and Logick, A third penn'd the History of the Parthians, A fourth, a famous Grammarian, wrote an Account of the Origins of the Gods. A fifth was a famous Architect, under Augustus and Adrian, who for affronting the latter before he

A P O

he was Emperor, when he came to be advanc'd, he had him made away with, under pretence of being guilty of divers Crimes.

Another of this Name, was a celebrated Painter of Athens, 410 Years before Christ. He first refin'd upon Nature, and excell'd all his Predecessors in Colouring.

Apollonia, the Name of several Towns, but at present of none considerable.

Also the Name of a Promontory on the S. of Guinea.

Appollonius, Governor of Samaria, and General to Antiochus Epiphanes. This Commander going to oppose the Progress of Judas Macchabeus, was both defeated and kill'd by him.

Appollonius, another General to Alexander Balus, King of Syria. This Leader having dar'd the Jewish Prince, Jonathan, to a Battle, was entirely defeated by him, after which Jonathan burnt the Temple so, that 'twas the Scholar's Duty to attend his Master. He was afterwards exceedingly favour'd by Marcus Aurelius.

A P O

Apollonius, (Labeus) a Flandrian Historian of the XVIIth Century. He writ a Description of Fern, and the French Expedition into Florida.

Apollonius, a Learned Geometrician of Pamphilia, A. U. C. 510. He was Author of divers Tracts, and was reputed the 7th of the greatest Wits to that time.

Apollophanes, a Stoick, who affirm'd that Prudence was the only Virtue.

Apollos, a Jew of Alexandria, who becoming a Christian Convert, did the Church great Service at Ephesus in 51. by his admirable Eloquence and Knowledge in the Old Testament.

Apulus, now Abano, a Hot Bath near Fadua, famous for curing divers Diseases.

Apsthorax, or Apstathis, Here-

A P P

5 Stories being rais'd richly the Pontifex Maximus plac'd on the second Story, which ceedingly perfum'd. Then Emperor, after several had been made round the
the Knights and Soldiers, to it, soon after which an s let loose from the Top, credulous People believ'd
the dead Emperor's Soul.
Empress was thus burnt, k was let fly. Among the ings, Romulus had only this
oy. During the Republick, cremus; and Julus Cæsar,
ing the Emperors.
rel, a large populous Village
land, equal to a City, the last of the Cantons has e, having been admitted them, Anno 1513. This s on the River Snirta, four off St. Gaul, and six from . This Canton is mountai-ards Rberia, and had for-veral Sovereign Lords or which were united under ts of St. Gaul, who at length them when they became a k with the Emperor Ro- nsent, Anno 1408. Not r, upon the Abbot's recei-Claim, they join'd with r Cantons against him,
he got them both Prond Excommunicated. The ry baffled, and banish'd his
, and from the Emperor cured themselves by their ins. But the College of Ele-claring against them, they Battels, yet at lenght ob-lignal Victory; they alter-the Proscription taken off, upon were again receiv'd Helvetick Body. Six parts latter & call'd the Inner Ap- ne Papists; and the other ill the Outer Appenzel, are th, which last partly free, ly subject to Noblemen.

A P P

Appiades, five Pagan Deities, which were worshipped under that general
Name; viz. Venus, Pallas, Vesta, Concordia, and Pax, whose Temples were all near Cæsar's Forum at Rome, where was the Fountain of Appius, whence they had this Name.

Appian, a Greek Historian of Alex- andria, famous for pleading. His History begins with the Destruction of Troy, and reaches to the Reign of Trajan, whereof we have only an Account of some few Wars left compleat, and a Fragment of the Galick War.

Appian, (James) Prince of Piom- bino, and Nephew to Pope Mar- tin V. who having invited the Flo- rentines and Sienois, to stand Godfathers to a Bastard-Child of his;
the Deputies were surpriz'd to find it Black when 'twas Born, which occasion'd the setting aside of the Ceremony; and the Prince to suspect a Moorish Servant of his to have been before him, which he had undoubted Reason for.

Appian-way (The) reaching from Rome to Brundisium, and so nam'd from Appius Claudius, who carried it as far as Capua. It was continued farther by others. Some of the Paving still remains.

Appion, a Learned Alexandrian Grammarian, who being us'd to boast, that his Books would make their Patrons Immortal. Tiberius call'd him Cymbulum Mundi. His Heathen Countrymen having sent him to oppose Philo the Jew before Caligula, it gave occasion afterwards to Josephus to write against him.

Appius Clausus, a Sabine, who having disoblig'd his Countrymen by disswading them from a War with the Romans, was forc'd to retire to Rome, where being made a Senator, he chang'd his Name to Claudius, and became Head of that famous Family. He was afterwards made R Consul,

A P P

Corſul, when he defeated the Volſci that had been perfidious and ſlew their Hoſtages. But through his Rigour to the Plebeians and Soldiers, he offended both, which they were always Plotting to Revenge. He died regretted by none but the Nobility.

Appius Claudius, Son to the former, from whom he degenerated. While he was one of the Decemviri, falling in Love with Virginia, he ſuborn'd one Claudius to demand her as his fugitive Slave, which he doing, and the Cause coming before him, he adjudg'd her to the Plaintiff. When her Father perceiv'd her like to be forc'd away, he ſeiz'd a Knife from a Butcher's Stall, and ſtabb'd her. This ſingle Act occasion'd the deposing of the Decemviri, and the Reſtoration of the Conſuls. Appius was hereupon impriſon'd, when out of meer fear he poen'd himſelf.

Appius Claudius, a Dictator, who had the Horſes reſtor'd

A P T

Appleby, and ancient Marke Borough Town of Westmore where the Aſſizes are now kept preſent Members of Parliament Gervas Pierpoint, Eſq; and W^m Dunch Eſq;

Appleby, (Sir Edmund) of Appleby in Leiceſtershire, whence the Family had their Name. behav'd himſelf valiantly at the ſiege of Crefſy in France, and accompanied John of Gaunt, Duke of Caſter, to take Poſſeſſion of Kingdom of Caſtile, in right of Lady.

Appries ſucceeded his Father in the Kingdom of Aegyptus, remias prophesied againſt him whom he is ſaid to have put to Death. He thought neither God nor Man could deprive him of his Dominions, but therein he was ſtaken, for he was defeated by ſus, and ſtrangled by the Aegyptians who bore him mortal hatred.

Apples, (Anchites) a Learned Man. Apples Tragedy By Wm Shakespeare

A Q U

the Poets, the Muses having conquer'd the Syrens, the latter lost their Wings and dropt into the Sea. It was also an Emblem of Victory with the Greeks.

Apua, a large Town of Liguria, formerly a Fief of the Dukedom of Milan, but within these few Years redeem'd from the Spaniards by the Dukes of Tuscany.

Apuleius, (Lucius) an African Philosopher, whose Mother was Plutarch's Kinswoman. He studied Platonic Philosophy at Athens, and became an Excellent Law-Pleader at Rome, where he learnt Latin without any Instruction, but at length he quitted the Profession of the Law for Philosophy. He was accus'd of Murdering the Son of a rich Widow he had married, and of forcing her Affections by Magick, which he clear'd himself of, and penn'd his Apology yet extant. He was Author of divers other Works, both in Verse and Prose, whereof the greatest part are lost.

Apuleius Pausa, Consul of Rome, A. U. C. 454. In his time the Commons began first to share in the Government with the Nobility.

Apulia, (Puglia) once a Kingdom, but now only a Province belonging to Naples. It has Abruzzo on the E. Terra di Otranto and the Gulph of Venice on the N. and Calabria on the S. It's divided into Apulia Daunia, (Capitana) and Apulia Pucetia (Terra di Bari.) This Province has much Corn, but sometimes quite burnt up. The Jesuits have above half of it, and they use their Vassals exceeding rigorously. Vide Puglia, &c.

Apus-Pendente, a City in the Lands of the Church, abounding with Water, whence it has its Name.

Aquarii, Hereticks that us'd Water only in the Sacrament.

Apa-Speria, a little City of Italy, which gives the Title of Duke to the Family of the Cesi's.

A Q U

Aquatulco; a Spanish Sea-port of N. America, and a strong Castle.

Aquaviva, a Town in the Province of Bari in the Kingdom of Naples, whence an ancient and famous Family have had their Name. The chief of these were Julius Aquaviva, a great Commander, who was kill'd at the Siege of Otranto by the Turks, in 1480. and his Son Andrew Matthew, Duke of Attri, in the Kingdom of Naples, who towards the end of the XVth, and beginning of the XVIth Century, became famous for his great Learning, and was Author of divers Tracts, as was also his Brother Belisarius, who wrot two Treatises of Hunting and Mourning.

Aquila, an Episcopal City of Abruzzo, in the Kingdom of Naples, whose Bishoprick was translated thither by Pope Alexander IV.

Aquila, Native of Synope in Pontus, who being by Adrian made Surveyor of his Rebuilding of Jerusalem, became a Christian, and afterwards being excommunicated, turned Jew. He translated the Old Testament into Greek; which, tho' exceeding faulty, was approv'd and us'd by the Jews, and a Second Translation of his was held yet better for having divers Jewish Traditions in it; however it was held dangerous, and forbid even to the Jews, by the Emperor Justinian.

Aquila, (Henry) a German Carmelite of the XIVth Century. Author of divers Books.

Aquileia, a City of Friuli, dignified with the Title of Patriarchate. Its Rise was from a Roman Colony. Augustus both beautify'd, augmented, and often resided in it. Tiberius also liv'd here, and Vespasian was here first proclaim'd. The Inhabitants are fam'd to have made Bow-Strings of their Wives Hair, when they once wanted them in a Siege, which occasion'd them to have a Temple dedicated to Venus the Bald. This City was formerly 12 Miles in Compass, and a Bullwark against the Incursions of the Barbarians; yet Arms with the loss of a world of Men took it in 3 Years, in 452. and the Lombards destroy'd it in 550. It receiv'd something under Charlemagne, and has since belong'd to divers, but at present for its ill Air none but Fisher-men will Inhabit it. The Papists report that St. Marberr preach'd his Gospel, and founded a Church here. It had a Council held in it against the Arians, in 528. and a Synod conven'd by Pope Gregory XIIIth, to get himself reconcil'd.

A Q U

Aquatus Marcellus, a Roman Writer, who lived in the 1st Century, is said to have been sent Ambassador to the King of the

A R A

Aquinas, (Philip) Inhabitant of the aforesaid City, but Born at Avignon. He was a great Hebraicist which Language he taught at Paris in the Reign of Leopold XIIIth. He also writ divers Books concerning that Tongue. Either his Brother Son, Leopold Henry Aquinas, was as well vers'd in the Oriental Languages.

Aquitan, formerly a Province of France, which has its Name from its abundance of Water. It was the Third of the ancient Gauls, which Cæsar bounded with the Garonne, the Pyrenees, and the Ocean. Its modern Bounds are properly the River Loire, the Ocean, and the Pyrenees. Pompey subdu'd Part of it, and the rest. No longer than the Goths, in 507, when was made a Kingdom of Aquitan.

R A

bia Felix (Hyaman) has its Name from its ra, being Built among the Red-Sea and Egypt abia Deserta on the E. fine on the N. and a on the S. which part a Felix. Near the Alabaster, Coral, and it is exceeding Barren, bode of the Israelites

Here are the Mounnd Horeb, frequent-n Scripture. Arabia
L. and is more flat abounding with Sands

It is fertil only to-
s. Travellers are fain nselves through the lariners Compass, and later along with them Journey. Some give es, and others say it

Arabia Felix is the
the other three, and ds the S. and E. It riptide Saba. It has fides, except towards it is bounded by the abia's. It has many d great Cities, the re Medina and Mecca.
g fertil, and affords
, Frankinsence, Cassia,
her Drugs and Spices.

Cities observe Demo- ir of all the Arabia's
good, but very hot.
ws supply the want
happens but rarely.
ia abounds with Anirles and Camels are

The Inhabitants of s call themselves De- Ishmael; they are a k'd, swarthy sort of wear their Beards not a little Superstir things; they are Thoughtful, and So-ied with mean Diet.

A R A

The Citizens are either Students in Astrology, Physick, and Mathematicks, or Tradesmen. The Country People live in Clans, (Tribes) under their respective Chiefs, and often remove their Tents. Their Employment is Robbery, but they seldom Kill. They generally are on Horse-back, and always well arm'd.
Ten of them with their Bows and Half-Pikes will drive 30 Turkish Musqueteers. They keep their Horses Pedigrees, but don't value their own. They sit round in their Entertainments, often combing their Beards, which they reckon Sacred,
and therefore often Swear by them.
Their Clans of Tents have two Passages which they fence in the Night against Beasts of Prey. They are Poor, Lazy, and Miserable and unlike their Ancestors, who made many Conquests. Their Language is delicate and ancient, and their Letters are join'd together by Points. It is so well understood among the Abissines, that those that speak it, may easily Trade and Travel there. Their Date is the Hegyra, us'd by the Turks, &c. The old Inhabitants of Arabia Felix, made one Wife serve all their Kindred. There is a pleasant Story concerning this, related by Strabo in his Sixth Book; which I am forc'd to omit for Brevity sake. They were wont to Circumcise at 13. by reason that Ishmael was so at that Age. These People never Match with Foreigners, because they think themselves better than they.
They were never conquer'd by any Nation. And Morden says, The Grand Signior pays them Tribute.
In former Ages they were Idolaters, but now zealous Mahometans. They are said to have had Christianity preach'd to them by the Magi, as they came from visiting Christ, and also by St. Jude. There are still some Greek Christians remaining among this People.

Arabicus

ARA

Arabus Sinus: See the Red-Sea.

Arabinus, a Judge, whom the Emperor Alexander Severus reprimanded for taking Bribes after this manner: Denies! O Jupiter! O Immortal Gods! says he) What does Arabus not only Live, but has the Privilege to come into the Senate-House.

Arab, the Modern Name of the City Petra in Arabia Petraea, where Osir, King of Liby, anciently resided. It was in vain belieg'd by Tyrus and Sennacherib, the former of which threw away his Imperial Robes, and fled from before it for his Life. The Soldans of Aegypt kept their League to it, because of its Strength. It was formerly an Archbishop's See, under the Patriarch of Alexandria.

Ararat, the V. g. n that contented with Moses at the Needle, which he had dug the Golden, the Golden Wagon, which made the Golden Wagon Golden Wagon.

ARA

Navarre and France to the N. separated by the Pyrenees, Catalonia, to the E. New and Old Castile to the W. and Valencia to the S. It was united to Castile, in 1474. Its chief City Saragossa on the River Ebro. Its Kings from Remirez I. to Ferdinand III. and Vth of Castile, were XXI.

Arabil vane, a Village and Monastery at the foot of Mount Ararat in Armenia, where the Inhabitants believe Noah sacrific'd to God after the Deluge.

Arām, Sem's Son, and suppos'd Ancestor of the Syrians, then call'd Aramites.

Ararat, a Mountain in Armenia, where the Ark rested after the Deluge. A Dutch Traveller says he was seven Days going up it at five Leagues a-day. He says it is higher than either Mount Everest or Mount Everest. Every Night he came to a Hermit's Cell, who always directed him in his Journey.

A R B

Arca, a Valley, C. and R. of Arca, whose Inhabitants were with the Spaniards for above Arca, however accepted a Peace

Arax, an exceeding rapid River out of the Mountains of Arax which will suffer no Bridge to it, nor Mole, nor Dam, to its Course; yet it is some-ordable on Camels, when ow from the Hills is all

Arax, a famous Cape in S. Ame- xtending in a sharp Point from E. It has the finest Salt in the suppos'd to come from the cable the Sea never over-flows 605. the Dutch had free access Salt, at length the Spani- tarrel'd with them, and sunk ships, and afterwards built a secure that Commodity for ice.

Arbee, a City of Palestine,
nam'd Hebron and Mamré, suppos'd Adam, Abra- ham, and Jacob, were buried.

Arbes, Governor to Sardanapa- Media, who, when he saw her's Effeminacy, revolted him, and began the Mo-of the Medes, which conti-130 Years, till Astyages was rd by Cyrus. Arbaces reign'd

Arbe, a City in Sicily, which with settish Inhabitants, that it and this Proverb, Quid non rebus profectus?

Arbe, an Assyrian Town, near Alexander, by gaining the battel against Darius, obtain-Persian Empire. This Bats fought in a large fruitful

Arbe, Nimrod's Son, being the an that was deify'd.

Arbe, a well water'd City in the om of Tunis, situate in a Plain,

A R C

and abounding with many Roman Antiquities.

Arbogastus, a Gaul, who defeated and slew Victor, a Usurper, being sent against him by Valentinian Ju- nior, and Theodosius; but afterwards engaging likewise against Sumon
and Marcomir, he was unsuccessful, which occasion'd him to be depriv'd of his Employ, whereupon he plotted against Valeminian, and got him strangled, which however Theodosius reveng'd, for pursuing him close, he slew himself to prevent being taken.

Arcadia, (now Fraconia) has Ar- gos on the E. Eli on the W. Acbaia Propia on the N. and Messenia on the S. It had its Name from Arcas, Son of Jupiter and Calisto. Its chief Towns are Magalopolis and Mantenia, near which last a famous Battel was fought between the The- bans, under Command of Epaminon- das, and the Lacedemonians. This Country, though 286 Years under the Turks, was lately recover'd by the Venetians, with the rest of the Mo- rea. It was formerly govern'd by Kings. Its People are warlike, and Soil fertil, tho' in some parts Mountainous and Woods. The Gulph of Arcadia was anciently call'd Caparif- sinus Sinus.

Arcadius, Son to Theodosius the Great, who having disoblig'd his Tutor Ruffinus, by not Marrying his Daughter, he set the Goths against him, thinking thereby to make him receive him for his Copartner in the Empire; but this was so resented by the Army, that they slew Ruf- finus. Next, a Gothick Captain, one Gainas, an Arian, forc'd the Emperor to deliver up his best Friends to be murder'd; however, at last that Person was subdu'd and beheaded. This done, Arcadius made the Laws against Hereticks and Ari- ans be put in Execution; and had reign'd happily for the future, had he

A R C

he not been seduc'd by his Wife and her Flatters, who made him banish St. Cery, from. He died in 4.

Arcturus, a Bishop, sent Legate by Pope Celestine to the Council at Ephesus, notwithstanding which, he had not Precedency afforded him.

Arcturus, a learned African Bishop of the Vth Century, who greatly oppos'd the Arians, and was put to Death for it by Genfericus, King of the Vanals, who was an Arian.

Arcturus, a famous Arabian Astronomer, whose Book was printed at Paris, in 1542.

Arcturus, an Aolian, first studied under Antiochus the Mathematician, and afterwards under Xanthus the Mathematician, and Hipparchus. At Athens he stuck wholly to Crantor, and was Founder of the Second or Middle Academy. He was a great which soon rais'd Archangel from a poor Village to a rich and populous City.

A R C

Archelaus succeeded his Father Herod the Great in the Kingdom of Judea. He was very Cruel, which occasion'd the Jews to side with his Brother Antipas, for whom they procur'd half of his Kingdom of Augustus, under the Title of Etismarch. At length Archelaus, upon Complaints made against him by the Jews, was banish'd by Augustus to Vienne in Dauphiny.

Archelaus I. succeeded his Father Perdiccas II. in Macedon. He made away with his nearest Relations to secure his Kingdom, which having exceedingly beautify'd and fortify'd both by Sea and Land, he was kill'd by a Party for refusing him his Daughter.

Archelaus II. succeeded his Father was built. He chose Riches before Honor, upon a Proposal of the Oracle.

A R C

Archias, a Greek Poet, was Thyrsopleaded for. He wrote the Iliad War, and began the Co-dip of Cicero; but we have only some few Remains of him.

Archilamia, Daughter of a King of Sparta, who being inform'd that all Women were order'd to depart
the City before Pyrrhus besieg'd it, she went with a drawn Sword, and told the Senate, That the Members of so many Warriors had no less Courage than they in the Defence of their Country: Whereupon the Decree was revok'd.

Archilanus succeeded his Father
Agelanus the Great in Sparta, A.U.C.
392. He kill'd 10000 Arcadians, with the loss of but one Man; assisted the Phocians to Plunder the Temple of Delphos, but was kill'd himself in his Expedition into Italy, to assist the Lucanians and Brutians.
Upon seeing the Engines to sling stones, he said, He found true Courage was forsaking the World, since Men had found out ways to fight at a distance.

Archilanus II. succeeded his Father Lysimachus in Sparta, and lost two Battels to Demetrius Poliorcetes, who took Athens, A. U. C. 455.

Arch Deacon, an Office which at first was conferr'd only on Deacons, but in 177. it began to be given to Priests. He is, as it were, the Bishop's Vicar, and Visits for him in his Diocess.

Arch-Duke, whose Privilege it is to receive Investiture on Horseback from the Emperor, or his Ambassador, and that in his own Dominion. He cannot be Proscrib'd, and Crimes against him are no less than Treason. There lies no Appeal from his Courts.

Archiprimate, the and Synod's High

A R C

Archilochus, an Iambic (Satirical) Greek Poet. He was so severe upon Lycambes for refusing him his Daughter, after he promised her, that he made him hang himself. He had such Indecorums, that the Spartans were prohibited reading what he wrote.

Archimedes, a famous Mathematician of Syracuse, who was fain to be forc'd from his Study to eat. He was Author of many fine Inventions. He made a Glass-Sphere with all its true Movements. When he had discover'd how much the Goldsmith had cheated the King in mixing his Gold, he ran naked about the Streets crying like a Madman, I've found it, I've found it! He burnt the Roman Ships with Burning-Glasses, when Marcellus besieg'd Syracuse; but upon the taking it, a Soldier finding him poring on a Scheme, and being desir'd by him to withdraw, kill'd him. This Marcellus was exceedingly offended at, having given express Orders that no harm should be done to him.
There are several Tracts of his yet
Extant.

Archium, a Citizen of Argos, who being commanded to new Arm the Inhabitants, made use of the Opportunity to Seize the City.

Archi-Pelago, the Aegean-Sea, which Sea-men vulgarly call The Arches.

Archiprimate, a Title the Jews bestow'd on the Readers and Expounders of the Law.

Archipolis, a Conspirator against Alexander the Great, whose Plots were detected.

Architecture, or the Art of Building. This was neither lasting nor handsome, till our Forefathers left wandering, when they built more Solid and Magnificent. Of this Art there are two sorts, Civil and military, the latter of which is exceedingly alter'd since Cannon and Powder

A R C

der came to be known. There are five Order of Architecture with proportionable Ornaments, viz. 1. The Ionian. 2. Doric. 3. Ionian. 4. Corinthian. And 5. Composite. Of this see more in other Book.

Archons, the Nine chief Magistrates of Athens, whereof the first was K. The 2d Archon who was to see Just. & done: The 3d Polemarch or Generalissimo; the rest Thesmothetes or Legislators. All these before Solon were elected by Votes, but he ord. 'd them to be chosen by Lots, which was however to be confirm'd by a General Meeting of the People.

Archonts, Hereticks that attributed the Creation of the World to Archangels, that denied Resurrection and had an odd Notion of Redemption. They had other Extravagant Tenets, all which they defended by several Books.

Architect, an Officer that dis-much valu'd by Pope Clement V. He died in 1621. and had 1 Author of several Books.

A R D

Arceville, a Village near P. famous for an Aqueduct of Julius the Apostate.

Arculus, a God that oppos'd *T*ving, whereas the Goddess Lena encourag'd it.

Ardalean, an Alexandrian Codian who ridicul'd Christianity the Stage so long, that at last became a Martyr for it.

Ardischal, formerly Araxal, a ruin'd City of Armenia, w^h some Remains of the magnificent Palace of Tiridates, are yet to be seen.

Ardea, Metropolis of the R. and Residence of Turnus, now Ruins.

Ardebel, a City formerly Metropolis of Fertile. It lies in an Ardebel, encompassed with vast Hills. It's large, but built stony. It has natural Baths, them. The King's Palace is large and neat, into which none have Admittance, except the Grand Mara-bus, unless sent for. All prostrate themselves before the King, but this chief Minister, who has an inappealable Authority as well in Matters of Religion as State. In 1670. this King sent an Embassy to the King of France, to assure him of safe Commerce within his Dominions.

A R E

Ardes, a well fortified City on a Hill in the Upper-Boulonnois in Flanders, near which, Henry VIII. and Francis I. had an Interview, in 1520. when both Courts were so splendidly cloth'd, that from thence the Place had the Name of The Field of Cloth of Gold.

Are, a River in Yorkshire, which empties it self into the Ouse below York.

Arzberg, a City and Principality of the Empire, between Juliers and Trier. Maximilian II. rais'd it from an Earldom to this Dignity in favour of the Counts of Areschor. The City lies 7 Leagues S. of Juliers, and 4 W. of the Rhine.

Areopagus, and Areopagites, the Senate-House and Senators of Athen. The House stands on a Hill, near the City, and had its Name from the God Mars, his being sent there upon Neptune's Accusation, for killing his Son; the Areopagites always heard Causes in the Night that they might be more Sedate. St. Paul was accus'd before them, and converted one of them.

Arequipa, one of the chief Cities of Peru, near which are Silver Mines, and a Burning Mountain.

Areaphie, Wife to the Tyrant Misistrus of Cyrene, who to revenge her first Husband, would have poyson'd this that kill'd him, and being discover'd, escap'd by pretending it was a Philtre she would have given him. Some time after she got his Brother Lyfander to Murder and Succeed him; but he proving no less Cruel, she had him sew'd in a Sack, and cast into the Sea. Hereupon the People offer'd her the Sovereignty, but which she refus'd for a private Life.

A R E

Aretas, King of Lower-Arabia. He invaded and defeated the Jews, but at length made Peace with them. He protected and promis'd to restore Hircanus, and thereupon besieg'd Aristobulus in Jerusalem, but for fear of Pompey's Lieutenant, Scaurus, he was forc'd to raise it. At last Aristobulus vanquish'd him, and would have proceeded, had not he prevented the Storm by a great Present.

Aretas, another King of Arabia, whom Augustus at length confirm'd in his Title through Herod's Mediation; yet upon this latter's divorcing his Sister, he war'd upon him, which so incens'd the Emperor Tiberius, that he sent Vitellius against him, which was however disappointed by the Emperor's Death.

Areticus, a Cappadocian Physician, who was Author of divers Works in the Ionick Dialect, which have been since Translated and Printed at Basil.

Arethusa, Companion to Diana, who chang'd her into a Fountain, to make her escape her Lover Alpheus. This Fable was grounded on an Opinion of the Ancients, that the River Alpheus in the Morea, cross the Sea to join the Fountain Arethusa in Sicily. Of this Name there is also a Lake in Armenia, wherein the heaviest things would Swim, and Fish die. ★

Aretia, Daughter of Aristippus the Philosopher, who kept up his Sect and School after his Death.

Arctin, (Charles) a learned Florentine of the XVth Century. He was a good Poet, and Translated divers things out of Greek.

A R G

Argenti, another Learned of the XVth Century.

Argentius, a Benedictine, famous for his Commentaries on the Six Muses, Namque, Ar, Re, Mi, Fa, Sol, and some Treatises on the Artes, and liv'd in the XVIth Century.

Argemontanus, one of the learned Men of the XVIth Century. He was a Germanian, and wrote the Arte Literarum.
He wrote also other Works.

Argemontanus, another Learned Person of the XVIth Century. He was Author of several Books, both in Latin and French.

Argemontus, a famous Italian
of the XVIth Century, whom Mo-
rison mentions as a learned Man.
He wrote the Arte Literarum.

Argemontus, a famous Italian
of the XVIth Century, whom Mo-
rison mentions as a learned Man.
He wrote the Arte Literarum.

- A R G

though Pliny says 170, and Silius Italianus 200.

Arges, a Boy that Hercules had forc'd from his Parents, whom when he died, he burnt, which gave beginning to that Custom.

Argentiere, the Name of one of the Alps towards France.

Argenta, or La Plata, one of the chief Cities of Peru, so nam'd from the exceeding rich Silver-Mines hard by.

Argentum, a Deity of Silver-
Coin, as Affulcrum was of Copper.

Argis, (Partes Romanas della Mo- rea) a Province of Peloponnesus, anciently inhabited by the Argives, and since by the Danai. The Kingdom of the former was erected by

Demetrius of Macedon, who was the first King of the first Republic of the Argives. The second King of the Argives

A R G *

ance, the 25 brave Greeks accompanied Jason to Calchis to the Golden Fleece. This, by look'd upon as a Fable, several Morals have been so long here to enumerate. Argos was the first of any that was know in Greece.

Argo, a Knot of Islands on the Coast of Africa, first discovered 1443.

Argo, the Builder of the Argos, in Minerva's Direction.

Argo, the Name of the 4th Argos, who 'tis possible left Argos that City.

Argos, he that had an 100 Eyes, of which he slept, and with Argos. He kept Io from Jupiter's Order, which occasioned her to kill him by his sister's Command. To make Argos, Juno turn'd him into a serpent, and plac'd his Eyes in its tail.

Argos, an Highland County of Scotland, which comprehends not only several Countries, but also some of the English.

Argos, It has for a long while been the Campbells, to whom it has the Title of Earl. They are possessors of that Title in this Kingdom, they are also Barons of other Kingdoms, among which the Title of Earl goes to the eldest Son. The Family is very considerable on account of its Clan, which is extensive, and the Hereditary Offices which it enjoys. The Justice-Generals of the Kingdom, till the Marquis of Argyll resign'd it to Charles I. in 1641. for the same Title over the County of Argyll only. The Marquis of Argyll, the Campbells, in 1308. engaged himself in an Indenture, yet was oblig'd to defend his King to the death, which he perform'd. The King gave him his Signet-Ring. His Son, the Marquis of Argyll, a King.

A R G

David rewarded him, and made his Cousin Earl of Argyll. Another of this Family prevail'd with the Governor of Scotland to Ransom King James I. then a Prisoner in England. Colin, Earl of Argyll, settled James II. in the Throne, after he had been conspir'd against, for which he was made Lord High-Chancellor of Scotland, and was further rewarded besides. Another Earl of this Family was kill'd at Flodden-field, fighting for James IV. Another Earl was one of the Governors of the Kingdom in James Vth's Minority, and was the chief Opposer of the Douglasses. He that was Lord High-Chancellor in Queen Mary's Time, not a little forward'd the Reformation, and oppos'd the French. His Son was Lord Chancellor in James VIth's Reign. Earl Archibald, in 1641. was created Marquis, stuck to the Presbyterian Government, was a great Statesman, and Crown'd King Charles II. yet upon the Restoration was Beheaded for having been too complying with Oliver, which however he denied at his Death. His Son, when Lord Lorn, signalized himself against Oliver with the King's Foot-Guards, yet was out of Favour, but soon restor'd, yet at length he was condemn'd for putting too free an Explanation upon the Test; but though he escap'd for a while, yet invading Scotland in the behalf of the Duke of Monmouth, was Defeated, Taken, and Beheaded, June 30th, 1683. on the before-mention'd Sentence. His Zeal for his Religion against Popery, was the reputed Cause of his Fall. His Son, the present Earl, accompany'd the Prince of Orange in his Expedition, and was one chief Instrument of the happy Revolution in Scotland. He with other Nobility had the Honour to offer the Crown to K. William and Qu. Mary; and rais'd a Regiment almost almost all of his own Name and Family, for their Majesties Service. His eldest Son, the present Lord Arden, fell from a Window three Years ago, without receiving any hurt, which happen'd much about the same time his Grandfather suffer'd.

A R I

Arden, a part of Alexander's Army, who had Silver Targets, who were commanded by that King, and Arden's Servus had also Silver Targets of this kind.

Arden, a Country in Corinth, a Country in Italy, was the chief City formerly of the Arden, now of Serli, is large and fertile, and famous for Roles that grow in it.

Arden, Was to Pata Cecinna, who was the first who was commanded to build the City of Arden, and the first who built the City of Arden, for the first who built the City of Arden.

A R I

Ariamnes, a rich Gaul, so derfully Liberal, that he gave his Countrymen settled in Gaul a whole Years Entertainment.

Arian, a Philosopher, Historian and Geographer, of Bithynia, writ the History of Alexander Great, &c. Adrian rais'd him to be Consul, and afterwards Governor of Cappadocia.

Arian, an Athenian Author, writ De Venatione & cura Canum.

Arimo, a Neopolitan City, Dukedom. Also a City on the Arar.

Artabanus II. King of Cappadocia having secur'd himself during Alexander's Reign by his Neutrality after his Death, oppos'd Perseus with a great Army, but being defeated, was slain and cut off his head. That the Armenians did not take the opportunity to take the Armenians, that Armenians did not take the Armenians, that Armenians did not take the Armenians.

I

Reputation at the
and afterwards re-
nde in Andalusia.
employ'd him to ion of the Bible,
d with great Gloor of divers other t Sevil, in 1598.

Mitbridates Eupa-
ing conquer'd Capr grew so Jealous
d him poyson'd.

Peru, with a good Road. In 1578. took here 2 Ships Board, yet they Vedges in them.
rer is brought hiines of Potosi. It ll the last Century.
Corredidor, chosen

formerly a confi-t now a small one oma, which gives

d Brother of Alex.
Actress, and mur-
for having been Throne after his osopher, who made to a manumiss'd him, How Black came to have the er? To which he estion, How Whips

White Ibongs came e Impressions on a mola) Ephracin, fa-ointing, Samuel's

, and Death, and of that Joseph that ng of part of Sog.

Ed Alexander in attle with 30000 sion for them for n Alexander's sum-ask'd, Whether be

A R I

could fly? Which entreamly enra-ging that Prince, he resolv'd to Attack him, which Arimazes observing to be begun, he came down with his Family and surrender'd, which hoever did not serve his turn, for Alexander had both him and his, first scourg'd, and then crucified at the foot of the Rock.

Arintbirs, Consul under Valens and Valentinian. He was St. Basil's great Friend, and greatly oppos'd the Arians.

Ariobarzanes, King of Cappadocia, who was forc'd to retire to Rome for fear of Tigranes, King of Armenia; but upon Sylla's having subdu'd that Prince, he was restor'd. After this he defeated Mitbridates, and by help of the Romans made some Acquisitions to his Territories.

Arion, a Poet and Musician of Lesbos, who invented Dirbyrambicks in Praise of Wine and Bacchus. Having got a great deal of Money, and returning homewards by Sea,
the Sailors robb'd him, and threw him over-board, when the Dolphin being charm'd with his Musick, con-vey'd him safe to the Morea, where he procur'd Periander to put the Sailors to Death. Some will have this to be the Story of Jonas.

Aristo, (Ludovico) a Ferrarese
Poet, who was Author of many famous Works, which he chiefly compos'd while a Domestick to Alphonso I. Duke of Ferrara. He is said to have spoke well, but thought amiss.

Ariovistus, a German King, who forfeited the Romans Friendship, and was routed by Cæsar.

Aripert I. King of the Lombards.
His Sons disputed his Succession so long, that they both lost it.

Aripert II. a Usurper, who gave the Corrian Alps to Pope John VI.
and sent him a Letter in Gold.
Afterwards flying from a Rebel towards France, he was drown'd.

Aristagoras

A R I

Ar. I geras, Kinsman and Son-in-law to Alcibiades, Tyrant of Miletum. He led the Greeks to take up Arms against the Persians, and afterwards with twenty Ships sack'd and burnt Susa, which so enrag'd Darius, that he had himself frequently resolv'd to Revenge it.

Ar. I geras, chief Soothsayer to King Darius, and his Son Alexander. He accompanied the latter into Persia, and had a great Ascendant over him. He told many things that came to pass, and over-liv'd his Master.

Aristarchus, a great Critick and Grammarian, Contemporary with Cicero. He was Author of divers Books.

Ar. I geras, a Jew, much in favour with Antiochus Philadelphus, who rewarded him with a great Sum of Money, and a high Office. He was the first that introduced the Jewish Religion into Greece.

A R I

Aristides, a Theban Painter, contemporary with Apelles. He first painted Passions.

Aristion, an Athenian, whom Alcibiades sent to persuade his Country-men to throw off the Roman Yoke, which having effected, when he took Athen, had him order'd.

Aristippus Senior of Cyrene, Founder of a Sect of Philosophers, & the Cynicists. He is accus'd for being the first that took Money of Pupils. He kept Company with the best, kept Mistresses, and well. He was exceeding quick Repartees. He wrote the History of Libya, &c.

Aristippus Junior, Grandson of the former, who kept up his Philosophy. He had been taught by his Mother.

Aristobolus, King of Judea, the first of the Hasmonean Family. He was the first that introduced the Jewish Religion into Rome.

R I

length poyson'd by on of the former,
the High-Priesthood eat, but growing had him privately
h.

on of the aforesaid strangled for sup-

Daughter of Theo- us, who being be-sons, Strato and tter being the bet-had the Grant of
she was going to the former went to which the latter kill'd in the Fray,
mer kill'd himself,
r'd, and was never

Tyrant of Pelopon-
e he could not gain
ie fair Nymphalides, ith her Father, and er self at Diana's arity occasion'd an ich depriv'd him and Life.

King of Arcadia,
inst, and ston'd to jects, for Ravisheffests, and a Law ied Women should fice for the future.

Grandson of the ast King of this as treacherous to hom pretending to Lacedemonians, he occasion'd them to afterwards refusing al, his Subjects red him.

ing of Messenia in being over-match'd onians, retir'd to
, which having obe such Slaughter of t they were forc'd

A R I

to prostitute their Wives and Daughters to repopule their Country, whence came the Parthenians. This King having sacrific'd his Daughter by the Oracle's Command, kill'd himself on her Tomb.

Aristodemus I. being put by succeeding his Father in Arcadia, went and serv'd the Romans against Tar- quinus, but tho' he at last obtain'd his Father's Throne, yet was he stabb'd for his Pride and Luxury.

Aristidemus II. tho' he vanquish'd the Lacedemonians, yet was he put by and murder'd by his own Subjects;
who would not endure any King after Aristocrates II.

Aristodemus, a Spartan, that escap'd at the Battel of Thermopylae, by reason he all of a sudden became Blind, and could not engage. But being tax'd of Cowardice, he to redeem his Credit, sacrific'd himself at the Battel of Platea.

Aristogiton, an Athenian, one of those that kill'd Hippias, whose Brother Hippias torturing several for a Discovery, a Courtesan, bit out her Tongue to prevent making any.
This Aristogiton had afterwards a Statue erected to him for what he had done.

Aristolaus, Commander of a Legion under Theodosius Junior. He reconcil'd St. Cyril and John of Anti- och, and brought the latter over to the Orthodox Party.

Aristomenes, a Messenian Leader, who exhorted that People to revolt from the Spartans, which Revolt was attended with success in several Bat-tels, till Lacedemon, in Obedience to the Oracle, took a General from Athens, who overcame them; and Aristomenes being taken, the Vir-gins sav'd by him from his Soldiers, would not return to Sparta till he had his Liberty; but after various Escapes, and noble Actions, he was Slain; and when he was open'd, his Heart prov'd Hairy.

A R I

Archimedes, a Disciple of Zeno the Stagira, whose Additions to his Mathematics, made him seem Author of a new Sect; Phyicks and Ethicks, as well as Logick, he designed, as Sophisters Webs full of Artifice; Metaphysics were all his Study.

Archon, King of Sparta, whose Valour was equal to his Wisdom. He said, Altho' I should gain my Enemies, I would not part with my Friends, &c.

Archimedes of Pergamum, disdain- ing the surrender of that Kingdom to King Antioch, defeated Lumius Consul, &c. A. U. 623. but the Year following was taken by Perperna, and rewarded by the Senates Order.

Archimedes, the Master of the Academy, who taught the Platonick Philosophy, was a Pythagorean, and lived 100 Years.

A R I

such Application, that he borrowed his Hours of natural Repose for the Study of Philosophy: but in the 15th Year of his Study began to dissent from his Master Plato, to his no small disgust; travell'd not like Pythagoras, &c. Aristotle to know their Sciences; Religion, both which he learnt from few at Athens. The Remainder of Fortune being spent, he subsisted by selling Powder and Poisons, &c. But on the Death of Plato, leaving Athens, he made Assyria in his Retreat, of which City Assyria, his old Friend, was chief Magistrate, whose Sister Pythias marry'd, and lov'd almost to Idiocy. Whence retiring to Mytilene, where he lived 15 Years, he was the Son Alexander the Great was 17 Years old; was 104 Years old; and died at 107.

A R M

and his Philosophy has been both condemn'd and approv'd by Popes and Synods, in spite of Infallibility.

Aristotle, Bates, first King of Thera, an Island in the Aegean Sea, the Founder of Syrene in Libya, which he having built, he reign'd there 50 Years.

Aristoxenus, though a Disciple of Aristotle's, spoke contemptibly of him, when he had disappointed his hopes of being left Master of the Lycæum. He wrote in Philosophy, History, and Musick, 453 Books.

Arias or Iburas, King of the Assyrians, succeeding Ninias, A. M. 2039. He reigned 30 Years, and conquer'd the Babryans.

Arklow, a Port of Leinster in Ireland, South of Wicklow 12 m. and of which the Duke of Ormond is Baron.

Aries, one of the most ancient Cities of Provence, and an Archbp. under which are the Bishops of Marseilles, Toulon, St. Paul, Trois Châteaux, and Orange; 'tis large and populous, and noted for its Academy of Sciences, and Roman Obelisk, 5 Foot high, and 7 Foot Diameter at the Bottom of Oriental Granite. It has 2 Parish Churches. Here are the Ruins of Aqueducts, Statues, Pillars, and an Amphitheatre. And has been subject to various Changes, both of Masters and Forms of Government successively; taken by Franks, Saracens, and Burgundians. Has given the Title of Count and King. And been the Place of several Councils, particularly one in 354. under the Emp. Constantius, where St. Athanasius was condemn'd.

Arlington, a Village, only remarkable for the Birth and Title of Henry Bennet, Earl of Arlington, Father of the present Dutches of Grafton, Secretary of State to King Charles II. &c.

Armalibai, the capital City of the Kingdom of Guzarat, in the Indies, and one of as great Consideration for

A R M

Riches and Greatness, as any subject to the Mogul, 45 League N. of Surat.

L'Armado, the Guard of the King of Portugal's Palace, and the only Regiment of Soldiers that are permitted to enter the City, and lodge there.

Armagh, a Town, Barony, and County of the Province of Ulster in Ireland. The Town ruin'd by Tiromen's Rebellion, is now scarce any thing to shew that it was an ancient City, though the Seat of the Primate of all Ireland; which it was made, as some say, because founded by St. Patrick, in 445. the County is one of the most fertile in that Kingdom, and divided into four Baronies, besides that of Armagh.

Armagnac, a County of the Province of Gascogne in France, bounded by Bigorre, La Pais de Cominges, Bern, Guienne, and Languedoc. As Fertile as Populous, containing 14 Cities, 1800 Fiefs of the Baron and Arriurban; is water'd by various Rivers, all falling into the Garonne: And had of old, Counts of its own, of great Name in the French History.

Armais, or Armais, K. of Agypt, succeeded his Father Memphres XI. He Built a Basin or Rec-plate of Water in a great Drought, 3600 Furlongs in circumference, and 40 Cubits deep; in the middle of it was a Tomb, supported with two Pyramids, to himself and Wife, and two Statues on Thrones. The Profits of the Fish of this Pond were allow'd his Queen to buy Pomum and Washes.

Armand of Bourbon, Prince of Orléans, quitted four considerable Church-Preferments, procur'd by his Father, for the Army. He was Governor first of Guienne, then of Languedoc; and being made General in Catalonia, in 1655. he took Villa Franca, Puyceila, and Chatillon; for which, being made Steward of the Household, he was put to Command with the Duke of Marlborough, the Army in Italy, in 1704. He was made Knight of the Royal Order; and in 1706.

A R M

ARMED, signifies with a Cord, or with Money Pro- perty, or as individual to be conscious with the Cord, or with Money, being'd for be- all Gains by

ARMED, signifies with a Cord, or with Money Pro- perty, or as individual to be conscious with the Cord, or with Money, being'd for be- all Gains by

A R M

Resides at the Monastery of Eschimbazin, near Arzan; of the Leys at Tarbis; their Clergy, both Regular and Secular, profess Celibacy, and teach Prayers for the Dead, though no Purgatory; that the Punishments of Hell, and Rewards of Heaven, are not till after the General Judgment, and that Damnation is only a Privation of the beatific Vision, &c. They have often made and broken their Union with the Romanists.

Armentiers, a City of Flanders on the Ys, 3 Leagues from Ipres and Lille, considerable for its Linnen Manufacture.

Arminius, General of the German Cheer, who revolting from the Romans, cut off Vannus with three Legions, near Paderborn in Westphalia; but being beaten by Germanicus, he

A R N

Aruleder, a Ringleader of the German Peasants, that to revenge the Host, stab'd by a Jew, massacred the Jews, and plunder'd them, and then proceeded to the Christians, till seiz'd by the Emperor, he was executed, and the Rabble dispers'd, in 1338.

Armorica, the ancient Name of Breizne in France; it signifies in the old Gallick Tongue, Bordering on the Sea.

Arms, or Coats of Arms. Their Antiquity is not thought by some to be great, as arising in the Croisades about the Holy Land, though others run the use of them up to Seth. as fallly; but amidst the uncertainty, 'tis reasonable to believe, that they answer the Images of the Romans, which were the Honour and Distinctions of Families, as these are, but much more reasonable, being of greater Influence, as the Monitors of the great Deeds of their Fore-fathers. 'Tis not improbable that they first came from the Standards of Leaders and Kings. Hengist bore a Horse in his. Tho' several Coats of Arms came from Trades and Offices.

Armstronger, (Sir Robert) was as Skillful in War as Antiquity, liv'd in the time of Charles I. Retreated without the loss of a Man, with 500 English from 6000 Spaniards, over a Plain for 3 Leagues together. He and Sir Henry Wotton brought the Art of making Tapistry into England.

Arnhem, the chief City of one Quarter of Guelderland, and the Seat of the Governor of that Province, subject to the Republick of Holland. First fortified by Osk IV. Duke of Guelderland, taken by the Hollanders, in 1585. and is two Leagues from Nimeguen. L. 27. 20. L. 32. 2.

Arnhem, (i' Land van) part of Nova Australia, on the Coast of Amboyna, S. of New Guinea, lately discover'd by the Dutch.

A R N

Arnobius the Elder, Born in Africa in the III^d Century, became a Christian in the time of Dioclesian, and before his Baptism, wrote 7 Books against the Gentiles.

Arnobius the Younger, he flourished in the Vth Century, and in his Writings asserts, That St. Austin's Works were of equal Authority with the Writings of the Apostles.

Arnold, (Robert) Lord of Andilli, was Born at Paris, in 1589. after a long Attendance at Court, and Honours pass'd through there at 55 Years of Age retir'd to the Monastery of Port Royal des Champs. He died in 1674. and 86 Years old. Having wrote several considerable Books.

Arnold, (Anthony) a Doctor of the Sorbonne, and a great Opposer of the Jesuits in favour of the Jansenists, for which he was excluded the Faculty, and thereupon retir'd for 25 Years. At length he return'd and was reconcil'd. At last, he voluntarily retir'd again out of the Seminary, where he continued his satyrs against the Jesuits. He was Author of divers other Books besides Controversy.

Arnold de Meckel, a Switz of the Canton of Unterwald, who provok'd by the Imperial Governor of Switzerland Lundenburg's putting out his Father's Eyes, stir'd up Furstius and Stauffacher, and fixt the Liberty of each Canton, by throwing off the Yoak of the Empire.

Arnold de Villa Nova, Born in Catalonia, and an Eminent Physician: He was condemn'd by Pope Clement V. for an Heretick, because he had writ against that Church. He died in 139.

Arnold de Brescia, deny'd that the Clergy should have any Lands or Estates; preach'd up the setting Rome at Liberty, by the Expulsion of the Pope and Cardinals; but finding too few to undertake so generous a Design.

ARN

Design. He was taken and executed
in 1155.

Arroyo, a River that rising in the Hills of Arizoa, passing through Atila, and dividing the Mountains of America, falls into the Atlantic Ocean. 'Tis noted in the Description of the same.

Atoll, a Vagabond People of the Futuna Archipelago, on the E. Coast of the Great Ocean. And the Islands of N. and S. T. P. P. P.

A Prince of Bavaria, and Elector of Westphalia, in 889. His Mother was Concubine to Charles V., who rooted out the Sola-nists, by annulling the Treaty, by which they had align'd them Monarchs. He expelled the Nether-landers out of his territory.
He was King of Spain, &c.

ARO

Arnolp, Bishop of Lizieux in XIIth Century. His episcopal Party, made him dear to Pope Anders III. and his Address in Mediation betwixt Thomas Becket King Henry II. of England, won his Esteem, til that Prel. Death provok'd Arnolp to v things disgustful to that Prince. died in 1182. at the Abby of St. Evor.

Arnolph, an Egyptian, rep
a Magician, to whom many Wonders were attributed, the the Rain that gave the Roman Victory over the Germans, in is said not to be by his Act, but Prayers of the Christian Legion

Δ -not b of B at U'-1 on C?

A R R

Meler. It has a Fort, silver Mines of no great value in 1521. Christiern II. mark, was defeated by And here in a Convent, in 1540. he made it to be declar'd Here-

Marot, two of Mahomet's Angels that perished from Murder, Violence, &c. Their Intemperate Love with a Young Lady invited them to Supper, in spite of God's forbidding she was turn'd into the air for resisting the Angel.

Mar, on the River Arr, on the banks; 'tis a free City, and the Assembly of the Diet of the Canton.

Mar Town near Stretto d'Arro, old Furca Caudina, so call'd, that not above two years past, where the Romans to pass did under the Yoke.

Mar, Son of Sem, liv'd 438 years, gave his Name to part of Arphaxites.

Mar the ancient Arpinum in Italy, noted for being the Birth-place of Marius.

Mar small Town of Normandy, remarkable for a strange story of the Duke of Main's Army of Men by Henry IV. of less than 3000 Horse and 19.

Mar her small Town, call'd Mar, noted for the Birth of the Maid of Orleans.

Mar a Kingdom of the Indies, capital City on the River beyond the Ganges.

Mar Powerful and Wealthy. The common Name of the Mar, Kiltronon, and the Title of Earl to the Mar's Second Son, in 1661. and lie at the Mouth of the Bay of Galloway in the Irish Sea.

A R R

Arran an Island in the W. of Scotland, 24 m. long, and 16 broad, full of uninhabited Mountains, and noted for a calm Harbour full of Fish, and for giving Title of Earl to the Duke of Hamilton's eldest Son.

Arras, the Capital of Artois in the Netherlands, a Bishoprick under the Archbishop of Cambray, taken last by the French, in 1640. who yet retain it; 'tis well fortified, rich, and of good Trade.

Arrians, Hereticks of the IVth Century, from Arius, their Founder; they denied the Divinity of Christ, made him the first of Creatures, and the Former of the World; in the framing which, the Holy Ghost, first made by him, assisted him. These are said to be their chief principles. Several Princes, Councils, Bishops declar'd for them, and against them, and against Athanasius, who more than once was banish'd by them. The Princes and Nations were Constantine the Great, Constantius, &c. The Goths, Lombards, &c. The Councils of Antioch, Philippopolis, Milan, &c. Bishops of Nicomedia, Nicea, Chalcedon, Prolemais, &c. And Theodosius was the first Emperor that made Laws against them, being then subdivided into various Denominations of Ancients, Semi-Arians, Acacians, Pure Arians, &c.

Arrierman, an Assembly of Gentlemen of France, that serve the King in the War at their own Charge, on account of Fiefs held of the Crown. See Ban.

Arrius, a Philosopher of Alexandria, who was so much valued by Augustus, that he spar'd that City for it Beauty, the love he bore this Person, and the Memory of Alexander, who gave it its Name.

Arius, a Priest of Alexandria, and Founder of the Arian Heresy, which

A R S

which spread in a wonderful manner through all degrees of the Empire:
It was first excommunicated, and banished by the Council of Nice, then rejected by Constantine, re-heard, and its Confession allowed.
The second, that at the Prayer of Alexander, the Alexandria, & Ireland, & the rising Tortures were used with his Excrement.
The third, that from Irish Sectaries, the Quakers, &c.

Philip, King of the Asfettie or Aspet Kingdom, was elected by the Asfettie to the Revolt from the Sultan of the House of Macedonia, A. M. 2111, after his Reign of 38 Years, elected two inglorious Kings of the Name.

Above Nine a King of Armenia, Confronted with Julian the Apostate at the Persian, and

ART

Arcadius, and Honorius, and their Tutor; but forc'd after the Death of their Father to the Desarts of Sabe in Aegypt, for fear of Death from his Pupil Arcadius, who very ridiculously and meanly resented those Corrections he gave him, as a Boy by his Father's Order.

Arfenius, Bishop of Hippide, St. Arhanasius being accus'd by the Ar- ians of his Murder, he appear'd at the Council of Tyre, in 335. and gave his Vote for that Saint.

Also a Macedonian Monk of Mount Athos, and being chiefe Patriarch of Constantinople, he writ a Nomo-Canon, or a sort of Harmony or Order betwixt the Imperial and Patriarchal Decrees.

Arsenius, Archbishop of Maloasia in the Morea, became a Convert

A R T

15 m. from the Sea, contains not above 2000 People, most Greeks, and has now but four Suffragans: Its Cathedral is magnificent, Built by Michael Comnenus Emp. the Doors and Windows equalling the Days of the Year.

Artabanus I. King of Parthia, died of a Wound receiv'd in the Trogarian War.

Artabanus II. from King of Medes, advanc'd to the Throne of Parthia, for his being of the Blood of the Arfacida, after his Conquest over his Competitor Vendaces, when he put all the Arfacida that could pretend to the Crown to Death, he won Armenia from the Romans, and made his Son King of it. But being by Vitellius and the Romans twice compell'd to quit the Throne, he was re-establish'd, and died about A. C. 48.

Artabanus III. only remarkable in his short Reign, for having sided with the counterfeit Nero.

Artabanus IV. the last of the Arfacida and Parthian Kings, after his Wars with Caracalla, Artaxerxes, a common Persian Soldier depos'd him, and carried the Empire of the Parthians to the Persians, A. C. 229.

Artabanus of Hyrkania, having murder'd Xerxes in his Return from Greece, perswaded Artaxerxes that his Brother Darius had done it, and by this means destroyed him too. He was made Copartner of the Throne by Artaxerxes, but kill'd by him when the Villany was discover'd.

Artabastus was taken by Constantine Copronymus after a short Usurpation of his Throne, and with his Hands had his Eyes put out, and was led through the Streets of Constantinople.

Artabastes, one of Xerxes's Generals, whose Advice being rejected by that of Megasthenes, at the Battle of Plataea, he was to support him, and withdrew with 40000 Men in the LXXIId Olympiad.

A R T

Artabazanes was put by the Throne of Persia, though the eldest Son, because Born before Darius was King, for Xerxes, who was Born after, in the LXXIId Olympiad.

Artabazus, Grandson of Artaxerxes Mnemon, having been forc'd to fly from his Government of Myfia, Phrygia, and Bitkynia, on his Defeat in his Rebellion against Oclus, to Philip of Macedon; where getting his Pardon, he return'd to Persia, and having serv'd Darius faithfully against Alexander, was by him made Governor of Bactriana, for his Fidelity to his unhappy Master.

Artaphernes, one of the 7 Candidates for the Persian Crown, when Darius carried it, on whose Death he voted for Xerxes against Artabazanes.

Artavasdes, King of Media, who after an obstinate War with Marc. Antony, made Peace and Alliance with him.

Artavasdes I. King of Armenia, who not satisfied with his Treachery to Crassus, repeating it to Marc. Antony, was by him taken, and being carried in Chains to Alexandria, Beheaded, and his Head sent to the foresaid Artavasdes, King of the Medes.

Artavasdes II. King of Armenia, succeeded the Children of Tigranes, by Augustus's Order; the Crown soon after was given to Ariobarzanes, on Caius's Arrival there to quiet the Disorders of that Kingdom.

Artaxerxes Longimanus in the LXXVIIIth Olympiad, succeeded his Father Xerxes, had War with the Aegyptians and Greeks, and permitted Nebemiab and Ezra to Rebuild the Temple and City of Jerusalem. He reign'd 40 Years, dying A. M. 3629.

Artaxerxes Mnemon, succeeded his Father Darius, A. R. 349. put to Death

ART

DECEASED, John and Son, for their
a long time in Crown. He reign'd year, more than 40 Years; had reign'd A. M. 3689.

1. Antiochus, was Son of the King, and he ruin'd himself in his Folly, murdering 80 of his Brethren, and near Kindred; he reduced Sidon, destroy'd Sidon, and made a Tyrannick Empire, poison'd by Bagoas, and reigned a Reign of 23 Years.

... from a Common Soldier to the Kingdom from the Persians, and he'd it to the Persians. He sent Ambassadors to Seleucus to demand the restoring Syria, but when attempting with a great Army, he was defeated, and drove back into Persia by the Romans, and died A. C. 22. before Christ.

1. Chlorophyll a (Chl a)
 2. Chlorophyll b (Chl b)
 3. Chlorophyll c (Chl c)
 4. Chlorophyll d (Chl d)
 5. Chlorophyll e (Chl e)
 6. Chlorophyll f (Chl f)
 7. Chlorophyll g (Chl g)
 8. Chlorophyll h (Chl h)
 9. Chlorophyll i (Chl i)
 10. Chlorophyll j (Chl j)
 11. Chlorophyll k (Chl k)
 12. Chlorophyll l (Chl l)
 13. Chlorophyll m (Chl m)
 14. Chlorophyll n (Chl n)
 15. Chlorophyll o (Chl o)
 16. Chlorophyll p (Chl p)
 17. Chlorophyll q (Chl q)
 18. Chlorophyll r (Chl r)
 19. Chlorophyll s (Chl s)
 20. Chlorophyll t (Chl t)
 21. Chlorophyll u (Chl u)
 22. Chlorophyll v (Chl v)
 23. Chlorophyll w (Chl w)
 24. Chlorophyll x (Chl x)
 25. Chlorophyll y (Chl y)
 26. Chlorophyll z (Chl z)
 27. Chlorophyll aa (Chl aa)
 28. Chlorophyll ab (Chl ab)
 29. Chlorophyll ac (Chl ac)
 30. Chlorophyll ad (Chl ad)
 31. Chlorophyll ae (Chl ae)
 32. Chlorophyll af (Chl af)
 33. Chlorophyll ag (Chl ag)
 34. Chlorophyll ah (Chl ah)
 35. Chlorophyll ai (Chl ai)
 36. Chlorophyll aj (Chl aj)
 37. Chlorophyll ak (Chl ak)
 38. Chlorophyll al (Chl al)
 39. Chlorophyll am (Chl am)
 40. Chlorophyll an (Chl an)
 41. Chlorophyll ao (Chl ao)
 42. Chlorophyll ap (Chl ap)
 43. Chlorophyll aq (Chl aq)
 44. Chlorophyll ar (Chl ar)
 45. Chlorophyll as (Chl as)
 46. Chlorophyll at (Chl at)
 47. Chlorophyll au (Chl au)
 48. Chlorophyll av (Chl av)
 49. Chlorophyll aw (Chl aw)
 50. Chlorophyll ax (Chl ax)
 51. Chlorophyll ay (Chl ay)
 52. Chlorophyll az (Chl az)
 53. Chlorophyll aza (Chl aza)
 54. Chlorophyll abz (Chl abz)
 55. Chlorophyll acz (Chl acz)
 56. Chlorophyll adz (Chl adz)
 57. Chlorophyll aez (Chl aez)
 58. Chlorophyll afz (Chl afz)
 59. Chlorophyll agz (Chl agz)
 60. Chlorophyll ahz (Chl ahz)
 61. Chlorophyll aiz (Chl aiz)
 62. Chlorophyll ajz (Chl ajz)
 63. Chlorophyll akz (Chl akz)
 64. Chlorophyll alz (Chl alz)
 65. Chlorophyll amz (Chl amz)
 66. Chlorophyll anz (Chl anz)
 67. Chlorophyll aoz (Chl aoz)
 68. Chlorophyll apz (Chl apz)
 69. Chlorophyll aqz (Chl aqz)
 70. Chlorophyll arz (Chl arz)
 71. Chlorophyll asz (Chl asz)
 72. Chlorophyll atz (Chl atz)
 73. Chlorophyll auz (Chl auz)
 74. Chlorophyll avz (Chl avz)
 75. Chlorophyll awz (Chl awz)
 76. Chlorophyll axz (Chl axz)
 77. Chlorophyll ayz (Chl ayz)
 78. Chlorophyll ayz (Chl ayz)
 79. Chlorophyll azz (Chl azz)
 80. Chlorophyll azaa (Chl aza)
 81. Chlorophyll abz (Chl abz)
 82. Chlorophyll acz (Chl acz)
 83. Chlorophyll adz (Chl adz)
 84. Chlorophyll aez (Chl aez)
 85. Chlorophyll afz (Chl afz)
 86. Chlorophyll agz (Chl agz)
 87. Chlorophyll ahz (Chl ahz)
 88. Chlorophyll aiz (Chl aiz)
 89. Chlorophyll ajz (Chl ajz)
 90. Chlorophyll akz (Chl akz)
 91. Chlorophyll alz (Chl alz)
 92. Chlorophyll amz (Chl amz)
 93. Chlorophyll anz (Chl anz)
 94. Chlorophyll aoz (Chl aoz)
 95. Chlorophyll apz (Chl apz)
 96. Chlorophyll aqz (Chl aqz)
 97. Chlorophyll arz (Chl arz)
 98. Chlorophyll asz (Chl asz)
 99. Chlorophyll atz (Chl atz)
 100. Chlorophyll auz (Chl auz)
 101. Chlorophyll avz (Chl avz)
 102. Chlorophyll awz (Chl awz)
 103. Chlorophyll axz (Chl axz)
 104. Chlorophyll ayz (Chl ayz)
 105. Chlorophyll ayz (Chl ayz)
 106. Chlorophyll azz (Chl azz)
 107. Chlorophyll azaa (Chl aza)
 108. Chlorophyll abz (Chl abz)
 109. Chlorophyll acz (Chl acz)
 110. Chlorophyll adz (Chl adz)
 111. Chlorophyll aez (Chl aez)
 112. Chlorophyll afz (Chl afz)
 113. Chlorophyll agz (Chl agz)
 114. Chlorophyll ahz (Chl ahz)
 115. Chlorophyll aiz (Chl aiz)
 116. Chlorophyll ajz (Chl ajz)
 117. Chlorophyll akz (Chl akz)
 118. Chlorophyll alz (Chl alz)
 119. Chlorophyll amz (Chl amz)
 120. Chlorophyll anz (Chl anz)
 121. Chlorophyll aoz (Chl aoz)
 122. Chlorophyll apz (Chl apz)
 123. Chlorophyll aqz (Chl aqz)
 124. Chlorophyll arz (Chl arz)
 125. Chlorophyll asz (Chl asz)
 126. Chlorophyll atz (Chl atz)
 127. Chlorophyll auz (Chl auz)
 128. Chlorophyll avz (Chl avz)
 129. Chlorophyll awz (Chl awz)
 130. Chlorophyll axz (Chl axz)
 131. Chlorophyll ayz (Chl ayz)
 132. Chlorophyll ayz (Chl ayz)
 133.

ART

one of the Surnames of ~~the~~ places.

Alto a Philosopher of Cnidus.
City of Caria, Son of Ibepom taught Greece at Rome, and gave Julius Caesar an Account of the Coracy of Brutus, as he went to Capitol on the Ides of March,
he not reading it, was there kil-

Artemisia, Queen of Halicarnassus, in the LXXIVth Olympiad, Daughter of Lygdamis, and married Xerxes in his Greek Expedition, gave him the most prudent Councils to all his Followers.

Also the Name of the Wife Manfolus, King of Caria; she did put his Ashes in her Liquor. And a wonderful Monument to his memory. Propos'd a Prize of Poetry in his Praise, won by Theophrastus.
And was finally buried in the

1963 1964 1965 1966 1967 1968 1969 1970 1971 1972 1973 1974 1975 1976 1977 1978 1979 1980 1981 1982 1983 1984 1985 1986 1987 1988 1989 1990 1991 1992 1993 1994 1995 1996 1997 1998 1999 2000 2001 2002 2003 2004 2005 2006 2007 2008 2009 2010 2011 2012 2013 2014 2015 2016 2017 2018 2019 2020 2021 2022 2023 2024 2025 2026 2027 2028 2029 2030 2031 2032 2033 2034 2035 2036 2037 2038 2039 2040 2041 2042 2043 2044 2045 2046 2047 2048 2049 2050 2051 2052 2053 2054 2055 2056 2057 2058 2059 2060 2061 2062 2063 2064 2065 2066 2067 2068 2069 2070 2071 2072 2073 2074 2075 2076 2077 2078 2079 2080 2081 2082 2083 2084 2085 2086 2087 2088 2089 2090 2091 2092 2093 2094 2095 2096 2097 2098 2099 2100 2101 2102 2103 2104 2105 2106 2107 2108 2109 2110 2111 2112 2113 2114 2115 2116 2117 2118 2119 2120 2121 2122 2123 2124 2125 2126 2127 2128 2129 2130 2131 2132 2133 2134 2135 2136 2137 2138 2139 2140 2141 2142 2143 2144 2145 2146 2147 2148 2149 2150 2151 2152 2153 2154 2155 2156 2157 2158 2159 2160 2161 2162 2163 2164 2165 2166 2167 2168 2169 2170 2171 2172 2173 2174 2175 2176 2177 2178 2179 2180 2181 2182 2183 2184 2185 2186 2187 2188 2189 2190 2191 2192 2193 2194 2195 2196 2197 2198 2199 2200 2201 2202 2203 2204 2205 2206 2207 2208 2209 2210 2211 2212 2213 2214 2215 2216 2217 2218 2219 2220 2221 2222 2223 2224 2225 2226 2227 2228 2229 2230 2231 2232 2233 2234 2235 2236 2237 2238 2239 2240 2241 2242 2243 2244 2245 2246 2247 2248 2249 2250 2251 2252 2253 2254 2255 2256 2257 2258 2259 2260 2261 2262 2263 2264 2265 2266 2267 2268 2269 2270 2271 2272 2273 2274 2275 2276 2277 2278 2279 2280 2281 2282 2283 2284 2285 2286 2287 2288 2289 2290 2291 2292 2293 2294 2295 2296 2297 2298 2299 2300 2301 2302 2303 2304 2305 2306 2307 2308 2309 2310 2311 2312 2313 2314 2315 2316 2317 2318 2319 2320 2321 2322 2323 2324 2325 2326 2327 2328 2329 2330 2331 2332 2333 2334 2335 2336 2337 2338 2339 2340 2341 2342 2343 2344 2345 2346 2347 2348 2349 2350 2351 2352 2353 2354 2355 2356 2357 2358 2359 2360 2361 2362 2363 2364 2365 2366 2367 2368 2369 2370 2371 2372 2373 2374 2375 2376 2377 2378 2379 2380 2381 2382 2383 2384 2385 2386 2387 2388 2389 2390 2391 2392 2393 2394 2395 2396 2397 2398 2399 2400 2401 2402 2403 2404 2405 2406 2407 2408 2409 2410 2411 2412 2413 2414 2415 2416 2417 2418 2419 2420 2421 2422 2423 2424 2425 2426 2427 2428 2429 2430 2431 2432 2433 2434 2435 2436 2437 2438 2439 2440 2441 2442 2443 2444 2445 2446 2447 2448 2449 2450 2451 2452 2453 2454 2455 2456 2457 2458 2459 2460 2461 2462 2463 2464 2465 2466 2467 2468 2469 2470 2471 2472 2473 2474 2475 2476 2477 2478 2479 2480 2481 2482 2483 2484 2485 2486 2487 2488 2489 2490 2491 2492 2493 2494 2495 2496 2497 2498 2499 2500 2501 2502 2503 2504 2505 2506 2507 2508 2509 2510 2511 2512 2513 2514 2515 2516 2517 2518 2519 2520 2521 2522 2523 2524 2525 2526 2527 2528 2529 2530 2531 2532 2533 2534 2535 2536 2537 2538 2539 2540 2541 2542 2543 2544 2545 2546 2547 2548 2549 2550 2551 2552 2553 2554 2555 2556 2557 2558 2559 2560 2561 2562 2563 2564 2565 2566 2567 2568 2569 2570 2571 2572 2573 2574 2575 2576 2577 2578 2579 2580 2581 2582 2583 2584 2585 2586 2587 2588 2589 2590 2591 2592 2593 2594 2595 2596 2597 2598 2599 2600 2601 2602 2603 2604 2605 2606 2607 2608 2609 2610 2611 2612 2613 2614 2615 2616 2617 2618 2619 2620 2621 2622 2623 2624 2625 2626 2627 2628 2629 2630 2631 2632 2633 2634 2635 2636 2637 2638 2639 2640 2641 2642 2643 2644 2645 2646 2647 2648 2649 2650 2651 2652 2653 2654 2655 2656 2657 2658 2659 2660 2661 2662 2663 2664 2665 2666 2667 2668 2669 2670 2671 2672 2673 2674 2675 2676 2677 2678 2679 2680 2681 2682 2683 2684 2685 2686 2687 2688 2689 2690 2691 2692 2693 2694 2695 2696 2697 2698 2699 2700 2701 2702 2703 2704 2705 2706 2707 2708 2709 2710 2711 2712 2713 2714 2715 2716 2717 2718 2719 2720 2721 2722 2723 2724 2725 2726 2727 2728 2729 2730 2731 2732 2733 2734 2735 2736 2737 2738 2739 2740 2741 2742 2743 2744 2745 2746 2747 2748 2749 2750 2751 2752 2753 2754 2755 2756 2757 2758 2759 2760 2761 2762 2763 2764 2765 2766 2767 2768 2769 2770 2771 2772 2773 2774 2775 2776 2777 2778 2779 2780 2781

A R T

for endeavouring the Establishing the King's Son, John of Ghent, Count of Flanders, in prejudice of the true Line. His Son Philip was Slain in a Battle against the Count, in 1382.

Artemius, a Roman General, put to Death by Julian, Emperor, for defending the Innocence of the Christians.

Arthur, a Fictitious King of Britain, conjur'd up by Nennius and Gosfr of Monmouth, to do monstrous and incredible Wonders, and make Chimerical Conquests, when the most he was, if ever he was at all, was a General, or a petty Prince of the Britons in Somersetshire, &c.

Arthur I. Count of Britany in France, was Born at Nantes in 1157. Granted to Henry III. of England, suppos'd to be assassinated by King John at Ram, after he had taken him Prisoner at the Siege of Mirebeau.

Arthur III. Duke of Britany, Born in 1353. returning from his Imprisonment into England, in 1420. having been taken at Agincourt. He first sided with the Duke of Burgundy, then with France, and won many Places from the English in Normandy and Poitou. Had 3 Wives, yet died without Issue.

Artillery, all sorts of warlike Engines, as Cannons great and small, Mortar-pieces, &c. The Invention I take to be Chinese, however brought to us; and though Fryer ~~thinks~~ have the Name of finding out Powder, I am apt to think it had the same Origin.

Artois, a Province and Earldom of the Netherlands, Subject to France. It is adorn'd with the Cities of Arras, Aire, St. Omer, Bethune, Bazoume, Heslens, Renti, &c. and the Rivers of Lys, Scarp, &c. which make it extremely Fertile. It has chang'd often its Masters from Romans, Austrasian Kings, French, Dur- gundians, Spaniards, to France at present, who by the Pyrenean Treaty holds it all.

A R U

Aron, a River of Savoy, whose Fountain is in the inaccessible Hills, where Chrystal is found, falling into the Rhone with a more rapid Course near Geneva; on the Snows melting it rises so, that it drives the Rhone back to the Lake. It overflow'd almost to a Deluge before the Parthian Massacre.

Arvales, Twelve Noble Romans, that in Imitation of Arca Laurentis, the Nurse of Romulus, and her 12 Sons, Sacrifice yearly for the Fruits of the Earth, call'd Arvales from Arvum, a Field.

Arundel, (Henry) present Lord Arundel of Warbur, whose Grandfather Thomas had that Dignity from King James I. after his Valour had gain'd the Title of Count of the Empire, whose Family has been Eminent in the West, ever since William I. of England.

Also the Name of the Lord Arundel of Iwerke, made a Baron by King Charles II. in 1664. for his and his Father's Loyalty in the Wars, who is of the same Family, and gives the same Arms with that of Warbur.

Sir John Arundel of this Family, was kill'd in a Skirmish against the Lord Oxford, for St. Michael's Mount for King Edward IV.

Arundel, a small Town in Suffex, remarkable for nothing but giving Title of Earl to the Illustrious Family of Howard, among whom the Learned World is obliged to Thomas Earl of Arundel and Surrey, Lord Marshal of England, who by William Petty got from Asia, the Marmora Arundeliana, of which Mr. Selden wrote a Book in 1629. which has given great Light to the Learned Enquiries. They are now fix'd up about the Theatre of Oxford. Whoever is in Possession of this Manner

ASA

... an Earl without Crea.

Vide ARABIS.

4. To quench the Proud, and

7 "I," Son, and with them

1. 2. 3. Battel against Brutus.

and praying for Revenge,

Horfe at Brutus, he

...d, kn'd him, and

by him at the same in-

1. 1.

• epos, (Lucius) Aucher

of the Punic War in

He was Consul

C. Marcellus Aferrius

Reign of Tiberius.

ab Ann impediendis,

...ing the Altars, South

... .. from the Entrance

... on the federal Circuit.

what they divid'd the

6. $G \neq 1$, and $w \neq 1$.

ASC

which provok'd the Pope to a Cade againſt him in favour of King of Hungary, who on it dered War againſt him. There alſo three Kings of Barbary and of this Name.

Afan Calassan, a Greel Rene and after that a notorious Pera Algers, who after a thousand predations on the Candians, other Christians, had his Squi defeated and taken in his V home, and his rich Booty bo by the Christians.

After being King Pharn
Governor of the Euphrates, seiz Master on his Flight to him, defeated by Zule's Caesar, and his Head to the Conqueror, w Return gave him Phoenicia's D ter, Phoenicia, and the Kingdo Pontus, and Cilicia, but u

7

Journal of Management Education 30(6)

A S C

Baldwin, Earl of Flanders, by consisting of a Turkish Garrison against the bordering Arabs, about sixty Moorish Families. Bartholomew the Great was Born.

Basilius, Son of Aeneas and succeeded his Father in the Kingdom of the Latins, having d Mezentius of Tuscany. He Alba Longa his Capital. Reign'd rs, and died in the 2915th of rld.

Bastard, a Callick Prince, who been by Constantine, was with Caesar, his Confederate, in ng the Truce with the Romans, r'd by Dogs.

Bastard, a Feast celebrated in ry of the Ascension of Christ.

Bastard, an Island in St. Lawrence's N. America, 50 Leagues N. Cape Briton, a fine open ry, noted for its Rocks of Iron: Its Shoar is cover'd with Bastard, another Island with the : of Ascension, on the Coast of America, an unwholesome and Country, discover'd by the Portuguese, 100 Leagues from France.

Bastard, Primitive Christians of kable Austerities, and peculiar habit, of which Tertullian is d to be: this Name, was since the Monks, though with little Bastard, a City of Franconia, e River Maine, the Seat of lestor of Mentz, now divided pper and Lower, and adorn'd t fine Palace.

Bastard, Roger Kirby-Wilk in York gave him Birth, and St. John's in Cambridge, Education. ight Queen Elizabeth Latin, Princess; and made by her, Queen, Secretary for that age. He was University Ora- Cambridge, a Man of great ing and Honesty, had a perfect Friendship with Smith, lov'd Shooting in his Youth, and Cock-fighting in his Age, and wrote two Books yet Extant.

A S C

Ascites, Arabian Robbers, that to pass Rivers, tied Bladders together, and thence their Name.

Asclepas, an Orthodox Bishop of Gaza in Palestine, twice depos'd and driven from his See by the Arians, having fate in the Council of Nice. He fled to Pope Julian, and was justified in the Church of Rome, in 331. and restor'd by the Council of Sardica.

Asclepiades wrote the Life of Alexander the Great, and the History of Bibynia in Greek.

Also a Celebrated Physician in Rome, in the time of Pompey the Great; indulging a freer Course to his Patients than Hippocrates. He got great Esteem; and broke his Neck down Stairs on purpose, to avoid the Imputation of dying of a Disease, when very old.

Asclepiodorus of Alexandria, a great Master of the Mathematicks, Botannicks, and Lapidary, in his Travels over Syria, said he could find but three Men in their Wits.

Also a Painter of the first Rank, who sold the Pictures of 12 Gods to Mnason for 43200 l.

Asclepiodorus, Tribune of the Praetorian Band under Constantinus Chlorus. He kill'd Carausius, proclaim'd Emp. in Britain; and is the suppos'd Author of the Life of Dioclesian.

Asclepiodorus, an Astrologer, that having foretold Domitian's Death, and being brought before him for it, Domitian asking him, If he knew his own Death? He replied, That he should that Day be tore to Pieces by Dogs. The Emperor resolving to disappoint the Event foretold, commanded him to be immediately burnt: but great Rains falling, extinguish'd the Fire, and the Dogs tore his Body to pieces, which gave Domitian

ASD

Dominian no little Cause of fear of his succeeding Fate.

As Juggles, or Asciles, a Jovial Drunken sort of Hereticks, that pretending to be full of the Holy Ghost, brought Vessels of Wine into the Church, and making Procession round it, cried, This is the new Wine of the Gospel, &c.

At this, Festivals of the Atitick Pea-fact, or Bar-bus, in which they sacrificed to a Buck, as the destroyer of the Nae, &c.

At Injur Tremi, a Bishoprick and City, and Pope's Patrimony, the ancient Asulum, where the Proconsul's Legate, Fontium, on the Discovery of their Plot on the Consul, was murder'd, and all the Roman Garrison on the Feria Luina, for which their City was raz'd; from which Ruins rose Ascoli, the Seat of the Comitatus, or Centurion's Urbis, &c. Pope Sixtus IV. was born here.

Dr. J. S. Stryker, a C. S., P. S.

ASE

her Reputation in Spain more Address than Valour, which could not defend him in the m his Guards, from a mortal Stab
a Slave, in Revenge of his Mi Death, inflicted by Afrubal.

Afrubal, Hannibal's Bro
who with his Army of 50000 was cut off near Piacenza, by dus Nero and Livius Salinator.

Afrubal, Son of Gulfo, a L of the Carthaginians, in the Punic War, being driven Spain, giving his Daughter Amiba in Marriage to Syphax, of Numidia, was with 100000 Dracms of that King's, totally defeated by Scipio Africanus bel Utes.

Afirubal Hadus, a Nobleman Caribage, and having been the Plenipotentiaries for a with Bone, owned, I Years, A. D. 5. 1781.
I hereby certify You
rep. of the House.

ASI

, a fertile Province of the n of Fez, confining on that n. Its principal Cities are and Alcasar-quiver.

ron, a Burrough Town of ire, whose present Members, Ibo. Leare, Barn. and Rich. Esq;.

one of Jacob's Sons, whose was Dainties and Fertilty. 226 Years, and died, A. M.

†

the Name of one of the Four s of the Earth, of a very stent, derived either from aughter of Oceanus and The- from Afius, a Lydian. 'Tis

E. by the Chinese Sea, se-

W. from Asia by the Red- id the Streights of Babel

, S. its Bounds are the In-

l Arabian Seas, N. the Tar-

ad Frozen Sea. The Archi-

the Streights of Cassa, Palus

, the River Don, and a Line

hat to the River Obi, divides

Europe. It stretches it self

German Leagues from Ma-

the Hellespont, E. and W.

from N. to S. 1550. 'Tis ided into Five Parts, under mes of the Monarchs that the Great Mogul, the King

, the Cham of Tartary, Em-

f China, and the Grand Sig-

This Quarter of the World

the Seat of the first Man,

Monarchy, the Spring of gions that ever visited Man-whether true or false; the Christ in the Flesh; but all its advantages, it could

Conquer Europe, or knew Li-

va, now Zanara, an Italian

W. of Sardinia, 28 Miles in

, fam'd for the Victory of the ians over the Genoeses at 1409.

ria, Syracusan Festivals in

of their defeating and ta-

ASO

king the Arbenian Generals, near the River Afinarim.

Afinius Pollio, a noble Roman, in time of Augustus, a Friend of both him and Anthony, against whom he would go with Caesar. He left several Tragedies and Orations, and XVII Books of History. He avour'd Virgil, as one of his Eclogues shews. He died in the CLIXth Olympiad, being 80. Years old.

Afinius Gallus, Son of the former. He writ a Comparison of Cicero and his Father, giving the Advantage to the latter, which Claudius the Emperor refuted. Tiberius hated him so, that at last he forc'd his Death by Starving; the rise of which, was his marrying Vipsania, the beloved Wife of Tiberius, whom he was oblig'd by Augustus to quit for Fu-lia: And for his telling him in his hypocritical Modesty in the Senate, that he might chuse what part of the Government he pleas'd.

Aflan, a Tartarian Leader, who made several Inroads into Muscovy, Poland, &c. dethron'd the Cham, and assum'd the Empire; and after waiting the Turk's Motions for his Restoration, he invaded Muscovy again, but soon after died in the XVIth Century.

Asmodai, a Rabinical Name of the Prince of the Devils.

Asoph Asaphi, Saffia, Azaphi, the most ancient South part of Africa, once a populous City, whose Dome-stick Divisions made way for its Sub-jection with great part of Morocco to the Portuguese and Arabs. Lat. 32.00.

Asoph, a City on the South of the Tanais, on a rising near the Palus Maotis. Its Situation and Strength renders it one of the most valuable Fortresses the Czar is Master of, having since his taking it from the Turks, in 1696. added a Citadel in a Morass, commanding the Town, and joyn'd to it by a Bridge of 20 Arches.

A S S

Archbishop, and a great many consider-ns, and has fixed of the greatest Men of W degrees of N. Lat-
 t a profess'd Arian, t Theodosius the Young-
 g deliver'd his la-letters of John of was defeated by the
 His Interest and that the Em-
 to gain him,
 Daughter Arianne, but would cure his Am-which at last he and his Father.

. of Milernum, whose B ng, and Florentiabsolute a Power
 Arbentian, that at-
 and

W XXXX

A S S

The Knights Templars wou quit the Temple they paid though they order'd on that tion to turn Christians. They subd'd, and their King Death by Halven, Cham of I
 in 1257.

Ajess, Governors of Provin
Persia, of a less consideration the Kans, and put in their to save the Crown Expens Pomp, &c.

After, a Rabbin Author of t bylonish Talmud, in the IVth tury, though not finish'd by nor till the Year 500.

Also a Welshman of great I ing, invited from Wales by the King Afred of England, whol
 he writ.

Affiteens, a Sect of Jews d into Chilim and Tilleters,

W

A S T

Part of the County of Rosfe, on the Ducalidon-Sea; its Mountains of Marble.

Now Arzerum, a Kingdom its Bounds are Armenia, Media, and Mesopotamia. Mosul, Schiarazur, Babylon this last, built by himk of Euphrates, Nimrod undation of the first Mo-
M. 1879. Assur or Ni- whom the Name of Assy- (ive) his Son built Ni- Tigris, and made it the Empire, from whom to depos'd by Arbaces, thirty seven Kings, and

ity, Bishoprick, and Coun- to Milan, on the River ify'd with a Citadel and ven by the Emperor, in 1531. to Charles III. voy. 'Tis 16 m. W. of a small neat City of Tur- n the Confines of Persia, from the River Aras: has a Fountain, and it ar Caravanferas or Inns; good Wine, and the, only growing near this sed all over Persia, and or dying Red.

r Eftarac, a little Coun- signe, with the Title of an Idol of the Sidonians res, worshipped by Solo- the Shape of an Ewe. or the Queen of Heaven; y Solomon built an Altar, Sidonian Goddess, and be the same with the gati, or Dercero.

Olympian, that at the gati, shot out one of Philip of Macedon, with inscrib'd, After senas

A S T

Asteria, Latona's Sister flying from Jupiter's Love, she was turn'd into a Quail.

Asterius, a King of Crete, succeeding Lapithus, he had three Sons, call'd Minos, Sarpedon, and Radamantus. In the Syrian War he bore away Europa, Agenor's Daughter; from his Surname, Taurus fabled to be born away by a Bull.

Asterius, an eloquent Defender of the Arians, but was denied Priestly Orders, because he had sacrific'd to Idols.

Asterius, Bishop of Amasia in Pem- tus, in the IVth Century, several of whose Homilies are publish'd.

Asterius, Bishop of Petra in Ara- bia, liv'd in the IVth Century, turning from the Arians in the Council of Sardica he underwent Persecu- tions for the Orthodox, which he out-liv'd, and was at the Council of Alexandria, in 362.

Astley, the Name of an Eminent Family of Melton-Constable in Nor- folk, originally of Warwickshire, de- scended from Philip de Astley of Astley Hillmorton, in that County: And from Sir John Astley, famous for more then one lifted Duel in the time of Henry IV. in France; and against Sir Philip Boyle of Aragon, fought before that King in Smith- field, with that success, that besides other Honours, that of the Garter was given him. Jacob Lord Astley, was a Major-General of the English in Holland, serv'd under Gustavus Adolphus; and in England against the Scots, and the English Rebels, and was created Baron in 1644.

Astomi, a People either of India, near the Head of the Ganges, or of Africa, beyond the River Senega, whose Bodies are hairy, like Down, and who are fabled to have no Mouths.

Astorgue, a City and Bishoprick of Leon in Spain, under the Archbishop of Compestella, thinly peopl'd; the Market-

A S T

Market place, Cathedral, and Towers, being only remarkable in it.

Astrakhan, once a Tartar Kingdom, now a Province of Muscovy. All its walled Towns being inhabited by Moslems, and its Plains with Tartar and Turks, &c. 'Twas subdu'd by Peter the Great, Czar, in 1554. The Climate is extremely hot in September and October, and the Cold is felt in the midst of Winter. Its Soil is Salty; and its chief Trade is Wool. The City of Astrakhan is strong and beautiful at present; from its Stone Walls and multitude of Towers, though the Houses are mean, the Crim Tartars took it in 1637, but the Muscovite recovered it in 1662. In 1669. (the Year it was thus wall'd and furnish'd with 500 Brass Cannon) 'twas betray'd to Radzin, a Rebel Cossack; but recover'd by the Czar, in 1671.

In Tartary, Armenia, India, China, and Moscow Merchants do vend a great Trade.

A T A

eat his own Son for sparing Life, when sent to destroy him according to the Magi's Intercession of his Dream, in the Iliad.

Astynax, Hector's Son by Andromache, thrown from a Tower by Ulysses, after the taking of Troy.

Astynomi, the Name of the Indian Superintendants of the Land and Performers, both Men and Women, and Surveyers of the ways.

Ashesir, King of Egypt, built the largest Pyramid, and made a Law for the Loan of Money on the Security of a Father's Corps, which the Creditor had full power of burying.

Asylum, by mistake writ sometimes Asyle, which is not the Place of Refuge built by Jesus, in the Sacred Grove, to receive the poor and needy, but a Place of Refuge built by Jesus, in the Sacred Grove, to receive the poor and needy, but a Place of Refuge built by Jesus, in the Sacred Grove, to receive the poor and needy.

A T H

Also the Name of a Lady, that in the Chace of the Calidonian Boar, gave him the first Wound, and being honour'd for that by Meleager, with the Head of that dead Beast. Drew first the Death of his Uncles, and then his own from his Mother's burning the fatal Band.

Atas, or Atbas, a running Footman, mention'd by Pliny, that ran 60 Miles in six Hours.

Ataulph, or Ataulphus, Bother-in-law and Successor of Alaric, King of the Goths, sack'd Rome with him first, and the Year following by himself, bore away Placidia, the Emp. Theodosius's Daughter, whom marrying at Narbonne, he was kill'd at Barcelona, in his Journey to Spain, in 415. having reign'd five Years.

Ate, Goddess of Mischief; the Ills she rais'd being only to be remedied by the Lites, the Daughters of Jeres.

Atella, an ancient City of Campania in Italy, whence the Fabula Atellanæ had their Name.

Atepomarus, King of the Gauls, who in the Minority of the Roman State, reduc'd Rome to that Extremity, that they (by the Advice of the Women Slaves) sent their Female Slaves in their Wives Habits, to him who had demanded them, as the Terms of Peace, but the Maids gave the Romans the Signal agreed on, by which they set on the Gauls, and gain'd a great Victory, in Memory of which they kept yearly a Festival, call'd The Maids Feast.

Atergatis, suppos'd the Mother of Atiramis, ador'd by the Ajialo-Atians, in the Shape of a Mermaid, having drown'd her self in a Melancholy fit, for her being ravish'd.

Atb, or Aerb, a strong, large, well-built, and rich City of Hainault in the Netherlands, on the River Dender. It has been taken by the

A T H

French, in 1667, and 1997. and surrender'd to the Spaniards again, and now has run the same Fate with the rest of the Spanish Monarchy. Lies betwixt Oudenard and Mons, two Leagues from Leffine.

Atbalaricus, King of the Ostrogoths, succeeded Theodorick in Italy, under the Guardianship of his Mother Amalasuntha, in 527. sharing the Kingdom of the Visigoths in Gaul, with his Coulin Amalaric. He publish'd an Edict in favour of the Privileges of the Church. He reign'd 8 Years, and died of a Consumption. His Souldiers getting him from his Mother, to breed him to Arms, made his Debaucheries end him soon.

Atbalisk, Daughter of Ahab, put to Death by Order of Jehojadab.

Atbmania, a Country of Epirus, once a Commonwealth, which with other Principalities surrender'd to Philip of Macedon, the Father of Perseus.

Atbamas, Son of Nolus, King of Thebes, the Father of Phryxus and Helle by Nephele, on whom Eacchus having inflicted Madness, he married Ino, who being a hard Step-Mother to Nephele's Children, Atbamas was made Mad by Juno, and kill'd Ino's Children, Ino with Meliceta leapt into the Sea.

Also the Name of a River in Atolia, that at Wain of the Moon would light a Torch dipt in it.

Atbanaglidus, A. C. 554. having depos'd and murder'd Agila, King of the Goths, ascended that Throne himself.

Atbanaric refusing the Title of K. govern'd the Goths in the Time of Valens and Theodosius, Emperors: To the last of whom he fled for Succour, on his Expulsion for his Cruelties by his own Subjects; and, tho' a great Persecutor of the Christians, was at his Death splendidly interr'd at Constantinople.

AT H

Athanasius (St.) was bred in Alexandria, under the Patriarch Alexander. His Zeal against the Arians was so great, that he was banished, and after his Exaltation, he was sent to Alexandria, and there, he spent the end of his life in the service of the Bps of his Patriarchate.

March of Constantinople an Heretical 1491, likewise a 15th Cent.

... of 1000 Persh
... on the Death of
... the Immortal,
... imports ; and in
... Confidence.

d warlike K. of own'd his Arms and Hyacinth;

АТН

Athens, the Capital C. of Attica now called Sesines. Its Name for 1 Mother of Arts and Learning, known to all this part of the Wor. The Areopagus, or Senate-House whose Ruines are yet extant; Lycæum or Piazza, and Schools Aristotle; the Ruines of the M ble supposed Palace of Ithaca the Pharos or Lanthorn of Demosthenes, dedicated to Hercules, and Place of Demosthenes's Retirement to study, the Ruins of the Temple of Victory, the Asynon of Lycæum, the Temple of Minerva, &c. contain the learned Accounts of its Ancient Grandeur. 'Tis defended by a Citadel called Acropolis, accessible on the West-side, and contains about 1000 Greeks and Turks: 'last have 4 Mosques, and the men speak both Greek and Turkish, and ch yet Cesars forgave in honour the old Athenians. Adrian drew on its Ruins once; and Mabom first subdued it to the Turkish

A T L

; and now 'tis scarce Magnis invis umbra. Here St. Paul ch'd, and many Martyrs illued its Church, first Episcopal, rais'd to an Archbishoprick.
Athenum, or Athene, a Neapolitan at the foot of the Appenines, only notable for its being a Principa-

Alps, a R. rising in the highest the Alps in Tyrol, and receiving several others in its Course, falls into the Adriatique 5 m. from Venice.

Athol, the 29th K. of Scotland,
'd himself about the year 240.
Cruelty, Avarice, and Luft, ha-gais'd his Subjects against him.

Athlone, a C. of the County of Down in Connacht in Ireland, a bishoprick and Barony: 'tis divided the R. Shannon, the East-side is
'd English Athlone, and the West is. 'Twas taken by Storm by the English in 1691. under the Command of General Ginkle, who from thence made Earl of Athlone.

Athol, a fruitful Country in the West of Scotland, tho' Woody in general, yet a great Plain at the foot Mount Grampius, is called the Heart of Athol, from its want of trees. The Chief of the Murrays Marquis of Athol.

Atlas, a great Macedonian Mountain, stretching it self into the Ar- ctic Sea, like a Peninsula, betwixt the Gulph of Contessa, and the Bay of Monte Santo, join'd to the Continent by an Isthmus of 12 Furlongs long; The Monks of which, are only Greeks that reverence I- des.

Atlatides, the Name of several Mountains; of the Inhabitants under them, and of the Stars called Hyades, in Argilia, suppos'd the Daughters of Atlas from his Discovery of them.

A T R

Atlas, a vast and long extended Mountain of Africa, has several Names in several Parts: It begins at Capo di Non or Nao, Latit. 28. 40.
the Deserts of Zanbaga are S. of it, and Tesset N. and by several Turnings and Windings, dividing Tesset, Sus, Morocco, and Barbary, from Bile- dulgerid; about Tripoli, its called, Servai, thence in manifold Turnings, it reaches to the Red Sea, where 'tis called Bugia, the Nile cutting it in two when it has divided Nubia and Aegypt. On it, and round it, Inhabit several Nations of old Africans, yet Idolaters of Fires and the Sun, having their own Kings Tributary to the Arabian Masters of those Parts.

* Atlas, Prometheus's Brother, K. of Mauritania, and a great Astronomer, and therefore Fabled to be turn'd into a Mountain, and to support the Heavens: he first invented the use of the Globe, and was Contemporary with Moses.

Atmidon, or Hippodrome in Con- stantinople, a Circus or Square for short Horse Races.

Atossi, Daughter of Cyrus, K. of Persia, cur'd of a Venereal Distemper by Democedes a Greek Physician.

Atrax, a Thessalian C. fam'd for Magick Arts if we believe the Poets.

Atreus, K. of Argos and Mycena, Son of Pelops and Hippodamia, who killing, and Cooking the Sons of Thyestes his Brother, at a Banquet made him Eat them, in Revenge of his Incestuous Amour with his Wife Aerope, at which the Sun went back not to see the Horror.

Atri, a Neapolitan C. only remarkable for giving the Title of Duke to the Family of Aqua viva.

Atropius, he left the Kingdom of Media to his Posterity, after the Death of Alexander the Great, having surrendered himself and that to him on the Defeat of Darius, whose Governor he was of the Province.

Atropos,

A U D

ad led great Fortifications to Rhodes, beat Mahomet II. from thence, and built the Church of St. Mary of Victory. See Rhodes and Zorime.

Audun, the Capital City of Armignen in Normandy, on the River Oise, an Antient City, with 10 Suffragans, the Cathedral built by Clovis the Great, is the noblest in France.

Audun, (German) a French Latin Poet of the XVth Century, who wrote an eloquent Description of Rome, France, and Naples, in Verse. He penned divers other Poems.

Audeus, Born in Mesopotamia, and became the Founder of a Sect of Christians, call'd Audeans. His free Reprehensions of the Clergy made them his Enemies, though he was chosen Bishop by his Party. He was a Man of Probity and Learning, and his Exile was a great Honour to his Church.

Audley, Francis, Earl of Audley, was

A V E

1344. and was buried at Walden.

Audley-End, a Royal Palace, built by Thomas Howard of Suffolk.

Aven, a Town of Luxemburg, famous for the French Victory over the Spaniards, in 1635.

D'Avenne, (Boulard) Bishop Metz, in the XIIIth Century, quitted the Duke of Lorraine, and ran to a dishonourable

Aventinus, (Sylvius) twelfth of Latium, being killed in the of his Reign, was buried under gave Name to Mount Aventine Rome.

Aventine, (John) famous, Annals of Britain, written XVth Century. He was a zealous Lutheran. He left divers Works, which were

Aventine, (John) famous, Annals of Britain, written XVth Century. He was a zealous Lutheran. He left divers Works, which were

U G

ty in the Kingdom of hoprick, built in op-ers by Robert Guiscard, s, &c. fam'd for its he, Hospital, and

Cities, and an Illu-
the Low-Countries, Band, Hainault, &c. s, a Roman Histori- of Augustus. Also a olsci against the Roson as her Father her having a Child

tting her and Tele- in a Trunk, threw iver Cayus, to the convey'd by Venus, them up, Marries l leaves the Son his

of Eliu, who banish-us, for deciding the wixt him and Her- ying him his stipuleaning his Stable)
dethron'd and kill'd gave his Crown to n he had referr'd his chief Order of Roman in'd by the flight of h Tower, looking th their Litus, or dividing the Heal Quarters, obser-of them the Birds

then sacrific'd on it
. and so made their grew from 3 to 15, y Sylla; their Per-and Character in-rime or Cause what-

avenient Port in Si- di Noto, well for-of Casana.

lamm. See London.
livals instituted in lism on his Return

A U S

to A , from leaving all the Provinces of the Empire in Peace, kept on the 12th of October.

Augustin, or Austin, (St.) was Born at Tagaste in Numidia of St. Mo- nica, in 354. and notwithstanding the Licentiousness of his Youth, before 20 he had made a vast Progress in all manner of Learning by his own Study, from which time to his 33d Year he taught Rhetorick at Tagaste, Madawa, and Rome, and from hearing St. Ambrose, received so lively a Touch of Religion, that being baptiz'd, and returning to Africa, was at Hippo ordain'd Priest, and in 395. choose Bishop of that City. He confuted the Donatists, Manichees, Pelagians, and Semi-Pe- lagians, and designing to go to the Council of Ephesus, he died in the 76th
Year of his Age, A. C. 430. Hippo being then besieged by the Vandals, who sparing both his Body and Library, Luitprandus, King of Italy, bought the first of them, and had it brought to Pavia, and there laid in a Church consecrated to him. His Learning and Authority was always rever'd in Ecclesiastical Matters, both by Popes and Councils. His Works are yet Extant. +

St. Austin, the Benedictine Monk was the Apostle of the English in the VIth Century. Pope Gregory the Great, either envited by Bertba, King
Ethelbert's Wife, or as the common Story goes, by the sight of some English Slaves sold in Rome, sent Au- stin to Preach the Gospel here; and arriving at Thanet, he converts Ethelbert, K. of Kent, and baptiz'd
1000 Saxons in one day, was made Archbishop of Canterbury, and died in 614. coming into England, in 596.
His Deputation from Rome, brought that Dependance of our Clergy on that Church, which the Britains neither then, nor afterwards acknowledg'd.

Augustins,

A V I

August, Several Orders that follow the Rule of St. Augustin, first Instituted by Pope Alexander IV. in 1256.

Augustus Caesar, was born, A. R. 753, of Livia and Accia; his Father died when he was but 4 years old; at 12 he made a Funeral Oration on his Grandmother. Julius Caesar being stab'd in the Senate, and being his Uncle to Augustus, he was declared his Heir at 20, and took by the Interest of Cicero Consul, and entrusted with an Army against Mark Anthony, but join'd him and Lepidus in the Triumvirate, in which he vanquished Brutus and Cassius: Pompey, Fulvius, and Lepidus, being laid aside, he ruin'd Mark Anthony, and became absolute Lord of all the Roman Empire. 'Tis said, he offer'd to restore the Power to the Senate, but not with a more Sincerity than his Successor. He build'd his unjust Power up, encouraged Arts, and rewarded all the Provinces, and embraces the East-part of it, as the Rhone runs near it W. 'Tis remarkable for the number 7; having Parishes, 7 Gates, 7 Hospitals, Palaces, 7 Colleges, 7 Nunneries and 7 Monasteries; 'tis a Univerſity and Archbishoprick, and belongs to the Popes, who have often resided there, and left several Monuments of their Magnificence. It has formerly run through divers hands, & sold for 48000 Livres by John Countess of Provence, to Pope Clement VI. which Alienation has been disputed, the present French King having seiz'd it twice: 'Tis considerable for Trade, and the Retreat of many Gentlemen that have fought Duels.

A U L

Avila, (Lewis) a Spanish Historian of the Wars of the Emp. Charles and favour'd by him, who gave him a Commandry of Almora, &c.

Ave, a Portuguese Order of Knighthood, instituted by Alphonso and confirmed by Pope Innocent I

A U R

Anlus Gellius, a very good Latin Grammarian, as you may find in his 20 Books of Noctes Atticae.

D'Arment, (John) having serv'd first in the Wars, particularly at the Battel of St. Quimin: He was made a Marshal of France by Henry III. and signaliz'd himself in his Service, as well as in that of Henry IV. but being shot at the Siege of Comper in the Arm, he died in the 73d year of his Age 1595.

Ancen, a small C. of France, chiefly noted for the Defeat of the Swiss, Germans, &c. by the Duke of Guise in 1587.

Anis, or, Le Pays d'Aunis, the Territory of Rochel in France.

Angessia, an Asiatick Prov. that and Mingrelia composing the Ancient Colchis.

Aon, the Name of 4 Rivers rising in several W. parts of England, two of which fall into the Severn, one into the Sea at Christ-Church, and the fourth into the Usk near Caerleon; on whose Banks many Towns stand, and particularly the C. of Bristol on that which rises in the N. W. parts of Wiltshire.

Awach, a C. of Wirtemberg, on the R. Ermst, the Residence of the 1st Son of the House of Wirtemberg, lately fortified with a strong Castle.

Auranches, a C. in the Lower Normandy, a Bishoprick under the Archbishop of Rouen, near the Sea, large and well-peopled, as well as strong; noted for its Cathedral, Auditory, and Deans House; and for the Council held by the Popes Legates, on Enquiring into the Death of Thomas à Becket.

Auray, a little C. in Bretagne, on a Bay memorable for the Defeat of Charles of Blois by John V. surnam'd the valiant D. of Bretagne.

Aurea Chersonesus, a Peninsula beyond Ganges, divided into several Kingdoms, and taking this Name from its Chief City.

A U R

Aurelianus, (Lucius Domitius) born in Pannonia or Dacia: When the Empire had been divided by 30 Tyrants in the remiss Reign of Galienus, the Soldiers chose him Emperor; who restor'd Rome to its Ancient Power and Glory, reducing all Opposers; and chiefly Zenobia, Queen of Palmyra, and Patroness of Longinus, the Rhetorician and Philosopher. He was at last Murdered by the Conspiracy of Mnestheus.

Aurelius, or Aurelio, maintain'd a short Reign over Asturia, by a base Tribute to the Moors of Virgins, &c. which he had usurp'd by his Brothers Murder in the 8th Century.

Aurelius Victor, a Latin Historian in the time of Constance and Julian.

Aurelius, a famous Painter in the time of Augustus, that drew his Mistresses Faces to the Goddesses, as the Modern Italians have theirs to the Madonnas.

Aurelius, an eminent Bishop of Carthage, Contemporary with St. Austin, held several Councils, and disputed with the Hereticks.

Aurelius Cornelius, was born at Goude in Holland of the House of Lopsen: He was a Canon Regular, and Master to Erasmus, and flourished partly in the 15th, and partly in the 16th Cent. Author of several Tracts.

Aureng-Zebe, is now, or lately was, Great Mogul, or Emperor of Indostan, Dethron'd his Father Chafekan, Murder'd his two Elder Brothers, and Usurp'd the Throne, and is alive above 100 years old.

Aurificus, (Nicholas) a Carmelite of Sienna in the 16th Cent. Author of several Learned Books.

Auriliac, a C. of France, noted for its Trade in Bone-Lace.

Aurogallus, (Matibew) a learned Bohemian Linguist of the 16th Cent. He was also a celebrated Author.

Aurora, the Daughter of Terra and Titan, being Wife to old Tirbonus, she constantly gets up before day.

A U S

Adrian, (Duke Magnus) born at Brunswick, and Tutor to the Emperor Maximilian, who made him Con-

At Munich, the capital of Bavaria, the capital of Germany, a Bishopric and an Archbishopric of Munich, the capital of the River Isar, the streets are paved with gold, especially Gold Street, the Senate-House and the Armenial and Col

of Augustus, a ruled here, then that Emperor.

W. told the severe as often risen
and was made in the 9th Cent.

Confession of London, as well

1. 1863 Treaty in
2. 1863 1863 1863
3. 1863 1863 1863

[illegible]

A U V

Austria, which was afterwards Exalted into an Arch-Duchy. The Empire has continued in this Family ever since Rudolph I. in 1273. and the Family, by many advantageous Matches, arriv'd in the time of Charles IV. to such a height, as threatened Europe, with that Slavery, that is now fear'd from France; the fear of which, the Division of the Territories betwixt Philip II. of Spain, and Ferdinand Emperor, entirely remov'd.

Aurichius, famous Robber of Par-nassus Son of Mercury.

Likewise the Tutor of Arculus in the 414 y. of Rome, a great Astronomer and Philosopher.

Automenes, K. of Cornub, after a Reign of a year, dying, or surrendering the Crown, the Corinthusians choice annual Magistrates, till the 17th of April, and his son Peri-dit, the 18th.

1. I am a member of the
2. I am a member of the
3. I am a member of the
4. I am a member of the
5. I am a member of the
6. I am a member of the
7. I am a member of the
8. I am a member of the
9. I am a member of the
10. I am a member of the
11. I am a member of the
12. I am a member of the
13. I am a member of the
14. I am a member of the
15. I am a member of the
16. I am a member of the
17. I am a member of the
18. I am a member of the
19. I am a member of the
20. I am a member of the
21. I am a member of the
22. I am a member of the
23. I am a member of the
24. I am a member of the
25. I am a member of the
26. I am a member of the
27. I am a member of the
28. I am a member of the
29. I am a member of the
30. I am a member of the
31. I am a member of the
32. I am a member of the
33. I am a member of the
34. I am a member of the
35. I am a member of the
36. I am a member of the
37. I am a member of the
38. I am a member of the
39. I am a member of the
40. I am a member of the
41. I am a member of the
42. I am a member of the
43. I am a member of the
44. I am a member of the
45. I am a member of the
46. I am a member of the
47. I am a member of the
48. I am a member of the
49. I am a member of the
50. I am a member of the
51. I am a member of the
52. I am a member of the
53. I am a member of the
54. I am a member of the
55. I am a member of the
56. I am a member of the
57. I am a member of the
58. I am a member of the
59. I am a member of the
60. I am a member of the
61. I am a member of the
62. I am a member of the
63. I am a member of the
64. I am a member of the
65. I am a member of the
66. I am a member of the
67. I am a member of the
68. I am a member of the
69. I am a member of the
70. I am a member of the
71. I am a member of the
72. I am a member of the
73. I am a member of the
74. I am a member of the
75. I am a member of the
76. I am a member of the
77. I am a member of the
78. I am a member of the
79. I am a member of the
80. I am a member of the
81. I am a member of the
82. I am a member of the
83. I am a member of the
84. I am a member of the
85. I am a member of the
86. I am a member of the
87. I am a member of the
88. I am a member of the
89. I am a member of the
90. I am a member of the
91. I am a member of the
92. I am a member of the
93. I am a member of the
94. I am a member of the
95. I am a member of the
96. I am a member of the
97. I am a member of the
98. I am a member of the
99. I am a member of the
100. I am a member of the

A Z A

agnus, and one of the richest bopricks in France.

arius, born in Cappadocia in Cent. sent for by the Emperator, and made Bishop of

He was an Arian, but became oppos'd by St. Hilary under the Favour of the Emperor, he was to own the Deity of Christ.

His See till his Death in 374.
is, a Country of Burgundy, between Auxois, Auxerrois, and Di- jon; it has a particular Jurisdiction of its own.

La T. in Flanders, noted for the first Action of Prince Mau- rice, who surpriz'd it from the Spaniards in 1586.

Blasius in 1435. being the first Admiral in the Sea Fight of he took Alphonfus V. K. of Castile, John K. of Navarre, and other Princes Prisoners.

Lin., an Island of Lincolnshire, between the Rivers Trent and Idle, by a Dyke that communicates with the Sea 10 m. long, N. and S. and 5
E. and W. the middle rising, fertile, makes the Extremities barren and moorish; 'tis noted for a great quantity of Alabaster.

Archea, an Athenian Lady, that was put on Men's Cloaths, gave occasion of some Scandal to the Philosopher.

is, only famous now for being the Ruins of the Capital C. of is; the remains of Obelisks, &c. show its old Grandure, being now ruined very thinly.

mor, a C. of Morocco taken by the Portuguese in 1508. and being lost by them in 1540. and when found by the Moors in the night, was rifled, and the Inhabitants and Garison carried away to slavery, and exchanged for Chri-

A Z O

Azazel, interpreted by St. Jerome, the Caper Emissarius, or as some Rab- bins, the Name of the Mountain where the Scape-Goat was sent.

Azel, a C. of Judab, formerly of the Amorites, fortified by Reboboam; near this were the 5 Kings that Besieged Gibeon defeated.

Azem, a Kingdom of India beyond
Ganges, fruitful of Mines, of Silver,
Gold, Lead, Iron, &c. The capital
C. is Kenemerous: the King has no Taxes, but lives on the Revenue of his Mines, which he Works by bought Slaves. Mirgimola the Mo- gul's General, made the first Discovery of this Kingdom in 1663. 'Tis one of the best Countries of Asia;
and Dogs-Flesh is one of their chief Dainties, though they abound in all sorts of Cattle, Fish, and Birds.

Azincourt, or rather Agencourt, a Village of Picardy, noted for the Victory of Henry V. of England over the French, above 10000 of the last being kill'd on the spot.

Azones, the Greek Title of those Gods which were acknowledg'd by all Nations, as the Sun, Moon, &c. called by the Latins, Dii Communes.

Azores, about 9 Islands of the At- lantick Ocean belonging to Portugal, called, Tercera, St. Chael, St. George, Dico, Graciosa, Fryal, Conva, Flores, Rocky yet fruitful, first inhabited in 1449. The chief T. is Augra, a Bishoprick under the Archbishoprick of Lisbon.

Azorius, (John) a learned Jesuit of the 16th Cent. born at Louca in Spain, and wrote some Books.

Azagues, a People dispers'd about Africa; they speak Arabick, and tho' Mahometans, at Enmity with the rest of that Faith. They pretend to derive themselves from the Christi- ans.

B.

B Asl or Bel, an Idol of the Moabites and Phœnicians, and thought to be first of Idols, the word signifies Lord or Mighty.

Babylonia, King of Tyre, which Government he obtain'd after the Destruction of that City by Nebuchadonozor.

Babai, Begad, or Begad, the Syrian Goddess of Fortune.

Bani, put to Death by David for the Murder of Isboseth.

Baptists, Heretical Followers of Baptist, born in the IXth Century from the Monachian Heresy.

Bassia, a poisonous Plant on the Syrian Mountains, that shines in the Night like a Torch, from the bituminous Vapours that exhale there about, and will suffocate any that go to pluck it out of the Plant.

Babylon, General or Nidal's King of Tyre, who was killed at the Siege of Tyre, when it was taken by Tyre.

Babrias or Gabrias, a Greek of uncertain time, writ Æsop's fable in Fambicks.

Babrian, a Bishop of Amiorb in IIIrd Century, late 12 Years, suffer'd Martyrdom under Diocletian, 251.

Babylon, a City of Ægypt, the Nile, and flood where G Cairo does now. Here St. Pet said to have writ his first Epistle.

Babylon, once the Capital City of Chaldea, founded by Nimrod and Im, improv'd by Ninus and Sennacherib, to be then the Wonder of the World for its Walls and penitents, the Euphrates run through the middle of this City, which join'd by a stupendous Bridge began to decay in the time of Sennacherib, by the building of J Jerusalem, where now stands the Temple of Bel and Belshazzar.

B A C

Bacch, or Bacbrac quasi Bac- or Altar of Bacchus, from lent Wines for which only is; 'tis a small Town on the
the Lower Palatinate, 24 m.
N. W.

Bacch, (James) was Born at
, and eminent for Painting apes.

Bacchides, a noble Corimbian, de-cends from Bacchus, ex-riment, which their Govern-200 Years had made emi-Trade. For the Corimbians
the Imprecations of Melissus, as they had tore to Pieces terrestrial, when arriving in they inhabited the Capes of and Pelorus.

Bacchides, Leader of the Syrian in Judea, to fix Alcimus High-Priest's Chair; being by Judas and Jonathan Mac- made Peace with the Jews, wara'd no more with Arms to Bacchides, an Eminent Greek fame'd much by Julian the

from whom he learnt Cha-

Bacchus, Bishop of Corinth, in Century. He writ about the celebration of Easter.

Bacchus (Bar-piolo) a good Pain-
Born in 1469. at Savignano, from Florence, was Disciple of Roselli, and studied the works of Leonardo de Vinci, turning caricaturist, he was perswaded to sell all his looser Pieces, and more Modestly. He died in the 71 Year of his Age, in 1517.

Bacchus, (Peter James) a Father of Oratory of Rome, who wrote the life of the Founder of that Bacchus, an expert Gladiator, in the time of Augustus, who overcame all but Bitus; but those two were equal, that neither could be slain.

B A C

Bacchus, Son of Jupiter by Semele, sow'd into his Father's Thigh, to compleat the nine Months before his Nativity; Semele being kill'd by her Curiosity to enjoy Jupiter in all his Majesty. Some will have Bac- chus to be quasi Bar-Cbus, the Son of Cbus, that is, that Nimrod and Bac- chus are all one. They made him the Inventer of Wine, a Conqueror of Asia, as far as the Indies, &c.
the Egyptians call him Osiris, the Latins, Liber.

Baccius or Baccio, (Andrew) Author of many Books, and a Learned Physician of the XVth Century.

Baccharius or Baccharius, either an English or Irish Man of the Vth Century, a Disciple of St. Patrick, and a Man of Learning and Reputation, Author of several things in Prose and Verse.

Bachian, an Asiatick Island in the Indian Sea, one of the Molucca's, little, but fruitful. Its capital City is of the same Name, in which is a Castle belonging to the Dutch. The Isle is subject to the King of Machi- an, S. of which it is 20 m. It being under the Line, the Climate is ex-treamly hot and unwholesom.

Baciosary, the capital City of the Crim or Precopensian Tartary, in the middle of which, it stands on the River Nabarta, and is noted for the Residence of the Cham.

Backer, (James) Born at Harlin- gen, a City of Friezland, an eminent and expeditious Painter to the Life, drawing and compleating a Picture
at full length in a Day.

Bacon, (Sir Nicholas) was Born at Chiselmurst in Kent, though of Nor- folk and Suffolk Family, great in himself, greater in his Son: Having been bred in Bennet's College, Cambridge, he studied the Law, and from Attorney of the Court of Wards, advanc'd by Queen Eliza- beth to be Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England, which Office he discharg'd

B A C

d. Dying 18 Years; he and Cecil never had two Sisters. Pomp he affected not, taking for his Motto, Memento Mori. He died in 1588.
leaving two Sons, Sir Nicholas the first Baron, and Sir Francis.

Francis (or Francis) younger Son of the first, by the Lady Ann Countess, he was born at Went House in the Shire of York. He went to Trinity College in Oxford at 16, where he discovered the Laws of Opticks and Phylicks; from Philosophy he went to Politics, was Admiral of France. He was made Lord Chancellor of England, by James 1. by the Interest of the Duke of Burgh, who also was the Cause of his fall; after which he was reduced to extream want, his Friends growing weary of the Burden, he left his worthless Friends of great Money. He died at the Castle of Windsor in 1601, and was buried at St. Dunstons in London.

B A D

Bacqué, (Leon) a Poetical Carlier, who was a converted Hugonot, and the only one of that kind that ever arriv'd to be Bishop. He died
in 1684.

Barquet, (John) a great Municipal and Civil Lawyer of France, of which he has wrote several Books.

Babry, a Country and City of the same Name in Peria, containing the Modern Cherazm, and Libeck Tartary, bounded by the River Oxus, now Gedon, the Territorie of the Great Mogal, Peria, India, and Tartary. The City is now call'd Perment, and almost in Ruins. The Babrians were reputed excellent Soldiers, more rough than the Perians.
Their Wives none of the Chastest.
Zoroaster was a Babrian, and the first Magician.

Babu, a Persian Town, on the Caf-casus, not far from a Spring near the Black Sea, which they burn and destroy. It is a very rich Country, and Forest in the Mountain.

B A D

Baden, a C. of Swabia in Germany, noted for its Baths, is 8 L. from Spire, and 5 from Strasbourg, on the Rhine, and a Marquisate; the Marquesses being Princes of the Empire. The present Prince Lewis of Baden is of the Papish Branch of this Family, besides which there is a Protestant Branch, and by the Treaty of Munster they Act alternately, having two Voices in the Dyets.

Baden, an ancient T. of Switzerland, on the R. Limagne, betwixt Bale and Strick, and is the Capital of a County of the same Name. 'Tis free, and govern'd by its own Magistrates, tho' oblig'd to raise Men for the Cantons, on its own Coast: It has a greater and lesser Council, the first of twelve, the second of forty, in which the first are included; the chief of which is called Stover. Here the Cantons meet on publick Business, as Embassies, &c. and here their Buliff resides, though without any Judicial Power. Here was the famous Conference of Ockenau, &c. Here the League of 1522, and that of 1690, for a Neutral.

Baden, a T. of Austria, subject to the Emp.

Badenweiler, a German C. in the Prov. of Brigau, noted for its hot Baths.

Badrik, murder'd by his Brother Konrad, to engross those Possessions betwixt them by their Father Bald of Thuringia.

Badet, (Arnulpus) a French Dominick Author of several Books.

Badilla, or Badillon, a French Nobleman, that murder'd Childeric II. of France, his Son, and Queen with Child, in Revenge of the cruel Whipping inflicted on him by that King.

Badus, (Jodocus) born near Brussels in 1462. He was a learned Man, and set up a Printing House in Pans, being the first that introduc'd the White Letter into it. He printed almost all the Classicks, with his own Notes; as also several more Modern Authors; as Petrarch, &c. He was Author of divers other things, both in Verse and Prose.

B A G

Badist, (Conrade) Son of the former, became a good Protestant, and writ the Alcoran of the Cordeliers. He was also a Printer, as well as Author.

Biert, or Bertius, (Arnulpus) was born at Brussels, and became a great Lawyer, and being Counsellor of the Parliament of Malines, he left many Books of Civil Law.

Batica, one of the three Roman Divisions of Spain, the other two being Tarracensis and Lusitania, taking its Name from the R. Batis, (now Guadalquivir) it comprehended the present Andalusia, and a considerable part of Granada, lost to the Moors in 1195, and regain'd by Ferdinand V. Its principal Cs. are Corduba and Seville.

Baeta, formerly Batica, a large C. and University in Andalusia, recovered with the rest of Batica by R. Ferdinand, in 1227.

B. fin, or Baffin's Bay, a Gulph lately discover'd by one B. fin, an Englishman, beyond the most Southerly parts of America.

Bagaia, Bagy, or Vagai, an African T. in Numidia, by Justinian, in honour of his Wife Theodora, nam'd Theodoria, remarkable for a Council held here by Primianus a Donatist Bp. of Carthage, in 394, against Maximian a Deacon, excommunicated by him.

Bagamedri, an African Km. in the Higher Aethiopia, W. of the Nile, divided into 17 Pro. or Kms.

Bagaudes, a Gallie People, that headed by Amandus and Ellanus, in the time of Dioclesian, revolted from the Romans; but were reduced by Hercules Maximilianus, as the Spanish Bagaudes were in 452, by Frederic Theodoric's Br.

E A G

Bagration, M. M. Met) of the XIX Century, Russian Mathematician, who came to Europe from Enclid to study mathematics.

The City of Bagdad, the ancient Capital, lies on the Tigris, about thirty miles from old Babylon, and is situated on the R. Euphrates. The Area between the Suni, the Place where the Sultan's Palace stands, is three m. in compass. The Walls have sixty Pieces of Cannon, and the Garrison of the Castle consists of five Musques, eight hundred Shops, Market-Places are numerous, and the Sun, it's being supplied by the dwelling of Ali, draws much Business as Trade. There are several Thousands of Christians, Jews, Armenians, and others, many of whom come to see the Tomb of the Prophet of Ezekiel. In the Year 1706 the Persians took Bagdad.

[illegible]

ВАН

Ochus, that he was in effect K. He profan'd the Temple of Jerusalem, nor suffer'd a Land to be thre facced without a Tax of 50 Drachmen. Whence returning to Persia, he first, by poisoning the King, set down the Throne, whom suspecting he poison'd too, but Darius Codomanus cut him off, attempting the same against him. There was another of those Persian Eunuchs, that was so favour'd by Alexander the Great, that it drew a Scandal on their Familiarity, a Reflection on him so that purp to kill Ophryes, a Persian Lord, his Lie, the Eunuch basely striking him as he was beheaded.

B. g. r. thought to be the Wyl Erythraea, or Meropile, was at least a Nymph that first interpreted Oacles, and taught the Tejans to divine by Thunder.

For the Government of the Province of Ontario, the Minister of the Interior and Colonization, the Hon. A. A. C. C.

B A J

ar, and part Merchants, but i'd. It lks 100 L. S. of in 13 Deg. S. Lat.

he Name of the most an-nical Book of the Jews, all the Cabalistical Mysteprinted. The Word signi-Famous, or Illustrious. There under this Title printed in but not the old Jewish or Babaren, a Persian C. ilph of Persia, facing El- bour of Arabia Felix. Its has one of the three Taxes.

Fishers in the adjacent Pearl-in which are often 3000 Arabian K. and the K. of ing two more, only Arabians

Castle in Normay, taken by s, and to them confirm'd aty of Roskil, in 1658. It in Isl. made by the R Trol- re is one of the five Norway its of the same Name.

ie Name of an ancient Ita- the Km. of Naples. It was lepure among the ancient it is now totally ruin'd.

I. Surnamed Gilderin, i. e. r Thunder, came to the Ottom- e on the Death of his Fa-sb in 1389, by the Death er Brother Jacob, or Jacob, roduced the strangling the n the Death of the Reign-His swift Conquests of

of Asia and Europe, gave name of Gilderin: a League Sigismund K. of Hungary gave le stop, but surmounting as forc'd to turn his Arms against Tamerlan K. of the vited to the Assistance of Princes; who sure to pe-it these two great Hunters chose to fall reveng'd on at first invaded them. In of Angria was the decisive ich Tamerlan winning, took

B A I

Bajazet, and put him in a Cage; in Execution of Bajazet's Design against him, making his own Mouth his own Sentence.

Bajazet II. succeeded his Father
Mahomet II. in 1481, after a Dispute with his Brother Zizim, on pretence that Bajazet was born before Maho- met came to the Thrcne; which Difficulty being overcome, he was not past his Troubles. The frequent Revolt of the Janisaries had so far pro-vok'd him, that had not some vehemently dissuaded him, he had cut them all off; some Places he won from Venice, but in Egypt was still beaten. And having now Reign'd 13
Y. he was forc'd to submit to a powerful Faction, and surrender his Son Selim, who is accused of having him poyson'd.

Bajazet, one of the Sons of Soly- man II. He was a Prince both Handsome, Learned, and Well-beloved;
but withal Ambitious, which occasioned the Ruin of himself and four Sons, An. 1559.

Bajeux, a C. and Bp's See, upon the
R. Aure in Normandy. It stands about 16 m. from Caen, and a L. and a half from the British Sea.

Bais, a most learned Abbot of Char- roux and Grenetiere. He liv'd in the Reign of Francis I. and was mightily esteem'd by him. He wrote several Treatises, but his most celebrated Piece was that De re Vestiaria, de re
Nautali, & de Vasculis.

Bailiff, an Officer formerly of great Repute, and brought hither from Normandy.

Bailli, an Attorney's Widow in Paris, who died An. 1514. She was 88 Ys. old, and had 288 Children and Grand-Children living at the same time.

Bailli, or Baillif, an eminent French
Physician, who lived about the Year
1580. He put forth several learned Books, and became Physician in Ordinary to the King.

B A I

Bailyn, (William), a most celebrated French Philosopher, born An. 1538. He became famous as a Disputant in the Schools, that he was usually called The School of Strouge. He wrote several Treatises, but refused a Cardinal's promotion.

Bailyn, (William), a learned Bp. of London and Country in Queen Mary's Reign. He wrote three Volumes on the History, and died An. 1560, but was before his Death deprived of his Bishoprick by Queen Elizabeth.

Bailyn, (William), a learned Bp. of London and Country in Queen Mary's Reign. He wrote three Volumes on the History, and died An. 1560, but was before his Death deprived of his Bishoprick by Queen Elizabeth.

Bailyn, (William), a very large, rich and strong Castle in the Prov. of Gallogne in France, situated on a high Rock, and is famous for its strength. It was taken by the English in 1563, and was afterwards destroyed by the French in 1564.

B A L

Baker, (Sir Richard) was born in Oxfordshire, and was a good Lawyer, as well as Historian, for beside his Chronicle of the Kings of England, He wrote an Exposition on the Law. He was a good Lawyer.

Baker, (Sir Richard) was born in Oxfordshire, and was a good Lawyer, as well as Historian, for beside his Chronicle of the Kings of England, He wrote an Exposition on the Law. He was a good Lawyer.

Baker, (Sir Richard) was born in Oxfordshire, and was a good Lawyer, as well as Historian, for beside his Chronicle of the Kings of England, He wrote an Exposition on the Law. He was a good Lawyer.

Balam, the Name of the Person sent by the K. of the Assyrians to Curse the Israelites. He lived A. M. 2584. and was by some thought to be a Prophet, and by others a Magician.

Balacem, a great Lake near Alba Regalis in Hungary.

Balacem, a great Lake near Alba Regalis in Hungary. It is situated in the Kingdom of Hungary, and is one of the largest Lakes in Europe. It is situated in the Kingdom of Hungary, and is one of the largest Lakes in Europe.

B A L

a T. of Arragon in Spain, n. from Saragossa. It was taken from the Moors by Peter Arragon.

Jerome a learned Bp. of Armsbia: He liv'd in the of the XVth Cent. and al valuable Treatises.

(Cicero) was chosen by Senate Joint Emperour us, An. 236. He was de a Noble Family; was very gent, and one of the best Time. But the Soldiers Emperours elected by the Emper'd both him and Pu r they had reign'd a little er.

Lucius Cornelius was born at was the first Foreigner who nouri to be a Roman Consul, arriv'd to in the Year of His Naturalization was dis his Enemies, but Pompey Tully pleading for him, got L. There have been divers us Men of this Name.

, or Baldric, a Bp. of U rebuilt the Cathedral of He died in 977, having his City 59 Years.

r Baldo Bernardum, a Learn- of Guastalla. He was born in Publish'd several Mathema- ises.

r Baldus Baldus, a famous rician, who Flourish'd about ing of the XVII. Cent. He ian to the Pope, and wrote able Books.

, a Learned Bp. of Dol in ho liv'd about the beginning th. Cent. He assisted at se- ncils, wrote the History of Var to the taking of Ferusa- edfrey of Bouillon, and some atises both in Prose and

, (Peter) a most eminent Ci- anon Lawyer. He died An. d. left several learned Treati- d him; He was Master to

B A L

Pope Gregory XII.

Baldus (James) a good German La- tin Poet, and a Jesuit of the XVIIth. Cent.

Baldwin, or Baudouin, (Francis) a most famous Lawyer. He was born in the Low Countries, went afterwards to France, where he was highly esteemed by all Learned Men of his time, and at last became Councillor of State to K. Henry III. He died An. 1573, leav- ing behind him several of his own Works both in Law, History and Con- troversie.

Baldwin, (Devonius) an Abp. of Can- terbury, who was born at Exeter, and liv'd about the XIIth Cent. He was Learned, Pious and Charitable; but following K. Richard I. to the Holy Land, he there ended his days, having first Publish'd divers valuable Books.

There was also another learned En- glish Man of the same Name who liv'd in 1550, and wrote several good Trea- tises.

Baldwin. See Bauldwin.

Bale, (John) an English Divine, who became Bp. of Ossory and Kilkenny in Ireland in the reign of K. Edward VI.

There was also Robert Bale an emi- nent Lawyer in London, about the year 1460, who Publish'd several useful Books, particularly the Chronology of London, and the History of K. Ed- ward III.

Balesdens (John) a Member of the French Accademy after Malleville, greatly favour'd by Chancellor Seguier. He publish'd several Works that were none of his own, among which some were translated by him.

Baleares, are certain Islands over a- gainst the Km. of Valentia in the Medi- terranean Sea. They at present belong to the Spaniards, and are part of the Km. of Arragon. They were so called from the Greek word βάλλειν to throw or dart, at which their Inhabi- tants were very expert; but they are now known by the Names of Majorca and Minorca.

Baleus,

B A L

Baleus, a most courageous K. of Africa. He liv'd An. Mun. 2111. and obtained many Victories in the Indies, that he got himself the S^r-name of Alax, which signifies a Conqueror.

Bali, an Island on the Coast of Java in the E. Indies. It is very fruitful, and so Populous, that it is thought to contain 6000 Souls, a'tho' it be not above 40 Leagues in compass. Its Inhabitants are gross Idolaters, and Trade but little with other Nations.

Balol, (John) was crown'd K. of Scotland, about the year. 1292, which was not till almost Seven Years after the Death of his Predecessor K. Alexander; for he dying without Issue, a long and Controversie arose about the Succession, several of the great Men of that Kⁿ. contending for it, as descended from the younger Brother of William B. of Scot., and Uncle to the late Alexander; but the Two principal Competitors as nearest in Blood were the said John Balliol and Edward I. King of England and Robert Bruce. The Father of these two Contenders was Balliol.

B A L

Marcheth into Scotland, and he overthrown Balol forc'd him to render both himself and Kⁿ. to his disposal. The Captive King was at first sent to England, where he confined, till the Pope by his Intercession, and he by his Promise oblig'd not to make any further advance in Scotland. Edward being liberty went to France, where he lived all the rest of his days, his Edward remaining in England a Hostage.

Balol, (Edward) Son of the aforementioned John Balol, was by Remains of his Father's Faction, the assistance of the English and Edward III. proclaim'd K. of Scot. Anno 1332. But this was not without a great deal of Blood for most of this Kⁿ. favouring the Son of Robert Bruce, who seduced the said John Balliol, and his Son, with a great many of the Nobles of the Kingdom, to desert him, and follow Edward III. who was then King of England. The Battle was fought at Bannockburn, where the English and Edward III. were victorious, and the Scots were driven out of the Kingdom.

B A L

Rebellion, was at last taken
ed.

e, (John Baptist) a learned who liv'd about the be-the XVIth Century, and Description of his own

Joseph) was one of the best ines and Philosophers of He liv'd about the begin-e XVIIth Cent. and was a Barri.

e, a T. of the Province of Ireland. It was fortified : Rebellion, but forc'd to at Discretion, after a few

Barri; a strong Castle in y of Cavan in Ireland. It n'd by the Irish in the late but taken by Wolsey after istance.

us, a private Soldier, but Alexander the Great to be in Phœnicia.

us, (James) one of the rous Cheats that ever was He took upon him the
the Baron of St. Angel;
g cheated the K. of France, England, the Marquis of nd several others of the lity; he was at last dis-nd taken, and being con-as hang'd at Paris, Anno rather Balzac, a learned

, but particularly remark-his Eloquence; for which highly esteem'd by Cardinal who frequently honour'd h his Letters. He was Noble and Ancient Family
inez, who took the Name
, from a spot of Ground,
, in Angouleme in France.
e several Books, and died 4.

ion, (Theodore) a Patriarch of who was counted the most Man of his time. He liv'd

B A L

about the latter end of the XIIIth Cent. and set forth several Treatises, which were highly valued.

Balthasar, succeeded his Father Evilmerodach in the Km. of the Chal- dees and Babylon, A. M. 3495. He was the Nericassilasser of the Astro-nomick Canon, the Neriglissar of Prophane Authors, the Naboander of the Babylonians, and the Grandson of the Great Nabuchodonozor. His Subjects at last rise against him, put him to Death, and plac'd Darius
the Mede upon the Throne in his stead. The Prophet Daniel was also call'd by this Name: As was likewise one of the three Kings, who were guided by a Star, and came to worship our Saviour in his Infancy at Bethlehem.

Balthasar, (Gerrard) was born at Villafar, a small T. in Burgundy, and was that Barbarous Villain, who with a Pistol, shot through the Heart Wil- liam I. Prince of Orange. This Murder was committed on the tenth of July 1584, as the Prince was passing through his Hall from Dinner. The Assassin being seiz'd, was forthwith put to the Torture; but would make no other Confession, than that he had been Divinely Inspir'd to perpetrate that execrable Fact, as the Jesuit Strada reports, who was a bitter Enemy to that Prince, and a great Friend to the Spaniards.
However, others say, That he confess'd at the Place of Execution that he had been promis'd a Martyr's Crown in Heaven, and that in hopes thereof he would have done the same thing, although he had had 50000 Men about him, and himself no hopes of escaping.

Balthazar, (Christopher) a French- Protestant Convert, who became such on account of reading Ecclesiastical Histories, to which he apply'd himself extream'y. This Person was a good Author both in Latin and his own Language, of which he has left several Pieces.

Baltick

E A M

Eden, the Ancient's Sinut Codanus, is the Name of a Sea, which is by some call'd a Northern Mediterranean, but others say, no Communication with the Ocean, but by a narrow Strait, call'd the Sound, which passeth from Jutland; from whence it bends to the S. E. as far as the Island of Zealand, where it is bounded by a narrow breadth, as the Hellespont of Elencor and Elencor is call'd the Passage; thence it runs S. W. to the Dukedom of Mecklenburg and Pomerania, as far as Travemunde, where it turns N. again and is call'd the Sound and Limnia, as far as Amsterdam, where it is divided into two Channels, one of which is call'd the Belgian Land, which divideth into the Limnia, and in this is the City of the Capital of Amsterdam, which is the Store House of the Northern Sea, and is the most famous City of the North, and is the most famous City of the North, and is the most famous City of the North.

B A N

Bamberg, a C. of the Circus Franconia, in Germany, it stands on the R. Rednitz about 32 M. from Nuremberg, and is under the Jurisdiction of its own Bp. The ancient C. of Prague in Bohemia is belonging to this Bishoprick, as Electors of Saxony, Brandenburg, Bavaria hold other considerable of it, and these all exercise Officers by Deputy when the Bp. is absent.

There is another small T. of the same Name in the Km. of Bohemia.

Bamboceni, are People that near the R. Tigris, who perceive debaucheries and wickedness of Gold, Silver, and other sorts of riches occasion'd amongst their hours, but all they can meet with they likewise should be corrupted the same Vices.

Bamboceni, a C. of the Circus Franconia, in Germany, it stands on the R. Rednitz about 32 M. from Nuremberg, and is under the Jurisdiction of its own Bp. The ancient C. of Prague in Bohemia is belonging to this Bishoprick, as Electors of Saxony, Brandenburg, Bavaria hold other considerable of it, and these all exercise Officers by Deputy when the Bp. is absent.

B A N

Ny, a Market and Burrough-the County of Oxford. This remarkable for the Defeat of it to Edward IV. by the Warwick; as also for being d by King Charles I. in the Wars, and enduring two before it Surrender'd. It Title of Earl to the Family
owles, and sends one Mem-Parliament.

N, an Island and Town, near Isle of Sumatra in the East-

N, a Learned Englishman, about the latter end of the Century. He wrote several

N, a valiant Scotch General,
about the latter end of the Century, in the Reign of King
Charles VII. He was renown'd Victories over the Danes, Alious Highlands, but subby plotting with Macbeth Prince; after which Mac- ing jealous of him, caus'd put to Death.

N, a strong Fort in the Kingdom. It defends the Passage over, and is of great use.

N, an Island in the East-Indies, Inhabitants commonly live
s. It lies in the Sonde, is
,, and 2 m. broad, and is place that produces Nut-gether with the little Isles Nera, Lauter, Puloway, and Bessingen, which belong
d are also full of Nutmeghich are at all times loaden foms, and with green and

N, an ancient Military Order ut now extinct, and thought ceeded by the Knights of N, a Town against the Isle n the East-Indies. It is by d Gomrom, and is the best in the Persian Gulph. The

B A N

English and Dutch have their several Factories here, and all Ships that come out of the Indies for Turky, Persia, and most part of Europe put in there. Its Air is so hot, that Foreigners cannot bear it but from December to March, nor the Natives but to April.

Bando, a Kingdom and Town, which is subject to the Great Mogul
in the East-Indies.

Bandouliers, or Miquelets, are Robbers, which ramble about the Pyrenean Mountains.

Bangius, (Thomas) a Learned Divine, and Author of several Books.
He died in 1661.

Bangor, a City and Bp's See in the County of Carnarvan in North-Wales.
It is also the Name of a Town in Flinthshire in North-Wales, fam'd for an ancient Monastery, which was thought by some to be the first in the World, and had at one time 2000 Monks,
who liv'd by their Labour.

Banians, an Idolatrous Sect in the East-Indies, who are frequently made use of by the English and Dutch for Interpreters and Factors. They say that there is a God, who made Heaven and Earth: but they worship the Devil, saying, That he was made to Rule the World, and Torment Mankind. They Trade in all things but living Creatures, which they will not meddle with, lest they Bartar away their Friend's Soul; for they hold a Metempsychosis. They have among them a famous Tree, call'd the Banyan's Tree, which alone resembles a little Wood; for out of its great Branches come divers little ones, which grow downwards, until they reach the Ground, where they also took Root; and this way of growing supports the Master-Arms, which are in length 300
Paces, having these Props every 15 Yards.

Bann, an ancient Name of the Governors of Provinces, that were subject

B A N

1. Kingdom of Hungary,
 2. Duchy of Serbia, and Croatia.

Barons, a honorary Name,
 2. Barons of France to one that
 3. Barons of Tenants take
 4. Barons of England, and maintain
 5. Barons of France larger This Title
 6. Barons of England, but descended
 7. Barons of France that inherited the

8. Barons of France a most valiant
 9. Barons of England General,
 10. Barons of Saxons in two
 11. Barons of France several strong
 12. Barons of England He alid defeated
 13. Barons of France Chemnitz,
 14. Barons of England He died Anno

15. Barons of France a small Scotch Town,
 16. Barons of England at Stirling, but memo-
 17. Barons of France Defeat given to
 18. Barons of England 3 Scots,
 19. Barons of France the chief City of
 20. Barons of England the chief City of

B A R

Barry, a Sea-Port belonging
 the Province of Munster in Irel.
 Its Bay is memorable for a Sea-fi between a Squadron of French of War, and a Squadron of Eng commanded by Admiral Hert
 This fight happen'd on May- 1689. and although the French
 the Weather-gage, and were su perior in number, yet the English, ter an Engagement of several Ho had not on Ship lost, nor so m Men kill'd as the French.

Barqa, the Capital City of Kingdom of Congo in Africa.

Bar, (Henry II.) Count of Bar
 Prince of most refin'd Parts, and extraordinary Courage. He wen the Holy Land, where he was r tally wounded at the Battel of G
An. 1239.

Bar, the chief City of Denmark, in Denmark.
 It is a very large and
 it is a very large and

B A R

and he defeated Sifer about rs afterwards.

cbias, the Father of Zacharias phet; most of the Learned ts differ about the Person of urachias, as who he was, and Son Zacharias was, that was Death between the Temple
e Altar. But our Moderns
the Opinion of St. Ferome, lds, That the Zacharias in dis-was the same Prophet, whom oash commanded to be kill'd, at his Father Fekoiada might no Names, as was very usual the Jewish Nation; or that me Eurachias, which signifies, ssed of the Lord, might be a ous Title.

mpsur, the capital City of the m of Candis, in the East.
It is a Town of great Trade, longs to the Mogul.

nzanes, (Redemptus) a Learned of the XVIIth Century, who ne of the first that accepted Aristotle's Philosophy. He thor of several Works.

brum, a very deep Gulph,
the ancient Greeks us'd to ir Delinquents. It is in Ar- Province of Acbaia in Greece, low fill'd up.

acon, (Marie d') the most Daughter of Michael Lord on; for being belieg'd in her of Benegon in Berry, she most ously repuls'd the Assailants;
ng at last compell'd to yield,
for her brave Defence, both fle and Estaterestor'd to her King of France.

adoes, is one of the most rable of the Caribbe Isles in Indies, and one of the best ions which the English have part of the World. This was discovered by Sir William in the Reign of K. James I. s then wholly desolate. The soon after Planted it, but

B A R

were driven at first to great Extremities, for that Ships came very seldom thither from England: However, the Planters having about the year 1627. rais'd some Tobacco, In-dico, Cotton-Wool, and Fustick-Wood, and after that falling into the Sugar-Trade, its Reputation and Wealth encreas'd. And this Colony, which for a long time subsisted by the Curtesie or Negligence of the Spaniards, grew so strong and numerous, that all their after Attempts prov'd fruitless. They had their Sugar-Canes from Brazil, and they make some of their Sugars as good as those of that Country. It lies in 13 deg. 20 min. Northern Latit. so that the Days and Nights are almost of an equal length, all the year, the Sun rising and setting at 6, or in less than half an hour before or after all the year round. It is about 8 L. in length, and 5 in breadth, and Inhabited by 5000 English, besides Negroes, who are almost double the number. This Island is not well water'd with Rivers, or fresh Springs, yet lying low, they are supplied with Pools, Ponds, and Cisterns. It is Hot, but Cool'd by the Breezes of Wind which rise with the Sun, and blow fresher as the Sun gets higher.
These Breezes blow chiefly from the E. with a Point or two to the N. unless in the Months of July, August, September, and October, in which the Weather is excessive Hot, and Hurricanes very often happen. This Island is also very fruitful, and enjoys a perpetual Spring; and besides its Sugar, which is planted from Ju- ly to November, it exports Cotton, Rum, Ginger, and Molusses. Here are likewise several very curious Plants, as the Sensitive Plant, the Humble Plant, and the Dumb Cane.
They have a Governor, a Council, and an Assembly, the two first are appointed from England, but the last are elected by its Inhabitants, were govern'd by our English Law, & that, though they are now under some particular Governm't by the Governor & Council Assembly.

B A R

Barbary is a large Country in the W. part of Africa, and extends from the Atlantic Sea to the Mediterranean in the N. It is bound'd to the N. by the Mediterranean Sea, to the E. by the Red Sea, on the W. by the Atlantic Ocean, and on the S. by the Atlas Mountains. In the time of the Roman Empire this vast tract of Country, was divided into three Provinces, viz. Mauritania, Tangier, Cis-jersis & Sut-jersis, Nubia, Africa Propria, By-gina, Tangier, Marmarica & Cyrenaica. It is now divided into three Kingdoms, Tunis, Tremesen, & Algiers. The English have a small Settlement at Algiers. It is govern'd by a Barbary Captain, who is appointed by the French King.

B A R

whereof some of the chiefest have 200 Ducats a day.

Barberini, a very ancient and noble Italian Family, of which, have been several Cardinals, and one Pope, viz. Urban VIII. This Family took its Name from Barberino, a small T. in Tuscany.

Barbarossa, a Famous Pirate, who being call'd in by the Algerines to assist them against the Spaniards, strangl'd their Prince, and caus'd himself to be Proclaim'd their K. after which he subdu'd the Kingdom of Tunis, but was at last surpriz'd and kill'd by the Spanish Garrison of Oran. He was born at Mitylene, a T. in the Island of Lesbos in the Egean Sea. His Death happened in Ann. 1518. He was succeeded in the Kingdom of Algiers by his Brother, Aruffa, who in a little time subdu'd the Kingdom of Tunis, & the same year he was kill'd by the same Adversaries.

B A R

There was also another of the same Name and Nation, who was an eminent Lawyer, and left behind divers useful Treatises. This last had a Son, call'd Austin Barbosa, who became Bishop of Eugenia. He was learn'd in the Civil and Canon Law, and publish'd several excellent Books.

There was moreover, one Peter Barbosa, a Portuguese, and a famous Lawyer. He flourish'd at the latter end of the 16th Cent. and wrote some learned Tracts.

Barca, a large Prov. between Egypt and Tripolis in Barbary. It lies on the Mediterranean, and takes its Name from the little C. of Barca, near which, but more Easterly stood the City of Cyrene, which was so famous in the flourishing times of the Ancient Romans; and about this C. the Country is indifferent fruitful, but for the most part, it is dry, rocky and barren. In it is a Desert of the same Name, which is 1200 m. long, and 200 broad, and hath neither Corn nor Water: It is under the Empire of the Turks. The Arabs between this Province and Egypt being extream poor, are very troublesome to Travellers.

Barca was also the Name of the Son of Belus K. of Tyrus, and was the Founder of the Antient Family of the Barca's, from whence the Renowned Hannibal descended.

Barcelona, the Name of the Prime Minister of State in the Kingdom of Catalun.

Barcappara, a learned Rabbi, who in the 3d Cent. wrote an Explanation on the Jewish Misna.

Barcelona, the Capital C. of Catalun, a Prov. of Spain: It is a Bishops See, and was thought to be built by Amilcar Barca, a Carthaginian General. This C. is situated on a Plain by the Sea-side; and is large, strong, and rich. It was recovered from the Saracens by Lewis the K. of France, Ann. 1042, which K. honoured the Governors with the Title of Counts. There have been three Councils held here in the years 540, 603, and 1064. This Place hath been several times Besieg'd and taken by the French, but the most remarkable Siege of all, was, Ann. 1697. when it most obstinately sustain'd for several Weeks, a Siege carried on by a powerful French Army, under the Duke of Vendosme, who at last forc'd it to Capitulate, but it was soon after restor'd by the Treaty of Reswick.

B A R

Barcelor, a C. belonging to the Dutch, upon the Coasts of Malabar in the E. Indies.

Barchochebas, a Notorious Jewish Impostor, who getting together a Crew of credulous Miscreants, Rebel'd against the Emperor Adrian, Ann. 130. He call'd himself the Star of Jacob, saying withall, That he was the Man appointed to deliver his Nation from the Romish Yoke, for that his Name signified Sun of the Star. But the Romans laying hold of this opportunity, killed 580000 of that Nation.

Barclay, (William) an Eminent Lawyer, and Descended from a very good Scotch Family. The Civil Wars forcing him to leave his own Country. He went to Lorrain, where he arriv'd to be Law-Professor in the University of Pont-a-Moussin, and Councillor of State to the Duke; after which, he became first Royal-Professor to the University of Angiers. He set forth some excellent Treatises, and died, Ann. 1609.

Barclay (John) His Son, was also one of great Learning, and wrote several valuable Books, particularly his Satyricon Euphormionis, his Argenis, and his Icon Animorum. He liv'd the latter part of his time at Rome, where he was held in great Esteem by Urban VIII. Paul V. and Gregory XV. He died, Ann. 1621.

There

B A R

There was none over, Robert Bardy of the same Nation, and a Man of extraordinary Parts and Learning. He became a Quaker, but never of the same when, he was accounted as a Man as any of his sect. He wrote several Books in Defence of his Opinion; one of which is called Tracts for the true Christian Religion, is Dedicated to King Charles II. He died in Scotland, April 17, 1691.

Barbarus, a Roman at the beginning of the 4th Cent. Competitor with Maximian for the Empire of the East. He was getting himself Crown'd, thrust him into a Monastery, and put out his Eyes.

Barbarus, a Persian, and declar'd Consul, M. 400. Eastern Emp. He was made Emperor, and crowned with his Mother. He was M. 400. Eastern Emp. He was M. 400. Eastern Emp.

Barbarus, a Persian, and declar'd Consul, M. 400. Eastern Emp. He was M. 400. Eastern Emp.

B A R

taken by the Elector of Brandenburg, but restor'd in 1679.

Bardus I. a King of the Ancient Gauls, who loving Musick and Poetry, allow'd a Salary to several of that Profession who were afterwards call'd Bardes. He lived, Ann. Mund. 2140.

Barentz, (William) a Dutch Sea Captain, fam'd for his being concern'd in the Discovery of the North Passage.

Bareys, a small rich T. in Francia, remarkable for the Residence of the Princes of Brandenburg.

Begat, the Name of the Person who admitted the Conspirators to kill the Magus Socrates K. of Persia.

Bargiorat, (John) the Courageous Jew, who defended Jerusalem when invested by Titus.

Bartolomeus, a famous Learned Counselor, who lived in the 16th Century. He was a famous Counselor, who lived in the 16th Century.

B A R

There was also one Robert Barland, as of the same Country, andemporary with the former. He was a Man of curious Learning and Parts, and publish'd divers Books.

Bari, an Italian Sea-Port, formerly accounted one of the 4 Keys of the Sea. It lies upon the Adriatick, and belongs to the Kingdom of Naples.

Barletta, (Gabriel) a famous French Preacher of the 15th Century, whose Sermons were Printed at Venice in 1471.

Barlow, (William) a learned Bishop of Exeter. He flourish'd towards the latter end of the 16th Cent. and wrote a Book of Cosmography, and some other good Treatises.

Barlow, (Thomas) Bishop of Lincoln in Charles II's time. He was a learned Man, and Professor of Theology in Oxford. He was Author of several Works.

Barlaam, (Joseph) an early Convert to Christianity: He Sold all that he had, which was considerable, and gave it to the Apostles. Some affirm'd that he Planted the Christian Religion first at Milan, and that the Gospel to the Hebrews was wrote by him.

'Tis said he suffer'd Martyrdom in the Isle of Cyprus, Ann. 61.

Barbantes, so call'd from their great Devotion for the aforementi-Barbantes. They were an Order of regular Canons of St. Paul, and had great many Learned Men amongst them.

Barbassa, a large Aethiopian Kingdom, not populous. It lies between the Red-Sea and the Nile, and pays yearly Tribute of a 1000 Ounces of Gold to the Grand Seignior.

Barnes, (Robert) Henry VIII's Secretary, and employ'd by him in several Ambassies. At length, being accused of Heresy, he was burnt for abusing his Office, Bishop of Winchester. He wrote two Books, whereof one was a History of the Popes.

B A R

There was nother John Barnes, an English Monk, who was sent to Rome for Heresie, and died in the Hospedale di Pazzi, (Fools). He was also an Author.

Barnet, a Market-T. in Hartfordshire, famous for its Mineral Waters, and remarkable for a great Battel fought there, Anno 1471. between the Houses of York and Lancaster, wherein the latter was routed.

Barneveldt, (John) a very famous Dutchman, who most zealously assert- ed the Liberty of his Country, to which he did great Service about the beginning of the 17th Century. He contrived the freeing of the 3 Cautionary Towns from the Hands of the English, An. 1609. Neither was he less esteem'd abroad than at home, being highly valued by Queen Elizabeth, and by Henry IV. King of France. He was always oppos'd by Maurice, Prince of Orange, especially in the difference between Arminius and Gomar, the two Chiefs of the Remonstrant and Contra-remonstrant Parties: The Prince took part with the latter, who would not allow the former any Toleration. This occasion'd the Synod of Dort, An. 1618. in which the Arminians were condemn'd. This great Man having run through most of the chief Employments of the State, was Imprison'd, Condemn'd, and Beheaded, in the 72d Year of his Age, for endeavouring to bring his Country again under the Spanish Yoke; one of his Sons was also condemn'd for plotting Prince Maurice's Death.

Baroche, a Town in the East-Indies, where the English have a Factory. It stands in the Kingdom of Cambaya, under the Great Mogul. Its River hath a peculiar Virtue of making Cloth very white.

Baron, is an English Title of Nobility, next to the Degree of a Viscount, who have Places in the House

B A R

Howe I d. They are for the most part Letters-Patents, w^hich are granted to the Person of Merit, who was made Baron of the 4th of Robt. W. and Barons by the House of Peers. The Title is very honourable in England, and Scotland, where it was the most honour, but now it is retain'd by the K. as Barons. Barons of the Law are so called, for that they were formerly taken out of the Barons of the Kingdom, or out of the Parliamentary Barons, w^ho were call'd to the Peers of the West. There were in former times several others call'd Barons, but they were not Estates, and were not call'd Barons. The Title is now lost in the North.

B A R .

Barrow, (Isaac) was born in London, Ann. 1530. brought up in Cambridge, where he became a great proficient in all sorts of Learning, especially in Divinity. He was first made Greek Professor of his own University, then Geometry Lecturer at Gresham College, afterwards Mathematical Professor of Cambridge; and at last K. Charles II. prefer'd him to the Mastership of Trinity College in Cambridge, saying withal, That he gave it to the best Scholar in England. He wrote several valuable Books both in Divinity and Mathematics.

Barry, an Island in the County of Glamorgan, fam'd for a Cliff, where you may hear all manner of Noises belonging to a Smith.

Barjantans, or Semidulites, the Name of Hereticks which sprung up in the 3d Century.

Barrow, a River in a Marshy Country, at the middle of the River, and became an excellent Harbour.

B A R

Bartholomæus, of Brescia in Italy, lived in the XIIIth Cent. and was counted the learnedst Man of that Time. One of his most eminent Works, is, the Chronology of the Towns of Italy.

Bartholomæus Albici, of Pisa in Italy, a Franciscan, but blasphemous Friar, who lived in the XIVth Cent. He raised St. Francis above all other Founders of Monastick Orders, and impudently pretended to prove, that he did as great Miracles as J. C.

Bartholus, born in the Pope's Dominions, liv'd in the XIVth Cent. and was one of the most learned Lawyers of his time. Besides his Law-Books, he wrote one de Guelphis & Gibelinis.

Barton, (Eliz.) call'd the Holy Maid of Kent, was noted for her religious Imposture in Henry VIIIth's time. She had been a long time troubled with Convulsions, which her Curate afterwards improv'd to a pious Cheat, by deceiving the World with her pretended Miracles. Her opposing the King's Divorce, brought the whole Cheat to light; for, being apprehended by the King's Order, she confest the Imposture, and declared all her Accomplices, who were hanged with her, and their Heads set over the Gates of the City. Fisher Bishop of Rochester, was as Accessory, condemn'd (with others) to Confiscation of Goods, and perpetual Imprisonment, as guilty of a Præmunire.

Barales, certain Hereticks who held that the Son of God had not a real Body; and that Mens Souls were all created before the World.

Barnwick, a Market, Sea-Port, and Borough Town of Northumberland, on the Borders of Scotland, seated on the North side of the Tweed, hence called Barnwick upon Tweed; for which it has a fair Stone Bridge. This is one of the strongest Holds in England, formerly belonging to the Scotts, from whom it was taken last by Sir Tho. Stanley in Edw. II's Reign. 'Tis a County of it self, and was erected into a Dukedom by King James II, Apr. 1686. in the Person of James Fitz-James his Natural Son. This Town sends two Burgeses to Parliament. The present Members are Sam. Ogle, Esq; Jonathan Hutchinson, Esq;

B A S

Basci (Matthew de) the Founder of the Capuchins Order. He was an Italian, born in the Dutchy of Spoletto, and liv'd in the XVIth Cent. In 1525 he withdrew into a Solitude, where he had a great many Followers; and three years after, this Congregation was approv'd by Pope Clement XIV.

Basil, an ancient and famous City of Switzerland, and the Head of one of the Protestant Cantons. It stands on both sides of the Rhine, with a good Bridge over it, and is a rich, fair, great and populous Town, bordering upon Alsatia and Swabia, in the Upper-Germany. The Streets are large and fair, and the Town-House a sumptuous Building. Here are to be seen very curious Paintings in the ancient Cloyster of the Dominicans. 'Tis noted also for being an University, which was founded in 1459, and had several famous Professors in it, as Erasmus, Amerbach, Buxtorf, Bauhin, and many others. The Library here is the best in all Switzerland, and has a fine Collection of Medals, with many curious Manuscripts of Latin Fathers, and Latin Translations of the Greek, well methodiz'd, in a noble Room. Most of these old Books were preserv'd here at the Reformation; and 'tis said the Council of Basil brought many hither, which were never carry'd away. 'Twas in the XIVth Cen. this City joyn'd it self to the other Cantons, and made up the 9th. Here Oecolampadius in 1522 promoted the Reformation; so that seven years after they embrac'd Calvin's Doctrine, and drove their Bishop away. The Images and other Church Ornaments, were publicly burnt, and the Reformation accomplish'd without any great Tumult, chiefly by the prudent Management of their Consul James Meyer. Since the Bishops Expulsion from this Place upon the Reformation, the nominal Bishop (being a Prince of the Empire) resides at Porentru. By the Treaty of Munster in 1648, this City is exempted from the Decrees of the Empire, is to enjoy a perfect Liberty, and no Fort to be built on the Rhine between it and Philipsburg. Yet, without any regard to the said Treaty, the present French King built the Fort of Hunninghen within Cannon-shot of the Town. Lastly, here was held that famous Council in the XVth Cen. which determin'd the Council to be above the Pope.

B A S

basileus a Greek Word originally signifying King. Whence Nice was call'd given to the Council as Hals, in which King's Court. Person

B A S

Basilides, Bishop of Astorga in Spain, who liv'd in the IIIrd Cen. He was said to be one of those, who during the Persecution, did publicly deny our Saviour, to be protected by the Judges.

Basilides, the Heresiarch of Alexandria, disciple of Simon Magus, liv'd in the IIrd Cen. He imagin'd a ridiculous Progeny of Gods, from whom he said Angels proceeded, who created each a Heaven, in all 366, to answer the Number of Days in the Year. According to his extravagant Scheme of Divinity, the Angels of the last created the Earth and its Inhabitants, whose Prince (said he) was the God of the Jews, who design'd an Universal Monarchy. To prevent which, the Father sent his Son in the Shape of a Man; but instead of him the Jews put to death Simon the Cyrenian. He therefore said Men ought not to believe in a Crucify'd, but in him who appear'd, yet was not really dead to the Cross. He also taught of a good Lust and Marriage.

B A S

f the Emperor Basiliscus's Arho perswaded his Father to gainst the Tyrant, and was reason made Cesar by Zeno.

Father being afterwards put h for Treachery, this Basiliscus luc'd to be a Reader in our Church of Blachernis. 'Tis at some time after he was made hop of Cyzicum in the Hellef- us I. Emperor of the Greeks, ed the Macedonian, reigned in Cen. From a private Gentle- was associated to the Empire bael III. called the Drinker, d afterwards a Design upon e, of which he took care to the Execution. Being crow- peror in 867, his first Care procure the Repose of the . He deposed the Patriarch to put Ignatius in his place ; or'd him again, and was very with the Popes who refused it him into their Communion. ar he began in the East, was on with good Success. He mesas, and his Fleet recover'd Towns in Sicily from the Sa- 'Twas by his Care the Russi- uscovites embraced the Chri- ith. He reigned about 19 us II. call'd the Young, Empe- the East, with his Brother ine Porphyrogenetes, succeeded misens in 975. He was Son us the Young, and Theophania, ing a Widow, married Nice- bocas. His Arms prov'd suc- in Italy, where he took Barri, and that part of Apuleia and , which Zimisus had given perour Otho for the Portion of press Theophania his Daughter. garians, who were the most ous Enemies to the Empire, he subdu'd, and gave a total O- w to the Inhabitants of Trip- li and Damascus. He dy'd suddenly in 1025, and left his Crown to his Brother.

B A S

Basilius, the Name of several Czars of Muscovy: The first who assum'd it, was Woldemar, Son of Stellaus, who embrac'd the Christian Faith in 988. The second Czar of this Name, was Son to Demetrius III. and liv'd about the Year 1400. He left George III. Father to Basilius III. who left a Son John Basilowitz, to whom Basilius IV. succeeded in 1505, much esteemed for his Wisdom, Courage, and several Victories he had gain'd over the Tartars. In 1606, another Basilius, surnamed Suiski, ascended the Throne after Demetrius had been murdered by Rebels. But being rivalled by another Demetrius, who was backt by the Poles, his Army was defeated, himself dethron'd, in 1610. and shut up in the Fort of Gostin, where he ended his Life miserably.

Basilius, Patriarch of Antioch, liv'd in the Vth Cen. and was much celebrated for his Piety, Prudence, and Zeal for the Orthodox Faith, which he defended against the Enemies of the Council of Chalcedon.

Basilius the Great, Bishop of Cæsarea in Cappadocia, was Brother to Peter Bishop of Sebastia, to Gregory of Nyssa, and to Macrina, all three famous for Holiness of Life. At Athens, where he went to improve his Learning, he became very intimate with St. Gregory Nazianzen. In 362, he visited the Monks of Egypt, Syria and Palestine, and then withdrew himself into the Desert of Pontus, where he writ the Rules of a Monastick Life. In 370, after the Death of Eusebius, he was chosen Bishop of Cæsarea, but much against his Will. Being persecuted by the Arians and other Hereticks, he opposed them all with great Courage ; and being accused of befriending Eustathius an Arian Bishop, he plainly plainly prov'd it Calumny, by writing against his Errors. He also writ against Apollonius; and the great Industry he us'd to unite the Faithful, made him to be look'd upon as the Peace-maker of all the Christian Churches. He was the Founder of the most ancient of all Religious Orders, which flourish'd much in the East, where there is scarce any Order but what does observe his Rule.

B A S

Basilus, Bishop of Angra, liv'd in the IVth Cen. and was supposed by St. Jerome to be an Arabian. He was a good Scholar, and a laborious Man. When the Arians divided themselves into Pure-Arians and Semi-Arians, he set up for chief of these, jointly with George of Laodicea. He gain'd much Credit in the Emperour Constantine's Court, had a hand in the third Confession of Faith made at Sirmium, and made his part good in the Council of Nicea in 325. But his Party grew weak at last, and himself being accus'd of divers pos'd a Church-History in three Books, and made sixteen others against John of Scythopolis, but now lost.

B A S

Basilus, a Physician, who lived in the XIth and XIIth Cen. Having put on a Fryar's Habit, he went about to teach the Errors of the Benjamins, broach'd by himself, for which, after the space of 30 Years, he was burnt about 1118.

Basilus (John of Padua) a Lawyer and Cosmographer, liv'd in the XIIIth Cen. and writ divers Books, one particularly of the Illustrious Families of Padua.

Basina, Wife to Basius King of Thuringia, who fell so deeply in love with Childerick King of France, who fled thither in 459, that she left her Husband, and followed him. Childerick marry'd her, and got Issue by her Clouis I.

Basque, the Countrey of Basque, or the French Biscay, is counted part of Gascogne, and lies between the Spanish Navarre, Bearn, the Landes, and

B A S

Basse, a Scotch Island in the River Forth, and the County of Fife, eight Miles South of the Isle of May 'Tis on every side a steep and inaccessible Rock, except on the South-West; and there only accessible one by one, with the help of a Cable or Crane. It rises to a great Height in a Conical Form. Being of small Circuit, and at a great Distance from the Shore on each side, 'tis not capable of receiving or doing much hurt. Here is Grass but for twenty Sheep, a small Warren with Rabbits, and a Fountain of very clear fresh Water. About April or May great Numbers of Seland Geese flock hither, somewhat less than common Geese, but very fat, and tasting much like Herrings, on which they feed. They have a long Neck like a Crane, and a sharp Bill as long as ones middle Finger, with which they strike thro' a Fish with such violence, that if there happens to be a Plank under it, they can't pull their Beak out again. And they are often taken by fastning a Herring to a Board on purpose. This Bird is of an Ash-Colour, except the Old ones, that are White. Their Feathers are made use of for filling of Beds, the Sticks of their Nests for Fewel. They lay but one Egg, and that but once a Year; and if their Egg be remov'd from its Place, no Man can make it lie there again. When they flock hither, care is taken not to disturb 'em, and they have built their Nests, and when no Noise can fright 'em. This Island has a Fort mounted with some Cannon, which makes it impregnable. And 'twas with the Help of some Prisoners within that 'twas surrendered upon the Revolution by some of King James's party.

Basse, a Town in Flanders, on the frontiers of Artois, five Leagues from Lille, and watered by the Duete; of which it was taken and re-taken in the last

B A S

Age; but left at last to the French by the Peace of Aix la Chapelle in 1668.

Bassentin (Jaguar) a Scot, much esteemed in the last Age. He composed several Tracks of Mathematicks, one particularly, about the Use of the Astrolabe, and another of the Sphere.

Bassi (Angelo) an Italian, and one of the learnedst Men of the XVth Cen. He was of Monte Pulciano, Lan. Monte Pulicianus, a little Town of Tuscany, whence he had the Name of Pulician. A Man much esteemed for his Wit, and great Skill in the Greek and Latin Tongues, which he taught twelve years at Florence; where, being a Priest, he got a Canonicate, and was made Tutor to Cosmus of Medici's Children. Then he composed his Famous Greek and Latin Epistles, writ those witty Verses, for which Paulus Jovius call'd him the Divine Poet, and made his admirable Translation of Herodotus. But Medici's Disgrace, which had an Influence over all the Learned in Florence, broke Bassi's Heart, who died not above 40 Years of Age, in 1594.

Bassianus Landus, an eminent Physician of Piacenza in Italy. He liv'd in the XVth Cen. and writ several considerable Pieces, as, De Humana Historia, de Incrementis, Intrologia, &c.

Bassolus (John) a Franciscan, supposed by some to be a Disciple of Scotus. He lived in the XVth Cen. and writ several Books, as, Commentaria seu Lectura in quatuor Libros Sententiarum, Miscellanea Philosophica, & Medica, &c.

Bassompierre (Francis) was born in 1579 of a Noble Family in Lorraine. After several of his Warlike Exploits, the French King made him Knight of his own Order, and Marechal of France, in 1621, and sent him Ambassador Extraordinary to Philip III. of Spain. He was afterwards employ'd in in Switzerland by King Lewis XIII. At the Siege of Rebel, the Attack of the Palace of Paris, and on all other Occasions he gave great Proofs both of his Valour and Conduct: Yet he was seized in 1631, and clapt in the Bastille, where he continu'd till the Death of Cardinal Richelieu; During which Imprisonment, he compos'd his Memoirs and his Remarks upon the History of Lewis XIII. written by Dupue; with the Relation of his Embassies, and his Conduct in those Negotiations. Being set at liberty, the King restor'd him to his Place of Colonel of the Swissers. He died of an Apoplexy in 1646.

B A S

Basora, an Arabian City, 15 Miles from the Persian Gulph, and under the Turkish Empire. 'Tis one English Mile and half in Circuit, all the Buildings of the Castle and Walls being of Brick dried in the Sun. It carries a great Trade with Oman for Spice and Drugs, carrying thither Rice and Dates of its own Growth. Here is a fair Port of Arabs and Indians.

B A S

we ought not to hope for true religion in 7 C.

Basse (George) was a General of the Imperialists, in the beginning of the last Cen. Who in 1651, defeated the rebellious Transylvanians made himself Master of Cluj and forced the Rebels at last to Recourse to the Emperor's mercy.

Bastia, the chief Place of the Isle of Corsica, belonging to the Genoese. 'Tis 64 Miles South of L and has a strong Fort and convenient Haven.

Bastile, a Royal Castle, built by Charles V. for the Defence of Paris against the English. The sum of eight great Towers, with apartments between every Tower. Here all Prisoners of State are kept.

Bastuzius (Jerome) Professor of Divinity at Leiden, in the XVI. Cen. He was born at Calais in 1554, and was sent by his Parents to Brussels, whence he went to G him to celebrate his Vi-but receiving a total Over-Banock-bourn, Baston being s oblig'd for his Ransom te the Victory of the Scots.

a Player on the Flute, no-eing the first that used Apparel on the Stage.
he Antients called lascivieffeminate Men Batales.

, an antient and famous f the Low-Countries, who part of South-Holland, part land, and part of Utrecht.
ay we call the Dutch in La- e Name of Batavi.

s, a famous Town of the ova in Asia, belonging to nders, and the Capital Seat eir Acquisitions in those It lies 15 Leagues East of
in a large and fruitful Plain.
Town of a large Compass,
y populous, a great many Nations living in it, pay-a certain Tax for liberty
e. The Streets are long, d even, with fine Canals with great Trees always nd affording a Shade all the Assistance. The King attack'd 'em about the latter end of 1618, and they defended themselves till March next ensuing, when they were relieved by their General Kaen, at his Return from the Molucco Islands, by whom Jucatra was both taken and ruined, and Batavia built upon its Ruines.

Batavia, a River in the Southern Lands near the Sea; first discover'd by the Hollanders. 'Tis in that Country particularly called Carpentaria.

Batchelour, a Name formerly given to Men above Esquires, but not able to raise a Company of Gen- darmes, and therefore serv'd under Bannerets, being allowed Colours of their own, and to conduct their Vassals. They were commonly young Gentlemen, who by their Valour endeavoured to get the Title of Batchelours; and having signaliz'd themselves the first Champagne, receiv'd the Military Belt, or guilt Spurs. Now all Men that never were married go by this Name.
In the Universities, 'tis also given to Students that take the first Degree.

Baten (Henry) was Doctor and

B A T

East parts of Downshire, about 90 Miles Westward South from London. It is a Valley surrounded with Down Hills, and water'd by the River of Bath, and is called Bath from its hot medicinal Baths, much resorted unto for the Cure of stone & Rheum. The City but little, having but one Parish-Church, besides the Cathedral, but graced with fair Houses. 'Tis also a place of great Antiquity, witness the many Roman Inscriptions and Images frequently found in its Walls. The Bishop's See of Bath was transferr'd hither AD 1188, it being agreed by the Canon of Bath and Monks of Bath, that the Bishop should be denominated from both Places, and Precedence given to Bath in the Style; but in the Vacancy of the See, a number of Delegates from Bath & Canterbury should elect their Prelate, who should still be styled Bishop of Bath, but

B A T

Petson of John Granville, the Title being now devolved to his Grandson.

Bathcomb (William), an English Mathematician, who lived in the Reign of Hen. V. He was an Oxonian, and writ several Books in Latin about the Astrolabe and the Sphere.

Bathcol, so the Jews call one of their Oracles, which is so often mentioned in their Talmud. Their Rabbies say, that after the Death of Haggai, Zachariah, and Malachi, the Spirit of Prophecy withdrew from Israel; but that they had Bathcol, which is to say, the Daughter of that Voice: And this they endeavour to confirm by several Stories.

Bathon, a Valley of Macedon in Greece, where the Antients thought the Giants fought against the Gods. To represent which Fight, 'tis said they used formerly to dance thence, with an Imitation of Lightning, The dance of Thurberches.

B A T

ere he and Pylades contril of Dance, representing us Gestures all Tragick, nd Satyrick Subjects. The was the place where such edies were acted, and that er Actors but Pantomimes.
r excelled in Tragedy, so s in Comical and Saty-ts ; which made them se-nselfes.

a Roman Poet, who pree the Author of the Di-up by Virgil in the Night ate of Augustus's Palace.
ing made of the Author Aschylus assumed the Ho-to himself, but did not
it. For Virgil having same place this Beginning

Sic vos non vobis, and the esiring to have 'em com-one could perform it but ich de did in that Penta-known. Thus the right the Distich was found Aschylus met with the Condeserv'd, and became a

a Town of the Isle of he East-Indies, and Capital t Eastern Kingdom in that red from that of Colombo ountains. It belongs to ers, as doth Chilao, and er Places in the Kingdom to the Portuguezs.

St.) the Wife of Clouis II.
ance, was descended of Princes of England, and Princess of great Virtue, and Piety. She was car-to France in her Youth
, who sold her to the Mayalace ; and he bestow'd his Wife, who became aken with her, as did all ier, and the King partiho took her to Wife. By had three Sons, viz. Clo-

B A T

taire III, Childeric II, and Thierri I.
She outlived Clouis, and governed the Kingdom with great Wisdom during the Minority of her eldest Son. She was canoniz'd by Pope Nicholas I.

Batis, an Eunuch, Governor of Gaza. Which being taken after a very resolute Defence, and he himself extreemly wounded, he was tied to a Chariot, and dragged about the Streets, for refusing to humble himself before Alexander.

Battel, a Market-Town in Suffex,
6 Miles from the Channel called Battel, from that signal Fight O^r. 14, 1066, which wrested the Crown from Harold, to set it upon the Head of William the Conqueror ; who in perpetual Remembrance thereof, built near this place an Abbey called Battel-Abbey.

Batterbee, a small place on the River Ware, 2 Miles South of Durham.
Noted for certain Stones, from whose sides at low Water in Summer, issues a salt reddish Water, which turning white by the Sun,
and growing into a thick Substance, is used instead of Salt by the neighbouring People.

Batto, a Tartarian Prince, lived in the XIIIth Century. He over-ran Muscovy, Poland, and Silesia, and by the help of Magick overcame Duke
Henry at Lignitz, in a bloody Battel.
Whereupon he sent home, as a Monument of his Victory, nine great Sacks filled with the Ears of those he had slain.

Battus, a Lacedemonian, Founder of Cyrene in Africk. He had such a stammering Tongue that the Greek Word βατταειζεν took its Original from him. Batti Silphium is proverbially taken for any new Gift or Honour.

Battus, a Poetaster, who often repeated the same Words out of season. Hence the Word Battology.

B A V

Battus, a Shepherd of Peloponnesus in Greece, who (according to the Fable) was by Mercury changed into a Touch-stone. Having stole some Cows, and hid them in a Wood hard by, none was aware of it but Battus, from whom Mercury got a Promise not to reveal it. But being distrustful of him, he disguised himself, and dissembling his Voice, offer'd a couple of Cows to him that could direct him where his Cattle had stray'd. Battus, being covetous, embrac'd the Proffer. Mercury, to punish his Perfidiousness, turned him into a Touch-stone, which has this Quality, that no Metal can touch it without being discovered. Which shews a cunning Dissembler in Mercury, and in Battus one apt to be corrupted by the least likely sort of Gain.

Batacon, a People of Leon in Spain, dwelling in the Mountains, and thought to be an Offspring of the Goths.

Bavaria, a Town of Hannover in the pital of which is Amberg. Landgraviate of Leuchtemberg, & of Pfrenz is the chief Place, this House in 1556, upon the of Maximilian, last Landgrave of Leuchtemberg. Antiently Bavaria the Title of a Kingdom, which from the Vth Cen. to the beginning of the IXth, but then it reach'd far as the Borders of Hungary & Bohemia. The same House this is, has furnished Germany with Emperors, Sweden, Denmark and way with Kings. Frederick V, Palatine of the Rhine being deprived of his Electorate in the Electoral Dignity was given to Maximilian, Count Palatine Duke of Bavaria, and his last an eighth Electorate being given to Charles Lodowick Son to the Frederick. This House of B is generally agreed to be descended from Otto I, called the Count of Lothron and Wittenberg, who in this Dukedom was created by the Emperor Frederick.

B A U

B A U

plac'd into Trees. The which Fable is this, that by and Beneficence are very to God, rewarded here upon, and hereafter in the

(Michael) a French Gentleman, in the Reign of Lewis XIII's Reign, who author of several Books
in, a British Queen. Who scandalized against the Roman Fride and Avarice, cut off by and their Associates;
at last overcome by Sars-poisoned.

(Dominicus) a learned Law-Professor of Rhetoric at
He was born at Lisle in Flanders 1561. Where the Persecution by the Duke of Alva Parents withdraw into Aix la, in which place he began his; which he afterwards did at Leyden, and Geneva, and Doctor of Law in 1585.
After he came over with Ambassadors of the States to Q.
I was much esteemed by Learned in England. Afterwards went back to the Hague, then into France, where he was Counsellor of the Parliament of Paris. From whence he came into England with the Marquis, first President of that Court, being sent over Em-bassador by King Henry IV.
in 1601. He returned to Leyden, and died in 1613. His Works are de Civilis Sapientia, Commentarius de Poetis, De Inducit Belli Bel-

a small Town of Anjou in France, seated on the Cresson. Formerly Seat of a Presidial Court, moved 3 Leagues off to La Haye Charles VIII, when of France, obtained a significant victory over the English, commanded by the Duke of Clarence,

B A U

who was killed in the Fight. This happened in 1420.

Baugy, the Title of an Illustrious Family that governed the Province of Brissac 400 years.

Baugy, a French Town on the Loire, between Orleans and Blois.
The Town is pleasant, and has a good Bridge upon the River; the Country about it very fertile in Corn and Wine, and having abundantly of Game. The English under the Earl of Salisbury, made themselves Masters of this Town in 1428, but quitted it the next Year at the Approach of the French. Here two Councils were held; one in 1104, the other in 1152.

Bauhin (Jasper) a Physician that lived in the XVth and XVIth Centuries was a Native of Basel in Switzerland. He writ divers Works of Physick and Anatomy.

Bauhin (John) of Amiens, one of the ablest Physicians of his time, and well skilled in Surgery. Having pass'd some years in France, England, and Flanders, he went to Basle, where he practis'd Physick and Surgery 40 Years with great applause, and died there in 1582.
He left two Sons, both Heirs of his great Parts and Skill; one named John, who compos'd the Prodromus Theatri Botanici, and several other Books of Physick.

Bauhin (John William) of Strasburg in Germany, was an excellent Painter: Who left a great many fine Pieces at Strasburg, Rome, Naples, and Vienna, at which last place
he died in 1640.

Bauhin, a Latin Poetaster, who lived about 40 Years before our Saviour's Birth. By pretending to jeer Virgil, he made himself the more ridiculous. 'Tis he whom Virgil doth so much ridicule in his Eclogues.

Baudouin I. Emperor of Constantinople.

B A U

ple, was Son of Bauldwin the courageous Count of Flanders and Hainaut, and of Margaret of Alsace. He joined with the French in the Croisade An. 1200, and 4 years after made himself Master of Constantinople, being soon after that chosen Emperor thereof. In 1205 he besieged Adrianople, but was fain to raise the Siege, to meet the Bulgarians coming to its Relief. Being taken in an Ambuscade, he was sent Prisoner to Trinche, the chief place of Bulgaria, and there was put to death in May 1206. After whose Death there rose an Impostor in Flanders, pretending to be Baldwin, who was much followed by the credulous People. But Tane, Countess of Flanders, and Daughter to the Prince deceased, got him apprehended and executed at Lille.

Bauldwin II Emperor of Constantinople, was Son to Peter Comnenus, by his second Wife Tolana of Hainaut, Sister to Baldwin I. He succeeded his Brother Robert, and mar-

B A U

upon his Decease Dec. 25, 1100. The very next Year he took Antipatrik, Casarea, and Azous, and killed 5000 Saracens at Atalon. After a Siege of 20 Months, with the Succour of 70 Genouise Ships, he took Acre in 1104. Some other Advantages he had over the Saracens, upon which he died without Issue in 1118.

Bauldwin II, his Brother, succeeded next, who Aug. 14, 1130, killed 14000 Saracens, that had defeated 9000 of Roger of Antioch's Army. He was made Prisoner the Year after, and died in 1131.

Bauldwin III, Son of Reynard of Armen, was crowned King of Jerusalem in 1143. Two Years after the Christians lost Edessa, and their Affairs declined apace in the Holy Land. To redress them, Conrad the Emperor, Louis VIIIth King of France, and several other Princes took the Cross in 1146, at St Bernard's Solicitation, but to little purpose. In 1153, Bauldwin took Atalon, and several Towns on the Coast, and of Paderborn in Germany, about the Year 1418, and Universal History, which led on to the same Year.

a Town of the Franche Comté, 4 Leagues from Near which is a place

the Country for an Ice-the Entrance of which is Paces large, and the Des-thence 300 to the Door
Grotto, which is very wide
The Cave 60 Paces wide black. On the sides of it, from the Vault, there pieces of Ice; and much Ice upon a small in this Cave: Which in frozen in Summer, and in the least in Winter.
Temper of its Air the people about it forecast the of Weather. If they find with them a Sign of either; if foggy, of Rain or winter.

a remarkable Cave in the of Regenstein in the Lower The Entrance of which round and narrow, that few are also Bodies of Men of an ordinary size, said to have gone so far into this Cave as not to find the way out again.

Baume, as Bechem. Also the Name of divers Lands, and many noble Families of Daupiné, Bresse, Burgundy, &c. Among which there are three more antient and illustrious than the rest, viz. Baume Jar Cordon, Baume Montvaul, and Baume Sase.

Baumgarten, (Jerem) a Lawyer of Nuremberg in Germany, who took part with the Protestants. He had the Character of an honest, good, obliging Man, and was a particular Friend to Luther and Melancthon.
He died in 1563, much beloved by all Nuremberg.

Baure, a small Town in the West-Riding of Yorkshire, near Norringhamshire. Noted for its great Trade of Mill-stones and Grind-stones, which are thence sent to Holl.

Bautru (William) Count of Serrano, a publick Minister, and fine Wit of the XVIIth Cen. He was admitted of the French Academy upon its Foundation, and was very famous for Repartees.

B A Y

Castle, the Soil of it abounding in Vines, Olive-trees, &c. The Territories of Baux, called Bausenquet, have formerly been called a Principality or County; and accordingly the Lords of the Family of Baux have always taken the Title of Prince or Count.

Bayæ, an antient Town, now ruined, in the Kingdom of Naples in Italy, near the Gulph of Pouzzol, formerly called Bayanus Sinus: Over which the Emperor Caligula made a Bridge of Boats a Leagues long; longer than Nerxes's Bridge by which he joined Europe and Asia.

Baynard, (Ralph) a valiant Norman, who came over with Will the Conqueror, and was for his Conduct and Courage in the Battle against Harold, rewarded with 85 fain Lordships. 'Tis by this Baynard that Baynard's Castle in London was built, the first Nobleman's House built after the Conquest on the Banks of the Thames. He died in the Reign of K. Will. Rufus and was succeed-to Henry Earl of Manchester. Sir Robert had six Brothers, which Giles and Edward were two eldest. Giles had Issue 1 who died without Issue: And had Issue Edw. who had Issue Doctor of Physick, and Fell of the College of Physicians, La who had only one Daughter Anne, whose Memory deserves to be perpetuated for her Prodigious Piety and Learning, without Vanity or Affectation. She was a reserved and stoick Disposition seldom seen to smile, her Views few, well chosen, and expressed The Stoicks Doctrine seeming agreeable to her natural Temper she never read or spoke of 'er with some Delight and Pleasure in her Countenance. As she had great Contempt of the World especially of the Finery and Cost of Life, so she had a great Reverence and Veneration for the Sacred Word of God, whose Honour and Praise she made it the whole Business

B A Y

B A Z

Art and Nature. In 1489, it, then in possession of it, it 7 Months against near entirely, and at last was on most honourable Terms. (Monstru) an Italian, who with Isabel (by the Duke of Compend) to kill the Prince go, and the Duke of Br- in 1582. They were both Isabel owned his Crime, and himself in Prison. His Bo- dragged to the Gallows, he was hanged and queue of Mormonica, a vast Tract a Land between Egypt and Africa. Also an Indian of Guatemala, upon the Coast etc; which belongs to the is ever since 1534. 'Tis a sea, with a good Citadel, and many Churches.

is, a Syrian Province, no- its Inhabitants Magnificence, its Parks well stock'd with quils, and surrounded with and Towers for Huntsmen to it. 'Twas in one of these that Alexander the Great had seen to kill a great Lyon, was coming towards him.

is, an ancient City of Guiana is, on the River Bow. The best it is woody and ur-. The Bishop hereof is Suf- the Archbishop of Aschi.

is (John) born at Blais in 1538, his and Antient Family, was by the Court of France in to work the Election of the Abbot, in which he proved fail. He died in 1593, his for being Deputy General of Protestants at Court.

is, a French Province at the the Syrene, of which Paris chief City. Here are two Rivers, one called Gow, but called Gow d'Oleum, neither of 'em navigable, but very plentiful of Fish. Amongst its high Mountains, that of Ofen is remarkable, with her three distinct Heads. The Country is pretty fertile, but the Industry and Labour of its Inhabitants do much contribute to it. It yields particularly abundance of Salt, and mineral Waters. As for its Cattle, it feeds most on the Mountains. Beorn, for several hundred Years was under the Government of its natural Prince. It fell to the House of Monach, and afterwards to that of Alvet, whence Henry IV descended, who united that Country to the Kingdom of France. The Protestant Religion was established here in 1560, and continued so, till Popery was restored in 1620, when the Exercise of the Reformed Religion was only permitted. But now 'tis totally routed, since the present King revoked the Edict of Nantes.

B E A

Beatrix, Wife to the Emperor Frederick I. to whom she married in 1156. History tells us, that she had one day the Curiosity to go to Milum, to see that famous City. The People whereof, incensed at the loss of their antient Liberty, laid violent Hands on her, put her upon an Ass, her Face turned to the Tail, which they put in her hand instead of a Bridle, and in this manner led her about the City. Which violent Usage was so highly resented by the Emperor, that he besieged them in 1163, took and razed their City to the Ground, the Churches only excepted. To which some add, that such as were taken had no way to save their Lives, but by pulling with their Teeth a Fig which was put into an Asses Fundament. Hence the Italian Proverb, when showing a Finger between two others, they say in Derision, See the Fig.

Beatrix of Provence, Queen of Na- ples

B E A

pler, Sister, Sec. She was married in 1147 to Charles of France, Son to K Lewis VIII, whom she stirred up to the Conquest of Naples and Sicily, which was the Cause of And-Jet's Wars and Evils. She died in 1267 at Nocera.

Beatus, a Spanish Priest, who lived about the end of the VIIIth Cen. He writ with Heterius Bishop of Orma, against Espan Archbishop of Toledo, a Book intitled De Adoptione Christi filii Dei.

Beatus (Rhenanus) a German Author, born at Schlestadt in Alsacia, in 1585. He composed a History of Germany, and left Commentaries upon Tertullian, Pliny, Lucy, Paterculus, Tacitus, and others. He died in 1547 at Strasburg.

Beaucare, a Town of Languedoc in France, on the West-side of the Rhone. Renowned for the yearly Fair held there at the Feast of St Mary Magdalen. During the Civil Wars of 1722, it was several times taken and retaken by the Hugonots

B E A

terwards beheaded by the who accused him and others government.

Beauchamp (Richard) Earl of Wick was born in Worcester 1381, and lived in the several of Richard II, and Hen. IV, VI. He was scarce 22 Yrs in the 5th of Hen. IV, was challenged and joisted with mers at the Queen's Court. He routed Owen Glendower, the Rebel, and overcame the ruins at Stretwbury in a pitched battle. In the Holy Land he had killed saladin Prince who had challenged him, had not some interposition. France he signaliz'd himself in battles. At the Council of Ca where he appeared with a Host of 800 Horsemen, he was engaged by a German Duke, who killed in the Presence of the King of England and his Empress being sent by K Hen. V, with Men at Arms to fetch Q Catherine Daughter to the K of

B E A

1445 ; 1 ---- Title expired with his Life two Years after.

Beauchamp, a Place near Calais in Picardy, whence the D. of Somerſet takes part of his Title.

Beaunclair (Charles) the preſent D. of St. Albans, is a Natural Son of K. Charles II. by Eleanor Gwyn. He was created Baron of Haddington, and E. of Burford in 1676, and D. of St. Albans in 1684.

Beaunciere (Charles) Son to John Beaunciere, Treafurer-General of the extraordinary Expences of the War, was Secretary of State to Lewis XIII. He was a Man who valued Honour more than Riches, and who hardly better'd his Eſtate during 50 Years he was in great Employments, in which ſo many others enrich themſelves.

Beaufort, the Name of two French Towns, one in Anjou, the other in Champagne, both giving the Title of Duke. The firſt conferred by K. Charles II. upon Henry Somerſet, Marquis of Worceſter ; whoſe Family derives its Pedigree from Geoffrey Plantagenet, E. of Anjou. The other beſtow'd by Hen. IV. of France, upon Wielie D'Eſtreas, hence called Dukes of Beaufort. From whom it ſolved to the Houſe of Vendôme, which Houſe was Francis D of ſort, who loſt his Life in Candia 669.

Beaufort, (Margaret) Counteſs of Wood and Darby, great Grand-mother to Edw. III. and Mother to Richard VII. was born in Bedfordſhire. ſoon ſhe was for the Recovery of the Holy Land, as to ſay, the Chriſtian Princes would ſend an Army for it, ſhe would be ſounders. She founded Chriſt's and John's Colleges in Cambridge, and in the beginning of the reign of H. VIII. her Grandchild. Beaumont, one of the moſt ancient and Illuſtrious Families in

B E A

Beaujeu, a Town of Beaujolois France, 30 Miles N. of Lyons. alſo the Name of a Family deſcended from Beraud Lord of Beaujeu who lived in the Xth Cen.

Beaujolois, a ſmall Country France between the Saone and Loyre, the chief Place whereof Ville-franche. 'Tis fertile enough for Corn, Wines, Hemp, &c. and is a Barony.

Beaulieu (Auguſtin de) commonly called the General Beaulieu, was born at Roan in Normandy, and proved a great Navigator. His firſt Voyage was to the Negroes Country in 1612 The ſecond and third to the East-Indies. Afterwards he ſerved the K. in the Iſle of Rhe, and in taking the Iſles of St. Margaret and St. Honorat upon the Coaſt of Provence. At Thoulon he died of a Fever in 1637.

Beaulieu. (Geoffrey de) a Dominican, who was 20 Years Preacher and Confeſſor to St. Lewis, whoſe Life he writ in ſeveral Letters.

Beaumanoir, a moſt conſiderable Family in the Province of Maine.

Beaumaris, the chief Town of Angleſey in North-Wales. It has a Port on the Channel of Menay, and ſends one Burgeſs to Parliament. The preſent Burgeſs is Robert Bulkely, Eſq; 'Tis 184 m. from London.

Beaumont, the Name of five Towns in France ; two in Normandy, one in le Maine, another in Champagne, and the fifth in the Iſle of France. Of the two in Normandy, one is ſeated near the Sea in the Contantin ; the other on the R. Liſſe, betwixt Evreux and Liſieux. This laſt is called Beaumont le Roger, from Roger one of its Earls, who built, or improved it. Beaumont in Maine is called Beaumont le Vicomte, it having been formerly a Viſcountſhip, whereas it is now a Dutchy. It ſtands upon the Sarte betwixt Mans and Alençon. Beaumont in Champagne is called Beaumont en Argonne, from

BEA

Beaumont the District in which it is seated, near the Muse, betwixt Strasburg and Paris. Beaumont in the Isle of France is called Beaumont upon Oise, over which it has a fine Bridge. It bears the Title of County. There is also a Beaumont in Holland, in the Low-Countries about Leiden in Holland. It was taken by the French, and burnt by the Confederates in 1691. It bears the Title of County.

Beaumont France. One of the chief Dramatic Poets contemporary with Moliere, Bernard, and Shakspeare. He was not more than the first, and wrote in French his Plays with him. Being one day in a Tavern together, to converse with Flaucher took a quarrel with the King; which being related, he was accused of it by the King, and upon Declaration of the King was only condemned to pay a fine of

BEA

of the Presidial Court of Paris, was a great Mathematician, and much esteemed by Des Cartes. Bartholin was sent to him by the United Provinces, to confer with him upon some difficult Matters. He invented several Astronomical Instruments, and Spectacles of an admirable Artifice. He died in 1562, being 53 Years old.

Beaumont, a pleasant and ancient City in the Isle of France, seated upon the Therou; the Streets thereof large and fair, but the Houses almost all Timber. It is surrounded with a Ditch, filled with the Water of the River, part of which serves for divers Manufactures of Cloths, Silks, &c. Here is a Market-place, one of the greatest and finest in the Kingdom; the Bishops Palace very strong, and well built; and the Quire of the Cathedral a fine piece of Architecture. This City lies in the Road of Paris to the Norman Country and the Bishop and afterwards made Com-open them.

B E B

B. a Roman Consul, with P.
in the same Year the Books
a Pompilius were found in Chest under-ground, which Latin, and as many Greek

s. The first treating of the Pontifes, were carefully kept;

Greek ones were burnt, as ig upon the Worship of the Gods.

B. a Baron of Auensperg in s, who by two lawful Wives

Children, viz. 32 Sons and ughters. As he attended the e Hen. II. whose Favourite

he presented unto him his s very brisk, and well mount-o were kindly received by the e, and had considerable Posts

him.
or Bika (John) Canon of the of Utrecht, lived in the XIVth le wrote a Chronology of that

, with the Affairs of the e, from S. Willibrod, first of Utrecht, to the Year 1346, died 4 Years after.

(Martin) a Jesuit of Brabant, Low-Countries. Who writ volumes in folio, one con-

the Sum of Scholastick Di-and the other treating of versies.

fumi (Dominic) a famous Itanter of Sienna in Tuscany, lithe XVIth Cen. After he rought at Rome with much in the time of Michael An- l Raphach, he returned to Si- nd ended the fine Pavement ble in the Cathedral, which a Painter of that Country,

gun. He wrought likewise ice Doria at Genoa. At last ed at Sienna in 1549. being rsold. His first Name was ino, which he changed for mi, in Remembrance of his 3or Laurenza Beccafumi, who

B E C

had brought him up to Painting, and to whose Family he had ally'd himself.

Beek (Cornelius) a Regular Canon of the Order of St Austin, and Prior of a Religious House in Utrecht, called The Division of the Apostles.
He lived in the XVth Cen. and writ a Chronicle of his Monastery, besides some other Pieces.

Beck (Lambert) a devout Clergyman of Liege. He took care of the Direction of some Nuns, call'd from him Beguiines.

Bechai, or Batrye, a famous Rabbi, who writ Commentaries upon the Five Books of Moses: Wherein he shews great Skill of Jewish Literature, relating the Literal, Allegorical, and Mystical Sense, and bringing in sometimes the Opinions of Philosophers.

Bechyres, a Scythian People, who having followed Attila to Italy, lik'd so well the Italian Wines, that their very Name got into a Proverb for a Wine-bibber.

Becket (Thomas) Lord High Chan-cellour of England, and after A. of Canterbury, lived in the Reigns of K. Steph. n. and K. Hen. II. He was born in London, and studied in the U. of Paris. At his return into England, Thobald A. of Canterbury, made him his Arch-deacon. Hen. II. raised him to the Dignity of Lord Chan-cellour of England, and afterwards to the See of Canterbury. In which Stations he carried it very high in his Retinue, House-keeping, Furniture, &c. But forgetting his Prince's Favour, who had raised him to the highest Dignities, he sided with the Pope, and opposed the K. when he would have the Clergy tryed in his Temporal Courts, for Criminal Causes. Thus began the Quarrel between the Crown and the Mitre, which the K. resenting highly, called an Assembly of all the Bps at West- minster, wherein he offered six Articles

B E C

cles in Defence of the Prerogative against Papal Inroachments; which Becket refusing to assent to, he was at last prevailed upon to sign them. But revoking his Assent, and growing still more troublesome, the K. ordered him to be tried as a Traytor, upon which he fled into Flanders. The K. banished all his Kindred, and Becket, in Revenge, Excommunicated all that had acted against him. At last a Reconciliation being made by the K. of France and the Pope, he returned in Triumph after 7 Years absence, but refused to absolve those whom he had excommunicated, which the K. hearing of, who was then in Normandy, and how he went up and down like a King, attended both with Horse and Foot, expressed his utmost Displeasure against him. Whereupon four of his Knights hastened over into England, and barbarously murdered him in his Cathedral, Dec. 29. 1170. A crime unparalleled in the history of the present Age.

B E C

Mahomet IV., during his Ministry. He upheld the Authority of Empire against the Spahis and others who sided with the Queen Mother and the Sultan her Son. But he over-reached in his Politics, was strangled, and another Aga of the Janizaries, Bebas taken, and strangled in 1607. A Man so hated by the Mob, that after his Death, his Body was torn with all manner of Ignominy. Beftachites, a Sect of Monks among the Turks, so called from Beftach their Founder, Preacher to the Army of Amurath I., when he conquered the Despot of Serbia. These Monks are all clothed in white, their white Caps of several Sort, and their Turbans of Wool twisted like a Rope. The Janizaries Port make Profession of this Religion, and wear Caps hanging round as a Sleeve.

There is another Mahometan of this Name, otherwise called Beftach, who was a

B E C

cles in Defence of the Prerogative against Papal Inroachments; which Becket refusing to assent to, he was at last prevailed upon to sign them. But revoking his Assent, and growing still more troublesome, the K. ordered him to be tried as a Traytor, upon which he fled into Flanders. The K. banished all his Kindred, and Becket, in Revenge, excommunicated all that had acted against him. At last a Reconciliation being made by the K. of France and the Pope, he returned in Triumph after 7 Years absence, but refused to absolve those whom he had excommunicated, which the K. hearing of, who was then in Normandy, and how he went up and down like a King, attended both with Horse and Foot, express his utmost Displeasure against him. Whereupon four of his Knights hastened over into England, and barbarously murdered him in his Cathedral, Dec. 29. 1171. A most unparalleled Steadiness to the pretended Rights of the Papal See pro-

B E C

Mahomet IV. during his Minority. He upheld the Authority of that Empress against the Spahis and Bassas who sided with the Queen Mother, and the Sultan her Son. But being over-reached in his Politicks, Kiosse strangled, and another made Agas of the Janizaries, Bellai was taken, and strangled in 1687. A Man so hated by the Mob, that after his Death, his Body was treated with all manner of Ignominy.

Bechaschites, a Sect of Monks among the Turks, so called from Be-chasch their Founder, Preacher to the Army of Amurat I, when he vanquished the Despot of Serbia. These Monks are all clothed in white, their white Caps of several Pieces, and their Turbans of Wool twisted like a Rope. The Janizaries of the Port make Profession of this Religion, and wear Caps hanging backward as a Sleeve.

There is another Mahometan Sect of this Name, otherwise called Zenates, and by the Vulgar Mun Scen-

B E D

she equalled the greatest Men of her Time. She writ several Works in Verse, the most part Sapphick, and the others in Prose, both Latin and French. She had with her a learned Relation, by Name Catharine de Be-Bez. The Year 1547 did put a Period to her Life.

Beda or Bede, surnamed the Venerable, was the Glory of England, and the greatest Scholar of his Age. Tarrow near the Mouth of the R. Tine, in the B. of Durham, was his Birth-place, and he was bred under St. John of Beverley. Being a Monk in the Town wherein he was born, he made use of that Solitude to be acquainted in all sorts of Sciences, His Temper being sweet, and accompanied with most excellent Qualifications, proved the more efficacious to those whom he wrought upon. He expounded almost all the Bible, and translated the Psalms and the New Testament into English. He writ the History of the six first Ages, a Martyrology, and several Pieces; collected into 8 Volumes; printed at Basil in 1563, and afterwards at Cologne in 1613. His Death happened in 724, being 63 Years of Age; and his Corps was removed to the Cathedral of Durham, where he lies buried.

Beda, (Noel) a Sorbonne Doctor in the Reign of Francis I, of France. He was of a very facetious Spirit, and opposed all Innovations into Learning, tho' never so good. For this reason he hated Erasmus, and wrote against him, and when he defended himself, got him censur'd by the Divinity Colleges; but at length he himself was made to do Penance for speaking against the K. He was a great Enemy of all they call'd Hereticks, and was Author of divers Books. He died in Banishment.

Bedford, the chief place of Bedfordshire, is a Town pleasantly situated on the Bank of the R. Onse, over which it has a Stone-bridge. It consists of five Parishes, and is famous of old for the great Battle fought near it between the Britains and the Saxons in 570, which left the Saxons Masters of the Country. The same gave the Title of D. first to John Plantagenet, third Son to K. Hen. IV, created E. of Kendal, and D. of Bedford by K. Hen. V. When the K. was in France, he was made Lieutenant of the Realm of England, and Generalissimo by Sea and Land. Upon the King's Death he was made Governour of Normandy, Regent of France, and Protector to the Young K. Hen. VI. In France he shew'd his Valour and Conduct with great Success. He died at the Castle of Roüen in 1435, and was interred in the Cathedral there, under a plain Tomb of black Marble. Which Charles VIII, of France went to see, and being advised by one of his Nobles to raze it; Let him rest (says he) in peace now he is dead, of whom, when he was alive, all France stood in Fear. Next to the House of Lancaster, the Title of D. of Bedford was conferred upon Jasper of Hatfield, half Brother to K. Hen. VI. Afterwards to George Nevil in the Reign of Edw. IV. In the Reign of Edward VI, John Lord Russel of Taverstock, Lord President and Lord Admiral, was created E. of Bedford. In whose Line the Title has continued ever since, till the late K. improv'd it to a Ducal Title in the Person of William Russel, the late D. of Bedford, now devolved upon Wriothestly his Grandson, the present D. The present Members of Parliament are William Spencer, Esq; and Edward Carteret, Esq;

B E D

Bedfordshire, an Inland County of England, so called from Bedford the chief Town thereof. It lies betwixt Northamptonshire on the N. Hertfordshire on the S. and Buckinghamshire.

B E D

Bedford on the W. In Length from N. to S. 24 m. in Breadth about 14. The whole divided into IX Hundreds, whereof are 2 Market-Towns, and 100 Parishes. This, together with the Countie of Hartford and Buckingham was the Seat of the Catibocum in the Time of the Romans, a Member of the Kingdome of Mercia in the Heptarchy, and now makes part of the Dioces of London. Here the Air is very temperate, the Country for the most part champion, and the Soil abundantly fruitful, especially the N. Parts. The South is somewhat less, but yields however very good Barley. Near Woburn is dug up great store of Fullers Earth, commonly called Woburn Earth; and near St. Albans a Ravine, which turns Wood into Stone. Out of this County are elected, besides the two Knights of the Shire, but two Members of Parliament, only by the Town of Bedford. The great Knights of the Shire are called the Hundred of the Lord Bedford.

B E E

concealing and protecting him in the high Rebellion. He died in 1643.

Bedouins, anciently called Semites, a Name given to those Arabs who make it their Business to rob the Caravans going to Mecca. They say they are Mahometans, yet do not observe their Ceremonies, but worship the Rising Sun, and use no other Prayer but Risimulab, i. e. In the Name of God. Their Arms are Lances or Half-pikes, Cimitars, and great Poniards. They use no Fire-Arms. For their Defence they use Shields, covered with the Skin of a Fish of the Red-Sea, not unlike a Camel's, and having two Hands like a Man. They have Herds of Camels, and Flocks of Sheep and Goats, which they lead about for Pasture, changing Places as the Grass fails. They live upon the Milk of those Beasts, and use Cakes made of Flour and butter, or Honey. Their Detents are divided into eight Tribes, and each Tribe is not like he would consult whom he derided. This Idol is so named, as being cal- lion against Flies; as the Arca worshipped such a God cal- yagros. The Jews, because of hatred they had against this I- called the Devil Beelzebub.

B E G

Izephon, or Baalzephon, an Idol of the Egyptians. The Word sig- originally, the hidden God, or of the North. A Rabbi said, it was a Talisman of Brass, and Pharaoh's Magicians had made under the Israelites from flying of Egypt, that their Endeavours be stop'd by the magick force of this Idol. Others believe this had the Figure of a Dog, and barked when any Israelite pas- sy that place to get away.

Bort, a Town of Alsace in the Germany, 2 Leagues from Mont- l. It was quitted to the French e Treaty of Munster.

Beglerbeg, in Turkey, is a Gover- of one of the chiefest Gts of Empire. A Beglerbeg has under jurisdiction several Sangiacs or ular Gts with Begs, Agas, and Officers under him. There n all 28 Beglerbegs, which are t independent on the Grand ior; five of which have the of Viliers, or Counsellors of

In each Beglerbegship there ree principal Officers with the beg, viz. the Musti, who is the of the Religion; the Reis-Ef- or Secretary of State; and the dar, or Treasurer of the Ex- ter: These three Officers are rincipal Counsellors of the Beg- and Bassas of Provinces.

Beguards and Beguines, a certain of pretended Hereticks, who in Germany and the Low Coun- about the end of the XIII Cen. r professed a Monastick Life, out observing Celibacy, and (if believe the Monks) were guilty of most pernicious Errors. They were condemned in several Coun- cils, and banished from Basil in 1411. The Beguines were of two sorts some who made no Vows, but fol- lowed the Opinions of the Beguards and Margaret Parette: Others who lived under the Constitution of St. Begga, Sister to St. Gertrude. There are some of these Nuns in the Low- Countries.

B E J

Behemoth, signifies in general all manner of Cattle. The Behemoth of Job, Chap. 40. is taken by Bochart for the Hippopotamus, or River-Horse.

Beja, an ancient City of Portugal, 2 Leagues from the Guadiana, and about 12 from the Sea. It was a Roman Colony, and there are yet illu- strious Monuments of what it has been in times past, as the Remain- ders of its Water-Conduits, Me- dals, Inscriptions, &c. The City is rich and strong, and its Territory pretty fertile.

Bejerlinck, (Lawrence) a Canon and Archdeacon of Antwerp, in the last Cen. He was a Person of great In- dustry and Learning, and writ abun- dance for the short time he lived, which was but 49 Years. His prin- cipal Works are Magnum Theatrum Vi- tae Humanae, in 7 Folio Volumes; Biblia Sacra Variarum Translationum, in 2 Tomes.

Beima (Julius) of Dorkum in Friez- land, was a Counsellor in the Sove- reign Court of this Province. He writ (amongst other things) Com- ments upon Justinian's Institutes, and died at Leewarden in 1595.

Beisel, of Aix la Chapelle, was a Lawyer, Philosopher, Orator, and Counsellor to the Arch-D. of Au- stria, in the XVth Cen. His Works are, De optimo Genere Muscorum, De Mysteriis Rosarum, Gesta Flandrorum, &c.

Bel, or Belus, called in Scripture Nimrod, was the first King of As- syria after the Flood, and the Con- fusion fusion of Tongues. He began to reign at Bayon, which he built on the Banks of Laprarer.

B E L

Bela (can) Count of Lambert in Loz, flourished in the beginning of the XIVth Can. He writ a Chronicle, and collected a great many Memoirs of the Wars of his own Time.

Bela the Name of four K. of Hungary. Bela I Son to Boleslaw the Bald, associated to the Crown his Brother Andrew I but drove him out soon after. He reigned but 3 Years, and died in 1063. Geza his Son, fearing the Arms of the Emperor Hen. IV, yielded the Crown to his Cousin Solomon, Son to Andrew I.

Bela II. was called to the Crown about the Year 1132, and reigned about 9 Years with a great deal of Prudence. He left 3 Sons, who reigned successively after him.

Bela III. came to the Crown after his Brother Stephen III. in 1173, and died in 1196, leaving two Sons, Emerick and Andrew II who were both Kings.

B E L

Isle of Nera, belonging to the Malanders. Nera is one of the 3 principal Islands of Banda, amongst the Moluccas.

Belgium, or Belgick Gaul, one of the 3 Parts of Gaul, contained formerly, besides the Low-Countries, the A. of Treves, Rhems, Metz, and Cologne; whereas by Belgium, now a days, we mean only the Netherlands, or the Low-Countries; of which in their proper Place.

Belgus, a Captain of Gaul, who made himself so formidable to Lyria and Macedonia, that they bought Peace of him. Ptolemy Ceraunus, coming to acquire it after this manner, made bold to give him Battle; but was taken Prisoner, and had his Head cut off, which the Gauls carried upon the Point of a Lance. Belgus was killed a little while after.

Belgrade, the chief Place of Serbia, under the Turks. It stands upon a Hill, a little below the Confluence of the Sava, and the Danube, and is considerable both for its Strength and blew up part of the Walls, and filled the Ditches. Upon which the Enemy entered by whole Squadrons, putting all to the Sword. The Fire destroy'd both the Castle, and part of the Town, and the Governour only with 300 of the Garison escaped. Since that time the Turks repaired the Fortifications of Belgrade. In 1693, this Place was besieged again by the Imperial Army, under the Command of the Duke of Croy, and Sept. 7, a general Assault was made upon the Counterscarp; which having miscarried, and the Grand Viceroy marching up with 80000 to the Relief of the Place, the Germans drew off on the 10th without Molestation, and made good their Retreat.

B E L

Belides, see Danaides.

Belisarius, one of the greatest Captains of his Age, General of the Armies of the Emperor Justinian, and the Saver of his Throne. In 532, such a Sedition arose at Constantinople, that Justinian proposed to withdraw; but Belisarius dissuaded him, and brought again the Rebels to their Duty. In 533 he took Carthage, and the next Year subdued Gilimer, who had usurped the Crown of the Vandals. In 535, he came to deliver Italy from the Tyranny of the Goths, and effected it. In 541, he was sent into the E. against the Persians, and wasted Assyria. Totila being chosen K. of the Goths in Italy, Belisarius returned thither, and afterward repulsed into the E. to oppose the Persians. In 558, he beat back the Huns invading the Empire. After all these Exploits, some Authors will have it, that this great Man being fallen into the Emperor's Disgrace, was reduced at last to beggary. But others say, that he was restored to his Dignity, and died in Peace at Constantinople.

Belshy (Si bert) Lord Chief Justice of the Pleas, in the

B E L

in the Reign of Richard II.

Bellagio (Guy) a Florentine Cardinal. He went to the Holy Land, and died at his Return from thence in 1153.

Belarmin (Robert) a Cardinal, A. of Capua, was Native of Montepulciano in Tuscany. He was admitted Jesuit at 18 Years of Age, in 1560, and received the Priestly Order in 1569, being then at Louvain in the Low Countries, where he preached in Latin with such Reputation, that Protestants went on purpose out of England and Holland to hear him. He took up great part of his time in Reading the Fathers, the History of the Church, and Councils, and the Canon Law. About the Year 1576, Pope Gregory XIII. appointed him to manage the Controversies against Protestants, in the New College he had founded, where he writ his Syllogistical Treatises on that Subject. In 1590, Pope Sixtus V. gave him to Cardinal Cajetan to be his Divan, during his Legateship in France. In 1599, he was created Cardinal by Pope Clement VIII. who made him also A. of Capua; which A. he quitted, when Pope Paul V. obliged him to remain with him, believing he could not in Conscience keep the same, and not watch over his Flock. Falling ill in 1621, he withdrew from the Vatican where he lodged, to the Noviciate House of St. Andrew, where Pope Gregory XV. visited him in his Sickness, and embraced him twice with much tenderness. He died Sept. 17, 1621, being 79 Years of Age. Besides his Treatises of Controversy, in 3 or 4 Volumes in Folio, he writ several other Books, intitled Explanatio in Psalmos, Opuscula, Conciones sacrae, De Scriptoribus Ecclesiasticis, &c. His Life has been written by James Truligati.

Bellasis (Thomas) late E. of Faulconberg, was Son and Heir of Sir Wil. Bellasis, Son of Sir Hen. Bellasis of Newborn in England. Who, for his great Merits and faithful Service to K. Charles I., was made a Baron of this Rea'm, by the Title of Lord Falkenberg, and afterwards Viscount Falkenberg of Hertford in the Co. of Darham, the present Members of Parliament of which, are Sir Wm. Drake, Kt. and Sir Robert Eden, Bar. He had Issue two Sons, Hen. and Thos. Hen. being before his Father, let two Sons, Thomas who succeeded his Grandfather, in his Honour, and Sir Rowland Bellaſti, now Viscount Lichfield. Thomas was Captain of the Band of Pensioners to K. Charles II. and his Ambassador Extraordinary to the Princes of Italy in 1655. Since the late Revolution he had the Title and Dignity of Earl of Falkland confirmed upon him by the late K. &c. who made him also one of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council and Lord Lieutenant of the North Riding of York. His Arms are Argent, a Cheſnut Tree. Between 3 Flowers de ty; who proved no less intelligent in Warlike Affairs, as in the Intrigues of the Cloſet. In 1541. the K. named him to the B. of Lisieux, and 3 Years after to the A. of Burgundy. But the K. dying in 1547, the Cardinal was deprived of his Rank and Credit, by the Jealousy of the Cardinal of Lorraine. Upon which he withdrew to Rome, where he was made B. of Osia, and Dean of the Cardinals; being there in so great Esteem, that he was in Election for the Papacy after the Death of Marcellus II. He died in the same City Feb. 16, 1560. being 68 Years of Age, and was interred in Trinity-Church of the Mount. He left some Speeches, an Apology for K. Francis I. and divers Poems in 3 Books, which shews the acuteness and fineness of his Wit. Francis Rabelais was his Domestick, and Nicholas Ronsard of Paris his Secretary, whose Fidelity the Emperor could never corrupt.

B E L

B E L

Belais (Marin) Brother to the

B E L

Bellin at Paris in 1583, being 53 Years old.

Bellignards, the Name of two French Towns, one in Burgundy, the other in Rouffillon, upon the Borders of Catalonia. The first stands upon the Saone, near the Franche Comté, and bears the Title of a Dukedom. It has been in times past pretty strong, whence it got the Name of Secure. Bellignards in Rouffillon stands betwixt Carls and Jougiers, and is a place of Strength. The Spaniards took it in 1674, and fortify'd it; but were afterwards forced to yield it up to Marfchal Schomberg.

Belle-Ile, the Name of two Islands, one upon the French Coast, the other upon the Eastern Ocean of China. The first is an Isle of Britagne, about 6 Leagues long, and 2 broad, with a good Port, and some Cattle: 'Tis but 5 or 6 Miles from the Continent, is considerable for its Salt-works, and for giving the Title of Marquis. The Asiatick Belle-Ile stands betwixt the Chinese Pr. of Fuquin on the W. and the Isle Mauille on the S. A pleasant and fertile Island, in which the Hollanders endeavored to settle, but were expell'd by the Chinese.

Bellier, (John) a famous Printer at Amoy, whose Works were very much esteemed for good Paper, and the Fairness of the Character.

Bellerophon, Son to Glaucus K. of Alyra, is renowned in the Poets Writings; who for rejecting the Love of Sthenobea, Wife to Pratus K. of Argu, to whom Bellerophon was accused by this Princess before her Husband, to have made an Attempt upon her Honour; whereupon he was sent by Pratus into Lybia, with Letters directed to Isobas K. thereof, and Father to Sthenobea, with Orders to put him to Death: whence the French by Latere Bellerophonis, for I the Bearers of But Bellerophon, by his Prudence and Courage, triumphed over his Enemies.

B E L

Bellin, or Belinus, an old fabulous British King.

Bellin, (Gentil) a famous Painter of Venice, lived in the XVth Cen. Mahomet II. Emperor of the Turks, having seen some of his Paintings, writ to the Republick, and pray'd them to send him Bellin: Who having drawn several Pieces for him, and amongst others the Decollation of St. John Baptist, begged Leave to return home; which having obtained with great Difficulty, the Grand Signior presented him with rich Gifts, put himself a Golden Chain of great Value about his Neck, and sent him back to Venice with Letters of Recommendation to the Republick, from which he had a considerable Pension during his Life.

Bellin, (John) Brother of Gentil aforesaid, being of the same Profession, made several admirable Pieces, now to be seen in the Hall of the Council of Venice. He painted with more Art and Sweetness than his Brother. In 1512, being the Year he died, he began, at the Instance of the D. of Ferrara, the Representation of the Bacchanalia, but left it unfinished. Titian afterwards added an admirable Landskip to it.

Bellinzona, a Town in the Confines of Milan, situate upon the Tessino, at the N. end of Lago Maggiore, 45 Italian Miles N. of Milan. Formerly subject to the Es of it, till their Issue failing, it was possessed by the E. of Montaxo, from whom it was usurped by the D. of Milan: The E. by Stratagem recovered it, and sold it to the Grisons in 1421. The D. of Milan retook it by Fraud, which occasioned a War. At last, when the French invaded the Milanese, the Inhabitants put themselves under the Grisons Protection. The French being possessed of Milan, often attempts, all in vain, to recover it. He at last suffer'd much by an Illness.

B E L

Belshazzar, the G. Deity of War, was the Son of the Sister of Mars. An Idol of this Name she was one of the most of Divinities, and the first Rank of the Gods. The Ancients represented her, sometimes with a Phoenix in her Hand, sometimes with her Hand in a great Disorder.

Belus, a N. R. of Ambigat. The River of this Name entering by force of Arms, conquered the people of the Country called Lombards. The Name of Gallia comes from this Name, thought by some to be the same as Leuvais.

Belvaire, a City in Marca amongst the Belgians. A most pleasant twixt the Isles of Seland and Finsen; and the little (otherwise called Middlefort) of two Hours Passage, betwixt Fenn and the Continent of Finland. The Passage of the Bel upon the Ice by Charles Gustav, K. of Sweden, with his Army, is one of the boldest and most memorable Actions of the Wars in the XVII. Cen. not to be parallel'd by any Action of this kind in all Antiquity.

B E M

Belvedere, the Eye of the Ancients, which gave Name to the whole Province, stands on the R. Pinar in Græce.

Belvoir Castle, a noble Seat in Lincolnshire, belonging to the Earl of Arundel: It has a most delightful and large Prospect. The Stone called Astræus, having Beams like a Star, and formerly look'd upon as a certain Token of Victory to him that wore it, is found near this place.

Belvoir, a Village in Lincolnshire, the Seat of a Baronet. It is a fine House, and has a very good Park.

Belvoir, a Village in Lincolnshire, the Seat of a Baronet.

B E N

count of his Italian and Latin Works. Amongst the latter there are XVI Books of Letters written for Leo X. Six Books of familiar Epistles, Divers Speeches, the History of Venice in XII Books, &c. written in pure Latin.

Bena, a Kingdom of Nigritia in Africk, whose People are called Soujar. It lies S. of Mandinga, and E. of Mali. 'Tis a mountainous Country, where there are Mines of finer Iron than what we have in Europe. Here are Serpents as thick as a Man's Thigh, spotted with lively Colours. The K. keeps commonly one of these Serpents in his Arms, and cherishes it as we do little Dogs. These People are Idolaters, and believe the Dead will find in the other World, what is interred with them in their Grave.

Benacus, an ancient Name of Lago di la Garda, one of the greatest Lakes of Italy, in the State of Venice. Leander says there was of old a Town of this Name, whence the Lake came to be so called.

Benares, a City of the Great Mogol's Empire, in India; it stands in a fair Country upon the River Ganges. Here is kept the General School of the Indian Paganism, and where the Brahmins and Pendats are brought up. The first thing they learn is the Hanscrit, a Language quite different from the common Indian, and understood by none but the Learned. The Word signifies a pure, holy, or Divine Tongue, in which, they say, God gave the Beths or Sacred Books to Brama their Prophet. 'Tis of this Tongue that Father Kircher has given an Alphabet. The Hanscrit being learnt, they betake themselves to read the Purane, which is an Abridgment of the Beths, or Books of the Law. Then they apply themselves for six Months to Philosophy, relating to the five Elements, and have six different Sects: of the first Principles of things, much like Democritus and Epicurus. Others agree very much with Aristotle, and his Interpreters. Some of 'em come near to the Doctrine of Plato, but their Notions are so abstruse, that they are almost unintelligible. Their Books of Physick are rather Collections of Remedies, than Physical Discourses. Anatomy they are unacquainted with, because they dare not open the Bodies of Men or Beasts. They are much given to Astrology, but little the better for't, for they invent Fables to expound the Eclipses of the Sun and Moon. As to Geography, their Opinion is, that the Earth is flat and triangular, upheld by the Heads of several Elephants, which cause Earthquakes when they move. Within these few Years there has appeared a Cabal, the Doctors whereof hold the Doctrine of those ancient Philosophers, who admitted an Universal Spirit, or a Soul spread through all the World, of which all the Souls of Men and Beasts are Portions.

B E N

Benavidius (Mark) a famous Lawyer of Padua, whose Father was a Physician, and who lived in the XVIth Cen. He studied Human Learning with much Application, and then the Civil and Canon Law, which he taught during 60 Years, and upon which he writ several Books. He was Knighted 3 several times, 1st by the Emperor Charles V. in 1245. 2dly, by Ferdinand I. in 1561. 3dly, by Pope Pius V. in 1564. He died 93 Years of Age, in 1582.

Benciis, (Hugo) of Sienna in Italy, lived in the XVth Cen. He writ Notes upon Avicenna, upon Hippocrates's Aphorisms, upon Galen, &c. Bencia (Francis) an Italian Jesuit, born at Aquapendente, in the XVIth Cen. call writ several Ingenious Tracts both in Prose and Verse; and here is the Character given him by Cardinal Baronius; Franciscus Bencia, civ,

B I N

et ut, qui maxime per te insigniter et laudatur, te et tuas reddet Christianus, et fuit ore Concilium canonicis. He died at Rome in 1594.

B. interior L., a City in the N. Parts of France, a great Indian Island. It has its particular King

Diana, that is to say, the Earth, or Moon. The Italians called the Goddess Diana, whose Feasts were kept like the Bacchanalia.

Rendered, Sultan of Babylon, whence he had expelled the lawful Sovereign. About the Year 1263, he besieged Acre, and proved a great Persecutor of the Christians. He ravaged Armenia, and died at Damascus in April 1277.

Benedict, (St.) the Founder of the Order from him called Benedictine, was born at Norfi in Italy, about the Year 480, and died at Mount Cassin, where he had instituted his Order in 543. As he was the first who brought the Monastick Life to be esteemed in the West for this Order, as the most ancient, as also the most

DEN

Clergy lived on the Liberalities that were given them, and were divided monthly amongst them. as it appears by the Canons of some Councils; the Oblation being made after the Gospel, which is what is still called Offertory at the Mass. 'Tis true some Vestiges of Benefices have been found from the Year 500, under Pope Symmachus, but it was not common. At that time a Clerk, who had serv'd the Church well, had sometimes a Field given him, from which he drew his Subsistence: But then it was very rare. In the Roman Church, Benefices Consistorial are great Benefices, as Bish. and other Prelatures; called Consistorial, because given by the Pope after Deliberation in the Consistory of Cardinals. This name is also given in France to the Dignities which are in the King's Gift.

Benet, the Name of several Popes Benet I. was a Roman born chosen after John III in 1214. In his time Rome being afflicted with famine, Benedict IV, also a Roman, held the See, after John IX, but only some Months of the Years 905 and 906. The said of him that in a depraved Age he governed the Church with great Probity, and had a particular Care of the Poor.

Benedict V, was Pope after John XII. But then the Church of Rome was divided by the Schism of Leo called VIII, created Pope by the Emperor Otto; who having taken Rome by famine June 23, 964, caused Benedict to be removed to Hamburg in Germany, where he died June 10, 965.

Benedict VI, a Roman, succeeded Leo II, Dec. 20, 972. But a Norse Cardinal-Diakon, by a great treachery, got him strangled in prison in 974, and himself ascended the Chair.

Benedict VII, reigned from the Year 975 to 984, and prudently governed the Church in very difficult times.

Benedict VIII succeeded Sergius IV, June 7, 1012. But the Tyranny of Antipope Gregory obliged him to retire into Germany, to beg the Successor of Henry II, who restored him to his See. The Saracens having in his time conquered part of Italy, he defeated them. He also fought the Greeks who ravaged Apulia. He governed his Church about 12 Years, and died at Rome Feb. 20, 1104.

Benedict IX, succeeded his Uncle Pope John 20, Brother to Benedict VIII, who he was but a Child. Whose Youth and Ignorance made him commit such horrible Vices, as caused him to be banished in 1043. He was set up again, but continuing his scandalous Debaucheries, he was forced to resign his Pontificate. He returned afterwards, and so ascended several times the Pontifical Throne, living still in his Debaucheries and Impiety, which he never left off till he died 1054. 'Tis said, that after his death he appeared in a vision asked why, did answer, that it was because he lived without Law or Reason.

Benedict X, Antipope, was created Cardinal by Leo IX, who gave him the Bish. of Viterbi. In 1059 he rose against Nicholas II, but upon begging his Pardon, he was permitted to live in the Church of St. Mary Maggiore, without Power of exercising any Function of Priesthood; but died soon after for Grief.

Benedict XI, the Name of whose Family was Beccafani, and said to be the Son of a Shepherd, was created Cardinal by Pope Boniface VIII, who gave him the Bish. of Osia, and employ'd him in divers important Affairs. After whose Death this Beccafani mounted the Pontifical See Oct. 22, 1303. Who soon after issued 3 Bulls, which annulled all those of Boniface against Philip the Fair K. of France, and revoked the Condemnation against the two Cardinals of Colonna, whom Boniface had persecuted for being of the Guelphian Faction: But he was poisoned 8 Months after his Election, Brutus and Spondanus lay of him, that he refused to see his Mother when she came to see him in a magnificent Garb, but that he received her with Joy before all his Court, when she came in her old Rags. This Pope composed several Works, viz. Commentaries upon Job, and almost the whole Psalter, upon the Apocalypse, and St. Matthew; part of the latter has been printed. He writ moreover De Ritibus, & Sermones in diebus solemnibus, &c.

Benedict XII, of the Cistercian Order, was a Miller's Son, Native of Savorden in the County of Avon. He was made Cardinal in 1327, chosen Pope Dec. 20, 1334, after John XXII, and crowned at Avignon, Jan. 5th following. He confirmed his Predecessors Constitutions against Lewis of Bavaria, and excommunicated the Protestants,

FIN

1531, when he had written for him. He was laured both for his Tractatus de Beneficiis, and his De Officiis Rectorum.
He was also in the Monks, and was a Peace between the Pope and Edward the Sixth. In 1540, the latter received his Proposals, he was a very successful one. Having received his Master's Letter, he died in 1541. He was a Tractatus de State of Souls after Death. Compendium upon the History of the Reformation, &c.

17. Alfred, a Barzard, educated chiefly in the Study of Civil and Canon Law. Pope Gregory XI created him Cardinal in 1376, and conferred on him the most important Affairs of the whole Death, the Coronation, and the Election of Charles VI. He induced him to Abignate, and to marry Joan VII. at Avignon, and to send her to be crowned at Rheims. A fatal rupture followed, and he was

BEN

Giles, an Aragonian, Canon of Barcelona, who took upon him the Name of Clem^t VIII. But he soon after yielded his pretended Dignity.

Bene, a Cardinal, who lived in the 11th Cen. Pope Urban II created him Cardinal, and Paschal II. sent him Legate into France. Where he assembled a Council at Paris, and excommunicated K. Philip I. for repudiating his Queen to marry Bertrada.

Beuet (Renatus) of Angiers, a Dr. of Paris, famous for his Learning, Employments, and Vertue. He was Counsellor to Hen the Great, and was named for the Bishoprick of Troy in Champagne. But the Court of Rome would never grant him his Bulls, because of his Moderation in Matters of Religion, having justified in his Bibliothèque Universelle most of the Protestants Tenets.

W. K. S. 1911. Journal of the Royal Society of Medicine, 4, 1, 1-10.

B E N

it at the Foundation of the first Pile of the Bridge. He afterwards built an Hospital, where he instituted Religious Men, named les Freres du Pont, amongst whom he retired himself. There he died in 1195, and was interred in a Chappel, which is on the third Arch of this Bridge on the side of Avignon.

Bengala, an Indian Kingdom belonging to the Great Mogul, so called from the Gulf of that Name, the greatest and most famous of Asia. This Country is wonderful fertile in Sugar, Rice, and Silks, Saltpetre, Wax, Civet, Lacca, Opium, long Pepper, &c. 'Tis the Center of the Indian Trade, extremely frequented by the Europeans, particularly the English, French, Portuguese, Hollanders, &c. who have all here the free Exercise of their Religion. For the Transport of Merchandises into the Inland Country, there have been Canals digged on both sides the Ganges about 200 Leagues, now bordered with Villages well peopled, and the adjacent Fields yielding Plenty of Wheat, Rice, Sugar, three or four sorts of Pulse, Mustard, Sesam-Seed to make Oyl, and great Numbers of small Mulberry-Trees for breeding of Silkworms.

Ben-gorion. So the Jews call their Historian Josephus.

Benguela, a City and Country of the Kingdom of Angola, in Africk. It lies upon the Ocean, and has a pretty good Port, belonging to the Hollanders.

Beni (Paul) a Learned Italian Professor in the University of Padua. Being full of Fire, and pretty prone to Critick, he pickt a Quarrel with the Academy de la Crusca of Florence, particularly upon the Subject of Tasso, whose Defence he undertook, comparing Tasso to Virgil, and Ariosto to Homer. He published also some Discourses upon the Pastor

B E N

Fido of Guarini. He writ Commentaries in Latin upon the Poetry and Rhetorick of Aristotle, upon the first Six Books of the Æneids, and the History of Salust.

Benjamin, the 12th Son of Jacob, and the 2d of Rachel. See Gen. 35, &c. Jos. 18. Judges 19, 20.

Benjamin, the Deacon, who suffered Martyrdom in Persia, about the Year 422, in the Reign of Varanes K. of Persia, a great Persecutor of Christians.

Benjamin, a famous Rabbi, Native of Tui in Spain, who lived in the XII Cen. He visited almost all the Synagogues in the World, to know their Customs and Ceremonies, and the great Men they had. We have several Editions of those his Observations.

Benigebara, a Mountain of Fesse in Africk. The Avenues whereof are so very difficult, that the Inhabitants keep their Liberty to this Day. Who find here such Plenty of all Things necessary for Life, that they may suffer a Siege of 10 Years without fear of Famine. They pay a Tribute to the K. of Fex, to have a free Trade in the Plain, where a great Market is held.

Benignus, the first Bp. of Dijon in Burgundy, where he suffered Martyrdom.

Beniguazabal, a Mountain of Fesse in Africk, containing about 100 Villages, with a populous City. From the Top whereof there arise a great many sulphureous Steams and Flames.

Benin, a City and Kingdom of Guinea, in Africk. The City is the best of all those of the Negro's, and stands upon a River of its Name, which empties it self into the Gulph of St. Thomas. The Country affords large Pepper, better than that of India.

Beni-Oriegan, a Mountain of Fesse in Africk, not far from the Mediterranean, planted with Wine and Olives,

B E N

Ben-Amon, a City of many Cedars, in the Country of Libanus, and but little known.

Ben-Benat, a City of Egypt, upon the River Nile, 20 Leagues from Cairo, in the middle of a large Country, yielding great Plenty of wheat, corn, &c. called Auxan, and many other things brought from thence to Alexandria.

Ben-Hadad, a City of Halat, in the Kingdom of Assyria. It stood on the River Euphrates, is now ruined, and the Relicks of some of its Walls still to be seen there. It was at a Place of great Antiquity in Times. Here are many Relicks with great Beauty of Architecture. Albaster.

Ben-Hur, the Founder of the Order called the Assassins, was a Persian, whose Holiness, piety, and Reputation, that he was a great Prince, and a great Warrior. He was killed by the Assassins in the City of Assass.

B E N

Ben-Hur, As he was a Scholar and a Soldier, so he proved an excellent Statesman. Thereupon soon after the Restoration, King Charles made him Principal Secretary of State, and of a Knight a Peer of the Realm, being first created Baron of Delugon (a Mannor of Wiltshire, wherein he was born) and afterwards Lord thereof. After which he was made Knight of the Garter, and Lord Chamberlain of the King's Household. He married the Lady Isabella of Nassau, the present Countess Dowager of Arlington, Daughter to Lewis of Nassau, Lord Bevermarr, Son to the illustrious Maurice Prince of Orange, and Count of Nassau. By whom he had issue one only Daughter, named Isabella, married to Hon. Fitz-Roy, the late D. of Grafton, one of King Charles's natural Sons; who became Duke of the late Duke of Cork and Waterford, and the present Duke of Devonshire. He died at London, the 10th of February 1681.

B E N

tences, and whom the Jews take to be Grandson to Jeremiah the Prophet.

Benthem, the chief Place of a small Country in the W. Parts of Westphaly, fortified with a Castle.

Bentivoglio, an Italian Town in the Territory of Bononia, on the River Reno. 'Tis also the Name of a Family, drawing its Original from Enidus K. of Sardinia, and which had a long time the Lordship of Bononia. John II, of that Name was one of the greatest Men of his Time, a wise and valiant Captain, and the trustiest Friend in the World; but was compelled through Policy, to maintain himself by cruel Maxims. He entred into a League with Pope Sixtus IV, and Hercules Duke of Ferrara, against the Venetians, beat Jerom Ritrio, and then bravely opposed Caesar Borgia, Son to Pope Alexander VI, about the Y. 1506. But Pope Julius II, being come to Bononia, drove thence John Bentivoglio, and all his Family, contrary to Promise. Who thereupon retired into Milan, where he died in 1508, almost 70 Y. of Age, and the rest of the Family settled at Ferrara.

Bentivoglio (Guy) an Italian Cardinal, born at Ferrara in 1579, and much celebrated by abundance of Authors. He was bred up in the University of Padua, where he made a wonderful Progress in Learning. He was Nuncio to the Pope in Flanders, and afterwards in France; and acquitted himself so worthily in these Employments, that Pope Paul I, made him a Cardinal in 1621. He was a Person of great Learning, Prudence and Integrity, and generally beloved. He died in 1644. The most considerable of his Works are the History of the Civil Wars of Flanders, a Relation of Flanders, Letters and Memoirs.

Bentivoglio (Francisca) Wife to Galea Mianfredi, Prince of Forli in Italy; who seeing her self despised by her Husband, suborned two Physicians; and pretending to be sick, made 'em come into his Chamber, with Arms hidden, to assassinate him. Her Husband defending himself, she stabbed him with a Poniard.

B E R

Beorgor, K. of the Alani, lived in the Vth Cen. He occasioned great Disorders amongst the Gauls and in Italy. But he was at last defeated by Ricimer, Master of the Roman Militia.

Berault (Nicholas) one of the learnedst Men of the XVth Cen. We are beholden to him for a Version of some Books of Appian.

Berbice, or Berbeic, a great River of Brasil in S. America. The Land on both sides of it is low and woody, and has Plenty both of Logwood and Cotton. The Hollanders planted a Colony here in the beginning of the last Century.

Berchin, Rector of Nielle in Guelderland, was in great Esteem in the XVth Cen. He left a Chronological Abridgement of this Province to the Y. 1466.

Berchtold, Bp. of Strasburg, was a great Souldier. He defeated the Earls of Ferrette, and their Allies; and in 1228, signalized himself near Brisac, where he got a great Victory over several German Princes. 'Twice he overcame Hen. of Thuringia, K. of the Romans; and re-took the Landgraviate of Alsace, after the Death of Hen. the last Landgrave. The very Emp. Frederick II, sought the Friendship of this valiant Prelate, who died about the Year 1244.

Berci (Hugh) a French Kt. and Poet, who writ Satyrs against the Vices of his Time in the XIIIth Cen.

Bercorius, or Berthorius (Peter) a Frenchman of Poitou; whose Learning and exemplary Virtue made him much valued by divers Princes and Scholars of the XIVth Cen. being counted the most Learned Divine of the same. He was Prior of St. Eusebe a Monastery in Paris, and died in 1162. He wrote a Cosmography, an Abridgement of the History of the Bible, a Speculum morale, and for the Knights Order, translated Le roman de la Rose.

B L R

Berberia, a great and waste Country, lying in Africa, where there is little but things of Sand, Scorpions, and Madnes.

Berberi, an ancient People of Africa, the original of Africans, who, when Africk did settle at first in the Eastern part of Europe, by spreading themselves afterwards, became Masters of a great part of Africa. So that the greatest Families of Africk draw their Original from one or other of these Tribes, as the Amudius, Zenobia, Habash, Zangians, and Gomars, all come from Arabian stock. The first part of the East Parts of the Kingdom of Morocco, and the Kingdom of Algeria about Mount Atlas. The Zenobia is the most divided nation in Africa.

B E R

them to drink no more Wine, and pluck up all their Vines, they readily obey'd him.

Berecythus, a Mountain of Pelygia, where Cybele (Mother of the Gods) was honoured, whence she got the Name of Berecythia.

Berengar-us, see Berenger.

Berenger I D. of Franks, lived in the Xth Cen. and proved an ambitious, cruel, and hasty Prince. About 893, he caused himself to be declared K. of Italy, but Gu D. of Spaine, defeated him in two pitched Battles. At Verona he surprized Lewis Son, K. of Arles or Burgundy, (called into Italy, where he drove all before him) and pulled out his Eyes. Whereupon Berenger caused himself to be crowned Emp. by Pope John IX, and afterwards by John X, in 915. The following Year having joined his Troops to those of the Pope, and Count Pandolf, they routed the Saracens, who caused then great Disturbances in Italy. The Grankens were then expelled, and of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, succeeded to Roger Pius in 1365. He was a Native of Provence, and of the ancient Family of the Berengiers of Dauphiné, issued from the Berengiers, Princes in Italy. He plundered and burnt Alexandria in Egypt, and ransacked the City of Tripoli in Syria. He died in 1373.

B E R

Berenger (Raimond) was a Prince of Aragon, and Provisor of St. John of Jerusalem. Who in 1188, instituted the Nuns of the same Order, commonly called Maltboises; whereof there are several Convents in Spain, some few in France.

Berenger, Archdeacon of Angiers, was a Native of Tours, and lived in the XIIth Cen. A Man of great Fame for his Piety and Learning, and the first who durst oppose the growing Tenet of Transubstantiation in France, Italy, and Germany. He drew to his Party Bruno B. of Angiers, with several other Prelates and famous Men; and was in so great Esteem for his Learning, that when he came to Rome, the Pope stood up, saying, He honoured his Natural Parts. His Opinion taking Root in several Churches, to prevent its further Progress, a Legate was sent into France by Pope Victor II, who held a Council at Tours, where he compelled Berenger to sign a Recantation; but he continued however in his former Sentiment. In 1059, he was cited to a Council at Rome, where he subscribed a Confession of what was then called the Orthodox Faith, and burnt John Scotus Erigena's Book, which was supposed to have made him disagree with the Council. But being at liberty, he revived the Dispute again, which lasted to the Year 1079, when Gregory VII, at another Council at Rome brought him over to his own Opinion. He died in the Y. 1091, having learnt this purer Doctrine of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, from the aforesaid John Scotus, born at Aire in Scotland, and Tutor to Charles the Bald, K. of France.

B E R

Berenice, Wife to Ptolemaeus Lagus K. of Egypt, and Mother to Ptolemaeus called Philadelphus; who being the youngest of her Children, was notwithstanding exalted to the Throne, to the Prejudice of his Brother.

Berenice, Daughter to Ptolemaeus Philadelphus and Arsinoë, espoused her Brother Ptolemaeus Evergetes, which was no Scandal among the Egyptians. She proved a Princess of great Wisdom, and Authors speak much to her Praise. Ptolemaeus being engaged in a War with the Assyrians, that her Husband might get the Victory, she vow'd her Hair to Venus; which she cut at his Return, and hung it in the Temple. And, because it was not found the next Day, Canon a Mathematician affirmed it had been carried up into Heaven, and placed among the Stars. Whereupon Callimachus composed a Poem, which Catullus translated. She was put to Death by Ptolemaeus Philopater her Son, who built her afterward a Temple, under the Name of Berenice the Gardian.

Berenice, another Daughter of Ptolemaeus Philadelphus, married to Antiochus Soter K. of Syria. Who having another Wife named Laodice, was poisoned by her; and Berenice she caused to be murdered. To revenge whose Death Ptolemaeus Evergetes immediately took the Field.

Berenice, Sister or Daughter (as some will have it) of Ptolemaeus called Auletes, or the Piper, K. of Egypt, was very much beloved of the Egyptians. Who being dissatisfied with their Prince, banished him, and submitted themselves to Berenice. She married Sybistates, of the Race of the Seleucides, and afterwards caused him to be strangled, to take Archelaus, who was afterwards killed in a Fight.

But

B L R

But P... being restored, put his Sister P... to Death.

P... a sister of Diogenes to Agrippa the son of P... (see Agrippa) K. of the Roman Empire in the first Cen. H... her Husband and Uncle being dead, she remained some time a Widow, but was suspected of keeping a secret Correspondence with her Brother. Upon which she married to P... K. of Cilicia, but such was her Lust that she soon gave him. This Poncefs was with her brother Diogenes, when St. Paul pleaded his Cause before them and the Proconsul.

R... a Daughter to Mithridates the Great of Asia. Whose Father being seized by Lucullus, she would by no means survive his Misfortune, but first took a Dose of Poison, which proving too small for her present Grief, she ordered P... her brother to fetch her more, but he refused to do so, and she died.

R... a sister of P... the son of P...

B E R

'tis but one days Journey from Milan, the Plains of which it overlooks for 20 or 30 m. Being ruined by A... the Lombards repaired it, and kept possession of it till the VIIIth Cen. when it fell under the Empire of Charlemagne and his Successors. Afterwards it became subject to several D. till Philip D. of Milan dying in 1447, it submitted to the Venetians.

Bergen, a German T. chief of the Isle of Rugen in the Baltick, towards Pomerania. It belongs to the Swedes, since the Year 1630. See Bergen.

Bergen op Zoom, a strong City of Brabant in the Low-Countries, so called from its situation, partly upon a Hill, and partly on the R. Zoom. It was erected into a Marquisate by the Emp. Charles V. which properly belongs to the Count of Nevers, Colonel-General of the light Horse of France. It is a Royal and R. town, and has a great number of Churches. It is one of the most important towns in the Netherlands.

BER

Germanus. The Merchants of Hamburg, Lubek, Dantzick, and Brunswick, have their particular Magazines here, and a publick House besides, which they call Contor, from the French Contoir: Who carry from thence great Quantity of Stock-fish, besides Skins and Furs. So that Bergien is counted the Magazine of all Norway, and is without dispute the richest of the whole K. Here the longest day in Summer is of 20 Hours, and the shortest in Winter only of 4. The English entred this Port in 1665, and fell upon the Dutch East-India Fleet; but the Wind proving contrary, gave the Dutch time to draw their Canon ashore for their Defence.

Bergien and Albion, two Giants, both Sons to Neptune; who attempting to hinder Hercules from passing the Rhine, near its Mouth, were overthrown by a Rain of Stones, which Jupiter caused to fall upon them.

Berkley, a Market T. of Glocestershire, on the E. side of the Severn. Noted for its Castle, which gave name to the Noble and ancient Family of Fitz-Harding in Henry II's Reign, descended from the Blood-Royal of the Danes. 'Twas in this Castle K. Edw. II. was barbarously murdered after his Resignation of the Crown.

Berkley, (Charles) the present E. of Berkley, descended in a collateral Line from William Lord Berkley, descended from the Mowbraies. Which Lord Berkley was in 1482 created Viscount Berkley by K. Richard III. from a Castle of that Name in Glocestershire, the chief Seat of the Family. But dying without Issue, the Title of Lord Berkley only continued in the Collateral Line; till the late K. Charles was pleased to create George the late Lord, Viscount Dursey, and E. of Berkley, in 1679, who left several Sons and Daughters.

BER

Charles, the eldest of his Sons, and now E. of Berkley, was in his Father's Life-time sent by the late K. with the Title of Envoy to the States General, and was made since one of the Lords Justices of Ireland. The Arms of this Family are Gules, a Chevron between ten Crosses pale, Argent.

Berkley, (William) a Baron of this Realm, the younger Brother of John lately deceased, is Son of Sir John Berkley of Bruton in Somersetshire, descended from the ancient Barons Berkley of Berkley-Castle. Which Sir John, for his successful Services to King Charles I. and II. was by the latter, during his Exile, created Baron Berkley of Stratten in Somersetshire, Anno 1658. After the Restoration, he was made Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, where he continued three Y. and was sent afterwards Embassador into France. Upon his Return from thence he fell sick, and died at London in 1668, leaving four Sons and a Daughter.

Berlin, a German City in the Marquisate of Brandenburg, and the usual Residence of the Elector of that Name, now K. of Prussia. A large, fair and well built T. seated on the R. Spree, which divides it into two parts, the one properly called Berlin, and the other Cohn. The Prince's Palace, divers beautiful Squares, its fine Streets, and regular Houses, contribute much to the Pleasantness of the Place. The R. makes it full of Trade, great Barks arriving there continually from Hamburg, and other Cities upon the Elbe and the Oder; a Communication being made with the Spree and those two Rivers by Canals drawn from it.

Bermudas, or Sommer Islands, a Cluster of small Islands, lying directly E. about 200 Leagues from Virginia, in N. America. They are about 400, called Bermudas from a Spaniard of that Name, who first dis-discovered them, and Sommer Islands from Sir George Somers, who being Shipwreck'd on their Coasts in 1609, was taken with their Beauty and Fruitfulness, that he did his utmost to settle a Plantation there. These Islands are so strong by Nature, being surrounded with Rocks on all sides, that none but skilful Pilots can steer Ships of any Burden into 'em. And the English have so fortify'd the Avenues by Forts and Block-houses, that they need not fear any Insult. Of whom the first Colony sent thither was under the Command of Rich. Moor, who built 8 Forts for their Defence. To whom succeeded Daniel Tucker, in 1618, who much encouraged the improving of so good a Soil, and the planting of Trees and Tobacco. The next that had the Command of these Islands was Captain Baker, who carried 500 Persons thither, and divided the Islands into Districts. Which were Peopled till about a time, that in the Year 1620 there were reckoned

B E R

B E R

Spiders of various Colours, but without any Venom, which make their Webs so strong in hot Weather, that little Birds are often caught in 'em. As for the Air, 'tis so very wholesome, temperate, and serene, that People live there to a very great Age, and are seldom troubled with any Sickness, which has occasioned many to remove from England thither. But here is great Want of fresh Water, none to be had but what is drawn out of Wells, Pits, and Cisterns. Another Inconvenience incident to this Island is, their being subject to most violent Storms, with dismal Claps of Thunder, and Flashes of Lightning.

Bernabon, Son to Stephen, and Brother to Galeas II, Lord of Milan, was a stout, but cruel Prince, and a very great Oppressor of his Subjects. He burnt two Capuchins for telling him of his Faults. But his Nephew, Don Juan, confounded so dexterously against him, and his Friends declared so opportunely for him, that he der Lewis the Young. Which not answering Expectation, his Censurers took occasion from thence to blame him. His Works were published at Paris in 1667, in Six Parts, with Notes and Observations upon the difficult Places; which Edition contains divers Treatises not to be found elsewhere.

B E R

Bernard, Count of Barcelona, and Great Chamberlain to the K. and Emp. Lewis the Meek. As he was much in Favour with Judith the Empress, even to a Suspicion that made him vain and arrogant, and created him Enemies. However he defended the Frontiers very well against the Saracens of Spain. In 831 Lewis being reconciled to his Sons, who had shewed a great Discontent upon Bernard's being so great a Favourite of Judith their Step-Mother, Bernard came to the Parliament at Thionville, to fight him that would accuse him; but none appearing, he purged himself by Oath. The next Year the Emp. being come into Limosin, deprived him of his Employments. In 844, he was condemned by the Grandees of the Kingdom, and put to Death.

Bernard (James) Guardian of the Franciscans of the Convent of Rive, at Geneva; lived in the XIIth Cen. Being resolved in 1535, to imbrace the Reformation, he caused Theses to be affixed, containing 5 Propositions against the Mass, and the Corporeal Presence in the Sacrament, and the other Superstitions in the Church of Rome, which should be in his Convent defined. To shew that he was convinced of the Truth of what he had advanced, he quitted his Monastery and habit, and married a Painters Daughter of Geneva.

Bernard the younger Son of Albent the Fair, Prince of Alania, was so much in Favour with the Emp. Frederick Barbarossa, who in the Figure of Hen. Leo, invested him with the D. of Saxony, adding to his Arms a Bundle of Ruc. He with Resolution and Zeal withstood the Designs of Hen. VI, to make the Empire Hereditary. He was a Prince of Honour and Generosity, and the Founder of the Family of Saxony, as his Second Son was of that of Hainault, and his Elder Brother Orbo of that of Brandenburgh.

B E R

Bernard of Luxenburgh, a Dominican of the XVIth Cen. Who having writ several Books, died at Cologne, 1535.

Bernard of Brussels, an eminent Painter, and esteemed by Charles V, Emp. for whom the hunting Pieces he drew are famous, as well as his Piece of the Day of Judgement, and his 16 Draughts of the Princes and Princesses of Nassau.

Bernardins, call'd also Cistercians from Robert, Abbot of Citeaux in Burgundy, their Founder; as Bernardins from St. Bernard, who had render'd their Order famous. Their Habit is white, their Rule that of St. Bennet. There are Nuns of the same Order.

Bernardinus de Sabagun, a Franciscan, of the XVIth or XVIIth Cen. and a Spaniard, who has writ a History of the American Idolaters of New Spain, and a Grammar and Dictionary of their Language.

Bernazzano, born in Milan, and an eminent Landskip Painter, whose Mastery being only brute Animals, he joined with Cesar de Sesto for human Figures.

Berne, a Can. and C. of Switzerland, on the R. Aar, in a Peninsula made by that R. a great Ditch and Bastions defending that part that is not secured by the Water. The whole C. is almost adorned with Piazzas; its ancient Church of St. Vincent, the Publick Library, and Arsenal are noble. Before the Reformation 'twas under the Bp. of Lausanne, in Spirituals, whose Place was supply'd in 1528, by a Mini-flets, 4 of the Grand Council, and 2 of the small one. The Sovereign Power is lodged in a Council of 20, dependant on which is a Council of 66, which every Day assembles to hear Causes, &c. The Heads of both Courts are called Schlichter, or Jurys, it was built by Berthold IV and V, Dukes of Zaringhen from the Year 114 to 1191. Its Arms are a Bear, as its Name signifies, the Cause of which is uncertain. They got their Liberty in after Berthold V had revolted from the Empire. Being often attacked by its Neighbours, it was delivered into its Freedom by the Emperors, &c. at last uniting with the other Cantons, it became the common Defence.

B E R

The ... is a most extensive ... being bound ... part of Ba ...

[illegible]

BER

died at Rome 1682, 82 Years old.

Bernon or Barne, a German Monk in the 11th Cen. Abbot of Reichenow, near the Lake of Constance, and Author of several Books.

Bernabé, in the IXth Cen. usurped the Crown of Merc. from Adriano, and after 3 Y. Reign, being defeated by Esteban, was slain in his flight to the Est. de San.

Bersanius (Philippus) a Native of Bologna in Italy, having been Professor of Humanity at Perma, &c. His Works show him one of the most learned in that kind of any of the XVth. Cen.

Perseus (Philip) his Son, was one of the most celebrated Poets of his Time, and Library Keeper to the Parliament.

Becardus (Franch.) Son of the former, who published several Things, but none extraordinary;

1. B is a Banach space;
 2. A is a linear operator in B with domain $D(A)$ and range $R(A)$;
 3. A is a closed operator;
 4. A is a bounded operator;
 5. A is a self-adjoint operator;
 6. A is a normal operator;
 7. A is a symmetric operator;
 8. A is a Hermitian operator;
 9. A is a unitary operator;
 10. A is an isometric operator;
 11. A is a projection operator;
 12. A is a nilpotent operator;
 13. A is an idempotent operator;
 14. A is a nilpotent operator of order n ;

BER

duced with difficulty by Julius Caesar; from the Romans it fell to the Ks. of Aquitain, and was sold to Hugh Capet for 60000 Sols of Gold, by Geoffrey fixt on his Voyage to the holy Land, and gives now the Title of Duke to one of the Royal Sons of France.

Bertha, or Bertrada, was Mother to Charlemagne, &c. dying at Choissy, 783.

Bertha, one of the most famous Princesses of the Xth Cen. for Beauty, Wit, Courage, and Address in the Management of all manner of Affairs. She first married Theobald Earl of Arles, on whose Death, she was married to Adelbert Marquis of Tuscany, whom she entirely governed, and made a League to pull down Berengarius K. of Italy, in which Dignity her Husband had established him; who being lost in the Contest, she and her Son, by him, fell into the Hands of Berengarius, and, tho' his Prisoner, would yield to none of his Demands; yet she got her Liberty, dying in 925. Having had by her first Husband, Hugh, K. of Arles and Italy; and by the second, Guido, and Lambert, and Hermingarda, a Daughter.

Berthe, or rather Bertha, a Daughter of France, and Wife to K. Ethelbert of Kent; she was a great Means of his, and in him of the Saxons Conversion to Christianity.

Bertholdus, of Rorbarch, burnt at Saire in 1359, for Heresy, having after once renouncing it, taught there that Christ doubted on the Cross of his Salvation.

Bertholdus Niger, or the Black, a German Monk and Chymist, said to invent Gunpowder and Fire Arms, first used by the Venetians, 1380, against the Genoese, in the Battle of Chioza.

Bertin or Betini (George) born in Italy, became a Physician of great Parts in the XVIth Cen. having writ several Books.

BER

Bertinoro, a C. and Bish, in Romania in Italy, under the A. of Ravenna, and subject to the Pope.

Bertius was born at Beures in Flanders, 1565, and having for 26 Y. been Humanity Professor at Leyden, and turn'd out for Arminianism, retired to France, and turning Papist died Cosmographer to Lewis XIII, leaving behind him many Books.

Bertold, was Ld of Mirebeau in Poitou, subject to the English in the time of Hen. III, being unable to hold that Fortress out against the French K. St. Lewis, without Succour, came and threw himself at the K. Feet to demand his Pleasure, as to his Conduct in the Defence of the Place; Henry sensible he could not relieve it, gave him leave to make what Terms he cou'd for himself; on which Permission coming to the French Camp, to promise Fealty to that K. boldly bid him look on him as vanquished by Force, for without his old Master's Permission he had found him in Arms, but now he wou'd continue to be his, as long as he continued to take care of him. St. Lewis received him with Joy, and gave him his Place to keep for him.

Bertram, a Dominican of the XIVth Cen. of great Reputation for Learning, left several Tracts behind him.

Bertram (Cornelius) a Learned Hebrew Professor at Geneva, whose Translation of the Bible is still used by the French Hugonots.

Bertrand (St) was of the Royal Family of the Princes of Aquitain; in the Usurpation of Thierry and Theobert, he was proscrib'd and confin'd, but upon the Success of Clothair, was again restored to his Bish. of Mons, and died in 624, 70 Y. old.

Bertrand succeeded his Father Geoffrey in the Earl. of Provence in 1063, sided with the Pope against Hen. IV, Emp. and died 1090, uncertain whether Childless or not.

B E R

Bertons, a Family of Thobuse, among many famous Persons of which, Robert Advocate of the Parliament of that City, and a great Civilian in that Court, James I. left several Bertons.

Bernardus, a brave French man, Bartholomew Maderas, in his Voyage, for settling a Colony there, and Rodericus of Commerces for the Indies, Franciscus, was the Portuguese first, and at a time of Peace, he had his Mercantiles taken, took their Indies and attacking a Church was taken the Indies, of which he died a few Days. This was in the Reign of Charles IX.

The Great Room otherwise the Great Hall of Flanders, and Empire at Constantinople, for some would have it, is but only a Name of a very ancient, that Baldwin the first, the Turks, liv'd and dwelt, and of the Emperors of Constantinople. A very ancient and famous City was Constantinople, the City of selves from Thomas Bertus, Commander of Hurst Castle in the Isle of Wight, and Montague E. of Landsey, and Ld Great Chamberlain of England.

B E R

Bertulf, K. of Mertin, of the W. Saxons, expelled his K. by the Danes, in the IXth Cen.

Bernardus (Peter) was born of an illustrious Family, derived from Champagne, and notwithstanding his Vow against all Ecclesiastick Dignities, the Pope absolving that, obliged him to accept of a Cardinal's Cap. He first introduced the Fathers of the Oratory into France.

Berwald, a Brandenburg T. beyond the R. Oder, made remarkable for the League betwixt Sweden, the German Princes, and France, in 1631.

Beryllus, Ep of Basra in Arabia, in the IIIrd Age, was convinced of the Error he had fall'n into, of the Sons having no distinct Essence from the Father, but the Idea only by Generation. Daligars were sworn to be placed among the Ecclesiastick Writers.

B E S

Picture worth seeing. 'Tis very ancient, and was the Seat of the Druids Religious Worship, from them it passed to the Romans, several Ruins of whose Buildings yet remain, particularly a Triumphal Arch to Aurelian, being ruined by the Germans, Huns, Burgundians, &c. but after all, re-built in the same Place and Form it now stands.

Beschebien (Peter) was born at Blois, 1380; his Family was of note; his Skill in Physick prefer'd him to be Physician to Q. Mary, Wife to Charles VII, K. of France; he was besides Bp. of Chartres. Physicians and Lawyers in those Days being denied Marriage.

Besly (John) was a Native of Poitou, Advocate to the K. in Fontenay, a learned Antiquary, and wrote several Books.

Bessarabia, a large Pr. of the Turkish Empire in Europe, not far from the Mouth of the Danube, its Capital C. is Budziack.

Bessarion, born at Trebizonde in Asia, in the XV Cen. was Scholar to Platino, and under so great a Master he made as great a Progress in Learning; becoming a Monk of St. Basil, he was chose Arch. of Nice, and afterwards Patriarch of Constantinople. In 1439 he signed the Doctrines of the Romish Church after a Speech at the Council of Florence, and received a Cardinal's Cap. On the Death of Paul II, he was near to be chosen Pope. His House was the Retreat of all Men of Learning. His Library, very rich in Greek Books, he gave the State of Venice. He admired Plato, and wrote several Treatises. After having been Legate to several Popes, being disgusted with his French Legation, he is thought to have died of Grief.

Bessun a T. of Auvergne only remarkable for its Neighbourhood to the Golden Mountain; whereon is a large Lake into which a Stone thrown, causes Thunder, Lightning, and Rain, &c. if my Author may be believed.

B E T

Bessus, Governour of Bactria, that was delivered by Alexander the Great to Oxathres, Brother of Darius, whom Bessus had murdered 2 Years before, in the CXII Olympiad, to be punished; and his Ears and Nose being cut off, he was put on a Cross, and shot to Death by the Soldiers.

Bessus, a Parricide that discover'd his Crime by the killing of Birds, which upbraided him with his Father's Death.

Betaw, part of the Dm. of Gulderland, and of the old Batavia, from whence it takes its Name; 'tis divided into Higher and Lower; its Capital is Nimeguen.

Bethany, a T. and Castle of Judaea, fam'd for the dwelling of Mary and Martha, and the raising Lazarus from the Dead. Also one beyond Jordan.

Bethel, a City of Samaria. Josias pull'd down the Altar of Abomination built there by Jeroboam. It signifies the House of God, and was first called Luz, being afterwards called Bethaven, or the House of Iniquity, from the Calves worshipped there.

Bethen-Court (John de) Baron of St. Martin de Gaillard, &c. the first Christian that conquered part of the Canaries, with the Commission of Henry III, K. of Castile, having mortgaged his Estate in France for the Expedition, in which he had so far Success as to possess himself of Lanceotte, with the Apellation of K. in 1401.

Bethesda, a Pool or Pond of Water near the Temple-Porch in Jerusalem, in which they washed the Sheep and Beasts they sacrificed, Famous for curing the Lame, Paralitick, &c. after its Waters were stirred by an Angel, which at particular times often happen'd.

Bethlehem, or the House of Bread, the

B E V

Basifac (John) an ill Counsellor of John D. of Berry, in his Violences and Oppressions, but for unnatural Crimes suffered Death, to the Satisfaction of those People he had abus'd.

Beilis, a C. of Turcomania, stands betwixt two Mountains, about 2 m. distant from each other; its Castle stands on the Top of a Hill like a Sugar Loaf, and is subject to the K. of that Country, independant of both Turk or Persian, and able to bring a numerous Army of Horse and Foot into the Field; both the foregoing Princes keep fair with him, the Caravans passing the Streights of his Mountainous Country betwixt Aleppo and Tauris.

Beton (David) was of one of the noblest Families of Scotland, and Son of the Baron of Balfour, being Archb. of St. Andrew's, and Cardinal; he was on the Reformation assassinated for his Zeal and Violence against the Reformers, and hung out of his own Palace Window in his Cardinals Habit.

Betuleius (Sixtus) or Birk, was born at Memmingen in Suabia, in 1500; he was a good Scholar, and Master to Xylender, and several other learned Men, and writ many Books, Prosaic and Poetical.

Beveland, an Island of Zealand, divided into N. and S. by the Tempest, that in 1532, split it in two. The C. of Goes is in this Island.

Beverley, a Borough T. of East-Riding in Yorkshire, 6 m. N. W. of Hull on the Humber. Its Priviledges were granted for its being the Retreat of John de Beverley, Archb. of York, after the Resignation of his Archb. Q. Eliz. first made it a Mayor T. It sends two Members to Parliament, which now are, Sir Charles Hotham, Bar. and William Gee, Esq;

Beutherius (Michael) was born at Carlsburg in Lower Saxony, whose Father Michael was Governour of that T. He was a great Scholar, and having passed thro' some Negotiations for the Emp. Charles V. he settled at Strasburg, and taught History and Chronology, on which, and other Subjects he wrote many things, dying 1587, 65 Y. old.

B E U

Beuvray or Beuret, the ancient Bibracte or Julia in Cesar's Time, lies in the Territory of Autun, the Winter Quarters of Cesar's Soldiers, often in Gaul, and where he summoned the Deputies of Gaul.

Beux, a Burgundian Village, famous for Covailliere, stiled the Physician of Beux, a successful Quack or Emperic, who, without applying himself to the Study of Physick, seemed by the Peoples Faith in him to be so far Master of Diseases and their Cures, that settling at Seignelay, not far from Beux, besides large Legacies, he left his Son a good Physician, 25000 l. Sterling.

Bewlan, an English Priest in the VIIth Cen. writ of the Origin of the Saxons, &c. an other, either Nephew or Son to this, that wrote various Books in the same Cen.

Bey, a Turkish Name for a Governour, K. or Viceroy of the Port Towns.

Bey-curde, Prince of Cundistan, which lies between Persia and Armenia, among the inaccessible Mountains.

Beza (Theodorus) was born at Veralai, a T. in Burgundy, 1519; his Uncle, Nicholas Beza, Counsellor of the Parliament of Paris, took care of his Education, when he was young, both at Paris, Orleans, and Bourges; who dying 1532, and having designed him for the Church, Claude Beza, Abbot of Froimont promoted his endeavour in that Way, being made Dr. of Law at 20 Y. old, at Orleans, and being grown famous for his excellent Poetry, he quitted his Priory, in 1548, and retired to Geneva, where he was chose Minister on the Death of Claudius Ponsanus. He was often deputed by Calvin, to confer with the Lutherans, who

F. I. Z.

He was his Successor, as He was at the
and presided at and in that and was look-of the Proand, Primer, and His Works are too numeand well known to parti-
He died in his 87th Y.

From the Nephew of Miser, by Miser, and his Sister, an excellent Artist in Gold, Silver, Stones, &c. and in the art of Abolish, to make the Image, &c.

Name of a Piece of originally, but as a common in Com.

Canada, famous of that Country.

B I A

Bias was born in Priens, a C. of Greece, one of the 7 Wise Men of Greece, in the XLIII Olym. He was a Poet too, and wrote a great many Verses on Love. Flying from the Siege of Priens, he carried nothing off but himself, saying, All that was his he carried about him.
To some wicked Men calling on Heaven in a Storm, he said, hold your Tongues, least ye put the Gods in mind that you are here. He dy'd in the generous Office of pleading for a Friend, and that in his Grandson's Arms.

Bible, it signifies a Book, but by way of Excellence, is attributed to the Collection of the Old and New Testament. The first Translation of it was the Septuagint, from which the old Latin, &c. The various Editions and Translations of the Bible are too numerous to be particular on. I shall only mention a part of Chronology of this subject to render better. The Septuagint is the first Translation of the Bible into Greek, and the old Latin is the first Translation of the Bible into Latin.

B I B

called the Chaldaick Bible, is only a Gloss of the Jews on the Bible, and some part of it very fabulous. The Muscovites have a Bible translated from the Greek into their own Language, as now most Christian Nations have. The Latins, among various that are Modern, have 2 Ancient, as that call'd the Italick, and that of St. Jerome, call'd the Vulgar, confirmed by the Council of Trent for vulgar Use.

Biblia or Billia, a Roman Lady, so innocent as to think all Men had stinking Breaths, because her Husband had. The same Story goes of the Wife of Hiero, and others.

Bibliander (Theodorus) a Switz Divine of great Learning in the XVth Cen. He was a Protestant, and died of the Plague at Zurich, 1564, leaving behind him several Theological Works.

Biblis, a Martyr in France in the IIIrd Cen. after having once renounced Christianity.

Biblis, Daughter of Miletus, dissolved into a Fountain, with Grief, for her Brother Cannus's refusal of her incestuous Love. *

Bibrach or Bibsch, a Suabian C. on the R. Rufs, noted for its Mineral Waters, call'd The Waters of Jordan; it was wall'd by Frederick II. its Name comes from a Beaver or Caster, a Crown'd one being its Arms, 'till a Crown'd Lion was granted them for their Services to Maximilian. It is 5 German m. N. W. of Ulm.

Bibulus (M. Calpurnius) marry'd Porcia, Daughter of Cato Uticensis, and was Consul with Julius Caesar, whose Popular Baits of the Lex Agraria, &c. were so opposed by Bibulus, that he lost the Hearts of the infatuated People, that saw no farther than the present Moment; and thro' the Procurement of Caesar, such Indignities were offer'd to him, as breaking his Lictor's Rods, &c. that he was forced to keep at home, and only act by putting up Protests against Caesar's unfair Proceedings. He had a Son of the same Name, who abridg'd the Life of Caro.

B I D

Bicon, being one of the Greek Army that was posted, by Alexander the Great, with the Colony in Bactria, made Athenodorus be murder'd at a Feast, he had invited him to for that end, on Suspicion of his usurping Regal Authority over the Colony, in which he had made great Progefs. Bicon now ready to suffer by the Mutiny of the Soldiers, was secur'd by the Officers, who appeased them; but endeavouring to return this Benefit by the Death of those that gave it, he and Boxius, a Moor, that murdered Athenodorus for him, were seiz'd, and the first kill'd on the Spot; the other being led to the Rack, thro' sudden fear of a Mutiny, was left by his Executioners, and set at Liberty on his throwing himself on the Greek Soldiers; and thus twice escaping Death, he returned to Greece.

Bicoque, a little T. of the Milaneze, only noted for the Defeat of Odet de Foix, Mareschal of France, by the Switzers, in 1522. 'Tis 3 m. from Milan.

Bidache, a little T. on the R. Bidouze, in Bearn or the Lower Navarre, noted for its Castle's baffling the Arms of the Emp. Charles V. It belongs to the Family of Grammont.

Bidassoa, a R. rising in the Pyrenean Hills about Maia, running into the Sea about Fentarabia; it divides France and Spain, especially at the Isle of Pheasants, in which the detestable Peace concluded in 1659, by Maxarine and Mendez de Haro, betwixt France and Spain, was concluded, by which Lewis XIV. married the Infanta, and made the Renunciation under solemn Oaths, which he has now violated to the Ruine of Europe.

Bider or Beder, the strongest Fortrefs of Visapour, and taken by Auren-

B I E

zeb, in his first War against Columbo.

Baderman (Janner) a Native of Germany, and a Jesuit who was Professor of Philosophy at Delingen, and Divinity at Rome, and was Author of several valuable Things.

Biel (Galrie) a learned German Divine, sufficiently known by his various Works.

Biaa or Biaa, a rich, populous, and Capital C. of the Bielese, subject to Saxony, noted for being the Place of the Death of Francis II. D. of Austria in 1658.

Bielzor, or Bielejore, a Dutchy, and its Capital C. in Muscovy, on the Lake biel Ozer. 'Tis thought so impregnable, that the Czar's Treasures are kept there, and himself in need of a safe Retreat in War, makes Choice of this C.

Bielva, a T. and Castle on the R. Oprea in Roumania, 6 m. W. of Alba, the Czar obliging himself to leave it to the Romanians.

Bielea, or Bielea, the Capital C. of the Bielea on the R. Bielea from Alba to Alba.

B I G

the R. Seine at Paris, famous for dying Scarlet.

Bigonius (Jenne) born in France, 1590; was Advocate General to the Parliament of Paris, a Man of extraordinary Learning, especially in the Civil and Municipal Laws. He has wrote several Books.

Bigorre, a Co. of Gascony, extending 10 L. from N. to S. and 5 L. from W. to E. is divided into 3 Parts, Le Rustan, the Hilly Bigorre, and the Plain Bigorre; in the Hilly Bigorre are two chief Valleys, Bazas, and Lavedan; and the Hills thereof are Barriers betwixt Spain and France. The Plain is 10 L. long, and 3 broad, and Oval in form, Le Rustan is E. of the Hills, and runs along the R. Arros; the cap. C. of this Co. is Tarbes, and 'tis bounded N. by Rivière-basse, and Armagnac, S. by the Valleys of Pentecojie, and Bretan; E. by the Vale of Aure, the R. Vernon, and Parva, &c. and W. by Bazas. After the Roman, 'twas conquered by the French in the 11th Century of the last Century, and it offered to France in 1563.

B I L

unfer, as also of a R. whose Water was excellent for hardning Iron.

Bilboa, a C. of Spain on the R. Nerwis, and the Capital of Bilcaia, about 2 L. from the Sea, rich, populous, and of great Trade, noted for good Sword Blades, stands in a fertile Country and good Air, 24 m. S. of Bayonne.

Biledalgerid, or Beledalgerid, an African Region of great length, tho' not very broad, reaching E. and W. from Egypt to the Ocean; 'tis bounded N by Barbary, and S. by the Desert of Zanra; and contains several Mahometan Kms. with Princes of a limited Power, as Susa, Dura, Tafkta, Fessen, &c. and Biledalgerid properly so called; into it Atlas thrusts several of its Arms, its cap. C. Taradante, is about 500 m. S. of Tunis, and something more S. E. of Algiers; its Soil is generally sandy and barren, and wanting Water; its People almost barbarous and poor, bear Hunger to a Wonder, and are jealous of their Wives to extremity; they live in Tents, and have a Point of Honour of not marrying a Whore.

Bilichilde, from a young beautiful Slave married to Theodbert K. of Austrasia, and having had by him 2 Sons and a Daughter, on some Fault was put to death by him in 609.

Bilant (Adam) originally a Joyner, however became a tolerable Poet, and published several indifferent Pieces.

Billi (Janes de) a very learned Abbot of the XVIth Cen. He translated several of the Greek Fathers into Latin.

Bilfon (Thomas) born at Winchester, and bred at that School, and having been Master and Warden of it, in 1596, was chose Bp. of Worcester, and thence the Y. following removed to Winchester, by Q. Eliz. besides his other Works, he had the chief Hand in the Translation of the Bible. He dy'd in 1618.

B I N

Bimini, one of the Lucay Islands of America, its Rocks and rough Sea, make its Access difficult, but being entred you find a Country pleasant enough, and from its abundance of handsom Women, said once to have a Fountain that made them always young.

Bineb, a C. of Hainault well fortify'd, in a good Air and plentiful Country, once remarkable for a fine Palace built by Mary, Sister to Charles V. Emp. 'Tis now subject to France, by the Treaty of Aix la Chapelle.

Bingen, a T. on the Rhine, at the Mouth of the R. Naue at Nabe; 'tis 4 German m. from Mayence, and was once Imperial; 'tis chiefly noted for its Neighbourhood to a Castle in an Island in the Rhine, where Hatto Archb. of Mayence, was devoured alive by Rats.

Binius (Severinus) born at Randeltraid in Juliers, Canon of the Cathedral of Cologne, and Professor and Dr. of Divinity. He published in 1606, a Faulty Edition of the Councils in IV Tomes.

Binsfeld (Peter) of Luxemburg, Grand Vicar of the Archb. of Treves, and Canon of the C. flourished in the XVIIth Cen. and was Author of many Books.

Bion, a Name common to ten Men; the first born in Scythia near the Borysthenes, in the CXXVIth Ol. from being the Disciple of Crates, he pass'd thro' the Opinions of the Cyriacks, Theodoreans, Peripateticks. He was a Man of Wit, tho' then esteemed an Atheist for his Disbelief of Polytheism; he wou'd not marry, because he said, a beautiful Wife was offensive to the Head, and an ugly one to the Heart; the 2d was contemporary with Pherecydes of Sciros; the 3d. a Syracusan Rhetorician; the 4th. being a Mathematician of Abdera, was a follower of Democritus, and first discovered, that near the Poles, the Days and Nights were of about 6 Months duration;

B I R

the 5th born at Solos, writ about Aethiopia, the 6th wrote 9 Books of Raetorick, &c. a Book under the Name of a Mule; the 7th was a Lyrick, and the 8th a Tragick Poet, the 9th a Carver of Milorum, and the 10th a Carver of Chios, or Glorious.

Berno K. of Swedeland in the time of Carolus 10th, to whom he sent for Preachers to convert his People; in 813 some went, and more in 816, with Angar first Bp. of Hamburg.

Berague (Renaud) was a Cardinal, and born at Alcan, he fled from Lewis Sforza, to France, and said he was a Chancellor without Seal, a Priest without a Benefice, and a Cardinal without a Title; he dy'd in France, 72 Y. old in 1483.

Birger succeeded his Father Magnus II, 10th K. of Swedeland, in 1282. His last Ys like Nero's, were good under the Direction of Tigra, but afterwards grew to a Tyrant and to a corrupt and Oppressor, by the Instigation of his Wife, that he

B I S

1574, and being Governor of Burgundy, he took several Places; he signaliz'd himself after in the Spanish War, but having been made D. of Biron, and Peer of France after his Return from his English Embassy, he enter'd into a Treaty with the Spaniard and Savoyard, his K's Enemies, on some Discontents, and denying it obstinately, he was condemned and executed for Treason, in 1602.

Birs, a R. rising in Alcan Jura, is noted for its vast Sea-fish, called Nale, and is useful for Navigation to Brasil.

Biscaye or Vizcaya, a Prov. of Spain, fertile and pleasant, and the Seat of the old warlike Cantabri, reduced with so much difficulty by the Romans, and no less by Don Pedro the Cruel. Bilbao is its Capital C. nor are Orduno, Laredo, &c. inconsiderable. It is bounded N. by the Sea of Biscay, S. by old Castile, E. by Guzmania, and W. by the Asturies.

Biscaye (New), a Province of New

B I T

the Maintenance of the Temple. This Km. derives its Name from Bisnagar its Capital C. built with its Castle on a Mountain, 4 m. round, and encompassed with several Walls, which are 24 m. about. The Magnificent Court of the K. is kept at Panegoude, 6 Days Journey from it.

Bisnow, a Sect of E. India Banians, whose God Ram-Ram, administers the World without any Deputy, whereas the Sect of Samerath give him several; but he has a Wife. The Wives of the Bisnows burn not themselves with their Husbands but live always Widows; they are all Merchants, and eat nothing that is kill'd.

Bissexile, see Calendar and Year.

Bisignano, a C. of the hither Calabria, and a Principality and Bpk. immediately depending on the Pope, betwixt the Sea of Tuscany and Rosjan, belong'd of old to the Brutii, and is often mentioned by Livy, &c. now not populous.

Bitetto, a C. of Naples, only remarkable for being a B. under the A. of Bari.

Bitbia, Scythian Women that are fabl'd to have 2 Apples to one Eye, and so bewitch and kill with the Sight.

Bithynia, a Province of Natolia; Bursa is now its chief C. tho' it contains Nice, Chalcedon, Heraclea, Apamea, &c. the first and second famous for its Councils; it stretches along the Pontus Euxinus, Archipelago, &c. Nicomedes IV, K. of Bithynia, and great Friend to Julius Caesar, dying without Issue, left his Country a Legacy to Rome in the 679 Y. of that C.

Bitutus, a Gallick K. who bringing a 100000 Men into the Field against Fabius Maximus, was defeated, and carried Prisoner to Rome, with his Son, A. R. 633.

Bizacene, an African Province, now in the Km. of Tunis, and a C of the same Name, and Bish. under Carthage. The Province is noted for 4 Councils held here; the 1. to recall 4 Bps. banished by Thrasimond, K. of the Vandals; the 2. about Discipline; a 3. about Clement Patriarch of the Province; and a 4. against the Monothelites, in 646.

B L A

Bizance, or rather Byzantium. See Constantinople.

Bizebani, i. e. without a Tongue, the Name of the Mutes of the Seraglio.

Bizes, Sovereign Governour of Naxos, without the Name of K. He found out the way of sawing and polishing Marble.

Blaeu, or Blaauw, or Janson (William) also Jonsonius Cesium, a Disciple of Tyche Brahe's, in the XVIIth Cen. and a great Printer of Amsterdam, fam'd for his own Writings in Geography, as much as the five Editions of other Mens. He died in 1638, Aged 67.

Blaire, or the Blaire of Arbol, a Space or Plain, without Woods, surrounded with Hills, &c. lately fam'd for the Battle betwixt Major-General Mackay, and the Ld. Dundie; the latter being kill'd on the Place, which put an end to the Efforts of the Jacobites in Scotland.

Blaise (St.) an Armenian Order of Knighthood, instituted by the Ks. of Armenia, in Honour of St. Blaise. The Knights wore blue, and a red Cross, with the Armenian Lion.

Blake (Sir Robert) being Admiral of the English Fleet, he beat the Dutch twice in 1652, near the Goodwin Sands, and under Van Trump, de Ruyter, &c. But 2 more noble Actions, and more worthy an Englishman, he did in 1655, and 1656; the first at Tunis, Algiers, and Tripoly, burning the Turkish Ships, beating their Men, and setting free all English Slaves; and the Y. following fighting the Spaniard in the Bay of Cadiz, and taking two of their Plate Fleet, for which he was presented sented with a Diamond, as earnest of a greater Reward, which his Death, in 1657, prevented.

B L A

Balian (1610) a Jesuit of Bologna, eminent for Mathematical, as well as other Learning; he dy'd at Parma, 1624, and left many Books.

Blanch, Daughter of Eleanor of England, and John IX, K. of Castile. Wife of Louis the Lion, K. of France, and Crown'd with him at Rheims in 1123; her Wisdom and Piety oblig'd the K. on his Death to leave her Regent of the Realm, during his Son Louis's Minority; she bore him 9 Sons and 2 Daughters, of whom St. Louis the Eldest she Educated with great Care and Piety, and overcame the Factions made against her Government, both now, and when left Regent by her Son. She dy'd at Paris in 1252.

Blanche, Wife to Charles IV, of France, was Daughter to Otho IV, Earl of Burgundy, who, with her Sister she married Philip the Fair, Brother of Charles IV, and found

B L A

Abbey, not far from Shrotonbury in Devonshire, was admitted of Christ Church in Oxford, 1635; and being then admitted of Wadham, was elected Fellow in 1644; on the Restoration he was made Dr. of Divinity, and Warden of Wadham, Prebendary of Gloucester, and one of the K's. Chaplains. In 1660, he was consecrated Bp. of Oxford, and having been made Dean of the Royal Chappel, in 1671, he was translated to the See of Worcester, where he dy'd in 1675.

Blond (George) born in Piedmont, or Saluzzo, was Physician in the XVIIth Cen. to Sigismund K. of Poland, whom he is said to have infected with his refin'd Arrianism, having made his Escape from the Italian Inquisition.

Blanka, an Island in the Bay of Mexico, 6 German L. in compass, part woody, part Champagne noted for great abundance of Game, its only Inhabitants are hunters which come and sell skins to it, as the Dutch do for Salt.

B O E

Bochart de Protestant Acadeturn from been invi-of Sweden;
was speak-
left a conghter, and

a) a Native
Cen. and a d of whose

was born in th Cen. and cian, Histo-Or he had thhood, and d, Astrologi-ks.

sch T. on the ttle in 1672,
the Dutch.

was born at
, and thence rom being a n of Wirtem-Follower of Anabaptist;
lent to burn
to themselves
y only their th Eckius a-
the Ment of ing expelled
Sec as

Native
the edge

Beza, and Philibertus Saracenus; returning with his Father and Religion in the first of Q. Elizabeth, he studied at Oxford; in 1565 he held a Greek Lecture at Merton Col- ledge, where after he had been Proctor, he travelled to learn the Modern Languages: On his Return, having pass'd thro' several Honourable Embassies, he retired to Oxford, and refusing to come any more to Court, he applied himself entirely to forming the Bodleian Library, known to all the learned World.

Bodmin, a Borough T. on the R.
Alan, in Cornwal; it was once a Bish.
and now sends a Burgessees to Parliament, which now are, the Rt Hon.
John How, Esq; John Hoblyn, Esq;

Boedromia, Athenian Festivals, celebrated either in Honour of These- us, on his Victory over the Amazons; or of Ion, the Son of Xuthus, who succour'd the Athenians in their War against Eumolpus, Neptune's Son.

Bochmond, Son to Robert Guiscard of Apulia; he was first Prince of To- rentum, but taking Antioch in the Expedition to the Holy Land, it was given to him as his Share, with the Title or Prince of Antioch, which he maintained against both Infidels and Greeks; he married Constantia, Philip the First's Daughter by Ber- tha of Holland; and dy'd, 1111, and was buried in Apulia.

Beotia, see Beotia.

Boethius (Hector) a Scot, and Historian of that Country of dubious Fame, as for the Veracity of his Story; he is defended by Dampster, against the severe Reflections of Lloyd.

Boetius (Anicius, Mantius, Torqua- n, Securinus) lived in the latter of the Vth Cen. and the begining of the VIth; descended of an ancient Family of the Anicii, and Torquati, and was consul in 410, and having been of Minio
let to Theodoric, Orde, H h on

B L O

ing he wou'd him go on; thus discovering where he was, he returned into England, and by acquainting the Barons, procured his Liberty

Blondus (Clarus) was born at Tor in Romania, in the XVth Cen. tho' he was Secretary to Pope Eugenius IV. he was too much a Philosopher to gather any Riches, but Fame by his Histories which were extraordinary, allowing for the barbarisms of Language, that Age was not quite purg'd of. He died at Rom. 75 Y. old, in 1463, and left 5 learned Sons

Blount, anciently le Blound, a Family considerable in the Days of H. 1. the first Robert le Blound and William le Blound his Brother, being both General Officers under that Prince; the 1st hath being Lord of Guines in Normandy. Hence the present Sir Water Blount and the late famous Sir Henry Blount, the present Sir Thomas Blount &c. derive themselves, a Family eminent in Great and useful Arts, Learning and his Studies, as wou'd make him his Preferment to them: but his typical Wit did his Business, as was with Applause received by Italian Academy in the XVth Cen. He published his Ragguagli di Uass, and several Pieces subscribed to it, till he was forced to fly Venice for fear of the Spaniards, who Usurpations on the Liberties of he had reflected on in his Pier Paragone: but was murder'd in C while he was on his Politick courses on Tacitus, by 4 Men Sand Bags, bearing him in his till he was left Speechless, on Chamber-Fellow's Return; but Murderers cou'd ne'er be found

B O C

Beccarts, a Law-giver, and Egypt, of an uncertain Age, made distinct Laws of the Primitive, and the Bounds of private Rights

Bey, K. of Moscovia, and Daughter Tugart, K. of Armenia, on which I've been but lately the Turkish War of the noble Family of Bochart de Champigny; he was a Protestant Minister of Cæn, of which Academy he was, after his Return from Sackheim, whither he had been invited by Christina, Queen of Sweden; and died suddenly as he was speaking in the Academy. He left a considerable Estate to his Daughter, and wit many learned Books.

B O E

Bochius, or Betqui (John) a Native of Brussels, in the XVIth Cen. and a good Latin Poet, several of whose Tracts are printed.

Boesmer, or Buener, was born in Somershire, in the XVth Cen. and was an eminent Physician, Historian, Mathematician, &c. he had the Honour of Knighthood, and wrote several Historical, Astrological, and Medicinal Books.

Boegrave, a small Dutch T. on the Rhine, famous for the Battle in 1672, between the French and the Dutch.

Boesstein (Andrew) was born at Carlostade in Franconia, and thence call'd Carlostadius; from being a Canon and Archdeacon of Wirttemberg, he became first a Follower of Luther, and lastly an Anabaptist; he perswaded the Students to burn all their Books, betake themselves to Trades, and study only their Bibles; he disputed with Eckius about Free Will, and the Merit of Good Works, and being expelled Basel, Strasburg, Switzerland, &c. as a Mutineer, he died 1541.

Bodin (John) a Lawyer and Native of Angiers, of great Fame in the XVIth Cen. of perfect Knowledge in History; his Application to Learning, made him poor in all things but Reputation; he dy'd in 1585, leaving several Treatises behind him.

Bodley (Sir Thomas) was born in the C. of Exeter, in 1544, being in Exile with his Father in the Reign of Q. Mary, he studied at Geneva, under Chevallierius, Bernaldus, Calvin,

B O E

Beza, and Philibertus Saracenus; returning with his Father and Religion in the first of Q. Elizabeth, he studied at Oxford; in 1565 he held a Greek Lecture at Merton College, where after he had been Proctor, he travelled to learn the Modern Languages: On his Return, having pass'd thro' several Honorable Embassies, he retired to Oxford, and refusing to come any more to Court, he applied himself entirely to forming the Bodleian Library, known to all the learned World.

Bodmin, a Borough T. on the R. Alan, in Cornwal; it was once a Bish. and now sends 2 Burgesses to Parliament, which now are, the Rt. Hon. John How, Esq; John Hoblyn, Esq;

Boedromia, Athenian Festivals, celebrated either in Honour of Theseus, on his Victory over the Amazons; or of Ion, the Son of Xuthus, who succour'd the Athenians in their War against Eumolpus, Neptune's Son.

Boemond, Son to Robert Guiscard of Apulia; he was first Prince of Tarentum, but taking Antioch in the Expedition to the Holy Land, it was given to him as his Share, with the Title or Prince of Antioch, which he maintained against both Infidels and Greeks; he married Constantia, Philip the First's Daughter by Bertha of Holland; and dy'd, 1111, and was buried in Apulia.

Bæotia, see Beotia.

Boethius (Hector) a Scot, and Historian of that Country of dubious Fame, as for the Veracity of his Story; he is defended by Dempster, against the severe Reflections of Lloyd.

Boetius (Anicius, Manlius, Torquatus, Severinus) lived in the latter end of the Vth Cen. and the beginning of the VIth; descended of the ancient Family of the Anicii, and Torquati, and was Consul in 510; and having been chief Minister to Theodorick, K. of the Goths,

BOG

On Suspicion of holding Correspondence with the Emp. Justin, he and his Father-in-law, Symmachus, were first imprisoned, and then beheaded at Pavia. He wrote several Pieces, some of which are extant in Print.

Bog, an Egyptian Mountain, noted for being (with the parts adjacent) the Habitation of some Vagabond Christian Greeks, that made sudden Introads as far as Nubia.

Bogislaus or Boguslaus, the Brother of Udo, and youngest Son of Mistislaus, K of the Tatars, from whence the Princes of Meckelburgh derive themselves. Being taken Prisoner by Bela, K of Hungary, he turned Christian, which Religion he had a mortal Aversion to, on his Return to Idolatry, as he did as soon as he had got his Liberty. Having 4 Sons he divided Pomerania betwixt them, Pomerania on this side the Oder, he left Weslaus, and Ratibor, and Pomerania on the other side to Weslaus, and Bogislaus.

Bogislaus I. the Brother dying in

BOG

Daughter, who married her Cousin Eric II, in 1523.

Bogislaus X the Great, succeeding his Father Eric II, tho' his youngest Son, was Duke of the whole Pomerania. His Wars with the Elector of Brandenburg concluded in marrying his Daughter, and returning from a fatiguing Expedition to Palestine, he found an Alteration of Religion in his Country, by the Doctrine of Luther; he dy'd, 1523, and left 2 Sons.

Bogislaus XIV, the last of the Family, was obliged to admit Imperial Troops in his Country in 1627, which were driven out by the Swedes in 1630. Bogislaus dying without Children, and his Sister Anne, Dutchess of Croy, dying 1660, the Swedes and Brandenburgers divided the Country betwixt them.

Bogoris, K. of Bulgaria, who on the Death of Theophilus, Emp of Constantinople, broke the League made with the Empire, hoping the Government of Theodoro was too weak to punish his Breach of Treaty; but

Bolivia its Name, as 'tis said, from the Boli, a Gallick People settled there in the 164 Y. of Rome; it abounds with Hills and Woods, yet is fertile and pleasant; 'twas divided into 12 Provinces by the Emp. Charles IV. erecting Prague into an A. whose A. are to Crown the Ks. 'Tis said, that in the VIth or VIIth Cen. it being almost hid in Woods, a numerous People were conducted into it by 3 Brothers, Lach, and Catchew, who cultivated the Ground, and made it inhabitable, after whose Death, the Divisions that hapned for want of Government, made them choose Crocut, a young Man, their Prince; who having made them Laws, dy'd, and left 3 Daughters, Bala, Ticha, and Libassa; the last married, by the Instance of the People, Bratuslaw, 49 Y. of Age, whose Prudence and Wisdom gave him a happy Reign from 631 to 676, and left the Km. to his Son. In 808, Charlemagne fortify'd Dresden against their incursions, and his Son brought them to be Tributary to the Empire. In 862, Lewis K. of the Romans, warring on them, made 12 of their Leaders or Dukes Christians; the whole Km. being converted by the means of their D. Berzoni, who united Moravia to it. In 954 Bolivia was made Tributary and Vassal to the Empire; and in 1200, their K. was made an Elector by Otte IV, Emp. which was confirmed by the Palla Aurea of Charles IV, in 1356; 'tis the first secular Elector, and gives his Vote after the Elector of Cologne, assisting at no Electoral Diet, but when an Emp. is chose. It was once a Fief of the Empire, and given by the Emp. on a Vacancy like other Imperial Fiefs; they a n'd the Title of K. in 1086, but before the P. — — — — — it's Ks. Gre — — — — — Emp. Here

Bohemia; first by the Waldenses, who spread their Doctrine much here, which was still confirm'd by John Huss, and Jerome of Prague, from 1230 to 1414, when their K. was made a Convert to Huss. In 1467, there were above 200 Congregations, who suffered great Persecutions in 1500; in 1536, the Remains of them united with the Lutherans; but that Cause was entirely broke at the Battle of Prague, in 1620, where the Emp. gaining Victory over the Elector Palatine, the Protestant Religion was forbid all publick Exercise. The History of these Bohemian Protestants may be read in Johannes à Lasey, and Augustin Comenius.

Babur, an ancient Family, was akin to, and came in with William the First.

Babusa Kellen, a Lord of Bohemia, who in 1480, sent People to enquire about the World for a pure and uncorrupted Church; who on their Return, declared that none but the Waldenses were so.

Bejaux, the Name of three Gaulish People; the 1st. in Italy, where Parma and Modena now is; the 2^d. in Beveria, call'd also Bejaures; the 3^d. in the Celtic Gaul, now Auvergne, and Beaumont.

Bejaures, are Lords of the Czar of Moscow's Court, who administer Justice, trying Causes, and are Ministers of State, and cannot leave Moscow, but in attending the Czar; there are 30 of them who live in Magnificent Palaces, and when they ride out on Horse-back, they beat their Whips against a sort of little Kettle-drums, to give the People Notice to make way for them. Their Daily Court paid to the Czar, is at his Levy, to clap their Hands on their Foreheads, in Token of their Loyalty; the Word signifies Lord, and is given to some Noblemen of Transylvania, of the Family of the Vai-

B O I

Bord, a Scotch Family of great Power in the Minority of K. James III, of Scotland, in 2 Brothers, Robert, and Alexander, Robert being made Regent, and his Son Thomas married to the K's Sister; but Thomas being gone to bring over the new Queen from Denmark, the Enemies of this House, the Kennedys, found Means to ruin them, so Alexander was beheaded, and Robert fled to England, and Thomas being divorc'd, and declar'd a Rebel, dy'd at Am-woep, and was honourably buried by the Duke of Burgundy. Of this Name are the present Earls of Kilmarnock.

Bilau, without Controversy, the greatest Poet, and Master of the French Language, that Nation ever saw, there being a Force in his Verse above the Language of that Tongue, and this above all the other Writers of the Language. He was of the Academy of Paris.

Bizet (his Brother Gau) was a Counsellor of the Parliament of Paris.

B O I

Bois-de-Trousson, or Bois-de-Gaillon, a Forest that runs along the Seine, betwixt Pontoise and Paris; the latter Name is derived from the famous Gaillon, in the time of Charlemagne, against whose Leaders he made here several Ambuscades.

Bois-le-Duc, Belduc, or Bois-le-Duc, a C. of Brabant, on the Confluence of the Dommel and Ais, in a fair plain, once a Wood, cut down by Hen D of Brabant, and this C. founded in its room in 1171, which was finished by D. Godfrey in 1184; is now large, fair, and well peopled with Trading Soldiers, for they are called Warlike Merchants; it has one of the noblest Cathedrals of the Netherlands; 'tis by its Situation among Rivers naturally strong, to which Art has not been wanting. The Dutch have been Masters of it e'er since 1619, when Frederick Henry Prince of Orange took it for the States, 'tis now in Stet Amsterdam.

Bois-Odet, a Frenchman, adopted by Cardinal Deshayes Orleans, into the Order of St. Michael.

B O L

married Agath-Kan's, Daughter, who drew the most powerful of the Noblemen to second his Design, conveying Chaghas to Agra as dead, and there saluting him K. Delah fled to Persia, where that K. allow'd him an honourable Pension.

Bolshaus I., the Cruel, K. of Bohemia, usurped the Throne of his Brother Wenceslaus, whom he murder'd in 929. The Emp. Ordo, in vain, endeavour'd, by 14 Ys. War, to punish, and dethrone him, tho' he compell'd him to Peace, a certain Tribute, Penance for his Fratricide, and to re-call the exil'd Christians. He dy'd in 967, being 68 Years old.

Bolshaus II., the pious, being youngest Son to Bolshaus I., defeated the Emp. Ordo II. made Incursions as far as Poland. After Peace with Ordo III., he sent for Ditmar of Saxony, and made him Bp. and died in 999.

Bolshaus III., the Covetous, succeeded his Father Bolshaus II., lost all he had conquered, was dethroned, had his Eyes put out, and imploring Aid, in vain, from the Sclavonians, &c. he died miserably in 1037, 80 Ys. of Age.

Bolshaus I., K. of Poland, still'd Crobus, succeeded his Father Micshaus II. in the Dukedom of Poland, whose Country being acquitted from all Dependence of the Empire, and he Crown'd K. by Pope Sylvester II. he spread his Conquests, and was a great Benefactor to the Church; he dy'd in the Xth Cen.

Bolshaus II., the Bold and Cruel, was born in 1043, and chose K. of Poland after his Father Casimir I. 1058, set out with Virtue and Courage, restoring deposed Princes to their Thrones, and Triumphed over the Russians, and Bohemians; but suddenly started from his brave Course of Honour, to the Extremity of Effeminacy, in his Russian Winter Quarters; which he continued on his Return hance to Rapes, Adulteries, &c. and had Stanislaus, Bp. of Cracow, murder'd at the Altar, for reprehending him. In 1079 being excommunicated by the Pope, hated by his People, and cursed by all Men, he left his Km. with his Son Mieszko, and retir'd in 1081, to a Monastery near Bypruck, and there died incognito; or, as others say, kill'd himself in despair, a hunting.

B O L

Bolshaus III., call'd Lobintors, being born in 1085, and succeeding Ladislaws II. his Bravery and Virtue recover'd that Glory his Uncle Bolshaus II. had lost to the Family; the Bohemians felt his Prowess as well as the Emp. Hen. V. who suing for Peace, Bolshaus married Alice, that Emperor's Sister, and his Son Ladislaws, his youngest Daughter Constance. He often vanquished and forgave his Bastard Brother, and put him not to Death, 'till forced by his Subjects, for his many repeated Treasons; and dy'd full of Honour and Glory, in 1139, after 37 Years Reign.

Bolshaus IV., younger Son to the former, on his Brother Ladislaws's Banishment, was chose K. of Poland, who gave his Brother Silesia, reduc'd the Prussians, and made them receive the Gospel; and having reigned 27 Years, dy'd in 1173.

Bolshaus V., called the Chaff, from a neglect of the Matrimonial Duty to his Wife Constance, Daughter of Bela IV. K. of Hungary; in his Reign of 51 Years, he suffered various Turns of Fortune, being first seiz'd, yet a Minor, by his Uncle, Duke of Mazovia; rescued from him by Hen. Duke of Breslaw, who administred the Government for him, as his Son Henry the Pious did after his Death; who being slain by the Tartars, Bolshaus retiring to his Father-in-law, was recall'd by his Subjects, weary of their Divisions about the Government, and beat the Tartars back, as his General the Palatine of Croatia did in 1250; he died in 1279.

B O L

Belgicus or Belgius, Son of Cerethrinus, and Prince of Galatia, warring on the Macedonians, he killed their K. Prolemus Ceraunus in Battle.

Bell (John) was born at Malines in the Low-Countries, and was an eminent Painter for Miniature and Landscapes, he drew Tapistry for the Arras Workers of Brussels, and dy'd in 1493

Bollandus (John), born at Tillemont in the Netherlands: A Jesuit of Reputation for his great Learning; he began to write the Lives of the Saints, which after the publishing 5 Volumes for two Months only, he dy'd in 1665, and Rapine writ an Elegy on him.

Boltsburn a Lake in Westphalia, remarkable for its overflowing twice every day, with a great Noise, and then retiring within its Bed

Bologne or Bohonia, a C. Port, and Bish of Picardy, suffragan to Reims, the Latin Portus of Caen, on the

B O M

Shor of the Civil-Law of Bohemia, in the XVth Cen. as his Writings may testify

Bolsec (Jerome Hermes) a Parisian by birth, and by Profession a Physician, lived in the XVth Cen. and won by the Friendship of Calvin, he for some time followed him to Geneva, and his Opinions, which on his Return to France he left for his former of the Church of Rome. In 1577 he wrote Calvin's Life, and 5 Years after published Beza's, which with other Pieces, shew his Merit of the Republick of Letters.

Boljena, a T. in the Patrimony of the Church, once subject to the Tuscan State, and a Bish. now only remarkable for giving Name to a Lake, in one of the Islands of which, Amalaxantha Q. of the Goths, was ingratfully put to death by Theodatus

Bolton, a Market T. of Derbyshire, remarkable for its glaz'd Pipes, and an old Castle supposed to be built by the Danes

B O M

Bomberg (Daniel) a Native of Antwerp, and an eminent Printer, who settling at Venice, has made himself known to Jews and Christians by his fine Editions of both the Hebrew Bible, Talmud, &c.

Bombini (Paul), a Native of Calabria, a good Orator, Philosopher, and Divine, in the XVIIth Cen. He abridg'd the Spanish History in 1634.

Bomilcar, an Assassine, that at Jugurtha's Instigation murder'd Massiva, and designing the same against Jugurtha, being discover'd he was put to death.

Bomilcar, a Carthaginian General, that struck with Terror at the Success and Actions of Agathocles, designed to deliver up Carthage to him, but his Treachery and Pusillanimity being discovered, he was hang'd in the Market-place of Carthage.

Bommel, a strong Fortrefs of Guelderland that names the Isle Bommel, which the waters of the Rs. Vahel and Meuse surround. 'Twas wall'd in 1229 by Osbe VII Count of Guelderland, and dismantled by the French in 1672, when they abandoned it.

Bomonicks, from Βῶμος an Altar: Youths that were voluntarily scourg'd at the Altar of Diana in Lacedaemon.

Bona, born in Piedmont, was a Man of no less Devotion than Learning, and having been made Cardinal by Clement IX, if the Desire of the People had prevailed, had succeeded him in the Papacy; but his Goodness that recommended him to them, was what the Electors thought the most unfit for that Post; having writ many Books he died in 1674.

Bona Dea, both a Greek and Roman Goddess; In Greece she was supposed one of the Nurses of Bacchus, and not to be named; in Rome, the Wife of Favrus K. of Italy, and chief of the Dryades. No Man was admitted to her Rites, which were performed by the Women, in token of her

B O N

Chastity; but P. Clodius came into Caesar's House, then Pontifex Maximus, in Women's Cloaths, to debauch his Wife Matia; nor was any Myrtle about her Altar, either because consecrated to Venus, or because she having been beat to death by Myrtle Twigs, her repenting Husband erected her an Altar, in which the use of Myrtle was forbid.

Bona Sforza, Daughter of John Galeas Sforza D. of Milan, and Wife to Sigismund L. K. of Poland, was a Lady of a high Spirit, but so good a Wife, that after 30 Y. marriage, she stay'd perpetually by her Husband in his long and languishing Illness, having had by him 1 Son and 4 Daughters; Sigismund II, her Son, succeeded his Father, but had many Disagreements with Q. Bona; his marrying Barbara Radziwill, Widow to a Polish Lord, was the first, as below him, which ceasing on Barbara's sudden Death, reviv'd again to extremity on Sigismund's Reply, that she was less derogatory to his Family, than Pappacoda, a Neapolitan whom she had privately married; which Breach was fomended by Charles V, to hinder the Succour Isabella of Hungary might hope from their Agreement; he therefore invited her to leave Poland, which she did, under pretence of going to her Lands in Apulia. She died at Venice in 1558, being, as some say, reconcil'd to her Son before her death.

Bona, a poor Girl of the Valteline in Lombardy, who feeding her Sheep, as Peter Brumero of Parma lead his Army, was seen and lik'd by him, and carried to the Wars in Man's Clothes; her Valour and Spirit won him much, but her Love and Zeal for his Liberty won him more; for after an Experience of the first in many Battles, both under Alphonfus K. of Naples against Francis Sforza, and under Sforza against Alphonfus, being born, led up in Prison on the Discovery of a Design of returning to the Service of Sforza, Bona sold himself to the chief Princes and States of Europe, got Letters from all of them to Alphonso for his Liberty, which he durst not longer deny, so great Princes having interested themselves in the matter: And now at Liberty in Venice, she perswaded the Senate to make Bruno a Commander of their Forces against Sforza, with a Pension of 20000 Ducats, this made Bruno marry her at Venice, who experiencing their Conduct and Courage at the taking of the Castle of Pavona, sent them to the Ngropont, which the Turk durst not attack while he lived, but he dying there, she returning to Venice, died in the Mores in 1466, having two Children.

by

B O N

Bonicola (Lawyer) a Physician of Ferrara, as in is celebrated by other Authors, is commended by his own Works.

Bonaventura (Frederick) a Native of

B O N

led him to the General of his Order. The Cardinals not agreeing 3 Years, they agreed to chose whom ever he should name, and having named Thibault call'd Gregory X. he in return made him a Cardinal, and Bishop of Alba, and he died at Lyon, having sat in the first Session of that Council in 1274, leaving 8 Tomes of his Works behind him.

Bonaventura (Frederick) a Native of Urban in the XVth Cen. a great Favourite of that Duke, and a great Master of Greek, and Philosophy. He writ many Books.

Boncsari (Mark Anthony) a learned Author of the XVII Cen. born at Perugia in Italy.

Bonconvento, a little C. near Sienna in Italy, only noted for the place where Hen VII Emp. was poison'd.

Bonux, a Village on the R. Eura in Normandy famous for a Narrative publish'd by the Intendant of the Pr. attested by Oathes of Reputation.

B O N

Charles V. Emp. in 1535, and demolished; and has since been peopled and fortified by the Turks.

Bonifinus (Anthony) born in Ascoli in the XVth Cen. at the Persuasion of Matthias Cervinus K. of Hungary, his great Friend, he wrote the History of that Nation in 45 Books, besides several other Works.

Bogomiles, or rather Bogomiles, Heretical Followers of Bogomilus a Monk, Despisers of Mysteries, and the Eucharist, us'd only the Lord's Prayer, deny'd the Resurrection, and put all in Repentance and a good Life. The Council of Constantinople condemned them in the XIIth Cen.

Boni, a small French T. on the R. Loire in Paisie, only remarkable for an important and much contended Pass near it, taken and retaken by the Protestants, Papists, Leaguers, and Royalists, by which this Town suffer'd much. 'Tis 30 m. N. E. of Bourges.

Boniface I, a Roman born, was chose Pope in 418, against whom an Antipope was set up, and for a time confirmed by Honorius; but afterwards Boniface in a Council of Bishops at Ravenna, carried the Papacy; he sent the Pelagian Letters to St. Augustin, which he answered; he ordain'd that no Woman should touch the Incense, &c. nor that any Slave or Debtor should receive Holy Orders, and dy'd in 423.

Boniface II, born in Rome, and elected Pope in 530, tho' not without an Antipope, who died soon after; these Disturbances in Elections made him endeavour the choice of a Successor before his Death, but owning his Error in the Novelty, he died in 532. He decreed that the Election of a Pope shou'd not exceed three Days; and that the Clergy should be separated from the Laity at Mass.

Boniface III, born also at Rome, and being elected Pope, in his short Reign of 10 Months obtained of Pho-

B O N

cas, that the Pope only should have the Title of Universal B. he made Decrees against Simoniackal Bribes to come at the Papacy, or any B.

Boniface IV born at Valeria a City in the Dm. of Marsi, was Successor in the Papacy to Boniface III, after 10 Months Vacancy in 607; he first consecrated the Pantheon into a Christian Church; sat above 6 Y. and died in 614.

Boniface V, was born at Naples, and chosen Pope in 617; he died in 625. Two or three of his Decretal Epistles are still extant.

Boniface VI, was regularly and canonically chosen in 896, tho' expell'd in 15 Days.

Boniface VII set up as Antipope in the VIIth Cen. strangled Pope Benedict VI in 914; but being banished on the regular Choice of Benedict VII, he bore with him the Treachery of St. Peter's Church to Constantinople, whence on Benedict's Death returning, he got again into the Chair for 4 Months, and having put John XIV to death, he died soon after himself suddenly, and was dragged naked round the Streets.

Boniface VIII, his Name before was Benedict Cajetan. He had a liberal Education in the Sciences, and gave himself to the study of the Civil and Canon Law with that success, that he was made Doctor of it extremely young, and by Assurance and Address having got Interest in the Roman Court, he was made Prothonotary, and Consistorial Advocate; and next, Canon of Lyons, and by Pope Martin II Cardinal. Having been Nicholas III's Legate in France, he persuaded Pope Calixtus to quit the Papacy to save his Soul; he was chose in his room, and assum'd the Name of Boniface VIII. To carry on the Usurpations of that See, he would have engag'd the Christian Princes in a new Crusade; which unable to effect, he fell out with Philip the Fair of France, whom he treated without the least Insolence, pretending to dispose of all Benefices of France, and even of the Crown too, if opposed by the Disobedience of the Prince; denying to come to a Council at Lyons, he was taken by a French General and forced to Rome, where he dy'd of a Lething Fever, knowing the Fleth of his Hands. There are several Writings attributed to him, by his Order there was a Collection of Decretals made; his Bull of Excommunication against France, &c. was condemned to be burn'd by the Parliament of Paris.

B O N

Boniface IX. a Native of Naples, of a noble, tho' extremely decay'd Family, his own Name being Peter Thomatella, he was made Cardinal in 1381, and Pope in 1389; the Armenian Cardinals chose, successively, 2 Popes against him, who made his Intrigues vain, so that he was obliged to keep himself out of the Papal Throne; he dy'd at Aquila July 11, 1404.

B O N

Colleague Cassius, in Spain) so as to be able to defend himself by the help of Gensericus, but having made Peace with the Emp Valentinian III. he was driven out of Africa by the Vandals, and being wounded in a Fight against Ætius, he dy'd in 434. He had been intimate with St. Austin, who having dissuaded him from turning Ecclesiastick, Boniface married an Arrian; was excommunicated and reproved by St. Austin, and repented.

Boniface (St.) was a Native of England, and by Name Wilsfrids or Winfrids: after having 13 Y. preach'd the Gospel in Lower Friesland, under Willsbrod Bp. of Utrecht, he went to Rome to visit the Sepulchres of the two Apostles Peter and Paul; whence being sent Legate by Pope Gregory II. he again fixt the Christian Faith in Hesse; having been chose Bp. of Utrecht, by the Council of Utrecht he was confirm'd the A of that C. which he resign'd on the Death of Willsbrod, to be Ep. of Utrecht.

B O N

of the Electors, whose Castle and Gardens are curious, the Town-House, and the Paintings, with the Cathedral of Sts. Cassius, Florentinus, and Malusius, are the chief Ornaments of this poor C. it has not been very strong, being defended but by ill Walls, and a dry but broad Ditch; yet it cost the French both Time and Men to take it for the Cardinal of Furstemburg, and afterwards by the Elector of Brandenburgh; but is now, with most of that Electorate, put into the Hands of the French, by a Policy peculiar to the House of Bavaria; it is the Ara Ubiorum, and Colonia Julia Bona of the Antients. In 1314, Frederick of Austria, was here Crown'd Emp. it being then a free Imperial City.

Bonne-courcy (John of) a Cordelier of the XVIth Cen. who writing that the Pope was above the K. in Temporals, after a Censure of the Parliament of Paris, and a publick Recantation, in a party colour'd Coat, and with a Flambeau of various Colours in his Hand, he was banish'd France upon Pain of Death.

Bonnefoy (Ennemond) or Bonefidius, was born in Dauphiné, and in 1572 was Divinity Professor of Valentia; and he was a Lawyer of the first Degree, who being as well as Joseph Scaliger, design'd for the Massacre, he fled to Geneva, nor wou'd ever think of returning to France.

Bonner (Edmund) a Bastard of two Descents, he being Bastard of George Savage, a Priest, and he of Sir George Savage, Knight of the Garter in Hen. the VIIth's Time; having past his Degrees at Oxford, in Civil and Canon Law, he being now one of the K's Chaplains, was for all the Measures of Hen. VIII, for the Lutherans, the Divorce, &c. and having pass'd several Embassies, in one of them, he was chose Bp. of Hereford, and then of London; on the Death of Hen. VIII, he in a little time de-clin'd his first Heat for a Reformation, and was soon depriv'd of his Bish. and committed Prisoner to the Marshalsea, whence relieved by Q. Mary, and restor'd, he executed all the Cruelty of the old Tyrants on the Protestants, 'till Q. Elizabeth remanded him to his Lodgings in the Marshalsea, where after 10 Years he dy'd, in 1569.

B O N

Bonnon, or Bavon, an Abbot of Corvey in the IXth Cen. he wrote an accurate History of his own Times.

Bonomi (Francis John) a famous Author of Bononia, in the XVIIth Cen. who has wrote various Books.

Bononia, an Italian C. Arch. and University in St. Peter's Patrimony, on the E. of Lombardy; the Fertility of its Soil has given it the Name of the Fat, it is very well built the Streets fair, and by its Piazzas, secured from Rain and Sun; the Cathedral Church is both dedicated to, and like that of, St. Peter at Rome; its Streets are large and numerous, as its Squares, or Market-Places, and Palaces: the Dominicans Convent, and the Church of St. Petronia, in which Charles V. Emp. was Crown'd, are extremely Magnificent, but this will scarce ever be finished; the University pretends to Theodosius the Younger for its Founder; and were that false, 'tis yet the chief U. of Italy for the Common and Civil Law, and its Colledges are well built, and replenished with Teachers. Here are the Manuscripts of Ulysses Aldrovandus. The C. is but indifferently fortify'd, and about 5 or 6 m. in Compass; as for its Antiquity there is no certainty, more than of its having been a Roman Colony; 'twas subdued by the Lombards in the VIIIth Cen. freed from them by Pepin and Charlemain, 'till the distance of the Emperors gave it Opportunity of setting up for a Republick; which, with great

B O N

Power in his hand 200 Ys. 'till Dr.
 about emptying it
 of under the Yoke, it being rather Free than Subj. It is his who have given Advantages; the
 and have of Gl O. ...

... .. Commander of 11th Cen. who Rhetor-
 in the Mi-in Gaul
 but was and hang'd

... .. of condemn'd by the IVth Cen. for denyng that J. was a by a

... .. of

B O R

Bootes, or d'lophylax, a little Star that follows Charles Wain, next the he feign'd to be an who having given the of the he they which the Beholders taking for on which his Daughter Erigone hanging her self they were all translated by Jupiter into Stars

Bouté, the Name of the Family of the Earl of Warrington, deriving themselves from Sir Gerg. Boote, made Lord de la Mer at the Restoration of Charles II. for his Loyalty, being in the Tower on his Account when he came over.

Barbortet, One of the 11th Cen.
 that besides the common Notions of those Hereticks deny'd the last Judgment.

Bor ..., Bor ..., or B ..., a Grand Sea Port of the ... of ...

Bor ..., Bor ..., or B ...,

B O R

by the Persian K. that he chose rather to be burnt in the City, than yield it to the Grecians.

Borgia, a noble Spanish Family deriving themselves from the Ks. of Aragon.

Borgia (Caesar) he was the 2d Son of a Roman Lady called Vanoza, Wife to Dominico Arimano, by Pope Alexander VI, who designing him always for the Church, while a Student of Law at Pisa, he made him Bishop of Rampeluna, and the Archbishop of Valencia, and Cardinal. He murder'd his Brother the D. of Candia, that he might neither rival him in his Ambition with his Father, nor in his criminal Love with Lucretia Borgia, their common Sister and Mistress; who being dead, he threw off his Ecclesiastical Habits, and being made D. of Valentinois by Leon XII of France, by the help of his Arms endeavoured to bring about his Ends, in oppressing the Italian Princes; he murder'd the Orsini at a Feast, and designing the same to Cardinal Adrian Cornette, his Father and he by mistake drank of the poisoned Wine design'd for the Cardinal; the Pope died; but Caesar by his Vigour and other Applications liv'd to be divested of his ill-got Dominions, and experience Imprisonment in Spain, whence escaping, and besieging a Castle of the Constables of Castile, he was killed in 1507.

Bergo (St. Domingo) an Italian City and B. suffragan to Benoni, that once belong'd to the House of Palavicini.

Borichus, Bastard Son of Clement K. of Hungary, who being in the Army of Lewis the young of France, and demanded for conspiring against the K. on his Intreaty and Appeal to the Protection of Lewis, was deny'd by him; yet soon after fled away by night to some place of more Security.

Boriquen, one of the chief Leeward

B O R

Island of small Extent, but possess'd by the Spaniards; it yields Sugar, Cassia, Ginger, and Leather.

Boris Gudenov, was Great Master of the Horse to the Czar of Muscovy, and married his Sister; but being unsatisfied with this Honour, he usurp'd the Throne; for being Regent during the Minority of Fedor or Theodorus, he had Demetrius Son of the Czar John Basilowitz murder'd, and poison'd Fedor; but the Vaivod of Sandomiria setting up Griska or a counterfeit Demetrius, and carrying all before him, and being join'd by the Grandeers, Boris died with Grief, and his Wife and Son were strangled in the Castle in 1605.

Boristhenes or the Nieper, a Polish R. rising in Muscovy, it runs thro' Lithuania, Volinia, and part of the Ukraine, and so passes the Country of the Cossacks, where forming many Isles for their shelter, it falls into the Black Sea near Ocziacon a Turkish Port; 'tis render'd unnavigable but in small boats, by the Cataracts or Falls of Water over Ridges of Rocks, 13 in number, some of which are by very much higher than others: 'tis navigable for 600 Furlongs, and at its mouth yields natural Bay-salt, and huge finless Whales, and is the second large R. of the ancient Scythia.

Bormio or Formis, Capital of the Valtoline Ts. stands on the R. Adula in the Grisons.

Borneo, one of the most considerable and large Islands of the Indian Sea, 1600 m. in Circumference, and divided into several Kms, of which Bornas is the Principal, whose Capital C. is like Venice, built in Water, in an unwholesom Air, tho' with a good Haven; its K. is Makomutan, as most of the maritime People are, the Islanders being Idolaters, and go naked. The Isle lies round, and under the Equinoctial Line, yields Gold, Dia-

B O R

Diamonds, and Bezoar-stone. The K. has a good House, besides a great Army of Foot. The Indian Inhabitants are said to be governed by a Woman, that they may be sure their Prince is of the right Line, and here the Sparrow of the same is found, a small Bird of wonderful feathers.

Borrichius (Joseph) a learned Professor of Leopold, of the XVth Century in Meissen, he left several learned Books.

Borrichum, a Town and Castle of the Low-Country, that gives Name to the adjacent Country.

Borrom, a Danish Island in the Baltic, yielded to the Swedes by the Peace of Altona in 1658, but exacted back in consideration of other Lands.

Borzo, a District, Lieg, C and Km. of Northern Africa, of the Mannet Rites, and Customs of that people there, is to be seen. The Likert Forest remarkable for the R. Niger's numerous trees.

B O R

that since the Apostles all Churches are sunk from their Purity, by suffering fallible Men to put on us their Expositions, &c. as if they were infallible.

Borrhaus (Martin) alias Cellaris, born at Stuttgart in Wurtemberg, was one of the most learned Divines of the Protestants, having wrote many Books and taught Divinity, Rhetoric, and Philosophy at Basil, where he in 1664 died of the Plague.

Borromea (Blancha) a learned Woman of the XVth Cen. who being Mistress of the Languages, taught at Padua with great Praise and Approbation of the learned, nor was her Virtue less than her Learning.

Borromeus (St. Charles) was the Son of Margaria di Medici, Sister of Pope Pius IV. and Count Gilbert Borromeus, being made Cardinal and A. of Milan, he held several Provincial Synods, and was very active in fixing the Council of Trent, which had been long, to little purpose, bringing about, having been a B of sin-

B O S

Adrian Emp. of Rome, to which he built a Monument, and wrote his Epitaph.

Berzivege I, or Beriveri succeeded his Father Hesivitus in the Km. of Bohemia in 856. the first Prince of that Country that was christened in 894, for which being banished by his People, and recall'd, he abdicated the Crown to his Son, and retir'd to the Desert to his Devotions, dying soon after.

Berzivege II. declared K. of Bohemia by the Emp. Henry IV, was thrice driven out, and restor'd, being not chose by the People, and in 1107 was oblig'd to retire after 7 years Supplication in vain, into Germany.

Bosa, Bossa, or Bosi, a C. of Sardinia, only remarkable for its Antiquity, and B. under the A. of Tore or Savari.

Boscager (John) was born at Beziars in 1601, and coming young to Paris, he was bred under and succeeded his Uncle the famous Forret in the Professorship of Law in the University of Paris, which he discharged to the Admiration of all. His Method being new and very instructive, he never printed; tho' his Institutions of French and Roman Law turn'd to French at Mr. Colbert's desire, were afterwards publish'd. He died in 1687, being near 87 Y. old.

Boscobel, a Wood and Seat belonging to the Family of the Giffords or Fitzherberts, in Staffordshire, made known by being the Refuge of Charles II. after his Defeat at Worcester, hiding himself in a great Oak in this Wood all the day, till he made his Escape.

Bosius (Anthony) a Milaneze, by Profession a Lawyer, but being curious into Enquiries of Antiquity, began his Work of Roma Subterranea; he died before he had finished it, after the Labour of 33 Y. John Severani, Priest of the Oratory, finishing and publishing it.

B O S

Bosius (James,) born in Milan, and Uncle to the former; being Agent at Rome of the Knights of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, of which he was one; he wrote the History of his Order, and of the Holy Cross.

Boskenna, a Cape on the W. of Cornwall, on which is a Trophy erected by the Romans or Saxons for some Victory, being 18 Stones in a Circle, 12 Foot each asunder.

Bosnia or Bosfina, once a Km. now a Prov. dependant on Hungary, deriving its Name from the R. Bosna, lying betwixt the Rs. Save, Drina, and Unna, is bounded N. by Sclavonia, S. by Dalmatia, E. by Servia, and W. by Croatia; once it was part of Pannonia; since the Romans, it has had Ks of its own, the last being taken and flea'd by Mahomet II. Prince Lewis of Baden retook the whole Country from the Turks in 1688. Its Capital City is Sari or Bosna.

Boson or Bozon, Son of Buvis or Buvon Count of Ardenne, and the Daughter of Lotharius K. of Lorrain; he had a Sister with whom Charles the Bald of France having been in love some time, on the death of his Wife Hermetruda, and for her sake gave Boson the Government of Burgundy, and made him D. of Aquitain, &c. being adopted Son of Pope John VIII, he by him was made Temporal Governour of Italy. In 878 he married Hermengarda the K. of Italy's Daughter; but on the death of Lewis of France, missing his Aim at the Crown, he caus'd himself to be crown'd K. of Arles, and tho' by Carloman once reduced low, he recovered his Strength and Power, confirm'd by the Succession of Charles the Gross to Carloman, who on Boson's Homage, allow'd him what he had got; which enjoying some time in Peace, he died in 888.

Bosphorus Cimmerianus, or the Streights of Cassa, it was an ancient C. that gave Name to the Streights, now now taking their Name from Caf a City on the Pininsula bound by the Sea of Tana and that of Zabach, 'tis the Streight that joins the Paid Mar and the Black Sea.

B O S

B poru of T acc, the narrow Channel that flows betwixt Ibrea and Asia Minor, called the Streights of Corinth, from that City's standing on the Ionian Bank of it.

B ru or B ru, a C. in Arabia Petræa, now B ru or Bosruet; here sat the Council against Bertha, and here was the King Philip, Godfrida's Successor, in the III Cen. and from him called Philipopolis.

B ru, or B ru (Matthew) Native of Leicester, was Abbot of the Austin Friars in the XVth Cen. and wrote many Books.

B ru, a C. in T only famous for the Barons Count John de Marston Count of Essex being taken by the Barons in the year 1212.

B O S

Mayor, Aldermen, &c. and send Members to Parliament, who are Mayor, Ber, Esq, and Ed Trey, Esq, The Tower to its Church is look'd upon as one of the 1 in the World.

Boston, the Metropolis of New England, had its Name from the Isle Boston, it is a convenient Sea and one of the best built and best Ts of all our American Plantations.

Bosworth, a Market T. of Leicestershire, famous for the Battle betwixt Richard III. and Henry VII. at Richmond.

Botal (Leonard) a Native of France, and Physician to Henry III. France, he brought Phlebotomy mightily into Use there, and wrote Books of this Art.

B ru, a C. in T only famous for the Barons Count John de Marston Count of Essex being taken by the Barons in the year 1212.

B O U

ritable, and for Complexion and Stature like the Europeans.

Battifanga (Julius Caesar) a Portuguese Knight of the Order of the Militia of Christ, born at Orvieto, and of so universal a Genius, that without learning he cou'd work at all manner of Arts, play on and make all musical Instruments, &c. if you can believe it; and was besides a good Poet, having wrote in Verse and Prose.

Bucaniers, or rather Bucchaniers, originally Hunters of the Indians in the Woods of Hispaniola, since apply'd to the Privateers of all Nations, who have undertaken, in conjunction, Expeditions for the rifling and destroying of the Spanish Dominions in America.

Bouchani, a Capital T. of Ostervand a Country in Hainault, that gave formerly Title to the Count of Hainault's eldest Son; it stands on the Schoeld, and is fortified with a Castle, taken by the French in 1676.

Bouchard, Constable of France to Charlemain, whose Valour and Conduct appear'd often for his Master, particularly in the Defeat of the Saracens in 806, at Sea.

Boucicaut, or John le Maindre Count of Beaufort, and Viscount Turcine, being Page of Honour to Charles VI, K. of France, he fought near his Person at the Battel of Rosbec in 1382. and being taken by Bajazet at the Battel of Nicopolis in 1396, his Beauty sav'd him from being murder'd with 600 more doom'd by that Prince; he was ransom'd by the K. and rais'd the Siege of Constantinople; and after much Glory in Italy, and the E. was taken Prisoner at the Battel of Agencourt by the English, and died in England in 1421.

Boudicca, Bonduca, or Boadicea, a noble Q. of the Iceni, whose Husband Presutagus dying, in hopes of protecting his Family from the Inults of the Romans, left the Emp.

B O U

his Heir; but he being dead, his Palace was plunder'd, and his Daughters ravish'd by the Romans; which to revenge, the martial Queen arming 12000 Britains, fought the Romans, but losing the Battle, poison'd her self and Daughters.

Bouet (Charles) Lord of La Noüe, his Fidelity to Henry III, of France against the League, rais'd his Fortune; and Henry IV imploy'd him in several Affairs of Importance, in particular, with the Counts of Rocheport and Schomberg in negotiating a Peace with the D. of Marcœur, which ended the Civil War, and soon after his Life.

Boufflers, a Country in Picardy, that has given Title to one of its best Families.

Boufflers (James) Lord of Boufflers, Noüe, &c. was born in 1436, and cou'd never drink out of a Glass without Pain, or his Lips swelling.

Boufflers (Lewis) stiled the Strong, born in Picardy, was eldest Son of Adrian, Lord Boufflers; he was a Hercules for Strength, being able to take up a Horse, drag an Ox, fix himself on his Feet that none cou'd move him, kill a Bird on the Wing, or a Beast as it ran, would leap Arm'd into his Saddle without touching the Horse, and had Agility equal to his Strength: but a Musquet Bullet was too strong for him at the Attack of Pont Sur Tonne.

Boufflers (Adrian) who succeeded him, was a Man of Letters as well as War, writ a Comparison betwixt the Ancient and Modern Historians, &c. and was Grandfather to the present Marshal Boufflers, famous for his Valour in the last and former Wars, and negotiating the Peace of Reswick in 1697.

Boulin, a French Island between Poitou and Britain, something lower than the Mouth of the Loire.

Bovignies, or Bouvines, the Name of a C. in Nemor, and a Village in Flanders; the first remarkable for its obstinate Resistance of the French in 1164, tho' without Garnison, and the latter for the Victory of Philip Augustus over the Emp. Otto IV., and his Cont'd rates

B O U

Boulliaud, a French (Charles) a Philosopher, Doctor, Mathematician, and Grammarian, Canon of Noyon, and Author of several Books, in the XVIth Cen

Boullaud (Jean) born at Lou-dun in 1605, was an Astronomer of great Name in the XVIIIth Cen and wrote several Mathematical Treatises

Boulogne, a little Territory of Picardy, in which the C. of Bologne stands, fertile enough, and has an extraordinary Breed of Horses. Also the name of a Country of Bononia in Italy

Boulogne (Jean) a French or Dutch name, C. of France, in the Basque in Bordeaux, and in the B. of France, and in the Basque

B O U

1327; it stands in a Valley, and its Walls are adorn'd with 24 Towers, and defended on the W. by a Castle, the Chappel is extremely curious (especially the Windows with Scripture Stories, that are painted in the Glass) in which the Princes of Bourbon founded 12 Canons and a Treasurer. Hen. IV. was the first of the House of Bourbon King of France.

Bourbon, an Isle in the Aethiopian Ocean, near Madagascar, belonging to the French, in which there is an ignivomous Mountain; 'tis 25 L. in length, and pretty fruitful.

Bourbon (Nicholas) a Frenchman that wrote Latin Verses, having been Professor of Greek and Rhetoric, and imprisoned for a Latin Lampoon and Satyr Bolzac and he after some Difference, were reconciled by M. Chaplain. There is a Volume of his Works, and he dy'd in 1644

Bourbon, a Prov. of France, d. in the Basque in the B.

B O U

and made Cardinal; he Crown'd Edw. IV, Richard III, and Hen. VII. and having fate in that See 51 Ys. he dy'd in 1486.

Bordeaux, on the Garonne, the capital C. of the Prov. of Guienne, has a Parliament, U. and A. with 10 Suffragans; the Cathedral of St. Andrew large and beautiful, is adorn'd with 2 high Towers, and the Clergy depends immediately on the Pope, and the Chapter is composed of a Dean, 3 Archdeacons, a Singer, Treasurer, Vestry-Keeper, Prebend, Sub-Dean, Sub-Cantor, and 23 Canons. The Civil Government is executed by the Mayor, always a Person of Quality, and 4 Jurats or Sheriffs; and besides the Parliament it has a Chamber of Justice, a Mint, Court of Admiralty, &c. It has a noble Key, to which the biggest Ships can lay their Sides, and to this most of the chief Streets lead; near the Key or Haven is a Castle built, not only to defend the City, but also to keep it in Awe, it having been apt to be mutinous, or struggle for its old Liberty; 'tis one of the wealthiest and best traded Cs. in France, once belonging to the English, 'till united to the Crown by Charles VII its Form is like a Crescent or Bow, and the Garonne is the String.

Bordeille or Bordeille (Elias) of a noble House of Perigord, and Son of Arnaud de Bourdeille, was Cardinal and A. of Tours, who by writing against the pragmatick Sanction, and all that arrested Ecclesiastical Persons, was much in the Favour of the Papal Authority; but ing by the Parliament condemned to recant, and refusing, he had his Revenues confiscated, &c. the Pope gave him a Cardinal's Cap for his Zeal, tho' Lewis IX, had made up the Affair himself. He dy'd near Tours in 1484.

Bordeille (Peter de) alias the Sienr

B O U

Brantome; he liv'd in the XVIth Cen. and left Memoirs, which are at last printed. He dy'd about the Y. 1600.

Bourdelot (John) a learned Advocate of the Parliament of Paris, at the latter end of the XVth Cen. and beginning of the XVIth. he translated Lucian and Heliodorus, writ several Comments and other Books, was Master of the Requests to Mary di Medici, Queen of France, and dy'd at Paris in 1638.

Bourdillon, or Imbert de la Blatiere, Lieutenant General in Champagne, advanced by his Valour and Merit, succeeded the Marshal of St. Andrew, as Marshal of France, having been at the taking Hav're de Grace from the English, he was deputed at Garonne, to quash the Troubles betwixt the Protestants and Papists there. He dy'd at Fountain-b-leau, in 1567, Bourg, a Presidial, Bailliage, and T. on the R. Reissous in Bresse, stands in a fruitful, tho' a Marshy Soil; it has a Collegiate Church, and several Convents of both Sexes. The Church of our Lady de Bion near this C. cost Margaret of Austria 200000 Crowns the Building.

Bourg (Amas de) was born at Ryon in Auvergne; his Father, Stephen de Bourg, Lord of Silloux, was Comptroller General of the Customs of Languedoc, and his Brother, Anthony de Bourg, was Chancellour of France, having before been President of the Parliament of Paris; he was ordained Priest, and taught the Law at Orleans, and then made Counselleur-Clerk of the Parliament of Paris; and declaring for the Protestants, and favouring them in their Judgments, he was accused, and delivered over to Commissioners to try him by K. Hen. II. and the A. of Paris had declared him an Heretick; nor cou'd the K's Death put stop to it, nor the Mediation of several great Princes, for the Clergy pard on none, and living the Death of the President Mazarin to his Charge, tho' a Prisoner, he was hang'd in 1659.

B O U

Bourg, the capital C. of Berry in France, on the R. Loire and Eure, it has a U. and A. with the Title of Parliament, and a Bailliage, and the Cathedral has a large C. and well built Streets are neat and clean, the Palace magnificent, and the University numerous, the Kings Palace, the Town-house, Amphitheatre, and other Antiquities are remarkable, besides its Cathedral, it has seven Collegiate Churches, 18 Parishes, several Monasteries, the Jesuits Colledge, and three Abbeys, the Dio. being one of the most extensive of France, contains 9. Parishes, 12 Archdeacons, 34 Collegiate Churches, 35 Abbeys, 1. Convent, 1. of the Order of the Ans. Priests, the C. is very fertile, and is watered by the Loire, and the U. water is said to ring Clement the Fryer that stab'd Hen III. to death, was condemned and torn by four Horses.

B O U

Bourgoin, a little T. of Dauphiné, only famous for its Trade in Hemp.

Bourignon (Americista) a First Maid born at L. 76, she began at 18 to set up for retiring to a solitary Devotion in the Desert, but being assign'd a Solitude in the Bish. of Combray, she lik'd it not, and was forc'd to quit it, not being permitted to live there with other Virgins, without any Rule but the Love of God; she, on her Parents Death, contributed to the Foundation of an Hospital, where she spent her time in teaching young Virgins; here too dissatisfied, having liv'd 4 Y. alone in a Chamber, she at last travelled from Place to Place, writ several Books of Piety, and died in 1681.

Bouter a Km. in the north of Brit. very well inhabited, and of a very great Extent. N. of Paris.

B R A

Burlington and Orrery; the late Mr. Robert Boyle, has given more Honour to the Name than any Titles can, and much is to be expected from the first Appearances of Mr. Charles Boyle, Esq;

Boyne, a R. of Leinster in Ireland, famous for the great-Victory of K. William the III^d, of Glorious Memory, over the Irish and French, by the Force and Bravery of the R. carried over that R. which brought immediately Drogheda and Dublin into the Hands of the English, tho' his Majesty was twice in danger of a Cannon-Ball, once losing a piece of his Boot, and the other time it bearing off a piece of his Coat, Waistcoat, and Shirt, and raz'd the Flesh of his Shoulder.

Boetius, or Boetius (Thomas) a Father of the Oratory in Rome, who in the opening of the XVIIth Cen. wrote several Historical, and other Treatises; as his Brother Francis, a Priest of the same Order, did also.

Brá (Henry) or Henricus à Brá, was born at Dockham in W. Friesland, took his Doctor's Degree at Brasíl, in 1585, having pass'd thro' several Italian Universities; his Medicinal Works got him great Reputation.

Brabant, one of the 17 Provinces of the Netherlands, and a Dm. the Rs. of Meuse, Demer and Scheld, with the Sea by Breda, and Bergen-op-Zoom, make it almost an Island; 'tis bound-ed N. by Holland, and part of Guelderland; S. by Hainault and Namur; E. by part of Guelderland and Liege; and W. by Zeland. The Circumference of Brabant is 80 m. and 20 the length, the Antiquity of its Name is uncertain; and its capital C. is Brussels, besides which there are 25 Wall'd Ts. Antwerp, Malines, Lire, Tillemont, Nivelle, Bergen-op-zoom, Breda, Maastricht, &c. the People are suppos'd the Descendants of a Colony of Saxons, planted there by Charlemain; in whose Family it continued a while, since which it has had Earls and Dukes of its own, 'till Mary of Burgundy carried it into the House of Austria, by marrying Maximilian, afterwards Emp. This Province has produced Men of eminent Parts for Learning and War.

B R A

Brabo, a Noble Roman, and Relation of Julius Caesar, attending whom in his Gallick Expedition, he gave his Name to the Dutchy of Brabant. Those of Antwerp tell a ridiculous Story of a Giant vanquished by Brabo, that having a Castle where Antwerp stands, used to cut off the Hands of all that he took, and threw them into the Scheld; Brabo serv'd him in the same manner. In Antwerp they show a Marble Statue of Brabo.

Braccio, a Native of Perugia in Italy, and of the Family of Forte Bracci, pass'd through several Military Exploits, to be chosen Commander of the Florentine Army against Naples, in the Quarrel of Lewis II, Duke of Anjou, in 1409. He was afterwards General to Pope John XXIII, and Governour of Bononia; and he restor'd the Perugian Gentry, expell'd by the People; he reduced Bononia for Pope Martin V, beat Sferza, General of Lewis of Anjou; and in consideration of the Service was made, by Joan II, Queen of Naples, Prince of Casua, and high Constable of the Kingdom; but being wounded at the Siege of Aquila, in his aspiring Attempts on the Crown, and taken Prisoner, he wou'd neither eat nor speak, but dy'd with Grief, having been Master of Marca di Ancona, Umbria, part of Naples, and Tuscany, in 1424.

Bracciolin, or Brandolin (James) the Son of Poggio of Florence, and a Man of great Eloquence, he wrote several Books, of which a History

his

BRA

his Son Tamer translated into Italian; being convicted of being in the Conspiracy, of the Pope he was hang'd out of the Window of one of the Plotters.

Brashear, (John) a Native of Zanesville in the year 1800 in the XV-th Cent. having been Secretary of State at Kansas, he wrote several Books.

Born at () a Native of Conn. and Author of a History of his time, he lived in the XVIIth Cen. which History is brought down to 1621 by others.

Brachyotus, Heretics of the 11th
Cen. com. pos'd of Almicheans and Guffians.

[illegible]

B R A

roads, 5 L. from the Sea, between the Province of Duro and Mercha and was once a part of Gallitia. It has an A. who contended with Toledo for the Primacy of Spain and was once the Royal Seat of Kings. Here have three or four Councils been held and it stands 75 m. S. of Compostella, and 180 N. of Lisbon.

Braccio (Marcus Antonius) a Venetian Nobleman, who being in 1570 Governour of Famagusta in Cyprus, was by the Delay of Relief from Venice forc'd, on honourable Terms to surrender to Maſſapha al whom he had lost 80000 Men before it, enrag'd at which he broke the Treaty, massacred several Christians before his Face, and having cut off his Nose and Ears, and abus'd him with servile Work in the fortifying of the Town he tortur'd and dead him alive, all which with great Contempt he suffer'd and dy'd upbraiding Maſſapha with Breach of Faith.

B R A

hereupon declared K. in Morocco, the General Abdalmumen, made K. by the Army; took the C. strangled him with his own hands, and so extinguished the Race of the Almoravides.

Braidelbin, is the highest part of Ireland, and gives the Title of E. to one of the Family of Campbel.

Brama, one of the chief Gods of the Common-people of Torquin; the Learned, and the Noble-men, only adoring the Heavens.

Brahmans or Brawins answer the old Brahmans of the Indians, and are the Teachers and Priests of the modern Brahmans of Indostan; they teach that Sat, whom they call Achari or Wisdom, created the World by the Administrations of three perfect Beings he had before made for that End.

Brama, or Brahma, Brejcheu, and Mebadeu; by Brahma i. e. Penetration, he created the Universe; by Brejcheu, i. e. existing in all things, he preserves it; and will destroy it by Mebadeu, i. e. the great Lord.

From Brahma they pretend to have received 4 Books, in which are comprehended all Knowledge; and they hold the Metempsychosis or Transmigration of Souls, through several Beasts and human Bodies, e'er they can come to enjoy a Pleasure and Being purely spiritual; and this makes them teach that 'tis not lawful to kill, or eat any thing that is killed, and none of their Tribes but that of the Soldiers eat any, and ev'n they abstain from the Flesh of Cows, and Peacocks as sacred; nay they build Hospitals for the lame and disabled Beasts, and will buy Ends of the Mahometans to set them at liberty. The Brahmins by their visible Austerities of great Fasts, &c. and by teaching the People, and expounding their Mysteries of their Religion, have got a very great Awe on the People all over the Indies, especially on the Coast of Malabar, the Bride is committed to the Bra- men to be blest by him, that the Marriage may be happy.

B R A

Bramhal (John) was born at Pontefract in Yorkshire in 1593, of an ancient Family in Cheshire; Cambridge gave him Education, and Yorkshire his first Church Preferment, first as Parson, then Chaplain to Abp. Matthews, and Prebend of York and Rippon; all which Preferments resigning, he went into Ireland, and was chose Bp. of Londonderry: And there being skill'd in the Law, he secured the Ecclesiastical Revenues, in a fair way of being extinguish'd. He was impeached by Sir Bryan O Neal, and acquitted, and afterwards delivered from a villanous Design on his Life, by Sir Chelim O Neal, Head of the Rebels, by the Instrument that was to do it. Coming into England on the farther Troubles of that Country, he serv'd the K. in the Civil Wars; but after the Battel of Marston-Moor against which he declared, he left England and retir'd to Brussels; and on his Return after the Restoration, he was made Ap. of Armagh, and Speaker of the House of Lords in Dublin. His Life and his Learning may be found in his Works.

Brampour, the Capital C. of the Prov. of Candis in the Indies, subject to the Great Mogul, and the Residence of the Governour, who is always the King's Son, it being one of the Chief Commands of that Empire; 'tis noted for the abundance of Cotton Cloth made there, and all over that Prov. which are sold in Persia, Muscovy, Egypt, Poland, &c. the Houses are but ruinous.

Brancacio (Francis) of the noble Neapolitan Family of Brancacio, Bp. of Viterbo, and Cardinal; his Merit and Learning was so great, that had it not been for the Spanish Faction he had been elected Pope, on the Death of Clement IX, in 1669. among other Books he wrote one of Chocolate.

Branchides, Priests of Apollo in his Dilly-

B R A

Didymeau Temple in Ionia, on the Centines of Caris in Asia the Leis; and of the Inhabitants of Didymus, who having betray'd the Wealth of the Temple to Alex, which he bore away, they fled to Sagdiana, and built a City with the Name of Brum'as, which with its People, Alibont, the Greeks destroy'd, after his Victory over Orontes.

Basil, King of the Allobroges or Dauphins who being confin'd in his Ketters with his Mother by Hannibal supply'd him for his Passage over the Alps.

Brandenburg, a German Country, the Prince of which is Marquis, and Elector of the Empire, and lately created King of Prussia, this Country is bound'd by the Oder, Lusatia, Saxony, Poland, and Mecklenburg, and Pomerania to the Eastward, and Prussia to the Westward, and Poland to the Northward, and Mecklenburg to the Southward. It is a Country of great Riches, and is chiefly noted

B R A

As to the Aborigines of this Country there is little Certainty, but the Teutones, Senones, Suevians, Vandals, and Saxons, have all possessed it successively. The Soil is various, and admits therefore of no general Character; Coral, Eagles Stone, Plum-Allom, &c. are found there. The Origin of the Elector's Family is as uncertain as that of the People, some deriving it from the same root as that of Austria and Baden, others derive it from the House of Zolern in Suevia, and Peter Colonna a Guelf, exil'd Italy for that reason by Pope Paschal II, and presented by the Emp. Henry V, with large Possessions in Suabia. Conrade made Burgrave of Nuremberg by Frederick Barbarossa in the XIIIth Cen. from whence Frederick VI, Burgrave of Nuremberg, and first Elector of Brand-nbourg of the House of Mecklenburg, was deriv'd, and from him, by a long and illustrious Line, of warlike, brave, and learned Princes, the present Elector Fre-

B R A

at the mouth of the R. Prigada at its Fall into the Gulph of Frisc-Hof; 'tis also called Brunberg and Brunberg.

Also an Island on the Coast of New Guinea, noted for a burning Mountain like that of Atna or Vesuvius.

Brandum, the Name of a little bit of Cloth, that having touch'd the Bodies of the Saints and Martyrs, was in a Box sent as a Relict to those that desir'd it; as was a piece of the Corporal on which the Eucharist or Host had been laid; and this as early as 600.

Brandwyler (John) born in Biberach, was a Minister of Basil, having publish'd 540 Sermons, he dy'd in 1586, and had a Son call'd John James lately a Professor of Law at Basil.

Brandolini (Aurelio) a Native of Florence, and surnamed Lupus, was an Austrian Fryer of the XVth Cen. his Works in History, Poetry, and Oratory, got him no small Reputation, the justness of which you may judge of by his Writings.

Brandon (Charles) being the Son of Sir William Brandon kill'd in Bosworth Field by Richard III. he was brought up with Hen. VIII. by which, and the Likeness of their active Spirits, they contracted a firm Friendship, being now D. of Suffolk, and bringing over the King's Sister, Widow to Louis XII. of France, he fell in love with her, and so far prevail'd that she married him privately; but after a formal Disgrace the K. forgave and receiv'd him into Favour, which he us'd with that Moderation that he made no Enemies; he died in 1544. leaving 2 Sons, Henry and Charles, who died 6 Y. after him; and the Mother of the Lady Jane Gray oppos'd to Q. Mary, and another Daughter.

Brankley, an Island against the Inlet of the Sea into Pool Harbour, in Dorsetshire, where are Copper works,

B R A

Brant (John) a Hannish Lawyer of Amberg of the XVIIth Cen. wrote several Books.

Braquemont (Robert de) being Admiral of France to Charles VI. he beat the Moors at Sea for the K. of Castile, in 1417, who had before given him a Commission to conquer the Canaries, in consideration of his Service in the Portuguese War, which Commission Braquemont gave his Cousin John of Bethencourt, &c. Vide Bethencourt.

Brasidas, a Lacedaemonian General in the LXXXIX Olym. that extended his Conquests into Thrace, vanquish'd the Athenians by Sea and Land, and so made Lacedaemon terrible to the Greeks and Barbarians. The People of Amphipolis made him a pompous Funeral, he dying in a little time after he had defeated the Athenians as they advanced to surprize that City; and the Athenians declar'd publick Honours to his Mother, for preferring the Glory of her Country to her Son's Encomiums, which she receiv'd with the highest Modesty.

Brasil alias Brasil, a vast maritime Region of S. America, extending from Paraguay to the R. of Amazon, and its Shores form a Semicircle of 1100 L. it having three parts surrounded by the Ocean; 'tis inhabited by various Nations since known, the chief of which are the Tubinambours, Mupims, Tobajares, Petiguars, &c. and near 100 more, but those unknown are suppos'd much more numerous. The Portuguese divide their Posts into Captainships and Commanderies (Alvaraz Cabral a Portuguese having discovered it, by being driven by a Storm on it in 1501) along the Coast, as Tamaraca, Bahia de Todos los Santos, Pernambuco, Parai, Giara, Rio Grand, Marabau, Lar Iloer, Seragippe, Paraiba, Porto Seguro, Spirito Santo, Sao Vincentis, and Rio Janeiro; its chief Cities being Salvador, L. 1 Olanda,

B R A

Orinix, See Orinix. &c. it lies under the Foot of Zinc, and yet enjoys a Tem, & sweet Air, and wholesome Water, and has a Portion of Health, that is, of the Native live 25 Ys, & is of middle Stature, brown, but ruddy Complexion; a Root furnishes them with Bread; and they are addicted to Hunting and Revenge, but great Lovers of Talking, great part of them are converted to the Christian Faith by the Missionaries, and are among the Peruvians, but their Languages are of different kinds. Here is Gold and Silver Mines, and the Brass Wood for making Saffron, Cotton, Balsam, Tobacco, and Sugar of various kinds, and in great Plenty.

Berlin, a German C. and Castle, capital of the Province of the same Name, standing on a Lake on the Frontiers of Prussia, the Stills into the Prussia and Prussia of Prussia.

Berlin, a German C. and Castle of Prussia.

B R E

with Arrows, but have now chang'd them for Fire-arms.

Braver (Adrian) was born at Oudenard in Flanders, prov'd an excellent Droll Painter, as well as a Master of Miniature, and tho' his Pieces sold at a good Price, yet he was so poor when he dy'd at 33 Ys old at Antwerp, that he left not Money to bury him; but being first buried in the Carminists Cloisters, he is since removed to the Church, and a Tomb set over him by the Magistrates.

Bray, signifying In the old Gaulish Language Wet or Marshy Ground; it is still found in many French Names of Places, and always from the Nature of the Soil where they stand, as Gaulray, Faubray, Fodunoray, &c.

Brecknock, is the County T. of Brecknockshire in S Wales, and stands on the River where it joins with the Ox the Great Church, and a College, the Town is built and well enclosed, surrounded with a Wall,

B R E

Bre, enters the C. and forms several Channels: It is of Form triangular, and in each Angle a brick Gate, and 15 Bulwarks mounted with great Guns, flank its Curtains; the old Fortifications being lately repair'd and improv'd by the Prince of Orange, and standing in a marshy Ground, 'tis thought impregnable; its Ramparts set round with Trees th. higher than the Houses, which are but indifferently built, tho' it hath one Street fair enough. It has had various Masters; once Lords of its own, then the Ds of Brabant, and lastly the House of Nassau, by marrying Johanna only Daughter of John Palat Lord of Liesch in 1404; since which it has been taken and retaken by the Spaniards and the Dutch more than once. The Bar. has yet 17 Villages depending on it, as Bergen-op-zoom once did.

Broderode (Henry) of the noble Family to whom the Castle near Harlem of that Name belongs, one of the chief of the Confederated Protestants of the Netherlands, who having in vain presented Remonstrances to Margaret of Parma, he coined Money with the Motto of Per tela, per ignes, &c. but was at last forced to fly with his Wife and Goods by Ship to Germany, where he dy'd of Grief; the Elector Palatine married his Wildow, who was of the House of the Es of Meurs.

Broderode Lancelot, another of the principal Confederates, being taken at the Siege of Harlem, was hang'd.

Broderode (Peter Cornelius de) was an eminent Lawyer of the XVI Cen. at the Hague; he wrote several juridical Books.

Bremen, a Hanse T. on the R. Weser in the Lower Saxony, in a Peninsula, at the end of which is a strong Castle; it is divided by that R. into the Old and New T. of unequal Significa, and joined together by Bridges; the Streets of the old T.

B R E

center in a great Square, in which the Statue of Charlemagne stands, who erected it into an Apk. and made it the Metropolis of the N. by uniting the Church of Hamburg to it in 788; in the Market-place also is the T. House and Cathedral of St. John: In the New T. is the College, Arsenal, and several Hospitals; both together make a T. of War and Traffick, it being a free Commonwealth, having cast off its B. on receiving the Reformation in the XVI Cen. its Dominions extend not above 3 or 4 L. and 'tis famous over Germany and Holland for its Beer.

Bremen, the Dutchy which takes its Name from the foregoing T. which being a Bk. seculariz'd, and given to the Swedes by the Treaty of Westphalia in 1648, in 1672 was taken from them by the Germans and Swedes: 'Tis surrounded by the Elbe Weser, and the Sea. Besides Bremersford, the Seat of its Governour, it contains Staden, Hamsport, and other Ts.

Brene (Walker) fil'd D. of Arbent, was sent by Robert K. of Naples with an Army to the Assistance of the Florentines against those of Pisa; where prevailing by his cunning Insinuations, he destroy'd the Interest of Medici, an Assertor of the Liberties of that C. and gain'd the Gt. of Florence by the Consent of the People; but not content with that he aimed at the Tyranny; but finding his Arts incapable of lulling them asleep, he punished many for informing him of Designs against him, by that Ostentation of Confidence to confirm the People to him; but his Outrages and Oppressions were too numerous and sensible to suffer them to sleep, so that at last, by the Conduct of Adimari, Medici, and Crusati, he was compelled with his Family to quit the C. and surrender his Advisers up to the People, whose Rage indeed prov'd monstrous and highly barbarous, broiling and eating their Flesh when they had murder'd them

B R E

Brenan (Dun) tho' a Scholar of Erasmus the Humanist, was a Socinian by Principle, as his Comments on the Bible show. He join'd the Minister, among whom are many Antinomians; and believed the Ministry, deriv'd by Sacraments, as destructive of Christianity, and only subservient to Insalism.

Brenno a Leader or K. of the Goths, who was a Briton by Birth, or a Gaul uncertain, but passing the Alps at the Head of a vast Army of Goths, he enter'd Italy, and being provoked by the Romans assisting those of Christians, march'd against Rome, besieged, took, and ransack'd it, but waiting for the Ransom of it from Italy, as the Goths was weigh'd according to Agrippa's Balance, was demanded for Weight of his Sword more, which being a Breach of the Treaty, Julius Cæsar sent Caesar to the British Admi-

B R E

in 1499; he was Fellow Student at Hautsburg, with Bucer and Melancthon; where, by the Conversation of understanding Protestants, and their Books, being convinced, he preached the Protestant Doctrine publicly, and was a faithful follower of Luther, after his Death he was Head of the University, and is look'd on as Patriarch of those that held the Utiquty of Christ's Humanity. He was extremely favoured and rewarded by Christopher D. of Wittenburg; and his Life was pursu'd by Charles V, Emp. He had by 2 Wives 16 Children, 4 by Margaret Gretzine, who was a young Widow when he married her, and 12 by Catharine Isimane, he dy'd in 1570, being 72 Y. old.

Bretch, a populous and ancient T. in the Km. of Tramson in Barbary, noted for denoting in Waters, which are in it of its Liberty, it is a L. W. of Agger, and was taken by James the 1st Admi-which is both its Defence and Ornament. as well as the medium of its Trade, by bringing Merchandise from all Parts to it; the small R. Oder waters the other side, here falling into the Oder; the Streets are long and large, the Squares or Market-Places various and fine, the Churches magnificent, and the Town-House, which is one of the Market-Places, is one of the finest of Germany, of which it is one of the most populous and fairest Cs, it depends on the Empire, but is governed like a Commonwealth, and consists both of Protestant and Papist Inhabitants; its Priviledges it derives from several Emperors, tho' chiefly from Charles IV, and Wenceslaus.

B R E

Bresse, a Prov. of France, 16 L. long, and bounded by the R. Ains on the E. by the Soane on the W. the Seille on the N. and the Rhône on the S. by the last 'tis divided from Savoy and Dauphiné; as from Burgundy, Franche-compte, Lyonnois, &c. by the Soane, 'tis divided into Upper and Lower. The Country is in some Parts watry and unwholsome, but generally fruitful enough in Vines, Fruit, and Corn. It has belong'd to several Masters in several Ages, being after the expiration of the Roman Empire part of the Km. of Burgundy, then of that of Arles, &c. subject to Lords of its own, then to Savoy, and lastly fix'd to France by Hen. the Great of France.

Brest, a T. in Cujavia in Poland, well built, with a good Castle, noted for 2 Councils held here; the one in 1595, for re-uniting the Lithuanian Greeks to the Latin Church; and the other in 1620

Brest, a C. and famous Harbour of Bretagne, and the most considerable of all the French Ports for Men of War, being the Magazine of the French Navy for the Ocean; it stands in a Bay on the Descent of a Hill on the Haven, whose Mouth is guarded by a strong Fort, and several Outworks.

B R E

Bretagne, a Dm. and one of the largest Prov. of France, being 70 L. long, and 35 and 40 broad; its bounds are Anjou, the lower Poitou Normandy, and Maine, and the Ocean, which touches it W. N. and S. being divided into Upper and Lower; its Capital Rennes stands in the Upper, which is a Parliamentary and Episcopal C. as does St. Malo, St. Brieux, Monfort-la-Cane, Jocelin, Cliffon, Chateau-Breant, &c. and in the Lower stands Hennebon, Quimperlay, Lo Conquet, St. Paul de Leon, Brest, &c. There are three Languages spoke in Bretagne, French, British, and a mixture of both; it contains 9 Bpks. which are suffragans to the Abp. of Tours. Some derive them from a Colony of Britains from England, on the Saxon Invasion; others make them the Original Britains, that gave their Name to this Isle. After the Romans, Conan Mariadoc, by the Consent of Maximus, made it a Km. which Clovis and Chilperick reduced to an Earldom; but Dagobert II, first entirely subdu'd them, and after him Charlemain; after which setting up again for themselves, Anne, Daughter to the last Duke of Bretagne, marrying Charles VIII. and Lewis XIII united it to the Crown of France. The People are good Seamen, and want no Sense. Belle Isle, and Ouessant are its chief Isles, and its principal Rs. are Le Rauce, Blavant, Le Villain, &c.

Briançon, a French C. of Dauphiné, and the chief of the Bailiwick of Briançon, in the Mountains near the Confluence of the Dure, and the Ance, beneath a Rock, on whose Top is a Castle, and is remarkable for being esteem'd the highest situated C. in Europe, has a fine Church, and 3 Monasteries is 36 m. W. of Pignerol, and 21 N. E. of Ambrun. Also the Name of a Vil. in Provence. where Inscriptions show setshire, and Gloucestershire, erected into a Bish. by Henry VIII. and with the Co. of Dorset makes up the whole Dio. it has one Archdeacon, a Dean and Prelendines; and is one of the most considerable Places of Trade in England next London, containing about 17 or 18 Parish-Churches, which, with the Cross, Tolstall, with its new Square, are its principal Ornaments for Buildings; in the Castle, now built into Streets, Matilda the Empress kept K. Stephen in Custody. The Tide rising 40 Foot at Bristol brings in its Wealth, and spreads its Commerce to all the known World. We must not forget its hot Wells, and its Rock of Chrystal, call'd Bristol Stone; it gave the Title of Earl to the noble Family of Devon, till extinguished in 1627, by the Death of John, who left no Issue. Also the Name of one of the most Famous Baileys, defended by a Castle, and turn'd with a great of Slaves

B R I

B R I

disputing. See England, Scotland, and Wales

Britannicus, Son of Messalina and the Emp. Claudius, who on his marrying Agrippina, put Britannicus from the Succession to the Empire, and prefer'd Nero, Agrippina's Son; she poison'd Britannicus afterwards at the Feast of the Saturalia.

British-Sea, the Name of the Channel or Sea betwixt England and France, from its Form or Shape call'd La Manche, or the Sleeve.

Britomartis, a Cretan Nymph, Daughter of Jupiter and Charmes, and Favourite of Diana, call'd also Dicte from her Invention of Hunting Nets, pursu'd by Minos, to shun his Embraces, she leap'd from a Rock into the Sea.

Britomarus, or Viridomarus, K. of Leader of the Gauls of Luabria or Carpi, was vowed to lay aside his Sword till he had enter'd Rome, was vanquish'd by Marcellus, 177 532

B R O

they offered Boats full of all sorts of Commodities but Fish.

Bruneloy, a m. T. in Kent, on the Remembrance, noted for its fine College for Minister's Widows, and the Neighbourhood of the Bp. of Rochester's Palace, 10 m. from London.

Brunsbury, or Brunsfabree, or Brunsbree, a Swedish T. noted for its Treaty between Sweden and Denmark, in 1645, by which Jemtland and Herjedal were forever surrender'd to Sweden, and the Isles of Gothland, and Oesel, and the Prov. of Holland, for 30 Ys.

Brunschers (Eduard and John) Son and Father; Eduard, the Son, born at Drumter, was Professor of the Civil Law at Leyden, in the Low-Countries; and John, the Father, at Nimwegen, and was Head of the College of Drumter, taught the Mathematics at Reffek, and dy'd at Calen in 1570; and his Son at Leyden in 1617, leaving several Books of Civil Law, as his Father did some of other kinds.

Brontes, one of the Cyclops, or Journey-men to Vulcan, so named from Beyrd Thunder, which he forg'd for Jupiter.

Brontes, an old Appellation of Jupiter from his Thundering; it has from the Noise of Drunken Quarrels, been given also to Bacchus; and the brass Engine in the Theatres, by which they thunder'd, was called Brontes.

Bronckeris (Giovanni Hieronymus) a Physician of Italy, well acquainted with the politer Studies, but eminent for Physick and Astrology. He dy'd in 1630, and left several Books of his Art behind him.

Brosse, or de Broche (Peter la) was a Native of Turaine, who from a low Birth, and a Mechanick Employ, rais'd himself by his Address and Cunning, to the greatest Favour with Philip the bold, K. of France; and Mary Sub; being well skill'd in Chirurgery, he was made Chirurgeon by St. Lewis to Philip, who becoming K. was rul'd by him in every thing, made Great Chamberlain, &c. he poison'd the K's Son Lewis, and perswaded him it was done by his Step-Mother, Mary of Brabant, to advance her own Children to the Crown; which being at last discovered to the K. he was seiz'd, try'd, and condemned, and was hang'd in 1276, the Dukes of Burgundy, Brabant, &c. being by.

B R O

Brosses, (Françisco Sanchez) or Sanctissimus Brosses, a Spanish Grammarian of the XVIIth Cen. that made a great deal of Noise among the Writers of that Time.

Brotherton (Thomas) of Hry in Lancashire, of an ancient Family bred at Jesuit College at Cambridge, study'd Law at Gray's-Inn, and is the Author of some Experiments of Trees; asserting that the Juice ascends in the woody parts of the Tree, not in the Bark; the Descent of which causes the Growth of the Tree in thickness, and 3dly that all the Summer Season the Juice circulates.

Brower, the Name of a Streight of S. America, in the Magebanick, taking its Name from its Discoverer, a Dutchman, in 1643. Also a Port in Zeland call'd Brower-Shaven.

Brown, the Name of several Families of England, especially Francis Brown Viscount Montacute, in 1619, was descended from Lary, Daughter of John Neville Marquis of Montacute; his Great Grandfather was exalted to this Title by Q. Mary, in 1554; was Ambassador to the Pope from her and the Parliament, and from Q. Elizabeth into Spain; and was one of the Lords that sat on Mary Q. of the Scots.

Brownists, Hereticks deriving their Name from one Robert Brown of Northampton, formerly a School-mist' in Southwark, then Ring-leader of this Sect, which denies all Forms of Prayer, and all Orders in the Church, both Episcopal and Presbyterian, affirms Marriage to be a civil Contract, and the Benediction of the Priest superfluous, declaim violently against Br's as Idolatrous, &c.

BRU

Brutus Junius a Native of A-L in Italy, was a learned Mathematician and Physician of the XVth Cen. who published several Books of value.

Brutus, the Name of the noble Family of the Bruts of Italy, descended from Evander Prince, that came in with Aeneas to the Normans, and passing afterwards to Scotland, gave Robert and David a Share in the Scottish Throne; on James I. of England's accession to the Throne, Brutus of King-L was made Baron of Kingloss in Scotland, his Son Thomas was made Baron of Warrington in Yorkshire, and John his Son was created Lord of Arden in 1664.

Brutus the Name of the Family of the Bruts in Italy, deriving it

BRU

Trade in Wool, Cotton, Silks, &c. they make Cloth, Stuffs, Tapistry, &c. this C stands in a Plain on the Canal of Reye; and the new one cut from thence to Oxford, brings up Ships of 400 Tun. But it is not so flourishing as it has formerly been; it was once the Staple of Wool of the English, and the Birth-place of Philip I. K. of Spain; and has given Name to several of its learned Citizens.

Bruges (John) a Flemish Painter of a great Name, much given to Chymistry, and the first that invented painting in Oil; his first Picture he presented to Alphonse I. K. of Naples, which surprized all the Italian Painters.

Bruma, a Hieroglyphick God of the Brachmans, to whom they attribute the forming as many Worlds, as there are the great parts of his Body, as his Brain, Eyes, Mouth, &c. 1411 number, to the very Air that surrounded him, which are

BRU

Bruna, Cruelty, Avarice, and Prostitution, yet obtained the Panegyrics of Pope Gregory and Germanus Bp. of Paris. Her second Husband was Meroveus Son of Chilperic, and retir'd to her Son Childebert; against whom she sided with Gondebaud the pretended Son and real Murderer of Claire: After this she got erned Theobert's States of Austrasia, with a bloody and cruel Hand, to gratify both her Lust and Ambition, which made the Nobles turn her naked out of the Km: but she was committed to her other Grandson Thierry by a poor Man that knew her, whom she rewarded with the Bpk of Auxerre, having there got the Sole Administration of Affairs; and to amuse the young Prince from Deference of Rule, she furnish'd him with Mistresses her self, and enjoy'd her Gallants, one of whom she made Mayor of the Palace in the Place of Bertaldus; but being rebuked by St. Didier Bp. of Vienne for her ill Courses, in an Assembly of Bps at Chalons, she had him condemned, and after ston'd to death, in 605, by her Guards; and having perswaded Thierry to war with his Brother Theodoric, and to the Extirpation of his Family, she poison'd him too, in 612, but was at last seized, condemn'd as Murderer of 10 Kings, rack'd 3 days in 614, and drawn betwixt 4 Horses, and burnt.

Bruni (Leonardo) a Native of Arezzo, in the XVth Cen. and thence called Aretin, was a great Master of Greek, and a Philosopher, Historian, and Orator; was prefer'd by Innocent VII to be Master of the Briefs; and by the Florentines, to be Secretary of their Republick; he was Author of many valuable Translations from the Greek; he lived single, was noted for Avarice, and dy'd in the 74th Y. of his Age; his Praise is wrote by several learned Men, and he lies buried in Noly.

BRU

Real Church in Florence.

Bruno (St.) Founder of the Carthusians, was a Native of France in the XIth and XIIth Cen. his Disgust to the World came from the Vanity of the Conversation of the People of Rheims where he liv'd; which with the forcible Intrusion of Manasse into the Apk. of Rheims, drove him into the Solitudes of the Chartreuse in Dauphine, allotted him by Hugh Bp. of Grenoble, where he first instituted his Order in 1084, and was sent for thence into Italy by Pope Urban II. who was his Friend, and had been his Disciple; but weary of the Forms in the Conversations of the Great, he retir'd into Calabria, and there dy'd in 1101, and was canoniz'd by Pope Leo X. in 1514, he wrote several Books, or several, at least, are attributed to him. There is a foolish Story of a dead Man's speaking at the Office of the Dead sung for him, that made him quit the World, and take to so severe a Course; but that is too foolish and fabulous to mention, and not thought of above 300 Ys after his Death, Jerson being the first that mention'd it.

Bruno or Brannon, the Source and Founder of several Families, as that of Bavaria, Saxony, Zellern, Brandenburg, &c. he liv'd in the VIII Cen. and did Homage to Charlemagne, and was Brother to Wittkindus K. of the Saxons.

Bruno the Great, Abp of Cologne, and D. of Lorraine, succeeded Wicfredus in the Apk in 953; he was Legate at Rome from the Emp. and the Government of Lorraine was given to him by his Brother the Emp. Otto I. whose Father Henry the Fowler or I. of Saxony had been Emp. before him; he was Uncle to Hugh Capet, and an active Prelate in all the Transactions of those Times.

Bruno (St.) was a Native of Italy, and of the Order of St. Benedict, M m a and

BRU.

and went into Bethel to preach the Gospel, and many Converts, was made the Bishop of the said Martyrdom, and was their Apostle: His name was Paul, 18.

He was a Bp. of Wartsburg in the XIX Cen. was Author of Five Comments on the Catholic Cre. he was later on Secy of the D. of Germany and the Emp. Conf.

[illegible]

BRU

a long struggle with the Ds of Brunswick for its Liberty, and suffer'd many Sieges from the time of Henry the Young in 1542, till it was reduc'd in 1670; it was one of the first Cities of Germany that receiv'd the Protestant Doctrine

Brunus or Bruni (Antonio) was born in Monduria in the King of Naples, in the beginning of the XVIIth Cen. and was a Poet of great Reputation among the Italian Princes, and Academies, who all admitted him a Member; he was Counsellor and Secretary of State to the D. of Urb'n; and not less noted for his jovial Humour than his Poetry; he dy'd in 1636, and left several Poetical Works, and was just finishing his Metamorphosis, when Death finish'd him.

Forbes (Court) a great Lawyer of the XVIIth Cen he was a Canon of Exeter and left several Books of the Civil Law

Denote by \mathcal{A} the set of all \mathcal{A} -algebras A such that A is a free \mathcal{A} -algebra on n generators and A is a free \mathcal{A} -algebra on n generators.

B K U

whom they imagine of the Trojan Race, and the great Grandson of Aeneas, who being banished Italy on his unfortunate and accidental killing his Father Sylvius, with his Followers pass into Greece, and set at liberty the captive Trojans there, having first taken, and then set at liberty Pandrusus K. of Greece, on condition of giving him his Daughter Ingas, and supplying his Trojans with Ships and Provisions to seek elsewhere their Fortune; landing again in Italy he takes many of Antenor's Trojans with him, and after a long Voyage, and various Adventures, he arrives at Totness in Devonshire, which he understands to be the Country promis'd him by the Oracle of Diana: he destroy'd the Race of Giants that had unpeopled this Country by their Cruelty, and changed its Name from Albion to Britain, in allusion to his own Name; he reigned 24 Ys. and divided the Country betwixt his three Sons, Lochrine, Camber, and Aibanaet; the last had Scotland; Camber, Wales; and Lochrine, Logris, or the middle space.

Brutus, (Lucius Junius) was the Son of Junius by a Daughter of Tarquinius Priscus; the Murder of his Father and Brother Marcus Junius by his Uncle Tarquin the Proud, made him for his own Safety to counterfeit the Fool, whence he had his Name of Brutus, design'd first as an Infamy, but turn'd by his Vertue to a perpetual Honour; for he, on the Rape of Lucrece, by Sextus, Tarquin's Son, turn'd out the Tyrant his Father, and established Liberty in Rome, and with Collatinus was her first Consul; and to shew that he lov'd nothing so well as the Good of his Country, and its Freedom from Tyranny, he put his Sons to Death for being in a Conspiracy for restoring the Tyrant Tarquin; engaging afterwards one of whose Sons in a Battle, he was kill'd by him, and kill'd him.

B R U

Brutus (Marcus,) of the Family of the former at about 455 Ys. distant, but possessed with the true Spirit of the Junian Race, that to set his Country free from the Usurpations of Julius Caesar, (a Man too good and brave for an Usurper) with the other Conspirators stabb'd him in the Senate-House on the Ides of March, in the 710th Y. of Rome; after whose death, the People being now prone to Slavery, he was fain to fly into Macedon to raise Men, and there joining Cassius, was beaten, not vanquish'd, by Anthony and Octavius, for they both chose to dye, rather than fall into their Hands; and prefer'd Death to a Life that cou'd not set their Country free: His Wife Portia, Cato's Daughter, hearing of his death, swallow'd burning Coals, and so killed her self.

Brutus (Peter) Bp. of Cattaro in Dalmatia, was a Native of Venice of the XVth Cen. and Author of several valuable Pieces.

Bruxels or Brussels, the capital C. of Brabant in the Netherlands, stands on the small R. of Saine or Sinne, which thro' a Canal cut in 1561, falls into the Scheld. This C. is the Residence of the Governour-General of the Spanish Low-Countries. The Traders are marshall'd into 9 Divisions, call'd Nations consisting of 52 Trades. Here are 7 principal Churches, 7 Gates, 7 Sheriffs, &c. who administer the C. Affairs; here is a Council of State, and a Court of Chancery, and no inconsiderable Trade. The King's and Governor's Palace, Churches, Town-house, &c. are the Buildings most considerable. 'Twas bombarded in 1695 by Villeroi.

Bruys (Peter) was a Native of the Mountains of Dauphine or Provence, in the XIIth Cen. and was burn'd alive at St. Gille's for an Heretick; having, at Tholouse, for 10 Ys, preach-

B R Y

...ant the Death Mass, and o-
... Church.

Bryant (John) of Lincoln's-Inn, Esq;
was a learned Lawyer of the Civil Law, and a learned Mathematician; and having been Secretary to three Masters of the Rolls, he was made Captain-Lieutenant to the Auxiliaries rais'd for the Jury of Court and Chancery for King Charles II. against the Parliament, he was remarkable for tossing
a Pike, for which and his Loyalty, at which time my Author, he had received the Arms given him by the King.

Bryant (Thomas) was born at ... whose War
... ly preserv'd, but
... to the Care of
... had taken his
... his lives, for at-
... North
... his
... 1671
...

B U C

Bubona, the Turelar Goddess of greater Cattle.

Buccon (John Nicholas) a Bi-Copica, who wrote of the Orig
the Turks in the XVth Cen.

Buccaferrri (Hieronimus) a fa-Civilian of Brescia in Italy, o-last Cen. all his Works are ne-published.

Buccellare or Buccellarius, is of rious and uncertain signifisome make it to mean Vassals or Spanish Visgoths, that had their of their Lord, from Bucella a sel, others, that it was one hoa Fief, that is, by it oblig'd to in portion to the Wars; others pose it to mean a band of Rob-who having had Commission to War in the East, turn'd all to pne and Plunder.

Buccon, a noble large Gal-the Deceit, in which he
... and in
... of Quality
...

would as it were kneel to take him up; and being wounded at the Battle where Paris was vanquish'd, he carried the K. to a Place of Safety, and then dropt down dead, for which Alexander built him a magnificent Tomb, and founded Baptista in the Place where he first fell. The Name comes from Bæ in Ox, and caput a Head, either from the likeness of a Head to an Ox, or from having an Ox Head mark'd on his Shoulders or Rump, &c.

Bæzer, or Bæzer, a Native of Scheyla in Alsacia of the XIVth Cent. embrac'd the Reformation in 1511, having after 15 Ys. Profession forsaken the Order of St. Dominic; he endeavour'd an Union among the Protestant Divines about the Encheiridion, taught Divinity 20 Ys. at Strasbourg, and in Edin. the VIth's Time was sent for over into England by Abp Cramer, and made Divinity Professor at Cambridge, and died there in 1551. Q. Mary disturb'd his Body from the Grave and had it burnt, but Q. Elizabeth had his Tomb repair'd. His Writings are various and numerous; his Learning considerable, and his Love general among the first Reformers.

Bæker, a Co. in the N. of Scotland, fertile enough for the Climate, but chiefly remarkable for harboring no Rats, for e'en adventurous Rats will die as soon as brought on the Ground; but this is only on the Credit of a Scotch Author, whose Veracity is not extraordinary. It has given the Title of Earl to several Families.

Buchanan (George) was a Native of the Co. of Lennox in the Scott Highlands in 1506, of a Family more remarkable for its Antiquity than Wealth, who oblig'd him to owe his Education in Learning, both in Ireland and Paris, to his Uncle's Generosity; but his Death in the ad V. of his Studies, joined with his own ill State of Health and Poverty, compell'd him to return to Scotland; whence again, with the French Auxiliaries, he returned to France; but this Essay at War was but short, his Distemper returning laid him up for the Winter, and then having heard Majors Sophistry at St. Ausens, went with him to Paris, was Grammar Professor at Barbara Colledge, imbib'd something of Luther's Doctrine, pass'd many Difficulties, and having found a favourable Entertainment from the young Earl of Cassils, came home to Scotland with him; whence once again designing for Paris, the K. made him Tutor to his Bastard Son James, having wrote before against the Franciscans, on the Discovery of a Conspiracy, in which they were suspected to be concern'd; by the K's Order he attack'd these Friars again under the Title of Franciscanus & Fraires; for which, the K. that employed him had like to have betrayed him to Cardinal Beason, for a large Sum of Money; but escaping Prison he got into England, and then into France, and at last to Bordeaux, where he wrote his Tragedies; whence again he was forc'd to fly to Portugal at the Invitation of that Prince, tho' the Inquisition caught hold on him there, and let him not go 'till after a Y. and half Imprisonment and Tortures; whence at last deliver'd, and confin'd to a Monastery of ignorant Monks, he at last got aboard at Lisbon for England; and thence into Scotland, where entering into the Kirk, he was one of the Commissioners deputed by the States against their Q. Mary Stuart to Q. Elizabeth, and having been now Tutor to James VI, he dy'd at Edinburgh in 1581. He was a very good Latin Poet; he left several Books, none of which made more

BU C

more Noble than his de Jure Regni apud Caro, at which it must be said de Jure apud Caro, culpatur ab illis.

B. C. (Abraham) was born at Selhausen near Wittenberg; he was a Scholar of Melancthon's in Divinity, and was a Protestant Minister at Freystadt in Sax., in the XVIth Century'd at Frankfort and Wittenberg, and left behind him several Chronological Works.

B. C. (B. C.) a Maritime Country of Friesland, which, with its Cape, is a Penin. by the Title of Capitate of Friesland, the use of Fox and Candale.

B. C. (B. C.) the Name of an ancient Library at Reading in Berkshire, which has been there ever since William I. and since come all the Books of England.

B. C. (B. C.) otherwise called John of Leyden was a Native and Bishop of that C. who being initiated in the Anabaptical Notions, of which he was the founder by him, ded, the Churches demolished, Having now repuls'd the B. Forces, and kill'd him near Men in the Attack, tho' they not the Siege. He next assume Title of K. of Justice and New Salem, married 3 Wives, and which John Mathias's Widow, Revelation of another of the Eschasts, Tuyentfchever, who had he must be exalted to the Th of his Father David, which sh be eternal, &c. So equipt in R Robes, and with a Guard of Saints, he administered a sort of sacrament in Bread, and she in W not content with their Munster Fe they sent out their Emissarie other adjacent Cs. to cry out pent, and be re-baptized, &c. but Magistrates took and hang'd th no better luck, but ths S' but in d'ed, for they were cut to pieces, but ths were c et, and they had plundered

BU C

B U D

Buckinghamshire, is of the old Saxon Foundation, and stands on the R. Ouse, in a plentiful Soil; was wall'd by K. Edw. the Elder in 915, to secure it against the Danish Inroads; the Ouse almost surrounds it, over which, on the N. side, there are 3 Stone-Bridges; here are the Ruins of a Castle; and it sends 2 Burgesses to Parliament, which now are Sir Edward Denton, Bar. and Roger Price, Esq;

Buckinghamshire, or Bucks, deriving its Name from its Co. T. Buckingham, one of the Mid-land Co. of England, 40 m. N. and S. and only 18 E. and W. containing 8 Hundreds, 15 Market-Towns, and 185 Parishes, was part of the ancient Catechlan, and of the Saxon Km. of Mercia, and now of the Dio. of Lincoln: the Air is healthy, and the Soil extreamly fruitful, and the whole is divided into two, by a Range of Hills, call'd Chiltern Hills. 'Tis bounded N. by Northamptonshire, S. by Berkshire, by Oxfordshire W. and E. by Hartford and Bedfordshire; contains, besides its Co. T. Wendover, Ailsbury, Agmondesham, Great Marlow, Chipping-Wicombe, which send each 2 Members to Parliament, besides the Knights of the Shire, which now are the Rt. Hon. William Ld. Cheyne Viscount Newhaven, and the Hon. Goodwin Wharton, Esq; It has given the Title of Earl to Walter Gifford, an eminent Norman, and to Thomas of Woodstock; and that of Duke to the Families of Stafford and Villers.

Buda, or Ofen stands on the right side of the Danube, and is the capital C. of Hungary; on the other side of the R. is Pest joyn'd to it by a Bridge of 60 Boats; the upper C. is on a Hill; the lower, called Wasserstadt, is a sort of Suburb, and is inhabited by Jews; and reaches from the upper C. to the Danube. The upper C. besides its Situation on the Slope of the Hill, is fortify'd with good Walls, and a Ditch, and several Pieces of Modern Fortification; it has been the Royal Seat of the Ks. of Hungary, since the Time of Sigmund, afterwards Emp. which gave it many beautiful Buildings, neglected and dilapidated by the Turks, who took it under Solyman II, in 1526, lost it the next Y. and recovered it in 1529. It was, in vain, attempted afterwards by several, 'till the D. of Lorraine besieging it the second time in 1687, took it by Assault with Sword in Hand, and in it much Treasure and Plunder; none of the least Treasure was the Library of the ancient Ks. of Hungary, not at all damaged, and was thence transported to Vienna, of which 'tis 54 German m. S. as it is 49 N. of Belgrade.

B U D

Budens (Gulielmus) born at Paris, in 1476, was Ld. of Merly-la-ville and Son of Johannes Budens, and Master of the Requests, and Counsellour to the K. Without Master or Fellow Scholar, he arriv'd to a great stock of Learning in the Greek Language, and in the Antiquities, as will appear from his Book de Aſſe, or of Ancient Coins. He was a Man of Quality, and yet so great a Lover of Learning, that he, not only gave all the Encouragement he cou'd to it himself, but got Francis I, to establish the College of Languages, &c. was pious, wife, obliging, modest, and honest; he dy'd at Paris in 1540, ordering no Pomp for his Funeral, but that he shou'd be buried by Night, without so much as a Torch. His Encomiums are numerous, and not only the learned of that Time, but those of the present, admire him; he wrote other Books of Value.

Budes, an Indian Philosopher, or Brackman of the 11d Cen. and Master of Manes, the Founder of a Heresy, whose Disciples taught that he was born of a Virgin.

B U E

Buda, a Venetian C. and Bish. of Dalmatia, under the Abp. of Antivari on the Adriatick Gulph, that follow'd the Late of Antivari, when the Governour basely surrender'd it to the Turks, but this last being recover'd was regularly fortify'd, and its accidental Sufferings by an Earthquake in 1667, are now repaired.

Buel (John IV of) a great French General of the XIVth Cen. who having been Lieutenant to the D. of Anjou at the Siege of Montpelier, and Great Master of Archers, was made, by the K. his Lieutenant General of 7 of the Southerly Prov. of France; he, in Conjunction with his Brother Peter, beat the English, and took their General, but was at last kill'd at the Battel of Azincourt, in 1415, among 16 others of his Name.

Buel (Louis) Count of Sancerre, a Soldier of great Reputation in the XVth Cen. serving under Philip II France II and Charles IV

B U G

Bugenhagen (John) was born Wellein in Pomerania in 1485, bei made Priest he was esteem'd a M of great Learning, and at first v^e zealous against the Reformation and Luther's Doctrine, tho' afterwards convinced he promoted more zealously than any one his time, introducing it into Hamburg, Lubeck, and Branswick; dy'd at Wittenberg, where he b^e been a Professor, in the 37th Y. his Age. He has commented St. Paul, and wrote other Books.

Bugia Salda, an African C on R. of the same Name, and capi of a Prov. of the like; 'tis a P of the Mediterranean in the I minions of Algiers. The Rem are thought to have been its Power; its Mosques and Colleges magnificent, and its Inhabitants about 8000 Families, are reputed i and valiant; it was taken by Spaniards in 1558, and re-taken by the Turks tho' Barbarossa attempt after K. Omar was taken Prisoner by Chief Mahomet, set his Son on the Throne of Fez, and was by him made chief Minister or Grand Visier; but having soon after, that on Mahomet's Approach to Fez, he had strangled the K. and his Son, and seiz'd the Km. he fled to Spain, and the Emp. Charles V being unable to assist him, he got an Army from John K. of Portugal, and after some Disputes with, join'd the Algerines, recover'd Fez, enlarg'd his Conquests, and being of the Royal Family, was made K. While he was meditating the securing his Acquisitions, Mahomet comes on him, fighting against whom, he was wounded in the Thigh by a Lance, of which he immediately died, which put an end to the War.

B U I

Buillon or Beuillon, a Town and Castle 16 Ls. from Liege, famous for giving Title of D. to Geoffrey of Beuillon K. of Jerusalem, by whom it was mortgaged to the Bp. of Liege; the Castle stands on a craggy Hill, at whose foot is the T.

Balarcbur, a famous Greek Painter, for whose Battel of the Magnesians, Candaules K. of Lydia, gave its weight in Gold.

Bulgares or Bulgari, People of Bulgaria, who holding several unorthodox Tenents, chose a Pope among themselves, and fix'd his Seat in that Country, whence they derive their Denomination; they believed only the New Testament, and refus'd to have Conversation with their Wives, or give Obedience to Bishops, &c. that lived not according to the Canons, and several other, if we may believe their Enemies Representation of 'em, which seldom uses to be very fair or very faithful; they say the French Abigenses consulted these Bulgarian Popes in Cases of Controversy, for their Determination.

Bulgaria, once an European K. now a Turkish Prov. lying from Serbia,

B U L

by which 'tis bounded W. along the Danube to its Mouths on the Black Sea which bounds it E. as it is by a Range of Mountains S. which divide it from Macedon and Romania, as the Danube does from Moldavia and Valachia. It contains Sophia its capital C. which being taken by Amurat II, the whole Kingdom submitted; Nigobeli, of old Nicopolis on the Danube, where the Christians were defeated by Bajazet I, in 1396; Varna on the Black Sea; Aparia, Dera, &c. this Country was part of the Lower Musie.

Bulgarians, the Inhabitants of the foregoing Country, who are thought to take their Name from their Original Habitation, suppos'd the Asiatick side of the Volga, quasi Vulgariani. In the Vth Cen. they pass'd the Danube, and in 845, their King Bageris being chistened by the Name of Michael, his People followed him, the Pope and Patriarch of Constantinople contended for the spiritual Sovereignty of these People, but a Council call'd in 870, gave it in favour of the Greeks; there are two Romish Bps among them now, the rest are Greek. They are thought to have sprung from the ancient Geta and Gepidi.

Bulgarus de Bulgaris, a Civilian and Canonist of Bononia in Italy, his Reputation in the XIIIth Cen. made him Umpire of many Controversies of Princes; he here read both Civil and Canon-Law a considerable time.

Bull, or Bulla in cura Domini, a Bull of Excommunication and Anathema read on Holy Thursday against all the Papists call Hereticks, after which the Pope throws as his Thunder a Torch; those Crimes that are condemn'd by this Bull, are not to be absolv'd by any but the Pope, unless on Point of death. The Council of Trent declared this Bull of no Force, and France indeed has often

BUL

agnat as to what in Rights of the of the the last from a annexed to it, the other IV, who in a
 the which restes all
 of
 and Offices of and he they
 the
 the
 and Latin
 the
 to the
 which are not to the Laws of a great host,
 of
 of

BUL

the famous Q. Anne Bulen, Mother of Q. Elizabeth, and had besides an other Daughter and a Son Bulen (Anne) the Daughter of Sir Thomas aforesaid, was born in London, and privately married to K. Henry VIII, which was own'd as soon as the Marriage with Q. Catherine was made void by Act of Parliament;
 at Easter she was publicly own'd as Q.
 and the following Year a true crown'd with extraordinary Pomp; but the Inconstancy of Henry gave her but a short duration of Greatness, for soon after he caus'd her to be beheaded under a false Accusation of Adultery, which she entirely clear'd her self of, tho' she was condemn'd because the Tyrant wanted to be rid of her,
 to marry another, as he did Jane Seymour the next day after she was put to death.
 Bullingbrook, only remarkable for the Birth of Henry IV. and was a Regal Honourable man, I fear, a great St who was, who detest himself from this Outer

B U N

extremely remarkable for its intervals of flowing till 1638, e'er since which time it has kept a regular Course like other Springs, before which it stop't 3 hours and flow'd 1; about a League from their Head, the Waters bury themselves in the Ground.

Bunar, an Athenian Umpire betwixt the Eleans and Calionians, whose dilatory Proceedings run into a Proverb for all Delays in Judiciary Courts; Bunas is Judge.

Bander (John) a learned Dominican of Ghent in the XVIth Cen. and one of the Low-Country Inquisition. He was Author of several Books of Divinity.

Basel (Peter) of Thebes, a Man of equal Piety and Learning, especially in the Latin Tongue, which he had to a Tulian Excellence: passing to Venice with the French Ambassador, he by it obtained the Esteem of all the learned Italians: He exchange'd this Life for another when he was 47 Ys old, and his Latin Letters were publish'd by Stephens.

Bungay (Thomas) a Doctor of Divinity of Oxford, and a Franciscan of the XIIIth Cen. contemporary and Friend of Fryer Bacon, a Man of Learning in the Mathematicks, which got him as well as Bacon the Reputation of a Magician with the Vulgar, for his being Provincial of his Order, shew'd their different Opinion of him; he wrote of Natural Magick, and Comments on the Master of Sentences.

Bunge, a dependent Km. &c. of Japan in the Isle of Ximo, whose K. and People having receiv'd the Christian Faith, resign'd it again on the Japanese Persecution, occasion'd by the Discovery of the Jesuits Design on that Empire, for the K. of Portugal.

Buntin (Henry) or Henricus Buntingius, a Native of Saxony, and a Chronologer of the XVIth Cen. he published some Books both in History and Chronology.

B U R

Bunaccisi, or Perrin del Fagna, an Italian Painter in the beginning of the XVIth Cen. of great note; he work'd under Raphael in the Vatican, Julio Romano, and Giovanni Francisco Bernio were his intimate Friends, the Daughter of the last being his Wife; after his loss of all his Fortune at the Siege of Rome, he painted the Palace of Prince Derio at Genoa, which got him a great deal of Fame; and being return'd to Rome, was prevented by a sudden Death, from finishing the Paintings he had begun in the Hall of Kings in the Vatican.

Bupalus, a Carver or Statuary of Reputation in the LXth Olym. who with Athenis or Auterinus, making a ridiculous Statue of Hipponax the Poet, who was no very handsome Man, they were forced to hang themselves for shame, by the Satyr of that Poet on them in return; and so the Pen overcame the Chizze.

Bura, once a City on the Gulph of Corinth in Achaia, destroy'd by an Earthquake, is now but a heap of Rubbish called Bernites: it was anciently famous for the Oracle of Hercules in its Neighbourhood, deliver'd by Dice much like our Fortune-telling Book, where the Number on the Dice thrown, directs you to the same Number on the Table thrown upon, and there you find your Fortune sought.

Burchard, Bp. of Worms, Preceptor to Conrade, afterward Emp. who made a great Collection of Canons for the Instruction of the Priests of his Diocess in Penance, &c. he lived in the XIth Cen.

Burdin or Bourdin (Maurice) born in Limoges, following Bernard Abp. of Tolosa into Spain, he was by him made his Archdeacon, thence prefer'd to the Bpk of Coimbra in Portugal, and thence remov'd to the Abpk. of Bragas; and Paschal II denying nying to sell him the Abpk of Toledo, he sided with Hen IV, Emp. drove Papchal's Successor into France, and was made Antipope, called Gregory VIII; but Calixtus II, by Cardinal John de Crema, besieged Sutri where he was, and had him surrendered by the Inhabitants, and brought to Rome.

B U R

Burdin. (Benet) a learned Geographer of the XVIth Cen. he lived at Padua, and published a Map of Italy, and the adjacent Isles.

Bureau (John) Lord of Montglat, rose from the place only of ordinary Receiver of Paris, first to Master of the Artillery of France for the Siege of Mant in 1439, and that Office he executed in the King's War with the rebellious Princes, he assisted in many Battels, and in the Recovery of great part of France from the English, and negotiated the Reduction of Bordeaux, &c. and was made principal Mayor of it; Lewis XI made him a Knight at his Co-who not to lose all his Ransom, agreed on Terms he wou'd ne'er have accepted otherwise; the King liberally rewarded him on his Return, by which he bought Lordships, and was retain'd as chief Physician to Henry II.

B U R

Burges, the Capital C. of old Castile, and erected into an Abpk by Pope Gregory XIII. and is one of the largest, finest, and most populous Cs of Spain. it stands on the Declivity of a Hill, at whose Foot runs the R. of Arlanca, 'tis a trading T. and adorn'd with many fine Buildings, among which the Palace of the Abp. and of the Constable, are the most magnificent; its Suffragans are Pampluna, Calahorra, and Placencia.

Burges (Johannes Baptista) a Native of Valencia in Spain, and an Austlin Monk that assisted at the Council of Trent, and wrote of the several lawful ways of suppressing Heresy.

BUR

called the Mother of Wine Corn, and is considerable for military, containing, besides its tal, the Parliamentary C. of Autun, Macon, Auxerre, Châlon, on the Seine, Auxerre, Ava-
l. dispersed in its several Proms of Maconnais, Auxois, Châtillon-Chalonnais, Montague, Surjeance, divided into Charolois, Fontain-gisse, and Tarique, &c. and these x'd by the Rs. on the E. by the , Debonz, Burjure, Onche and
; W. by the Loire, which dis it from Bourbonnois, the Arroux, sur, &c. The People are hosile and civil, and the whole ntry is bounded E. by Franche-te and Bresse; W. by Bourbon-and Nivernois; S. by Beaujolois;
N. by Champagne, and stretches 50 L. N. and S. and 30 E. and urgundy (the Upper) Franche-te, or the County of Burgunits capital C. is Dole, besides ch it contains Besançon, Vesoul, Amour, Orglet, &c. and various besides the Soane, which is its cipal. Some divide it into the er or Anont, the Middle or De-

, and the Lower or Aval; it was Country of the old Sequani, and ounded E. by Switzerland and ce, W. by the Dm. of Burgundy part of Champagne; S. by Bresse,
y. and Gex; and N. by Lorrain.
ibounds in Wood, Wine, Corn,
and was taken by Lewis XIV, 668, surrender'd at Aix la Cha-
, and taken again by France in 4.

urienfis (Ricardus) a Benedictine Native of Suffolk of the XIVth
l. that pass'd thro' many Tempo-and Spiritual Posts, as Ld. Chan-our, Ld. Treasurer, and Bp. of ham; a mighty Patron of Learn-
, and wrote a Book call'd De re Librorum; or, Of the Love of is, having collected a Library in all Arts and Sciences. Among his Letters are some to Petrarch.

BUR

Buris and Spartis, two Spartans of an Heroick Fortitude, whose Lives being pardoned by Xerxes, which they had voluntarily offered to what Punishment he pleas'd, for the Murder of the Persian Embassa-dors, by the Lacedemonians, refus'd to stay in Persia, and to be chief Favourites to the Prince, saying on the Proffer, That since they had by his Clemency sav'd their Country, they wou'd not forsake it for all the Glory of Persia, which cou'd not equal their Liberty.

Burlington, a Port and m. T. of the East-Riding in Yorkshire; from its Key the Bay has taken its Name, and the T. is chiefly remarkable for giving Title of Earl to the Family of Boyle, since K. Charles II, before whom they were Earls of Cork in Ireland.

Burrhus (Afranius) Tribune of the Pretorian Cohorts to Claudius and Nero, who being suspected by the latter, was poison'd under Pretence of curing his sore Throat:
he was a Man of Valour and old Roman Severity, and had been Governour to Nero.

Burrough-Bridge, a Market T. 204
m. from London, in the W. Riding of Yorkshire, on the R. Yore, well built and remarkable for the Devils Bales.

Bursa, anciently Prusa ad Olympum, and the Capital of Bithynia in *Asia
the less*, thought to have been built by Prusias, K. of that Country; it was taken first by Osman or Otbeman, in 1300, who made it the Seat of the Turkish Empire. It was restor'd to the Emp. of Constantinople by Tamerlane, in 1399, and being re-taken by Solyman, the Son of Besazet, it remains ever since in the Turks Hands, and sends e'ery two Months a Caravan to Persia; it is 30 m. E. of Constantinople, and near as large and populous, divided into Up-

BUR

Upper and Lower; the Upper being fenced by a Cattle and Walls, and all round with in Mosques, and the Town of the Ottoman Princes.

Barn the Name of several Towns in England, particularly Barnon on Trent, in Staffordshire, noted for its stately Bridge of 36 Arches, and the Victory of Edward II. over Thomas Earl of Lancaster, and the Barons. Also of Barnon or Buxton in Derbyshire, where are 9 Springs of Mineral Waters rising close together, one of which only is very cold, and all the rest hot: they are frequented as Medicinal.

Bury, or S. Edmundsbury, a Borough and m. T. on the R. Lark in the W. of Suffolk. St. Edmund martyred by the Angles for not renouncing Christianity, was bury'd here, and from thence it took its Name. Cnutus, Son of Sven, who killed him, as an expiation built here a magnificent Monastery endowing

BUS

See, whose Fame for Architecture, and the Mechanick Powers, was so famous, that the Commonwealth of Pisa, in 1016, sent for him to build their Cathedral or Duomo, one of the finest Piles of Italy. By the Mechanick Powers he could make a few lift, what many could not do wit hout them.

Busbec, or Busquebin (Angerlus Ghistor) ow'd his Birth to Comines in Flanders; he was the Emperor's Ambassador to the Turkish Court, which Journey he describes, and afterwards to conduct the Princess Elizabeth to Charles IX. of France, and there order'd him to continue Resident. Having been here again in 1592, foreseeing the ill Events that would happen from the Parliaments deserting the League, for which the Emperor was, he retiring fell into the Hands of Soldiers, where all Treatment was the Occasion of his Death 22 Days after at a Gentleman's House near Rome, the Philippus of Appian Claudius, by Sons, Marcus and Decimus, as grew common to the Plebeians, as blood attoning the Infernal Gods, nor that of the Enemies, before too inhumanly sacrific'd at their Fathers Tombs. These Shows were at length exhibited in the Amphitheatres to divert the People.

Batocides, or Philip the Son of Batocissus, was a Native of Crotone, an ancient C. of Italy, and so famous for his Beauty, that being kill'd in a Combat against the People of Agesta in Sicily, his Enemies erected a Statue, and offer'd Sacrifice to him. He excell'd also in many Exercises, as his Olympick Prizes might demonstrate.

Bates, being banished Thrace by K. Boreas his Father, for attempting the Murder of Lycurgus, his Brother, sail'd, with his Followers, to the Isle of Naxos; and liking it, went for Wives to Thessaly; where, at the Bacchanalia, they seiz'd several, and among the rest the Nymph Coronis, one of the Nurses of Bacchus, who making Bates mad, he drown'd himself in a Well.

Batius (Adrianus) or Budt, a Cistercian Monk of Antwerp, and Abbot of St. Saviour's, whose Probity was as considerable as his Learning. He was Author of several Books, and liv'd in the XVIIth Cen.

Butler (James) the present Duke of Ormond, is Son of Thomas Earl of Offory by Amalia of Nassau, who equals his Father's and Grandfather's Bravery, but excels all in Magnificence for the Honour of his Country, for which he has ventured more, than those, who by their fighting were to make their Fortune, while he impair'd his own to serve the Publick; and for which he has often exposed his Life, and now at last has ventur'd it, not only thro' the Sword but Seas. His Grandfather was made D. of Ormond of England by K. Charles II, in 1682, being before so of Ireland; he derives his Family from Thesbald, chief Butler of Ireland to K. Richard, who deriv'd himself from the Counts of Briou in Normandy, taking his Name from his Office.

Batrino, the Ancients Bathrinum, or Bathrinus, standing on the Gulph of Batrino, over-against that of Corfu, belonging to Venice, and repair'd from the Ruins brought on it by the Turks, but inconsiderable for any thing, but the resort of the Fishermen of Epiros and Albania.

Batrino, a noted Civilian of Bononia in the XVth Cen. who wrote several Books of Canon and Civil Law.

Buxerf (John) or Buxerfius, Father and Son, Hebrew Professors of Basle, great Masters of the Rabbinical Learning, and great Defenders of the Hebrew Points; to which the German, and Geneva Divines are so devoted from the Influence of the Buxerfs on them: tho' they are very great Hebricians, yet their Judgment is often question'd, as depending in their Opinions too much on the Rabbies, which Capellus, has more judiciously, avoided.

Buzalin (John) a learned Jesuit of Cambray, who, in the XVIIth Cen. wrote several Books.

Buzges, a noble Athenian, whom Demophoon trusted to carry the Palladium to Athens; and who is said to have been the Inventor of plowing, &c. his Name being from Bes an Ox, and Zey a Plow.

Byas, a memorable Greek Carver of the Isle of Naxos, who invented, before the 55th Olym. a sort of Marble Slates, to cover Temples and magnificent Structures with.

Byrsa, according to the Greek Pronunciation, but Betza according to the Phenicians, who, under Dido, founded it, signifies a Fortress, and is the Castle of Carthage, in which was the Temple of Esculapius, burnt by Arcula's Wife, when the C. was taken. For giving this a C. Etymology, drew'd the Fate of the Isle of Ground, which Dr. Baugh.

C A B

Dr. Baugh (a learned, but vicious Author of the Dominion Order, &c.) when he is very particular in his Supplement to Baronius. He was, by Country, a Pole, and dy'd at Rome in 1637; the number of his Books are incredible, but his Quarrel with the Cesarists about the subtle Doctor, and that with Hervart, involv'd him in Arguments he cou'd by no means answer.

C A B

C.

C Cast in Barrow Measure, containing 108 Gallons of Water. Cast the King, succeeded his Father Charles, who endeavoured to set up the lascivious Custom of having Women in common, was dethroned in 497; but upon the Reformation was re-inthroned in 500. He was a great Enemy to the Monks, for their Diligence cost many banished monks, and costed the Remains of the Abbeys at Beaumont. He was a ty Head.

Cabalista, or a Cabalist, is one well skill'd in the Jewish Cabalistical Learning.

Caballo (Emmanuel) a famous warlike Genesi, who has render'd his Name illustrious by his bold and successful undertaking, in delivering the C. of Genesi when it was besieg'd, and upon the Point of being surrend'rd to the Arabs.

Calixtus (Nicolaus) a German Abp. of Avinion, dy'd about 1200, he

C A C

the E. and so from Tunis S. E. The Lake that makes the Port is call'd by Pichay, Tritonis, and is said to be hot, and to cure the Leprosy.

Cabestan, a Borough of France in the Prov. of Languedoc, near Nismes, from whence William of Cabestan, a Provincial Poet that liv'd in the XIIIth Age, took his Name. He was very unfortunate; for being beloved by one Lady, she attempted to poison him, for fear he should prove unconstant; and the Husband of another Lady, kill'd him out of Jealousy.

Cabira, a Nymph, Wife to Valcan, and Mother of Camillus. This Camillus had 3 Sons of their Grandmother's Name, from whom came the Nymphs Cabrites, cited by Strabo in his 10th Book, and mention'd by many Poetical Historians.

Cabiri, one of the great Deities of Samothracia. Varro calls them Diui Potentes, being the same that the Samothracians name the Powerful Gods, which are Heaven and Earth, and were held in such Veneration, that it was a Crime to mention their Names among the People.

Cabal, a T. and Km. of the East-Indies, in the Territories of the Great Mogul, which was his first Seat. It is in this Km. that the Rs. Nilab and Bebat that discharge themselves into the Indus, have their Original beginnings, which are so much increased in their Progress.

Caca, the Sister of Cacus, worshipp'd by the Romans with great Devotion, in a little Chappel call'd by her Name, where the Vestal Virgins offer'd their Sacrifices. She discover'd her Brother's Thefts.

Cacaca, a T. in the Prov. of Gavril, in the Km. of Fez, upon the Coast of the Mediterranean Sea, 7 L. at least, from Melile by Sea, tho' but 2 by Land.

Cacals (Austrian) of Valladolid in

C A D

Spain. He was a long time Preacher to Charles V, but having quitted the Communion of the Church of Rome, and turn'd Protestant, he was condemned by the Popish Inquisition, and burn'd as a Heretick at Valladolid, in 1559.

Caccialupi (John Baptist) a celebrated Lawyer of Bononia, living in the beginning of the XVth Cen. his Opinion in Civil and Ecclesiastical Matters was highly valued, and so were the several Tracts he wrote in his Profession.

Caceres, a T. of Asia in the Isle of Lucan, one of the Philippines, with a Bpk. Suffragan of Manilla, situate upon the Streights of Manilla, having a Port that belongs to the Spaniards.

Cachan, a T. of Persia in the Prov. of Terak, 21 L. from Isfahan towards Kom. In this T. is made the best Silver and Gold Brocades of all Persia. Here are about 1000 Jewish Families, who pretend to be descended from the Tribe of Judah.

Cacus, a fellonious Shepherd of Italy, who lived upon Mount Aventine before it was joined to Rome. He stole Cows from Hercules, and that the Theft might not be detected, nor the Cattle traced to his Den, he drew them backwards by the Tails; but this Theft being discovered by the bellowing of the stolen Cattle, when they smelt the rest of their Company about the Den, Hercules broke open the Door of the Cave, and kill'd Cacus with his Club, and put an end to that contrivance.

Cadi, Judges of the Civil and Criminal Causes in the Turkish Empire, in some Places called also Mollas.

Cadilefcher, chief Judge in all Cases, in the Turkish Divan. There are but 3 of them in all the Turkish Empire, viz. of Natalia, Grand Cairo, and Armenia. The Soldiers were sometimes under this Jurisdiction, but now are judged by their own Officers.

CVD

Situated in the Sea Port near the Western Coast of Adalysia in Asian North the Straights of Go- land formerly call'd Tartessus and Call'd thus in length & L. in breadth is a very fine Place but half a L. from the Baye call'd Pont de Spain long which joins it to the main Land. There are no Mountains in it, but no want of which is the only Weak. The Entrance into the Port is dangerous, but not at the Rocks call'd the De Spain and Spain. Here the East and West Gallies arrive, with the Gallies for which they draw the Spain. Its Castle was built by the Spain and is now, being Spain only with the Spain fortified after the Modern Fashion. The Spain on defends the Mouth of the Spain and is built by the Spain. It is inhabited by a very Marching who have a Spain City.

CAD

Cadizadelires, a Sect of melancholy Mahometans, that much resemble the ancient Sticks, shunning Feasting and Diversions, and affecting Gravity in all their Actions. They make a mixture of Christianity and Mahometism, practise Circumcision as the Jews do, and make use of the Example of Jesus Christ to authorize it.

Cadmus, K. of Thebes, Son to Agenor K. of Phœnicia, Brother to Phoenix and Cilix, and Grand-Child to Epaphus. He was sent by his Father to find out Europa, which Jupiter had taken away; but not hearing of her, after several long and dangerous Voyages, he consulted the Oracle at Delphi, who enjoin'd him to build a C. in a Place whither an Ox shou'd conduct him: Who preparing in the first Place to sacrifice to the Gods, first offering even to the Fountain of Lethe, and then to the Water, but they were all devour'd by a Dragon. He was to comfort him for this loss.

C A D

the Invention of History. He lived Ann. Mundi 2870, 1184 Ys. before Christ. There was another of the same Name and Place that wrote the History of Africa in 16 Books.

Cadmus, Bp. of Parma, lived in the XIth Age, and was chosen Pope only by a Prelate who were of the Emp. Hen. the IVth's Faction, and was named Honorius II, in opposition to Alexander II, in 1061. He was condemn'd at a Council held in Mantua, and dy'd miserably.

Cadurac, a Co. in Italy in the Marquisate of Trevisano, in the Territory of the Republick of Venice, N. of all Italy towards the Alps. Its Capital is Pieve de Cadore, situate upon the R. Piave; but now 'tis of no great Consideration unless for its Antiquity.

Cadruin, an Abbey of the Dio. of Sarlat in Perigord, where the pretend'd Winding Sheet of Jesus Christ is kept; and is yet never the worse for wearing, if you can think it the same.

Cadrites, a sort of Mahometan Friars, who spend a great part of the Night in turning round, holding each others Hands, and repeating the Word Hai, which signifies Living, and is one of the Attributes of God, one playing upon the Flute all the time. This they do every Friday Night without Intermission, and yet can assign no Reason for their Practice.

Cadwallus was chosen Vice-Roy of Scotland after Gillus was expell'd for Mal-Administration, being chief of the Faction that conspired against him. He also follow'd Gillus into Ireland, and gave him a total Rout, but returning back into Scotland, lost the greatest part of his Army and his Booty in a Tempest, for Grief whereof he died.

Caduceus, the Wand or Rod which Mercury received from Apoll in exchange of the 7 stringed Harp, which he had given him. According to the Fable, this Rod had the Virtue to appease all Differences; which Mythologists say was only the Power of Eloquence, which satisfies the Mind, composes the Heart, and brings Men first to Reason, and then to Peace. Poets give this Rod two other Properties, as to conduct Souls to Hell, or deliver them from thence, and to cause or disturb Sleep.

C E C

Cacilius, was of no higher Quality, than Son to a Slave made free, but was had in great Esteem for his admirable Parts. He was a Native of Calantis in Sicily; taught Rhetoric at Rome in the time of Augustus; writ a History of the Slaves War, and made a Collection of what Orators said, for and against History.

Cacilius, or the Cacilian Family, one of the most considerable among the Plebeians of Rome, of which there were 12 Magistrates at one time, who in 12 Ys. were raised to the highest Posts in Rome, to which, some were so fortunate in War, as to add the Glory of a Triumph.

Cacilius Metellus (Quintus) a Consul and Roman Captain. He subdued Macedonia, defeated the Acchians, and won great Victories in Spain. He was carried to his Grave by 4 of his Sons, after he had the Satisfaction to see 3 of them honour'd with the Dignity of Consul, and the 4th carry the Honour of a Triumph, for his brave Achievements in the Service of his Country.

Cacilius Metellus (Lucius) Consul, and a Roman Commander, thought to be the Son of Cacilius Dentus. He warred in Sicily against the Carthaginians; won Therac and Leparis, and entirely defeated Asdrubal the Carthaginian General near Palermo. He was twice Consul, viz. in 503, and 507.

Cacilius Metellus (Quintus) Son of L. Cacilius Metellus Calvus, who was Consul, and obtain'd the Name of Numidianus, for overthrowing Jugurtha.

C A E

the K. of Nardis, in the 645th Y. of Rome, and it was then he got the Consulship with M. Junius Silanus. He performed other glorious Actions; but because he refused to swear to the Law of Aculea, which was introduced by Compulsion, he was banish'd to Smirna, A. R. 654, and was recall'd the next Y. at the humble Petition of his Son, who for that reason was justly called the Pious.

Cecilius (Statius) a Comick Poet, born in the Neighbourhood of Milan; he lived in the 179th Y. before our Saviour's Birth. He was contemporary with Ennius, and wrote several Comedies, some of which are collected by Robert Stephens, and the rest are lost.

Cicero, an eminent Civilian in Rome, living in the III^d Cen. who, being converted to the Christian Faith, was very instrumental afterwards in promoting it.

Cicero, a T. of France

C A F

in Britain, London and Tork being the other two. It was desolated in the Reign of Henry II. but now is an indifferent large T. and the Houses for the most part are built of Stone. It stands 9 m. E. from Landaff, 10 S. E. from Brecknock, and 61 S. W. from Hereford.

Caerphilly, a m. T. in the Co. of Glamorgan in Wales, Capital of its Hundred; the E. of Pembroke has a Noble Castle in it, 122 m. from London.

Caernarff, a m. T. of Flintshire in Wales, in Coleful Hundred; 155 m. from London.

Cassa, a T. in little Tartary upon the Coast of the Black Sea, near the Bosphorus Cimmerianus. It is now in the Hands of the Turks, who maintain in it a strong Garrison. There is in this City 2 Forts, in one of which the Baba's reside, and the other is an Arsenal. They count 4000 Houses in Cassa whereof 1200 belong to Turks and Tartars, and the other

C A G

Gagae, are generally unknown. Gagae says, that those who lived about the Cape of Good Hope, were the most hideous and brutish People he ever saw: Their Language was harsh and scarce articulate: The better sort were clothed with Skins; the rest had only a nasty Rag to hide their Privities. They know nothing of Gold or Silver, God or Religion: Neither Men or Women are ashamed to be seen naked; and indeed, they seem to be but a sort of Human Beasts. They sell, or rather exchange their Cattel for Aqua Vita, Tobacco, and old Iron.

Gagau, King of the Scythians in the European Scythia, who having kill'd Gisulphus D. of Lombardy in Italy, besieged Frinli in 612, which being delivered to him by Remilda, Gisulphus's Wife, he married her for a Day; and the next, delivered her to two young Men to satisfy her immoderate Lust, and then impal'd her, and burnt the C.

Gagliari, Capital of the Island of Sardinia, an Abp's See, and the Seat of the Viceroy, is a good Sea port, and considerable for its Commerce with Foreigners.

Gagnati (Marfilis) an Eminent Physician of Vernia, living in the beginning of the XVIIth Cen. he understood the Mathematicks and Philosophy, no less than the Business of his own Profession.

Gabari upon the Lot, a T. of France, Capital of the Prov. of Querci, with a Bpk. suffragan to Bourges, and an University. It is the Divina Cadurcensis of the Ancients, which since the erecting the German Empire, Authors call Cadurcensis. The Bp. hereof takes the Title of Count of Cabers, and has, as is commonly reported, the Privilege to officiate in his Boots and Spurs.

Gajania, or Buthnia Orientalis, a Prov. of Sweden in Finland, between the Gulph of Bethula and Lapnia.

C A I

Cajoplar, a T. of Phenicia, situate on the Sea-side at the Foot of Mount Carmel. It was a Bpk. Suffragan of Tyra, and the Residence of many great Men, when the Christians were Masters of the Holy Land; but now is desolate and uninhabited.

Caiphar, High Priest of the Jews, who condemn'd our Saviour Christ to death; but being put out of his Office by the Emp. Vitellius, after he had enjoy'd it seventeen Ys, he was so sensibly afflicted with the Disgrace, that he laid violent Hands upon himself, through Despair.

Cajane, is an Island in the Southern America in Guiana, about 100 Ls. from the River of the Amazon. This Island is about 18 Ls. in Circuit, with good and fertile Ground. It has been interchangeably in the hands of the French and Dutch, as they could drive one another out, from the Year 1625 till 1677, when the French regain'd it by Vice-Admiral d'Estrees. The Natives are generally a lazy, vagabond People, few in number, and often change their Abode. They live on Fish, have many Wives, and obey their Petty Kings as long as they please.

Caimean, is the Name of the Governour of Constantinople, who is Lieutenant to the Grand Vizier, and as often as he is in Constantinople, the Caimean has no Power, but governs all when he is absent.

Caiman, an Island of the N. America in the Gulph of Mexico, famous for catching of Sea Tortoises. There is another place of the same name and in the same Gulph, which belongs to the English, and is called Caiman Pequena, or little Caiman.

Cain, whose Name signifies Acquisition, Eldest Son of Adam and Eve. He murder'd his Brother Abel, and the ancient Tradition of the Hebrews asserts, that he was killed by Lamech, Adam's Son, 688.

Caiman

CAI

Caesar the ancient, Son of Enor, was born in March, '6, his Father being 92 yrs old.

Canan the young, Son of Aphrazel was b. in Ann. Mundi 1694
His Name is neither found in the Hebrew Original of the Books of Genesis, nor in the vulgar Latin or English, Josephus, Strabo, Herodotus, Arrian, Julius
Africanus, nor in St. Epiphanius, Luther's, or the Translation of the Septuagint, in the Genealogy of St. Luke.

Cause of Hereticks, a Sect of the Church of the Hd Cen.
who held that they were to be sav'd, was to make them in all manner of things, both in their Lusts in all wicked Actions. They had a particular Veneration for Adam, Noah, Deborah, &c. & for the Virgin Mary,
at which time she was conceived by
The Holy Spirit, & born of the Virgin Mary. And they thought they were to be sav'd.

CHI

without its Suburbs and the Buildings that are all round it, is not bigger than London or Paris. Here is the curious Manufactory of Tapestries called Turkey-Work. The Pyramids and Mummies that are near Cairo, are worth the Sight. Its Hebrew Name is Noph, and the true Arabick Name is Luchabira, signifying Impetuous, Mistress. It is commonly thought one of the largest Cities in the World, containing within its Walls 80000 Families, Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Merchants. It is seated in a beautiful Plain, two m. from the Nile, and is environed with stately Walls. B. B. Zavalas one of its Suburbs contains 1200 Families, B. B. Babak, 3200, Bulach, 4700, and Carafa 2000; but the Suburbs stand a m. or 2 from the C. Cairo in 1666, was 8 m. in circumference. Now the B. B. Babak, Bulach, and Carafa are all walled in, and are called the New City. The Old City, which is the most ancient, is 1 m. in circumference, and is now inhabited

C A I

Cai was intended only for a Harbour for that Nation, to store up the Spoils of Africa. Its seated in a sandy Plain, that bears neither Corn nor Trees, but has plenty of Water from Mount Gafus, 12 m. from it. A great while it was the seat of the Arabian Learning in Africa: But in after times it was sacked, and could never since recover its ancient Splendor, being now only inhabited by Tanners, and subject to the K. of Tunis.

Caitheffe, a Co. in the N. of Scotland, abounding with Pasturage, and pierced in many places with the Arms of the Sea.

Caius and Lucius, Roman Princes, Sons of Agrippa by his Wife Julia, Daughter of Augustus, and adopted by that Empe or The Roman Knights at 15 Ys. of Age: proclaimed them Principes Juventutis, Princes of the Equestrian Order; but both dy'd, as soon as they began to tast the Happiness of their Fortune.

Caius (St) or Gaius, Pope, a Sclavonian by Nation, and Kinsman to the Empe. Dioclesian. The Care he took to encourage some Martyrs as they were suffering, occasion'd his own Martyrdom in 296, after he had been Pope 12 Ys. and 5 Days.

Caius, or Kayes (John) a famous Physician, born at Norwich, was brought up in the Universities of Cambridge and Padua, and lived in the 16 Cen. At his death he gave his Estate to build a New College to Gowil-Hall in Cambridge, and assign'd a perpetual Maintenance for 23 Students. Its now called Gowil and Kayes College.

Caket, a Kn of Georgia towards Mount Caucalus; it is properly the ancient Iberia.

Calaber, (Quintus), composed a Greek Poem, entituled the Parabipomenon of Homer, because it is the Continuation and Accomplishment of the Iliads.

Calabria was the Name of an ancient

C A L

Prov. in the Km. of Naples in Italy, but now is apply'd to another, which is no part of that which had heretofore the Name of Calabria. It was bounded on the N. and E. by the Adriatick Sea, and on the S. by Apulia. The present Calabria, is the most southern part of that Country, and is a Dm. 'Tis bounded on the N. by Basilicata, on the E. by the Ionian Sea, on the W. by the Tyrrhenian, and on the S. by the Sicilian Straights.

Calahorra, a T. of Spain in old Castile, a Bpk. suffragan to Tarragon and Burget. The ancient Inhabitants of it sustain'd a Siege against Pompey, till the Famine was so great that they eat their Wives and Children.

Calais, a T. and Sea-Port of Picardy in France, at the Entrance of the English Channel over against Dever; it was taken by Edw. III. in 1348, after a Siege of 11 Months, and lost by Q. Mary in a Fortnight, in 1558, till when, for 220 Ys. before, England had the Key of France in her own Hands.

Calama, an ancient T. of Africa between Hippo and Constantinople.

Calamata, a Borough of the Prov. of Belvedere in the Morea, and a T. of Africa in the Km. of Algiers near the R. Majar.

Calanus, an Indian Philosopher, that followed Alexander the Great in his Expedition into the Indies, who having lived 83 Ys. without the least Sickness, and then being pain'd with the Gripping of the Bowels, desir'd to be burnt alive; and having his desire, suffer'd it with admirable Patience.

Calataga, a small Borough in old Castile in Spain, in the Dio. of Osma, the Birth-place of Dominick, Founder of the Order of Dominicans.

Calasio, a learned Professor of the Hebrew Tongue in Rome. He compiled a Concordance of the Bible in 4 great Volumes in Folio; a Work much commended by all learned Hebrews.

CAL

Calicut a T. of Spain, in the Kingdom of Castile, is very noted for the best breed of Horses, either for War or Chariots.

Calatrava a Military Order in Spain. Ferdinand the 4th K. of Castile, when he took Calatrava from the Moors, granted it.

Caligula a Prince among the Romans, whose Care was to divert himself from his Duty, by sacrificing a Lamb or a Cuckoo, in the absence of the former, to his own Fingers, and appease the Anger of the Gods with it.

Calixtus a Pope of Germany in the Dutchy of Cleve, belonging to the R. of Rome.

Calicut a Town in Malabar, now called Calicut, Malabar, the Chief of the Kingdom, and the most famous Port, and the only Port of the Kingdom.

CAL

Calistus reformed this: Julius Caesar brought it to a greater Certainty: Gregory III. corrected that, and his Correction was received by all those that are of the Church of Rome; but has not been allowed by the Protestants of England, Germany, &c. for they rather incline to the Copernican or Caroline Tables.

Calendar a (Philop) a famous Architect and Statuary: he made the fine Galleries, supported by Marble Pillars, which are round the Place of St. Mark in Venice, and upon these a magnificent Building embellished with Bas Reliefs and rich Paintings, admir'd by all the World.

Calenders, a sort of Mahometan Fryars that mind nothing but their fordid Pleasures, and are rather a Sect of Epicureans, than a Society of Religious People.

Calicut a Persian Treasurer, or Minister, who receives the King's Revenue, and is accountable for it.

Calicut (Calicut) an August

C A L

Parple-Isle, 300 Spanish Ls. in Length, and 60 broad. Sir Francis Drake in the Y. 1577, winter'd in this Island, and took Possession of it for his Mistress, calling it Nova Albion. It is a dry unfruitful Country. They fish for Perl upon the Eastern Coast of it, it was discovered to be an Island in 1620, passing formerly for a Continent.

Caligula (Caius Caesar) the 4th Roman Emp. Son of Germanicus and Agrippina. He succeeded Tiberius in the Empire; and was surnamed Caligula from the antick Military Shoes which his Mother caus'd him to wear in the Army, and which were called Caligæ. He had an ill compos'd Body, and a more ill-natur'd and deformed Mind. He gave Examples of the worst sort of Vices, and committed the most barbarous and enormous Cruelties. He made himself be call'd, and worshipp'd as, a God; but in truth was a Monster of Cruelty and Prodigality. His own Servants killed him, after he had reigned 4 Ys.

Calingtons, ancient People of the Judies towards the Sea; their Women bore Children at 5 Ys. of Age, and hardly outlived 8, if we may believe Pliny.

Calixtus (Gorge) a famous Lutheran Divine, born in 1586, in Holstein at Medelburg, a Village in the district of Sleswick. After he had travell'd into England, France, and Holland, he return'd into Germany, and taught Divinity at Helmstadt; where he was much esteem'd for his Learning, Piety, and Moderation. He dy'd March 18, 1656, to the great Loss of that Church.

Callas, a little Island in the Southern America, upon the Coast of Peru.

Callias, a famous Architect and Engineer, Native of Aradas an Isle of Phenicia.

Callicrates, a Greek Historian of Tyre, who wrote the Life of the Emp. Aurelianus. Also another of the same

C A L

Name, an ingenious Graver, who engrav'd some of Homer's Verses upon a Grain of Millet, and made a Chariot that would lie entirely under the Wing of a Fly.

Callistratus, General of the Lacedæmonians, who did great Service for his Country.

Callimachus, an Athenian Captain, chosen General of the Army, in a Council of War held by the Athenians, before the Battel of Marathon. Another of the same Name was a famous Greek Poet of Cyrene a T. in Africa: One of the ablest Men of his Age: His Style polite and Ingenious.

Callimachus, a famous Architect, who never approved any of his own Works, and was therefore called καλὸς ἄκαλός. He lived about the LX Olympiad.

Callinicus, Patriarch of Constantinople in 691; he was a great and learned Enemy to the Church of Rome, which made Justinian the young, when he took Constantinople in 705, cause his Eyes to be put out, and in that Condition sent him Prisoner to the Pope.

Calliope, was the Mother of Orpheus, and the first of the nine Muses according to the Poets, who presided over Rhetorick, Harmony, and the Hymns made in honour of the Gods.

Callippe, a Tyrant of Sicily, who kill'd Dion the Deliverer of his Country, and became himself the Tyrant of it; but God suffered him to perish by the same Knife, with which he destroy'd Dion, and his Memory by publick Command was blotted out of their Records.

Callirrho, a Fountain of Judea, mentioned by Jesephus, whose hot Waters run into the Lake Asphaltites, and were not only medicinal, but agreeable to the Palate. Also the Name of a Daughter of icamander, who married Troas third K.

CAL

CAL

of that Name.
 Tyndal
 her Hous
 but he for the friends
 Philoso
 but op was exposed fore
 his Birth,
 of
 of N. mpt, which Jan
 and at Ja
 among

Nany; he was so excellent in his Art, especially in Miniature, that he was courted and presented by all the famous Princes in Europe, and so well employed his time, that he left behind him 1382 famous pieces of his own drawing, and yet died at 43 Ys of Age, in 1630

Calmar, a Town of Sweden in O- stro Gotska, Capital of Smalland, upon the frontiers of Denmark. It is a Port of the Baltick Sea, regularly fortified, the Citadel is esteemed as the best in the N. Calmar was burnt in 1647, but is now rebuilt. The narrow Passage between it and Gotland is called Calmar and Calne, a m. T. in Wiltshire, Capital of its Hundred, situate upon a R. of the same Name, which runs from

 E. to W. into the Bristol-Avon. This
 C. is caten returns two Barges
 the
 the
 the
 the
 the

C A L

Aper Hill, because there are many of those little Beasts seen upon it.

Calpurnia, Julius Caesar's Wife, Daughter to L. Piso; she dream'd the Day before her Husband was murder'd, that the Roof of the House was fallen down, and her Husband stab'd in her Arms; which she told her Husband; but that and other ominous Suggestions, cou'd not prevent his Fall.

Calpurnia, a Law among the Romans, against the Theft and Cheating of Magistrates; it was called Calpurnia repetundarum, or a Law to force unjust Ministers to restore, what they had rob'd the Common-wealth of, when they were in Office.

Calpurnians, a considerable Family in Rome, divided into 2 Branches, whereof one was called Frugi, or honest People; both had also the same Name of Piso, and did great Service for their Country, in the delivering Sicily from the Fury of the Fugitive Slaves, that were in Rebellion.

Calpurnius (Titus) a Sicilian Latin Poet, living under the Emp. Carus, who wrote Eclogues, 7 of which are remaining; but time has destroyed many others.

Calvary, a Mountain near Jerusalem, where our Saviour suffer'd. It is believed by many of the Greek and Latin Fathers that Adam was buried, and that Abraham offer'd to sacrifice his Son Isaac here. Adrian the Emp. in derision of Christianity, caus'd the Idols of Jupiter and Venus to be erected upon it; which Constantine the Great, and Helena his Mother demolish'd; and in the same Place built a Church, first called Martyrium, and now St. Sepulchre's, not inferior to the most beautiful Pile in the World. Christian Princes have many times bestow'd great Benefactions upon this Church. The Emp. Heraclius re-edified it in 628, after it had been ruined by Gorsius K. of Persia in 615, at his king of Jerusalem. The renowned Godfrey of Bouillon, made large Additions to it in 1099. There are distinct Apartments in it for the Latin, the Greek, the Armenian, the Syrian, the Coptic, and the Armenian Christians: They shew you a Chappel where the Cross stood that bore the Sacrifice of our Saviour's Body, called the Chappel of the Crucifixion; The Place where he was Embalm'd, according to the Custom of the Jews, The Place where he is said first to appear, to the Blessed Virgin after his Resurrection, called the Chappel of the Apparition; The Rock out of which this Sepulcher is hewn, and the Tomb it self illuminated with 61 Lamps that burn continually. Here are also the Tombs of Godfrey of Bouillon, the first Christian K. of Jerusalem, and of Baldwin I, his Brother, who succeeded him to that Crown.

C A L

Calvert (George) Lord Baltimore, was born in the last Age at Eything near Richmond in Yorkshire, and bred in Trinity-College in Oxford, from whence he travelled beyond Sea. At his Return, in K. James the First's Reign, he was made Secretary to Sir Rob Cecil; and afterwards one of the Clerks of the Council; was knighted in 1618, and made Principal Secretary of State; but turning Papist resigned it. The K. however, continued him a Privy Counsellor all his Reign, and soon after created him Lord Baltimore of Baltimore in Ireland. He dy'd at London in 1632, in the 53d Y. of his Age, leaving his Estate and Honour to Cecil Calvert his Son, and was buried in the Chancel of St. Dunstons in the W. according to Mr. Dugdale.

Calvi, a T. of Italy in Terra di Lavoro in the Km. of Naples, 5 or 6 Ls. from Capua. Also a T. of the Isle of Corfica, belonging to the Genoeses. It has a good Fort, and well fortify'd.

Cal-

CAL

Calvin, ('olvin) born at Noyon in Picardy 1509. He study'd Humanity at Paris, the Civil Law at Orléans, the Greek Tongue at Bourges, the Hebrew Tongue at Basil, and there published his Institutions. In 1536, he went to Geneva, and was made Professor in Divinity there; but proceeding further in his Reformation than was agreeable to that Temporal Government, Carollus, himself and another Master, were order'd to depart the T. in 2 Days. In 1541, at the Importunity of the People, he returned again to Geneva, where he set up a Consistorial Jurisdiction, with a Power to inflict Censures even to Excommunication. He was a Person of indefatigable Industry, great natural Parts, and excellent Learning. He dy'd in the 56th Y. of his Age in 1564 after he had wrote 9 large Volumes, advances toward him, having a Face very bright and sparkling, with extraordinary Charms and Enticements. She holds in her left Hand a Torch, and the other drags an innocent young Man by the Hair, who holds up his Hands to Heaven, and implotes its Assistance. Before her marches Envy with a pale Face and squinting Eyes, which set off, and dress up Calumny to make her the more acceptable. After her comes Repentance, under the Figure of a Lady in a Mourning Habit, with her Garments rent, which turns her Head towards Truth, who weeps for Sorrow and Shame. This Picture Apelles gave to Ptolemy, and it was accounted the best in the World. The Import of the Figure is, that Calumny tears and destroys Innocence, and is received by a foolish or malicious Creativity, which proceeds from Igno-

CAL

C A M

Camboldeli, a Religious Order founded by St. Remwald, about the end of the 10th Age.

Camarina, a T. of Sicily, built according to Eusebius in the 150th Y. of Rome, in the XLIVth Olym.

Camb, a R. in Germany in the Upper Austria; it has its source about the Frontiers of Bohemia, and discharges it self into the Danube.

Cambadagi, the Disciples of wicked Lucas, who taught the Japonians to worship the Devil.

Cambata, a T. and Km. of the East-Indies, in the Territories of the Great Mogul; it is one of the greatest, the richest, and best traded Cs. in the East-Indies. It is encompass'd with a strong Wall of Free-Stone, being 10 Ls. in Circuit, has 3 Bazars or Market-Places, and 4 Noble Lanks or Cisterns, able to find the Inhabitants Water all the Year. The Country abounds with all sorts of Grain, Fruit, Beasts, &c. and has Mines of Cornelians, Diamonds, and other precious Stones, which Merchants buy of them at low Prices, or exchange for Trifles.

Cambata, a T. in the most Northern Parts of all China, the same with that which ancient Geographers called Peking, as it is now truly cited by the Hollanders and Kircher.

Cambden (William) the Learned Antiquary of the English Nation, was born in London in 1553, and went to Oxford at 15 Ys. of Age; from a Servitor in Magdalen College, he removed to Pembroke College, and at last to Christ-Church. In 1571, he was chosen Second Master of Westminster School. In 1582, he published his Britannia. In 1587, he was elected Prebendary of Salisbury. In 1592, prefer'd to be School-master of Westminster. In 1597, he was first created Herald, and then Clarentius K. of Arms. In 1618, he began his History of Q. Elizabeth; and 3 Ys. after he founded a History Lecture in the University of Oxford, to which he gave the Mannor of Beley in Kent; and having lived 74 Ys. in Honour and Esteem of all the learned Men of Europe, he dy'd November 3. 1623, and was buried in Westminster Abbey.

C A M

Cambeja, a Km. of the Peninsula of the R. Indus, or of the Gulph of Bengala, situate upon the South Shore, between the Kms of Siam, Chiampa, and of Cochin-China. This Km. is almost equally divided by the R. Mecon, which in July and August overflows all this Country, with as much Advantage to it, as the Nile does to Egypt. The Km is extremely fruitful, but not potent, the K. being not able to bring 30000 Men into the Field. It was first discovered by Alphonso d'Albuquerque in 1511. Longitude 135. 00; Latitude 10. 35.

Cambra, the beautiful Daughter of Belon, K. of the Britains, the ancient Inhabitants of that part of this fertile Island that is now called England, a Princess of that incomparable and extended Virtue and Capacity, that the great Counsellors of the Km. advis'd with her in Affairs of the greatest Importance. She dy'd A. M. 3590.

Cambrai, upon the Schelde a C. of Hainault, 4 Ls. from Doway, and 7 from Valenciennes. It is great, fair, well-built, and one of the strongest Ts in Europe. It has often chang'd Masters, and seldom continued long in one hand, tho' now the French have been in possession of it, ever since they took it from the Spaniards in the Y. 1677. It is a Place of good Manufactures, especially of fine Linnen Cloth, and Canvas, for Sail-Club

Cambreſis, a Country between Picardy, Artois, and Hainault, about 100 Ls. long, and very fruitful.

Cambria, the ancient Name of the Principality of Wales.

Cambridge, the Cap of the Co. named from thence, and a most famous U. situate upon the R. Cam, which falls into into the R. Or 3 m. above Ely. The Colleges are built on the outside of the Town, and adds them more Conveniency of Work, and Garden. In the Town are 13 Pitches, and in the University 10 Colleges, and 4 Halls, and 8 Schools, viz. Clare Hall, Pembroke Hall, St. John's, Col. Trinity Hall, King's Col. St. Peter's Hall, Jesus College, St. Edmund's College, Christ's College, Magdalene College, Jesus College, Trinity College, St. John's, and Clare College. The University has the Honour of sending a Peer, a Baron, a Knight, and a Baronet to Parliament, who are now Sir John Royle, and Sir John Royle, Bart. The Town has a Hospital, and is joined with the Town of Ely, but also of a Dean, and a Chapter of 12 Canonicks, and a Bishop, who is the Archbishop of Canterbury. The Town is 4 m. from Ely, and 4 m. from London.

C A M

C A M

Bench, to put his Son (to whom he gave that Office) in mind of exercising his Charge more justly than his Father had done before him, or to expect the same Punishment. Cambridge, a considerable Corporation and a Free Borough, situate on the R. Cam, govern'd by a Mayor and Common Council, 184 in the Town. Cambridge (Jacobus) of Breuberg, a T. of Friesland in Germany, where he was born in 1100, made such great Progress in all kind of Learning, that he was the Wonder of his Age. His Son Jacobus Camerarius was a learned Physician, and up-held the Reputation his Father had acquired, in all the Learned Sciences, and curious Mechanical Operations. Camerarius a T. of Italy, in the 16th Century, was a famous Physician, and a great Anatomist. He was born in 1526, and died in 1579.

C A M

C A M

Pope, sent for her to come to Rome; but being at her first Appearance dress'd in rich Apparel, he won'd not know her; but when she appeared in her mean Habit, he embraced her, saying, Now you are my Sister, and I don't pretend that any but my self shall make you a Princess. Then he lodged her in the Palace of St. Mary Major, allowing a considerable Pension for her Maintenance; tho' he never would allow her to ask a Favour of him for any Body.

Camilla, Queen of the Volsels, who was kill'd as she was conducting Succours to Turnus, and to the Latins, against Aeneas. Arms kill'd her, and was severely punished for it.

Camillus, (M. Furius) Consul, Military Tribune, and Roman Dictator. He defeated the Faliskes, took the T. of Veji, after a Siege of 10 Ys. and by delivering Rome when it was besieged by the Gall Sennus, won the Name of a Second Romulus, or Deliverer of his Country, and dy'd 365 Ys. before the Christian Era. His Son Camillus was worthy of such a Father, and exactly traced his Steps in the Service of his Country, meriting his Offices of Consul and Dictator.

Camillus Scribonianus, was chosen Emp. by the Romans, who were weary of Claudius's Reign; but he was soon forsaken of his Party, and afterwards murder'd; and his Wife Arria unwilling to survive him, kill'd her self, A. C. 42.

Cammin, a small C. in the further Pomerania, standing on the E. Shore of the R. Dvina, over against the Island of Wismar, about a m. from the Baltick Sea. It belongs to the K. of Prussia, and has embraced, and professes the Augustan Confession. Long. 39, 30. Lat. 54, 12.

Camis, Idols which the Japonians adore, representing the principal Lords of Japan, to whom they erect magnificent Temples, as to Gods.

Camus, a Lady of Galatia, who being courted by Sinwin, that murder'd her Husband Sinwin; she promis'd to make him her Husband, so sent for him to the Church, where she presented him with the Nuptial Cup, wherein she had mixed Poison, and finding that he drunk but one half of it, she took off the other her self, protesting she was not in the least concern'd at her Death, since by that she had reveng'd her Husband's.

Camens, (Lewis) a famous, but unfortunate Poet, in so much Esteem, that he was call'd by his Countrymen the Virgil of Portugal; who after a tedious Peregrination in several Parts of the World, return'd to his own Country, but very poor, not having wherewithal to subsist. It was then he finished his Poem, entitled Os Lusadas, which he dedicated to Dom Sebastian, then K. of Portugal; but that Prince being young, and those about his Person no Admirers of Poetry, the unfortunate Poet was much disappointed, and forced to live the rest of his Days miserably in Portugal, where he died in 1579.

Campagna, a T. in the Km. of Naples, in the furthestmost Principality, 2 or 3 Ls. from the Sea.

Campagna di Roma, is the most beautiful Valley, not only in Italy, but in the whole World. The Air is soft and hot, which makes the Flowers spring twice in one Year. The Soil is so fruitful, that it seems to be a Trial of Skill between Bacchus and Ceres, which shall be Conquerors. It was the Seat of the ancient Latins, but now is a Prov. belonging to the Popes, as Sovereigns of Rome; who are such hard Landlords, that one of the finest Countries in the World is become almost desolate, her Air render'd unwholesome for want of Inhabitants to drain the Grounds, and Grass rots upon the Land for want of mowing, which must be ascribed to the Rigour of the

C A M

Cambridge, a T. of the Low Countries
in the Prov. of Overysel, within 5 Ls.
of Dauter; 'tis a very pretty place,

and can drown all the Neighbourhood, when it lies lower than it self.

Campian, (Edmund) a Jesuit, born

in London, his Education was at Oxford, where he took Deacon's Orders

in the Church of England, but afterwards apostatiz'd, and turn'd Jesuit at Rome in 1573. In 1581 he was indicted for High Treason against Q.

Elizabeth, convicted and executed.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

C. A M

put the K. upon procuring a Divorce
by other Methods.

Campen, a T. of the Low Countries
in the Prov. of Overysel, within 5 Ls.
of Dauter; 'tis a very pretty place,
and can drown all the Neighbourhood, when it lies lower than it self.

Campian, (Edmund) a Jesuit, born
in London, his Education was at Oxford, where he took Deacon's Orders
in the Church of England, but afterwards apostatiz'd, and turn'd Jesuit at Rome in 1573. In 1581 he was indicted for High Treason against Q.
Elizabeth, convicted and executed.

Campiano, a little T. situate near
the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to
whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

whom it belongs, took care to fortify

it with a strong Garrison.

Campiano, a little T. situate near

the R. Taro, and because it is an important Pass, the D. of Parma, to

C A N

site to Mauritania, and almost over against the Capes of Bayador and Nou. They are 7 in number, and take their Name from Canaria the Principal of the Number, in which the Spanish Governour resides; being about 20 Is in Circuit, and ennobled with a large handsome, populous C. of the same Name, which is an Episcopal See. These were called by the Ancients, the Fortunate Islands in general, but the particular Names are Canaria, Teneriff, the Isle of Palmas, the Isle of San, Lautus, Guano, and Lancote; and because a great number of Dogs were found in them, they were called Canaries from Canis a Dog. In one of these, viz. Teneriff, the last Meridian is usually fixed. They are much frequented for their excellent Wines and Merchandises by the English, more than by any other Nation. There Corn is gathered twice a Year, in February and May and they have great abundance of Fruit in all place. They were first discovered Selfise, beginning then to come back again towards the Equator, which is the likeliest reason why this Constellation was called Cancer, because the Sun when it enters it, seems to go backward like a Crab; but all these Reasons are supposititious, or fanciful Imaginations.

C A N

Cancer, Jacobus Cancerus, a Spaniard, living in the end of the XVIIth Century. He has left an excellent Performance in 3 Volumes, which have received a general Approbation.

Canche, a R. of Picardy in France, which falls into the Ocean at Montreuil and Esclaples.

Cancheu, a great T. in the Prov. of Kiangsi in China, is Capital of a Territory of the same Name, and governs 11 Cs. It is a place of good Commerce and Resort; the Residence of a Viceroy distinct from him of King, and commands some Ts in the adjacent Prov.

Cannie, a General Name given to all the Queens of Meroe. As for which so enraged the Q. that she hated her Husband, and commanded Gyges to kill him; which he did, marry'd the Q. and became K. of Lydia; whose Line continued till the Defeat of Croesus in the 210th Y. of Rome.

C A N

Cande or Candes, a T. and Prov. of Thurain in France, upon the Frontiers of Anjou.

Candea or Candi, the most considerable Km. in the Island of Ceylon in the E. Indies.

Candei, an ancient People of the Gulph of Arabia, called formerly Ophispahges, from their eating Serpents.

Candelaro, a R. of the Km. of Naples, springing out of the Appennine Mountains in the Capitanato, and ending in the Adriatick near Monfredonia. There is also a T. of the same Name in the lesser Asia, 8 m. from Antioch to the N. and 5 from Scanderoon to the S.

Candia or Crete, Jovis Insula in Virgil, (being consecrated to him) is one of the noblest Islands in the Mediterranean Sea, lying opposite to the Mouth of the Archipelago. In length from E. to W. 250 m. in breadth 60; in circuit 540. Heretofore it had a 100 potent Cs. and was therefore called Heptanempolis, most of which are now ruined. It was granted by Baldwin E. of Flanders, to the E. of Monteserat, who in 1194 sold it to the Venetians. Others say, that when the Latins in 1204 took Constantinople, this and the other Islands in the Aegean Sea, fell to the Venetians for their share. In 1645 the Turks invaded it, and by taking it in 1669, possess'd themselves of all but 2 or 3 Ports upon the Sea. The Inland Parts are very mountainous, yet fruitful, especially of Wines and other such Fruits; but it wants Corn. Whilst it was under the Venetians it was so populous, that they could raise 60000 Men. The Language

C A N

us'd there at that time was the Vulgar Greek, and the Inhabitants were accordingly of the Greek Church, tho' with a mixture of the Latin Service in some particular places. 'Tis now divided into 4 Territories or Jurisdictions, called Candia, Canea, Rettsimo, and Sirtia, from the 4 principal Cities in it of those Names.

Candia, the chief C. of the Isle of Crete, called by the Greeks Castro and Candax, was an Abp's See, great, rich, and populous, as long as it continu'd in the Hands of the Venetians, and stood the longest Siege against the Turks of any place in the World; but was at last forced to submit, Sept. 27, 1669, upon Conditions very honourable, after a Blockade of 12 Ys. from 1645 to 1667, and a Siege of 2 more, from 1667 to 1669, in which space the Turks are said to have lost 600000 Men before it. It lies on the N. Shore of that Island, something nearer to the W. end. The Labyrinth of Minos in a Grot cut out of a Rock, is yet to be seen here.

Canea is a T. of Candia, which by the Greeks was called Cyden.

Caniculus, a Celestial Sign which rises the 16th of July, and appears upon our Horizon for 6 Weeks, all which time is called Dog Days, and makes the hottest Weather in this Climate.

Caninis (Angelo) born at Anghari in Italy, in the 16th Cen. was a very eminent Linguist.

Caninius, (L. Gallus) was a Roman Consul with Vipsanius Agrippa in the 717th of Rome. C. Caninius Gallus was made Consul in the Place of M. Plautius Silvanus, and died in the Exercise of his Charge, in the 742d of Rome. C. Caninius Rabilius was Consul with Julius Caesar in the 709th Y. of Rome.

Canisa, a C. of Hungary situate towards the Frontiers of Stiria, near the R. Drave and Fort Scrin; It is almost environ'd on all sides with a Morass or Marsh, that no Army can can lie near it, which renders the T. almost impregnable and inaccessible.

C A N

Cannus, a Latin Poet of Capri, and an intimate friend to Martial.

Cannus, a little T. of Apulia, called now Cannae de Struttia, famous by the Victory which Hannibal got there by the Defeat of the 4000 Romans, conducted by the Consul Paulus Æmilius, whom, the rashness of his Colleague Terentius Varro, engaged in a Battle in 216 A. C.

Cannibals, Savages of the Prov. of Orizaba in Peru in S. America, unqualified for Conversation.

Cannes, a Borough of France in Provence, toward the Sea over-against the Lie Islands.

Cannibals, or Cannibals, People that inhabited the Antia Islands, they used to eat the Prisoners they took in War, after they had made them fast 3 Days.

C A N

Campus, a certain fabulous T. of the Agyptians, much honoured by the Idolatrous People.

Campus, a T. in Agypt, stands upon the Mouth of one of the A. of Nile, which some Authors believe to be the Modern Buchira near Audria.

Canosa, a T. and Country of Italy upon the R. Ofanto, in the Km. Naples. Also a T. of Germany in the Dutchy of Wuerttemberg, upon the crs between Pfinguen and Stuzard.

Canterbury, Canthuariæ, the cap. C. of the Co. of Kent, very ancient and without doubt famous in times of the Roman Empire. It stands on the E. Shore of the R. Stoure, called by the British Daraborn from whence it had its ancient Name. Being the Royal Seat of the Kings, when the Monks were overtook and burnt it by the

C A P

he courageously ventur'd to rescue him; but miscarrying in the Attempt, suffer'd Death by the reigning Rebels, for that glorious Essay. His Son Arthur succeeding him was created, by Charles II, Viscount Malden, Earl of Effex, and some time after was made Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, where his Behaviour acquired him much Reputation. In the latter end of K. Charles the Second's Reign, this noble Lord was committed to the Tower for High Treason, where he dy'd unfortunately by violent Hands, but whether by his own, or other Men's, I will not undertake to determine.

Capellan, a Mountain 12 Days Journey from Siren, Capital of Pegu, in the Peninsula of the Indus on the other side of the Gulf of Bengala. There is a Mine in it which has a great quantity of Rubies, yellow Topazes, blew and white Sapphires, Jacinths, Amethysts, and other precious Stones of different Colours of Naphali, towards the Borders of Zabulon, near the Mouth of Jordan, and upon the Coast of the Sea of Tiberias, where our Saviour first began to preach. Since Solyman reduced this C. into Ashes, it has only been inhabited by a few Moors, ask Many of the Pilgrims that visit the Holy Places.

C A P

Capet, a R. of the Km. of Normandy in Africa, springing from Mount Atlas, and discharging it self into the Mediterranean near a T. c. Capet, where it makes a Gulf of the same Name.

Capet, the Surname of Hugh, Count of Paris, and D. of France, Son of Hughes the Great.

Capetans, or Capetians, a Name given to the Ks. of France, of the third Race, which began in Hugh Capet in 987. Lewis XIV is the last K. of this family.

Capriensis, a famous Promontory on the E. Point of the Isle of Capri, very dangerous to navigate.

C A P

Bartholomew, and the pretended Motives that carried the Court of France to that Violence, under Shew of Friendship.

Capitanata, a Prov. of Italy in the Km. of Naples.

Capitanies, little Governours in the Km. of Brassl, according to the Divisions that the Portuguezes make of it.

Capito, an Historien of Lycia, who liv'd in the end of the IVth Age.

Capito, known under the Name of Wilfrangius Fabricius Capito, born at Hagenow in Alsatia. He embraced the Protestant Religion, and settled among that People as a Preacher.

Capitol, the Name of the Fortress of Rome, where there was a Temple built for Jupiter. Tarquinius Priscus laid the first Foundation of it in the 139th Y. of Rome, and Tarquin the Proud finish'd it in 221. It was burnt in the Reign of Vitellius, and re-built by Vespasian; but being consumed again by Fire from Heaven, under Titus Domitianus, he made it up again in great Pomp. The Christians have since built a Church in the Place where it stood, and call it Ara Cali, dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Capitolinus, a Name given to Jupiter, because he had a Temple in the Capitol; and to distinguish him from the Thunderer, was called Jupiter Capitolinus. He was but an inferior Deity.

Capitulares, Ordinances of the Ks. of France, wherein are many Articles or Heads, which regard the Government of the Church, and were made by the Advice of an Assembly of French Bishops.

Capitulation of the Empire, is a sort of Original Contract which the Emp. makes with the Electors, in the Name of all the Princes and States of the Empire, before he is declared Emp. and which he ratifies before he is rais'd to the Imperial Dignity. The use of these Capitulations, was introduc'd since Charles the Vth's time; for the vast Dominions which that Monarch possess'd besides the Empire, giving the Electors reason to fear he might at one time or other encroach upon their Privileges, they thought fit to propose some Conditions to him, which he submitted to. And this has been observed, at the Election of all the other Emps. since his time, which is a kind of Restraint upon their Authority, and hinders their Government from being wholly Monarchical, rendering it a Mixture of Monarchy and Aristocracy.

C A P

Capivaccio, (Jerom) of Padua, one of the chief Physicians in the XVth Cen. He was a good Linguist, able Scholar, and prime Philosopher. He dy'd in his own Country in 1589.

Capo, a T. of Italy in the Republick of Venice, the Cap. of the Prov. of Istria.

Capon-Agasi, the Master of the Turkish Port, who commands all other Officers belonging to it.

Caputan-Bacha, the Name of the Turkish Admiral or Basha of the Sea; who commands and takes Care of their whole Fleet.

Cappadocia, a great Country in Asia Minor, which was a Km. in 476; but afterwards was reduced by the Romans into a Prov. and governed by Pro-consuls. This Prov. in Asia, is bounded to the E. by Armenia the Greater, to the N. by the Euxine Sea, to the W. by Galatia, and to the S. by Silicia, separated from it by Mount Taurus, as Armenia is by the Euphrates. The Turks now call it Tocat.

Cappel, (James) Lord Tilley, and Professor of Divinity at Solan, Son to James Cappel, Counsellor to the Parliament of Remes. He wrote several Treatises in Divinity, with great Skill; some whereof are printed, and the rest are in the hands of James Cappel, his Nephew.

C A P

Cappel, (Louis) born in 1585, was a Minister, and Professor of Hebrew at Samar. He wrote several Books, some of which offended the Protestants, others the Papists. Walton has Reprinted his Sacred Chronology, in the beginning of the English Polyglot; also his Description of the Temple of Solomon. His Theological Commentaries and Criticks upon the Old Testament, with his Arcanum in Folio, were printed at Amsterdam in 1653.

Caprarie, a famous Palace of Italy, belonging to the D. of Parma, erected in the 16th Cent. by Cardinal Caprarie. It is in S. Peter's Patrimony in the County of Roniglioni near Viterbo, about 10 m. from Rome.

Capricorn, one of the 12 Signs of the Zodiac, consisting of 28 Stars, which are said to represent the figure of Goat. The Sun enters this Sign in the Month of December, and then in the 23d day of October, when

C A R

Sign given, the Romans fell upon them, put them all to the Sword, and call'd this day of their deliverance Nona Caprotina.

Capua, a T. of Italy in Terra di Lavoro, with an Abpk Hannibal, after his Victory at Canna, winter'd his Army in this Town, which weakened and made his Soldiers so lazy by their voluptuous living, that they could never after make head against the Romans. Capua now decreaseth daily, so that there is little remaining but its Name, to render it considerable.

Capuchins, a sort of Franciscan Friars, so called from their Capuchon, or odd kind of Hood sew'd to their Habits, hanging down their Backs. The first Convent of this Order, was built at Camerino, by the Dutchesse Catherine. They were received into France in Charles the IXth's Reign, and now have 9 Prov. in that Kingdom, and a great number of Monasteries.

Capri, a famous Promontory

C A R

Caracalla (Emper.) Succeeded his Father Severus in Feb. 211. At his Return to Rome, he put the Physicians to death, for not dispatching his Father as he would have had them. He kill'd his Brother Geta in his Mother's Arms, and put the great Lawyer Papinianus to death, because he would neither Defend nor Excuse his Parricide. The History of those times number 20000 massacred by his Order. But so many Cruelties to others hasten'd his Death; for, as he went from Edessa to Carre of Isoperanta, he was kill'd by one of his Captains called Maximus, by Maximus's Order, who succeeded him: A just punishment for his Crimes, who was neither Humane to his Subjects, nor Honest to his Allies.

Caracci, one of the most Noble Families of Naples, which has produced Great Men.

Caraccioli, (Charles Andrew) Marquis of Terracina, Duke of St. George, &c. He did very great Service for his Country in several places, and then retir'd to his Ease and Pleasure, till he was forc'd to take the Field again to Relieve Orbitello; which having compos'd, he died of a Fever, Aug. 5. 1646, leaving the World, with the Reputation of an honest Man, and a good Captain.

Caraccioli, (John) Prince of Melfi, D of Venosa, Arcoli, and Soria, Great Seneschal of the Km. of Naples, and Marshal of France. He first espous'd the Interest of France under Charles VIII. and after the Revolution of Naples, took part with the Emperor Charles V. but being taken Prisoner, and abandon'd by the Emp. he submitted to the Generosity of Francis I. who so courteously entertain'd and well rewarded him, that he continued in the Service of France, doing many brave Actions, till he dy'd at Agde in 1550, aged 70.

Caraccioli, (John Anthony) was Son of John Pr. of Melfi; he was made

C A R

Abbot of St. Peter, and Bishop of Trevis in Champagne: but having a secret Inclination for the Protestant Religion, he deserted the Papists, and preach'd it publicly.

Caracci (Lodovico) was an excellent Painter at Rome: He put the Pencil into the hands of Caracci Raimond his Nephew, who in a little time excell'd his Master in all the Arts of Painting. He imitated Carracci, Titian, and Raphael, in their different manners, as he pleas'd; except only that you see not in his Pictures the Charms of Raphael, and that his Our Lines are not so pure nor elegant as his.

Caracallus, a brave British King, who held out 9 Y. against the united Forces of the Romans in this Km. At last being overcome by Ostorius the Roman General, he, with his Wife and Daughter, were carried Prisoners to Rome, and with a resolute Mind, and composed Countenance, spake to Claudius after this manner: If my Mind had been as moderate in the height of my Fortune, as my Birth and Dignity was eminent, I might have come a Friend, rather than a Captive to this City. Had I sooner been forced to yield, my Misfortune had been less notorious, and your Conquest less renowned. In the secret determining of me, both will be soon forgotten; but if you grant that I shall live, so will the Praise of your Clemency as a Conqueror. Caesar, affected with his Speech and Majestick Deportment, granted him and all the rest their Pardon.

Caradocus, a Learned Welsh Writer, living in the Reign of King Stephen, about 1150.

Carafa, one of the most illustrious Families in the Km. of Naples. Some say it came from a Napoletan K. of the House of Caraccioli, who saving the Emp. Orbe's Life and Army with the Loss of his own, and the Emp. laying his hand upon this generous Knight's dead Body, crying (O Carafa) se') intimating that his Fidelity cost him dear, his Family from that time took the Name of Caraffe, from the Emperor's words.

C A R

Caraffa, (Char'ra) Cardinal, Native of Naples. He was chief of the Congregation for Correcting of Bibles, he was also Apostolick Library-Keeper under Gregory XIII. and died in 1594.

Carafa, (Char'fa) Cardinal, Nephew to Pope Paul IV. who afterwards made the Cardinal, the Duke of P. 1592. He was Count of St. Peter, Prince of St. and Leonora Cardinal, Prince of St. These Proceedings seem'd the more surprising, because Pope IV. had succeeded Paul IV. he had sworn to favour the House of the Carafa. After this they were brought to Trial, and all the Prisoners were bound except the Cardinal, who was released. This was the Second time that IV. was brought to Trial, and he was Meantime taken to the Carafa.

C A R

those that admit the Talmud of the Rabbins, and their Traditions, in opposition to the Books of the Bible.

Carmania, a Country of Asia in Anatolia, which formerly had the Title of a Kingdom. The Inhabitants bravely defended themselves against the Turks, till they were subdued by them in the 14th Century. There is another Carmania, which is a Prov. of Persia, called now Kerman.

Caranis, a Town in Mesopotamia, the Amida of the Ancients. The Sassanians gave it the Name of Emis. It's now very considerable, surrounded with Walls, and 360 Towers.

Carastus, the 18th K. of Scotland, succeeded Merellus: He subdued the Rebels of the W. Islands, but not without great difficulty.

Caravan, a select company of people that meet together to travel with more safety; tho' this Name is chiefly given to the Pilgrims of Turkey, that travel to Mecca. There are also Caravans.

splendour to the Countries into which they travel; have commonly about a 1000 Camels; of which 7 are under the Care of one Camel Driver, and have a Captain which orders their Marches, and decides Differences that happen in the Journey.

Caracalla, (Jannin) a Native of Ombria in Italy, one of a mean Family, but a great Example of good and bad Fortune. He was Secretary to Joan II, Queen of Naples, who loved him extraordinarily, gave him the Duchy of Melfi, made him Ld. High Constable of the Km. and in her Anger deprived him of his Honour and Estate, and put him to Death with as much Cruelty, as she had zealous Love for him before.

Carbiller Raja, the first of the Rajans that we read of, who divorced his Wife for being barren.

Carbury, a T. and Bar. in the Co. of Kildare in Ireland; and another in the Co. of Cork.

Carcase upon Ande, a T. of France in Languedoc, the Carcase of the Ancients; the T. is large, strong, and very well built. In 588 it fell to the French.

Cardan, a Physician and Astrologer of Milan, who liv'd in the XVth Cen. and is well known by the Works he publish'd. Julius Scaliger was his mortal Enemy, who, tho' a better Humanist, had not penetrated so far into the Secrets of Natural Philosophy. He dy'd at Rome in 1576, being then 75 Ys. of Age. It is said, that having foretold the Y. and Day of his Death, when he came to the time he suffer'd himself to die of Hunger, to preserve his Reputation. He wrote the Character of our Edw. VI.

Carden, (Roderick) Son of Francis Carden and Mary Sandelin, Conscience to his Father, was Page to the Vice-Chancellor of Aragon, and afterwards premier Minister to Philip III, K. of Spain; which, with many other considerable Offices, made him so insolent, that he despis'd the greatest Ministers and Favourites of the Km. and abandon'd himself to all sorts of Vice, which at length occasion'd his Disgrace. Whereupon he was accused upon above 100 Articles, and being try'd, was condemn'd to have his Head cut off at the common Place of Execution. Some affirm, that by Bribery and robbing the Publick, he had acquired an Estate of above 100000 Ducats yearly Rent, and that his other Goods were valued at 400000, of which, before his Execution, he had leave to dispose of 1000 Ducats to any of his Relations.

Cardiff, the chief T. of Glamorganshire in S. Wales, stands in the E. part of the Country on the E. side of the R. Tawe, and is 163 m. from London.

Cardigan, the Capital of Cardiganshire in S. Wales, standing in the utmost S. W. part of the Country, bordering upon Pembrokeshire, and not above 3 m. from the Irish Sea. It is 162 m. from London, and sends one Member to Parliament, who now is Henry Lloyd, Esq.

Cardiganshire, is a Maritime County of S. Wales. The Devy parts it from Merionethshire, the Twy from Pembrokeshire S. as also from Brecknockshire E. and on the W. it is bounded by the Irish Sea. It is in length from N. to S. 32 m. in breadth from E. to W. 15. 'Tis divided into 5 Hundreds, wherein are 64 Parishes, and 4 Market Ts. the whole being in the Dio. of St. David. It sends one Knight to Parliament, who now is Sir Humphry Mackworth, Kt.

Cardinal, an eminent Dignity in the Roman Church. In their first Institution, they were officiating Ministers in Parish Churches, but now are called Ecclesiastical Princes. Innocent IV gave them the Red Cap in the Council at Lyons. in 1243; Paul II, the

C A R

the Scarlet Habit in 1464; Gregory XIV bestowed the Red Cap upon the Regular Cardinals, who wore but a Hat before. Urban the VIIIth gave them the Title of Eminence, for before they had but that of Most Illustrious. The Cardinals Drefs is a Sartane, a Rocquet, and a Mantellet, or short Purple Mantle over the Rocquet; the Mozette, a Papal Cape over the Rocquet in Publick and Solemn Actions. The Colour of their Garment differs according to the Season, either 'tis red, of the Colour of dry'd Roses or purple. In 769, the Council of Rome held under Pope Stephen IV, decreed that none should be chosen Pope, but a Priest or Deacon-Cardinal. In 1130, the Cardinals began to be Masters of the Pope's Election under Innocent II, and made themselves the sole Masters to the exclusion of the rest of the Clergy of Rome under Alexander III, in 1660. So rising by degrees, they are at last come to be the most powerful and are but Priests parts, and is environed with Marches. The Count of Montgomery, one of the chief Commanders of the Protestant Party, took it in 3 Days, in 1574, and the Count of Malignat, the K's Lieutenant in Normandy, and Commander of his Troops, re-took it soon after.

C A R

Carette, (Fabricius) the 41d Great Master of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, whose Convent was in the Isle of Rhodes. He succeeded Guy of Blanchefort in 1511, and dy'd in 1521.

Carey, (William) descended of the noble and ancient Family of Cockington in Devonshire; who being Esquire of the Body to Hen VIII, took to Wife Mary Daughter of Thomas Earl of Wiltshire, Sister to Anne of Bolaign second Wife to Hen. the VIIIth, by whom he had a Son named Henry, who was knighted by Q. Elizabeth, and afterwards advanced to the Dignity of a Baron of this Realm, by the Title of Lord Hunsdon, and was the Progenitor of the present noble Lord Robert Carey Baron of Hunsdon.

C A R

land of Sababurg, Sciria, Fria land, and Tyrol. The Inhabitants great Abhorers of Theft, and usually used to hang those they suspected, and judge them three days after. If they were found guilty of the Crime they were hanged, but if they were found innocent, they were buried publicly and their Souls prayed for, that they might have a speedy delivery out of Purgatory.

Caracus, (Marcus Aurelius) Son of Emper. Carus. He married nine Wives, and put several of them to death upon bare Suspicion, without any kind of Legal Proceeding.
Carlingford, a Sea-Port in the Co.

Carlingford, a Sea-Port in the Co.
of Wick in the Province of Ulster, Ireland, about 30 English m. E. of Dublin, and 5 N. of Dundalk.

Carlisle, the chief Place of Cambridgeshire, and a Bp's See in the Prov.
of York, situate on the S. Banks of the River Ure, 255 m. N. W. of London.

The Danes consumed it to ashes, and it lay in Rubbish 'till William Rufus re-built it. Hen. I., Successor, made it a Bp's See, in 1133. The Dio. contains all Westmoreland, and part of Cumberland, in 93 Parishes; but those very large, generally they are in all the

The Right Reverend Father in Christ Dr. Tho. Smith, is the present Bishop of it. The Bpk. is in the King's gift, valued at 513 l. 4 s. 11 d.
The Tithes of the Clergy amount to 161 l. 17 s. 7 d. This C. is an Earldom, and now enjoyed by the Right Hon. Charles Howard, the present Earl of Carlisle; it elects 2 Members to Parliament, who at this time are Christopher Musgrave, and Thomas Stanwix, Esqs;

Carloman, K. of France, Son of Louis the Pious, was Crown'd with his Brother Lewis III, at Terriers in France, in 879. Some Writers say the two Brothers were Bastards,

C A R

and others with the same Assurance deny it. The two Brothers divided their Estate. Louis had Nassau, and Carloman, Aquitain, and Burgundy.
Louis died at St. Dennis in 882, and Carloman being a hunting in the Forest of Jardin, was wounded by a wild Boar, or by some of his Attendance, and dy'd a few Days after in 884.

Carloman, K. of Austrasia, Bur- gundy, and part of Aquitain, was Crown'd at Soissons, October 9, 768.
He was Eldest Son of Pepin the Short, and Brother to Charlemagne, with whom he shared his Father's Estate.

Carloman, D. and Prince of the French, Eldest Son of Charles Martel, by his first Wife called Cratrada.
He had for his Share Austrasia, Ger- many, and Thuringia; and after having perform'd many signal Actions in War, he went to Rome, where having taken the Habit of St. Bendict, in 747, he retired to Mont Sorato, thence to Mont Cassin, and afterwards to Vienna in Dauphin, where he dy'd August 17, 775. His Body was carried to Mont Cassin.

Carloman, eldest Son of Louis surnamed Germanicus, had to his Share the Km. of Bavaria, and besides was honour'd with the Title of K. of Ita- ly. Being worsted by the Rebels of Moravia, he fell into a Palsy, whereof he dy'd in 880.

Carloman, Son of K. Charles the Bald and Ermentrude his first Wife, who rebell'd against his Father, was par-don'd, and as oft relaps'd; and therefore being seiz'd, his Eyes were put out in 866, and he was thrown into the Abbey of Corby, as a further Penitence.

Carlovinianus, a Name given to the Ks. of the second Race of France, which began in 752, in Pepin the Short, Son of Charles Martel, and ended in Louis V, in 987. There were 14 Ks. of this Family.

Carlowitz, a little T. of Sclavonia upon the Danube, about 5 English m.

C A R

to the N. W. of Peter Waradin, famous for the Peace that was concluded there in 1699, after a bloody War of 17 Ys continuance, between the Imp^lal^l Repablick of Poland, the State of Hance, and the Cz^{ar} of Moscow on the one part, and Malapina XI, Emp of the Turks on the other.

Carlsburg, a little T. in Germany in Lower Saxony, in the Dutchy of Bremen. It was taken by the Danes and Lunenburgers in 1676, and restored in 1679.

Carmagnole, a T. of Italy in the Marj^l State of Savoy, belonging to the Duke of Savoy, about 2 m. from the Po, and 9 from Turin. The French took it in 1691, and it was re-taken from them the same Y. by the D of Savoy.

Carmagnole, (Faint) a famous General, who took his Name from the aforesaid T. in Piedmont. He was a Boer's Son, and kept P^lys all his Yth, at last taking himself a Soldier, he mounted a Dragoon, and he

C A R

of S. Wales, he lived on the N. with Cardiganshire, on the S. with the R. Severn, Est with Br. Church and Glamorganshires, and W^{est} with Pembrokeshire. In length from N. E. to S. W. about 35 m. in breadth from E. to W. 30. The whole is divided into 6 Hundreds, wherein are 87 Parishes and 8 Market T^s. This Co. sends one Member to Parliament, who now is Griffith Rice, Esq;

Carmel, or Mount Carmel, a Mountain of Galilee in Palestine, 12 m. from Nazareth, to the W. upon the Coast of the Mediterranean Sea, 10 m. above from Jerusalem, betwixt Galilee and Samarita, in the Tribe of Issachar, about 30 m. in Circuit, deliciously cover'd and adorn'd with Trees, Plantations, Springs, Villages, Valleys and Caverns, which have been the Retreats of the Solitary in all Ages; 'tis now inhabited by the Drusians, a warlike People who are supposed to be the Relicks of European Pilgrims, and accordingly pay as little reverence to the Poor as they can.

C A R

med, or our Lady of Mount Carmel; a Military Order established by IV of France in 1608. This consisted of 100 French Gen- n, who, in time of War, were up about the K's Person.

melites, or our Lady of Mount l, is a Religious Order, which in the XIIth Age in Syria, several Western Pilgrims li- different Hermitages, expos'd Violences and Incurfions of barbarians. Aimerick, Legate of ly See in the E. under Pope der III, brought them together, laced them on Mount Carmel; Abbas Patriarch of Jerusalem, them Rules in 1205, which Honorius III confirmed 2 Ys.

melites, or discalceated, are a regation of Fryars established e XVth Age, who, by the of their Order, are obliged to e-foot, and are now spread o- oft parts of Europe.

menta, Mother of Evander; she radia with her Son, and arri- Italy about the Y. of the l 1810. They called her Ni- and Carmenta, because she ecy'd in Verse. The Roman ns built a Temple to her Me- and celebrated Feasts that alled Carmentales.

wides, a Grecian of such a pro- s Memory, that he could say ok by Heart, which he had ut once over.

as, or Carnes, a certain Goddess preserv'd the inward parts of narvan, the Capital of Carnar- re in N. Wales, built by K. , out of the Ruins of old Se- n, the Birth Place of the first of Wales of the English Line; ards K. of England by the Name . II. K. Charles I, honour'd . with the Title of an Earldom. 16 m. from London, and sends one Burgess to Parliament, who now is Sir John Wynne, Kt. and Bar.

C A R

Carnarvonshire, is a Maritime Co. of N. Wales, bounded W. by the Irish Sea, and on the E. by Denbighshire and Merionethshire, having 68 Parishes, and 5 Market Ts. and is in the Dio. of Banger. It sends one Knight to Parliament, who now is the Hon. The Bulkley, Esq;

Carneades, an Academick Philoso- pher, Native of Cyrene in Lybia, Founder of the third or new Acade- my, Successor to Chrysippus, one of the most eloquent Persons of his time, who gave himself so much to that Study, that he neglected all other things. So that sometimes he sat at Table and forgot to eat, 'till his Maid Melissa rouz'd him from his Thoughtfulness. VVhen he unde- stood Ancipater had poison'd him- self, he did the like, and dy'd 129 Ys. before the Christian Era. This Philosopher was sent Ambassador to Rome, and so surpriz'd the whole Roman Senate with his Eloquence, that Cato, the Censor, advised the sending him away immediately after he had had his Audience, because his Oratory had so wrought upon their Understandings, that they cou'd not distinguish Truth from Falshood after he had spoken.

Carniola, a Prov. of Germany, with the Title of a Dutchy, belonging to the House of Austria.

Carobert, or Charles Robert, whom the Hungarians call Charles II, of that Name King of Hungary, Son to Charles I, surnamed Martel, who was Son of Charles called the Lame, K. of Naples and Sicily, about whom there was a great Dispute concern- ing the Succession; which at last ended in his Favour.

Carolina, a Country of Florida in the N. lying S. of Virginia, extend- ing it self from 29 to 36 Degs. of N. Lat. water'd on the E. by the Atlantick Sea; possess'd by the Eng-

C A R

Lib in 1663, and granted by Patent by K. Charles II. in Propriety to George D. of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Ld Berkeley, Anthony Ld Ashley since Earl of Shaftsbury, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, Kts. and Baronets, and Sir William Berkeley Kt. to be always govern'd by English Laws. The two Colonies of Albemarle and Ashley are in a thriving condition, and have plenty of all things necessary. Charles-F is the chiefest Port.

Carolus, or Libus Carolus, is the Name of a Treatise wrote in 790, to refute certain Propositions drawn from the Act of the Council of Nice, and called Carolus, because Charles the Great countenanc'd the making of it.

Carantia, a T. of Croatia, founded by Carant Archduke of Austria, that he was the first work of the Emperor Maximilian. Also the Name of a T. of Carantia, named so by Charles V.

Carantia, a T. of Croatia, founded

C A R

Corrauxa (Bartholomew) called Miranda from his Birth-place, a Dominican, and Abp of Telma. He came into England with Philip II. King of Spain, and was made Q. Mary's Confessor. The Emp. Charles V. in his retirement, chose him for the Director of his Conscience; yet all could not secure him from Persecution, by some Members of the Inquisition that were his Enemies; for they pull'd him out of his Archiepiscopal See, and dragging him to Prison, charg'd him with Heresy. He appealing to Rome, was led thither in 1567, and suffer'd much under Pius V. and Gregory XIII. who forced him to a publick Abjuration of the Errors he was accus'd of in 1567, and deliver'd him to them of his Order of the Monastery of Minerva, where he died the same Y. aged 72. All the Learned World agree, that he was a Man of extraordinary Merit, and to be admired for his Patience in Suffering.

Carres, a T. of Mysopotamia, where Carres was defeated by Sidon and

C A R

Carrouages, (Bernardin) a Clock-maker in Pavia. He made Alciat a Clock, which when the Hammer struck the Bell, it likewise struck Fire out of a Flint, which lighted a Match first, and afterwards a Lamp; so that the same Movement shew'd a Man the time of the Night, and furnish'd him with a Light to rise by.

Carrousel, a Course perform'd with Chariots, Machines, Speeches, and Horse-Dances. There is nothing to be met with in Antiquity, more Noble and more Ingenious, than this Custom was once among the Romans, tho' now quite decayed and out of use.

Cars, a Town of Turcomania in Asia, towards the Source of Euphrates and the Frontiers of Asia: It is so considerable, that the Grand Signior puts among his other Titles, that of being Lord of Cars.

Carists, or Carcists, the Name of certain seditious People, who joining with another Troop of Mutineers called Razats, caus'd a great deal of Trouble in Provence, when Q. Catherine de Medicis made her Progress through the S. Prov. of France.

Carthage, Carthago, was once the most famous and potent City in Africa, and the Rival of Rome; 'tis generally supposed to be built by Q. Dido, a Tyrian Princess, A. M. 3725, 72 Ys. after Rome, and 874 before the Birth of our Saviour: But Justin makes it to be built before Rome, and Appian before the Ruin of Troy, and this is now thought the more probable Opinion. The Learned Vossius, in his Book De magnitudine Urbium, is confident that it was not only built before the Trojan War, but in its greatest Dignity, Extent and Power before that time; that Dido was only the Repairer of it, and that it was much older than Tyre it self: but however this is certain, that it was a Phœnician Colony, and had subjected Libya, with the adjacent Islands, and the greatest part of Spain and Sicily. It sustained 3 sharp Wars with Rome; the first lasted 24 Ys, the second 18, and had ended in the Ruin of Rome, if the Carthaginians had but supplied their General Hannibal effectually, and in time; the third lasted 3 Ys. and ended in the total Subversion of the C. of Carthage, A. M. 3803. Yet afterward it was made a Roman Colony, and Rebuilt under the Gracchi 25 Ys. after the Ruin of it, and was the first Colony the Romans sent out of Italy, where they flourish'd for a long time, till the Vandals took it from them, A. C. 432. In 533 the Romans recover'd it again. In 632 it fell into the hands of the Saracens. In 690 Justinian II. recover'd it again from them. In 703 the Saracens return'd the third time, and made an entire Conquest of it, to the total Ruin of Christianity there, as well as the City. This C. stood 15 m. from Tunis, Long. 34. 50. Lat. 32. 20. The Spaniards have given the Name of Carthage to a T. of New Spain in America, in the Prov. of Costa Rica, which stands in the middle of the Country, betwixt the two Seas.

C A R

Carthagena, a City of Murcia in Spain, built by Asdrubal one of the Carthaginian Generals in that Kingdom. The Moors becoming Masters of it, totally ruin'd it, and it lay buried in Rubbish almost 600 Ys. till in the Y. 1570. it was rebuilt by Philip II. K. of Spain. It is a Bp's See under the Abp. of Toledo, 3 L. from Murcia to the S. and about 84 from Gibraltar to the N. E. Long. 20. 35. Lat. 38. 2. It's a T. of great Traffick, has a strong Fortrefs, and many beautiful Churches.

Carthagena Nueva, a City of New Granada in S. America, with a Bp's See under the Abpk of Santa Fe de Bogota. Sir Francis Drake found not here the Wealth he expected; so he burnt part of the Town, and sold § f. 2 the

C A R

the rest to the Inhabitants, for 130000 Ducats. After this the Spaniards strongly fortified it, but it fell again into the hands of our famous Drake, and the Spaniards were forced to pay 110 000 Ducats to redeem the C from Fire - which Money he forthwith divided among the Seamen and Soldiers. This Place being attack'd by the French in 1697, it was deliver'd up to them, but after they had plunder'd it, and miss'd the Booty they expected, they thought fit to leave it again to the Spaniards.

Caribana a Prov. of the Golden or New Castle in S. America. Its Capital C has the same Name, and its Port is one of the most convenient in all America, shelter'd by a little Island called Carex. The Inhabitants are computed to be 18000, whereof 4000 are Spaniards, and the rest Natives.

Cardinal being a Spanish Franciscan, employed by Pope Paul V to write against the Venetians, when they were at difference

C A S

Castile in 1342, summon'd that Prince to appear with him at the Bar of Heaven within 30 days, and accordingly Ferdinand died suddenly upon the last of that term.

Caravan's, Inns in the Eastern Countries for the Lodging and Accommodation of Travellers, of which there are many good ones between Beda and Constantinople; but on the Road between Constantinople and Persia there is nothing but empty Chambers in the Caravan's, and there People must provide for themselves, which they may do at a cheap rate in every T

Caracilius Maximus (Spurius) a Roman Commander, Consul with L. Papirius Cursor An. Rom. 461 they were both honour'd with a Triumph.

Caracilius Maximus, a Captain which the Militia rais'd to the Empire in Pannonia, about 249; but his Qualities not answering their Expectations, he was murder'd by the same persons that proclaim'd him Emperor.

C A S

There is a Frav. belonging to the Frav. but spoil'd by the Frav.

(Archeb.) Bp. of Chiapa. He made several Voyages from the Indies to Spain, & himself to the hatred of Spaniards, to put a stop to the Spaniards excesses'd poor Indians, and gained kind of Liberty in 1543. he had done this charity being ancient and weak, to Spain, gave up his Bp. e, and retired to Madrid, died in 1596, at 92 Yrs. of (Joan) a French Protestant, born in 1559 at Bour in Dauphine in Dioc. one of the best skill'd in the age in that Age. He long time at Geneve, and was Professor of the Greek Paris; till K. James I. sent into England, where he was of him till he died in 1615 Years of Age. We have of his Works well stor'd profound Doctrine.

(Merrick) Son to Joan, Bishop of Canterbury, was a very great Learning, but fine a Pen as his Father.

(Charles) one of the two Marcellus and Colleague Mar; but having offended, he entered into the Service of Spain against his Natural Spain IV. and was afterward in the hands of the Duke of at Caswin, is one of the greatest populous places of all and was the Residence of us after the Turks had taken it contains a fine Palace, a number of Mosques, many cover'd Streets, well stor'd and of Merchandise.

(John) an English Physician, the 16 Cen.

C A S

Cas (John) Abp of Buenos Aires, living in the 16 Cen. under the Pontificate of Pope Paul III. Marcellus II. and Paul IV. He had much Learning, and a great deal of Life and Elegancy in all his Writings.

Casbol, a T. in Ireland, upon the Seas, in the County of Tipperary in Manster. This T. is also the Seat of one of the 4 Abps in Ireland, and had a Council held in it in 1171, but now is nearly inhabited.

Casimirus, People of the Isle of Madagascar, otherwise called Agass-Casimirus, who are very powerful in the County of Madagascar. They are descended from the Arabians, are White, but somewhat more swarthy than the Agass-Romins: Their Profession is, to be Ombiaffer, i. e. Writing Masters, and teach to Write and Read the Arabic Tongue in the Villages where they dwell.

Casimir, the first K. of Poland, driven out of his throne when he was young, for his Mother's Mismanagement. He went into France to Angiers, studied at Paris, and became a Monk at Cluni. Seven Yrs. after, the Polanders, hearing where he was, recall'd him to the Government; where he took a Wife, govern'd the Kingdom very well, Civiliz'd the Polanders, and died in 1058, after he had Reigned 18 Years.

Casimir II. surnamed the Just, was put in the Throne in the place of Mscislaw III. his Brother, who was dethroned for Covetousness. His Piety made him undertake a War against the Prussians, whom he overcame, and obliged to retake the Christian Religion, which they had basely quitted. He reigned 17 Years, and died in 1194, at 67 Yrs. of Age.

Casimir III. surnamed the Great, was born in 1309, and deserved the Name of Great, not so much for his Military Exploits, as for his great love for Peace; his Magnificence in the Churches and Hospitals he founded.

C A S

ded, and rendering to every body impartial Justice. He died of a Fall from his Horse in Hunting, at 60 Ys. of Age, when he had reigned 37 Years, in 1370.

Casimir IV. was called to the Crown after the bloody Battel of Warner, in which Ladislaus V. his Brother and Predecessor, lost his life in 1440. He was not Crowned till 3 Years after his Brother's Death. He protected the Prussians, and overthrew the Teutonic Kts. that insulted them, and granted the Knights a Peace at the Request of the Pope. His Son Ladislaus being chosen K. of Bohemia in 1471 was opposed by Matthias Corvinus, which occasion'd a War. After the Death of Matthias the States of Pollonia were for putting up John Al., which occasion'd another War wherein Albert was worsted, and forc'd to come to an agreement with his Brother. Casimir stood Neutral, and died in 1492, being 64 Ys. of Age, of which he reigned 45

C A S

Great Duke of Lithuania. He vow'd himself to God from his Youth, and lived in his Palace as in a holy and retired place. He died at 25 Ys. of Age, in 1489.

Casus, a Mountain of Egypt, upon the Coast of the Mediterranean Sea, near the Lake of Scorben upon the Borders of Palestine, whence it reaches Southward towards the Frontiers of Arabia Petraea. Now it's called Larissa, and the Lake is called the Gulf of Tenejs, or the Baranguerius.

Casena, a Borough of Andalusia in Spain, upon the River Guadajmar.

Casmir, a Prov. of the Empire of the Great Mogul, near the River Andus, where it's said the Climate is very temperate, the Soil fertile, and the Trees so much abounding in Fruit, that there is hardly any place in Europe that has things in so great plenty. In the Mountains are flying Cats, which in truth are nothing but a sort of great Bats, whose Bodies are furr'd, and headed like Cats. Their

C A S

Cassians, People of Scythia, neighbouring upon the Hyrceanians, and near the great Lake vulgarly called the Caspian Sea. The Caspian Mountains are a Ridge of Mountains in Asia, stretching from the N. to the S. between Armenia and the Caspian Sea.

Cassan, or Caghan, K. of Persia, lived about the end of the 13th Cen. He was a Christian by Education and Profession, but upon the Offer of the Crown turn'd Mahometan: but having gain'd a Battel of his Rival in 1204, and seeing himself establish'd in his Throne, he endeavour'd with all his might to re-establish the Christian Religion, and make amends for the Ill he had done by his Apostacy.

Cassander, Son of Antipater, succeeded Arideus, who had establish'd Polyperchon in his place. He was second K. of Macedonia, after Alexander the Great, in 437 of Rome, and made several Conquests in Greece, abrogated the Democracy in Athens, and constituted the Orator Demetrius Phalerus Governour of the City. Olympia, Alexander's Mother, having put 100 of his Friends to death, he besieged, took her, and put her to death, and after kill'd Roxane, one of Alexander's Wives, with a Son she bore that Prince after he was dead. He likewise perswaded Polyperchon to make away another of Alexander's Sons, that none of them might dispute the Crown with him: and 3 Ys. after having gain'd a memorable Victory over Antigonus and his Son Demetrius, he fell sick of a Dropsy, and died in the 19 Y. of his Reign.

Cassander, (George) of Bruges, was much esteemed in the 16th Age for his skill in the Languages, and his universal and profound knowledge. Thuanus says, he was modest beyond the common example of this Age, and fit to be proposed as a pattern to those who are concern'd in adjusting the differences in Religion; for he had nothing of Arrogance or Magistricalness in his temper.

C A S

And yet after all their Commendations, we find some of his Works were thought Erroneous, and put into the Index expurgatorius.

Cassandra, Daughter of Priam K. of Troy, once beloved by Apollo, who gave her the Gift of Prophecy; but finding her unworthy of so great a Favour, he order'd it so, that she was never credited; so her Predictions were laugh'd at, when she foretold the Misfortunes that were to befall Troy. She was violated by Ajax in the Temple of Minerva, and was made a Slave to Agamemnon, to whom she foretold the Death that his Wife was preparing for him, but was not believed.

Cassandra, (Fidelis) a learned Woman of Venice, who besides her Skill in the Greek and Latin Tongues, was so well versed in History, Philosophy, and Divinity, that Pope Julius II, Leo X, K. Louis XII, Ferdinand K. of Arragon, Elizabeth Q. of Castile, the D. of Milan, and several others of the highest Rank, took pleasure in manifesting their esteem for her. She lived till she was 102 Ys. of Age.

Cassandt, or Cassant, a small Island of the Low Countries, now in the possession of the Hollanders.

Cassel, a T. of Germany, in Franconia, Capital of the Landgraviate of Hesse, seated upon the R. Fulde, between Marpurg and Paderborn, and is the Residence of the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, now William the 7th of the Name. The T. is well fortified, has a strong Cittadel, and is of good Commerce, especially for Wool.

Cassel, or Mont-Cassel, is a little T. of the Low Countries, 4 Leagues from Bergue St. Vinex, and much at the like distance from Aire and Terouanne, well fortified, and has a considerable Jurisdiction. It has 2 Fairs, one in August, the other in January.

Cassimir, or Chismere, a Prov. of the Great Mogul's Empire on this side the Ganges, towards Tartary. In this Country

C A S

Country Women have no Hair, and Men have but very little on their Chin.

Cassius, (Tullius) a Physician and Chirurgion, living in the XVth Cen. whose Works are much esteemed.

Cassian, Cajchan, a T of Persia in the Prov. of Arach or Hevach. 'Tis great, fair, well peopled, and of great Traffick for Silks; but there is no good Water, and the Inhabitants are much incommoded by Scorpions, whose Bittings are very dangerous if not deadly, without present Remedy.

Cassian, (John) originally a Scythian, but an Athenian by Birth. He liv'd in the Vth Age, pass'd his first Ys. in the Monasteries of Palestine, was afterwards Disciple to St. Chrysostom, who made him a Deacon; after whose Death he went to Rome, from thence to Provence, and settled at Marseilles; where he proved himself a great Master of a Monastick Life, and of much Learning, by the Works he has left behind him, and yet his ter. The Judges also with the Notaries and Acts, together with the Witnesses, were all cast away as they came to Rome, just as if God had a Mind to reserve that Judgment for his own Tribunal, and therefore would suffer no Records to remain of it; yet People were all satisfied of the Great Master's Innocence, and of the Falseness of Rome's Accusation, who had an Eye upon his Preferments.

C A S

Cassin, or Mont-Cassin, a famous C. in Italy, in the Km. of Naples, built by St. Bennet, Patriarch of the Western Monks, to whom he gave a Maintenance and Rules for their manner of Living.

Cassiodorus, (Magnus Aurelius) Secretary of State to Theodoric K. of Italy, who, after he had run thro' all honourable Employments in the Government, retir'd, and wrote several Books of History, Grammar, Rhetorick, Geometry, Astronomy, &c. and dy'd about the Y. 561, almost of Egypt. He gain'd a great station in Military Affairs, and was in the Esteem of the Emperors Antoninus Pius, L. Verus, and M. Aurelius; yet some say his rage was accompany'd with a great Severity, which sometimes led to Cruelty, and savoured of a Capricious Humour, than of Justice and Reason. However he managed his Intrigues so well, that he himself saluted Emp. but was 3 Months after, and his Head cut off by Maximus, about the Y. 172. Brutus, (Brutus) at a time that Romans were in War against Antony, would have betray'd his Country to the Enemy; but his Father Cassius having starved him to Death in the Temple, drag'd his Body thence, and would not suffer him to have the Honour of a Burial. Brutus, call'd Longinus, descended from one of the best Families of Rome, was Questor for Crassus in Syria An. R. 701. He assisted Pompey against Caesar, who yet received into his Favour when he had taken him; and yet when one of the Conspirators, seem'd to bog-gling to betray a Man as Cassius bid him rather than fail, he him thro' his own Hand; so that nothing was done An. R. 710. and Brutus fled into Syria, where they were both set upon near by; and Cassius believing that he was overcome, got himself killed by one Pandarus in the 712th Year.

C A S

Cassius, (Scæva) a valiant Captain of Julius Caesar, who seeing the ordinary Marks of his Courage in his own View, in recommendation thereof gave him a Company of 30 Men.

Cassius, (Severus) a famous Orator, of mean Birth. It is said he was a story in his Writings, and one of the Conspirators against Caesar. having a Commission from Mark Antony to put him to Death; and finding him in his Study, set Fire to it, and burnt him and his Books together, tho' 'tis said that Varus was under personal Obligations to him.

C A S

Cassius Viscellinus, (Spurius) a Roman Consul, one of the greatest Men of his time, yet more unlucky than deserving. He was twice Consul at Rome, and as often merited the Honour of a Triumph; but the Questors Fabius, Cato, and L. Valerius, joining against him, they accused him of having aspired to be a King, for which he was precipitated from the Tarpeian Rock, in the 296th Y. of Rome. Monsieur Bale affirms, with great Probability, that Cassius Spurius and Cassius Viscellinus are but one and the same Person; but Valerius Maximus seems to assert the contrary, which Bale has not answer'd.

Cassiope, a Town to the North of the Isle of Corfu; it was formerly called Cassope, and famous for its Temple dedicated to Jupiter Cassin; but is now only a decayed Fortress, with a Church served by a small number of pauperous Grecian Monks.

Cassovia, a T. of Upper Hungary, Capital of the Co. of Abamwiar. This T. owns the Emp. as K. of Hungary, tho' 'tis free, and has considerable Privileges, without any dependence on him.

Cassatia, or Cassubia, a Duchy in the Prov. of Pomerania in Germany, under the K. of Prussia, between the Baltick Sea, Prussia and Stettin. Calberg is one of its principal Ts.

Castabala, Perusia, an ancient C. of Cilicia in Asia Minor, on the Gulph of Lajazzo, between Anazarbe and Adana. Diana had formerly a famous Temple in her Honour here.

Cassius, (Joseph) born at Ancona in Italy. He was an excellent Orator, a good Poet, and rais'd the Reputation of his Countrymen; for before that time the Italians were not look'd upon as any way considerable for polite Learning.

T

Cap

C A S

Castaho or Castilio, (Sebastian) born in the Mountains of Dauphiné. He was a great Linguist, and particularly a great Hebrew, but miscarried in his Translation of the Bible.

Castel-Durante, a T. of the Duchy of Urbino, in the Church Lands of Italy, which in the last Age was esteemed for its fine Lathen Ware, but now that Art is known in many other Places in Italy.

Castel Gandolfo, a T. in the Campagna di Roma in Italy, 12 m. from Rome, where the Pope has a Mansion of Pleasure. A Lake of the same Name, formerly call'd Albano, is on one side of it.

Castel a Mare, a C. in Terra di Lavoro in the Km. of Naples. It has a good Port, and that's all.

Castell nuovo, a T. of the Duchy of St. Sebastian, Dalmatia, situate upon the Canal of Cattaro, 5 Ls. from its Mouth, and is against the Eastern Sea. It is a Place that has cost a great Expence of Blood, and has been

C A S

Learning made him much esteemed by Pope Innocent VIII, who sent him Nuncio into Scotland. After his Return to Rome, Pope Alexander VI, made him his Secretary in 1503, the very Y that the Pope poison'd himself in Cardinal Corneto's Garden. But Cesar Borgia was too jealous of Power, and had too great a Mind to Wealth to let him live at quiet; therefore Castell quitted Rome under the Pontificate of Pope Julius II, who persecuted Alexander VI's Favourites, and after fled in Leo the VIIIth's time, being then convicted of conspiring with Cardinal Ascani Petrucci, who had a Mind to make away the Pope. After this Misfortune, he hid himself for some time at Vinca, afterwards at Ricea, and at last at Constantinople, where he dy'd a little after.

Castellanos (M. Isid.) Lord of Alouza and Conte Can. He was much employed in publick Affairs under Francis II, and Charles IX, and being

C A S

Castro, and the Asturias; and on the S. with Andalusia. It is divided into the Old and New Castile, whereof the Old lies more N. the New more S. arising out of the New Conquest of the Km. of Toledo, and other Accessions gain'd from the *Moor*s; which is also more fertile than the Old Castile. Burgas is the Capital of the Old; Madrid and Toledo the chief of the New.

A Chronological Succession of the Kings of Castile.

	Reigned Ys.
1029, Sancho III , K. of Navarre ,	6
1035, Fernand or Ferdinand II ,	30
1065, Sancho II ,	7
1072, Alphonſus I ,	37
1109, Alphonſus II .
1122, Alphonſus III ,	35
1157, Sancho III ,	1
1158, Alphonſus IV ,	55
1214, Henry I ,	3
1217, Alphonſus V ,	9
1226, Ferdinand III ,	26
1252, Alphonſus VI ,	32
1284, Sancho IV ,	11
1295, Ferdinand IV ,	17
1312, Alphonſus VII ,	38
1350, Peter the Cruel ,	19 or 19
1369, Henry II ,	10
1379, John I ,	11
1390, Henry III ,	16
1406, John II .	48
1454, Henry IV ,	20
1474, Ferdinand the Catholick, and Isabella ,	30 and 42
1504, Philip I , of the House of Austria ,	2
1516, Charles I , or V , of Germany ,	39
1555, Philip II ,	43
1598, Philip III ,	23
1621, Philip IV ,	44
1665, Charles II , Exit 1700.	45

Castle-Carey, a m. T. in Somersetshire, in the Hundred of Castelash.

Castle-Rising, a m. T. in Norfolk in the Hundred of Fyehridge, whose Port being choak'd up with Sands for many Ys. has brought this T. to decay; yet it still retains the Honour of sending 2 Burgesſes to Parliament, who now are Sir Thomas Littleton, Bar. and Horatio Walpole, Esq; The T. is 120 m. from London.

C A S

Castile d'Or, a Country in S. America, having the Caribbes and Guiana to the E. the Pacifick Sea to the W. Pern to the S. and the Kms. of the Amazons to the N. Here are some Golden Mines, especially in the Prov. of Uraba; but the Spaniards have much drained them. The Inhabitants go naked, all but a piece of Cloth about their Loins. The Women manage all publick Affairs, while the Men fight against their Enemies. Their Arms are Bows and Arrows, which they dip in the Juice of a certain Herb, and Serpents Blood, to poison them; so that whomsoever they wound, if he does not immediately cut off the infected part, it swells all the Body, and they die soon after.

Castillon, a T. in Perigord, in the S. of France near the Dordogne, where the English were defeated and their General slain, in 1451, by which Charles VII recovered Guicune.

Castor and Pollux, Brothers to Helena, and Sons of Jupiter and Leda, Wife of Tyndarus. Jupiter made Pollux immortal, but Castor being kill'd, and Pollux desiring he might have part of Immortality, Jupiter shar'd it between them, and made them the Sign Gemini. The Romans built them a Temple, and regarded them as their special Protectors.

Castor, an Amphibious Animal, otherwise called a Beaver. It lives half in the Water, and the other half of its time on the Land. Its forefeet are like a Dog, and its hindermost resemble Geeses feet. Its the chiefest Wealth of the Country; the Flesh of it serves the Inhabitants for Food, and its Skin for cloathing. They have so many of them, that they exchange them for other Commodities modities which they want. What they sell at the Auctioneers for the real Stones or Coins of Castor, is nothing but certain Glands that are found near the Liver or Spleen; for the true Stones are cut out, and taken away by the Huntsman, as we have seen.

C A S

Cassius or Fragus, a Greek Historian and Rhetorician at Macedon. The Cassians are a sect who whether this Cassius against whom Cicero pleaded for K. Domitius, or whether it was his Son, or a third person; but Vossius determines it not to be in controversy.

Cassius, a Letter, African Bp. in the Vth Cen. who was made Bp. in the place of his Brother Maximus, who had been a Donatist.

Cassius, Domitius, and P. belonging to the same Family of Paonia, but P. was made Bishop of the Ecclesiastical City of Rome. P. wrote a Book of the Constitutiones; but Cassius was a Pope who demonstrated the error of the

C A T

Castro (Ferdinand) died at Campanella, in 1633, and left a Book of Morality in 2 Volumes.

Castro, (Leo) Canon of Salamanca in Spain, was very much esteemed at Salamanca, for his skill in Hebrew and Greek.

Castro, (Roderick) a Portuguese Physician that practised at Hamburg, whose works are mentioned with Reputation by Zacutus and other Authors.

Castro, (Louis) a Divine, and Franciscan, born at Leige in the XVth Cen. Monsieur Mory makes him a considerable Man.

Castuccio, Castellani, one of the most famous Commanders of his time, lived in the XIVth Age, was of Lucca, and descended of the Family of Antelminelli. He bore Arms in his Youth in favour of the Guelphs, and was therefore afterwards banish'd by the Guelphs. His Life is written by Morandi.

Catacombs, Burying-places in Cave near Rome, where the Primitive Christians buried their Martyrs, and somehabitants are great Lovers of their vil Liberties; and being ill used by the Irish Soldiers, which were quarrelled upon them in 1640, they revolted from Spain, and call'd in the French: but during the Civil Wars in France, about 1652, they return'd to their old Master again, the K. of Spain. By the Treaty of Peace in 1659, the Pyrenees are made to divide the two Kms. of France and Spain. Catania is the Capital City of this Country, and has a good Port.

C A T

Catamelita, a Baker's Son of Nani Italy, who behaved himself so well in the War, that he was made Captain, afterwards a General, and the Venetians erected him a Statue on horseback, in the XVth Age.

Catania, one of the principal Cities of Sicily, on the E. shore of that land; about 40 m. N. from Syracuse. Charles V. wall'd and fortified it against the Turks and Moors; by which security it grew Great and Rich: but in 1669 it suffer'd very much by a terrible Eruption of Mount Ætna, which with Fire or melted Rocks and Earth making their way through the Territories of this C. bore down all before them, and passed a m. into the Sea, before those Waters were able to conquer this outrageous Fire: so that it was then thought the whole land of Sicily would have perish'd. Catania was also almost destroy'd by earthquakes in 1693. K. Henry died in this City.

Catania, an ancient C. and Country in Asia Minor. Bellona had a sumptuous Temple dedicated to her in this C. to whose Service, above 60000 Men and Women were consecrated under the direction of a Sovereign Priest, who resided here with an absolute and despotick Authority.

Cataphryges, Hereticks that begun to appear in the Ild Age, and had this Name given them, because they came out of Phrygia, and followed the Errors of Montanus; to which they added more ridiculous and horrid Superstitions, by making up the Communion Bread with the Blood of young Children.

C A T

Catara, a T. of Dalmatia, seated upon a Gulf to which it gives its name, and is defended by a Castle built upon a Hill: The Turks have often endeavour'd to carry it, but all in vain.

Catay, the N. part of China, which comprehends the 6 Provinces of Peking, Zantung, Honan, Suchuen, Xensi, and Xansi. It was once thought to be a Km. of Tartary, but now it appears the contrary.

Catechumens, a Name given in the first and purest Ages of the Church to the Gentiles and Jews, who were instructed and prepared to receive Baptism. These had persons appointed by the Church on purpose to teach them, and had a particular place in the Church where they used to teach, which was called the place of the Catechumens. Afterwards they were admitted to hear Sermons, and then they were called Audientes. A third Rank of them were called Orantes, or Genusflectentes, because they were present and concern'd in some part of the Prayers, and other holy Offices. To which we may add a 4th Degree of the Catechumens, which were called Competentes; and they were such as desired Baptism.

Catelet upon Escuat, a little, but strong T. of France in Piccardy, upon the Frontiers of Hainault and Cambresis. It was taken by the Spaniards in 1557, and once again in this Age, but restored to the French by the Pyrenean Treaty in 1659.

Caterlagh, a C. in the Prov. of Lincoln in Ireland, 30 m. from Dublin, which Lionel, D. of Clarence, began to Wall; and which Bellingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, fortified with a Castle.

Cathars, a Name the Novatian Schismatics gave themselves, signifying fyng Purity; accounting themselves more Holy, than the rest that professed Christianity.

C A T

Cathedral, the Episcopall Church of any place.

Catherine, a Virgin Saint of Alexandria, who is said to have been so learned, that at the Age of 18 Y. she disputed against, and got the better of 50 Philosophers, and suffer'd Martyrdom at last in the Y. 27, under the Reign of the Tyrant Maximus.

St Catherine of Senna, a Nun of the 3d Order of St. Dominick. There are several printed Letters attributed to this Saint, with some little Treatises of Devotion. She died in 1380, in the 33th Y. of her Age, and was Canonized by Pius II in 1461.

Catherine de Medicis, Q. of France, was the only Daughter and Heiress of Lawrence of Medicis D. of Urbin, born Apr 13 1591. She had 10 Children after 10 Ys Barrenness. She was thrice Regent of the Km. She permitted a Conference at Po. between the Papists and the Protestants

C A T

cing it, Henry cast off the Pope's Authority, separated from the Communion of Rome, banish'd Catherine to Kimbolton, forbidding her to be call'd Q. only Pr. Arthur's Widow. She, good Lady, spent her time in Meditations, and Acts of Devotion, till she died in 1536, being the 34 Y. after her Divorce. She bore her Misfortunes with Patience and Constancy, imputing them, as she had reason, to Cardinal Wolsey. When she felt the approach of Death, she writ the K. a Letter, which forc'd Tears from him at the reading of it.

Catherine of Polonia, Q. of Sweden, Daughter of Sigismund I K. of Poland and of Bonne Force his second Wife. She was married to John Prince of Swedeland and D. of Finland, who being imprison'd by Eric his Brother, the Princess Catherine kept him company during the 7 Ys. he was confined in Prison. A while after the Swedes, dissatisfied with Eric's Administration, they imprison'd him, and set Pr. John on the Throne again.

C A T

Catiline, descended of a Noble Family of Rome, a Man of so extravagant and wicked a Life, that his Expences, in frequent Debauches, reduced him to great Necessity; this put him upon a Design to enslave his Country, exterminate the Senate, plunder and rife the publick Treasury, and finally to set the City on Fire; the Roman Army being then absent, and employed at the end of the World. To this purpose he rais'd Troops in Tuscany, but was defeated by Anthony, at the same time that his Accomplices were executed at Rome, A. R. 692.

Catillus, Bp. of Lincoping in Sweden, who bravely deliver'd his Country, in the XVth Age, from the Oppression and Tyranny of Christiern K. of Denmark; who taking advantage at the Absence of Canutus, who was banish'd by a Faction of his Subjects, invaded Sweden with all kind of Cruelties: but the Bp. taking up Arms, more by Policy than Strength, defeated the Swedes, and re-establish'd K. Canutus upon the Throne, who was of the Royal Line of Sweden.

Catuvulus, King of part of the Eburones, a people of the old Gallia Belgica, now the Diocesis of Liege, by reason of his great Age being unable to undergo the Fatigues of War, and unwilling to disintangle himself dishonourably, poison'd himself with Tew, to prevent his falling into the hands of Caesar, and being carried in Triumph a Prisoner to Rome.

Cato, (Marcus Porcius) surnamed the Censor, Native of Tusculum, was brought to Rome by Valerius Flaccus, where he was chosen Tribune of the Soldiers for the Prov. of Sicily, about the 549th Y. of Rome; was afterwards made Questor, and after that raised to the Dignity of Pretor. He subdu'd Sardinia in 556: in 559 was chosen Consul; and having stoutly opposed Antiochus the Great, at his Return to Rome was made Censor, wherein he behaved himself with more integrity than any of his Predecessors, in administering Justice without the least suspicion of Partiality. He commonly repented of 3 things; 1. For spending a day without learning something. 2. For imparting a Secret to a Woman. 3. For going by Water when he might have gone by Land. In his Minority he composed an Oration; in his Old Age writ 7 Books of History, and had the Commendation from Cicero, That he was an excellent Orator, a good Senator, and an experienc'd and worthy General. He died An. Rom. 606, aged 86.

C A T

Cato, the Prætor, great Grandchild to the Censor above mention'd. He began in his tender Age to give such proofs of his Generosity and Affection for the Commonwealth, that being but 14 Ys. of Age, he desired a Sword to kill Sylla, Tyrant of his Country. His first Campaign was in 681, when the Slaves Rebelled: after that he led 1000 Foot into Macedonia, thence travell'd into Asia, at his Return was made Questor, and when Catiline's Conspiracy was discover'd in 690, he join'd with Cicero to punish the Accomplices, and opposed Julius Caesar in the open Senate. He always had a watchful eye upon the Intrigues of Caesar and Pompey; at length stuck to the latter, whom he consider'd as a Defender of the Republick. After the Battel of Pharsalia, and Pompey's Death, he withdrew to Utica, where hearing Caesar pursued him, he bid his Son try the Conqueror's Mercy: as for himself, he lay down upon his Bed, sent for Plato's Book of the Immortality of the Soul, and having read it over twice, thrust a Sword through his Body, and died A. R. 708. aged 48 Y.

Cato, (Marcus Valerius) was a Poet who lived in the 700 Y. of Rome, and wrote several Books, of which very few are remaining.

Catolica, a Borough of Italy in Romania; so call'd because among the

C I V

400 Bps. that were assembled in the Council at Rome, there were some few Orthodox Christians that separated from the Arians, to celebrate their holy Mysteries in this place.

Catti, an ancient People of Germany, in the Country of Hesse and modern Haringen.

Catullus, (Catius or Quintus Valerius) a Poet born at Verona. He was intimate with Cicero and Plancius, and most of the other great men of his time. We have 117 Epigrams of his Writing; his other Works are lost H. 1 J. A. R. 698.

Crisostomus, (Crispian Baptist) a Greco-Latin who studied at the College for that Country in Rome, and wrote against Ambrosius's Book, which endeavoured the Reconciliation of the Greek and Latin Churches, but with more Heat than Judgment, and had little Success.

Cicero, (Cicero) or according to others (Cicero), a Roman Consul, celebrated for his virtuous Life and with Snow in the midst of Summer.

C A V

Cassius, (Ambrosius) a Venetian Lord and Bp. of Corfu, who collected the Errors of the Greek Church, and reduced them to the number of 302: the Book was never printed, but remains in Manuscript in the French K's Library. Leo Allatus treats him very civilly, calling him a Fool, a Calumniator, and a man of no Wit or Judgment; who attributed to the whole Greek Church what he only saw at Corfu, without consulting the Cannons and Constitutions of the Church before they were Conquer'd.

Cartelée, a Town of Normandy in France, near the Bar of the Seine, famous for Hats.

Carvendish. This Noble Family derives its Descent from a younger Branch of the Gernons, a Family of great note, some Ages past, in the Counties of Norfolk and Essex; which afterwards being seated at Carvendish in Essex, assumed the Name of that place for their surname. The first and since the Revolution, has always had the Honour of being one of the Lords Justices of England in his Majesty's Absence, and Lord High Steward of the King's Household; and Charles, who died unmarried. William Lord Cavendish, now Duke of Devonshire, married that noble and virtuous Lady, Mary, Daughter to James late D. of Ormond, by whom he has had Issue, William, Henry, and Elizabeth; which Lord Henry, a Gentleman of the greatest hopes, died in 1700, very much lamented by all that had the Honour to know him: but the most noble William, Lord Marquis of Hartington, the Heir and Hope of this Illustrious House, survives. Of this Noble Family was Sir William Cavendish, who, in the 18th of James I was advanced to the Degree of a Baron of this Realm, by the Title of Lord Ogle; as also of Viscount, by the Title of Viscount Mansfield; and upon the 17th of Mar. 3 Car. I. to the Dignity of Baron Cavendish of Belfour, Earl of Newcastle upon Tyne, and Governour to Prince Charles; who, for the many and excellent Services he did Charles I. in the late Wars, was by Letters Patents, bearing Date at Oxford the 27th of Oct. 19 Car. I. advanced to the Dignity of Marquis of Newcastle; and in the 16th of Car. II. to the Dignity of Earl Ogle, and Duke of Newcastle. The last of which Honours, is now in the House of Clare.

C A U

The Caves in Wiltshire, between Lackington and Great Badmington, being 9 in number, 4 foot broad, and 9 or 10 long, are credibly supposed, to be the Tombs of some Heroick Men among the ancient Romans, Saxons, and Danes, because Spurs and pieces of Armour have been digg'd out of them.

Cassim, (Nicholas) a Jesuit of Troyes in Champaign, was accounted a person of great Probity and Resolution. He push'd at Cardinal Richelieu; but that Minister being too weighty for him, got him banish'd. His Works, called The Holy Court, are generally esteemed, tho' very partial to his own side.

C A Y

Cavendish, a great Village in Persea, between Car and the Isle of Ormus, where Musk-melons are as big as our Gourds, and the best of all Persia. Here are also Radishes that weigh 30 pound a piece.

Cawood, a Market T. in the W. Riding of Yorkshire, and the Hundred of Barkston.

Caxton, a Market-T. in Cambridgeshire, in the Hundred of Slow.

Cayenne, an Island of Guiana, upon the Coast of the N. Sea in S America; where the Air is very temperate, tho' it is but 4 deg. N. of the Equinoctial Line; which makes the Days and Nights there to be almost all of a length.

Caymanes, little Islands near the W. Coasts of the Isle of Hispaniola, much frequented for their Ants, which are here in great numbers, and very big: one of them will weigh 200 weight of Flesh, without counting the Fat, which they use to eat with their Pulse; and some will yield 30 Quarts of Oyl. Their Flesh is of good Taste, and very nourishing, much resembling the best of our English Veal.

Cayet, (Peter Viller) was first a Huguenot Minister, and afterwards went over to the Church of Rome. He has publish'd a large Chronology, much valued by the great Lords at the Court of France.

Caym-Bearmala, the 34th Califf or Succellor of Nabonnet in Carvan in Barbary in 986 who, with the assistance of the Arabians, in a short time made himself Master of Africa Orientalis, and afterwards of the W. till he became the powerfulest Prince that ever reign'd in Africa; where his Successors reigned after him 160 Y. till Hadeck, the last Califf, gained it; who was kill'd by Saladin I. Souldan of Egypt, in 1164.

C E C

Cayphas, a T. of Palestine, seated upon the Mediterranean Sea, at the Foot of Mount Carmel, only 2 L. by Water from S. John of Acre. It is now but a poor Village, having been ruin'd by Wars.

Cyr-Bey, Sult'n of Egypt and Syria, born a Slave; but his Wit and Courage made him so highly considered among the Muslims, that with a general Consent they chose him for their K.

Cnaan, or as others write, Hazan, an Officer in the Jews Synagogues, who repeats aloud the Prayers the Jews say in their Synagogues, and sings them when they sing. He is in a high place above the rest, when the Rabbi seats himself to preach.

Clarus, or Oclarus, the Name of David's Godfather of the Horse, who when the Priests had consented that he should be King whose Horse should first walk before the Sun upon the Ninth of the Day succeeded him in the King's favour; and in the Reign of Edw. VI was constituted one of the Principal Secretaries of State, and of the Privy Council, in which Posts he continued under the Reigns of Q. Mary and Elizabeth; which latter advanc'd him to the Dignity of a Baron, by the Title of Lord Burleigh, and in the 14th of her Reign constituted him Lord Treasurer of England, and valued him as her ablest Minister. She always made him sit down in her Presence, saying, My Lord, we make use of you, not for your bad Legs, but for your good Head. His Saying was, Prudent qui patiens; his Maxim, Nolo minor me, et, meoat, despicere major; My Inferior shall not fear, my Superior shall not despise me. He died in 1598. Thomas, his Son and Heir, in 3 Jac. I was created Earl of Exeter, and was succeeded by William his Son and Heir, whose little Male being extinct, it fell to David Cecil, Son and Heir to Sir Richard Cecil, second Son of Thomas Earl of Exeter, which De-

C E C

C E D

Issue & Sons, of which James succeeded him; who marrying ——— Daughter of ——— Henriet of ——— had Issue by her, James the present E. of Salisbury, who is now under age.

Cecilian, Deacon of Mensurinus, Bp. of Carthage, who liv'd in the XIVth Age, was chosen Bp. in 306. He assisted at the Council of Nice in 325, and died a little after.

Cecropius, Bp. of Sebastia, assisted at the General Council of Chalcedon in 451, by which he was depured, with two other Prelates, to summon Dioscorus, and carry him a Writing; and when that Herefiarch desired Secular Commissioners, the Holy Bp. answered, It was not fit that Laymen should be present at it, since the business only concern'd his own person.

Cecropius, Bp. of Nicomedia in the 4th Cen. was an Abettor of the Arrians, and a cruel Persecutor of Athanasius, who in vindicating the truth of Christianity, had a world of Enemies.

Cecrops, the first of this Name, an Egyptian by Nation, was the first K. of the Athenians. He was surnamed Diphyes, either because he spoke two Languages, or because it was he that first brought in Marriages, and abolish'd the Custom of having Women in common, which till then was tolerated among the Grecians: And 'tis for this reason that all Antiquity thought he had two Faces.

Cecrops II. 7th K. of Athens: He succeeded his Brother Erechtheus A. M. 3705, and reigned 40 Ys.

Ceculus, Son of Vulcan, was conceiv'd (according to the Poets) of a Spark of Fire that flew into his Mother's Bosom, and had always an Inflammation in his Eyes, as a sign of what gave him his imaginary fanciful Being.

Cedes, a great and strong Town of Upper Galilee, upon the Mount of Nephalim, which was a Shelter and

C E I

Place of Refuge, for all such as committed unwillful Murders, if they could escape before seizure.

Ceditius, (Quintus) Tribune of the Soldiers. Several Authors make mention of him, especially Aulus Gellius, who in his 3d Book and 7th Chapter, says that Cato compar'd him with the famous Leonidas, who at the head of a handful of Lacedaemonians deliver'd the Greeks, as he did the Romans in Sicily.

Cedron, a Torrent or Stream that runs through the middle of the Valley of Jehosaphat, near Jerusalem. Here are two little Bridges, with each one Arch, upon this Brook; one towards our Lady's Sepulchre, the other towards Jehosaphat's Sepulchre. This Torrent is much spoken of in Scripture.

Cedwel, K. of the W. Saxons in the 6th Cen. He attempted to Conquer the Km. of Kent, but miscarried.

Cesalenia, or rather Cephalonia, an Island of the Ionian Sea, belonging to the Venetians, near the Isle of Zant, about 100 Leagues in compass, fruitful in Wines, excellent Oyl, and of those Grapes whereof they make Currants; for which they have a great Trade with our English Merchants.

Ceylon, an Isle of Asia, in the Indian Sea, on this side Ganges, near the Cape Comori upon the Strait of Mannar or Quilon. The Figure of the Island resembles a Pearl: Its Fruits, Flowers, and Plants, have a most pleasant Smell; and here is some Cinnamon, the best in the World; with all kind of other Drugs and precious Stones, Gold, and Pearls, which are fish'd in the Straights between Ceylon and the firm Land.

Cejonius, (Lucius Elius Verus Commodus) a very beautiful Young-man, adopted by Adrian, and made Cæsar, tho' he was Son-in-law to Nigrinus, who had attempted the Death of that Prince. Cæsar made him Prætor, gave him the Government of Pannonia, and named him Con'ta, but all could not prevent him from the effects of a cruel Distemper, of which he died A R 138

CEL

Celestin, the first of this Name that was Pope, a Roman by Nation, who succeeded Pope in 423, and held the Seat 8 Years Mon and 3 Days

Celestin II he succeeded Innocent II Dec 25. 1147, and died 5 Mon and 13 Days after.

Celestin III he crowned Henry V and his Wife Constance. He was Pope 6 Years Mon and died in 1198

Celestin IV he succeeded Gregory IX and died 18 Days after his Election from never Crowned

Clement V he succeeded Nicholas IV the Chair being 7 Years vacant Brunet Cardinal who had a mind to be Pope, put him in the Castle of Avignon where he died in 1296

Clement VI he succeeded Clement V and died in 1352

CEN

Celsus, (Caius Titus Cornelius) a Tyrant that got up in Africa in the time of Gaius the Emp but was killed 7 days after by Gaius, King's woman to the Emp. The Inhabitants of Sicca left his Body to be eaten by Dogs, and tied his Effigies to a Gallows

Celsus, (Aurelius Cornelius) a Philosopher of the Sect of Alepiades, who is commended by Quintilian. He wrote 8 Books of Physick, which are still remaining The last Edition of them was printed at Amsterdam, with Notes, in 1687

Celts, an ancient People, that came to inhabit in Europe after the Deluge; which some derive from Celts IX. K. of the ancient Gauls.

Celtes Protutus, (Conrade) born at Schweinfurt upon the Main, in Frankonia. He was Poet Laureat to the Emperor Frederick IV. and the first German that had this Honour

Cen, a ru'd T in the Maritime near Nice in Provence. It was

C E N

Centur, one of the Lapithæ, was first a Girl called Cenis, whom Neptune chang'd into a Man, and made invulnerable.

Cenis, or Mont Cenis, the modern Name of that famous Passage of the Alps, which parts Savoy from Piedmont, and was anciently called Alpes Cottiae.

Censor, the Name of an Officer in Rome, who took care of the Reformation of Manners, and of Taxing and Valuing Estates. In short, they had Authority to correct any Irregularity, and see that persons in publick and private capacity behaved themselves as they ought to do. They held this Office 5 Ys.

Censorinus, (Appius Claudius) a Roman Senator of great Quality, and as great a Warriour, who was twice Consul, and Præfæctus Prætorio, and Governor of the C. as often. He was chosen Emp. against Claudius II. in 268; but being too severe in punishing, was kill'd by the same Party, who rais'd him to the Imperial Dignity.

Centaur, Monsters, half Men, and half Horses, believed by the Ancients to be the Sons of Ixion, or the Night. Pliny affirms, that he saw one of these Monsters embalm'd at Rome; and Plutarch avers the same, in his Feast of the 7 Sages: but Palephastus thinks the Fable was invented upon this, That some People of Thessaly that lived near Mont Pelion, having admirable Address and skill in Taming Horses, and being seen on Horseback by the neighbouring People, who never saw such Creatures before, were called *Centaur*s.

Centobrica, an ancient T. of the Celtiberi in Spain, which, when Besieg'd by the Romans under Metellus, plac'd *Korbo*gens's Children before a Breach, because their Father was gone over to the Romans: but rather than so generous a Father should see the Massacre of his own Children, Metellus rais'd the Siege: whose Clemency and Good-nature work'd so much upon the Celtiberians, that they voluntarily opened their Gates, and let in the Romans.

C E P

Centurie, certain Parties of the Roman People, which consisted of 100 Men each. It was Servius Tullius, the 6th K. of Rome, that first made this Division, when he distinguish'd all the People into 6 Classes: The 1st Class was the richest of all, and had 30 Centuries; the 2d, 3d, and 4th Class, were each of 20 Centuries; the 5th had 30 Centuries; and the 6th comprehended all the meaner sort, and was counted but for 1 Century. These all gave their Suffrages upon extraordinary occasions in the Elections of Magistrates; and were ready to serve their Country.

Centurion, was Captain of a Roman Century, or Company of 100 Men. A Legion was 10 Cohorts or Regiments, and each Cohort of 6 Centuries; so that a Legion consisted of 6000 Men.

Cenulphus, or Kenulphus, the 14th K. of the Mercians, remarkable for his Piety and Courage. He made War upon the K. of Kent, and took him Prisoner. He reigned 24 Ys, and died about 819.

Cephalus, Son of Dejon K. of part of Phocis, and Husband of Procris Daughter of Erectheus K. of Athens. He was carried away by Aurora, who fell in love with him. She cou'd not persuade him to a compliance; yet Procris was very jealous of him, and contriving to watch him as he return'd from Hunting, she hid her self in the Bushes; but Cephalus supposing it had been a Deer, shot his Dart at it, and kill'd his Wife Procris unawares to him.

Cepheus, K. of Arcadia, Brother to K. Eleus; he was look'd on as Invincible, on the account of one of Medusa's Hairs, which Minerva fastned to his Head, as an Antidote or Charm against Death.

Cepus, or Cepuse, a County of Hungary,

C E R

Sary, upon the Frontiers of Poland, towards the Carpathian Mountains

Ceramicum, a famous place in Athens, where Plato kept his Academy

Cerasus, an ancient T. of Cappadocia, upon the Coast of the Euxine Sea, and now called Chirissonda. It was hence that first Cherries were brought into Italy by Lutullus. It was formerly a considerable place, but now is ruined, and thin of Inhabitants

Cerberus, Pluto's Dog, who had 3 Heads, and as many Necks. The Poets feign him to be the Keeper of the Gate of Pluto's Palace in Hell, that caresses the unfortunate Souls that are sent thither, and devours them that would get out again: Yet Hercules tied him up, and made him follow. This Dog with 3 Heads represents the 3 Enemies of Mankind, and the Hero that conquers them, is the Figure of a great Soul, which generously surmounts the Dangers of its dejected Enemies. L

C E R

Wives, or at least as many as he is able to maintain.

Ceres, Daughter of Saturn and Ops, desirous to find her Daughter which Pluto took from her, lighted a Torch upon Mount Etna, resolving to seek her Night and Day throughout all the Earth. But, not to waste time on Fables to hunt for Morals, Ovid says, That Ceres was the first that tilled the Ground, and furnish'd Men with Corn for their Food, and by good Laws learn'd them Justice, and the Manner of living in Society, to which before they were altogether Strangers.

Cerigo, Cythera, an Island upon the Coast of the Morea, belonging to the Venetians; the first Island of the Archipelago towards Europe, about 40 m. from Candia, and 60 in circuit; where the Poets say that Venus was born. It is now adorn'd with a City standing upon a Rock, having a Castle and a convenient Port to it, very strong by Nature and Art, of the same Name with it self which is al-being heretofore an Abbey-T. standing in a Campaign Country, and water'd with a fine Rivulet.

C E S

Cervantes, Saavedra (Miguel) a Spaniard, born at Sevil: He was a person of an extraordinary Capacity, had a noble Genius, and a great deal of life and vigour in his productions. This Character is undeniable by his Writings.

Cesar, a Title of Honour which the Roman Emperors gave their Sons, or to such as they adopted to be their Successors. The Title of the K. of the Romans in our days is something like it.

Cesar (Julius) first Emp. of Rome, Son to Lucius Cesar and Aurelia Daughter to Cato, was born July 12. A. R. 654. The Dictator Sylla suspecting his ambitious Humour, would have had him put to Death; and when he was over-perswaded to pardon him, told his own Friends, that press'd him to it; That he whose Interest was so dear to them at that time, should one day ruin their City. After this Cesar goes to the Army in Asia, and at his return went to Rhodes to study under Apollonius Molo; but was taken by Pirates, who offer'd him his Liberty for 30 Talents; but he scorn- ing it at so low a price, gave them 50. As soon as he was out of their hands, he takes other Ships, attacks the same Pirates that took him, subdues them, and crucifies them all. The first Office he was rais'd to, was, Tribune of the Soldiers; then he was made Edile, and after that Pontifex Maximus, or High Priest: next he was constituted Prætor, and Governor of Spain; and at his Return, in 695, was chosen Consul with Bibulus, whom he depos'd and confined, because he would not consent to publish the Agrian Law. He subdued the Gauls, laid a Bridge over the Rhine to attack the Germans, and conquer'd the Inhabitants of Great Britain. But while he was thus Victorious abroad, his Daughter Julia died at Rome, and his Friendship with Pompey ceased with her Life. They from henceforth regarded each other as Rivals; and as one could not endure a Superior, so the other could not abide an Equal. This drove them both to Arms, and after many sharp Conflicts, Cesar defeated Pompey in the Battel of Pharsalia, in the 706 Y. of Rome. This famous Victory, and the Death of Pompey, paved his way to the Imperial Throne, and that to his being murder'd in the Senate-House on the 15th of March, the 709th Y. of Rome, the 56th of his Age, and 43 Y. before the Nativity of our Saviour.

C E S

Cæsarea, a T. of Cappadocia, named so by Tiberius.

Cæsarea Philippi had that Name, because Philip the Son of Herod built it in honour of Caligula. It stood at the Foot of Mount Libanus, near the Springs of Jordan, and is thought to be the modern Belus or Belber. It was a Bishop's See, under the Metropolis of Tyre.

Cæsarta, a T. of Palestine, built by Herod the Great, by the Sea-side, in a very advantageous place, called the Tower of Straton, and dedicated to Augustus. There is another Cæsarea in Africa, very famous in the Roman History. The Califer demolish'd it in 959, yet there are still some signs of its Greatness.

St. Cæsarius, Brother to St. Gregory Nazianzen, lived in the 4th Age. He studied in Alexandria, whence he came to Rome, where Julian the Apostate made him Overseer of the Treasury; but he soon quitted it, that he might not give offence to the Christians by serving an Apostate, and died in 368.

St. Cæsarius, Abp of Arles, much renowned for his Learning and Piety, lived in the 6th Age, and died in 543, leaving us many Books of his own making.

Cesarini, (Julian) descended of a Noble Family of Rome, was, for his extra-extraordinary parts, made a Cardinal by Pope Martin V. in 1426; but in a Fight against the Turks, was either kill'd in the Battel, or murder'd by a Waterman, for his Money, as he was escaping over the Danube.

C E V

C. Juv. (Buffus) a Lyrick Poet and Historian, who lived in Galba's and Nero's time. Per. was his Friend, and address'd the 6th Book of his Satyrs to him.

C. Julia, the Emp. Caligula's Wife was kill'd by Juv. is Lupus, as she wept over her murder'd Husband's Corps, in 41. She exposed her naked Neck to the Cat-threats, and suffer'd with great Constancy. Her Daughter Jul. is Dr. Julia, tho' then but an Infant, was barbarously strangled with her.

C. f. a R. of the Datchy of Luxemburg, which, after it has pass'd Hindag, enters it self into a fortified Cavern, and then under ground a League, then appears again as far as L. Bar is where it enters at. A Wells have been well inhabited, and has some Mines of Lead and Tin.

C H A

Cenrauwath, the Name of a Sect of the Bannians in the Indies, that hold the Metempsychosis with so much Superstition, that they will not kill the least Insect. They neither believe there is a Heaven nor a Hell; but hold, That the Soul is immortal, and passes from one Body into another. They burn the Bodies of their old People after their Death; but bury young Children that die under 3 Ys. of Age.

Centa, a T. and Castle of Africa, belonging to the Spaniards, near the Streights of Gibraltar, in the Km. of Fez, which was formerly Capital of Mauritania Tingitana. It has been long besieged by the Moors, and heretofore as bravely defended by the Spaniards, who are very unwilling to lose it.

Charles (Charles II.) Lord of the Pa. of Prov. Marshal of France, and one of the greatest Generals of his time. He also a Prince great

C H A

Chagan, K. of the Avari or Huns, who made Incursions into Thrace, in the Reign of the Emp. Mauritius, in 598; but was unsuccessful. The Name Chagan was common to all the Princes of the Huns.

Cha-Gehan, K. of the Indies, second Son to Gehan-Gair, usurp'd the Crown which of Right belong'd to Belak Son of Kasra his eldest Brother: and having got into possession by a Stratagem, exercis'd all sorts of Cruelties to keep it, putting all to Death that shew'd any affection to his Nephew: but all would not do; for, as he usurp'd the Crown from the lawful Heir, so he was justly deprived of it by one of his own Sons, called Aureng-Zeb: who having defeated the rest of his Brothers that pretended to the Crown, upon a false Report that their Father was dead, and secur'd the King's person in Agra, all the Kingdom declar'd for him: and Cha-Gehan seeing himself abandon'd by his Subjects, who now own'd no other Prince than Aureng-Zeb for their Sovereign, died in 1666.

Chagford, a m. T. in Devonshire, in the Hundred of Wansford, 152 m. from London.

Chalcedon, or Calcedon, a City of the Lower Asia, in Bithynia, a Bp's See under the Patriarch of Constantinople, of great Antiquity, and much celebrated in History; but now reduced to the meanness of a poor Village, call'd by the Turks Calcedin. It stands on the Mouth of the Propontis, over against Constantinople, remarkable for the 4th General Council celebrated here, in 451.

Chalcis, the ancient Name of the Island and T. of Negropont; also a T. in Etolia in Greece; with another in Syria, occurring in the Writings of the Ancients, but now unknown.

Chaldæa, a Prov. of Asia in Assyria, between the Euphrates, the Tygris, the Persian Gulf, and the Mountains of Arabia Deserta. It is now called Cur- distan, and possess'd by the Turks. The ancient Caldea was divided into two parts; the one N. of Misopotamia, in which stood Ur, the Country of Atrabani; the other S. of Babylon, in which the Philosophers lived and flourish'd, whose Fame became extended all over the E. and whose Enquiries gave the first Birth to Astronomy, Philosophy, and Theology. Babylon was the Capital of the ancient Caldea.

C H A

Chalon, or Chalons upon Marne, a T. of France, 7 m. from Rheims to the S. E. and 12 from Troyes to the N. W. It is well built, and fortified. The Bishops of it are Earls and Peers of France.

Chalon, or Chalons upon Saone, is a T. of the Dutchy of Burgundy, and has the Title of a County. Its Antiquity is apparent in the great number of Statues, Inscriptions, Remains of an Amphitheatre, and Pieces of publick Structures, to be seen here still.

Chalvetti, the Founder of several Religious Orders amongst the Turks.

Chalus, or Chalsis, a Borough of France, in Limosin; at whose Siege Richard II. K. of England being shot with an Arrow, died of the Wound; and yet forgave him that did it, when in his power.

Cham, one of Noah's 3 Sons, and youngest of the 3, was born, according to the more common Opinion, A. M. 1559, which was the 502 of Noah's Age. Some are of opinion, that Jupiter Ammon of the Egyptians is the same with this Cham. It is also a Name of the Ks. of Tartary; and the Lords of the Court, the Governours of Provinces, and chief Judges of Persia, are called Chams.

Chamber of Accompts, a Sovereign Company in France, appointed to Receive and Oversee the Accompts of the K.'s Officers. There are nine in France; one at Paris, the like at Rean, at Dijon, at Nants, at Montpellier, at Grenoble in Dauphine, at Aix in

CHA

Emperor's Quaestor Sacri Palatii. The English call him the Lord Chancellor of England, and the Keeper of the K's Conscience, having the Power of Equity to abate the Rigour of the Common Law. He presides in the K's Councils, declares his Majesty's Pleasure to the Parliament, and sits there before him on his left hand. Chancellor of the French Academy is the second Dignity of that Society. Chancellor or Grand Prior of France is he that seals the Commissions and Acts of the Chapter or Assembly of Knights. In Germany the Lord High Chancellor is constantly the Abp. of Mentz, but in England he is chosen at the K's Pleasure, and at present that Office is supplied by the Right Honourable Sir Nathan Wright, under the Title of Lord Keeper of the Great Seal.

Changshou great T. of the Prov. of Fokien in China, Capital of a Jurisdiction of the same Name. On the S. side where the R. Chauer streams by the T. is a magnificent Bridge of 36 great and high Arches, with Houses and Shops upon it, where one may be accommodated with Rarities of China and other Trading Countries. The T. is well peopled; the Inhabitants are both witty and laborious; but naturally Sharpers, and much given to their Pleasures. Here have been found ancient Remains of the Christian Religion, with part of the Holy Scriptures in Latin, writ in Gothick Letters on Parchment, which the Chinews that was possess'd of it, would not sell at any Price, saying he would preserve it in his Family, as a Curiosity left by his Ancestors. There is another great T. of the same Name in the Prov. of Nanking in China, where are made Earthen Vessels much esteemed for the pleasing Relish they give their Cha or Tea.

Changte, a great T. Capital of a Territory that bears its Name, in the

CHA

Prov. of Honan in China, where is a sort of Fish that cries like a young Child when taken, and is like a small Crocodile; its fat is of that strange Nature, that when once it flames, neither Water nor any thing else can quench it.

Changte, another great T. in the Prov. of Huquank in China, which exceeds all others in Fertility, and produces Oranges, which they call Winter ones, because they grow when the Season of all the rest is past. It also abounds in Azure Stones, and has some Manna of excellent use in Physic.

Chantilly, an ancient and strong Castle 8 Ls. from Paris, and 2 from Senlis, near the Forest of this Name. It has fair Gardens and pleasant Waters, which renders it one of the most delightful Places of the Km.

Chaochen, a great T. in the Prov. of Quantung in China; the Tide coming up to the very Walls, makes it a T. of considerable Merchandizing, and a very safe Port.

Chacking, a great T. of the Prov. of Quantung in China, whose private Houses as well as publick Buildings, are very sumptuous. In the Country about it are great numbers of wild and tame Peacocks, which are very scarce in the other Provinces. In one of the Rs. here, are Fish called the Swimming Cow, which comes sometimes on the Land, and fights with the other Cows. Near the C. of Sinking in this Prov is a strange Lake, call'd by the Inhabitants Dragons, because as soon as the least Stone is cast into it, it returns as great a Noise as if it thunder'd, and immediately the Sky darkens, which is soon followed with Rain. Some say there is such a Lake in the Aips.

Chapclains, a second Order of Maltre, the first being that of Knights. These Chapclains receive Deacons Orders that they may be promoted to be Priests.

CH A

Chaparrs, an Officer among the Perfians, who carry Expresses from the K. to the Governors of Provinces, and from them back again to the K. They may dismount any Horseman they meet if they find their own Horses weary, or fear they will not out in their Journey. And there is no Prison for any Traveller, that shall refuse to let a Chaparr have his Horse, or for any other that shall deny him the Use of his Stable.

Chappell, the Name of a Chappel of St. Mary in Derbyshire, in the Maner of St. Peter, 154 ms. from London.

Chappa, or Glaring, is a Tribute of Gold, which the Christians and Moslems are obliged to pay the Grand Sultan, as soon as they arrive to trade in any of his Ports, and amount to a Crown a Head.

Chappa, the Name of several Places in France. One of the most considerable is about 2 L. from Paris, near the Place where the R. Seine and Marne join. This is a great

CH A

Charibert, K. of Aquitain, Son of Clotaire II, K. of France. Having an Appanage from his Brother Dagobert I, he fix'd his Residence at Thibault, where he was hardly settled when he dy'd in 630, and was soon followed by his Son Chilperich, a sucking Child, thought to be made away by Dagobert.

Charicle, Daughter of Hydaspes K. of Ethiopia, who was born White, because the Queen her Mother, when big with Child of her, had often beheld the Picture of a beautiful young Woman, that was extraordinary white; yet this Colour being uncommon in that Country, the Queen was in some fear, lest her Husband should suspect her Honesty; but soon after, to her great Satisfaction, there appear'd a round Spot of the Colour of Ebony, upon the Princess's Arm, a Mark almost Hereditary to the Family of Hydaspes.

Charilaus, K. of Lacedaemon, of the Family of Proclides, reign'd about 64 Ys. being obliged to his Uncle Lys

C H A

Lick Service, assigning them a Maintenance out of the Revenues of the Hospitals and Infirmaries of France, with a House at Paris in the Suburb of St. Marcellus. Those of this Order wear a Cloak with a Cross on the left side, with these Words embroider'd in Gold, for having served faithfully.

Charite of our Lady, a Religious Order that observes St. Austin's Rule, established in the Dio. of Chalon in Champagne, by Guy Lord of Joinville, and of the Borough of St. George.

Chariton, of Agrirentum, who to revenge a young Man that he lov'd, call'd Melanippus, undertook to kill Phalaris, Tyrant of that Country; but the Design being discovered, Melanippus goes immediately to the Tyrant, and to save Chariton's Life, tells him it was he that put him upon the Undertaking, which Friendship so surpriz'd the Tyrant, that he forgave both, on Condition they should quit the Country.

Charkliqueu, a T. in Cappadocia in the lesser Asia, a Ls. from Tocat, standing in a fruitful Country for Wine. There is the Rock not far from it, which served in the Exile of St. Chrysostom, for the Place of his Retreat, very much frequented by devout Christians.

Charlement, a small, but very strong T. in the most Southern Borders of the Co. of Namur, upon the R. Mose, about 4 m. S. of Dinant, and 9 from Namur, formerly belonging to the Bpk. of Liege.

Charlement, an old Castle in the Prov. of Ulster in Ireland, in the Co. of Armagh, surrendred May 14, 1690, to the Duke of Schomberg upon Articles for want of Provisions, having defended it self for 6 Months, in the midst of all the Garrisons belonging to the said General, to Admiration.

Charleroy, a new built strong T. in Namur, where the Village of Charney stood, built by the Spaniards in 1666, and so called from the then K. of Spain. It was taken by the French in 1667, and restored by the Treaty of Nimeguen, to the Spaniards. In 1693, it was again taken by the French, and restored again to the right Owners by the Treaty of Reswick in 1697, with all its Artillery.

C H A

Charles the IVth, Emp. K. of Bohemia, and Duke of Luxemburg, was chosen upon the Request of Pope Clement VI, a Y. before Louis of Bavaria's Death in 1346. He was Crown'd at Rome in 1355, and the next Y. made that famous Constitution called the Golden Bull. He had such Affection for the Clergy, that he was called the Emp. of Priests. He added Bohemia, Lusatia, and Silesia to the Empire; and it is said of him, that as he ruined his Family to come to the Empire, so he undid this to re-establish that again. He dy'd Nov. 29, 1378, at Prague in Bohemia, being 63 Ys. of Age, and having reigned 32.

Charles V, Emp. and K. of Spain, Eldest Son of Philip I, Arch-Duke of Austria, and of Jane Q. of Castile, succeeded his Father in the Km. of Spain, in 1517, and was chosen Emp. 2 Ys. after by the Electors at Frankfort, after the Death of his Grandfather Maximilian. This Emp's Army took Rome in 1527, and plunder'd it 2 Months, without respect to the Pope or any thing else; during which time it was observed, that the Spaniards, tho' Papists, out-did the Germans, who were profess'd Lutherans. The Emperor pretended to be dissatisfied with their Proceedings, but it was well known that under-hand he countenanc'd their Violences. In the mean time the Pope ransoms himself, and makes an Agreement with Charles in 1529, who also concluded a Peace with Francis I, at Cambray, the same Y. He made War against France, which was ended by the Peace of Nice in 1538. He lead an Army into Africa

C H A

Africa against Barbarossa; but this Enterprize proved unfortunate, and he returned into Spain with great loss. Papists accuse him for countenancing Lutheranism in Germany, by his Edict called the Interim, which was done for no other end, but to reap benefit by these Divisions. He made 10 different Voyages and Journeys; 9 into Germany, 10 into Flanders, 6 into Spain, 7 into Italy, 4 into France, 2 into England, 2 into Africa, 8 up on the Mediterranean, and 2 upon the Ocean, and at length shewed there was a Limit to the Pius Ultra, which was his Motto; for he withdrew from the World, and resign'd all his Possessions to his Son Philip, on the 25th of October at Brussels, and spent the Remainder of his Life in the Convent of St. Jibea, in the Province of Extremadura 8 m from Palencia in Spain, dying there Sept. 21, 1558, being 68 Ys. and 7 Months of Age, whereof he held the Empire 38 Ys 2 Months, and 11 Days.

C H A

Leen, and Discontents run higher and higher. A third Parliament was call'd March 17, 1627, who gave a Summary of their Grievances, and to obviate Inconveniences, brought in the Bill call'd the Petition of Right, which was signed by the K. to their Satisfaction; but Mr Selden and other Members, taking some unusual Freedoms in their Remonstrances, were committed to the Tower, and the Parliament soon after dissolved. The K levies Ship-mony by the Advice of his Council and Judges, and Mr. Hambden contests the Point at Law with his Majesty. The Scots set up a Covenant against the K's Authority, which was a Combination against all that should oppose them, not excepting the K. and to back their Pretensions, march a first and second Army into England, and, as the Earl of Bristol said in Parliament, cost England 1100000 l. by a dishonourable Peace. Another Parliament was call'd at Westminster Nov. 3, 1641, where the Scots insisted upon their old and Ireton heading a Faction among (call'd Independants) in the Parliament, took the K. & Parliament into their own, upon pretence of using it; but making themselves of the C. of London, acted at on. During the absence of , who went to fight the Scotts Duke Hamilton, the Parliament re-assumed their Treaty & K. who made such Con-, that there was great hopes :commodation; the two Hou- ng vored the K's preliminary unce, a good Foundation for

C H A

: But this Complexion of was soon chang'd by the Ar- o headed by Ireton, Cromwell's law, over aw'd the House to ff the Treaty by their Vote -Addresses : and now the Ar- ng wholly at Cromwell's Devo- : sets Agitators on work to , that the K. be brought to Ju- d having imprisoned some of mbers, and frighted away o- at abhor'd these Practices, 'till raining Jurists were all of a and perfectly in Cromwell's In-this Remainder of a Parlia- rected the High Court of Justice, he K. and to proceed to Sen- nd Execution according to the of the Cause. The Generali- the People look'd upon this as an abominable Insolence . Presbyterian Ministers cry'd out it in their Pulpits ; the Scotts ed against it, and the Amba- of Foreign Princes did their : to oppose it. Before this pre-

Court the K. was accused of Treason ; who maintaining his ter, and refusing to acknow- he Authority of these pretend- ges, had Sentence of Death upon him, and after a great ma- ties by the Soldiers, was behead- in a Scaffold, erected for that pur- efore the Banqueting House at

C H A

Whitehal. This execrable Murder was committed on the 30th of January, 1648. This K. to speak a Word of him by way of Character, was a Prince of great Abilities for the Fun- tions of Government, of great Re- gularity of Life, and Equality of Temper; well furnished both with Capacity and Resolution to ad- vail in the Cabinet, and execute in the Field. His greatest Misfortune seems to have lain, in his too modest Sense of his own Sufficiency. This Diffidence made him sometimes be over-rul'd, by other Mens Opinions worse grounded than his own. To conclude, his Works printed in Fo- lio, sufficiently shew the Extent of his Knowledge, the Strength of his Reason, and the noble manner of his Expression; there being a peculiar Force and Delicacy in his Compo- sitions, hardly to be met with in the Age he lived in. He died with great Composedness and Christian Forti- tude, and declar'd himself of the Communion of the Church of England, as it was settled in the Time of his Father K. James I.

Charles II. K. of Great Britain was Son to Charles I. by Henrietta Maria, Daughter of Henry IV. of France. He was born May 29, 1630. Being at the Hague when his Father was mur- dered, he was honourably entertained by the States of Holland; while the Rebels in England, without either Fear or Shame, abolish Kingly Go- vernment, and turn all things upside down. The Scotts, after some time, seem'd to repent of their infamous delivering of the K. up to the English, which they now find was but a lead- ing Step to his Murther, and there- fore to atone for that Crime, endea- vour to restore Charles the II. but all such Endeavours by Arms, either by his well affected Subjects of Eng- land or Scotland, proving ineffectual. The Rebels themselves at length grew giddy and infatuated, by their various turn-

CH A

turning from one Form of Government to another; 'till at length the long Rebelious Juncto dissolving themselves, and a Parliament or rather a Convention, meeting at West- minster on the 25th of April, 1660, consisting of 2 Houses, Lords and Commons, they sent Commissioners to the K. together with considerable Presents to his Majesty, and the Dukes of York and Gloucester. Admiral Montague delivers up the Fleet to his Majesty, who coming on Board the Admiral, landed at Dover, and made a splendid Entrance into Lon- don, May 29, 1660. His Reign, tho' disturbed with several Plots of the old Rebels, to destroy the K. and to restore their Idol of a Common-Wealth, and repeated Wars with the Dutch was generally happy, and the Nation thrived by Commerce and Plenty; 'till 1678, that Oates's Plot was started, and then the K. or Nation never enjoyed any Quiet, 'till 1688, when the K. was deposed, and

CH A

1688, the Rye-House-Plot, for assassinating the K. and the D. of York, was discover'd. The Duke of Monmouth upon his Submission was restor'd to the K's Favour, and in a Letter to the K. own'd himself concern'd in the Conspiracy of seizing the K's Guard and his Person; but not in that part of it which related to the Murther of the K. and the D. This
Y. being 1684, upon Monday Februa- ry 2, the K. fell sick of an Apoplexy, dy'd on the Friday following in the 55th Y. of his Age. and was buried in Hen. the VIIIth's Chappel.

Charles I., called the Great, and commonly Charlemain, K. of France, and Emp. of the W. Born about the Y.
742, was Crown'd at Noyon in 768, after the Death of his Father, Pepin
the Short, and after the Death of his Brother Carloman, that had Austra- ria for his Share, became sole and absolute Monarch of France. He sub-du'd the Saxons a first and second time, and forc'd them to embrace

CHA

second Wife, Daughter of Philip, Count of Bavaria. He was born at Frankfort upon the Main, in 823, and succeeded his Father in 840. He was crown'd Emp. by Pope John VIII, but did not long enjoy that Honour; for endeavouring to become Master of Italy, under Colour of supporting the Interest of his Niece Hermengarde; Boson this Princess's Husband thwarted his Designs, and forc'd him to return to France, where he died at Briard in Bresse the 6th of October, 877, and was buried at Nantua: He was thought to be poison'd as he came back from Italy, by the Treachery of his Physician, who was a Jew.

Charles III, through the weakness of his Brain, call'd the Simple, born of Queen Adelaide in Sept. 879, after his Father, Lewis the Lisper's Death. Charles the Barly, and then Eudes, Sons to Robert surnamed the Strong, govern'd the Km. in his Minority, and are for this only Reason put into the number of the Ks by several Historians; but at last Foulques Abp. of Rhims, a Prelate of great Courage, procur'd him to be Crown'd in 893. His Reign, tho' peaceable at the first, was afterward much disturb'd by Competitors, who at length drew him to St. Quentin upon Somme, where they made him Prisoner, whence he was carry'd to Castle Thierry upon the Marn, where he dy'd after six Ys. Confinement in 929, and was buried at St. Furs.

Charles IV, called the Fair, K. of France and Navarre, was third Son of Philip Count of Marche, by Jean Q. of Navarre, who being dissatisfied that Edw. II, K. of England, did not assist at his Coronation, took in all the Places in Guerne that belong'd to the English, in 1324, 'till the Council of England thought it fit to send Q. Isabella, Charles's Sister, with her eldest Son Edward, to do him Homage, and to negotiate a Peace, which succeeded. After this, the Pope proffer'd this K. the Empire, which he refused, and soon after fell ill and died at Bois de St. Vincennes in 1327, without Issue Male.

CHA

Charles V, called the Wise and Eloquent, eldest Son of John and Bonne of Luxemburg, born in 1337, was the first that took the Quality of Dauphine, a Title which belongs to the eldest Son of France, by Humber's leaving it to them. His Reign lasted 16 Ys. during which time, tho' he seldom took the Field himself, but carried on the War by his Brothers and Generals, yet he gave the English more Trouble than any of his Predecessors. He drove them out of Berry, Tourain, Angou, Limousin, and Revergne; gain'd the Battel of Chize; and sunk the Interest of the English very low. He dy'd in 1380, as he was forming other Designs. It was said that the K. of Navarre got him poison'd some Ys. before, but that the Violence of the Venom was abated by an Issue, which the Emp's Physicians order'd to be cut in his Arm, to give it vent, which drying up occasion'd his Death. His Body was buried at St. Denis, his Heart at Ram, and his Entrails at Montbilsen.

Charles VI, surnamed the Beloved, born at Paris December 3, 1358, succeeded his Father at 13 Years of Age. His Reign was of 41 Ys. but unfortunate; for the extraordinary Taxes that he laid upon his Subjects, run them into Rebellion. As he was going out of Paris in the beginning of August, the violent Heat of the Sun compos'd his Brain; which Evil was increased by a Fright, occasion'd by a disfigur'd and ghastly Fellow's coming up to him, taking his Bridle, and speaking thus, Stop King, whither go you? you are betray'd, and then immediately disappeared. To crown this Misfortune, a Page that carried his Lance being sleepy, ran the point, by meer chance, against the Head-piece that another carried before him, which confirm'd the K. in his belief, that he was going to be delivered up to his Enemies, and put him into such a violent Frenzy, that he swooned a way; but he came to himself, and was pretty well after, until being at a Masquerade to divert himself, he relaps'd into his Frenzy, being frighted by a Fire that took in one of the Actors pitch'd Garments. In 1394 he made a 4 Ys Truce with the English, but his Troubles multiplying at Home, he was much dejected, and dy'd the 21st of October, 1402, in the 52^d Y. of his Age.

CHA

Charles VII., surnamed the Victor, Son to Charles the VIth, born at Paris in France, 1403, got himself crowned at Rheims after his Father's Death, with his Mother, and some others, proclaimed Henry VI. Son to K. Henry V. of England, and Catherine of France his Queen. The first ceded his Father at 13 Ys. of Age, in 1481, and was crown'd the Y. after at Rheims. His first warlike Action was in suppressing a Rebellion rais'd by Louis Duke of Orleans. Then he sent Home Margaret, Daughter to the Emp. Maximilian, to whom he was contracted, and in 1491st married Anne of Britany, whom the Arch-Duke of Austria had married by Proxy. After this he marched into Italy, and made himself absolute Master of Naples and its Territories in less than 4 Months, and returning into France, dy'd in 1498, he 27th Y. of his Age, and 14th of his Reign.

CHA

Charles IX., second Son of Henry II., and of Catherine de Medicis, was born at St. Germain en Laye, in 1550, succeeded his Brother Francis II. at 17th Ys. of Age, and was Crown'd and Anointed in 1561, at Rheims. In his time began the War between the Papists and Hugonots of France, where the whole Kingdom was a scene of Blood.

CHA

ing any thing, he was deposed in 887, and reduced to so low a Condition, that he was scarce able to subsist, having but an inconsiderable Pension from his Nephew Arnoul, to whom he had left the Empire. This hard usage broke his Heart soon after, for he dy'd Jan. 13, 888.

Charles Martel, Major of the Court or Palace, and Prince of France, was Son to Héristel, descended of Arnoul, Præfatus Prætoris of the Gauls. He was a great Warriour, which got him the Name of Martel. He defeated Mansrey, and made him Master of the Government of France. He overthrew the Saxons, the Germans, the Bavarians, and Noricians. Afterwards he took Burgundy, Aquitain, drove the Saracens out of Avignon and Languedock, and beat the Duke of Athens out of Marseilles and Provence, for being the occasion of their coming. He dy'd at Cress upon Oise, in 741, being 50 or 55 Ys. of Age, whereof he govern'd 16.

Charles of France, Count of Valois, Alençon, Chartres, Angers, and Maine, Peer of France, and youngest Son of Philip the Bold, was born in 1270, and afterwards surnamed Defender of the Church; was a K's Son, Brother to another, Uncle to three, and Father of a K. but was not one himself; for tho' Pope Martin IV, invested him with the Title of K. of Aragon, he quitted it for Peace, and the publick Good. He was a great General, and supported the Interest of the Church; for which Pope Boniface VIII, created him Vicar and Defender of the Church, Count of Romania, and Peace-Maker of Tuscany. He was employed in the Reigns of his three Nephews, and sent by Charles the Fair, against the K. of England in Guinne; where he subdu'd all the Country between the R. Dardagne and Garonne.

Charles, Prince of Spain, known by the Name of Carlus, Son of Phi- lip II, and Mary of Portugal, was born in 1545. He was of a melancholy, violent, and jealous Humour, and never slept but with naked Swords, and Fire Arms under his Pillow. His great Ambition to command, made his Father suspect he might undertake something to compass his Desires, and fearing he should go over to the Dutch, he seized him in the Night, discharged his Retinue, and kept him under a strict and severe Confinement. This usage put Don Carlos into such Despair, that he cast himself into the Fire; at another time almost choked himself with a Diamond; but being prevented, he fasted two whole Days and then drank so much cold Water, that he almost kill'd himself. A little after this K. Philip got him poison'd, or as others say, strangled; however he dy'd July 24, 1568. Some think it was Jealousy put the K. upon this Extremity, for Carlos being to marry the Queen, and deceived of her by his Father, there seem'd some kindness between them afterwards; and there is some reason for this Opinion, because the Queen dy'd also the October following, not without Suspicion of being poison'd also.

CHA

Charles II, K. of Spain, was born at Madrid Nov. 6, 1661, and succeeded his Father Philip IV, in 1665. He took the Government upon him, and was declared a Major in 1676. He had 2 Wives, Mary Louisa of the House of Orleans, married in 1679, and Mariana, Princess of Nuremberg, to whom he was married in 1690. He lived an unactive, sickly Life, and dy'd in October 21, 1700, in the 39th Year of his Age. Before his Death he made a Will, or one was made for him, that is like to involve Europe in a bloody War.

Charles, surnamed Martel, the first of this Name, Son to Charles II, called the Lame, K. of Naples and Sicily.

C H A

city, and Count of Provence, was born in 1272, and came to the Crown in 1286, because his Mother, Mary of Hungary, Daughter to Stephen V, was Sister to Ladislaus IV, who died that very same Y. but could not take Possession of the Km. because Andrew, surnamed the Venetian, Q. Mar's Kinsman, was enthroned by the Pope. He dy'd in 1301.

Charles II called the Bad. He was Crown'd in Pamplone in 1349, and came 4 Ys. after into France, with a Train of Mercenaries, for he got Charles d'Anjou, Countable of France, to Lett. him in 1357. He poison'd Gaston, Count of Foix, by the help of his Son Gaston, who innocently got his Father the Poison, which he thought was a Love Potion, to make him love his Mother Agnes, whom the Count had sent away. A little while after he dy'd much Duller, was however let to live, till he was wrapt up in Coarthen, & buried. When he dy'd he was to city, massacred all the French as they were at Vespers or Evening-Song, on Easter-day, in 1381, whence this Butchery was called the Sicilian Evening Prayer. This Prince ended his Days in 1385.

C H A

Charles II, called the Lame, who, while his Father lived, was called Prince of Salerno, was in Prison when Charles I, to whom he succeeded, died, and was not set at Liberty till a Peace was made, in 1388. As soon as he was set at Liberty, he came into France, whence he went into Italy, where he was Crowned K. of Naples and Sicily, in 1389. He also had Hungary by his Wife Mary, Daughter to Stephen V. All which he govern'd with great Prudence and Moderation, tho' he had many Competitors. He dy'd at Naples in 1399, being 63 Ys. of Age.

Charles, only Son of Robert, Son to Charles II was called by some Charles without Lands, till his Father made him Duke of Calabria, and in Sweden, whereof the first 6 are so little remarkable in History, that without mentioning them, we will begin with the Seventh.

C H A

Charles VII, under Colour of revenging the Death of Eric IX, put himself upon the Throne, and united Gothland to it; but Canute, St. Eric's Son, got him kill'd about the Y. 1168.

Charles VIII, was chosen after Christopher, in 1448. He is not only commended in History for his Justice and Wisdom, but for a good Philosopher, and expert Mathematician; yet he was thrice banished the Km. for his Severity to the Clergy, and died at last in 1470.

Charles IX, D of Sudermania, Son to Gustavus I, Brother to John III, and Uncle to Sigismund, lawful K. of Sweden. The States gave him the Title of K. in 1594; he was Crown'd 4 Ys. after, and dy'd in 1611. This Usurpation occasion'd bloody Wars between Sweden and Poland.

Charles Gustavus X, of the House of Duke Ponts, Son to John Casimir, Count Palatin of the Rhine, and of Catherine of Sweden, Daughter to Charles IX, succeeded Q. Christina; who made a voluntary Resignation of her Km. to him in 1654. The next Y. he began a War against Poland, and carried all before him; but at last the Poles took Heart, and drove the Swedes out of their Country. Then he begins a War against Denmark, besieges Copenhagen, and would have certainly carried it, had it not been relieved by the Dutch Fleet; and being a brave and enterprising Prince, would have done great things had he liv'd longer; but he dy'd of the Spleen in the 37th of his Age, in the Y. 1660.

Charles XI, Son of Charles X, King of Sweden, was born Nov. 25, 1655, two Ys. after his Father was advanced to the Crown. This K's Education in his Minority, by his own Genius, and the Indulgence of his Mother, was mostly in order to a Military Life. He was no sooner Crown'd, in the Y. 1674, but he found himself engaged in a War then on Foot, and espoused the French Interest, in consideration of the Subsidy of 200000 l. a Y. in which, the first blow was the Defeat of Field Marshal Wrangel, and his Army in Germany. The Success of this Action engaged the Danes in a War against him, in which he gained a great Stock of Military Experience, and that without any Tincture of those Vices which commonly prevail in a Camp, and was so indefatigable and perpetually employed, that he scarce had his Boots off in three Ys. time. So that at the Conclusion of the War in 1680, after he had consummated his Marriage with the Princess, Ulrica Eleonora, Sister to the K. of Denmark, the States of Sweden desir'd him to take his own Measures, for the Security of the Km. without inclining to the Advice of the Senators further than he pleas'd himself. Now finding all Europe engaged in a War, he observed an exact Neutrality, and by this means contributed much to the enriching of his own Km. and enlarging of Foreign Trade, and yet shew'd his Goodness in the indefatigable Endeavours to make the Peace that follow'd, by offering his Mediation to that end, to the several Parties concern'd, which at length was accepted, and a Treaty began at Reswick; but little Progress was made before the Thread of his Life was spun out; for he dy'd on the 17th of April, 1697, in the 42d. Y. of his Age, and the 37th of his Reign.

C H A

Charles XII, Son of Charles the XI, born the 27th of June, 1682, was by the K. his Father, left under the Regency of the Q. Dowager, his Mother, till 18 Ys. of Age; who had several several Privy Counsellors appointed to assist her; but the young K. gave such early signs of his Capacity and Ability for Government, that the States soon declared him a Major, and put the Government into his hands long before the time appointed by his Father. He was no sooner warm in his Throne, but he was engaged in a War on the behalf of the D. of Holstein against the K. of Denmark; and also in another unjustly, and without any notice, or pretence of Quarrel or Difference, commenc'd against him by the K. of Poland and the Czar of Moscow in conjunction in which the brave young Heroick Prince, with vast disproportion in respect of Number, has shew'd so much personal Courage, Bravery, and Conduct, that the K. of Poland has withdrawn his Troops, and the Czar's great Army being beaten with a handful of Swiss, and forc'd to run home, with hardy to tempt their Fortune again.

C H A

C H A

K. of Navarre, for whom he fought at the Battel of Contes in 1587; but some time after he quitted that side, and was received again into Henry's Favour, and continued a Courtier till he died, in 1612.

Charles II. of that Name, Cardinal of Bourbon, and Peer of France, was born in 1523, made a Cardinal in 1547, and was a great Persecutor of the Huguenots.

Charles III. called the Young, Cardinal of Bourbon, was 4th Son to Louis of Bourbon Prince of Condé, and of Eleanor de Roys. He was bred among the Huguenots; but for the sake of being a Cardinal, went over to the Ch. of Rome. He also plotted to make himself King; but his Design came to nothing, by Henry IV's declaring himself to be of the Roman Communion.

Charles D. of Burgundy, surnamed the Bold, the Warrior, and the Rich, Son to Philip III D. of Burgundy, by Jane of Portugal, was born at Dijon and made himself to become an Enemy to all his Noble Enemies, and to follow him all his life-time, against all men but his lawful K. This mean Submission so troubled the French Nobility, that they gave the Crown, which was Charles's Right, to Hugh Capet. He made some Attempts to regain it, but all in vain; for Charles and his Wife were taken Prisoners, and sent to Orleans, where the D. died, in 991.

C H A

Charles I. of the latter House of Lorrain, was Son of John who was poison'd at Paris in 1382. He prosecuted those that poison'd his Father, and made several successful Expeditions into Burgundy and Flanders, but was not successful in his Attempts upon Brabant. He died in 1430.

Charles II. Son of Francis D. of Lorraine, born 1542. he was bred in the Court of Henry II. of France, but nothing considerable is said of him.

Charles III. of Lorraine, Son to Francis III. Son of Charles II. was a courageous, bold, but unfortunate Prince, through his great Inconstancy; which gave himself and his Country abundance of trouble, till he died at Ayrskirk in Apr. 1675. This Prince had many good Qualities; but his Inconstancy was inalterable.

Charles IV. or V. reckoning from Charles the Son of Louis Outrager late D. of Lorraine and Bar, and Generalissimo of the Imperial Armies, was Son to D. Francis of Lorraine, Brother to D. Charles IV. He having been very unsuccessful in several great Marches, badly used by his Uncle, and worse by the Emp. who received him with a great Tenderness, promised him his Protection, and always call'd him Brother. Upon notice that the French King demanded Marsal from his Uncle, he went suddenly from Prague, and put himself into it to defend it, sending notice of his Arrival to his Uncle, whereat both he and the French K. were alarmed: The old Duke being unwilling that his No-

C H A

phew should take possession before his Death; and the King bethinking himself, what an Enemy this young Prince might prove to him in time. However, Prince Charles, at the Solicitation of his Father and Uncle, left the place, and return'd to Vienna, where the Emp. received him with Tenderness and Compassion for his Misfortunes, and renewed the Assurances of his Protection. The War between the Emp. and the Turks falling out in Hungary, the Emp. gave the Prince a Regiment of 1000 Horse; but not being then above 20 Years of Age, would not allow him to hazard his person: However, he went privately away to the Army; and the Turks having attack'd the Christian Camp, and put their Right Wing into Confusion, General Matuszack was forc'd to make use of this young Prince's Regiment, and with much reluctancy, because of the young Prince's danger, gave him Orders where to fall on; which he did with so much Valour and presence of Mind, as astonish'd the Old Officers. He perform'd not only the part of a General, but a private Soldier, and wrested the Colours from the hands of a Turk, who ran at him with the Lance to which they were fasten'd: so that the Victory wherein above 5000 Turks fell, was almost wholly owing to the Prince. The Emp. sent the Colours to D. Francis his Father, who hung them up in the Burgundian Chapel near Meusel, with an Inscription over them. The French K. in a little time after dispossest his Uncle: but people flatter'd themselves that he would restore the young Duke to his Possessions, but were deceived; the French K. refusing him so much as the Title of Duke and Brother. In 1676, Lamberg being made General of the French Army, the D. of Lorraine was made General of the Imperialists, attack'd Lamberg near the Danube, and fought him for two hours with great vantage; after which they both encamp'd themselves, and at last Luxemburg decamp'd in silence; which the D of Lorraine having notice of, drove the French from the Lanes wherein they were pos'd to cover his Retreat, and thund'rd on their Rear with so much fury, that the French had certainly been routed, had not Count Hamilton, a Scotch Gentleman, with his Regiment, made a wonderful Effort in their Defence, and gave the French an opportunity to draw off. The next Year the D prepar'd an Army to break into his own Country, but could not bring the French to a Battel. The Campaign being over, he went in great state to London and consummated his Marriage with the Duchess's Sister, the Q Dowager, to whom the D had a great Inclination. Having spent the winter with his Q at Inspruck, he arriv'd, but not till the 1st of April 1679, near Worms to command the Imperial Army, but this Campaign

CH A

CH A

ish Empire. From warring with the Turks, the D of Lorraine was employ'd by the Emperor upon the Rhine, against the French; where, in conjunction with the D of Saxony, and the Landgrave of Hesse, they made a very advantageous Campaign for the Confederates in 1689. The Army being put into Winter-Quarters, the D. went towards Vienna, and in his way presented Memorials to the Dy-er at Ratisben, about recovering his Dominions, which the French K. had wrested from his Uncle deceas'd, and had a very satisfying Answer; so that he resolv'd to have had a push with France in the following Spring: but as he was at Wiltz in his way to Munich, he fell dangerously sick, and on April 8 1690, aged 49, died this Great Prince, whose Death was universally lamented through Europe, France excepted. He left 4 Children, the eldest of which, called Leopold, a young Prince of great expectations, succeeded him in his Title, who is of them are those of Paris in 1606, in two Volumes. He died in 1429.

CH A

Charlotte of Bourbon, Daughter of Louis II. D. of Mompensier, was first of all a Nun, and made Lady Abbess of Jenaro: but she quitted her Veil and that Dignity in 1572, got safe into Germany to Frederick II. Count Palatin of the Rhine, where she embraced the Protestant Religion, and was married to William of Nassau, Prince of Orange, whom she loved to that degree, that she fell into a burning Fever, when she heard of his being wounded by John of Jauregni, and died of it at Antwerp, May 6. 1582.

Charolles, a T. of Burgundy, and Capital of the Co. of Charollois, 6 L. from Clusy, and about the like distance from the Loire. The T. is pleasant enough, having a fine Church, and many well built Houses.

Charollois, is a Co. of the Dutchy of Burgundy, that lies between Macotois and Bourbonnois. This Country has often changed Masters; but now the French have been in possession of it, ever since the Treaty of Nimeguen, concluded in 1678. +

Charon, look'd upon by ancient Pagans to be a Ferry-man, to whom Souls were obliged to pay a certain piece of Mony, for their passage over the River Styx to Hell. And this, undoubtedly, was the Reason some people put a piece of Coin into their Friends Mouths when dead, that they might have wherewith to pay this imaginary Debt.

Charon, (Louis) called Charondas, an eminent Lawyer of Paris, and a great Scholar.

Chartres upon Eure, a T. of France in Beauvais, Capital of a Country of that Name: some think it was built by the ancient Druids, Ministers of the Religion of the Gauls. Henry IV. was Crowned here in 1591. Its Streets are but narrow, yet has it fine Houses, fair Walls, and magnificent Churches.

CH A

Chartreux, a Religious Order founded by Bruno, Native of Cologne and Canon of Rheims, who retir'd from the Converse of the World in 1084, to a place called Chartreuse in the Mountains of Dauphine. They wear a Hair-shirt, keep perpetual Silence, and abstain from Flesh in their very Sickness.

Charybdis, a dreadful Whirlpool joining to the Coasts of Sicily S. and not far from the Rock Scylla, which lies N. on the side of Italy; both very dangerous places, and difficult to be safely shunn'd, as appears by the Poet, Incidit in Scyllam cupiens vitare Charybdin.

Chasteau-Briant, a small T. of France, in Upper Britany, on the Frontiers of Anjou.

Chasteau-Regnauld, upon the River Meuse, a little fortified T. in Champagne, with the Title of a Principality.

Chasteau-Roux, which is a T. of the Isle of Negropont, is very remarkable for its fine Marble, and for being thought the Country of Briaricus the Gyant, so famous in Antiquity.

Chastel, (Peter) Bp. of Orleans, great Almoner of France. Francis I. ask'd him once in Conversation, Whether he was born a Gentleman, or not? To which he answered, That he was not perfectly certain which of Noah's three Sons he was descended from.

Chastelleraud, a pleasant T. of France, upon the R. of Vienne, 5 or 6 L. from Poitiers, where a Hind guided great Clovis's Army over the River to fight Alaric K. of the Goths. The Family of Hamilton in Scotland had formerly the Title of Dukes of this Place from the French Kings.

Chatham, a long through-fare T. in Kent, near Rocheſter, upon the Bank of Medway: The principal Station of the Royal Navy of England.

Chatri, a Taylor's Wife of Sens in Burgundy, who for about 20 Ys. after she was married, had all the signs of being with Child, yet could by no means be laid of her Burthen, but was forced to keep her Bed for 3 Ys; at the end of which her pains ceased, her Belly remaining big and heavy, as formerly, to her Death, which happen'd about 24 Ys after, in the 68th of her Age. Her Husband got her opened, and found, to all peoples admiration, a Girl quite formed, but petrified. Ali-bour, Physician in the T writ a learned Dissertation upon this Subject.

C H E

Chaucer, (Jeffrey) born at Woodstock in Oxfordshire in the 14th Cen. He was called the English Homer. He was not only a Poet, but a Mathematician, and understood, according to the Talent of his time, the polite part of Learning. He died in 1400, and has a Tomb in Westminster-Abbey.

Chacnadar-bachi, Treasurer to the Seraglio, or Privy Purse to the Grand Sultan.

Chiang, a Prov. of China, upon the E. Coasts, between Nanking and

C H E

Chemnitz, (Martin) a German Lutheran Minister. He was very much esteem'd by the Princes of his own Communion, who often made use of him in the publick Affairs of the Church. He died in 1586. His Works are very elaborate.

Chesepes, or Chesop, K. of Egypt; he built those prodigious Pyramids, which have been deservedly look'd upon as one of the Wonders of the World. This vast Expence so much drain'd his Treasury, that he shamefully prostituted his Daughters, for Money to go on with the Work.

Chephers, his Brother, succeeded him, and also built a Pyramid; but their Memories became so odious to the Egyptians, that they would not so much as pronounce their Names; but held, that the Pyramids were built by one Philist on a Shepherd, that kept his Flocks about that place.

Chepstow, a m. T. on the R. Wy., on the Eastern border of the County

C H E

Mahomet, but one of his Shippers; for his Tomb is at Medina 200 m. from Mecca, and is a Coffin elevated upon Pillars of Black Marble, cover'd with Cloth of Silver.

Cherazoul, a T. of Curdistan, between Ninive or Mosul, and Ispahan, built on a steep Rock for a quarter of a L. together; the Houses having Ladders of 14 or 15 Steps to go up to them. Above these Houses, which look like Nests in a Mountain, are Caves or great Cellars, where the Inhabitants shut up their Cattel; which makes people think, that this place has been formerly a strong Retreat, to defend the Frontiers against the Incursions of the Arabs and Benovins of Diarbek.

Cherear, Captain of the Emp. Caligula's Guards, who putting himself at the Head of those, who had conspired against that Prince, kill'd him as he was going from the Theatre to the Barb; yet tho' he rid Rome of a cruel Monarch, and open'd his Uncle Claudius a way to come to the Empire, he was sentenc'd to die by the very same Claudius, who thought Emperors were not safe, while such desperate Fellows liv'd. He suffer'd with great Resolution, and ask'd a Soldier that stood by, whether his Sword did cut well? And desired they might bring him that wherewith he kill'd Caligula, which being brought, it deprived him of life with one blow.

Cherif, (or Xerif.) a Name the Turks give their Emp. as well as that of Sultan. The Prince of Mecca assumes it too; and the Emp. of Suz, who is now K. of Taflet, Fex, and Morocco, takes the Title of Cherif or Cherifs. Their Rise in Africa was about 180 Ys. ago, in the person of Mahomet Brubamet.

Chezilus, a Greek Poet, born at Samos, who so finely described the Victory that the Athenians gain'd over Xerxes, that they gave him a Stater (about Half a Crown of our Money) for every Verse, and order'd that they should be publicly rehears'd every Year, with the Works of Homer.

C H E

Cherubias, Angels of the second Rank of the first Hierarchy. They are set forth only with Heads and Wings, without Bodies, to shew that the greatest Knowledge is in Spiritual and Incorporeal Creatures: Also a Military Order of Sweden, instituted in 1334 by Magnus IV, whose Collar was made up of superstitious Fancies. But Charles IX, when he abolish'd Popery, banish'd this Order.

Chesne, (Andrew of) a Frenchman of great Repute, for a Historian, in that Country.

Cheshire, a Maritime County in the N. W. parts of England; bounded on the N. with Lancashire, on the S. with Shropshire and part of Flinshire in Wales, Eastward with Derby and Staffordshire, and Westward with the R. Dee, which parts it from Denbighshire in Wales. In length from E. to W. about 40 m. in breadth, from N. to S. 25. The whole is divided into 7 Hundreds, wherein are 14 m. T. and 86 Parishes. In the time of the Romans it was inhabited by the Cornavii. In the Heptarchy it was a Prov. of the Km. of Mercia; and now makes part of the Diocese of Chester. The Air is healthful, the Soil rich and fruitful, both in Corn and Cattel; but excels in 3 things, Salt, Cheese, and Mill-stones. This Co. continues in the Dignity of a Co. Palatine, and sends two Knights to Parliament, who now are, Sir Roger Moflyn, Bar. and Sir George Warburton, Bar.

Chester, the Capital of Cheshire, is a Bp.'s See in the Pro. of York, of which the Right Reverend Father in God, Dr. Nicholas Stratford, is the present Bp. This City is pleasantly seated on the R. Dee, over which it has a Stone Bridge with 8 Arches, and at each end a Gate, from whence issues the City Wall, that takes up 2 m. and has 7 Watch Towers, and broad Bat-

CHI

ments for Pieces of Ordnance. On the side is a strong built Castle, of regular Form, with a Case Court, inclosed with a Wall. It is a Garrison of the Queen's, of which Roger is the present Governor. In the principal Street is a covered kind of Gallery, where the people may walk dry in rainy Weather. The Houses in the City are generally fair and well built, and the Inhabitants rich, by vertue of their Island Trade, and Commerce with Ireland and Foreign parts: and this piece of the River is so choaked up with Canals, that Ships cannot come nearer the City. It contains 11 Parishes. As a County Peers, for the due Administration of Justice, here is one Chief Justice for the County, one of the Crown, two Barrons of the County, a Sheriff, an Escheator, and other Officers, to the great ease of the Country in the Expedition of their business. The Bishoprick, which is one of Henry VIII's founding, is valued in the K.'s Books at

CHI

Chiapa, a Prov. of New Spain in N. America; where, besides other strange things, is the Mountain Escatepe, of such a prodigious height, that one must go 9 L. before he can come to the top: nor is there any time for this but Night; for the Sun is no sooner up, but there rises such a great Wind and Storm, that a Man can hardly stand on his feet.

Chicheley, (Henry) Abp. of Canterbury, born at Higham-Ferrers in Northamptonshire, a Person of great Worth; who, after several Embassies abroad, in 1424. founded a College in Higham-Ferrers; and in 1440 dedicated the Chapel of All-Souls in Oxford, which he founded. He died in 1443, and was buried in the Cathedral Church of Canterbury, in a Tomb made by himself; upon which was placed his Statue in white Marble, with an Epitaph, giving an Account of his Negotiations and Preferments.

Chichester, a Bp's See in Sussex, 58 m. distant S. W. from London, of red Baron of Neuburg, Earl of Chichester, and Duke of Southampton; by Charles II. It sends 2 Citizens to Parliament, who now are, John Miller and William Elson Esqs.

CH I

Chiolefa, a T. in the Morea, about 2 m. from the Sea, fortified with 5 Towers. It was taken by General Moresini, upon Composition, in 1685. The Turks endeavour'd to re-take it the Y. after, but were beat off, and all their rich Camp taken by the Venetians, with 50 Pieces of Cannon.

Childeric, the first of this Name, succeeded his Father Meroveus in 457, but through the Extravagancy of the beginning of his Reign, he was banish'd, by a general Rebellion of his own Subjects, who put a Roman, called Aegidius, into his Place; but being recall'd after 7 Ys. Exile, he govern'd with more Moderation, and gain'd the good Esteem and Love of all his Subjects.

Chili, a great Country in S. America, bounded on the W. with the Pacifick Sea, on the N. with Peru, on the S. with the Country of the Patagians, and with the Magellanick Lands on the E. The Inhabitants are very stout, and worship the Devil, under the Name of Apanaman; the Country is very cold, but enrich'd with several Mines of Gold, great Quarries of Jasper, and plentiful in Corn and Cattle; but now and then arises a Wind that pierces and kills People.

Chiliasm, or Millenaries, a Party of Christians, who believe, that after the general or last Judgment, the Saints shall live a 1000 Ys. upon Earth, and enjoy all manner of innocent Satisfaction. 'Tis thought Papias, Bp. of Hierapolis, who liv'd in the 11d Cen. and was Disciple to St. John the Evangelist, was the first who maintain'd this Opinion.

Chila of Lacedaemonia, numbred among the 7 Sages of Greece. He said there were 3 very difficult things in the World, viz. to keep a

CH I

Secret; to know how to employ time and to bear Injuries without murmuring. Pliny says, he caus'd these Precepts to be engraven in Golden Letters in the Temple of Delphos, viz. That one ought to know himself; To desire no very advantageous Thing; and, That Misery is the Consequence of running in Debt, and being Litigious. It is said he dy'd of too great Joy, to see his Son Crown'd at the Olympick Plays.

Chilperic, the first of this Name, younger Brother to Clotaire I, was first K. of Soissons in 561, and then of France in 570, after the Death of his Brother Cheribert. In some things he discovered a Sense of Piety and Goodness; but in others, acted like one in a State of perfect Wickedness. Having put away his first Wife Audevere for standing God-mother to her own Daughter, he took Golsente, Daughter to the K. of the Visigoths; but got her strangled to please his Concubine Fredegonde, whom he doated on to that Degree, that he sacrific'd his proper Children at her Request; but she at last sacrific'd him to her Gallant Landri de la Tour, who at her Perswasion, kill'd Chilperic at Chelles, as he was returning from hunting, in 584, after 23 Years Reign.

Chiltern Hills in Buckinghamshire, thro' which they run in the very midst, yielding a large and pleasant Prospect from the Top; formerly they were over-spread with Woods, and were then a Receptacle for Robbers; but since they were cut down, the Pass is less dangerous.

Chimera, a Mountain of Lycia, that casts out Flame and Smoak in the Night; which gave Poets occasion to feign a Monster, and that he was kill'd by Bellerophon.

China, is a vast Km. in the E. of Asia, much famed for its Fruitfulness, Wealth, beautifulness of its Towns, and for its incredible number of Inhabitants. It has a great Ridge of Mountains to the N. and where these end, there there is that famous Wall of near 1000 m. long to keep out the Tartars; who notwithstanding made Incursions, and wasted a great part of the Country, till they made themselves Masters of it in the 17th Cent. Their Riches consist in Gold and Silver Mines, Pearls, Spices, Musk, which is the very best in the World, of the true Ambergrease-Camfre, Sugar, Ginger, Linnen, &c. The Inhabitants, whose number is as great as the Country is vast, are computed by authentick Authors to amount to 58914284 Men, without comprehending the Royal Family, the Magistrates, Eunuchs, Soldiers, Priests, or the Women and Children; so that it may not seem strange, if a late Author affirmed that there were 200 000 of Souls in Cheoa. The Men are Civil, Well-bred, Polack, and Industrious, but insupportably Jealous and Covetous; so much that they will not slack to sell their Children, or drown them if they think they have a many, and

C H I

C H I

Churches the K.'s Proclamation, that gives the Tartars and Chinese liberty to embrace it, if they please. The Chinese make no Wine, tho' they have excellent Grapes: Their ordinary Drink is Tea, and they use China instead of Plate, both at Court and elsewhere.

Chines, Idols of the Chinese, built in form of a Pyramid, and curiously wrought. There is one of them stands without the Walls of the T. of Peking, in the Prov. of Peking, that is 9 Stories high: Its Figure is Octagonal, or of 8 sides; the perpendicular height of it is 900 Cubits, and its breadth proportionable to its height.

Chintu, a great T. Capital of a Territory of the same Name in the Prov. of Szechuen in China. Here is a strange kind of Bird, called Tungboafung, with a red Bill, and Feathers of divers Colours, which is engendred of a Flower called Jughoa, and lives but while that Flower lasts. And near Cungking, upon Mount Tien, are Mounts of the wounded by Hercules, and desiring to die tho' he was immortal, Jupiter placed him in Heaven, where he forms the Sign Sagittarius.

CHR

Chitor, a Prov. of the great Mughl's Empire, in the main Land of India, with a T. of the same Name between the Prov. of Matoe and Guzarats. The T. is almost ruined; yet there are still some Remains of the many Temples and sumptuous Buildings, that have formerly been there.

Chrain, or Kain, a strong Place in Croatia, on the Frontiers of Hesnia and Dalmatia, considerable for its Situation and its two large Ditches, formed by the Rivers Cherna and Besiviza; it is now a Retreat to the Turks, when they make incursions into Dalmatia, and the other Places that belong to the Venetians.

Chacabaca, which the Spaniards call Castro Virreyun, a T. of Peru, 60 L. S. of Lima, is very famous for its Silver Mines, which are at the top of a great Mountain, always cover'd with Snow, and but a L. from the T. The Mines are not very Rich, but the Silver is extraordinary fine.

Chorepiscopi, a Name that was given formerly to such as officiated for Bps. in the Villages or Monasteries abroad in the Country. The first Council of Nice, in 325, makes mention of them.

Christ-Church, a m. T. in Hampshire, 86 m. from London, situate between the River Avon and Stamer at their fall into the Sea. It's the Capital of its Hundred, and has the Privilege of returning 2 Burgesses to Parliament, who now are William Esticks, and Francis Gwyn, Esqs.

Christ, or Jesus Christ, a Military Order of Portugal, instituted about 1318, by Denis King of Portugal, to hearten the Nobility against the Moslems: confirm'd by Pope John XXII.

Christian, Duke of Brunswick, having taken up Arms for the Elector Palatine, he burnt a great many T's. of the Elector of Mentz, gave his Army the Plunder of Ammberg, and cut the Throats of the Garrison. Having made himself Master of all the T's. in the Bpk. of Paderborn, he set Fire to all the Churches, and permitted all sorts of Outragious Liberty to his Soldiers. He forc'd naked Women to wait upon him at Table, then suffer'd them to be abused by his Favourites, and afterwards either cut their Throats, or drowned them. He was afterwards defeated by Counr Tilly at the Battel of Stalle, and died in 1626.

CHR

Christians, a name given to the Faithful at Antioch, who before were called Disciples. The Heathens hated them, and tortur'd them with all imaginable Cruelty; but their Blood was a Principle of Life to the Church, and caus'd it to multiply in a surprising manner.

Christians of St. Thomas, in the Principals of India, on this side the Gulf, were so called because that Apostle suffer'd Martyrdom there, for whom these Christians have a particular Veneration.

Christianstad, a T. of Sweden, in the Prov. of Blekin, situated upon the Baltick Sea, with a convenient Port, between Copenhagen and Christiansburg: 'twas built by Christiern IV K. of Denmark, but afterwards yielded to the Swedes upon the Pacification, in 1659.

Christiern I K. of Denmark, Son to Thierry Count of Oldenburg. He govern'd with much Prudence and Moderation, was chosen K. of Sweden by the Faction of the Bp. of Uppsala, and died in 1481.

Christiern II. surnamed the Cruel, or Tyrant, began his Reign in Denmark after the Death of his Father John. He caus'd all the great Persons of the Clergy and Laity, to be barbarously murder'd at a Feast he invited them to; which made his Subjects revolt, and force him into Exile. After 10 Ys. he endeavour'd to re-establish himself, but was taken and imprison'd.

C H R

for 27 Years, till he died in 1537.

Christian I or Christian III. Son to Frederick I who usurped his Nephew's Crown in 1537. He established the Protestant Religion, banished the Popish Priests, govern'd the Km with moderation and died in 1559. He establish'd the College at Copenhagen, founded a fine Library, and gave great Proofs of the Love he always bore to learned Men.

Christian IV, or Christian IV. Succeeded his Father Frederick II in 1588. He was made Head of the Protestant League in Germany, for the Re-establishment of the Electoral Palatine. He made War against Swedeland in 1630, and subdued several Places; but Peace put an end to his Conquests. He dy'd after 40 Ys happy Reign, at the Age of 71.

Christian V whom others call the VI King of Denmark, succeeded his Father Frederick III in 1660. In the War with Sweden in 1675, the

C H U

Abdicated the Crown in 1654, in favour of her Cousin Charles Gustavus; and that she might have the pleasure of living out of her own Country, she withdrew to Rome, where she died in 1688. She was in esteem for her Learning and Skill in Languages, but not for her Religion, which was as loose as her Life.

Christine, a new Borough in North America, upon the River Sad in New Swedeland, built by the Swedes in 1640, and call'd after their Q. It was taken by the Hollanders, and they were beaten out by the English.

Christolyses, a Sekt that appeared in the 6th Age, who held, that when Jesus Christ descended into Hell, he left his Soul and Body there, and only rose with his Divinity to Heaven.

Chronology, a State of time from the Creation of the World to the present Age: a piece of Learning very serviceable to the right Understanding

C I C

The Ld. Clifford has a noble Seat here, with Title of Baron.

Chusistan, a Prov. of the Km. of Persia, bounded by the Gulf of Balsira to the S. the Provinces of Fatz to the E. and Hyrach W. a very fertile Province.

Cibola, or Civola, a Prov. of N. America, in New Mexico, called by the Spaniards New Granada, who built a T. there of this name. This Country, tho' without Mountains, is very cold: the Inhabitants are the wittiest and whitest, and most sincere and orderly, of all the Americans. They have each but one Wife, are excessive jealous, and for Religion they worship Water.

Cicero, (Marcus Tullius) Prince of Latin Eloquence, was born An. Rom. 648. His Father was a Roman Knight, descended of Titus Tatius, K. of the Sabines. In his very Youth he pleaded with so much freedom against Sylla's Friends, that fearing the Resentment of one that spared no body, he travell'd into Greece, and thence into Asia, still seeking the perfection of his Eloquence. Afterward he studied at Rhodes, under Apollonius Mofon, the eloquentest Man of his time. Hence Cicero came to Rome, where, in consideration of his great parts, he obtain'd Sicily, and was made Questor of Rome. In 691 he was made Consul with C. Antonius Nepos; during whose time, was Cataline's Conspiracy, which he detected, and was for that Reason called the Preserver of Rome: Yet in 696 he was banish'd, but was recalled the next Yr. by Pompey, who had a hand in his Exile. He was not concern'd in Cæsar's death, tho' he was an intimate Friend to Brutus; but after this Murder he favoured Augustus, who desired to be Consul with him, had not his Interest made him take other Measures, and join with Anthony and Lepidus to be of the Triumvirate. Anthony making use of his Power, and hating Cicero extreamly, got him pursued and beheaded in the 411 Yr. of Rome, in the 64 Yr. of his Age; his Executioner being one Popilius, whom he had formerly defended against some, who accus'd him of having kill'd his Father.

C I M

Cicero, (Quintus) was Brother to the Orator, Cæsar's Lieutenant-General in Gaul, and afterwards Prætor in Asia. He was proscrib'd by the Triumvirate, and kill'd in 711 of Rome, with his Son, who desired of the Murderers, as a great Favour, to be dispatch'd before his Father, who also begg'd to be kill'd before him: but they were both cut off just at the same time.

Ciclut, is a small T. in Dalmatia, situate upon the River Narenta; for a long time under the Dominion of the Turks: but the Venetians took it in 1694, and the Turks yielded up all their Pretensions to it by the Peace of Carlowitz, in 1699.

Cilicia, a Prov. of Asia Minor, that stretches along the Mediterranean Sea, which bounds it on the S. having part of Cappadocia, and part of Armenia, to Mount Taurus, that border it to the N. This Country is now comprehended in Carmania, and subject to the Turks.

Cimbri The Origine of this ancient People lies under dispute; as, whether descended from the Scythians, or the Danes, or the Saxons; or, whether the same with the Cimmerii. Cluverius supposes that they did anciently possess the Cimbrica Chersonesus. It is certain, that about the Y. of Rome 639 these People marched with an Army of 300000 Men, besides Women and Children, in search of a new Country to live in: and being join'd with the Teutones, the Tigurii, and others in the way, they ravaged Germany, Istria, Sclavonia, the Grijons, and Switzerland; till met and overcome by Marius in a very bloody Battle in the Field, called Campus Marii, between Aix and St. Maximin, near the little R. Arc in Provence, A. R. 652.

C I N

Cimmeria, the ancient Name of a People in Italy, that dwell in subterraneous Caverns, near the Lake Averno; and of another by the Euxine Sea, from which the Bosphorus Cimmerius derives its denomination. Whether of these two, occasion'd the Proverb Cimmeria Tenebrae, from the darkness of their Habitations, the Learned make a difference not worth determining.

Cimon, a Captain of Athens, Son to Mistheus, who was famous for the great Services he did for his Country, and for his great Charity to the Poor.

Cimon, a poor old Man, who being sentenc'd at Rome for some Crime, to be starv'd to Death, was fed by his Daughter, who came daily to the Prison to give him suck; which doubly sav'd his Life: for, the Judges being informed thereof, pardoned the Father and Daughter, and got the manner of the Action drawn, and placed it in their Temple of Piety.

C I R

highest Dignities, oppress'd the Common-wealth with the greatest Cruelty, but at last being grown unsupportable to his Army, he was stoned to Death at Ardea, as he was preparing to make War against Sylla.

Cinyras, K. of Cyprus, was so unlucky as to have his Daughter Myrrha in love with him; who at length came to bed to him in a Disguise, and made him the Father of Adonis. There are probable Reasons to believe that Cinyras was Nosh; and Myrrha, Canaan's Wife.

Circe, a famous Witch, often mentioned by Poets: She poison'd her Husband the K. of the Sarmatians, and was therefore banish'd by her Subjects. In her Exile she came to Italy, where she changed Sylla into a Sea-Monster, and metamorphos'd Ulysses's Companions into divers sorts of Beasts. Mythologists will have Circe to be a lively Image of sensual Pleasures, that change Men of the greatest parts into Beasts.

C I V

1 in the Amphitheatre that round it, were Galleries for the Spectators to sit on. It was first begun by Tarſus, but was adorn'd, and more stately and beautiful, by the Emper. Claudius, Caligula. There were many at Rome, but this was the Great one, because it was the most stately and beautiful.

2 a little T. in Phocis upon the Mount of Corinth, now called the Acroantis; near Delphos: The People believe there was a Cavern whence proceeded Oracles, which inspired Predictions.

3 an ancient C. of Numidia, inhabited afterwards Constantine, Capital of the Prov. of Constantine. In this C. the King kill'd Adherbal Son of Numidia. A Council was held here in 303, by Severus of Numidia; where almost all of that Prov. were convicted of Traditores, that is, deserting their Bibles to the Infidels. A 2d Council was held here, where St. Austin assisted. 4 a Religious Order sprung from the Monks, founded in 1098, by Robert of Melrose, in the Dioceſe of York.

5 a great T. in the Prov. of China, inferiour to none. The Houses, magnificent Buildings, Palaces, and Temples, are of an admirable Structure. The proximity of the Sea, which is very near to it, renders its Commerce considerable; yet it is famous for the Bridge Layang,

6 a R. of that Name to the East, being 360 Perches in length and a half broad, instead of Arches, by 300 Piers, that form sharp and acute angles to break the strength of the great Swells that rise up all the breadth from one Pillar to another, and each of the 5 is 18 foot long; the Sides are adorn'd with Sculpture, and embellish'd with several Figures: not is this but one part of the Bridge, that ends at a Castle; on the other side whereof is another almost as long as this, and built after the same method.

C L A

Civita Vecchia, a T. of Italy, with a famous Port well fortified, in S. Peter's Patrimony.

Claes, (Christian) an Inhabitant of Leckerkerch, a T. of Holland, 8 or 10 L. from the Hague, whose Wife was brought to Bed on the 21st of June 1686 of a Son, that lived almost 2 Months; 17 Hours after, she was laid of a 2d Son stillborn; and 24 Hours after of a 3d, that lived 2 Hours; at the end of 24 Hours more, she had another stillborn; but died in Labour of the 5th.

Clare, Clarence, a Country Village in the County of Suffolk, upon the R. Stour, which divides Essex from Suffolk, about 6 m. W. of Sudbury. It had once a Castle in it, which now is ruined, yet famous for the Great Men, who have born the Titles of Earls and Dukes of it. The last of the Royal Family was George D. of Clarence, Brother to Edw. IV. who in 1421 was drowned, by his Brother Richard's contrivance, in a But of Malmesbury. The Earldom is now in the Family of Hollis, the present D. of Newcastle. There is also a Co. and a T. in the Prov. of Connacht in Ireland, of this name, standing on the N. side of a Lake, made by the R. Shannon, 3 m. S. of Ennistown. The Co. has the R. Shannon on the S. and on the W. the Western Ocean.

Clarendon, is a Noble Country-house and Park formerly belonging to the K. of England, about 2 m. N. of Salisbury in Wiltshire; famous for a Parliament held here in 1164, where were made the Constitutions of Clarendon. King Charles II. made it an Earldom, when

C L A

April 1665, 3 days before his Coronation, he created Edward Hyde (sometimes Lord Chancellor of England) Earl of Clarendon, Viscount Cornbury, &c. who dying at Rouen in Normandy, in 1674, was succeeded by Henry his eldest Son, now living.

Claude de Lorraine, first D. of Guise, Peer and Great Huntsman of France, Count of Artois, Son to René II. D. of Lorraine was born in 1496, and did such eminent Service in the Wars, that James I. erected the Land of Guise into a Duchy and Peerage, in 1528. Claude died 24th Decr at Avignon.

Claude, 3rd, Minister of Charente, well known in this Age by his Writings, and Disputes of Religion against Mr. Arminius, was born in 1618, in the Lower Normandy, where his Father Francis 1st, Minister of Montmorancy, was a great Genius, and the great Care of his Education, and his Ministry at Paris, was 17th Decr. 1712.

. O L A

Men do not agree about his Country, they all do in this, That the Style of his Poems draws nigher that of Virgil's, than any one that has imitated that Prince of Poets: and Scaliger says, That he supplied the Meaning and Barrenness of his Subject, with the Fruitfulness of his Fancy and Wit. Proffer is also of the same Opinion.

Claudius, (Hermianus) Intendant of Cappadocia for the Romans, was so great an Enemy to the Christians, that by God's just punishment he was eaten alive with Worms, which he endeavour'd to keep as secret as possible, saying, that it would be a satisfaction to Christians should they know it. This happened A. C. 108.

Claudius, Tiberius, Drusus, Nero, Son of Drusus who was second Son of Livia, Daughter of Augustus, was born at Lyons. Antonia, his Mother, used to say he was a Monster only begun by Nature; and when she found fault with any one, she generally said He was as great an Ass as Nero was. He was as great an Ass as Nero was.

C L E

of him, by mixing Poyson with his Mushrooms.

Claudius II. or Marcus Aurelius Claudius, lived in the sixth Age, was General of a Roman Army, and chosen Emp. at Pavia in 286. After the Murder of Gallienus, and his Brother Valerian, to which it's said he was accessory, he beat the Goths, the Scythians, the Herules, and other Barbarians; and the Commonwealth finding his Government so mild, after many Troubles, as a mark of their extraordinary Esteem, made him put on a Golden Buckler in the Palace, erected him a Statue of the same Metal in the Capitol, and after his Death, which happened in 270, rank'd him among their Gods.

Clavius, (Christopher) a Jesuit, born at Bamberg in Germany, lived towards the latter end of the 16th Century. He had a strong Genius for the Mathematicks, and cultivated that Science to perfection. His Works are in 5 Volumes.

Clausembourg, a T. of Transilvania, 3 L. from Warradin, great, populous, and ennobled with an ancient Castle. The D. of Lorrain put an Imperial Garrison into it in 1687, upon Articles agreed in a peaceable manner, by the Magistrates and Governour for the late Prince Abasti.

Cleander, Minister of State to the Emp. Commodus, arose to that degree from a Valet de Chambre; but at length grew so insolent and avaricious, and the People were so enraged against him, that, to appease their fury, the Emp. put him to Death in 190.

Cleander, an Arcadian, Head of the Slaves of Argos, kept up the War a great while, which the Slaves there had begun against their Master: but at length were all subdued.

Cleantes, a Stoick Philosopher, who laboured for his Livelyhood while he studied under Zeno: being convinc'd of the Immortality of the Soul, he starved himself.

C L E

Glarchus, sent by the Lacedaemonians to appease the Troubles of the Bysantins, and to settle the Affairs of that State, became a downright Tyrant, as soon as the People had put the Power and Authority into his hands; but at length they forc'd him to fly the Country, and he was kill'd in his Exile.

S. Clement, the first of this Name. Disciple of St. Peter: We have nothing that is truly his, but his first Letter to the Corinthians.

Clement II. a Saxon by Nation: He was chosen Pope in 1046, and died 9 months after his Election.

Clement III. a Roman: He succeeded Gregory VIII, after whose Example he promoted a War against the Saracens, who became very strong in Palestine, after the Taking Jerusalem.

Clement IV. a Frenchman, succeeded Urban IV. He was first a Soldier, but after studied so hard, that he was one of the best Lawyers of his Age. He was sent Legate into England, and in his Return was chosen Pope, in 1265, and crown'd at Viterbo, where he died in 1268.

Clement V. a Frenchman, of the Pro. of Gascoign, was chosen Pope after Bennet XI. The Ceremony of his Coronation, was kept at Lyons in the Church of St. Just, remarkable for a sad Accident that happened by a Wall, that being over-burden'd by Spectators, yielded, and kill'd John II. D. of Britany, Gallard the Pope's Brother, with many more; the King and his Brother were also slightly hurt, the Tiara, or Crown, fell off Clement's Head, and lost a Carbuncle of great price.

Clement VI. a Frenchman, of Lima-sin, succeeded Benet XII. in 1342, brought the Jubilee or the Holy Year to be kept every 50th, opposed Louis of Bavaria in his Pretensions on Italy, and died at Avignon in 1352.

Clement VII. was an Antipope, call'd Robert of Geneva, and was Son

C L E

to Anadart III. Count thereof.

Clement VIII. Antiope; he was chosen by the Arragonian Faction to be revenged of Pope Martin V; but he abdicated the pretended Dignity, protesting that he consented to his Election, only for the Peace of the Church.

Clement VII lawfully chosen: He was Knight of Rhodes, afterwards made Cardinal by Leo X, and succeeded Adrian VI in 1523. During the War in Italy, Henry VIII. of England divorces his Q. Catherine of Austria, and is Excommunicated by Clement: whereupon that Prince declares himself Head of the Church in his own Dominions, and gives way to the Reformation, which he was against till then.

Clement VIII Native of Fano in the Patrimony of St Peter, was chosen in 1591; and after the Death of the D. of Ferrari raised that Duchy to the See of Rome. He went a great way towards the Reformation of the

C L E

Clabiz, Brother to Bira, Sons to Tun's Priestess, who prayed that Goddess to reward them with the best Fortune that could happen to Mankind. The next morning after this Devotion, they were both found dead in the Temple; so they, that Die is to be look'd upon rather as an Advantage than an Evil.

Clodolna, Daughter of Clodulus of Lindus, called by some Authors Estmeta. This Lady had a great Dificacy of Genius, the Courage of a Hero, a sound Judgment, and a charming Humour; by which she mollified the rigorous Temper of her Father, and made him more mild in the Government of his Subjects.

Cleombrotus, Native of Amiracis, an Academick Philosopher, who reading Plato's Book of the Immortality of the Soul, threw himself headlong into the Sea.

Chon, a very troublesome Athenian Orator, Enemy to the best Generals of the Rep. Aristophanes accuses him

C L E

set him in Cilicia, and an-what was said of assisting nd Brutus. This Princess, des the Charms of her Beau-very engaging Genius, resubmit to this Conqueror;
same night she arrived, invi-ny to a magnificent Treat;
so taken with her Charms, married her, without any his Wife Octavia, Augustus's
In 722 Augustus declar'd War Anthony, beat him, and at last him so low, that he kill'd believing that Cleopatra had like: but she soon follow-g stung by a Serpent which ied to her bosom, that she ot be carried to Rome in Tri-Historians say, that she was inary voluptuous, and so ex-profuse, that to supply her ence, she put Anthony upon the War into the richest s, to have the Spoils. She
M. 4024.

ra, Selene, Daughter to Marc
and Cleopatra Qu. of Egypt, ried to Juba K. of Mauritania:
part of the Km. of Cyrene in
; and after the Defeat of Ju- ed in Triumph to Rome.

ante of Corinth, one of those ented the first Embellishments ting, and drew Faces with of Bricks.

ent, en Argene, a T. in the Barr, upon the R. Ajr. It to the D. of Lorrain.

ent, in Auvergne, Capital of
v. 'Tis thought to have ri-of the Ruins of Gergovia, an m T. It now is annex'd to nn of France.

ent, in Beauvais, a T. in the rance. The Earldom of this famous, for giving a begin-the Royal House of Bourbon, erson of Robert of France, the
it. Lewis.

C L I

Cleveland, a Tract of Land in the N. Riding of Yorkshire, taking its Name from the Cliff running along one side of it; near which the Country spreads it self into a fine fruitful Plain. K. Charles I. did this Place the Honour to make it give the Title of an Earl to Thomas Lord Went- worth; who dying without Issue, K.
Charles II. created Barbara Villiers, Daughter to the Ld. Viscount Gran- dison, and Wife to the Earl of Castle- main, Dutchess of Cleveland.

Cleves, a C. and Dm. in Germany, seated upon a small River about 3 m.
from the Rhine. The last Duke dying in 1609, a War happened, in which the D. of Brandenburg seized one part of it, and the D. of Newburg another. The Hollanders in the mean time, by Mauritius their General, in 1628 seized the City of Cleves. But in 1672 the French K. having taken this and all the other T. possessed by the Hollanders, and in 1673 being no longer able to keep them, he put them into the hands of the D. of Brandenburg, who is now D. of Cleves.

Clifford, (Richard) Earl of Cork in Ireland, in consideration of his good Services to the Crown, and by reason of his Marriage with the Lady Elizabeth, sole Daughter and Heiress to Henry Earl of Cumberland, was by Letters Patents bearing date the 20th of Charles I. advanced to the Dignity of a Baron of this Realm, by the Title of Lord Clifford of Lans- borough in the County of York; and afterwards by other Letters Patents bearing date March the 20th, in the 16th of Charles II. created Earl of Burlington, alias Bridlington, in the aforesaid County of York. This Earl had Issue by the said Elizabeth his Wife, 2 Sons, Charles and Richard, and 5 Daughters; viz. Francis, married to the Earl of Roscommon in Ireland; Catherine, who died in
her

her Childhood; Elizabeth, Wife to Nicholas Earl of Thames; Anne, married to Edward Earl of Sandwich; and Henrietta to Lawrence Hyde, second Son to Edward Earl of Clarendon, and now Earl of Rocheſter. Which Charles, commonly called Lord Clifford of Lancborough, married the youngest Daughter of William late Duke of Somerset, by whom he had ſix 4 Sons, Richard, Charles, Henry, and William; and 4 Daughters, Frances, Elizabeth, Jane, and Mary, which Charles, is the preſent Earl of Burlington.

Cliffon, (Sir Gervafe) of Layton Breſt, would in the County of Huntingdon, Knight, had the Title of Lord Cliffon, by Writ of Summons to Parliament July 9 in the 6th of James I. Of which Family there is none remaining, but the Lady Catherine ſiſter and ſole Heir to the late Charles Duke of Richmond and Lenox, who was firſt married to ducing the Remainder from 12 in to half hours, it ſhews it to be in the 9th Clime, and the 18th Parallel. In the next place, they ſerve to diſtinguiſh not only the Situation, but the Nature and Qualities of Countries, and alſo of their Inhabitants in ſome meaſure one from another.

Clinton. Of this Noble and Ancient Family the firſt was Jaffry de Clinton, Lord Chamberlain and Treafurer to Henry I. Sir William Clinton was the firſt who had Summons to Parliament, about Feb. 6 in 1298, the 27th of Edward I. And after the Succeſſion of many Yrs. the ſame Line was created Earl the 4th of May 1572, in the 14th of Elizabeth; and ſubſiſts in the Perſon of Henry Clinton Earl of Lincoln, Baron Clinton and Say, who is at preſent under Age.

Clis, the Muſe of Hiſtory, called the Daughter of Jupiter and Memory.

CLU

ligned the young Prince, that he kill'd him with his own hand, in the 426th of Rome.

Clodius, a Roman Senator of the ancient Family of the Clodians, so extraordinary loud, that he was accused of Debauching his 3 Sisters. Being chosen Tribune of the People, he procured Cicero to be Banish'd in the 596th of Rome; who being recalled, all that Clodius did was revoked.

Cliffers, certain square Galleries in Monasteries, with a little Flower-Garden in the middle.

Claire, the first of the Name, called the Ancient, Son to Clovis I. who enjoyed all Austrasia, and the whole Kingdom of France. It's said, he was an able, judicious, valiant, and liberal Prince, but withal very cruel and ambitious. He produced this memorable Sentence as he was just departing this Life; Alas! who do you think the King of Heaven is, that has Power to make such great Monarchs of the Earth die.

Claire II. surnamed the Great, or Poing, came to the Crown of France after the Death of his Father Chilperick I. in 584, being then but 4 Months old. Gontran King of Burgundy was his Protector; and when he came to Age himself, he subdued the Saxons, kill'd Duke Berteald with his own hand, and having punish'd Brunehaut, employed himself to secure his Kingdom, and reform his Subjects Lives and Manners.

Clara, one of the Sisters of Dejanir; who, according to Pagan Divinity, spun the Thread of Mens Lives.

Clary, a famous Abby of the Benedictines, in the Territory of Mosfrancs, within the Dukedom of Burgundy, founded in the Year 910. The Popes Gregory VII.

CLY

Urban II. and Paschal II. with a great number of Cardinals and Bishops, have been given to the Roman Church by this Abby; which is so very large a Foundation, that we find it lodged, at once, Saint Louis King of France, Baldwin Emperor of Constantinople, the two Patriarchs of Antioch and Constantinople, Pope Innocent IV. 12 Cardinals, 2 Archbishops, and abundance of Secular and Ecclesiastical Nobility of their Relations and Attendants, without obliging the Religious to quit any of their ordinary Apartments.

Cliffale, a County in the South parts of Scotland. Out of a Hill in this County springs 3 Rivers, which run into 3 different Seas; viz. The Tweed into the German Sea, Avon into the Irish, and Clyde into the Dentalidean Sea. Glasgow is the chiefest place in this County.

Clifford, an ancient Noble Family, whose Line was preserved in Richard the youngest, whose Son Walter was possessed of several Lordships in the Reign of Hen. II. and Father to the Fair, but infamous, Reform'd.

Clifford, (Sir Thomas) Father to the present Lord Clifford, was first made Comptroller, then Treasurer, to King Charles II. afterwards advanced to the Dignity and Title of Lord Clifford of Chudley, and lastly to the Office of Lord High Treasurer of England.

Clytemnestra, Wife to Agamemnon King of Mycenae. 'Tis said; when her Husband was at the Siege of Troy, she fell into an amorous Correspondence with Aegisthus, and perswaded her Spark to kill her Husband at his Return; which he did, and seiz'd upon the Kingdom. Soon after Orestes, Agamemnon's Son, dispatch'd the

C O C

Usurper, and unnaturally murdered his Mother.

Cneus, a Roman Surname, given to such as were born with a particular Mark upon them.

Cobale, certain Demons in Humane Shape, that were called Sa-zyes, and said to keep Bacchus company. Some say, there are many of them at this day in Sarmatia, who hide themselves in Houses, and do any Offices for the People that entertain them, that can be expected from the best of Servants.

Coblentz, a T. of Germany, in the Abk. of Triers, upon the meeting of the Moselle and Rhine; much improved in its Fortifications, by drawing a Line from one R. to the other, after the most modern regular way. The Marschal de Boufflers came before it in Novemb 1688, with 7 or 8000 French; but retired with the Satisfaction of having only shot a great many shots in the Chaldan Tongue. Long. 105. 00. Lat. 10. 00.

C O D

Cochin-China, is the most Easterly Km. in the East-Indies, on the Continent. Alexander de Rhodes, a French Jesuit, has a large Account of this Country, which is subject to a K. of its own, and stands divided into 6 Provinces, each under a subordinate Governor. Their Merchandize is Gold, Silver, Porcelain, Silks, &c.

Cocytus, a certain R. of Epirus, one of the 4 that Poets feigned to belong to Hell, because its Name, which signifies Groaning and Complaining, denotes the pains of the Sufferers there.

Cockermouth, a m. T. in Cumberland, situate upon the R. Cocker, near its Fall into the Derwent; by which a Rs. it is almost surrounded. 'Tis about 8 m. from the Sea, with a Castle upon one of the Hills adjoining to it; 116 m. from London; and has the Privilege of receiving a Drum-stroke on Drum-morning.

COL

mander should be kill'd, he disguised himself, and rush'd into the midst of the Fight, where he was slain. The Athenians put so great a value upon this generous Action, that, fearing they should never find so good a Prince, they chose to have their Commonwealth govern'd by Magistrates, called Archontes.

Condé-de-Roi, one that served in the Protestant Army during the Civil Wars of France; being taken Prisoner by the Papists, and led to Auxerre, he was there torn in pieces, his Heart cut in small bits, and sold to the people.

Coggs, a pleasant Seat upon the R. Windrush, near Whitney in Oxfordshire, possess'd by the Owner, William Blake, Esq;

Cogni, a T. of Licaonia in Asia minor, now Capital of Caramania, and the Seat of a Turkish Bassa.

Cöire, Cher, the Capital City of the Country of the Grisons, upon the R. Plessieur, a little below the Rhine, between Chiavenne, Glaris, and Appenzel. The Grisons ordinarily hold their Diets at it.

Colberg, a T. or small C. in the Dukedom of Pomerania, upon the shore of the Baltick Sea, having a strong Castle at the Mouth of the R. Persantz. It belongs to the K. of Prussia, and is render'd considerable by making Salt.

Colbert (John Baptist) Marquis Seignelai, &c. chief Minister of State to the French King; a Scotchman originally, who owed his great Preferment to Cardinal Mazarin, who made him his Comptroller, and afterwards recommended him to the K. at his Death, in 1661; who having made Tryal of his great parts, entrusted him with the Management of all his Concerns. He died at Paris, of the Stone, in 1682, being 64 Ys. of Age, and leaving many Children, all well prefer'd before his Death.

COL

Colchester, a considerable T. or C. in Essex, seated on the Ascent of a steep Hill, upon the S. Bank of the R. Colne; from whence it takes its Name.: A Town of great Antiquity; but more remarkable for giving Birth to Lucius, Helena, and Constantine, the first Christian King, Empress, and Emperor, of the World. Within the Walls it contains 8 Parishes, the Remains of 15, besides 2 in the Suburbs. The principal Trade of it consists in making Cloth, Bays, Sayes, and other Stuffs; and 'tis of some note beside for its excellent Oysters. It was the last Garrison for King Charles I, and did not submit, till forc'd to it by Famine, in 1648. Many of the Churches were ruin'd at that Siege, and now stand as sad and deplorable Monuments of Fanatick Fury and Rebellious Rage. Here those two Honourable Knights, Sir Charles Lucas and Sir George Lisle, the one a chief Commander of Horse, and the other of Foot, were shot to Death under the Castle Walls by the Rebels. This place elects 2 Members of Parliament, who now are, Sir Isaac Rebow, and Sir Thomas Cook, Knights. The T. is 48 m. from London.

Colebrook, a m. T. in Buckinghamshire, in Stock Hundred, upon the R. Cole, 18 m. from London.

Colesbil, a m. T. in Warwickshire, in the Hundred of Hemlingford, upon the R. Cole, 81 m. from London.

Coles, (John) eldest Son of Sir Henry Coles twice Lord Mayor of London, was born there in the Y. 1466, and Educated at Oxford. After Travelling into Italy, at his Return he took the Degree of Doctor in Divinity; and, by King Henry

Henry VII, was made Dean of St. Paul's in London. In 1512 he founded St. Paul's School; and was no less remarkable for the Regularity of his Life, than for his Learning and Munificence. He died of the Sweating-Sickness, in 1519.

Coligni, (Francis) Lord of Andelat, &c. Son of Marechal Coligni, and General of the French Foot, was born at Chatillon-sur-Loing in 1511: He served in the Wars of Italy and Picardy, under Hen II, at last he embraced the Protestant Religion, and was one of the greatest Men in France for his Moderation, Prudence, and Knowledge in Military Discipline.

Coligni, (Gaspar) the second of the Name, Count of Coligni, Lord of Chatillon-sur-Loing, &c. was born in 1516, brought up in the Army, and from his very Youth gave great proofs of his Courage and Conduct, in and before the Civil Wars in France. At Henry II's Death, he undertook the Protection of the people for 3 days, and then tyed to the Gallows at Mont-faucon, until his Cousin Montmorency had it brought and buried secretly in the Chappel of Charentilly.

Coligni, (Odet de) Cardinal of Chatillon, &c. was Brother to the Admiral, and to Francis Lord of Andelat. He was brought up with a great deal of care, which improved his great Wit, and forwarded his Inclination for Learning, whereof he afterwards became a considerable Protector, and, tho' a Cardinal, embraced the Protestant Religion with his Brothers, and was very serviceable to his Party.

Coligni, (John) Earl of Coligni and Lieutenant General of the Forces of France, Son to Gaspar III. Marechal of France, whose great Actions he imitated, acquiring himself with much Reputation in the several Posts he enjoyed under the King.

COL

Collina Porta, one of the Gates of Rome, at the Foot of Mons Quirinalis. It was afterwards called the Salt Gate, and the Street Via Salara, because the Sabins that brought Salt to Rome came in at that Gate; his was also the Place where they used to bury the Vestals.

Colman, surnamed the Wise, an Englishman living in the 13 Cen. He wrote a Chronicle.

Colmar, an Imperial T. of Alsace, belonging to France, situate upon the R. Helle, 3 L. from Brisac, which during the Wars of 1674, was demolish'd and abandon'd.

Cologne upon the Rhine, an Imperial and one of the 4 Capital Hanse T. within an University and Archbishoprick, whereof the Prelate is Prince and an Elector of the Empire. It's 16 M. S. of Mastricht, and is not only a great and strong, but a rich and populous City, lying in the form of a Half Moon upon the Rhine. They reckon 365 Churches great and small in it, amongst which you see the Tombs of the 3 pretended Kings, that visited our Saviour in his Cradle by the guidance of a Star; commonly called the 3 Kings of Cologne, because of these their Relicks brought hither from Milan, and to Milan from Constantinople, as they tell you. It was under the French, from the Expulsion of the Romans to the Reign of Otho I. since when it has been under its Archbishops. The great Chapter of Cologne consists of 60 Canons, all Princes or Counts; for they receive no common Gentlemen, nor any so low as a Baron. The 24 Seniors of the 60, form a particular Chapter for the Election of the Archbishop, and have their active and passive Votes, with power to chuse any of the Colleagues, or to be chosen themselves to the vacant Dignity. The Cardinal of Burghem- burg, in pursuance of his Election to the Archbishoprick, July 19. 1688, took possession of it; whose pretences on the one side being justify'd by the French King, and on the other being oppos'd both by the Emp. and the Pope, who put in the present Elector, Brother to the D. of Bavaria, produced a general War to secure him in it; but whether his present Actions, in siding with France against the Emperour, be a requital for so great a Favour, Time must determine.

COL

Colonna (Stephen) a great Commander, Father of Julius Caesar, served the Emp. Charles V. and afterwards so many other Princes, that he brought his Fidelity and Constancy into question. Colonna (Fabrizio) a great Commander, Native of Rome. Colonna (James) Cardinal, also Native of Rome, whose Family, being upon the score of old grudge persecuted by Boniface VIII. to avoid falling into his Hands, withdrew to Nepi, where John Colonna a Cousin of theirs commanded. This enraged the Pope to that degree, that he publish'd a Croisade against them, besieg'd the place, and forc'd them to fly to a Friend's House at Perouse; but the Pope followed them with that extravagant Passion, that he published a Price for their Heads, and excommunicated all that should bear the Name or Arms of that Family; but at length in 1033, they surpriz'd Boniface at Agnania, where it's said Colonna gave him a Blow on the Face, with his Hand armed with a Gantlet: And the Pope, after he came back to Rome, died of Rage and Despair, in October following. Bennet the XI. his Successor re-establish'd the Colonna's, of which there were many famous Men.

Colony, a Detachment of People which the Romans sent to inhabit and cultivate either a new or a conquer'd Country; of which there were 3 sorts, Roman, Latin and Military Colonies.

C O L

Colophon, a T. of Joria, supposed by some to be the Birth-place of Homer.

Colossia, an ancient C. of Great Phrygia in Asia Minor on the Frontiers of Caria, particularly known by the Epistle St. Paul writ to the Colossians tho some think that this Letter was address'd to the Rhodians called Colossians, from the Great Colossia erected at the Port of that Island in honour of the Sun, and esteem'd one of the Wonders of the World. After it had stood 50 Y. an Earthquake overthrow it. Few could embrace or girt its very Thumb. It was of such a vast Bulk, that when the Savacens made themselves Masters of Rhodes, An. D. 667, they loaded 20 Camels with the Brass. Nero built a Colossia at Rome with his own Head upon it. The Capitlan removed his Head, and put a San thereon.

C O M

favourably, and gave him 3 Ships; with which he set forth from Port Palos de Moger in Andalusia, Aug. 3. 1492, sailed till he found the Islands, and landed at Guana Bay, one of the Luccaies. The Islanders frighted with an unusual sight, gain'd the Mountain with such speed, that the Spaniards could take but one Woman, whom he let go again, after he had given her Bread, Wine and some Jewels; which kind usage begat the Respect of the rest; insomuch that their Casique or King gave Columbus leave to build a Wooden Fort on the Seacoast, where he left 38 Spaniards, and returned in all haste to acquaint the King with his Discovery, who ennobled him and his Posterity, and gave him for Arms, a Sea Argent and Azure, Six Islands Or, with the World as Crest. After this, some that envy'd his Success, represented him ill to R. Ferdinand and Isabella, but he was received into Favour again, and died in 1506, at 64 Y. of Age.

COM

ing that common Events happily, and Comets appear but rarely, which shews their dependence and Connexion on other.

Comitium, a place where the Romans kept their Assemblies, the great Hall for publick Ors and Speeches, called Rostra. they propos'd Laws, made laws, and pleaded Causes. There another place called Rostra at foot of Mount Palatin.

Comendatie, Livings or Benefices giving to the Knights of the Order of Malta.

Comines (Philip) Lord of Artois, an Historian of a Noble Family of Flanders, much esteem'd by Charles the Hardy of Burgundy, and rewarded by Louis XI. He was a Master of the French, Dutch, Italian Tongues, but not excellent in the Latin: However being full of Experience and good sense, he undertook to write History of his time; and did it very well, that the Work was read into several other Languages out of the French. He died 149.

Commodus, or Lucius Aurelius Commodus Antoninus, Son of Antoninus Philosophus, was born in 161, either and Uncle being Consuls, was declared Emp. in 181. He a good Tutor, but his evil Inclinations prevail'd over Instruction. Rome found a second Nero in this wretched person; who had no Devotion for the Gods, nor Respect for the most inviolable Ties of Nature; was ungrateful to his Servants, unkind to his Friends, and neglected Mens Innocence nor Liberty. Upon the least pretence, true or false, he would put down Senators, and chief Officers of the Empire to death, and do all that he either fear'd or desired. He debauch'd his own Sisters, and kept many Boys for his detestable Pleasures. But at last having design'd the death of Martius whom he kept, of Letus Captain of his Guards, and Eleus his Lord Chamberlain; Martius, to prevent the fatal stroke, gave him, as he came out of the Bath, some Wine mix'd with very violent Poyson; and because this did not work so quick as they would have it, they had him strangled by a Wrestler, with whom he used to exercise himself sometimes at that sport. This happened in 192, the 31 of his Age, and 13 Y. of his Reign.

COM

Comus, a certain Captain of Rabbers; being taken and examined before the Consul Rupilius, he desired a little respite to answer, and then putting himself on his Knees, held his Breath so long that he died upon the spot.

Company of the Indies, or East-India Company; in Holland is a Society of that Country to regulate and carry on the Commerce of the Indies, and consists of 6 Chambers which have 16 Directors, which makes 17 Voices, because the President has two. The C. of Amsterdam alone has one half of this Company, Middelburg a quarter, Rotterdam, Delft, Enchusen and Horne the other 3th part.

Compitalia, Feasts which the Romans celebrated in their Cross-ways, to the Honour of their Household Gods called Lares and Penates, whom they made to preside not only in their Houses, but also in Publick Places and in the Streets.

Complutum, vulgarly called Alcala de Henares, a Town in Spain in New Castile, famous for its University founded by Cardinal Ximenes, to whom we are obliged for the Bible in 6 Volumes, called Biblia Complutensis, wherein besides the Hebrew are the Caldee, Greek and Latin Tongues.

C O M

Compostella, which the Spaniards call St. Jaco de Compostella, Capital of Galicia in Spain, famous for the extraordinary Concourse of Pilgrims that resort thither, to visit the Apostle St. James's Body, which the Spaniards pretend they have there. It also gives name to a Town of the Spaniards in America Septentrionalis, built by a Spaniard called Gusman.

Compton (William) descended from the ancient Family of Compton at the Vineyard in Warwick shire, and dying in the 20 of Henry VIII. and his Son Peter in the 35 of the same Reign, he left Issue Henry who was summoned as a Baron to Parliament in 14 of Elizabeth. William Son and Heir to Henry, was advanced to the Title of Earl of Northampton in the 16 James I. and was also made Knight of the Garter. He died in 1537, and Spencer his Son succeeding him in his Title, took Arms for K. Charles I. against the Rebellion, and was kill'd at Hopton Heath near

C O N

Peace succeeding, Conarus drown'd himself in all kinds of Vices, and demanding Money of his Subjects to support his extravagant Expenses, they were so far from granting him Supplies, that they talk'd of de-throning him; upon which the King using minatory expressions, those that were next him seiz'd his Majesty, and put him with some few others in Prison, and the Author of his wicked Counsels to death, and to prevent Tumults chose Agadus for Vice-Roy, till they should choose another K. so that Conarus partly by Diseases, and partly by Despair and Grief, ended his days in Prison, in the 14 Y. of his Reign A. D. 50.

Conception, a T. of S. America in the Prov. of Chili. Another H. T. of America Meridionalis in Paraguay, situate where the R. Uruguay joins the Rio de la Plato. A little T. of the same name in America Septentrionalis in the Prov. of Meche-

CON

by which the K. has the power to name such as he thinks fit for Bishopricks, &c. and the Pope, if he finds no fault in the Capacity or Life of the named, is to give his Bulls in vertue of which he is Consecrated.

Concordat Germanick, a Treaty made in 1448, between Pope Nicholas V. and the Emp. Fredrick III. confirm'd by Clement VIII. and Gregory XIII. wherein the Power of conferring vacant Bishopricks is adjusted between the Emp. and the Pope.

Concordia, a Goddess much esteemed among the Ancient Romans; Julius Caesar and Tiberius built her a Temple, and all the World court her, tho' few are so happy as to gain her.

Conde, a T. of the Low Countries in Hainault, situate upon the Banks of the Schelde, 2 L. from Valenciennes. Since the French took it in 1676, they have regularly fortified it, and rendred it a very important place. There is another little T. of that name in Normandy.

Confession de Ausberg or the Augustan Confession; a Profession of Faith drawn up by Melancthon, which Luther and he presented to Charles V. at Ausburg. It was divided into two Parts, with a design to support all the Points of the Lutheran Reformation, and to shew the Unorthodoxy of the Popish Doctrines.

Congallus I. the 44 K. of Scotland, succeeded Constantine I. his Uncle. He apply'd himself to reform the People's Manners, and restrain Thefts and Robberies; and endeavoured to reclaim others to a civil course of Life by his own Example. He died An. 500, in the 22 of his Reign.

Congleton, a large and noted T. of Cheshire, situate on the Dane; govern'd by a Mayor and 6 Aldermen; the Inhabitants make a great number of Gloves, Purfes and Point. From London 123 M.

CON

Congo, a Kingdom of Africa, border'd to the E. with Abissina, and on the W. with the Ocean. Citrons and Oranges grow here in abundance, and are very good. Their Date Trees furnish much Fruit, whereof they make Wine. The Banks of the R. Lelunde are full of Cedar and other Odoriferous Trees. The Hollanders have much of their Cassia and Tamarinds out of this Country. Most of the Inhabitants of Congo are very black, but not so deformed as the Negroes of Nubia and Guinea. They are Proud and Insolent to their Neighbours, but Civil and Obliging to Strangers. Their Wit is quick, and Humour fiery; yet have they no great Courage, for 20 Europeans will make 200 of them run, as has been experienced in several Rencounters.

Congregation of Rites, a Jurisdiction of Rome, compos'd of Cardinals deputed by the Pope to observe the Ceremonies of the Church, oversee the Divine Service, what concerns the Canonization of Saints, the Priviledges of Precedence, &c. This Congregation is held at least once a Month in the Palace of the Cardinal Dean. Congregation of the Holy Office, a Jurisdiction of Rome compos'd of 12 Cardinals and several Prelates, who are called Consultors. It informs it self of matters of the Inquisition, what concerns Heresie, and hath its Palace, Officers, and Prisons: This Congregation generally meets on Wednesdays at the Palace of the ancientest Cardinal, and on Thursday before the Pope, wherein they give him account of Transactions there, and receive his Advice.

Conisalus, a God of the Pagans, whom the Athenians adored in the same same manner the Lampsacians worshipped Priapus. Several think that both were the same Deity, adored in different places.

CON

Connaught, is one of the 4 great Prov. of Ireland, bounded on the N. by Ulster, on the E. by Leinster, on the S. by Munster, and on the W. by the great Western Ocean.

Constable, an Officer of the Crown of France, who was formerly in great Consideration; but was annihilated by Louis XIII. and the Jurisdictions and Functions of it are now in the Marschals of France.

Conquet, a little Sea-Port in Britany in France, at the extremity of this Prov. called the End of the World, about 3 or 4 L. from Brest. The T. tho' small, is Neat, Rich and well built.

Conrad I. Henry Duke of Saxony revolted against him, beat his Lieutenant Everard, and put himself to flight, not long after Conrad died of a Fever, occasioned by a Wound he received in the Bavarian War.

CON

was chosen Emp. in 1138, after Lothair II. He overcame the Bavarian Faction, and marching in the Holy War, was betray'd by the Greeks at Constantinople, who mix'd Lime with the Meal they furnish'd the Army with; so that the Emp. having laid Siege to Damascus without any good success, and having march'd to Jerusalem, was forced to return into Germany, where he died in 1152, after a Reign of 12 Y. 10 M. and 15 Days. Conrad of Suabia Son of Frederick II. was made K. of the Romans by his Father, and proclaimed at 8 Y. old. He govern'd in his Father's absence with great Prudence, and bore Arms with Reputation, tho' not with so much good success. After Frederick's death Conrad endeavoured to keep the Empire, but was opposed by the Pope; however he carry'd on his Victories in Italy, until Manfred his Bastard Son who made away his Father Frederick, gained his Physician to poison him with a

C O N

after a Reign equally long and happy in 999. Conrad Marquis of Montferat, Lord of Tyre, was in great Reputation in the E. for his great Courage and Conduct in the Wars against the Infidels; but was murder'd in 1192 by the Baldwins. Conrad who bore the Title of Prince of Antioch, was Son to Frederick Bastard Son to Frederick II. who warring against Charles of Anjou, was taken, imprisoned in the Castle of St. Orbe where his Eyes were put out, and afterwards strangled.

Conart (Valentine) Counsellor and Secretary to the K's Family, Crown of France and French Academy, was a Parisian and one of the chief Founders of that Society. Tho' he was of the Reformed Religion, it was not known which of the two Parties had most value for his Person and Merits. He died in 1675, about 74 Y. of Age.

Conferences, were according to the Superstition of the Romans, certain Gods of the first Order, who composed the Council of State in Heaven. There were 12 of these Deities, 6 Gods and 6 Goddesses.

Constance, an Imperial free T. in Germany upon the Lake Constance. It has its Name from Constantius Chlorus Father of Constantine the Great, and is a strong and populous City. Here was held the great Council in 1414, procured by Sigismund the Emp. which deposed 3 Popes at once, and elected a 4th Pope, Martin V. who owned the Papacy to be subject to a Council. In the 15 Session of this Council, the pretended Errors of Wickliff were severally recited and condemn'd: Also Sentence of Fire pass'd upon John Huss, Non obstante, his grant of safe Conduct from the Emperor; which Sentence was executed May 30. 1416. It's a Bishops See under the Archbishop of Mentz.

C O N

Constance, a Lord of the K. of Siam's Court, and his Minister of State, born at Cephalonia in Greece of a Noble Venetian, the Governour of that Island's Son, and of a Lady of one of the ancientest Families of that Country. Finding his Family was not in a condition to support his Quality, he embark'd for England; from thence went into the Indies in the service of that Company, where after several interchanges of good and bad Fortune, he was recommended as a Counsellor to the K. of Siam, with whom he still lives in good Reputation.

Constance, a T. of France in lower Normandy, situate on the Burd, and is Capital of a little Country called Constantin or Contantin, which Robert Duke of Normandy pawn'd when he undertook his Voyage to the Holy Land with Godfry of Bouillon. Some think it the Augusta Romanorum of the Ancients.

Constans I. the first of this Name, third Son of Constantine the Great, and Fausta, was made Cesar in 333 by his Father; after whose death, in 337, he had Italy, Africa and Illyrium for his proportion of the Inheritance. He was kill'd at Aquileia in 340. Constans II. Emp. of the E. Son to Constantine III. was substituted in his Uncle Heracleona's place about the end of 641; being dissatisfy'd with his Brother Theodosius, he made him to be first ordain'd Deacon and then put him to death. God was pleas'd to suffer him to be troubled, with such a Remorse of Conscience for this unnatural Murther, that he imagined Theodosius always before him, and being in Deacons Habit, with which he officiated at the Communion, he gave him the Cup, and said, Drink Brother. Afterwards he went into Sicily, where he was kill'd by his Vallet de Chambre in one of the Baths

C O N

Baths of Syracuse in 668, after a Reign of 26 Years.

Constantia, Q. of France, Daughter of William I. of this Name, was very Handsome, but as Proud, Capricious and Unsupportable as could be. The good Prince K. Robert her Husband, used all possible means to reform her Humour, but to no purpose; for she embroild the Kingdom by endeavouring to disinheret her eldest Son, but at length was forced to compound with him. They died in 1132. Constantia Q. of Aragon, Daughter of Manfroy, Frederick II's Bastard, and Wife to Peter III. K. of Aragon, lived about 2084 in great esteem for her Piety and Magnanimity in Sicily, where of she was Sovereign. For having determined to put Charles Prince of Salerno to death, to revenge the untimely end of Conradin of Snabia, she sent him word to prepare to die on Friday: To which that Pr. answered with great Courage. That

C O N

Emp. Constantine Copronymus, nish'd him; but having a mind to destroy him quite, recall'd him in 766, order'd he should be shaved and dress'd up in a Gown with long Sleeves, and after he had been made to be put upon an Ass with his Face toward the Tail, and a Dagger in his Hand, and expos'd on a Scaffold the T to be laugh'd at by the People, he order'd him to be beheaded, and his Body to be drag'd to Dunghill.

Constantine the Great, first of the Name, Son to Constantine Chlorus and St. Helena, was born in Naisse, a T. of the Prov. of Thrace July 24. 272. Heracles Emperor kept him Prisoner at Rome, under a pretence of Religion, when he was in England; but his Design was to hinder him from succeeding; which Constantine made sensible of, he found means to escape, and arrived some time after in Brittan to close his Father's 3 he built at Rome and other places very Magnificent Churches, and showed them. Then being willing to build a City that should bear his own Name, he erected one at Constantinople in the finest Situation of the whole Universe; which he first called New Rome, and afterwards Constantinople. Whilst he was employed in this great Undertaking, the Heretic of Arrian a Priest of Alexandria infected the most part of the E. Church, for which he assembled the Council of Nice to suppress it. Having found out our Saviour's gulchre, he built a very Magnificent Church in the place, and put piece of the Cross he suffered on, upon the top of a rich Pillar, which was to be built in the middle of the great Square in Constantinople. Then he divided the Empire between his 3 Sons, Constantine, Constantius and Constans, and in the 5 Y. of his Age, being seized with Slight Fever, to change the Air went to Thrace, where, it's said, he was Baptiz'd, Confirm'd, and receiv'd the Holy Communion, and died soon after at Achiron near the suburbs of Constantinople, on the 22^d of May, A. D. 337. after a Reign of 9 Y. 9 Months and 27 Days, to succeed from his Father's Death, which happened July 25. 306.

CON

Constantine II. called the Young, son to Constantine the Great, was born at Arles, August. 7. and made Cæsar March 1. 317. He was Consul 3 times, and after his Father's Death had the Gauls, Spain and Ireland for his share. He was sent to Athanasius Patriarch of Alexandria; for when he was banished to Trier he sent him back to his Church again; but was not allowed to his Brother Constans, for he would have dispossessed him of the inheritance left him by his Father. Leading his Troops into Italy he was kill'd at Aquileia, being then 10 or 11 Y. of Age.

CON

Constantine V. surnamed the Bear-ded: He undertook a very successful War against the Saracens, which held 7 Y. by Sea and Land, and at last obliged them to pay him Tribute. Constantine VI. Son of Leo Isauricus, was surnamed Iconoclastes because he supported the Image-breakers, Copronymus because he betray'd himself when he was christened, and Caballinus because he was a great lover of the smell of Horse dung. He was a Man of no Religion, and consequently a great persecutor of the Clergy. He died in 775 in his Expedition against the Bulgarians, being mad before he expired, crying he was burn'd alive through the pain he suffered by the Plague for which he died of. Constantine VII. Son of the Emperor Leo IV. began his Reign in 780, at the Age of 10 Y. under the Guardianship of his Mother Irene, a Woman of great Beauty and extraordinary Wit; but Constantine coming to Rule, depriv'd her of the Government, and made her become a private person. He put her Uncle Nicephorus's Eyes out, and cut out his 4 Brothers Tongues, that endeavoured to raise him to the Empire; he also blinded one Alexis Patricius because the Legions of Armenia had some kindness for him. These proceedings got him the hatred of the great ones; and his Mother through her great Ambition to Govern, most barbarously put his Eyes out in the very Chamber he was born in, and on the same day that he did the like to Nicephorus. Thus Constantine lost both Sight and Life 797. Constantine VII. Son of Basilus the Macedonian, was created Augustus in 858, but died before his Father about 878. Constantine surnamed Porphyrogeneta. Son of Leo the Wise, began his Reign under the Guardianship of his Mother Zoe, June 7. 913. He was a long time kept under by his Coadjutor Lacapanes an Armenian, whose Daughter he had married; but at last he opened his Eyes, shook off his Liberty, and govern'd the Empire with great Commendation. Constantine X. Son of Romanus, reigned 5 Y. with his Brother Basilius the Younger, during all which time, he was rather a Companion of the Dignity than of the Power of Basilius. He died in 1028. Constantine XI. surnamed Monomachus or the Peacock, was recalled from Banishment, where he was sent by order of John, Brother to the Emp. Michael the Populoman. This Prince was Lazy and quite buried in Vice, which gave the Turks opportunity to begin to extend their Power in Asia in his days. He died in 1459. Constantine XII. surnamed Ducas, Son of Anthonius, was chosen by Blaze Comnenus to govern the Empire in 1459. He was esteem'd a good Catholic, but so excessive-ly Avaricious, that he made him con-

CON

CON

Constantine I. 43 K. of Scotland, succeeded his Brother Dungardus; while he was a Subject he lived temperately, but when mounted on the Throne he immers'd himself in all manner of Debauchery. He was Cruel and Haughty to the Nobility, but familiar with the Vulgar, and Sneaking to his Enemies. He was at last slain by a Nobleman whose Daughter he had forced, or according to Fordun, died of a lingering Disease about 1197. Constantine II. the 71 K. of Scotland succeeded Kenneth. He was a Prince of a great Spirit and very Valiant. In his time the Danes, being followed by the Picts, invaded Scotland and landed in Fife, where they cut off all, from their inveterate hatred of the Name of Christians; Constantine marched against them, and defeated one of their Armies under Haldie Brother to the King of Denmark, but attacking the other commanded by Humber he was defeated and slain near Craig in Fife.

CON

that time, and Malcolm was declared K. Constantine IV. the 81 K. of Scotland: He inveigh'd against the Hereditary Succession of the Crown, press'd the Abolishment of that Law, and having drawn over some of the Nobility and Commons to his Opinion, he was declar'd King, 12 days after the Death of Kennethus; but not long after was defeated and kill'd by Kennethus the lawful Heir.

Constantine, the Capital City of the Prov. of Constantine in the Kingdom of Algier, rich and well built, standing in a Soil that is exceeding fruitful of Corn.

Constantinople, a famous C. of Europe, the ancient Bizantium, now called by the Turks Stamboul, is the Capital of Romania or Thrace, and the Seat of the Turkish Empire. It was built by Constantine the Great about 331, and continu'd the Seat of the Grecian Empire till 1453, when being subdu'd by Mahomet II. the Turks left Adrianople to settle here, and built the Dardanelli for its Defence on the Hellespont. This C. is of a Triangular Form, walled with Brick and Stone orderly intermix'd; about 19 M. in circumference, full of lofty Cypress-Trees, so intermixt with the Buildings, that they contribute much to its Beauty, if seen from the Sea or the Mountains. Heretofore it abounded with the noblest Buildings in the World; but since it came into the Hands of the Turks, all the private ones are sunk below their Ancient Splendor, whilst the Publick retain something of it, after the many Violences this Pile has suffered by many dreadful Fires, Time, War and Tyrants. The Haven is the fairest, safest, and most commodious in the World; so conveniently deep, that the greatest Ships may lay their Sides to the Side of the Harbour, for the more easie Receipt or

CON

Discharge of their Lading, and so seated that no Wind can blow which brings not in some Ships or other into the Port.

Constantinow, a small T. in Volhania in Poland, upon the R. Horin, 25 Polish M. from Camminieck to the N. E. The T. has been almost ruin'd by the Cossacks during the last War.

Constantius I. of the name, or Constantius Chlorus, Son of Flavius Eutropius, and of Claudia Daughter to a Brother of the Emp. Claudian II. In engaging against the Gauls he lost the first Battel, and was wounded in 295, but Rallying his Army he came upon the Enemy about 5 Hours after, kill'd 60000, and put the rest to flight. In 296 he subdu'd England that had revolted; and in 304, when Maximinian and Dioclesian quitted the Empire, he and Galerius remained sole Emperors. Constans died at Turk in England. Constantius II. or Flavius Julius Constantius, Son of Constantine the Great, who embrac'd the Heresie of Arrius, and dishonour'd his Power, by the Murder of many of his own Blood, and persecuting the Orthodox Christians. His Reign was disturb'd by many Rebellions. He died in 336.

Consul is a Name which the Romans gave their first Magistrates, whom they look'd upon as chief of their Council. Lucius Junius Brutus, and Tarquinius Collatinus, were the first the Publick Assembly chose, after they had banish'd Tarquin the Proud, last K. of Rome, An. R. 245. But now the Office ceasing from its primitive Grandeur, the Name only signifies a Person in Foreign Ports, who is the Representative of his Country by Authority, and espouses the Interest of the Merchants, by Applying to the Courts of Princes or States, under a Publick Character, to redress their Grievances or mitigate any Charge unjustly laid upon them; for which service, he has an Exhibition laid upon every Tun of Goods Imported, which the Merchants call Consulage.

CON

Continent, a Name Geographers give some parts of the Land, to distinguish it from Islands, which they look upon as pieces cut off from the main Body; tho' in truth the whole Earth is but one vast Island. However, according to the customary way of speaking, there are 4 Continents, tho' but 2 well known. The first is what we call the Ancient Continent, comprehending Europe, Africa and Asia, and takes up almost all our Hemisphere; so united, that we may go from one to the other without crossing the Water. The second is the New Continent, called America, and takes up almost half of the other Hemisphere. The third is called the Arctic or Northern Continent, and comprehends Greenland, the Ile of Island, al in the County of Carnarvan in Wales, 174 M. from London.

COO

Cooper (Sir Anthony Ashley) of Winbourn St. Giles in the County of Dorset, Baronet, was by Letters Patents bearing date 13 Car. II. advanced to the Degree of Baron of this Realm, by the Title of Lord Ashley of Winbourn St. Giles, and in the 24 of the same K. created Lord Cooper of Pavlet and Earl of Shaftsbury; who, to do him right, was a Person of extraordinary Parts, but his Conduct at the later end of his Life grew exceptionable, and tarnish'd his Character; he having then join'd a Party of Faction Men, and concerted an Insurrection both in England and Scotland; but perceiving the Faction embarrass'd with new Difficulties, and not so forward in executing the Design as he thought necessary, he withdrew into Holland and there died An. 1682, leaving his Honour and Estate to his Son and Heir the tain'd by Rheticus, Rotmannus, Leucberg, Kepler and Galileus; and in our days by Des Cartes, Gassendus and the Count of Pagan, and is now generally approv'd by the Learned. To resume Copernicus's Sentiments, the Sun is immoveable, and in the Center of the World. Mercury, Venus, the Earth, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn, move in their fix Circles round the Sun; but the Earth has another motion round its Axis, and the Moon makes its Circuit round the Earth. By this System, we avoid the difficulty of Explaining, and giving Reasons for the Diurnal Motion of the Sun, thro' an immense Space, and with an inconceivable Rapidity. As for the Earth, Copernicus gives it 3 motions; the first that it compleats in a day; the second yearly; and the third which always keeps the Earth's Axis in the same Position. The Diurnal Revolution, is that the Earth makes in 24 Hours upon its proper Axis; so that the part that is toward the Sun is always lightened, whilst the other lies dark. The Yearly, is that the Earth runs through the Signs of the Zodiac, when between Venus and Mars it takes its round about the Sun in a Year's time. The third serves to give Reason for the difference of Seasons, and the inequality of Days in the different Climates.

C O P

Copenhagen, a T. of the Isle of Zeland, Capital of the Km. of Denmark, and the K's ordinary Residence, with a good Port and considerable Cittadel. The Archbp of Lunden, in 1165, first built a Fortrefs there against the Pirates, which was called Axel-Huis. Some time after, several Fishermen built Cabins round this Fort, and then the richer sort built Magazines and Houses, to receive their Customers that came to buy Fish, and kept a considerable Commerce; whence the T. began to be called Copmans-Haffen, i. e.

C O P

Merchant's Port. So Trade making it more and more considerable, James Bishop of Roschildt gave it many Privileges in 1254, and afterwards by the peculiar Care of the K. of Denmark, it came to be very considerable for its great Commerce.

Copranitz, a T. of Sclavonia with a good Fortrefs belonging to the House of Austria, 2 L. from the Drave, 4 or 5 from Peter Waradin, as many from Canisa, and is now one of the Emp. Bulwarks against the Turks.

Coprogli, or Cuperli (Bacha Mahomet) Grand Visier during the Minority of Mahomet IV. His Father's Name was Coprogli. He was a Seaman's Son, or as others say, Son to a French Gentleman, who being set upon by Pirates was kill'd, and the Son carried a Slave to Cyprus. His Valour gain'd him Reputation in the Wars of Persia, and his good Mein advantageously supported the Reputation his Valour had acquir'd him in the War; so that when young Mahomet was put upon the Throne in 1648, this Prince knowing Coprogli's Merit, made him Grand Visier in 1649; in which Office he demean'd himself so well, that when he died at Adrianople in 1663, he was much lamented by the Sultan and People, which is very extraordinary in the Turkish Empire, where such Ministers seldom die a natural Death. Coprogli (Achmet) his Son, succeeded in the same Post at 28 Years of Age. He took New Hamsel in Hungary in 1663, lost the Battel at St. Goddard the Y. after; but regain'd his Credit by taking Candy in 1669.

Coptes, a sort of Christians in Egypt, who follow the Errors of Entiches and Dioscorus.

Coracota, a famous Robber of Spain, who hearing that the Emp. Augustus had proffered 10000 Crowns

C O R

Crowns to any that should take him, presented himself of his own accord before that Prince, who thereupon not only forgave him, but also gave him great Presents.

Corbulo (Domitius) a Roman General, in great esteem under the Reigns of Claudius and Nero, and was so rigorous an observer of Military Discipline, that he condemn'd 2 Soldiers to Death, because the one wanted his Sword, and the other his Dagger, tho' both were at work in the Retrenchments. To keep his Soldiers out of Idleness, he made them cut a Channel 5 or 6 l. betwixt the Meuse and the Rhine, against the Inundation of the Ocean. This Channel is still to be seen between Wieck and Crompen. He fought the Parthians, and after seeing himself ill used at Court he kill'd himself at Cenchrea, a Port of Corinth.

Corck, a County, C. and Haven in Munster in Ireland. The C. is a Bishop's See under the Archbishop was the first which renounced the having any property in Goods or Estates.

C O R

Corderius, known by the Name of Balthazar Corderius, a Jesuit born at Antwerp in 1592. He understood the Languages very well, and particularly the Greek, as appears by his Translation of Dionysius Areopagita, which he printed in 2 Volumes in Folio, in 1634.

Cordove upon Guadalquivir, a T. of Spain in Andaluzia, which formerly had the Title of a Kingdom, with a Bishoprick Suffragan of Toledo, famous for the Birth-place of the 2 Seneca's, the Rhetorician and the Philosopher. The Episcopal Church which was once a Moske built by the Mosses, The Jesuits sumptuous Church, the R^y Palace and the great Square called la Plaza mayor, with the fine Houses supported upon the Portique, are great Curiosities.

Coree, a Peninsula of China in bounding in Citrons and Oranges, Wine, Honey, Wax and Oyl; and is so well fortify'd by the Venetians, that it is the Barriere of Italy.

C O R

Corinna, a certain Lady much addicted to Poetry, which she learn'd of a Grecian Lady that was very successful in such Performances. Authors say, that she carry'd the Prize 4 or 5 several times from Pindar; but they will have her Beauty contribute much to that advantage.

Corinth or Cornatho, as its now called, a T. of Greece in Morea, situate near the Isthmus, or the narrow Neck of Land that joins the Morea to Greece, between the Gulph of Lepanto and that of Engia. This place was called Heliopolis or the T. of the Sun, and was considerable for its Cittadel called Acro Corinth, built upon a very high Mountain, as also for the Wealth of the Inhabitants, and for the Celebration of the Isthmique Plays. Corinth was utterly destroy'd by the Romans under Lucius Mummius, and it is not to be imagin'd what Wealth was spoil'd and consum'd at the taking of it: It is enough to observe, that the famous Metal call'd the Brass of Corinth, and so much esteem'd, was but the Remains of that great Conflagration. Julius Caesar Rebuilt and Peopled it a-new. It belong'd some time to the Venetians, but was taken by Mahomet II. in 1418, and was again retaken by the Venetians in 1687, upon the Victory which they gained near Patras. Apollodorus writes of 3 Corinths more, the 1. in Theffaly, the 2. in Epirus, and the 3. in Elis.

Coriolanus (Caius Marcius) a famous Commander among the Romans, and was very serviceable to his Country in establishing the Common-wealth. About 261 of Rome, Coriolanus making the Consulate he sued for, went over to the Volsi and perswaded them to take Arms against the Romans, and encamping within 4 M. of Rome, would not listen to the Peace the Romans begg'd by their Heralds; until his Wife Veturia and Mother Volumnia, follow'd by all the Roman Matrons in Tears, forc'd him to a Compliance: But some time after, about 264, the Volsi put him to Death, as a Traytor that had made them quit their Conquest.

C O R

Cornaro-Piscopia (Lucretia Helena) Daughter of John Baptist Cornaro Procurator of St. Mark, was so well skill'd in Languages, that they were ready to give her a place among the Doctors of Divinity in the University of Padua, had not Cardinal Berberigo Bishop of the T. oppos'd it, and made her be satisfy'd with a Doctor of Philosophy's Cap, which she receiv'd in a numerous Assembly. She was also receiv'd a la Nobilista at Venice. Cornaro (Catharine) Q. of Cyprus, came to Venice upon her Brother George Cornaro's request, where she had greater Honours done her by the Doge and Senators than ever was paid to a Woman before her, upon which she gave her Interest in the K. of Cyprus to the Venetians.

Cornelians, one of the Noblest Families of the Romans, which was divided into several Branches, whereof there were 4 Principal or Chief: I. The Maluginians. II. that of the Scipio's. III. of the Rufini, and IV. of the Lentuli. All Brave Men, and did great Service for their Country.

Cornelius the Centurion, Captain of a Foot Company, who profited so much by St. Peter's Instruction, that he was chosen Bp of Casarea after Zacheus, according to the Roman Martyrology. Cornelius, Pope, Native of Rome, succeeded Fabian in 251, and was Beheaded by Gal-lus for refusing to Sacrifice to Idols. Cornelius Gallus, a Roman

C O R

Knight and Poet; so much in the Emp. Augustus's Favour, that he made him Governour of Egypt; but being banish'd for his Severity and Extortions, he kill'd himself out of Despair, in the 728 Y. of Rome, and the 43 of his Age. Cornelius (Nepos) a Latin Historian, that flourish'd in the Reign of Julius Caesar. Cicero and Atticus were both his Friends. He writ the Lives of the Greek Historians, and what he says of Cato and Hannibal shews, that he also writ of the Roman Generals and Historians. He left several other Works, but they are all lost, excepting the Lives of the most famous Generals of the Roman and Grecian Armies, which Amilius Probus sought to appropriate to himself, to gain Theodosius's Favour, but this Juggle was discovered afterwards, tho' many Authors have mistaken the one for the other.

Cornthicus, a Latin Poet and Cap-

C O R

thence to take the Name of Cornwal. For a long time it was the Storehouse of Tin to the World, till in 1240 there were other Mines of it found in Misna and Bebeane by a Cornish-man. The Soil of this Country is tolerably fruitful, but Mountainous. In some Rocks they find a sort of Precious Stone, call'd the Cornish Diamond, sharp and polish'd by Nature, and many times as big as a Walnut; only not so hard as a Diamond of the right kind. The Inhabitants are the Relicks of the Old Britains, and still retain their Language. It was by Edward II. in 1335 made a Dukedom, and given to his Son Edward; and has ever since belong'd to the eldest Son of the K. of England, who is born Duke of Cornwall. This County sends 2 Knights to Parliament, who now are the Honourable John Granville, and James Buller, Esquires.

Cornwallis (Sir John) descended

C O R

Succeeded by Charles his Son, and he by the present Charles Cornwallis, Baron Cornwallis of Eyre, and Baronet.

Cora, a T. of S. America, with a Bishop's See suffragan of S. Domingo, situate upon the Sea, in a very fruitful Soil, and mild and pleasant Air, belonging to the Spaniards.

Cormandel, a Country of the Peninsula on this side the Ganges in the Kingdom of Narsinga; so called from the abundance of Rice it produces. This Country is divided into several Provinces.

Corn, a T. of the Murea to the S. upon the Gulph of Corn. It has very good Walls with great Towers, which tho' built after the old way of Fortification, yet by the Hardness of the Rock, and Solidness of the Work, are of great Defence. The Venetians took it from the Turks with a Rich Booty, in 1685.

Coronis, Daughter of Phlegon, was belov'd by Apollo, who being Jealous of her, shot her to death with an Arrow. The Crow that acquainted Apollo with Coronis's Crime, had its Feathers changed from White to Black, for telling Tales out o' th School.

Curtea (Thomas) born at Coimbra in Portugal, was one of the most eminent Grammarians in the 16 Cent. He taught School at Palermo, at Rome, at Bononia, and gained himself a great Reputation, by his Poetry, his Treatises of Rhetorick, and great Learning.

Corsica, is a considerable Island in the Mediterranean Sea, N. of Sardinia, belonging to the Venetians. Its Length from S. to N. is about 40 L. its Breadth 17, and its Circuit 90. The Corsi are good Soldiers, but mighty Cruel, Revengeful and unpolish'd. It's thought their Robbing and Pleading, has been the reason why they that commit such at Sea, are call'd Corsairs, as well as Pirates.

C O U

VI. annexing the

Corana, a T. of ages to this City, with a famous Sea Port. Co. Corporate, a Gulph in the N. part: Warwic, i. e. L. from Compostella. Its Port is convenient and well known, and the Town strong enough, being built on the side of a Hill, at the Foot whereof is another T.

Cosaques, a People that live near Poland, and had this Name given them from their extraordinary Nimbleness. They are generally Robbers and Pirates upon the Black Sea, and have sometimes had the boldness to advance within 2 L. of Constantinople, and carry'd off a Booty and some Prisoners. They sometimes side with the Poles and Russians against the Turks and Tartars; but change as oft as they can find advantage by it. Their Language is a Dialect of the Polish Tongue, full of Diminutives and pleasant Expressions. The common sort are of the Greek Church, but the greater part of their Gentry are either Papists or Protestants.

Cosenza, a T. of Italy in the higher Calabria, with a large Bishop's See, being one of the principal Ts. in that Prov. near the R. Crats, 10 or 12 M. from the Ocean.

Cosimo (Peter) a famous Painter of Italy: He took great pleasure in representing Monsters and uncommon Sights; therefore much apply'd himself to Bacchanalia's, that he might have the liberty in painting Satyrs and Fawns, to shew extraordinary Shapes and Actions.

Cosmography, i. e. a Description of the World; from which Geography differs as a part from the whole; as this also does from Chirography, Topography and Hydrography as a whole from the part; being an aggregate of all these three together, which borrows from the First the Description of particular Provinces, Countries, Kingdoms and Regions; From the Second the Description of

C O S

C Knight and Poet Emp. Augustus, Mountains, and made him cos; and from the but being 1. Seas and Rivers.

C d Exorte, Author of an excellent work of Physick and Chymistry, which Michael Sendivogius would have ascribed to himself, whereas in truth the Cosmopolite was an English man.

C mus, the first of that name,
 Grand Duke of Tuscany, was Son to John II. made Duke by Pope Pius V.
 in spite of the Emperor Maximilian, and of Philip II. R. of Spain, in 1545. He founded the University of Pisa, to forward Liberal Sciences, and died in 1574, in the 55 Y. of his Age. C mus II. Great Duke of Tuscany, Son to Ferdinand, whom he succeeded in 1609. A Prince of singular Merit, but very sickly, and died in 1621. C mus III. Great Duke of Tuscany, Son to Ferdinand II.
 whom he succeeded in 1670, who marry'd Margaret Louisa of Orleans, and a the now Reining Prince Col-

C O T

C Co. of Brisac, re-established litary Discipline, reform'd tes, and accusom'd the Soldiers fatigues, by obliging them always well arm'd, and obey'd their Officers.

C Costa-Rica, a Prov. of A Septentrionalis in new Spain, & the most Eastern parts of the erce, or the Government of mala, between the Black and Pacific Seas.

C Coste des dents, or the Ivory is a part of the Coast of Gu Africa, betwixt the Cape of and the Cape of Three & whither the English, French, &
ders, &c. traffick for the Ele Teeth, besides Skins, Wax, and bergrease.

C Coste d'Or, or the Golden another part of the Coast of Luar Country, so called for quantity of Gold they find up
 It is about 120 L. long, refrom the Cape of Three

C O V

Sir Robert Cotton, Founder of the Noble Library that bears his Name at Westminster. This Family has for some years been seated at Connington in Huntingtonshire, and are descended from the Bruces of the Blood loyal of Scotland by the Mother's side; and by many Honourable Alliances have flourish'd in the Quality of the Upper Gentry long before the time of K. Edward III.

Coventry, (Thomas) born in Worcestershire, descended from John Coventry Mercer, and Lord Mayor of London. He was of the Society of the Inner Temple London, the K's Serjeant at Law, and afterward one of the Justices of the Court of Common Pleas. His Son Thomas pursuing his steps, was in the 18 of James I. made the K's Attorney General. In 1. of Charles I. he was advanced to the eminent Office of Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England, and in the 4 of Car. I. Dignified with the Degree of a Baron of this Realm, by the Title of Lord Coventry of Ailesborough in Com. Wigorn. Thomas his Son and Heir succeeded him, and departing this Life in 1662, was succeeded by George Lord Coventry, and he by the present Thomas Earl of Coventry, and Baron of Ailesborough in the Co. of Worcester.

Coventry, a C. in Warwickshire, seated on the Sherburn, a small Stream, which not far from hence runs into the R. Avon. It is of no great Antiquity; but neat, strong, rich, and populous, by employing several Manufactories; and the pleasantness of the Situation, which causes it to be much resorted to. It is also a Bp. See in conjunction with Litchfield, under the A. Bp. of Canterbury. It has 3 Churches; the Priory or Covent (whence the name of Coventry) was the most Ancient Foundation of the City, being built by Canutus the Dane; and the Cross may be reckon'd among the finest of England. Henry VI. annexing the adjacent T. and Villages to this City, made it with them a Co. Corporate, distinct from that of Warwic, shire. It is 74 m. from London, it is (as the Privilege of sending 2 Citizens to Parliament; who now are, Sir Christ. Hales, Bar. and Th. Gery, Esq;

C O U

Coulam, a T. and K. of the Indies in the Peninsula on this side the Ganges, upon the Coast of Malabar. This City has been considerable, rich, well peopled, and extraordinary flourishing by reason of its Commerce; but of late years Sands have stop't up the Mouth of the Harbour, that Goa and Calecut have most of its former Trade. There are many Christians in it.

Coulour, a Borough of the K. of Golconda. Near it is a Diamond Mine, discovered by a poor Man about 100 years ago, who digging in a small spot of ground, he found a Diamond that weighed about 25 Carats, whereas the greatest that were found thereabouts before weighed but 10 or 12 Carats. So this spread all over the Country, and the Ablest of the Borough sent to dig that Ground, and found a great Number, some weighing above 45 Carats, and one that after it was workt, weighed 280 Carats.

Council, this Name taken in general, signifies an Assembly of Prelates, that confer about, and decide what belong to Religion, and Ecclesiastical Discipline. Of these are 3 Kinds. 1. General. 2. National. 3. Provincial. Papists count 18 general Councils: but Protestants allow only 6. The 2 best Editions of them are, that of the Lowre, consisting of 37 Volumes in Folio. In 1670, Labee and Cossartus Jesuits, publish'd a new Edition of Councils, in 17 Vol. Fol. which is one fourth larger than the Lowre Edition; and besides, they have likewise run a Critick upon a great many Authors.

COU

and made very many judicious Remarks upon abundance of Places which wanted explanation.

Curland, a Duchy between the Baltick and Sergetia, a Prov. of the K. of Poland, and Livonia. Goldschen is its Capital, and the T. of Mitau the ordinary Residence of the Dukes. This Country belonged formerly to the Teutonic Order; but Sigismund Augustus K. of Poland in 1571, forced Gthardus Ketter, Master of that Order, to Renounce his Right to it, and hold it together with Semigalia as a Fee of the Crown of Poland, so that ever since it has been Separated from Livonia, and annexed to that Crown, tho' still in the possession of the Family of the Ketter.

Courtenay (Josselinde) Count of Esteffa, famous for his virtue and great Courage, who being Sick and Wounded, and leaving his Son refuse to encounter the Souldan of Ismael's Army, made himself be put

COW

Cowzola, an Island with a T. of the same Name, upon the Coasts of Dalmatia, with a B. Sadragan of the A. of Ragusa, now belonging to the Rep. of Venice, very conveniently seated, for it serves them for an Arsenal to build and refit their Ships, being all covered with very good Timber.

Cowes, a noted Harbour at the Entrance of the Creek that goes to Newport in the Isle of Wight, fortified with a Castle.

Cowley (Abraham) born in London, in 1618. was educated in Westminster School, and Trinity College in Cambridge, where his Progresses in Learning were very promising. At the beginning of the War his Loyalty drew him to Oxford, the E. Head Quarters, where he continued his Studies with Reputation. He attended the Queen, when she was forced to retire into France, in whose service he was above twelve Years absent from his Native Country.

C R A

IF in his Mistresses, that were wrote in his younger Days, he took an unwarrantable Freedom, his Muse was more Religious, and better Governed in his latter Years. He lived about 50 Years, and dying was buried near Chancer, and Spencer in Westminster-Abby.

Cracow, or Cracovia, is the Capital City of Poland, and stands on the R. Weya (Vistula) about 40 Polish m. from Presburg to the N. E. and 85 from Dantzick S. It is a B. See, under the A. of Gnezna: there belongs to it a strong Castle built upon a Rock, with vast Suburbs, and an University opened in 1401. by Uladislaus K. of Poland. The Palatinate of Cracovia, which belongs to this City (and is one of the 3 that make up the lesser Poland) has Silesia on the W. Hungary on the S. Sandomiria on the E. and the Palatinate of Siradia on the N. This City was taken by the Swedes in the War under Charles II. K. of Sweden, in 1655. It is stiled the Rome of Poland for its Excellency. They tolerate the Jews wearing a distinct Habit. In the T. are between 50 and 60 Churches.

Craford, the Title of an Earl, Chief of the Lindseys, an Ancient and Honourable Family in Scotland, which according to Cambden have been Earls about 400 Years. James II. being at variance with his Nobility, endeavoured to bring over some of them by Condescension, and conferring of Honours upon them; and amongst others he created David Lindsey Earl of Craford, Duke of Montross, because he was a powerful Man in his Country. The Papers and Records belonging to this great Family, having been squandred during the 8 years Imprisonment of the late Earl, for his adherence to the K. a fuller Account cannot now be given. The Present Earl lived in Retirement from all publick Affairs during the late Reigns, and suffered among others for his Nonconformity. But at the time of the Revolution, he was by His Majesties favour, and the People's choice, made President in all the chief Judicatories of the K. that of Common Pleas excepted; in all which Stations he behaved himself as a Loyal Subject, and a true Patriot to his Country. The Mansion-House of this Family is at Struthers, in Fife, and the Eldest Son bears the Title of Lord Lindsey.

C R A

Cranbourn, a m. T. in Dorsetshire, the Capital of its Hundred, seated near the Spring of a R. that runs into the Stowre. It is a T. of good Antiquity, having a Chase that extends almost to Salisbury, 85 m. from London.

Cranbrook, is a m. T. in Kent, in Surry Lath, seated at the Head of the R. Medway, 44. m. from London.

Cranmer (Thomas) born at Aslaeton in Nottinghamshire, in 1489. He was Son to Thomas Cranmer, Esq; a Gentleman of a very Ancient Family, and whose Ancestors came in with William I. His Son Thomas was Educated in Jesus Colledge in Cambridge, where he commenc'd Doctor of Divinity in 1523. The lawfulness of the Marriage between Henry VIII. and Q. Catharine of Spain, being made a Question, Cranmer took the K's side, and disputed for the Divorce. The K. being pleas'd with his way of arguing, commands him to Court, and afterwards sends him Ambassador to France, Italy, and Germany, where he managed the K. Affairs to his satisfaction, and upon the Death of A. Warham sends for him home, and makes him A. of Canterbury. He pronounces the Sentence of Divorce against Q. Catharine, and marries the K. to Anne of Bulluign. He disputes against the Pope's Supremacy in Parliament: Moves for the Tran-

C R A

Translation of the Bible, and promotes the Dissolution of Monasteries: Projecting an Erection of New Bishopricks out of the Revenues of those Religious Houses. These steps towards a Reformation occasion'd him many Enemies, especially from the Prebendaries of Canterbury, and the Justices of the Peace of the Co. of Kent; and afterward by one Sir John Gostwick of the House of Commons, whose Information being false and scandalous, he was obliged to submit to the A. and ask his Pardon; but all these did but sleep till Q. Mary's coming to the Crown, and then finding encouragement, the whole Band of Papists conspire his Ruin. He is attainted of Treason, and sent to the Tower, and from thence to Oxford, where after a publick Disputation about Religion, he is condemned for a Heretick, and being degraded by the Pope's Delegates, appeals to a General Council; soon after he is prevail'd upon to accept of his Principles: but order'd and so his great Design dist him.

C R A

Crassus, (Lucius) an Ex Orator mention'd by Cicero, liv'd about 50 Years before a viour. Crassus (Marcus Lic a Roman Consul, descended Noble Family, was Son of a C. He made an Inventory of his and found he was worth 700 talents, that is, 4260000 Crowns ordinary saying was as Cicero serv'd, that he esteem'd no man but he that could maintain an He went through all the greeces in the Roman Com. We. Avarice was so insatiable, shining in Syria, he plunder'd Temple at Jerusalem, and c an inestimable Booty out of in 700. His Covetousness put at last upon a fatal War again Parthians, for his Son Marc killed almost in his sight, a himself lost his life in 701 of It is said that the Parthians cut off his Head and carry'd wounded his Father, of which wound he died. Althemes, finding what he had done, prayed the Gods that he might not survive his Father, so the Earth open'd and swallow'd him.

Crates, Disciple of Diogenes the Cynick, having a desire to devote himself to the study of Philosophy, threw all his money into the Sea; others say he put it into Bankers hands, with orders to give it to his Children, if they should chance to have no Wit; but if they should have any, and become Philosophers, he should distribute it among the People, because his Children would then have no occasion for it.

Cratespolis, Alexander's Wife, tyrant of Sicyone, whom the Sicyonians would have dethroned; but she put her self at the Head of an Army, defeated the Rebels, hang'd about 40 of the most Seditious, and so revenged her husband's Death, whom they had murdered, and made her self dreaded by the disobedient.

Cratippe, Cratippus, a Greek Historian, contemporary with Thucydides, who made a Collection of what the other had omitted, as Dionysius of Halicarnassus, observes in his Critick upon Thucydides.

Craven, (William) the Son and heir of Sir William Craven, Knight, Merchant-Taylor, and Lord Mayor of London, in 1611. 9. Jac. I. in his youth much affecting Military Exercises, was sent to the Wars of Germany, by K. Charles I. where he served under Gustavus Adolphus, and afterwards in the Low Countries under the Prince of Orange, wherein he gained so much honour, that at his return, K. Charles advanced him to the Degree and Dignity of a Baron of this Realm, by the title of Lord Craven, of Hamsted-Marshal, in Berkshire, 2 Car. I. with remainder for want of Male-Issue of his Body, to John and Thomas Craven, his Brothers successively, and to the Heirs-Male of their Bodies. And for his faithful services during the civil Wars, was advanced by K. Charles II. in the 16 of his Reign to the title of Viscount Craven, of Uffington in Berkshire, and Earl of Craven, in the Co. of York; and because his Brothers were dead without Issue, with remainder of that title of Lord Craven of Hamsted-Marshal, for want of Issue of his own Body lawfully begotten, to Sir William Craven of Lenchwife in Worcestershire, Kt. and to the Heirs-Male of his Body: And for default of these, to Sir Anthony Craven, Kt. his Brother; and the Issue-Male of his Body: And afterwards by reason that the Issue-Male of Sir William Craven of Lenchwife, Kt. was then extinct, in case of Failure of Issue-Male from the before named Sir Anthony Craven, Kt. by other Letters-Patents, bearing date 17, Charles II. obtained a farther grant, that the title of Lord Craven of Hamsted-Marshal, should remain unto Sir William Craven Kt. Son to Sir Thomas Craven, Brother to the said Anthony, and to the Heirs-Male, of his Body for ever. Which honour is enjoyed by the present William Craven, Lord, Craven, of Hamsted-Marshal, in the Co. of Berks.

Credi, (Lorenzo di) a famous Painter of Florence, who setting himself to imitate the Works of Leonardo de Vinci, his copies were so fine, that 'twas hard to distinguish them from Originals.

Crediton, a m. T. in Devonshire, once a Bishop's See, till Edward the Confessor translated it to Exeter. 'Tis situate in a good Soil, has a considerable Trade for Serges, and is 148 m. from London.

Crekelade, a m. T. in Wiltshire in the Hundred of Highbworth, which returns two Burgesses to Parliament; who are now, Edmund Dunch, and Sir Steven Fox, Kt.

Crekins,

C R E

Crellius, the most esteemed Unitarian, next to vanus. He was born in a Village near Nuremberg, in 1500, and settled at Racovia, in Poland, where the Sejmians had a School, in which he became Professor, and was afterwards made Doctor. He has writ several Tracts, in Theology, and a Book of Morals, and therein among other things maintains, that it is lawful for Men to bear the Wives.

Cremi, a T. of Italy, in the State of Lombardy, with a B. erected by Pope Gregory XIII. and Suffragan of Bologna, situate upon the R. Serio, which on the Borders of Milano joins the Adige. Its fine Palace, its Castle, and other Fortifications make it Considerable.

Cremenza, a Castle, or Palace of the great D. of Modena, in the T. of Modena, environ'd with 3 Walls, and furnish'd with Cannon. Its Situation is such, that it may pass for a strong one, tho' it is a greater.

C R E

Town Disch that is about 500 paces Round. It borders upon the D. of Parma, 42 m. from Manza to the E. and the same distance from Milan to the S. E. Its Castle is very strong, and its Tower very High. Most of the Streets are large, and straight, beautified with good Buildings, magnificent Churches, and large Squares. It has been often ruin'd and rebuilt, but at present is a strong Rich and Populous City, inhabited by curious Architects, who have been taken through Europe, for exceeding others, especially for the best Violins, and other stringed musical Instruments. It has a good University, and the Territory, belonging to it, is a fruitful and delicious Plain. The French and Modenois besieged this City in 1648, but were not able to take it, and Prince Engene surpris'd it in Febr. 1701.

Crempon, or Crempten, a little T. of Holstein, in the Prov. of Stargard, that belongs to the K. of Denmark.

C R E

Don. Philipin, Bastard of Spain, whom he killed in 1599. He killed by a Cannon-Ball at Cre-

Francis Crequi, Marechal of France, Governour of Metz, and Lieutenant General of his Majesty's Armies, was a Scholar as well as a Soldier, and gave sufficient proof of his Valour and Conduct. Crecentius, (Marcellus) Cardinal of Marsica, in the R. of Naples, Julius III's Legate in the Council of Trent; his sickness was said proceed from a Fright. He said he saw a dog with a terrible Mouth, fiery Eyes, and Ears, lying down, that came to him as if he were mad, which threw him into a Delirium; and when he was dying, he cryed out, have care of that dog that is getting into the Bed.

Crispin, or Crispin, (John) born Ames, understood the Law, and the Police part of Learning very well; was Advocate to the Parliament, making an Acquaintance with Rich., he turned Protestant, and retired to Geneva, in 1647, and was re'd to go to Service to maintain himself.

Crete, or Creet, an Island of the Mediterranean, to the S. of the Aege-

Sea, now called the Isle of Candia, to the S. of the Archipelago. The Inhabitants are not oblig'd to Florians, who give them very bad Characters; for they say, they are Pirates, Cheaters, and so covetous, that Gain was welcome to them, however they came by it.

Creusa, Daughter of Creon, R. of Athens, was married to Jason, which troubled Medea, his cast off Wife, not to be reveng'd, she destroy'd several of the Royal Family by witch craft.

Crew, (John) of Stene in the Co. of Northampton, Esq; Son and heir to Str. — Crew, Kt. one of the Judges at Law to R. Charles I. being descended from the Ancient Family of Crew, in the Co. Palatin of Chester, by contributing with no small hazard his best endeavours, in order to the happy Restoration of R. Charles II. was in the 13. Y. of that Prince's Reign advanc'd to the Degree of a Baron of this R. by the Title of Lord Crew of Stene, which Honour is now enjoy'd by Nathaniel Crew, Baron Crew of Stene, Bishop of Durham, Kt.

C R I

Crim, a T. of the lesser Tartary, which was also called Crim Tartary. It comprehends all the Peninsula, which the Ancients called Chersonesus Taurica, and was inhabited by the Cimmerians.

Crinas, or Critias, a famous Physician, and Astrologer of Marseilles, liv'd in Nero's time, and got so much money, that he allowed a Million to environ the City with a Wall, and left another considerable Sum to repair others.

Criolles, a Name which was given to the Families descended of the first Spaniards, that settled in Mexico in America.

Criticks, a Name given to those that pretend to pass their Judgments on the Productions of Wit, who often become the Objects of some People's laughter, and of others compassion, for being more passionate in censuring, than wise in judging, for want of Capacity; for those that intend to gain credit by their Criticks, should be Masters of several rare Qualities, that are hardly met with in one single Person; the most important is Judgment, to discern between Truth and Falshood, and between Good and Evil; besides this, he must be universally learned and sincere, exempt of Prejudice and Prevention; for otherwise, instead of inheriting the Honour of Aristarchus, they will fall under the Reproach of Zillus.

C R O

Critolaus, a Greek Historian, rendered his Name very famous by a Treatise of the Epicks, cited by Plutarch in his third Book. Critolaus, Son of Reamachus, was Eldest of the three Brothers, that fought against the three Sons of Damastus, which decided the Quarrel between the Citizens of Tegae, and Plene, a Town in Acadia. Both Critolaus's Brothers were kill'd, after they had wounded their Adversaries, but Critolaus kill'd his Man called Damastus, and then made an end of the other two that were wounded, but as he return'd victorious, his Sister Dandae, that was married to Damastus, refusing to congratulate his Victory, with the rest of the Inhabitants of Tegae, so vex'd him, that he kill'd her on the place. His Murder appeared against him, and he was put to the Torture. Tegae could not seem to be brought to any Union, who had but the same Father, and

C R O

Crocus, a young Man, who falling desperately in love with the Nymph Smilax, was changed into the Herb Saffron, and she into the Ten-Tree.

Croesus, K. of Lydia, who possessed great Wealth and Treasure, and sent some Wedges of Gold for an Offering to Apollo, as a Reward for his Oracles. He was taken Prisoner by Cyrus, and condemned to be burnt alive; being brought to the place of Execution, and lying upon the Pile of Wood, he cried out Solon, Solon, and having repeated those words three times, Cyrus asks what God he was calling upon; he answered that Solon was a Philosopher, who fore-told him this Misfortune; whereupon he commanded the Fire to be put out, but they could not do it. Then Croesus called upon Apollo, and a sudden Rain fell which put out all the Fire.

Croce, a Name given the Christian Expedition, against the Infidels, for the Conquest of the Holy

C R O

ing of Cardinal Wolsey. Afteri preferred unto the service
E. Henry VIII. where his first was to Master of the R. Jewel- ie: Then advanced to the deof a Peer, Master of the Rolls, er of the Privy Seal, Vicar val, and Lord Vicegerent in Ecastical affairs, Earl of Essex, and of the Garber. He is said to : given too much encouragement ills of Attainder, without bring-the Persons to their Answers: and ell afterwards himself by those us methods of Justice. He Arrested for high Treason in the neil-Chamber by the Duke of olk, committed to the Tower, tinted for Heresy and Treason, lt of Parliament, and Behead- n Tower-Hill, July 28. 1540.

Cromwell, (Oliver) born in 1599, at tingdon, Descended of a Gentle-ily in that Country. He study'd e little time at Cambridge, and elst-Inn; but without much imement either in Learning or Law.
Youth was at first unmanage-
, and Leud; then he pretended eform, and set up for a Puritan.
en the Rebellion broke out, he made a Captain of Horse under Earl of Essex; but run away at e-Hill, and had like to have been e: Tho' to do him Justice, he rwards appear'd a Man of Con-
. His Zeal and Successes pre-
'd him to the Post of Leinte- t-General, to the Earl of Man- ster. The King being brought his Tryal, Cromwell was one of High Court of Justice; and af-the K. was Murder'd, was sent wal into Ireland, in 1649. Com-back to England, he is made Ged in the room of the Lord Fair-
. He turns the Parliament out of ers, and makes himself Protector:
en by his Creatures, he started Project of being made King, but it not venture on it. Then finding discontents fomented in the Army by Lambert's Gang, he falls into the Spleen at Hampton-Court, and Dies at White-Hall, Sept. 3. 1658.

C R O

Cromwell, (Richard) Oliver's Eldest Son, being named by him for his Successor before his Death, was by Order of the Privy-Council proclaimed Lord Protector. He was addressed by the generality of the Nation, who promised to stand by him with their Lives and Fortunes;
but he had no sooner solemniz'd his Father's Funeral, which cost near 60000 l. but he found himself involved in abundance of trouble by the Officers of the Army, and for want of Courage to handle them roughly at first, as his Father used to do, they assumed the Power to Discard him, and so Richard retired into the Country to a private Life, where he has lived ever since.

Cronenberg, a considerable Castle,
in the Isle of Zealand, in Denmark, upon the Sand, 5. m. from Copen- hagen, near the Town of Elfsenur, is a Defence against any Invasion, either by the Ocean, or the Baltick Sea: yet the Swedes, took it in 1659, but restor'd it again.

Cross, the most cruel, and disgraceful of all Torments, and Deaths.
The Romans lookt upon it as so vile a Punishment, that Cicero, imputes it as a Crime to Verres, that he Crucified a Roman, Citizen.

Crown, was first a Mark of Victo- ry, and afterward of Dignity; of which there were several sorts among the Ancient Romans. The Triumphal Crown, which at first was made of Laurel, but alterwards some were made of Gold.
The Oval Crown, allowed to them that had the Honour of the Little Triumph, and was made of Myrtle, and some Laurel. The Obsidional Crown, presented to him that raised the Seige, and was made of the Green Grass, that grew within the T. The

CRU

Cruick Crown, due to a Citizen that saved his fellow Citizens. The Mural Crown, due to him that first Sealed the Wall, and entered a Besieged T. this was made of Gold. There was also one called Castrensis, for him that first entered the Enemies Camp: With a Natal Crown of Gold, for him that first Boarded the Enemies Ships. And now there are Imperial, Regal, and Sovereign Crowns, according to the Custom of several Countries, which are peculiar Marks of Dignity.

Croxton, a M. T. in Surrey, the Capital of its Hundred, 9 m. from London; where there is a good Free-School, and an Hospital, both Founded by Archbishop Whitgift.

Cramm, K. of the Bulgarians, in 811, who overcoming Nicephorus, Emp. of Constantinople, killed him, and exposed his head upon a Gibbet, then he made a Cup of his Skull, and covered it with Silver, that his Successors as well as himself might make

CUL

Culembach, upon the Mein, a little T. of Germany in Francia situate between Bamberg, and Coburg; it gives its name to the Marquiss of Culembach of the House of Brandenburg.

Culpeper, (Sir John) a Person of great abilities, and known Loyalty, was by K. Charles I. constituted Chancellor of the Exchequer, afterward Master of the Rolls, and one of his Majesties privy Council. In consideration of his good Service during the War, he advanced him in the 20 Y. of his reign to the Dignity of a Baron of this Realm, by the title of Lord Culpeper of Thoresway in the Co. of Lincoln, who was succeeded by his Son Thomas, and he by John Culpeper, Baron Culpeper, of Thoresway.

Cumberland, is the farthest Co. in England, N. W. Devided N. from Scotland, bounded E. with Northumberland, and Westmorland, S. with Lancashire, and W. with the Irish Sea.

C U R

his Royal Highness, Prin. George of Denmark, created by K. William III. Baron of Ockingham, E. of Kendal, and D. of Cumberland, April. 10. 1689. This Comends 2 Kts. to Parliament, who are now Sir Edward Hessel, Kt. and George Fletcher, Esquire.

Cumea, a Sibyl, called Italique, because she prophesied in Italian, of several things concerning our Saviours Birth; so that Julian the Apostate observing her Books did not favour him, he burnt them.

Cunegunda, descended of the Count Palatine, was married to the Emp. Henry II. with whom she lived in perpetual Virginity. Its said that to convince that Prin. of the wrong opinion he conceived of her life, she walked upon burning Coals, or as others say, held a burning Iron in her hand. After the Emp. Death which happened in 1024, she spent the remainder of her life which was 16 Y. in a Convent of Nuns, founded by her self.

Cunibert, Son of Petavic, King of the Lombards, was Associated to the Government, about 680, and Reigned after his Father in 689, Alahri, D. of Trent, whose life he had saved sometime before, Revolted against him in 691, and made himself Master of Paris; but lost his life in a Battle fought in 694, after which the K. reigned peaceably until he died, in 701.

Cunina, a Goddess, who according to ancient Pagans, had the care of Young Children in their Cradles.

Cupido, a Deity which the Ancients thought did Preside over Love.

Curdes, Inhabitants of Curdistān, who have also spread over Mesopotamia, Armenia, and Syria: they are under the Protection of the K. of Persia, and their Language resembles the Persian very much.

Curio, a Roman Orator, that lived in Julius Caesar's time. He was naturally Eloquent, and his sentences were very instructive: Tacitus, says he was one of those that reap'd the Fruit of their Studies, and that Claudius, and he received great Sums for Pleading. Suetonius adds, that in one of his Orations he called Cæsar, every Woman's Husband, and every man's Wife.

C U S

Caribairs, are 5 small Islands over against the Mouth of the Gulph of Lepanto, formerly called that of Corinth. Near these Islands, the Christians gained the famous Battle, of Lepanto, against the Turks, in 1571.

Curson, or Curtan, (Robert) an English-man, who lived in the 16 Cent. He studied first at Oxford, and from thence went to Paris, where he made such a happy progress in Learning, that he was made Chancellor of that University. Pope Innocent III. gave him a Cardinal's Hat, with a Commission to publish the Croisade in France; from whence he came into England, on the same business; and being afterward sent as Legate into the E. he died at Damietta, in 1218.

Curtius, (Quintus) a Roman Gentleman, who lived in the 292 Y. of Rome. 'Tis said that upon perceiving a great Gulph in the middle of the Forum at Rome, which made an Impression upon the People, and seemed to presage Misfortune, and understanding likewise by the Oracle, that this Chasm, could not be filled up, unless the Romans, would be at the expence of throwing the most valuable thing they had into it, Curtius concluding that his own Valour was the best thing in the Town, he Arms himself as for the field, Mounts, and clapping Spurs to his Horse, Gallops into the Abyss, upon which the ground closed again immediately.

Cusco, a T. of S. America, in Peru, which the Spaniards, took from the Natives, and found immense Treasure in it, lockt up in Caves, and hid in Holes of the Earth; the Air here is somewhat cold but healthful, and they want nothing that is necessary for the Support of Life.

C U T

Cuthbert, A. of Canterbury, died in 704. He published the Acts of a Synod, held under him in 747. His other Writings were an Epistle to Pope Zacharias, and a discourse on the Virtues, of great men.

Cutler, (Sir Gervase) of Stainber-Hall, in Yorkshire. This Family in former times wrote Coteler. The first of this Name since William the I. was of Saxon Extraction, and was for sometimes forc'd to be disguis'd under another name upon the Norman invasion. This Sir Gervase in the time of K. Charles I. rais'd a considerable number of men at his own charge, to serve the K. against the Rebellion, and convey'd almost 1000 l. worth of Plate to Pontefract Castle for his Majesties Service. After his decease his Lady was oblig'd to compound twice her Crowned with Towers, with a Key in her hand, clad in flowred Stuff, and placed upon a chair drawn by four Lyons. The Pine-Tree was consecrated to her, after Atis whom she loved so well was metamorphos'd into it.

C Y C

Cyclades, Islands of the Aegean Sea called the Archipelago, because they make a Circle in the Sea round about the Isle Delos, where they say Apollo and Diana were born.

Cycle of the Sun, a Revolution of 28 Y. after which the Y. adjust'd to the Sun, by the Preceeding Bisextile, begins at the same day of the Week, as Sunday, Monday, &c. To apprehend this, it must be known that the ordinary Y. consisting of 365 Days, making 52 Weeks, and one day, makes the last day of the year to be the same with the first, and the following begins with another day than the preceeding began with. If there was no change but this, the Cycle of the Sun should is sooner than in the present. This Cycle, consists of Y. in which are 7 Embolus Months inserted, which 35 Lunar Months, that 139 days, 16 Hours, 39 Minutes 19 Solar Y. according to the Calendar, make 6939 1 18 Hours; whence it follows this Cycle, of 19 Y. of 16 of the Moon, is less by about four and a half; but this was 1 by the Gregorian Calendar; four and a half being necessary an Anticipation of 4 that the new Moon was by the Golden Number four soon, in such a manner, 1 Rules established for the of Easter, were not rightly

CYN

1, the first inhabitants of a monstrous or Gigantic as appeared by the Bones several Tombs. They were 1, and kept about Mount which gave Poets, occasion them Vulcan's Smiths, who 1 them in making Jupiter's bolts.

1, a R. of Asia Minor in where the Water is so very it had like to have killed 1 the great by washing in 1 as some Writers affirm, Emp. Frederick Barbarossa return from the E. in

1, one of the chief T. of the Dnie, first called Apollonia; called Candia.

Daughter to Philip II. R. 1, and Sister to Alexander L. She married Amintas Son 1, Decar III. lawful Heir to 1, that Philip usurped.

1, a Courageous and Heroick 1, commanded Armies, won 1, killed the Q. of the 1, with her own hands. After 1, Alexander's Death, that his Possessions might not fall to her Children, that she had by Perdiccas, she opposed his Pretensions, who at length contrived her Death.

CYP

Cynics, a Sect of Philosophers founded by Antisthenes of Athens, who lived in the XCIV. Olympiad: his Sect grew famous by the Reputation of his Disciples, Diogenes and Menippus of Syracuse. It took its name from the place Antisthenes taught in, without the Gates of Athens, called Kynosarges, though some have been pleased to say since, that the too Free or Canine way the Cynicks lived, was occasion of the name; but the People of this Profession did but laugh at the injurious Title, and Diogenes, made very pleasant Repartees to those that thought to affront him with it. Thus he asked Alexander the great, when he came to see him, whether he was not afraid the Dog would bite him? They applied themselves to the Study of Morality; yet nothing was more biting and offensive, than their Conversation. They held that god was Good in all places, and therefore that 'twas Lawful to Eat, drink, or perform natural Actions like Brutes in the Street, and that all things were common among Friends. Hipparchus suffer'd Crates to lye with her in a full company; and Diogenes is accused of the like indecencies. Yet several Authors excuse their Faults.

Cynopolis, a T. of Egypt, in the E. part of the Nile, where Anubis a God of the Egyptians, was Adored, and Dogs were kept at the charge of the Publick. Kynos signifies, the T. of Dogs.

St. Cyprian (Cicillius) B. of Carthage lived in the 3d. Cen. and succeeded Donatus, or Agrippinus A.D. C. 248. His birth was Noble, and he taught Rhetorick with great applause before his Conversion to the Faith of Jesus Christ, which was occasioned by a Friend of his his called Cacilius, in gratitude to whom he took his name. During the Emp. Decius's Persecut. of the Christians, he shewed all possible Zeal in the Defence of his flock; and after, lying hid in a secure place, he supplied the wants of his People by his Letters full of Piety, and Instruction. He suffered Martyrdom during the Persecution of Valerian, and Galienus, in 258, or 261 as Baronius will have it. The best Edition of St. Cyprian's Works, is that of Doctor John Hall Lord B. of Oxford, which was Printed in England and Germany. This has in the beginning of it the Life of St. Cyprian, Entituled, Annales Cyprianici, Written by Dr. John Pearson, Lord B. of Chesler.

C Y P

Cyprus, an Island of the Mediterranean Sea, called by the Turks and Arabs Kubres, about 60 M. N. from the Seas of Asia and Arabia, extended in Length from E. to W. 220 m. and is in Circum about 50. This Island is so very fruitful, netians, possessed themselves In 1560, Selim the grand took it from them; whole Sue have enjoyed it to the present. There are three considerable it it, viz. Merowe, W. S. Famagusta, E. and about Villages.

C Y R

Cyrano Bergerac, a French of a very particular Character flourish'd in the last Age. born in Gascony, in 1620. his a good Gentleman, would have him a Scholar; but his inclination to Arms, put him a Cadet into a Regiment of Guards: Here his Courage and Readiness to fight with his Friends, made him soon known the frequent Duels he was in, as Second. This, and some other desperate Actions, got him the Name of Intrepid, and the D Courage. He was shot through the Body at the Siege of Mouzan ran through the Neck at the of Arras, in 1640; but what mans, in 1558, and in process of time fell to the Arabians, and at last to the Turks.

C Y R

Cyreneans, a Sect of Philosophers, so called from their Founder Aristippus of Cyrene, Scholar of Socrates, who liv'd in the XCVI Olympiad. These would have two motions in the Soul, Grief and Pleasure; thought all Pleasures were alike, and esteem'd Vertue no otherwise, than as it conduced to Sensuality.

St. Cyril, Patriarch of Alexandria, famous for his Piety and Doctrine, lived in the V Age, and in 412 succeeded Theophilus his Mother's Brother. He began to exercise his Episcopacy with great Authority, and put St. Chrysostom's Name into the Ecclesiastical Records at Atticus's, and St. Isidore's Request. He presided at the General Council of Ephesus, in 431, wherein Nestorius was condemned. And afterwards wrote against Theodorus of Mopsuestia, Diadorus of Tbarsus, and Julian the Apostate: And after writing many other Books, died in 453. We have his Works both Greek and Latin, in VI Volumes.

Cyrus I. of this Name K. of Persia, was Son to Cambyses, a Person of mean Condition, and Mandane's Daughter of Astyages, K. of the Medes; he was exposed to be devoured in a Forest by his Grandfather's Order, who was told, that one of his Grandchildren should dethrone him. Harpagus who was sent to execute the Command, preserv'd and got him brought up in a Shepherd's House; so that afterwards at the Head of some rebellious Subjects, he pull'd Astyages off the Throne, and gave beginning to the Persian Monarchy, founded upon the Ruin of that of the Medes. This happened in the 55 Olympiad, 559 Y. before Jesus Christ. After this his great Conquests made his way to the Crown. After these ex-plots he set the Jews at Liberty after 70 Y. Captivity, and gave them leave to return into their Country, and Rebuild the City and Temple of Jerusalem. Theodoret says, that Daniel shew'd him his Name in Isaiab, and the Prediction of his Return. In the mean time, almost all Asia truckled to this mighty Conqueror; who making War against the Massagetes, defeated their Army by a Stratagem, with their General Spargapises, Q. Tomyris's Son; but this Princess coming her self sometime after with a mighty Army, routed the Persians, and got Cyrus's Head cut off, and plunging it into a Vessel full of Blood, bid it fill it self with what it so much thirsted for. His Death is generally put in the 224 or 5 of Rome 530 Y. before our Saviour, and the 9 of his Empire.

C Y T

Cyrus II. called the Young, Son to Darius, surnamed the Bastard, and younger Brother to Artaxerxes II. called Mnemon. This Prin. not satisfied with the Government of Asia, which his Father had given him, would deprive his Brother of the Crown, under Pretext, that he only was born since his Father was K. but was defeated in his first warlike Attempt.

Cythera, an Island of Greece, where Poets say, Venus was formed of the Froth of the Sea, and that is the Reason why she is called Cytheraea. The Inhabitants adored her in a sumptuous Temple, consecrated to her under the Name of Venus Urania.

Cyzicus K. of the Peninsula of the Propontis, treated the Argonauts sumptuously, who landed there as they went for the Golden Fleece. These Heroes having put to Sea, were beat back again upon the Coast at night by a Storm. Cyzicus taking them for Pirates, or Enemies oppos'd their landing, but was killed in the Engagement. Jason d. st. galling h.

E c c

c .

C Z A

the next day among the Dead, buried him honourably.

Czar, that shing, a Name the Russians give their Sovereign, whom we generally call Great D. of Muscovy. Beckman does not doubt, but they drew the Name from Cesar, hearing that the other People of Europe called him so, that was chosen to be their Emperour, they would have no meaner Title for theirs, who commanded a greater Country than Germany. Bajanus Son of John Basilides, under whom the Muscovites Power began to appear about 1470, was the first that assum'd the Name of Czar.

Czastaw, a T. of Babemia, one of the Prefectures of the Country, where is Guttenberg, and some other Boroughs. It's Big and well Peopled, lying upon the little R. called Czudinka.

Czenstebow, or Creschow, a little T. of Upper Poland in Lithuania, belonging to the Czar of Muscovy, it lies upon the R. Prut, in the Dis-

C Z Y

Cyrenitzersee, in Lages, a great Lake of Carniola, a Prov. of Germany towards Italy, stretching 4 m. between Woods and Mountains, very remarkable, because every Y. they Fish, Hunt, Sow and Reap Corn in it. About the Spring, small Brooks run down the Mountains into it. This Water lessens in its Course, because the open Earth soaks in a great part of it, the rest is received into Pits of Stone, which look as if they were cut by Art. When these are full, there happens a very strange thing; for the Water not only runs over, but all that they contain'd rushes out with extraordinary Violence and Rapidity, and the Brooks ceasing to run, all the Water forms a Lake, where in the deepest Places it's 8 Cubits, and in other places 4 Foot. Sometime after, this same Water returns into the Pits, whilst part of it is lost under Ground. It's then they Fish, and they that dwell near the Lake sell their Corn, and shew the Agathangabes, Governour of Spain under Justinian and Maximian, a persecutor of the Christians. Vincent and several others in the III. Cen.

D A G

Agave, a fruitful Plain in Peru betwixt the T. of Schirac and ending with Orange, Cit. Pomgranate Trees, some are so very large, that 3 scarcely grasp them, and unable in Height. The rest it produces good Rice and it is one of the most delicious and plentiful places in all

Agathema, an Ingenious Mechanic, who invented divers instruments, and curious Staircase Eyes moved so natural they seemed to have Life;

which rendered him most was, that being confined in prison under the Displeasure of Crete, he made himself some Artificial Wings, with which he escaped; but his Son not following his Direction fell into the Sea and was drowned. Some think this was only the use of which gave motion to Ships.

Agathangabes, a Country between the Alfragon to the N. and the Schirwan in Persia to the S. It is taken by Tartars under a Prince; in security against injury the means of inaccessible mountains: They live by robbing travellers, and stealing one another's children and selling them for slaves.

Agilbert, Son of Clotaire and Fredegunda, was during his Father's reign the IX. French K. He subdued the Britons and Gascons, and given Peace to France, died at Age, An. 638, or 644.

Agilbert II. surnamed the Young, Childebert the Just, was K. of

D A I

France, An. 711, in Name, but had not the Authority of a K. for that was usurped by the Majors of the Palace.

Dagobert, Son of Sigibert II. King of Austrasia, was deposed by Grimwald Mayor of the Palace, to set Childebert his own Son upon the Throne; but the People hating his Treachery, Dagobert was restored, An. 676, but afterwards assassinated by the Faction of Thierry I. K. of France.

Dagon the Philistin Idol, of Hamane Portraiture upwards, but downwards, the Legs excepted, resembled that of a Fish, with Scales and a Finny Tail turning upwards. The word in Hebrew signifies a Fish, and probably was the same with Neptune or Triton.

Daille, a celebrated Protestant Divine at Charenton near Paris in France; born at Chateleraut, Jan. 6. 1594. He was designed for a Layman, but his own Inclination led him to study at Poitiers and Saumur; and in 1619 was Tutor to the Grandchildren of the Sieur Philip de Pleffis Mornay, in Italy, Germany, Holland and England. At his return he was ordained a Protestant Minister and entertained by the Sieur de Pleffis, who died in his Arms not long after. He was afterward Minister of Saumur, then at Charenton, and died at Paris in April 1670, aged 77. His Integrity and great Learning gave him a valuable Character in the World.

Dailton, a French Family of which there have been many famous Protestants, Secular and Divine.

Dairo, the Name of the High Priest in the Empire of Japan, to whose Family the whole did anciently belong, till it was usurp'd by the Predecessors of the present Emperor. The Sanctity ascribed to the Dairo by these Pagans is so extraordinary, that his Feet must not touch the Ground, nor the Sun shine upon on his Head. He is never expos'd to the Air, nor hat's his Hair, Beard or Nails cut. His Food must always be carried to his Table in new Baskets, and put upon new Plates. When

DAL

When he goes abroad it is in a Litter retained by one of our Coarriers, while the Porter carries off Virly Gold, carrying to the Coarrier of the best Quality in his Coart. The Porter always march before, and the Coarrier follows with two Horses, while the Porter carries a Porter and a Porter of the Coarrier, while the Porter carries Virly and the Coarrier carries the Porter of the Coarrier, and the Porter carries the Coarrier.

[illegible]

DAL

the King's Service, for Aquitain (1292)
17 Ric. II. This Thomas married Beatrice, eldest of the three Daughters and Co. Heirs of Roger Wilverton, Junior, of Waverton Hall in Suffolke, by Elizabeth his Wife, Daughter and Heir of Robert Fitz Ralph, by another Elizabeth his Wife, Daughter and one of the two Co. Heirs to John (Son and Heir of St. Thomas) de Hoboken, by Maud, his Wife, Daughter to St. Robert de Roper, Rector of Beccles and Chancellor of Lincoln, prap. Ancestor to the Earl of Arundel and five viz counts Beauchamp, Lords Beauchamp and Langton, the Earls of Bath and Lord Fitz Maure, as also to the Lords Berrers, and the Lords Cromwell, all branched from that illustrious Stock. Which Thomas Dore and Beatrice (after leaving him, remarried Thomas Fitz John, Esq. and was living with said husband Feb. 1. (1444.) as H. VI. had a Son Peter de, born at Tattington, Cam. Suff. prap. who was buried in the Parish Church

D A L

Robert Aspell, Kt. Sister of Blood to John Lord Tiptotrys, Father to John the first Worcester, Lord Tiptot, &c. Joan was Sister and Co-heir to Denys, Esq; who died die prox. post Festum S. Petri ad i. Aug. 1. (1435.) 13 Hen. VI. being at that time of the age of 15; whereupon the said Thomas (uxoris) became possess'd of the manor of Tiptotcote aforesaid, and residing as one of the Commissioners to levy LXIV Men at Arms in Rutlandshire for defence of the Realm, Dec. 17. (1457.) 6 Hen. VI. which Year he moreover held the Office of Sheriff for that County, but died Sept. 15. (1358.) 14 Hen. IV. leaving John his Son and Heir aged 30 Years or upwards, according to an Inquisition taken at Braham [now written Babram] in Northamptonshire, ultimo Octob. eodem Anno. Which John Dale, Esq; was made Sheriff of Rutland (1459.) 15 Hen. IV. who took to Wife Elizabeth daughter to Walter Taylard, of Wyke-Temple, London, Esq; [Sir William Taylard of Doddington in Huntingdon, Esq; whose Heir is the Right Honourable Robert Dudley (E. of Cardigan, &c.)] who deceased Octob. 20. (1479.) 19 Hen. V. being seiz'd of the Manor of Dale-Hall, with the Appurtenances in Thurstleton Com. Suff. held of the Prior of the Holy Trinity in Evesham, as in right of his Abbey; the Manor of Lalford [called Lalford] in Lalford, Com. Essex; of the Mannors of Temysford [aliter Timsford] and Berkford, both in Northamptonshire; of the Mannor of Wymington, Com. Cantabr. (which was vested in Trustees) held of the Duke of Richmond; of the Mannor of Wyke in the Town of Evesham in Northamptonshire (likewise in Trustees) and of the Mannor of Totyncote [verius Tikencote] in Com. Roteland, leaving William his Son and Heir, upwards of the Age of 8 Years; which William Dale of Dale-Hall, &c. aforesaid, Esq; and of Tedelmarsh [modo Tidmarsh] in Berkshire, wedded Elizabeth, Daughter to Richard D'Anvers (vulgo Davers) of Prescot, Com. Oxon. and of Culworth in Northamptonshire, Esq; immediate Ancestor to Henry late Earl of Danby, &c. Knight of the most Noble Order of the Garter, and died Octob. 24. (1336.) 28 Hen. VIII. seiz'd (inter alia) of the Mannor of Dale in Lamford, Com. Essex, as also of 20 Melluages, 400 Acres of Land, 60 Acres of Meadow, 200 Acres of Pasture, 100 Acres of Wood, together with 40 Acres of Furz and Heath, likewise in Lamford, having Issue only Daughters, scil. 1. Jane, Wife of William Wollascot, of Wollascot, in Com. Salop, Esq; 2. Ann, married to Alexander Fetiplace, of Swynbrook in Oxfordshire [a lineal Descendent from Thomas Fetiplace of East-Shefford, Com. Berks, Esq; by Beatrix, a Daughter to John I. K. of Portugal, Relict of Gilbert, Lord Talbot, but before him of Thomas, Earl of Arundel, &c.] And, 3. Elizabeth (then deceased) sometime Wife to Randle Lynne of Norfolk; thereof ensued the Decay of this Surname in a direct Line, yet by a younger Brother, viz. Leonard Dale, (second Son to Sir Thomas) aforesaid, there was preserved a Succession of Males, in whom it still prosperously continueth at Hunters-tie-head, Westerdale in Blackmoor, &c. Com. Ebor.

D A L

Dalecarlia, a considerable Prov. of Sweden, having Norway on the W. and N. Helsingia on the E. and Wermerland a Prov. of Gothland on the S. It is a rough hilly Country, and has no considerable T. in it, only ly some small Villages. It was this rugged People that assisted Gustavus Erick against Christiern II. K. of Denmark, for recovery of their Liberty, and who laid the Foundation of the Swedish present Grandeur.

D A L

Dalein, a small T. of Holland in the Dutchy of Limburg, having a great Territory, 3 L. from Aix la Chapelle, and 2 from Leige; it has a strong Castle, and is well fortify'd.

Dalmatia, a Prov. in the ancient Illyria, formerly very large, but now much abated. It is divided between the Venetians and the Turks: The Language of the Christians is Sclavonian, and their Religion Papery. The People are Martial by Nature, but not so much by Divisions.

Dalmatius, one of Constantine Chaplain, he was honoured with the Papal and had the Title of Nobility. Of this Name there was a Bishop of Cyzicus who wrote the Acts of the Council of Nice. It was also the Name of an Orthodox Hermit, who confuted the Nestorian He-rate, 20 L. from Sarat: In the Hands of the Portuguese, who built it, and have so strongly fortify'd it, that the Great Mogul in vain lately belieg'd it with 40000 Men.

D A M

Damascus, sometime the Capital of Syria, but now of Phœnicia, seated in a Plain, surrounded with Mountains, 140 m. from Jerusalem to the S. and Antioch to the N. famous for the maraculous Conversion of St. Paul near and in it. This was one of the first great C. that the Saracens took from the Romans in 636. In 813 it was made the Seat of one of their Califfs. Babylon being the 2d. and Grand Cairo the 3d. About 1258 it became a Prey to that Flagellum Dei Tamerlan the great Scythian Conqueror. After this it was subject to the Sultans of Egypt, till Selim I. about 1514 subjected it to the Ottoman Empire, under which it still remains. It is situate in a fruitful Valley, and so extremely Pleasant, that many Authors give it the Title of the Paradise of the

D A M

It continuing by a strong Hand in a Usurpation and Impiety.

Dambee, a C. and Km. in Ethiopia, near the Fountains of the Me, which has a Lake in it of the same name, 25 French L. in length, and 15 in breadth, encompassed on all sides by Mountains, out of which rise a vast number of Rivers to run the Lake called Bardam-Bear, the Sea of Dambee in the Ethiopic language: And out of these Waters thus united, the Nile springeth, some distance from the Mountains. There are 21 Islands standing in this Lake, the chiefest of which is Dek.

Damianus, Captain of a Troop of Sabers, who resolv'd to kill Solyman II. in his Tent in the middle of his Army, encamp'd on the Bank of the Ionian Sea, near the C. Butranto Albania, and to that end engag'd the Savage People in his Design; it was discovered, put to the sick, and afterwards devour'd by a Wild Beast.

Damianus, a Greek Philosopher and Mathematician. He wrote two books of Opticks, now in the Library of Cardinal Francis Barberini. Isaac Vossius got them transcribed, in order to their Publication.

Damiata, a famous Egyptian T. on the entrance into the Mediterranean Sea, and the most Easterly Branch of the Nile. This C. stands on the opposite Shoar to Pelusium. It was taken by the Christians in 1218, but in 1221 they were forced against their Wills to restore it; for they were involv'd in such insupportable Miseries by the Waters that were let loose upon them, that they must otherwise have inevitably perish'd.

Damocles, a flattering Courtier to Syrrus the Tyrant, whose Happiness he extoll'd and extremely admir'd, but chang'd his Sentiments, when being invited by that Prince to a sumptuous Feast, and set upon a magnificent Couch, he perceived a naked Sword hanging over his Head by a slender Thread, which made him supplicate the proud Tyrant to reduce him to his former state, that he might enjoy the Happiness of a middling Condition, without the danger of aspiring higher to his Destruction.

D A N

Damocritus, a Greek Historian, famous for his Works about the Military Art of Ranging and Adjusting Battels.

Damocritus, General of the Ætolians against the Romans, being taken Prisoner, run himself through to prevent being led in Triumph.

Damon, a Philosopher and Scholar of Pythagoras, who contracted such a sacred Friendship with his Schoolfellow Pythias, that Dionysius the Tyrant having signify'd that one of them should die, permitted Damon to go home and settle his Domestic Affairs before his Death, provided he could find one to be security for his return: Which Pythias presently offered. Damon returning precisely at the Hour appointed, Dionysius did so much admire their mutual Fidelity, that he pardon'd both, and pray'd that he might be admitted the third into their Friendship.

Dampiere, the Name of an ancient Barony, and of a Family now utterly extinguished in France.

Dante, Daughter to Acrisius K. of Argos, who having consulted the Oracle, and being told that he should be kill'd by her Son, shut her up in a Castle of Brass to prevent it; but the Subtle Jupiter transforming himself into a Shower of Gold, brib'd her Keepers, and got her with Child, which being born, her Father caused both the Babe and the Mother to be enclosed in a Chest and thrown into the Sea; but fortunately being cast a-shore on one of the Islands called Cyclades, the Prince of the Country married the Mother, and her Son Perseus in War unwittingly the King's Grandfather according to the Oracle

D A N

Danaides, 50 Sisters, who married their 50 Cousin Germans, Sons of Aegisthus their Father's Brother; these cruel Women barbarously murdered all their Husbands the first Night, by order of their suspicious Father, who had been informed by an Oracle, that he should be dispossessed of the Crown of Argos by a Son a Law; but Hypermetra one of the Daughters, saved her Husband Linus, who succeeded her Father. The Poets feign, that the other Sisters are Slaves in Hell condemned to fill Water into a Hogthead without a Bottom, whilst their better Natured Sister triumphed in the possession of a Crown:

Leury, (Sir Robert) of Thorp in the Co. of York, Esq. Serjeant at Law, a Reverend Just and Learned Judge in the Reigns of Henry VI.

D A N

Cimbrians. The Danes were formerly very Powerful, having subdued England, and frequently invaded Ireland and Scotland; but that Km. is reduced to such bounds that it contains but 9 Leagues from S. to N. and 50 from E. to W. from Greenwich to the W. side of the Ripen. The Danish Air is only Cold; yet tho' the Country is environed with the Sea, it is Marthy; but very fruitful in Deer, and Elkes, Horses and such which strangers go thither to above 50000 being sold annually into Germany. This Km. was always Elective till 23 of 1660. since which time they do not enjoy their ancient Privileges; for the Commonalty displeased with the Lords, they have divested them and themselves of their Rights and Privileges bounded by some Hills, whicharrison'd in time of War, and Temples, on that side are so that they cover the T. very from the Hills.

D A P

under, The greatest R. of Europe runs through Scythia, Bava- ria, Hungaria, Servia, Bulgaria, and discharges it self into the Sea, by 6 or 7 great Streams.

So much Rapidity, that its Waters run fresh for 20 L. From its be to the Mouth, are reckon'd 700 L. and all the way a very Country. The Upper part is d the Danube, and the Lower Ufer. It receives 60 other Rivers, 30 of which are Navigable, Water is 200 Foot deep in places, colour'd like Whey, and wholesome to Drink, or Bath Pythias, a certain Sophist, that taking the Oracle of Apollon, with irpose to ridicule his Answer, Whether he should have a Horse his Journey. The Oracle answer'd, Yes, and a fall from off him too; upon leaving Delphos on foot, he a Design to mock the Oracle; fell into the hands of Attalus King of Lydia, who caused him to be thrown on a high Rock called the Horse, having writ reproachfully against it.

Daphne, feigned to be the Daughter of the R. Peneus, who at her own fire was changed into a Laurel by her Father, to avoid Apollon's Amours. Daphne, Daughter of Tiresias, protected at Delphos, in so excellent rse, that Homer is said to have ascrib'd many of them into his works.

Daphne, a pleasant place abounding with Springs, and Cypresses, dedicated to Diana, on the banks of the R. Orontes, where was an famous Temple consecrated Apollon. The Romans for some time kept a Legion here, till they found their Men effeminated by the Pleasures of the place. Pompey the Great, charm'd with its Beauty, became a Benefactor to it. Constantine the Gr. built a House of Pleasure in it, in the Y. 326. Gallus caused the Body of the Martyr Babylas, the Patriarch of Antioch, to be transported thither; whereupon its said, Apollon surceased his Oracle. Julian the Apostate commanded the said Body to be removed, in 362. After which the Temple of Apollon was so consumed in a Storm of Thunder, and Lightning, that in St. Chrysostom's Time only one Pillar, now nothing is remaining thereof. And the Christian Emperours succeeding Julian, erected Churches in its Room.

D A R

Dardanelles, two Castles built by Mahomet 1st. one in Europe, where Cestus stood, and the other in Asia, where stood Abydos, upon the narrowest Place of the Hellepont. They are the Keys to Constantinople, and stand 200 m. from it. That which is in Europe side in Romania, stands at the Foot of a Hill, which commands, and covers it. This Castle has three Towers, 2 towards the Terra firma, and the 3 which is the biggest upon the Harbour, on which are mounted 20 Guns level with the Water, and of such prodigious Bore, that a Man may creep into some of them. The Castle on Asia side stands in a Plain, having 3 Towers on each side, with a Dungeon or Platform in the Middle, but has not so many Port-holes as the other. These Castles are only design'd against Ships, and are of little or no Force to the Landward, though in them both are good Garrisons. This Place has been famous for 3 Naval Victories obtained by the Venetians, against the Turks, in 1555, 76, and 57, which I suppose was the Cause that the Turks have since built two other Castles, which bear just upon the Entrance of the Hellepont.

D A R

About 3 m. more S. than the old Dardanelles. They stand directly opposite one to another, and the Ferry is not above a League and a Quarter over, so that their Guns will reach from side to side.

Dardanus, Son to Jupiter, and his Mistress Elestra, was compelled to fly from Crete for killing his Brother, and founded the C. and Km. of Troy.

Dardanis, (Claudius posthumus) a Roman Governour in France, who contributed to the Usurper Jovins Death, and a Man of an infamous Character.

Darba, a Prov: of Biledulgerid in Africa, with a T and R. of that Name, betwixt the Kingdoms of Morocco, and Segelmesse. Date-Trees are the Principal Revenue of this Country, because their Dates are great, of an excellent Taste, and will continue long. Here are many Jews both Tradersmen and Merchants, particularly Gnidimths, Great store of Indies for Dvers; and considerable

D A R

Eunuch Bagoas had murdered Artaxerxes Son of Artaxerxes Ochus. This Eunuch not contented with destroying the former R. presented also a Cup of Poison to Darius, who made him drink it off himself, and so dispatched a Traitor that had attempted to destroy the whole Royal Family. He began to Reign, A. M. 3788 when Alexander the Great first became formidable to the World, against whom he lost 3 Battels. In the 2d of which, he lost his Mother, his Wife, and Children, and at last flying into Media, he was his Governour of Bactria kill'd him, A. M. 3724. in the 6th Y. of his Reign, so that the Persian Monarchy of that Race had its fall in this unfortunate Prince 229 Y. after Cyrus laid its Foundation.

Darling, a m. T. in Surry, the Capital of its Hundred, situate upon a Branch of the R. Stoke, which at a place called the Swallow falls under ground, and rises again about

D A V

Dart, where it is defended by 2 castles which stand on each side the River. K. Charles II. honoured this place with the Title of a Barony, which he conferr'd upon Collonel George Clifton Dartmouth returns two Members to Parliament, viz. Nathaniel Herne, and Frederick Herne, Squires. It's governed by a Mayor and Brethren, and is 165 m. from London.

Darwent-water, a large Lake in Cumberland, and the Name of an Ancient Manoir near it, which has been several hundred Years in the Possession of the Ancestors of the Present Earl of Darwent-water, Viscount Radcliffe and Langley, and Baron of Radale, of which his Lordship is now the Proprietor, and has made great Improvement of his Estate in Lead Mines.

Datary, an Officer in the Court of Chancery, who has a warm and beneficial place on't; for all the Petitions for Benefices not exceeding 24 Duckets, he passes by his own Authority, without addressing to the Pope for his Consent; but those for greater value he carries to the Pope to sign, and then adds the Date in these words, Datum Romæ apud, &c.

Daventry, a m. T. of Fausley Hundred in the W. parts of Northamptonshire 73 m. from London.

David, the Son of Jesse, who succeeded Saul, as K. of Jerusalem, was born, An. M. 2950, having lived 50 Y. and Reigned, 40 died.

David I. the 95 King of Scotland, succeeded his Brother Alexander, in 124. He married the Daughter of Neice of William I. and with her went in Dowry Northumberland and Cumbertonshire. He was a Merciful, Pious, and Just Prince, and after he had reigned 29 Y. died in the Y. 1153.

David II. the 90 K. of Scotland, being a Minor at his Father Robert Bruce's Death, the Estate chose Thomas Randolph, Earl of Murray, for

D A Y

Regent, and after his Decease Duncan, Earl of Marr, for the rest of this K. Reign, both which discharged their Trusts with great Care and Fidelity.

David, (John) a Dutchman, who retiring to Jamaica, made rich Prizes on the Spaniards, and with 50 Men only, plunder'd the T. of Granada, where there were at least 800, and carried away a considerable Booty.

David, (George) a blasphemous Heretick of Ghent, who called himself the Messias. Being prosecuted for his Principles he fled to Basil, where he lurked under the Name of John Bruck, and died in that C. in 1553. promising his Disciples to rise again the third Day, which was not altogether false, for the Magistrates understanding what a Monster in opinion he was, did about that time dig up his Corps, which together with his Writings they caused to be burnt by the Hangman.

Dauphiné, a great Prov. in the S. E. parts of France, bounded on the E. by Piedmont, on the N. by Savoy, and la Bresse, from which it is separated by the R. Rhône, on the W. by Lions, and Vivarets, from which the same R. divides it. It had heretofore Princes of its own called the Dauphines; but Humbartus II. their last Prince, in 1343, gave this Principality to Philip de Valois, K. of France, upon Condition that the Eldest Son of the K. of France should bear the Title, which has been observed ever since. Grenoble is the Capital of this Province.

Day, the space of time between the Rising of the Sun and its Setting: This time is called a Natural Day, and is longer in Summer than in Winter; but the Artificial or Civil Day is always 24 Hours. There is other distinctions of Days: The Babylonians begin theirs at the Rising.

DEE

of the Sun: The Italians of Ombria at Noon: The Jews now begin theirs at Sun-set, and the Egyptians at Midnig. n..

Deal in Kent, a Member of the Port of Sandwich, a fair large T. situate over-against the Downs, and is of great consideration for outward and inward Bound-Shipping. It's 74 m. from London.

Dean-Forest, is one of the largest Forests in England, and celebrated for yielding the best Timber for Building Ships in the World. It lies in the Co. of Gloucester, on the W. side of the Severn, betwixt that and the R. Wye. This Forest is said to contain 3200 Acres of Ground, 3 Hund. and 23 Parish-Churches.

Decemviri, particular Roman Magistrates appointed to take care that the Laws of the 12 Tables were duly executed, but above 3 Y. after they were laid aside for Mismanagement, and never revived.

Decius, or Caes. Messius Quintus

DEI

Westchester, and then falls into the Irish Sea, at a place called Dee Mouth.

Degree, a Honour and Tide in Universities given to Scholars, after the studying there the times appointed by the Statutes, as Bachelor, Master, Doctor, &c. in the several Faculties they espouse. The word is used in another sense among Philosophers, and Mathematicians: The first divide Qualities by Degrees, as Hot or Cold is the 3d. Degree: And the latter by this word understand the 360th part of a Circle, in relation to Astronomical Calculation, or to Longitudes and Latitudes in Geographical Mensurations.

Deinse, a small T. in Flanders, which was taken by the French, in 1695. and the Soldiers of the Garrison perfidiously declared Prisoners contrary to the mutual Cartel; but the T. has been since restored to the Spaniards, by the Peace of Rastatt.

DEL

one God, the Immortality of the Soul, Providence. Vertue and Vice, Rewards and Punishments; but believe no other Article of the Christian Religion, or of any other.

Delf, or Delft, the 3d. T. in Holland, its enrich'd by the sale of its Beer, and Cloth, which were formerly of good Esteem; the Town-House, and that of Sabourg, are fine Piles of Building. It hath also 2 fine Churches, in one of which is the Tomb of Prin. William of Nassau, who was stabb'd to death by Balthazar Gerrard, a Native of the Franche Compté, in 1584. And in the other is that of Admiral Trump, enrich'd with Miniature and a Memorable Inscription. The T. is situate in a Plain 4 L. from Leyden, and one from the Hague. Delfhaven is about half a m. from Rotterdam.

Delos, the Island Delos: Neptune received an Order from Jupiter to stop this floating Island, which had been separated from Sicily by stormy Weather, that Latona who was in Labour might lie in there. Juno being highly provok'd, banished her out of Heaven, and the Earth swore she would not receive her; wherefore there remained no other place for her, but only that Island, which was lately thrown up out of the Sea by an Earthquake, and was not then in the World. Latona was therefore received there, and deliver'd of Twins, Apollo and Diana, the fairest Children of Jupiter as Lucian tells us.

Delphi, a City in Boeotia, near Mount Parnassus, where Apollo had a Magnificent Temple, enrich'd with Presents that were sent thither from all Parts. In this Temple was a Priestess called Pythia, or Pythionissa, inspired by Apollo, who gave out Oracles sitting on a Three Legg'd Stool called Tripos, or Cortina, because it was covered with the Skin of the Serpent Pytho; wherefore Virgil says, Nec te Phæbi Cortina fefellit, The Oracles of Apollo have not deceived you.

DEM

Delta, an Island in the Nile below Grand Cairo in Egypt: So called as some think, because it resembles the Greek Letter Delta.

Demetrius, Patriarch of Alexandria, Successor to Julian in 190. He reprehended Origen for making himself an Eunuch, and blamed the Bishops of Palestine for ordaining him a Priest.

Demetrius I. K. of Macedonia, surnamed Poliorcetes, i. e. the Besieger of Towns. His Life was decipher'd with an Intermixture of good and bad Fortune, and at last he was forced to fly for Refuge to his Father-in-Law Seleucus, K. of Syria, who kept him under a kind of loose Custody for 3 Y. in which time he fared so deliciously, that he kill'd himself by Intemperance. He was accounted the most beautiful Prin. of his Time. ¶ Demetrius, Son of Philip, and Grandson to Demetrius II. was of a modest and obliging Temper, and grew so much in favour with the Senate of Rome, that when his Father was accused he brought him off; yet his Father hearkening to scandalous and false Stories of him, caused him to be Poison'd, in the 574 Y. of Rome, at the Instance of his Brother Perseus; but afterward understanding his Innocence, he died with Grief for the unnatural Murder he had committed, and disinherited Perseus who put him upon it.

Demetrius I. Soter K. of Syria, Son to Seleucus Philapater, by whom he was given to the Romans as a Hostage, while his Brother Antiochus Epiphanes, and his Son Eupater usurped the Crown; he endured this Injury patiently; till on a pretence of hunting he found means to escape from Rome, in 3983.

DEM

In 3983, and possessed his Km. but lost it again after 11 Y. Reign.

Demetrius (Nicanor II.) succeeded his Father Soter, and married Cleopatra daughter of Ptolemy Philometer, but Demetrius being taken Prisoner by Phraates K. of the Parthians, he forced him to marry his Daughter Rhodoguna; whereupon Cleopatra in Revenge gave her self to Sidetes, called Antiochus VII. Brother to Demetrius; after whose Death Demetrius returning, enjoyed the Crown again for 4 Y. But his Pride rendering him intolerable to his Subjects, he was forced to fly, and in his flight was killed, not without Cleopatra's concurrence to revenge her self for marrying Rhodoguna.

Demetrius III. Surnamed Eucerus; Took in a part of Syria, seized Damascus, and made a League with the Jews, but being taken prisoner by the Parthians, was carried to Mithridates, where he died A. M. 4090.

DEM

and many of his Officers deserting him, Boris died for Grief; his Wife and Son were imprisoned, and Demetrius was Crowned with extraordinary Joy, in 1605. Now that there might be no doubt of his Birth, he sought out the Mother of the true Demetrius, whom Duke Boris had immured in a Cloister, and demeaning himself with great respect to her, assigned her an Apartment in the Castle, and treated her Magnificently. This good Princess knew well enough, that her Son Demetrius was killed; but disssembled it very handsomly, for fear of ill treatment from the Impostor; being also well pleased to see Boris so well punished for his perfidy, and to enjoy a more comfortable life than she had done in the Cloister. But the Counterfeit shewing more kindness to the Poles than to the Muscovites, and having married the Vaidvode of Sandomir's daughter, the Muscovites conspired against him as an Impostor, and while the Court was at War but unluckily displeasing Philadelphus, he banished Demetrius, who in his Exile was killed by an Asp. He wrote many Books of Poetry, History, Politicks, Rhetorick, Harangues, and Embassies.

DEM

Demetrius, a Cynick Philosopher in the Y. of our Lord 40, was much esteemed in his Profession; yet Vespasian Banished him from Rome.

Democles, an Ancient Greek Historian, who lived long before the Peloponnesian War begun, in 431 ante Christum.

Democritus, a Philosopher called Abderites, who continually Laughed at the Weakness and Vanity of Men, who employ'd themselves about a thousand Ridiculous things. He believed that all things depended upon Chance, and a casual concourse of Atoms: The Inhabitants attributing his laughing to Madness sent for Hippocrates to cure him. But the Physician having discoursed him, declared that in his opinion, those who fancied themselves most healthy and in their Wits, were most demented. Some say he put out his Eyes that he might the better study Philosophy. He dyed, A. R. 392. at 109. Y. of Age. He believed that Atoms, and a Vacuum were the Principles of all things.

Demosthenes, a famous Orator of Athens, born An. R. 373, and was disciple to Ishocrates, Plato, and Isaas. He opposed Philip K. of Macedon, with all his might, and Alexander the great after him. But Alexander dying, Antipater desired the Athenians to send him the Orators that spoke against him, which made Demosthenes retire into the Island Celauria, where he sucked the Poyson he kept on purpose in a Quill, for fear of being taken alive. He dyed in the 114. Olympiad.

Demosthenes, General of the Athenians in Sicily, where he landed after he had Harassed the Country of the Epidaurians. He was unfortunate in the Sicilian War; for the Athenians were entirely cut off by Sea and Land, he himself put to Death, and all the Athenians they could meet with, laid in Irons, in 341 Y. of Rome.

DEN

Dempster, (Thomas) a Scotch Gentleman, who lived in the 17. Cen. and was much esteemed for his Learning, being a good Historian, Lawyer, Poet, and Orator;

Denarius, a Roman Penny containing Seven Pence half penny in the Currant Coin of England.

Denbigh, the Capital of Denbighshire, in N. Wales. It was Conquered by K. Edw. I. made a Co. Town by Henry VIII. and an Earld. by K. James I. in the Person of William Viscount Fielding, in 1622, This T. sends one Burgefs to Parliament who now is Edward Brereton, Esq;

Denbighshire, a Maritime Co. of N. Wales, in Length from E. to W. 30 m. in breadth 18. is divided into 12 Hundreds, wherein are 57 Parishes 4 m. T. in the Dio. of St. Asaph. The Air is cold but wholesome, the Soil Hilly and Barren, but feeds great numbers of Goats, together with some Cows and Sheep, and the Valleys yield Corn. This Co. sends one Kt. to Parliament, viz. Sir Richard Middleton, Baronet.

Denin, a famous Abby of Nuns in the Low Countries between Falenciennes and Doway. The Chapter is composed of 18 Ladies Canons, who before Admission prove they are nobly descended by a right to 8 Coats of Arms in their Pedigree. Their Habit is White: They make no Vow, and when they have a mind to Marry, they return the Chapter abundance of thanks for the Honour they have done them.

Denis, or Dionysius Patriarch of Alexandria, in 248. So Zealous in maintaining the Orthodox Religion, that he spared not Origen his own Matter. Y^er St. Basil, says he laid the Foundation of Arius's Heresy in one of his Epistles, but not maliciously. He dyed in 265.

D E N

Denys, or Dionysius the Areopagite, i. e. one of the Judges of Areopagus. Being at Heliopolis with Apollonius the day that Jesus Christ was crucified, he observed the Eclipse, at that time, which forwarded his conversion afterwards, when he heard the History of S. Paul. He was sent by Pope Clement, to the Gauls and was the first Bishop of Paris; but in a persecution, his head being cut off, (saith the Legend) he walked a little while carrying it in his hands, and being weary, in as many places as he rested at, are Chappels built in his Honour; besides S. Deny's Church where he was buried.

Denys, or Dionysius, Tyrant of Syracusa. He pretended to be a Wit and a Poet; but was mocked for it by the Greeks, which rendered him more Cruel to his Subjects. After governed his own Dio. but took care of almost the whole Catholic Church, by writing Letters into Foreign Parts. ¶ Denys, or Dionysius Bp of Milan, lived in the 4th Cth. He was a very Excellent and Orthodox Prelate; but some what too Credulous: His easiness of belief made him sign the Condemnation of St. Athanasius at the Council of Milan, not imagining that this Compliance would be of such ill consequence to the Catholic Faith: however to make what reparation he could, he died in Exile in the Defence of the Nicene Faith.

D E R

Denys, or Dionysius Exiguus, a Scythian by Birth and a Monk by profession, Acquaintance of Cassiodorus, who gives him a great Character for his Learning. He was called Exiguus from the liddeness of his Stature, and died about the Y. 556.

Denys, or Dionysius of Halicarnassus Author of the Roman Antiquities, lived in the time of Augustus Caesar. His Chronology is very exact and in ending the Banks of the R. Derwent, over which is a fine Free-stone Bridge, with a Chappel upon both bearing the name of S. Mary. A large populous and Rich Trading Town, consisting of Five Wards. The steeple of All-hallow's Church, built by Young Men and Maids, and the T. Hall where the Records are kept are very beautiful. It returns two Members to Parliament; who are now, John Mordaunt, Esq; and the Right Hon. Ed James Cavendish. The Title Earl of Derby is in the Family of Stanley, and at this time enjoyed by the right Honourable William Stanley Earl of Derby.

DER

Derbyshire, is an Inland Co. having a Shire on the N. Leicestershire, on the S. Nottinghamshire on the E. Stafford and Cheshire, on the W. from N. to S. 38 m. from E. to W. about 100 m. in which are 6 Hundreds, 106 Villages and 10 m. T. in the Dio. of Litchfield and Coventry. The Soil Rich, the Country plentiful and abounds with Coal Mines, and the best Lead in England, besides Quarries of Milstones. It's also famous for the Peake and its 3 wonderful Rivers. There are also 2 Springs called the Quardon Springs near Derby of the same nature with those of Wardridge in Kent, and the Spaws in Derbyshire: of Wirksworth Springs, the one is Warm and the other Cold, so near each other that a man may touch them both at once; but must the Bath at Buxton be excepted, which is not inferior to the Wells in Summersetshire if the Road is made Tolerable to it. This Co. sends two Knights to Parliament, who are Thomas Coke and John Curzon, Esq;

Derceto, an Assyrian Goddess called Atergatis, who was half a Woman and half a Fish.

Derry, generally called London Derry, is a City and Co. in Ulster

DES

in Ireland. The City consists of a Colony sent from London about 100 Years since. In the great Massacre, it preserved it self and all that fled to it, the Irish being not able to surprize nor Master it. Several thousands of this place perished through sickness and famine, in the time they held it out for R. William. At last they were relieved by Major General Kirk, July 19. 1689, upon which R. James II's Army decamped, leaving little appearance of a Siege behind them, by any damage done to the Houses and Wall.

Dervis, a kind of distracted Mahometan Monks, whose chief Monastery is near Cogni in Natolia, where there are 4 or 500, Religions of that order. They keep their Legs bare and Stomachs open, in all Weathers. They fast every Thursday till Sun set, besides the ordinary Fast of Ramazan. They play much upon the Flute, and affect playing such odd Mountebanck tricks, you would think them Frank tick.

Descartes, (Renatus) Lord of Perron, the Famous French Philosopher, derived from a good Family of lesser Britany in France. He was first a Military-Officer, and gave sufficient Proofs of his Courage in the Wars of Germany, and Hungary; but his love to dear Philosophy withdrew him to a private Retirement at Egmond in Holland, where, and in other parts of the Province he spent 25 Y. in that pleasant study. His Meditations are Fine, and his System well Methodized Concise and Satisfactory. He dyed at Stockholm in Queen Christina's Court in Sweden, who invited him thither, and was buried there; but his body was afterward brought into France, and laid in a fine Tomb of white Marble, in the Church of S. Genevieve at Paris.

DEV

Devond, a Co. of the Prov. of Munster in the S. W. part of Ireland, where the Fitz-Geralds Earls of it had large possessions; till the last Earl of Devond of that name by his dangerous Rebellion, lost himself, and in a great measure wilfully Ruined a most Noble and Potent Family. However, there are yet some remaining of that name, though some have changed it for others.

Deputatus, (John) born at Ni-cotte in Holland, a famous Grammarian in the 12th Cen.

Deucalion, K. of Theffaly, and Son of Prometheus, in whose time there happened such a Deluge in Theffaly, that Poets took the liberty to say all mankind were drowned, and that only Deucalion and Pirra were miraculously saved in an Ark, who re-peopled the World by casting Stones behind them, those thrown by him were changed into Men, and those by her were turned to Women, and by this means con-

DEV

Devizes, a Borough T. in Wiltshire, so called because it was anciently divided betwixt the K. and the Bp. of Salisbury, as direct Proprietors. It is situate near the Head of a Stream of the St. Fritons, which joins the Avon, by of Tewkesbury to Par most, at present Sir Francis Ch. live, and John Merdoun, Esq;

Devonshire, one of the S. Counties of England; bounded on the N. by the Hibernian Sea, on the W. by Cornwall, on the S. by the British Sea, and on the E. by Somersetshire, and Dorsetshire. Its Figure is almost a Square, in which are 33 Hundreds 39 m. T. and 394 Parishes, in the Dio. of Exeter. On the 2 Seas it has several good Harbours: The Country is Rich in Mines of Tin and Lead, and abounds with pleasant Meadows, fine Woods and in other places, where the Soil is more Barren (as in Dartmore) it is yet improveable, and rewards the good Husband's Industry. It was long an Earl's that succeeded him was created Lord Ferrers by Edward IV. He was slain at Bosworth-Field with K. Richard III. being succeeded by his Son John, and he by his Son Walter, who was made will be found by Edward VI. and was Places where by his Grandson Walter; c. Earl of Essex by Q. Eliz. in the 3^d of her Reign; but being by the contrivance of the Earl of Leicester, sent twice Earl-Marshal into Ireland, and badly us'd by the Court, he died of the Country disease in Sept. 22. 1576. though others say of Poyson, and give that Report credit by the Earl of Leicester's sudden Marriage with his beautiful Widow. This Walter was succeeded by his Son Robert, who being brought to Court became a particular Favourite of Q. Elizabeth. This and his brave Exploit at Cadix in Spain made him very popular, and both created him many and powerful Enemies, who by Artifice divested him of the Queen's Favour, and put his Life in danger; he apprehending it, by ill Advice, took up Armes to defend himself, and remove his Enemies from the Q. but failing in his Attempt lost his Head. K. James I. restored his Son Robert, who displeas'd at the disanulling his Marriage, went to divert himself in the Palatinate War, and returning for England, when the Breach happened between K. Charles I. and the Parliament, he was made General for the latter; but at length seeing and disapproving their ways, left that Employ, and retired to London, where he died without Issue: And now the Title is, by Succession from his Father, in Algernoon Capel Baron Capel of Hadham, Viscount Malden, and Earl of Essex.

DEU

Deus Dedit, a Pope celebrated for his Charity, and the Cure of a Leprous Son by the Application of his Mouth. He reigned about three Y. and died in 617.

DIA

Deuteronomy, or a Second Law, the Fifth of the Canonical Books of the Old Testament, composed by Moses, An. M. 2582. to which the last Chapter (in the opinion of some learned men) was added by Joshua, or Esdras.

Deux Ponts, a T. and Family of the Palatinate in Germany, who are a Branch of the House of Bavaria; the Swedes have a pretension to this Dukedom; the French took it for that reason in 1676, and resigned it to the Swedes at the Treaty of Reswick 1697.

Dey, a Name given to the Chief Governour of Tunis and Algiers in Africa, whose Children do not succeed them, unless Elected by the Nobles before their Father dies. If they commit Piracies upon the Grand Seignior's Allies, he orders the Complainers to take their own Satisfaction, as was done by Sir John Narborough at Tunis, for Injuries done by them to English Merchants.

Diagoras of Rhodes, who hearing his Sons and Grandsons had won the Prize at the Olympick Games, died with Excess of Joy.

Diagoras, an Atheistical Philosopher, banished by the Athenians for propounding these two Questions in his Works. Whether there were really any Gods? And if there were any, what they were? As thinking it too great an Impiety to be tolerated.

Diana, The Daughter of Jupiter by Latona, who was distinguished under three Denominations, viz. in Hell Hecate; on Earth Diana, and Phæbe or the Moon in Heaven. She was also stiled the Goddess of Hunting, and had many Temples dedicated to her Honour, the Chief of which was that of Ephesus, accounted one of the 7 Wonders of the World, and was consum'd by fire by Erostratus, to keep alive his Name and Memory.

D I D

Diarbekir, a great T. in Mesopotamia, under the Dominion of the Turks, and inhabited by Armenians and Nestorians, of which there are said to be 20000. Here is the best Red Turkey Leather, no other Water being able to die so fine a Colour.

Dicæus, an Egyptian Philosopher, who taught both the Goths and their K. the Rudiments of a Religious and Civil Law, in the Distribution of Justice, Preservation of Peace with their Allies, and the Honour of their Gods; for which the People so esteemed and lov'd him, that they rooted up their Vines, because he said that Wine was the certain Producers of Disorders in all Societies.

Dicator, a Roman Magistrate invested with an Absolute Authority, who was only chosen upon emergency, at occasions, and might act according to Discretion, without consulting or being directed by the

D I E

of Carthage. Jarbas K. of Utica would have forced her to marry him, but she rather chose to kill herself, than scandalize her former Nuptials. Homer's relation of her is wholly Fictitious, and without Possibility of Truth; for according to the most celebrated Chronologists, Æneas lived 260 Y. before Dido was born.

Didymus of Alexandria, was blind at five Years of Age, and yet became so great a Master in all the Liberal Sciences, that he was accounted one of the most Learned men in the Gen. He was Tutor to St. Nazianzen, and died at 83 Y. of Age. There was another of his Name an indefatigable Student, that Seneca says composed 4000 different Treatises.

Die, a C. in the Dauphiné in France, upon the R. Drone; 8 m. from Valence, and 11 from Grenoble.

Dieppe, a strong Sea-Port T. with members, without intermeddling Affairs of Circles, or the in General. Now where, seen, and for what purpose

D I J

al Diets have been kept in st Gen. will be found under names of the Places where they held.

marsh, or Dithmarsh, a part land in the Dukedom of Hol- at the Mouth of the Elb; ha-the Ocean on the W. Holsatia, E. the Elb on the S. and the lom of Sleswick on the N.
es its Name from the mal great Marshes that are in it.
part of it belongs to the K.
mark, and the N. to the D.
stein.

by, this Family was derived ur Simon of Tilton in Leicester- whose immediate Descenwas created Lord Digby of in the Km. of Ireland. by K.
I. John a Person of great ications, was advanced in the the same K. to the Dignity Baron of this Realm, by the of Lord Digby of Sherburne in of Dorset, and afterward go-ambassador to Philip III. of in the Y. 1622. was created of Bristol. He was succeeded to other Johns, in the last of the Family died with him, now extinct.

ma, or Dugna, a Woman of Beauty, and Courage in A- in Italy, who rather than her Honour by compulsion to K. of the Huns, threw her from a high Gallery into a R.
g to the Tyrant, Follow me if lost a mind to enjoy me.

pur, a C. and Bp's See in Pro-
standing upon the R. Ble- 10 m. from Embrun to the S.
32 from Avignon to the N. E. a very fine C. and much freted for its hot Baths.

ion, the Capital of the D. of

D I N

Burgundy, where the Parliament hold their Sessions, Money is coined, and the Mayor of it is honoured with the Title of Viscount. Here was a Council held against Symonists in 1075, and another in 1190, where the whole Km. of France, was interdicted from Divine Service 7 Months
by Pope Innocent III's Legate; till K. Philip re-took his Wife Isen- burge, from whom he had procur'd himself to be divorced.

Dillemburg, a T. and Co. of We- sterwalds, in the Circle of the Rhine in Germany. It's seated on a Hill, has a strong Castle, and is the Residence of its own Prince, who is of the House of Nassau, and distinguish'd by the Title of Nassau Dil- lemburg.

Dilengben, a C. in the Circle of Schwaben in Germany upon the Da- nube, 7 m. from Ulm, and as many N. W. from Ausburg. An University was founded here in 1549. by Cardinal Otto Trucio, Bp. of Ausburg, under Pope Julius III. and is well filled with Students.

Dimotos, a C. of Thrace upon the R. Hebrus, which almost surrounds it, about 7 m. from Adrianople to the S. Here Bajazet the Turkish Emp. was born, and hither he returned again after he had resign'd the Empire.

Dinant, a T. in the Bpr. of Liege upon the R. Maes, 10 m. from Brussels, 4 from Namur, and 12 from Leige. The French took it in 1672, but resigned both the T. and Castle to the Bp. and Pr. of Leige, at the Peace of Reswick 1697. There is another T. of the same Name in the Dutchy of Britain in France, upon the R. Rance, about 5 m. S. from St. Mala.

Dinocrates, a famous Architect of Macedonia, who built Alexandria in Egypt. Pliny says, it was the same Person that finished the Temple of Diana at Ephesus.

D I O

Diolestin, born of mean Parentage in Palmyra, and sometime a slave to Annianus the Senator; he was rais'd to the Imperial Dignity by his great Ability and Success in War and Government; but rais'd such a violent Persecution against the Christians (whom he hated,) that new and horrible Torments for the innocent Sufferers, were invented to please him. His Ambition and Cruelty stunn'd all the Actions of his Life, which would otherwise have been accounted Glorious, and his Excess of Folly, in commanding his Subjects to worship him as a God, render'd him contemptible, which he beginning to be sensible of, withdrew himself to a Retirement at Sidon, from which no perswasion could remove him to re-ascend the Throne, and there died with Grief & Sorrow, that notwithstanding all his wicked Endeavours to exterminate Christianity, it Triumphed.

Diodati (John) a Grave and

D I O

Synope, in the 341 Year of Rome. He wore an old patch'd Garment, with a Staff and a Bag, and a Cup, which he threw away upon seeing a Boy drink Water out of the Palm of his Hand; dwell in a Tub, which he tumbled to and fro in the day time to keep him from Idleness. He was Sullen in his Temper, Rude in his Deportment, and Satyrical in his Answers. Alexander the Great's Curiosity tempting him to see him, he made him the common Complement of a Courtier, What can I do for you? To which Diogenes answered: Stand on the other side of my Tub, and don't keep the Sun from me, with which Alexander was so pleas'd, that he said; if he had not been Alexander, all he should wish was to be Diogenes. Being at High-noon in the Market with a Candle and Lanthorn in his Hand, it was askt him what he sought? He answered, an honest Man. Seeing a young Rake divert himself

DIS

Dion Cassius, Son of Apronianus, who had the Honour of being twice Consul, and Governour of Pannonia. He compiled a Roman History in 80 Volumes of which there are now no more remaining than an Abstract. He is reputed very partial, as favouring Cæsar to the Prejudice of Pompey, and misrepresenting Seneca; though otherwise he is esteemed a vivacious and perspicuous Historian.

Diophantus, an excellent Mathematician of Alexandria, to whom we are obliged for the useful Invention of Algebra, and other famous Pieces in Arithmetick, six of which have been put into Latin, and commented on by Alexander, and the other seven preserved in their Native tongue in the Vatican.

Dioscorides, (Pedacius) a Physician that has left us some good Books of Plants and Metals, and invented that excellent Medecine called Diascordium.

Dioscorus I. Patriarch of Alexandria, who was Sentenced and driven into Exile, for writing in Vindication of the Eutychæan Heresie, and ended his Life deplorably at Gangrea in Paphlagonia.

Dioscorus, an Antipope, who after his Death was Excommunicated by one Pope and Absolved by another.

Diospolis, a C of Thebais, in Egypt, surnamed Hecatompilos, for having 100 Gates, or rather so many Princely Palaces in it, when the Kings of Egypt called Diospolites, made it the place of their Residence.

Diptycha, a Register book of the Grecians, wherein the Deacon put the Names of the Dead, that were to be Solemnized in their Churches.

Dirgb, a Lake in the Co. of Dun-gal in Ulster in Ireland. In an Island belonging to it, you may see a Cave, which the Irish call S. Patrick's Purgatory: Some Subterra-neous Winds, or noisy Waters occasioned this Conceit.

DIV

Dis, or Plutus, the God of Riches, represented Lame and Blind, and therefore when Jupiter sends him to any person he arrives late, and often goes being Blind, where there is no need of him: But when he returns he is Swifter than Wind, and leaves men at a Gaze when they thought they were sure of his company.

Discord, a Goddess adored more out of Fear than Love, because she was a mischeivous Divinity, that often did harm, but seldom or never any good. She is always pourtray'd with a dismal Aspect.

Diu, a small Island in the Mouth of the River Indus, which has been the Portuguese's ever since 1535.

Divan, the Grand Court of Justice at Constantinople, and in all other places of their Dominions. It is also the name of a Knot of 5 or 6 little Islands, in the Archipelago de Maldivas, in the East-Indies.

Divination, a Cheating Art in telling things to come, acquired by a Contract with the Devil, and yet he himself, though he knows what Man does not, is wholly ignorant of Futurities, and therefore I call it a Diabolical Delusion; for tho' natural conjectures are Lawful; positive Assertions of what may happen are sinful. There are many sorts of Divination, as by Events which are Superstitious; for meeting a Hare in the morning is no argument of Ill Luck, but because you could not catch her. By Dreams which are Rediculous, for they are always agreeable to Mens constitutions, as the Cholerick always Dream of Frightfull things, the Sanguine of merry Subjects, &c. By charms, a Sieve, and Sheeres, a Ring, by Physiognomy, Chiromancy or Palmestry, Judicial Astrology, which are all but the Invention of Cuning Knaves to Bubble credulous fools.

D O G

Dixmuyde, a little but a strong and pleasant T. belonging to the Spaniards in Flanders. It was taken in 1692 by the English from the French, but lost again the same Y. Retaken and Posselt by the English till 1695, when Major General Ellenburg resigned it to Comte Montal at the Price of his Head. It stands 3 m. from Newport.

Dobrzyn, a T. in Poland, Capital of a Palatinate upon the Vistula, between Plorka and Wladislaw.

Dockum, one of the Principal Ts. in West-Friezland, 4 m. from Leeuwarden, and 5 from Groningen.

Dockers, a sort of Hereticks who taught that Christ's Sufferings were not Real, only appeared so to others.

Dofior, a Degree of Honour in Universities above that of Master of Arts, and the highest that is given to any Profession whether in Musick, Phy- that Repub. who can only Act in concert with the Senate.

D O M

Dol, a City in the lesser Britany in France, about 4 L. from S. Malo, and 2 from the British Sea.

Dolabella, a Roman Surname given to the House of the Cornelii, who bore great Authority, and did considerable Military Services for their Country, especially against the Troians.

Dole, a well fortified City in the Dm. of Burgundy, where the Parliament Sits and a University was founded in the Y. 1436, by Philip the Good, D. of Burgundy. It formerly belonged to Spain, but being taken by the French in 1668 it was annexed to France for ever by the Treaty of Nimwegen.

Dominica, one of the Caribby Islands in the N. America, and so called because it was discovered on a Sunday. It's about 20 L. in Circuit, Long. 322, Lat. 14, N. W. of Barbadoes.

DOM

ere, than a Prison where he dy-
 , and after his Death his Wriings and his Corps were Burnt for resie in Flora's Field.

Domitian, the 12 Emp. of Rome, a to Vespasian, and Brother to Ti-
s. At his first coming to the Em-re he shewed much Modesty and istance in making good Laws; but afterwards his Vanity grew so exssive, that he would be called a d, though unworthy the name of an; for he persecuted the Christi-is with so much Violence, that he ewed his desire to extinguish the ristian Name as well as Reli-on; but a man named Stephen, ade Free by Clement the Con-
 I, rid the Empire and the Church of this Cruel Persecutor. The Se-ne pulled down his Statues, and az'd out all the Titles he had u-rp'd, and that men out of a Base mplyance had bestowed upon im. He spent the day in his Clot Killing Flies with a Golden Bod-in; wherefore it was said, he was ways alone, and not so much as fly with him.

Domitilla, Domitian's daughter, who was Banished by her Father for turning Christian; and returning gain in the Reign of Trajan, after he had shewed great Knowledge and zeal in the Defence of persecuted Christianity, she was burnt by the Command of that Cruel Tyrant.

Donald, the 27 K. of Scotland; who though always in a State of War, kept his own Dominions in great order, and was the first Monarch of that Km. that espoused the Christian faith, tho' in his Reign the Idolatry of the Heathens was not utterly abolished. The Emp.
Severus in his Reign, handled the Scots severely, forced them to accept his terms of Peace, and Cooped them up by a Wall 80 m.
 beyond Adrian's. Donald II. the 32
 K. of Scotland was but short lived.

DON

being Slain in War the first Y. of his Reign. Donald III. Reigning like a Tyrant found a Grave in the 12 Y. of his Government. Do- nald IV. was a Religious Prince, promoted the Christian Faith, and dyed much lamented in 637. Do- nald V. and 70 K. of Scotland was a Debauched and Vicious Prince, but being succesful in some Wars with the Picts, in conjunction with the English, it heightened his Intemperance; which the English made use of, and surprized the Scots by Night in the middle of their Cups, slaughtered their Army, made their K. Prisoner, and shared a great part of their Country among the Victors. After a Peace Donald was restored; but returning to his Vomit, was imprisoned by the Nobility, and became his own Executioner. Donald VI. the 74 K.
 of Scotland, was a profound Politician, and in Peace provided for War, and in War sought only Peace, and the safety of his Country. Authors are divided about,
 Where and When he dyed. Do- nald VII. and 84 K. of Scotland, took part with the English against the Danes, while he was but Gover-nour of Cumberland; and when he was dignified with the Crown, approved his Abilities for Government by his Discretion, Prudence and Justice. His Reign was Disturbed by Mackdonald's Rebellion, and two Danish Invasions, out of both which he extricated himself, but could not escape his Destiny; for he was Slain in an Ambush by Mackbeth, who usurped the Throne about 1091.
Donald VIII. and 87 K. of Scotland, as he possess the Crown by unlawful methods, so he was compell'd to leave it by the same Arts, being driven out of the Km. by Duncan in 1103, about six Months after the date of his Usurpation.

D R A

Dr Douglas, Angus, Ormond, Wigton, Murray and Morton. There is also a D in e, a D in e, and a R in the S of Scotland of the same Name. The History of this family has been written by an excellent Pen.

Drus, (Janus) a Native of Holland, Lord of Northwick, and Governor of Leiden in 1574. He was famous in his time for his great Knowledge in the learned Sciences, and his Courage and Conduct in Military Affairs, of both which he has given us uncontriverted Testimonies by his Latin Sword. He died of the Pestilence in 1604, but left several sons behind him that did all Fatherly, Virtuous, George, Francis, and Theodore.

Drus, a Latin of the Diocese of Reims in France, upon the R. Chertan of 1571, the Councils held here, 1572, and 1574, in the first of which Drus Ep. of Laon was deposed, imprisoned, and had his Eyes put out, for setting up the Papal

D R E

Draco, an Athenian Lawgiver who liv'd in 130 of R whose Laws by reason of their Severity were said to be writ in Blood, and therefore were all repealed by Solon, except those against Murder.

Drake, (Sir Francis) born in Devonshire; but Educated in West by his Father, who was a Clergyman, and read Divine Service to the Navy Royal. He bound him Apprentice to a Master of a small Vessel, who at his Death left it to his Servant Francis, as a Legacy, which he sold to fit himself for a Voyage with Sir John Hawkins to America, then called the New World, which proved very unsuccessful to him: five Years after in the Y. 1572, he fitted out a Man of War and two small Tenders, sail'd to America, took Nombre de Dios, and returned with good store of Gold that he took from the Panamaans; with which in 1577 he fitted out five Ships, sail'd into the S Sea, and brought

D R U

Drutellus, (Jeremy) a Jesuite, Professor of Rhetorick, and afterwards Domestic Preacher to the Elector of Bavaria, who has writ several practical Discourses in Theology.

Drogheda, a C. in the Prov. of Leinster in Ireland. It has a very good Harbour for Shipping, and was in a flourishing Condition, till Oliver Cromwel storm'd it in Sept. 1649, and put all the Garrison, which consisted of about 4000 men to the Sword, and of the Inhabitants spared neither Sex, Age, Poor or Rich, but destroyed all before him. It was since the Revolution a Garrison for the late K. James; but surrendered two days after the Fight at the Boyn to K. William.

Droitwich, a Borough T. in Worcestershire, upon the Banks of the R. Salwarp, which returns two Burgesses to the House of Commons, now Charles Cox, and Edward Foley, Esq; It's a remarkable Place for Brine-Pits, out of which they make good white Salt; from London 82 m.

Druids, British Priests of great Authority, distinct from the Civil Government. They excommunicated Offenders, and a Person so interdicted, was reckon'd in the Number of Wicked Wretches. They were Judges of all Controversies, the Sole Interpreters of Religion, and sacrificed Men as well as Beasts, which made them fear'd by the People. They were exempted from War and Payment of Taxes, and had the Oak from whence they derive their Names in great Veneration; but especially the Mistleto upon it, and never perform'd any Sacrifice without it.

Drusilla, Daughter of Agrippa, the most beautiful Creature of that Age. She forsook her Husband K. Azizes, and married Felix Governour of Judea. It was before the Tribunal of this Felix and Drusilla, that St. Paul justified his turning Christian.

D U B

Drusius, (John) born at Oudenard, who after studying at Louvain and Ghent, came into England, and at Oxford improved himself in the Knowledge of the Hebrew Tongue; and being taken notice of at his return to Holland, the States made him first Professor in the University of Leyden, and then at Franker; he was in great Esteem for his Learning, and the Works he has left to Posterity.

Drusus, a Family branch'd out of that of the Clandians, and tho' it originally came from the Plebeians, yet had been honour'd with all the great Dignities of Rome, and three several Triumphs, and produced as many famous Men in future Times, as any Family the Ancient Romans magnific.

Druzes, or Drusi, a People in the Holy Land that possess Mount Libanus, and are neither Mahometans, Christians, nor of any other Sect but their own. They tolerate all kind of Incest, and think it not unlawful for a Man to marry his own Daughter, or a Son his Mother. There are Disputes about their Originals, but none are positive from whom they are descended.

Dryades, the Nymphs of the Woods, or Wood Fairies.

Dryope, a Nymph of Arcadia, on whom Mercury begot the God Pan.

Duarenus, a Native of France, and a Learned Civilian, much commended by Thuanus.

Dublin, the Chief City of the Km. of Ireland, situate upon the R. Liffy, about 20 L. from Holy-Head in Wales; but at what time, or by what person it was built is unknown, though it must be very ancient, because it is mentioned by Ptolemy. A Colony was planted here from Bristol, a little after Ireland was conquer'd by K. Henry II. which put it into a way of Trade, and in time made it the most considerable place in

D U K

in the Kingdom. In more ancient times the City was govern'd by a Mayor, who King IV. gave them a Charter, which made a Mayor Annual, and King Charles II. honour'd the Mayor with the Title of Lord Mayor. In the City is the Residence of the Lieutenant, in a state-ly Palace, and dedicated to the memory of the Person that represents the City before King. Here are the Sessions of Parliament, and the Court of Justice. It has a famous School in the Liberal Sciences, which is a University in it self, founded by Q. Elizabeth, Anno 1564, and confers Degrees like our Universities. The Cathedral Church is of great Antiquity, is dedicated to St. Peter, Patron of the City, and besides the Archbishop, has 24 Priests, and 200 Monks. They have another Church called St. Andrew, where the Lieutenant were appointed by the Prince, or Supreme Magistrate, to whom they were accountable.

D U N

Dulverton, a M. T. in Somersetshire, in the Hundred of Wilton upon the R. Ex.

Dunbar, a T. in the Co. of Lothian in Scotland, 20 m. from Berwick, and as many from Edenburgh.

Dunblane, a City of Scotland in the Co. of Menteith, situate on the R. Teith, 36 m. distant from Edenburgh.

Dunbritoun, a T. in the Co. of Lenox in Scotland, distant 8 m. from Glasgow N. W. that has the strongest Castle by Nature in all Scotland, built on craggy double headed Rocks, and has but one Passage to it, and that hardly passable, but with great Difficulty by one single Man. Dunbritoun Frith, is a great Bay in the S. W. part of Scotland, in which are many secure Havens, and populous Towns.

Dunbarton, a M. T. in the Prov.

DUR

ould be advantageous to the Nation, it was sold by R. Charles II. to the present French K. for 900000 l. Sterlin, who has bestowed incredible Cost in fortifying it, and in enlarging and securing the Haven by Citadels, Forts, Peer-Heads, and other useful Defences.

Duns, (Joannes) from the Place of his Nativity called Scotus. He was in great account at the latter End of the XIII Cen. for his fine spun Notions, in opposition to Thomas Aquinas, and the Difference in their Sentiments, was the Production of two Wordy Sects, called Thomists and Scotists, which were of little use to the Learned World, and served only to waste time in unprofitable Niceties.

Draystale, a m. T. in Bedfordshire upon the Borders of Hartfordshire and Buckinghamshire, built by R. Henry I. and is now famous for the best and biggest Larks, and curious Straw-work. It has many good Inns, and a Stone-cross in it, built in Memory of Q. Blanche, Wife of Henry I. 30 m. from London.

Dunwich, once a famous C. but now a mean Corporation on the Sea-coasts of Suffolk, retaining nothing of its former Wealth and Grandeur, but the Honour of returning 2 Burgesses to Parliament, who at this time are Sir Charles Blois, Baronet, and Robert Kemp, Esq; 15 m. from London.

Dupont Bassane, a curious Painter in Miniature; who for fear of being arrested by Bailiffs, leapt out of his Window, and killed himself. He had three Brethren as famous as himself, but were all Melancholy.

Duras, (Lewis) Brother to the French Duke Duras, who being first Naturalized by Act of Parliament, in the 17 C. II. was in the 24 of the same R. made Baron of Holdenby, and afterwards Earl of Feverham in the Co. of Kent. He married one of the Co-heiresses of Sir George Sands of Lee's Court in Kent: Was Captain of the Guards to his Highness James D. of Tork, and when he was K. General of his Army in the Expedition against the late D. of Monmouth.

DUR

Durham, a C. Co. Palatine, and Bp. See in the N. of England. The C. is seated upon a Hill, which with the adjoining R. Ware, renders it a strong and pleasant Place, formerly possessed by the Brigantes, fortified by a Wall and a Castle in the Middle of it, with a Cathedral Church towards the S. side of the C. It returns 2 Citizens to the House of Commons, who now are, Sir Henry Bellasis, Kt. and Thomas Conyers, Esq; The Bpr. of Durham is bounded on the N. W. by the R. Derwent, which parts it from Northumberland, on the S. by the R. Tees, which separates it from Yorkshire, on the W. by Northumberland and Westmorland, and on the E. by the German Ocean. It contains 7 m. Towns, 4 Wakes, and 118 Parishes. The W. part abounds with profitable Mines of Lead, Iron and Coals, and the E. is fruitful in Grass and Corn. Nathaniel Lord Crew, Baron of Stene in Northamptonshire, is the present Bp. of this Diocese, and the Knights of the Shire are, Sir Robert Eden, Bar. and William Bowes, Kt. The C. is 1 m. from London.

Durlach, a T. of Schwaben in Germany, possessed by the Marquis of Baden Durlach, a Branch of the Ancient House of Baden Baden.

Durlus, the XI. K. of Scotland, a Wicked Son of a very good Father, who taking distast at the Nobilities disapproving his Government and pretending to Reform; invited them to a reconciling Supper, and when they were all together in a Room, caused them to be barbarously Murdered; which enraged those that were not in the that the, collected a great Army, gave him Battel, and killed him, An. m. 464.

D Y K

Dresfeld, the Capital of the Dm. of Meissen in Germany upon the Rine, belonging to the D. of New-Burg.

Duum-viri Sacrorum, 2 Magistrates in Rome, created by Turquinus Superbus, who were a kind of Priests, appointed to take care of, and consult some Books he found, that he thought were written by the Sibyl of Cuma. Duum-viri Municipales, were the same Magistrates in Free Towns that Centurions were in Rome; who took an Oath that they would serve the City and Citizens well and faithfully, and were allowed to wear the Robe called Pratexta. Duum-viri Navales, Magistrates that took care to put out Ships and pay the Soldiers. Duum-viri Capiteles, these were Judges in Criminal causes. It was lawful to appeal from them

D Y N

Dynasties, Superiors. The Ancient Romans made 2 Orders of Gods. The first were the Dii majorum Gentium, which they called Gods the first order. The second the Dii minorum Gentium, or Gods. The first were 12 in number and were sought to only extraordinary occasions: Those the second, were called upon, Danet, in affairs of lesser moment. The Dynasties were a certain Order of Demi-Gods, Heroes or Kings among the Egyptians, that governed Successively in Egypt, whose first began in Menes the first that bore the name of Pharaoh, which continued to his Successors, and ended in the thirtieth Dynasty under Achanebo, who was Conquered by Artaxerxes Ochus K. of Persia 3704, and Driven into Ethiopia.

Dynast, or Duna, a great River of Mexico, which rises in the Province of Mexico, passes by the City of Mexico, and turning N. d. em his Followers as many Wives as they could keep, with the Privilege of putting them away at Pleasure, and taking others.

EBE

Easingwold, a little m. T. in the N. Riding of Yorkshire in Bulmer Hundred.

East-Burn, is a m. T. of Pevensey Rape in the Co. of Suffex, 52 m. from London, and is remarkable for the little Fat Birds called Wheat-Ears, which visit those Dunnet once a year, are caught by Shepherds, and sold at Tunbridge at very great rates.

Easton-Nefs, a High Mountain or Clift in the W. of Suffolk, which makes the N. point of Southwold Bay, and is the most Eastern point of Cape in the Km. of England.

Eaton, a small Town upon the R. of Thames in the Co. of Bucks, directly opposite to Windsor. That which renders this T. so famous, is a College founded by R. Henry VI. richly endowed with Lands, which maintains a Provost, 8 Fellows and a Decent Choir; besides the Teaching 60 Scholars Gratis, till they are fit for the University, and then by Election they are made Fellows of Kings College in Cambridge. The School is now in great Reputation.

Edba, about the Y. 870 was Priores of Coldingham Nunnery in the Kingdom of Scotland, who being informed, that the Danes were playing their disorderly Feats in that Neighbourhood, mingled her own Face and those of the Virgins in the Priory, rather than have their Bodies defiled by those sauvages; in Revenge whereof, the Danes Burnt the Monastery and all the Religious Women in it.

Eberhardus, called the Bearded D. of Wittenberg, was so well beloved by his Subjects, that he boasted he could Sleep at ease and safety in any of their Ensloms. He was Founder of the University of Tubing; and Maximilian I. Emp. of Germany, said he excelled in Wisdom and other Princely virtues all his Predecessors. He dyed in 1475. There was another D. of the same Name and Place, who merited a High Renown for his Justice.

EBU

Ebersdorf, a T. in the Lower Austria, upon the Danube, about 2 m. below Vienna, where is a Castle, to which the Emp. often retires to enjoy himself in Private.

Eberstein, the name of a Co and Castle in the Circle of Schwarzen in Germany, belonging to the Marquis of Baden.

Ebion, an Arch-Heretic of the 1st Cen. who denyed the Divinity of our Saviour, and affirmed him to be a meer man, with other impious Doctrines, tending to the Destruction of Christianity. Some are of Opinion, that S. John the Evangelist wrote his Gospel intentionally against him and Cerintus.

Ebolum, a T. and Dm. in the Km. of Naples in Italy, not far from the Bay of Salernum.

Ebro, one of the greatest R. of Spain, which once gave that whole Country the name of Iebberia. It rises in old Castile, and divides that Km. from Aragon, and watering the Southern part of Catalonia, falls into the Mediterranean Sea, between 3 small Islands made by its own Sands.

Ebroin, Mayor of the Palace to Lotharius III. R. of France, who for the Space of ten years governed with great Moderation and Prudence, but afterwards Deposed and set up what Counterfeit Kings he pleased, and tyranniz'd over the Nobility for many years, till he was killed by Hermanfroy a Peer of France, whom he had illegally dispossessed of all his Estate.

Eburones, a People so called by Cesar, who inhabited those Territories which are now called the C. of Lege. I I I

E D E

Eden, formerly, where the Kings kept their Courts, but now is a C. of the County of Staffordshire.

Eden, a River in the County of Staffordshire, which runs into the Humber.

Eden, a River in the County of Cumberland, which rises in the Mountains of the North, and runs into the Irish Sea, between Annand Castle in Scotland, and Boulness in England.

Edmund, a Prince of the University of Oxford, who was appointed to write the History of the Reformation, and was killed by the Lutherans, Melancthon, and other Protestant Divines.

Edmund, a River in the County of Staffordshire, which runs into the Humber, and is the strength of their City, and the publick defence of the County.

E D G

Euphrates, whence some are of Opinion, and with reason, that Paradise was seated in Mesopotamia, in Asia, in the Confines of Babylon, because the Channels of the R. Tygris, and Euphrates, run in no other Places: It is also the name of a River in Cumberland rising in Yorkshire, which by tedious Circuits watering Westmorland and Carlisle, at length falls into the Irish Sea, between Annand Castle in Scotland, and Boulness in England.

Edius, the 15 K. of Scotland, who was saved from the Enemies by the care of his Nurse, and at last was enthroned by Cadwallus the Vice-Roy, and Reigned 48 years, about the 2887 Y. of the World.

Edeffa, better known by the name of Rissa, is a C. of Mesopotamia under the Dominion of the Turks. The City is about 2 hours March in Circuit, the Walls fair, the Town populous, and yet little to be seen.

EDI

Rest Welsh Princes. He Reigned 16 Y. Died, and was buried at Glasfenbury, in 975.

Edgar, the 8th E. of Scotland: he lived a great while in England, while an Usurper posselt his own Crown; but his Subjects sending for him, he soon Routed Donald's Forces, and kept him Prisoner till he dyed. As he was Restored by Unanimous Consent, so he Reigned 9 Y. to their Satisfaction, and dyed about 1008.

Edge-Hill, a Place in Warwickshire, where on Sunday, October 23, 1642, the first Battel was fought between K. Charles I. and the Parliamentarians under the E. of Essex. Here the Earl of Lindsey, General of the Field for the K. dyed in the Bed of Honour; the standard was taken, but Retaken by Sir John Smith, for which he was made a Banneret. The K. in this Fight had apparently the Better on't, opened his Way to Oxford and London, the Next day took Banbury, while Essex retreated first to Warwick, then to Coventry, and left both the Field and the Palles.

Edinburgh, is the Capital City of the Km. of Scotland, and the Seat of their Kings. It stands on an Ascent, in a Serene Air, and a Fertile Soil, in Length from E. to W. about a Scotch m. but something less in Breadth. Well fortified, Magnificent in its Buildings, Populous and well Traded by its neighbourhood to the Port of Leith. At the East end it has a Royal-Palace called Holy-Rood-House, and delicate Park; and on the W. on an adjoining Rock a very strong Castle; which at the beginning of the Revolution was Garrison'd by the Duke of Gordon for the late K. James; but surrendered by him to K. William and Q. Mary, June 13. 1689. Here is also a University whose Founder was James VI. Nine Parish Churches supply'd by 22 Ministers. A College of Physicians, and another for the Education of Lawyers. Here all Provisions are very good and Cheap, if their Cookery was agreeable, Long, 16. 09. Lat. 56. 15. about 50 m. from the English Borders, and 200 from London.

EDM

Edmund, the 5 Son of Edward the Elder, succeeded to the Crown of England, immediately after his Brother Atbalstan. The Danes were very Troublesome in his Reign, and his Life was Shortened by a Notorious Robber whom he had Banished, who daring to appear among his Nobles at a Feast, which the King made them at Puckle Church in Gloucestershire, the King threw him from his Seat at the Table to the Ground; but he rising Stabbed the K. to the Heart with a Dagger, which the Nobles seeing Cut the Murderer to Pieces. The King was Buried at Gloucester.

Edmund, Surnamed Iron-side, 9 Son of K. Ethelred, stood up for the Saxon Succession against Cnutus the Dane, and was so Successful in his Arms, that he had cut off from the Danes all hopes of seeing this Km. if he had not been Betrayed by his Brother-in-Law Duke Edrick, in carrying his Forces to the Enemy when the Battel was begun. After much Bloodshed the 2 emulous Kings undertook by single Combat to end the Difference. Along a small Island near Gloucester, was the Place appointed for this Royal Duel, which was fought on both sides with great Courage, till Cnutus finding himself overmatch'd, and wounded by K. Edmund, propos'd an Agreement to him; upon which both Ks cast down their Swords, embraced one another, and divided the Km. between them. But K. Edmund enjoy'd his share but a little while, for he was barbarously murder'd by in 1307, and was buried at Westminster.

EDW

Edward II. called Edward of Carnarvon from the Place of his Birth. He was counted an unworthy Successor of his Royal Father; for he was a dissolute Prince, hated by the Nobles, and slighted by the populace: His Reign was both infamous and unfortunate; infamous by his Favourites, whom he countenanced in all their intolerable Oppressions and Insolencies, even to the Ruine of his Subjects, and the Hazard of his Crown; and unfortunate because it forc'd the old Struglers for Liberty, the Barons to take up Arms in Defence of themselves, and the People of England, who at last prevail'd, and the consequence prov'd fatal; for he was forced to resign the Crown to his Son Prince Edward, and soon after his Resignation was barbarously murder'd at Berkley Castle, by the procurement of Roger Mortimer Earl of March, the Q's guilty Favourite.

Edward III. commonly called Edward of Windsor, succeeded his Father upon his Resignation of the Crown, whose Wisdom and Valour made his Reign a Blessing to England, and a Scourge to France, and Scotland. To France he laid claim as next Heir by his Mother's side, upon the Death of her Brother Charles IV. youngest Son of Philip IV. who died without Issue. And such was his Success in those Wars, that he march'd into the Heart of France, and made great Devastations all along to the R. Seine, almost to the very Gates of Paris. In this Reign England had the Honour to have two foreign Kings Prisoners, viz. John K. of France, and David Bruce K. of Scotland. This Reign was also famous for the Institution of the Noble Order of the Garter, to increase Virtue and Valour among the Nobility; and for that great Champion of the Reformation on Dr. John Wickliffe. Thus all things carried a Face of Glory, till the incomparable Edward the black Prince died, whose Death hasten'd that of his Father, for he died not long after full of years, after a long and happy Reign, at his Manor of Sheen near Richmond in Surrey, on the 21 of June 1377, aged 64.

EDW

Edward IV. Eldest Son of Richard Duke of York, and the first K. of this Line, came to the Crown by Right of Descent from K. Edward III. for Anne his Mother was Daughter of Roger Mortimer, Son of Edmund Mortimer Earl of March, and Philippa his Wife, sole Daughter of Lionel Duke of Clarence, third Son of Edward III. and Elder Brother of John Duke of Lancaster. But he was fain to maintain his Right as he got it by the Sword. A Reign of prodigious Effusion of Blood, and Revolutions. Twice Henry V. became a Prisoner to Edward, and Edward once to Henry, and the Parliament always kept on the strongest side. Edward abdicated, and was forced to fly beyond Sea; Henry was restored from his Prison to the Throne: Then Henry was rejected and Edward readmitted. The Courage and Resolution of Q. Margaret, Henry's Wife, and the Earl of Warwick's changing sides, occasion'd all these intestine Wars; but Gladsmoor-Fight near Barnet, where that Earl was slain, and the Battle of Tewkesbury in Gloucestershire where the Q. was totally defeated, turn'd the Scale to Edward's side. Here the Q. was taken Prisoner, and Prince Edward her Son barbarously murder'd by Richard Duke of Gloucester, and the Good and Pious Henry had the same Fate, and the same Executioner not long after. K. Edward Reigned 23 Y. and was buried in the New Chapel at Windſor.

Edward V.

EDW

Edward V. K. of England, Elder Son of Edward IV. was not above 12 Y. of Age when his Father died, and his Uncle Richard Duke of Gloucester making himself Lord Protector, soon got the K. and his Brother Prince Richard into the Tower as his intended Sacrifices: By the help of the Duke of Buckingham he quickly flew to the Throne, causes the K. and his Brother Richard to be murder'd, and then rules alone at Will and Pleasure: So that the short Reign of this K. may rather be call'd the Tyranny of K. Richard III.

Edward VI. The only Son of Henry VIII. by Jane Seymour his third Wife, was about 10 Y. of Age, when he ascended the Throne. A Prince of great Hopes, of a solid Judgment, and Improvement in Learning above his Years. He was not very fortunate in Wars; but very happy in promoting the Reformation of Religion, in which his

EDW

the Death of the D. his Son, and innocent Daughter-in Law all on the Scaffold, under the Reign of Q. Mary. K. Edward having done many good Acts of Piety and Charity, died in the 16 Y. of his Age, the 6th of his Reign, Anno 1553, and was buried in St. Peter's Church in Westminster, near the Body of K. Henry VII. his Grandfather.

Edward Bruce, Brother to Robert Bruce, K. of Scotland, took part with the Irish against the English, and being more courageous than prudent, fought the English at so great Disadvantages, that there was no probability of Success; and therefore being taken Prisoner was beheaded at Dundalk, in 1317.

Edwin, the first Christian K. of Deira, being dispossess'd of his Dominions by Ethelfred K. of Bernicia, was re-instated in his Rights by Redwald K. of the E. Angles, by which means he was enabled to conquer Bernicia, and laying it to his igham, a T. in Surrey, giving to the Right Honourable Francis, Baron of Effingham.

EGY

ter, a Knot of Islands in the Sea, over-against the Tro-ry of Depratun, to the W.
rt, the first of the Saxon that was sole Monarch of En- after he had conquer'd the frx, that with his own made Hestarchy. He chang'd the of this Island from Britain to d, from the Ang'les an Anci-ople of Hstlein, who assisted his Expedition and Conquest s Km. His Reign was much ed by the Incursions of the who design'd to deal by the
 as they had done by the Bri- Thrice they invaded him, often he repuls'd them, and rid himself of these unwell-iusts, died in 835. and was at Winchester.

urd, an ingenious Person, that the Emp. Charlemain in quali-tary, and wrote the History
 r Great Prince, together with nals of France from 741, to 829.
 ed in great Reputation, in 848.
unt, a T. in the N. of Holland,
 as the Honour of giving Title Earls of Egmont, one of the pal Families of that Country.
unt, a m. T. in the Co. of land, in the Hundred of Al-
 ; upon the Banks of a R. not om the Sea; over which it ro Bridges. It had the Priviof electing Members of Par- te, but now has lost it, though at Reasons does not appear upr Records. From London 222 m.
 pt. is the most Ancient, most ul, and most Celebrated Km.
Africa. On the N. it has the rranean Sea; on the E. Arabia
 a, and the Red-Sea; on the S. is; on the W. Cyrene, and the is of Lybia. The R. Nile runs gh the whole length of it, and is the sole Cause of its Fertility, by overflowing it every Year in the Month of June. It is extended in Length from N. to S. 550 m. and in Breadth is 140 English m. Long.

EHU

 from 60. D. to 67. S. Lat. from 22 to 31. This Country was first peopled by Mssram the Son of Chus,
 the Grand-child of Noah by Ham, and maintained its Liberty under Princes of its own, till God gave them over to Nebuchadnezzar, A. M.
 3355. five Years after the Ruine of Jerusalem by the same Prince. Then Cambyses reduced them a second time in 3225. Xerxes conquered them in 3473. Artaxerxes subdued them in 3502. Alexander the Great became their Master in 3610. Pto-
 .my the Son of Lagus, began his Reign over them in 3625. from thence forward they were under the Romans, till this wretched Nation called in the Saracens, and Turks to expel the Greeks; under whose Tyranny and Oppression they still groan without hopes of Relief, and sigh out their Complaints for contributing to the Destruction of their Country, and their own perpetual Slavery: For Egypt is now nothing but a Skeleton of what it was. It was once called the Granary of the Romans, over-spread with Wealthy, Populous Cities and Towns, but now is Desolate, and all its Ancient Glory and Magnificence, is buried in Rubbish and Ruins. Grand Cairo, Alexandria, Rafet, and Damietta, are the only considerable Places left of 3000 T. that Strabo says were in his time, and of the 18000 that Antiquity beheld in the Age before;
 and from being esteemed the lear-nedst Prov. in the World; now nothing but a Universal Ignorance, and Barb. possesses their whole Country.

Ehud, a Judge of Israel, who to redeem his Country from Slavery killed Eglon K. of the Moabites, for which he was prefer'd to be a Judge,

E L E

Judge, and govern'd 80 Y. with great Satisfaction to the People.

Eichtelberg, a Mountain in the Marquisate of Culmbach, famous for giving Head to 4 R. in Germany, viz. the Mem, the Eger, the Nab, and the Saal.

Eisleben, a small C. in the upper Saxony in the Co. of Mansfeld, where Luther was born.

Elba, an Island in the Mediterranean Sea, between Piombino and the Isle of Corfica.

Elbe, one of the greatest Rivers in Germany, which was the fatal Boundary of the Roman Empire, to which they seldom came but with great Difficulty, and beyond which they could never get a Settlement.

Elbene, the Name of a Family in Florence, which have flourished there about 400 Y. last past.

Elbeuf, a T. in Normandy upon the R. Seine, 4 L. from Rheze, honoured with the Title of a Duchy.

Ellen, a C. in the K. of Prussia,

E L E

not to be concerned in this Affair. These seven Electors were the A-Bps of Mentz, Trier and Colign, the Co-Palatine, the D. of Saxony, the Marquis of Brandenburg, and the K. of Bohemia, who have since form'd themselves into a College, of which the Arch-Bp. of Mentz is the President, where all great Affairs of State, as well as the Election of the Emp. are transacted. Of the 7 Electors, three were Protestants, viz. the Elector Palatine, the D. of Saxony, and the Marquis of Brandenburg, who kept the Balance almost even between Papists and Protestants; but when the Elector Palatine was by the People chosen K. of Bohemia, and for that reason put to the Imperial Ban, and divested of all his Rights and Estates in the Empire; the Electorate was conferred upon the D. of Bavaria, who was of the Papist Perswasion, which was prejudicial to the Protestant Interest; for the Papists being five to two, Eleus, who had murder'd their Father.

E L E

Elementa, the Elements, or Physical Principles, whereof all Natural Bodies are composed. Pythagoras and Aristotle allowed 4 Elements, Fire, Air, Earth and Water, but Descartes allows but 3.

Eleucus, the God of Liberty and Truth, mention'd in Menander's Comedies.

Elephant, an Order of Knighthood instituted by Christiern I. K. of Denmark, at the Celebration of his Son Prince Jahn's Marriage.

Elephantina, a pleasant and fruitful Island of the R. Nile in Egypt, below the last of its Cataracts, not far distant from Ethiopia, where there is a Commerce between the People of those Countries.

Eleusis, an Ancient C. of Attica between Megara and the Portus Pyrae, one of the most celebrated in all Greece, for the Temples and Mysteries of the Goddess Ceres performed here, with other particular Mysteries in Honour of Proserpine and Hercules, some of which it was Death to discover. Solinus says, there is a Fountain of very Quiet Waters in that Country, which yet are moved with the Sound of a Flute, as if they were sensible of Harmony.

Eleutheria, Grecian Festivals, celebrated every 5th Y. in Honour of Jupiter Eleutherius, whom they call'd the Protector of Liberty, which were instituted upon their defeating 300000 Persians.

Eleutherius XV. Ep. of Rome, in whose Reign Christianity was generally embraced in Europe.

Eleutherius, Governour of Ravenna, under the Emperour Heraclius, who bribed the Soldiers to assist him in his Design of making himself K. of Italy, but they abhorring his Perfidy, made him shorter by the Head, and presented it to Heraclius.

E L I

Eleutherypolis, a C. of the Tribe of Juda in Palestine, 3 m. from Hebron, and 20 from Jerusalem.

E'gin, a small C. in the Co. of Murray in Scotland, upon the R. Loche.

Eltham, a m T. of Stepney in Kent, pleasantly seated among Woods on the side of a Hill, from 58 m. London.

Eli, who succeeded Samson, and was a High-Priest, and a Judge in the Jewish Nation, but neglecting to punish his lewd Sons, fell under God's displeasure, and was severely punish'd in several Instances; for the Hebrews were overcome in Battle by the Philistines, the Ark of God was taken, both his Sons were slain, and Eli at the News thereof, fell backward from his Seat and broke his Neck.

Elias Levita, an excellent Grammarian, and Hebrew Commentator, who lived in the last Cen.

Elias of Nisibis, a skilful Syriac Grammarian, who observed their want of Letters to express the Words they made use of in their Language, wherefore they were forced to serve themselves with Points, which being but conjectural, often rendred their words of ambiguous Interpretations.

Elidare, Brother to Archigal, and 3 times K. of Britain; 1. by his Brother's Deposition, whom he generously restored by force of Arms; 2. in his own Right; and 3. after being deposed by his two younger Brethren.

Elizer, a famous Rabbi of the Jews, whose Book call'd The Comments of R. Elizer, is by them thought the most ancient of the kind. Some say he liv'd about the 74 Y. of C. But others, that he wrote not before the 700.

Elijah, or Elias the Prophet of the Lord, in the Paint of Barthold Christ. Le. ...

E L I

after he had zealously and faithfully served his God, working many astonishing Miracles, he was taken up to Heaven alive in a fiery Chariot.

Elmnd, or Elimond, a Cistercian of Brumot Beaumont in the 12 Cent. wrote a Chronicle in 48 Books, from the Beginning, to Year of the World 1212.

Elismids, a Nestorian Abp. of Tado, in the 8th Cent. Condemn'd in two Synods, and the Council of Elisfert, and refuted by Charlemaigne, in a Letter.

Elis, now Belvedere, a Country of Thessaly, between Achaia, Allessania, and Acadia, wherein is the C. Elis Olympia, famous for the Olympick Games, and a Temple of Jupiter, also a C. on the River Penens of the same Name with that Country.

Elise, son of Isaiah, successor to Eli, in the Prophetick Office, famous for Miracles.

Elizabeth, Daughter to Hen. VIII.

E L P

of her Age, and lies buried in Minster-Abby.

Elizabeth, or Isabeau, Daughter to Philip IV. of France, and to Edward II. of England, a Woman more fair than virtuous: she seduced her Husband to resign the Crown to her Son Edward, and was accused of a criminal familiarity with Timor, who was seiz'd in her Apartment, and put to Death.

Elizabeth, or Isabel, Daughter to John II. King of Castile, and, was married in 1469, to Ferdinand V. of Aragon, (to which by her Marriage she added the K. of Catalonia) and had her Name join'd with his in Administration of the Government of Spain. She was enterprising and prudent, and first set on foot the Inquisition in her Kingdom.

Elizabeth Clara Eugenia, a prudent and religious Princess, and beloved of her Father Philip II. of Spain, who gave all his Dominions in the Low Countries in Dowry

ELY

Elpidius, B. of Laodicea, in the beginning of the 5th Cent. was condemn'd for defending St. Chrysostome.

Elseneur, a C. of Denmark in the Isle of Zealand, with a good Harbour, and a Castle that commands the Sound.

Elfsinburg, a strong Fortress of the Prov. of Schonen, in Sweden, opposite to Zeland.

Eltham, a m. T. of Kent in Black-Heath Hund. 8 m from London, pleasantly seated, and of much Resort.

Eltw, Lat. Elana, a C. of Arabia petraea upon the Red-Sea, of great Trade for East-India Goods.

Elva, or Telves, Lat. Helva, a C. of Portugal, and B. under the A. of Eura; it is strongly seated upon a Hill about 2 L. from Guadiana, and was in vain besieged by the Spaniards, in 1659.

Elvir, the 27th Caliph, or Successor of Mahomet, fled unto Egypt, where he was made Sovereign Pontiff.

Elvira Lat. Eliberis, a ruinous C. of Granada in Spain, once famous, where a Council was held in the Y. 305, as some think, or as others before St. Cyprian's time.

Elwang, a German C. in Snabia, on the R. Jaxt, 9 German m. N. of Ulm. Its Provost is a Pr. of the Empire.

Ely, Lat. Elia, or Helia, an Island in the R. Ouse, and a C. thereof, with a beautiful Cathedral, in the N. of Cambridgeshire. It gives name to a B. of a small Diocess, but considerable Revenue, being valued in the K's Books at 2134 l. 8 s. 5 d. The Clergy's Tithes amount to 384 l. 14 s. 9 d. It is 56 m. from London.

Elysians, an Ancient People in that part of Germany, where are now the Silesians.

Elysium, a word of an Hebrew, or Phenician Original, signifying a Place of Joy and Delight; whence Elysi-

EMA

an Fields were by Poets feigned to be the Retreat of Vertuous Souls: But where situated, Authors agree not, though Virgil and others say in Beatia.

Elzivirs, Printers in Holland famous for their charming Types, and numerous Books they publish'd. Daniel the last of them, died at Amsterdam, in 1680.

Emanuel Comnenus, prefer'd to his Elder Brother Isaac, succeeded his Father John Emperour of Constantinople. Conradus Emperour of Germany, whose Sister he had married, with Lewis the Younger, undertaking an Expedition to the East against the Infidels in his behalf, he endeavour'd to poison their Army, betray'd them to the Turks in 1147, and way-laid them in their Return. He broke his Faith to the Venetians, who made him shew for Peace; warr'd unfortunately with the Turks, and Hungarians; and died in 1180, after 57 y. Reign.

Emanuel II. succeeded his Father John Palaeologus, in the Empire of the E. Whilst Constantinople was besieged by the Turks, he went about asking Aid from all the European Princes. He resign'd the Empire to his Son, in 1419, wearied with ill Success; and taking the Name of Matthew, and a Religious Habit, died in 1425, in a Monastery.

Emanuel, Son to John D. of Viseo, succeeded John II. K. of Portugal. His Reign was prosperous, and Attempts successful; he expell'd the Moors, took several Towns in Africa, made considerable Discoveries on the Ethiopic Coasts, was a Lover of Learning, and wrote of the Indies. He died in 1521.

Emanuel Philibert, surnamed Iron-head D. of Savoy, was by Charles V. made K. of the Golden-Fleece, and General of the Imperial Army before Metz, and at the Battle of St. Quintins, in 1548, beat the French.

E M P

He went with Philip of Spain to England, was made Kt. of the Garter, and died in 1584.

Embs, the cap. C. of E. Friesland on the R. Ems, it is large, well built, a Place of great Trade, with an Excellent Harb'our, and defended by two Castles, it once was under the Dutch, but is now governed by Magistrates, and depends on the States General.

Embrun, or Andran, on the R. Saone, a C. in the Dauphinate, and a Seat. It is ancient, and famous for the Quarrels betwixt the Jews and Christians, and has 23 L. in G. 1780.

Emblem, Master of all the Standards, Colours, and Ensign-bearers, who march immediately before the Army, with a Standard half red, half Green, held before him.

Emmaus, a T. of Judea, a L. in the T. of Galilee, where Christ first appeared to his Disciples

E N C

tions of the Soldiers, and Decree of the Senate, to such as had gained a Battle, wherein 10000 of the Enemies were slain, or had conquered some very considerable Country; and last of all to Caesar, after he had usurped the Sovereign Power over the Republick, and his Successors. At present 'tis given to the Chief of the German Empire.

Empire, a large Extent of Dominion under one Sovereign, whereof four are most celebrated in History, viz. The Affyrian, Persian, Grecian, and Roman. The Name and Image of the last remains in that of Germany: See Germany.

Emporia, now Cagliari-Aragone, an Episcopal C. in Sardinia upon the R. Terno, with a good Haven, and strong Cittadel.

Emporeus sinus, Golfo di Sale, where stands the C. Sale, in the E. of Peru.

Emporium, Empoli, a T. in the D. of Fiorenze, on the R. Arno, under the

E N G

Eudymion, 12 R. of Elis in Peloponnesus, was expell'd his R. for losing at the Olympick Games. Retiring to Mount Latmos in Caria, he carefully observ'd the Stars, and thence was feign'd of the Poets to be belov'd of the Moon.

Engedi, a C. of Palentine, now ruinous, famous for its Vineyards.

Engelbert, an Abbot, that wrote an History of the Rise, and End of the Roman Empire, about the End of the 12th Cent.

Egeriacum, St. Jean d'Angeli, a T. of Xanten, on the R. Vulturna, formerly fortify'd by the Reform'd, but dismantled by Lewis XIII

Egern, a German T. in the Co. of Rauensterg, in Westphalia, 7 or 8 L. from Munster.

Egers, a fair T. and Castle, with a Noble Bridge over the Rhine, in the A. of Triers, between Coblentz, and Andernach.

Engbien, a rich T. in Brabant, nigh to Steenkirk, 12 m. S. W. of Brussels, and 16 N. of Mont.

Engia, or Engina, an Isle in the Archipelago, about 35 m. in compass, whose chief City is of the same Name.

England, a famous and flourishing Km. is the best, largest, and most S. ern Part of Great Britain, which together with Scotland, from which 'tis parted by the R. Tweed and Solway, on the N. and Wales to the W. makes up that Island. It lies between the 17 and 22 Deg. of Lon. and 50 and 57 of N. Lat. being 325 m. long, and 279 broad. In which Space of Ground there are above 28 Millions of Acres of Land, divided into 40 Shires or Counties, wherein are near 10000 Parishes, under 23 B. whereof two are A. The Air is temperate and wholesome, the Soil generally fruitful, water'd with 325 R. the Inhabitants ingenious, courageous and industrious. It abounds in Plenty of all things, whether for the Necessities or Conveniencies of Life; has the most Excellent Government; and the best Religion in the World; flourishes in Learning, Civility, Arts, and Trade: Its Armies are formidable by Land, its Fleets by Sea. The Country is rich, the Poor well provided, the Land well husbanded, the Pastures filled with best and biggest Cattel, Seas and Rivers with Fish, Woods and Fields with Game. In fine, were mutual Union and Concord, join'd with Gratitude to the Almighty Donor; nothing would be wanting to consummate the Felicity of the Inhabitants.

E N N

Enico, Count of Bigorre in Gascogne, took the Title of K. of Navarre, and Co. of Aragon, having drove the Saracens from thence; and ordered that, Heirs-Male failing, Daughters should succeed.

Enedinus, (George) a Hungarian, and subtle Anti-Trinitarian, wrote a Treatise, call'd, Explic. Inscr. Scriptura Vet. & Nro. Testam. &c. ex quibus Digna Trinit. Stabiliri solet.

Enipeus, a R. of Theffaly, running through Pharsalia, where Pompey was defeated by Cesar.

Enisis, a small Sicilian R. that passes through the Valley of Demonia, to the Sea.

Encoping, a C. of Upland in Sweden, near the Lake Mejer, 5 or 6 L. from Upsal.

Enna, now Castro Johanni, an ancient C. upon a Lake in the Middle of Sicily, famous for a Temple of Ceres, and fine Springs.

Enneskilling, a T. of Ulster in Ireland, remarkable for the Bravery of its Inhabitants, who signaliz'd themselves against the French and Irish, in the beginning of K. William's Reign.

Ennius, (Quintus) an ancient Latin Poet, born at Rudii in Calabria, A. R. 515. wrote several Books of Annals,

F N S

Annals, Satires, Comedies, and Tragedies, all lost but some Fragments.

Felix, (Marcus Felix) B. of Paphlagonia, lived in the 6th Cent. and was one of the greatest Writers of his Age.

Felix, or Timon, a C. of Romania by the Thracians, on the R. Mariza, a B. under the Patr. of Constantinople, subject to the Turks. +

Fenice, the Son of Cain, after whose Name the first City was called. +

Fenich, Son of Troed of the Race of Israhel, was taken from the Earth by God, having walked uprightly in his Sight, after he had lived 355 Years.

Enoch, a famous Orator born at Achil, the first Restorer of Learning in the W. He redeemed what Books he could from the Turks, after the Conquest of Greece.

Fen, the Son of Seth, supposed by some to be the first that intro-

E P A

Entella, now Lavagna, a R. of Liguria, in Italy, rising from the Apennines, and running into the Mediterranean.

Entimopus, a famous Architect of Candia, in the 5 Cent. who built the first House where Venice now stands, afterwards converted to a Church.

Entre-Duro e Minho, the most Pleasant and Populous Pro of Portugal, so called from its Situation, 'tis 12 L. long, and 12 broad, containing 1400 Parishes, above 130 Monasteries, and 6 Sea Port P. and good C.

Eum, or Eum, a Gentleman of Bretaign, that hearing them sing in Church, Per Eum qui venturus est Judicare Vivos et Mortuos, fancy'd himself to be that Eum, and persuaded also a great many others, of whom several chose rather to burn, than lay down their Beliefs; but he being apprehended, and committed, died in Prison: about

E P H

Pelopidas; and being made General by the Thebans, after they had shaken off the Yoke of the Lacedæmonians, gave them such an overthrow at Leuctra, that they irrecoverably lost the Superiority of Greece. At Mantineæ he gained a second Battle, where being wounded with a Javelin, he would not suffer it to be pulled out, till his Enemies were quite defeated, and then tearing it out, he breath'd forth his Soul in Joy and Triumph. Lysis, a Pythagorean, taught him Musick and Philosophy. He was Learned, Wise, Prudent, Martial and Courageous, and loved the truth to such a degree, that he would not so much as tell a lye in jest. He died An. R. 391.

Epaphus, a Grecian, who wrote a History of the Temple of Diana at Ephesus. Also the Son of Jupiter and Io, who was K. of Egypt, and built Memphis.

Epauum, or Epina, a C. in the ancient K. of Burgundy, where Sigismund K. thereof, held a Council, after abjuring Arianism.

Eperies, a C. of Hungary on the R. Tarka near Poland, under the Emperour.

Epeus, K. of Phœcis, first invented the Battering Ram, and is said to have built the Trojan Horse.

Ephællion, an Intimate Favourite, and Close-Friend of Alexander the Great, with whom he communicated his greatest Secrets. He married the Sister of Statyra, Daughter of Darius, and Wife of Alexander, who told Sisygambis, that had mistaken Ephællion for himself, that she was in the Right, for he was Another Alexander. He died at Ecabatus, to the unspeakable Grief of Alexander, who for three days after would not Eat; but Sacrificed to him as a God, and expended 1200 Talents on his Funeral.

Ephesia, Tœbean Festivals in Memory of Tiresias, wherein his Image was clothed first in Women's, then in Men's Apparel.

E P H

Ephesus, situated upon the R. Cayster in Ionia, was once one of the most splendid C. of the lesser Asia. Here was a Temple of Diana, that was 200 Y. in finishing, though done at the Charges of all Asia Minor, which was accounted one of the wonders of the World. Here the beloved Disciple S. John lived, wrote, and probably died. To the Church here, S. Paul wrote an Epistle; and here was celebrated a general Council in 431. It has now lost both its Ancient Name and Greatness, remaining only a sad Spectacle of Barbarous Fury, and is called by the Turks Ajafalove.

Ephete, a Judicatory appointed by K. Demophoon for Casual Murders, made up of 50 Athenians, and as many Argives, who were to be of 50 Y. of Age, and unstained Repute.

Ephialtes, Son of Neptune, a Giant, who trusting to his prodigious strength and Bulk, with his Brother Ochus, made War on the Gods, and was thrown into Hell by Jupiter.

Ephori, Lacedæmonian Magistrates, 5 in number at a time, of absolute and Supreme Power, having the Publick Treasure, War and Peace at their Disposal. They also had the care of Religion, and presided in publick Shews and Festivals. The Kings themselves were to obey their Summons, as a Check to whose Power, they were set up by Theopompus K. of Sparta.

Ephraim, the Younger Son of Joseph the Patriarch, but preferred by his Grandfather Jacob to the Elder; by his Name was called one of the Tribes of Israel. Also a Grecian, Chronologist that wrote of the Emperors of Rome in Lucibick.

E P I

Ephrem, Deacon of the Church of Edeffa, whose Works, translated by Ger. Vossius, were printed with his Life at Antwerp, in 1619.

Epicharis, a meanly born but Courageous Woman, who in her Torments for Conspiring against Nero, would not discover her Partners; but flew her self, lest she should do it, under a second Torture.

Epicharmus, a Poet and Pythagorean Philosopher, Author of divers Comedies and other Pieces, and In-venter of the Letters θ and γ .

Epictetus, a Phrygian of Hierapo-lis, though slave to the Captain of Nero's Guards, was yet a Stoick Philosopher, more famous and Admir'd than his Master, his earthen Lamp being sold after his Death at 3000 Drachma's. His Scholar Arrian the Historian, published 4 Books of his Discourses, and polished his Enchir-ridion, deservedly valued and esteem-ed by Great Men. He summed up Philosophy in 2 Words Beast and

E P I

Malvasia; and a third called As-sa: which see.

Epimenides, a Cretan Epick Poet that is said to have slept 27 Y. in a Cave. He is cited by S. Paul Titus.

Epimetheus, Prometheus's Bro-ther and Son of Jupiter, is said to have formed the Foolish Men, as his Brother the Wise and Ingenious; and in-giving a Box sent by his Wife Pan-ra, he filled the World with Mis-eries and Mischief, and was at last turned to an Ape by Jupiter, and banished to Desarts.

Epiphanius, Son of Carpocratus, a Heresiarch, and Follower of Mar-tin, was adored after Death by the Cephalonians.

Epiphany, a Feast in Memory of the Appearance of Christ to the Wise Men, whereby they were conducted from the E. to that place where Christ lay; who are thought to have come from Arabia Felix.

Epiphanius, Bishop of Salam

E P S

by the Death of Scanderbeg is came under the Power of the Turks; only Corfu and Torone are now under the Venetians.

Episcopius, (Simon) was one of the Chief Remonstrants in the Low-Countries, and Professor of Divinity at Leyden: he dyed in 1693; and his Works were printed, in 1678, in 2 Vol.

Epitus, K. of the Messenians, who having ascended the Throne, by means of the Dorians and Arcadians, punish'd the Murderers of his Father, and gain'd so much on the Affections of his Nobles and People, that from his Name, his Successors were call'd Epitides, though before, Heraclides.

Epocha, from ἐπιχρᾶ to stop or hold, importing a Bound or Limit, is a certain Time, wherein something notable or memorable hath fallen out, whence Chronologers begin their Computations: Of these there are many, but reducable in general to the Sacred and the Profane; the first are taken from Scripture, as the Creation, Deluge, Birth of Abraham, &c. the latter from other Accounts, as the Ogygian Deluge, Re-establishment of Olympick Games, Foundation of Rome, &c.

Epomeus, a burning Mountain in Ischia, an Isle of the Tyrrhene-Sea; whence in 1300, and often before that, issued fiery Torrents, that frighted away the Inhabitants; 'tis now called Monte Sancto Julianno.

Epping, or Eppingstreet, a T. in the W. of Essex, 15 m. from London, with two great weekly Markets for Cattel, and one for Provision.

Epistina, a Woman of an Heroick Courage, who after much Labour and Pain, sustain'd on Account of her Husband Julius Sabianus, being condemn'd by Vespasian, suffer'd Death with Constancy.

Epsom, a T. in Surry, about 14 m. from London, of a good Air and pleasant Situation, with Mineral waters, that are successfully used externally in Sores and Ulcers, and internally to several Purposes.

E R A

Ephorones, Priests that, with the Romans, presid'd at Feasts and Sacrifices in Honour of the Gods; three in Number at first, then 7, and after 10.

Equi, a People near, but Enemies to Rome, till subdu'd by Fabius Maximus.

Era, or Mra, a Tribute impos'd on the Spaniards by Augustus, 39 Y. before Christ, and thence used by Authors, to signify the beginning of some extraordinary Change in the World; the most famous are that of Nabonassar, that of the Seleucida, and the Christian Mra.

Erasistratus, Grandson of Aristotle by his Daughter, a famous Physician at the Court of Seleucus Nicator, who wrote much in his Science, and is often cited by Pliny.

Erasmus, (Desiderius) born at Rotterdam, about the Y. 1466, was first a singing Boy at Utrecht; then sent to study at Deventer, and afterwards became a Canon Regular of Augustin. He travell'd in France, England, and Italy, in the mean time, obliging the World, by publishing several of his Books. He was courted to reside with them, by Pope Paul III. Clement VII. K. Henry VIII. Francis I. Charles V. Sigismund K. of Poland, Ferdinand K. of Hungary, and divers other Princes, whereby they did not more Honour to this deserving Person, than Right to their own Judgment, in shewing a due Regard to Merit; but he would hearken to none, preferring Liberty to Riches and Honour. All the Learn'd of Europe, esteem'd him, and had Entercourse with him by Letters. His deservedly valued Works, are nine Volumes in French Edition. He died at Basle, in 1536, in the Roman, or rather Catholic

ERE

Christian Communion; and is admired of all, but such as for the Spirit of a Party, have abandon'd that of Christ.

Erasmus, (Joannes) being Rector of the School at Antwerp, was forc'd to fly thence, for the Unitarian Opinion, into Holland, where he disput'd with Socinus, about the Pre-existence of the Son of God before all Creatures.

Erasmus, a Physician of Baden in Switzerland, famous in his Faculty, in which he hath written several Books; but chiefly for his Treatise, wherein he denies the Power of Excommunication to the Church, refuted by Dr. Hammond, and others.

Erato, the Muse of Love-Poems; she is represented as a young Gay-humour'd Maid, with a Harp in the Right-hand, a Bow in the Left, having by her, a little Cupid wing'd, and arm'd with Dows and Arrows.

Erchenbold, Co. de Burban, a Per-

ERI

Erford, or Erford, the Capital of Thuringia in the Circle of Saxony, was in 1417 burnt to Ground, and after in such manner re-edify'd, that 'tis said rather be a Pro. than a C. 'Tis Luth. and under the Protection of it of Saxony, adorn'd with fair Churches, several Abbies, and a Castle.

Erkelens, & T. in the D. of Silesia, under the D. of Aemburg m. from Juliers.

Erichthinius, the 4th K. of Assyria having Dragon's Feet, is said to have first invent'd Chariots, & them; and to be the first that used Silver. Also a K. of Phrygia, 2605, that reigned 65 Y.

Ericus; there have been many Kings of this Name: of the 1st History is silent. Ericus III. a valiant and Prudent Pr. died at C. on his way to Palestine. Erid was murder'd, being of a cruel disposition. Ericus V. was unfutime ruled with a very unsteady Conduct, he was deposed and imprisoned by his Brothers, John and Charles, whereof the first succeeded him.

ERI

Ericus, (Peter) being Commander for Venice on the Adriatick, and having taken a Turkish Vessel with a Cargo worth 80000 Crowns, killed 250 Men of this, and the Ship with it; flew with his own hands, the Young Son of the deceased Basha of Tripoli, in his Mothers Arms, caused 40 Women to be first ravished, then cut in Pieces, and thrown in the Sea; for which Barbarity he was beheaded by the Senate, who sent the Prize to Amurat III.

Erigone, Upon the Discovery of her Father Icarus's Death by his Dog Mera, hanged her self on a Tree; after which the Athenian Maids, transported with like Fury, hanged themselves in great Numbers, till by order of the Oracle Games were celebrated to appease her Ghost. But Jupiter, in reward of the Daughters Viery, and the Fidelity of the Dog, turned her into the Constellation Virgo, this into the Dog-star, and the Father Icarus into Botes.

Erisichthon, a Lord of Thessaly, who for cutting a Forest sacred to Ceres, was in such sort afflicted with Famine, that for Bread he prostituted his Daughter, and at last eating his own Flesh, died of Despair.

Erith, a m. T. in Huntingdonshire, near Cambridge, and Another in the M. W. of Kent.

Eritrea, a C. of Iolia, a B. under the A-Bp. of Ephesus, which gave Birth and Name to one of the Sibyls, that lived in time of the Trojan War, and foretold the Destruction of that City. By her verses, that were collected by the Romans, she condemns the Multiplicity of Gods. To her are ascribed the Acrosticks on these words, Iesus Christus, Dei Filius, Servator, Crux. Wherein she foretels the first and second coming of the Son of God.

ERM

Erivan, a C. of Armenia on the Borders of Persia, situated on a Rock, in a wholesome Air, and Pleasant Country. It has a Fortress like a little T. wherein is a Magnificent Palace of the Governor, and a Garrison of 2500 Men; several Churches with a Cathedral; a large Square Place encompassed with Trees, for publick Exercises and Divertisements. In the Caravansera's or Inns, that are very commodious Merchants have Lodging and Warehouses for nothing. It has been several times taken by the Turks, but still retaken by the Persians; and is very considerable for its Silk-Trade.

Erkenwald, Son of Offa K. of the E. Saxons, being converted to Christianity, was made B. of Lmd. in 675, he was of a Holy Life, and converted Sebbe, K. of the E. Saxons; he enlarged S. Paul's Cathedral, in buildings, Revenue and Privileges; where he was buried, in 689.

Ermenul, or Hermenul, an Idol of the Old Westphalian Saxons, in a stately Temple upon the Hill Eresberg, now Stadtberg, thought by most to be Mars, by some Aterius; but destroyed by Charlemagne, who conquering that People, turned this Idol Temple, into a House of God, in the Y. 799.

Ermeric, a K. of the Suevians who passed into Spain in the Vth. Cent. and reigned there 31 Y.

Erminstreet-way, a Causey that goes from Royston to Huntington.

Ernestus, D. and first Elector of Saxony, Grand-child of Frederick II. called the Warrior, was a Wise and Prudent Prince, who being made Umpire of their Differences,

E R R

Reconciled 3 Kings, viz. of Poland, Bohemia and Hungary. He lived in the XVth. Cent.

Eropus, or Erops K. of Macedon, succeeded his Father Philip I. A. M. 4356. Being yet an Infant, he was carried in his Cradle to the field against the Illyrians, who had defeated the Macedonians thinking thus to animate the Soldiers; who accordingly, rather than abandon their little Prince to the Enemies fury, fought resolutely, and gained the Victory.

Eros, a Slave of M. Antonius, who instead of running his Master through with his Sword, as he had commanded him after his defeat at Actium, there with pierc'd his own Heart, expiring at his Feet.

Erostratus, an Ephesian, burnt the Temple of Dion, that he might be famous; for which the very Mentioning his Name, was severely prohibited.

Ersach, a small German C in

E S A

Surname of Hey, the first Wife of which, was in 980. in the Reign of Kenneth III. when the Scots flying before the Danes, were stop'd, by a Countryman and his two Sons plowing in the Neighbouring fields, at a narrow Passage, and being by them, armed only with what the Plough afforded, encouraged, rallied, and led against the Enemy, gave them a total overthrow; thus freeing their Country from Danish Slavery; for which the Father, besides rich Rewards of Spoil, was ennobled by the K. in Parliament, and had as much Land assigned him, as a Falcon without lighting did fly over. From this time to the Reign of K. Robert I. the History of this Family is mostly lost, though yet they are mentioned in Charters; but since that time, successively, there have been 18 Lords of the Family, all of them hereditary High-Constables of Scotland, whereof 12 have been Earls; the Present L.

ESC

rob, A. M. 2129. He was Father of the Edomites.

Escobar, (Anthony) of Mendoza a Spanish Jesuit, in 1650. He wrote several theological Tracts.

Eschbrakites, a Mahometan Sect, who think Man's Chief good is the Contemplation of God : they fly all Vice, are ever in good Humour, love Musick and Poetry, and slight the Earthly Paradise of Mahomet. Of this Sect, are their Chief Preachers.

Escure, a Prov. of Morocco fertile in Corn and Pasturage, where Turkey-Leather is drest, and good Cloth made.

Escorial, a Village in New-Castile, upon the R. Guadara, small but famous for a stately Palace of the K. of Spain with a Monastery, and College. The first has 17 Cloisters and 22 Courts, and many Magnificent Apartments, being all built of a very beautiful Stone, of the Marble kind. In the Monastery are five Cloisters, one whereof is for the Apothecaries : The Church is dedicated to S. Lawrence, and embellished with many Pictures, and Figures of Brass gilt, of exquisite Work-manship; the Sanctuary is adorned with numerous Precious Stones; the Pyx is valued at 500000 Crowns; the Great Altar rises with 17 Steps of Porphyry, and is encompassed with 4 Rows of Jasper Columns, under which is the Sepulcher of the Ks. built by Philip IV. called Nostra Donna de la Rotonda, and also the Pantheon, from its Likeness to that of Rome. The College, hath four Cloisters, and many large Apartments; as also 3 Libraries wherein are 18000 Volumes, whereof 3000 are in Arabick. The whole Building was 38 Y. a finishing, and with all its Furniture and Ornaments cost about 3130102 l. in English Money.

ESP

Esdras, or Exra, a Priest and Doctor of the Jewish Law, much favoured by Artaxerxes Longimanus, and sent by him with Authority and Presents to Jerusalem, for Restoring the Worship, and Adorning the Temple of the True God. He is thought to have collected into one, the Books of the Old Testament, and divided them in 22, after the Number of Letters, and distinguished the Verses; also to have introduced the Chaldee Character, leaving the old to the Samaritans; and in fine to have founded a School in Jerusalem, and left Rules for Dissolving Scriptural Difficulties. Of the four Books attributed to him, that in Hebrew which bears his Name, is only uncontroverted.

Esens, a T. of East-Friesland in Westphalia, under the Pr. of Emden.

Est, the Name of a R. in the S. W. of Scotland, from which a County called Est-Dale has its Denomination. There are also other Rs. in that R. of the same Name.

Essling, or Eßlingen, a small yet Free and Imperial C. of Swabia, standing on the R. Neckar, under the D. of Wirtemberg, that suffer'd much in the Wars.

Espenceus (Claudius) a Divine in the XVIth. Cen. of Noble Birth. great Piety and Learning Joined with Candor and Moderation, employed by several French Ks. as Commissioner or Arbitrator in Religious Affairs. He left Learned Commentaries on several Parts of Scripture. Dyed in the 60, Y. of his Age, at Paris, 1571.

Esperie, a strong Hungarian T. being the Chief of the Co. of Saros, seated on the R. Tarkzal, towards the Frontiers of Poland, taken in 1678 by Co. Teckely from the Emperour; but recovered in 1685.

Espernay,

ESS

Espernay, a French T. in Champagne, on the Main, where is an Abby of the Order of S. Austin.

Epinal, a small C. of Lorraine, on the M. Meuse, belonging to France, impaired by the Wars.

Epino, a T. in Flanders, between Lille and Doway, with the Title of a Principality.

Esquepue, an Arabian Tribe, that in 999 with two more parted into Africa; they spread over all the E. of Barbary, being in Number 5000 Men, and Conquered several Provinces. This Tribe is parted into divers Communities, that live in Villages, which they move from one Place to another, made up of 150 or 200 Tents each, pitched in a circular Order, with a Void space for Cattel in the middle, that has only two Entries; which, to exclude the Wild Beasts, they shut up with Briars and Bushes in the Night.

Effect, or Offet, a Great, Populous, well Traded, but not very

ESS

Head they set in Gold, and Sacrificed to it as an Idol.

Essen, a C. in the D. of Berg in Westphalia, on the Confines of Mark, Once Imperial, but now under the D. of Kenwig.

Essenes, or Essenians, a Sect famous among the Jews, like in many things to the Pythagoreans; Their Goods were in Common, they spurned all Pleasures, and Marriage, wore white Garments, forbade Oaths, drank only Water, offered things inanimate to God, were very respectful of their Elders, and so rigid Observers of the Sabbath, that they would not so much as ease or supply Nature, unless pressed by Necessity. Others of them married not Procreation, but companied not with their Wives till after three Years, and not at all while pregnant. They were divided into Practicks, that liv'd in C. and wrought in Handy-Grates; and Theoreticks, who in solitary Places gave themselves to

ETH

of Cloth, Stuff, Bays, Says and Serges. Besides the Honour of being an Earl, it has the Privilege of returning two Knights to Parliament, who now are, Sir Charles Barrington, and Sir Francis Masham, Baronets.

Estamps, a T. and Dutchy in Beauce in France, a L. from Paris to the S. and 25 from Orleans to the N. It is situate on the Saure at the Confluence of another small River, called La Riviere d'Estamps, and has been honoured not only with French Synods, but with the Assemblies of the States.

Estaples, a Sea-Port T. in the Co.
of Boulogne in Picardy, 16 m. from Diepe, and 10 from Calais.

Este, a T. in the Dominion of the State of Venice, in the District of Padua, upon the R. Bachiglione.

Esther, Niece to the Patriot Mirdaci, who being preferred to be the Wife of K. Abasverus, saved the Jews from Destruction, which had been contrived by the Favourite Haman, and ready to be executed.

Estonia, a Prov. in Lithuania, now belonging to the K. of Sweden, the Capital C. in it is called Revel.

Estotiland, a great tract of Land in the N. of America, towards the Arctic Circle, and Hudson's Bay. It was first discovered by some Friesland Fishermen driven thither by tempestuous Weather, almost 200 years before Columbus.

Esturville, a T. in the upper Normandy in France, advanced to the Quality of a Dukedom by Francis I.

Estremadura, a Prov. of the K. of Portugal at the Mouth of the Tagus upon the W. Ocean. The Principal C. in it is Lisbon, the Capital of the Km. There was another Prov. of this Name in Castile, that now has lost it.

Ethelbald, K. of England, eldest Son of Ethelwolf, was a valiant Prince and gave great proof's of his valour

ETH

the Danes. But his Incestuous Marriage with his Father's Widow, blasted all his great Acts. He Reigned not full 3 Y. and was buried first at Shirburn in Devonshire, and afterwards removed to Salisbury.

Ethelbert, K. of England, second Son of Ethelwolf, was never free from Wars, but always pester'd with those devouring Locusts the Danes, who wasted England from the N. as far as Winchester, this K.
Reigned 6 Y.

Ethelred, K. of England, 3d Son of Ethelwolf, was no sooner in the Throne, but a great Army of Danes landed on the English Coasts, who burnt York, and laid all waste before them wheresoever they came. With these Danes K. Ethelred fought Nine Battles in one year, and often came off victoriously; but in the last near Basing, received a mortal wound whereof he dyed at Wettington, and was buried at Winburn.

Ethelstan, K. of England, tho' born of a Concubine, succeeded his Brother Alfred, in prejudice of his Children's Right, and is said to be the first Anointed K. of England. He Subjected the Danes, so that they mixed with the English, and incorporated with them. He overcame Constantine K. of Scots, and Howel
Duke of S. Wales, but restored them again saying, it was a greater Honour to make than to be a K. He Subdued the Island of Scilly, and an-nexed it to the Crown of England.
He died after 25 Y. Reign, and was buried at Malmstury, having been a Prince of great Fame throughout all Europe.

Ethelwolf, K. of England, was the eldest Son of Egbert: the first Saxon K. of all England, after he had put an end to the Heptarchy.
He was bred a Clergy-man, and accordingly proved fiercer for a Mitre than a Crown. He married Judith the fair daughter of the King

E U G

ing two Burgesses to Parliament; who now are, Hugh Parker, and John Rudge, Esquires. The Town is 72 m. from London, and is the Barony of John Lord Somers.

Eugenius, the Daughter of a Noble Roman, who, with her Father, was Honour'd with the Crown of Norwiden in 260.

Eug. II. the 25th K. of Scotland, had several Conflicts with the Picts, and Generally was Victor; but when they were assisted by the Romans, the Scots were totally defeated, and for many Years abandon'd their Country to their inveterate Enemies the Picts, till they declining in the Favour of the Romans, made way for the Return of the Scots into their Native Country.

Eugenius II. succeeded his Father Fergus II. and was a Valiant, Polite, and Pious Prince, though miserably afflicted with War and Famine, till the Romans were called home to defend their own Country, and then there was some Re-which continuing seven Days, their Waters, Milk, Butter and Cheese were turned into Blood. He was a Prince much addicted to Reading Divinity, and was a good Professor in that Study. He had many skirmishes with the Picts, but never came to decide the Dispute in a Pitch'd field.

E U G

Eugenius VII. the 59th K. of Scotland, made an Agreement with the Picts, and confirmed a Peace, by marrying Spondana Daughter of the King Garnardus. She was soon after murdered in her Bed, upon a Mistake by two Atrob Ruffians, who thought it had been the King's Bed. However, none but the King being in the Room where the Murder was committed, he was accused, but Providence so order'd it, that before he could be sentenc'd, the Murderers were apprehended, severely punished, and the K. acquitted.

Eugenius VIII. the 62 K. of Scotland, was very vigilant, courageous and circumspect, while he was on-contents, retired to Truoli, where he died.

E V O

Eugenius IV. a Venetian, a Pope whose Reign was checker'd with Variety of good and bad Fortune, but seldom at a stay. Sometimes in War and successful; otherwhiles Deposed, Banished, and Persecuted, till at last he return'd to Rome, defeated his Enemies, and died after he had sat 15 Y. 11 Months and 2 Days.

Evil-merodach, Son of Nebuchadnezzar K. of Babylon, succeeded his Father, An. M. 3390.

Eulalius, Antipope, was put into the Chair by a Faction; but was expelled Rome by the Emperor Honorius.

Eulogius, Patriarch of Alexandria, succeeded Joh. IV. and was in high Esteem for his Learning and Piety.

Eulogius of Corduba, laid down his Life as a Martyr, for the Truth of Christianity.

Eumenes, K. of Asia and Pergamus, between whom and his Brothers, there was such a strict and endearing Alliance, that they were celebrated as Examples of Fraternal Concord.

Eunapius, a Pseudo-Historian, that slander'd the persecuted Christians, and commended Julian the Apostate, before Constantine the Great, whose very Enemies loved and honoured him.

Eunomius, an Arch-Heretick in the 4th Cen. who maintained that God the Father, was of a different Nature from God the Son, because no Creature could be endued with the same perfections as the Creator: And re-baptized all that had been baptized, in the Name of the holy and undivided Trinity.

Eusebius, Bp. of Antioch, about whom there is a Dispute, whether he or St. Ignatius the second was immediate Successor to St. Peter; but this is certain that he suffer'd Martyrdom, An. C. 71.

E U R

Eura, a considerable C. in Portugal, 20 m. from Lisbon S. E. It was sometime Suffragan to Compostella; but Pope Paul III. rais'd it to the Honour of a Metropolis, and Henry, the first Arch-Bp. who of a Cardinal, became K. of Portugal, made it an University. Here is a Court of Inquisition kept, of which a late French Gen. has given us the History.

Euphrates, is one of the most celebrated Rs in the World, called by the Arabians Prat: it springs from the Mountain Ararat in Armenia Major, and running to the W. receives the Harpage and Arfemetes; then it bends to the S. and divides the greater Armenia from the lesser. There it washeth Mesopotamia on the W. and S. and divides it from Syria and Arabia Deserta; at Ctesiphon it runs into the Tygris, with which it falls into the Persian Gulph below Teredon and Balsera. Some of the Branches of this famous R. have found new Channels, where the old ones have been dam'd up by Slime and Sand, which have been left there by the R. and have choak'd it up. The Branch that streams to Cusa, cannot reach the Sea; for 'tis suckt up in the Sands of Arabia, and has turn'd the Fertile Plains of Babylon, into a meer Morass, and unpassable Bog. Pliny and Strabo both agree, that it annually overflows, as the R. Nile does, much about the same time, and has the same effect, in rendering Mesopotamia fruitful, as Nile has upon Egypt, according to the best Description given us by Mr. Thevenot.

Eureux, a C. in upper Normandy, beautified with a great Number of Churches and Monasteries; a Place of good Antiquity, and a delightful Situation.

Euripides, a famous Tragic Poet; in great favour with Archelaus K. of Macedonia. He wrote 75 Tragedies,
M m m 2

E U R

and by some was call'd the Woman Hater, not that he had an Antipathy to the Sex, for he was twice married, but because he saw'd the Women out of the Stage, not as they seem to do, but what they truly were.

Euboea, is a Chief of the Aegean Sea, between the Region of Boeotia in Greece, and the Island of Negropont, by a narrow Passage, to which there is a Draw-bridge and 18000000 of five Arches; the River which runs down from Thrace into the Sea, is called the Thracian Elbs and flows into the Sea in 24 Hours, 18 or 19 Cays, in every Week Winter and Summer, and in the other eleven days it never flows and flows in 24 or 25 Cays.

Euripides, the Son of Igeus, K. of Salamina, was a great, famous, and celebrated Poet, and in the Dorian City of Corinth of opinion that the World was Nine thuse. In Length from Cape St. Vincent in Spain, to the mouth of the R. Ohio in America, tis 1300 English, or 900 German Miles. Fr. in Cape Mustapha in the Algera, to the N. Cape in Finmark in Normy, 850 English, or 540 German Miles: Lying between 34 and 72 Deg. of Lat. and betwixt 0 and 22 or 23 of Long.

E U S

Europa, or Europus Son of Ascalus, second K. of the Sacrynsas, who some think gave Europe its name, being one of the first Es that Reigned in it, and not Europa the daughter of Agenor.

Euratas, a R. of Laonia, rising in Arcadia, and falling into the Gulf of Callet Rampant. Also another in Thessaly.

Euridice, Wife of Orpheus, who flying from Antheus K. of Arcadia, attempting to Ravish her, trod upon a Serpent, and died by his Sting. Orpheus to recover her went to Hell, and with his Musick so charmed Pluto and Proserpina, that they granted him his Wife upon condition though Monseieur Le Clerk, Baronius, and others charge him with Arianism, from some ambiguous expressions in his Works, yet he is sufficiently vindicated from this Aspersion by the Learned Dr. Cave. He dyed about 440.

E U S

Eusebius, Bp. of Vercell, was a constant maintainer of the true Christian Faith, and would not consent to the Deprivation of Athanasius, though he had the example of the whole Council of Milan to influence, or rather Byass him into a Compliance. He dyed in the Y. 371.

Eusebius, Bp. of Samosata, was persecuted by the Emp. Valens, for his steadfastness in the Faith; not long after whose death, being order'd by the Council of Antioch to Oversee and Instruct the Churches of Mesopotamia, and going to Doliche for that purpose, he was knocked on the head with a Brick thrown at him by an Arrian Woman in 378.

Eustachius, before his Conversion to Christianity was called Placidus, and is thought to have been a Coll. in Titus Vespasian's Army, in the memorable Siege of Jerusalem. He for sometime retir'd from the Court; but being found out in his Privacy, was recall'd, respected, and had a Command and a Triumph given him by the Emp. Adrian, for his good Service; but refusing to Sacrifice to Idols, and declaring himself to be a Christian, he with his beloved Wife and two hopeful Sons, were thrown to Hunger starved Lyons, who would not hurt them; wherefore they were all put into that Hellish Engine called the Braxen Bull, where in great torment they were Burnt to Death.

Eustachius, an Heretical Fryar, that condemned Marriage, and all other conditions of civil Life, excluding all married people from the Kingdom of Heaven; by which many Women were seduced to forsake their Lawful Husbands, and Slaves to desert their Masters.

E U T

Eustatbius, Bp. of Thessalonica, was celebrated for an excellent and a Profound Commentator upon Homers Poems and Dionysius's Geography.

Eustochium, a Roman Lady, and a Nun of Bethlem in the IV. Cen. who was perfectly Mistress of the Hebren, Greek, and Latin Tongues.

Euston, a little T. of Suffolk, in the Hundred of Balckbourn, remarkable for the very Fine Mansion-House, built there by the Earl of Arlington, and for being the Earldom of the Duke of Grafton, who marrying his only Daughter, Inherited his Estate.

Euterpe, one of the 9 Muses, the Inventer of the Flute, and other Musical Instruments.

Euthimius, born in Isauria, was the first Patriarch of Constantinople; he lived in good esteem with the Emp. Leo, but was exiled by his Successor Alexander II. and inhumanely treated by the Clergy, whom he had punished for their Vicious lives. He dyed in Banishment in 920.

Euthykrates, a Statuary, more Famous for the Justice of his Proportions, than the Elegancy of his Handy work. His Statues of Alexander and Hercules, excelled all his other Peices, Eutropius, an ungrateful Eunuch, that conspired the Death of Arcadius, who had put him into the Highest and most profitable posts in the Empire for which he was degraded, had his Name struck out of the Fasti Consulares, and was Beheaded in the most reproachful manner.

Eutyches, an Abbot of Constantinople, who was condemned by a Synod held there, for affirming there were two natures in Christ before the

EXA

the Hypostatical Union, and but one afterward, and that the God-head of Christ both suffered and Dyed; with other late Blaphemous Tenents. His Disciples were called Eutychians, and under the Emp. Marcian, were violent persecutors of the Orthodox Christians.

Eutychius, Patriarch of Constantinople, who in writing upon the Incarnation, unhappily fell into the error, that Bodies after the Incarnation would be Intangible, but being convinced retratted it. He died 525.

Eusebius, Patriarch of Alexandria, Bishop of Cyprus. He understood the Scriptures, and wrote Annals in the Language, which were Printed in 1615, with a Latin Version. He was a friend to Mr Selden, who was a kindnets for Episcopacy, and some of these of this Parish were sent to prove that Bishops and Presbyters are one and the same thing, without respect to Order.

EXT

was a Visitor of Diocesses, and under the Pope, was a Secular Governour of a Province.

Exeter, the Capital C. of Devonshire, situate on the E. bank of the R. Ex, from which it derives its name. It's encompassed with a Ditch and a strong Wall, in Compass about a mile and half. In the City and Suburbs are 15 Parishes; towards the E. stands an Old Castle, and near that the Great Church, which was a Monastery till Edward the Confessor removed the Monks to Westminster, and made it a Cathedral: Of which Sir Jonathan Trelawney is the present Bishop. It's Diocess extends over Devonshire and Cornwall, in which there is 604 Parishes; the Bishops First Fruits are worth 500 l. And the Clergies Tenths amount to 1200 l. 15 s. 2 d. The City is Governed by a Mayor and 24 Aldermen, with a Recorder, Town Clerk, &c. 'tis well peopled, rich, and carries on a great Trade in making Wollen Cloath and Serpes: and besides the Honour of

E Z F

in Atlas, and the Frontiers Lebberid.

a Borough T. in the County Falk, the Barony of the Lord ills, which has the Honour arning 2 Burgeses to Parlia- who now are, the Honour- encer Compton, Esquire, and seph Jekyll, Knight.

iel, one of the Majr, Pro- who began to Prophesie while, other Jews, he was a Cap- Babylon, about 613 years be- he Birth of Christ; but being s against Idolatry, and Freely ing the Jews, for continuing etians, which brought upon 'em iferable Bondage they suffered under; it so enraged the Idolaters, that they barbarously put him to Death.

E Z Z

Ezzelino, a Native of Onara in La Marca in Italy, in the 13th. Cen. He behaved himself well in the Wars with the Gibellines; but en- creating in Power and Ambition, prov'd at length a Downright Ty- rant for 40 years; Neglected the Government, slighted the Pope's ex- communication, killed 1200 of his Subjects in one day in cold Blood; but was checked in his Carriere by the confederate Princes of Lombardy, who took him Prisoner and carried him to Sancia, where he Dyed Mad in 1259.

F.

Charia, Medicinal Baths in the Grifans County, of good re- putation. They Lye among inaccessible Mountains, being discover'd by a Falconer, in the of the Emperor Frederick II. e said to proceed from Veins Id and Copper.

aria, a Sacrifice made of Beans and Bacon, offered in the sa of June upon Mount Cali.

Monts, a Bp. of Rome, in : time the Novatian Heretic had ning. He was a Zealous Af- of the truth of Christianity all its Enemies, and after d for 14 Y. suffered Martyr- under the Cruel persecutor ll, the surname of a Noble : in Rome, whereof the first ry. Note was Quintus Fabius ius, who was Consul in the 269 of Rome, and since that time as the Family has encreased, so have they run through the greatest Dignities and Honours, that Rome could confer upon meritorious per- sons. The name was given them from Faba, because their Ancestors, when the Romans were given to Agriculture, were great Planters of Beans.

Fabius Marcellinus, an Historian living in the 3 Cen. who wrote the Life of Alexander Mammens.

Fabius Maximus, who was Ge- neral of the Horse in the Battel the Romans Fought and Won against the Samnites, in which he Fortific- ed his Life for Fighting without Orders, and had certainly lost it, if the People had not procured his Pardon.

Fabius Maximus, (Quintus) he observing the Basiness of for- mer Roman Generals, took another Method.

F A B

Method, and wearved out Hannibal by Denar. When Hannibal saw him still hovering about him on the Mountains, he said, He feared that Cloud would end in a Storm; and so it proved: for taking his opportunity, he defeated Hannibal, and thereupon was called Fabius Maximus, and begat that of Ennius; Unusquis nobis cunctando restituit rem.

Fabius Maximus, surnamed Allobrogicus, for overthrowing Bituitus, conquering the Allobroges, and other Provinces of France, which made a considerable addition to the Roman Territories.

Fabius Maximus, Quintus, Son of Fabius the Dictator; who seeing his Father going toward him, without alighting from his Horse, sent an Officer to him, requiring him to dismount, which his Father did accordingly, and putting his Son into his arms, said, I am glad to find thee here, I am glad to be a Ro-

F A I

Fabrianum, a beautiful Story of La Marca di Ancona in Italy under the Jurisdiction of the Pope.

Fabrizius Cams, a Just Man, a Brave Commander, but without generous contempt of himself, Gave him dye so poor, that the was forced to be at the Expence Burying him.

Fabricius, (Terence) a Physician but better known by the Name Aqua-Pendente, the C. where, born. He was esteemed a great Anatomist, and received great honours from the Rep. of Venice; left several Books of Physick and Chirurgery behind him, which are grown obsolete.

Fabricius, (Andrew) a Native of the Bishoprick of Liege, was counted a very Learned Person; wrote the Harmony of the Angels Confession.

Fabulinus, the God of Spe petty Deity, to whom Men sacrificed, when their Children be-

F A L

Fakenham, a m. T. in the Hundred of Gallow, in the County of Norfolk, 110 m. from London.

Fakirs, a sort of strowling Mahometan Friars, that live upon the Charity of others.

Falaca, a Kind of Stocks into which the Algerines put their Slaves Legs, while they drub the poor Christians on the Soles of their Feet, for their Punishment, and their Patron's Pleasure.

Falaise, a T. in Normandy, upon the R. Ante, where William I. K. of England was born.

Falaris, a ruined C. in the Prov. of Tuscany in Italy, mentioned as a considerable one by the Ancients.

Falcidius, a Roman Tribune, Author of the Falcidian Law, that empowered a Father to give away his Estate to whom he pleased, provided a fourth Part was secured to the lawful Heir.

Falernus, a Mountain of Campagna di Roma in Italy, which affords most excellent Wines; and that may be the Reason, why the Poets have so loudly sung its Praises.

Faletre, (Martin) Doge of Venice, who not being satisfied with that Dignity, but designing to make himself an absolute and despotick Prince, conspir'd with several others to kill the Senators; but the wicked Plot being discovered by one of the Confederates, 400 of them were seized; some of which were hanged, others drowned, and the Rest with Faletre beheaded. He that discovered the Plot, besides being pardoned, had a Pension of 1000 Crowns a year settled upon him, and was made a Noble Venetian; but he thinking his Reward was too little, railed against the Senators as ungrateful Persons; for which they banished him, as he deserved, for 10 Years into Ragusa (but allowing him his Pension) from whence attempting to escape into Hungary, he perished.

F A N

Faletri, (Ordalapho) Doge of Venice in 1102. assisted Baldwin K. of Jerusalem, against the Turks in regaining of Syria; reduced Dalmatia and Croatia into subjection to the Rep. and the City of Zara revolting to the Hungarians, he sailed thither; but as he was storming it, received a Mortal wound, which put an end to his Days.

Falkenburg, a small T. in Brabant, 2 L. from Maeft rich, and 4 from Aquisgrane, belonging to the Hollanders.

Falkland, a small T. of Scotland in the County of Fife, which has in it an Ancient Palace of their Kings, fit for a Retirement, and conveniently seated for Hunting.

Fallopius, (Gabriel) was a celebrated Physician, Herbalist, Astronomer, and Philosopher; and considering he died at 39 Y. of Age in 1549. it was a wonder he wrote so much, and things so well approv'd of, as are his three large Volumes in Folio.

Falmouth, a m. T. with a Noble Haven in the S. of Cornwal 220 m. from London; wherein 100 Sail of Ships may ride out of sight of one another, secured by 2 Castles at the Mouth of the Harbour, which were built by K. Henry VIII.

Famagusta, is a very strong C. in the Island of Cyprus, with a large and safe Port, both in the Hands of the Turks.

Fanari-Kiosc, a Pleasure-House of the Grand Signior's, near Constantinople in Natolia.

Fane, (Francis) Esquire, Son and Heir to Sir Thomas Fane of Badset in Kent, being made Knight of the Bath at the Coronation of K. James I. was in the 22 of the same King, advanced to the Honour of a Baron of this Realm, and also to the Earldom of Westmorland; which Honours reside in the present Vere Lord Fane, Baron le Despenser and Burghersh, and Earl of Westmorland.

F A R

Faialta, a R. in the Island of Madagascar.

Failling, a small Ham. in Guiney in Africa, where the English and Dutch have some Castles.

Farel, (Hultram) born at Gap in Dauphine, was one of the first Lutheran Divines in France, and Minister of Geneva before Mr. Calvin. He was a Person of good Learning and competent Eloquence, considering the time he lived in.

Farrar, an celebrated Lawyer in London, but otherwise of no fair Character. He has left 13 Volumes behind him, which are very much corrected by Men of the same employment.

Faringdon, a M. T. in Berkshire, Capital of its Hundred 60 m. from London.

Faun, an Island on the Coast of Africa, between the Bay of Arguin Occidental, and the Bay of Arguin Oriental.

Faun, a small Island in the Bay of Arguin, between the Bay of Arguin Occidental and the Bay of Arguin Oriental.

F A V

Fartach, the chief C. of a Province that bears the same Name, in Arabia the Happy.

Fajets, among the Romans, were Axes fastened to a long Staff, and together with a Hard's or Rats, which the Officers called Lithes, carried before their great Magistrates.

Fasts, the Roman Calendar, wherein were Registered, the Names of the Consuls, and the most memorable things that were transacted in their Common-Wealth: With days Festivals, Games, and Ceremonies.

Fate, or Destiny, a Goddess among the Romans, that Ruled and Disposed all things as an Eternal Principle.

Fatagar, a R. of Ethiopia in Africa, between the great Lake of Aben, and the Mountains of Felle.

Faigons, an Island in the W. of Sicily, near Cap. Trepans, belonging to the R. of Spain.

Faigons, a T. and Prov. of Sicily.

F E A

Attendants, and followed at her Heels.

Faur, (Peter) a Frenchman of great Acquirements, who was sometime President of the Parl. of Toulouse.

Fausta, Sister to the Emp. Maxentius, and second Wife to Constantine the Great, who wrongfully accusing Crispus of having attempted her Chastity, the Emp. put him to death without any further proof; but the Imposture being afterward discovered, Constantine commanded her to be scalded in a Hot Bath.

Fausina, the Emperer Antoninus the Philosopher's second Wife, who having refused to divorce her, only repaid, that then he must return her Jointure, which was no less than the whole Empire.

Fe, or Fa, a vast great Image, which the Chineses Worship as the chiefest Deity in Heaven.

Feastings, among the Jews, were extraordinary Provisions of Food and Wine, for the Entertainment of good Fellowship, on certain Days appointed by Authority, in commemoration of Mercies received, or Deliverances from Danger. The same thing among the Romans.

Featly, (Daniel) descended from an Ancient Family in Lancashire, was educated in Corpus Christi College in Oxford, and had the Honour to be Fellow of that House, where he went out Bachelor, Master and Doctor in Divinity. Afterwards, he was made Domestic Chaplain to A-Bp. Abbot, and Rector of Allen in the County of Middlesex. He was a Person of great Piety, Integrity, Learning, and Loyalty, and for the last was a great sufferer under the prevailing of Rebels, who ejected him out of his Preferments, and committed him to Prison. He was firm to the Doctrine and Discipline of the Church of England, and equally a Learned Enemy to Popists and Pharisees; as appears by his Books, Entituled Roma Ruens, and the Dippers Dipped against the Antihapists; but, as all Men have their Enemies, so some accused him of Temperizing, by deigning to sit in the Assembly of Divines; but those that know how he demean'd himself there, in his Learned Disputations against the Scotch Covenant and Presbyters, wish'd there had been more of his Principles among them, for then in all Probability, the Establish'd Church had not been crush'd under a noisy Faction. He died in the 65 Year of his Age.

F E C

Febourg, (John) was Secretary of State to the King of Denmark, and had the Assurance, whilst in that Post, to despise the Nobility, and conspire against the Life of Torbern, Governour of the Fort of Copenhagen, by maliciously and falsely accusing him to the King; but Torbern, who was one of the greatest Men in the Kingdom, by counterplotting his Designs, procured him to be hanged on a Gibbet near the Town; soon after, a Sentinel on the Rampart, seeing in the Night-time a Light upon Febourg's Head, published it as a Miracle: The King himself went to see it: Told the Nobility, that it was a Sign of Febourg's Innocency, and therefore took down the Body, gave it a splendid Funeral, and put Torbern to Death; when notwithstanding all this Noise and Rigour, the Light on Febourg's Head proceeded from a natural Cause, and the Flame being kept alive by the unfusible Substance in the Head, was the Reason of its so long continuance.

Feciales, a College of 20 Men of Quality, Able Politicians among the Romans; appointed first by Numa Pompilius, to settle all Matters relating to Peace or War, that no Action might be rashly undertaken.

ed by K. Henry VIII. and was advanced to the Degrees of a Baron, V. count and Earl, in the 14 of K. James I. which Honours are now call'd by the present Bazil Feilding, Earl of Denbigh, and Desmond, V. count Feilding, and Callen, Baron Feilding of Newham-Padox, and Baron Feilding of the Caghe: 3 English and 2 Irish Honours: he was Colonel of a Regiment of Dragons, in the Service of K. William III.

Fekhr-ed-din, Emir, or Sovereign of the People called Drusians, Inhabitants of Mount Libanus in Syria, who making Spoil in the Turks Dominions, under pretence of Warring against the Arabians, he was advised to submit and seek his Pardon from the Grand Seignor. To Constantinople therefore he Journies in great State, with Abundance of Treasure and Rich Presents for the Great Turk and his Courtiers, which he distributed with so liberal a Hand, that the Sultan received him kindly, and pardon'd him; but the Courtiers greedy of Gain, and knowing that he had still much Riches by him, framed a fresh Accusation a-bited T. to the House of Austria. Felin, a C. of Livonia of the same Name, where William of Furstenburg, great of the Teutonick Order, was ed by his own Subjects, overed up to the Swedes, who have kept possession ever since.

Felix I. a Roman, Successor of onyfus in 271. was a pro- vernour of the Church. In one Manes a Persian called Christ, and had Twelve Disciples but was forced to fly. He possessed the Chair 4 Y. suffered Martyrdom under Felix II. was a Favourer of Arian Heresy, and excommunicated the Emp. Constantius, for a but upon the Restoration Constantius was put to death, who been the Pope about a Y.

Felix, III. Successor of us, was Zealous in the true Christianity, which great trouble, especially demanding Peter Monks and us. He dyed in 492.

F E L

Felix, and his second Wife Drusilla, are the same persons mentioned in Acts 24. He was put out of his Government of Judea, for Tyranny and Oppression by Nero, and Porcius Festus put into that Office.

Fell, (Doctor John) Son of Dr. Samuel Fell, sometime Dean of Christ Church, was born at Sunningwell near Abingdon in Berkshire, admitted in Christ-Church-Oxford, very Young, and took his Degree of Master in 1643. but the War beginning betwixt the King and Parliament, his Loyalty to his Sovereign caused him to lay aside his Gown, and the use of Books, and take up Arms in Defence of the best of Kings in the Garrison of Oxford, where he was made an Ensign; and the War terminating in the Defeat of the Royal Army, and the K's Imprisonment and Murder, he went into Holy Orders, settled himself in Oxford, where to a Select Congregation of good men, that had espoused the Interest of the K. and Church, he Read Prayers and perform'd all the Offices of the Church, according to its Primitive Institution. When it pleased God to confound all the Designs of Usurpers, and settle his Majesty K. Charles II. in his Rightful Throne, by a Miraculous and Unbloody Revolution, he was soon made Canon of Christ-Church, Dr. in Divinity, Chaplain to his Majesty, and in 1673 Bishop of Oxford; and with the Reputation of a Loyal Subject, a True Son of the Church of England, and a Sincere Friend to the University of Oxford, departed this Life in the Year 1686.

Felles, a Ridge of Mountains in Africa, extending from the N. E. to the S. W. on the N. of Egypt.

Feltri, a C. in Marchia Tarvisina, belonging to the Rep. of Venice, upon the R. Asona.

F E R

Femerren, a small Island in the Baltick Sea, on the Coast of Holstein, taken by the Danes, from the Swedes, in 1645.

Feralia, Roman Feasts, instituted by Aeneas, to render the last Honours to the dead.

Ferdinand I. Younger Brother to the Emp. Charles V. who succeeded Ladislav VI. in the Kingdoms of Hungary and Bohemia, in the Right of his Wife Anne the late K's Daughter, A Prince of good Learning, Affability, Temperance, Moderation, and a Bountiful Patron to Learned men.

Ferdinand II. Son of Charles Arch-Duke of Gratz in Styria, succeeded his Kinsman Matthias, was very successful in his Arms against the King of Bohemia, and Christiern IV. K. of Denmark; but the Protestants of Germany, joyning with Lewis XIII. K. of France, and Gustavus Adolphus, the latter made such Havock in Germany, as constrained him to make a Peace on the best terms he could in 1634. He died in 1637.

Ferdinand III. was Successor to his Father in the same year, and immediately after his Inauguration, had the News of his General Gales's success against the Swedes; but this good Fortune was but short lived; for the same General was defeated in 1629, near Kemnitz in Misnia, by John Duke of Saxony the Protestant General; but afterward the Scales turned to the Emperor, and he might have made his own advantages; but being unwilling to tempt the Doubtful success of War, he concluded a Peace at Munster in 1648, and dyed at Vienna, in Germany 1657, at the Age of 49.

Ferdinand I. surnamed the Great, Son of Sancho King of Navarre, in the Right of his Mother Nugna, King of Castile and Leon, was a Successful Prince in War; he Reigned lately 40 years, till he died in 1578.

FER

Ferdinand II. Son of Alphonso VIII. having a Dispute with Alphonso Henriquez King of Portugal, about the Right to the Frontier T. and the Territories of Batavia, was so far smitten on by Fortune, that in the first Engagement he took the Prince, and in the next the K. of Portugal Prisoner, but behaved himself under these Successes with great moderation and Prudence, neither insulting the Captives, nor overvaluing his own Merits. He died in 1580.

Ferdinand III. was the Monarch that Re-united the Kingdoms of León and Castile, and had such success against the Moor, that over-run Spain, that had as it been of longer Date, he had attempted the conquest of Morocco, but he died in 1625, and was Canonized in 1671.

Ferdinand IV. furnished the Courage, though he was sometime

FER

Ferdinand, Infant of Spain (surnamed the Just, was Monarch of Aragon and Sicily in 1412, and tho' his Reign was not inferior in goodness to any of his Predecessors, yet it was but short; for having Reigned 4 Years he died of the Stone in the Bladder in 1416.

Ferdinand I. was the Natural Son of Alphonso V. K. of Aragon, but being Legitimated by the Authority of Pope Eugenius IV. he was a crowned K. of Naples and Sicily, in presence of the Rightful Successor in 1458. He lost his Kingdoms in 1494, and was as often restored to them by the particular Favour and Assistance of his Holiness; and yet notwithstanding these obligations, he made such ungrateful returns to his Benefactors of the holy See, that Pope Innocent the VIII. Excommunicated him, under which Sentence he died of an Apoplexy in 1494, in the 71 Y. of his Age.

Ferdinand II. was Successor to

F F R

Tuscany: He was entirely in the Spanish Interest, and therefore unkindly delivered up that Don Sebastian, who called himself K. of Portugal, and died in 1579.

Ferdinand II. succeeded his Father Cosmo II. and died soon after in 1670.

Ferdinand, of Cordova, in the Opinion of the Learned, was certainly a very great man in all Arts and Sciences; but if all be true that is reported of him, he had Scarce his Peer in any Age of the World; for he is said to have understood Syriac, Arabic, Chaldaic, Hebrew, Greek and Latin, and all in perfection; to have been a great Canon and Civil-Lawyer, Mathematician, Physician and Divine; and had such a Vast Memory, that he could repeat the Old and New Testament without Look, and several other Voluminous Tracts. Nay his Genius condescended to every thing; for he is said to have been a Good Soldier, to have Sung, Danced and Painted Incomparably; and was no less skilled in Predictions, having foretold the Destiny of Charles the Rash Duke of Burgundy: but where or when he died himself is unknown.

La Fere, a City of Champaign in France, between the Seine to the S. and the Main to the N. Also a strong City upon the Oyre in Picandy, 5 Miles from St. Quintin's to the S. and from Lan to the N.

Ferentim, a C. of Campaign in Italy, in the Ecclesiastical Territories, but under none but the Pope himself.

Fergus, the first K. of Scotland, was son to Terquibard Chieftain of the Scots that remained in Ireland, from whom those of Albion, now Scotland, derive their Original. These last, falling out with their Neighbours the Picts, had resolved on a War, and sending to their Brethren in Ireland, received thence Forces under the conduct of Prince Fergus. But understanding the Craf-ty designs of the Britons against the People, without fighting they came to Agreement, and sometime after with united Forces, in the Co. of Keyle in Scotland which the Britons had invaded, gave them Battle, and a total Defeat, killing their K. Collus, who left his name to the Country. In reward of Prince Fergus's signal Valour and Prudent Conduct, by Solemn Oath the Scottish Crown is given to him and his Posterity for ever. He died in the 25th Year of his Reign, being cast away in a Storme as he was crossing the Sea from Ireland, near Carrickfergus, that from thence had its Name, about 305 Y. before Christ.

F E R

Fergus II. the 40 K. of Scotland, was in his Nonage driven with others as an exile into Scandia, by the Romans joined with the Picts; where he so well demean'd himself in Military affairs, that the Scots and Picts growing weary of their Slavery to the Romans, invited Fergus, to return and possess the Throne of his Ancestors; which he accepted, and fought with so much Courage and Conduct against the Romans, the Britains, and the Picts, that tho' he was slain in those Wars yet in Justice, he must be esteemed a second Founder of the Scottish Empire.

Fergus III. the 53 King of Scotland succeeded Engenius VIII. At his first accession to the Throne, to Court popularity, he artfully disssembled virtue; but having gained his ends, he degenerated into vicious courses, especially those of Whoring and Drunkenness. His Wife often reproved and upbraided him for addicting himself to leud Women; but finding no Reformation vowed a Revenge, and Strangled him in the night while asleep in the 3 Y. of his Reign; The murderer being unknown, and several innocent persons being suspected to find it out, their Tuments 1.

FER

affected the Q. that she confess'd the Murder, and to prevent an ignominious Death, Stabbed her self the same moment, in the Y. 797.

Feritharis, the 2 K. of Scotland succeeded Fergus I. by reason of the Incapacity of both his Sons, and Reigned with great Prudence. His Nephew Ferlegus, being ambitious of Governing, was plotting with some loose and male-contented persons to dethrone him; but the matter being referred to the great Council of the Nation, they would not permit his Uncle to Resign; Nay when Feritharis was made away by some undiscovered Treachery, and the States having some reason to suspect that Ferlegus was in the Confederacy, they put him by, and Crowned his Brother Mzinus, who swayed the Scepter 29 Y. with great applause, and died 286 years before Christ.

Ferminagh, a County of Ulster in Ireland, in which is Earn, the biggest Lake in the Kingdom.

FER

Ferrara, a C. of Italy, and a Kingdom, under the Jurisdiction of the Pope, which by the Bedstion of the Family of Este, became the best C. in Italy, but ever came into the Popes hand in it has visibly decayed in its and Grandeur.

Ferrarius, (John) a Jesuit wrote the Syriac Dictionary is so much Commended.

Ferrarius, (Orazio) was for of Oratory in the University of Padua, where he was in so much repute for his Learning, that Christian Princes and States honoured him with Rich Presents. He was Polite Discourse of Lamps and minations in general, but is not to the use of them in Churches.

Ferrarius, (Philip) General of the order of Servites, published the Lexicon Geographicum, which with Corrections, Emendations, and additions by Michael Antonius Batus is the best that is extant.

FEV

Fescennia, an ancient T. of Hetruria in Italy, only noted to a Proverb among the old Romans, for a sort of Ribbald Poetry; from whence came Versus Fescennini, Immodest Poems.

Fessoli, an ancient C. in the Dukedom of Florence in Italy, one of the 12 C. heretofore in Hetruria.

Festus Porcius, Governour of Judea, from whose Tribunal St. Paul, as a Ramoth, appealed to Cesar.

Fethelmachus, the 38 R. of Scotland, a Successful Warriour against the Picts; whose King being killed in Battel, his Successor Hergulfus, corrupting one of Fethelmachus's Servants, killed him in the Night; but the Affassines were taken and put to Death.

Fetu, a small Km. in Africa in Guiney, upon the Gold Coast towards Cape Corso.

Feverisham, a m. T. in Kent, in Sray-Lath, where R. Stephen with his Queen, and Eustace his Son were buried, in a Monastery of his own Founding. Here is a Port for small Vessels, and near it R. James II. was taken, in his first attempt to fly into France.

Fevre, or Fater (James) born in Picardy, and of a considerable character, being a Person of Universal Learning, in the 16 Cen. He embraced the Reformed Religion in France, and his Commentaries are of good Esteem.

Fevre, (Andrew le) called Smidelin, was Chancellor of the University of Tubingen in Germany, whom the Lutherans respected as one of the Pillars of their cause. At the Instance of the Duke of Wirtemburg, in 1558 he published his Formula Concordia, which did good service in that Dutchy, and in the Electorate of Saxony.

Fevre, or Faber (Tanaquil) Regent in the University of Saumur, was a great Master of the Greek and

FEZ

Latin Tongues, as appears by his Elegant Epistles and other Tracts.

Fez, one of the largest and most considerable Cities in Africa, situate in a Km. of the same Name, and said to be built by the Moxers in 785. The Form of the City is a Square, built upon the Descent of two Mountains, separated by a R. that entereth into the City by two ways only, and then brancheth it self into so many channels, that there is scarce a Private House, that has not a branch of the River belonging to it, and the rest of the water passing through the Common Sewers, cleanseth the City. The middle of the City is a Plain; but the circumjacent parts are Hilly. It is divided into 4 parts, in which are 62 great Markets, and above 200 large and Straight Streets, with a great number of lesser ones; besides which it has 7 Hundred Mosques, many Colleges, Hospitals, Arsenals, &c. 86 Gates, 250 Bridges, many of which are so covered with Houses, that they are not discernible, with 86 publick Baths, besides 600 private ones. The Great Mosque called Caroven, is half a Mile in compass, and has 31 Gates, very High and Magnificent. The Houses are all well built, with Mosaick Work on the outsides, and are painted with Flowers and Fruits, on the Inside, with perspectives and Landscapes. The Territory appertaining to this Stately City, extends from the R. Burgage to the R. Orave, and on the N. from the R. Suba to the Foot of Mount Atlas E. and is called the Province of Fez. The Foreign Merchants all Reside in a great Bazar in the City, enclosed with a Wall and 12 Gates, which are shut up every Night; and in this live all their Artificers and Tradesmen, which there is said to be 20000 men. O o o

F I D

Fezzen, a Province of Biledulgerid in Africa, of a great Compass of Ground, but Desert.

Fiacer, was Son to Eugenius IV. K. of Scotland, esteemed a Saint; for notwithstanding he was Heir to the Crown, yet all the Temptations of the World could not alienate his Mind from Religion; and therefore he retiring privately into France, with his beloved Sister, whom he placed in a Nunnery, built himself an Hermitage, where he gave up himself to contemplation, and in a short time grew famous for working Miracles. His Father dying of Age, and his Brother being de-throned for Misgovernment, the Scots desired him to return and enjoy the Crown, but no Inducements could perswade him to it; for he continued Hermit till he died in his Cell, and was buried in the Cathedral of Meaux.

Fiano, a Castle, now grown into

F I E

of this Kingdom by R. Edm. and upon Sir Richard Fie marrying the Daughter and Heir of Thomas Son and Heir Tho. Lord Dacres, he was dec. Lord Dacres by Letters Patent, ing date 37 of R. Hen. VI and was succeeded by his Grandson, Sir Th. Fienes, who was summoned to Parliament in the Reigns of E. the VII. and VIII. He dying in was succeeded by his Cousin Th. who by an Unfortunate Accident lost the Honour; but his Son Gregory was restored in 1. of Q. Elizabeth. He dying without Issue and Sampson Leonard, Esq; marrying his Sister Margret, obtained a Grant in the 10. of James I. to himself and Heires, to have Place of Precedence as the Eldest Son of Lord Dacres of the S. and Th. Henry succeeded him according to whose Son Richard succeeding and Francis him. left Issue Th.

FIN

Flaubert, (Jasper) a great Minister of State and President of the Parliament of Tholouse, was in such high esteem with Louis XIV. that at his Death he said, he was one of the best Judges of his Km. and as he should be in a great trouble, find another of his Excellent Qualifications to fill his Place.

Forfe, one of the greatest Counties in Scotland, which has many Towns and Seats of the Nobility in it, with a good Trade, a fruitful soil and well Inhabited. It gave formerly the Title of Thane to several great Families; and now the Earls of Rothes, surnam'd Lesly, are hereditary Sheriffs of this County.

Fillech, a C. of the upper Hungary, in the Possession of the House of Austria. It stands in the Road to Presburg, and has several times been taken and Retaken by the Christians and Turks; but now is in the hands of the last.

Finale, a strong and well Fortified Town upon the Sea Coasts of Italy, between Savona and Albenga; the Territories belonging to it, are not above Six m. in Length, bounded on each end, by the points of two Mountains. It is under the Domination of Spain.

Finch. this noble Family is descended originally from Herbert Fitz-Herbert Finch, who was in Ward to K. Edward I. Linally descended from Mary Fitz-Herbert Chamberlain to Henry the I. and from Sir Atyle Finch of East Well, in the County of Kent Baronet. He espoused Elizabeth, Sole Daughter and Heir to Sir Thomas Henage, Knight, who was Treasurer of the Chamber, Vice-Chamberlain of the Household, and Chancellor of the Duchy of Launcester to Q. Elizabeth. This Lady Elizabeth, after the Death of her Husband; was in the 21 of K. James I. advanced to the Dignity and Title of Viscountess of Maidstone, in Kent, with Limitation of that Honour to the Heirs-Male of her Body Lawfully begotten; and in the 4 of K. Charles I. was Created Countess of Winchelsea, in Sussex, with the like Limitation. In which Honours, Thomas Finch her Son succeeded her, and his Son Henage succeeded him; who first married Diana, Daughter to Francis Lord Willoughby of Parham; then Mary, Daughter to William Marquis of Hertford, afterwards Duke of Somerset; and being descended from the Ancient Family of Herbert, and in consideration of his Services to K. Charles the II. was advanced to the Dignity of a Baron of this Realm, in the 12 of the same K. by the Title of Lord Fitz-Herbert of Eastwell in Kent. His Eldest Son Thomas, called Lord Maidstone, was killed in a Sea-Fight against the Dutch in May 1672. leaving his Lady Big with Child of a Son, of whom she was delivered on Sept. 26 next following, who is the present Charles Finch, Earl of Winchelsea, Viscount Maidstone, Baron Fitz-Herbert of Eastwell and Baronet, Lord of the Royal Manor of Wye. Of this Family is the Lord Arch of Fordwich, and Sir Henage Finch Knight, Recorder of London, and Speaker of the House of Commons in Parliament, in 1 Car. I. 4th Son to Sir Atyle Finch of Eastwell Baronet, and the Lady Elizabeth Countess of Winchelsea his Wife, and Father of Sir Henage Finch Knight and Baronet, who being a great Proficient in the Study of the Laws, in the Honourable Society of the Inner Temple London, and of great Integrity and Exemplary Loyalty, was immediately upon the Restoration of K. Charles II. June 6. made His Majesties Solicitor General, and the next Y. following Autumn Reader in the Temple. On the 7th of June

FIN

FIN

* Finch, was advanced to the Dignity of a Baronet, and in 1673 constituted the King's Attorney General, 1674 made Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, and advanced to the dignity of a Baron of this Realm by the title of Lord Finch of Daventry, in the County of Northampton. Soon after he was made Lord High Chancellor of England, and Earl of Nottingham. These Honours are now in his eldest Son, under the name of Daniel Finch Earl of Nottingham, Baron Finch of Daventry, and Baronet, formerly Principal Secretary of State, and one of the Governours of the Charter-house.

Finormachus, the 35 K. of Scotland, by his Courage and Conduct, expelled out the Romans who invaded him, that they were constrained to leave him in quiet. His time he employed in promoting Christianity.

Finthius, the 2 K. of Scotland, was a man of excellent abilities.

FIT

land, and one that understood the true way of governing. He laid down this as a Maxim, that no Man should determine nothing of Affairs without the consent of their great Council.

Fionia, an Island of Denmark, in the Baltic Sea, between Yutland and the narrow Firth.

Firandam, a C. of Japan, in that part which is called Ximo. an Island on the Western Coast.

Firleius, (John) Palatine of Silesia, and grand Marshal of the Kingdom of Poland, who seeing Henry of France boggle upon taking the additional Oaths of his Coronation, he snatched up the Crown, and was carrying it away saying, Jurabis, non Regnabis; If you will Swear, you shall not Reign; and if not be Scept, all the K. gave Satisfaction in the matter.

Fisher, (John) Bp. of Rochester in the 16th Cent. was a very learned and Devout Prelate, firm in

FLA

Fitz-Roy, (George) third natural Son of R. Charles II. by Barbara Dutchess of Cleveland, was created Baron of Pontefract, Viscount Falmouth, and Earl and Duke of Northumberland, April 6. 1683. in the 33 of Charles II.

Fitz-Herbert, (Anthony) Chief Justice of England, in the 16 Cen. was esteemed a Learned Lawyer, and was the Author of several Books.

Fitz-William, of Milton, in the County of Northampton, now Lord Baron Fitz-William of Lyfford in the Kingdom of Ireland, which Honour still remains in the same Family.

Fitz-William of Dundran and Mevison is now Baron Fitz-William of Thorne-Castle, in the Kingdom of Ireland; both these Families came into England with R. William I. and continue to this Day in the same Line and Christian name.

Flagellantes, a Sect of Wild People in the 13 Cen. that thought to atone for their sins, by Disciplining their Bodies; but at last falling into a Dangerous Heresie, kept to their Whipping, and neglected all the Offices of Christianity.

Flamborough-Head, a famous Promontory and Sea-mark near Bur-lington-Bay in Yorkshire.

Flamen, in the plural number Flamines, Priests of Jupiter, appointed by Numa to attend the Service of the Gods. At the first Institution among the Romans there was but one, but at length they had as many Flamines as they had Gods. The Chief of them was called Flamen Dialis.

Flaminia via, the High way or Road from Rome to Ariminum, made by Flaminius the Consul.

Flaminius, (Cains) a Roman Consul, whose Rashness made him an unfortunate General. Flaminius, (Titus Quintus) was a consul of

FLA

Rome before he was 30 Y. of age; and a succesful General, against that great Warriour Philip King of Macedon, and their great Enemy Hannibal, both which he not only routed in the Field, but forced them to Abandon the Roman Territories.

Flanders, is the greatest, and every way the best of all those Seventeen Provinces, which make up that large and Fruitfull plat of Ground, called the Low Countries, or the Spanish Netherlands. In it are 28 Walled Ts. or Cities, 1158 Villages, besides Castles, Forts, Noblemens Houses, Abbies, Priors, Colleges and Monasteries. The People are much addicted to Merchandizing, and their Linnen Cloth is prefer'd before that of other Nations. Only unhappy in being the Acheldama or Seat of War for some Ages. The Hollanders kept a War there, with a little intermission, above Forty years, and took several Towns from it in the North; The French K. has made no less devastions in the South for many years, and now he is making his last effort for gaining the whole from the Spaniards, under pretence of Befriending and Assisting them.

Flatbom, an Island in the Severn, over against Shummersetshire.

Flavian, Patriarch of Constantinople, was a person of extraordinary Merit, and a Stout Champion against the Eutychian Heresie, which unhappily sprung up in his time, and which he caused to be condemned, in a Synod held at Constantinople; which Dioscorus of Alexandria, resolving to Revenge, not only caused him to be Deposed in a Pseudo-Synod at Ephesus, but also so inhumanely treated him with Blows and Kicks in the Assembly, that he died of his Bruises in a very short time after.

F L O

La Fleche, a T. in the Province of Anjou in France, upon the R. Loire, towards the Frontiers of Main.

Fleming, (Sir Daniel) of Rydel-Hall in Westmorland, is of a very Ancient Family, that has still retained the Name of Fleming, in the Elder House, though the Younger Branches have often changed theirs and taken the Name of the Place where they lived, and some of the Families where they were married.

Flensburg, a C. 14 m. of Denmark, on the South Sea, seated upon a Point of the Baltick Sea. The City is in the K. of Denmark, but the Port, which belongs to the Duke of Holstein.

Flushing, a C. of the Low Countries, commodated with a Port for Shipping; it is in a L. of Middleburg, and belongs to the Prince of Orange.

Flessingue, was a Fortress belonging to the Dutch, built in the

F L O

was a Courtesan, who leaving her Estate to the Romans, they ordained her extraordinary Honours, and from a Prostitute raised her to be a Goddess.

Floralia, were Sports, instituted by the Romans in Memory of their dead Benefactress.

Florence, in the A.D. of Tuscany, one of the Principal C. of Italy, is for its Beauty called La Bella the Fair, and is the Residence of the Great Duke. It is reckoned to be about 6 m. in Compass, and to contain about 100000 Souls. The Duke's Palace is a Noble Structure, and its whole Furniture bespeaks Magnificence and Wealth. The Streets are large and paved with flat Stones, and here is spoke the Italian Tongue in its Purity, though the Roman Pronunciation adds a greater Grace to it, and has begot the Proverb, Lingua Toscana in Bocca Romana; the Tuscan Italian sounds best in the Mouth of a Roman; nor must I omit that the Noble Library here

FLO

Approaching a poor Woman as an Adulteress, for having two at a Birth. Florentius ended his days in a Tournament against the Count of Claremont, in 1235.

Marcus V. having Wars with the revolted Grisons, was slain by Gerard de Velsen, in revenge of the Affront he had given him, by an unhappy Familiarity with his Wife, in 1296.

Mortimer, a Monk of Worcester, who wrote the Chronicon Chronicorum, and a Treatise of the Royal Family. He died about A.D. 1118.

Florida, a large and fruitful Country in the N. America, first discovered by the English, in 1497, under K. Henry VII; but the Spaniards went further, and took Possession of it to the S. till the English renewing their Claim, took possession of the North-part, and planted a Colony in it, under the Name of Penitents; of which in its proper Place.

Morimond de Raymond, lived in the 16th Cent. and was Counsellor of the Parliament at Bordeaux in France; who resolving his Religion should be no Bar to his Court-Presidents, changed the reformed Religion for the Papish Superstition, and to ingratiate himself, wrote against the Protestants, and died in 1600.

Mormus, a Blasphemous Heretick in the 2 Cen. who taught that God did not only permit, but do evil.

Florus, an Historian, that wrote an Abridgement of the Roman History in Latin, from Romulus to Trajan, in whose Reign he lived; but was only regarded by Posterity as a mere Quibler, and a Panegyrist, rather than a Historian.

Florus, (Gessus) Governour of Yudæa, under Nero, whose excessive Covetousness, and unmerciful Cruelties, occasioned the bloody War between the Jews and Romans.

FON

Florus, (Julianus) is called by Quintilian the Prince of Orators, and was much in the Esteem of the Emp. Tiberius.

Fœroe, a Prov. in Norway, consisting of 17 Islands in the Northern Ocean. See Færo.

Fitz, a T. in Languedoc, at the Foot of the Pyrenean Mountains, upon the R. Lauragne. The County of Fitz, is in Aquitain in France, which was heretofore a part of Le Comers, but now is in Languedoc. It was also sometime the Name of one of the most illustrious Houses in France, which now is much decayed by espousing the Protestant Interest; though of the younger Branches fell in with the Papists.

Folkingham, a m. T. in the Hundred of Aveland, and County of Lincoln, 83. m. from London.

Folengius, (John Baptist) a Martinian, was a Benedictine Monk, but being suspected to lean in favour of the Reformation, his books though full of Polite Learning, were prohibited.

Folston, a m. T. in Kent, in Shepway-Lath, a member of the Port of Dover, and a large place, wherein were 5 Parish Churches in ancient times, but now they are reduced to one, and besides being a Mayor T. 'tis only remarkable for being the Birth place of the Learned Dr. William Harvey, who obliged the World, with the discovery of the Circulation of the Blood.

Fondi, a small City in the E. of Naples upon the Borders of Campagna di Roma, about 55 English m. from Rome to the S. situate in a Fertile Plain, about 6 m. from the Ionian Sea.

Fountain-Bleau, or the Fountain of fair Water, is a Sumptuous Village in the Isle of France, about 1 m. from the Seine, and 14 from Paris to the S. Here Francis I. built a

FOR

Stately Country-House, which has been very much enlarged and Beautified by his Successor. It stands in the Forest de Berre, and the Palace is so adorned, by the advantages of Art and Nature, that few in the World exceed it.

Fontana Bianca, a Sea-port on the Eastern shore of Sicily, above 12 m. from Syracuse to the S.

Fontanelle, a Village and a Monastery in Normandy, 12 m. from Roan to the E.

Fontarabia, a very strong City in Gaspesia, in Spain, upon the shore of the Bay of Biscay. The French pretended a Right to it, but have always been unsuccessful in their attempts to take it; by reason of its Situation it is called the Key of Spain, and Charles V. named it his Pillow.

Fontenay, a T. in the Country of Burgundy in France. Famous in History for the Battle fought near it, between the and fertility of the Soil, lying to the Oriental Ocean, 24 L. from China, there is said to be a Golden Mine in this Island.

FOU

Francis, Ep. of Paris in Itretria, succeeded Stephen VI. and held the Chair till he died; but afterwards his Body was taken up, and thrown into Tiber, for his Simonical Intrusion.

Fornacalia, the Feast of Ovens, first instituted by Numa Pompilius in Honour of the Goddess Fornax.

Forster, (John) a Reformed Divine in 1495, and Hebrew Professor at Wittenburg in Germany.

Forster (Valentine) wrote the Lives of the Eminent Civilians in three Tomes, entitled Historia Favis Civitis.

Fortuna, an Imaginary Goddess, whom the Pagans esteemed as the Ruler of all Events, both good and bad.

Portuventura, one of the Arms, W. of C.

F R A

Frangipani, (Francis Christopher) Brother-in-Law to Count Scrim, and in the same Conspiracy with him, in procuring the Rebellion of the Hungarians against the Emperor; for which he lost his Head in 1671.

Frankendale, a new and well fortified C. in Germany, in the Lower Palatinate, about 2 m. from the Rhine, and 4 from Heidelberg to the W. It was surrendered to the French in 1688 and in 1689 they quitted and burnt it.

Frank-Carta, little France, a Territory of the States of Venice in Italy; so called because in the 8 Cen. the French had got a settlement there after Charles the Great had conquered Lombardy.

Prascati, a C. of Campagna di Roma; in the Ecclesiastical Estates, about 12 m. from Rome E. Here stood the Ancient Roman City called Tusculum, so famous for the great Number of Stately Palaces in it, which being ruined under the Pontificate of Celestine III. Prascati started up in the same place, near which is a Village called Tusculanum, where Cicero wrote his Questions, which he has named from it.

Frätkelli, a sort of leud Italian Mythicks, who maintained that Women and Estates should be in Common, and that there should be no Magistracy or marks of Superiority or Inferiority. Many Libertines were seduced to these Opinions, by their Leader Heriman an Apostatized Monk, whose Bones 20 years after his death, were taken up and consumed by Fire.

Frail, a Pagan Goddess, that men addressed to, when they had either a Mind to Deceive, or to prevent being Deceived.

Frankenburg, a T. in Prussia Regalis; under the Dominion of Poland, upon the Bay of Frish Haff about 8 German m. from Elbing. In this T. died Nicholas Copernicus, the Famous Mathematician, and incomparable Astronomer, in 1542. who first by Demonstration convinced the Learned World of the Earth's Motion, and the Sun's being the Center.

F R E

Fraxinet, the retreat of the Saracens in the 9 and 10 Cen. out of which they made their Incursions to Burn and Rob the Country. There is a Controversie among Geographers where it was, and the best of them resolve us, that it stood in Provence.

Freculfus Bp. of Lisieux who liv'd in the 9 Cen. was Author of a two-fold Chronology; one commencing at the beginning of the World and extending to the Nativity of our Saviour, and the other coming down to the year of Christ 600. De Cheser has placed him in the first Class of the French Historians.

Fredegunda, was at first but a servant to the Queen; and afterward becoming Wife to Chilperick I. was the contriver of many Wars, and more murders, under her Husband's and her own Reign, and yet left the Government to her Son Clothair II. in a happy posture.

Frederick I. surnamed Barbarossa, succeeded Conrade III. his Uncle, as Emp. of Germany in 1152. who having successfully carried his Arms into Italy, till he had subdued the places that opposed him, and at last conquered Milan, and strowed it with Salt, died and left Alexander the III. his Successor in the Empire.

Frederick II. Son of Henry VI. came to the Imperial Crown by Election in 1212. and being eased of his Rival by Death An. 1218. made large promises to Pope Innocent III. of not disturbing the Ecclesiastical Estates, or concerning himself in their Affairs; but not keeping his word, and making War against the Pope, he was twice excommunicated, till in the year 1230. they came to an accom-

P R E

Accommodation, the Emp. promising to restore what he had taken from the Church, and to live in a better understanding with the Ecclesiastics for the future; but he soon forgot himself, and fell upon them with greater vigour than before, so that the Pope excommunicated him a third Time; but that Fulmination did rather encourage than abate his Fury, and passing the Alps with 10000 Men, he fell upon the Milanese, and made such a terrible slaughter among the Lombards, that the Country had scarce room enough to supply the dead with Graves; besides the Ruin he made in other places in Italy. Innocent IV. the surviving Pope, was forced to fly into France, where a Pen-War was continued between the Emp. and the Pope, in writing against one another, and each accusing the other of Usurpation; at length the Pope venturing to publish a Sentence of Deprivation against him, all his affairs went to Ruin.

P R E

of a Solid Judgment and of a Generous inclination; but so great an Admirer of Peace, that he suffered his Dominions to be invaded, and himself to be driven from Place to Place, like an Exile in his own Territories. He died at Linz in 1443.

Frederick I. K. of Denmark, surnamed the Peaceable, Duke of Schleswig, introduced the Protestant Religion into that Kingdom, and died in 1553.

Frederick II. succeeded Christian III. in 1559. He bravely defended his own Dominions, and refused to send any Person to the Council of Trent, at the Invitation of Pope Pius IV. or to have any Correspondence with him.

Frederick III. succeeded his brother Christian in 1648. and by a difference happening between the Nobility and the Commons, gained an opportunity to Invest himself with an absolute Power, to take away the Privileges of the Nobility, and make

F R E

Scended many Dukes, and other Illustrious Persons, who have been the Pillars of that Republick.

Ferinshemius, a man of good Learning, who supplied what he thought was wanting in Livy, Tacitus & Quintus Curtius; he added Instruttive Notes to Quintus Curtius, Tacitus, and Florus, and died in 1660.

Frejus, a C. of Provence in France about half a L. from the Mediterranean Sea, and 13 from Thoulon, is a place of great Antiquity, as is evident from the Amphitheatre, still in good plight, a curious Aqueduct, Statues and Inscriptions. It's an Episcopal see Suffragan to the Abbe of Aix.

Frescheville, (John) of Stavely in the County of Derby, Esquire, great Grand-son to Peter Frescheville of Stavely, who for Exemplary valour at the Battel of Musleburgh in Scotland; was Knighted by K. Edward VI. and John for his great service to K. Charles the first and second, was by the Latter in the 16 of his Reign, advanced to the Degree and Dignity of a Baron of this Realm, by the Title of Lord Frescheville, Baron of Stavely, to descend to the Heirs Male of his Body. His first Wife was Sarah, Daughter of Sir John Harrington Knight, by whom he had Issue, 3 Daughters, viz. Christian, married to Charles then Ld. St. John, Eldest Son to John Marquis of Winchester; Elizabeth, to Philip Son and Heir to Sir Philip Warwick, Knight, and afterwards to Coniers Earl of Holderness; and Francis, married to Colonel Thomas Colepeper, who survived her. His second Wife was Ana Charlotta, Daughter to Sir Henry de Vick Kt. Chancellor of the Garter, who is now one of the Ladies of the Bedchamber, to the present Anne Q. of England.

Fresingfield, a Village in Suffolk 6 m. from Halworth, where the most

F R E

Reverend Father in God Dr. William Sancroft, the most Pious Learned Lord Arch Bishop of Canterbury, was Born, who erected a Free-School in it.

Frewen, (Accepted) Eldest Son of John Frewen, Rector of Northam in the County of Sussex, was born Anno 1588, and when fitted for the University at the Free-School in Canterbury, was sent to study in St. Magdalen-College in Oxford, where he was Elected Demy, Fellow and Divinity Reader: Then he went in Quality of the Domestick Chaplain, to John Earl of Bristol, in his Embassy into Germany and Spain; and being there when K. Charles I. then Prin. of Wales, came thither Incognito, to treat about a Marriage between himself and the Infanta, and having the Honour of Preaching before that Judicious Prince, chose these words for his next, Why halt you between two Opinions? If the Lord be God then serve him, and if B.ial be God then serve him. In which discourse he gave such unanswerable proofs of the being of a God, and the Necessity and Satisfaction of perseverance in his Worship, without Doubting or Dividing it, that that Prince kept them in his Memory till he came to the Crown, and then put him into the List of his Chaplains with his own Royal hand. At his return into England, he was Elected President of Magdalen College, in which Government he continued with singular Applause for the Space of 18 Y. being 4 times Vice-Chancellor. He was also a Prebend of Canterbury, and dean of Gloucester. In the beginning of the Rebellion in 1644. he was consecrated Lord Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry, and suffered with the rest of his Loyal Brethren loss of all, till the Restoration of K. Charles II. and then was translated to the A. Bishoprick of York, where he departed this Life March 2. 1654.

F R A

ho being visited by the Emperor Charles V. to shew their Gratitude sent a Faggot of Cinnamon in his Chamber, and lighted the Faggot with a Bill they had of him for a great Sum of Mony; to his great satisfaction, who was then scarce able to pay it.

Penny, or Ton, a Borough and m. in Cornwall, in the Hundred of Under, which has the Honour of turning 2 Burgeses to Parliament; ho now are George Granville, and John Hicks, Esquires.

For, (John) who wrote the Book Martyrs, was born at Boston in Lincolnshire, in 1547. Educated in Weymouth College, and afterwards elected Fellow of Magdalen College in Oxford. Being dissatisfied with the Popish Religion, he travelled into Germany, in the Reign of King Henry VIII. and in the Reign of Queen Mary, fled to Ratis, where he perfected himself in the Knowledge of the Protestant Religion, as taught by Mr. Calvin, whom he so strictly followed, as caused in him a Dislike of some Ceremonies of the Church of England, when he returned to his Native Country. In Queen Elizabeth's Reign he settled in London, and printed his Acts and Monuments, and afterwards was made Bp. of Exeter.

Praga; a strong T. in the Km. of Praga in Spain, upon the Borders of Catalonia.

Prandlingham, a small m. T. in the Km. of Suffolk, in which there was a Castle, to which Queen Mary retreated under the Regency of the Lady Mary Gray, till she was established on her Throne by the Protestant Generals of that Country, who were afterwards very ill requited by her.

Prampton, a m. T. in Dorsetshire, in the Hundred of Godberton, upon the coast, abounding with good Fish; in London 102 m.

F R A

France, is a Km. very difficult to be bounded of late Years, because it has always been encroaching upon the Rights of its Neighbours, and has been extended in the Reign of its present Monarch, Louis XIV. by the Measure of his Sword, and not by the Rules of Justice. About 40 Y. since, it was limited on the E. by the Alps, which divide the Dauphinate from Piedmont, and by Savoy, Switzerland, Germany, and Part of the Netherlands: On the N. by the Netherlands, and the British Ocean; on the S. by Spain, from which it is parted by the Pyrenean Mountains, and the Mediterranean Sea. Picardy was formerly its N. thermost Province; but now they have added to it Lorraine, Burgundy, part of the Netherlands, both the Alsatia's, the greatest part of Flanders, Hainault, Namur, part of Luxemburg, and all Artois, which is now annexed to Picardy. It is divided into 60 Counties, and those now into 14 Provinces, viz. the Isle of France, Burgundy, Normandy, Aquitain, Brittany, Champagne, Languedoc, Picardy, Dauphine, Lyonnois, Orleans, Franch Comte, both Alsatia's, Hainault, Namur and Artois. The chiefest C. of this Km. is Paris, where Henry VI. E. of England, was crowned K. of France, whose Minority and Weakness gave Charles VII. an opportunity to expell the English, who in his Father Henry V's Reign, had almost totally subdued it. Excluding the conquer'd Countries, this Km. has 10 Seats of Parliament, viz. of Paris, Toulouse, Grenoble, Bordeaux, Dijon, Rouen, Aix, Reims, Pau and Nice. Fourteen Universities, viz. Paris, Toulouse, Bordeaux, Perpignan, Orleans, Bourges, Caen, Montpellier, Cahors, Nantes, Rheims, Valence, Aix and Avignon. Its Sea-ports on the Ocean are, Brest, Blavet, Morlaix, St. Paul de Loz, Lucen, Richieu, &c.

F R A

Provage, Havre de Grace, Dife, Calais, St. Valeri, Triport, Dunkirk, St. Malo, &c. Those which France possesses in the Mediterranean in their own Right, are Marseilles and Thoulon, &c. but now it is in possession of all the Ports of Spain, under pretence of assisting the Duke of Anjou his Grand-son, whom he was made K. of that Country, by his own working-head, and liberal-hand to the Spanish Ministers. In former times, the French Foot were accounted very mean Soldiers; but now they are much amended. Their Nobility and Gentry are very complaisant and well bred, and generally Scholars; Their Tradesmen, and Mechanicks, are ingenious in every thing they undertake, but impatient of Labour; and their Peasants are sunk into meanness of Spirit, and the lowest Degree of Poverty, by the continued Oppressions and Exactions of the K. and their particular Lords. They sow the Frontiers of Silesia, and Lusatia, about 10 German m. from Berlin, and has also 2 Markets every Year.

F R A

Frankfort, a great and stately C. in Germany, upon the R. Maine. It was once a free and imperial C. and the Place where the Emp. was elected; but now has lost the first of these Privileges. By reason of the Navigable R. it has great Convenience for Merchandizing with most Parts of Germany, and the 2 Markets it has in a Y. are very considerable. 'Tis a wonder to see what Numbers of Books are sold at these two Fairs, and yet all the Y. before, and after, there is scarce a Book-sellers shop to be seen open. St. Bartholomew's Church, the T. House, the Imperial Palace, the Fountains, and the Bridges are fine Structures. The Suburbs are called Saxon Herten, i. e. the Dwellings of the Saxons; and tho' the Citizens are for the most part Lutherans, yet the Calvinists and the Papists are both cesses and short intermissions of Peace, till he died in 1547, in the 52 year of his Age; and though his Reign was perplext with Wars, yet he left this Character behind him, that he was a very thrifty Prince, and a great lover of Learning and Learned men.

F R A

Francis II. when he was arrived to the age of 15 Y. married the Princess Mary, only Daughter of James V. K. of Scotland, and ascended the Throne upon the Death of his Father in the Y. 1559. During his Reign, the Duke of Guise and his Brother the Cardinal, Governed all things in France; but the K. dying in the 2 Y. of his Reign, and 17 of his Age, the Posture of Affairs was quite changed.

Francis, King of Navarre, who for his extraordinary Beauty was surnamed Phabus, received the Crown at Pampelona in 1482; but returning into Bearn, was poisoned at Pen in the Spring following.

Francis, Dauphin, of France, Crowned Duke of Bretagne in 1532 a Prince of great Generosity, was also Poisoned at Valence or Lyon, by Sebastian Count of Montcauli.

Francis Duke of Alencon, Anjou, &c. was a Martial Prince; but his discontents always rendered him unsuccessful, in whatsoever he undertook: he in vain Solicited Elizabeth Q. of England to marry him, and his treachery to the States of Holland, lost him a beneficial command in that Country, and forced him to retire into France, where he died in 1584.

Francis, of Burbon, Duke of Montpensier, &c. shewed himself a Prince of great Courage and Conduct, in many Encounters against the Leaguers, and at the Battel of Arques; but at the Siege of Rosens fell sick of a Disease, of which he died at Lisieux in 1592.

Francis, of Bourbon, Prince of

F R A

Confl. &c. espoused the Interest of Henry IV. fought with great Courage and success at the Battel of Tury, and on other emergent occasions; and died in the year 1614.

Francis, of Bourbon, Count of St. Paul and Duke of Esstateville, signalizing himself in Italy, received the Honour of Knighthood from the great Bayard. Afterward he was taken Prisoner by the Emperor's Forces, a first and second time, from which he was not discharged till the Peace at Cambray; he died in 1545.

Francis, of Bourbon, Duke of Anguien, signalized himself so early in Military affairs, that the K. entrusted him with the Conduct of his Army, in which he had good success; but at length was unfortunately killed, by a Chest falling on his Head, in 1545.

Francis, Duke of Bretagne, In-stituted the military Order of Ks. called Hermine, took Pont del Arche and other places from the English Forces, and died of a Dropsie in 1450.

Francis II. Duke of Bretagne, united his Forces with Count Charalois, against Louis XI. of France; but being called home to defend his own Territories, was Routed at St. Aubin de Cormier, and forced to conclude a disadvantageous Peace; he departed this Life in 1488.

Francis, d'Este, Duke of Modena, and Reggio, was constituted General in Italy, where he behaved himself Valiantly and Discreetly, as well as in the Government of his own Dominions, when the times were tumultuous, and disorderly. He died in 1658.

Francis, d'Este II. Duke of Modena and Reggio, Son of Alphonse IV. was an Infant of 2 Y. of Age, and died whilst his Mother administered the Government.

F R A

Francis, Duke of Lorraine and Barre, was a Prince of great Wisdom and Valour, and died in the 28 Y. of his Age of an Apoplexy, Anno 1545.

Francis, of Lorraine, Duke of Guise, Aumale, &c. did considerable Service against the Imperial Forces when they had Besieged Metz, and took Calais from the English, after it had been in their possession 200 Y. He acted in France like an absolute monarch, under the Reign of Henry II. and was Honoured by the Parliament of Paris, with the Title of Governor of the King. But Charles IX. not giving him the same treatment as his favour, and preferring the Admiral Coligni's Councils, he left the Court in Discontent, and leagued with the Constable Montmorency and the Cardinal of St. Anselme, who deputed a Quarter against the Protestants, at his return to Paris in 1571, a small spark kindled the

F. R. A

by a Plastic, of which he died 1552.

Francis, of Lorraine Duke of Fort, &c. was admiral of France 1564. and Sailing into Africa with a disappointment in his voyage; but next year had some success against the Algerines 1566. in pursuit of Glory he went to the Siege of Constantia; but lost his Life, in the year last mentioned.

Francis of Assise, (See) was brought up, and a while traded as a Merchant, but afterwards espousing the Cause of Religion, became Founder of the order of Friars that bore his name, and Swarmed all Popish Countries.

Francis Xavier, a Native of Portugal, was the Person, who in conjunction with Ignatius Loyola, founded the Order of Jesuits, that have given the Christian world so much trouble, ever since they grew vastly Rich, and have screwed the

F R O

Friuli, or Friul, a Prov. of Italy, bounded on the S. by the Adriatic, on the W. with the Marche of Treviso, on the N. by the and Carniola, and on the E. Carniola, and Istria. This is under the State of Venice, its Capital City of it is Udine.

Fride, Q. of the Mercenars, lived in the 4th Cent. was ruled to Christianity, by the she heard of St. Ambrose, as a of exemplary Piety and lensis, a famous Printer at who was so well learned, and so diligently convers'd with, that his Name gave a Reputation to the Books he Printed. He died a Fall in 1527.

lister, (Martin) a famous Mariner, born in the Co. of good Parentage, in the 16th. who first discovered the Promontory or Cape, which used the Queen's Foreland, near it is a Streight that bears his Name. He was Knighted by Q. Elizabeth, and made Vice-Admiral under Francis Drake; he did good against the Spaniards, in but at length received a wound, whereof he died at Fly, in 1594.

Is I. K. of Oviedo in Spain; became the Moors and Saracens in the Prov. of Galicia, killed 14000 of them; but having killed his Brother Imran, Venice pursued him, and he underwent the same Fate himself, by aid of his younger Brother, who after possessed the Throne.

Jard, (John) wrote a brief of the Transactions of England and Spain from 1326 to. Aguerrean de Montrelet, he it down to the Y. 1467 by John Sleidan Epitomized it.

F U L

Fume, a m. Cloathing T. in Somersetshire, upon a R. of the same Name, 81 m. from London.

Foufack, a Castle in Aquitain near Bordeaux, erected into a Dukedom by Charlemain.

Frontenac, a Citadel of new France in America; built in 1673 to oppose the Incursions of the Salvages.

Foutignan, a small C. in Languedoc, upon the Lake of Magellane, 15 L. from Harbon to the E. and 4 from Montpelier to the W. upon the Mediterranean Sea. The Wines of this place, called Atyscat, are in great esteem, and sold at dear Frumentius, a Tyrian Merchant, who was afterwards made a Bp. by Athanasius, and was the first that planted the Christian Religion in Ethiopia.

Fucisl, (Dominick) an Indian Missionary who has lived about thirty years in that Country, and has baptized more than 10000 Infidels, into the Christian Faith.

Fulde, a C. of Germany in the upper Circle of the Rhine, near Hassia. The City is built in a Plain, in which there is an Abbey of the Order of St. Bennet, one of the Noblest in all Europe; this Abbey was built in 784 by Pepin K. of France, and the Abbot is the Prince and Primate of all the Abbots of the Empire. None but Gentlemen can be Monks of this Abbey.

Fulgentius, the Venerable Bp. of Ruspæ, who for defending Orthodox Christianity against the Arrian Hereticks, was Banished by Theodosius into Sardinia, where he died in Exile in 533.

Fulstren, (John) was Lieutenant Colonel in the Earl of Angus's Regiment, and was killed at Steenkirke.

Fullo, an Antychian Heretick who to the Scandal of the Church, was made Bishop of Antioch by a Fa-Qyon.

F U O

Fulvia, Marc Anthony's Mother, who was accounted a great Orator among the Soldiers, to whom she used to harangue, and was in no less repute for her Martial Bravery.

Fulvis, sometimes a Noble Family of Old Rome, but now extinct.

Funiculus, (John) a Minister of the Reformed Churches in Germany, and an excellent Chronologer.

Funchal, the Capital C. in the Island of Madera, and a Bp. See under the Arch Bishoprick of Lis-bonne.

Funen, the largest and most Fruitful Island, belonging to the K. of Denmark; where they live upon their own productions.

Funerals, the last offices of Friendship, that the living pay to the dead, whose Rites vary according to the Custom of the several Countries in the World.

Fun, or, a People of Ethiopia, un-

F U Y

F. tho' but small, about a m. from the Ocean, 3 l. from Dixmude, and about two from Dunkirk, it has been many times taken and retaken, by the French and the Confederates during the time of the late war, but now again in the Possession of the Spaniards.

Furstemberg, a T. and Principality in the Circle of Schwaben in Germany, giving name to an illustrious House, of which the Cardinal of Furstemberg, who was Competitor for the Elector of Cologne for that Ecclesiastical Principality, is a Member.

Furstemberg, (William) made resistance against the Muscovites in Livonia; but in the year 1555 betaken Prisoner, was carried into Moscov, where he died.

Furstus, (Walter) a Swiss who caused the 3 Cantons of Uri, Schwitz and Unterwald, to shake off their Obedience to the House of Austria and united them into the League.

Fuyen, an Island in the Babel

G A B

Regem of Sextus Son of ho pretending a Disgust er's Severity, fled thither,
wered them and their C. a Blow.

Predecessor of M. Cras-Government of Judea, settled Peace by restoring to the High-Priesthood.
Ishabul's Prisoner to Rome, ned the Usurper Alexan-

Samita, a Maronite of great in the Oriental Tongues, en Syriac and Arabic Pro-Rome. He was invited to re his Syriac and Arabic
e first printed: He wrote ese Geography.

a Princess of extraordiy, and Authress of several Books, in the 16th Cent.
Daughter to Lewis I. of

(Anthony) a Roman Ci-Reputation of the 16th lso an Eminent Family of ennobled by producing s of Learning, and Ecclesignities.

(Nicholas) a bold and Speaker, who from a Millinter's Son, raised him-he Absence of the Pope at in 1346, to be Tyrant of der the Title of Tribune of s, stiling himself the Deli-the City, &c. Being exue, and taken and sent to s, he escaped thence, and ved again with Applause in t the following year he was ed for his Tyrannies.

as Pradus, having in the g of the 15th Cent. joined leade's in their seizing Mil- s having invited Charles nd, and 9 or 10 of the them to a Collation, sur-bana, and usurped the Gon, and played the Tyrant

G Æ T

in an exquisite Degree. Being afterwards taken and sent to Execution by Philip Visconti, he replied to the pious Exhortations of his Confessor, That he repented nothing, but his not having precipitated the Emperor Sigismund, and Pope John XXIII. from his Tower, when in his Hands.

Gad, seventh Son of Jacob by Zilpah, from whom came the Tribe of Gad, which abounding in Cattel and Men, settled in the Kingdoms of Heshbon and the Amorites; also the Name of a Prophet in David's Time, one of the Compilers of his Acts.

Gadara, or Gaderis, a Greek Town in the Tribe of Manasseh, standing on a Hill near the R. Gadara. At its Entrance is the Lake of Gensar- eth, famous for the Swine mentioned in the Scripture.

Gaddi, (James) a Favorite Poet of Pope Urban VIII. and Innocent
X. He was Author of several Poems.

Gaddi, (Nicholas) a Cardinal, and one of the Hostages demanded for the Pope's Ransom by the Em-perour, in the 16th Cent. and employed by Francis I. in weighty Affairs.

Gademes, or Gademessa, a Desert, and Country of large extent in A- frica, E. of the Desert of Fezen, and W. of Gueguela; its Capital C. Ga- demes stands on the R. Capsus.

Gadrols, (Claude) a learned Car- tesian of Paris, where he was born, who wrote of the Force of Talis- mans, a System of the World, &c.
He died young in 1678.

St. Gatan de Thiene, was born in Placenza, founded the Order of Theatins in 1524, died in 1547, and was Canonized in the 17th Cent.

Gardis, the Ancient Name of the present Region of Alledulgerid and Kara, which confined on the Uz- ramantes, whose People were the

G A J

Aborigines of Africa, wandering and unfixed as the Tartars, this Country was the Bound of the Roman Conquests in Africa.

Gaffare (James) Author of a Book of Talismans; &c. He was a Doctor both of Divinity and Canon-Law.

Gaga, a large open C. 400 m. S. E. of Timbato in Africa, governed by a K. who decides all his Subjects causes himself. The houses are poor; the Palace is Magnificent enough. It's great Trade has made it Rich, they Traffick for Barran Cloth & Horses, Slaves, &c. They have no Wine, but good Water, &c. Meads, &c. The King of Gaga took it with the surviving part of his Men, that escaped the Defeat of the Defarts, and brought it to great Riches.

Gale (Robert) born at Cal- tre on the H. L., bordering on Ar- is. He was a man of Learning, General of the Order of Trinitarians,

G A L

Gail or Gailliar, (Andreas) cellor of Calagn, and an Lawyer of the 16th Cen. He Author of several Books
faculty.

Gainsar, general of Arcadian
my in the 14th Cen. though by Birth. He put Rugians to for aspiring to the Empire after many outrages, and made by him on the Emperor favour of Extropius, he was procl an Enemy, beaten on the Hell and his head sent to Con- ple.

Gainsborough a fair m. T. of Hund. in Lincolnshire, on the noted for the Murder of Sau- giving the Title of Earl to family of the Nels.

Gala, or Gale, a C. and the Isle of Ceylon, while under Portugueses flourishing; but bei the Siege beat down by the when taken 'twas not rebuilt Rocks under the Water, mak

G A L

by the Rabble of the Fort. Here there are several Convents of Latin Monks.

Galathea, a Sea Goddess daughter of Doris and Nereus, Also the Mistress of Poliphebus; likewise Wife of Hercules Lybicus the Mother of Galate who reigned in Gaul.

Galatia, now Gelas, a Prov. of Asia-minor, bounded E. by Cappadocia W. by Pontus and Bithynia, S. by Pamphylia, and N. by the Euxine Sea; it derived its name from the Gauls that past hither from Rome; its chief Cities were Ancira, Simpe, Amisus, &c. They received Christianity from S. Paul, as his Epistle testifies; and were Subdued by the Turks, in 1537.

Galatinus, (Petrus) a Franciscan of Reputation, that wrote against the Jews in the 16th Cen.

Galba, the Successor of Nero, in the Roman Empire; he was declared Emperor by the Army in Spain, tho' very Timorous of his Success, till hearing of the Death of Nero, he advanced to Rome, with great Hopes and Expectations from the People; having adopted Piso his Heir, he was killed by a Party of the Pratorian Cohorts, undefended by any but Sempronius Drusus a Centurion, in the 7th Month, of his Reign. He was of a Noble, though not of the Casarean Family.

Galeazzo, Maria Sforza, succeeded his Father Francis Sforza, in the Dukedom of Milan in 1455. He was murdered in the Church after 10 years Reign, being grown Odious by his Vices.

Galen, (Christopher Bernard de) of an ancient and eminent Family of Westphalia. He was chosen Bp. of Munster in 1650, was a warlike Prelate, and had divers Wars not only with the City of Munster, but also with Holland, and Brandenburg, whom he very much incommoded, till obliged to a peace by the Emperor's Forces, in 1674. having join'd Denmark against Sweden and taken several Places in Bremen and Frisen, he died 74 years old, in 1678.

G A L

Galen, or Galenus, (Matthew) Chancellour of Doway, and Author of several theological Books, in the 16th Cen.

Galen, or Galenus, (Claudius) was a Native of Fergamus, and Son of a great Architect, excelling all his Contemporaries in Physick. He studied at Alexandria and Rome, whence he fled once for fear of the Plague, and a second time for fear of being punished as a Magician, by reason of his great Art in curing Distempers. He wrote 200 Volumes, most of which were burn'd in the Temple of Peace. He died at 70 years old, about the 140th year of Christ.

Galeata, (Fabio Capere) a great Civilian of the 17th Cen. and Regent of the Council of Italy.

Galeottus, (Martius) Library-keeper of Buda, and Tutor, and Secretary to Matthias Corvinus's Son, meeting Lewis XI. of France coming out of Lyons, he in hast to alight from his Horse, tumbled down on his head, and died of the Bruise.

Galerius Armentarius, Native of Dacia, and chosen Partner in the Roman Empire, by Dioclesian, upon his marrying his Daughter Valeria, being divorced himself from his first Wife for that purpose. He beat Narjes King of Persia, out of Mesopotamia, and five other Asiatick Provinces beyond Tigris. After Dioclesian's Abdication, he divided the Empire betwixt himself and Constantius Chloerus, and created Flavius Maximinus, &c. Cesars, and in vain attempted the share of Chloerus, and persecuted the Christians; seven years after the Retreat of Dioclesian he died of an Ulcer.

Galefius, or Petrus Galefius, a Native of Milan was Author of several veral Books, and Editor of divers others; he was Apostolick Protonotary to Gregory XIII. and Sixtus V.

G A L

Galibis, an American People along the R. Courbo in Guiana, or in New Andalusia, N. of the R. Orinocoque.

Galicia, once a Kingdom, now the most westerly Prov. of Spain, bound- ed S. by Portugal, N. W. by the Atlantic Ocean, and E. by Leon and Asturies; in it are 6 Episcopal Cities, of which Compostella is the Capital, Lugo, Betanzos, Padron, &c. among its 40 Ports, the Groin or Corunna is the chief; the Country extending 60 l. in Length and 40 in Breadth is hill'y, not fruitful in Corn, and near the Sea unwholsom; the Suevians Km. of Galicia held from 400 to 582, was joyned to the Visigoths in 585, in 713 was Subdued by the Moss, and united mostly to Leon in 755 by Frula K. of Leon.

Galicia Nov 1, an American Prov.

G A L

Gallani, an African People, now Master of near half the Abyssinian Empire, were originally only slaves to the K. of Bali; but too much Oppression made them Revolt, and then retiring among the Hills, they became Robbers, till their Moss furnished them with Arms. Being now form'd into a Government, they invaded first, and then subdued Bali and since about ten other Prov. They eat raw Flesh and drink Milk, for- fer none to cut their Hair, till they have subdued an Enemy, and di- vide their Prey equally among them.

Galland, (Peter) or Petrus Gallandius, Head of the Parisian College of Bon Court. He wrote against Re- mus, was favoured by Francis I. and died in 1559.

Gallardum, or Chasteau-Gallard, once a strong Fortress built by Rich- ard K. of England. It held out five Months against Philip Augustus of France, and is now a Village on the R.

G A L

aus and Heraclianus, or by Cecropius commander of the Dalmatian Troops, after 8 Y. Reign.

Gallinicus, was Exarch of Reverme, in 598; whose seizing the Daughter of the King of the Lombards with her Husband, gave Rise to a War.

Gallio, (Ptolemy) Cardinal of Come, chief Minister to Pope Gregory XIII. He left 100000 Crowns for the marrying poor Maids.

Gallipoli, a larg C. 110 m. from Constantinople, standing on a Peninsula in Romania on the Bay of that same name; 'tis about 6 m. in Circuit. Also an Italian C. and Bpk. in Ostranto, well fortified, on the Bay of Tarentum.

Galloway, a Scotch County divided from Ulster by a Channel of 15 m. over. 'tis bounded by Nith, dale Carrick, Kyle, and Salway-Frith; has the R. of Lar, Kenn, Ure, Croo, and Dee, besides Lakes. It is Hilly, and its chief Towns are Wigton, Whithorn, &c. It gives the Title of Earl to the noble Family of Stewards, by a long descent to the present James Earl of Galloway.

Gallus, (C. Vibius Trebianus) Emperor of Rome, though scarce allowed a place among them, for the small duration of his Empire, and for his bying a Peace with the Goths by an annual Tribute.

Gallus, Brother of Julian the Apostate, and Nephew of Constantine the Great; whose Son Constantius, having made him Cæsar for his Merit, cut off his Head three years after, for his too popularly acquitting himself in that Dignity, in 354.

Gallus, the Favourite of Mars, tho' turned by him into a Cock, for falling a sleep, when he was to watch the approach of the Sun, while he enjoyed Venus, which Intrigue being thus discovered by the Sun, he betrayed it to Vulcan, who exposed them both Naked to the view of the rest of the Gods; which provoked Mars to make that Change of Gallus.

G A M

Gallus, a R. of Phrygia in Asia, having its Head in the Celenean Hills, has its exit in the R. Sanger; its waters too largely drank, gives that Madness, which a Moderate draught of them will cure.

Gallusius, (Tarquinius) a Jesuit of Italy, that in the late Cen. wrote of Poetry, and a Defence of Virgil.

Gallway, a County of Connaught in Ireland. 'Tis fertile, and supplies Merchandize enough to the Natives for Traffick. It is bounded W. with the Ocean, and divided E. by the Shannon from Rescommen, and Kings-County; the County of Mayo bounds it N. that of Clare, S. its Capital C. Gallway is a Bpk. a neat well built Town, on the Bay of Gallway, capacious enough to contain a numerous Fleet: it was Neuter in the first Commotions, but afterwards Submitted to the Earl of Ormond. In 1651 it surrendered to Sir Charles Cœ, and in 1691 Submitted to King William.

Gama, (Afonso de) a learned Civilian and Canonist of Portugal in the XVII. Cen. He wrote several Books in that and the Theologian way.

Gamabes, natural pictures in Stones, produced by chance, as some would persuade us by the Influence of the Stars; as that of a Man in an Agate at Venice.

Gamaliel, S. Paul's Master, and a Doctor of the Jews, a private Hearer of Christ, and a Friend to the Christians, as you may see, Acts 9.

Gambara, (Halart) a Cardinal of the 15th Cen. and one of the greatest States-men of his Age. He was Patron of Arts and learned Men, and had a Memory that always retained, whatever it had once received.

Gambrivius, an ancient German K. supposed Founder of Cambrai and

G A N

Hamborough, this latter being the Seat of the Gambriah.

Gammacerat, an ignivomous Mountain of Ternate, one of the Malacca Isles, with Smoak and Athes, in 1673 darkned the Sky.

Gan, a Spanish C. and Dukedom 8 L. from Valencia. Francis Borgia made it an University, to whose House it belongs.

Genes, or Gagneus (Johannes) a French Divine that by the Command of Francis I. whose Chief Almoner he was, translated Pri-masius's Comments on S. Paul, &c.

Gangara, an African Km. with its Capital C. abounding in Gold, and situate betwixt the Niger, the Kms of Cassena and Born, and the Lake Born in Nigeria. The Prince is absolute, and has Horse as well as Foot.

Gangarides, Asiatick Indians at the Mouth of the Ganges, being in the Km. of Bengala.

G A R

Ganimede, being Son of King of Phrygia, was taken up to Heaven by an Eagle, and Jupiter made Cup-bearer to God's; the Poets making a deity in love with him.

Ganking, a rich, populous C. of the Prov. of Nankin on the Borders of three therefore by the Emperor's Arsenal for Expeditions, Seat of a Viceroy, and five other Cities: In it Pillar 3 Perches high.

Ganga, or Khugba, a Km. of Nigeria betwixt Nadia, whose Ks are descended from a Slave, that by robbing others purchased Men and so seized the Km.

Ganza, a Chinese Isle of Quantang, noted for a low fish, one half the year and the other a fish.

Gap, a C. and Bpk. of

G A R

from Garamas, Son of Apollon.
ey dwelt at the Source of the Clippus, and were an affable, ding, but not very Religious Peo-
. They were part black, and white.

Garamas, Son of Apollon as above,
the Name of a part of Mount causus, whence springs the River sis.

Garcius III. K. of Navarre, died in 11th. Cent. He always fought wely, but in the beginning was to tremble.

Garcius V. in the 12th Cent. re-tered the Km of Navarre, and wely defended himself against Invaders, till he died by a Fall a Horse.

Garcius, K. of Oviedo and Leon, ugh taken Prisoner by his Father Sancho III. against whom he re-led, was set on the Throne by Brothers, and Father-in-Law, reigned 3 Years.

Garcius Laza de la Vega, or Garsso de la Vega, two of this Name, first Son of a Nobleman of Tea, Counsellour, and Ambassadour Ferdinand and Isabel. He was ve, graceful, witty, and a good
; the other was a Native of in America, and Author of History of Florida, and Pera.

Hardiner, (Stephen) was a Native
K. Edmunds-Bury in Suffolk, supied the Natural Son of Sir *Tho.
dottle*, Edward IV's. Qu's Bror; his skill in Canon and Civil v, Divinity, Greek and Latin, ed him to the Bprk of Winche-e, and Chancellourship of Eng-e; he got through Henry VIII's ga by siding with the Court, and ming betwixt a Vera, and Falsa dentia to the Pope; he temporawhile in Edward VI's Time, his Principles discovered and veyed him to the Tower; whence Mary delivered him, in whose ga he was a great Persecutor of

G A R

the Protestants, and died with sore Remorse, the Day that Bp. Ridly, and Bp. Latimer were burnt.

Gardon, a R. of Languedoc, which rising in the Hills of Cevennes, in its Course to the Rhone, takes the additional Names of Alets and Andorre, as it runs by them 'Tis most noted for an Aqueduct of 3 Ranges of Arches one over another, betwixt Nismes and Avignon, built by the Romans, and now call'd Pont de Gard, reaching from a Valley up betwixt two Hills.

Garet, an African Prov. of Alg.
bordering on Algiers, and the Mediterranean, divided from Algier by the R. Mulvia, and from Eriff by the Necus; 'tis divided into the Cities, habitable Mountains, and Deserts. Its chief Towns are Melilla, Cacaca, Fexxa, &c.

Gargara, a Mountain on the Top of Ida, near Troy, famous among the Poets for its Fertility, &c.

Gargaris, King of the Curetes, to whom the Invention of gathering Honey is attributed, and the advancing his Daughter's Bastard to his Throne after him, for his approved good Fortune and Bravery in disingaging himself, from those Dangers he had imposed on him.

Garibay, (Stephen) a Historian of the 15th Cent. who wrote of Spain, France, Constantinople, &c.

Gariscenda, a hanging Tower of Bologna in Italy, whose Architect being stabb'd by the Envy of others of that Profession never finished it;
tho' it now hangs 9 Foot more out at the Top than at the Foundation.

Garizim, a Samaritan Mountain, famous for the Temple built there by Manasses, Brother of Jaddas High-Priest of the Jews, in the Time of Alexander the Great, where they worshipped till the Time of Justician the Emperour, Manass's exercising the High-Priesthood there in opposition to Jerusalem.

G A S

Garnerius, (Johannes) a Native of Paris in the 17th Cent. became a Jesuit in 1628. and was one of the most learned of the Society in Humanity, Ecclesiastick Antiquities, &c. and published many Books in several Kinds, dying in 1681.

Garonne, a considerable River of France, rising near Silarda, on the Pyreneans near Arragon, passes thro' several Counties to Tholouze, the Capital of Languedoc, and afterwards to the Aquitain Sea, into which it disembogues.

Garth, the Name of a good Family in the Eprk of Durham, made eminent by the Wit, and extraordinary Parts of Dr. Garth Author of the Dispersary.

Garsia, (Dominick) a dogmatical, tho' learned Canon of Saragossa, who has published several Books in his way, in the 17th Cent.

Gascogne, a Prov. of France, or rather a general Name for several Provinces, which lie betwixt the Pyreneans, and the Garonne, the Ocean, and Guiana. It is a part of leans, Uncle and Guardian of the nobility to the present King a mighty Virtus, and died in 1650.

G A U

Gaston, Phelipe III. Count of Artois, brave, generous, magnanimous, Author of several Tracts &c. He died suddenly in the latter end of the 4th Cent.

Gaston de Foix of Nemours, more Bravery than Cato, being General of the French Army, he beat first the Pope's Army, then the Venetian Forces, and at the Battle of Ravenna, pursued the English he was surrounded and killed.

Gassules, a brave and simple people of the hilly parts of France, retained by the King of France his Guards.

Gataker, (Thomas) a great Lawyer, born in the 16th Cent. 1654, leaving behind him several Historical and Theological Works.

Gath, a strong City of Israel, bordering on the Tribe of Judah, famous for the Giant Goliath.

G A U

riminal; they offered often human Sacrifices, and with that Zeal, when the condemned Criminals died not, it was Meritorious to themselves. The Government various, generally Aristocratich, some Places Democratich; and elsewhere as they were elected. The Druids and Warriours were a couple of most note, the Vulgar as much Slaves as at present. I never let their Sons come publicly into their Father's Presence, able to bear Arms. The Husband's power of Life and Death over his wife, and with the Master his Servant and Goods were buried. They used the Greek Alphabet, which they took from the Greek Colony of Settles.

Ulatia, or Gallo-grecia, was taken from the Gauls that past from France, under Brennus.

Uant, or Ghent a C, and Bpk. the chief of Flanders, Suffragan to Maastricht, on the Upper, and the great Id, the Ley, &c. 'Twas once as large as its Walls still shew; it contains 7 parish-Churches, besides whole of Monasteries, and Hospitals, &c. In this City is the Provincial Council of Flanders, the Chamber of Law, which takes Cognizance of Lands in Fee; here is a Dial, weighing 1000 pounds; Citadel was built by Charles V. to curb them after a Revolt, four L. from Brussels, Antwerp, & Mechlin.

Uaricus, (Pomponius) a Poet of Rome, of Naples, that beside his poems wrote of Architecture, Physiomy, &c. And who died not, disappeared in 1530, if you'll believe the Story.

Uaricus, (Lucas) a learned Bp. of Chiesa duca in Italy, of great reputation for Astrology, by which he foretold Henry II's Death in a dream by a wound in the Eye, which Event justified. He wrote some

G A Z

Books; and having been much favoured by four Popes, he died in 1559 at Ferrara.

Gauis, supposed to be the ancient Persians who adored Fire, tho' now dispersed in Kerman, and Isfahan in Persia, and Indoian, by the Inundations of Tartars, that for some Ages over-run great part of Asia. They seem in their Opinions to have had some confused Notions of the Mysteries of Christianity, in their Prophet Ehrabim-zer-Areuch's Birth, and in the notion of the Resurrection, when their Law is spread over the Earth. Their preserving the Fire, is in Memory of the Fire that their Prophet escaped when being thrown into it a Child, by the K. of Persia. They believe in one God, and have various fabulous Traditions.

Gaurus, Gerra, or Garra, a Hill of Campania, noted for good Wine.

Gaza, now Gazera, the most populous City of Palestine. Samson took away the Gates of this Town, it being lost again to the Philistines after the Death of Jephtha. It suffered much in the holy War, is now a Principality feudatory to the Turk; 'tis defended with a Fort, and the Houses are of rough Stone, tho' there are marks of nobler Architecture formerly.

Gazecus, (Gulielmus) and Angelinus, Uncle and Nephew, the former a Canon of Aire, the latter a Jesuit of Liege, and Author of several Poemes, &c. as his Uncle was of historical Books. The first died in 1692 the later in 1730.

Gaxellus, first governour of Apsamas in Syria for the Sultan of Aegypt, who being often defeated by Selim the Turk, he submitted to his Empire, which gained him the Government of all Asia. He in vain attempted the Restoration of the Province to the Mamelucs after Selim's Death, and in the attempt lost his Life. Q.

G E L

Gazie, Mahometan Volunteers or Soldiers for the Propagation of their Religion.

Gedaliab, Nebuchadnezzar's Governour of Judea murdered by Ishmael, whose Life he spared, in spite of the Advice of Johanan to the Contrary.

Gedeon, fifth Judge of Israel, was of the Tribe of Manasses, and freed his Country from the Slavery of the Medianites.

Gehanabad, the present Capital C. of the Prov. of Dehli, the Residence of the Great Mogul, built by Chageham on a who'somer Ground than its Neighbour Dehli, once the Capital of the Prov. The King's Palace is half a L. about, and surrounded with a freestone-Wall, and a large Moat. The Guard is kept in the 2d. Court by the Omra's, in the 3d. is the Divan, and Hall of Audience supported with 32 marble and painted Pillars; in it is also a fine small Mosque, the Place of the K's Devoin that time; at last flying to France, he died at Clary in the 12th Cen.

- G E N

Geldenbaur, (Gerard) being Bp. of Utrecht, on his Embrace of Luther's Doctrine retreated to Germany; where having wrote some Historical Tracts, he was murdered by Robbers.

Gelo, Tyrant of Syracuse, routed the Forces of Carthage, invading Sicily, by the importunities of Æzes, A.R. 276.

Geloni, ancient European Scythians, patient of Hunger, and Fatigue, supporting themselves with Meat and Blood, and making Habits of their Enemies Skins.

Gembours, a Low Country Town noted chiefly for its famous Abbey, it stands in Brabant, betwixt Nijmegen and Namur.

Geminus, (Villor) a Native of Africa, remarkable for being excommunicated after his Death, by S. Cyprian. for making a Priest Geminus.

GEN

adorned with several fine Piazas, a noble Town-house, magnificent Streets, large Walks, all supported by a good Trade; 'twas a Town of the Allobroges, and has underwent various Revolutions since the decay of the Empire, which has allowed it a free independent Town; The Bishops in conjunction with the Council and four Syndicks have governed it; the Dukes of Savoy have often attempted it in vain; and since the Reformation, by the Alliance of the Cantons it has entirely exerted its Freedom. William Farel first preached the Reformation here, whom Calvin and Bera succeeded, and the popish Religion was here by publick Authority abolished in 1535. Chablais, and Fassigne bound the Prov. of Genova, E. on the W. the Rhone, Savoy on the S. and N. the Rhone again.

Genil, Guardian Angels of the Heathen; to particular persons and places, they assigned a good one, and a Bad one; the first persuasive of Good, the other of Evil; to them they sacrificed Flower, Wine, Frankincense, and a Pig. The Romans swore solemnly by the Genius of the Emperor.

Genesaret, or the Sea of Galilee or Tiberias, now of Tahari, a Lake of Palestine, 18 m. long, and 7 broad, receiving the R. Jordan at Capernaum, and parting with it again at Bethsaida: The Air is temperate and the Soil productive of Figs, Olives, Walnuts, Dates, &c. The City now Tiberias, stands on the W. Bank of the Lake.

Genoa, or Genoa a Republick, and C. of Italy, 5 or 6 m. in Compass, stands on the Mediterranean, surrounded with strong Walls, Ramparts, &c. to the Land-side; secured on the other by a Mole wonderfully built in the Sea. It has 5 Gates to the Land, its Walls mounted with Cannon; it abounds with noble buildings, having whole Streets of Palaces; the finest is that of Doria, reaching from the Sea to the Hills; the Arsenal, the Palace of Sigimori, St. Lawrence's Church, and those of the Jesuits and Theatines are all magnificent: 'tis governed by a biennial Doge and 2 Senates, a mixture of Aristocracy, and Democracy. Its Territory extending 160 m. in length, and 25 in breadth, is divided into three parts, of which Genova is the principal and middle, the whole abounding in Houses, Villages and Towns, and is bounded by Nice W. Tuscany. E. the Mediterranean S. and N. by Parma Milan, and Montferrat. It has run through several Masters, and several times exerted its Freedom. But the last was when Andrew Doria shook of the French Yoke soon after 1527. it has since maintained its Freedom in some sort, tho' compelled to send their Doge and 4 Senators, to beg pardon of the French K. in 1674.

GEN

Genjericus, K. of the Vandals, who having vanquished Hermenericus King of the Suevians in Spain, passed into Africa, where he routed Count Boniface, who invited him thither, and then sought him; he subdued Africa, took Carthage, and Rome, over-run Italy, Greece, and Illyrium, aw'd the Emperor Martian, and raised an Army of 100000 Men, and a fleet of 1000 Ships sent against him by the Emp. Leo. He was an Arian and Persecutor of the Orthodox, and died in 476.

Gentilis, (Johannes Valentinus) a Native of Italy, and a great Teacher of Arrianism in Poland, after he had fled from Genova, whence banished by Sigismund and coming to Bern in Switzerland, he was beheaded, and boasted that he was the first Martyr for the Glory of the Father, others having suffered for that of the Son.

Gentile de Gentilibus, born at Avignon

G E O

Illegno in Italy, was a great Physician of the 14th Cent. and wrote Comments on Avicenne.

Gentilly, a Vill. on the R. Bievre, a small L. from Paris, famous for dying Scarlet, and for the Reception of the K. of France with all his Court, and six Papal, and six Imperial Legates.

Gentius, K. of Illyria, taken Prisoner by Anicius, and sent to Rome after his seizing the Roman Legates, in compliance with Persius, A. R. 586.

Geofrey, or John Geoffrid, was made a Cardinal by Pope Plus II. in the 15th Cent. for getting Lewis XI. of France to abolish the Pragmatick Sanction. To sollicite a Confirmation of which, opposed by the Parliament of Paris, and the Sorbonne he was Legate in France to that purpose; he commanded against the Count of Armagnac for Lewis, took his Town, and had him slain in his own House. He died going

G E R

George, Despot of Serbia, led to serve Bajazet II. in Merlane, in the 15th Cent. married his Daughter, and met II. took away his life. He died of a Wound in a Battle against the Turks.

George of Trebizonde, a Canon, taking his Name in Place of his Father's Name taught Rhetorick at Rome Secretary to Nicholas V. and translated many Greek, and wrote Latin Books; he was a Hotelian.

St. George, a Military Officer, situated by Frederick IV. against the Turkish Inroads; deavoured to be received Emp. Maximilian II.

Georgia Propria, the Armoria, which Borders on Armenia, the Caspian-Sea, and conquered by the Persian divided into two Prov. got two Kings or Vice-Roys of

GER

Florins, was degraded by John XXII. for his Crimes, delivered over to the secular Judge, condemned, flead and burnt.

Gerania, an old T. of Mafia, fabl'd to be a City of the Pigmies, driven thence by the Cranes, the tallest not being above a Cubit; at 4 Y. they were Children, and were decrepit at 1 years old.

Gerard, the Name of an Ancient Family in Lancashire, from whence the present Earl of Macclesfield derives himself, as he does his Title from the Valour, and Merits of his Father, created Lord Gerard of Brandon, by Charles I. and Earl of Macclesfield by Charles II. for his Eminent Services.

Gerard, (Thom.) Founder of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, and first Master of it, having been made Guardian of the Hospital of Reception of Pilgrims, built at Jerusalem by the Merchants of Naples, by permission of the Calif of Agypt. This Order was instituted with the Vows of Chastity, Obedience, &c. in 1659. He died after he had been Master of it 18 Years.

Gerbes, an African Isle in the Mediterranean, a Dance now of Tripoli, possessed by the Spaniards till driven thence by the Moroccans, in 1560.

Gergan, A-Bp. of Asia in Ephe in the 17th Cent. who wrote in Vulgar Greek, he was one of the Reformers, & mightily endeavoured to re-form.

Gergenti, Gerontium, Gerontium, and Agragar, Gerontium, the Mountain Gerontium, at the Foot it stands, in the City of Sicily, the seat of Gerontius, and his Successors, till it fell into the Hands of the Moroccans, from whom the Romans took it; and tho' it suffered much by the Saracens, is now a Park under Palermo, and a City of confidation, subject with the rest of the Isle to the Spaniards. Diodorus describes its ancient Glory; and it was famous for the Birth of Empedocles, Carcinus and Metellus; the first a Philosophical, the second a Tragick Poet, and the third a famous Musician.

GER

Germanicus, (Cesar) was Antonia Augustus's Niece's Son by her Husband Drusus, having been made Questor and Consul before his Legal Age, was so beloved by the Army, that he had much ado on the Death of Augustus, to hinder them from setting him up for Emperor against Tiberius, which done he fought, and vanquished the Germanians, and triumph'd over them; but after the Conquest of Armenia, Cappadocia, &c. he was poisoned by Piso, and so he sure by the private Order of Tiberius. He married Agrippina, Grand-daughter of Augustus, and had by her Nero, Drusus and Caligula the Emp. and 3 Daughters, Agrippina Mother of Nero the Emp. Drusilla, and Livia.

Germanus, a Native and Bp. of Auxerre, in the 5th Cent. he was deputed by the French Bps, with Lupus Bp. of Troye into Britain against the Pelagians and Celestines with success twice. He died at Ravenna in 442.

Germanus, (John) first Bishop of Nevers then of Covent in the 12th Cent. famous for Learning, & a great Writer, as the Life of St. Germain has.

Germany, the southern of its situation is well ascertained, is bounded E. by Poland, Prussia, and Hungary, N. by the Netherlands, Lorraine, and French Compté, N. by the Baltic, German Ocean, and Denmark, and S. by the Alps. Its extent from E. to W. from the Wesel to the Rhine is 240 m. and from the Ocean N. to Brissau in Tirol, S. 740. 'Tis divided into 10 Circles, Austria, Bavaria, Frankonia, Saxonia, Silesia, Mecklenburg, Pomerania, Brandenburg, Prussia, Poland, and Lithuania.

GER

Burgundy, Upper Rhine, Westphalia, Upper, and Lower Saxony; for an Account of Which consult each. Its chief Rivers are the Danube, which receiving in its 1500 m. course 60 Navigable Rivers, besides those of lesser Note, falls by several Mouths into the Euxine Sea. The Rhine falls into the German Ocean, after a Course of 800 m. The Elbe runs 400 m. Besides these the Oder, Weser, Moselle, Neckar, &c. are Rivers very considerable. Its principal Hills and Mountains are the Jura Mount Godart, Suditi, Abnobus, the Chain of Hills that encompass Bohemia, the Thannus, &c. The Black Forest, and that of Bohemewalds in Bohemia, are its chief Forests now. The Princes of the Empire are the Arch Duke of Austria, Dukes of Bavaria, Saxony, Brunswick, Hannover, Luneburg, Juliers, Cleves, Bergue, Meckelburg, Pomerania, Wirtemberg, Sax-lunenburgh, Holslein, Saxe and Lorraine, the Marquisses of Brandenburg and Baden, the Landgraves of lemagn 45, and 11 from Albert who first fixt it in the Austrian Family. The ancient Germans were great strugglers for Liberty against Rome, nor were ever all vanquished; and against Charlemagn, as at present against Lewis. Germany has produced great Masters of the most Sciences and Arts.

GES

Gerontes, a Senate formed by Augustus, in imitation of the Athenians, consisting either of 28 or 30 Men of at least 60 Years of Age, having equal Power with the Consuls, nothing but very heinous Crimes could degrade them.

Gerontius, a Leader of Constables in the 5th Cent. against whom rising up Maximus, he fled from besieging Constantine in Vienna to Spain, on the hearing of Honorius coming with an Army against him, and being then by his own Soldiers attacked in his own House, he was killed his Wife, and then himself.

Gertruydenberg, on the Meuse a 2 L. from Dord. a City of Holland

G H E

Gesala, a Prov. of Morocco, whose People boast themselves the most ancient of any of Africa, as descended from the Getuli; they live all in large Villages, where in their Fair times they treat all Traders with food; their Skill in handling Muskets, and casting Iron Bullets, with their fidelity, has preserved their Privileges under the Moors. Their Countr. is bounded E. by Dara, W. by mount Laalem, N. by Morocco propria, and S. by Teffet.

Geta, being declared Emperor by his Father Severus, with his Brother Caracalla, was by him after his Fathers death murdered in his Mothers Arms.

Geta, European Scythians on the Banks of the Danube, bought from their Invasion of the Territories of the Empire with a great Bribe, by the Emperor Anastasius, after they had defeated the Consul Sabinianus.

Getbes, a King of the Heruli, who in the Reign of Justinian, with his Nobility, came to Constantinople to be Baptized.

Getulia, see Gatulia.

Gez, a C. and Bailiage in the Prov. of Bugey, surrendered to France by the Duke of Savoy, at the Treaty of Lym, in 1601. 'tis bounded by Burgundy N. divided from Savoy S. by the R. Rhone and the Lake of Geneva; W. it confines on Bugel; and E. on the Pais de Vaud in the Canton of Bern.

Gezaira, one of the three Divisions of the Km. of Algiers, whose Capital is Algier; 'tis bounded by the Mediterranean N. S. by the Mountains, E. by Bugia, and W. by Tenez.

Gheneva, a Km. of Nigritia at the Mouth of the Niger, whose King being Vanquished by Tschia the Country, fertile enough in Barley, Rice, Sheep, Fish, &c. was reduced to a Prov. and the chief Fair removed to Tombu. The Governours, Magistrates, and chief Nobility lie in a Village, there being neither City nor Castle in the Country.

G I E

Ghet, a Jewish letter of Diverce, by which they discharge their Wives, when disgusted with them; the Letter or Note implying, That on such a day of the Month of such a year, he puts from him his Wife, and gives her free leave to marry whom she pleases, which they ground on the 14th of Deuteronomy.

Ghlini, (Jerome) an Italian Author of several Treatises.

Glabarites, or Jabarites, Mahometans that hold a fatal Destination of all actions.

Gibelines; the Guelphes and Gibelines were two Factions of Italy; which as Machiavel says, had Rise in Florence, from a private Quarrel betwixt two Families, on the Marriage of Buondelmonti to one Lady, when he was engaged to another, which caused his Murder, and that raised Revenge and fresh Murders, till the whole City was engaged on one side or another; and after the City, all Italy, under the different Heads of Pope, and Emperor. They lasted for at least three Ages, in which Division none suffered more than Florence, where the Mischief began.

Gibraltar, a Spanish T. little, but well fortified, standing on a Peninsula in the Streights to which it gives its name, 15 m. from Cadiz; these Streights, are about 12 m. over, and 20 long, and the only way into, and Exit from the Mediterranean Sea.

Glen, a little French C. of Beauce, that gives the Title of Count, standing on the Loire, 12 m. above Orleans, noted for stopping the Prince's Army in the Civil War in 1650 by breaking down its Stone-Bridge.

Gieraci, the ancient Locri, once the Capital C. of Magna Grecia, and now a Bishoprick under the Abp of Regio in Calabria.

. Gieffen, a little C. and new University on the R. Lan, in Franconia, 4 L. from Marpurg, both dependant, on the Landgraves of Hesse-Cassel, and Hesse d' Armstadt.

Gigaea, a Macedonian Lady, daughter to Amintas K. of Macedon, and married to Bubares General of Darius's Army, sent against him for the Murder of the Persian Ambassadors, by Alexander Gigaea's Brother's Order, for their Affronts to some Ladies; but Bubares in Love with Gigaea, mediated an Accommodation, and married his Mistress as a Reward.

Gigeri, the chief City of the Province of Bugia, on the Mediterranean, betwixt Bugia, and Bona, noted for a Descent of the French in 1664.

Giges, or Gyges, first of the Atermnean Dynasty in Lydia, rising from a private Gentleman of Candaules's Guards, to his Favour and Intimacy in so high a degree, that he shewed him his Queen naked; which she took so harshly, that proposing to Native of great Britain. Gen. who on the Prevalence of the Saxons, retired to Armorica, and wrote a Book of Britannia; he was from the Vices of the Clergy.

Gilder, or Gildo, had the Ballance in the Empire of Arcadius and Honorinus, and Stilico, all the same Aim of assuming a Throne; they were cut off at several times; Gildo first; for being in Africa his Native Country, he sought himself in the absolute Possession of it, against which Stilico endeavouring to prevent him, provoked him to his own Destruction. His Sons to Death, which was the first of Gildo's fall; for flying to Honorius obtain a Command in Italy, and a command and coming to a Battle with odds of his side, Gildo and incapable of bearing the loss of grace, killed himself in and Childerick recalled, as the less Evil of the two.

GIN

Gilgal, a Prov. of Palestine E. of Jericho, remarkable for Joshua's resting there till the Recovery of his People from their Circumcision, and the 12 Stones set up in memory of his passing Jordan.

Glimer, too hasty for the Throne of the Vandals in Africk, deposed his Cousin Huneric, whose Heir he was, in the VIth Cen. for Justinian the Emperor, making the Neglect of his Letter in behalf of the deposed Prince a Pretence, by his General Bellisarius, defeated, and at last brought him Prisoner to Constantinople, and restored Africa to the Empire, as before the Subjection of the Vandals. Gilimer was allowed a Retreat in Galatia.

Gillus, the 13th King of Scotland, Bastard Son of Euenus succeeded his Father, and usurped the Throne by a Stratagem against the true Heirs. Being declared K. he endeavoured to destroy the Blood Royal. But the Nobility rising against him, defeated, and pursued him into Ireland, where he was again routed and slain by Cadwallan, in the 3d Y. of his Reign, and 30th of Christ.

Gilpin, (Bernard) a Native of Kendal in Westmorland, so great a disputant on the Popish side in Ed. VIth's time that Peter Martyr fear'd engaging with him most of all; yet on a constant Application to the Scripture, &c. he found his own Error, quitted his cure of Souls, and went to travel; and on his Return refused the Bp. of Carlisle, offered him by Queen Elizabeth.

Gindl, active Turks so perfect in Horsemanship, that they throw a dart full speed and catch it before it falls; ride full speed with one foot on one Horse, and the other on a second; slide under the Belly of the Horse, and recover his back in an Instant, &c.

GIR

Gindus, an Armenian R. that falls into the Tigris, and was commanded by Cyrus, in his expedition against Babylon, to be laid dry into 360 Canals for stopping him, and drowning one of his favorite Horses.

Ginga, a Qu. of Angola in Africa, who in revenge of her Father's death by the Portuguese, over-run their Factories and Countries with incredible Cruelties, which, turning Christian, as they say, she before her death repented.

Gingi, an Indian C. on this side Ganges, large and populous, defended by a Fortrefs, that gives name to the Prov. governed by a particular Prince called Naique tributary to the King of Visapour. 'Tis bounded by Taniaor S. by the Kingdom of Bijnagar N. by the Gulph of Bengala E. and W. by the Hills of Malabar.

Giutto, a Native of Tuscany, and Disciple to Cimabue, in the 13th Cen. but a better Statuary, Architect, and Painter than his Master. He softened the Figures, made the Colouring more natural, gave better Postures, &c. Michael Angelo, and Buonarosi, commending the Attitudes of his Piece of the Virgin's death surrounded by the Apostles.

Gisbanus Obertus, a Commentator on Aristotle, Lucretius, Homer, &c. and who had the Emperour Rodolphus II. for his great Patron.

Girga, the Capital C. of the Cassiss de Gergio, a Prov. of Upper Aegypt on the R. Nile.

Giringbamba, an African C. and Km. head of 15 subjected Kingdoms, it stands on the R. Ginguo, in the Upper Aethiopia, bordering on Moracy.

Girin Garcas, Abp. of Tolida, wrote and published in the 17th Cen. several Historical, Chronological, and other Books.

GIU

Gironne, a C. and Bpk. of Catalonia, under the Abp. of Terragona, fortified, but taken by the French in 1694 and returned to the Spaniard in 1697.

Giscala, (John) after he had defended Giscala, to the utmost against the Romans, he retired to Jerusalem, which he made hold out to the last Extremity; but taken, he was condemned to perpetual Imprisonment.

Gisco, a noble Carthaginian, whose good success in Africa could not secure him from being banished by his Enemies, under pretence of killing his Brother Amilcar, falsely accusing him of affecting the Tyranny; but being recalled, he forgave his Enemies put into his power, on their lying down, and his putting his Feet on their Neck. Being sent into Sicily he made peace with Timoleon, yielding Freedom to all the Greek Cities of that Isle.

Gisors, a C. 14 L. from Paris, chiefly noted for the Agreement. he.

GLA

30 in each) for the Souls of the departed, who leave Legacies for that end; succeeding one another they run through the Alcman, divided into as many Sections, in a day.

Gladiators, Sword-players in old Rome, who were in the Peoples View in the Amphitheaters to fight to Death. None but the Slaves, and Ostenders first did it; but Senators and Roman Knights were obliged to it by Nero, which several did at other times voluntarily, to ingratiate themselves with the Emperor. Tiberius King of the Goths abolished these Spectacles, A. C. 500.

Glamorgan-shire, part of the Country of the ancient Silures, and a maritime County of South-Wales, lying along the Severn-Sea, which bounds it Southward, as Brecknock-shire does N. Caermarthenshire W. and Monmouthshire E. whence 'tis divided by the R. Rumney, besides which here are the Rivers Hogbin, Tan, Elav Oemere Don North Powder.

G L A

more popular, than convince about Witches; for such things there to be supposed, that no of Common Reason can al-

laris, a T. and Canton of Switzerland, whose Country surrounded a Mountains is narrow, and not ve three German m. in Length; ther the Town nor Canton are remarkable for ought, but their being first that shook off the Austrian, ak, and for 350 of its Inhabitants with 30 Switz, defeating the ke of Austria's 15000 men at Pass of Naualia, killing 3000 on Spot, besides what were drowned in the Lake of Rivarius. As y were the first that vindicated ir Liberty in Government, so y were the earliest that declared for the Retormation, and are v part Protestant and part Po-glasgow, a C. and University of land on the R. Clud, 16 m. from Sea; 'tis an Abpk. and in an excellent Air, enjoying the best Trade any of this Part of Scotland.

Glassenbury, stands in the Ile Avalon, in the Center of Somersetshire, on the N. of the R. Parret. a Market Town, but more remarkable for the burying place of ig Arthur, found there in the time Henry II. to say nothing of the dy of Joseph of Arimathea, pretended to ly there in the Popish ages; which brought much Grist to the Rich and Noble Abbey of Monks.

Glatz, or Gladsc, a well fortified T. and Capital of the Prefecture of Gladsc, in the Kingdom of hemia on the R. Miza.

Glaucus, the name of three several ople; the first the Son of Hipolbus, that changed his Golden Armour for Diomed's Copper. Also the of Sisyphus devoured by his own wives, whom he had taught to eat ans Flesh. The third a fisherman drowned Mad, and so became a Sea God.

G L O

Glen, (Baldwin) an Austin-Monk of the 16th Cent. a Native of Aras, and an Author of good Reputation, in History, Geography, &c.

Glicas, (Michael) a Sicilian Historian of the 13th Cen. who wrote from the Creation, to the time of Alexius Comnenus.

Glicerius Flavins, first Crowned Emperor at Ravenna, and after 2 years Reign, deposed by Julius Nepos, and consecrated Bp. of Salona in Dalmatia, in 474; he lived there till 480.

Glocester, the Cap. C. of Glocestershire, to which it gives Name, stands on the E. of the R. Severn, on which it has a fair Key; 'tis built on an easie rising, the Streets generally fair enough, the Cathedral one of the best of England. 'Twas made a Bpk. in the Prov. of Canterbury by R. Henry VIII. being before in the Diocess of Worcester, and with two adjacent Hundreds, made a County by Richard III. who had bore its name as his Title, as several of the Royal Family have. The diocess is Glocestershire, divided into 267 Parishes, 125 of which are Improprations.

Glocestershire, a Maritime County if you may count it so from the Severn, which bounds it a long way, and its having a Vice-Admiral, who is now the Honourable John How Esq; is 48 m. N. and S. and 28 E. and W. bounded S. by Somersetshire, N. by Warwick and Worcestershire; E. by Wiltshire; W. by the Wye and Herefordshire: Containing 30 Hundreds, as many Market Towns and 280 Parishes. 'Twas part of the Dobuni of the Britains, and the Saxon Mercia. Its Chief Rivers are the Severn, the Avon, Wye, Coln, Windruht, Churn, Stroud, Frane, &c. This Country is noted also for the Forest of Dean, where the best Oak of England grows, grows; and Cotswold Hills, famous for Sheep. Here have been many Vineyards, and here Tobacco has been planted, and all manner of English Fruit yet abound. Beside Glocester, its Capital, it numbers fair Towns, Blackney, Berckley, Cirencester, Colford, Horton, Horwood, Stanley, Stow, Stroud, Temksbury, Fairford, &c. It sends six Parliament Men from Glocester, Cirencester, and Temksbury, two from each; besides two Knights of the Shire.

G N O

Glegaw, the name of two Cities in Silesia, one well fortified on the R. Oder, fronting Poland; the other call'd Little or Clein Glegaw, in the Dutchy of Opelen.

Glavin, (Giovanni Camillo) a Neapolitan Mathematician and Philosopher of the XVIIth Cent. who published several Mathematick Works &c.

Gluckstadt, a Danish C. of Helsatia on the Elbe, fortified by Christiana IV. in 1620.

G O B

ing; That good Actions were all that is required of us by God.

Gnosser, now Ginosa, once the Capital C. of Creet, and Residence of Minos, known in the Fables for the Minotaur, &c. Now only a poor Village.

Gnosticks, primitive Hereticks begot by the Nicelaitant, denying the Divinity of Christ; and that any corporeal Action was bad, and holding a bad, and good Cause, and Source of things, productive of Effects like themselves.

Goa, the Metropolis of the Portuguese Dominions in the Indies, and the Seat of the Vice-Roy formerly much more considerable, than now 'tis an Abpk. It's magnificently built; the Hospital is the fairest in the World; the Jesuits have five Colleges, which with the other Churches, Vice-Roy's Palace, &c. are proofs of their former wealth much decreased since the Progress of the Dutch, and English in those parts; it stands in

G O D

on Giles Gubelin, a famous Dyer that lived there in the Francis I.

us, a Persian Nobleman, that others and Darius, conspired out the Magi, that on Cam- tearh had usurped the King-Attending Darius in his Scy- pedition, he explained the is Present, a Bird, a Rat, a nd five Arrows, to mean ose Arrows should dispatch unless they fled away like id like Rats, or encamped gs in the Water.

us, (Conradus) known ather things for his Edition
a, and his Notes on Tullie's
he lived in the XVth Cent.
ward, some of the Switz- hill covered with Snow, and be dangerous to pass without for fear of the Precipices.

m, (Anthony) Bp. of Venice,
f an Apoplexy in 1672;
: had wrote several things, n the occasion of setting up sch Academy.

teacus, a Learned Monk of r condemned, imprisoned, ished for defending Predesti- and so making God the Au-Evil. He died in Prison in
th Cent.

ry of Bouillon, being a Prince House of Lorraine, was chose nder of the Christian Ex-
n of the Holy-Land, in conan of his Mastery in the Art
r, and his bravery; he sold critance of Liege and Bouil- the Bp. for Money for his s; he forced his way through vê Empire in 1097. beat the subdued Lycania, Cilicia, Mesopotamia, Judea, &c. was Crown of Thorns Crown-g of Jersusalem, beat the Ca- Egypt, and died in 1100.

rey, the Dane, was murdered in id of the Rhine, by the order of Charles the Great, for siding with his Brother against him, after he had given him a vast fortune, with the natural Daughter of Lothair I. Emperor, and been his God-father on his turning Christian.

G O J

Godofredus, (Dimysius) a Native of Paris, and a great Professor of the Civil Law in several Universities of Europe, after the Civil Wars of France had driven him thence;
he died in 1622, having wrote in his way.

Godofredus, (Theodorus) Son of the Former and Heir of his Merit in Learning, especially in History and Civil Law, &c. as his various Works declare. He had a Son Denis Goda- fed, that was a Counsellor and Historionographer of France, &c.

Godofredus, (Jacobus) younger Brother to Theodore, who lived and died at Genova, and left a great many Books of his Writing in the Ci- vil Law.

Goeghy, a Sect of Indian Benians that hold not the Transmigration, but that the Soul goes immediately to God; they adore one God with great Religion, and are so devoted to Celibacy, that they suffer not a Woman to touch them; they pay also a great Respect to one Mecis stiled the Servant of God.

Goeree, a little Nigritian Isle, in the Kingdom of Ale, where Port- Nassau stood, till taken by the French, who now possess it.

Goerz, (Damian de) a Portuguese
Author of several Hist. Tracts about Portugal; he was found dead in his House at Lisbon, in the XVth Cent.

Gobrrri, (James) the Solitary, a Mathematician, Historian, and Philosopher of the XVth Cent.

Goja, (John) or Flavin Girs, if not the Inventer, yet the Improver of the Needle and Loadstone, in 1302.

Grijam, an Abissinian Kingdom containing 20 Provinces to the Springs

G O L

of the Nile, which makes in its course a Peninsula of it.

Golconda, an Asiatick Kingdom in the E. Indies, in the Peninsula on this side Ganges; it rose to be a Km. by the Death of the last Raja of Narsinga, who leaving four Armies behind him, the four Generals of them seized each the Province he commanded in, and assumed the Title and Power of Sovereignty; but 3 of them were reduced by three successive Great Mogol's Gebangir, Chagabhan, and Aurengzeb; only Golconda remained a while tributary, till Aurengzeb as the last accounts assure us, reduced that also to a more immediate dependance on him. This Kingdom is bounded E. by the Sea; by a Chain of Mountains W. divided from the Kingdom of Decan; S. 'tis bounded by Bisnagar, and N. the R. Gunga separates it from Indostan. It's Capital City called Heider-Abad stands at the foot of a Hill, on which is the Fortrefs call'd Golconda.

G O N

Golden Number, so called for being wrote in Gold, was a Number to find out the New Moon which being erroneous, is now more made use of.

Goltius, (Jacobus) a Native of Hague published Tamerlan's Life in Arabic, and a Dictionary of Language, being Arabic from Leyden, in the XVIIth Century.

Goltzius. (Henricus) an engraver in Copper, in the 17th Century, whose Pieces are in great Reputation.

Goltzius, (Hubertus) a Native of Guelderland, a great Antiquary in the 16th Cent. who gave so much Light to Antiquity by the Discovery of Inscriptions, Paintings, &c.

Gomarus, a great Anti-Arminian of Holland, having publicly contended with them before the Synod. He was Divinity Professor of Leiden and translated the Bible into Dutch.

Gomer, the Son of Japhet, Father of the Asiatick Gomerites.

G O N

Cent. unable to get rid of Troade-vich.

Gondebald, K. of the Vandals in the Vlth Cent. an Arrian, tho' more favourable to the Orthodox, till his latter end, than his Predecessors.

Gondebald, Son of Clotaire I. as he pretended, tho' disown'd by Clotaire as the Son of a Miller, invited from Constantinople by Boson to the Crown of France, after his landing at Marseilles, was forsaken, and risted by him. And after some variety of Fortune murdered.

Gondegisilus, second Son and K. of part of the Dominions of Gondisch, K. of Burgundy, not content with his Share, invaded his Brother Gondebald; and at first compelled him to fly, but was afterwards taken and put to death by him in Vienne.

Gondemar, succeeded Vitericus, in the Km of the Spanish Visigoths, in the 7th Cent.

Gondemar, youngest Son of Gondebald K. of Burgundy, attacked the French, but being taken by them he died in a Dungeon.

Gondi, an ancient Florentine Family, which has produced many great Men; as Julian Gondi, who refused the K. of Aragon's Pension; two Cardinals in France, and an A-Bp. of Paris, &c.

Gondisch I. K. of the Burgundians, having fixt himself in Gaul, spreading his Dominions as far as the Rhine; which, being slain himself by Ocher, or Attila, he left to his Son Gondisch II. and his Brother Chilperic in the 5th Cent. He got Savoy of the Romans, by whose Divisions he made himself Master of Lyon, and part of Gaul.

Gonsalon, an ancient Banner of the Church jagged at the End, whence the Bearers were called Gonsaloni, which Name was afterwards given, to the Chief Magistrates of the Common-wealth of Florence, &c.

G O N

Gontier, Elected Emp. and Poisoned at Frankfort, in the 14th Cent. as he was preparing War against Charles K. of Bohemia, who was Elected Emp. at the same time; he was Count of Swartzenburg.

Goutier, A-Bp. of Cologne, who to make way for his Sister Valtrade, to the Bed of Lothair II. who was in love with her, under pretence of several Crimes, had him divorced from his Wife Thentgarda, whose appeal to the Pope, and his Obstinacy in her behalf broke his Heart; for he died on his Return from Italy Respecta.

Goutran, Son of Clotaire I. of whom he inherited Orleans, Burgundy, and Bourges; he had more Success in his Wars with Sigebert, than with Recaredus K. of the Languedoc Goths; he made good Laws and resigned his Km. to his Nephew Chilbert II.

Gonzaga, the Family of the D. of Mantua, as ancient as noble, in Italy, which has furnish'd that Country with several brave Commanders, as Giovanni Francisco Gonzaga, Frederico Ganzaga, Francisco II. Frederico II. Charles I, &c. all Men of great Conduct and Valour, and at the Head of both Italian and French Armies. Julietta Gonzaga was no less celebrated for Beauty, than these for War; the Fame of it reached Constantinople, and made Barbarossa land in Italy, on purpose to carry her off to the Scraglio: But after she had resisted the legal Embraces of the several Princes, she yielded to the Illegal of the D. of Assanra, who having enjoy'd forsok her; at which she was so much enraged, that she promised a Priest, that made Love to her, if he would procure her another Interview with him, she would grant him any thing he afterwards desired of her; which he having done, she upbraided him

G O R

Duke in so touching a Manner, and with so much Force, that he again protested his Love to her, on which she demanded of him as a-Proof of his Love to deny God; which as soon as he had done, she stabbed him to the Heart, and then stabbed her self, and told the Priest, she would now grant him all she could, and died.

Gonzales, or Gonsalus of Cordova; his great Exploits in the Conquest of Granada, under Ferdinand, and Isabel; his Conquest of Naples; first in Conjunction with the French, and then driving the French out, and fixing Naples in the Crown of Spain, got him the Name of the Great General. But being obliged to go into Spain, by Ferdinand he retired to his own House in Discontent, where he died in 1515.

Gonzales de Salas, a Native of Madrid, known for his several learned Books in the 17th Cent.

Gorda a Scotch Name of Shelue

G O R

the Army declare him Emp. with his Son Gordianus, in his 20th Year, the Senate acknowledging him, but his Son, who has none of the best Soldiers, being sent against Capellianus, who rose against him in Africa, was defeated, and slain; on the News of which, the Father for fear of falling into the Hands of Maximus killed himself. He wrote in his Youth 30 Books in good Verse, of the Lives of Marcus Antoninus, and Antoninus Pius.

Gordianus III. Grand son of Gordianus the Elder by a Daughter, by the Advice of Misibius a Philosopher, his Father-in-Law, ordered the Empire with great Applause, though he came to it by the Senate at 15 Y. old. But Philip the Arabian, having by the Death of Misibius, got first to be Prætorian Prefect, and then Co-partner in the Empire, had him murdered by the Soldiers.

Gordium an ancient C. of Asia

Kenmore, &c. George Marquis of Jordan, and Earl of Huntly, was a great opposer of the Reformation, in the Time of Mary, whom the Pope and the Guises promised his Son John for Wife, so keeping the Father to their side; who attempting the Life of the Earl of Murray, was by him defeated, and taken with his Sons; but he dying immediately, his Son John was beheaded, and his Son Adam spared.

Gorgons, three, Medusa, Euriale, and Sthenio, Daughters of Phorcus, and Cetus, who turn'd all that look'd on them into Stone; Perseus by the help of Pallas slew them.

Geritz, a County of Prinli, and its Capital C. which stands on the R. Lango, belonging to the House of Austria.

Gurlaus, (Abraham) a Native of Antwerp, and a great Antiquary, who published 12 Books of Medals, and other things, and died in 1609.

Gwitz, a well fortified Frontier C. of the Duke of Saxony, on the Borders of Bohemia.

Gropius, (Johannes) by Birth a Brabander, Physician to the Q. of France, and esteemed much in the Reign of Char. V. Emp. was Author of several Books, in which are several whimsical Paradoxes; as that Adam spoke Teutonic.

Gurskins, (James) a learned A-Deacon of Gneina in Poland, Professor and Chancellor of Cracow, Author of several Books on various Subjects.

Gory, a C. of Gurgistan or Georgia propria, built by a Persian General within these 50 years, and inhabited by none but Persians, and fortified as much by Nature as Art.

Goslar, a free Imperial C. in the Dukedom of Brunswick, on the R. Oker.

Gostina, a C. of the Palatinate of Rave, in the Lower Poland, chiefly noted for being the place, whither Demetrius Swiski Czar of Muscovy's was sent by the Polish Generals, when he was delivered into his hands by the Muscovites.

Gotham, (William de) so called from a Village of that name in Nottinghamshire, noted for the proverb of the wise men of Gotham, a Learned Man, and twice Chancellor of Cambridge in the XIVth Cent.

Gothini, the ancient Inhabitants of part of Silesia.

Gothland, a Swedish Prov. betwixt Norway, the Baltick Sea, and Sweden propria. 'Tis divided into E. W. and South Gothland, the Prov. of each are Ostrogotland, Westrogotland, Dalia, Wermeland, Sinaland, Oeland, the Ile of Gotland; Skonen, Halland, &c. This the Swedes would have think the Seat of the old Goths, that over-run Italy, and Spain, but they were certainly the Geta of Asia, tho' some of them might stray into these Parts in their progress.

Goths, quasi Geta, leaving their own in hopes of a more fertile Soil, and to make Room in their own Country, overstocked with People, came into Europe, and spread along Thrace, Bosnia, Bulgaria, and as far as the Baltick Sea. They made frequent Incursions into the Roman Provinces, before they Sack'd Rome, under Alarick, in 409, and their settling in Italy, Languedock, and Spain. Their Italian Kingdom set up by Theodoric, was destroyed by Narfes Justinian's General in 552. they were converted to Christianity, about Constantine the Great's Time, had a Bishop in the Council of Nice, and were prevented to Anthropomorphitism, by Audeas, who taught God to have a humane Figure.

Gottorp, a Castle and Residence of the Dukes of Holslein Gottorp, delicious for its situation in the midst of a small Island, formed by the R. Sley, capable of bearing Vessels of some Burden, adorned with Fine Woods, Parks, Gardens, and Forests of Game all adjoining. The late Duke killed in the Battel near Cra-cow, in Poland, was ousted it, and the rest of his Dominions by Denmark, and restored by the English Dutch and Swedes.

G O U

Gouliar, a Prov. of Indostan, whose Capital C. of the same name is the Arseal, and Repository of the Treasure of all the Empire of the Mogul, it stands E. of Agra, and is the Prison, and Execution-place of the great Men that are privately to suffer.

Goulet, a T. or Holland, 5 L. from London, on the T. of, at the influx of the Gou, which gives its name, and at other small R. It was built in 1272. and burnt in 1477. but now is well built, adorned with a fine Church, and Town House, a convenient Harbour, Sluices, &c.

G R A

Grassano in England in 1519. Adrian Gouffer, made Cardinal of Bris by Les X. at Francis I's desire, was of the same family.

Goulams, a Body of 14000 Slaves of all Nations, chiefly Georgian Beregades, in the Persian Army.

Gouletta, raised from a small Square Tour to a handsome Fortress, first by Barbarossa, and after the taking of Tunis from the K, re-established by Charles V. Em. and adorned with Custom houses, new Fortifications, Mosques, &c. It stands at the Mouth of a very little Channel, that makes the Communication betwixt the Mediterranean Sea, and the Lake of Tunis.

Goze, an African Isle divided from the Continent by a Channel, of no more than four m. broad; it has a Fortress, and small Town, which with the Isle depend on the Knight of Malta.

Gozon, (Deodatus) was advanced in 1245 to the Grand Mastership of

G R A

Gracchus, (Sempronius) famous for debauching Julia the Wife of Marcus Agrippa, and Daughter of Augustus ; but his pursuing his Adulteries, when she was married to Tiberius, and setting her against her Husband, caused his Banishment to the Isl. of Cercina ; and after 14 Y. Exile, and the Death of Julia by Tiberius's Order, he was be-headed.

The Graces, three in Number, Aglaïs, Euphrosyne, and Thalia ; Beauty, Gladness or Joy, and Youth and Mirth, were Daughters of Jove and Venus, or Jove and Eurynome.

Gracia a Dios, a Cape and C. of Honduras, in the N. America, chiefly noted for its Neighbouring Indians, never yet subdued by them, being Valiant, though not numerous ; they serve on board the English Ships, &c. 2 or 4 Year for a few Iron-Tools, &c. 'Tis a Republick, and their General, elected for his Merit in War, has no Authority in Peace.

Grado, a C. in the Friuli near the Gulph of Venice, not so considerable, since Venice has taken from it the Patriarchate ; but it is yet honoured with the Chair of St. Mark, sent thither by the Emperor Heraclius.

Gradonicus, (Peter) Doge of Venice, the Day of whose Election, is kept annually sacred, for his discovery of the Conspiracy of Bajamont Teupolus.

Grassio, or Jacobus de Grassis, Abbot of the Benedictines of Monte Cassino, in Italy, and grand Penitentiary of Naples, Author of some Pieces of Moral, and casuistical Divinity, in the XVIIth Cent.

Grafton, a little T. of Northamptonshire, noted chiefly for the Place of Edward IV's Marriage, with the Lady Grey, and for the Title it gives of Duke, to Charles present Duke of Grafton.

G R A

Grailly, (John) noted Chiefly for his Resolution to die in Prison in the Tower of the Temple at Paris, rather than accept of his Liberty, on condition of ne'er fighting more against France, which terms of Enlargement the King of England had got him. He had been the King of Navarre's General against Char. V. of France, and was taken Prisoner at the Battle of Cocherel in Normandy, in the XIVth Cent.

Grain, (Baptiste) Master of the Requests and Counsellor to Mary of Medicis, was a Native of France, and wrote the Life of Henry IV.

Gramaye, (John Baptist) a Native of Antwerp, a Poet, Historian, Linguist, and Traveller, that is in Africa, in Europe, having also been Apostolick Protonotary ; he died at Lubeck, in 1635. leaving several Historical Books, &c.

Gramont, (Antony de) of a Noble Family in the Lower Navarre, taking his name from the T. of Gramont, on the R. Bidouze ; he was one of the chief of the Protestant Commanders, and was at the taking of Poitiers and Angoulesme ; yet was he spar'd out of the Massacre, by Charles IX. and died in 1576.

Anthony, Duke of Gramont Count of Guiche, &c. besides his Martial Achievements, which were various, standing always faithful to the Crown in the civil War, he was sent into Spain, for the concluding the Marriage of Lewis XIV. with the Infanta of Spain, and died in the Y. 1678.

Gramont, (Bartholomew) known for his Continuation of Thuanus, that is for pursuing the History from Henry IV. to 1639. He was President of the Parliament of Toulouse, and Counsellor of the grand Council.

Gran, a strong C. and Abpk. of Hungary, and once its Metropolis on the Danube, six German m. E. of Al-

G R A

ha Regalis, six N. of Bude, and S. of Comra, in a pleasant and fruitful Soil; besides its own Fortifications of Walls and Palisades, 'tis defended by a Castle, and St Thomas's Hill, which is well fortifi'd, the Archiepiscopal Palace, St. Stephens's Church, &c. are fine Buildings; it has underwent many Sieges, was taken by Solyman the Magnificent, re-taken by Connt Mansfield, and taken and re-taken once since.

Granada, a City of S Spain, once the Capital of a Moorish Km. of the same name, put an end to by Ferdinant, and Isabel; Gonsa'es, being General of their Forces. The City is one of the largest in Spain, in a pure Air, and near 4 L. about, having no Towers, and divided into three parts, the Alamlea, the Albazin, and the Antiquerula. From the Banks of the Dracis, it stretches over the Plain to the Hills, and once contained 600 Houses, though now all Peopled, in a wholesome Air and Soil replenish'd with Fountains, come from too uncertain a Hand to transcribe.

G R A

Granicus, a R. of the lesser Phrygia, rising from mount Ida, and falling into the Propontis: Famous for the Victory of Alexander the Great, over Darius, in the CXLth Olymp.

Granius (Petronius) a Partisan of Caesar's, who being taken by Scipio, Stabbed himself, to shew that Caesar's Soldiers gave, but not received Lives, and so was a voluntary Martyr to Tyranny.

Granson, a Swiss Town belonging to Friburg, and Bern, famed for the Switzers Victory over Charles the Bold, last D. of Burgundy, in 1475, standing near the Lake of Neuf-Châtel.

Grantham, a considerable Market T. of Kesteven division of Lincolnshire, and the Capital of the Wapentake; famous for its Steeple, which being very high, looks crooked, and for giving the Title of Earl to Henry D'Anthonys.

GRA

Grasse, a French C. and Epk, populous and wealthy, adorned with the Cathedral, and other Churches, Monasteries, &c. 'Tis thought to have been built by, and received its name from L. Crassus.

Gratiani, (Antonio Maria) Bp. of Amelia in Italy, and Author of the Life of Cardinal Commendon, (whose Secretary he had been, as he was afterwards to Pope Sixus V.) and of several other Books.

Gratianus, succeeded his Father Valentinian I. in the Empire, in 373. he refused the heathen Title of Pontifex Maximus, beat the Germans at Strasbourg, was defeated at Paris by the Forces of the Tyrant Maximus, (after he had made Theodosius his Partner, in that Empire) by the Treachery of Mercobaudus, in he was assassinated by Andragathius near Lyons, who enjoyed his Treason not long.

Gratianus, advanced by the Legion in Britain to the Empire from a private Soldier, in the time of Maximian, and in a little time destroyed by those, that set him up.

Gratianus, a Benedictine of the Eleventh Cent. who spent 24 years in collecting and adjusting the Decrees and Canons, and reconciling their contradictions; his Errors have been amended by Antonius Augustinus.

Gratius, (Orestinus) a Native of the Bpk. of Munster, Student at Deventer and Cologne, and Author of some Books; he died in 1542.

Gratz, or Gretz; the Capital C. of the Lower Stiria in Germany; it has a fine Castle, and was the Residence of Ferdinand II. Emp. while he was Ar-Dk of Austria; it stands on the Meuse, 13 L. from Vienne.

Gratudentz, or Grudzanitz, a little C. of the Palatinate of Culm, in the Royal Prussia, at the influx of the

G·R·E

Offs into the Vistula, besides its own Works, fortified, by a fine Castle.

Grave, an important C. of Brabant, and the Capital of Guickland, Subject to the States of Holland, on the Meuse, whose water fills its Moats. 'Tis well fortified, and was the Subject of Dispute a great while, betwixt the Dukes of Brabant, and Holland; it was taken by the French in 1672. and surrendered to the Prin. of Orange in 1677.

Graveline, a very strong T. on the R. Aa, betwixt Dunkirk, and Calais; here Thierry of Alsatia, Count of Flanders, who had repaired it, died; it was yielded to the French by the Pyrenean Treaty.

Gravina, (Pietro) an Italian Poet of Reputation, and great Interest with the Spanish General Gonsalvo, who died by an Ulcer, got by rubbing his Cheek, to allay an itching occasion'd by the fall of a Chestnut upon it, as he lay sleeping under the Tree.

Graving, is an Art of cutting Pictures on Copper or Wood, a modern Invention since printing, and brought to perfection by Lucas, and Albert Durer, &c. an Art unknown to the Ancients who carved so finely, and engraved in Stone, and Metal, with so great a Mastery.

Gravins, (Henricus, a Native of Louvain, preferred for his Skill in Printing by Sixtus V. to be Printer to the Vatican.

Gravins, (Gualterus) Prior of the Dominicans of Nimeguen, in the XVth Cent. he was Author of several Books against Erasmus, &c.

Greaves, (John) Son of the Rector of Calmar in *Hants*shire, having been educated in Astons-Colledge Oxford, was sent by Abp. Land into the Levant for several Pieces of Learning; and on his return, was preferred by the Ep. to be Canon

GRÈ

Astronomy Professor in Oxford, in which he got great Reputation; he published several Books of Astronomy, Travels, &c.

Greece, is now divided into Epire, Macedon, Albania, Achaia, and Attica; in its first Division Thessaly, and Hellas, or Græcia propria were all its Parts; to which Macedon, Peloponnesus, Achaia, &c. were added; nay, the Name with their Colonies spread into Asia the less on one side, and Italy and Sicily on the other. The Learning and Valour of the old Greeks, of Athens, Lacedæmon, Macedon, &c. is all now lost, and that Country that first polished the World, and gave rise to all Arts and Sciences in their Freedom, are now the most ignorant and dispirited, by a long and heavy Slavery. They yet keep up some Face of the Christian Religion having a Patriarch, Bps. and Priests, Holydays and Fasts, in abundance, differing from Popery in many, agree-expelled them from Northampton. Overthrew the uverting Briton Loch Mahan, and provoked the Irish, routed them in a Battle their own Country, from which returned in Triumph, with Orders to secure the Peace. Died Anno 822, in the 18th Y. of his Reign.

G R E

Gregory I. Pope, in the VIII. who was called the Great, was native of Rome, and a Man of Quality being in his Youth a Senator, Prefect of the City, he afterwards went into a Monastery of his standing, whence being taken, ordained by Pope Pelagius II. he sent Nuncios to the Emp. Tiberius after chosen Pope; he sent St. Austin, and other Monks, into England who converted the K. of Kent, it was the first Introduction of Christianity among the English. So he made the Litany on a great Silence in Rome, and was Author of several Books; he complaine

G R E

Cent. in which he sat 16

y V. being Son of Otho, Suevia, and made Pope by Emperor, was restor'd by Crescentius had deposed which Crescentius suffered a violent Death: in his time many Princes were made Electors of the Emperor. towards the end of the C. having been Pope five and five Months.

y VI. Benedict IX. and Syl. contended for the Papacy. Benedict finding himself too old his Papal share to this who kept in the Chair 2 years, and a half, till Henry Emperor set Clement II. in both sees, and carried Gregory into Italy, where he died that

y VII. succeed Alexander II. in the Papacy, in 1073 and took this Gregory, in stead of that of And; he decreed the Correction to be sufficient, and the Approbation which errors used to give; nay, he gave them the Power of Investing Clergy-men, excommunicated. IV. Emperor, stirred up the Suevia against him; who heated, and slain, the Emperor fled to Rome, and sets up II. on which Gregory fled, and at Salerna, after having 3 years held the Papacy.

y VIII. a Native of Bene- succeeded Urban III. in the Papacy and died the same year; but is another Gregory set up by V. Emperor against Gelasius whose death and Calix- Election, he was thrust into the monastery, and is not reckoned among of Popes.

y IX. came to the Papacy Gregorius III. in 1227. continuing as great an Enemy to Frederick II. Emperor as his Predecessour: whom he used ill in his Expedition into the Holy-Land; and tho' on his Return he received vast Summs of him, yet was he not content without fresh Insolencies. He died of Vexation, that the Emperor had so blocked up the Avenues to Rome, that his Bps. summoned to the Council of Lateran against the Emperor, could not come thither.

G R E

Gregory X. being absent, was elected Pope at Viterbo; he vigorously pushed on the Crossade, at the Council of Lyons, called for that End, He endeavoured by reconciling 'em, to extinguish the two Factions of Guelfs and Gibelines, and after he had sat four years and something more, died with the Reputation of a Man every way accomplisht, for the Discharge of his Office.

Gregory XI. was elected Pope in 1390, he brought back the Papal Chair from Avignon to Rome, after 70 year's being at Avignon.

Gregory XII. was chosen at Rome, while Benedict XIII. sat at Avignon, on condition to resign, if Benedict would; but both forgetting that Agreement, the Cardinals of both Parties met at Pisa, and chose Alexander V. yet Gregory stood out till the Council of Constance, 8 years; when he resigned.

Gregory XIII. was Author of the Gregorian Calendar, or Reformation of the year; and died in 1585.

Gregory XIV. chosen in 1590, proclaimed a Jubile; and though he sat but 10 Months, contributed a vast Summ to the Support of the Holy League in France.

Gregory XV. was elected in 1621, and sat 2 years, having canonized 6 Sts, advanced the Bpk. of Paris to a Metropolis, and founded the Court de propaganda Fide.

GRE

Gregory, a Roman by Birth, was set up for an Antipope against Innocent III. by Frederick K. of Sicily, and at last by the Industry of St. Bernard, Submitted to him in the XII Cent.

Gregory of Nazianzum, Father and Son; the Father being converted to Christianity, was afterwards made Ep. of Nazianzum; late 45 Years, and had after his Election Gregory, and Celsarius, by his Wife. His Son Gregory, whose Works are extant, and famous, was chosen Bishop of Constantinople, but resigned it on Theodosius A Bishop of Alexandria accepting it. He was the Ornament of the Greek Church in the 4th Cent.

Gregory of Nissa, Abp. of Thessalonica, who wrote that the Light shined by the Apostles on Mount Thabor, and the Divinity and no created Deity.

Gregory, of Tours, a learned Prelate in the VIth Cent. a Native of Angers, and of a good Family,

GRE

Griffus, (Fredricus) a German Chymist, was Inventor of Terracum Calotte, and lent the Duke of Wurtemberg the Art of making it.

Grenada, one of the Caribbe Isles in N. America, named by the Spaniards, and now possessed by the French, betwixt Bahama, Tobago, and Trinidad.

Grenada, the Capital of the County of Genève, on the Geneve, three l. below Thonise, and of no small fame, in the Wars of the Armées.

Grenoble, the Capital C. of Dauphiné on the R. Isère, Parliamentary and Episcopal, under the Abp. of Vienné, is a City of Roman Foundation, at least it was fortified in the time of Diocletian, it had afterwards the name of Gratianople, from the Emperor Gratian's, enlarging it, of which is its present Name a corruption. Its large and well built, adorned with many fair Churches; and 9 m. from it is the famous Cha- taken by Queen Mary's Forces, she was with her Husband, and Father-in-Law beheaded the same day, in 1553.

G R I

Griffe, (Sebastian) an exact and curious Printer of Lyons, to whom Scaliger recommends the printing his Book.

Griffin, (Edward) made Lord Griffin of Bray-Brook in Northamptonshire, by James II. in the 4th Y. of his Reign.

Grigori, was deputed by Stasus IV. Pope to reconcile the Maronites of Mount Libanus, to the Romish Church, and had therefore the Title of Patriarch of the Eastern Church; but he died in the Expedition, leaving an Account of his Travels in the Holy Land behind him.

Griffin, Son, by his second Wife Sanibilda, of Charles Martel, was ambitious, and unsuccessful; for he was reduced three times by his Brother Pepin, and allowed great Rewards; but making a third Escape, he was killed in the Maurienne in his Passage to Italy, whither he had retired, as it was thought, by the Order of Duke Gaifre, with whose Wife he had been too familiar, as the Duke himself thought.

Grignan, the name of an illustrious French Family, Founders of the City of Montelimar in Dauphine, and Lords of the Country, and its Capital City of Grignan, in Provence, adorned with a Castle, and fine Cathedral.

Grillo, (Angelo) Abbot of the Benedictines of Montecassin in Italy, a Poet, Orator and Divine of consideration (as his Works show) in the XVIIth Cent.

Grimaldi, a noble and ancient Family of Italy, having been Princes of Genoa above 600 years: and of this name, have been Generals Admirals of France, besides others who have been in Ecclesiastical

G R I

Grimaldi, a Family of Venice, of which have been several Doges and Cardinals.

Grimoaldus, Duke of Beneventum, and King of the Lombards: This Crown he owed to the Dexterity and Bravery of his Conduct; For while Godebert, and Pertburt, the Sons of Arthert, contended for it, Godebert he got into his Custody, and put him to death; and having struggled with some difficulties against the Emperor Constant, and got the Franks, on his side, from their Intentions to assist Pertburt, he died after he had reigned nine Years, A. C. 673.

Grimoaldus, Successor of his Father Pepin, in the Maywality of the Palace of Austrasia, in the VIIIth Cent. was seized by the Austrasians, with his Son, whom he designed to advance to the Throne. He shaved Dagbert, and sent him to an Irish Monastery, on the death of his Father Sigebert; they were either both put to death, or confined to perpetual Imprisonment by Clovis II. R. of France, to whom they were delivered.

Grimsby a Market T. of Lindsey, division of Lincolnshire, something decayed since its harbour was choaked up, tho' considerable before for Trade. It sends two Members to Parliament, who are now John Chaplin, and Arthur Ascare, Esquires.

Grinans, (Simon) a Sacbian, native of Zellern in the XVth Cent. and Author of Notes on Plato, Aristotle, Isidore, &c.

Grindal, (Edmund) was first Chaplain to Ridley Bp. of London, and by him recommended a little before his Death to Edward VI. Returning from his German Travels after Queen Mary's Time, Queen Elizabeth made him first Bp. of London, and then Abp. Canterbury; he died in 1583, about 65 Years old.

G R O

Gripswald, a German Hans-Town of Pomerania, with an University, and Port on the Baltick Sea, a fair well fortified City, yet taken by the Suedes, in 1631. and allowed them by the Treaty of Munster.

Gris, (James) ravished the Wife of John de Carouge, a Captain under Peter II. Count of Alençon, with whom James was in great Favour; on John's Return from the Isly Land, his Wife informing him of the matter, he appeals to the Parliament of Paris; who for want of Evidence ordered a Combate, where Gris being killed in the presence of the King, and Court assembled to see it, his body was adjudged to be hanged, and the Lady's Innocence was thus cleared.

Grifant, (William) an English Physician of the 14th Cent. Author of several Mathematical Works.

Grifons, German People inhabitants towards the Sources of the Rhine, and the Inn, in the ancient Rhetia; taken, and almost ruined by the Moscovites.

G R O

Greenland, a Tract of Land reaching from Cape Farwel all along the Frozen-Sea, toward Spitzberg, and Nova Zembla; 'tis divided W. from America by the Christian Sea, bounded S. by the Deucalidian Ocean, and E. by the Frozen Sea. It's Northern Bounds are not known; nor are the Relations of the Island and Danish Chronicles to be minded, bearing so much the Face of Fable, first on more Modern enquiry's, we find the People wholly averse to all Commerce or Civility, all savage and wild: those that were brought to the Court of Denmark pined away, tho' extremely civilly used. The Country abounds in Pasturage, in Horses, Cattel great and small, Rats, Deer, &c.

Groll, a very strong Dutch Frontier Town towards Westphalia, and Munster, in the County of Zutphen, and 4 L. from the City of this

G R O

Exactions on his Diocess, for which he was excommunicated, &c. all which he bare with Constancy, and shewed by his Manner of Life, that it was not incurred by any thing but a Zeal for the Right.

Græscow-ork, is a sort of Painting made up of a Mixture of odd and whimsical Figures, both Humane and Brutal. It was an ancient Invention; the remains of some of it, being in the Ruins of the Palace of Titus, was there found by Girvanus d'Odine, a famous Painter, who copied it, and found out the Art of making Stucco, with which the Basso Relievo, was performed.

Grotius, (Hugo) or Hugh de Groot was born at Delft in Holland, of one of the chief Families of that City; his Place of Syndick of Ratterdam, he exchanged for Advocate of the Treasury; being Imprisoned on Barnveldt's Account, he made his Escape by a Trunk, in which Books were permitted to be conveyed to him by his Wife. Lewis XIII. received him kindly; and Christina, Queen of Sweden, on his being banished by the States, received him, and employed him as an Ambassador to France, &c. he died in 1645 at Roßack in Sachsenburg, and left his Name immortal by his curious Works among the Learned.

Grotta di Napoli, a hollow way dug through Monte Posilipo, by order of Lucullus, and the hands of 100000 Men, 12 foot deep, and as many broad, and half a League long, in 15 days; at the Entrance of this stands Virgil's Tomb.

Grotta de Cani, or the dogs Grotto; for a dog set down into it, will be brought up as dead, but revives on his being thrown into the Lake Agnano, just by it, 4 L. from Naples, 'tis also called Charon's Grotto, or Cavern.

Gracchi, (Nicholas de) or Grac-

G U A

chius, a Critical Author of the XVI. Cent. a Native of Rome of a good Family, and an able Linguist, &c.

Grumbach, (William) having assassinated the Bp. of Wurtzburg in Præmonia, with his Confederates committed all Acts of Hostility he could; being with them declared Outlaws, the Elector of Saxony, besieged him in Grimmeßtein, took him, and had him and his Companions hanged in the middle of the XVIth Cent.

Gruterus, (James) a Native of Antwerp in the XVIth Cent. a man of polite Learning, besides his Poems, leaving us Notes on several Poets and Historians.

Gryllus, Xenophon's Son, who being mortally wounded, killed the brave Epaminondas, before he fell, and so lost Thebes, more than a whole Army; his Father hearing of his death, threw his Chaplet of Flowers off, which he put on again on hearing, that he killed the Enemies General, which brought more Joy, than his Death Grief.

Guadalajara, a N. American Prov. in New Galicia, bounded by the Prov. of Xalisco, Asteca, and Zacateca; the Air is temperate, the Soil yields one hundred for one, and is agreeable to all our European Fruits: its cap. C. is a Bpk. and of the same name, built in 1531, by one of the Guzmans, near the R. Baranja: its other Cities are Zapace, Chetiquipaque, &c. There is a City of this name, Capital of the Prov. of Algarvia, in Old Castile, on the R. Menares.

Guadeloupe, one of the Antille Isles, planted now with French; it produces abundance of Sugar-Canes, and lies betwixt St. Domingo, and Marigalante; besides 4 Forts and several Vallages, it has a neat City of the same name.

Guadalquivir, one of the largest of the Spanish Rivers, rising out of the

G U A

the Castilian Hills near Murcia, passing by Sevil, and falling into the Ocean at St. Lucar.

Guaquiri, Ana, or Anas, a Spanish River rising in Campo de Montiel, in Andalusie; it runs under ground at Montiel, for 10 f., till it bursts out again at Andalusia, which is expressed by a different Name of Anas, which signifies a Duck.

Guadix, a Spanish C. and Bpk. Suffragan to Granada, won from the Moors by Ferdinand, and Isabel, in 1492.

Guinea, an African Kingdom of Ag. 10, the Country is fertile enough in Dates, Rice, Barley and Millet, abounds not in Fleish, except about Haen, a Town of some Trade with the Arabs, and Caravans; Besides which and its Capital Guajala, formerly the Residence of the King, who had nothing but Villages, and small Towns, the King of Tonari conquered this Country, in 1525, but restored it again to its ted the Christians, with much Violence.

G U A

Guadid, or Bani-Guadid, a Mountainous Country in the Kingdom of Ag., whose Inhabitants maintain their Wealth and Freedom by the Inaccessibility of their Hills, which afford them all things Necessary for Life, they raise but few fighting Men, and have a Privilege of protecting any Criminal that flies to them, on the Accession of a new Prince to the Throne of Tanis.

Guam, is one of the Ladrone Islands, the most Easterly of the Indies, and lies betwixt the Indian and Pacific Seas, the People are large, and affable; their Houses are thatch'd with Palmeto Leaves, and they have Woods of 4 Miles long, and a broad of Coco-Trees: here grows the Lim, and a Tree whose Fruit they bake for Bread; as another Tree called Toddy, furnishes them with Wine. The Spanish Priests instruct them in Christianity.

G U A

whence the Spaniards drew a of Pounds in the Y. and by they refine their Silver of Poid it brings into the King's 40000 Ducats, Annually.

ini, (Giovanni Baptista) an Poet Native of Ferrara, Was of Pastor fido translated by hard Fanshawe, and other pie-
: was fellow of most of the Academies, and much fa-by the Duke of Ferrara, and reigns XIIIth. He died at Ve-1613.

inane, (Christopher) Native na, was Physician to Francisco
Duke of Urbino, and to Rodul- Emperor; his Medicinal, and phical Books, got him great tion in the XVIIth Cent.

Ialla, a C. in the Mountain
I's, now in Possession of the or and fortified; it was much d by Ferdinand de Gonzaga, of Monte.

imala, a Prov. C. and Govern-
t N. America in New Spain:
verment takes in the Prov. capax, Guatemala Propria, as, Socusco, Costa Rica, Ni-
s, and Veragua. The Prov. of Guatemala Propria, lying on the S. ounds in the European Fruit, Maiz, B. es-wax, Honey, Wood, and Forests, diversified with Vallages, Meadows, &c. The are docile, but apt to relapse Christianity to ancient Super-

The Capital of this Prov.
Tagodi Guatemala a Bpk. and centary, standing in a Valid divided by a River: in the Cent. it was almost ruined empest.

uaca, an American Prov. of pain, whose Capital is Ante- Bpk. suffragan to Mexico; bes Mines of Gold and Silver, ocks of Crystal, Ceebenele, it hath Store of Mulberry-which makes a considerable

G U E

Silk-Trade. The Valley of Guaza- ca, is noted for being conquered by Cortez, and giving him the Title of Marques of the Vally. The Province is populous, containing 350 T. 300 Vill. and 26 Convents, besides Colleges.

Guazzi-Marco, a famous Historian of Padua, in the XVIIth Cent.

Gubel-Haman, a Prov. of Arabia
Felix, near the Arabian Sea; its Capital has the same Name.

Guber, a Negro Kingdom in Af- rica, betwixt Guinea, the Lake of Guardia, and the Nile; its Capital is also called Guber, the Residence of their despotick Prince: the Nation is populous, abounding in Cities of 5 or 6000 Families.

Guche, a large Chinese City of Quangsi, Capital of 9 Cities, of considerable Trade, built at the Confluence of several Rivers with the Tai Kiang. The Mountains of the Country of Guche, afford a great deal of Vermilion; but its Spees with heman Faces and Female Voices; are notable, as is the cold Mountain in the Torrid Zone, and Mountain of Fire, on which every Night appear Lights like Candles.

Guebriant, (John Baptiste de Ba- des) Count of Guebriant, whose services at Wolfenbattel, Brissac, &c. got him first to be made Lieutenant General, and then Marshal of France, by Louis XIIIth, after which he was killed by a Wound at the Siege of Rotwel.

Guei, a Chinese Emper, whom Tienki the Emperor favoured so much, that he ruled all the Empire, and put those to Death he thought fit to be rid of; he on the Death of Tienki without Heirs, would have put by his Brother Zurbin, who sending him on an honourable Message to Visit the Tombs of his Ancestors, had him strangled.

G U E

Guelders, or Guelderland, one of the 17 Prov. of the Netherlands, one part of four of which belongs to the Spaniard, in which is the City of Guelder, Venlo, &c. The other 3 parts are Beturve, Veturve, and Zutphen, all belonging to the United Netherlands; 'tis bounded E. by part of Cleves, and the Rhine W. by Utrecht, and Holland, S. by Juliers, and the Meuse, and N. by the Zuider-zee, and Friesland. The Country abounds in Towns, Rivers Woods, good Pasturage, &c. Its Capital Guelders stands on the R. Niers, which surrounds it like a Moat in a Marshy-Ground, whose Castle is thought almost impregnable: Its other principal Towns are Nimeguen, Arnhem, Zutphen, &c.

Gunga, an Asiatick R. that rising in the Kingdom of Decan, in its course divides the Kingdom of Golconda, from Indostan.

Le Guerchin, or the Squinter, a Name given to an excellent bold

G U I

Guerrero, (Alvarez Alphonso) a Spanish Bishop of Monopoli, in Naples the XVth Cent. he was before of Law, and King's Counsellor in Spain; he wrote several Treatises Theological, Historical, &c.

Guesclin, (Bertrand de) after he been active against Edward II England, in his Wars in France took Part against Hen. Count of Stamarc with don Pedro the C. and was taken Prisoner by the Prince, after the English had taken don Pedro, he was very instrumental in the setting the Crown on don Henrico's Head, who then made him Constable of Castile; in which he was active, and sensible to his own King in the recovery of Poitou, Rovergne, &c. the English; and being 68 Years died in 1380.

Gueux, or Beggars, a name given to the defenders of their liberties against the Inquisition in Low Countries, by the Council of Brabant, which then

GUI

Wreath of the same: some are Cannibals, and eat human Flesh, others live on the Fruit of the Trees both for Meat and Drink. Guiana is the fatal Coast where Sir Walter Raleigh shipwreck'd his Life; for coming home thence unsuccessful, Gondemar had Interest enough at Court, to have him executed on his former Sentence.

Guibert, or Gilbert de Tournay, a learned Franciscan of the XIIIth Cent. Author of several Spiritual Tracts.

Guibert, or Gilbert, a Norman Gentleman, and Abbot at Londun of St. Marie de Vigant, was Author of a History of the Croisades, down to the Y. 1100, and several other Books in the XIIth Cent.

Guibertus, de Corrigia, Abp. of Ravenna, set up for Anti-Pope to Gregory VII. by the Emperor Henry IV. whose Chancellor he had been: he maintained his Post under the name of Clement III. against Gregory VII. Victor III. Urban II. and for some time against Paschal II. who by the help of Roger of Sicily, drove him into the Mountains, where he died suddenly.

Guicciardin, (Francis) a Florentine, and Counsellour to Alexander de Medicis, and much favoured by Leo X. Adrian VI. and Clement VII. was Author of the History of his Time.

Guicciardin, (Lodovico) Nephew to the former, and Author of a History of the Low Countries, who died in 1589.

Guichard, (Claude) Historiographer of Savoy, translated Livy at the Duke's Command, to whom he dedicated his other Works: he died in the beginning of the XVIIth Cent.

Guiche, (John Francis) of a noble and ancient Family of that name, Count de Palice, one of Lewis

GUI

XIIIth Marsha's of France, at the head of the Armies against Montauban, St. Antonin, &c. and died in 1532.

Guido, Son of Lambert Duke of Spoleto, who on the death of Charles the Gross Emperor, agreed with Berengarius to divide the Empire, Guido to have France as Emperor, and he Italy; but Guido being unable to take France he returned to Italy, quarrelled with, and took Pavia, from Berengarius: but raising a new Army in Spoleto, when he had been driven out of Lombardy by Arnolphus, he died in 894.

Guido Leusignanus, being expelled his City of Jerusalem, and almost all the Holy Land, sold his Title to Richard King of England for the Kingdom of Cyprus, which his Posterity lost in 1473.

Guido of Ravenna, an Historian in the IXth Cent.

Guido, a contemporary Painter with Michael Angelo, and his Rival, a Native of Italy, and remarkable for many good Pieces, but especially one, where the Devil Trod on by St. Michael the Arch-Angel, is extremely like Pope Innocent X.

Guido Aretino, a learned Italian Benedictine, Native of Arezzo, of the XIth Cent. He wrote two Books of Musick.

Guidonis, (Bernard) Ep. of Lodève in Languedock in the XIVth Cent. who was Author of the History of Popes, Emperors, and Kings of France, &c.

Guienne, a Pro. and Dm. of France; it's bounded by the Ocean W. by Perigort, and Quecy E. by Gascogny, and Landes S. and N. by Saintoigne; it comprehends Medock, Bazadois, Burdellois, Condomois, and Agensis, and L'Entre deux Mers; its Capital is Bordeaux, besides which there are Condom, Agen, Mormande, Libourn, St. Ety, &c. by the Rhone.
X x x

G U I

it was lost to the Visigoths, by them to the Franks, or French, by them to the English, from whom it was recovered in the time of Charles VII.

Guifferey, (Guy) a great Commander both by Sea and Land under Francis I. both against Charles V. Emperor at Land, and against the English at Sea.

Guilandinus, (Melchior) a great Prussian Botanist.

Guilford, one of the Principal Ts. of Surrey, on the R. Wey, well enough built, containing three Parishes, was of greater extent formerly, when the Residence of some of the Saxon Kings; 'tis a Market Town, and sends two Members to Parliament; who now are Morgan Kent, and Dez Onslow, Esqs;

Guilielmus, or John Guilielmus, though he died at 40, yet his Notes on Plants, and his other Pieces are so full of promoted greater

G U N

Miss, &c. the Danes, Franks, &c.

Guinea New, an East-Indian Country, thought to be part of Tasmania incognita.

Guines, a French City of Normandy in a Marshy Country of the Name & L. from Calais: the Guines descend from one Dane, who took it from the Count of Ponthieu, in the 10th C. 'twas surrendered to the English King John, surprized by Edmund and retaken by the Duke of Burgundy in 1558.

Guinther, (John) a Netherlandish in Cologne was Master to Francis I. of France; he is famous for his several Translations of the Ancients; he died at 87 Years old, in 1574.

Guipuzcoa, a little Spanish Province of Biscay, though till within 300 Years it was counted Part of Navarre; Biscay, bounds it W. Navarre

G U S

Kent, and Son of the Minister of that Parish, had his Education in Clare-Hall in Cambridge, was a vehement stickler against the solemn League and Covenant, and retired from Cambridge to Oxford, and when the Royal Cause was quite gone, to London, where in Exeter-House he had a Congregation: on the Restoration he was made Master of St. John's in Cambridge, then Bishop of Chichester, and lastly Bishop of Ely; where dying he left his Estate to the Encrease of poor Vicarages; and was Author of several Controversial, and other Treatises; he died in 1684.

Guplo, a Polish Lake, on which stands the Castle of Krusvich, where Papietus Prince of that Country was devoured by Mice, 'tis 6 L. from N. to S. and half a L. over.

Gurk, a City and Bpk. of Carinthia in Germany, suffragan to the Abp. of Saltzburgh, the Bishop being a Prince of the Empire.

Gustavus I. K. of Sweden, Son of Erick de Waza, Duke of Gripsholm, was delivered as Hostage to Christiern II. King of Denmark, surnamed the Cruel, and by him treacherously made Prisoner in Copenhagen. But escaping, he return'd home, and assisted by the Lubekers, drove out the Danes, that had possessed Sweden; for which he was made King. He so managed Affairs, that he procured the Crown, that before was Elective, to be entailed on his Posterity.

Gustavus Adolphus the Great, was born at Stockholm, and came to the Crown at 17. At the begining of his Reign he beat the Danes, and Poles, over-run the Muscovites. and made an honourable Peace, and extreamly advantageous to Sweden; after which he married Maria Eleonora, Sister of the Elector of Brandenburg and soon after engaged Sigismund King of Poland who had designs by his

G U T

Alliance with the House of Austria, on the Kingdom of Sweden; and had not the English and Dutch interposed, had vanquished Poland, with which he made peace on Sigismund's renouncing his Claim; after this being invited by the Protestants, he marched into Germany at the head of 20000 Swedes, being joined by the English, and in Confederacy with Lewis XIII. of France; in this War he every where almost routed Count Tilly, and was too hard for Wallestein, till at the Battel of Lipsick, venturing too boldly, and too slenderly guarded, towards the Right Wing of his Army, the left being Victorious, he fell into a Body of Mara-cini's Christians, and was killed being 37 Years old; at that Age having shown himself the Greatest General of his time, by the Confession of Count Wallestein the Emperor's General.

Gustrow, a Saxon City in Meckelbourg, the Residence of the Duke of Meckelbourg Swerin, to whom 'twas adjudged by the Emperor in 1596. 'tis 6 or 7 L. from Wismar, and strongly fortified.

Guthier, (James) or Gutherius Advocate of the Parliament of Paris, made Citizen of Rome, with all his Posterity by the Senate of that City, for his 4 Books of the ancient Roman Laws, which privilege, by the Interest of Mary de Medecis, was confirmed by Lewis XIII. he was Author of several other Juridical Books.

Gutierrez, (Juan) a Spanish Physician, and a Spanish Lawyer who turned Divine, Author of 8 volumes in Folio, as the Physician was of several medicinal Tracts.

Guttemberg, (John) a German Knight, born in Stratsbourg, made a Burgess of Mayence, for introducing his noble Invention of Printing into that City.

GYL

Guy-clift, on the River Avon near Warwick, in Warwickshire, supposed to be the Religious retreat of Guy Earl of Warwick.

Guzman, (Ferdinand Nunez de) a great Spanish Author of the XVI. Cent. whose Epitaph, by his own Order was Maximum Vite Bonum, Mors.

Guzerat, or the Kingdom of Cambaya, now Subject to the great Mogul, who being called in to support the lawful Prince against an Usurper, seized both the Country, and Prince: it's chief Cities are Amadabat, Cambaya, Surat, Dio, &c. Amadabat, is the Residence of the Vice-Roy of Guzerat, with a more Pompous Court than most of our European Sovereigns.

Gyac, a great Favourite of Charles VII. of France, whom the Duke of Bretagne Constable of France caused, for his embezzling and diverting the publick Money to his own private use, to be thrown into a River

GYM

mandet in Sicily, against Demisthenes, and Nicias: being entrusted with the Money taken at Atter by Lysander, he caused the Bags to be ripped at the bottom, and taking a Talent out of each delivered them to the Ephors very artificially sow'd up again: but his Servant on the Enquiry after the Money, having said that under his Masters Room were abundance of Owls, the Ephori understanding that to be Attican Money stamped with the Figure of an Owl, on search found the Money; Gylippus ashamed of the dole left Lacedæmon, and lived always afterwards in a voluntary Banishment abroad.

Gymnosophists, Indian Philosophers, of which there were two Sects Brachmans, and Sermans, besides whom there were some that lived in Woods, termed thence Hylabites. They all maintained the Transmigration of Souls, and that Felicity consisted in contemplating the Div abakkuk, was one of the Minor Prophets, and his Name signifies a Wrestler; he Prophesied in the dayes of Ma- or in the Reign of his Son and foretold the overthrow Jews by the Chaldeans. The ba makes mention of another kuk, who fed Daniel in the Den.

H

it, an African Prov. of the ez, in length 100 m. and in 180. here were formerly fair Cities built by the Rogths, and Moors, but the hat now remain are only Cen- illa, Tetnan and Tangier.

ert, a Family in France, re- ble for Learning, especially Persons of Susanna Habert, r Nephew the Bishop of Va- which last was pitch'd upon rdinal Richelieu to Confute us.

spurg, a Castle on the R. Aar erland, which gave Title to nourable and Ancient Fami- he Counts of Habsburg, from : descended Rodolph, who e Foundation of the Austrian ess, and was chosen Emp. 73.

ba, or La Hacha, a Prov. T. in Southern America, subject Spaniards; it is Rich in Salt- , Veins of Gold, and Stones it Value, and Vertue.

bette (Joan) a Famous French nian, who living at Beauvais in , when it was closely besieg'd

Burgundians, put her self at id of several resolute Towns- , and with Stones and Artifi- s-works drove them from the and compell'd 'em to raise the Siege. Her Picture was for the said Action set up in the Town- House, and the day is Annually Ce- y lebrated by a Solemn Procession; in which the Women have the Pre- cedency.

Hackett, (William) an impudent Impostor in Q. Eliz. Reign, He was born of obscure Parents, at Oundle in Northamptonshire. But he Prodi- gally wasting the small Substance that was left to him, gave out that He was the Sovereign of all Europe, and the true Messiah, which toge- ther with a pretended Holiness, de- luded several Ignorant People; how- ever his Reign was but short, for being soon after taken and convi- cted of his said Treason and Blas- phemy, he most deservedly suffer'd at Tyburn, An. 1591.

Hackluit, (Richard) was a lear- ned Divine, a great Historian; and well skill'd in the Art of Navigati- on. He dy'd in the beginning o the Reign of K. James I. having first Publish'd a very extraordinary Collection of English Sea Voyages.

Haddon, (Walter) a Dr. of Law, Fam'd for his Eloquent speaking, and his Ciceronian Writing, especi- ally in his Book against Orosius; he was Master of Requests in Q. Eliza- beth's Reign, and employ'd by her in several Embassies. Her Majesty being ask'd whom she thought the most Learned Man, Haddon or Bu- chanan? answered, Buchannanum om- nibus antepono; Haddanum nemini Postpono.

Hademar, a T. and Prim. of Fran- conia in Germany, it is about 4 ls. from Coblentz, and belongs to the House of Nassau.

H A E

Hadersleben, or Hadersleben, a B's. See and Sea port T. of Jutland in Denmark, it lies against the Isle of Funen, near the Baltick; the Swedes have been twice Masters of it, and as often restor'd it upon a Peace.

Hadhranut, a T. and Pr. in the S. W. Parts of Arabia Felix, about 300 m. broad; it is naturally barren, yet it produces some Aloes, but not so good as those of Socotora.

Hadley, a Market T. in Suffolk, and a Peculiar of Canterbury, it is only remarkable for the Martyrdom of Dr. Taylor its Minister, who was burnt here for his Religion, in the Days of Q. Mary.

Hæmus, Mount Hæmus, a great Chain of Rocky Hills, reaching from the Euxine (or black Sea) to the Gulph of Venice, and so parting Greece, from the Countries that lie N. it was from hence that Perseus the last K. of Macedon, took a view of the adjacent Countries, in order to fortifie all the Passes against the

H A G

Hagar, the Handmaid of Sarah who was Wife to the Patriarch Abraham; she was the Mother of Ishmael, from whom sprung all like and Mighay People.

Haggai, the tenth of the 12 Prophets, and his Name signifies Joy. He began to Prophecy in the 2d. Year of that K. Darius, and most of the Interpreters do think to be the Son of Hidaspes, and he began his Reign, A. M. 3592. This Prophet was commanded by God, to stir up the Jews to rebuild their Temple, and the more to encourage them, he promis'd 'em the Glory of this latter House, shall be greater than that of the former which was verity'd in the Temple it receiv'd by the Presence of Messiah. For the second Temple was otherwise far interior to the first both in Magnificence and Riches; it also wanted the Ark of the Covenant, the Ephod and the Fire, which were the Ancients meet and consult together. The Hollanders would never fortify this Place, out of a vanity they have, of being Masters of the finest Village in all Christendom.

H A I

Haguenaw, the chief C. of the lower Alsace; it was Fortified, made free and Imperial by Frederick Barbarossa, An. 1164. but by the Treaty of Munster, it was yielded to the French, who have ever since been in Possession thereof.

Haidites, a Mahometan sect, who believe that our Saviour Christ was eternal, that he assum'd a Body of Flesh, that he shall Reign 40 years on the Earth, before the end of the World, and that he shall judge the World at the last Day.

Hailbron, is an Imperial City of the Dukedom of Wirtemberg in Swabia, and signifies a spring of health, from the great number of Medicinal Springs that rise in and about it. This City stands upon the Neckar, about 8. L. from Spire, and was made Imperial An. 1240. by Frederick II.

Hainan, a famous Island near the Coasts of China, which abounds with Gold and Silver Mines, and vast quantities of Pearl, Ebony, Aquila, and Brazil wood, and Red Marble. There is also the Nut call'd Jaca, the biggest fruit in the World, which by reason of its largeness, grows not on branches, but on the body of the Tree. But the wonder of all is the Plant Chiang, a foreteller of Storms by the knots on the Root of it. The Seamen counting the number and distance of the Tempests, by the number and distance of the knots on the Roots.

Hainault, a Spanish Prov. in the Low Countries, so call'd from the R. Hain. It is said to contain 24 walled Towns, and 550 Villages; among which are reckon'd 1 Principality, 10 Counties, 12 Pcerages, 22 Baronies, and 25 Abbies, its chiefest Towns are Mons, Arth, Valenciennes,

H A L

Landrecy, and Philpville, its Principal Rivers are the Sambre, the Maine and the Dender. This Prov. was at first under its own Counts or Earls, the last of which was dispossest'd by Philip D. of Burgundy, An. 1438. and so it became united to the rest of the Provinces; but the greatest part of it is now Subject to the French.

Hairetites, a Mahometan Sect, who doubt of every thing, saying, that Truth cannot be discern'd from Falshood, and that Demonstrations are useless. Their answer in controverted points is, God knows it, to us 'tis unknown; some Musli's have been of that opinion; for upon their signing Sentences, they have added, God knows what is best.

Halam, (Robert) an Eminent English Divine, who from Archdeacon of Canterbury, was made Bishop of Salisbury, and An. 1411 was created a Cardinal. He liv'd in the Reigns of Hen. IV and V. and was one of those who Represented the English Clergy, in the Councils of Piza and Constance.

Halberstadt, a T. and Prin. in the Lower Saxony, about 8 L. W. of Magdeburgh, and as many S. of Brunswick. It was Imperial, till Charles the great granted it to its Bishop; since which it hath belong'd to the Dukes of Brunswick: But by the Treaty of Munster, it was assign'd to the Elector of Brandenburgh, with the Title of Prince of Halberstadt.

Hale, (Sir Matth.) was born at Alderney in Gloucestershire An. 1609, and at the Age of 17 was sent to Magdalen Hall in Oxford, from whence he came to Lincolns-Inn, where for several years together, he studied 16 hours a day, by which he attain'd to great knowledge, and that not only in the Law, but in Divinity, Asthenatics, Natural Philosophy and Physick. For he us'd to say, that no man could be absolutely Master of any one Profession, without having some skill in other Sciences: Oliver Cromwell made him one of the Justices of the Common Pleas; and K. Charles II. for his great integrity and profound skill in the Law, first prefer'd him to be Lord chief Baron of the Exchequer, and afterwards Lord chief Justice of the King's Bench, in which high station, he dy'd An: 1676. He was a man of quick Parts and lively apprehension, he had a great Memory, and a strong Judgment; he was moreover a true Pattern of honesty and humility, a Lover of goodness, and an exact supporter of Justice.

H A L

Halenberg, that part of Mount Calenberg which parts Hungary from Styria and Carinthia.

Halesworth, a T. in Suffolk which Trades in yarn, linnen, and sale-cloth.

Hali-bacha, the Turkish Admiral who An. 1571 fought the famous battel of Lepanto, in which himself was kill'd and his whole Fleet over-pure Latine and full stile, call'd him our English Seneca. He wrote several Treatises but was chiefly admir'd for his Medications. His death happen'd An. 1556 and his Corps were bury'd at Hyhem near Norwich. He had an opinion, that the best of God's Saints were not fit to be interr'd in a consecrated Church.

H A L.

Hall, (Peter) a Divine, Lawyer, Philosopher, and good Lat. Poet, all which he profell'd at Paris with great success. He was likewise well vers'd in the Greek Tongue, and was made Poet Laureate to the King in 1545. He had many other Preferments, and died in 1589. He was Author of divers Books, besides Poetry.

Hall, a C. in Miselle in the upper Saxony, so call'd from the salt springs with which it abounds. This C. was once Imperial and free, but is now Subject to the Elector of Brandenburg.

Hall, a small Imperial and free C. of Suabia in the Duchedom of red upon the steep descent of an Hill, near the R. Culder. The Town contains about 12000 Inhabitants, who have by their industry in Clothing and other Manufactures, supply'd the barrenness of the Country wherein they dwell. The Honourable Charles Montague, was created Baron of the same by his late Majesty K. William III.

H A M

Hallifax, (John) of Hallifax, commonly call'd de sacro Bosco. He dy'd An. 1256. and was the prime Mathematician in his Age; for most students in Astronomy, do enter into that Art, thro' the door of his Book de Sphæra.

Halloander, (George) a Learned Lawyer of Misnia in Saxony, who wrote 50 Books of the Digests or Pandects.

Hallix, (Peter) a Jesuit of Liege, in the XVIIth Century, who was Author of several Works in Latine.

Halydown, a T. upon the R. Tine, in Northumberland, where Oswald K. of that Country, after having call'd upon Jesus Christ for assistance, got an entire victory over Edward K. of the Britains An. 634.

Halys, a R. of Lydia in Anatolia, remarkable for the overthrow of Croesus, who being deceived by the doubtful Oracle, pass'd over this R. against Cyrus, by whom he was defeated and depriv'd of his Kingdom.

Halysia, now Alcips, a C. of Epirus, where are to be seen a great many Monuments of Antiquity. Here the Athenians obtain'd a great Victory over the Lacedæmonians.

Ham, a small but a strong City upon the R. Lippe in Westphalia, 5 German m. from Münster, and 14 from Cologne; it belongs to the Elector of Brandenburg, and is notwithstanding a Hanse T.

Hamadryades, the Nymphs of Trees, particularly of Oaks.

H A M

Haman, a violent Persecuter of the Jews, and first minister of state to Abasuerus K. of Persia; but Q. Esther being a Jew and very much belov'd by the K. her Husband, so wrought upon that Prince, that this Proud and cruel Favourite, was not only disgrac'd, but order'd to be hang'd, upon the same Gibbet which he had erected for Mordecai the Jew.

Hamath, a C. of the Jews, which belong'd to the Tribe of Zabulon; its being taken by the Assyrians caus'd Sennacherib to belch out that haughty question, where are the Gods of Hamath?

Hambelians, one of the 4 Sects of the ancient Mahometans, whose Opinion is at this day held among some of the Arabians.

Hamburg, is one of the most celebrated Cities in Germany for Trade, Wealth, number of People, and fine Buildings. It is seated upon the R. Elbe, near the borders of Holslein, in the lower Saxony, and is the 2d of the Vandalick Hans-Towns. Heretofore it was an Archbishop's see, but the Chair was remov'd to Bremen, An. 850, by Augurinus the B. of it, with the Consent of Lewis the Empr. Waldemar the K. of Denmark gave this C. An. 1202. to Albertus Orlamund, and he for a sum of money sold it to the Citizens, who have ever since been a free state, and are able to arm 15000 Men; yet they owe not their liberty so much to their own force, as the Jealousie of their Neighbours, whose interest it is to keep it an independant state. They embraced the Lutheran confession at the first Publishing of it, this C. boasts of a great many Curiosities, amongst which are the Town-house adorn'd with the Statues of 9 Worthies finely carv'd, the Exchange where the Merchants meet, and the Tulpic of St. Catharina's Church, which is made was as good as Physick: that Bread being reckon'd costive, was but sparingly eat; and that their differences were ended sooner over a Pot, than by a tedious and expensive suit of Law. The present K. of Denmark's Father sat down before this place with an Army of 30000 Men, An. 1686. but the winter coming on, and the Neighbouring Princes espousing their cause, he was forc'd to raise the siege.

Hamelen, a C. of Germany, in the D. of Brunswick, in the lower Saxony; this C. is memorable for the great defeat which the Imperialists had there, An. 1633. They loosing 6000 on the Spot, in endeavouring to relieve the Place, then besieg'd by the Swedes, who were soon after Masters of it. But it is now under the D. of Hannover; it lies about 26 m. from Hamburgh, and 20 from Bremen.

Hamet-Ben-Abdala, a pretended Prophet of Mahomet, who taking up Arms against the K. of Morocco, overthrew him in a Pitch'd Battel, and seisd his K. But Muler Seidan the said K. encountering him a ad wherein Hood an on whom the Men and W. Promiscuously to resort in to pay their Devotions, - ving perform'd, and the C. tinguish'd, the Men lay first Woman they could e Humma, an old T. in Tunis in Barbary, thou built by the Romans, hath many of their insc Marble.

Hammond, (Henry) a ed Doctor of Divinity; at Chertsey in Surrey, and at Eaton, from whence Oxford; where by his he became a fellow of College, Canon of Christ-C University Orator; his silent Annotations on the B ment, his Practical Cate Sermons, and other Treat abundantly declare his ge ledge in the Tongues, in a School-Divinity, and in G story; he dy'd An. 1659.

Hampshire, or Hants, one of our English Counties, Length 50 m. in Breadth,

H A N

4 Principal Rivers, viz. the in, the Stover, the Fell and the bing, all which abound with great variety of Fish; neither is its soil productive of Corn, Pasturage, rod, and fruit. But it is chiefly famous for Honey, Wax, and Bacon, the trading commodities of this county are Wool, Cloth, and Iron. The number of Members which it sends to the Parliament are 24, besides its 2 Knights. The Knights at present Tho. Jewaise Esq; and Rich. Chandler Esq; Hampton-Court, a most Noble Palace in Middlesex, belonging to the King of England; it is situated near the Thames, about 10 m. from London, it was built in the Reign of Hen. II. by Cardinal Woolsey, who had here 280 Beds, most of their furniture being silk, for the entertainment of Strangers; it was lately the chief Residence of his Majesty K. James, who hath exceedingly beautified and adorn'd both the House and gardens.

Hampton, (Sir William) was born at Inchen-Hampton in Gloucester-shire, and being brought up a Fishmonger in London, became Lord Mayor thereof, An. 1472. He was the first that set up Stocks in every Ward, for the Punishment of Vagabonds.

Hanaw, a handsome and strong T. in Pranconia in Germany, that gives the Title of a Count to a Prince of the Empire, it stands upon the R. in, about 4 Leagues from Frankfort.

Hanchung, a large C. in China, famous for its wonderful Bridge, carried on in a Line over the Mountains from thence to Sigan, which is about 50 Leagues.

Mangchen, the Metropolis of the Prov. of Chekiang in China, and sometimes the seat of the Chinese Emperors; this C. is full of Canals, whose water is very clear; and its streets are so pleasantly chequer'd with Temples, Groves, Palaces, Gardens, Colleges and other Buildings, that the Chinese use it for a Proverb, Look what the Hall or Presence Chamber is in Heaven, that Mangchen is on earth. Their Idol-Temples are many and very magnificent, to which belong about 15000 Priests; the Jesuits have also a very fine Church, and two Chappels in the Suburbs of this place. The Streets are adorn'd with such a number of Triumphal Arches, erected to the honour of its deserving Citizens, that in the great Piazza alone there are 300, each of 'em having 3 Arches, and for the most part 3 story high: In the middle of the C. is a mountain, whereon is plac'd a dial, which shews the time by help of a water hour-glass; and near the C. is the R. Che, famous for its Prodigious Tide, which happens precisely on the 18th day of every October, and surpasses all other Tides in the year, to the great astonishment of the Citizens, who come in crowds that day to behold it; neither is the Lake of Cinking less observable for its gilded fish call'd Kinyu, which tho they be no bigger than ones finger, yet the wealthy Inhabitants will give 3 Crowns a piece for 'em; which high price is given not only for their shining scales, that look as if they were powder'd with Gold dust, but for their diverting familiarity; for if you feed 'em, they'll seem so sensible of it, that they'll shew you 100 little tricks by way of return.

H A N

Hanging-stone, is a stone about a foot high, which is the boundary between Comb Martin and another Parish in Devonshire, and it is so call'd from an Accident which befell a Thief, who having stoln a sheep, sat down upon this stone to rest himself; but the sheep struggling, fell on the other side and hang'd him.

Hunkford, (Sir William) was born at Amerie in Devonshire, who studying

H A N

ing the Law, he became so great a Proficient, that he was made Lord Chief Justice of the K's Bench by K. Hen. V. which high place he discharg'd with great integrity, but growing discontented, he order'd his Keeper to shoot any man, whom he should find in his Park, and stood not when spoken to, the next night being dark, he presents himself, and refusing to stand, the Keeper shot him dead, An. 1422.

Hanmer, (Meredith) D. D. who wrote an Ephemeris of the Irish Saints, and a Chronicle of that Country; he also translated the Ecclesiastical Histories of Eusebius, Socrates, and Evagrius into English; he died An. 1604, being then Treasurer of Trinity-College in Dublin.

Hannibal, the most renowned Carthaginian General, was son of Amilcar, who had so great an hatred to the Romans, that he caus'd his son Hannibal, when but 9 years of age, to swear upon the Altar, consequence of which had the ruin of their Com. we. 1) Hannibal instead of Marching to Capua gone directly to Rome, to give their consternation at that. But this brave Soldier, as the Captain of his Horse told him, perfectly how to get a Victory. how to keep and improve it. now Hannibal's fortune began Change; for the Romans recover themselves. Defeated his in divers Rencounters, as theirs in several others. The actual success attended 'em was by the Senate of Rome recall'd out of Italy, to defend Country than invaded by Scipio being to the General satisfaction the Romans return'd to Africa camp'd near Zama, and Scipio far from him; but Hannibal considering the declining Estate of Country at present, endeavour procure a Peace, which not only a bloody Engagement ensu'd.

H A N

H A N

pear'd by his being made Plenipotentiary for the K. of Denmark at Paris, where he dy'd, An. 1555.

Hanniballus, a K. of Cappadocia, Pontus, and Armenia the less; he was lately kill'd by Crassus An. 337.

Hann, the name of several famous Carthaginians, one of which was so Ambitious of being thought a God, that he taught several Elders to say, Hann is a God. But he seeing them loose that they might teach others, lest his labour, for they being at liberty, betook themselves to their wickedness. There was also in the 11th Cent. an Abp. of Cologne of the same name. This Hann caused the eyes of several Judges, who had paid a small Judgment upon a poor Woman, to be put out, but he left an eye to one of 'em, that he might see to guide the others home.

Hammer, a term in C. of the Lower Saxons, in the Dukedom of Brunsvick, it is Steward upon the R. Leir, - Is. from the F. of Brunsvick, and is the usual Residence of the Duke of the same. The Families of Hammer, Wolfebuttle, Leirwings, and Zell, are all of one Stock, viz. of the House of Brunsvick, and descended from the Guelphs, and Hans the Lion.

Hanse-Towns, and Imperial Cities, are of three sort: 1. Such as are holden in Possession by some of the German Princes, by way of Indulgence. 2. Such as are call'd Free Cities; which acknowledging by a certain Tribute the Emperor's Authority, do notwithstanding in all other things, govern themselves by their own Laws; and are in number about 50. the chief of which are Nuremberg, Amburg, Spire, and Munich. The 3d, are certain Towns in Germany, associated together for the sake of Trade, and are so termed from the word Hanse, which signifies an Alliance, or from An-ze, which signifies part of the Sea. The C. of Bremen, in the lower Saxony, is reported to have been the first that mov'd the foundation of such a Confederacy, about the Year 1164: It is not known how many associated at first; but the preservation and increase of Trade seem'd hereby so promising, that several In-land Cities as well as Sea-ports in the Low Countries, in France, in Spain, in Portugal, in Italy, in England, and other parts, to the number of 72, came into the Alliance, which a great many of 'em afterwards quitted, when the Princes and States, under whose Dominion they liv'd, set up Companies, to promote and encourage the Trade of their respective Subjects. However, most of the German Hanse-Towns continued their Confederacy, and order'd that none should be admitted to associate for the future, but such as were Situated in Germany, or had a dependence on the Empire; and so they redoubt'd themselves under four Capital Hanse Towns, viz. Lubeck, Cologne, Brunsvick, and Dantzick, of which Lubeck has the Precedency, being intrusted with the Treasure of the Society, and Impower'd to call general Assemblies, which seldom meet above once in three Years. The Hanse Towns at present are six Principal, viz. Lubeck, Hamburg, Bremen, Rostock, Dantzick, and Cologne; the others having little more than the name in the Alliance. When the 72 were Confederated, they had four general Staples for the Sale of their Merchandise, viz. London in England, Bruges in Flanders, (from which last it was carried to Antwerp, and thence to Amsterdam) Bergen in Norway, and Nagrad in Russia; and they were so Powerfull, that they made War upon several Princes, particularly upon Waldemar III. K. of Denmark, who they overthrew in a Sea-Fight, An. 1348.

H A N

H A R

Hantville, or Hanwill, (John) a Learned English Monk, who liv'd about the XIIIth. Cen. and wrote several Poems. He also wrote the Antiquities of England in IX Books, call'd Architrenium.

Haoxus, a R. of Africa, which rising in the Abyssine Mountains, runs thro' that Empire, and makes it fruitful, as Nile does Egypt, and having run 600 m. falls into the Sea.

Haolane, a Prince of Tartary, who together with his Brother Cublai the great Cham, embraced the Christian Religion, An. 1256. He afterwards rais'd a mighty Army, with which he first over-ran the K. of Persia; and then possess'd himself of Damascus, Aleppo, and all the Holy Land, where he re-establish'd the Christians.

Haran, a C. of Mesopotamia, so call'd by Terah the Father of Abra-

H A R

Harding, (John) Esq. liv'd in the Reign of K. Edw. IV. to whom he faithfully adher'd, and did great Service to him, not of his Prosperity but in his Distress. He was also as well addrest to fighting as Arms, for he wrote a Chronicle of the Kings in Verse, from Brutus to the last Edw. IV. which he was accounted one of the best Poets of that Age. His greatest piece of Service was in venturing into Scotland, and bringing out of their Records many Old Letters and Treaties, which was a wonderful hazard of his Life brought to England, and from whence he compil'd an History of the English Sovereigns, together with the Sacred Oaths and Solemn Submissions publickly taken together with the Sacred Oaths of Fealty, openly taken by some of the Kings of Scotland, to the Kings of England, since the Reign of Ethelstan.

Hardueing, (Dennis) was a Learned Historian, and a confu-

H A R

Fleet by the English and Dutch, under Admiral Ruffel, off Cape Harfleur, An. 1692. It is Situated at the mouth of the R. Seine, 2. L. from Havre-de-Grace.

Harlay, a most honourable and ancient Family in France, Noted, for having brought forth Men of great Courage and Parts, one of whom being sent by Henry III. to the Protestant Princes for 12000 Men, defeated the Duke of Savoy, who attempted to oppose their march.

Harleigh, or Harleeb-castle, is a Noble structure of great Strength, in the Co. of Merioneth in N. Wales; and it is situated upon an Hill, near the Sea. The Constablership of this Castle, was granted by Queen Elizabeth, to John Eyre Esq. An. 1591. and he was succeeded therein, by his Grandson, Charles Nicholas Eyre Esq.

Harley, (John) was for his great Piety and Learning advanc'd to the Bishoprick of Heresford, by Henry VIII. and was one of the first that Preach'd up the Doctrine of the Reformation in the Reign of Edward VI. He was Born in Buckinghamshire, and brought up in Magdalen-College in Oxford.

Harley, (Robert) Esq. The Representative of the T. of New Radnor, in Radnashire, and the Present Speaker of the Honourable House of Commons.

Harlingen, a Strong T. in Westfrisia, and is the next in order, and largeness to Leuwarden. it stands at the entrance of the Zuider-Zee, and is under the United Provinces.

Harmonidas, the Trojan who built the Ships, which carried Paris into Greece.

Harland, a Prov. of Livonia upon the Bay of Finland; its Chief C. is Revel.

Haro, (Don Lewis de) a Spanish Grandee, and one of the most respected Politicians of his Age. He was

H A R

Nephew to Gaspard, Duke of Olivaer, who dying without Issue, was succeeded in Honour, and Estate, by this great Minister. He was contemporary with Cardinal Mazarine, with whom he concluded the Treaty between France, and Spain, An. 1659.

Harold I. Surnamed Harefoot, succeeded his Father Cnutus, in the English Throne, and was proclaimed K. at Oxford, An. 1038. But the Abp. the Londoners, and W. Saxons, declar'd themselves, for Hardi-cnut the late Kings Son, by Emma his 2d Wife. However Harold having got the power in his own hands, and being possess'd of his Father's Treasure, secur'd to himself the Crown, and kept it, till his Death happen'd at London, or Oxford, in the 5th year of his Reign.

Harold II. the Son of Earl Godwyn, was Proclaim'd K. of England, the Day after the Death of Edward the Confessor, An. 1065. His Title was very uncertain, however the pressing necessity of those unsettled times, cast the Crown suddenly upon him, as the fittest man in the K. to wear it. But his Reign was short and full of Troubles; for his Brother Tosti soon after, being set on by the Duke of Normandy, and the Earl of Flanders, first attack'd the Isle of Wight, then the Coasts of Kent, and Suffex, and being beaten from thence, he procur'd Harfager K. of Norway to joyn with him, who accordingly entering the Humber, with a great Fleet of Ships, landed their Men and took Tork by Storm. But Harold having rais'd an Army, march'd against 'em with all speed, and the two Armies meeting, a Bloody Battle ensu'd, which at last ended in the the Slaughter of Harfager and Tosti, and the overthrow of their whole Force. In the mean time William Duke of Normandy, Pretending a Right to the Crown,

H A R

Crown, by the last Will of Edward the Confessor, and by a Promise from Harold himself, came with 500 Sail of Ships to Hastings, in Suffex, where he landed an Army, on the 8th of Sept. An. 1066. Harold, hearing of this News, march'd with all speed into Suffex, and without staying for fresh Supplies, offer'd Battel to Duke William, who accepting thereof, a most Bloody and Obstinate and doubtfull fight follow'd. But Harold, having for a long time maintain'd it with unspeakable Courage, and being slain, with 994 English, The Duke got a glorious Victory, and with it, the Crown of England. The Body of Harold, after a long search was found, and at the Request of his Mother, leave was given to bury it in Winchester, which himself had founded. And thus ended the Line of the Saxon Kings, about 500 Years after their first coming.

Harpagus, the Chief Minister of requiring of the Gods to Die. She was chang'd into a bird. Hermaphrodite made a law with himself. A Daughter of our Name was Daughter of a King of France, whom the law'd King was taken by Achilles Son. She was so virtuous, that she could not be taken, but at length was caught and slain.

H A R

Harpagus, a very great Astronomer; he corrected the Calendar 8 Years, which was altered by the Sains Courts, the Moon he liv'd about the 1000th Year.

Hupen a Medician, one of Alexander Captains, whom when Exalted by his Father Philip, he recalled and rewarded our Kings Governments, but which he should during Alexander absence in 1244, when at his return punishing divers ill Governours, Hupen fearing the like, rebel'd against his Master, which Alexander would not believe when told him, and had the Courier laid in Chains. At length

H A R

Tree was usually Dedicated to him, for that its Fruit is like the Heart, and its Lease like the Tongue. But some think the Story, is taken from Harpocrates a Greek Philosopher, who taught silence, and inveigh'd against freedom of Speech.

Harsfield, (John) an Archdeacon of Canterbury, who was so zealous a Papist, that to support their Interest, he suffer'd 23 years imprisonment, under Q. Eliz. He wrote several Books, particularly an History of England, and an account of Wickliffe's Doctrines.

Harrington, (Sir John) was born in Wiltshire, and brought up at Cambridge, where he became Master of St. John's College. He was one of the most ingenious Poets of his Age, Witness his fictitious Epigrams, and his translation of Orlando Furioso, out of Italian: he died about 1612.

Harrist, (Thomas) was born at Oxford An. 1550. where he also had his Education: he understood all sort of learning, especially the Mathematicks, in which he was the greatest Proficient of his time. and 'tis thought by many that the famous des Cartes, borrowed most of his Principles, from this illustrious Person: he died An. 1621, and had a Noble Monument erected for him, in the Church of St. Chrystopher at London, on which an Epitaph was put in his Praise.

Harrison, (Thomas) a person of poor extraction, but rais'd to a Major General, by the Parliament. He was one of R. Charles I's Judges, and Particularly Instrumental in drawing up the Sentence of Condemnation against him, for which Treasons, he was executed at Charing-Cross, An. 1650.

Hartford, the County T. of Hartfordshire, it stands upon the R. Lea or Ligean. about 20 m. from London, and gives the Title of Marquess to the Duke of Somerset; in the year. 607, a Synod was held here, in which St. Austin and the British Bishops had a Consultation: its present Members of Parliament, are Charles Caesar Esq. and Richard Goulston Esq.

H A R

Hartfordshire, is an inland Country, which hath Cambridgeshire and Bedsfordshire, on the N. Essex on the E. Middlesex on the S. and Buckinghamshire, on the W. it is almost a square of 27 m. and may be call'd the Garden of England for delight, being bless'd with a sweet and wholesome Air, with Plenty of Fruit, Corn and Pasture, and with Variety of Parks, Woods. Groves, Rivers, Streams, and Pleasant Seats, which last are term'd Baries here, as in other Shires, Courts, Places, Hills and Mannors. The whole is divided into 8 Hundreds, wherein are 120 Parishes, and 17 Market Townes, and it sends 4 Members to Parliament, besides the 2 Knights of the Shire, its present Knights are Thomas Halley Esq. and Ralph Freeman jun. Esq.

Hartland-Point, a famous Cape, on the Southern Sea, in the N. W. Parts of Devonshire, it shoots a great way into the Irish Sea, and makes a safe riding for Ships.

Hartman, (George) a great Mathematician, about the Year 1540 He invented the Baculus Bombardicus, or the Baton de l'Artillerie.

Harvey, (William) a most learned English Physician, as appears by his Books, de Circulatione Sanguinis, de Generative, and de Ovis. He study'd several Years at Caius College, in Cambridge, and at Pavia; at the first, of which he Commenc'd Doctor of Physick. But was afterward still'd the Doctor of Physiurg, for his finding out the Circulation of the Blood: he was born at Folkestone in Kent, and died at London, An. 1637.

Harwich,

H A S

Harwich, a Noble Sea-port, Borough T. and Corporation in the County of Essex; it lies at the Mouth of the R. Stour, and is the readiest Passage for Holland. This Place was famous of old, for a Naval Victory obtain'd over the Danes, by the English, An. 884.

Hascora or Escora, a Prov. of the K. of Morocco, whose chiefe T. is Elmadina, otherwise called Hascora. This Country abounds with all sorts of Plenty, and its Inhabitants are more civiliz'd, than in other Parts of that K. it is also well stor'd with Honey, and hath some Iron Mines.

Hasel, a Bayliwick and Valley in Bern in Switzerland, which reacheth from the Lake of Brientz, to the Head of the R. Aar. Not far from it, is the Hill Engstlen, out of which rises a Spring, which is alwayes dry, but in June, July and August, at what time the Inhabitants turn their Cattle up to the Mountains.

Hassen Cberiff, a Numidian, who

H A T

but this is now ruin'd, and instead of it, is plac'd a Light House, for a Guide to Saylor: This and the other Cinque-Ports, were to send the K. 21 Ships, each of which was to have 21 tall Men, and they were oblig'd to appear upon 40 days Summons, and to serve 15 days at their own Charge; but if the K. detain'd em longer, he was to pay the Master and Constable 6 pence the day, and to each Man 3 pence. The Honourable George Hastings, Earl of Huntingdon is Baron of this place, which Title was given to Sir William Hastings by Edward IV.

Hastings, (George) the present Earl of Huntingdon, is the 8th of that name, from George Lord Hastings and Hungerford, who was made Earl of Huntingdon, An. 1529. by Henry VIII.

Hatfield, a Market T. in Hertsfordshire, remarkable for the Noble House of the same name, formerly a ring him Cordials with her land. He made his Sisters William Newport, who chang'd ne to Hatton, his Heir; but failure of Issue Male by him, led the greatest part of his upon his God-son, Christopher

H A V

, his nearest Kinsman of the line, who accordingly enjoy'd id from him is descended the t Lord Christopher Hatton, who t K. Charles II. advanc'd to ignity of a Viscount, and Governour of Guernsey.

Vana, a famous Sea-port in the Cuba, which is one of the reat Islands in the Gulph of y in the W. Indies; it is at the N. end of the Island, gainst the Cape of Florida, strongly Fortified. This is rbour to which all the Fleets in direct their course; here nade their European Commo-and here again they take in ite, and other Riches of the i W. Indies, in order to their ortation to Europe; so that it of the most frequented Ports
W. Indies. It was Surpriz'd under'd a few Years since by ceaners, with a small number ps, under Spanish Colours, moreover forc'd the Inhabio pay a vast Ransome, to pret from being Burne.

Weyll, a Market T. in Suffolk;
near the head of the R.
which divides Suffolk from

ilab, an Ancient T. of Arabia
, which was the utmost Boun-f the Israelites and Analekites, is the Gulph of Persia.

va, a T. of Arabia Felix; it a-port, and stands on the ea. Not far from it is the ain of Radaa, out of which the best Hones in the Uni-

re de Grace, a strong Sea-of Normandy in France, it

H A W

stands upon the R. Seine, and hath a good Citadel, with four Bastions built by Lewis XIII. This place suffer'd very much by the English Bombs, An. 1694.

Haut-combe, a Vill. in Savoy, fam'd for a Spring, which dries up and runs again twice in an hour.

Hawkins, (Sir John) was born at Plymouth, and brought up to the Sea. He was the first Englishman that discover'd Guinea and Hyspa- nida, and taught the way into those parts, where he did Q. Eliz.
many considerable Services; as also on the Spanish Armado, in 1600, for which he was Knighted. He was 22 Years Treasurer of her Ma-Jesties Navy, and 48 Years her Admiral, during which he made several discoveries of many Rivers, Islands, and Harbours, in the W.
Indies. The Chain-Pumps for Ships were first invented by him.

Hawkwood, (Sir John) was the Son of a Tanner, at Sible Heningham in Essex. His Father bound him to a Taylor in London, but being Press'd from thence to the French Wars, in the Reign of Edward III.
He behav'd himself so Gallantly, that he soon got a Company of Foot, and quickly after a Knighthood. The War ending in France, he went to Italy, where with great Success, he serv'd first the Marques of Montferrat, and then the Duke of Milan, whose Brother Barnaby had him in such Esteem, that he married him to his Daughter, the Lady Demitia; after which he went into the Pope's Service, and at last came to the C. and free State of Florence; to whom he was of so great use during their Wars, that they Perpetuated his Memory, with a Statue of a Man at Arms, and Honour'd his Ashes with a Statey Monument. He died An. 1334, and when alive, was counted the best Soldier of his Age.

Hay,

H E A

Hay, (James) a Scotchman, who was made Earle of Carlisle by K. James I. History speaks loud of this Peer for his extravagant Entertainments, and his luxurious way of Living. Particularly in his Embassy to France, where he most lavishly consum'd a prodigious Sum of Money, to Represent as well given out, the Wealth and Glory of the English Nation.

Hay, (John) a Scotch Jesuit, who had several disputes with, and wrote against the Protestants.

La Hay, a T. in Turin in France; it stands upon the R. Creuse, about 26 m. from Tours. This place gave Birth to Des Cartes, the Famous Modern Philosopher.

Hayton, a K. of Armenia, who being driven out of his Kingdom by the Saracens, fled to Cablay, the Great Chan of Tattary, and having perswaded him to embrace Christianity, he procur'd from him so great Assistance, as he there-

H E B

They have neither Physick, nor Apothecary, nor Chirurgeon, but Cure themselves by Causticks and Blisters. Food is for the most part flesh, believing it to be the strongest. They Play with and their chiefest Weapons Darts, Daggers, Stings, and Cross-Bow.

Heron, a T. situate upon the R. in the E. Riding of York; it hath a Market, and sends Members to the Parliament. Now are Sir Charles Darcy and Henry Cox, Esq.

Heath, (Nicholas) was born in London, and brought up in a College in Cambridge. K. VIII. first made him Abbot of the Bishop of Rochester, and Bishop of Worcester, but he was deprived by K. Edward VI. restored by Q. Mary, who after advanced him to the Archbishopric of York, and made him

HEC

Hebrew, the Jews Language till the Babylonian Captivity, when being forced to conform their Speech to the Dialect of their Masters, they came at last to speak a Composition of Chaldean and Hebrew, viz. Chaldean as to the main Body, but Hebrew, as to the Affixes, Points, and Conjugations, which is what we now call Syriack. The Hebrew Language is thought by some, to have been the first and only Speech in the World, and was the same which Abraham found in the Land of Canaan.

Hebrides, see the western Isles of Scotland.

Hebron, a City of Palestine, where David was anointed King over Israel, and where he kept his Court till his conquest of Jerusalem. This City belonged to the Tribe of Judah, but was purchased long before that by Abraham for a Burying-place, and in it were buried his Wife Sarah, and four of the Patriarchs.

Hebrus, a River of Thrace, which rises out of Mount Rhodope and falls into the Aegean Sea, now called the Archipelago. It is famed for having Gold among its Sands.

Hecale, an old Woman, who notwithstanding her great Poverty, entertained Jesus very liberally, and he in return dedicated a Festival to Jupiter, and called it Hecalin.

Hecate, a Goddess, the same as the Moon; she is fancied to have three heads, whence she has the Epithet of Triceps in Ovid; this Goddess is called Luna in Heaven, Diana on Earth, and Hecate or Proserpina in Hell.

Hecatomb, a Sacrifice of an hundred Oxen, which the Lacedaemonians yearly offered to their Gods for the 100 Towns, of which they were Masters.

Hecatomphonia, a Feast instituted

HED

by the Aethenians, in which he that had killed 100 Enemies, offered up a living Man to Jupiter.

Hechen, a Caliph of the Saracens, and the XIVth Successor of Mahomet. He began his Reign An. 740. but the Saracens of Egypt and Arabia rebelling against him, deposed him, and set up Marwan the Governor of Egypt, who making a League with the Emperor Constantine, maintained himself in the Throne, and having by the help of Constantine defeated Hechen, he killed him, his Sons and all his Kindred, who he thought might disturb his Government.

Hecla, a burning Mountain in Iseland.

Hector, the Son of King Priam and Hecuba: he is famed for his gallant defence of Troy, insomuch that the Besieged would atter say that he alone was able to destroy the Grecian Army. But he was at last killed by Achilles, and most opprobriously dragged about the Walls.

Hecuba, the Daughter of Dimitri King of Thrace, and Queen to Priam King of Troy, when taken by the Greeks. She is reported by some to have been carried by Ulysses into his own Country, and there Stoned to Death; by others to have been turned into a Bitch, that raved about continually for her Misfortunes.

Hede, (William) he lived about the beginning of the 16th Cent. and was Dean of Utrecht, Ambassador from the Emperor Maximilian III. to several Courts, and Secretary of State to his Son Philip I. King of Spain. He wrote a Chronicle of Holland, another of the Bishops of Utrecht, and the Genealogy of Charles Vth.

Hedelin, (Francis) an Abbot of Lubignac, and mightily esteemed by Cardinal Richelieu. He applied to self to the Study of Dramatick Poetry, and wrote several Treatises, which proved him to be well learned, both in the Ancient and Modern Comedy, particularly his book de la pratique du theatre. He was born at Nemours, and died An. 1673.

H E E

Hedwige, the youngest Daughter of Lewis King of Hungary and Poland: Lewis, dying An. 1382. the Poles, offered the Sovereignty to Hedwige, who accepting thereof, was Crowned Queen of Poland, An. 1384. Soon after this, Jagello the Duke of Lithuania sent proposals of Marriage to her; but she refused to consent thereto, unless he would first embrace the Christian Religion. Jagello at last complied, and was Baptized by the name of Vladislaus, An. 1385. This done Hedwige married him, and he was Crowned King, by which the Dominions of Poland and Lithuania were united.

Heemskirk, (James) was born at ever since observed. He died An. 1574. There was another, of the same Name, Envoy of the States General at Constantinople An. 1693.

H E G

Hegesias, a Philosopher of the Pyrrhonick Order, who so artfully set forth the Miseries of humane Life, that many of his followers killed themselves. He was contemporary with Plato, and was the first who brought up the way of speaking called the Asiatick Style.

Hegesippus, the name of several learned Men, whereof one wrote Church History from the Death of our Saviour, to the time of Pope Anicetus, An. 167. Another wrote the Wars of the Jews, and the Destruction of Jerusalem.

Hegesilaus, one of the Governors of Rhodes, after the Democracy was changed to Aristocracy. He was so great a Tyrant, that he would marry nothing to be with a Woman, and cause her Husband look on. His fellow Governors were as bad as

H E I

Christ. This Mahometan Computation began, An. 617, for that Impostor having about that time made himself Master of Medina, and intending to do the same at Mecca, was so opposed by its Inhabitants, that he was forced to fly; and from this Flight begins their Hegira, which takes its Name from the Arabick word Hegiratbi, signifying a Persecution about Religion; soon after this, Mahomet rallying his Forces, took the Place, and made it his chief Residence.

Heidanus, (Abraham) a Divinity Professor at Leiden; he was a great Chrony of Des Cartes, by whose Help he finished a Book of Philosophy: He was Author of several other Tracts.

Heidelberg, the chief C. of the Palatinate of the Rhine, it stands in a Plain at the Foot of an Hill upon the R. Neckar. This C. is large and very Populous, and was the usual Seat of the Elektor, who had here a Noble and Magnificent Castle, till destroyed in the late Wars by the French. The University of this Place, was formerly noted for many great Men, and had one of the best collected Libraries in Europe, till the Year 1622. when the C. was taken by the Spaniards and Bavarians, and the Library sent to Rome; in the Swedish War it was several times taken and re-taken, but was An. 1649, by the Treaty of Münster, restored to its right Master, since which it was taken An. 1695, by the French, under the Duke de Lorge, who most miserably sack'd and ruin'd it. Some believe it to be the Budwis of the Ancients; it is about 3 m. from Spire, and 10 from Frankford.

Heilsberg, a T. in Regal Prussia; it is seated on the R. Alle in Warmland, the Bp. of which Prov. commonly resides in it.

Hein, (Peter) a Dutch-man of an obscure Birth, but by his Courage and Bravery, raised to be Admiral to the States of Holland, An. 1629. He defeated the Spaniards in several Engagements, in one of which he took from them, their Plate-Fleet, valued at above 12 Millions of Livres. He was at last killed in a Fight against some Dunkirk Vessels, and his Body being carried to Delft, was most magnificently interred.

H E L

Heinsius, (Daniel) and Heinsius (Nicholas) Father and Son, both Men of great Learning. The former was born at Ghent, An. 1580, and was deservedly raised to be Counsellor of State to the K. of Sweden, and to the Order of St. Mark, by the State of Venice. He wrote Annotations on the New Testament, Poems, Saturs, and an Encomium on the Ass. The latter was an extraordinary Latin Poet, and particularly made it appear, by correcting Virgil, Valerius Flaccus, Claudius and Ovid, upon which last he made Notes. He died An. 1681.

Heisterheim, is a T. of Brissow, in Saxia, and the usual Seat of the Grand Prior of Malta for Germany.

Helding, (Michael) a German, very eminent for Learning. He by the Order of Charles V. drew up the Interim, for which he was made Ep. of Mersberg. He was employed by the Emperour Ferdinand in several Negotiations, and made President and Governour of Vienna.

Helen, the Daughter of Tyndarus, and Leda, K. and Q. of Lacedaemonia, and Sister to Caster and Pollux. She was the most beautiful Woman in the World, and contended for by all the Grecian Princes; but married at last to Meneclaus the K. of Mycenæ's Brother, who had not long enjoyed her, e'er Paris the Son of K. Priam, hearing of her Beauty, went to see her, and falling in love with her, stole her away, and carried her to Troy, which occasioned the final Destruction of that City, A. M. 2870. after which she went back to Greece; but Menelaus dying, she was banished by his Sons, and afterwards put to Death for her lewd and prostitute way of living.

HEL

Helen, the Daughter of Coel K. of Colchester in Essex, was Wife of the Emp. Constantius Chlorus, and Mother of Constantine the Great, the first Christian Emp. She having embraced the Christian Religion, built several Churches, Chappels and Schools. She also visited the holy Places, and, as is reported in Salmasius's Epistle concerning the Cross, did about the Year 325, find on Mount Calvary our Saviour's Cross, with all the Instruments of his Passion, for which the T. of Colchester, the Place of her Nativity, do give for its Arms a Cross engrailed between 4 Crowns. She died at Rome in the 8th Y. of her Age, An. 337.

HEL

but he taking pity of her, turned her into a Confection, called the Great Bear.

Helicon, a Mountain of Boeotia in Greece, near to Parnassus, and dedicated also to the Muses.

Heliodorus, the Name of several famous Men, whereof one was General to Selenus Philopater K. of Syria; a 2d was Bp. of Tricca in Thessaly, about the 4th Cent. a 3d was a Priest of Antioch, and wrote a Treatise de Naturis rerum eternalium, and de Virginitate; a 4th wrote de Sepulchris; a 5th was a P. et, and is taken notice of by Plinius; a 6th was he whose Life was written by Philopater; a 7th was Secretary to the Emp. Adrian, an 8th was he who wrote to St. Jerome that curious Treatise of Solitude; a 9th was a great Mathematician, and wrote the Books de Architectonica, and de Mathematicis & Mechanicis; a 10th wrote a Book of Opticks; and a 11th was a Saint get a Celestial Posterity: in fine, his Wickedness, Lewdness, and Debauchery grew to such Excess, that the Soldiers, not able longer to bear with him, murdered him and his Mother in the Camp, and after a thousand Indignities offered to their Bodies, threw them into the Tiber, An. 222. after a Reign of 3 Years and 9 Months, during which he endeavoured to establish a Senate of Ladies, to decide Controversies arising among Women.

HEL

Heliogabalus, an Idol of Phœnicia, which was worshipped as an Image of the Sun, by reason of the Variety of Shapes on it, said to be above human Art.

Heliopolis, an Egyptian C. about 6 m. from Grand Cairo, famous for its Balm, and a Temple dedicated to the Sun, in which a Looking-glass was so fixed, that it reflected the Sun-beams all over it. This Place was by some taken for the C. On, of which Potiphar, Joseph's Father-in-Law was Priest. There is also a T. of this Name in Phœnicia, and another in Syria. And there is moreover a T. in the Elect. of Brandenburgh's Territories, called Saltwedel, in Latin Heliopolis, where formerly an Image of the Sun was worshipped.

Helladius, the Name of 2 learned Egyptians, one of whom dwelt in the T. of Antinous, in the time of Constantine the Great, and wrote several Greek Poems. The other was of Alexandria, and set forth a Greek Dictionary.

Helle, the Daughter of Nephele, and the first Wife of Athamas K. of Thebes. She being threatened to be killed by Ino his 2d Wife, fled from her; and attempting to cross the Sea upon a Rain, fell into it, and gave Name to the Hellepont.

Hellen, the Son of Dencalion, from whom the Greeks are by some called Hellenists.

HEL

Hellenists, were Jews by Birth, but liv'd scattered about in most of the Roman Provinces: They were so called from their reading the Scripture in the Septuagint Translation, and performing their publick Offices in Greek, otherwise as strict in their Ceremonies as those of Palestine.

Hellepont, a narrow Arm of the Sea, betwixt Europe on the W. and Asia on the E. It is now called the Streights of the Dardanelles, or the Streights of Gallipoli, and is in length 25 m. and in breadth half a League. Here it was that Xerxes, the Persian K. attempted to invade Greece, with an Army of 2164710 Men; but his Fleet being shattered by the Bravery of the Greeks, and the Fury of the Sea, that mighty Monarch was glad at last to escape in a poor Fisher-boat.

Hell-kettles, are 3 very deep Pits at Oxenhall in Durham. They came by an Earthquake, An. 1179. Some say that Tunstal the Bp. of this Diocese threw a Goose which he had marked into one of these Pits, and that it came up again on the R. Tees.

Helmont, (John Baptist) was born at Brussels, An. 1588. and was so called from a Castle and Burrough of that Name in Brabant. He was a Person of Universal Learning, especially in Physick; by which he performed such wonderful Cures, that he was put into the Inquisition for a Conjuror; but having cleared himself, he retired into Holland, where he wrote his Disputatio de magnetica corporum curatione, Februm Doctrina inaudita, Ortus Medicinæ, Paradoxa de Aquis Spadanis. He strongly opposed the Principles of Aristotle and Galen.

Helmstadt, a small T. in Germany, which hath belonged to the D. of Brunswick Wolfenbittel, ever since 1490. it was purchased from the Ab-

H E M

Abbot of Werden, and had an University founded in it, An. 1376.

Helmslædt, a strong Sea-port T. in the Prov. of Holland on the Baltick; it formerly belonged to the Danes, but was yielded up to the Sweeds, An. 1645.

Helston, a Market T. in Cornwall, which sends 2 Members to the Parliament, who at present are the Hon. Fra. Godolphin, and Sidney Godolphin, Esqs;

Helwius, (Christopher) a Person very learned in History, and Chronology, of which he wrote a compendious Treatise from the beginning of the World to the Y. 1666. since which it hath been continued down to the Y. 1688. by another hand.

Helvidius. was Patriarch of the Antiochia-Marianites. He lived in the 4th Cent. and held that the Virgin Mary, had more Children than our Saviour by Joseph, and that a single Life was not to be preferred viz. Zeland, Finen, Langland, Ment, Falster, Laland, and Demeren.

H E N

Hama, is a C. on the R. Orontes in Syria, and is called by the Turks Haman, it is an Arch-Bishop's See, under the Patriarch of Antioch, and was taken from the Christians about 160 Y. ago.

Hemage, an ancient Family, who have ever since Edward I. been possessed of Hayton House, which is at present enjoyed by George Hemage, Esq;

Hengist, one of the Saxon Generals, who being sent for over by Vortigern, K. of the Britains, to assist him against the Scots, and Picts, became afterwards K. of Kent. He had only at first the Isle of Thanet allotted for him, and his Saxons. But he having beaten the Scots and Picts, and perceiving the Country to be fruitful, and its People given to Ease and Luxury, invites others of his Country to come and share in his good Fortune. The Saxons

H E N

unity to the enraged Britains revenge on those that stayed
I. Hengist died An. 489.

Heberg, a Prov. of Francia,
chief Towns are München, Malcaid; it formerly gave Ti-one of the most famous Earl-in Germany, and was at last I into a Principality by Maxi-
II. it now belongs to the Eof Saxony.

netes, a People of Paphlagonia, whom the Venetians are origi-descended.

nayer, (John) was Confessor ry II. K. of France. He is reble for being Bp. of Lisieux
mandy, at the time of the re, which he so vigorously ed in his Diocess, that the K.
ed the Orders for it, whereby of the Protestants Lives were oticon, was an Edict set forth by the Emp. to unite the Ca-ths and Eutychians. But Pope II. was so offended at it, that fioned great trouble between and the Emp.

ry I. Emp. of Germany, sur-the Fowler, was according to ill of the Emp. Conrade, prod K. of the Romans. Soon he Pope profer'd his service
int and consecrate him Emp.

was not accepted; for he ed, That 'twas enough for him, God's Providence, and the Voithe Electoral Princes had made mp. and that he was well sa-with the Honour already con-

upon him, without going to for Consecration and Unction.
s a valiant and prudent Prin.
at composed most of the A-ties of his own People, and y defended them from the ions of the Hungarians, and Forreign Enemies. He was st that instituted the Sports es and Turnaments; he for-

H E N

tified the great Towns in Germany, ordering that every 9th Bore should remove his Family into a City. Having overthrown the Hungarians at a memorable Battel, and killed 80000 of them, he had the Title of Pater Patria, rerum Dominus & Imperator, given him. Afterwards going into Italy, he died of an Apoplexy, An. 936, after he had reigned 17 Years. He was Son of Otto Duke of Saxony.

Henry II. Emp. of Germany, was chosen when Duke of Bavaria; His Piety, for which he was canonized, got him the Title of Holy; and a Mischance by a Fall surnamed him the Lame. He fought many great Battels, and from most of them came off Conqueror. The Saracens were by him driven out of Apulia, and Calabria. He is by some stiled the Apostle of Hungary, because he was the first that throughly converted that Nation: upon his Deathbed, he is said to have returned his Empress Cunigunda to her Friends a pure Virgin; in which State, by mutual Consent, they had both continued from the first Day of their Marriage. He commanded the Gospel to be read before the Creed; and after a Reign of 22 Years, he resigned up his Soul to Almighty
God.

Henry III. Emp. of Germany, was elected An. 1039. The first War he engaged himself in was against the Bohemians, for refusing to pay him Tribute. Afterwards he turned his Arms against the Hungari- ans, and re-inthroned their King Peter, who had been driven out of his Kingdom for Tyranny, in the Y.
1046. He marched into Italy to compose the Differences among the three Popes, who were set up by contrary Factions. But he deposed them all, and made a 4th.
viz. Clement II. renewing the old Law, wherein it was enacted, That as Pope should be created without the Consent of the Emperor. This Prince having reigned 17 Years, was choaked with a Piece of Bread. He was Son of Conrade II. and surnamed the Black.

H E N

Henry IV. Emp. of Germany, succeeded his Father Henry III. at six Years of Age. He is said, during his Reign, which lasted 30 Years, to have fought 62 great Battels; which are more than either Marcus Marcellus, Julius Caesar, or any other Roman General could ever boast of. Pope Hildebrand, who was called Gregory VII. forced this Prince, in the Depth of an hard Winter, to pass the Alps, with his Empress and Son, and to cast themselves at the Pope's Feet, after they had waited 3 Days at the Pope's Gate in Penitential Habits, with their Heads uncovered, bare Feet, and without eating. After which the said Pope falling out again with the Emperor, excommunicated him, and stirring

H E N

Henry V. Emp. of Germany, crowned An 1106. at his Coronation, Part of his Sword was with Lightning, but the Scabbard remained untouched. He was compelled to acknowledge the Supremacy, and to quit all Pretensions to the Power of Investiture, which his Ancestors had for some time challenged as their Right. Differences between him and contemporary Popes, were so frequent, that he was scarce ever free from Excommunications, and rebellions. He married Matilda, Daughter of Henry I. K. of England, and died of an Ulcer in his An. 1125.

Henry VI. Emp. of Germany, elected in the stead of his Father Frederick Barbarossa, though inferior to him in his Virtues. He was taken Prisoner in Sicily, where he was his Competitor for that Kingdom, and having put out his Eyes, was Prisoner to Germany. For him his Life, being poison'd, as is said, by a Dominican Friar with a consecrated Water, after he had reigned 4 Years.

H E N

Henry, Landgrave of Hesse, and Thuringia, was by the spiritual Electors, An. 1245 chosen Emp. in opposition to Frederick II. but was killed within 2 Years at the Siege of Vlm, and never reckon'd among the Number of Emperours.

Henry, Emp. of Constantinople, was Brother to Baldwin III. first Emp. of the Latins; who being taken and imprisoned by the K. of Bulgaria, he took upon him the Government, and was crowned An. 1206. In his time the Greeks grown weary of the Latins rebelled, but he soon reduced them. He died An. 1216.

Henry I. K. of England, was the youngest Son of K. William I. but being at hand, and born in England, procured himself to be elected, and crowned K. within 4 Days after the Death of K. William II. It being industriously spread abroad that Robert his Eldest Brother, who was then in the Holy Land, was chosen K. of Jerusalem. In the first Exercise of his Government, he took all imaginable Care to sweeten the Subjection of his People, with great Moderation and Tenderness, by taking off all heavy Taxes, punishing evil Ministers, banishing dissolute Persons, restoring Lights in the Night, and setting up Night-watches, which have ever since been continued: but that which ingratiated him most of all, was his reviving the Laws of Edward the Confessor, and establishing other good Laws. And to render himself yet more popular, he marries Maud, Daughter of Margaret, Queen of Scots, who was Sister to Edgar Atheling, by whose Issue the Saxon and Norman Blood became united. In the mean time Robert hearing of his Brother's Death, returned to Normandy, and landing at Portsmouth, many of the English came to him. But the two Brothers coming to an Agreement, Robert went back to Normandy, where he had not been long, before new Troubles arose between him and his Brother. Henry hereupon landed with an Army in Normandy; and routing his Brother's Forces, took him Prisoner, and sent him to the Castle of Cardiffe in Wales, where he continued all the Days of his Life. This K. in the 17th Year of his Reign assembled at Salisbury, the 3 Estates, who from that time took the Name of Parliament, according to the Custom of Normandy. He erected and endowed the Sees at Carlisle, and Ely. He built the Mannor of Woodstock, and the Abbey of Reading. His Death happened in Normandy, An. 1135. after he had reigned 35 Years. He had two Wives, the foresaid Maud, and Alice of Lorraine; by this last he had no Children; but by the first, he had two Sons and one Daughter; his Sons were both drowned, and his Daughter married first to Henry V. Em. of Germany, and afterwards to Jeffery Plantagenet Earl of Anjou. The King's Sons being drowned he sent for his Daughter, and caused the Lords and great Men to swear to be true to her, and her Heirs, but notwithstanding the Oath, his Nephew Stephen got the Crown. Parks were first enclosed in this K. Henry's Days.

H E N

Henry II. K. of England, was Son of Jeffery Plantagenet, and was the only Child of Henry I. He succeeded K. Stephen, and began his Reign in 1154; in his Person the Norman and Saxon Blood were united, and the Race of Plantagenets first began. He became the greatest of all the then Christian Kings.
(B b b)

H E N

for he was possessed of the Km of England, of Normandy, Anjou, Tou-rain and Main in his own Right, of Poitou, Saintonge, Guienne and Gas-cogne, by his Marriage with Queen Eleanor, and of Ireland by Conquest. But he was with a very large share of Troubles from his Subjects, his own Sons, his Queen occasioned by Jealousie, the Welsh, the Scots, and from that proud Prelate Thomas Becket, whom he had raised from Arch-Deacon of Canterbury, to be A-Bp. All which he pretty well overcame, except that refractory Ep. who still persisting to oppose him, was at last by some of his Courtiers murdered, in his Cathedral Church of Canterbury, upon Christmalls day, An. 1170. The K. now, obtaining his Innocence of the fact, was forced, to keep off the Thunder of Excommunication, to engage himself to be firm to the Pope; to grant that all Appeals in Ecclesiastical Causes, should be made

H E N

mandy, Anjou, Poitou, Tou-rain and Main; but he answered, That being obtained them by the Sword, by the Sword he would keep them.
However, Henry was so troubled to the K. of France, that he obliged him to give 300000*l.* for the quiet Possession thereof. Henry now, as his Father had done, re-assumes the Crown-Lands, which had been granted away by his Predecessors, and confirms Magna Charta, with a Curse against all infringers thereof.
However, most Part of this King's Reign was spent in Troubles between him and his Barons, who, among other things, requiring that the Chancellor, the Treasurer, and the chief Justice should be chosen by the Lords, Civil Broils occurred; and in a Fight near Nottingham, the K. was routed, and taken Prisoner by the Earl of Leicester, but in a second Battel the Earl was killed, and the King delivered. The Prince died An. 1272, after he had

H E N

viz. Henry, Thomas, John and Humphrey.

Henry V. K. of England, succeeded his Father, An. 1413. and having discarded all the Companions of his youthful Follies; he became regular in his private Life, just in his Administration, courageous in the Field, and one of the greatest Ornaments of our English Nation. This Prince encouraged by the Clergy, revives the English Claim to the Crown of France, and landing in Normandy, marcheth to Agencourt, where he was necessitated with 15000 Men, to fight above 50000 French; but this handful of Men, behaved themselves so bravely under his wise Conduct, that they obtained a compleat Victory, and in a little time conquered all Normandy. Henry, after this, brought Ch. VI. the then King of France to that Extremity, that he gave Henry his Daughter Catharine in Marriage, made him Regent of France during his Life, and Heir after his Death, all which was solemnly sworn to, by the Nobles and States of that Kingdom at Paris. The K. having espoused his beloved Princess Catharine, constituted his Brother Thomas, Lieutenant-General of France, and carried his beautiful Queen into England. But he had not been long there, before new Troubles, stirred up by the Dauphine, who was afterwards Charles VII. obliged him to return to France, where, in a little time, he was taken ill of a violent Fever, of which he died, at Bis St. Vincennes, after he had reigned 9 Years. He left only one Son, who was very young, and was called Henry of Windsor.

Henry VI. K. of England, succeeded his Father, when but 8 Months old. His Guardians and Regents behaved themselves so well in their several Trusts, as redounded greatly to their own Reputation, and the Peoples Satisfaction. Yet this K. notwithstanding, proved a very unfortunate Prince, both at home and abroad: for Charles VI. K. of France dying soon after, Henry V. the Dauphin caused himself to be crowned at Poitiers, by the Name of Charles VII. but he having only the Provinces on the other side of the Loire, was called in Derision K. of Bourges, the Capital of the Prov. of Berry, where he usually resided. However, the English were successful till the Siege of Orleanse, An. 1429. and indeed all the Hopes of the French K. depended on the Relief of that City then closely besieged by the Earl of Salisbury, which was effected, with the Death of the said Earl, by Joan the Shepberdess, who was afterwards taken by the English, and burnt for a Witch. The young K. Henry's Presence being thought necessary in France, he landed there, the Year after the Siege of Orleanse; and being solemnly crowned at Paris, the English Affairs in that Kingdom, seemed to look with a pretty good Aspect, till An. 1435, when the Duke of Burgundy deserted to the French, the brave Earl of Arundel was killed, and the Renowned, Wise, and Valiant Regent, John Duke of Bedford died. After which the English Interest declined so fast in France, that An. 1451. they had little left besides Calais, and some small Isles. But these Misfortunes of the English in France, are chiefly attributed to their Discords and Frowls at home, occasioned originally from the easie Temper of the King, and the high Spirit of the Queen, together with the Murder of Humphrey Duke of Gloucester, the King's Uncle. And now begins the bloody Wars between the Houses of York and LANCASTER; for Richard Duke of

H E N

(B b b 2)

H E N J

York, taking advantage of the popular Discontents, lays claim to the Crown, as descended from Lionel, third Son of Edward III. and having raised an Army, defeats the King at St. Albans, takes him Prisoner, and is by the Parliament made Protector of the Kingdom, and his Confidant, the Earl of Salisbury, is made Lord Chancellor. The Queen not liking to be, in a manner, thus laid aside, stirs up the good natured King, makes head against the Duke, and is again routed, but in a third Battle the Yorkists are beaten, whereupon a Parliament is called, and the Duke and his Adherents are attainted of Treason. The Duke, after this, getting together another Army, a bloody fight ensued, in which the King was worsted, and retreated a second time. The Scots being now engaged, Richard calls a Parliament, sets forth his Title, and is proclaimed Heir Apparent to Henry. Luttrell haug-

H E N

Duke of Gloucester, An. 1450. After he had lived in a troublesome Reign of 38 Years. He had one Son, who was also murdered by the said Duke.

Henry VII. K. of England, succeeded K. Richard III. whom he had defeated and killed at Bosworth Field. He claimed the Crown, as being of the House of Lancaster, by his Mother Margaret, Countess of Richmond, who was Daughter and Heir to John Duke of Somerset, a Grandson of John of Gaunt Duke of Lancaster, which House he moreover, united to that of York, by marrying Elizabeth, Eldest Daughter of K. Edward IV. But his Reign however was disturbed with several Insurrections and Tumults, one of the Chief of which, was that under Lambert Simnel, a Baker's Son, who tutored by a Priest, pretended himself to be Richard Duke of York, Edward VI.'s Brother, or as some say, Edward Earl of Warwick, Son only one Son and two Daughters, the Eldest of which he married to James IV. K. of Scotland, and the Younger to Lewis XII. K. of France.

H E N

Henry VIII. K. of England, succeeded his Father Henry VII. He reigned for several Years to the great Content and Applause of all his Subjects, but became at last the most absolute and arbitrary Prince that ever sat on the English Throne, since William the Conquerour; for Passion and Pleasure getting the Dominion over him, totally eclips'd his former Virtues; it being truly said of him, That he never spared Man in his Rage, nor Woman in his Lust. He maintained a War against France, and Scotland, at the same time, and came off victorious in both. He afterwards wrote a Book against Luther, the German Reformer, for which the Pope gave him the Title of Defender of the Faith, which hath been since made hereditary to the succeeding Kings of England. And now having a desire to be divorced from Queen Catharine, who was married first to his Eldest Brother Arthur, he solicited the Pope to annul the Marriage; but his Holiness fearing the Power of Spain, refused to do it; wherefore the King, by Act of Parliament, abrogates the Pope's Authority, dissolves the Monasteries, and is himself declared Supreme Head of the Church in England, and so the Reformation began in this Kingdom, which was improved in the Reign of Edward VI. and settled in Queen Elizabeth's. Several Rebellions happened hereupon, but were all happily suppressed. Also a second War broke out against France, and Scotland, but the King was successful in both. He erected six new Bishopsricks, viz. Oxford, Peterborough, Bristol, Chester, Gloucester, and Westminster; all which, except the last, continue Episcopal Sees to this day. Wales was in this King's days incorporated to England, and Ireland was made a Kingdom. He died An. 1547, after he had reigned 38 Years. He had 6 Wives, by whom he left one Son and two Daughters. His Reign was unfortunate to his Queens, fatal to his Favourites, especially to Wolsey, Cromwell and Moor, and cruel both to rigid Papists and Anti-Papists.

H E N

Henry I. K. of France, succeeded his Father Robert, An. 1031. His younger Brother Robert, attempted by the Assistance of his Mother to get the Crown; but was disappointed, and forced to accept of the Dukedom of Burgundy. He died of a Fever, after he had reigned 29 Years.

Henry II. K. of France, succeeded his Father Francis I. An. 1547. He took Metz, Toul, and Verdun from the Germans; as also Bulagne, and Calais from the English. But he lost the Battle of St. Quintin to the Spaniards, who soon after routed his Forces at Gravelin. However he was afterwards victorious, yet nevertheless was obliged upon a Peace to surrender up 198 Places to his Enemies. This Prince was killed in Tournament, after he had reigned 11 Years. He left 3 Sons, who were all Kings of France successively, viz. Francis II. Charles IX. and Henry III.

Henry III. K. of France, was chosen K. of Poland, An. 1573. But his Brother Charles IX. K. of France dying within three Months afterwards, he privately withdrew from Poland, and returned to France, where he was crowned King. This Prince was embroiled with two Potent Factions, viz. that of the Hugonots, headed by the K. of Navarre, and the other of the League, under the Duke of Guise. But the head of the latter, having contrived several Plots against his Sovereign's Life, was at last, under Pretence of a Treaty, murdered with his Cardinal Brother, at Blois, in that very Room, where he had before consulted the Parisian Massacre. The King after this was forced to make Peace with the Hugonots, who joining his Army, laid Siege to Paris; which with several other Places had declared for the League, now commanded by the Duke of Mayenne, third Brother to the Duke of Guise. But whilst the Kings of France and Navarre, were carrying on the Siege, James Clement, a Dominican, delivered K. Henry a Letter, and as he was reading it, stabbed him with a Knife in the Belly, of which he died the next day, after he had reigned 15 Years. He having no Issue, declared the K. of Navarre his Successor.

H E N

Henry IV. K. of France, succeeded Henry III. and was the first of

H E N

was Margaret de Valois, Henry's Daughter, who was divorced for Barrenness. The second was de Medici, by whom he had 10 sons and three Daughters. He at last stabbed with a Knife, by the Monster Ravillac, as he was sitting in his Coach in Paris. This happened after he had reigned 56 Years, the Ten last of which he lived in Peace.

Henry, Duke of Carinthia, and of Bohemia, was deposed by his Subjects, An. 1220.

Henry I. K. of Castile, was murdered An. 1217, by a Fall of a Tile from a House, after he had reigned 20 Years.

Henry II. K. of Castile, was the natural Son of Alphonse XI. But heading the Castilians against the tyrannical and cruel K. Peter, was so successful as to defeat and kill him; whereby he got the Crown which he enjoyed till the Year 1337, when he died, having reigned about

H E N

Henry K. of Cyprus, died An. 1253, of a Fall from a Window.

Henry I. K. of Navarre, was choaked with his own Fat, An. 1274.

Henry II. K. of Navarre, succeeded his Father, An. 1516. He married Margaret of Orleans, Sister to Francis I. K. of France. He had Issue by her, John, who died young, and Jane Queen of Navarre, who married Anthony of Bourbon, by whom she had Henry the Great of France.

Henry III. K. of Navarre, and the IVth of France.

Henry of Burgundy, by the Assistance of Alphonfus K. of Castile, conquered Portugal from the *Moor*s, An. 1096. He was afterwards Earl thereof, and was succeeded An. 1139 by his Son Alphonfus, who was the second Earl, and the first K. of Portugal.

Henry K. of Portugal, succeeded his Nephew Sebastian, who was An. 1578. killed or taken Prisoner in Africa. He died after he had reigned about 2 Years.

Henry I. of Bourbon, Prince of Condé, Duke of Anguien, and Peer of France. He became a valiant Champion for the reformed Religion, particularly at the Battle of Jourtray. He was poisoned An. 1588.

Henry II. of Bourbon, Prince of Condé, Duke of Anguien, Peer of France, and first Prince of the Blood. He was Son of Henry I. of Bourbon, but was by Henry IV. brought up a Roman Catholic. The Queen Regent, during the Minority of Lewis XIV. made him president of the Council. He died An. 1646.

Henry I. of Lorrain, Duke of Burfe, and Governour of Brie and Champaigne, was born in 1550, and was the handsomest Prince of his time. Neither is he less remarkable for his Courage, which he to often signalized, both against the Turks in Hungary, and the Hugonots in France. But his Ambition at last proved his Ruine: for having formed that powerful Faction, called the League against Henry III. He was by the said King's Order, under Colour of a Treaty murdered at Blois; a just Reward for his being one of the bloody Contrivers of the Massacre of St Bartholomew.

H E N

Henry II. of Lorrain, Duke of Guise, was first an Abbot, then Abp. of Rheims: but at last betaking himself to a Military Life, he headed the rebellious Neapolitans against the K. of Spain, An. 1647. He died without Issue An. 1654.

Henry of Lorrain, Duke of Elbeuse, and Earl of Harcourt. He acquired great Reputation in the Wars, particularly at the Siege of Turin, An. 1640, where his Army being reduced to great Necessity, he was advised to raise the Siege; but he answered, That he would not do it, till his Horses had eat up all the Forrage of the Country, and his Soldiers his Horses. So that he obliged them at last to surrender. He was afterwards Vice-Roy of Catalonia.

Henry Duke of Lorrain, succeeded his Father Charles II. He married Catharine, the Sister of Henry IV. K. of France.

Henry X. Duke of Bavaria, and second of Saxony: he was surnamed the Lion, and was for Power one of the greatest Princes of his time. But he taking part with Pope Alexander III. against the Emperour Frederick Barbarossa, was by him An. 1180 proscribed, and deprived of the Dukedoms of Bavaria, and Saxony. He fled afterwards to Henry II. K. of England, his Father-in-Law, who procured him the Dukedoms of Lunenburgh and Branswick.

Henry II.

H E N

Henry II. of Savoy, Duke of Nemours, &c. He was designed for the Church, nominated Abp. of Rheims, and acknowledged Duke and Prince of France, but after his Brother's Death he married Mary of Orleans, yet died without Issue.

Henry, youngest Son to Charles I. was born An. 1640, and created Duke of Gloucester. He was a Prince of great Courage, and good Parts, but was cut off by the Small-pox soon after the Restoration of Charles II.

Henry, Baron of Raleigh in Essex, was hereditary Standard bearer of England, but was deprived of that, and of his Estate for his Cowardise at Coteshill Battel, which was fought between the Welsh and the English, to disadvantage of the latter, in the Reign of K. Henry II.

Henry of Huntingdon, lived in the Reign of K. Stephen, and was the most celebrated Historian of his time. He wrote a Continuation of Bede, and the History of England

H E R

Divine; he wrote a great many learned Books about that Age.

Henry of Piro, lived about XVth Cent. and was one of the greatest Lawyers of his time.

Hepburn, (James) Earl of well in Scotland. He married Q. of Scots; before which, he been tried for the Murder of his former Husband, Henry Lord ley, and acquitted: Yet was the sober and thinking man thought him guilty. He afterwards endeavoured to possess himself of the young Prince James: Several of the Nobility opposing associated together and raised an Army. The Queen also levied an Army, and with Bothwell takes the Field, where a single Duel was offered Bothwell to decide the Controversie, and accepted: But the Queen would not permit it. However Bothwell finding the Queen's Cause very cool in her Cause, shut himself up in Edinburgh.

HER

ill Constantinople was built by Constantine, and made the Imperial City which was in the IVth Cent. Another T. of this Name in Romania, was formerly in great esteem among the Romans, being beautified with the Palaces of Vespasian, Domitian, and Antoninus; as also an Amphitheatre cut out of one entire Marble, and accounted one of the World's 7 Wonders. This has still a good Harbour, and one of the best Cathedrals in Turkey, and a great many broken Marble Antiquities. There have been heretofore several Cities of the same Name in Greece, Aegypt and Italy.

Heracleon, or Heracleotes (Denis) a Scholar of Valentine, who held that anointing the Dead, mitigated their Pains.

Heracleopolites, Kings of Sethrin, called by the Grecians Heracleopolis, in the lower Aegypt.

Heraclian, Governour of Africa, under Honorius Emp. of the East, who also made him Consul. He afterwards rebelled, but was soon subdued and killed.

Heraclide, the Posterity of Hercules, who lived in Peloponnesus. One of the most famous Grecian Epichas's, is dated from their Return to that Country, after they had been driven from thence, 100 Years.

Heraclides, a Ep. of Erebus, who was deposed for Orientalism, An. 424. He wrote the Lives of the Holy Fathers.

Heracledes, a learned Philosopher, who is said to have wrote the Allegories on Homer, and many other Looks.

Heraclitus, a Philosopher, called the Obscure. He held that all things were made of fire, and at last resolved into it; that every thing is full of Spirits; and that whatsoever happens, is brought about by divers Changes. He alway wept at the Miseries of the World, and Follies of mortal Men: Asserting, That the Pleasures which Men enjoy, are nothing but Grief, their Knowledge Ignorance, their Grandure Meanness, and their Strength Infirmary. He lived about 500 Years before the Birth of Christ. There was also another Heraclitus, who wrote a Treatise of Stones.

HER

Heraclius, Emp. of the East. He was crowned An. 610, having first routed, and put to death, the Tyrant Phocas. Chiroes II. K. of Persia, took from him Cappadocia, Armenia, Palestine, Jerusalem, the real Cross of Christ, and several Christian Captives. But he raising an Army by the help of the Church-Revenues, overthrew the Persians in several Battels, and at last forced them to a Peace; whereby among other things, the Cross was restored, which the Emp. himself carried into Jerusalem; and this was the occasion of the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross. There was another Heraclius, who was Brother and Co partner to the Emp. Constantine IV.

Heralds, are Officers belonging to the King, Queen or Sovereign State, whose Business is to marshal and order Coronations, Marriages, Christenings, Funerals, Interviews, Feasts of Kings and Princes, Cavalcades, Jests, Tournaments, Combats before the Constable, and Marshal. They also take care of the Coats of Arms, of the Genealogies of the Nobility, and Gentry, and whatsoever concerns Honour: For they are Tanquam Sacrorum Custodes, & Templi Honoris Astituti. They moreover proclaim War and Peace, and are perhaps named Heralds, from the German Here, and Healt; which is the Armes Champion, and is the same with the Roman Legates. They

H E N

Henry II. of Savoy, Duke of Nemours, &c. He was designed for the Church, nominated Abp. of Rheims, and acknowledged Duke and Prince of France, but after his Brother's Death he married Mary of Orleans, yet died without Issue.

Henry, youngest Son to Charles I. was born An. 1640, and created Duke of Gloucester. He was a Prince of great Courage, and good Part but was cut off by the Small-pox soon after the Restoration of Charles II.

Henry, Baron of Ralegh was hereditary Standard-bearer of England, but was deprived of his Estate and of his Office by the Duke of Somerset, who to discomfit him, fought between the English, to discomfit the South-side, in the Battle of Marston.

Henry of Navarre is sometimes called the South-side, or the North-side. The most common Name is Navarre, or North-side. He is to do the like side of Trent. The

H E R

Divine; he wrote learned Books. But King Agre.

Henry of Navarre, he was a great Prince of France, and was sent over the Princess,

He was afterwards

Admiral of their Majesty, and going with a Squadron,

An. 1580. to intercept a French Convoy on the Irish

he met with them in Battle,

but they having Wind and Tide, he was forced for several Hours to engage them at a great disadvantage, and at last, make it a drawn Battle. He came not off so well the following Year, for being at St. Helens with the English and Dutch Fleet, he was surprised and set upon by the French Fleet, who were double the Number,

under Turville, and obliged after some hours fight, chiefly sustained by the Dutch, to make the best of himself in all sorts of Learning. He was made a Knight of the Order of St. James I. who also sent him an Embassy to France: afterwards for his wife's faithful Services to K.

HER

Charles I. he was made a Baron of Cheshire. He wrote Erratum, which was printed at Rome, and in 1650 the Life of Cardinal others of the same name. He was also a great Honour.

Herbert of Cheshire was a Baron of this name. His Patents, 6. of Wil.

Herbert, (Thomas) the present Lord of Pembroke, is descended from the Eldest Son of William, Earl of Pembroke, who died An. 1559, and is a Person of great Experience, Parts and Learning. He was by his late Majesty K. William III. made Lord Privy-Seal, then, President of the Privy-Council, one of the Knights of the Garter, at last Lord High Admiral of England.

Herbert, (William) the late Marquess of Powis, descended from Sir Edward Herbert, the second Son of William Earl of Pembroke, who died An. 1569. He was by K. Charles II. created an Earl; and by K. James II. a Marquiss here in England, and a Duke in France.

Herborn, a small T. in the County of Nassau, in Weteravia, or Westphalia, on the Upper Rhine, it belongs to the Counts of Nassau, and hath an University, founded by John Count Dillembourg, An. 1585.

Hercules, there have been many of this Name, but the most famous of all was the Son of Jupiter, and Alcmena, the Wife of Amphitryon; for being but in the Cradle he tore in Pieces two Serpents, which Juno out of Jealousie to his Mother, had sent to destroy him. And to him are ascribed not only the brave Actions of all the other Hercules's, but of many other ancient and illustrious Heroes. He, by the Command of Euristheus, K. of Mycenæ, who thereby designed his Destruction, slew first the Nemean Lion, whose Skin he ever afterwards wore; 2dly, he overcame the Monster Hydra, which had 7 Heads; 3dly, he slew the wild Boar of Erymanthus, which wasted Arcadia; 4thly, he destroyed the Centaures; 5thly, he took an Hind on Foot, after he had pursued her one whole Year; 6thly, he chased away the voracious Birds of Stymphalus's Lake; 7thly, he cleansed Augæus's Stables; 8thly, he caused Diomedes K. of Thrace to be eaten, by his own Man-eating Horses; 9thly, he destroyed the Cretan Bull, which vomited Fire; 10thly, he overcame the Spanish Geryon, and carried away his Cattel; 11thly, he took the Golden Apples from the Garden of the Hesperides, and slew the Dragon that guarded them; 12thly, he went to Hell, and brought from thence the Dog Cerberus; as also Theseus, who was gone thither to keep company with his Friend Pirithus. Many other Performances both of Courage and Justice, are said to have been done by him; as his crushing to Death Antæus, the Son of the Earth; his killing of Busiris, the Son of Neptune, and Cacus, the Son of Vulcan; his delivering Prometheus from Mount Caucasus, and killing the Eagle, which preyed upon his Liver; with divers other Achievements; in all which he made use of no other Weapon, but a Club made of an Olive-tree. This great Man, after all, became a Slave to Women; the chief of whom was Omphale, Queen of Lybia, who would make

HER

(Ccc 2)

• H E R

make him spin, and beat him with the Distaff. He at last ended his Life on Mount Oeta: for having put on a poisoned Shirt through a Mistake of his Wife Deianira, he became so distracted, that he cast himself into a burning Piece of Wood, where he was consumed; after which he was taken into Heaven, and married to Hebe, the Goddess of Youth. The Fable of which was thus moralized. By Hercules was understood the Strength and Reason of Philosophy, which subdues and keeps under our unruly Passions, and by his Marriage with Hebe, was intimated that the Memory of Men of Courage, and Learning, was always to be maintained.

Hercules the great Master of Arms, who being a Soldier, was killed by a Snake, and died in the Arms of his Wife, when he was at the Bar the W. it hath 11 Hundreds, 178 Parishes, and 8 Market Towns; and contains in length 25 m. in breadth 20, it exceeds other Counties in plenty of Fruit, and fineness of Wool, particularly the Wool called Lemster Ore, which is the finest in England, and equals that of Apulia in Italy; it is moreover very fruitful, which Serjeant Herkins made appear, when he entertained King James I. with 10 Marisco-Dancers, who made up 1000 Years. This County sends 6 Members to the Parliament, besides the two Knights of the Shire, who at present are, Sir John Williams, Kt. and John Gorges, Esquire.

H E R

Heren, or Harar, a C. in Warrana, under the Dominion of the Turks; it is a Bp's See, and now called Carra, and only remarkable for the overthrow of Crashan.

Hert, a Perthian Prov. famous for Roles. There is also in the Prov. a C. of the same Name, in which is

HER

Books, particularly against Plato and Aristotle; but they are all now lost.

Herman of Lorrain, Co. of Salms, was in opposition to the Emp Henry IV. and by the Instigation of the Pope, elected K. of the Romans, An. 1081. but was afterwards forsaken by his Party.

Herman of Ments, Elector of Cologne, was for attempting to introduce the Doctrines of Bucer, and Melancthon, excommunicated by Paul III. and deposed by the Emperour Charles V. he died An. 1552.

Herman of Weringer, wrote a Chronicle of the World, to the Year 1654.

Herman, (William) a Dutchman, lived about the beginning of the XVIth Cent. and was a great Linguist, Historian, and Poet.

Hermanstadt, the Capital C. of Transilvania; it is seated in a Plain upon the R. Cibin, and is both great, well built, populous and strong; its Inhabitants are for the most Part Saxons.

Hermanstein, a strong Castle in the Bishoprick of Trier in Germany; it stands on the Rhine against Coblentz.

Hermaphroditus, the Son of Mercury, and Venus. He was very beautiful, and bathing in a Fountain, was observed by the Nymph Salmacis, who falling in love with him, embraced him so heartily, that both their Sexes became united.

Hermas, an ancient Greek Author, who wrote so divinely, that his Book, consisting of 3 Parts, called Ecclesia, Pastor, and the Ten Similitudes, was by St. Irenaus, St. Clement of Alexandria, Origen and Tertullian, quoted as one of the Holy Scripture, and by many of the Churches received as Canonical. But St. Prosper looked upon it as of no Authority, St. Gelasius as Apocry- phal, and several of the Churches had no other opinion of it, than as a good instructive Book. He lived about the Middle of the first Cent.

HER

Hermenigilde, the Son of Lerugilde a Gothick K. who refusing to embrace Arianism, was by his Father imprisoned, and put to death An. 586.

Hermes, a surname given to Mercury, from whence comes the Hermæ, which were square Statues of Mercury, commonly made of Marble, but sometimes of Brass, and were by the Greeks and Romans set up in Cross-ways, and Porches of Houses and Temples. They were first set up by the Athenians, who inscribed on them Eucommiums of their own Valour.

Hermes, a Philosopher of Aegypt, called Trismegistus, who is said to have lived near the time of Moses. He first divided the Day into Hours, and is thought also to have invented Hieroglyphicks, Writing and several Sciences: He is thought moreover to have first divided the Zodiac into 12 Signs.

Hermesianus, an ancient Greek Elegiack Poet, who was honoured with a Statue after his Death.

Hermias, the chief Minister and Favourite of Antiochus the Great K. of Syria; but he Tyrannizing over the Nobility, was with his Wife and Children murdered.

Hermias, the chief of an Heretical Sect, who lived An. 17, and taught that God was Corporeal.

Hermias, a Christian Philosopher, who wrote a Book called, Trisio Philosophorum. He lived in the 2d Cent.

Hermine, a Neapolitan Order of Knighthood, it was instituted by K. Ferdinand, An. 1463. There was also another of the same Name instituted in Britaigne, An. 1365.

Hermi-

HER

Hermion, an ancient German King, who for his Courage and Bravery, was after his Death placed among the Gods.

Hermit, (Peter) a Frenchman born at Amiens; who betaking himself to a Religious Life, went on Pilgrimage to Jerusalem, where the miserable Condition of the Christians made so deep an Impression on him, that he resolved to stir up the Christian Princes to their Rebel; he accordingly prevailed on the Pope and several Princes to undertake the Holy War, particularly Gregory of Brindley, who finding Peter, although an Anchorite, to be courageous and wise, gave him the Command of a great Army against the Infidels. But he being unused to Arms, was overthrown by Sultan Solyman, near Acre. He was afterwards put into a more proper Post; for Gregory, taking Jerusalem, made him Vicar General.

Hermits, were at first such Christians who hid themselves in Deserts was Co-eternal with God; and other denied the Resurrection of the Dead.

HER

Hermolani, a learned Italian, published Pliny's Natural History.

Hermion, the Son of King Cleomenes, forsook his Country for fear of the Athenians, pretending that he to save his Country from ruin, which occasioned the saying, exum Hermionum.

Hermion, an high Mountain in Palestine, where the Tribe of Manasse dwelt. There is a Cave in it which will hold 4000 Men.

Hermotimus, a Native of Carthage, who pretended to foretell what should come to pass.

Hermunduri, the ancient Inhabitants of one Part of Austria, of the Franks of the Upper Franconia, or of Voigtland in Germany.

Hernandez, a Spanish Physician, who published a Treatise of Medicinals, which America produced. He was Physician to King Philip II.

HER

vinces to his Government. He married Marianne, the Daughter of Alexander, and one of the most beautiful Ladies in the World. He was a Prince of most refined Parts and Politicks, yet so cruel wishal, that he caused his beloved Marianne, and all her nearest Relations to be put to death; as also most of his best Friends, and several of his own Sons; which made Augustus say, That it was better to be Herod's King, than his Son. He slew moreover all that he could find of the Idumean Race; but the most barbarous Act of his Reign, was his murdering all the Children under two Years old, when the Saviour of the World was born. He survived not long these innocent Babes; for in the first or third Year of Christ, he died of a most tormenting, raging and loathsome Distemper, in the seventy first Year of his Age. He erected several magnificent Buildings in honour to Augustus, particularly a Temple in Tyachenitis, a huge Colossus, a Town called Cesarea, a Theatre, and Amphitheatre.

Herod, the Son of Herod the Great, succeeded his Father in the Government of Galilee, and was the same, to whom Jesus Christ was sent by Pilate, and that had before cut off the Head of John the Baptist. He rebelled against Caligula, and was therefore banished to Lyns, where he and his Wife Herodias died in a miserable Condition.

Herod, King of Chalcis, was made by Claudius the Emp. Superintendent of the Jewish Temple, and of their sacred Treasure, with the disposal of the Office of the High-Priest.

Herodes, a famous Athenian Orator, who lived in the 2d Cent.

Herodian, a great Historian and Grammarian. He liv'd in the 3d

HER

Cent. and was for the most part at Rome, where he first brought up the Ceremonies of the Apotheosis of the Roman Emperors.

Herodians, a Jewish Sect, who held that Herod the Great, was the Messias, by reason the Scepter was then departed from Judah.

Herodium, the Name of a magnificent strong and beautiful Castle, built by Herod the Great.

Herodorus, a Man of little Stature, yet of so prodigious an Appetite, that he would devour at one Meal, 20 pound Weight of Beef, 6 Hampers of Bread, and 2 Gallons of Wine.

Herodotus, the supposed Author of Homer's Life. However he was so great an Historian, as to be stiled by Cicero the Father of History, and the Prince of Historians. He lived about 450 Years before the Birth of Christ. There is a Translation of this Author's Works, now in the Press, done by the ingenious Doctor Drake, with Notes.

Heroe, a Name formerly given to Men, who had been famous for their great and virtuous Actions; and who were therefore after their Death honoured with Divine Adorations, being esteemed as Demigods.

Herophilus, a Roman Impostor, who pretended himself to be the Grandson of Caius Marius; but being discovered was banished the City. There was also a Physician of that Name, who lived in the 7th Cent. and grounded the Difference of Diseases, on the Rules of Music. He was said to have dissected 600 human Bodies.

Herrera, a famous Historian, whom Philip II. King of Spain made Historiographer to the Indies, and Secretary of State. He wrote the History of the Indies, in four large Vols.

H E S

Herfeld, a German Town on the River Wefer in Westphalia, remarkable for being once the Winter-quarters of Charlemagne.

Herta, a German Goddess, worshipped formerly in the Middle of a thick Wood, in the Isle of Rugen; some are of Opinion, that it was the Earth, which the Germans adored under the Name Hertsa, whence the word Earth, and that Stonehenge in Salisbury Plain, was a Temple dedicated to her, that the Sacrifices were commonly offered in the Night, and that from hence comes the English Custom of reckoning by the Night, as Seven-night, and Fortnight.

Heruli, some of the ancient barbarous Germans, who inhabited the Country of Ateckelbourg, near the Baltick; part of whom, together with the Gots, entered Italy in the 5th Cent. Another part went towards the Danube, and were very serviceable to the Emperour Zusti-

H E S

He was banished four times for his Opinions, and was Author of several Treatises, all to be seen in Bayle.

Hesiod, was born in Boeotia, brought up a Shepherd, but afterward a famous Greek Poet; he wrote several Poems. The time of his living is very uncertain; some say, that he was contemporary with Homer, some before, and some say he lived after him.

Hesper, or Hesperus, the younger Son of Atlas, and Jupiter's youngest Daughter called the Hesperides, an Orchard guarded by a Dragon, which bore golden Apples; was robbed by Hercules after he had slain the Dragon. He was changed into a Star, which in the Evening is called Lucifer, and in the Morning Vesper in the Evening; what we now call Venus.

Hesperia, an ancient Name of Italy, so called from Hesper, said to have lived there. Th

H E X

Hexianus, a Tyrant who governed at Miletum, which was at last taken by the Greeks, and himself killed.

Hexus, a God whom the ancient Gauls worshipped, and sacrificed to, that they might have Success against their Enemies.

Hexychius, an Egyptian Bishop, who was at last martyred. Also a Patriarch of Jerusalem, who died in the beginning of the VIIth Cent. and was thought to have written an Exposition of Exodus in seven Books. Moreover, the Name of a famous Greek Grammarian.

Heteroscians, are the Inhabitants of the temperate Zone, and are so called, for that their Meridian Shadow tend towards the Northern or Southern Pole, according as they dwell.

Hextrivia, an old Name for Tuscany.

Hevelius, (John) a very great Astrologer. He was a Burgo-master of Dantzick, and had for fifty Years studied and made Observations on the Stars. He first found out, that there was a kind of Libration in the Motion of the Moon, and to him is owing the Discovery of several Stars, which he named Sobieski's Firmament, in honour to John Sobieski, King of Poland. He died at seventy six Years of Age, An. 1688.

Heurnius, (John) a very eminent Physician in the Low-Countries. He wrote several learned Treatises in Physick, and was Professor at Leyden. He lived about the latter End of the 16th Cent.

Herwit, (John) Doctor of Divinity, was beheaded by Oliver Cromwell for his Loyalty to King Charles the First.

Hexam, a Town in Northumberland; it stands upon the River Tyne, hath a good Market, and was formerly a Bishop's See, which last was by Act of Parliament transferred to Durham, in the Reign of Henry VIII.

H I C

Hexamili, the Name of the 1-sthmus of Corinth, so called from its being 6 m. over.

Hexapla, a Book wherein the Hebrew Text of the Old Testament is writ, in Hebrew and Greek Characters, with the several Translations of Theodotion, Aquila, Symmachus, and the Septuagint in six different Columns.

Heylin, (Peter) Doctor of Divinity, was a Man of great Understanding, Judgment and Learning, and that not only in Divinity, but in Geography, and History; witness his several Books on those Subjects. He was Sub-dean of Westminster, and died An. 1662.

Hhahis, a long Street in Cairo, which runs through the whole City to the Banks of the Nile in Egypt. The Citizens, as soon as the River begins to overflow, make a Wall at the End of that Street to keep it out, till it be about fifteen Foot high, which falling out in August, they then cut it with all the Ceremonies and Demonstrations of Joy imaginable.

Hharib, a Mahometan Curate, who is in the Nature of our Vicars or Rectors.

Hiumuen, a fortified Town in China; it stands in the Province of Fukien, and is the Place from whence most of the Chinese Merchandizes, are sent to the Indies.

Hjarnus, a Danish King, who reigned about the Time of our Saviour's Birth. He was elected King for his Wit, but at last deposed and murdered.

Hicetas, an ancient Philosopher, who held that the Earth moved.

H I G

Hierapolis, a City in the Greater Phrygia, formerly the See of an Archbishop. Also the Name of a City which was an Archbishop's See in Syria, and famous for the Syrian Goddess therein worshipped.

Hierarchy, a Book which divides the Angels into three Hierarchies, and every Hierarchy into three Orders.

Hierax, an Egyptian Heretick, who by a pretended Sanctity deluded many. He lived about the End of the III^d Cent.

Hiero, the Name of two Syracusan Kings.

Hiero-Cæsarea, a Town in the Lesser Asia, so called, in honour to Cæsar.

Hierocles, a Disciple of Libanius, that was accused and tortured under the Empire of Valens, and at last led to Execution; but through the Intercession of the People was

H I L

ket, and sends one Member to the Parliament, who is at present Thomas Pemberton, Esq;

Hightate, a Sea-port Town on the North-side of the River Der.

Hilaria, were Roman feasts which were celebrated in honour of the Mother of their Gods, with extraordinary Rejoycings and Mirth.

Hilary, (St.) who opposed the Arians. He was born at Poitiers in France, and died Ann 395. He wrote several Books, which are greatly esteemed by the French. There was also another St. Hilary who was born at Sardina. He went Legate to the Second Council at Ephesus, to oppose the Eutychians, and was afterward, elected to the Popedom Anno 461. There was moreover a third Hilary, who was Deacon of the Church at Rome, about the Middle of the 4th Cent. He most vigorously resisted the Arian Heresy, but fell in 1832.

H I P

Hildersheim, a great and strong town in the Lower Saxony in Germany; it is a Bishop's See, and lies upon the River Innerste, at seven Leagues from Zell. The top of it is the only Roman Catholic B. in all Saxony; his Diocese is for the most part of the same region.

Hill, (Sir Roger) Knight, lives at Ham in Buckinghamshire. He descends in a direct Line from Sir John Hill, Knight of Hunston in Wiltshire, and is the 14th in descent from him.

Hillala, one of the 3 Arabian Families, who making up in all about 600 Men, settled in Africa, An. 999.

Hillels, the Name of several Eminent Jews.

Hincmar, a very learned Divine, was made Archbishop of Reims in France, An. 845. He highly defended the Rights of the Gallick Church against the Pope; even to the defying, imprisoning, and putting out the Eyes of his own Nephew incmar, who was Bishop of Leun.

Hingham, a Market Town in the County of Norfolk, called by its neighbourhood Little London.

Hingham, (Sir Oliver) was by Edward III. King of England, made Governour of Aquitain; where he showed himself with that Courage and Bravery, that he was by the said King made a Knight of the Order: He lies buried at Hingham. There was also an Eminent English Lawyer of the same Name, who died about the latter End of the 14th Cent. and wrote several books.

Hinghoa, a Chinese City, which stands in the Province of Fokien; is large; and full of Noble Buildings.

Hipathia, or Hypathia, a Woman who lived in the 5th Cent. and went beyond all the great Men of her Time, in Virtue and Learning.

H I P

Hipattus, or Hypatius, one of the best Soldiers of his Time, but put to death by the Emperour Justinian, for aspiring to the Empire.

Hiperius, (Andrew Gerard) a famous Protestant Minister, who died in 1564. He was Author of divers Books, part of which were published after his Death by his Son.

Hipparchia, a very learned Woman, and the Wife of Crates the Philosopher.

Hipparchus, lived in the Reign of Ptolemy King of Aegypt, and was one of the learnedest Mathematicians of his Time. Also the Name of the Son of Pisistratus an Athenian Tyrant, who was likewise very learned.

Hippatus, a Brotian, Prince of Orchomene, that was devoured by his Mother Leucippe; who, together with the other Women of that Province, are said to have been seized with such a Fury, and insatiable Desire of humane Flesh, that they could not be satisfied. To put a stop to which, Plays were instituted to the Honour of Bacchus, in which they might pursue and kill them with Swords.

Hippa, a Town in the Kingdom of Algiers in Africa, of which St. Austlin was Bishop.

Hippocrates, a most Eminent Physician, born about the 294th Year of Rome, in the Island of Cos, in the Archipelago. He grounded his Precepts upon Aesculapius; was by some styled the Prince of Physicians, by others honoured as a God, and his Works are greatly esteemed in most Parts of Europe. There was another of the same Name, who was a famous Mathematician.

Hippocræne, a Fountain of Bœotia, near Hellœn, dedicated to the nine Muses,

H I P

Mules, which is said to owe its original to a Stroke of the Hoof of Pegasus.

Hippodamia, a most beautiful Princess, and Daughter to Oenomaus King of Pisa. Her Father understanding by the Oracle, that his Son-in-Law should cause his death, decreed that whoever desired his Daughter in Marriage, should first overcome him in a Chariot-race, or be killed. So beautiful was this young Princess, that slighting the Danger, thirteen Suitors had already enter'd the Lists, and given their Life a Sacrifice to their Love. But at last Pelops Son of Tantalus, perceiving the invincible Swiftness of the Kings Horses, (for they were said to be born of the Winds) prevail'd with Mytilus his Coach-man, not to put a Lock to the Axle-tree, whereby the Wheel broke, and the King falling was mortally wounded, having only time enough to curse

Mytilus, and recommend the Race

H I S

of that sort of Lambick called Scorans. He is said to have been so keen a Satyr against Thermus and Bupalus, two Artists for drawing his Picture in Antick-manner, and exposing to publick View, that they both and hang'd themselves.

Hippodotes, a swift sort of people towards the Scythian Sea.

Hiram, a King of Tyre, who lived with King David, and King Salomon. Also the Name of an ancient Architect, and Carver.

Hirpians, certain Italian Tribes, exempted by the Ancient Romans, from the Wars and Taxes.

Hirpina, the ancient Name of that Neapolitan Province, in Benevento is situated.

Hirtius, (Anlus) a Roman Consul, who was the supposed Author of the eighth Book of Julius Caesar's Commentaries.

Hissam, a most prodigal and

H O C

Hysria or Istria, an Italian Country, which has Fiume on the N. and the Adriatick Sea on the E. W. and S. Its air is unwholsom, and its Country barren, unleſs in ſome Materials for Shipping and Building, with which it furniſheth the Venetians, who have been Maſters of moſt part of it, ever ſince the Year 1150. The moſt Northern Part of it is under the Emp.

Hythe or Hythe, a Borough, one of the Cinque-Ports. and a T. Corporate in Kent; It hath a Market, and ſends 2 Members to the Parliament, who are at preſent St. Ph. Boteler, Bar. and J. Boteler, Eſq.

Himworth, or Highworth, a m. T. in the County of Wiltſ.

Huangt, a Chinese Emp. who reign'd 100. Years.

Hobbes (Thomas) a Man of great Wit, Parts and Learning. He became one of the moſt eminent of our Modern Philoſophers, but in-constant in his Doctrines; for he would ſometimes be an Ariſtotelian, as well as a good Diſciple of Epicurus. He affected odd Opinions both in Religion, and Politicks; concerning which, He put forth ſeveral Treatiſes; but the moſt remarkable was His Leviathan whereby He became as well Famous abroad as at home. He was born at Malmesbury in Wiltſhire, and bred at Magdalen-Hall in Oxford. Charles II. K. of England, was ſo Pleaſed with his facetious converſation, that he allow'd him 100l. per Annum, during his Life, which ended An. 1679, in the 91ſt Year of his Age.

Husein, the eldeſt Son of Mahomet's Nephew Ali, and, together with his Brother Huſſein, believed by the Persians to be the true ſucceſſor of Mahomet; and not Abubekir, as is affirm'd by the Turks.

Hoch-Strat (James) He was Inquiſitor in 3 Cath. Elektorates, however was like to have loſt his Office and Life by his violent Proceedings. He was one of the firſt that wrote againſt Luther and Eraſmus. He was Author of divers Books. He had a bloody Epitaph made upon him.

H O G

Hockeria a large Prov. in Pruffia, under the Elektor of Brandenburgh.

Hocota, a moſt victorious Cham of Tartary; for, having Paſſed the Caspian Streights, he Conquered all the Countries about Mount Taurus; and afterwards went to the E. Indies, where he built Cambalu, and made it his uſual Reſidence.

Hocſemius (John) a learned Canon of Liege, who wrote ſeveral Books: he liv'd in the XIVth Cen.

Hoden a T. in the Deſerts of Libya, convenient for the reſreſhment of Merchants.

Hoe (Matthias) a famous Lutheran Miniſter of Vienna; he wrote a great many Books both in Latine and High-Dutch.

Hoeſelin (Jeremy) Greek Profeſſor at Leiden. He tranſlated Apollonius Rhodius &c. He died in 1641.

Hoeneurt, a Biſhop's See in the Low Countries, remarkable for the overthrow of the Pierreb, Ann 1642.

Hoentwiel, a Fortreſs in Schwaben, in Germany. It belongs to the D. of Wirtemberg, and is very Strong, as it appears by its holding out 7 or 8 Sieges againſt the Imperialiſts; who in the Siege, in 1641. Spent a whole Summer, without taking it.

Hoeſchelius (David) of Ausbourg, to whom the Publick is indebted, for the Editions of many ancient Greek Authors.

Hoffman (Daniel) Head of a Faction againſt the Ubiquity of our Saviour. He wrote againſt Beza, and was Author of divers other works. He lived in the XVII. Cen.

Hoffman (James) Author of the Universal Hiſtor. Geogr. Chron. Port. Lexicon, to which Mr. Moran has been not a little beholdling.

Hogmagog-Hills, a Ridge of Hills, near Cambridge, on the top of which was thought to have been a Daniſh Camp.

Hogue, or (la Hogue) a Seaport in Normandy, remarkable for the Engliſh burning

H O L

ing the French Admiral, and several of their First Rate Men of War An. 1692. and this in Sight of their Army, after their Fleet had been defeated by Admiral Ruffel.

H. us, (Andrew) a Learned Minister who liv'd in the XVth Cent. He wrote an History of the World to the Birth of Jesus Christ, besides many other Books.

Holben a most famous Painter about the middle of the XVth Cent. He acquired his chief Reputation by that incomparable Piece of Deaths Dance, in the Town Hall of Basle in Switzerland, the Place of his Nativty. He afterwards came to England, where he was mightily esteem'd, especially by Henry VIII. whose Picture, together with his Queen, he drew in White Hill, and it was counted a very extraordinary Piece. He played with his left Hand.

Holborn, a Castle in the County of Northampton, where R. Charles I. suffered 4 Months Imprisonment, A. 1647.

H O L

They are very Powerful abroad, especially in the E. Indies, where they are Possessors of the Isle of Java, where in 1692, and of several other large I. and Territories, as Carmandet, Amboyna, from whence come great Quantities of Cloves, Banda Island, where Nutmegs grow, Tenggara, a Malacca Island, Celebes, Malacca and Columbo and many others. Their Taxes are very heavy, and it is computed, that each Dutch of Moat comes to their Table, but Pays the Excise 20 times over. The Governor or Stadtholder of Holland is General of the Army, Lord High Admiral, and chief Justice. He disposes of all Military Places, and has Right to choose most of the chief Magistrates in Holland, Zeland, and Overijssel. His allowance is in the Year is 10000 Livers a Month, and 2000 more when with the Army, besides 10000 for secret Services. This Prov. was formerly call'd, Batavia, and was An. 863. given by Charles the Bald to Thierry, with the Title of

H O L

Daughters of the late D. of Newcastle, and is descended from Sir William Hilles, Lord Mayor of London, Anno 1540.

Hilles, (Denzil) second Son to John Hilles, the first Earl of Clare, and Brother to Gilbert, the Father of the D. of Newcastle. He was a great Instrument in the Restoration of R. Charles II. by whom he was made a Baron of England, and employed in several Weighty Affairs, both at home and abroad. He left one Son, who Dying without Issue, his Estate came to the present D. of Newcastle.

Holobolus, a Greek Divine; who when but a Student was imprisoned, and had his lips bound for declaiming against the Emp. Michael Paleologus, but was afterwards restor'd to the Emp. Favur, and made his Chaplain.

Holstein, a Country of great extent in the Lower Saxony in Germany, which is bounded on the N. by the D. of Sleswick. On the W. with the German Ocean, on the S. with the R. Elbe, which divides it from the D. of Bremen and Lunenburgh, and on the E. with the Baltick Sea. It is divided into 4 Parts, viz. Holstein, especially so call'd, Stermaren, Ditmarsen and Waghen; all which partly belongs to the K. of Denmark, and partly to the D. of Holstein. The Principal Towns in it are Lubeck, and Hamborough, which are Imperial and Free; besides which, there are Kiel, Rensburg, Lunden, Kronspend and Gluckstadt; and its Chief Trade is in Hops and Fish. There are several Branches of the Holstein Fam. but the chief is that of Holstein Sleswick, or Gottorp. The first D. of Holstein, was Adolph born An. 1526. and Brother to Christiern III. K. of Denmark.

Holstinus (Lucas) a learned Italian, and a great Linguist. He was the Popes Library-Keeper at Rome, where he Died An. 1601.

Holy Cross, a T. in Ireland so called from a Piece of the Cross pretended to be there, which was lately first restor'd to by Pilgrim.

H O M

Holy Ghost, a French Order of Knighthood, instituted by R. Henry III. An. 1578. in memory of his Election to the Crown of Poland, his coming to the Crown of France, and his Nativity; all which happen'd on the same Day; viz. Whitsunday. The Knights wear a Collar made of golden Flower de Luce's, corner'd with Flames, of Fire, and interwoven with the Letter H, and several other Letters, and from the Collar, hangs a Dove in the midst of a Cross, like that of Malta, beset with Rays, and Flower de Luce's. Their number is Limited to 100, of which the K. is always chief.

Holy-Head, a Sea-Port in the Isle of Anglesey, and the usual Station for the Irish Packer.

Holy Island, is a Place near the Coast of Northumberland, which is an Island, at highwater. It was formerly called Lindesfarne, and had a B. See, which was An. 990. translated to Durham; And it obtained the name of Holy, from the Religious and Vertuous lives of its B. Clergy, and other Inhabitants.

Holyak (Francis) a learned Divine, who was Author of a very good Latine Dictionary, which his Son enlarged. He died An. 1652.

Humar or Omar, a Relation of Alabamers; whose Expulsion of the Alcoran is followed by the Turks, who wear white Turbans, in opposition to the Possims, who believe Ali's Interpretation, and wear Red.

Humburg, a T. of Hesse, remarkable for a Dispute, An. 1525. between This of the Reformed Religion, and the Roman Catholics; wherein the Latter being overcome, were abolish'd.

Humeres (John) The Great Master of St. John of Jerusalem, when R. Henry VIII. Suppress'd the Order in England.

Homer so call'd from his Blindness; was the most famous of all the Greek Poets, but Poor to the Extremity of beggary; However his Iliads and Odyses got him so deserved a Reputation.

H O N

sion, that 7 Cities contended for his birth.

Hommes d' intelligence (Men of understanding) the Name of an Heretical Sect in Picardy, in France, A. 1412. They held that Carnal Pleasures, being natural Actions, were no sin, but some Foretastes of Heaven.

Hommus, (Festus) a learned Divine, and Secretary to the Dort-Synod, An. 1618.

Honan, a Chinese Prov. thought by its Inhabitants to be the Center of the World.

Honestus (Peter) a Divine of great Piety and understanding; who lived about the latter end of the 11th Cent. and put forth several learned Treatises. He was made a Cardinal, and B. of Ostia.

Honiton, a Borough and m. T. in Devonshire. It sends 2 Members to the Parliament who now are Sir William Drake, Knt. and Bar. and Sir Walter Young Bar.

Honoratus. a learned A. of Arles.

H O P

Honor, a Roman Divinity, commonly joyn'd with Virtue, neither could any man get into the Temple at the former, but by Passing first through that of the latter.

Hood (Robin) a famous Highway man in the time of R. Richard I. his chief Haunts were in Sherwood-Forest, in the County of Nottingham, and in a Bay commonly called by his name in the N. Riding of Yorkshire. He had 100 Fellows in his Gang, and chiefly robb'd the Rich only.

Hooker (Richard) Author of the Ecclesiastical Policy, a learned Book which fully clears the English Liturgy from the Objections of the Nonconformists. He was Master of the Temple, and died An. 1599.

Hoyer (John) was born in Somersetshire, and bred in Oxford. He embraced the Reform'd Religion, and was by R. Edward VI. made B. of Gloucester. But Queen Mary coming to the Crown, he was burnt for refusing to abjure the Protestant Faith. He was man Captain; who alone resisting the whole Army of Parinna at the Tyber, till the bridge was broken down betwixt him, at length Hung him self into the R. and escaped into the C. where a Statue was erected for him.

H O R

Horace (Quintus Placcus) an admirable Lyric Poet; who for his great Wit and Learning was most deservedly esteemed by the Emp. Augustus, and his Favourite Mecenas.

Horatii, three Roman Brothers, who in the Reign of Tullus Hostilius, encounter'd the Three Curiatii; the two first of the former being slain, the last alone kill'd the three Curiatii.

Hordales, feasts among the Romans, which might be celebrated on an unlucky Day.

Horeb, a Mountain in Arabia Petrea. Near This, Moses received the Command from the Angel in the Burning Bush; and here Elijah heard the Still Small voice. There are upon it several Chapels, Cells and fruitful Gardens, Possessed by Latin and Greek Monks.

Horizon, is a Circle comprehending all that Space of Earth which is visible, and distinguishing it from that which lieth under, and is invisible. And it is either Sensible or Rational. The first divides the Terrestrial Globe into 2 equal Parts. The last is what bounds our Sight in an open Country.

Hormisdas, an Italian, was chosen Pope An. 514. He condemn'd the Eutichian Heretic, banish'd the Manichees, and burnt their Books.

Hormisdas, the Son of Chosroes the Great, K. of Persia, but deposed by Varanes his General, and beat to Death by his Son Chosroes II. who was crown'd in his Stead.

Hornbeck (John) Divinity Professor at Utrecht, wrote abundance of Books and died in 1666.

Hornby a m. T. in Lancashire. Its Castle was the Seat of the Lord Murley, and Mounteagle for some time.

Horne, a strong, but small C. in N.

H O S

Holland. It stands upon the Zuyder-Sea about 6. L. from Amsterdam, and was once Imperial and Free.

Horologion, a Book wherein the services of the Greek are written, and is to them instead of a Common Prayer Book.

Horemios, an Eminent Mathematician, who foretold a Position of the Planet Venus, of which he wrote a Book call'd, Venus, in Sole visa.

Horsham, a m. T. in Sussex, which sends two Members to the Parliament, who are at present Hen. Cooper Esq. and John Wicker, Gent.

Horta, a Roman Divinity who is said to have inclined Men to Virtuous Actions.

Hortensius, (Quintus) an eminent Orator at Rome, Contemporary with Cicero, and like him endued with a very graceful and Perswasive way of speaking. His daughter Hortensia also, was fam'd for her Eloquence, Particularly in the Roman Matrons cause which she Pleaded so well, that half of their Tax was remitted.

Hortensius (Quintus) Son of the former, and Proconsul of Macedon after Cesar's Death. He was taken at the Battle of Philippi, and Massacred by Mark Anthony on his Father's Tomb.

Hortensius (John) or des Jardins, was Philician to Francis I. of France. Tho' he printed nothing himself, yet he has been greatly commended by many Authors in Print.

Hortensius (Lambert) a learned Divine of Utrecht. He was a great Linguist, and has turned Aristophanes's Plutus into Latin verse. He was Author of divers other Books.

Hortensius (Martin) a Dutch Mathematician and Astronomer; a great Crony of Gassendus, and Author of divers Tracts in those Sciences.

Hosanna, a word used by the Jews in all their Prayers, and is by interpretation, Save now, or Save I Pray.

Hosea, the first of the Minor Prophets. He lived in the Days of Isaiah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah Hosea

nian, Moldavian and Walachian Princes.
Hospitallers, See Malta.

Hofstadius, a most valiant Italian, who was the first that entered Pavia, when taken by the French An. 1527. He was rewarded with a Crown of massy Gold, which he Hanged in the Church of Ravenna, the Place of his Birth.

Hutman (Francis) an eminent Lawyer in France. He wrote several Books, and died An. 1591.

Hottinger (John Henry) Professor of the Oriental Languages at Leyden. He Published several learned Treatises, and his Conversation was very much covered by all the great men of his time. He was drown'd An. 1667.

Houarnes, a Mahometan Sect who wander about in Tents in Arabia. They Perform their Devotions in a Dark Place, and coup'e afterwards with the first Woman they meet.

Hveden, (Roger) an ancient English Historian, who wrote the History of England, from the end of Bede's History, to the 4th of R. John.

Hour the 24th Part of the Civil Day, according to the Division of the Equinoxi. I. Circle.

Stafford, Francis Earl of Stafford, Lord Howard of Effingham, the Charles Howard, the Howard of Eversley. See the ancient Name to which signifies the a Castle or Trust; several of them have been in defending their Country Sea and land: Patrick Howard Earl of Surrey Reign of R. Henry VII Scots in Flodden Field James IV. Prisoner; Lord Howard, of Effingham Lord High Admiral who threw and destroyed the do, which had been threatened. There have been a Noble Family of great England; viz Henry and Patrick the first was by R. James Seal, Lord Warden of France, and Earl of Arundel wrote a B. Book, called against the power of Spain. The other was Earl of Surrey, and a most learned Antiquary. There is moreover a Queen of France

H U G

(Peter) a Frenchman, Em'd great Memory. He studied so hardly ever forgot any thing. An. 1660.

(St) son of Bertrand D. of was so great a Lover of that he would often neglect Service for the Sake of that; But a Sap, with a Crucifix his Horns, appearing to him, warning him for his wicked became a most Pious Convert, in a little Time made B. of; from whence he removed to the then small T. of Leige, one of the most considerable in the Lower Germany. He . 725. and was removed 100 yer his Death to St Benedic's y, in the Forest of Ardenne.

de Burgo, a Lord chief Justice and, and remarkable for his valence of Dover-Castle against John of France, in the Reign of his Bay an Arm of the Sea in f America; discovered by one ndson, an Englishman, An. 1912. a T. in Aragon, famed for il he'd there An. 398.

de Bilb'm, Founder of Peter-ollege in Cambridge, which was built College in England, he of Ely 28 Years, and died 6.

Capet, The head of the Third the Ks of France. He was Son the great, and was by the Male-scended from Peppin the Great, the Female from Clouis. He 397 and was for his Piety called ader of the Church. His Father s D. of France, Burgundy and; He was called the Abber, the and the Great; And was a f Great Courage, Power and

K. of Arles and Italy, Earl urquis of Provence. He was l of his K. for il. Government, d An. 940. There was also

H U M

Hugh, A. of Lyon, who was the most Illustrious Prelate of his Time. He died An. 1106. and had been President of 8 Councils in different Places. There was likewise Hugh, a Regular Canon of St Austin; who for his Learning and Parts was stild a 2d. Austin. He wrote several Treatises, and died An. 1139.

Huguenots, a Name given to French Protestants, either from Hugo's Gate, in the C. of Tours, where they used to meet, or from K. Hugh's Ghost which was believed to appear every Night in that T. by reason of their Nocturnal Meetings.

Hugues (William) a Learned French Divine, who was employed by Henry IV. K. of France in several Embassies; Particularly to James I. K. of England, about the Match between Prince Charles and the Princess Henrietta. He was A. of Ambrun, and died 1648. There was Hugues de St. Cler. a Cardinal, who lived in the XIIIth Cen; and was in great Repute for his Bible, Concordance and Exposition.

Hull is a Corporation, Borough and m. T. in the E. Riding of Yorkshire; and is so call'd from the R. Hull on which it is situated. It is also called Kingston upon Hull, from K. Edward I. who built it. The T. is large, strong and flourishing; it sends 2 Members to the Parliament, who now are Sir William St. Quintin, Bar. and William Maister Esq; It gives the Title of an Earl to the Present Right Honourable Evelyn Pierpont.

Hulst, a strong T. in the Low-Countries, under the Dutch.

Humber, a great R. which divides Yorkshire from Lincolnshire.

Humbert I. Dauphin of Viennois, a Prov. of France. He was a Prince of great Courage, and died An. 1307.

Humbert II. Dauphin of Viennois, gave his Country An. 1349. to Philip of Valois, on Condition that the eldest Sons of the K. of France should for ever after be called Dauphins. This Number bert afterwards turned Priest and became Patriarch of Alexandria, and Prior of the Dominicans at Paris.

H U N

Humbert I. Son of Bernold of Saxony, was about the Year 1025, by the Emp. Conrade II, made Earl of Maurienne in Switzerland, and first laid the Foundation of that D. Humbert II. Succeeded An. 1095. And Humbert III, who was the 2d. Earl of Switzerland, Succeeded his Father Medeus II An. 1154.

Humbert a learned Cardinal, who lived in the XIth Cen. and wrote several Books against the Greek Church.

Humbled a Religious Order, which being founded by some Milanese Gentlemen An. 1162. was abolished afterwards by Pope Pius V. An. 1570.

Hume a strong Castle in Scotland, which gives the Surname and Title of an Earl, to an ancient and Noble Family of that K.

Hunum, the 2d. Sea-Port in the K. of Tunisia, in Barbary, and much frequented by the Italians for Linen and Cotton.

Hunsfeldt a T. of Silesia in Germany.

H U N

Length about 300 M. and 190. Its Air is unhealthy, to strangers, but its Soil is fertile, and able to supply ripe almost with Corn, with Venison. It likewise abounds Fowls and Fish. It has Gold, Tin, Lead, Iron, and Copper Mines. Wines as good as those of France. It has some Mortificas Springs, others that change wood into and Iron into Mud. Here is Bath and mineral Waters. It likewise has Pestiferous Waters, suffocate the very Birds that eat them. The chief City of the country is Buda. The Inhabitants descended from the Serbs, speak most Languages, and are poor, but withal excessive Rich and Proud. They hate the Turks, but their Gentry court the Turks for Protection against the Turks, are more inclined to War Trade. Their Arms consist of Light-Horse (Hussars) and (Cuirassiers). Their Fortifications ungerford, a m. T. in Bathshire, remarkable only for its good Trout and Fish.

H U N

unides (John Corvinus) a most famous Hungarian General, and the best of his time. He reliev'd Buda, Seven Months Siege, and gain'd 3 Victories over the Turks; but he Battel of Verna, his King istius was Kill'd, and he routed; which he was chosen Governor is K. but in 1418. was vanquish'd; yet he rais'd the siege of Buda and died at Zemlen in the same. All Christendom lamented his death, and even Mahomet himself was concerned at it, as thinking no man now worth his Conquering.

unibaldus, an Author that Collected the History of the Franks and is from the Memoirs of the Emperors.

uningen, a Village on the Rhine, a little below Basle; where the French lately rais'd and fortified a strong Fort, which gives great Umbrage to England.

unius (Ægidius) a famous Doctor of the Confession of Ausburg, was a great Opposer of the Calvinists, and writ a Book against their doctrine, call'd Calvinus Judaizans. He was also Author of divers other Books, whose Titles may be seen in the Index.

unquanz, said to have been a K. of Sweden in 1644. and to have resisted the Danes, till he was taken and Strangled at Pekin.

unus, a People who came from the West of Mexico to inhabit Panama, when defeated by the Spaniards. Cortez returned thither, and defeated them till they were outdone by the Hongues. They were killed continually on Horse-back, and did great Disturbance to their Neighbours on all sides. They had not the knowledge of Letters.

unelisse a Place in Yorkshire, remarkable for the Humour of the Sea-

H U R

Calves, which sunning themselves upon the Rocks, at the Approach of any Man, have notice given by one of them to retire unto the Water. They have been frequently taken by Men in Womens Cloaths, which Sex it seems they are not Afraid of: this Place is also noted for many Bituminous Stones and Marchasites.

Huntington Cap. of the Shire of that Name. It lies on the Ouse, and was formerly much larger than at present. It has still a good Inland Trade. It is an Earldom, and has afforded divers K. and Princes to Scotland. The present Earl is the Lord Geo. Hastings, and its present Members of Parliament are the Hon. Charles Boyle Esq; and Anthony Hammond Esq;

Huntingtonshire, a County in England of small Extent, bounded on the N. by the Avon, on the W. by Northamptonshire, on the S. by Bedfordshire, and on the E. by Cambridgeshire. It is part of the Diocese of Lincoln, was formerly a Woody Flat Country, but was disforested by Henry II. It had its Name from Hunting, it is proper for. It is Marshy towards the N. E. It abounds with Corn and Grass. The Regular Clergy had near a 4th part of it. Kimballin Castle belongs to the Earl of Manchester, and Hinchinbrook to the Earl of Sandwich. It has 2 Springs near Halewellston, whereof the sweet one cures Dimness, and the Brackish one Leprosie. Its Knights of the Shire at present are John Dryden Esq; and William Nailer Esq;

Huntly-Nabb, a Place in Yorkshire, on the Sea, very Rocky, where are found round Stones like Canon-Balls; having within them Stones like Serpents, without Head, and cover'd with a Wreath.

Hu-quang, a Middle Prov. of China call'd the Granary of that Country, and abounding with Fish and Rice. It has 15 large T. and 180 C.

Hurlers, 17 great Stones in Cornwall, 1000 distance asunder, which are said to be Men so Metamorphos'd, for Hurling (an Exercise peculiar to this Country) on the Sabbath-Day.

H Y A

Hurons, Natives of New France (part of Canada) now Civilized, but still mightily given to steal, and that with their Feet as well as Hands. They agree with the rest of Canada in their other Customs.

Hurtado (Thomas) a Spanish Minorite, and a Person well noted for his Writings. He died in 1659.

Hus (John) so Named from a small Borough in Bohemia. He was a great Stickler for the Opinions of the Wal-denfes, and of Wickliff, in 1407. He defended his Doctrine before the Council of Constance, and tho' he had a Pasport from the Emp. Sigismund, was condemn'd by them, and Burnt in 1415. Thus Mweri indeavours to vindicate, but without Reason. Hus was Contemporary with Jerome of Prague, who also suffered for his Faith. From him sprung the Sect of the Hussites.

Hussem, a Shepherd, whom the Tur-

H Y D

sacrificed pro bono Publico in the Hyacinthus, whence they have Name.

Hyacinthus a Pr. in Peloponnesus being beloved by Apollis and and the former playing at Golf him, the latter blew his Golf Head and Kill'd him; when Apollis turn'd his Blood into a flower of that Name. The Hyacinthus dedicated certain Nights to him.

Hyades a Constellation of in the head of Taurus.

Hybla, an Italian Mountain for Honey.

Hybreas, a celebrated Carian, who greatly thwarted the Project of the Tyrant Euthydemus.

Hyde (Henry) ancient Earl of London, and eldest Son of the Earl Hyde who attended R. Charles in his Exile. He was first ferred by R. Charles, I. who took from the Middle Temple, and him Chancellor of the Exchequer and

H Y M

rd Treasurer to that Prince, who al-lent him Embassador to Poland, and de him Plenipotentiary at Nimeguen.

Hydra the many-headed Serpent ich Hercules killed in the Fens of ia in Peloponnesus.

Hydrusa, or Tenos, a Venetian Island in cece, which has a fountain whose ater will not mix with Wine.

Hymus a Rom. Divinity, that had a ck Sheep sacrific'd to her.

Hyginus a Philosopher of Athens and of Rome. He first consecrated urches, and Us'd God-fathers.

Hyginus a Noted Grammarian, whose orks are all lost but his Mythology.

Hylas Favourite of Hercules, who ving sent him to fetch some Water, was ravish'd by the Nymphs of that main where he had it. Hercules
ik a T. after his Name.

Hyllus Hercules's Son by Deianeira. married his Mother-in-law, for ich being banish'd, he went to his where he was assisted by esus. Returning to Peloponnesus, and ilenging those that oppos'd the radida, he was slain.

Hylobians, Indian Philosophers, so Na-ed by the Greeks from their great ve for, and Practice of, Obscure cesses.

Hymantes, Christian Penitents that merly did Pennance at the Church or in Hair Cloths.

Hymeneus, a Heretick, whom St. Paul ommunicated for maintaining the urrection was accomplish'd.

Hymeneus, Son of Bacchus, and the ed of Marriage. The Ancients figur'd n as a young Man with a Torch his Hand.

Hymetto, a Mountain near Athens,
the N. of which there is a Convent Coloyers (Greek Monks). Here they ke excellent Honey, by reason of the at quantity of Sweet Herbs there-outs, which the Bees suck it from.
is Convent is priviledg'd from Taxes ause the Abbot first presented
: Keys of Athens to Mahomet II.
1455.

H Y P

Hypata, Cap. of Thessaly, famous in History for the General Meeting of the Etolian States.

Hyperborean: Seas, Mountains and People were so Named by the Ancients from their not being able to discover their true Situation. By this Epithet we uow understand the N. Seas of Europe and Asia, the N. Mountains of Muscovy towards the Streights of Weygats and the Laplanners, under the Swedes Danes and Muscovites. The word Hyperboreus is made up of 2 Greek words which signifie beyond Boreas (the North Wind.)

Hyperides an Athenian Orator who being rack'd by Antipater bit his Tongue out, lest he should discover his Intrigues.

Hyperion Father of Apollon, or that God himself so nam'd from his Peram- bulation over the Earth. Diodorus says, he was Saturn's Brother, and first made Observations upon the Heavens.

Hypermnestra one of Danaus's daughters, who would not kill her Husband as her 49 Sisters had done; whereupon she was imprison'd, but afterwards restored to her Husband.

Hypostasis, a Greek word, much in Use among the Councils. It signifies first, the Existence of a thing confidered by way of Abstraction; and 2.
the same thing, which Subsists by it self,
by a sort of particular Existence.

Hypsistratea, Wife to K. Mithridates who had so entire a Love for her Husband, that she habited her self like a Man to accompany him in his Escape from Pompey.

Hypsicleon, of Miletum, who having married Neera, she was ravish'd from him, and upon his Demanding her, there follow'd a War between the Milesians, and the Naxians.

Hypsipile, Q. of Lemnos, who when the Women had kill'd all the Men, saved her Father Thoas, for which she was banished and was afterwards got with child by Jason.

Hypsitarians, Maintainers of an He-relie

High Priest of the Jews. His Brother-in-Law Ptolemy, having kill'd his Father, he besieged; but would not force him, because he had his Mother and Brothers Prisoners. He after falling into the Hands of Antigonus, he had his Eyes put to Death, that had Married his Marianne.

I

JAbjibites, a certain Heterodox Sect of Mahometans.

Jabesh Gilead, a T. in Palestine in the Prov. of Gilead, many of whose Inhabitants, were put to death for their Obstinacy; but at length being besieged by the Ammonites, and offer'd hard Conditions to lose their Right Eyes, they were delivered by the Israelites.

Jabin K. of Hazor, defeated by J. Joshua.

Jabin K. of Amam, whose General Sisera was routed by Barack.

Jabock a small R. which formerly divided the Tribes of Manasseh and Gad. It fall's into the R. Jordan at Salem.

Jacatra, vide Batavia.

Jacaya, a suppoled Son of Sultan Mahomet III. who underwent various Persecutions. The Story told of him is this. His Mother Lapara, fearing he would be sacrificed according to the where understanding the Father and Elder Brother, he retired himself to some place, and rebell'd against the new King his Younger Brother, who sought his said Brother, and being wounded, retired to Constantinople, where he went in a Persian Dress, he conspired against the Life; wherein however he was discovered, and escaped into the Polish Ambassadors hands, where demanded by a Prince, he was refused; however he was not safe, he retired to Matthias at Vienna; who refused him, yet would not admit of an Army. He therefore fled to D. of Tuscany, who gave him a Pension, and endeavoured

J A C

bus one of the God Barbur's in a famous Egyptian Physician
n. 3300, who cur'd Diseases by s and Spells; and was said to ut a stop to the Plague; wherehuse People erected a Temple, in they sacrificed to him upon ccasions.

son (Thomas) of Wiston in the Durham An. 1579. He was or of Corpus Christi College in , Chaplain in Ordinary to
I. Prebendary of Winchester, an of Peterborough. He was a gecholar and a good Linguist, and several Books, which were Pringether in 3 Vol. Fol. in the 1673.

sb (The Patriarch) said to be Vers'd in Astrology, which he his Children. The Birth right Ejan sold him is thought to have the Priesthood, which was at time exercised by the Eldest every Family.

sb, an Hungarian Sectary, who ed up a holy War for Recovery leftme, and the Revenging of wis K. of France, This he affiras most proper to be done by orer Sort, that God might the manifest his Power. Being on followed by a great num-Shepherds and Husbandmen, increased to 100000, he went h divers Provinces of France, length coming to Bourges, nhabitants thereof, influenced e Orders from Queen Blanche terminate these Fanatics, set them after they had divided e Shipping; and having kill'd Leader Jacob, put the rest to , where f several were after-Hang'd.

sb Bardeus, a Syrian. otherwise Zanzalus, Author of the Sect of cobites.

sb Ben-ba-jim, a famous Rabbi, who ed a Maforah or Critick on the

J A C

Bible, printed at Venice in 1625. and much esteemed by the Jews. More may be seen in the Preface of that Work.

Jacob Ben-Naphtali, a Celebrated
Rabbi, of the Vth Cen. who with Ben Affir is said to be Author of the Hebrew Points, usd for Vowels to make the reading of that Language easie. This is contradicted by some Learned Men.

Jacob Florent, an Augustine of the XVth Cen. who for affirming the Pope to have a Right to the K. of France's Temporalities, was condemn'd with the President of the Sorbonne.

Jacob Jan, an Armenian and Head of the K. of Persia's Joyners. This Person having learnt the Art of Printing in Europe, settled it for a while at Isfahan; but not knowing how to make good Ink, was at last fain to let it fall.

Jacob (Lewis) a Carmelite Frier Counsellor and Almoner to the present French K. He wrote several Books, and died at Paris in 1670.

Jacobins, vide Dominicans.

Jacobites Eastern Hereticks, seduced by Jacob Bardeus. They spread extreamly in Asia and Africa, in the VIth and VIIth Cen. They denied the Trinity, Circumcised their Children, and Baptized, by marking them with a red hot Iron in their Fore-heads, which Opinion they founded on the Words of St. John Baptist, in the 3d. Chap. of St. Matthew. The Residence of their African Patriarch is at Alexandria, who has all Egypt and Ethiopia under him; and that of the Asiatick Patriarch, is at Caramis in Mesopotamia, who has the Title of Antioch, tho' a Schismatical Græcian pretends to it. Mr. Simon say's, that all the Monophysites or those that acknowledge but one Nature in Christ, of the E-are comprehended under the Name of Jacobites, and that at present they consist of not above 40 or 45000 Fam-which chiefly Inhabit Syria and Mespotamia

J A B

refie in the IVth Cen. made up of Judasim and Pagansim.

Hircania a Prov. of Persia which formerly contained 600 M. in Length and 300 in Breadth, but is now parcell'd into lesser Parts. This Country is exceeding fertile, and yields abundance of Corn, Wine, Figs, and Honey. The first is raised by a Seed which falls from its Husk, and the last Flows from the Olive Trees.

Hircanus, a Nickname of High Priest of the Jews. His in-Law Ptolemy, having Ki-ther, he besieged; but force him, because he and Brothers Prisoner.

Jabir-bir a going into Hol-Pilones, and re-Husband; but in mens Cloaths,
the D. of Brabant's
one Boyelle, G-
Zealand, who was short'y Prisoner by the D. of Bar-whereupon she resign'd her

J A C

wards defended against Antiochus
Peace, accord-Persians.
the 14th
ated.

Jagello, vide Wladislaus V. &
Island.
Jagelloff, a cap. T. and District of the Ddom of Silesia. It stands at the R. Oppa, and belongs at Present to the Prince of Leuchtenstein, notwithstanding the Pretensions of the Elector of Brandenburg to it. Len. 37, co. 12 50, co.

Jago Cavellero, a T. in Hispania
in America, near which the Bay

was built the Span-Gallies of that Salad in 11th land reported it, & rebuilt it, and the Ship stock it in 1455, but been in the place
It is now subject to the dars, and has only some able Remains of its former
-randeur.

Jago Cavellero, a T. in Hispania
in America, near which the Bay

J A M

a C. of Nubia, built in an the Nile, being the lowest Nubian Boats can go, to reason of the Cataracts.
Merchandizes are carried the way by Land.

Empire of Nigritia is of Senega, whole
where the Emp.

resides. He enriches his Kingdoms. His W. 115 Ls.

succeeded his Son. He sign Merchants.

venues consist in Pre-resents: when his Subjects

bring him, they creep Naked, dust on their Heads. Brothers

Sisters inherit Estates before

men. The Religion is Mahome- danne the Majority have none at all.

It is general'y given to him that brings the greatest Presents. They eat Wine of Dates, and Bread of a kind of Millet. The Natives of the are perfect Black, but those of the only Tawny. The chiefest of are Husbandmen, Fishermen or Shepherds; few are Merchants or Warriors. They have several good modities. Their Arms are a Sci-ar, Bow and Arrows, and a Lance and Zigurr. They are excellent horse-men, and can ride full speed riding. They spend no time in being T. but general'y burn them.

even they lose their Royal Drum, and, they may be said to be entirely defeated.

Jamaica a Large Island in N. America in length 170 M. and in Breadth first discovered by Columbus, who gave it its Name, in Honour of St

James. It lies 140 Ls. N. of the Continent, and has a continued ridge of Hills

from E. to W. Its Savanah (Plains) never Ploughed, are now Pasture,

feed great number of Cows, Sheep, Hogs, &c. which run Wild in the Woods. The Air is indifferent

J A M

Temperate, and frequently cooled
by Breezes, Rain and Dew. The Winter differs only by somewhat more Rain and Thunder than Ordinary. The Days are equally 15 Hours long all the Year. Its chief T. are St. Jago and Port-Royal: the whole Island has 14 Parishes which are all well Peopled;
besides, it has above 4000 Privateers that ply continually round it. Its Products are Sugar, Coco-Nuts, Indico, Cotton, Tobacco, Tortoise-Shells,
Hides, Salt, Ginger, Pepper, Sarsaparilla,
Cassia-fistula, Vinella's, Aloes,
Benjamin, Cochineel &c. It has great Numbers of Af negroes, Mules, Goats, Hogs, Rabbits &c. but no Hares nor Deer. It has moreover Variety of excellent Fish, and abounds in Tame and Wild Fowl. Alligators are common here, and Kill a great many Cattel that come to Drink, but never set upon a Man. They breed by Eggs which are hatch'd in the Sand by the Sun, whence the Creature creeps out into the Water and Shifts for it self. Its fat is good against Pains and Aches. The Inhabitants are much Subject to Drop-sies, Calentures, Fevers and Agues.
The Laws conform much to those of England. The English got possession of the Island in 1655 by means of Pen and Venable who were sent by Cromwell, with 20000 Men to revenge him on Spain, for giving Refuge to Charles II. Port-Royal was destroyed in 1692 by a fearful Earthquake. The present Governor of this Island is Sir William Besson.

Jamblichus, a Platonick Philosopher of Chalcis in Syria of the IVth Cen. who wrote divers Books. There was also a Greek Author of this Name, a Native of Babylon who lived in the IIIrd Cen.
and pen'd two Treatises.

Jamboli, a Prov. of Macedonia, whose Cap. is Thessalonica.

James (Saint) Surnamed Major Son of Zedecher who and his Brother John were made Apostles by Christ, and called, Thunderers, i. e. Sons of Thunder.

J A F

polonia. They are of two Sorts ; one disownes the Church of Rome, and the other acknowledges it. of the latter there are now two Patriarchs in Asia, and a third of the Opinion of the Latins, who resides at Aleppo.

J. eveline, Countess of Hainault &c. sole daughter of William IV. of Bavaria, Earl of Hainault &c. born in 1401. She having married her first Cousin, the D. of Brabant, by a Dispensation, her Uncle, the B. of Liege, upon the Emp. Instigations, excepted against it, and war'd upon her, which made her to take Refuge in England ; where tho' her said Husband was yet alive, she married the D. of Gloucester, Henry Vth's Brother : then going into Holland, she was taken Prisoner, and restored to her former Husband ; but eloping soon after in mans Cloaths, and hearing of the D. of Brabant's Death she married one Borcelle, Governor of Zealand, who was shortly after taken Prisoner by the D. of Burgundy, whereupon she resign'd her a good Harbour, and has been for several remarkable Things mentioned in the Scriptures. It was destroyed by Judas Maccabeus by Titus, and next by the Saracens. It was re fortified by Gaius of Lion, and taken by Saladin in 1187. Richard I. of England repaired it, and Lewis of France rebuilt it, and the Sultan of Egypt retok it in 1268, when it has been in the hands of the Turk. It is now subject to the Bassa of Gaza, and has only some miserable Remains of its Grandeur.

J A I

Jagello ; vide Vladislaus V. Poland.

Jagendorff, a cap. T. and one of the Doms of Silesia. It stands on the R. Oppa, and belongs at present to the Prince of Lichtenstein, notwithstanding the Pretensions of the Elector of Brandenburg to it. Lon. 37, 50, 00.

Jago Cavellero, a T. in 1492 in America, near which the

J A M

Jalut, a C. of Nubia, built in an Island of the Nile, being the lowest that the Nubian Boats can go, to the N. by reason of the Cataracts; therefore the Merchandizes are carried the rest of the way by Land.

Jalofes, a People of Nigritia in Africa, in the Edom of Senega, whose chief T. is Tabicatum, where the Emp. call'd the Great Jalof, resides. He entitles himself to 13 or 14 Edoms. His Dominions are from E. to W. 115 Ls. and in breadth 60. He is succeeded by his Brethren before his Sons. He Taxes none but foreign Merchants. His greatest Revenues consist in Presents and Slaves: when his Subjects approach him, they creep Naked, with dust on their Heads. Brothers and Sisters inherit Estates before Children. The Religion is Atabome-san, but the Majority have none at all. Justice is general'y given to him that makes the greatest Presents. They make Wine of Dates, and Bread of a kind of Millet. The Natives of the S. are perfect Black, but those of the N. only Tawny. The chiefest of them are Husbandmen, Fishermen or Shepherds; few are Merchants or Traders. They have several good Commodities. Their Arms are a Scimitar, Bow and Arrows, and a Lance called Zigury. They are excellent Horse-men, and can ride full speed standing. They spend no time in besieging T. but generally burn them. When they lose their Royal Drum, Omlante, they may be said to be entirely defeated.

Jamaica a large Island in N. America, in length 170 M. and in Breadth 70, first discovered by Columbus, who gave it its Name, in Honour of St James. It lies 140 Ls. N. of the Continent. and has a continued ridge of Hills from E. to W. Its Savanes (Plains) formerly Ploughed, are now Pasture, and feed great number of Cow's, Horses, Hogs, &c. which run Wild in the Woods. The Air is indifferent

J A M

Temperate, and frequently cool'd by Breezes, Rains and Dew. The Winter differs only by somewhat more Rain and Thunder than Ordinary. The Days are equally 15 Hours long all the Year. Its chief T. are St. Jago and Port-Royal: the whole Island has 14 Parishes which are all well Peopled; besides, it has above 4000 Privateers that Ply continually round it. Its Products are Sugar, Coco-Nuts, Indico, Cotton, Tobacco, Tortoise-Shells, Hides, Salt, Ginger, Pepper, Sarsaparilla, Cassia-fistula, Vinello's, Aloes, Benjamin, Cochineel &c. It has great Numbers of Asnegroes, Mules, Goats, Hogs, Rabbits &c. but no Hares nor Deer. It has moreover Variety of excellent Fish, and abounds in Tame and Wild Fowl. Alligators are common here, and Kill a great many Cattel that come to Drink, but never set upon a Man. They breed by Eggs which are hatch'd in the Sand by the Sun, whence the Creature creeps out into the Water and Shifts for it self. Its fat is good against Pains and Aches. The Inhabitants are much Subject to Dropsies, Calcutures, Fevers and Agues. The Laws conform much to those of England. The English got possession of the Island in 1655 by means of Pen and Venables who were sent by Cromwel, with 20000 Men to revenge him on Spain, for giving Refuge to K. Charles II. Port-Royal was destroyed in 1692 by a fearful Earthquake. The present Governor of this Island is Sir William Baxton.

Jamblichus, a Platonick Philosopher of Chalcis in Syria of the IVth Cen. who wrote divers Books. There was also a Greek Author of this Name, a Native of Babylon who lived in the III. Cen. and pen'd two Treatises.

Jamboli, a Prov. of Macedonia, whose Cap. is Thessalonica.

James (Saint) Surnamed Major Son of Zebeder who and his Brother John were made Apostles by Christ, and called, Boanerges, i. e. Sons of Thunder.

J A M

He was the first Martyr among the Apostles being beheaded by Herod A. C. 41. The Spaniards claim him for their Patron, and pretend to have his entire Body, tho' Part of it is likewise boasted by the Clergy of Toulouse in Languedoc, to be in their possession. Mr. Corier in his History of Dauphine, proves that what the Spaniards pretend to have is the Body of another Person. This Saint had a Church dedicated to him in Jerusalem, which is still remaining, it belongs to the Armenians, and is one of the finest in that City.

James (Saint) Surnamed Minor, and the Just, was son of Alphaeus Cousin to our Saviour, and Brother to St. Jude. As B. of Jerusalem, he was president of the Apostles Council held in 49 or 50. He was condemn'd and delivered to the People, who upon his brave Defence of Christs Doctrine, knocked out his Brains with a Fullers Club A. C. 61. We have an Epistle of his, A supplicatory Liturgy, tho' dubi-ous, and a Gospel related with casioned the Governor's youngest son to Burn Dumbarton, where he killed K. Uncle, and afterwards escaped to Ireland. Not long after James and his Sons were beheaded at Ling, whereupon several Places had laid out before for the submission. In 1425, Ambassadors were sent from France to negotiate a Match between Charles VIII's Son James's daughter, which was refused. Two Y. after K. James of the thieving Clans, by repairing Castle of Inverness, committing 40 of the Ring-Leaders, and hanging up some of them. Alexander of Isles, the next Person to the King, much ado to procure his pardon, withstanding at his return burnt Inverness, and besieged Castle; and having 10000 Men, him resolved to fight the K. But being deserted by Two of most considerable Clans, changed mind, and thought of flying to Scotland, yet not thinking he should be there so long, he retired to the sent it to the K. Robbery being thus suppress'd, the Parliament made divers good Laws to adjust Weights and Measures. Next the K. reform'd the Clergy, founded Publick Schools, encourag'd Learned Men, and commanded the Universities, to present none but Persons of Merit to him for Preferment. Also reflecting on the decay of Trade in his Edom. occasion'd by 150. Y. War, he sent for Artificers and restored Commerce. He likewise reform'd the Expensive way of Living, by Reproof, his own Example, and wholesome Laws. After he had sent his Daughter to France, perfecting the Agreement, and had over-ruled the Endeavours of the English to make a League with France, he being at the T. of Roxburgh, held out by the English; which when he had almost taken, he was frighten'd from it by an Information brought by his Queen, that there was a Conspiracy against his Life. During this the Earl of Arbol, chief of the Conspirators, coming, with the rest of the Assassines, to the Chamber where the K. lay, they forc'd open the Door, and Barba-rously Murdered him; which one they escaped, but were afterwards apprehended and deservedly punished with Death. This K. was thus slain on the 12th. of February 1437 in the 13th. Y. of his Reign, and, 44th. of his Age.

J A M

J A M

James II. succeeded his Father at Seven Y. old; during whose Minority, Alexander Levingston was made Regent, and William Creighton Chancellor. Scarce was this over, but Factions arise, when the latter remain'd with the K. in the Castle of Edinburgh, and the former retired with the Queen Dowager to Sterling. It was not long before the Queen got her Son away by a Stratagem, which was this: Coming to visit her Son, She Amused the Chancellor with so many good words, that she procur'd an Opportunity to carry the K. off in a

J A M

Trunk, and before he could be miss'd, Shipped him at Leith for Sterling. Hereupon it was agreed in Council, to besiege the Chancellor in the Castle, which he prevented, by surrendring. Now did the Islanders invade and ravage the Continent after a strange manner. Famine likewise and Pestilence raged exceedingly, and the Queen and her Second Husband were imprisoned, for plotting against the Regent, but were soon released, and great Crimes laid at the Regents door. A while after, the Chancellor seized the K. and brought him to Edinburgh which occasioned the Regent to comply. During this, Earl Douglas did a great deal of Mischief, but the Chancellor having deceiv'd the Earl to Court, had him beheaded. About this time, the K. took up a quarrel with the Government, when William, then Earl of Douglas, coming into favour, he endeavour'd to revenge himself on the Regent, and Chancellor, now out of Office, by procuring them to give an Account of their late Administration. This they refused to do, and therefore Creighton was besieged in Edinburgh Castle; yet at length compos'd, and was restored to his Office again. Douglas however got the Regent and one of his Sons imprisoned, and afterwards beheaded. The Truce between the English and Scots being now expired, it was renewed for Seven Years; however the bordering English broke it, and might have ruin'd the Scots, now exceedingly harass'd by Factions, had not they laboured under the like Calamities at home. The War being thus broke out, the Earl of Northumberland marched into Scotland, and encamped near the R. Sark. Him Earl Douglas, and Wallace of Craig, opposed; and coming to a close Fight, entirely routed him, and kill'd 3000 of his Men, when the Scots lost but 600, and gain'd great Booty. Next followed a Truce with England for Three Y.

J A M

In 1441 the K. married into the Blood Royal of France. Douglas occasioning new Disorders, and the K. suspecting him of a Plot, and League with the English, sent for him, and taking him aside, desired him to cease siding with the English, which he hesitating upon, the K. drew his Dagger, and Stabbed him, saying, If thou wilt not break the League, I will. To revenge this the Earl's brother rose in open Rebellion; whereupon the K. had him and his Adherents proclaimed Rebels, but tho' there were many skirmishes, yet there was no pitched Battle. At length Douglas, being disappointed of Succours in England, joined with Somers of the Isles, who, after the English had been beaten by the Earl of Argo, submitted and was Pardoned. Afterwards the K. marched to assist the Nobility of England against their King, but was prevented in his Designs by a Convenient Legate, who persuaded to excommunicate him, if he proceeded. His Endeavours were the Queen's Friends. This was followed by a Truce with England, 15. Y. when the English however broke, by taking the D. of Albany Prisoner, yet were tam to surrender him, whereby they made their Peace. Next, Donald of the Isles having proclaimed himself K. thereof, invaded the Continent, and committed Sacrilege there; but his Fleet being Shipwrecked in his return, and he thereupon grown distracted, the Booty was restored, and Expiation Offered. Now did B. Kennedy manage the State with great Prudence, but the Boyas coming in Favour, they not only oured him, but affronted him in a gross Manner; soon after which he died, much lamented. The Adp. of York's Claim over the Church of Scotland, was about this time annull'd by the Pope, and moreover Robert Byd was declared Regent, and his Son was married to the K's Sister. The K. was likewise married to the K. of Denmark's Daughter, on the 10th of July. An. 1470. Will.

J A M

J A M

was imprisoned, but Escaped. After this, the K. was about to marry his Son with the K. of England's Daughter; but a War breaking out between the two Nations, through the Instigations of Pr. Alexander and Earl Douglas, then both in England, that Match was set aside, and K. James marched with his Army to invade Northumberland. The Earl of Angus, and the rest of the Nobility, being extremely dissatisfied with the K.'s Conduct, resolved to drive his mean Favourites from him; and going with that Design towards his Majesty's Pavilion, they met with Cockrain and the rest by the way, whom they immediately delivered to the Marshal, and in a short time had them all hang'd. This done, the K. disbanded his Army, they neither putting Confidence in him, nor he in them. During these Dissentions, Pr. Alexander prevailed with the K. of England, once more to invade Scotland; which he did, and thereby procured his Daughter to be married to K. James's Son; and moreover got Pr. Alexander reconcil'd, however he was soon after forc'd to fly again. Next the Truce was renewed with England for 7 Y. when the K. slighting the Nobility, returned to his former Course. Now the chief Favourite was another Upstart, one John Ramsay, who was hated by the Nobility, and therefore the K. form'd a Plot to make a way with them as fast as he could. This he communicated to the Earl of Angus, who discovered it, and thereupon K. James had recourse to Arms, as had likewise the Nobility; and a Battle ensuing, the K. lost both his Life and the Victory in the Y. 1488.

James IVth, succeeded his father James IIIth, at 15 Y. old. Having caused several Castles to surrender which held out, and having beat the English, at sea, who had been sent to Ravage his Coasts, he called a Parliament, and gained the good Will of all Parties,

J A M

tho' before never so disaffected to him, by his great Moderation in Government. Perkin Warbeck a pretended Pr. of Wales arriving in Scotland about this time, he managed Matters so cunningly, that he got the K. to give him his Kinswoman in Marriage, and moreover to furnish him with an Army to invade Northumberland; but the K. observing that the English did not join him as they had promised, desisted from any further Progress. Afterwards a Peace being entered upon, through the mediation of the Spanish Ambassador, the English demanded Perkin Warbeck; which being refused, the Treaty ended in a Short Truce; during which Warbeck was sent away. Not long after the K. married Henry VIIIth's daughter, whereupon a Strict Peace was concluded. The K. now applied himself to building of Ships, of which three were of a great Bulk. Herein the Ks. of England and France endeavouring to Outdo him, they each of them built one so great, that it was of no Use. The K. having hereby exhausted his Treasures, resumed the Wardship of Minors; but finding it to be too great a Grievance on his Subjects, he quitted it, and determined to go to Jerusalem, to atone for taking up Arms against his Father. But this Project was laid aside, on Account of a Private League he had engaged in with France, against the Emp. England, the Venetians, and the Switzers. However there was at length a perfect Rupture with England, by reason of the Murder of Robert Carr, Lord Warden of the middle Marches of Scotland, and the killing of Andrew Barton, a famous Scottish Sea-Captain. Hereupon the Earl of Hume invaded England, and returned with great Booty, however lost many of his Men by an Ambush. Next, the K. having had his Proposals disdainfully rejected by Henry VIIIth, entered England in Person, notwithstanding the foreboding of two Spectres, and took several Castles; but falling in love with a Lady, one of his Prisoners, he grew so negligent of his Affairs, that his Army deserted in great Numbers, for Want of Necessaries, and those that staid with him were not a little disgusted. Matters standing thus, the English provoked him to fight; which notwithstanding he declined, yet would he not retreat, tho' advised thereto by his best Friends. At length he was prevailed upon, to encamp himself advantageously, which the English perceiving, they made a feint of Marching towards Scotland, whereby they drew him from his Post, and then Attacked him at Flodden Hill. The fight lasted till Night, when both Parties withdrew, not knowing whether had the Victory. Next Morning the Lord Dacres found the Scotch Cannon lit, and therefore immediately Published the Victory to be on the English Side. Some say the K. was kill'd in the

J A M

J A M

the Matter to Henry VIII., returned back. Home after this rebell'd, and submitted; but taking Arms again, both he and his Brother were Seized and Executed. The Regent going to France, constituted Deputies in his absence, who disagreeing, there happened much L. & S. About 5 Y. after the Regent returned, and would have made War upon England, but was opposed by his Nobility, and obliged to a Truce. Then he went to France again, when during his Absence, the Earl of Surrey over ran the S. of Scotland with 10000 Men: and upon the Scots plundering the N. of England, by way of Reprisal, Invaded them again, tho' with no great Success. At length the Regent returned with 50 Shipt. 3000 F. & 100 Cavaliers, and by Intigation of the French Faction, who persuaded him, that the English had now the same Designs upon Scotland with their K. Edward VI. marched against

J A M

Henry VIIIth's daughter Mary; but when the Time of the Interview was come, he was dissuaded by the Hamiltons, next Heirs to the Crown, from meeting, lest the English should detain him as they had done some of his Ancestors. This Henry VIIIth. was justly offended at, however R. James went to France, and Married Magdalen, daughter of Francis I. who dyed in the same Y. 1537. in Scotland, for whom all but some of the Clergy Mourn'd, being the first Time that Ceremony had been used in that Edom. Next, the R. married Mary of Guise in 1538. In the next Y. many Lutherans were burned, banished and imprisoned; among the last of which was the Poet Buchanan, who nevertheless escaped. Now Henry VIIIth. desiring another Interview, the Clergy being afraid of its Consequence, dissuaded the R. upon promising him 3000. Gold Ducats, Annually, advising him wishal to persecute the Lutherans, for which end James Hamilton was Appointed; but being accused of a Design upon the R.'s Life, was soon after executed. After this the R. had many frightful Dreams, which were followed by the Death of the Two Sons he had by his Queen. At length Henry VIIIth. was out of Patience at so many Affronts and Disappointments and therefore, without any more ado, invaded Scotland. At first he received a small Defeat, but thro' the Dissensions of the Scottish Army, and their falling together by the Ears, he at length gain'd an entire Victory over them; the news whereof occasioned R. James to die Mad. A little before his Death, he had an account brought him of the Birth of his Daughter Mary, that succeeded him.

James Ith. of England and VIth. of Scotland, succeeded, his Mother when little above a Y. old, upon her forced Resignation on the 26th of July An. 1567. His natural Uncle, the Earl of Murray was chosen Regent, in Opposition to the Queen, who nevertheless got out of Prison, and raised an Army, which was routed by the Earl near Glasgow. Hereupon the Queen went to her kinswoman, Queen Elizabeth; who sending immediately to know the Reason of her hard Usage, an interview was appointed at Tork, where Plenipotenciaries on all sides being met, those of Queen Mary, accused the Regent so Home, that Queen Elizabeth's Plenipotenciaries could not but pronounce him an Usurper. Upon this Murray was sent for to London, where he accused the Queen further, and, as some think, of being privy to Bothwell's murdering of the R. However Queen Elizabeth took the middle way, and declared her self in favour of neither. Not long after, the Regent returned to Scotland; where, in a short time, he was shot dead by one Hamilton, out of a private Grudge. Hereupon the Nobles would have chosen another Regent, but were prevented so doing by the Queens Friends; nevertheless at length, Queen Elizabeth sending an Army into Scotland, under the Protection of that the Earl of Lenax, the R.'s Grandfather, was Elected. The Queen's Party solicited the French and Spaniards for Aid, and Garrisoned Edinburgh, to hinder the Parliament's Sitting, yet were nevertheless Svingingly beaten afterwards near Leith. The English and French were very slow in Assisting these which they had espoused; the former, first demanding the R. as a Hostage, and the latter requiring the Castles of Edinburgh and Dunbarton to be surrendered to them; all which were refused. Next, tho' the Queen's Party had another Defeat at Leith, yet did they come unawares upon the Convention at Sterling, and kill'd the Regent, in whose Stead the Earl of Murray was chosen; who perform'd no great

J A M

J A M

Fitz, and dying, was succeeded by the Earl of Morton, who after some Time becoming Obnoxious, was forced to resign to the K. on the 12th of March, in 1578. Soon after which the first Declaration was made against Bps. In the Y. following the K. made his kinsman, Mr. d'Aubigny, newly sent from France, Earl of Lenox, and the Parliament soon after established the Confession of Faith. In 1580 the Earl of Morton was beheaded, for concealing a Conspiracy against the K's. Life, and the Earl, afterwards D. of Lenox, got the greatest Part of his Estate; who nevertheless, together with the Earl of Arran, was at length removed from Court, and banished for Male Administration. Then the K. published a Proclamation, to justify, and to satisfy the World, that what he had done had not been by Compulsion, whereupon all was confirm'd by an ensuing Convocation. Now arrived two Ambassadors from France, to pro-with them, upon which the E. of Arran, Gen. fled. In 1588 an invitation by the E. of Hailes and others to the K. of Spain, and Pr. of Parma, to Invade Scotland, was detected by Queen Elizabeth, who gave the K. an account thereof, whereupon the E. fled, and Rebelled, but to little Purpose. In the Y. 1590, the K. brought his Queen from Norway, and had a Conspiracy against him discover'd, by the care of the Nobles and Ministers. In 1591 he was Assaulted in Hynd-House by Birwell, who upon the Cities flag was repulsed, and some of his Followers taken and hang'd. In 1592 the Parliament established Presbytery, and in June following Birwell, made another attempt on the Palace of Raskland, but was repulsed, as before. In December a new Plot broke out of the Papists in Italy with Spain, whereupon Queen Elizabeth seeing that the Parties concerned therein were not punished, sent in ing the K. of Spain to advance the Infant's Title to England; upon which Account K. James wrote likewise to the Pope, and sent his Letter by Sir Edward Drummmond. August 5th. 1600. the K. of Genry, and one of his Brothers were Slain in their Attempt to murder the K. which was afterwards severely revenged upon the Ratbrens. On the 31st of March in 1603. his Majesty, upon Queen Elizabeth's Death, was declared K. of England, &c. and on the 5th. of April following set out accordingly for that Kingdom, promising to return every Three Y. He was the first Monarch of great Britain and Ireland. His Title came by Margaret Henry VIIIth's eldest Daughter; who marrying James the IVth of Scotland, had by him James Vth, who was succeeded by his Daughter Mary Mother to this K. James, by Henry Lord Darnley. He was appointed to be Crown'd on St James's Day; before which was come, a Design was discovered to have Seized him and Pr. Henry, for which several were Tried, and some Convicted. After there had been some Conferences about Religion, which were interpreted different Ways; the Powder Plot was discovered on the 5th of November, in 1604. which had been Maliciously carryed on by the Papists, tho' K. James had often delivered himself in their Favour. In 1605 the K. settled Bps. in Scotland, by a Parliament at Perth. Afterwards he made Peace with Spain, received two Visits from the K. of Denmark, 1st his Son Prince Henry, Marry'd his Daughter to the Elector Palatine, sent his Son Pr. Charles to Spain without Effect, Instituted Baronets, and sold the Cautionary T. in Holland, which had been secured by Queen Elizabeth. This K. died at Theobalds, having liv'd 59 Y. and reign'd 23. He was buried at Westminster. He was besetted with his beloved Motto Beati Pacisci, so that he did little of Note. He was exceedingly well learted, and wrote several Books, all which are known.

J A M

J A M

J A M

James II. of England, and VIIth. of Scotland, born the 14th of October, in 1633. of K. Charles I. and Henrietta Maria, daughter of Henry the IVth. of France, and soon after declared D. of York. In the time of the rebellion, tho' Young, he followed, his Father's Camp; and when Oxford was yielded, was carried to St. James's, whence he made a Shift to escape first to Holland, and thence into France, to his Mother. He afterwards waited on his Brother K. Charles II. from Jersey to Breda; Next he accepted of the Post of Lieutenant General under Mareschal Turenne; and upon his being sick, was recommended to succeed him; but he was not only put by that, but likewise remov'd from his other Post, and ordered to quit France. Then he goes to his Brother at Brussels, and after engages in the Spaniards service; and at the Siege of Dunkirk, by Cromwell and the French, behaved himself so bravely at the head of some English Troops, that had it not been for the Spaniards, who could not be rallyed when they had been once routed, he had turned the Fortune of the Day, and preserved the T. 12 Y. after, upon his Brother's Restoration, he returned with him, and was not long after, married to the Lady Anne, Daughter of the E. of Clarendon. In 1665 he began the Dutch War with 114 sail of Ships, and engaging his Enemies on the 3d. of June, after an obstinate Defence, entirely defeated them, and burnt and sunk several of their Ships. This being over, he left the Fleet under the E. of Sandwich, and returned to Court, where he was exceedingly Carels'd. In 1672 he went Admiral against the Dutch again, they having broken the Peace, and engaging them at Southold Bay a whole Day together, forced them to retire; and thinking to renew the Fight next Morning, was disappointed by a Mist. In 1673. he married the D. of Modena's Daughter, and some time after, upon the Heat of Shaftsbury's Faction, embarked with his Datchies for Flanders, where he was kindly entertained by the then Governor, and the Pr. of Orange, who had married his eldest Daughter in 1677. Upon his return to England he goes for Scotland, where he was likewise well received. Some time after his return to Whitehall he was sent High Commissioner into Scotland, where he compos'd all Disorders, and returning to England, soon after went to his Truitt again in the Glacel or frigate, which tho' lost, yet his Highness escaped, and came safe to Scotland. The May after he came back to Whitehall, where he lived in great Favour at Court till the Death of his Brother K. Charles II. whom he succeeded on the 6th of Feb. in 1684 and was crown'd with his Queen, on the 23d. of April after. Tho' he began to reign well

J A M

J A M

ly. He proved unfortunate against the Moors, and the People of Navarra, occasioned him to get the Senate decree a firm Union between Valencia and Catalonia. He died at Barcelona, 66 Y. Old, having reigned 30, in 1327.

James (of Lusignan) K. of Cyprus, and Pr. of Tarentum was taken Prisoner by the G and confined till 1383. when his Nephew's Death, he was set at liberty, on Condition that he give up Femagnia and its Territories. He succeeded Lionel K. of Armenia died in 1410.

James, base Son of John III. of Cyprus, who upon his father's death usurped that Kingdom from his sister Isabella, by Assistance of the Moors. He died in 1393.

James K. of Aragon, brother of Alphonse, was possessed of his Dominions by the K. of Aragon, in 1343 or 44. was therein opposed by Pope Clement VI. tho' without Effect. His James died of Grief, for being not of both Verse and Prose. He was chiefly concerned in the taking of Verger in 1562. and afterwards Seized Verger in Daupiny, and reduced Baronets. He partly secured Charles at Meaux from the Designs of Huguenots; which good service that K. acknowledged. He died 1585.

J A M

James, youngest Son of Lewis, D. of Orleans. He was a great Friend to Charles last D. of Burgundy, and served him against Lewis XIth, and was comprehended in the Peace in 1475. In Requital the D. of Burgundy sided him against the Swisses, but routed in Two Battels in 1476. After this Friend's Death, James joined with Maximilian of Austria, and did him good Service. He was included in the Peace in 1482. and died afterwards in Picardy, Anno 1482.

James (Paleologus) a Genl. related to the Byzantine Emperors. After the fall of Constantinople in 1453. he fled to Dominican at Rome; but being suspected of Heresie, was put into the prison. Thence escaping, he pretended to be a Protestant in Germany, but after that, an Arrian in Poland; which coming to Maximilian II's Ear, recalled him, and made him to abandon his Errors; but Relapsing, he was condemned, and Burnt in 1565. See what has written against him.

James Heraclides, or Basilides, a supposed Descendant from the ancient Kings and Vaiwods of Moldavia and Archie, who was settled in those Territories by the Poles, after they conquer'd Despot Alexander in 1561. ereupon James got himself afterwards confirm'd in his said Station by an Solyman II. However he reign'd 3 Y's. for at the end thereof, the Archie suspending the Truth of his Government, attack'd and murder'd him in his Palace.

James, or San Jago, (the chief Spanish Military Order of) founded on Account of 13 Gentlemen's offering to protect the Pilgrims, that went yearly to pay Devotion to the Relicks of St. James at Compostella. This was approv'd by Pope Alexander III. in 1175. and by Pope Innocent III. in 1198. The Knights at first observ'd the Vows of Religion, but have since been allow'd to marry. They at present wear a Cross, like a Sword, about their Necks, whose Pommel is a Heart, and on the Guards are Flower-de luces; the latter suppos'd to denote, that the French often assisted the Spaniards against the Moor. The King is the Sovereign hereof, since Ferdinand and Isabella obtain'd that Right of the Pope.

J A N

James, or Jacobus de Vitri; a learned Person of the XIIIth Cen. He accompany'd the Croissade, and was made B. of Pisidian, and after that, Cardinal and B. of Frescati. He wrote divers Treatises, and died at Rome in 1244.

James, or Jacobus de Voragine, AB. of Genoa, in the XIIIth Cen. He was exceedingly charitable, and gave the first Version of the Bible into Italian, which however was not printed. He died in 1298.

James. T. Cap. of Virginia, built by the English in 1607. and so nam'd from James I.

Janeiro, a R. and Prov. of Brazil in America, whose Cap. is St. Sebastian. It was first discover'd by a Huguenot, in 1515. from whom the Portuguese wrestled it in 1558.

Janiculum, a Mountain beyond the Tiber, where Janus settled himself, Numa Pompilius was buried, and where Porcena encamp'd at his Besieging of Rome. It affords a pleasant Prospect, 'tis said St. Peter was here Martyr'd. It is now call'd Montevis (the Golden Mountain) from its Colour.

Janizaries, a Word made up of Two Turkish ones, which signifie New Soldiers. They are the Grand Signior's choicest Foot, having been formerly Christian Children, exacted in Lieu of Tribute, represented double-fac'd, as reigning with him, and after his Death made a God of. His Temple at Rome denoted War and Peace, by being open in the former, and shut in the latter. This Temple was shut but twice to Augustus's Reign. The Fabulists will needs have this Jinn to be Nash, whose Reasons for their Opinion I will pass over unquestion'd.

J A P

Fachen, a large C. and Prov. of China, in the latter of which the best Porcelain is made, at a Place call'd Fuling.

Japan, a vast Empire in the Eastern Ocean, cal'd by the Natives Guspen; whence comes the Name we give it by Corruption. It is made up of many Islands, whereof 3 are nam'd Nippon, which alone comprehend 53 Kdoms. The next is call'd Ximo, which has 9; and the third Nixon, has but 3. Some late Writers divide this Empire into 7 Parts, and say that Nippon only is 600 Ls. in Compass. On the W. it is distant from China, the Sea being between, at least 60 Ls. The Air of this Country is healthy, but commonly cold, and full of Snow; however the Mountains abound with hot Springs, but generally the Soil is not very fruitful. This Island abounds with Rivers, Lakes, and good Harbours, wherein Pearls are found. Here are most sort of Creatures, but horn'd Beasts, which are scarce. Japan has a great many good Mines, which enrich it. The Houses are generally of Wood. This Island was formerly, and is still, subject to one Pr. and now has 66 Kdoms in it, which breeds great Distractions, and frequent Wars. The Inhabitants are said to be our Antipodes in Manners; for they are always bareheaded, salute with their Slip-shoes; wear White for Mourning, and Black for Rejoicing; drink always hot Liquors, feed their Sick with salt Meats, never let Blood; receive Visitors sitting, and the like. They are Sprightly, Adroit and Strong, Tall and Stately, and shave their Heads, some but half, yet the Nobles shave all, except a hind Lock. Their Beauty chiefly consists in Black Teeth. Their Habits are short Gowns, with large embroider'd sleeves, silk Doublets and Breeches, down to their Ankles. They have generally for Arms 2 Scimeters, a sort of Carabine, Bows and Arrows, and a Spear. They have likewise longer Pikes than we, which they manage dexterously. Nothing is richer and gawdier than their Womens Habits. They suffer none but the Dutch to trade with them, who ousted the Portugueses thence in 1622. and occasion'd a most terrible Persecution. One good Quality in these People is, that they never cheat in Trade, and therefore their Words may be safely relied upon, which all that Trade here are forc'd to acquiesce in. Their Language is exceeding Copious, Emphatical and Expressive, and has peculiar Dialects for the great Men, and the People. They write with a brush Pencil, and with Black or Red thick Ink. They only use one Side of their Paper, the other being colour'd and spotted with Silver. Their usual manner of Writing is in Columns, after the Chinese Way, and, like them, they begin on the Right Side. Great Numbers of both Sexes are assign'd for a Religious Life, and the Worship of their Idols. They have the Name of Buzes, and are of 2 sorts, the Grey and White. Above 800 Houses of these Buzes were in one Prov. in Xavier's time. There are 9 Sects in this Religion, and the Buzes perswade the People that the Commandments of the Law can only be kept by them, so that the Laity are at Liberty to live as they please. The Government here is despotick, and every Lord has Power of Life and Death over his Subjects. The Portugueses discover'd this I. in 1542. and in 1549. Fran. Xavier preach'd there, and converted a World of People; but in the Year following, upon the base Accusations of a cursed

J A P

J A R

Japan, the next Emp. utterly expropriated and deſtroy'd all that profiſt Chriſtians in all his Dominions. The laſt ſucceſſion of the Emper. of Japan, I have omitted for Brevities ſake. The Emper. Arms are 3 Trefolls Argent on a Red Sable.

Japhet Eldeſt Son of Noah, though St. Auguſtine puts Shem before him. He had 3 Sons, 2 of which only had iſſue. From the 1^{ſt} of theſe Peters have borrow'd their Japan, Uncle to Jupiter, who threw him ſelf into Hell.

Jaroſl, a learned Indian Philoſopher and Aſtronomer, whom St. Jerome ſays, Apoſtles Bartholomew, went to viſit in the Eaſt Indies.

Job, (Solomon) a learned Rabbi of the XIIIth Cen. who commented on the Prophets, and the Talmud.

Job, Father of Enoch, who lived 92 Years.

John, a ſmall T. of Angoumois in France, famous for the Eaſte, gain'd by Henry D. of Arms afterwards Henry III. on the Huguenots, commanded by annexed to the County of Hampſhire. It extends in length 12 Miles, and is breadth 6; and has 12 Parishes, and 2 Castles. The Inhabitants ſpeak Norman-French: The Soil is good and fertile, and the Seas about it afford great plenty of Fiſh, eſpecially Lobſters, and Conger-Eels. The Manufacture here is chiefly Stockings, for making of which they have extream fine Wool, moſt of the Sheep have 4 Horns each. This ſtile is famous for its lateſt Deſection from Charles II. who rewarded in Loyalty with a Silver Mare upon his Reſtoration. The Dignity of Earl of this Place is at preſent enjoy'd, by the Lord Edward Villers.

J A S

Jarſige, (Peter) a famous French Reſtaurant Convert, Antagoniſt of the Jeſuits in the XVIth Cen. who upon their getting him Condemn'd by the Judge of Rocheſter to be Hang'd and Burnt, wrote a Book againſt them, call'd, The Jeſuits put upon the World, wherein, and in another Tract written afterwards, he handled them

J A V

however he was forc'd to fly, and wanting a Place of Refuge, died Miserably at Sparta, and was never buried.

Jafin, a Cyrenian Historian of the 150th Olymp. who writ 5 Books of the Maccabees, which are abridg'd in the Bible.

Jasque, a Persian Principality whose Prince refusing Tribute, Shaw Abbas II. endeavouring to force him to it, was beaten by him; yet he afterwards going to Mecca, was surpriz'd and taken, and carried to Ormus, where in a little time he was deliver'd by his Wife, who came to his Rescue, and kill'd the Man that had the Custody of him. After this the Prince, by the help of some Allies routed another of the Shaw's Armies, with only the loss of his Lieutenant General, who having been taken, was tormented after a Barbarous Manner, till such time as the Dutch East India Company obtain'd, that he should be beheaded to end his Misery.

Jassi, a T. of Moldavia, not far from the frontiers of Poland, remarkable only for being sometimes the Residence of the Records of that Country.

Jatre, or Jatren, (Matthew) a Greek Monk of the XIIIth Cen. who wrote two Poems in Greek Verse, printed at Paris in 1648. with a Latin Version and Notes.

Java, a large Isle in the East-Indian Sea, 100 L. long, and about 50 broad. It has the Ill. Sumatra on the W. the Isles of Sund on the E. the Ocean on the S. and the Ill. Brue on the N. its S. Lat. is between 5 and 10, and L. n. between 130 and 140 deg. It had formerly 9 Kms, and several Princes; but now has but 2 Princes, viz. of Bantam, and Materan, which last has the Title of Emp. of Java. The Metropolis is Materan, the Religion for the most part Mohometan, and the Soil exceeding fruitful, especially in Spicery. It has Mines of Gold, Silver, and Copper, with the 2 former of which the Ks. Palace was pay'd. The Dutch have the chief of the Trade here having seiz'd Jacatra in 1617. which they call'd Batavia. In 1684. they promoted a Rebellion against the K. of Bantam by his Son, and depriv'd the English of their Effects, without the least pretence of Justice.

I B R

Javan, Son of Japhet, from whom the Ionians descended.

Javum, vide Raab.

Jawer, a German, T. and Dutchy in Silesia, not above 2 Miles from Lignitz to the S. and 9 from Breslaw to the W. both Dutchy, and T. are indifferently Populous.

Jayck, or Rhymus, a large R. of Asian Tartary, which empties it self into the Caspian Sea, between Rhs and Jaxartes, the Huns formerly Inhabited its Coasts, and the Hungarian Language is still retain'd there.

Jaycks, Cap. of Bithia, recover'd from the Turks in 1453. but at length retaken by them, and made the Residence of a Sangiack.

Jaziger, formerly Inhabitants of European Sarmatia, being drove thence by a Kings of Poland, went for the most part, and liv'd in Upper Hungary.

Ibas, a great Favourer of Nestorius, was Bp. of Edessa in the IVth and Vth Gen. Councils. Being restor'd to the Church, he was accus'd of Crimes by some of his Clergy whom he had excommunicated, but was never the less absolv'd by 2 Synods at Tyre and Berytus. Afterwards he was depos'd by a thum Synod, and extremely ill us'd; but was however restor'd by the Council of Chalcedon.

Ibrahim, the Turkish Sultan, succeeded Amurat IVth in 1640. upon the Death of his said Brother, he had been a close Prisoner for 4 Years, and could hardly be made to believe that he was declar'd Emp. Having overcome his Fears he was Crown'd, and in 1644. took Canea in Candia. For his Unsufferable Cruelties, and Male-Administration, he was depos'd in 1649. and at the same time strangled for his Contumacy, making way for his Son, Mahomet who succeeded him.

Ibrahim,

J C O

Israhim, Grand Visier, and Favourite to Solyman the Magnificent. He was a Genoese Renegade, and a great Favourer of the Christians, but being envied, Roxana enjoin'd the Emperor to take him off, which, by reason he had sworn not to do it while he liv'd, he order'd to be done when he was asleep, that being a kind of Death.

Ilyes a Grecian, famous in the LXth Olymp. for Lyrick Poetry. He was Author of several Books. Being murder'd by Tueves, whilst they were assailing him, he call'd out to some Cranes to bear witness, which afterwards prov'd to be the Discoverers of the Murderers, who were taken and hang'd.

Issa, a Mountain in Attica, whose Inhabitants were the first Tragedians and Comedians.

Icarus, Son of Daedalus, who escaping by Sea with his Father from the fury of Mino King of Crete, that Ship where in he was sunk, which gave ground for the Fable which is well known.

Icen, Ancient Inhabitants of Suffolk, Northamptonshire, and Huntingdon.

J D O

Iconoclastes, a Name given in the VIIIth Cent. to Image-breakers, which in Greek it implies. The Chief of these were Ezale of Arabia, the Emperor Philip, Leo Isaurus, and his Son Constantine and Leo IV. In the Emperors Iconoclast time in 787, Image-worship was re-establish'd by the Second Council of Nice.

Ictineus, a celebrated Athenian Architect, who built the famous Temple of Minerva and Apollo in the LXXXIVth Olympiad.

Ida, a very high Mountain of Thrace in Lesser-Asia, famous for the Judgment of Paris, and for 9 Rivers springing out of it. Another Mountain of this Name was in Crete, where the Carybantes and Ides Daedalus liv'd, and first invented Forging of Iron.

Idacius or Ididatus a Spanish Bishop, of the IVth Century, who writ a Chronicle from the Emp. Theodosius to Leo, in 454.

Idacius Clarus, another Spanish Bishop of the IVth Century, who wrote against the Apollinarians, and excus'd

I D O

225. Likewise Men that had been very serviceable to their Country, such Herules, &c. The first Human Statue that was ador'd was made by a Father, to represent his dead Son, whom he greatly lov'd, and was therefore unwilling to forget, and to whose honour he instituted Sacrifices to dissipate his Grief. Also Ninus out of an immoderate Love to his Father Belus, ordered his Statue to be worshipp'd after his Death. Before this polish'd Illars had been ador'd, which were afterwards improv'd to Human Shapes, yet and above the great Idols in Temples, the Ancient Pagans had little Idols in Niches, each of which had somewhat peculiar to distinguish him. All different Countries had different Gods, and those which were Universal had the Title of Agonion. Besides the Deities in Niches, there were others of a taller Sort or Account, for which the oldsmith Demetrius had difference with St. Paul at Ephesus, because he injured his Trade by his Preaching. The better Sort in all Ages, have not hid their Devotion to the Reality, but in the Representation, though the Mob have ever had implicit Faith, which was signified by the Answers of the Oracles. Pythagoras knew Man was not capable of conceiving a God, and therefore prohibited the representing of Deities. Namus confirm'd this Doctrine, which was maintain'd in Rome for 170 years, where there was no Statue of any Deity in all that time, tho' succeeding Ages admitted that stupid Vanity, and Men were punish'd for making use of their Reason. Namus severely revent an Irreligion offer'd to his Statue at Antich. Upon our Saviour's Birth, Idolatry began a little to cease, for the Emperor Claudius forbid the Worship of false Gods. Alex. Severus slighted their Temples; and Maximin melted down their Statues, and confiscated their Ornaments. At length Constantine the Great totally demolish'd their Temples and overthrew their Images; his

I D R

Son Constantinus publish'd very severe Edicts against them; and tho' Julian the Apostate sought all he could to restore them, yet Theodosius, who began his Reign An. 392. obtain'd of the Romans, that all Idols should be pull'd down, except some few reserv'd only for Ornament to the City. He also had the famous Temple of Serapis at Alexandria, destroy'd together with its Idol, which was made of the Dust of pounded precious Stones, mixt with the richest Metals. This Work so well begun, was afterwards compleated by the Edicts of Arcadius and Honorius; however, some Temples were left standing for Ornaments, and were converted into Christian Churches. In 409 when the Goths had besieged Rome under their K. Alaric, some Pagan Priests that yet remain'd there, pretended to raise the Siege by sacrificing to their Gods, but which proving of no effect, the Goths at length compell'd the Romans to purchase their Peace at a great rate. At the second coming of Alaric, the Pagans and their Idols were wholly extirpated, as we may read from Orosius. In 420 Visus the Tribune level'd all the Idol Temples in Africa, and appointed the Ground where they stood for Burials. About 3 Years after Theodosius Junior, to put a final end to Idolatry, ordered that whatever related in the least thereunto should be entirely abolished.

Idmoncus, a Greek Captain, who happening to be in a Storm in his return home from the Siege of Troy, vowed to sacrifice, in case of his Escape, the first Person he met with; which proving to be his Son, he would have perform'd his Vow, but was prevented by his Subjects, banishing him for his intended Barbarity.

Idris, a Town in the Prov. of Geritis in Prussia, famous for Quicksilver Mines.

Idris, a Great Person of Arabia, descended from Adi, who was the first Introducer of Mahometanism into Western Barbary. His Son Idris became one of the

J E D

the most potent Califfs, and built Pex in 702.

Idjarcus (Græcus) a Priest of West-Frieland, who continued the History of his Country from 763 to 1514 wherein he liv'd.

Idumea, a Prov. of the Holy Land call'd in the Scripture Edom, whose Inhabitants were conquered by David, and upon their Revolt, reduced by Jehoshaphat and afterwards by Joram. Upon Achazbenezrai's besieging Jerusalem, they join'd with him against the Jews, but were some time after conquered by Manassas, who oblig'd them to become Jews. By this Proseription they were only excluded the Sabbatum.

Jeda, Founder of the Jebusites, and C. d. father to Jedaia, if we may believe St. Jerom, whence they were excluded in David's time.

Jehonias or Jehoiachin, King of Juda. He reigned with his Father Joaachim, in Ar. Mondt 3445. when he had the 1st Administration of Affairs. The Year after, he was carried to Babylon by

J E N

Idol Amida is mostly worshipp'd here. Its Figure is a Human Body with a Dog's Head, mounted on a Horse with 7 Heads, and plac'd on an Altar, plac'd with Silver half an Inch thick, the whole adorn'd with many Diamonds and Pearls. The Temple of this Idol is by much the finest in the City. There is another Temple which none but the Emp. the Arch-Bispe, and those of the Royal Family, can enter. The streets of this City are very long, and one is near 4 Leagues in length. The Inhabitants have Pubick Stone Ware houses to secure their Goods, in case of a Fire. The great Houses are generally built on the highest Eminences.

Jehova, the Hebrew Name of God, call'd also Tetragrammaton, it in the 4 Letters it has, only in that Language. The Jews are forbid to mention the Name, and formerly the High Priests only were allowed to utter it, and that but once a Year.

Jehu Xet King of Israel, who was appointed by God to extirpate the

J E R

Alexander the Great was born upur, a City and Kingdom of the Magul's Dominions.

Jephtha, IXth Judge of Israel, who vowed, that in case he defeated Ammonites, he would sacrifice the first he met, and his only Daughter; first to congratulate his Victory, formed his Vow upon her by her name. He afterwards slew 42000 Epbraimites that had rebelled. The story of Jephtha's Daughter, the young Women used to meet yearly, and mourn her forty Days. Agamemnon liv'd about this time, and sacrificed Iphigenia in imitation of Jephtha. This last died A. M. having govern'd 5 Years.

Phrygia, rather Hierapolis, a Bishop's See, now call'd by the Turks Jeber.

Jeremiah the Prophet, who began to prophesy in the 13th of King Josiah, his prophecy was not fulfilled in that King's time. His Successor Juchin cut and destroyed this Prophecy; however, the Lord renewed it, and by God's Command made great Additions to it. He persecuted the Jews, who thereupon imprison'd him in a Cave; but when he was thrown into it, where he would have been had he not been relieved by an Angel belonging to King Zedekiah's time.

According to his Prophecy Sylentius took Jerusalem, A. M. when the Prophet was executed in captivity, but the Jews rebelling against the new Government, and killing all his Men, they fled into Eden and forced this Prophet and Balaam with them, where they are now stoned him to death, for his Threats and Reproaches against them.

Jeremiah, 1st Patriarch of Constantinople, who going to visit our Saviour's grave at Jerusalem, his Followers by the Way; whereupon pursued him back, one Jarricus got Jeremiah to his Office; however, at his return he had him expell'd. He was with much ado prevail'd on to pay the same Tribute, and afterwards delivered his People from Oppression, by means of the Grand Vizier, who was his friend. His death happened in 1545.

J E R

Jeremiah II. was prefer'd to the same Patriarchship at 33 Years of Age, in 1572. He was imprison'd by the Grand Signior, for being suspected to have corresponded with the Pope, and was afterwards banished on the same Account.

Jericho, a celebrated City, of the Holy Land, built by the Jews in a large Plain, whilst the Israelites were in Bondage in Egypt. Being destroyed by Joshua, it was 521 Years after rebuilt by Ahab. 336 Years afterwards it was ruin'd again by Nebuchadnezzar. Being recovered, our Saviour honoured it with his Presence and divers Miracles. On the N. side lies the Mountain where he fasted 40 Days in a Cave. There is a Grotto painted with several Figures, where the Angels brought him Sustenance. About 68 Years after Christ, Titus took this City. It afterwards became a Bishop's See, but at length fell into the Hands of the Saracens. It was recover'd in the Holy War, but being taken a second time by the Infidels, they entirely ruin'd it, so that it has not now above 30 or 40 Houses, in which Arabs live. It is said to have formerly a Hippodrome, an Amphitheatre, and a noble Palace wherein Herod the Great lived. The Plains of Jericho had formerly Balm-Trees, but now there is only the Fruit Zacon, a sort of wild Pumb, which produces Oil of a Sensitive Quality.

Jermy, (Henry) Son of Sir Thomas of that Name, of Rushbroke in Suffolk, attended Charles I's Queen into England, and convey'd her safe to Oxford, to his Majesty, through no common Dangers; for which and other good Services, the King made him by Letters Patents Baron Jermy of St. Edmundsbury. After which going out of England again with the Queen, he lived with her 16 Years; during which he was at R. Charles II's Privy Council, and often employed by him in Embassies. At length that King for many eminent Services, created him Earl of St. Albans, and upon his Restoration made him Lord Chamberlain of his Household. The present Possessor of this Dignity is.

J E R

Jeroboam, King of Israel was first raised by Solomon, who when he knew he was in some likelihood to succeed him, endeavoured all he could to destroy him, and obliged him to fly into Egypt. After Solomon's death, Jeroboam petitioned Solomon's redress of Grievances, without he giving no satisfactory Answer, 12 of the Tribes were seduced by Jeroboam. Now began the Kingdoms of Judah and Israel. Jeroboam calling into Idlatry, to prevent the Subjects going to Jerusalem, a Prophet prophesied, that there should one Jezebel come of the Race of David, who would in due time True Worship, and kill all the false Priests upon an Altar, which was accordingly verified 250

J E R

he became so knowing, that Pope Damasus often advised with him. Being ordained Priest, then a Monk, he went to Constantinople to hear St. Greg. Nazianzen preach. Next Year he was made Secretary to Pope Damasus, but at length being envied by the Origenists, he was forced to return to his beloved Retirement at Bethlem, where he had a Grove. In a Book he wrote in praise of Virginity, he seemed to speak against Marriage, whereupon he was advised to write an Apology, which he did, but intermixt with Satyr. He was a great Opposer of Pelagius, yet was afterwards reconciled to him. He died near 80 Years old, or as some say 96. He is greatly commended by Jerome, and preferred to Cicero for Eloquence. He was however not a little to be blamed for his Satyrical Way, which he vented on every slight occasion, and spared not even St. Paul. The best Edition of his Works was printed at Paris in 6 Tomes, in 1623.

Jerome of Prague, was Bishop of Wicliff and Ilus, whose Doctrine he suc-

J E R

Jerus a Fort built by the Jehusites, who took it. Joshua recovered it, and after his Death the Jehusites retook it; however the Israelites quickly took it from them all but the Fort Jerus, which they kept till David's time, who made himself Master both of that and the City, and called it after his own Name. Salomon built herein several noble Structures, as his Temple, Palace, &c. After his death Sesoftris King of Egypt took and plundered it; from whom Joash recovered it. The Affrians took it from Manasseh, and Nebuchadnezzar from Jehoiachin. This last made Zedekiah King, but who displeasing him, he returned after 10 Years, and getting Possession of the City burnt it; and having put out Zedekiah's Eyes, carried him and his People Captives. 70 Years after, the Jews were sent home by Cyrus, when they rebuilt their City and Temple. After this Alexander the Great had Jerusalem yielded up peaceably. Next Ptolemy Lagus took it by Surprise; and it was afterwards taken and sacked by Antiochus Epiphanes; yet a little after recovered by Judas Maccabeus. Pompey and Herod being offended at the Jews, suffered their Soldiers to plunder it; yet the latter repaired and beautified it. Next Titus became Master of it A. 70, and committed it to the Flames, which scarce left the least Remains of it. Then Adrian rebuilt it, and named it Elia Capitolina, after he had driven the Jews from all Parts, and forbidden them so much as to look back upon their City. Nay, to punish them further, he had the Figure of a Hog placed over Bethlem-Gate. This Emperor likewise built there divers Pagan Temples, which continued to the time of Constantine the Great, who demolished them, and built Christian Churches in their Room. In the Reign of Heracles, Chosroes King of Persia took Jerusalem. In the VIIIth and VIIIth Cent. this City and Country became a Prey to the Saracens, who kept them till the time of Charlemagne, who had a Present made of Jerusalem to him by Armen R. of Persia. After Charlemagne was dead, the Infidels recovered it, till Godfrey of Bouillon took it, and gave beginning to the Kingdom of Jerusalem. His Successors were continually molested by the Saracens, and under King Guy, Saladin conquered Jerusalem and its Kingdom, except some few Places. Several others had it after him; but at length it fell to the Grand Signior, who now enjoys it. Jerusalem has now but few Inhabitants, whereof most are either Soldiers, Priests, or belonging to Justice. Over and above the Turks, here are Arabians, Armenians, Abyssinians, Nestorians, Maronites, Greeks, Jews, and some Roman Catholic Monks. These last have a Monastery, besides a Cell in the Holy Sepulchre. The City is situate on a rocky Mountain, of easie access every where, but towards the N. On the E. it has Mount Oliver, the Vale of Jehosaphat lying between. On the N. the Brook Kidron. On the S. the Mountain of Scandal and Vale of Gethsemane. On the W. it was formerly fenced with the Mountain and Vale of Gibon, and Mount Sion then lay within the City, and had on the E. the famous Temple, between which and the City stood the Royal Palace. Mount Calvary, which was formerly without the Walls to the N. W. is now in the middle of the City, which is distant about 40 Miles from Joppa, 150 from Damascus, to the S. 300 from Grand Cairo to the N. E. and 400 from Alexandria. Long. 69, 00. Lat. 32, 44. The Church of the Holy Sepulchre, tho' formerly subject to that of Cadiz, yet by the 5th Gen. Coun. and ad of Constantinople was preferred. In the Nicene Coun. it obtained the Patriarchate, but that without Suffragans, which were however allowed it afterwards. This Church has had divers Bishops, and undergone great Persecutions. Over and above those of the Apostles, &c. there was a Gen. Coun. held there by Bishop Narcissus in 197. Afterwards Constantine the Great caused an Assembly of Bishops to meet there, to consecrate his Temple, which was performed with great Solemnity. Maximus of Trajan convened a Synod in 350, and Bishp Julian another in 554. In the beginning of Julian's reign a Council was held in 381, and another by Bishp Peter in 526. Another was held here in 533, wherein the 5th General Council was approv'd. In 632 a Council was assembled by Patriarch Sophronius, and another was convened in 752. Gosfrid of Budin, upon taking this City, called one in 1072, and another was assembled afterwards in 1107. Another in 1111, at the Emperors Henry IV. Another in 1115. Another in 1118 or 1142.

J E R

J E S

Julianus, (C. 10) a learned Bernian, who reigned at the Emperors Maximilian, and lost his own life for his devotion.

John (C. 11) a learned Bernian, who reigned at the Emperors Maximilian, and lost his own life for his devotion.

J E S

They wrought for their Livings, and intermeddled with neither Church nor State.

Jesuites, a Religious Order founded by Ignatius Loyola in 1534, and confirmed first by Paul III. and afterwards by the several Popes Julius III. Pius V. and Gregory XIII. who all granted them great Privileges. They make besides 3 Vows, a 4th to the Pope, concerning Missions. Their General is perpetual, has 4 Assistants, and resides always at Rome. The Members of this Society are either Professors, Spiritual Counsellors, or Priests, Temporal Counsellors, or Lay Brothers, Regents or Students, who have the name of Masters, or lastly Novices. This Order differs in two Things, with other Popish Sects, First in their Opinion concerning Predestination and Grace. And Secondly, in Morals, which they are accused to have vitiated. Several Books have been written on both sides, all which may be found in the Provincial Epistles. They are now a powerful Society, but had they kept to the Rules they agreed on of Dionysius Exiguus, who first began to reckon from our Saviour's Birth in 527. which however was not received in the W. till 870. and never in the E. where they still count from the Creation. This Monk placed this Birth A.M. 3950. notwithstanding which the Vulgar Era, did not begin till 4 Years after. The time of his death has been no less disputed, than his Birth; but Mr. Dodwel, in his Dissertations sufficiently proves, that he was 38 Years old when he was crucified. Our Saviour's Name has dignified a Military Order of Portugal, and another instituted at Avignon by Pope John XXII. in 1320. whose Knights differ somewhat in Habits from the former.

J E Z

Jesus of Jerusalem, Son of Sirach, who writ the Book of Ecclesiasticks from Salomon's Proverbs, which a Grandson of his has since translated out of Hebrew.

Jethran, a Mountain of Arabia Petraea, only remarkable for its Semicircular Form, which reverberates the Wind with that violence, that many Ships in the Red-Sea have been thereby wrecked.

Jethro, or Raguel a Priest, a supposed King of Arabia, and Moses's Father in Law. He visited his said Son upon his great Fame, and advised him to divide and subdivide the People, that he might the better introduce Civil Government among them.

Jezebel, Wife of King Ahab, who as an impious Woman persuaded her Husband to adore Baal, and kill the Lord's Prophets. Elijah escaping, procured the death of 450 of Baal's Priests by his Prayers; which incensing Jezebel, she threatened him, and thereupon he fled farther. At length the Murderer of innocent Naboth, provoking God, Ahab was slain, and Queen Jezebel thrown out of the Window by Jehu, and devoured by Dogs.

Jezequiel, King of Persia, who being killed by a Prince of the Saracens, his Name became an Era among the

J E Z

Arabian Astrologers, and Persians, beginning with his death in 632. but it was reformed in 1079 by a King of Corasim.

Jezeid I. 5th Successor of Mahomet in the Caliphship: Having spent his time in writing Love-Verses, he provoked the Arabians to chuse another Caliph; whereupon Jezeid raised an Army, and gave the Command of it to his Brother Abdala, who killed the new Caliph treacherously. After this Jezeid made himself yet more hated, and reigned but 3 Years; and his Successor Muata but 6 Months.

Jezeid II. 11th Caliph, who began to reign in 723. He sent his General Marwan against another Jezeid, who pretended to Persia, and was marching to besiege Damascus; but meeting with Marwan, he was defeated and killed. He commanded all the Images to be taken out of the Christian Churches in 724. but died in 727. before his Commands were executed.

Jezeid or Geld, 13th Caliph, succeeded his Father Gualid. He subdued Cyprus, and transported the Inhabitants to Syria. He cut out the Tongue of the Patriarch of Damascus, for preaching against the Manichees and Arabians, and then banishing him, he was murdered. This Prince was insiduously killed by the Saracens.

Jezeides, a Sect who had their Name from Jezeid I. who slew the Sons of Ali Mahomet's Father in Law. There are about 200000 of these in Turkey and Persia. They are both black and white. The latter are drest in all respects like Turks, except their Shirts, where they have only a Hole to put their Heads through, thereby commemorating a Glory that descended on the Neck of their Chieftain or Prince, after he had fasted 40 Days. The former are Monks of this Sect, yet may marry; and though they have the Title of Fakirs (Poor) yet love Riches inordinately. The Turks hate them both, for their Religion and their Founders, having killed their Pro-

I G N

Prophet's Relations. You cannot affront a Turk, more than to call him a Jezuit. This Sect is loaded with very heavy Taxes by the Turks, whom they hate, but they love the Christians, inclining rather to the Messiah than the Mahomet. They eat Pork, love Drinking, and shun Circumcision as much as they can. They are ignorant, and believe implicitly in the Bible, Gospel and Alkoran, which they say came all three from Heaven. They have no Temples to pray in, but they would make use of our Churches, were it not for fear of the Turks. They have no Feasts, and all their Worship consists in Spiritual Hymns. They pray towards the East, and never curse the Devil, lest he should come in favour again with God, and revenge it on them. They commonly bury in unconsecrated Ground, tho' the Turks have Places assigned them. They sing and play at town-tumblers, and will never lament. The Jack-pudding, the whiffing-tumple Shepherds, are so much respected by

I L L

Persecution, having maintained the Faith before Trajan, A.D. 107. he was condemned, and torn to pieces by wild Beasts in the Amphitheatre at Rome. Whilst he was carrying thither in Chains, he wrote ten Epistles, which some will have to be 7, others more, but others but 5, which last Opinion is the best received. The best Edition of these was published at Amsterdam in 1607.

Ignatius 3. Son of Michael the first Cyropolates, and Patriarch of Constantinople, whom Leo Armenus made an Eunuch, upon dethroning his Father. Hereupon he changed his Name of Nicerus to Ignatius, and retired to a Monastery. Some time after being chosen Patriarch, and approved by the Empress Rebecca Theodora, her Brother in Law Basilius, proving his Enemy, put him out and banished, but in the ensuing Reign, he was restored, and his Residence removed to a Monastery.

Ignatius Loyola, a Gentleman of Spain, born in 1491. who turning Soldier revived with Vigour; but 7 of them being surprized by the Inquisitor General, were burnt, which inclined the rest to abjure.

I M E

Illyria and Illyricum, which anciently contained a large Country between Pannonia and the Adriatick Sea. It was divided into Liburni and Dalmatia, the former conquered by the Romans, near the 2d Punic War, but the latter not before Augustus subdued it. The Inhabitants were great Pirates.

* Illybia, a Pagan Divinity formerly invoked by Women in Labour.

* Illyricus, (Mathew Flavius) a celebrated Divine of the Confession of Augsburgh, born in Illyria in 1520. who was Author of many Books, yet through the Turbulency of his Temper, he introduced so many Disorders into the Church, that after his Death, some did not stick to say of him, That the best thing he ever did, was to die. Bale blames Moreri for placing him under Francovitz.

Ilus IV. K. of Troy, Son of Tros and Brother of Ganimed. He reigned 54 Years, and was succeeded by Laomedon.

Imam, a Name given by the Mahometans to their Priests.

Imaus, a large Mountain of Asia, which begins near the Caspian Sea, and running through the whole Continent, Southward, ends at the Mouth of Ganges, where it spreads again to the East and West, and becomes a Northern Boundary to the Great Mogul's Empire. It receives various Names from the Countries it passes through.

Imrael, 21st Caliph after Mahomet. He had great Wars with Theophilus, Emperor of Constantinople, from whom having taken many considerable Prisoners, he refused a Ransom for em of 2500 0 Double Gold Ducats, which occasioned the Emperor to die of Grief, after which Imrael reigned to 849, when he died likewise.

Imerete, or Imirete, a Kingdom of Asia Major, bounded on the S. by the Principality of Geat and Georgia, and on the N. by the Black-Circassians or Huns, who anciently over-ran the Roman Empire. This Country abounds with Mines, woody Hills, and fruitful and pleasant Vallies and Plains. The Inhabitants are much of the Nature of the Mingrelians their Neighbours. The King has 3 good Fortresses, and having refused Obedience to the Emperors of Constantinople and Trebizond, for a long time lorded it over his Neighbours; but at length the Grand Signior forced them all to pay him Tribute. This King pretends to descend from King David.

I N A

Imola, a fine and populous City and Bishoprick in the Papacy, supposed to have been built by the Romans, destroyed by Nasfes, and revived by the Lombards.

Imperial Cities, are those that have a Title to send Deputies to the Diets of the Empire of Germany.

Imperiale, a City and Bishoprick of S. America, built by the Spaniards, but after some time taken and destroyed by the Indians.

Imperioli, (John Vincent) a valiant and learned Genesee Duke, of the XVIIth Cent. who was banished his Country out of Envy. He wrote divers Pieces of Poetry, as well in Latin as Italian, which were well received.

Imperioli, (John Baptista) a learned Physician of Vicenza in the XVIIth Cent. He was Author of divers Treatises, and had a Son named John Imperiali, who penned several others.

Impudence, a Goddess of the Athenians, who likewise adored Shame in another Temple.

Ina, a West-Saxon King in 690. He performed many warlike Exploits, and ended his Days at Rome. He first granted Peter-Pence to the Pope, and made some wholesome Laws, which continue to this Day.

Inachius, Founder of the Kdom of the Argiers in Peloponessus. The Poets make him Father of Ja, deflower'd by Jupiter.

Inca, the former Name of the Peruvian Emperors, and the present of the Nobility of that Country.

Inci-

I N D

Inciatus, the Name of Caligula's Horse, that he would have made Con-jul. This brutish Emperor conversed with him, had him treated in State, fed him with gilt Barley in an Ivory Manger, and a Marble Stable. He often had him to dine with him, gave him drink himself in a Gold Cup, and clothed him after a sumptuous manner.

Inchyser, (Me'cher) a learned German Jesuite, who wrote a Book, which though he was accused for, yet was he only obliged to change the Title. He died at Milan, in 1648 and was the supposed Author of a Satyr upon the Jesuites.

Incorruptible, Alexander Hereticks in the Emperor Justinian's Reign, who were so called, from their maintaining the Incorruptibility of Christ's Body.

Inebriety, a General Name among the Pagans for the East and South, because they were supposed to live with Women. It is also a Disease vulgarly called the Mourne, and in Greek Aprudie, who occasionally is a sort of Suffocation, or a Stoppage of the Vital Spi-

I N D

who have settled on some of the Coasts. In Long. is from 105 to 149, and Lat. from 10 of Southern Latitude to 44 of Northern. This large Country's Bounds are Persia to the W. China on the E. The Gulph of Bengala and Indian Sea as far as Calecut, on the S. and Assiack-Tartary on the N. Its two principal Rivers are Indus and Ganges. Its Division is into the Continent and Islands. The Continent may be subdivided into, 1. The Empire of the Great Mogul, or Northern India, particularly called Indostan, wherein are 35 Kingdoms. 2. The Peninsula of Malabar, containing the Dominions of Calcondia and Visapour, which comprehend the Kingdoms of Samorin, Calicut, Coulun, Negapatam, Bombay, Norsingua, &c. 3. The Peninsula of India extra Gangem, which lies more Easterly, and has in the N. the Kingdoms of Ava, Pegu, Arracan, &c. in the S. the Kingdom of Siam, and in the E. Cochinchina and Tunquin. The principal Islands belonging to India, are Borneo, Ceylon, Java, &c.

I N D

subdued a Part. Alexander the Great was the first of the Greeks that made any Conquest here, but which he could not keep. About the end of the XVth Cent. the Portuguese began a Settlement here, which they have since improved, but have nevertheless been outwitted in many Places by the Hollanders: However, Goa, &c. are very rich, and belong to the former. The Indians are generally Tawny and Robust, but exceeding Incontinent and Slothful. They eat lying, use abundance of Saller named Belle, and drink Palm and Rice Wines. They understand Physick, Astrology, and a little Mathematicks; but have no taste of any other Learning. The Pagans burn the Dead, and the Wives perish in the Flames with them, as a Token of their Constancy. The Religions here, are either Pagan, Mahometan, Jewish or Christian. The latter is said to have been brought higher by St. Thomas, and his Body pretended to have been found here, which was thereupon transported to Goa, and a fine Church built over it. Others have preached the Gospel here, but none have gained so many Proselytes as the Portuguese, who have converted abundance, and still continue them in the Faith. The Idolaters chiefly inhabit the Southern Parts, who some of them hold a Transmigration of Souls, and therefore will kill nothing that has Life. The Penitents are wonderful, who keep themselves in an unnatural Posture for Years together, which is scarce credible, though affirmed by Tavernier. The Pagans far exceed the Mahometans in Number, and are either Bramins, (Priests and Descendants from the Indian Philosophers) Ketris, (Merchants that feed upon Living Creatures) Raspates, (Troopers who hold that Souls go into Birds, and therefore are great Observers of them) Banians, (Bankers and Brokers, who eat no living Thing, but twice a Day, and are much respected) Jagers, (Pilgrims that subsist upon Alms, and expose themselves to Austerities; yet are nevertheless great Impostors. They have a Superior, whom they chose annually.) Charades, (Poor Soldiers.) Verteas, (a kind of white Monks, who live upon Scraps, sweep their Way before them, for fear of killing any thing, and make a Vow to live single.) Lastly, Paquirs (another sort of Monks, who sleep astride upon thick Ropes, and often fast 8 or 9 Days together. These are the Penitents before-mentioned.) The Mahometans are either Sunnis or Chiasis, the one following Abubeker, and the other Ali. The Great Mogol is of the latter Sect, being the same with that of the Turks. The Trade of these Countries consists, chiefly in the Mogol's Country, in all sorts of Spices, Aloes, Musk, Rhubarb, Worm-Seed, Civen, Indigo, Lacker, Borax, Opium, Amber, Myrcbolans, Sal-Armoniack, Silk, Cottons, Callicoes, Sattins, Tasseries, Velvets, Carpets, Metals, Precious Stones, Porcelain, &c. In the Peninsula of India intra Gangem, the chief Commodities are Metals, Cottons, Pearls, Drugs, Dates, Coco-nuts, Rice, Ginger, Cinnamon, Pepper, Cassia, &c. Those of India extra Gangem are Gold, Silver, precious Stones, Silks, Porcelain, Aloes, Musk, Rhubarb, Alabaster, &c. The Coin current here are Roupies, Larins, and Pagods. The Indians at present understand the Use of Fire-Arms, tho' they formerly had nothing but Bows and Arrows. They use Elephants with Castles in their Wars. The Mogol abounds most with them. All these large Countries were about 200 Years ago, under one Prince, but now under several, the Chief whereof are the Great Mogol, and the Kings of Visapour and Golconda.

I N D

Indiction, a Revolution of 14 Years, a Computation, which some will have instituted by Julius Caesar, others by Augustus, but the best approved Writers say it was first begun by Constantine the Great, in 312. upon his Victory over Maxentius near Rome. It must be observed that Historians speak of 2 sorts of these Indictions, 1. Constantinopolitana, that that began on the 1st of Sept. in the vulgar Æra of the Greeks. 2dly, Imperial, on account of the mentioned Victory; this began on the 24th of Sept. 3dly, Roman, or Pontifical, us'd in the Popes Bulls, &c. this Commences the 1st of Jan. of the Julian Year. All these three must be carefully and diligently distinguish'd, by those that would be exact in the Knowledge of Grecian Antiquity. A Scheme or Table for the better finding out of this, may be seen in Colliers Geogr. Histor. and Poet. Dictionary, to which, for Brevities sake, I refer the Reader.

IND

Indigetes, Demi-Gods listed among the Pagan Divinities for their Heroick Actions. Likewise anciently the Name of a People of Spain.

Indoian, the Great Mogol's Empire, which has Anatolia Tartary, and the Kdom. of Thibet on the N. the Empire of Feris on the W. the R. Colima or Coximite, on the E. and the Bengala-Bay, and Malabar from intory on the S. Besides these, the Mogol has some Domi-

ING

tholicks, Mr. Morrey, criticises it is oftentimes abus'd, whereof he gives divers Examples. Hoffman and Spentzen say, that the too rigid Penances of the Primitive Church, occasioned this sort of Mitigation, which afterwards degenerated, and became what it is at present.

Indus, a celebrated River, which gives Name to the Indians.

Inzelheim, a small T. belonging to the Electer Palatine, famous for being the Birth place of the Emperor Cholo- man, and for having had two General Councils held in it, the former in 788, and the latter in 848.

Ingeham, Bp. of Metz, was Almoner and Chaplain to Charles the Great, and may be remembered here, for having brought the Collection of Canons from Pope Adrian. He had afterwards the Title of Archbp. and died in 791.

Ingeniers, a word at first only applicable to the Managers of Fortifications, but has since been given to other Officers. They had the name from their

I N N

Ingulphus, Abbot of Croyland, in 1076. He was a Londoner Born, and in great Favour with William the Conqueror, whose Secretary he was. He was Author of the History of his Monastery, the best Edition of which was printed at Oxford in 1684.

Inverkebbi, a T. famous for having been formerly the Place of Residence of the Kings of Scotland, on account of the pleasant Country that lies about it. It is remarkable at present for a Fort that curbs the Highlanders.

Inverness, an Ancient Scotch T. Situate on the R. Ness, and Cap. of a County of its own Name, of which the D. of Gordon is Hereditary Sheriff. The River instead of freezing, dissolves Ice, and has extraordinary good Salmon-Fishery.

Innocent I. (Pope) Successor of Anastasi I. in 402. He defended St. Chrysostom, and reprov'd John of Jerusalem, for siding with Pelagius against St. Jerome. He condemn'd the Catharist Heresy, as also that of Pelagius and Celestine. He was sent by the Emp. Honorius to Alaie, K. of the Goths, to prevent his coming against Rome, but which had no Effect. He died in 417, and was said to have been the Author of 34 Epistles, some of which nevertheless are suspected to be spurious.

Innocent II. (Pope) succeeded Honorius II. in 1130. having had many considerable Employments before he had that Office. At the same time an Anti-Pope was chosen, and espoused by the Romans, which occasion'd Innocent to fly to France, where he held several Councils, in one of which he was pronounced true Pope. He Crowned an Emperor at Liege, and a King of France at Rheims. Upon his return to Italy, he enter'd Rome with the Emp. Lutharius. After he had held the 2d Gen. Council of Lateran, he was made Prisoner by Roger K. of Sicily, who released him upon his giving him the Investiture of that Kingdom. Having endeavour'd to persuade Henry King of England, to engage in the Crusade, he died in 1143, or as Platina says in 1144.

I N N

Innocent III. (Pope) elected in 1198. He persecuted the Albigenses, caus'd Transubstantiation to be declar'd an Article of Faith in another Lateran Council, and ordain'd Heretick Princes to be depos'd. He confirm'd the Monastic Rules of St. Dominick and St. Francis; establish'd the Emp. Orto IV. and excommunicated Orto V. To him K. John of England resign'd his Crown, that he might have his Assistance against the K. of France. He condemn'd the Heretic of Almericus, and died in 1216. He has written several Divine Treatises; yet Matthew Paris gives him but an indifferent Character.

Innocent IV. (Pope) elected in 1243. He was so well vers'd in the Civil Law, that he had the title of the Father of that Faculty. He was ill us'd by the Emp. Frederick II. for which he had him excommunicated in a Gen. Council at Lyons in 1245. He first gave the Cardinals red Hats, that they might be mindful of spending even their Blood in the Churches Defence. Upon the Death of Frederick II. he left Lyons, and return'd to Italy, but came not to Rome till 1252. Upon endeavouring to recover Naples from the Usurper Manfred, he was defeated by him, which occasion'd his Death in 1254. He wrote several Books on divers Subjects.

Innocent V. (Pope) elected at Arezzo in 1275. He immediately endeavour'd a Reconciliation between the Tuscans and the Prisians, as also betwixt the Genoises and the Venetians. In the former he succeeded, but could not Effect the latter, their Animosities running higher. He died 6 Months after his Election, and had been Author of divers Divine Tracts.

Innocent VI. (Pope) Bp. of Clermont, succeeded Pope Clement VI. in 1352, at Avignon, where the Papal See then was. He attempted to reform the Papal Court, and to reconcile the Kings of England and France, but without Success. He had a Franciscan burnt for styling the Popes *Anti-Christ*s, suspended former Indulgencies, and order'd all the Clergy to repair to their Benefices. He made War upon such as intrench'd on the Church, and differ'd with the Romans about the Magistracy. He was a good Liver, and took great Care of bestowing Church Preferments. Having been disappointed in his endeavours to reconcile some Christian Princes, 'tis thought it caus'd his Death.

I N N

Innocent VII. (Pope) succeeded Boniface IXth in 1404, in Opposition to Peter de Luna, who was stild Benedict XIII. He finish'd his Oath to Resign in Case Benedict would, which occasioned him some trouble. Upon his deserting the Romans, they invited Uladdus, K. of Naples among them, which made Innocent go interibo. At his return to Rome, he excommunicated Uladdus, and died soon after.

I N N

on, which they obtain'd thro' Card. Mazarine's means, on Condition they should purchase in that Kingdom, to secure their Fidelity. The Pope being made acquainted with this by a Letter from the Fr. King, was exceedingly nettled, and therefore immediately calls the Barberins, to an account for what Publick Monys they had been intrusted with in the late Papacy; which tho' they comply'd with, and clear'd themselves in, yet did Innocent Sequester their Estates. Hereupon they withdrew into France, and King Lewis not being able to obtain any favour for them from the Pope, he attack'd Orbitello, and seiz'd St. Stephen, which not a little alarm'd the City of Rome. This made the Pope a little more flexible, but Orbitello being recover'd, he renew'd his hatred to that Family, and would hearken to no Proposals in their favour. This caus'd the Fr. King to send a Fleet against Italy; where having taken two Places, his Holiness began to be more am-

I N N

Innocent XI. (P. pe) Of the Noble Family of Odescalchi, in the Milanese, was made Card. Legate of Bonini, AB. of Naples, by his Predecessor, and chosen Pope by the Cardinal-Zealots after great Heats. His first Action was regulating the Abuses of Nepotism when to calm his Nephew Don Livio's Resentments, he gave him his Estate of 30000 l. per An. He next shortened his Domestick Expences, and Ambassadors Priviledges. He promoted a general Reformation of Manners, banished Strumpets, suppressed Gaming, and took care of Creditors. He allow'd Q. Christina of Sweden 12000 Crowns per An. in lieu of what she had lost by the Wars. He did all he could to procure a Peace between the Empire and Fr. and a War with the Turk. He had some difference with the Spanish Ambassador, which was at length amicably adjust'd. He next differ'd with the R. of France, about the disposing of Church Benefices and Laws, which the latter claim'd and put in Practice, which was afterwards confirm'd by a Fr. Council, who call'd the Popes Brief, publish'd upon this Occasion, an Invasion made on the Gallian Church. This ended in a Victory on neither side, both proving obstinate. Another Difference follow'd about the French Ambassadors Priviledges, which likewise was never adjust'd. He had 26 Cardinals died in his time, whereat the Vacancies of 10 be fill'd up, and kept the rest unsupplied. He suppress'd a world of Indulgences, granted by his Predecessors for 80000 Years. He likewise condemn'd several Propositions concerning Morality, which were really scandalous, and supported by the subtle Jesuits. Before his Death, he obtain'd a League between the Emp. Poles, and Venetians, against the Turks. He died in 1689.

Innocent XII. (Pape) Of the Noble Family of Pignatelli, who after being made AB. of Naples, succeeded Alexander VIII. in the Popedom, in 1692. and died in 1700.

I N N

Inns of Court, certain Colleges in London, assign'd for the Study of the Municipal Laws of England. Hereof there are, 4, the Inner-Temple, Middle-Temple, Lincoln-Inn and Grays-Inn; which together with the 2 Serjeants-Inns, and the 8 Inns of Chancery, are as the learn'd Cook says, a large University for the Professors of the Law. According to Sir W. Dugdale, Lawyers were anciently Clergy-men, which continued from the Saxon Reigns to Henry III. when they were discourag'd in that Study; yet did they still retain the Honour of the Bench for some time after. To return to the Inns of Court; the Inner-Temple being granted to the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, by Edward III. upon suppression of the Templars, that Order convey'd it to the Common Lawyers who came from Thavies-Inn. These continued Tenants till Henry VIII's time, when the aforesaid Order was dissolv'd; whereupon they held of the Crown till James I. granted both the Temples to the Members of those Societies. There was formerly the Outer-Temple (Essex-Street) so named because situate without Temple-Bar. Next for Lincoln-Inn, the Benchers having had a Lease of their Ground from the Bp. of Chichester, in the Reign of Henry VII. got a Grant of the Inheritance in the ensuing Reign, and had it confirm'd by the Chapter of that Bprick. This Inn anciently belong'd to the Earls of Lincoln, whence it had its Name. Lastly, Grays-Inn which had its Name from the Noble Family of the Grays of Wilton, whose Seat it anciently was, and from whom it was purchased in Henry VII's Reign, by Hugh Denis Esq; under the Name of the Mannor of Portpole, who selling it to the Monks of Shene, they Leas'd it in the following Reign to the Lawyers, who from the time of the Dissolution of that Monastery, have held it of the Crown. Formerly none were admitted of those Societies but Gentlemen. The 2 Serjeants-Inns are Colleges

Calling will be too long to insert, and therefore I shall only observe, that out of these the Judges are chosen, and that the King has a select Number of them, which have the Title of his Serjants, with several Privileges.
 The Inns of Chancery are 8 in Number,
 and were heretofore Preparatory Colleges for young Students, before they were admitted at the Inns of Court.
 Now they belong wholly to Attorneys, Solicitors, and Clerks, who here live in common. They are each subject to some of the Inns of Court, who have a Power to make Laws which they are bound to observe. All these Societies are no Corporations, nor have any judicial Power over their Members, but have certain Orders among themselves, which by Consent have obtain'd the Force of Laws. As for the admittance into the Inns of Court, the Charge of the General is 5 Marks and of the Special 5 Pounds. The Privilege of the latter, is that the Student so admitted, is not bound to be in Commons, till he is call'd to the Bar.
 The Students are oblig'd to perform certain Exercises, before they are qualified for the Bar-Gown, the manner of obtaining which, and the Readers Lectures I omit for Brevities sake, and insert of it. The 1 in their Persons as the Practice till as when the Western a Power to Summe prison, but banish
 this Authority contr
 Years. But in the was so much enen were said to hold that they could no pretend to Preach Conversion. Here
 IX. thinking the establish'd the
 which was soon Crucifixes. This
 embrac'd it; but Son Philip, endeavor
 it in the Low Coun loss of those Pri ways refus'd to ac
 all the other Dom
 cept the Kingdom is in the hands of takes Cognizance o Munition in, &c. are imprison'd in ver see the Light them selves, for the fronted with Witne is no more Pro f

I N S

a threatening with Burn- of a Relapse; that with ies and the Delinquents rounded by Devils, shews condemn'd to Die, if they ant; but when they have loaths on, they are to be upon a Fine. If Reun- aism Relapse a third time, fluredly burnt. The Sen- ath is pronounc'd by 7 Se- , who attend for that pur- Inquisitor General of Goa has it paid him than either the :Roy. Here those convic- ick, have besides the be- d Habits, Paper-Cape like s, painted with Devils and e Inquisition extends even l, who if convicted, have dug up and burnt. Be- iminals are brought out to tence, they go in Proce- errtain Church barefooted, and with lighted Tapers nds. The least Guilty go ose that are to die bring . The Inquisitors are no- the King, and confirm'd . The Lenetan Inquisition, near so cruel as the Spanish are. It tolerates Greeks, nd Jews, which last must e Caps. It also admits all ake Degrees in the Univer- Congregation of the Inqui- stablish'd by Pope Paul III. id by Sixtus V. It consists rdinals, and abundance of l Divines. The Cardinals rs General, and depute Sub- the Provinces.

a fine rich City, Cap. of fixuate in a Valley below is a noble Castle, formerly f Residence of the ADukes of Austria, and a stately where they were buried. ury is the Castle of Amras, eschal Villeroi was lately There is a fine Library.

I N V

Institutum, (Johannes) a Cartusian of the XVth Cen. who An. 1400. writ of the Cavils against the Bible.

Intaphernes, a Persian Rebel, whom Darius having condemned with divers others, his Wife implor'd Mercy for them all, but being put to her Choice to save one, she chose her Brother, saying, She could have another Husband and Sons, but never a Brother; where- upon she let her Husband be execu- ted.

Interdict, a Papal Censure, whereby Edms. Provinces, Towns, &c. are for- bid Preaching and Communion. It is said to have begun in the Reign of Charlemain, tho' some will have it to be in the IVth and Vth Cent. Pope Gregory VIII made greatest Use of it. And Alexander III. Interdicted England: but for good Reasons, the Popes have since much declin'd the Practise of it.

Interim, a Confession of Faith impos- ed on the Protestants by Charles V. after Luther's Death, which had that Name, because it was to last only, till a General Council should determine the Differences in Religion, then on Foot. For further Information, I refer the Reader to the History of Germany, where this matter may be seen more at large.

Intermedia, or Interludes in Tragedy and Comedy, were anciently either Dances and dumb Gestures of the Mimi, between the Acts; or the Songs, Tunes, and Jests of the Embolares.

Invention of the Holy Cross, a Festi- val among the Rom. Catholicks, in Me- mory of the finding of our Saviour's Cross by the Emp. Helena, who being at Jerusalem, and upon Information making quest after it, found it. Part of it she left behind, and built a stately Church for it; the remainder with the Nails, she carry'd with her to Constan- tinople.

Investiture, is the manner of giving Possession of any Dignity, Revenue, &c. of which are many different kinds.

Invocation

J O A

Invocation of Saints, the Practice whereof commenced in the Vth Cen. but nothing like what is now practised in the Church of Rome.

Io, Daughter of Inachus, debauched by Jupiter, and then turn'd into a White Cow, which jealous Juno perceiving, she begs the Cow, and had her kept by Argos, who had 100 Eyes, but whom Mercury killing by Jupiter's Order, Juno made so mad, whereupon she ran and cast herself in the Sea, which from her was call'd the Ionian Sea. She swam to Egypt, where she was ad'ld by the Name of Isis, having still retained her Shape and married Osiris.

Joachim, a Catalan Cistercian Monk, was in great repute about the end of the Xth Cen. He has since been look'd on as an Enthusiast, and his Prophecies but as Conjectures. He wrote several Commentaries on the Psalms, and a Consolance to both Testaments, with other Books, whereof one was condemned in the Lateran Council in 1215. as Heretical. which pernicious, and diligently published his Works after his Death.

J O A

Joan I. Daughter and Heiress of Henry I. K. of Norm. She married Philip the Fair, and founded the College of Navarre at Paris. She died in 1204.

Joan II. of France, Queen to Philip Vth. who being suspected of Incontinency, was imprison'd almost a Year, till at length proving her Innocency, she was restor'd, she founded the College of Burgundy at Paris, and died in 1325.

Joan III. of France, Qu. to Louis XII. who having had her in a manner forc'd upon him, got divorc'd from her, when she retir'd to Bourges, where she founded the Order of the Annunciation. The Rule was form'd on the 10 Virtues of the Virgin Mary. The Habit is a black Vail, white Cloak, red Scapular, grey Robes, and a Cord for a Girdle.

Joan, (d'Albret) Q. of Navarre, was married to Anthony K. of Navarre in 1548. She was Mother to Henry III.

JOA

and having taken it, had her beheaded. It was she that sold Avignon to the Pope; she had a great deal of wit, and loved Learning and learned Men.

Joan II. Daughter to the before-mention'd Charles, came to the Edom of Naples, after the Death of her Brother Ladislaus in 1414. She was twice married, and forsaken by her last Husband on account of Jealousie, which she gave him reason for. She adopted Alphonso V. K. of Arragon; but he disobliging her, she conferr'd that favour on the aforesaid D. of Anjou; and he dying, she made Renatus of Anjou, her Heir by Will. She died soon after, 65 Years old, having reigned 20.

Joan, Regent of Portugal, left such by her Father Alphonso V. while he went against the *Moor*s in 1470. At her Father's return, tho' she had acquitted her self well in her Trust, she went into a Monastery, and would not accept of any of the great Matches were offer'd her.

Joan, Countess of Montfort; after her Husband Count John IVth's Death, she retook several Towns from the Count of Blois, and defended others against him. She rais'd the Siege of Amnebois by a courageous Sally she made, by which means she regain'd the Duchy of Bretagne, which for some time continued in her Family. She liv'd in the XIVth Cen.

Joan of Valois, Daughter of the Fr. King, was considerable for her Piety and Virtue, and after her Husband Co. William I. of Hainault's Death, retir'd into an Abbey. She by her Prudence had effected an Accomodation between England and France, when both were ready for Battle.

Joan (Pope) vid. John VIII.

Joan of Ark, call'd also Pucelle de Orleans was a Sheperdess, who at the Age of 18 or 20 Years, pretending to a Divine Commission, relieved Orleans, having after routed the English at the Battle of Patay. This done, she had

JOH

Charles VIIth Crown'd at Rheims; but unfortunately making a Sally at Compiene, she was taken by the English, and some time after was burnt at Rouen for a Witch in 1430. Charles VIIth got the Judgment revers'd by Pope Calixtus III. to redeem her from Infamy.

Job, whose Virtues, especially Patience, are the subject of one of the Canonical Books of the old Testament. He was Native of Uz, between Edom and Arabia. Some say, he was the Jobab mention'd in Genesis.

Job, one of the Impostor Mahomet's Companions, who was killed at the Siege of Constantinople, by the Caliph Jezid. He has a sumptuous Monument still to be seen in that City.

Jocasta, Mother of Oedipus, whom she ignorantly married, and had two Sons by him, who killing each other, she died of Grief.

Jocundus, (John) a Veronese Dominican of the XVth Cen. who was a good Philosopher, Antiquary and Architect. Besides his Writings, he contriv'd the building of Nostredame Bridge at Paris, where I have seen an Inscription to his Memory.

Jodelle, (Stephen) a Fr. and Lat. Poet of the XVth Cen, who first imitated the Ancients Tragedies and Comedies in French. He was also a good Orator, Architect, Painter and Carver, but was nevertheless a Soldier by Profession. He was Author of several Works, which were published in 1574 the Year after he died.

Joel, one of the XII. Minor Prophets, who lived A. M. 3300.

John Baptist, (St.) our Saviour's Precursor or Fore-runner of whom Profane Authors give this farther Account, than what is to be found in the Gospel. They say, Herodias pierc'd his Tongue with her Bodkin for having spoken against her. That his Body was buried in a T. of Samaria by his Disciples; and That his Head and other Parts, have several Churches which lay Claim to a share of them. Some think the Lo-calls mentioned in the Scriptures for his bond, were living Creatures; but others say, they were Heros. The Greek word implies both. Authors differ also about the time he Baptiz'd our Saviour.

J O H

John, (St.) the Evangelist and Apostle, was Son of Zebedee, and was Brother of St. James Major. The Bps of Ephesus call themselves his Successors. He propagated the Faith among the Parthians, to whom, some say, he wrote his first E. Gle. Dionysius had him thrown into boiling Oil, whence coming out unhurt, he was banished to Patmos, where he pen'd his Revelations. Upon Dionysius's Death he wrote his G. Gle. at Ephesus, A. C. 96. St. John makes mention of noble Extractions, and says, that he had great Intimacy with the High Priest on Account of having Sold his Estate to him. He was a Chosen Disciple, and upon the Apostles dividing the World into Provinces, had Asia allotted him to preach in. He entered not upon that Course of Life, as the Virgin

J O H

John of Malta (St.), Founder of the Order of the Holy Trinity, and of the Redemption of Captives, which was confirm'd by Pope Innocent III. in 1209. He traveled amongst Barbarians to Ransom Selves.

The following XXIII. of this Name were Popes, &c.

John I. came to the Papacy in 523. He being forc'd by Theodore K. of Italy to go to Constantinople, to get the Emp. Julian, to recall his Edicts against the Arrians, was upon his return, seised, imprison'd at Ravenna, where he died for want, in 526. John II. was chosen in 532. He had the Sect of the Acemites condemned in a Synod, at the Request of the Emp. Justin. John III. elected in 559. He remov'd the Churches of the Apostles, St. Peter and St. Philip at Rome. John IV. was chosen in 639. He wrote to the Scottish Prelates about celebrating Easter after the Eastern way. He died in 641. John V. elected in 685, was continually Sick, and never left his Bed till he died, in twelve months.

J O H

they satisfy themselves of the Candidate's Sex before they chuse him, Some have endeavour'd to destroy the Story of this Pope, but who have been considerably confuted by Spanheim. The Person they put in her Place, was John VIII. a Roman, Successor of Adrian II. He Crown'd the Emp. Carolus Calvus, which disobliging the Italians, they conspir'd against him, and threatned Rome. Hereupon he sought Aid of the Emperor, who tho' he came into Italy, was poison'd upon his Return. At this time the Pope was Prisoner, but escaping soon after, he got to Troyes in Campagne, where he crown'd Lewis the Stammerer, not Emp. but King. Some say he was at last obliged to pay the Sarazens Tribute. After this, he Crown'd Charles the Fat, Emp. in Rome, and died in 882. His Epitaph is to be seen in the Vatican.

John IX. succeded Theodore II. in 901. in which Year he held a Council of 74 Bishops at Ravenna, where he confirm'd the Acts of Pope Formosus, and condemn'd and burnt those of Stephen VII. He confirm'd Lambert K. of Italy, and died in 905. John X. was elected in 913. He with the Assistance of the Marquis of Tuscany's Son, routed the Sarazens several times, which made some say, he was fitter for a Soldier than a Priest. In his time, the Union of the Greek and Latin Churches was endeavour'd, but prevented by the Bulgarian War. This Pope was imprisoned by Guy D. of Tuscany, at the Intercession of his Wife, a lewd Woman, who thinking to prefer her Son by Sergius III. had John strangled by her Guards in 929. John XI. The aforesaid Son of the Dutches of Tuscany, who was not made Pope till after Stephen VIII. This Dutches upon her Husband's Death, propos'd to Marry his Brother Hugh K. of Italy, which so incens'd Hugh's Son, that he had her, and her Son the Pope confin'd, whereupon the latter died in 936.

J O H

John XII. succeeded Agapet II. at 18 Years old. He was the first that changed his Name, which was before Octavian. He was very wicked, for tho' he call'd the Emp. Otho I. into Italy, and crown'd and swore Allegiance to him; yet he sided with the Tyrant Berengarius against him, which occasioned his being depos'd; but upon the Emp's return Home, he resumed the Papacy, and had the former Proceedings against him burnt, and murder'd some of his Enemies with various Tortures. Notwithstanding his re-establishment, continuing his ill Course of Life, he was at last stabb'd by the Husband of a Woman he was found in Bed with. He was the most profligate Prelate of any before him.

John XIII. Successor of Benedict V. in 965. He us'd the Romans ill, for disliking his being chosen by the Emperor's Authority; but they made him withdraw to Cepus, whence he was afterwards brought and restor'd by the Emp. who came into Italy on purpose. He call'd a Council at Ravenna, and first us'd to Consecrate Bells. He died in 972. John XIV. succeeded Benedict VII. in 984. He was outed by the Anti-Pope Boniface VII. and strangled by his Orders in 985. John XV. came after the said Boniface in 985. He was forc'd to fly for fear of Crescentius, then in great Power at Rome; but upon his soliciting the Emperor's Protection, he was recall'd by the Romans. He was both Coverous and Proud, and died whilst the Emperor was besieging Crescentius in Castell St. Angelo. John XVI. succeeding the foregoing Pope, Crescentius also forc'd him away; but being recall'd, he died soon after in 995. John XVII. Anti-Pope. Crescentius had him chosen in Opposition to Gregory V. This Pope had a great many Friends, but coming into the Emp's Power at the same time with Crescentius, he had his Hands and Ears cut off, and his Eyes pluck'd out, An. 998. He was afterwards set back wards upon an Ass, and led ignominiously about the Streets. John XVIII. elected by the Tuscanels Elect on after Silvester II. in 1003. 'Tis said, that now began the first Election of the Popes by the Clergy. John XIX. elected in 1003. He is said to have reconciled the Greek and Latin Churches, and to have been pray'd for at Constantinople. John XX. succeeded his Brother Benedict VIII. in 1024. He Crown'd the Emp Conrade II. and died in 1032. John XXI. came after Adrian V. in 1276. He had been a Portuguese Physician, and was made Cardinal by Gregory X. He exhorted the Emperor Michael Palaeologus, to observe what had been transacted in the Council of Lyon. He died in 1277. by the fall of a Room he himself had built, tho' he Prophecy'd he should live long. He was commendable for preferring poor Scholars, and furnishing them with Money. He was Author of several Books, but thro' his Ignorance of Business and unequal Conversation, he gainst him, and put Nicholas V. in his place; who nevertheless afterwards being taken and carry'd to Avignon, was glad to ask Pope John's Pardon with a Rope about his Neck. This Pope protected the Guelphs against the Emperor, was extremely addicted to Novelties, and severely punish'd a Conspiracy against him. He built a Palace at Avignon, and died exceeding rich in 1334.

J O H

J O H

John XXIII. a Neapolitan, made Cardinal by Boniface IX. and chosen Pope after Alexander V. on Condition he should quit the Papacy, in Case his Antagonists did; which however he never would, till he was forc'd to it by the Council of Constance, in its 12th Session in 1415. After this he was committed Prisoner under Guard of the Count Palatine, and got not out till 1410. Hereupon he went to Florence, and so ingratiated himself with Pope Martin V. that he got to be Dean of the Cardinal, and Ep. of Prescati. He died not long after, and Charity, succeeded Theodorus in 610. He eradicated Heresie and Simony, Re-form'd the Clergy's Morals, founded Churches and Hospitals, and gave away all that he had remaining to the Poor. He died at Cyprus in 620. whether he had fled from the fury of the Barbarians.

J O H

John I. Patriarch of Antioch, became such in 427. He was suspected for a Nestorian, wherefore Pope Celestine wrote to him to oppose that Heresie, which he seem'd to comply with, however kept strict Correspondence with that Heresiarch afterwards. In favour of him, he would not appear for a good while at the Council of Ephesus, and when he did, 'twas after Nestorius was condemn'd, upon which he and 30 more Heretical Bps, met and re-establish'd the Palagian Bps, and condemn'd and excommunicated those of the Council for Hereticks. Hereupon John was summon'd to give Account of his Proceedings, and not appearing was Anathematiz'd. After this, John gave great Disturbance to the Church, by the difference he had with St. Cyril. However he at last recanted, and being reconciled to the Church of Rome, detested Nestorius and his Opinions for ever after. Another of this Name, John II. came to be Patriarch of Antioch in 1090, but he did nothing remarkable.

The following XIII. of this Name were Patriarchs of Constantinople, viz.

John I. (St.) Chrysostom, liv'd four Years in rigorous Solitude in the Mountains near Antioch, at the end of which, he return'd to the City, and was first made Deacon, and afterwards Priest; during which Stations, he penn'd most of his Works. In 369, he succeeded Nestorius in the Patriarchship of Constantinople; but tho' he had done a great many good things in his Office, yet by disobliging the great Men with taxing them of Vices, by opposing the Usurpers of the Empire, and by not appearing at the Synod of Quercum, whither he had been sum-mon'd to Answer some Accusations, he was depos'd and banish'd by the Emperor. Being recall'd, his Enemies continued their hatred to him, and so set the Empress Eudoxia against him, for refusing her a Statue, that she vow'd his Ruin. For this purpose, she first got him banish'd, and then had him confin'd to a wild Place in Armenia, where he was like to starve for Want. Thence she had him convey'd to Arabissa, in the same Province; but afterwards thinking to carry him to a place upon the Euxine Sea, the Soldiers us'd him so ill, that he died by the Way in 407. The best Edition of his Works, is either that publish'd by Sir Hen. Savil, in VIII. Tomes in 1613. that of Commelin in IV Volumes in 1603, or the Paris Edition, publish'd by P. Fronto Ducens in 1613. in VI. Tomes.

J O H

John II. chosen Patriarch in 517. He enter'd not immediately upon his Office; yet during the Interval, condemn'd several Hereticks, and embrac'd the Council of Chalcedon. After his Consecration, he got what he had done confirm'd by a Synod, which also approv'd the IV. Gen. Councils, and recall'd divers banish'd Bishops. John III. surnam'd Scholasticus, was by favour of some Hereticks prefer'd to the Patriarchship, after Eutychius in 564. which he enjoy'd till 578. He was Author of a Collection of Canons, he also made the first Novus Canon. John IV. surnam'd the Fastid, succeeded another Eutychius in 583. He had a difference with Pope Pelagius, about the Title of Oecumenical or Universal Bp. which however he would not quit, tho' he was threatned with Excommunication by that Pope, and his Successor Gregory the Great. He died in 569. and is said to have been exceeding Charitable and Abstemious. John V. succeeded Thomas II. in 658. He sided with the Monothelites, yet has been esteem'd Orthodox. He died in 664. John VI. likewise of that Sect, was an Apostate from the Church of Rome, and and chosen Patriarch in 712. but 2 Years after he was depos'd by the Emperor. John VII. He sided with the Iconoclasts, and obtained the Patriarchship in 835. In 842. he was oured by the Regent Theodora, Mother of Michael III. He was afterwards like to have had his Eyes pluck'd out, for defacing of Images, but which he escaped, and was only Whipp'd. John VIII. elected in 1019. John IX. succeeded Greg. Xiphilinus in 1198. John X. He approv'd the design'd Union of the Greek and Latin Churches in 1274. however was afterwards condemn'd in a Synod, held at Constantinople in 1283. John XI. succeeded Anastasiun in 1274. He was much esteem'd for his Virtue, and held this Charge till 1301. John XII. came after Nipho in 1315. He took great Pains to refine the Greek Tongue, and died in 1325. John XIII. succeeded Isidore in 1331. or 40. and was depos'd in 1345.

J O H

John Michael a Venetian, was Patriarch to the Latins of Constantinople in 1453.

J O H

Error, he condemned and banish'd these Hereticks. He died in 911. John IV. was Successor of Eutychius. He govern'd till 925. when he died.

The following VIII. were Emperors of the East, of this Name, viz. I. (Zimisces) who obtained the City by joining with Theophania her Husband the Emperor Phocas, which he effected. and deposed him in 969. upon certain Conditions, whereof one was to be an Empress Theophania. This Emperor drove the Sarazens from Africa defeated the Turks, Russians and Garians. Hereby he brought it to a Province, and chang'd the name of its Cap. City. He was possessor of Damascus by one or two Days but died at Constantinople, where much ado he reach'd. An. 976. II. Comnenus succeeded his Father Isidore Comnenus in 1118. He obtain'd many Victories, and his reign was terminated in 1143. when he was killed by a poisoned Arrow as he was Hunting in Sicily. His Phœnix and Emanuel in 1341. The Elder John was Crown'd at the same time at Constantinople, and prov'd no small Reverence to the Progress of this Usurper, and tho' he had made several Conquests, yet at length by the Assistance of the Genese, absolutely defeated his Fleet in 1351. After this Constantinople was always unfortunate, insomuch that in 1355 or 57, he found himself compell'd to quit the Throne; which he did, and retir'd to a Monastery, where he turn'd Friar, and Author, and compos'd several Books in Greek, which we have Extant under his Name, especially a History of his own, and the preceding Reign. John VI. whom the Usurper had put by. He rewarded the Service of the Genese, but could not have the like Success against the Bulgarians, with whom he had a sharp War. He was also Unfortunate against the Savoyards, who took him Prisoner; but he was soon ransom'd. He had a League with the Turks, which they did not observe, and took several Places from him. His Son rebelling against him, was discover'd, and blinded with Scalding Vinegar; whereupon flying to the Turks, he was restor'd by their Means, and put his Father and Brethren in Prison. After few Years the Emperor getting his Liberty, reign'd for some time after in Peace; and at last he died, and left his Dominions to his 2d Son Emanuel in 1391. John VII. Upon his Father Emanuel's Abdication, succeeded him in 1419. Some think this Prince died in 1425, and that he was succeeded by his Brother John VIII. However it is certain, there was but one of this Name. This Prince lost much to the Turks, which made him to conclude a Union with the Latins, at the Councils of Ferrara and Florence, whither he went in Person for that Purpose. Soon after his return, he died in 1448. or as others say in 1445.

J O H

John K. of England, Son of Henry II. Succeeded his Brother Richard I. in

J O H

1199. His Nephew Arthur disputed the Crown with him in France; but being taken Prisoner, he had him murder'd. Hereupon John was summoned by K. Philip, to answer for this Murder, and not appearing, had all his Lands in France Confiscated: this was not all; K. John was afterwards excommunicated by the Pope, for his ill usage o' the Clergy, and his Subjects; but after some fruitless Opposition, he submitted and consented to pay an Annual Tribute to the See of Rome, whereupon he receiv'd his Crown again, which he had resign'd to the Legate. This made him yet more hated by his Subjects, who for retrieving of their Liberties, made War up'n him, and invited over the Dauphin of France, whom they Crowned K. at London, but at length attended the Dauphin's retiring, upon a Consideration of the Expence he had been at. This King died in 1216. having Surfeited upon Peaches, tho' others will have him poison'd by a Monk.

John K. of France, succeeded Philip of Valois in 1350. He is said to have founded or reviv'd the Order of the Star. The English invading Normandy, under K. Edward the III. in 1355. K. John beat them resolutely back; but in the following Year, the Black Prince returned with 12000 Men, and tho' K. John surrounded him with 100000 Men, and brought him to dishonourable Offers; yet they being refus'd, the Prince not only extricated himself, but likewise gain'd the Victory, and took K. John Prisoner, who after having been honourably us'd, was sent to Beauneux, and thence to London, where he was kept till the Peace of Bretigni in 1360. Soon after his Release, he visited the Pope at Avignon, who perswading him to make an Expedition to the Holy-Land, he would not promise it, till he had consulted K. Edward of England; whom visiting upon that Occasion, before he could bring about his Design, he was taken

... the succets of his Brother Charles V. against the English. He defeated the Tuchins of Auvergne and Poitou in 1348. After which, he had the Administration of Publick Affairs, but was turn'd out, yet was restor'd again. He was remov'd from his Government of Languedoc, but likewise re-establish'd in 1410. He died in 1416.

The following Kings of this Name, were of Nauarre and Aragon, viz. John I. K. of Aragon only, succeeded Peter I. in 1384. He was dispis'd for his weak Capacity, and therefore his Reign was very much molested. He died in 1395. John II. K. of Aragon, was also K. of Nauarre in right of his Wife Blanche, by whom he had Charles Prince of Vaine. After the Death of Blanche, K. John having married again, Prince Charles could not see that Queen have any share in the Government, and therefore engag'd the House of Beaumont to oppose that of Grammont, which sided with the King. At length the Prince was Crown'd, and being defeated, was reconciled to his Father. K. John coming to Aragon by the Death of his Brother, he had a sharp War with Henry IV. of Castile.

J O H

ther in 1406. He was committed to the Charge of the Bp. of Carthage, formerly a Jew. He was scarce able to bear Arms, before he was oblig'd to go against the Kings of Nawarre and Aragon, whom he soon made to ask Peace. Next he went against the Ungrateful K. of Granada, whom he had establish'd in his Throne, and having routed him, kill'd 12000 of his Men, and plunder'd his Country. This K. died in 1454.

The following III. of this Name, were Kings of Denmark and Sweden, viz. John I. King of Sweden, succeeded Erik X. in 1218. He was a good Prince, but reign'd not above 3 or 4 Years, dying in 1222. John II. K. of Denmark succeeded his Father Christien I. in 1482. He was also K. of Sweden in 1483. but depos'd for not keeping his Word, and could never get himself restor'd, tho' he endeavour'd it with great Force. He died in 1523. John III. who having been imprison'd 6 or 7 Years, by Erik XIV. procur'd him to be depos'd, and succeeded him in 1568. He reign'd peaceably, but towards his latter end he would have introduc'd Popery, and had privately made Abjuration of Lutheranism, and sent to the Pope for his Assistance; yet tho' that was sent to him, and great endeavours were us'd to effect what had been intended, K. John, return'd to his former Religion, and left the Legate Puffin to return Home as he came.

John, Vainol of Transylvania, was Crown'd K. of Hungary in 1526, after the Death of Lewis, at the Battel of Mohatz. Ferdinand of Austria was also Crown'd by another Party, between whom, and his Rival John were long Wars, but which at length ended in Peace. The Turks besieged Vienna, on behalf of the latter in 1529. but without Success. K. John died in 1540.

John de Brienne, K. of Jerusalem, engaged in the Croisade with the French, who took Constantinople in 1204. Having, got much Reputation in these Wars, the Barons of Jerusalem after the Death of the King, sent to profer him their Kingdom, which he accepted, and arrived in Palestine in 1210. He first reliev'd Ptolemais, and then took Damietta, after a Year and half's Siege, but could not keep it. This Prince marry'd his only Daughter Yolande to the Emp. Frederick II. and in 1229, the French Barons of the East, chose him Regent of Constantinople, and Guardian of Baldwin II. when he was Crown'd by the Patriarch as was Customary. He defeated John Ustaz several times, but at last grew Covetous, and died in 1237.

J O H

The following III. of this Name, were Kings of Poland, viz. John Albert, who succeeded Casimir IV. in 1492. He was Ambitious but Unfortunate. He pick'd a Quarrel with the Voyvod of Valachia, who joining with the Turks, did great damage to Poland. After having made Peace with those, John going to compel the D. of Saxony to pay Tribute, dy'd suddenly at Thorn, before he could accomplish his Intention. This happen'd in 1501. John Casimir, vide, Casimir V. John III. (Sobieſki) obtain'd the Throne by his Valour: Before his attaining it, he was Grand Marshal of the Crown, Grand General, and Grand Master of the Kings Household; during which, he regain'd 60 Towns from the Cossacks, defend'd Podhais against the Tartars, and took a Palatinate from them, and the Cossacks. He defeated the Turks in 1671. and in 73, won the famous Battel of Choczim, which lasted 3 days, wherein the Turks lost 8000 Turkaries and 20000 Spahis. This Battel being gain'd, the day preceding the Death of K. Michael Koribut, Marshal Sobieſki was chosen to succeed him in 1674. Having gain'd several other Victories upon the Turks, he at last forc'd them to a Peace at Zurawna. He was much esteem'd by the K. of France, who sent him the Order of the Holy Ghost

The following IV. of this Name, John I. succeeded his Brother Ferdinand in 1383. in prejudice of Beatrix, sole Daughter of the late King, marry'd to John I. King of Castile, who endeavoured to rescue her Right, but in vain. King John warr'd in Africk, and took Ceuta from the Morrs. Next having obtain'd a Dispensation from his Oath of turning Monk, he marry'd Phillippa, the Great D. of Lancaster's Daughter. He died in 1433. John II. succeeded his Father Alphonso V. in 1481. In the beginning of his Reign, he suppressed a Rebellion of his Nobles, and beheaded several of them. Next he settled Plantations in the E. Indies, and Africa, and built Ports on the Coast of Guinea. He was at the taking of Tangier in 1471. and at the Battel of Tro against the Castilians in 1476. For his many glorious Actions, he obtain'd the Title of Great, and for his strict Justice, that of Severe. He died in 1495. John III. succeeded his Father Fernando in 1521. His Accession to the Throne was congratulated by the K. of Ethiopia. His chief Employ was the Conversion of Pagans in the

J O H

Houses of Orleans and Burgundy. He then assisted the Bp. of Liege against his Subjects. He afterwards setz'd upon the Government in Paris, and did great Damage to the Kingdom. He at length was kil'd by a Servant of the late D. of Orleans, whom he had got Assassinated at Paris. This happen'd in 1383. John I. D. of Alençon was in Charles VIth's Service in 1404. when he declar'd for the House of Orleans against Burgundy. On his Account Alençon was rais'd to a Ddom and Peerage. He commanded in Chief at Agincourt, and was killed there in 1415. John II. D. of Alençon. He began to signalize himself first at Verneuill in 1424. where he was taken by the English, and not ransom'd till 1427. He was one of the Heads of the Faction called la Praguerie. He occasion'd a Misunderstanding between the Dauphin and his Father, and afterwards was accused of Corresponding with the English, and upon being condemn'd, Charles VII. pardon'd his Life, but sequester'd his Lands, and continued him in Prison. Lewis XI. set him at Liberty, but being accused of the same Crime again, he was Condemn'd again, yet he was pardon'd once more, and died a Years after. John I. D. of Bretagne, had Wars with his Subjects, and reduc'd some of them. He had Difference with his Clergy, and going to Rome, referr'd the Matter to the Pope. He follow'd St. Lewis into Africa in 1270. He died in 1286. John IV. D. of Bretagne, usurp'd upon his Nephew John III. This occasion'd the long Quarrels between the 2 Houses of Montfort and Blais, which did great Damage to Bretagne. This John was taken Prisoner, and promis'd not to pretend any more to the Duchy, he falsified his Word, and went to England for Assistance; but not being able to obtain any, died of Grief in 1345. John V. D. of Bretagne, came off Victorious at last, having gain'd 7 Battels, and slain his Antagonist, Charles of Blais. He had Bretagne by a Treaty at Gerrande, and after having paid Hommage to Charles V. at Paris, died at Nantes in 1399. John I. D. of Lorraine: he was wounded and taken at the Battel of Piñiers, and being releas'd went into Prussia, and was at the Battel of Hazeland. He assisted Charles of Blais at the Battel of Avrai: Being summon'd to Answer, for endeavouring to seduce the Inhabitants of Neuschastel on the Meuse, he was poison'd in 1382. John of Orleans, Natural Son of Lewis of Orleans, ad Son of K. Charles V. This Prince was said to have restor'd the French Monarchy, after having been long Eclips'd by the English Conquests. He gave early Proofs of Valour in his Youth. He reliev'd Genève and Montargis in 1427. and drove the E's. of Suffolk and Warwick as far as Paris. He was dangerously wounded in the Herring-Battel at Rouvray in 1428. He defended Orleans courageously, but was thinking to Surrender or Fire it, when Joan of Arc prevent'd his doing it. He was in the Battel of Patay in 1429. He manag'd the Expedition against Chartres in 1431. or 35. and next Year help'd to reduce Paris. In 1438. he took from the English Dreux and Montargis. After divers other Actions, he was sent to the Council of Basle, to reconcile them with Pope Eugenius IV. which he effected. He perform'd divers more great Actions after this; and Charles VII. to shew his Gratitude, gave him the Title of Restorer of his Country, and made him Great Chamberlain of France. Lewis XI. also conferr'd Honours upon him, and in 1470. he died, 67 Years old.

J O H

John, (Dm.) of Austria. Natural Son of the Emp. Charles V. whose Mother is disputed. The Emperor's Great Steward's Wife was intrusted with the Nursing of him, having a Charge that she should never let him know who he was. This Order was obey'd, till after the Emperor's Death, when Philip II. had him brought before him, and told him, he had the same Father with him, bidding him to follow him, from which time he was bred at Court. In 1575. he was sent against the Moor in Granada, which War he ended happily. Next Year he was made Admiral of the Confederate Fleet against the Turks, upon whom he gain'd the famous Battel of Lepanto, in the Gulph of that Name, in 1571. In 1573. he took Tunis and Bjerre in Africa, which was retaken the following Year. In 1575. he was made Governor of the Low-Countries. Before his arrival, the Pacification of Guant was concluded, which he was fain to Confirm. Upon his seizing of Namur, Charlemont, and Mortenburg, the States rose and drove him to Luxemburg, when they chose in his stead, Archduke Matthias, and nam'd the Prince of Orange, his Lieutenant General. Don John, as soon as he had recruits sent him, won the

J O H

J O H

with which, tho' he came and gave some Disturbance, yet he lost the day, and was made Prisoner.

John Basilant Car of Amst. succeeded his Father very Young in 1542. He went often to the Church, but was nevertheless extreme Cruel and Bloody. He plunder'd the City of Novograde in 1559. and kill'd his Eldest Son with a Cane. After many unparalleld Cruelties, he died in 1584.

The following Persons were famous Men of this Name. John K. of Armenia, having resign'd his Deacon, took a Friar, in which Habit he was kill'd by the Turks in 1374. John Amatus, a learn'd Breton, writ the Annals of his Country in VII. Tomes, which he brought down to 1435. He died the Year after. He also writ other Books. John Bp. of Amazet, and ABp. of Ram, an eminent Prelate of the XIth. Cen. He was kill'd by Monks for too strict Regularities, and was Author of the Clogymen's Day.

J O H

ed above 433 distinct Treatises, whereof 3 were Chronicles. He died in 1475. He is not the same with the Person of his Name, who wrote of Chremancy and Judicial Astrology in 1522. John, surnam'd Mark, Cousin of St. Barnabas. 'Tis thought the Passover was eat at his House by our Saviour, and that the Holy Ghost descended there upon the Apostles. John a Spanish Cardinal, who was Author of the V. Vol. of Commentaries upon Gracian's Decrees, &c. He died in 1468. John Maron, a Syriack Commentator on the Liturgy, &c. whose Writings are very much question'd. John de Montreal, in Francia, was well vers'd in all Learning, particularly Mathematicks, which he read publicly at Vinna. He made an Ephemeris for 30 Years, which is much esteem'd. He also first thought of the Primum Mobile. He died of the Plague at Rome in 1476. John O Neal, a Gent. of the N. of Ireland, who in Qu. Elizabeth's time, assum'd the Title of K. of Ireland. He did great Mischief, but at length the Ld. Lieutenant coming against him by the Queen's Order, easily routed him, when flying towards the Western Isles of Scotland, he was Slain. John of Paris, a Dominican Divine of the XIII. and XIV. Cent. He wrote some Controversial Tracts, but at length was accused of Heretical Notions, and forbid to Preach. He disown'd Transubstantiation in a Piece of his, he died in 1310. John, An Author of Parma in the XII. Cent. He had a Book burnt by Pope Alexander VI. in 1258. John (de Temporibus) a Gent. of Charlemain's Court, who liv'd 361 Years. John, a Dalmatian Monk, who was a great stickler against the Hussites in the XVth Cent. John Bp. of Chartres, a learn'd Englishman of the XIIIth Cen. He wrote abundance of Books, whereof none but the Life of Thos. a Becket is remaining. John of Leyden, vid. Backbld. John, a celebrated Painter of Udina in Triuli, of the XVth Cent. He was the first that reviv'd the Art of making Stucco, a sort of Composition among the Ancients for Imagery. He died at Rome in 1564. John, surnam'd Erigena from his Birth-Place, was a Scotch great Philosopher and Divine, who was banish'd Paris for tending towards the same Opinion we Protestants hold now. His Book was condemn'd in 3 Councils. Going to England, and teaching School here, he was stabb'd by one of his Scholars with a Pen-knife in 883 or 4.

J O L

Johnson, (Ben.) Native of Westminster, and whose Father-in-Law was a Bricklayer. He was Scholar to Mr. Camden in Westminster School, and afterwards admitted of St. John's in Cambridge, but for want of Money was fain to return to his Fathers Trade, and assisted in building part of Lincolns-Inn. Being observ'd to have always a Book in his Pocket, some Gentlemen sent him to Study again, where he improv'd extremely. In learn'd Company he spoke little. He was smart in Repartees, wonderful in Dramatick Poetry, and reputed the best Poet of his time, and has not been a little admir'd since. His Works are well known. He died in 1638. and was buried in Westminster Abbey, with this Epitaph, O Rare Ben. Johnson.

Joa, (Elizabeth) a Spanish Female Divine who preached wonderfully at Barcelona, and converted a great many Jews at Rome. She also explain'd the Intricacies of John Dun Scotus.

Jaimille, (John Lord of) wrote the Life of St. Lewis, and was employ'd by that Prince to do Justice at his Gate.

Jolans, who fear'd the Necks of the Hydra, as fast as Hercules cut off the Heads, for which Service he was by Hebe restor'd to Youth. Jolans Son of Antipater, left Governor of Macedonia by Alexander in his Absence. Antipater having offended Olympias, and fearing that Prince would revenge his

See.

Jolcus, now Jaco, an Ancient Sea-Port of Thessaly, only famous for the Birth of Jason, and the Expedition of the Argonautes.

Jole, Daughter of Eurytus King of Oechalia, with whom Hercules being in Love, bargain'd with her Father to have her in Case he beat him; which tho' he perform'd, Jole being retain'd, he slew the Old King, and seiz'd upon her. Demetrius being Jealous of her, sent her Husband Hercules a poison'd Shirt, which was the Death of him.

John t (Fret) a French Advocate, Native of Orleans, B. in 1631. He was both a great Protestant, Divine Lawyer, Philosopher, Poet, and Physiologist. He wrote a Poem on King Gustavus Adolphus, in Latin and in French, and a large History of Sweden, which is still kept in MS. in the Royal Library at Paris. There are other Manuscripts of his now in the Hands of his Son, a Gentleman now belonging to her Majesty's State.

Jon the Son of a K. of Thessaly, who gave the name of Jona to a Country of Greece.

Jonathab, Son of Rechab. He liv'd an austere Life, and recommended such Rules to his Posterity the Re- man by the name of Jonathab. He wrote divers Books, most part were either Apologies for his Country to 50 Years of Age before his Death a Woman. Jonas, a P. German, of the XVth one of the first the Doctrine of Luther. other Books, a Treatise of Priests marrying.

Jonathon, J. Smith's Friend contrary to the of himself or Family with his Father in a Philistines. Jonathon, das Maccabees, after Jonas pitch'd upon his den. He forc'd the Bacchists to a Peace, then Syracusan Command was taken Prisoner by Jenns, and kill'd, the Rank in was offer'd were also two High- of this Name.

Jonas, (now Sorcha Fels and Call). It are only with Estesfeld, Melton, &c. of the same kind were num; Some others will have it, it has a Subterranean Communion with the Red-Sea, or Mediterranean. Its Course is about 100 m. It has been observ'd not to mix with the Dead-Sea; and Travel-say, that the Fish that come into Sea die.

J O S

Wandel, first Secretary to the Goths Italy, and Bp. of Ravenna. He wrote divers Books in the VI. Century, particularly de Rebus Gothicis in 552.

Joseph I. Second K. of Morocco, of Race of Almoravides. Some say, built Morocco, and others, he only build it. He Conquer'd the Rdom Fez, and made Algiers and Tunis vassal.

After having warr'd with Arabians in Bileulgerid, he was driven into Spain, and received for protection over the Moorish Kings there. Upon he laid Siege to Teledo, which he quitted upon News of K. Alfonso's Approach, however he had it deliver'd to him. Having subdued most of the Moorish Rdoms, he return'd Home, but return'd not long after.

and landing at Malaga, besieg'd it again; but quitted it again for fear of K. Alphonso. Next he took Malaga, and beheaded its King. After this, Joseph won the Battel of 7 years, which caus'd K. Alphonso to die of Grief. Joseph returning to Morocco, died the following Year 1110.

Joseph II. King of Morocco succeeded Father Abdalmumen in 1156. Having maintain'd some Tributaries at war in their Dominions, he went over to Spain with a prodigious Army, which he subdued all the Moorish Rdoms he came to relieve. However he had great Losses by the Christians, some Advantages, but at length being Santarem, he was kill'd by an arrow from the Walls, which occasion'd the raising of the Siege.

Joseph I. succeeded Euthymius in the Patriarchship of Constantinople in 1419. 1424. He died suddenly at the Council of Florence. Joseph II. was chosen Patriarch of the same in 1460. He was Affronted, and depos'd by a Christian Officer under the Turk, for having refus'd him the Liberty of putting away his Wife, to Marry another.

J O S

Joseph, Brother of Herod the Great, and Lieutenant General of part of the Princes Forces. He held out the Fort of Massada against Antigonus, but was nevertheless afterwards kill'd by him in a Battel near Jericho.

Joseph, Abba, a Jewish writer of Spain, who in a Book of his, proves it impossible that the Scriptures should have been corrupted during the Captivity in Babylon.

Joseph of Arimathea, who would not consent to our Saviour's Condemnation, and after his Death, begg'd his Body and buried it. Some say, he preach'd the Gospel in this Island, and lies buried at Glastenbury.

Josephus, the Jewish Historian, of noble Extract, both by Father and Mother. He was born under Caligula, turn'd Pharisee, and at 26 Years of Age went to Rome, to procure a Pardon for some Prisoners that had been sent thither by Felix. By the help of a Jewish Comedian, he obtain'd his Desire.

At his return Home, he got the Command in Chief over the Galileans, which he kept till Jotapata was taken, when he retir'd to a Pit with 40 of his Men, where he suffer'd extremely.

He foretold Vespasian's being Emperor, after he had taken him, and was with Titus at the Siege of Jerusalem. He writ the Wars of the Jews in Greek, which Titus valu'd exceedingly.

At his return to Rome, he was allow'd a Pension, and made a Roman Citizen, when he finish'd his XX. Books of the Antiquities of the Jews. He wrote other Treatises. All his Works are now Translated by Sir Roger L'Estrange, and printed for R. Sare in London.

Jesse, (St.) Brother of Judithael King of Britany. Judithael designing to turn Monk, would have resign'd to Jesse, who

J O V

I P H

but he being resolv'd to retire likewise, refus'd the Offer, and turn'd Chaplain to Duke Huma, after which he became a Hermit. He died in 653. and was Sainted for his Piety and Auster Life.

Joshua, succeeded Moses in the Government of Israel.

Jotapata, formerly the strongest T. in Galilee, situated on an exceeding high Rock.

Joubert succeeded Gastus, as Great Master of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem in 1169. He died of Grief at the Truce the K. of Jerusalem was forced to make with Saladine. Joubert, (Lawrence) Counsellor and Physician to Henry III. of France. He was Chancellor of the University of Montpelier, and wrote several Books. He died in 1322.

Jovianus or Jovianus, succeeded the Emp. Julian the Apostate in 363. He would not accept this Dignity till the Soldiers return'd to the Christian Religion. He endeavour'd to restore the Pubrick Affairs, by striking up a Jura, anciently Gyons or Desert ill in the Antipodes, the Romans built their City to this Jaxartes and in the so well known.

Jzeuse, a Village of Laurens gives Title to a Duke of a Noble Ancient Family in France. (Anne de) a Duke and Peer of made by Henry III. He was the favourite, who marry'd his Queen's Sister, and made him High-Admiral, Knight of all the Orders, and Governor of Normandy. In 1587. he was General against Protestants in Guernsey, where he with his Regiments to pieces at St. Peter. He fought the K. of Navarre (wards Henry IV.) near Contre, he was routed and kill'd. The Protestants would give no Quarter out continually, Mount St. Eloi ever at length the Slaughter by the K. of Navarre. (Jacques de) a Cardinal and Bp. who went to Rome, by Henry III. to support Interest of France, which had

I R E

after Hercules had invented A famous Ara begins with tion of Iphitus, beyond which says, the Grecian History is all re and fabulous.

Iperen or Ipres, a rich C. the Flanders, so call'd from a Riva-at passes thro' it. It is a Bp's the ABp. of Mecklin, and has il Jurisdichons. The circumja-Country is exceeding Fertile.
C. is strong by Nature, yet was by the K. of France in 1678.
unds with good Buildings, and ous for its Manufactures, and di-Fairs. It lies 18 m. S. of New- 35. S. W. of Gant, and 23 E. shirks

rich (Gippi Flus) Cap. of Suf- situate on the Banks of the R.
l, and about 55 MS. N. E. of
n. It is Ancient and was forwall'd with Earth, but destroy'd e Danes. It reviv'd under the ur, and is at present a flourish-and populous City. It has 12 Churches, a Justice-Hall, Free-als, a proper Building for a Lis, and a Hospital for the Poor.
very Clean, and Trades in Lin-and Woollen Manufactures. Card.
7, Native of this City, began a College here, which still retains ape. The late D. of Grafton was unt of this Place. It sends 2 bers to Parliament, which at pre-are John Bence Esq; and Charles ther, Serjeant at Law.

by, a Mar. T. in Cumberland, on R. Elue.

land, a large Isl. on the W. of Britain, whence it is divided by Gerget's Channel. It lies in the 8th oth Climates, and is 300 m. long 130 broad. It is far from any inent, and tho' the Air be humid gross, yet it is not unhealthful where, but near the Bogs. The is fitter for Pasturage than Til-and so Fertile, that sometimes proves bad Husbandry. From Bogs comes a Turf, the sweet-

I R E

est Fuel in the World. Here are no venomous Creatures, not so much as a Spider. Wolves also there are none, they having been long since ridded hence. To give a small touch of the Natural History. Here is a Lake that turns a piece of Wood that sticks in the Mud into Iron, and the remaining part in the Water into Stone.
Also an Island in a Lake, remarkable for a great Noise heard there, and thence nam'd St. Patrick's Purgatory.
Likewise 3 Lakes so very different,
that the Fish of the one, will not live in the other. The Chief Rivers are the Shannon, Blackwater, Boyne and Bar- row, all abounding with Salmon. The Principal Lakes are, 1. Lough Erne 30
m. long, and 15 broad, wherein are many Islands. 2. Corbes, 16 m. long and 4 broad, with 30 small Islands.
3. Lough Foyle. 4. Lough Neagh. This
Isl. is now divided into 4. Provinces
1. Leinster. 2. Munster. 3. Ulster, and 4. Connaught. The first contains 9 Counties; and 34 remarkable T.
The Second, 6 Counties, and 24 T.
The Third, 10 Counties, and 14 T.
And the Fourth, 7 Counties, and but 8 T. of Note. The worst of all these Provinces is Connaught, which lies to the N. W. The best Harbour of this Isl. is that of Kingsale, which our Ships often touch in their return Homeward.
This Isl. is suppos'd to have been first Peopled by the Britains, by reason ancient Authors call it a British Isl. and Tacitus observes a Conformity in the Habits and Dispositions of both Nations. It appear'd also at the Reduction of Wales, by Edward I. that the Laws of that Country had a great resemblance with the Irish. The inhabitants of this Isl. continued long Unciviliz'd, because they prevented the Romans coming among them, by their Submission. They were in those days exceeding Warlike, and had many Customs that kept up that Spirit. The Mothers were wont to feed their Sons on the point of a Sword, and wish'd they might die so where but in the Wars. Their Character has been, that they were Bold and Strong, able to undergo Fatigue, hardy and careless of Life, greedy of Glory, constant in Love, light of Belief, and implacable in Enmity. They are now observ'd to be much better Soldiers Abroad than at Home. The Wild Irish still retain many fantastical Conceits, but as for the others, they are much reform'd from what they were formerly. They were anciently govern'd by Petty Kings, whose Disagreements not a little contributed to their Reduction. They first consented to pay Tribute to Henry II. but the Kings of England assumed only the Title of Lords of Ireland, till Henry VIII. took upon him the Title of King, and had it confirm'd by Parliament. The E. of Desmond rebell'd against Qu. Elizabeth, but was subdu'd and slain. A more dangerous Insurrection was carry'd on by Tir-Oen, against the said Princess; yet he at length submitted to R. James I. who the English Parliament, which the Lord Deputy, Sir Edw. Poyning, procur'd in Henry VIII's time, whence they have since had the Name of Poyning's Law. Their Bills are always transmitted to England, before they can be Voted and Enacted. The Trade of this Isl. is chiefly in Cattel, Hides, Tallow, Honey, Cheese, Butter, Furs, Wax, Linnen Cloth, Hemp, Sale, Wool, &c. Its Seas abound with Cod, Herrings, Pilchards, &c. The Metropolis of this Isl. is Dublin, which See under D. Ireland has 4 Bishops, viz. Armagh, Dublin, Tuam and Cashel, and 19 Bishops. Authors vary about the Conversion of this Isl. but the Natives ascribe it to St. Patrick their Champion, who was a Frenchman. There is also difference about the place of his Burial, but which I do not think to reconcile.

I R E

I R E

Irenaeus, (St.) succeeded Phocas in the Bishopric of Lyons, whither he had been sent by St. Polycarp his Master. He confuted divers Heretics, and govern'd his Church well, notwithstanding this barbarous Action, the Sun was Eclips'd for 17 days together in those Parts. After She had reign'd alone 3 Years, &c. she was depos'd and banish'd by Nicephorus, not long after which she died in 802. She had prevented Charlemain's making a Conquest upon her, by amusing him with Hopes of Marriage.

I S A

Iris, said to be the Messenger of Juno, and Sister of the Harpies. It is now the Name of the Rainbow, perhaps as the Messenger of the Air to denote to us its Disposition.

Irenius, a German Lawyer of the XII. Cen. believ'd to have been the first Restorer of the Practice of the Civil Law, after the Invasion of the Roman Empire by the Barbarians. He died in 1190. and was buried at Bologna, where he had been Law-Professor.

Iroquois, a sort of Idolaters of Canada, in N. America; they are Warlike People, and understand Firelocks the best of any of the Americans. They'll dissemble Injuries, but never forgive for 3 or 4 Generations. They are excessive Haughty, and look upon the other Indians no better than Brutes. They use their Prisoners most unmercifully. They put them to exquisite Torture, and then Kill and Eat them, giving their Children their Blood to make them Inhumane. Within 50 Years they have much extended their Dominions. Some of them border upon New-York. Their Politicks and way of Merchandize, are by no means despicable.

Irus, one of Penelope's Suiters, who being exceeding Poor and Weak, Ulysses knock'd him oth' Head with his Fist. His Poverty appears by the Proverb Iro Pauperum.

Isaac I. Comnenus, succeeded Michael VI. in the Greek Empire, by getting him depos'd in 1057. He was a Warlike and Witty, but Covetous and Proud Prince. Having banish'd his Friend the Patriarch, he was frighted with Lightning while he was Hunting, which made him to resign his Throne to Constantine Ducas, and retire to a Cloyster of the Studita in 1059. Isaac II. Angelus, succeeded Andronicus Comnenus in 1185. and put out his Son's Eyes. He had little Success against the Byzians, however suppress'd some Usurpers. He reign'd a little above 9 Years, when his Brother Alexis had his Eyes pull'd out, and threw him into a deep Dungeon, whence he was not deliver'd till 1203. soon after which he died.

I S A

Isaac Comnenus, an Author of the XIII. Cen. who writ a Supplement to Homer. Isaac Hagen, a Spanish Rabbi, who in the XIIIth Cen. compos'd the Astronomical Tables, call'd Alphonsine, from Alphonse X. K. of Leon and Castile. Another of this Name, was an Arabian Physician, Contemporary with Averroes, who wrote divers Physical Tracts.

Isaas, an Orator of Syria of the CDK. Olymp. He came to Athens, and was Master to Demosthenes. But only 10 of 64 of his Orations are now remaining.

Isaiah, one of the greater Prophets, of the Royal Family, the Command of E. Manasse was saw'd asunder with a Wooden Saw, A. M. 3338. Isaiah, Shield-bearer to Sapor K. of Persia, who being present when St. Jumas and Barachisus were Martyr'd by that King, writ an Account of it, which is still extant.

Isaura, (Clementia) a learn'd and virtuous young Lady, who about the Year 1323, instituted the Floral Games at Tholouse, which are yet observ'd Yearly in May, when her Marble Statue is Crown'd with Flowers, and an Oration pronounc'd in her Praise.

Isauria, formerly a Prov. of Lesser Asia, now part of Caramania. Its Cap. was of the same Name, but is at present call'd Saura. The Inhabitants of this Country were a barbarous People, yet delighted in War and Rebellion.

I S H

Ichia, an Ill. and C. on the Coast of Naples, remarkable for the Retreat of Ferdinand, when Charles VIII. of France conquer'd his Rdom.

Isdegerd I. K. of Persia, succeeded Varanes IV. in 400, and tho' a Pagan was so much esteem'd by the Emp. Arcadius, that he left him Guardian to his Son Theodosius, which Trust he executed by a good Man nam'd Antiochus. This King favour'd the Christians, for the Bp. of Mesopotamia's having cur'd him of the Megrim, and freed his Son of a Possession, which disgusted the Magi, and therefore they caus'd a secret Voice to cry out, that he ought to be depos'd. The aforesaid Bp. discovering this Cheat, several Magi were put to Death; however, afterwards this King persecuted the Christians for destroying a Temple, where the Fire was worshipped. He died in 421. Isdegerd II. succeeded his Father Varanes V. in 441. He reign'd but 17 Years.

Isenbrandus, marry'd the Empress

I S I

in-Law. He was very victorious, and died in 1522. The name of Sisy, signifies Wool, in the Persian Language, by reason they wore Woolen Turbans. Ishmael II. succeeded Thomas in 15-8. He ascended the Throne from a Prison. He murder'd 8 of his Brothers, and in about a Years was poison'd himself, by a Sister, for inclining to the Turkish Sect.

Isidus, a Lacedaemonian Captain, who, and 100 Soldiers surpriz'd a Theban T. by disguising themselves like Priests.

Isidore, a Monk of the Order of S. Basil, and Bp. of Russia, who was made Cardinal by Eugenius IV. at the Council of Florence in 1430. At his return to the Eastern Empire his Native Country, endeavouring to introduce the Latin Service into the Greek Church, he was seiz'd and imprison'd by the People, whence escaping, and coming to Rome, the Pope sent him back to Constantinople, where he continued till the taking of the City by the Turks in 1453. at which

I S I

Isis, Queen to Osiris K. of Egypt, was afterwards worshipp'd for a Goddess, and is suppos'd to be the same with the Grecian Is, and the Roman Cybele, being set out much after the same manner. Apuleius says, she was ador'd by all the Pagan World, under different Names; and that she was Goddess of the Sea, and had invented Navigation, or at least Sails. She is reported to have gone by Sea into Germany, &c. and to have taught the Peop's Agriculture. She had many Temples at Rome, and other Places, especially Paris, and some will have the Name of that City, to come from the 2 Greek words, μαγν' ἰσος, (near Isis.) The Arms also being a Ship, they attribute them to her, and assert the Ground of the Abbey St. Germain, to be the Place where her Temple stood, Isis, is also the Name of a R. which joining to the River Tame below Oxford, makes our famous River Tamesis or Thames.

Island, suppos'd to be the Ancient's Thule, is a large Isl. in the N. Ocean, first discover'd by one Naddock, a Norwegian, in 860. who call'd it Snow-land; but its Name of Island, was afterwards given it by a Norway Pirate. It has Norway to the E. and Greenad to the W. It was first inhabited by the Norwegians, under Ingulphus, and did Homage to the Crown of Norway in 1250. whereby it now belongs to the K. of Denmark, who sends every Year a Governor thither, who resides at the Castle of Belstede. The Christian Religion was first planted here by a Bp. of Bremen in 1000. and the Reformation introduc'd by Christiern III. Bps. were first settled in 1133. The Inhabitants before worshipp'd Jupiter and Mercury, under the Names of Thor and Odin. They had then neither Money nor Cities, but liv'd in Caves in the sides of Mountains, and made Bread of pounded Fish-bones, which some say, they continue still. The Air here is exceeding Cold, and the Country extream Mountainous; yet there are some very fruitful Plains which produce so much sweet Grats, that the Cattel would burst if they were suffer'd to eat their fill. The Oxen here have no Horns. They have exceeding little Dogs, and white Bears. Here are scarce any Trees, but Box and Juniper. There are 3 excessive high Mountains, which tho' cover'd with Snow, vomit Fire. In that call'd Hel-cla, there are rich Brimstone Mines, wherein Merchants drive a great Trade. Here is also a hot Fountain, whose Exhalation petrifies all that comes near it; and another whose Water causes sudden Death. There are divers other Wonders of Nature, which see in Cronium. The Inhabitants are strong and fierce, speak the Cimbrian Language, and have written the History of their Country in Verse. The Bible is also translated into their Tongue. This Isl. lies between 8 and 10 Degr. of Lat. and in 67 of Lon. Its length is 200 Ls. and breadth 100.

I S L

Isle of Bourbon, (formerly Mascarene) now belonging to the French, lies to the E. of Madagascar, towards Aethiopia. It has among others a burning Mountain, which has consum'd all the Eastern Parts. In this Isl. are entire Forests of Benjoin, Ebony and Palms: the Inhabitants reap 4 times a Year, and have good Corn, and excellent Rice. Among the many Lakes and Rivers, it has some are Medicinal. Its Air is extream pure. It has abundance of Cattel and Fowl, and great plenty of good Fish, especially Tortoises, which are exceeding nourishing and wholesome. Its Coast is much troubled with Hurricanes. Isle del Fuego, is one of those of Cape verd, which has a burning Mountain. Isle of France, is a very great Prov. and the most celebrated Rich and Populous of any in that Kingdom. It has on the N. Picardy, on the E. Champagne, on the W. Normandy, and on the S. La Beussie. It contains contains XII. Countries, or Jurisdictions, the Principal C. of this Prov and of the whole Edom is Paris, which, vid. under P. Isle of Thieves, (de los Ladrones) discover'd in 1520.

ISL

by the famous Magellan. There are many of them, but 15 are most considerable. They lye between the E.
Ocean, and Mare Pacificum. Their Air is pretty Temperate, but subject to great Gusts of Wind. Their Soil is generally Barren; but where it is not, there are many Inhabitants, who all go naked, excepting their Privities, are Tall, Robust and Tawny. Magellan
reports, they were great Thieves, which occasion'd the name of their Isl. which he gave them. They Hunt and Fish, but their chief Trade lies in Mats, which they Exchange for Iron, having none of their own. Their Arms are Slings and Javelins, and their Religion Idolatry. They have no Rulers, which occasions frequent Disturbances among them. Isle (Maurice) is nam'd from Maurice Pr. of Orange, whom the Hollanders made Godfather to 15 of their couching there in their

ISO

haunted them, and destroy'd most of the Inhabitants, there not remaining sufficient to Manure the Ground without the help of Negro's. Isle-Papa, call'd by the Turks Papa-Adan, lies in the Streights of Constantinople, not far from that City. Abundance of the Greek Caloyers (Monks of the Order of St. Basil) inhabit them, and observe an austere Life. Isle of Sacrifice on the Coast of Mexico, so nam'd from the Spaniards finding at their first Landing. Abundance of humane Sacrifices, which the Inhabitants had made to the Devil. This horrid Sight caused them soon to quit the Island.

Isleben, a T. of Germany, which the Natives call Eisleben, famous for having been the Birth place of Luther, who here oppos'd and converted his Countryman John Agricola, who before had held divers Heterodox Opinions, and had a Sect that follow'd him, which were call'd Islebanians.

Islington, a T. near London, remarkable only for its Mineral Waters.

Isocrates, a most celebrated Græcian
Orator who was born at Isocrates in

I P S

1466. She left behind her 564 MS. all to be seen in Thunus's Library. Her Sister and Relations were also learn'd.

Isfahan, Cap. of Persia, suppos'd to have risen out of the Ruins of Aecampolis, is a C. a days Journey in Circuit, and of no strength. It is divided by a double Channel of the R. Zendraw, which furnishes it with Water, every private House almost having a Fountain. The Houses are generally Square, carras'd for to Walk and Sleep on in Summer, and none above 3 Stories. The Streets are narrow, but the Meidan (Market-place) exceeds all in Europe, being a large Oblong surrounded with Brick Buildings of an equal height, and Piazza'd round about, with Shops for several Trades, which are rank'd separately. Green Trees are planted all round, by which runs a continued Rivulet in a Stone-trough, which empties it self into 2 larger Trunks, whence it is convey'd away under ground. At one end of the Piazza's are 2 Balconies, where there is Musick every Evening, and when the Sophy passes by. His Palace fronts the Meidan, at the Gate whereof are planted 40 Cannons without Carriages. This Palace is but slenderly guarded, and fortified only with a high Wall. Over the great Gate is a large, high and round Pavilion full of Windows, whence the Sophy sees all publick Shews. In the midst of the Garden is a Chappel, which serves for a sure Asylum to all Criminals or Debtors, but Thieves and Robbers are excepted, who are particularly abhorr'd in Persia. Isfahan is adorn'd with a-bundance of Metzids, (Misques) Bazars, (Markets) and Caravanserads, (Publick Inns.) It is much frequented on account of Trade, by many Eastern and some European Nations. The Money is generally Silver or Copper, here being but little or no Gold Coin. This C. has 3 Larin Convents in it, and some Greek. The Principal Suburb is Tzalpa, the way to which is over a fine Bridge. Here the Armenian Christians live and pay Tribute, The Georgian Christians take up the Subburb of Hazenabab, and the Kebbers (Infidels) that of Kebwabab.

I S T

Israel, (a Prince of God) the Name which the Angel gave Jacob, after he had wrestled with him. There is a Book publish'd by one Mon. Fleury at Paris in 1680. concerning the Manners of the Israelites, which is worth reading.

Issachar, the 5th Son of Jacob, and Father Father of Tribe of Israel.

Iffel, or Iffel, a R. fluc'd from the Rhine, by the Emp. Drusus, and which gives name to the Prov. Over-Iffel in the Netherlands.

Iffelt, an Author of the XVIIth Cen. who wrote a Hist. of the Wars of Colem, &c. He died in 1597.

Iffus, a C. of Cilicia, with a Bay of the same Name. Near this Place Alexander the Great defeated Darius.

Isthmian Games, (so call'd from the Isthmus of Corinth) were celebrated every 3 Years by the Grecians, in Honour of Neptune or Melicerkes. They were one of the 4 great Assemblies of Greece. The Prize to the Victor was a Garland of Pine or Mistle, which was afterwards chang'd to 100 Drachma's by Solon.

Isthmus of Corinth (call'd also Peloponnesiacus) is a Neck of Land belonging to the Venetians, between the Gulph of Corinth (now Lepanto) and that of Engia. Many Rom. Emperors endeavour'd to dig thro' it but in Vain, which occasion'd the Proverb Isthmum fodere, to attempt impracticable things. Here a Wall was built to defend the Africa, but which was demolish'd by Amurat II. and tho' rebuilt and fortified by the Venetians, was again destroy'd by Mahomet II. in 1443. Isthmus of Taurica Cheronesus (now Zucala) 3 m. long, which joins Crim-Tartary to the Continent. Isthmus of Cheronesus Thracia, joining that Peninsula sula to Romania. Here Miltiades built a Wall for its Defence. Isthmus Acanthus (now d'Erizzo) between the Gulph's of Monte Santo and Centesa. This was cut thro' by Xerxes. Isthmus of Darien, joining N. to S. America. Here the Scots would have lately established themselves, but were prevented, tho' not by the Spaniards. Isthmus of Suez, that joins Egypt, and the Holy-Land, to the Stony Arabia. It is so call'd from the C. Suez on the Red Sea. It has often been attempted to be cut thro', but without effect.

I T A

Istria, a Prov. belonging to the Republick of Venice, having on the E. W. and S. the Adriatick Sea, and on the N. Triuli; being a sort of Peninsula. This Country is very full of Wood, and Marble Quarries, which furnish Venice with Materials, both for Ships and Houses. It is tolerably fruitful in Wine and Oil, but in other things not comparable to the rest of Italy. The Air is sickly and unwholesome. The Verettians have a Governor here, and the Country is in circuit half of Lat. It has the Alps on the N. the Adriatick Sea on the E. the Tuscan Sea on the S. and part of the Alps, and the R. Iser on the W. The Appennine Hills divide it into 2 parts. It is a very fertile and pleasant Country, and towards the N. extremely well water'd with Rivers. It has Mines of Iron, Allum, Brimstone, and some of Gold and Silver, besides many Quarries of Marble, Alabaster, &c. and some sorts of Precious Stones. This Country was at first divided into divers Tribes and Nations, till they were united under one Empire by the Romans, whose Sovereignty at length declining, gave Birth to several Seignories and Republicks, which are at present in the Hands of the Pope. The K. of Spain, Republick of Venice, the Dukes of Savoy, Florence, Mantua, Modena and Parma, and the Common-Wealths of Genoa, Lucca, St. Marino, &c. and of some lesser Principallities, such as Monaco, Maffician, Fanabino, &c. The further Particulars of the Geography of this Country

I T A

J U B

ble and fair Cities, about 300 Bpicks, and more Universities than any other one Country. Its ancient Government was first by Kings, and then by Consuls, and afterwards by Emperors. Upon the Declension of the Empire, it was invaded by the Goths, Vandals, Heruli and Huns, who were driven thence by the Emp. Justinian's Generals Belisarius and Narset, which occasion'd the Exarchate of Italy, establish'd at Ravenna. Next the Ostro-Goths erected a Kingdom in Italy, but were expell'd by the Lombards, who gave name to Lombardy; but after 204 Years they were expelled by Charlemain.

Italy has often been invaded by the Saragms, who were outed by the Normans. The Religion of this Country is the Roman Catholick only; yet the Jews, Greeks and Armenians are tolerated in some Cities.

Ithaca, (now Isla del Campare, or ud di Campare) an Is. in the Ionian Sea, famous for having been the Birth-place of Ulysses.

Jys, who was killed by his Mother Progne, and serv'd up in a Dish to her Husband Terent K. of Thrace, in revenge of his having deflowered her Sister Philomela. Whereupon Terent pursuing these Sisters in a great fury, he was Metamorphos'd into a Wood-Pecker, Progne into a Swallow, and Philomela into a Nightingale.

Juba I. K. of Mauritania, Cyr. succeeded his Father Hierapal: and was subdu'd by Cesar, for siding with Pompey; whereupon he and his Companion Petreibus kill'd each other, 46 Years before our Saviour. Juba II. was carried by Cesar to Rome, when but a Child, and being well educated there, became famous for his Learning. He was marry'd by Augustus to Cleopatra's Daughter by Anthony.

Jubal, was Son of Lamech, and said to be Inventor of Instrumental Musick.

Jubilee, or the Holy-Year, a time set apart by the Popes for granting Indulgences. It was instituted and appointed to be observ'd every 100th Year, by Boniface VIII. in imitation of the Jews. Clement VIth brought it to 50. Urban VIth to 30. and Sixtus V. to 25. where it now continues; there is also a kind of Jubilee upon the Exaltation of every Pope. The Ceremony observ'd at the first sort is this. The Pope coming to open the Holy-Gate, which is wall'd up, knocks thrice with a Golden Hammer, and at the same time pronounces these words of the Psalmist, Aperite mihi Portas Jubilae, &c. whereupon the Masons immediately throw down the Wall, when his Holiness kneeling, the Penitentiaries come and wash him with Holy-Water; which done, he takes up the Cross and enters the Church singing Te Deum. At the same time 3 Cardinal Legates, break down 3 other Holy-Gates that are at Rome. Next Morning the Pope gives his Benediction to the People publicly. After the Year is out, the Holy-Gate is shut again, the Pope Blessing the Mortar and Seones, and leaving 12 Boxes of Gold and Silver Medals to be closed up in the Wall. Formerly great Numbers came from all Countries to these Solemnities, but since they have Jubilees of their own allow'd them, they have left off coming. What the Jewish Jubilee was, is to be seen in another Place.

J U C

Jucatan, a Peninsula of N. America, of 250 L. in Circuit belonging to the Jurisdiction of Mexico. It lyes between that Gulph and the Honduras. Its Cap. is Avidia. Its Soil is fertile and abounds with Cotton. Its Inhabitants are Warlike, and were formerly Cannibals. They are circumcised, yet gross Idolaters. They deal much in Image-Worship, which they make to give out false Oracles. The manner of their Sacrificing Men was this, They went in Procession singing mournfully round the Captives, whose Breast they open'd all of a sudden, and gave their King their Hands and

J U D

Feet, their Prelate their Hearts, and the other Parts to the Spectators.

Judab, (Leo) a Protestant Convert of Zurick. He was born in 1492. understood Hebrew exceeding well, translated some of the Old Testament, and writ Notes on several parts of the Bible.

Judab, a Rabbi, Master to, and in great Favour with, the Emp. Antoninus. He was Author of the Misna, being a Collection of the Constitutions and Traditions of the Rabbins. Great Disputes arose concerning this Book, which were collected into a Volume by Two Rabbins, and call'd the Babylonian Talmud or Ghemara.

Judah Ching, a Rabbin of Fez, still'd the Prince of Grammarians from his great Skill in that Science. He wrote an excellent Arabick Dictionary, which was never Printed, and divers other Works in the same Language.

Judas Maccchalaus, succeeded his Father Mattathias, as General of the Jews, An. Rom. 587. He was a famous Captain, and gain'd many great Victo-

J U D

Jude (St.) one of our Saviour's Brethren and Apostles, call'd also Thaddaeus. He preach'd in Assyria, Arabia, Idumas, Syria, &c. and, as Eusebius says, was sent by St. Thomas to convert Abgarus, K. of Edessa, and his People, which he perform'd, and refus'd a great Reward offer'd him. He is said to have been martyr'd at Beirut, on Account of the Faith, but some will have it, he was put to Death in Persia, for reproving the Magi. His Epistle was not receiv'd by the Church for a good while, by reason of some Things contain'd in it; which Exception at length was overrul'd.

Judea, anciently the Land of Canaan, the Land of Promise, &c. now the Holy Land or Palestine. This was a Spot of Ground allotted by God to his own People, and was divided at first into XII Tribes, but at our Saviour's Birth only into VI Provinces, whereof Gallilee, Samaria, and Judea propria, were on this side Jordan; and Trachonitis, Ituraea or Perea, and Idumaea on the other.

J U D

I V E

and at last to the Kings again. The Romans establish'd Tetrarchs there. Upon the Persecution of the Jews by Antiochus Epiphanes, Mattathias, a Priest of the Asmonean Line, retir'd from Jerusalem, and was not long after declar'd Pr. of the Jews, after whom the Regal Title and High-Priesthood were united 130 Years in that Family, till Herod the Great put an end to this Succession. The Jews frequently revolting, Vespasian and his Son Titus, at length entirely reduc'd them in the Year 70, from which time they have been esteem'd little better than Vagabonds. Under the famous Impostor Barabachabaz, they endeavour'd to recover their Liberty in the time of the Emp. Adrian, but in vain. They have since attempted to make themselves Independant, but could never bring it about. Several Proclamations of Councils, Emperors, and Princes have from time to time been us'd out against them, and they have often been expell'd divers Countries with Contempt. The Modern Law of the Jews is divided into, First, The Pentateuch. 2dly, The Oral Law, being Traditions and Constitutions which compose the Talmud. 3dly, The Customs that are observ'd among them in different Places, which therefore are not follow'd by all. Their Modern worship consists only in Prayers, Sacrifices having been left off, ever since the Temple was destroy'd. Their chief Tenet is, that Messias is yet to come. The Ancient Sects among them were the Samaritans, Essenes, Sadducees and Pharisees, the present are those of the Samaritans and Caraites. In Turky the native Jews wear Turbans of divers Colours, and differ from the Christians there, only in their Shoes. The Foreign have high Crown'd Hats without Brims. They are allow'd by the Grand Seignior throughout all his Dominions, and are very numerous in all Places of Trade. They are more expert at Business than other People and 'tis therefore they are mostly employ'd.

Judges, the Governors of the Jews before the Kings; they could not Sentence any Delinquent without the Concurrence of the Sanbedrim. They had great resemblance with the Sages of Carthage, and the perpetual Archontes of Athens. In this Title of Judge, the Goths imitated the Jews, for they had no other Rulers in the IV. Cen.

Judia, Metropolis of the Edom of Siam, where the King resides. It is situate on the Adman, a Branch of the Ganges, and one of the largest Rivers in the E. Indies. It is fortified after the old manner, and is about 3 Dutch m. about. The R. runs round the Town, and is near 2 Musquet shot in breadth. The Palace Royal is fortified after the Modern way, and very Magnificent. This C. can furnish in King with 50000 Men, and 30000 Barges upon occasion of a War.

Judith, the famous Jewish Widdow that cut off Holofernes's Head, and thereby freed her Country from Servitude. Mr. Bayle looks upon the History of her to be no better than a pious Romance.

Judith, Empress to the Emp. Lewis I. who for her Inconstancy and Ambition, was forc'd into a Cloyster by the People in 830. However she was afterwards released, and was Mother to Charles the Bald.

Judith, Widdow to Erchebolf and Ethelred, Kings of England, and Daughter of Charles the Bald. At her return from France, Baldwin, Governor of Flanders, took her away with her own Consent, which K. Charles not being able to retrieve, he consented to their Marriage, and made Baldwin first Earl of Flanders.

Juv, (Se.) a Burrough in Cornwall, which sends two Members to Parliament, who at present are James Prad and Richard Chandler Esq.

Juv (Se.) a m. T. in Shropshire which had its name from one Juv, a Britain Bp. who died there in 604.

Juv, Bp. of Chartres, who vigorously oppos'd Philip I. of France, in the putting putting away his Queen Bertha of Holland, to marry Bertrade of Munster. He was much valu'd for his Piety and Learning, and died in 1115 or 16. His Works were publish'd in 1647. In a large Volume, by J. Baptist Souhet.

JUL

Jvette, or Juhra, a Country of Macedon, whence the Hungarians are said to have first come to the Fulus Meotis, and thence into Pannonia (Hungary.) The Macedonians boast much of this Province on this account.

Jugurtha, K. of Numidia, Grandchild of Maffinissa, and Nephew to Micipsa. This last leaving his 2 Sons to his Care, he made away with the one, and pursuing the other, took him in Cirta, and had him murder'd. Hereupon the Romans made War upon him, but having brib'd their Consul, he suffer'd himself to be beaten, when Jugurtha gave out that Rome was to be Sold, and he would dispose of it to the highest Bidder. Notwithstanding which he was afterwards defeated by Q. Metellus, and next entirely subdu'd by Marius, and not long af-

JUL

Tiberius coming to the Empire, he secretly revenge'd himself by letting her Starve in great Misery.

Julia, Daughter of Agrippa and Julia. She imitated her Mother, and therefore was likewise banish'd for dishonouring her Husband Emilius Lepidus. She died after 20 Years Banishment, all which time she had been maintain'd by the Empress Livia.

Julia, Empress to Septimius Severus, who marry'd her before his Advancement, by reason it was Prophesied that her Husband should be Emperor. Severus receiv'd her into the Government for her great Wit, tho' he did not much care for her. She was much inclin'd to Philosophy, and lov'd to converse with learn'd Men. She had 2 Sons Caracalla and Geta, the latter whereof was kill'd in his Arms by the former, and she wound-ed, which Barbarity she durst not resent. When Caracalla was kill'd she grew discontented for fear of losing her State, and at length starv'd her self to revenge it.

JUL

He was declar'd Cæsar by Constantius in 355. and proclaim'd Emperor by the Roman Legions in 360. He set open the Heathen Temples, restor'd their Worship, and made himself High-priest. He re-call'd Hereticks, suppress'd the Orthodox party, and encourag'd Judaism. He call'd the Christians Gentiles in derision, and finding himself oblig'd to go against the Persians, row'd the ruin of the Church when he return'd; but rashly engaging without his Armour, he receiv'd an Arrow in his Breast, when seeing his Blood gush out, he took a handful of it, and throwing it up in the Air, cry'd out, Vicisti Galilee, and so expir'd. This happen'd in 363. He was Chast, Learn'd, Temperate, Vigilant and Laborious, and of excellent Parts, which the Works we have of his sufficiently shew. He wrote divers Tracts against the Christians, mention'd by St. Jerom, and answer'd St. Cyril of Alexandria.

Julian, Earl of Cæsar, (the Capital C of a Government of the Spanish Goths on the Barbary Coast, near the Straights of Gibraltar) who upon his Daughter Cælia being ravish'd by Roderigo, K. of Spain, betray'd his Government to Amba, General of the Army of the Caliph of Damascus, who, after the subduing great part of Spain, suspecting Julian of Correspondence with the Christians, struck off his Head in 717.

Julian, the Name of a false K. of Samarita, taken and burnt in the time of Justinian.

Julian, Uncle to Julian the Apostle, and Minister of his Cruelties, who after several Indignities to Christ, his Church and Priests, perish'd by voiding his Excrements at his Mouth, A. C. 363.

Julian, Bp. of Parricula who was present in the Council of Ephesus in 449.

Also a Bp. of Casa, Legate of Leo I. at the Council of Chalcedon.

Also a Pelagian Bp. of Calene, a small C. of Campania di Roma, a Man of

JUL

Wit and Eloquence, Son of Memorius Bp. of Capua, First an intimate Friend, then Antagonist of St. Austin, against whom he wrote several Books; he was at last for the Pelagian Heresie driven from his Church, and died miserably in 419.

Julian of Maltacressau, chief of the Phanatic or Incorruptibles, Hereticks enemies to the Council of Chalcedon.

Julian Mafart, a Carmelite of Hainault, writ the History of the Netherlands, and died in 1525.

Julian (St.) de Pyre, a Spanish Order of Knight-hood, instituted by Pereira, protected by Ferdinand II. and approv'd by Pope Alexander III. afterwards incorporated into that of Alcantara.

Julian, Abp. of Thiedo, Author of various Works, presid'd in the XII. XIII. XIV. and XV. Councils of Toledo, in the IV. Cen.

Julian Period, a Revolution of 7980. Julian Years, compos'd of 3 Cycles, viz. of the Sun, which is 28 Years, of the Moon, which is 19. of the Indiction, which is 15. The first Year of each of these Cycles, is the first of the Period, and must make 7980 Years to return to a Year, mark'd with the same Number of each Cycle; 'twas invented by Joseph Scaliger, or L' Escal, who liv'd in 1560. The chief Use of the Julian Period, is to be a certain fix'd Rule of comparing Years, in the variety of Chronologers Opinions, in their Calculations from the Creation, including more Years than any of them Suppose from that time: this is a more certain way of computing, than by Epochs, which will never meet with each other; this Period never varies, and thus you may reduce the Julian Period to the Years before Christ. The 1. A. C. had 101. of the Sun, 2. of the Moon, and 4. of the Indiction; these Characters are those of 4714. of the Julian Period.

Julius or Gulick, a strong and ancient C. and Dukedom of Germany, in the

JUL

the Circle of Westphalia, subject to the Duke of Newburg, on the R. Roeer, 24 m. W. of Cologne, 15. N. E. of Aix la Chapelle. Lon. 25. 50. Lat. 50. 56. the C. was built by Julius Caesar or Drusus. The Dukedom has besides, several other Cities, as Aken, Duren, Limich, Aldenbruen, Zulpich, Grevembruck, Heinsburg, Kerpen, Erkelens, Dolin, &c. 'tis about 12 Ls. in length, and 7 broad.

Julis, a C. of the Isl. Cea in the Egean Sea, famous for being the Birth-Place of the Poet Simonides, and his Nephew Bacchylides; as also of the Physician Erasistratus, and of a Philosopher call'd Ariston.

Julius I. (Pope) a Roman, succeeded Mark in 336. call'd a Council of 116 Bps, or as others say, 340. to assist those persecuted by the Arians in the East; he acquitted St. Athanasius, and divers other Prelates. He call'd on their Account another Synod, and wrote to the Asian Bps. He re-establish'd the banish'd Bps, and died in 352. He order'd the Clergy only to plead before Ecclesiastick Judges.

JUN

Julius Caesar, a Roman of great Constancy, put to Death by Caligula, with so little Concern at it, that when fetch'd to Execution, he bid the Executioner Witness, that so far he had the better of the Game of Chess he was playing at.

Jumala, an Idol of Finland and Lapland, the Chief of their Gods, esteem'd Commander of Life and Death. His Temple is in a Forest.

Junus (Adrianus) born at Horn in Holland, in 1513. He was a Physician, and Author of many Works, particularly a Poem on the Marriage of Philip II. to Mary of England, call'd Philippis. He died at Amsterdam in 1579.

Junius Franciscus born at Burges in 1547. where he studied the Law, taught Protestant Divinity at Geneva in 1592. and was chosen Divinity Professor at Lyden, and there died in 1602. He join'd with Tremellius in translating the Bible: Writ against Pope Gregory XIII. and Bellarmino, &c.

Junus, (Francisc.) Son of the former, was a great Linguist, and coming into

J U P

Professor at Gießen. These a Brother nam'd Gasspar, who lan of Letters.

Goddeſs of Kingdoms and Daughter of Saturn and Rhea, e, was preserv'd with her Bropiter by the Corybantes, from aten by Saturn. She was mar-Jupiter, and bore him Lithia, nd Hebe. Mars she bore with the f a Flower; she was extremely and an implacable Enemy to tresses of Jove. She had several

She is understood to be the Philosophers, &c.

er, call'd the Father of Gods
: He was Son of Saturn and who to save him and Juno er Husband, that devoured all dren, when she was deliver'd, in a Stone, which he devour'd his Children, whom she con-by the Corybantes to Crete, tise drown'd the Cries of the

He suck'd the Milk of a Goat Amalthea, for which he after-translated her into the Zodiac.
now, a Man, he dethron'd and divided the World with Nep- Pluto; Heaven and Earth was a Lor, the Sea Neptune's, and it's. There were several Jupi- the Actions of all are attribu-one Jupiter, quasi Jovis Pa- Sepulchre was found in Crete, re's time. He had several either from the Place, or occa-tis Worship or Temple: as Ju- vum, in the form of a Ram;
hes bidden, or out of the way,
the Lybian Desarts: Capitolinus
a Temple in the Capital, built minius Priscus. Here the new , Emperors, &c. first made ers, and offer'd their Trophies, rifices, entering in Triumph.
Senate often sat on the most nt Emergencies: And here the Books were kept; and two of Gold offer'd by the Gauls
Phagians, and a Statue of Vi-

J U P

Story of Maffy Gold. Conſervator; Do- mition dedicated an Altar to Jupiter Conſervator, on his Father Vespasian's coming to the Empire, for his escape from the Rage of Vitellius; after he was Emperor, he built a Temple to Jupi- ter Cuſtor. Elicius, Numa Pompilius built an Altar to Jupiter, under that name for the grant of Knowledge of Sooth-ſaying by Thunder and Lightning.
Jupiter Feretrius, from ferre to carry,
that is from Romulus's carrying the Spoils of the vanquiſh'd E. of the Ca- menſes on a Wooden Bier called Pe- retrium; or from ferire to ſtrike, becauſe the Spoils only of a General, killed by a Roman Conſul or Legate, were offer'd there to Jove. Jupiter Inge- rator, from his Dominions over all things, and the Fate of Battle, brought up the Capital by Titus Quintius the Deſtator, from the conquered Præſtind.
Jupiter Inventor, to whom an Altar was placed in the Circus magnus of Rome, tho' firſt erected by Hercules, for his recovering his Oxen from Gæus, continued by the Latins, and by them transmitted to Rome. Jupiter Latiſtis, from the Latins Sacrificing to him on Mount Albanus, near Alba in Latium, in their Feria Latina, or Latin Feſtivals, inſtituted on the Alliance betwixt Tarquinius Superbus and the Latins, Vulſcians and Hernici. Jupiter Piſtor, or the Baker, from a Viſion which rais'd the Siege of Rome, by commanding the Romans to Bake abundance of Bread, and throw it into the Gauls Camp. Jupi- ter Spens, from a Temple built to him by Tarquinius Superbus, in A. C.
288. was call'd alſo Dius Fidius invoc'd on performance of Promiſes and ones Word. Jupiter Stator, or the Stayer, from two Temples built to him, one by Romulus at the foot of Mount Palatine, for ſtopping the flight of the Romans, and overcoming the Sa- binæ their Purſuers ev'n to the Capi- tol. The other by M. Attilius Regu- lus Conſul, A. R. 460. in the Mem- alium Circus, on his Victory over the Sannites.

J U S

Samnites. In this the Senate often met. Jupiter Ultor, or the Avenger from punishing Crimes. Agrippa built the Pantheon, now Santa Maria della Rotonda, to him.

Jura, Mount Jura, or the Mount of St. Claudius, a Mountain that from the Rhone extends almost to Geneva near the Rhone. Part of this Mountain is call'd the Great Credo, and stretches along that R. 4. L. below Geneva; this has various Names in varying Nations. The old famous Boundary or Bound that divided Burgundy into Transjurana and Cisjurana.

Jura, or Tirol, an ancient and strong C. and Castle in the Principality of Piedmont, the Capital of the Marquisate of the same Name, sam'd for Berengarius, that contended for the Empire with the French; 'tis a Brick under the Abp. of Turin, subject to the D. of Savoy, on the R. Doria, or Doria Balta, 22. M. N. of Turin, 29. E. of Susa, 32. W. of Verille, Long. 27. 33. Lat. 44. 55.

Jura a small T. with a strong Ca.

J U S

Justin I. Emp. of the East after Anastasi in 518. Rising by his Virtue from a Swine-herd, and Common Soldier, to the Chief Command. He was by the Soldiers forc'd to be Emperor; he banished and persecuted the Arians, and restor'd the Orthodox Prelates. He commanded the Council of Chalcedon to be observ'd. Was struck with a great Melancholly for the Destruction of great part of Antioch, and other Cities by an Earthquake, and gave largely out of his own Treasury to the Rebuilding them. Anastasia and Edessa he call'd Justinopolis; he nam'd Justinian his Sister's Son for Successor, and dy'd in 527. Aged 77. Justin II. Son of Dionysius and Viglantia, Justinian's Sister succeeded to Justin I. in 565. He had his Namesake and Competitor for the Empire, strangled at Constantinople, contrary to his Engagement, to make him 2d Person of the Empire. He began well, but prov'd a Tyrant. The Persians and Lombards, &c. declining War against him, he was forc'd to quash'd the Rebellions of Appatius, Pompeius and Prubus, Grandsons to Anastasius, and took 'em Prisoners. He collected all the Roman Laws in the Justinian Codes and Novella. He died A. C. 565. or 66. and reign'd 39 Years, aged 83. He abolish'd the Consulship. Among a great many other Temples, he built St. Sophia in Constantinople, and repair'd several Cities. Justinian II. the Younger, called Rhinometus, succeeded his Father Constantinus Barbarus, at 16 Years old, A. C. 685. At first he beat the Saracens from several of the Roman Prov. and made 'em Tributaries; he after falling on them on a frivolous pretence, was beaten by them, and being lured, he was dethron'd by them, and had his Nose cut off, and was banish'd into Chersonesus, by Leontius his Successor in 694. Leontius being in 697. depos'd by Tiberius Abdimarius, Justinian was restor'd by the K. of Bulgaria, beheaded Leontius and Tiberius, and kill'd a Senator every time his Nose dropt. He ungratefully made War on the Bulgarians, and being beaten by them soon after, was killed with his Son Tiberius, by Phillippus Bardanes his Successor.

J U S

Another Justinian, was Justin II. s Nephew. Sophia, Justin's Wife, being disappointed in her Hopes of being declared August by Tiberius, whom she had advanced to the Throne, conspir'd to set this Justinian there, whom Tiberius mildly Reproving and Pardoning, employ'd him in his Wars with Persia.

Justiniani, or Justinian (Bernard) a Venetian Ambassador to Pope Sixtus IV. He writ the Life of St. Laurence Justiniani his Uncle, the Original of Venice, the History of the Gorbis, &c.

Justiniani, (Peter) another Venetian writ the History of Venice in XVI. Books in 1576.

Justinopolis, or Justiniana, a C. of Bulgaria, fam'd for the Birth of Justinian I. was made the Capital of both the Dacia's by him, and new nam'd, being call'd before Birna and Acrida,

J U V

this was call'd the first, the second being in Upper Mesia, and the third in Chalcedonia.

Justinopolis the Metrop. of Istria in the Venetian State, a Brick under Aquileia.

Justitia, or the Goddess of Justice: she was painted blind to intimate Impartiality, and had the Figure of a severe look'd Virgin, she had a Sword in one hand, and Scales or the Scales in the other.

Justs from Justa, (man) because the Combatants fought Hand to Hand. These were Crumbates or Duels of Knights perform'd after Tournaments.

Justland, a Peninsula, concerning the chief part of Denmark, divided into N. and S. lies between the Hans Towns the Baltic, German Ocean, and the Dens. of Holstein and Schwich; each part is subdivided into 4 little Prov. Some derive the name from the Jutti, or Gotti, or Gorbi: 'Tis the most flourishing Prov. of Denmark; yet wants convenient Harbours to the Ocean. It is fertile enough in Corn, &c.

Juturna Daughter of Damrus, K. of the Ravali, and Sister to Turnus. Jupiter fell in Love with her, and in return, gave her Immortality in the Fountain of Juturna, of which she was the Nymph. Her Waters were used in Vesta's and other Sacrifices; 'twas near Rome. She was worshipped by the Wives for safe Delivery; and by the Maids for happy Nuptials. Others say that being Debauch'd by K. Latinus, she drown'd her self in the R. Nimicus.

Juvonal, (Decius Junius) born at Apollonia, a C. of Italy, in the first Cen. His three Names shew their Error, who suppose him the Son of Libertinus (a freed Man.) Some think him a God, or born in France. He spent much of his time in declaiming, but afterwards writ Satyrs; but for Reflections on Paris Nero's Favourite Comedian, he was sent to a Command at Pentapolis on the confines of Aegypt and Libya. He liv'd till the 12th Y. of Adrian.

K A D

Juvenius, a Poet and Priest of a Noble Spanish Family, in the IV. Cen. He turn'd the History of the Gospel into Heroic Verse. Some call him G. Verius Aquilinus Juvenius.

Juventa, the Goddess of Youth, put into the Capitol by Servius Tullius. M. Livius in performance of a Vow for his Victory over Asdrubal, gave order for building a 2d. Temple to her when he was Censor.

Juxon, (William) born at Chichester in Sussex, bred at St. John's Oxon, of which he was President, made first Bp, of Hereford, by Charles I. then of London, and Treasurer of England. He assisted that K. on the Scaffold, and in 1660. was made by Charles II. ABp. of Canterbury. He died in 1663. and was buried at St. John's Oxon, to which he was a great Benefactor, as he was also to Lincoln and St. Pauls.

Jeron, K. of the Lapiths, who not sending Dionius the Presents, agreed on at his Marriage with Dionysius his Daughter-in-Law carry'd away his Hoſtes. Being invited to a Feast by Ixion (who dissembled his Resentment) he was by a Trap-door let fall into a Furnace, and burnt to Death. Jupiter to comfort Ixion on his Anxious Repentance, invited him to Heaven, where falling in Love with Juno, he attempted to ravish her. Whereupon Jupiter formed a Cloud like her, which when Ixion had compell'd, he was fix'd on a Wheel by Jupiter in Hell, and from the Cloud sprung the Centauri.

K A L

Italgier, (Anselmus) of a noble Family at Tbolouze. He was a great Traveller in Europe, Asia and Africa. Among the Negro's he marry'd, and brought his Wife and Children into France, where they were Christen'd. He wrote his Travels, and an Arabian and Turkish Dictionary which was never published.

Ixater K. of the Adiabeniens, Son of Q. Helena, A. C. 45. He embrac'd the Jewish, as Josephus, or the Christian Religion as Orosius will have it.

K A N

are always 7 days from the Nones, the first of which is called Octavo Idus. adly, That only the Kalends are fixt to a certain day; for the Nones, fall on the 7th in March, May, July and October, in the other Months on the 5th. From the last of the Ides, you always reckon so many days before the Kalends of the next Month, e. g. the 13th of Jan. is the last of the Ides of Jan. the 14th you call the 15th before the Kalends of February the 15th. the 18th of the Kalends of Feb. and so each day one less. But in Feb. and Leap Year, there are two VI. Kalen. Martii. The first is marked bis VI. Kal. Martii, only the last day of every Month is called Prædie Kalendas of the next Month, as the last day of Jan. is called Prædie Calen. Februarii, that is the day before the Kalends of February.

Kalmucks, People of Great Tartary near the Caspian-Sea, and the R. Volga. Both Men and Women go to War; they are Enemies to the Mahometans, and have a particular Religion, the Men are peculiarly deform'd. The best Horses of Asia are here.

Kalsisen, (Hann) a Dominican of Coblenz in 1433. He disputed in the Council of Basil, three days successively, against the Bohemian and Hussites.

Kaminiec, or Caminieck, the Cap. of Podolia in the Ukraine, a Prov. of Poland, and Portreli, called by the Poles Caminieck Podelski. It is a Bps. See under the Abp. of Lemberg, situated on a Hill on the R. Smotryck, a little above the place where it falls into the Niefter 30 m. E. of Lemberg, 80 from Warsaw, and 170 from Constantinople near the Frontiers of Moldavia. It was taken by the Turks in 1672, surrendered back at the Peace of Carlowitz in 1699. with all Podolia and the Ukraine.

Kane, a Leader of the Huns, Predecessor to Attila, was slain in the Battle of Tulna in Austria, but got the Victory.

K E A

Kanjan, a T. of the Pa'atinare of Kism in Volhinia on the Banks of the Borysthenes, or Nieper, strong and possessed by the Cossacks. It is 7 German m. N. of Czircass.

Kanisa, a T. of Lower Hungary on the R. Sala, in the Zalad, between the Drave and the Lake of Balaton, a m. E. of Stiria, taken by the Turks in 1600. and surrendered to the Emp. in 1690.

Kara Mehemet Basha, Governor of Buda, when besieged by the D. of Lorraine. He had signaliz'd himself at the Siege of Candia, Kaminnick and Venezia, but was killed at Buda, on the Ramparts with a shiver of a Cannon-ball.

Karibschach, K. of Kilek, in the Prov. of Kilan in Persia. Being of the ancient Race of those Kings, and attempting to rescue his Country from the Persian Yoke, he was defeated by the Sophy, and after a ridiculous Entry with 500 Wenches in his Train, barbarously executed. He was first shod like a Horse, and then shoe with Arrows by the Sophy, and his Nobles in the Market-place.

Kaschan, a strong and well fortified C. of Persia, one of the Principal Marts of that Country, for the Indian and European Merchants.

Kasikermeen, a T. in the Otkakow Tartary S. of the Boristhenes, 2 m. from the Black-Sea. It is fortified with 4 Square Forts. It was taken by the Muscovite Cossacks in 1695. and left in their Possession at the Treaty of Carlowitz in 1699.

Kaufbeuren, or Kaufbeira, a German Imperial C. in Swabia, 6 l. from Memmingen. It bought its Liberty of Conrade II. for 50000 Crowns, and embrac'd the reformed Religion in 1624.

Keaulia, K. of the W. Saxons, Son to Kewick, whom he succeeded in 565. He overthrew the Britains in the memorable Battle of Deorham in Gloucestershire and Wessex, but was afterwards at Woden's Mount defeated by them, his Army destroy'd, and he driven out of his Kdom. after having arriv'd to be K. of all the Saxons on this side Humber.

K E I

Kebbers, Idolaters permitted in the Suburbs of Ispahan, called Kebrabath. They differ in all things but Language from the other Persians: Form of Worship they have none, nor moral Books. yet hold the Soul's Immortality, and make 2 kinds of Augury of the Salvation of the Dead. 1. By the Cock being seiz'd by a Fox, when let out of the deceased's House into the Fields, the other, thought more infallible, by the right Eye of the exposed Corps, being peck'd out by a Raven; for if the left be peck'd out, he's held for damn'd, and contemptuously thrown into a Pit.

Keckerman, (Barth.) a Philosopher of Dantzick, towards the end of the XVI. Cen. He was Author of abundance of Books, wherein he discovered more Method than Wit.

Kedwalla a W. Saxon K. uneasy

K E N

Chall of Scotland, and Sheriff of Merns.

Kelbins, a People of Syria, near the Druses, 3 days Journey from Aleppo, neither Turks nor Christians, but most liking the last.

Keller, (James) a good Jesuite writer, about the beginning of the XVII. Cen. He was a long time Counsellor to Alfred of Bavaria, who often consulted him in Publick. He publish'd some Books of Controversie, and Divers of Politicks, before the latter of which he concealed his Name.

Kelwulf, K. of Northumberland in 729. He reign'd 9 Years uneasily, and turn'd Monk of Lindisfarne. He easily brought the Monks from using Milk and Water, to Wine and Ale. Bede Dedicated his History to him.

Kempis, see Thomas a Kempis.

Kempton, one of the oldest C. in Germany on the R. Rer in the Ter. of Algow, the Seat of the D's of Schawben, of whom K. Hildebrand was founder. Charlemagne marry'd his Daughter Hildebrande. It was once the

K E N

Kenilworth, a Strong Castle of Warwickshire, which in the Reign of Hen. III. stood a Siege of Six Months, and was in Q. Elizabeth's time, the 2d or 3d Castle for strength in England.

Kennedy, the surname of the Earls of Cassils, a very ancient and noble Family in the W. of Scotland.

Kennethus I. 50th K. of Scotland, succeeded Aidanus, about An. 505. and liv'd scarce one Year. Kennethus II. 69th K. of Scotland, succeeded K. Alpin his Father in 823. A very valiant Prince, who tho' he came to the Crown when the Kingdom was at a very low Ebb, upon account of the Victory the Picts obtain'd over his Father, who was slain in Battle; yet by his Bravery and Conduct, he sufficiently revenged his Father's Death, in several Battles with the Picts, driving 'em out of all their strong Holds, and Dominions; and at last exterminated the very Race of them out of Scotland. He is reckon'd the 3d Founder of the Scottish Monarchy. He expelled the Picts in the 5th of his Reign, liv'd in great Tranquillity and Reputation to the 20th, extremely belov'd at Home for his careful administration of Justice, and as much fear'd abroad for the glory of his Arms. Thus having extended his Dominions from the Orcaides to Adrian's Wall, he died An. 854. Kennethus III. 80th K. of Scotland, succeeded Calenus. He was a great Reformer of the Manners of the People, corrupted by the former Reign. He faithfully observ'd the League which his Predecessors had made with the English, but was quickly disturb'd by the Danes, who made an Invasion upon his Kingdom; but he without loss of time having Summon'd the Neighbouring Nobility, march'd against them with what Force he had, and charg'd them with great bravery. The Battle was obstinate and bloody, at length the Scots were put to flight, and that day had certainly been fatal to them, if a certain Countryman nam'd

K E N

Hay, with his two Sons, who were at Plough in a Field, through which the Scots fled, being Men of great Strength, Courage, and Love to their Country, had not turn'd the Scale. They reproach'd their Countrymen for their Cowardise, and taking up the Yoke, and what came next to Hand, endeavour'd to stop their flight, and urg'd them to follow their Example. Those who rather fled for Company than out of Fear, join'd with them, and crying out, that new Supplies were come, they turn'd again upon their Enemies, and entirely routed them. This Victory made Hay the subject of all Conversation. Every one acknowledg'd that to him, and his Sons, they ow'd their Lives, Honours, and Victory. The K. rewarded them with great Possessions, and took them into the Rank of Nobility. This K. had been reckon'd amongst the best of Princes, if he had not poison'd Prince Malcolm, the Son of K. Duffus, much esteem'd for his Verrue, to make way for his own Son's Succession to the Crown. Till that time, 'twas Customary, to chuse him for King, who was thought most capable of Government, provided he were of Fergus's Race. He died in the 25th Year of his Reign, An. 994. Some say he was murder'd in an Ambush, others by an Arrow shot out of a Brzen Statue.

Kennethus, a Pictish King, who having rais'd an Army against the Scots, fled as soon as he came in sight of them, and was kill'd by a Peasant, who did not know him. This happen'd about the VIII. Cen.

Kensington, a T. near London, much frequented for its good Air, and remarkable of late, for the Residence of his late Majesty K. William, who bought that Seat of the E. of Nottingham.

Kent, a large Marine County in the S. of England. Its length from E. to W. is about 53 Miles, its breadth from N. to S. about 26. Its Inhabitants were call'd Canti or Cantiani, by the ancients ancient Romans. In the Saxon Hep-tarchy, 'twas an entire Kingdom by it self. The Air is very Aquish near the Sea, and very Healthful towards the Thames. The Southern Parts are very fruitful, but not healthful, the middle both. It has great Plenty of the best Cherries and Pippins in England. 'Tis water'd by several Rivers, as besides, the Thames, the Medway, the Stower, the Rotter, and the Darwent, all abounding with Fish. In Kent, most part of the Royal Fleet is built and laid up, the former at Woolwich, and the latter at Chatham. This Country was first conquer'd by J. Caesar, tho' not without resistance. The Saxons likewise began the Conquest of Britain here. The Kentishmen have been famous for their exploits against the Danes. When Vladimir the Conqueror had subdued the rest of the Nation, he was glad to compound with the People of Kent, and leave them their ancient Customs. Whence the Laws of Canterbury are in force to this day. The Christian Religion was first taught, one of the most learn'd Mathematicians and Astronomers of his time. He liv'd towards the end of the XVI. Cen. and the beginning of the XVII. and died 1630. He wrote several learn'd Treatises.

K E P

K E T

Kent, or Chorche, a City of the Pro-pensian Tartars in Europe, whose inhabitants formerly dwell in the Fields, and were Heathens. Their Priest in their Sacrifices us'd to take some of the Blood, and mixing it with Milk, Horse-dung and Earth, goe into a Tree, and after exhorting the People, sprinkled them with it to purifie and defend them from all Evils.

Kerr, or Carr, the surname of a numerous and noble Family in the E. of Scotland, of which are the Earls of Roxborough, Jedborough, Latham and Ancrum. There was also an ancient Family in the W. of Scotland of the same, call'd Kerr of Kerstoun; the last of which having suffer'd much in the late Reigns, was killed at Stirling fighting gallantly under his late Master King William's Standard.

K I E

Kexholm, a Prov. of Sweden in Finland, whose Cap. has the same name. The City stands at the Mouth of the River Uoxen. and has a strong Castle: This Province has belong'd to Sweden ever since 1617.

Ki, in the Persian and Turkish Tongues, implies King or Emperor. A certain K. of Persia, intending to give a magnificent Title to the K. of Spain, call'd him Ki-Ispania.

Kiblah, the name of the Temple of Mecha, or rather of the Square Tower in the midst of that Mosque. 'Tis an Arabian Word, and is given by the Turks to that part of the Mosque of Mecha, towards which they are to turn their Faces in Prayer, which it implies. Thus in the Walls of the Mosques of Turky, there is a Niche pointing towards Mecha, to direct the People which way to turn when they Pray, which is also term'd Kiblah.

Kiburg, a C. of Switzerland, in the Canton of Zurich, which heretofore had famous Counts of its own Name.

Kiel, or Kil, a C. of Germany, in the Ddom of Holstein, upon the Baltick. It has a good Harbour, which makes it a place of considerable Trade. It has also a strong Castle, and an University founded in 1665.

Kienning, a large C. of the Prov. of Fokien in China, a Place of good Trade, by reason of the Ships which pass this way to the Prov. of Chekiang, which when they arrive at Pucing are unladen, and their Effects carried by Porters 3 days Journey to the T. of Pingbu. These Porters are to the Number of 10000, and have a wonderful strength and dexterity. 'Tis usual to see one of them carry on his Shoulders a piece of Marble, which we should not be able to remove without Horses. Near Pucing, there is a fair Bridge of Boats, and a Temple dedicated to Chruencung, the Interpreter of Confucius's Philosophy. Near the City of Cungan is the Mountain Ouy, remarkable for its Convents, and the Hermits.

K I M

Kilan, a large Semi-Circular Prov. of Persia, upon the Caspian Sea. It abounds more than the rest with Sulk, Rice, Tobacco, Oranges, Citrons, Pomegranates, and other excellent Fruits. The Inhabitants are plentifully furnish'd, with whatsoever may serve either for use or pleasure, and had formerly a King of their own, who was subdu'd by Shaw-Abbas I.

Kildare, a pleasant and fruitful County. in the Prov. of Leinster in Ireland, 'Tis noted for its vast Plain, where an Army of 10000 Men may encamp. The Chief T. Kildare is a Bp's See, and gives the Title of Earl to one of the ancient Family of the Stex-Gerald's of that County.

Kilianus, (Cornelius) Native of Brabant, a famous Corrector of the Press to Plantinus, for 50 Years, who wrote several Books, and some good Latin Verses. He died very old in 1607.

Kilkenny, a C. and County of Ireland, in the Province of Leinster. The City is the most populous, rich, and best-traded In-land place of the whole Kingdom. It has a stately Castle belonging to the D. of Ormond. Cromwel having taken Drogheda, march'd against Kilkenny, which surrendred upon Articles, after eight days Resistance. After the Battel at the Boyne, Kilkenny, submitted to the D. of Ormond, who has another noble Seat within 2 Miles of it, call'd Dunmore-House.

Kimbolton, a m. T. in Huntingtonshire, that has a Castle belonging to the E. of Manchester, to whom it gives the Title of Baron.

Kimchi (David) a famous Rabbi, who liv'd in the XII. Cen. He was an excellent Grammarian, and particularly valu'd for his Method, and neatness of Style. The Modern Jews prefer him to all their Grammarians, and Christians are not a little behold-ing to him, since they have generally compos'd their Dictionaries and Translations of the Bible from his Books.

Kineton,

K I N

Kington, a m. T. in Warwickshire, remarkable only for giving the Title of Baron to the D. of Leeds.

Kings, the Title of IV. Books of the Old Testament, so call'd, because they relate the History of the Kings of Judah and Israel. The whole 4 comprehend about 550 Years. They are suppos'd to have been written by several Persons, part of the first Book by Samuel; the 2d by Gad and Nathan; Abijah and Iddo, are thought to have been Authors of the 3d; and as to the 4th, there are but slender Conjectures about it.

King of Sacrifices, Lat. Rex Sacrorum, was a Roman Magistrate, who had the managing of all things relating to Sacrifices. He was set up after the Kings were expell'd, (because in certain Sacrifices, the King himself officiated) that there might be one to represent the Regal Character. However the Romans were so tender of their Liberty, that they gave him no Power, but over Religious Matters, and even there the High-Priest was above him. He

K I O

Harbour, Custom-house and Key, two Parish Churches, with Walls, Ditches, Forts, Blockhouses, Castles; which render it a strong place. It gives the Title of Earl to one of the Family of Pierpoint, who is at present Essex Pierpoint, Earl of Kingston.

Kinnarellus, 48th K. of Scotland, succeeded his Brother Congallus in 568. There happen'd nothing remarkable in his Reign, but his kind usage of Adair, who was to succeed him. The King having, to the surprize of all Men, made him his Vicegerent.

Kismet, Wife of Achmet, Emp. of the Turks, Mother of Sulcan Ibrahim, and Grandmother to Mahomet IV. depos'd An. 1687. She had the Government in her own Hands, during the Minority of Mahomet, and had before encourag'd the Conspiracy of the Fanatics, who slew her Son Ibrahim. But at length the Mother of Mahomet countermin'd her Policy, and set the opposite party of Spahis, Basha's and Boys against her. They march'd their Forces against her Favourite, but were and rich, but so ruin'd by the Tartars, who took it in 1615. that little remains of its ancient Splendor. It has been since in the Possession of the Cossacks and Moscovites. It stands near the Borders of Moscovy. 'Twas yield'd to the Russians in 1686. and was formerly the Seat of the Russian Empire. The Palatinate of Kirua has vast Caverns under ground, which the Inhabitants pretend run 8 Miles in length, and in them the Monuments of several of the old Russian Nobility, with many Bodies still entire, and in the Habits they wore when living.

K I R

Kircher, (Conrad) a Protestant of Augsburg, who made a Greek Concordance of the Old Testament, of great use towards the understanding of the Scripture.

Kircher, (Athanasius) a Jesuit, famous Philosopher, and Mathematician; very young, he taught at Witzburg in Francia. When Gustavus Adolphus enter'd Germany, he retir'd to France to avoid the Troubles, and from thence went to Rome, where he made many learn'd Discoveries.

Kirckholm, a Town of Livonia, near which Carolus Gustavus of Sweden was defeated in 1655. by the King of Poland.

Kirkby, or Kirby-Lonsdale, a Market T. in Westmorland, large, fair and populous. Sir John Lwther of Lwther deceased, was created by the late K. William Viscount Lonsdale, and Lord Privy-Seal. He died July 1700.

Kirkby-Steven; another Market T. in the same Country. Wharfen-Hall, the ancient Seat of the Family of the Lord Wharfen stands near it.

Kirkcaldy, a Sea-Port T. and Borough Royal, pleasantly situated upon the Banks of the Forth, stretching out a full Scotch m. along the Sands. It is in the Co. of Fife in Scotland, being a T. of a considerable Trade, and noted for sundry Manufactures, especially in Iron-work.

Kirkbeven, (Charles) Son of

K I R

Kirkbeven, Lord of Hemfete in Middlesex, by Catherine, eldest Daughter of Thomas Ld Watson, and Widdow of the Ld Stamhope, Son to Philip late Earl of Chesterfield. Which Charles by reason thereof was created Lord Watson of Watson in Kent, by K. Ch. 2d, and dying without Issue, left his Estate and Mansion-house near Hamstead in Middlesex, call'd Belle-fire, to the Honourable Charles Stamhope, alias Watson, Second Son to the present Earl of Chesterfield.

Kirkman, (John) a famous Author, Native of Lubeck, who was made Poetry Professor at Rostock in 1602. and head Master of the Academy of Lubeck in 1613. which he kept to his Death in 1643. He wrote several Books, an account of which are to be seen in Bayle.

Kirkwall, the chief T. of Orkney, in the Isl. Pannia. It has a good Haven, and a considerable Trade. There is an old Castle, which was formerly very strong: The Walls are so thick, that large Chambers are built in them. Near it is a stately Palace built by Robert Kid, Bp. there in Q. Mary's time; and not far off another noble Structure built by Patrick Stuart, Earl of Orkney, but unfinish'd. Both Houses have very pleasant Gardens. It has a stately Church built by St. Magnus, who first preach'd the Christian Religion there. The Steeple is remarkable for so many turnings and windings, that Strangers cannot find their way out, and so strong, that 50 Men may defend it against 1000, if they have not great Guns.

Kiriander, (William) a German Lawyer, and Syndick of Trier, who liv'd about the end of the XVI. Cen. He wrote the Annals of Trier, which were cry'd down by the Jesuits, on account of his changing his Religion.

Kirstenius, (Peter) chief Physician to the Q. Christina of Sweden. He understood 26 Languages and wrote several Books.

K N I

Kifco, Lat. Oxytus, a ruinous C. in Natolia. 'Tis said the Argonauts built it 500. Years before Rome; 'twas a very stately City, almost all of Marble: but the Temple built there to the honour of Augustus, was surprizingly magnificent. You see there nothing now but Ruins of sumptuous buildings, and particularly of an oval Theatre capable of 1200 Spectators.

Kmis, (Paul) Governor of the Lower Hungary, hearing some Soldiers of the Garrison of Belgrade, design'd to give up that City to the Turks, he seized them, and roasted one every day, and made his Companions eat him, asking every Meal how they lik'd the taste of a Traitor? And when they were all thus dispatch'd but one, he starv'd him....

Knareborough, a Market T. in Yorkshire. It sends two Members to Parliament, has a Castle upon a Rock, and a Well, which 'tis said, petrifies Wood. The present Members are Robert Byerly Esq, and Christopher Stockdale Esq,

K N O

Company smiling at, as thinking it imposed more than ordinary familiarity, the K. is said to have spoken these words, Hæc sūt qui mal' p'p'et. But later Authors expl'de it, and say, that the Garter only was at first worn, to put the Companions in mind, that they should be bound together with inviolable Affection, and that the Motto was chosen to prevent any Misconstruction of their strict Confederacy. The greatest Monarchs of Christianity have been of this Order, and it 'tis not the first, 'tis the ancientest now in Europe.

Knight, a Mil. Order. The Roman conferr'd this Honour upon none under the Age of 16. In the time of the Saxons, Knights were sometimes made by Bps. Abbots, and Priests. Formerly none but Soldiers were made Kms. The first Tradesman or Citizen that was knighted, was Sir William Walworth, Ld. Mayor of London, in Edw. III. time, for suppressing the Rebellion of Wat Tyler, and killing him with his own hand.,

K N U

son against the Emperor, his Son Philip, and the Queen of England by his Adversaries, upon which, the Magistrates, having a great respect for him, advis'd him to return from thence, else if the Emperor should demand him, they must give him up; so he return'd to Geneva in 1555. About this time, he writ his first Blast of the Trumpet against the Government of Women, occasion'd by the Cruelty of Mary Q. of England, and Mary Q. Regent of Scotland. After this, solicited by the Nobility, he return'd Home, and was fix'd in the Ministry at Edinburgh. He was naturally of a fervent Temper, and a most powerful Preacher. Few of his Sermons were printed, tho' he was Learn'd and Eloquent. He was noted for several Predictions, which were observ'd to come to pass. Like other great Men, he wanted not his Enemies and Detractors, who sought his ruin for differing with them about the Power of Kings, and Church Government. The Providence of God was remarkable, in saving him also from the attempts of his Enemies. Many blam'd him as too rigid and severe; but he hated their Sins, not their Persons. He died in the 67th Year of his Age, and was attended to the Grave by the E. of Morton, afterwards Regent, and Persons of all Ranks. When he was laid in his Grave, the Earl said, Here lies one, who never fear'd the Face of Man; was often threatened with Dagg and Dagger, and yet has ended his days in Peace and Honour. Beza calls him, the Apostle of the Scots, and Great Mr. Knox. He wrote the History of the Church of Scotland.

Knox, (Matthew) Founder of the Sect of the Conscientiarists, who maintain'd there was no other God but Conscience. This Sect began in 1673.

K Y R

Komare, Komare, Lat. Comarra, A strong T. in the Lower-Hungary. It became the Bulwark of Christendom against the Turks, after the taking of Gran in 1542. In 1591. after Raab was taken, Sinan Basha besieg'd this T. with a great force, but without Success. He sending five Turks to corrupt the Governor, Baron Braun cut off four of their Heads, and sent the fifth back to acquaint the Basha with their Doom, and that there were no Traitors to be bought.

Königsberg, the chief C. of Ducal Prussia, belonging to the Elector of Brandenburg, Crown'd K. of Prussia in this City Aug. 1700. Is a Hanse-T. large and fair. 'Tis also renown'd for its Trade.

Kornmannus, (Henry) a German Lawyer of the XVII. Cen. He was Author of divers curious Treatises, of which there are many Editions.

Kotter, (Christopher) a Tanner of the City Syracuse in Lower Silesia. He was a Protestant, and pretended to many Revelations communicated to him by an Angel. He died in 1647. Several Protestants have writ against these things as Delusions.

Krantz, (Albert) Dr. of Law and Divinity, and Dean of the Church of Hamburg. He liv'd in the XV. and XVI. Cent. He was a Man of great Piety and Learning. He writ several Books.

Kahlman, (Quirinus) a Visionary of the XVII. Cen. Of whom Bayle says a great deal, but which I must omit.

Kyrghisi, a Clam of Tartars on the W. side of Mount Imam of Asia, who hang their dead Friends upon Trees, to be devour'd by the Birds of the Air. This Nation lives on the Frozen Ocean.

L A B

L A C

L.

L A B A C H, Cap. of Carniola, a neat Town with a strong Castle, famous for withstanding a considerable Siege.

Labarum, or Labrum, a Standard us'd by the Romans, since Constantine's time. The Officer who bore it, was call'd Præpositus Labari. 'Twas call'd Labarum, or Laborum quasi laborum opes, i. e. Terminus, aluding to the deliverance of the Church by Constantine, from the Persecutions it groan'd under.

Labbe, (Philip) a Jesuite of Bourges in France, well vers'd in the Polite Learning, and a laborous Writer.

Libe, (Louise) a learn'd Courtesan of Lyons, who writ several Books.

Lives, (Aelius or Attius) a Latin Poet, who pretended to translate Homer, but did it so ill, that it made him ridiculous, and Persius lash'd him

Labruer, (Jean le) a French Author, who in 1642. publish'd the Tombs of illustrious Persons, and the Journey of the Q. of Poland. He writ afterwards several Histories.

Labyrinth. Pliny informs of four very famous. That of Dadalus in Crete, to secure the Minotaur. That of Egypt, the wonderful work of Psammetichus K. of Egypt. 'Twas a vast structure, all of Marble, containing 3000 Edifices, among which 12 Royal Palaces. The 3d, That of Lemnos, famous for its sumptuous Pillars. And the 4th, That of Italy, which Pyramus K. of Hebruria, design'd a Sepulcher for himself and his Successors.

Lacedæmon, Sparta, now Misra, an ancient famous C. of the Africa. Before Lycurgus's time, the Lacedæmonians were an obscure People. He by his wise Laws made them a great Nation.

L A C

Marry, they enter'd into a dark Room, where the Virgins were kept, and the first they laid hold of, was to be their Wife. To make Vice odious to them, they set their Slaves before them, made drunk on purpose, that by seeing their loathsome Fooleries, they might shun all intemperance. They were frequently put in mind of the Honours due to Magistrates, and all old Men, and the Exercise of Horsemanship, was recommended to them. They were taught to speak in few words, and to excell in quick Replies and Apophegms. They boasted so much on Liberty, that to gain their point, they were willing to undergo the hardest Labour, and be expos'd to the worst of Dangers. Their Wars with the Messenians under the Conduct of Tyrtas the Poet, and their Courage in fighting Xerxes with a handful of Men at Thermopylae, and their War with the Athenians, which lasted 27 Years are famous in History. 'Tis said, that in a Battle with the Arcadians, the Lacedaemonians slew ten Thousand of them, without the loss of one Man. At last their City was taken by Philopomen, who abrogated the Laws of Lycurgus, and pull'd down the Walls, by which means the City became Subject to the Romans. The City of Lacedaemon is said to have been built in the days of the Patriarch Jacob, by which account, 'tis almost a Thousand Years older than Rome. No Nation in the World ever flourish'd so many Ages as this in Military glory. It has been of late Years possess'd by the Turks, and at this day by the Venetians (who are Masters of all Morea) and call'd Mistira. It has several remarkable Antiquities still left.

Lachesis, one of the 3 Destinies, that holds the Distaff of Life, whilst Clotho spins the Thread, and Atropos cuts it.

Lacidas, Founder of a new Academy in Greece in the XXXIV. Olymp.

Laecnia, now Tracmia, a Prov. of the

L A D

Morea, whose Chief C. is Sparta, alias Mistira.

Lactantius, liv'd in the III. Cen. and the beginning of the IV. He was Preceptor to Constantine's Son Crispus Caesar. He was reputed one of the most Eloquent Men of his time, and therefore call'd the Christian Cicero. His Theological and Historical Errors are taken notice of by several Writers, both Protestants and Papists. He died in a mean Condition. He writ his Books of Institutions, and several other Pieces in Prose and Verse.

Ladislaus, the name of 6 Kings of Hungary, and 21 many of Poland.

Ladislaus IV. of Hungary, was also K. of Poland. He got many signal Victories over the Turks, John Hunniader being his General. At length Amurath's Affairs calling him into Asia, he made Peace with Ladislaus. The Christian Princes being surpris'd at this Treaty, who were preparing to join their Forces with the K. of Hungary, to break the Turkish Empire, desir'd the Pope to send a Cardinal to break the Peace and to oblige Ladislaus from his Oath, which was done; but Ladislaus paid dear for his compliance herein, by losing the Battle at Farma, Nov. 11. 1444. where he was slain in the flower of his Youth. All Europe lamented his Death, and Hungary to this day, as having been the cause not only of the Ruin of that Kingdom, but likewise of the Grecian Empire.

Ladislaus, K. of Naples, who succeeded his Father Charles de Duras. He was Valiant, Generous and Liberal, but his many Vices eclips'd all his good Qualities. He was poison'd by a Physician's Daughter of Perugia, of whom he was extremely enamour'd, her Father having been gain'd to persuade his Daughter to give him a deadly Draught under the Notion of a Philter. He died without Issue. His Sister Joan succeeded him.

Ladislaus III. K. of Poland, was esteem'd a great States-man, and very Valiant.

L A E

Valiant. At first indeed he encourag'd his Soldiers to commit Disorders and plunder the Church, by which he became hateful to the People, who declar'd he had forfeited his Crown, and made choice of another King. Upon which Ladislaus retir'd to Hungary, and thence to Rome. After the Death of Wenceslaus K. of Bohemia, who had been chosen K. of Poland in his place, they chose him again, (which is a strange Instance) and he govern'd very wisely, enlarg'd his Kingdom, and was dreadful to his Foes. He was reputed the wisest Prince of his time. He left behind him Casimir the Great, and a Daughter nam'd Elizabeth, Wife of Charles K. of Hungary.

Ladislaus-Sigismund VI. Son of Sigismund III. K. of Sweden, and afterwards of Poland, was also a very Valiant Prince. Before he came to the Crown of Poland, he had in several Battles kill'd 150000 Turks. He was a virtuous Prince, well skil'd in Languages, and a great Lover of Justice. After he came to the Crown, he deto the Emperor Commodus. He hinder'd that barbarous Prince from setting Rome on fire, and being told the Emperor intended to put him and some others to Death, they prevented it by poisoning him. After whose Death Latius made Pertinax Emperor, and murder'd him 3 Months after, because the Innocence of the Emperor's Manners, reprov'd his lewd Life. Besides Pertinax endeavour'd to restore the Military Discipline, which Latius would not suffer.

L A I

Levinus, (Torrentius) commonly call'd Vander Beecken, Sp. of Amwerp. He had the Character of the best Lyric Poet after Horace.

Libur, a City of the E. Indies, call'd also Peng Ab. 'Tis a large City, and has a Noble Palace, once the Residence of the Great Mogul. The name Peng Ab, which signifies 5 Rivers, is given both to the City and Province, which is so prodigiously fruitful, that it yields the Prince 7 Millions Revenue.

Lajazzo, or Jazzo, a City of the Lesser-Asia, near which Dardanus was the Queen, who having no Children, look'd upon this as a Present from Heaven.

L A M

Lake, (Sir Edward) a Gentleman whose Loyalty to K. Charles I. was very remarkable. At the Battel of Edgehill, he receiv'd 16 Wounds, and when his Left-Arm was disabled by a shot, he held the Bridle in his Teeth. The aforesaid King for his good Services, thought fit to confer a Baronetship upon him. He was Doctor of Laws, and Chancellor of Lincoln.

Lallamant, (John) a French Physician, who wrote a great number of Books in the XVI. Cen.

Lalli, (John Battista) an Italian, who was a great Lawyer, Poet and Author. He died in 1637.

Lima, the name of the High-Priest among the People of Barantola in Asiatick Tartary. This Kingdom is govern'd by two Kings. The first call'd Deva governs the State; the other call'd Lama, lives retir'd from the World, and is not only ador'd by the People of that Country for a Deity, but also by the other Kings of Tartary, who go in Pilgrimage to pay their Devotions to him. He is never to be seen but in a secret place of his Palace, with many Lamps about him, where he sits cross-legg'd upon a Cushion, in a place rais'd from the Ground, cover'd with Gold and precious Stones, where at a distance, they prostrate themselves before him, it being not lawful for any so much as to kiss his Feet. He is call'd the Great Lama, or the Lama of Lima's, that is the Priest of Priests. And to make the People believe him Eternal, when he dies, the Petty Priests set up another, and so continue the Cheat from Age to Age. He is so infinitely honour'd, that the greatest Princes look upon it as the highest favour, to have a small Partick of his Excrements, which they hang about their Necks in a Box of Gold, as a tried Amulet against all sorts of Evil's.

L A M

Lambertius, (Peter) History-Professor at Hamburg in 1652, and afterwards Sub-Library-keeper to the Present Emperor. He was Author of several Books.

Lambert, Emperor, or K. of Italy; He was treacherously kill'd as he was Hunting by Hugo Earl of Milan in 910.

Lambert, (St.) Bp. of Tonger and Maeſtricht, of one of the noblest Families of Liege. He was turn'd out of his Bprick after the Death of Childerick II. of France, upon which he retir'd to a Monastery, where he continu'd seven Years, and was then recall'd to Maeſtricht. He converted the People of Zeland, who were Idolaters to the Christian Faith. He reprov'd K. Pejin severely, for putting away his first Wife Plectruda, which so incens'd Alpaida his second Wife, that she got her Brother to murder this good Prelate.

Lambert, (John) one of Cromwell's Major Generals, who had a great Share of action in the Field under him. He was a Man of Courage and Conduct. In 1162. after the Restauration, he was tried at the instance of the H. of Commons, and being Cast, received Sentence of Death, but his Execution was respited, and he imprison'd for Life, in which Condition he died almost 30 Years after.

Lambeth, a T. in Surrey upon the Thames, over against Westminster, remarkable for the Residence of the Abp. of Canterbury, who has a fine Palace there. Canutus, the last Danish K. died here.

Lambinus, (Dionysius) a writer of great Reputation, at Montreuil in Picardy. He writ Commentaries upon Plautus, Lucretius, Cicero and Horace, with many other Works.

Lamia, was said to be belov'd by Jupiter, whose Children Juno out of jealousy destroy'd, as fast as she had them; which so enraged her, that like a cruel Monster, she devour'd all the Children

LAN

dren the found. This was also the name of a considerable Family in Rome, as likewise of R. Demetrius's Courtesan, to whom the Thyrians dedicated Temple.

Lamoignon, (Peter) was a Person of the greatest Wit and Learning of his time for his Age. He died when he was but 24. His Brother Christian de Lamoignon was President of the Parliament of Paris, whose Son William had the same Dignity, and was a great encourager of learned Men. There us'd to be a Conference of all the Wits once a Week at his House.

Lampadius, a consular Person under the Empire of Honorius, who like a true Patriot oppos'd Stilics in the Senate, for advising to give 4000 l. weight of Gold to Alaric for a Peace, telling him to his Face, That instead of buying Peace, this was the way to make a dear purchase of ignominious Slavery.

Lampridius, (Ælius) a Latin Historian in the time of Constantine the Great.

Lamps. (Sebulchral) were such as the Champion ground very fruitful. It produces the most and best Oats in England. The Oxen here are the best in the Kingdom. 'Tis a County Palatine, and is govern'd by a Chancellor, and several other inferior Officers. The present Chancellor is the Earl of Stamford. The Members of Parliament are at present the Hon. James Stanly Esq; and Richard Boscawen Esq;

LAN

Lancaster, the chief T. of Lancashire, about 190 Miles from London. Its situation is very pleasant, but the T. is not much frequented. It has given the Title of Earl and Duke to several Princes of the Royal Blood of England. We have had four Kings of the House of Lancaster, viz. Hen. IV. V. VI. VII. which last by marrying Elizabeth Daughter and Heir to Edw. IV. of the House of York, happily united the 2 Houses, whose competition for the Crown had caus'd great Bloodshed. The present Members of Parliament are Robert Heysham Esq; and Sir William Lowther Bar.

LAN

is, (Peter) of Vitre in Britany, an Extraction, came to be a Friend and Favourite to Francis II. of Bretagne: But abusing his Power, he was given up by his Master to the hands of Justice, and thereupon was executed at Nantes in 1485.

Landau, a City in Germany in the Rhineland, surrender'd to France by the Treaty of Munster. The French Booty burnt here, by an accident, in May 1689.

Landenberg, a Swiss Governor for the Emperor Albert I. He was a cruel and having caus'd one's Eyes to be tick'd out, that Person's Son entered an Association against him. In the mean time he attempting to seduce a married Woman into a Concubinage with him, was killed by some of the inhabitants of the place.

Landino, (Christopher) a Florentine, of the 15th Cen. He was esteem'd one of the best Wits of his time. He wrote several ingenious Books.

Landolfus, (Hortensius) a Physician of the 16th Cen. who was Author of several Books which he published under false Names.

Landreville, a C. in Hainault, small but fortified. By the Pyrenean Treaty 1659, 'twas left to the French. The Dutch besieg'd it for 6 Months with Men, but could not take it.

Landstroom, a small C. in the Prov. of Uppland in Sweden, near which Christian IV. of Denmark receiv'd a great wound from Charles X. King of Sweden.

Landulfus, an Italian. He was first a Monk, afterwards Abbot of Winchester, and lastly, Abp. of Canterbury. He was a publick-spirited Man, and in great esteem with the Kings of his time. He was Abp. from 1089, and died An. 1089.

Landulfus, B. of the Agriani, An. Rom. He was an Ally of Alexander the Great, and on that account offer'd to fight the Antariates. Alexander refus'd his proffer, and promis'd him his Sister Cynna in Marriage. Landulfus perform'd what he undertook, but soon after died.

LAN

Langdale, (Marmaduke Lord) Baron of Holm. A gallant Officer, who did great Service against the Rebels.

Langius, (Charles) Canon at Leige in the XVI. Cen. He was a learned Author, and an excellent Florist, having a Collection of choice Plants. He died in 1574.

Langius, (Joseph) a German Mathematician, and Greek Professor of the XVII. Cen. He was Author of divers Tracts.

Langley, (John Maximilian de) a learned Divine who wrote several Treatises, one of which was a Defence of Charles I.

Langres, an ancient C. in Champagne. 'Tis a Bps See, whose Bp. is one of the 12 Peers of France, and a Duke. Constantine the Great routed the Germans twice near this Place, and in one of the Battels slew 60000 of them.

Langsee, a large Lake in the Milanese, about 56 Miles long, and 6 broad. Two Islands call'd the Barotmean Isles belong to it, which are said to be the loveliest spots of Ground in the World. In one of them there is a noble Palace.

Languedoc, a large Prov. of France, 'tis reputed to be one of the finest and most fruitful Provinces of France. The People here are of a very Active, pregnant Temper, some of which have been very great Men. Toulouse is its Capital City. The famous Canal here, made for a Communication between the Ocean and Mediterranean Sea, begun in 1666, was not finish'd till 1681.

Langust, (Hubert) a learned Burgundian, contemporary with Melancthon, whom he convers'd with: He wrote several good Books.

L A O

Lambertius, (Philip) a Mathematician of the XVII. Cen. who left divers Treatises on that Science.

Lanthu, the name of a Religious Sect in Tnquin near China, is nam'd from its Founder a Chinese, one of the most famous Magicians in the Eastern parts. He got abundance of Disciples, who perswaded the People, that he was miraculously Born, that he lay 70 Years in his Mother's Womb, and that his Mother conceiv'd him without losing her Virginity.

Lao, or Laos, a Kingdom of the Indies. 'Tis water'd by the great River Lao, which being divided into several Channels, makes the Country very fruitful. This River never overflows by reason of it's high Banks. This Country breeds large Elephants and Unicorns. The Climate is temperate and healthful. 'Tis usual to see old Men here of 100 or 120, as lusty and strong, as if they were but 30. The Capital City where the King resides is call'd Langone. The Palace it self is as

L A O

Magicians, and live in Convents, but may leave them when they please to Marry. The K. shows himself to his People twice a Year, and seldom stirs out of his Palace, except it be in p to some Idol Temple, and then he goes in very great State. There are 8 Principal places of Command, the Chief of which, is that of the Vice Roy General, under whom there are 7 other Vice Rys, who are Governors of the 7 Provinces of the Kingdom. These are always near the King and of his Council, and send Deputies to Act under them in the Provinces. The Kings of Lao have several Kings Tributary to them, whereas themselves pay Tribute to none.

Laocoon, Son of Priam and Hecuba, and Apollo's Priest. He dissuaded the Trojans from taking the Wooden Horse into their City, which the Greeks pretended to dedicate to Pallas.

Laudamia, Acastus's Daughter. 'Tis said of her, that being extremely afflicted for the Death of her Husband

L A P

atres of white Marble, as beautiful and entire as if they were just built, and a Circus as stately. But the Town is desolate. There is another Ladicea, a City of Syria, built by Seleucus, Son of Antiochus, in memory of his Mother Ladice. There is also another of the same name in Media, suppos'd to be that mention'd by St. Paul; tho' others take it for that of Phrygia.

Laomedon, K. of Troy, succeeded his Father Ilus, An. Mun. 2794. He built the Walls of Troy out of the Treasury that was consecrated to Apollo and Neptune, whence came the Fable that these Gods built those Walls for him, and when he refus'd to pay them what he had bargain'd for, Apollo sent a Plague into the City, and Neptune an Inundation.

Laon, a strong City of Picardy in France, whose Bp. is one of the 12 Peers of France. and a Duke.

Lapithæ, a People of Thessaly, who were the first that tam'd Horses.

Lapland, the most Northern part of Scandinavia; 'tis divided into 3 parts, the Russian Lapland, the Norwegian, and the Swedish. The Norwegian, otherwise call'd Finnmark, belongs to the K. of Denmark. The Lapländers have three Months in the Winter all Night, and as many Months all Day. The cold is intolerable in Winter, and the heat in Summer. The Country is extremely incommoded with Snow and Winds, and is full of Rocks and Mountains of prodigious height. Here is a vast Number of wild Beasts, wild Fowl, and Fish. Their Trade is chiefly in Skins and Furs. There is abundance of whitish Wolves and Bears, which make great spoil in the Country; wherefore, there is no greater honour among the People here, than to have kill'd a Bear. Beavers, Otters and black-Foxes, whose Fur is highly valu'd, are in great store here. Martins and Squirrels in great numbers are found in the Forrests. Sables abound here too, whose Skins are of great Value, and

L A P

Erminers, which are a sort of white Weezels, that have a streak of black Fur in their Tails. The Beasts of most use to the Lapländers are the Reeves, or Rangifers, which are much like Red Deer, but taller and stronger. They are naturally very wild, but the People have found a Way to tame them, and make use of them to draw their Sledges. These Beasts will carry them over the Snow 100 Miles in 12 Hours time. They also eat them, and make Cheese of their Milk. Lapland being a Country full of Lakes, Marshes, Forrests and Mountains, accordingly it abounds with all sorts of Wild and Water Fowl. No Country is more plentiful in Fish, especially in Salmons. The Lakes furnish a vast quantity of Pikes, some of a larger size than a Man. They have Bremes of an Ell long, of a most delicious tast; and Perches of an incredible bigness and length. They have no Fruit Trees in their Country, nor Forrest Trees, but such as are able to resist the cold, as Pines, Firs, Junipers, Birch, Poplars, Alders, &c. They have some Mines of Silver, Lead, Copper, Iron and precious Stones, but very dark, wanting much of the lustre of the Oriental Gems. On the Banks of their Lakes and Rivers, there are Stones found representing certain Animals, which they value, and Worship for Deities. The stature of the Men is not above 3 Cubits, and they are for the most part deform'd and crook'd. Their Women are more Comely, having a natural red in their Faces mix'd with white, which looks very pretty. The Hair and Beards of the Men are very black, and their strength and agility far beyond that of other Men, but they are very cowardly, revengeful, great Cheats and Liars. They cannot live out of their own Country; if any of them leave it at any time, they fall sick. Many of them at present Profess the Christian Religion, and several Churches were built there in the true God, they adore several other Deities. They have a peculiar Veneration for the Souls of the Dead, and for certain Demons or Spirits, which they say frequent the Woods and Lakes. The ancient Inhabitants of this Country did wonderful things by Magick. They are very dextrous Hunters, and great Marks-men. They have a way of running over the Snow with mighty swiftness, by tying certain thin boards to their Feet. The Lapländers for the most part live 100 Years and upwards, and usually dye more of extream old Age than any Sicknes.

Lar, a City and small Kdom in Persia near Ormus, and the Persian Gulph in the confines of Caramania: Shaw, Abbas I. annex'd it to his Dominions towards the end of the Last Cen. having conquer'd the Guebres who were then Masters of it, and had a King of their own, who was call'd K. of Lar; the last of which with all his Family was slain by the Persians, the better to secure the Kingdom. 'Tis a very barren Soil, being no River or Rivulet within 100 Miles of the City Lar. The Inhabitants, who are for the most part Jews, are forc'd to use fire.

L A S

mes in Palestine, in which Baldwin I. K. of Jerusalem died.

Lartius, (T. Flavius) a Roman Consul, who prudently quell'd an Insurrection of the Poor at Rome. He was the first Dictator of that City.

Lascaris, a Lordship in the Confines of France and Italy near Nice.

Also a Family that thence took its name, which heretofore was very illustrious in the East. There were several Greek Emperors of this name.

Lascaris, (Johannes) a Greek of the same Family, who coming into Italy upon the taking of Constantinople in 1453. was entertain'd by Lorenzo di Medici, then the common refuge of learn'd Men, who was about making that admirable Library, so much extoll'd by the Learn'd. In Louis XII's time he went to Paris, and was by that K. sent Ambassador to Venice.

There was another Lascaris, (Ludovicus) of the same noble Family, Count of Vimercate. He turn'd Friar very young, and afterwards took Orders, but the Love he had for a certain Woman engag'd him to Marry her. Juan, Q. of Naples, gave him the Command of her Army in Provence, whence he drove the English.

Lascari, (Peter) a Neapolitan Lawyer in 1590. who was well skilled in Languages, and wrote several Books.

Lasthenes, Governour of Olynthus in Thrace, having been brib'd by K. Philip, to surrender him the City, the Courtiers call'd him Traytor, whereof he complain'd to the King, who told the Macedonians were a blunt sort of People, that were apt to call things by their names.

Lastic, (John de) a Frenchman, and Great Master of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, at Rhodes. He made a League with the Emperor of Constantinople, and when the Sultan of Egypt with a Fleet which had 18000. Men aboard, attack'd Rhodes, he defended the place so well, that the Sultan after 40 days was forc'd to raise the Siege.

L A T

Lafus, a Greek Poet, the first of that Country that writ of Amfick. He excell'd also in Dithyrambicks, a sort of Verse dedicated to the Honour of Bacchus, who was call'd Dithyrambus. He was in so great Reputation, that he was put into the number of the 7 Sages of Greece, instead of Periander.

Lateran, (St. John of) a large and stately Church in Rome. The Pavement is all of Marble, and the Roof supported by 4 rows of Pillars, the whole gilt and carv'd with great Sumptuousness and Art. The Church was first built by Constantine the Great, who allow'd a considerable Revenue towards maintaining Lamps and Servants for it. The Lateran Palace joining to it, was built by Sixtus V. Five General Councils have been held here. The First was celebrated by Calixtus II. An. 1122. 'Twas principally call'd against the Emperor Henry V. about Investitures to Benefices, and was compos'd of 300 Bps. It has 22 Canons. The 2d was conven'd by Pope Innocent II. against the Anti-Pope Anacletus II. and Arnold of Brescia, at which near 1000 Prelates assisted. It contains 30 Canons. The 3d General Lateran Council was held by Pope Alexander III. assisted by 300 Bps. It contains 27 Canons. The 4th is call'd the Great Council, because of the vast number of Prelates that assisted at it, 'twas conven'd by Pope Innocent III. The Patriarchs of Constantinople and Jerusalem were there in Person, and those of Alexandria and Antioch by their Deputies. Besides them, 71 Abps. 340. Bps. and above 800 Abbots or Priors, besides the Ambassadors of most Sovereign Princes. It contains 70 Chapters. The 5th General Lateran Council began under Julius II. and did not end till 5 Years after, under Leo Xth. There were other Lateran Councils besides, which I omit for Brevity's sake.

L A T

Latimer, (Hugh) an excellent Divine, Bp. of Winchester, in K. Edward VIth's Reign, and condemn'd to be burnt with Bp. Ridley, by Q. Mary, which Sentence was executed in 1555. Latimer was then 80 Years old.

Latin, was first us'd in publick Worship among those who did not understand it in the VII. Cen. Pope Gregory and his Successors striving with the utmost application to diffuse the Roman Offices among the Western Churches, tho' many of the Monks themselves did not understand it. The Scots and other British Christians refused the Roman Service in this Age.

Latinus I. K. of the Latins or Aborigines in Italy, was Son of Faunus. He first oppos'd Aeneas's Descent, but afterwards made Peace with him. Aeneas having killed Turnus K. of the Rutuli, married Lavinia, Latinus's only Daughter. The second K. of this name reign'd 51 Years.

Latinus, (John) a Morisco Poet, who wrote several Latin Poems in Spain.

Latinus, or Latinus, an Italian

L A U

He was born at Bergenstroom in Brabant, and was a learn'd Man likewise. The 3d (James) was born at Cambray in Holland in the XVI. Cen. He wrote against Luther, several learned Pieces of Controversy, and also de Ecclesiâ.

Latona, Daughter of the Giant Cœus and his Sister Phœbe. Jupiter got her with Child, at which Juno being incens'd, banished her from the Earth, and caus'd her to be pursued by the Serpent Python: But Neptune taking pity on her, fix'd the Isle of Delos, which before was floating, where she was deliver'd of Diana and Apollo, who afterwards killed the Serpent Python.

Latronianus, a Span. Poet of the 16th Cen. who was condemned and burnt, for being a Priscillianist.

Laval, (Andre de) Admiral and Marshal of France, was made a Knt. at 12 Years of Age: He was taken by the English, in the Battle of Lewes in 1418. who set him at 80000 Crowns Ransom. Charles VII. made him Admiral of France. He perform'd several signal Services for the Crown. These against him, which he receiv'd by an Ax on Tower-Hill, upon the 10th of Jan. 1644. His Behaviour was pious and compos'd. He was a Person of Regular Life, very charitable and publick spirited. He knew Men as well as Books, by which advantage he became an able States-man and a good Divine. He wrote a very learn'd Book against Pisler, in which he defends the Church of England against the Objections of his Adversary.

L A U

Laverna, a Goddess among the Romans, who was the Protectress of Thieves and Robbers; there was a Temple built in honour of her.

Lauffenburgh, a City on the Rhine, built upon a Rock and well fortified, belonging to the H. of Austria. 'Twas taken by the French and Swedes in the late War, but restor'd to the Emperor by the Treaty of Monsfer.

Levinia, a City of Italy, built by Aeneas after the Destruction of Troy. 'Tis now a small Village belonging to the Duke of Casertini, about 18 Miles off Rome. Levinia was also the name of the Daughter of R. Latinus and Amata, who was promis'd to Turnus, and after married to Aeneas, by whom she had a posthumous Son called Sylvius.

Launi, (John) a Parisian Doctor, who was a great Writer, and left behind him 70 Vol. almost all writ in Latin. He was a good Critick.

Launi, (Matthew) another of the same Name and Country. He renounced the Protest. Religion; but tho' prefer'd by the Church of Rome, yet was he like to have been hang'd, for promoting Rebellion, in the time of the League. He has written some Books of Controversie.

Laura, or Lauretta, a young Lady of Provence, who liv'd in 1341. She was famous for her Beauty and Learning, and especially for the Love Petrarch had for her. She was one of those Ladies that compos'd the Meetings called the Court of Love, where they answer'd curious and witty Questions about Love. She died when she was about 34 Years of Age, 'tis said the same Month, Day and Hour that Petrarch had fallen in Love with her. King Francis I. made an Epitaph on her.

L A U

Lawrence, (Saint) was made Arch-deacon and Treasurer of the Church by Pope Sixtus II. This was when the Emperor Valerian was engag'd in a cruel Persecution of the Christians; in which Pope Sixtus among the rest was taken and Martyr'd: But before his Death, he order'd Lawrence who came to visit him, to distribute the Church Treasures in his Hands to the poor Christians, that hid themselves in Caves from the fury of the Persecution. Lawrence having done as he commanded, met the Pope as he was leading to his Martyrdom, and told him aloud, That he had according to his Command distributed the Church Treasures to the Poor. The Soldiers hearing what he said, laid hold of him, and brought him before the Emperor, who charged him to declare where those Treasures were he had mentioned; Lawrence ask'd 3 days time to get them together, and present them to him: At the end of which he brought a great Number of poor People, and told him, They were the Treasures of the Church he had spoke of. Valerian enraged at the disappointment, order'd his Skin to be torn to pieces with Iron-Scourges, then himself to be set on a Wooden-Horse, and have all his Limbs dislocated; and last of all to be roasted upon a Gridiron with a slow fire under it. St. Lawrence endur'd all with so much Constancy, as astonish'd the Tyrant, and so cheerfully resign'd his Soul to God, An. 261. There was an Anti-Pope likewise of this Name, that oppos'd Symmachus, who was chosen Pope after Anastasius II. This Schism was the cause of great Disorders in Rome.

Laurentin, (Nicholas) a Satyrical O-rator of the XIV. Cen. who introduced

L A W

ced a new Republick in Rome, and banish'd all the great Men by the Power he had with the People. He summon'd the Pope, receiv'd Ambassadors; but at length was taken and murder'd, after which he was dragg'd about the Streets, An. 1346.

Lauro, (John Baptist) of Perugia, in the time of Urban VIII. He was much esteem'd for his Genius and Learning. He was Author of several Books in Verse and Prose.

Law, (Canon) a publick Regulation for deciding Ecclesiastical Affairs. 'Tis made up of, 1. The Holy Scriptures. 2. The Constitution of Councils, called Canons. 3. The Decrees of Popes. And 4thly, The Opinions of the Fathers. Besides these constituent Parts, the Civil Law is also taken in, in some Cases, i. e. extracted from the Theodosian or Justinian Codes, and sometimes from the Capitularies of the ancient Ks. of France.

Law, or French Law, are the Laws and Customs, by which Justice is

L A W

Law Roman, or Civil; by this we are to understand the Laws made by the Romans for the support of the Government, and the administering Justice to private Persons. Numerius began these Regulations; the other Kings made several Laws during their respective Reigns, which lasted in all 244 Years. These Laws being collected in a Body by Sextus Papius, the Collection was call'd Jus Papirianum. But these Laws were soon after repeal'd by the Law Tribunes, An. Rom. 303. Ten learned Men were sent to the Republick of Greece, to transcribe all the Laws they might think of Service to their Government. They were called Decemviri, and made Ten Laws, to which the year after they added two more, which were called the Laws of the Twelve Tables. Afterwards upon a Misunderstanding between the Senate and the People, the Laws called Placitum were received by the whole Commonwealth. Then there were the Ordinances of the Senate, and the perors, which done, they divided the Body of Law into four Books, viz. The Digest, the Institutes, the Code and the Novels. The Digest, or Pandects, contains the old Law. The Institutes the Elements of the Roman Law. The Code takes in all the Gregorian, Hermogenian and Theodosian Codes, i.e. all the Constitutions from Adrian to Justinian, and is call'd the Justinian Code from that Emperor's name, who got it drawn up. The Novels are a Supplement to the Code, and contain the Constitutions of Justinian, which were made after the Code was publish'd. The Emperor Basilius abridg'd the Justinian Code, and his Son Leo publish'd the Basilica in 888, which was Law till the ruin of the Eastern Empire, which happen'd in 1453.

L A Z

Lawenburg, a T. of Upper-Saxony, subject to Brandenburg, near the Baltic, 33 m. W. of Danzick.

Also a Dukedom in the Family of Saxony, between the Ddoms of Lunenburgh, Mecklenburg and Holslein, and the Cap. C. of the same Ddom on the R. Elbe, 8 m. from Hamburg.

Lexi, a Market T. on Lexi-Bay, on the E. of the Ile of Man.

Laxach, a C. and Edom in Arabia Felix, possessed by the Turks.

Lazarus, the Brother of Mary Magdalen and Martha, raised from the Dead by Christ, tho' buried four days. He was supp's'd by the Provincials to have been the first Bp. of Marseilles, driv'n thither with his Sisters and Maximian in an expos'd Boat.

Lazari (St.) an Order of Knighthood for the Entertainment and Defence of Pilgrims in the Holy-Land, endow'd with large Revenues, and Privileges, by several Kings and Popes. The Land of Brigni was bestow'd on them by Lewis VII. where the Knights fix when Judea was lost. But their Order was suppress'd at the Request of the Knights of Malta, and restor'd by a Bull, obtain'd by Henry IV. and is now much encouraged. They are the same with the Knights of St. Maurice, are allowed to Marry, and have Pensions out of Consistorial Benefices.

L E A

Lazians, or Laxians, European Sarmatians. They once inhabited the Coasts of Palus Meotis, or alter others, confin'd on the Iberians at Porta Cassia. They were made Christians in 522. The Empr. Justin being Godfather to their K. Zitus at Constantinople, gave him a Gold Crown and Robe.

Lazarus, (John) a Celestin Monk, wrote an Abridgement of Universal History, and liv'd in the XIV. Cen.

Lazius, (Wolfgangus) was born and studied at Vienne in Austria, and was Physician and Historian to Ferdinand I. He was also a good Antiquary, and Author of several Historical and Geographical Books. He died in 1556.

Lea, a R. that rises in Hertsfordshire, divides Essex and Middlesex, and waters Hertsford, Ware and Walsbam Atty.

Lead, (Jane) called by some, the Mother of the Philosophians: She has written many strange Books, full of Visions, Revelations, and Prophecies; most of which are turn'd into the Language of German, where she is more fam'd than in England. She agrees in several Points with the Roman Church, and in others with the Origenists. She printed her own Funeral Testimony in 1702. tho' she is still alive.

Leana, an Albanian Courtesan in the LXVth Olymp. to whom the Athenians erected a Statue of a Lioness without a Tongue, in honour of her Resolution in biting off hers: that she might not be forc'd to confess the Conspirators against Pisistratus the Tyrant.

League, (the Holy League) a Design form'd by the Cardinal of Lorain at the Council of Trent, under Pretence of securing the Romish Religion, but in Reality to advance the Gaies to the French Throne: several Princes particularly the K. of Spain, entered into it, and the Pope declar'd himself Protector of it: but the Duke of Guse dying, the Design sunk till the young Duke Card. of Bourbon was inveigled; and they grew more powerful by joining with the Parisian League, called the Sixteen, begun by one Rich-blond a Citizen of Paris. The Duke of Guise and the King of Spain's Envoy agree, that the Cardinal of Bourbon should succeed to the Crown. They were now so terrible, that the King assumed to be the Head of it; yet soon after allows the Protestants Liberty, but is forc'd afterwards to revoke the Order; and finding no way to secure himself from the ambitious Designs of the D. of Guise, put him and the Card. of Guise privately to death. But this aggravates the Leaguers who proceeded to Violence, and declaring that for the Roman Religion they were absolved from their Duty to the King, the Presidents of the Parliament of Paris were seized by the Governours of Paris, and the Bastile, and Leaguers put in their places. The Duke of Mayenne comes to Paris, lessens the Power of the Sixteen, gets himself declar'd Lieutenant General of the State and Crown of France. The Kings of France and Navarre unite to oppose him. Henry III. dyes, the King of Navarre.

LEE

Lecca, Lecci, Legge, the chief C. of Otranto, 7 m. from the Adriatique, and 7 S. of Oranto, in the Kdom of Naples, and the 2d C. of it. It is a Bps. See under the Abp. of Otranto.

Lechus, a Sclavonian, who being sent from the Bosphorus Cimmericus in 950. with his Brother Czecus, by the Sclavonians who had over-run Greece, and subduing Poland, was the first Duke thereof: he left a Son Lechus II. who killed his Brother Czecus (who built Cracovia) a Hunting, and died Childless in 750.

Leck, or Lecca, a large branch of the Rhine in Holland, which parting in two, one Arm, nam'd the Tffel, flows by Doesburg and Zutphen, and falls into the Zuyder Zee: The other called the Leck, passing by Wyck, Cuylenburg and Newport, empties into the Maes near Rotterdam.

Also a R. in Germany, that from its rise in Tyrol, running betwixt Bavaria and Schwaben, and through Ausburg, falls into the Danube below Donaues against Papenbeim.

Leda, Daughter of Tibstius, and Mother of Castor and Clytemnestra, by Tyndarus her Husband, R. of Oebalea, and of Pollux, and Helena by Jupiter, who in the shape of a Swan enjoy'd her as she bathed in the R. Euratas; she was after deliver'd of an Egg, whence they both proceeded.

Ledesma, (James) a learn'd Spanish Jesuit in the XVIIth Cen. born at Cellar, and Author of many Books.

Ledesma, (Peter) a Dominican of Salamanca of the XVIIth Cen. Author of various Theological Tracts.

Lee, the name of the Earl of Litchfield, the Family is of Ditchley in Oxfordshire. The present Earl is Edward Henry Lee.

Leeds, a Burrough of the W. Riding of Yorkshire, on the N. Bank of the R. Aire, over which it has a Bridge, now as famous for the Cloathing Trade, as formerly for the Royal Palace of the Kings of Northumberland. It gives the Ducal Title to the Family of Osborn, and is 116 m. from London. The present Duke of Leeds is Thomas Osborn.

LEG

Leerpool, or Leverpool, a Burrough, Market T. and Sea-port of the S. W. of Lancaster in W. Derby Hundred, on the Mouth of the R. Mersay in the Irish Channel, and the Passage into Ireland, equal for Trade and Buildings to any T. except Bristol. Besides its Town-house, on Arches and Pillars for an Exchange, it has two Castles, one on the W. side of the R. being a round Tower; the other in the R. built by R. John. The Astors of Bankhall have been great Benefactors to it. Its present Members of Parliament are William Clayton Esq; and Thomas Johnson Esq;

Leffry, Liffey, Luffee, the R. on which Dublin stands, from which it rises but 15 m. but by its various and winding course thro' St. Patrick's Fields, Kildare and Knock, makes a great figure when it fal's into the Irish Sea by Dublin, as being esteem'd one of the noblest R. of that Kdom.

Legate (the old Romans Lieutenant Generals) a name given by the Pope to 4 several sorts of Officers. 1. Those that preside in General Councils in his name. 2. His Vicars in remote Parts, as formerly the Bps. of Canterbury, Legati nati, born Legates. 3. Such as by Commission call Synods, and regulate Abuses, &c. 4. His extraordinary Ambassadors are call'd Legati a Latere.

St Leger, a Gentleman of France, and Brother to Count Guerin, made Bp. of Autun in Clothair II's Reign, and the VIIth Cen. he prevailed with Childeric II. and the Council to change Ebroins Death (incurr'd by attempting the setting Thierry on the Throne) into a confinement to the Monastery of Luxeuille in Burgundy; but his Virtue proving uneasie to some Courtiers, they abused the credulous King with slanders against him, and so he

40. N. of Piombino, 60. S. W. of Flo- rence, 10. from the Mouth of the Arno, it has a large and safe Harbour defended by 3 Forts, and a Mole, and a smaller Haven for Gallies only, called Darfi. 'Twas got from the Genoise by Exchange for Sarzana, being then a Vil. and walled by Francis and Herdinando
D. of Florence. 'Tis now a free Port. The D. Palace where the Governour lives, is beautiful, and has a large Arsenal.
 'Tis Populous by resort of Merchants and of Debtors, there being no Arrests.

Legion, a Roman Body of 5 or 6000 Foot, and 4 or 500 Horse, after the time of N. rixus. Romulus form'd them only of 3000; the Consuls encrea-sed them to 4000 Foot, and 2 or 300
 Horse. The Roman Legions were distinct from those of the Allies, whose Foot and Horse made another Body.
 The Roman Legion consisted of 10 Cohorts of 4 or 600 Men each. The Foot were distinguish'd into Velites, Husta- ri, Principes, & Trianii. The Velites, or Light arm'd, begun in the 2d Punic War, and followed the Horse in desperate Expeditions. They were arm'd with a Galea or Helmet of Leather on their Heads, a long

On and - 0 1

LEI

Atton that divides it from Northamptonshire; it has the R. Stoure and Wreak, that Diameetrically cut it in two: It sends 2 Knts. to Parliament. All that are born in Chaleten, speak harshly and loud, nor can pronounce the Letter R. The presents Knts. of the Shire are the Hon. John Verney, and John Wilkins Esq.

Leidseure, Lailseure, or Letsure, a C. of Gascogne on the R. Gers, the Cap. of Lemagne, and second of Armagne in France, a Bprick under the Abp of Aux, stands on a Hill inaccessible on all, but one side. 'Twas strongly fortified of late; before which it withstood the whole Power of France 3 Months. 'Tis now thought impregnable.

Leiden, the Cap. of Rhinelands, in the Province of Holland, on the old Stream of the Rhine near Haerlem-Meer, 7 L. from Utrecht, Dart and Amsterdam, and 3 from Delft, is a large rich and populous C. The Water running thro' the Screen, divides it into 31 Isl. join'd by 104 Stone-bridges, and 41 others. An University was founded here in 1575. with a Library and Anatomical Gallery filled with Rarities. 'Twas reliev'd by the Pr. of Orange when besieg'd by the Spaniards in 1541. Off. 3. by drowning them with the Sluces.

Leidradus, born in Nuremberg, and Abp. of Lyons, was much in favour with Charles the Great, as appears from his Letters in St. Agbertus Works in 813. he resigned his Bprick for a Cowl in the Abbey of St. Medard in Ssiffans where he died.

Leigh, (Thomas) the name of the present Lord Leigh of Stmely, descended by the 2d Branch from Sir Tho. Leigh Ld Mayor of London, whose Grandfather was Knighted by R. Charles I. He was a firm Royalist, and was made a Baron in 19 Car. 1. they have intermarried with the Families of the Egerton's, Brigham's and Fitz Maurice's, &c.

Leigbrow, a T. of the S. W. of Bedfordshire in Mans Hundred, on a little R. that falls into the Ouse; 'tis large and remarkable for its great Market of Cattel. Hence the Poem called the True Born Englishman says, Sir Charles Duncumb came to London in Leather-Breeches. 'Tis 35 m. from London.

LEK

Leine, a German R. rises in the Ter. or Eisfeldt in Lower Saxony, in its course passing Brunswick, Gottingen, Einbeck, Alfeld, it joins the Inerß at Saxstedt, and washing Hannover and Newstadt falls into the Aller.

Leinster, one of the 4 Prov. of Ireland, bounded E. by the Irish Sea, divided W. from Connacht by the R. Shannon, N. by the Ter. of Louth, and S. by Monster. Its form is Triangular, its Compass 270 m. its chief Rs. are Neuve, Sewer and Barrow full of Fish: Its Counties, Kilkenny, Caterlough, Queens-County, Kings-County, Kildare, E. Meath, W. Meath, Wexford and Dublin T. and County; some add to these Wicklow and Ferus. The late Duke of Scamberg's 2d Son takes hence his Title.

Leipsick or Leipsick, the Cap. C. of Misia on the R. Pleiss in Upper-Saxony, fam'd for its 3 yearly Marts, and University founded by Frederick the Warrior, D. of Saxony in 1408. as well as for the Dispute of Luther and Eckius on the Supremacy, and the defeat of the Imperialists by the Swedes, to whom it was surrendered in 1642. 'tis defended by a Castle call'd Pleissenburg, and is 12 German m. N. of Dresden, and 16 S. of Magdeburg.

Leiria, a C. of Estremadura in Portugal, a Bprick under the Abp. of Lisbon, on a small R. below Tomar.

Leith, a Sea-Port T. in Lutbian in Edinburgh-Isle in Scotland, a m. N. W. of Edinburgh. It is one of the best Harbours in the World; and takes its name from a small R. falling there into the Frith. It was burnt in 1544. by the Lord Lesse, but rebuilt and fortified by the French, and after demolish'd by the Scots and English: a Fort also was built here by Cromwell, and demolished by Char. II.

Leke, The surname of the Earl of Starfale of Sutton in Derbyshire, an ancient Leleges, Achaians near the L.

in Greece; also People of Caria in Lelex, R. of Lacedaemon, Founder the first Dynasty of the Spartans Lelli, or Camillus de Lellis, born in 1550. at Buchiano, and Dis-of St. Philip of Neri, he founded Clerks Regulars who are to attend
Sick, which Order was confirmed 1586. by Sixtus. He wrote several Books and died at Rome in 1614.

Lely, (Sir Peter) a famous Painter born in Westphalia in 1617. his Father being a Capt. there in Garrison, bred the Hague, came into England, where first he painted Landscapes, with little Figures and Historiet; but the profit of Face painting drew him to that, in which he excell'd all his Contemporaries. He was Knighted by Char. II. and made his Painter: He died of an Apoplexy, 1680.

Lemane, or the Lake of Geneva; the R. Rhône runs thro' it from Amille to Geneva. 'Tis 9 German m. long from E. to W. and 2 broad at most. It is environ'd with considerable Towns.

Lemary, a narrow Passage discovered by Isaac Lemary of Antwerp in 1615.
betwixt the Atlantic and Mar del
Zar, S. of the Magellan Strait.

LEN

1557. 1. For Regulating the Kingdom. 2. For War against Saladine. 3. By the Popes Legate. 4. and 5. Against Conrade D. of Massovia. 6. Against Bleslaus D. of Silesia. 7. Against Henry IV. D. of Bressan. And, 2. More against Luther, &c.

Lengow, or Lengow, a little City in the County of Lippe, in the Circle of Westphalia, once free, now under the Count of Lippe, on the R. Bege 5. m. N. of Minden, 2. S. of Paderborn, 9. N. E. of Lipstadt.

Lenox, a County in the N. of Scotland, bounded E. by Menteith, S. by Cunningham, W. by Argyle, N. by Albanie, its chief C. is Dunbarton, or Dunbarton. The R. and Lake Loch pass thro' it, and it has given a Ducal Title to several of the Royal Family.

Lens, a little T. in Artois on the R. Saubez, 3 L. N. of Arras, 4 W. of Deway, once fortified, now dismantled, noted for the Spaniards Overthrow by the Prince of Condé in 1648. 'Twas left to France by the Pyrenean Treaty.

Lenfau, (Johannes) a Professor of Divinity at Louvain in the XVIth Cen. was Canon of Tournay or Dornick. He died in 1593. He was learn'd and left many Books; he join'd in the famous Censure of Louvain in 1588, on the Doctrine of Grace.

Lent, a Forty Days Fast observ'd as a Point of Religion by the Papists; but by the Protestants only on a Political Account: yet some have contended to draw it from a very ancient Custom of the Primitive Christians, even in the Apostles time, and tho' not commanded yet approved by them. The Greek Church held it 7. The Latin 6 Weeks, but of equal number of Fasting days, viz. 36. Abstinence from all Flesh, Eggs and Cheese, and some ate not till Night, and then only Pulse and Fruits. But Wine and Eating at Noon came in by Degrees, both in the Greek and Latin Churches, who said their Vespers before Dinner, because they would not defer their Eating till after the usual time of saying Vespers. Besides this Lent before Easter, the Greeks had four, 1. The Christmas Lent. 2. The Apostles. 3. The Transfiguration. 4. The Assumption, in the VIII. Cent. The Latins had 3, before Easter, after Pentecost, and Advent; tho' the 2 last were either voluntary, particular, or impos'd upon Penitents, never generally on the whole Laity.

LEO

Lentulus, a Branch of the great and ancient Cornelian Family in Rome. Cneus Lentulus Gesticus, Consul A. C. 26. being Proconsul in Germany at Sejanus's Execution, clear'd himself of the Accusation of endeavouring to Marry his Daughter to Sejanus's Son; Caligula jealous of that Interest, his Virtue had given him in the Army put him to Death. He was a good Historian, and Poet, and Son to C. Lentulus Cossus Gesticus Colleague of L. Calpurnius Piso. 'Tis said their name came from one of the Family, born with an Excrecence like a Lentil on his Face. This Family was honour'd with the first Dignities of that Rep. from the 427. of Rome. Servius Cornelius Lentulus, with his Colleague drove the Banditti from the Cave of Umbria. L. C. Lentulus triumphed over the Samnites. L. Cornelius Lentulus triumphed over the Ligurians A. V. 517. P. C. Lentulus was strangled for the Catiline Conspiracy. Many more of the name were Consuls before and after Christ.

Leo I. (Pope) or Sr. Leo, or Leo the Great, who succeeded Sixtus III. was Born in Tuscany; being Deacon of Rome, he reconciled Albinus and Aetius Generals in France, whence he was call'd to the Papacy to Combat the Nestorians, Manicheans and Pelagians; he condemned the ad by the Council of Ephesus in 444; and null'd the Acts of the Council of Ephesus held in 449. which favour'd Eutyches, by another at Rome of that Y. he attempted a General Council in the same C. but the Emp. Marcian order'd it at Chalcedon.

enres. Introduced Hæc Sanctum Sacramentum into the Mass. Order'd none be made Nuns before 40 Ys. pure Virginity. He first appointed Processions and writ several Books.

Leo II. succeeded Agatho in 683. was learned, and a good Musician. He confirm'd the VI. General Council at late 10 Months. He left some Letters behind him.

Leo III. a Roman, succeeded Adrian in 795. the very day he died, to the disappointment of Adrian's Relations for which he narrowly escaped their Hands to Charles the Great, who afterwards hearing his Accusers, acquitted him, and put them to Death, in return, the Pope Crowns him Emperor of the West, whom in 804. he visited in France. After his Death in 814. his Enemies stirring again, he by executing some of them, provok'd the Romans to plunder his Castles whilc he lay a dying in 816.

Leo IV. By Birth a Roman, succeeding Sergius II. in 817. repair'd Rome about St. Peters. His and the Neapolitan Fleet beat the Saracens in 840. A City they had ruin'd, he repair'd, and call'd it Leopoldo; besides other Works, he built

LEO

Leo XI. a Florentine a Medici, but not of the Ducal Family chose in 1603. died the same Month.

Leo Abp. of Acrida, or Justinianus in Macedon, a Metropolitan of that Kingdom and Bulgaria, join'd the Patriarch of Constantinople in writing against the Church of Rome, Pope Leo IX. excommunicated him.

Leo I. Macedon the Great, a Thracian, succeeded Marcian A. C. 457. in the E. Empire, by the favour of Aspar, who with Ardeburnus equally Favourite to him, producing abundance of Mischief to the Empire, the Emp. rid himself of them, divorc'd his Daughter from Aspar's Son, and married her to Zeno Flavianus, his Successor, then declar'd Emp. he confirm'd the Council of Chalcedon, and his Predecessors Acts against the Hereticks. He betraying his great Preparations against the Vandals, by Basiliscus, the Empress Verina's Brother he forgave, tho' 1000 Ships were burnt by Gensericus, by his Treachery. He reign'd 17. y. and died at Constantinople in 474. His Laws are in the Justinian Code.

Leo II. The Younger, declar'd Augustus in his Cradle, by his Grandfather Leo. But living but 10 Months after, he is scarce reckon'd among the Emperors.

Leo III. succeeded Theodisius III. who voluntary quitting the Empire, turn'd Monk 717. His Reign began with the Sarazens besieging Constantinople 2 or 3 Years. He overcame the Attempt of the Bulgarians, setting up Anastasius II. against him in 719. Crowned his Son Constantine in 720. forbid Images by Edict, and prosecuted their Worshipers. Pope Gregory excommunicated him upon it, his Fleet prepared to revenge the Affront, is cast away. Gregory III. endeavour'd in vain to reclaim him, and he died of a Dropic in 741. having reign'd 24 y. &c.

Leo IV. Chegarus succeeded his Father Constantinus Copronymus in 775. and was an Enemy of Images, quash'd his

LEO

Brother Nephew's Rebellion, declar'd his Son Cesar, converted Salaric K. of Bulgaria, beat 3 Saracen Kings in Syria, and killing 6000 Arabs, he died 780. in his 6th y. of Emp.

Leo V. the Armenian, his Father Bardas was a Man of low degree, and he receiv'd the Crown by the renunciation of Michael Rangaber in 813. He overcame the Bulgarians, persecuted Image Worship, and was assassinated in his Chappel in the 8th Year of his Reign.

Leo VI. The Wise or Philosopher, Son of the Emp. Basiliscus, who having first declared him Emp. put him in Prison a great while on the false Accusation of a Monk, with an intent to Murder him, before his Death he was set at Liberty, and succeeded his Father; he made a League with the Turks, and had unsuccessful Wars with Hungary and Bulgaria. He had but one Son and him by the last of his 4 Wives. He wrote several Books and Orations. And died in 911. in the 26th y. of his Reign.

Leo I. K. of Armenia, Son of Lion III. dyed Childless.

Leo II. his Uncle succeeded him; who married Irene his Nephew's Wife, who bore him,

Leo III. Whose Kingdom being conquer'd, and Wife and Children taken by the Turks, he wandering round Christendom for Aid in vain, found from the French K. Charles VI. an honourable Pension. He died at Paris 1393.

Leo (Ambrosius) a learn'd Physician of Nisa in Naples, who writ many Books.

Leo (Johannes) Africanus, he was of the Kingdom of Granada, which being taken by the Spaniards, he retir'd to Africa, but afterwards surpris'd by Pirates, he was sold a Slave, and presented to Pope Leo X. by him converted and named Leo Johannes. He wrote divers Books, but none but his Lives of the Arabian Philosophers are extant.

Leo of Alahanda, or Ellebanda, a Carian C. an Orator, who has left several Works.

... of the Jewish Ceremonies
Sects in Italian.

Leocrates, the Athenian General, defeated the Corinthians and Epirotes, and wasted the Coasts of Peloponnesus, &c.

Leominster, or Limster, a large Borough T. of Herefordshire on the River E. 136. m. from London; its Woods so fine, that 'tis call'd Limster Ore. 1 Members are now Thos. Ld. Coningsby and Edward Harley Esq.

Leon, the Rdom of Leon and Ovied in Spain, from its 2 chief Cities 'tis bounded E. with Biscay, N. by the Cantabrian Ocean, S. by Castile, W. by Galicia, 'tis hilly and woody, and divided in two by the R. Duero. Its Cap. Leon, was built in Nero's time, and is a Sprick under Compostella, tho' immediately depending on the Pope: it stands at the foot of a Hill, on the Spring of the R. Esla, and is large but not populous, 21. m. N. W. of Valladolid. Its Cathedral is the best in Spain; and it was recover'd from the Moors in 722. Astorga, Astoria, Ciudad, Rodrigo, University of Salamanca, Placencia, Medina del Campo and Toro, are the other Cities in this Kingdom. Augustus first conquer'd it, the Goths were the Leontius, Successor of Acceptus Bp. of Fiejus in the IV. and V. Cen. He was martyr'd by the Vandals about 444 or 445.

LEO

Leontius II. of a noble House of Aquitain, married Placidia, related to several Emp. was chose Bp. of Bordeaux, after the Death of Clothair I. in a Synod in the C. of Xantes, he deposed Emeritus Bp. of Xantes for gaining the Bprick by the K. contrary to the 3 Council of Paris. He was in other Councils.

Leontius Bp. of Naples, that is Nemissa, or Nemofia in Cyprus, in 620. He was Author of several Books.

Leontius Bp. of Antioch, the Disciple of St. Lucian Martyr, an Arian, he's fabled to have castrated himself to live, without Scandal, with Eustolia. He died 356.

Leontius Patricius in 482. General of Justinianus Rhinotumetus, on false Accusations cast by him into Prison, on his enlargement depos'd Justinian, and assum'd the Imperial Crown: but Abdimus in 698. cut off his Nose, and confin'd him to a Monastery; but he was beheaded afterwards by Justinian. Another of that name, who by Verina Wife to Leo I's. help was declared Emp. at Tarsus against Zeno: But being by his Completer betray'd, he was beheaded with him, and their Heads sent to Constantinople.

Leontius (Scholasticus) of Constantinople of the VIth Cen. turn'd Hermit in Palestine, wrote various Books to be seen in Bibliotheca Patrum.

Also another, an Heretic of the Origenist Sect. Another that was one of the continuers of Theophanes, an Historian.

Leonclavius, (John) one of the learnedest Men in the XVIth Cen. He wrote the Ottoman History, and other Books. He died at Vienna in 1593.

Leonicensis (Nicholas) an Italian Physician; who first translated Galen into Latin. He was Author of divers other

LEO

Works, and was likewise a good Poet. He died in 1524. 66 Years old.

Leontium, an Athenian Courtesan and the Philosopher that prostituted her self to all Epicurus's Scholars, and is said to have debauch'd even the old Philosopher himself.

Leopard, (Paul) born at Issenberg in Flanders, learn'd in the Greek and Latin in the XVIth Cen. as his Works shew.

Leopold, Son of Leopoldus le Beau, or the Fair, and Itza Daughter of the Emp. Henry III. 6th Marquis of Austria. He serv'd under Henry IV. left him on his Excommunication, and went to his Son Henry V. married his Sister Agnes Widow to Frederick, Duke of Suevia, had by her 18 Children. His Vertue raised him to a Candidate for the Empire, but he lost it to Lothair. He died 1136, and was Sainted by Innocent VIII. 1485.

Leopold, Present Emp. Son of Ferdinand III. and Mary of Austria, Sister of Philip IV. K. of Spain, born Jan. 9 in 1640. chose K. of the Romans in 1654. of Hungary in 1655. Emp. in 1658. He has had three Wives, 1. Margaret Mary Theresa Daughter of Philip IV. of Spain. 2. Claudia Felicitia of Austria Inspruck. 3. Anna-Maria Josepha of Neuburg by whom he had the K. of the Romans and his other Children; he has recover'd all Hungary from the Turks, and been successful against France, and wou'd be now so, if the Empire and Italy knew their Interest.

Leopoldus, Marquis of Austria, of a former Family, to this present Possessor of Austria, distinguish'd himself so at the attack of Acre or Acon in Phenicia in 1191. at the head of the bravest of the Army clad in white, the T. was won from the Saracens, and his Robes red every where with Blood, but where his Belt kept it white. From whence the present Arms of the Duke's of Austria are deriv'd.

Leopoldstadt, the Cap. C. of Nestra in Upper Hungary, on the R. Waag,

... with Xantippus,
the Persians at Sea over at
He died in the 76 Olympiad.
Leotychides a Spartan P engaged Cleomenes to join posing Demaratus, who ha way Pericles, his design'd W being made K. in his plac feated the Persians in Asia, day that Patricians and Ari
the Battle of Plataea; but be in the pursuit of his Victories against a Thebanian K. by Brib accused to the Ephori, he fled Temple of Minerva at Tegea, at died.

Leovigildus, or Lervigildus, f ed his Brother Lervus, or Li Throne of the Spanish Goths in and was an Arian, he put hi Hermenegildus to Death for qu
Arianism, by the persuasion o
Wife Ingonda, Daughter of Sigib of France, and died the same Yea 624.

Levitur (Cyprian) a famous E
mian Astrologer who died in 1574.

Lepanto, an Aetolian C. in Ach.
the Turks call it Enchachri, near mouth of the W. Bay of Corinth the Gulph of Lepanto.

LER

L. for which Sylla dying in his Con-ship, he oppos'd his Burial, tho' by the Senate's leave, Catulus buried him publicly, which Lepidus had revenged on him, had he not been sw'd by Pom- pey. The most noted was M. Aemilius Lepidus, one of the Triumvirate with Crassus and Anthony, he had been High-Priest, and Consul, and in the troublesome times headed an Army, and so became considerable enough to be made a Triumvir. In the Proscripti-ons his Avarice and Cruelty sacrificed his Brother Publius. After his attempts on Sicily, he was laid aside, and banished to an obscure C. of Italy.

Leporius, a Pelagian Priest, who in the Vth Cen. spread that Heresie in France, and laid the first Grounds of it from the Nestorians; but going into Africa, he was converted by St. Austin, which he express'd with such Energy in his Letters, that those made it famous.

Leptines, Dionysius the Tyrant's Brother, who was killed in a fight with the Carthaginians. Also an Orator, against whom Demosthenes spoke an Oration. And a Leader of Demetrius, that put the Roman Legate Othorhus to Death.

Lerica, or Lerice, a little C. on the Coast of Genova at the foot of Rocks, which leave it only a Prospect to the Sea, suppos'd the Portus Eriæ; its Gulph's only divided from that of Sperza by a narrow neck of Land.
Tis about 8. m. from Sarzana, S. W.
of Sestri de Levante.

Lerida, or Herda, a strong C. in Catalunda, on a sloping Ground toward the R. Segre, a Bp'rick under the Abp. of Tarragona. The ancient Capital of Hispania Tarraconensis, is 7 Spanish m.
N. of the R. Ebro, 24 S. of Saragossa, 29 W. of Barcelona, Long. 21. 31. Lat.
42. 20. There was in 514 a Synod of 8 Bps; 'tis a University, and famous for many Sieges, and the Battels fought beneath its Walls, &c.

Lerius (De) two adjacent Islands

LES

in the Mediterranean, on the Coast of Provence facing Cannes towards Antibes; Agrippa was exiled here, the lesser now called St. Mammatus from a Monastery, fancy'd to be built there by that St. in 375. who was afterwards
Abp. of Arles. This Isl. a long time fur-nish'd Provence with Ep's. Tis inhabited by Benedictine Monks, 'tis never invaded by the Turks, tho' open to Invasion.

Leros, an Isle of the Aegean Sea, abounding in Alas, the name too of a C. once a Bps See.

Lesches, a Lesbian Poet, about the 30th Olympiad, wrote the little Iliad, to him Pindar was beholding.

Lescus, or Leschus, the name of one Prinisslaus a Polish Goldsmith, who taking to the Wars, the Royal Family of Poland being extinguish'd by the Death of the Princess Venda, the unlucky Administration of the 12 Palatines
in the Austrian and Moravian Wars, by a Stratagem Prinisslaus drove the Foe into an Ambush, and vanquish'd him, for which the Poles de-clar'd him K. and then he assumed the name of Leschus.

Lefiguieres, alias Francis Bonne Duke of Lefiguieres, &c. born at St. Benet de Champant in Dauphine in 1543. and taking Arms very early, did great Service to the Protestant Cause, and was much trusted by the K. of Navarre, who coming to the French Crown, made him Lieutenant General of all his Armies in Piedmont, Savoy and Dauphine, always Victorious, was the Principal means of the Conquest of Savoy; (for which he was made Marshal of France) and abjuring his Religion, was by Louis XIII. made High Constable of France, and Knight of the Order. Being made Duke and Peer of France by Hen. IV.

Lefina, a little C. of Naples, a Bp's.
under the Bp. of Benevento, near a Lake of the same name, 3 m. from the Gulph of Venice. Also an Island on the Dalmatian Coast belonging to Venice

LES

Venice, its chief C. of the same name, stands in its N. E. Part. is a Bprick under the Abp. of Spalatro, the Ill. 4 m. N. E. of Spalatro is Hilly and full of Rocks, 100 m. in Compass, about 13 German Miles long, and near 3 broad. The Trade is chiefly in Fish like Anchovies, call'd Sardells. The Haven's good, the Town stands on the rising of a Hill.

Leskard, a good Burrough and Market T. in Cornwall, noted for its famous Free-School, and Free Trade in Yarn.

Leslie, a noble and ancient Family of Scotland, in which Kingdom there are of the name, the 2 Earls, Rothel and Levin, 3 Lords or Barons. 1. Balquhane. 2. Lindors. And 3. Newark. John Leslie, Bp of Rapho and Clogher in Ireland, liv'd 100 Years, and was Bp. 40. dying in 1641. This Family came into Scotland out of Hungary with St. Margaret, in the Reign of William III. in the person of Bertholdus Leslie, one of the head of her Attendance, when she came to be married to Malcolm III.

LET

Fraser of this Name, and of Scotch Origin.

Leslie (John) Bp of Ross in the XVth Cen. writ the History of Scotland, and was very actively loyal to Mary Queen of Scots, suffering much on that account, and her Death was thought to hasten his. He died at Brussels in 1545. in short, this name is numerous, and its Honours so many, that it would require a Volume.

Lesnow, a T. of Volhynia in Poland, 15 m. S. of Lucko near Russia, is remarkable for E. Casimir's Victory over the Tatars and Tartars, in which they lost 20000 Men.

Leipatz, a City in the E. Coast of Germany in the Gulph of Italy, guarded by some Forts, 5 m. below Leuna, noted for the fine Geweise Gardens that are there.

Lessines, or Lessin, a little C. on the R. Dender in Humait, on the Borders of Flanders, 5 m. S. W. of Brussels, 6 from Mons, and 4 from Fagart, remarkable for Linnen Manufactory.

Lessin (Lennard) a Scottish Leslie

LEU

Lethus, (Herman) born at Goude in Holland, in the XVth Cen. he was Dean and Grand-Vicar of Utrecht, and Dr. of Salerno. He wrote several Treats.

Leti, (Gregorio) born at Milan in 1630. of a considerable Family; he came through Switzerland and France into England, to Charles II. whose Writings not pleasing the Court, he was order'd to depart the Kingdom, -after a Promise of the Historiographer's place; he went to Amsterdam in 1682. where he was chosen Historian. He is a Voluminous Author, tho' curious enough in many things.

Letines, Lestines, or Leptines, the French K's Palace in the Diocese of Cambray, near Bine in Hainault.

Leva, or Anthony de Leve, born in Navarre, whose Virtue, from a common Soldier, mounted him to the Command of Armies and Fleets under Charles V. Emp. rallied the Spaniards at Ravenna 1512. Chas'd Boniviet from Milan. Defended Pavia. Defeated Francis of Bourbon in 1528. And going with the Emp. into Africa, and Provence; the ill success hastened his Death in the 56th Year of his Age, was buried at St. Dennis near Milan, having obtain'd in his Life the Titles of Prince of Acoli, and Duke of Terranova, &c.

Levana, a Goddess that had her Altar and Worship in Rome; she was thought to lift up new born Children from the Ground. The Infant just born, by the Midwife laid on the Floor, was by the Father taken into his Arms and embraced, and without this form they were scarce thought Legitimate.

Leucate, a little T. betwixt Narbon and Salces, bordering on Roussillon in Languedoc, on the side of a Hill, having an inaccessible Rock on one side, and the Lake of Leucata and the Sea, 16 m. N. of Perpignan, and 20 S. of Narbonne. Fam'd for the Spaniards defeat by the French, under Charles of Schumberg D. of Halluin.

LEU

Leuchtenberg, in the Upper Palatinate, a Castle, Cap. of the Langravate of Nuremberg, on a Hill near the R. and T. of Pfirsche, fell to the Elector of Bavaria for want of Heirs Male, 54. m. E. of Nuremberg, and 40 m. N. of Regensburg.

Leucius, a Manichean, publish'd the Acts of the Apostles in St. Matthew's name, and that of St. James and John, A. C. 44.

Leucippe, by command of the Oracle, to find her Father Thestor Prince of Crete, and Sister, put on Priests Habit, by which she found 'em.

Leucippus Abderites, or Eleates, a Disciple of Zeno. He believ'd all things infinite, and a perpetual Change of things into one another. He first taught Atoms to be the Principles of things, and that the Earth mov'd in the Center of the Universe. He liv'd in the 77th Olymp.

Leucosa, or Licosa, a little Isl. near Cape della Licosa, in the Tuscan Sea.

Leucorhoe, Daughter of Orchamus K. of Babylon, and Euryome in whose form Apollo lay with her, for which, being buried alive by her Father, Apollo changed her into a Frankincense Tree.

Leuctra, a Boeotian C. famous for the defeat of the Spartans, by Epaninondas in the 102d Olymp.

Levi, third Son of Jacob and Leah, born A. M. 2285. dy'd 137 Year old, after Joseph 22 Years. David allotted to the daily Service of the Temple 24000 under the Priests; for inferior Judges of Religious Causes 6000, Puters 4000, and Singers 4000.

Leviathan, mention'd in Job; said to be the Hebrew word for Crocodile, tho' the Rabbis are full of wonders about it.

Levi Ben Gerson, a Jewish Rabbi, a subtle Philosopher. His Works are full of Metaphysical Notions, following the manner of Rabbi Moses.

Leviticus,

LEU

Leuiticus, a Canonical Book of the Old Testament of 24 Chapters, &c.

Leutheric, or Leutherick, succeeded Severus in the Arch of Sens, A. C. 1000. He was thought guilty of disbelieving the real Presence in the Sacrament, dy'd in 1032.

Leutbek, a Free C. of Suabia in Germany, on the R. Eschach, 17 m. N. W. of Kempten, 14 S. W. of Memmingen.

Leutmeritz, a C. of Bohemia, on the Elbe, one of the 17 Governments of that Kingdom, a Bpk under the Arch of Prague in 1655. 10 m. from Dresden, 8 N. of Prague. Contains the Ts. of Usitz, Melnick, Dietzin, &c.

Leutomissel, a Bps See in the Government of Chrudim in Bohemia.

Leuva, or Lubi, first Successor to Athanasildus K. of the Spanish Visigoths in 567 or 8. after having for some time govern'd all the Visigoths there, he surrendred them to his Brother Leovigildus, and reign'd in Languedoc, and died in 575. Leuva II. succeeded his Brother Ricardus in the Kdom of the Spanish Visigoths. after a

LEW

the Earldom, and 6 German m. N. of the C. of Gran, in the Government of Seimbaisel in Hungary.

Lewes, a Burrough and Market T. on Lewes R. in Lewes Rape, and the Cap. of it in Suffex, large, and well frequented, Affizes commonly kept here. Near it Henry III. being beaten by the Barons, yielded to a disadvantageous Peace. Its present Members of Parliament are Thos. Pelham and Richard Paine Esquires.

Lewis I. Pius King of France, and Emp. of the W. Son of Charlemagne, was born in 778. on his Birth he was declared by his Father K. of Aquitain, and Crowned in 781. in Rome, by the Pope. He was declar'd Successor to the Emp. 813. was Crown'd by the Pope at Rome in 816. The next Year he divided his Dominions betwixt himself and 3 Sons, Luthow, Lewis and Pepin. He oblig'd Bernard his Brother Pepin's Son to ask him Pardon at Chalon for conspiring against him. He subdu'd Bretagne. He married his Wife Adelaide at Paris.

LEW

ter frequent Troubles, he died in 875.

Lewis III. at 6 or 7 years old succeeded his Father Arnulfus in 899. Otto of Saxony, and Hatto Abp of Mentz were his Guardians; Lorrain fell to him in 900. of which he was Crown'd K. at Thionville, the Hungarians in his Reign frequently invaded Germany: He died at Ratisbon about 911. and was the last German King of the Blood of Charlemagne, being but 19 y. old.

Lewis IV. Son of Lewis the Elder, chosen Emp. at Frankfurt in 1314. He was opposed by Frederick the Fair, the Emp. Albertus's Son, who having some of the Electors Votes, attempted the Crown; but was defeated, and imprison'd in 1314. The desire of the People of Rome, and his Quarrel with Pope John XXII. drew him into Italy, the Pope at Avignon threatened him with St. Peter's Thunder, if he did not retire; the Guelphs and the Gibellins rag'd again in great Cruelties: He set up an Antipope, who declar'd the Pope a Heretick; Lewis on his losing many Friends, sought a Reconciliation with Benedict XII. and Clement VI. but disapproving the Conditions of surrendering and holding his Empire, and Estates of the Pope, the Electors chose in his Place Charles of Lamberburg in 1345. Lewis dying the next year of a fall from his Horse or Poison; aged 63.

Lewis the Blind, K. of Provence, Arles and Burgundy in 879. His Father was Boson, and Wife Hermengarda. By Albert of Tuscany's Invitation he came into Italy, was crown'd by the Pope Stephen VIII. in 900. but being surprized at Vienna, by the Berengaril, He had his Eyes put out, and returned to his own Dominions, and died in 938.

Lewis I. of France, and Emp. of the W. See, before Lewis I. Emp.

Lewis II. the Stammerer, first K. of Aquitain, succeeded his Father Charles

L E W

the Bald in 877. and was own'd by his Subjects, and crown'd by the Pope at Troyes in 878. He agreed with Lewis II. of Germany, for Lorrain; and was poison'd on his Expedition against Bernard Duke of Gothia in 879. aged 35.

Lewis III. receiv'd the Royal Ensigns from his Father Lewis the Stammerer, just before his Death, and with his Brother Carloman was crown'd in the Abbey of Trier. Lewis of Germany encourag'd by their Minority, advancing with an Army, for part of Lorrain, retired; the two Brothers having divided the Kingdoms of France, Neustria, Normandy, Burgundy and Aquitain betwixt 'em, besieged Boson that by the Council of Mentale, was declar'd K. of Burgundy and Provence, in Vienna, which Lewis leaving to be pressed by Carloman, went against the Normans, but fell Sick at Tours, and died at St. Denis in 882.

Lewis IV. or Ultramarine, from being Educated in England, Son of Charles the Simple, after his Father's Misfortune was by his Mother Ogiva, Daughter of Edward the Elder of England, convey'd to that Court, but was recall'd by Hugo the Great, and crown'd at Laon in 936. He in vain endeavour'd the recovery of Lorrain. He marry'd the Daughter of Henry of Germany. Attempting to seize Normandy, leagu'd with Hugo the Great, he was by D. Richard and the Danes seiz'd and kept Prisoner till the Peace. He was reconciled to Hugo the Great by the Emp. after a War begun betwixt 'em. And died by a fall from his Horse in 954.

Lewis V. the Idle, the last of the Ks of France of the 2d Line, he was recommended by his Father, on his Death Bed, to Hugh Capet; but his Mother fearing him, convey'd Lewis to Adelaide in vain, for he died in the 2d Year of his Reign, and as some say, bequeathed the Crown to Hugh Capet, in prejudice to his Uncle Charles of Lorrain; the Carlovinian Race, having rul'd 231. y.

LEW

Lewis VI. the Gross, born in 1081. succeeded his Father Philip I. in 1108. He was Valiant and Active, &c. of which he had before given Proof (being now Crown'd) he vanquish'd the Lords that by the Encouragement of Henry I. of England, disturb'd him, routing their Army, and reveng'd the Assassination of the Earl of Flanders. He was absolv'd by the Pope from the Excommunication of his own Prelates. He was a Friend to all the Popes of his time, and died at Paris of a Flux in 1137. having reign'd 29 y.

Lewis VII. the Younger, and the Pious, born in 1120 crown'd in 1131, took Possession of Guernsey and Poitou in 1137, in Right of his Wife Eleanor, and there heard of his Father Lewis the Gross's Death. He sided with Jessier Plantagenet against K. Stephen of England about Normandy. Having in his Ravage of Champagne burnt 1300 People in a Church, as an Attonement he took a Voyage to the Holy Land, at the Instance of St. Bernard; he

LEW

Having taken Languedoc from the Albigenses after several Victories over them, he died in his return at Montpensier in Auvergne in 1226. aged 37. y. having reign'd above 3 y.

Lewis IX. was born at the Castle of Possey in 1215. and when his Father Lewis VIII. dyed, was near 12 years old. His Mother Blanche of Castile Regent in his Minority by the Assistance of the Count of Champagne, rul'd with great Prudence, and kept her Son from the Designs of the Lords. Being come to Age, this Count found his Gratitude in his Assistance against the Confederated Lords, all whom he reduced to their Duty. Having reduced Raymond Count of Toulous and the Marsilian Rebels, the K. finish'd the Albigensian War begun by his Father. On his recovery from a Sickness, he vow'd the Relief of the Christians in Palestine: in 1249 he arriv'd at, and took Damietta in Egypt, and winning 2 Battels beyond the Nile, he was surrounded by Sultan Melik, and his Army being almost starv'd and

L E W

Lewis X. the Wrangler, first K. of Nauarre, in Right of his Mother Joan, succeeded his Father Philip the Fair in 1314. and was crown'd in 1315. and forc'd to raise the Siege of Courtray, and make a disadvantageous Peace by the Count of Flanders, and (supposed poison'd) he died suddenly the first year of his Reign at the Castle of Vincennes in 1316. 25 y. old.

Lewis XI. born at Bourges in 1423. He made himself in 1440. head of the Le Praguerie, a Faction against his Father, but was soon reconciled to him. He rais'd the Siege of Diep in 1442. and routed 6000 Swiss at Basil; he retir'd to Burgundy for fear of his Father's Forces on his turning against him in Dauphine; hearing of his Father's Death, he return'd and was crown'd in 1461. tho' he enter'd his Country like Conqueror, and being jealous of the great ones, he turn'd 'em all out; who enter'd into a League under the Title of the Publick Good, the Heads of which were the Dukes of Berry (Brother to the King) Bretaigne and Bourbon, and Charleroy, the Duke of Burgundy's Son. The K. engag'd them near Montleheri, but on a drawn Battel, he made a Peace to destroy the League, giving Normandy to his Brother, the County of Estampes to the Duke of Bretaigne, and some places in Picardy, which he had taken, to the Duke of Burgundy. But by several Ways and with several Adventures he recover'd all and secur'd all his Enemies; having instituted the Order of St. Michael at Amboise in 1472. He was such a successful Asserter of the Royalties, that he is said to have raised the French Ks out of their Minority, that is, was the first that suppress'd the Liberties of France. By the Gift of the Counts of Provence, he added it to his Kingdom. He had Alliance with the Switzers, and was only revengeful on his Opposers; he raised the Taxes to 47 Mil. Livres. He seiz'd Burgundy and Artois on the Death of the Duke of the first, in the 22d y. of his Reign, and 60th of his Age, A. C. 1483. he died at the Castle of Plessis les Tours, in his Sickness having discover'd all the Violent Fears of Death, and struggling for Life, by Money, Reliques, &c. He fixt the Posts thro' France, hated Men of Quality, and all Counsel but his own, raised Men from the Rabble, &c.

L E W

Lewis XII. was born at Blois in 1462, and was stiled the Just, and Father of his Country; from D. of Orleans, he succeeded Charles VIII. in 1498. being Son of Charles D. of Orleans, and Grandson of Lewis of France. He lessen'd the Taxes, and ministred Justice universally, and his Foes confessed his Goodness. He recover'd Milan from Lewis Sforza in a Fortnight; which revolting, he retook with Sforza, who dy'd Prisoner in France; he enter'd into League with Ferdinand of Arragon, gave Frederick the D. of Anjou, having dispos'd him of Naples, which France and Spain divided, the last had Puglia and Calabria, the first the rest, but these were driven out of all by the Spaniards; With whom making Peace in 1505. He chastised the Genoese; defeated the Venetians at the Battel of Aignadel in 1509. took Cremona, Padua, &c. invested by the Emp. in the Ddom of Milan in 1510. His great Power gave Umbrage to the Pope, who successively raised many Enemies to him, as the Venetians, Emperor, Switzers, at once; then the Spaniards, Genoese and English; out of all which difficulties Lewis extricated himself, by making Peace with the Spaniard, and marrying Mary of England, as 3d Wife, Daughter to Henry VII. His first was Joan, Daughter of Lewis XI. and the 2d Anne of Bretaigne. He was prevented repassing the Alps by Death, soon after his Marriage in 1515. in the 17th year of his Reign, and of his Age 53. He was Pious, Gracious and a Favourer of Learning. He lov'd his People so well, that his Tears shew'd his Concern to impose any Tax on them. In disguise he used to go into Company.

LEW

Lewis XIII. the Just, born at Fontenay-le-Comte in 1601. He succeeded his Father Henry V. in France and Navarre, in 1610, the Q. Mother was Regent till 1617, when he married the Infanta of Spain Anne of Austria. Some Malecontents at the D. of Lure rose, and join'd the Q. Mother, but the Army being beaten, she submitted. On the Death of that D. Cardinal Richelieu, came in Favour with the King. In 1622, several French Cities surrendered, and the Rochelais were defeated in 1625, they were routed again, tho' assist'd by the English, and their City taken in 1628. He restor'd the D. of Normandy to his Estate against the D. of Bretagne, reduced and pardon'd the League, Hugonots, conquer'd all Savoy, routed the Spaniards, and compell'd his Enemies to a Treaty in 1629. At the Battel of Castelnaudary in 1622, he defeated his Brother Olivier and Montmorency, who was taken at Friburg. He took Gravelin, Philippburg, Spire, Worms and Mentz; on the defeat of the Imperialists at Norlingen, and the Spaniards in Catalonia, Bourbourg, Lim, Lez, Belbon, Armeniers, Rives, de la Mabe, &c. were taken, as were Contra, Berge, Mardik, Dunkirk, Tues, Formet, &c. in 1646. The Battel of Lens was won in 1647. The Peace of Munster was in 1648, and Barcelona, Catal, London and Gravelin were lost to the Spaniards. The Queen and Princes returned to Paris in 1649, on Submission, having left it with a Design of besieging it. In 1649, to 1653, it & Civil Differences rag'd by heats against Cardinal Mazarine, which his return once removed, but the King, successful at Home, looking now Abroad after having been Crown'd in 1651, his Armies took several Towns, and by the help of the English, Mardik and Dunkirk, &c. which were deliver'd to Cromwell in 1659, and in 1660, he marry'd Mary only Daughter to Philip IV. of Spain. The Dauphine was born in 1664, he

LEW

LEW

2 Trexies, Europe is now join to Confederate against him.

Lewis I. K. of Germany, still'd the or Elder, Brother of Lotharius and Pepin K. of Aquitain, and of the Emp. Lewis the Aetick, K. of Bavaria by his Father in at first he join'd his Father a-his Brother, but turn'd against it last, and after some Reconcile-ment, stir'd new Troubles to him, in which his Father Marching, di-After whose Death, and a Bar-between the Brothers, they divily Agreement their Father's Doms, &c. in 858. he made a ha-retreat from France, having been thither by the Malecontents. On death of Lewis II. he pretended the Empire, but Charles the Bald Crown'd by the Pope, he raised army to invade the Empire, the of which, Death prevented, at fort in the 70th year of his Age, 9th year of Reign. He was Va-just and Generous.

Lewis II. The Younger, K. of Gerson of Lewis I. He defeated the Bald attempting to seize Country, laid claim to France, having secur'd Bavaria on the
of his Brother Carlman, went purpose thither; only in Con-on with Lewis and Carlman, he need Hugh the Bastard of Vardrade, dy'd at Frankfort in 882.

Lewis I. of Anjou, K. of Hungary and st, was born in 1326. He was Son of Charobert or Charles II. of ary, whom he succeeded in 1342.
banish'd the Jews, made succels-Vars with Transylvania, with the urs, Crauts and Walachians. He wured his Uncle Casimir King of ed against the Bohemians. In ree of his Brother Andrew's Death is Wife Joan Q. of Naples, he led Naples, made her flye to ce, and put some to Death. He War with the Venetians for Dal-
a in 1357. On Casimir's Death

LEW

he was chosen King of Poland in 1370. and was declar'd General of the Church by the Pope, and Vicar of the Empire by the Emp. He was always Victorious, and died in 1382.
Having reigned 40 Years, and liv'd 57.

Lewis II. or the Younger, Son of La- dislaus VI. K. of Hungary and Bohemia, succeeded his Father in 1516. at 12 Years of Age. In 1562. he lost the Battel of Mohatz and his Life, having before lost Belgrade to the Turks.

Lewis I. of France, K. of Jerusalem, Naples, Sicily, D. of Anjou, Earl of Provence, &c. 2d Son of K. John, born in 1359. On the Death of his Brother Charles V. of France, he was Regent of Charles VI. Joan I. Queen of Naples adopted him, and the Pope crown'd him in 1380. thence with Amadaus VI. Count of Savoy, he march'd to drive Charles of Duras out of Naples; he took some places there, but want of Money broke his Heart
in 1384.

Lewis II. K. of Jerusalem, Naples, Sicily and Aragon, Earl of Provence, &c. was born in 1377. and succeeded in these Titles to his Father Lewis I.
under the Regency of his Mother Mary. He was at Avignon, in 1389.
crown'd King of Naples, and all the Cities of Provence were soon recover'd from Ladislaus, Son of Charles Duras.
He twice was call'd to and received at Naples with Joy, and as soon as gone, forsaken for Ladislaus. He had War with the Earl of Savoy, and possessed the City of Naples 9 Years. In 1400.
he marry'd Jolanda, Heiress of Aragon.
In 1411. he routed Ladislaus at the Battel of Radesecbe. In 1417. he died at Angers.

Lewis III. succeeded his Father Lewis
II. and went into Italy to dechrone Queen Joan II. of Naples, but was disappointed, and fain to return back without accomplishing his end. Afterwards he was adopted by Joan, and together with her, won divers Battles.

LEW

rels, but being weak and sickly died not long after at Cosenza in 1438.

Lewis, K. of part of Sicily of the House of Arragon. He succeeded his Father Peter in 1342. at 5 Years old, under the Regency of his Uncle, and died in 1355.

Lewis of Duras Count of Marona and Gravina, was descended in a Collateral Line from St. Lewis Emp. and King of France. He succeeded his Brother Charles of Duras, put to Death by Lewis King of Hungary, and was poison'd at Naples by Q. Joan I's Order.

Lewis of Tarentum, Son of Philip, 4th Son to Charles the Lame, in 1346. married Joan Queen of Naples and Countess of Provence, not without Suspicion of having a hand in the Death of Andrew of Hungary. He died in 1352 Having instituted the Order of the Knights del Nido.

Lewis, Bp. of Thoulouze, prefer'd the Ecclesiastical to the Regal Dignity, tho' Heir to the Kdom of Jerusalem and Sicily, passing from a Clouster to a Crozier by Pope Baniface VIII.

LEW

He was faithful to his Treary with Charles VII. tho' his Daughter betroathed to the Dauphine was refused. He instituted the Senate of Turin in 1459. and died at Lions in France in 1465.

Lewis II. D. of Savoy, and King of Cyprus, in his Wife Charlotta's Right. He dy'd at Rapalle in 1482. being retir'd thither unable to cope with his Enemies.

Lewis, Pr. of the Blood of France, Count of Evreux, &c. which Baridom was his Portion given by his Father Philip the Bold, and chief of the Branch of the House of Norwre. He died in 1319.

Lewis, D. of Orleans, Count of Valois, &c. was born in 1371. being 3d Son of Charles V. of France: in the Reign of his Brother Charles VI. he govern'd all, which the D. of Burgundy being displeased with, Civil Wars ensud, but to end the Difference, both were sent against the English. Lewis taking Blois in Guene, on his return was assassinated by the

LEW

Lewis I. of Bourbon, Pr. of Conde, &c. was born in 1530. His Father was Charles of Bourbon, Duke of Vendôme. His first Campaign being at the re-taking of Bologna, under Henry II. of France, he shew'd his Valour afterwards in the Defence of Metz, against the Emp. Charles V. against the Pr. of Piedmont, in the Battels of Upland and St. Quintin, at the Siege of Cale and Thionville: Being enlarged from his Imprisonment for the Conspiracy of Ambaise, he headed the Protestants, and having won several T. he was wounded and taken at the Battel of Dreux, and lost that of St. Denis, and was shot firing under a Hedge, his Leg being broke in 1569.

Lewis II. of Bourbon, born at Paris in 1621. Son of Hen. II. Prince of Conde. He was at the Siege of Arras and Perpignan in 1640. Won the Battel of Rocroy in 1643. being 22 Y. old. In 1644. he won that of Priburg, and took Philipsburg, &c. In 1645. he gained the Battel of Nertlingen, and took Dunkirk in 1646. His Father dying, the Governments of Burgundy, Bress and Berry, fell to him. In 1647. he fought in Catalonia with various Success. In 1648. he won the Battel of Lens in the Low Countries. In 1650. he and his Brother the Prince of Conti, and the D. of Longueville were confin'd at Vincennes; but being set at Liberty, and follow'd by many, he took up Arms; after the fight of St. Anthony's Suburbs in Paris, he retir'd to the Spanish Service in the Low-Countries, to whom he did great Service; on the Pyrenean Treaty he return'd to France, and warr'd afterwards in French Comte and Holland, was at the Siege of Limburg, the raising that of Audenard, commanded in Germany, and died at Roussimbleau in 1686.

Lewis of Bourbon, III. D. of Montpensier, &c. call'd the Good, was born in 1536. and first bore Arms under Francis I. He was at the Siege of Alsfim,

LEW

Perpignan, Bologna, Rochelle, &c. and in the Battels of Renti, Jornac, and Monsieur. He was taken in that of St. Quintin; he reduc'd Angers, Saumur, Tours, Rochelle, &c. with several Places in Palen, and died at his Castle of Campagne in 1582.

Lewis of Bourbon, Count of Siffins, born at Paris in 1604. first shew'd himself in the Protestant War in Poitou, having been Head of the Council in the K's Absence, and Lieutenant General of his Army, and with him at many Battels: he retir'd to Sedan on some Jealousies at Court, joining afterwards the Spaniards, he was shot by a Pistol in too eager a pursuit of Marshal Chastillon, whom he routed at Naples in 1641.

Lewis, Cardinal D. of Vendôme, &c. was born in 1632. and was Grandson to Henry IV. by his natural Son Cesar D. of Vendôme. He married Lara Mancini, Cardinal Mazarine's Niece, after whose Death, and sufficient Proofs of his Conduct and Valour in War in France, Flanders, Italy and Catalonia, of which he was Vice-Roy, he enter'd into Orders, and was made Cardinal by Pope Alexander VII. and died in 1669.

Lewis Sforza, call'd the Moor, D. of Milan, was the youngest Son of Francis Sforza; he deposed John Galeas Heir to his Elder Brother Galeas Maria, by favour of Maximilian the Emp. who on his Marriage with the Daughter of Lewis, invested him with the Ddom of Milan, as forfeited on Default of Homage. He call'd the French into Italy, who on his Poisoning John Galeas invaded Milan, and took it from him on his entering into League with the Enemies of France. He was restor'd, and again beaten and carried Prisoner to Lions, where he died in the Castle of Loches after 10 y. Imprisonment.

Lewis of Lorraine Cardinal of Guise, succeeded his Uncle in the Abpt of Rheims, and was Head of the League was slain at Harefield in 1443.

Lewis of Luxemburg, Count of Paul. He was a follower of Ch. VII. at the Siege of Portoise, Knighted at the Siege of Diepe, was at the Cam. and was sent into England the D. of Burgundy, and commander under him at the Battle of Mantle. Was made Constable of France, Knight of Michael by Lewis XI. afterwards beheaded publicly, he surrendered by the D. of Burgundy, whom he had fled from the suspicious K. in 1475.

Lewis, or Louisa, born in 1411 Daughter to Philip Earl of Breish, afterwards D. of Savoy, and married Charles Count of Angoulême in 1438 who died in 1496. by him she was Mother to Francis I. K. of France, at her husband's death she was left Regent during his Mil. Wars: her Anger drove Charles Bourbon Constable of France out of the Kingdom: and her Grief for her Son's being taken at Pavia, after his Redemption kill'd her in 1521.

Louis-Land, or Louisiane, a large Tract of Ground S. W. of New France in America, discover'd in 1678. by the French, who since have built several Forts in it. and given their Name to it.

LIB

his Communion, and he, till the Letters from the Egyptian Bps alter'd his Mind, was inclining to condemn St. Athanasius. He sent Vincentius Bp of Capua, and others, to the Arian Council of Arles, who subscrib'd the Condemnation of Athanasius. He obtain'd a Council at Milan, where the majority being for Arius, the Orthodox were banish'd, and Liberius for not subscribing the Condemnation of Athanasius, was exil'd into Betas, a C. of Thrace; but 2 Years exile made him subscribe both that and their Confession of Faith; and the Emp. on the Mediation of the Arians, sent him back to Rome; but on that Emp's Death, he recanted, and sought Reconciliation with Athanasius.

Libertas, Goddess of Liberty, ador'd in her Temple at Rome, and under the Name of Elustheria by the Greeks. Her Figure was a Virgin in White, holding a Scepter in her Right-hand, and a Hat in her Left, and had a Car before her.

Libertines, a Sect in 1536. begun by Cypin, and one Quintin a Taylor in Holland and Brabant, made the owning all Religions indifferent, all our Actions proceeding from God, and therefore Good, and without Sin: that the State of Innocence is to be without scruple or doubt.

Libitina, according to some, Proserpina, to others, Venus, the Funeral Pomp was kept in her Temple in Rome, and Sacrifices for the Dead offer'd to her; the Furniture for Funerals were kept there to mind us of Mortality; the same Goddess presiding over Birth and Death, or rather the Birth is the first step to Death.

Libo, the famous Architect that built the Temple of Jupiter Olympus near Pisa in Greece, he liv'd in the 80 Olympiad, 58. years before Christ.

Liburnia, (now Croazia) the only C. of it that now keeps its Name, is Scarlata. Its Inhabitants invented, of old, a sort of light Vessel for Pirating on the Coasts of Epirus, and the Dalmatian Islands. The Romans in imitation of those, made a Vehicle or Litter, call'd Liburnia, to Travel in, where in their Journeys they could eat, sleep, study and write.

LIT

Libussa, Daughter of Crocus, one of the first of the Bohemian Pr. being press'd by her Subjects to Marry, she declar'd, that he in whole House her Horse of himself went, should be her Husband, which she perform'd to a Country Hind, called Primiſlaus I. K. of Bohemia.

Libya, a great part of Africa, deriving its name of Libya, Daughter of Epaphus; 'tis divided into Libya propria, and Libya Marmarica, and Cyrenaica, which contains the Kdom, and Deserts of Barca, &c.

Licetus (Fortunius) was born at Regala in the Gemeſe in 1577. and was a noted Physician, his Father Licetus of Reca, in the same State, took care of his Education himself: being born 2 Months before his time, he was kept in Cotton. He compleated his Studies at Bohemia, and taught Philosophy at Risa, where he writ a Book, De usu Anima Humana, was invited to Padua for his Learning, and taught there til 1631. where he retir'd on discontent to Bononia; but return'd to Padua at the intreaty of the Senate of Venice, where having writ above 50 several Tracts, he died at 75 years old in 1656. Among others, he enquir'd into the Sepulchral Lamp of the Ancients, of which his Opinions prevalent for a while are since exploded by Olavins Ferrarius Professor at Padua.

Litchfield, a C. in Staffordshire, 118. m. from London, a Bishop's See on a shallow Port, and little R. running into the Blisbe which falls into the Trent; 'tis divided into two by the Water, and join'd by a Bridge and Causeway; in the S. and greater part, is a Grammar-School, and St. John's Hospital for the Poor's Relief; in the

'twas in 793. an Abpk with Winton, Hereford, Sidnecester, Dorchester, N. Eatham, and Dunwich under it. It contains now Derbyshire and Staffordshire entirely, and a considerable share of Warwickshire and Shropshire; it holds 55 Parishes, of which 250 are Impropriations; 4 Archdeacons, viz. of Stafford, Derby, Coventry and Shrewsbury. The Clergy's Tenth of this Diocese is 550 l. 16 s. 11 d. in the King's Books. Litchfield Close was first a Garrison for the K. afterwards several times taken and retaken. The Family of Stuart were once Earls of it, till extinct, the Title was given by Charles II. to Edward Henry Lee, who at this time Possesses it. The C. is a County Palatine, and has 3 Churches besides the Cathedral.

Licinius, the name of the most considerable Plebeian Family in Rome of several Branches; as the Licinii and Liciniani. This Family first brought the Plebeians into Offices of Importance, A. R. 534.

Licinius Calvus, a Military Tribune.

P. Licinius Stolo, was Tribune of the People 6 years, and made a Law that no Roman should have above 500 Acres of

L I E

Metropolis of China, hang'd himself in 1464. which pillaging on the News of Usangue's coming against him with Tartars, who driving him out of the Prov. of Xenfi, slew him in a Battel.

Liddisdale, from the R. that runs through it, is a little Country of South Scotland, N. bounded by Tweeddale, W. by Annandale, S. by Cumberland, E. by Northumberland.

Lideric, marry'd Dagobert Is Daughter, from whom the Earls of Flanders descended.

Ligat, (John) so call'd from a Vil. in Suffolk, was a Poet, Orator, Linguist and Mathematician, a Benedictine Monk.

Lidard-Treger, (or S. Lidard) the name of the Seat of the ancient Fam. of St. John's in Wilts, from whom the present Men. St. John Esq; is lineally descended.

Liege, a C. and Bpk in the Circle of Westphalia, the C. is populous and well built on the Maese, 'tis Imperial and Free govern'd by its own Bp. there are 8 Collegiate Churches; the Cathedral dedicated to St. Lambert, is famous for its Chapter, all the Canons are to be Gentlemen or Doctors, and are composed of Cardinals, Barons, and Men eminent for Learning. Its Abbays and Bridges are magnificent and numerous, it stands in a fruitful Valley, and has its name from the little R. Liege, that at this C. falls into the Maese: the Gardens, Vineyards and Orchards make up a great space within the Walls. Some will have it built by Ambiorix, a German Pr. whom J. Caesar mentions in his Commentaries. It has felt many great shocks from the Normans, the Ds. of Brabant and Burgundy; one Battel with one of the last cost them 36000 Men in the Field, and six days plunder of that C. Pope Innocent II. held a Council here in 1131. and crown'd the Emp. Lothair II. in the Cathedral: 'tis 15. m. W. of Cologne, 3 S. of Maestricht, 10 of Louvain, and 5 from Aken; 'tis surrounded with Hills and Woods: the Bpk's old Inhabitants were the Eburones, or Tungri; 'tis 31 m. long, and 15 broad, its other Cities are Tongres, Huy, Maestricht, Dinans, Bovillon, Turnay, Thuni, St. Hubert, Rochefort, Mafeyck, and St. Trugen, its chief R. besides the Maese, whose course is thro' the whole Country are 14. its Valley fertile, and its Hills productive of Minerals, Marble and Vines, &c. and its Woods of Venison, &c.

L I L

Lightfoot (John) D. D. a great Master of Rabbinical Learning, and was Head of Catherine-Hall in Cambridge. He has left several Talmudical Tracts which have been objected against by Mr. Ferrand, for a false Method of Arguing from what is fabulous or at least uncertain, as the Antiquity of the Talmud.

Lignitz, a C. and once a Ddom of Silesia, in Bohemia, on the R. Katzbach; near this place in 1250. Henry D. of Silesia, was defeated by Bathey a Tartar General.

Ligorio (Pirro) a Neapolitan Painter, a great Artist in the Study of ancient Architecture, Scatures, &c. of which there are several Volumes of his Drawings in the D. of Savoy's Library. He built the Marble Mausoleum or Monument of Pope Paul IV.

Liguria, a Country of Italy, in the ancient Gallia Cisalpina, one part lying to the Sea about Genoa, &c. the other under the Hills.

Lilio, (Gregorio Giraldi) or Lilius Giraldus, was of Ferrara, and born in 1478. and having writ several Books, died of the Gout in 1552: that with Poverty he had for some time labour'd under. He writ of the Heathen Gods, Greek, Latin, and Modern Poets, the most valu'd of his Works. He invented the 30 Numbers of the E-pacta, &c.

Lilit, the Jews suppose her the first Wife of Adam, who by pronouncing the Name of God, flew away into the Air; this Lilit is a Spectre, as they believe, was taken by Louis XIV. in 1667. confirm'd to him by the Peace of Aix la Chapelle in 1668. He took in a large Suburbs with a strong Citadel: 'tis large, strong populous and rich, 5 L. S. of Tyres, 6 L. from Dowry, 4 from Artois, and 5 from Tournay.

Lille, or L'Isle, a C. in the County of Venaissin in Provence; it has its name from the R. Sorgne, that surrounds it, sung by Pemarch, in a fruitful Plain 5 or 6 L. from Avignon, and Carpentras.

Lille, a R. of Aquitain in France, rises near Meisse in the Limezin, and running through Perigord, Perigitan and Guienne, below Libourne, falls into the Dordogne, having in its course receiv'd the Vezere and the Dronne.

Lillebonne, or Islebonne, the Capital once of Caux in the Diocess of Rouen, the Norman Bps. held a Council here in 1080. in the Presence of William I. of England. It gives Title to a Branch of the Family of Lorraine.

Lilly, a strong Fort on the Scheldt, built by the States of Holland, 2 L. below Antwerp, where all Ships pay Toll that go up to that C.

Lilly, (William) born at Oxford in 1700.

L I M

dom of Brabant. 'Tis a fruitful country, has Iron and Copperas it contains 125 Villages, 5 of are walled.

Arg, the Cap. of the Dukedom, on a pleasant shady Hill, on k of the R. Wefer, from whence nious Spaw-waters are not a- L. its near the Borders of nd 60 L. E. of that C. 7 from br, and 4 S. of Aix la Cha- Castle was destroy'd by the n 1677.

Regis, a Borough and Mar- in the W. of Dorsetshire, in od-Vale Hundred, on the high the Mouth of the R. Lime, it has its name: the Road is from the Winds by high ind Trees, &c. The Duke of th landed here in 1685. from

It sends 2 Burgesses to ene, who at present are lenly, Esq; and John Burridge, winus, God of the Thresholds. ick, the Cap. of the County same Name, in the Prov. of in Ireland, the C. is strong iost surrounded with Water, ; on the Shannon, 35 m. S. of 45 W. of Kilkenny, and 60 e Ocean, on the Borders of , a Bps. See under the Abp.

l. Raimond le Gros of England it. R. John built the Castle, English the new Town, and nd fortify'd it. It held out 3 Siege against Ireton, and near against R. William. The on the N. is divided by the man and Munster from Clare und, on the S. is the County , on the W. that of Kerry, E. Tipperary. 'Tis a fertile and abited Country.

es, the Cap. of the Limofin in on the R. Vienne, large, popu- fortified, and stands among tis a Bps. See, under the Abp. es, 25 L. N. E. of Poitiers, 40 from Bordeaux, 30 E. of Angouleme. Taken by storm by the Black Prince in 1371.

L I N

Limona, Daughter of Hypemanes, one of the Archons or chief Magistrates of Athens, who being discover'd to be debauch'd by a young Gentleman of that City, her Father condemned him to be tore asunder by 4 Horses, and her to be devour'd by a starv'd Horse, with whom without food she was shut up.

Limofin, a Prov. of France, that has on its E. Auvergne, N. La Marche, W. part of Poitou, Perigord and Angoumois, and on the S. Quercy, &c. 'Tis a barren Country but the Inha- tants are industrious. 'Th divided in- to the Upper and Lower Limofin; in the first, are the Cs of Limoges, St. Hrier, St. Junian, &c. In the last, Tulle a Bps. See, Brive le Gallarde, the strong C. of Uzerche, &c. The Country of Turenne, and Ddom of Ve- tadour, its chief Rs. are Dordogne, Vi- enne, and Upper Vexere, &c. the C. and Prov. had once their own Vis- counts to govern them, which by the House of Albert were united to the Crown by Hen. VI. in 1607.

Lincoln, the Cap. C. of Lincolnshire, stands on the side of a Hill, 103 m. S. W. of London, on the R. Witham, a Bps. See in the Prov. of Canterbury, of great Antiquity, and its ruins yet shew its old Grandeur, having been one of the most populous and largest of England, containing 50 Parishes; but 'tis now reduced to 15. The Ca- thedral is its chief Ornament on the top of a Hill. The Bps. See was re- moved hither from Dorchester in Ox- fordshire in the XI. Cen. the Diocesa, tho' much decreas'd, yet contains the whole Counties of Lincoln, Leicester, Huntington, Bedford, Buckingham, and part of Hertsford; it contains 1255 Parishes, of which 577 impropriate, 6 Arch Deaconaries, viz. Lincoln, Leister, Bedford, Buckingham, Stow and Hun- ington: The Tents of the Clergy in the

and Parliament Men Sir Tho. Mere Knt. and Sir Edward Hussy Knt.

Lincolnshire, part of the ancient Ce- ritani, and the Saxon Kingdom o Mercia, one of the largest Counties o England, 'tis a N. Maritime County, 5
m. long N. S. 35 E. and W. 'tis parted on the N. from Yorkshire by the Humber, 'tis bounded S. by Cam- bridge and Norrbamptonshire, E. with the German Ocean, and the Countie of Nottingham, Leicester, &c. 'tis divi ded into three Parts, Lindsey, Kesle- ven and Holland. Kesleven, on the S W. Holland on the S. E. and Lindse
N. each of these are subdivided into Wapentakes, and those into Hundreds Contains 34 Market Ts. and 630 Pa rishes. In the S. and E. parts tho yielding no Corn, have been taken as one Draught 3200 Mallards and o ther Fowl; other Parts afford plenty of Grass and Corn. At Fitchwell, there are no Rats or Mice; in Axholm is a Vein of Alabaster; in Henry VIII' time a Helmet of Gold studded with Precious-stones was plow'd up at Har- laxton. The County is noted for fine Churches, and bad Houses, tho' there are severall Noblemen's Seats. It sends

L I P

Lingendes, (Claude de) born at Monlines in Burbonois, Provincial of the Jesuits, and one of the best Preachers of the last Cen. He died in 1660.

Linz, a little, but populous C. the Cap. of Upper-Austria on the Danube, in a fertile Country. 'Tis built all of white Stones, has a fine Castle, and is the frequent retirement of the Emp. 24 German M. W. of Vienna, and 6 E. of Passau. It repuls'd the 40000 Austrian Rebel; and the Great D. of Lorraine dy'd ne'r Linz.

Linus, the Successor of St. Peter in the See of Rome, and was martyr'd under Vespasian.

Linus, of Chalcis, one of the most ancient of the Greek Poets, the inventor of Lyric, and introducer of the Phenician Alphabet. The Fable makes him the Son of Apollo and Terpsicore, or of Mercury and Urania, and the Tutor of Hercules.

Lion, or Leo, a Sign of the Zodiack, consisting of 27 Stars. The Sun enters it in July; fabled to be the Lion of Nemea's Skin, which was kill'd by Hercules.

Lionne, (Hugh de) Marquis of Berny, a French Minister of State, who influenc'd the Election of Pope Alexander VII. manag'd the Treaties of Madrid, the League of the Rhine, and the Peace afterwards with Spain, so advantageous to France, and died at Paris in 1671. 60 y. old.

Lions. See Lions situate in the Prov. of Lyonnis.

Lipari, a knot of 7 small Sicilian Islands in the Tyrrhene Sea, 30 m. N. W. of Sicily, and is as much W. of Calabria. The chief C. of the principal Island, is a Bpt. See under Messina; and was ruin'd by Barbarossa in 1544. 'twas the Seat of Aetna. The greatest which gives name to the rest, it is m. round, and frequented for its hot Baths.

Lipman, a Jewish Rabbi of Germany, writ a Book called Victory, viz. Against the Christians and Seducers.

L I R

Lippe, a C. on the R. Marisch in Transylvania, fortified with a strong Castle, and Walls, and deep Ditches, 13 Hungarian m. S. W. of Wiesenburg, and 5 N. of Tameswaert, recover'd from the Turks by assault in 1688. with 2000 Turks at discretion in the Castle.

Lippe, or Lipstadt, a County and C. on the R. Lippe in Westphalia in Marishes and a bad Air, 3 German m. E. of Paderborn, a Hans T. and Cap. of the Country of Lippe, once imperial and free, now subject to the R. of Prussia. The Country betwixt the Bpk. of Paderborn, Ddom of Westphalia, and Earldom of Ravenburg, is a large share of the Westphalian Circle, and is subject to its own Counts; who reside at Lemgo.

Lippe, a German R. rises at Lipprink near Paderborn, flowing W. divides the Diocess of Munster from Mark passing Lippe, Han, Dorslen and Wesel, it disembogues in the Rhine, 12 m. below Cologne.

Lipomannus (Lodovicus) born at Venice, Bp. first of Modon, then of Vienna. He writ 8 Vol. of the Saints Lives, and other Works amidst his great Employments, and died in 1559.

Lipsius (Justus) born in 1547. at Ise, a little Vil. near Brussels, Brabant, was Secretary to the Cardinal of Granville, studied at Leyden and Lorraine, where he taught. He wrote 6 Vol. in Folio, and died at Lorraine, 59 y. old, his Father's name was Giles Lipsius. his Uncle's Martin Lipsius, Author of many Books, and intimate with Erasmus.

Lire, or Lier, a T. in Antwerp division in Brabant, a Spanish Frontier on the Hollanders, on the R. Nethe, strong by Art and Nature, 6 m. N. W. of Brussels, 3 m. E. of Antwerp, and 2 S. W. of Mechlen. It stands betwixt the 2 last, and is fam'd for its Castle, Fairs and Manufactures.

Liripe, a Fountain in Betia, that falls into the R. Cephissus: viewing himself here, Narcissus pin'd away.

Also

and 6 from Cav. di Rocca Sintra. It has a large Harbour secur'd by Tow'rs, and high surrounding Rocks: the Castle's very strong, and stands on the summit of a high Hill. Its Palace, Exchange, India House, &c. are its Ornaments, it encreases every day, tho' already the biggest in Portugal, in 1531. a 1000 People, and 200 Houses were destroy'd by an Earthquake. Here rendezvous'd the Armada, in 1598. and before it came, the Earl of Essex with an Army in 1587. in An.ancio's behalf.

Liserns (Polycarpus) born at Winend near Wirtemberg in 1552. was a Protestant Minister of Tubingen and Graz, in Stiria, and at Wittenburg, and wrote several Books, and died in 1610. 58 y. old.

Liserns, (John) Author of a great many Books.

Lisieux, a C. on the R. Lez in Upper Normandy, a Bps. See under the Abp. of Raen; large and beautiful, 4 Synods held here, 1st 1106. 2d 1221. 3d 1531. 4th 1547. 'tis 12 L. W. of Raen, 5 E. of the British Sea, and 10 E. of Caen.

Lisla (Fran. d.) famous for his

L I T

leton and Frankley, in the 19th of Henry VIII. whose Grandson Thomas was Squire of the Body to Hen. IV. and V. whose Heiress marry'd to Thomas Westcote, preserving her Maiden name to her Children. Whose Son, Sir Thomas Littleton, study'd the Law, and thro' several Degrees arriv'd to be one of the Judges of the Common-Pleas, in the 6th of Edward IV. and made him Knight of the Bath. His Book of Tenures commented on since by Sir Edward Cook, is very valuable.

Littleton, (Sir Edward) of Monslow in Shropshire, bred at Christ-Church, Oxon, Chief Justice of the Common-Pleas, and Lord-Keeper and Baron of Monslow, by Charles I. whom in his Troubles he follow'd to Oxford, where he died in 1645.

There is now Sir Thomas Littleton, often a Member of Parliament for New-Woodstock in Oxfordshire, Speaker to two Parliaments, and one much in Favour with his late Majesty King William.

Liturg, from Λειτουργία, a general word for all manner of Divine Service; the Liturgies, or Forms of Prayer, are various, according to the various Nations and Religions of the World; the Armenian, is in old Armenian, affirm'd to be composed by their Patriarchs, in the time of the Council of Chalcedon. The Ægyptian Christians in the Coptick; the Æthiopian, in the old Æthiopic Language; the Greeks have 4 Liturgies, of St. James, St. Mark, St. Chrysostom and St. Basil; the 2 last are the most common, the first being only us'd at Jerusalem, and the 2d at Alexandria. The Jacobites have 40 several Liturgies, the Maronites 12 all Syriac; and those of the Nestorians are in the same Language, of this the Christians of St. Thomas make use. And indeed, there is scarce any Christian Congregation that ever was in the World, except our English Dissenters, but have some Set Form of

L I V

Prayer, to use in Publick Devotions, when the Mind requires all possible Helps to keep it intent, and from being scandaliz'd and perverted into Mirth, by the ridiculous extravagancies of extemporary Prayers.

Livia, Daughter of one Drusus, and Wife to another, 2d Son to Tiberius Emp.

Livia, (Drusilla) Daughter of Livius Drusus Callidianus, who kill'd himself at the loss of the Battel of Philippi, against Octavius and Anthony. A. R. 712. She was first marry'd to Tiberius Claudius Nero, from whom, tho' big with Child, she was taken by Augustus, having put off his Wife Scribonia. Having no Children by the Emperor, he adopted Tiberius Drusus Germanicus the Sons of Tiberius Claudius Nero, her first Husband. She by her Prudence maintain'd to her old Age, the Pow'r her Beauty got o're the Emperor's Heart; and tho' she managed well her self with dissembling Humour of her Son Tiberius Emp. yet when she dy'd, 80 y. old, her Funeral was but mean, and her Will not perform'd a great while; she was more free, tho' not less vertuous, than the rest of the Roman Matrons.

Livia, (Orestilla) divorc'd from her Husband C. Piso, as soon as the Nuptial Ceremonies were over by Caligula, and by him was banish'd two Y. after he had marry'd her, on suspicion that she had seen Piso.

Livius. See Titus Livius.

Livius Andronicus, a Latin Poet, who first introduced Comedy into Rome, A. R. 510. or 514. in the Consulship of C. Claudius. and M. Tudtianus, 52 y. after the death of Menander. 18 Books of the Roman History is attributed to him.

Livonia, or Liesland, a large Country divided in Possession betwixt the K's of Sweden and Poland, the Bay of Finland is its N. Bounds, the Bay of Riga, its W. Ingria, and Pleskow of Russia, its E. Simogitia and Lithuania.

burg, &c. those of Ejlborg, Derpt, Wolmer, Paranow, Revel, Nerva, Felin, Hapsel, Lehal, Cockenhausen, &c. its 90 German m. long from Nerva to Memel, 860 broad from the Sea to Didina. The Lieflanders were converted to Christianity in 1186. when the Priest fail'd by the Sword of the Knts.
of Livonia, join'd with the Tautonic, who subduing the Country, introduced Christianity to the surviving Inhabitants. The Order was abolished by Sigismund K. of Poland in 1587. The People are all Slaves to the Nobility and Gentry.

Lixus, a C. on the mouth of the R.
Lixus, in the Prov. of Algier in Lybia,
in Africa, subject to the K. of Fez.
'Tis now called Larache, has a Port and Castle on the R. and is 65 L. S. of the Streights of Gibraltar, 'tis fabled that it was the Cap. of Antaus, and held the Hesperian Gardens: It was retaken from the Spaniards by the *Moor*s in 1682. who enslaved the whole Garrison.

Lizard Point the most S. Cape of Cornwall.

Lunda, a little Isl. on the Coast of Congo in Africa, in which is the C. of

cc
P
by in
of an bo
La
Ti
W big on
of run for
the Gre
Kee
Min
the viz.
was
and por
of one

LOM

Meadow, its Infant Stream first reaches from its Fountain, at the foot of Mont Gerbier de joux, in its course (which is N.) it receives 12 Rivers, and runs 200 L. is Navigable for Boats 166 and 12 for Ships, falls into the Sea, not far from Nantes in Bretaigny. It visits Nevers, Orleans, Blais, Amboise, Tours, Saumur, &c. The chief Rivers it receives are the Lignon, Allier, Indre, Vienne, Maine, &c.

Laisel, (Anthony) born at Beauvais in 1538. was an Advocate of Paris, and King's Advocate. He wrote several Books, and is extolled by Thomus, &c.

Lollards, they began from Wickliff, in the time of Richard II. and held abundance of Tenents contrary to the Romish Church; they were against Transubstantiation, auricular Confession, Celibacy of the Clergy, their Revenues, their Priesthood, deriv'd from Rome. Exorcisms and Benedictions of Wine, Bread, Oil, &c. Conjunction of Spiritual and Temporal, Power, Particular Prayers for the particular Dead; Pilgrimages, Prayers and Offerings at Crosses, Pictures, &c. they were also against killing of Men, either by War or Law, and several useless Trades as unlawful as Sword-cutlers, Goldsmiths, &c. as may be seen in their Remonstrance to the Parliament. See Wickliff.

Lollianus, one of the 30 Tyrants that arose in the Reign of Gallienus, on Posthumus's death in France, he set up himself till killed by the Soldiers.

Lullius, or Alberto Lullio, a Poet of Ferrara, who wrote several things in the XVI. Cen.

Lullius, is also a Roman, mention'd by Horace, who has an Epistle to him.

Lomazzi (John Paul) a Barrister and Scholar, wrote in Prose and Verse, and 7 Books of Pairing, he was born at Milan 1598.

LON

Lombard. See Desiderius, and Petrus Lombard.

Lombardy, the N. part of Italy, and the Garden of the Country; 'tis divided into Lombardy this side the Po, and Lombardy on the other side the Po. Contains the Party of Piedmont, Doms of Milan, Monferat, Mantua, Modena, Parma, Ferrara, the Bergamese, Cremese, Veronese, Vicenza and Bologna, or Emilia, it had its Name from a People originally of Scandinavia, or Pomerania, but had before been some time in Hungary, called Lingbardi, from their bearded Halberds, called in with their King Albine by Narjes in 468. and their Kingdom was destroyed 206 y. after by Charlemain in 774. Its Capital is Milan.

Lembro (Jacob) the Publisher of a very valuable Edition of the Hebrew Bible with Notes, at Vienna in 1639.

Lennue (Anthony de) and Henry Augustus, and Lewis Henry de Lominie: Father, Son and Grandson, Secretaries of State in France successively; the Son was Secretary near all Lewis XIII's Reign, and was Ambassador in England to Charles I. about his Marriage with Honorietta Maria, the Grandson succeeded at 11 years old; but sorrow for his Wives Death made him leave the World and become a Father of the Oratory.

London, the Metropolis of England, stretches on a rising ground from E. to W. in the form of a bow, of which the Thames is the string, 7 m. and half long, and is 3 in breadth, from St. George's-fields Southward, to the farther end of Shoreditch. 'Tis of uncertain Antiquity, not matters it much whether the Saxons or Britains gave it this name, from Lud, or Lunden in Midlein. It has above 600 Streets, and 100000 Houses, and allowing 8 to a House near 100000 Souls. Its ancient Changers are uncertain and not material. St. Paul's had its first Charter from King John in 1210. the year following was built London-Bridge in 1378. John Philpot, a Citizen of London, at his own Cost set out a Fleet to secure the Sea of Pirates in 1381. The Dagger was added to the City Arms for its Mayor

Sir William Walworth Stabbing Jack
Straw the Ringleader of the Rabble.
 In 1567. Sir Thomas Gresham built the Royal Exchange. In 1665. was a great Plague in which 100000 People died, and 13000 Houses were the next Year burnt down by Fire, which were rebuilt in three or four years with more Beauty and more Convenience. The Halls, and other Publick Buildings in the City are numerous and magnificent; its Squares, Signs and Taverns, the finest and the most numerous in the World. The Tower near a m in compass, is the Magazine for Arms and Munition, and the new Army is the noblest in the World, containing in admirable and surprising Order, Arms for above 60000 Men all ready for use: Here is the Mint, and here the Crown of State, Jewels, and old Records of the Nation are kept: the Bridge exceeds all

L O N

Predecessor Nurses call'd into Italy. Alboine's Wife Rosamond, retiring with her Gallant to Ravenna, on her Murdering her Husband, was by Longinus compelled to drink the remainder of the Poison she had given her Gallant, on Longinus's promise to Marry her. He was recalled by Justin the Younger, who sent him.

Longinus, or Dionysius Cassius Longinus, a learned Philosopher of the 3d Cen. Master to Porphyrius and Zenobia Queen of Palmyra, put to death by Aurelianus Emp. on suspicion of having writ the Syriac Letter to him in Zenobias's Name. His death he took like a Philosopher. He left many Books, particularly one of the Sublime.

Longolius (Christopher) was born at Malines in 1490. and proved a great Traveller and an universal Scholar, and left several Treatises behind him, dying in his 32d year of his Age.

Longomontanus (Christophorus) a Dane, and famous Astronomer, and a Witness of all the Observations of Tycho Brahe, and Professor of Astronomy at Copenhagen, where he dy'd. 80 years o'd in 1647. and left several Writings behind him.

Longueval (Bonaventura de) Count of Buquoy, being the Emp's. General in 1618. reduced many Bohemian Cities, and beat Count Mansfelt often, and with 5000 Men routed Bethlem Gabor with 15000, and having taken Presburg, and other Fortresses in Hungary, was killed at the Siege of New-Hausel in 1621.

Longueville, tho' a small Country T. in France, gives Title to the Duke of Longueville in France, and to Henry Telverton, Viscount Longueville of England.

Longus, a Greek Sophist, who wrote a famous, tho' indecent Romance, which Mon. Bayle says, has been often translated.

Longwy, or Longovy, a strong T. in the Dukedom of Lorraine, subject to

L O R

France, on the Borders of Luxemburg, of which W. 15 m. Lon. 25. 16. Lat. 49. 35.

Lonicerus (Johannes) born at Ostthern, a Vil. in the County of Mansfelt. In 1499. he was a Professor at Stratsburg, Marpurg, &c. but chiefly at the last, where he died, 70 years old, in 1569. His Son Adam Lonicerus M. D. kept up his Reputation; he was born at Marpurg in 1528. and dy'd at Frankfort, where he practised, in 1586. He writ several Botanic, and other Books.

Lopez, de Zuniga, (Diego) of Spain. He wrote against Erasmus, and published an Abstract of the Spanish History.

Lopez de Gomora, (Francisco) wrote the General History of the Indies, not with the exactness and impartiality he ought.

Lopski, the most E. People on the Frozen Sea next Tarary, Subjects of the Czar to whom they pay their Tribute in Skins and Furs, for which they Trade for coarse Cloth, Hatchets, Knives, Beads, &c. at Midsummer they have but two hours day; they are extremely Barbarous.

Loredano, (Johannes Franciscus) born in 1606. was a Senator of Venice, a lover and Man of great Learning, laid the Foundation of the Academy of Gl'Incogniti, besides his great Employments in the Rep. He wrote several Books.

Loretto, an Order of Knights, which Pope Sixtus V. instituted 1587. on making Loretto a Bpk. He made 260 of them Lawyers as well as Soldiers, who among other Priviledges, and Legitimate Bastards.

Loretto, or Lauretta, a C. and Bpk. in St. Peter's Patrimony, united to Riccanati, raised and formed by a Chamber, fabled to be that where the Angel saluted the Virgin, Devotion to which has made it rich and frequented by Pilgrims. The History Turfe-limus has publish'd of it, is but too ridiculous to be told, for they suppose it

LORRAINE, (FRANCE) Dukes at VIARONE 6
 T. in Switzerland in 1488. and thence in called Glareanus, a great Master of Mu- Sh tick, of Learning, and Probity, and he intimate with Erasmus.

Lorne, a Scotch County bordering on ran Loquabre and Argyle, gives Title of Marquiss to the D. of Argyle eldest the Son.

Lorraine, a part of the old Gallia anc Belgica, now a Sovereign Dukedom, Arg has its name from being part of the ceiv Kingdom of Lothair, Son of Lewis Ma
the Meek, in the division made of Nai his Dominions among his Sons. 'Tis bef bounded on the S. by the County of de's Burgundy, or French Comte; divided from Alsace, East by the Mountain R.
l'auge, and the Dukedom of Bipont; Len West the River Muse, separates it bar from Champagne; and North it bor- ner
 ders on Luxemburg, Mentz, Verdun and j-in Trier. Its chief Rivers are the Moselle Wa and the Muse; and its principal Cs. on are Nancy, Metz, Toul, Verdun, Pont a Lav Maulon, Mirecourt, Barleduc, &c. Mor
 'Tis divided into Lorraine, properly so cal- wh led; and the Dukedom of Bar, which Als gives Title to the Duke's eldest Son, his and is about 150 m. long, and 60 gre broad - part of the west Forest of the

LOT

Years, he was crowned at Rome by Innocent II. in 1133. laid claim to Burgundy, and gave it to Bertoldus D. of Zeringen. Warr'd with the King of Sicily, and died at Vienna or Trent in 1138.

Lotharius, King of France, born at Loos in 941. was Son of Lewis IV. succeeding his Father at 13 years old. He was crowned in 954. He besieged Pailliers in vain, recovered Arras and Douay, warr'd on Otto II. Emp. for the Lower-Lorraine, routed him twice, and drove him out of France, which he had penetrated with 60000 Men as far as Paris; on the Emp's desire making Peace, he restor'd him Lorraine, which on Otto's death he again attack'd, but desisted on the News of Otto III. being chosen Emperor. He was persud'd at Rheims in 986. in the 31 year of his Reign, and 45 of his Age.

Lotharius, King of Lorraine, Son of Emp. Lotharius I. having married Thietberga in 856. He grew weary of her, being in love with Valdrada, Sister to Gunter Abp. of Colen, and Niece to Thietgand, Abp. of Trier; he was divorc'd from Thietberga by a Council of Bishops, and married Valdrada, but being by the Pope compelled at last to take his first Wife again, he try'd her for Adultery, which caused a War, and Lothair coming with his Brother Lewis II. Emp. against the Sarazens in Italy, on his and his followers taking the Sacrament of his having nothing to do with Valdrada, he died of a Fever at Luca, they dying on the spot.

Lotharius, made King of Italy, by his Father Hugh, Earl of Provence in 932. which Title he retain'd till his death in 950. being poison'd.

Lothian, a County, the principal of Scotland, in the S. 34 Scotch m. long, and but 10 broad, bounded W. by the County of Sterling, E. by the German Ocean, N. by Edinburg Frith, S. by the Mers, Thordale and Glydesdale, in the midst of it stands Edinburg, the Cap. of Scotland. Its other Ts. are Leith, Dunbar, Dalkeith, Haddington, Musselburgh, Tranent, &c. It gives Title of Earl to the Family of Carr.

LOV

Laticlaus (Peter) a famous Protestant Convert of Hanan in Germany, who becoming Abbot, reform'd his whole Monastery. His Nephew and Namesake was a dabbler in Poetry, and has left us a Collection of his Works. His younger Brother was also famous, and his Grandson has written abundance of Books.

Louanga, or Loanga, a Kingdom N. of Congo in the Lower-Ethiopia, so fruitful that it bears three Crops in a Year; the People are robust and vigorous, and mighty lovers of Palm-Wine; the Men go cloathed from the Waste to the Knee, and seldom go out without their Bow, Arrows, and Cutlase. The Women do all Servile Work abroad and at home, and never speak to their Husbands but on their Knees, expressing their Joy and Respect at their approach, with clapping of their Hands. They have Temples and Priests called Ganga's, they Worship the Images of Spirits, which they call Magnifiers, as having power over Life, Death, &c. They have Circumcision, they Honour their Ks. with the same name of Magnifie, as expressive of their Power. His Court is kept in the Capital Louango or Borrie, a L. and half from the Sea with Avenues of Palm-walks, &c. He is a Prince able to raise numerous Armies, keeps abundance of Wives in his Seraglio, and the oldest Princess of the Blood is chose as Maconda or Regent, whom the Kings obliged to consult on all important Affairs. He is worshipped with a kind of Adoration, and when Dead, is buried with all imaginable Pomp in the Vault, set in a Chair surrounded by Images, as his Retinue. Their Money is a sort of Cloth, their Chief Trade is Slaves, and the Inheritance both Royal and private goes of Camagorta, and was a great means of carrying the Place in 1571. commanding the Left Wing of the Naval fight of Lepanto, having beaten the Venetian Right Wing, and taken some of their Ships, with 30 of his own made a brave Retreat when the Admiral was kill'd, and the rest of the Fleet destroy'd by the Christians; which Conduct got him Favour from the Grand Seignor, and the being Bossaw of the Sea, and in 1572. put to Sea with a fresh Fleet of 200 Sail, and tho' he could do no good against the Christians Fleet, yet for saving the Ottoman, and yet putting the Christians from their Detrent on the Minea, was applauded and caress'd by the Grand Seignor.

Loudun, or Lidunc, a C. of Poitou in France, 6 L. S. of Samur, and 18 N. W. of Amboise, and the Cap. Laudonnis. Here was some years since a notable Monkish Legerdemain plaid with a good Secular Priest, the Nuns pretending to be bewitch'd, and possessed by the Devil thro' his Sorceries. The Cheat was discover'd, the Priest clear'd, and the Conspirators punished; there is a Narration of this published in French.

L U C

Lubeck, an Imperial City and Capital of all the Hans Towns on the River Drave; it was made free by the Emperor Frederick II. and built by Adolph Earl of Holstein, in the Empire of Conrade III. about 2 German m. from the Baltic Sea, on the Drave, in the Circle of the Lower-Saxony; 'tis a Bpk. under the Abp. of Bremen. It receiv'd the Lutheran Faith in 1561. having just before got their Priviledges confirm'd by Charles V. for a Gift of 100000 Crowns. It has a vast Trade, is govern'd like a Repub. 'tis surrounded and divided by the Drave, and bears the Ships to Travemund, its large and safe Harbour on the Baltic, its buildings and Churches magnificent, its Bp. Protestant, and the See's an Appanage of the Younger Sons of Holstein Gottorp, under the Title of D. of Oytm, or Eutin, where the Bishop usually resides, 4 German m. and half from Lubeck; in the Bishoprick are 12 Hereditary Canons. The C. is 10 German m. from Hamburgh.

Lubentina, Libentina, or Lubentia, the Goddess of Pleasure and Indulgence of our Desires.

Lubienietzki, (Stanislaus) a Polish Genl. and a most famous Socinian Preacher of the VIII. Cen. He was poison'd, and left several Learned Works, but the most part not printed.

Lublin, a City on the River Bystritz, defended with a Wall, Castle and deep Ditch and Morass, the Cap. of the Palatinate of Lublin, which is one of the three that make up the Lesser-Poland, neat and populous, 12 m. W. of Chebm, 24 S. of Warsaw, 36 S. E. of Cracow; the other C. of this Palatinate are Zakaw, Wisendow, Kesmier and Parkow. The C. has 3 great Fairs resorted to by the Germans, Armenians, Muscovites and Turks.

Lucia. See Antill.

Lucania, an ancient Italian Province included the present Basilicata, great part of the inmost Principate, as well as the Modern Calabria, was a part of Grecia-magna; they descended from the Brutii, or the Samnites, seating themselves along the Coasts of either Sea.

L U C

Lucanus, the chief of the Hereticks of the II. Cen. promoters of Cerdan and Mercians Opinion. He err'd about the Soul, and in disapproving Marriage.

Lucanus, or Lucan, (M. Annas) Nephew to Seneca, born A. C. 39 at Corduba in Spain, a Poet of great Esteem, especially for his Pharsalia, or Poem on the Civil War; he improved so much under his eminent Masters Palemon, Virgimiss and Cornutus, that at 14 Years old, he publicly declaim'd in Greek, as well as Latin. He married Polla Argentaria, learn'd, noble and beautiful; tho' at first raised to places above his Age, for his Wit by Nero, yet when the Poetical Prize was given him, Nero cou'd not bear it, more than Lucan, Nero's railing at his Verses, which engag'd him in Piso's Conspiracy; on the Discovery of which, he had his Veins cut as Seneca and Petronius Arbiter had all his Poems, but the Pharsalia are lost. Lucanus (Ocellus) supposed to be near or contemporary with Moses, at least the oldest of the Greek writers.

St. Lucas, or St. Luke the Evangelist, was a Physician of Antioch; he writ a Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles, from A. C. 33 to 63. He was never married, and dy'd in his 84th Year; some say by Martyrdom, some by a Natural Death; the Place of, which is as uncertain, for Aegypt, Greece, Bithynia, Rome and Ephesus, are named by several Authors; thus he's allotted several places of Study and more Sciences than Physick, particularly Painting, of which the Papist pretend to several pieces. 'Tis certain his Greek is more Elegant than the other Sacred Writers.

old he publish'd some Cuts, and after by his Excellence, drew Albert Durer to Leyden, fancying himself poison'd at Middleburg, by one equal in his Art, he languish'd away, and died in the 39th Year of his Age in 1532. He painted in Glass, and Etch'd.

Lucas (Francis) Dean of St. Omer's, was born at Bruges, studied at Louvain, and was one of the greatest Masters of the Oriental Languages of his time, and leaving divers Works, died in 1615.

Lucca, or Lucs, a C. and Rep. in Tuscany, almost surrounded by the D. of Florence's Dominions; 'tis populous and well fortified, its a Bpk. immediately subject to the Pope, its Jurisdiction not above 30 m. in extent, but admirably cultivated by the Inhabitants. It stands in the middle of a great Plain near the Serchio, the People are Rich and Industrious. 'Tis said to be built 39 Years after Rome. It got its first Liberty from a French Cardinal, and to secure it since their last recovery of it, they have thus fortified it. 'Tis govern'd by a Gonsalvier, and a Council of 25 Citizens, during his Office, he resides in the

L U C

Lucifer, the Son of Jupiter and Aurora, or the Morning and Evening Star, it being the Planet Venus in the Morn preceding, in the Evening following the Sun.

Also the Chief of the false Angels.

Also the Bp. of Caglian, the Cap. of Sardinia, and the adjacent Isls. a hot and violent Assertor of Arbanaſius Party prevail'd with the Emp. Conſtantine, to call the Council of Milan, where he and Anathasius were baniſhed by the Council, and coming from his Baniſhment to Antiach, widen'd the Schiſm about the Patriarchate, by ordaining Paulinus a Priest, Bp. of that C. obſtinate in what he had done unto Eusebius, ſent by the Council of Alexandria. He retir'd to his Bpk. of Sardinia, where he perſiſted till Death in his Separation from the ſain Prelates, as he call'd 'em. In his Exile he writ ſeveral virulent Books of the high Popery, as not communicating with Hereticks, &c.

Luciferians, the Followers of the foregoing Lucifer, who held the Soul to be Ex traduce, or begot by the Parents as the Body. The Schiſm laſted till after Theodeſius the Great.

Lucilius, (Cains) a Nobleman of Rome, Great Uncle by the Mother to Pompey the Great. He was born at Suessa, in the Country of Avnes; and firſt invented Satyre, of which he left 30 Books, tho' only ſome Fragments remain. He died at Naples, 46 y. old, in the CLXIX. Olympiad.

Lucilla, the name of the Mother and Daughter of Marcus Aurelius Emp. and of the Siſter of Commodus, whom having raviſh'd and baniſh'd to the Iſl. of Caprea, he there had put to Death.

Also a Spaniſh Lady of Wealth and Quality, which in Revenge of a Re-proof of Cecilianus, Bp. of Carthage, (where ſhe liv'd) ſhe employ'd in the Schiſmaticks behalf againſt him.

Lucina, a noble Roman Lady converted by her Husband Priamus to Chriſtianity, her Houſe was conſecra-ted a Church, and ſhe was proſcrib'd by Maxentius, uſed to bury the Bodies of the Martyrs.

L U C

Also the name of Juno or Diana, preſiding over Women in Labour, whom they invoc'd for a quick Delivery.

Lucius I. a Roman ſucceeded Cornelius, in the Bpk. of Rome in 252. whether ſoon returning from his Baniſhment, he was martyr'd under Gallus Emp. in 255. He Decreed that a Bp. ſhou'd always be attended by 2 Priests and 3 Deacons as vouchers of his Innocence.

Lucius II. born at Bononia, firſt Library-keeper and Chancellor of the Church, and made Cardinal in 1125. He ſucceeded Celeſtine II. in 1144. and was Pope but 11 Months, dying in the Monastery of St. Gregory in 1145. He prevail'd with Conrade Emp. to War on the Saracens, and exhorted the other Chriſtian Princes to the ſame.

Lucius III. born of the Noble Family of the Allucingoli at Lucca, where being a Canon, Innocent II. made him Cardinal in 1142. was Legate in Sicily, from Adrian IV. and to Frederic Barbaroſſa from Alexander III. The Peace he concluded with that Emp. got him the Papacy on Alexander's Death in 1181. by the aſſiſtance of the Italian Princes. He ſucceeded the Romans that had driven him to Vienna on his Reforming ſome Cuſtoms ſtole in under his Predeceſſors, had ſome Conteſts with Frederic Emp. and died in 1185. before he cou'd unite the Chriſtian Princes, in a League againſt the Infidels.

Lucius, an Arian Bp. of Alexandria, ſet up againſt Arbanaſius on the Death of George, which he maintain'd by the favour of the Emp. Valens, againſt Peter Arbanaſius's Succeſſor. Perſecuting the Orthodox and the Hermians of Egypt, till driven from the See in 377.

by famine to surrender himself to Augustus.

Lucius, (Pomponius) a Poet, and General of the Emp. Claudius's Army in Germany, he vanquish'd the Catti, &c.

Lucius Pomponius Aelianus, heading the multitude in Gaul with Salonius Arnaudus, savag'd that Prov. till suppress'd by Maximianus.

Lucius Verus, or Lucius Ceionius Aelius Commodus Verus Antoninus, having married Lucilla, Marcus Aurelius's Daughter, was made Co-partner of the Empire, while he lay lost in Voluptuousness at Lasdicea and Antioch, his Generals beat the Parthians, and being incorrigible, Aurelius, to hide his Vice from the People, sent him out of Rome, he died of an Apoplex, A. C. 169. and going with Aurelius over the Alps against the Marcomanni.

Lucius Volusius, died a natural Death in Nero's time, tho' Rich and Honest.

Lucius, supposed a British King, and the first Christian K. in the World for Preaching which in Germany he was martyr'd; tho' 'tis more probable that there was no such King at all, this Nation being subject to Rome in the 11. Cen.

Lucy, or Voluck a Britoness in

by
So
Re
on tus
the 6

the scu
ing
Ro sell

Luc

tus
the gen 50
Wi
22 tha to wit

on 50
the
A.

L U G

Consul, he deliver'd his Colleague Coira besieged in Chalcedon by Mithridates's Soldiers, rais'd the Siege of Cyzicus, having taken Euparolia, Amisa, Themiscyra, &c. He defeated and drove Mithridates to the Protection of Tigranes K. of Armenia, his Son-in-Law, A. R. 683. subduing Pontus, routed Tygranes at the head of 200000 Foot, and 60000 Horse, took Nisibe, and his Capital City, whence returning to Rome in Triumph, he devoted himself to Magnificence and Learning, being very Rich, and well learn'd, and made the finest Library of his Age.

Lucas the VIII. King of the Gauls, succeeded Bardus II. gave name to the People about Paris called Lucetiani.

Ludlow, the name of a Gentleman's Family in Wiltshire, and eterniz'd by the Author of Ludlow's Memoirs. He was Parliament General, and Deputy of Ireland, which he reduc'd, and quitted on Cromwell's assuming a Regal Power, for he was a true lover of the Liberty of his Country without Respect of Persons.

Ludlow, a large fair and populous Borough T. of Shropshire, noted for the Courts of the Marches of Wales, till lately suppressed by Act of Parliament.

Ludolphus, a Saxon Carthusian in 1330. writ the Life of Christi, and an Account of Æthiopia.

Also the name of a Curate of Suchen, who dedicated his five years Travels in the Holy-Land, to Baldwin Bp. of Paderborn.

Also an eminent Lawyer of the XIV. Cen. Chancellor to Baldwin Abp. of Treves.

Lugdus, the old King of Gaul, and supposed Founder of Lyons, which from his name is called Lugdunum.

Lugo, a C. of Gallicia in Spain, on the R. Minho, a Bpk. under the Abp. of Compostella, from whence distant E. 18 m. and 30 N. of Leon, and 10 S. of the Ocean. Fam'd for its hot Baths, and 3 or 4 Provincial Synods. Lon. 12. 00. Lat. 43. 00.

L U L

Also a T. 15 m. from Ferrara in Italy, which in 1688. with 8000 Inhabitants, and the adjacent parts was drowned by an Innundation of the Po.

Lugo, (John) a learn'd Divine born at Madrid in 1583. became a Jesuit in 1603. and was made Cardinal by Urban VIII. and died in 1690. leaving many Theological Works behind him.

Lugo (Fran. de) Brother of the foremention'd Cardinal. He was a Jesuit and Author of a great many Books.

Luithbert, succeeded his Father Cunibert, in the Kingdom of Lombardy in 701. but was deposed, being a Child in 8 Months.

Luitprandus, in 713. succeeded his Father Arisprandus, in the Kingdom of Lombardy, reigning three years and seven months. He shew'd himself a Pious, Valiant and Liberal Prince; destroy'd the League betwixt Thraffmund D. of Spoleto and Godeschalki, driving them into the Papacy, where protected by the Pope, he pursued and vanquish'd them, took some Places in St. Peter's Patrimony, and in advancing to Rome, the Peace was made by the Mediation of Charles Martel, as it was by the Pope betwixt him and the Exarch of Ravenna. The y. after which he dy'd, being 745.

Luitprand, Bp. of Cremona, and Secretary to Berengarius II. K. of Italy, by whom in 946. he was sent Ambassador to the Emp. of Constantinople, on some difference at his return, he was banish'd by Berengarius; against whom he writ a Book, besides his Genuine Work, there are many spurious attributed to him.

Lullius, (Raymandus) born in Majorca, of a Catalonian Family, a great Philosopher and Chymist of the XIII. or XIV. Cen. Some make him a Magician, some a St. and Martyr for Preach-or Caput, that he led him as he pleased, and like a true Favourite minded more his own sordid Gain, than his King's Service, the good of the People, or the Prosperity of his Country, being convicted in 1453. among other Oppressions, of being brib'd by the Moor Gold to hinder the taking of Granada, he was beheaded at Valladolid. After his Pride and Insults to the Grandees, had caused a War in his Country.

Lunden, or Lund, a considerable C. of Suedeland, the Capital of the Principality of S. Gothland, in the Dukedom of Schonen, once an Abpk, now only a Bpk. and University, subject to the K. of Sweden, 28 m. E. of Copenhagen, and 28 S. W. of Stockholm, 6 of the Sea.

Also a T. of Denmark in the Dukedom of Holslein, in the Territory of Ditmarsh, subject to the Duke of Holslein, on the R. Ejder, 14 m. N. of Meldorp.

Lundy, a small I. in the mouth of the Severn, on the Devonshire Coast, 2 m. long and one broad, 14 m. from Hertnefs, accessible only in two places. The ruins of St. Helen's Cappel and the Castle yet remain. the I. belongs to

U de ho per M Ser
Be
ski rev
ed
En

qui lar, cali
p.12
Gen
sav
P.21

the beg
the 120
1 lem
Ju.
Mee
his
W.

L U T

ula and Bohemia, and the Lower on Saxony, the Capital of the Upper is Gersitz, and Saxony the Capital of the Lower. It has besides the C. of Bautzen, Zisban, Juben, &c.

Lustrations, Sacrifices, by which the defiled were purified, whether House, City, Camp, or Person; whether they were defiled by the touch of Dead Body, Plague or any other Uncleaness. In these Lustrations, Fire, Fumigations, and Water were used some in one, and some in another, and Victims Sacrific'd; among the Greeks, a Humane Victim loaded with all the Curses and Crimes of the Country was offer'd. Lustrations of Houses after the Plague, and on the Death of any one were indispensable: Tho' some were chosen, merely for Pleasure. There were also Quinquennial publick Lustrations, when, the Victim, while Perfumes were burnt on the Altar was led thrice round to be purify'd. The Country Lustrations of the Romans, before Mar-vest were called Ambrosalia, and those of their Army, Amilustria, in which some selected Soldiers crown'd with Laurel, led the Victims, a Sow, a Sheep, and a Bull, thrice round the Army, standing in Battle array in Mars's Field. There was a kind of Lustrations used for Infants with pure Water or Spittle for the Girls on the 8th day from her Birth, the Boy on the 9th. The Shepherds had their Lustrations, and private People had theirs, &c. of all the which you may consult Lavinus, &c.

Lustrum, a reveiw of all the Roman Persons and Goods at first perform'd every 5 years, afterwards more seldom instituted by Servius Tullius, A. R. 180. and Lustrum is used for five years.

Lutgarda, or Luitgarda Charlemagne's Wife, a German, and lover of Learning, favour'd Albion for it; died at Tours in 800.

Luther, (Martin) was born in 1483. at Isladen in Mansfeld in Germany: after his studying at several places, he became an Austrian Monk or Priar, and being sent to Rome, he managed the Disputes he went to take up among his own Order with Address. He took his Doctor's Degree at Wittenburgh in 1517. He preached against the Indulgencies given by Frier Tetzel, which brought him into Disgrace at Rome, which Court with Cardinal Cajetan's proud comportment, set Luther to a full enquiry into the Errors of Popery, but by several degrees often writing to Rome submissively, but ever refusing Recantation; his Books being burnt at Rome, he burnt the Pope's late Decree, and the Canon Law at Wittenburg; and being himself censured at Lorrain and Colage, He answer'd their Censure: He confuted Eckius on the Pope's Supremacy at Leipsic before the Elector of Saxony; he boldly ventur'd to Worms, contrary to his Friends persuasions on the Promise of safe Conduct, which yet had been violated but for the Elector Palatine; but leaving Worms, he was proscib'd by the Emp. and conceal'd by the Elector of Saxony in Wurtzburg Castle. He preach'd publicly again in 1552. after a 2d Papal Excommunication, which he had answer'd. The Monasteries are emptied by his convincing Writings; he and Beza publish'd first the New Testament, and afterwards in 1534. the whole Bible in the vulgar Tongue. The Canon of the Mass he abolish'd, but retains particular Confession. His writing for the Independant Power of the Prince, and against the anarchical Articles of the Boors, won the Elector of Saxony entirely. He laid aside his Weeds, and assumed a secular Habit in 1524. and married Catherine Baren; and died at Isellen in 1548.

L U T

Lutius Priscus, (Caim) a Poet who after having been rewarded by Tiberius for writing an Elegy on Germanicus, was punished with death for writing the like on Drusus, when Turks after the taking Caminieck in 1672. 50 m. S. E. of Warsaw. Here was a Synod held in 1556. by Lewis Liponau. See Lemberg.

Luxemburgh, a Dukedom, and a strong C. in the Low-Countries, standing on the R. Elja, partly on a Plain, and partly on the side of a Hill. John King of Bohemia killed in the Battel of Cressy by the English, is here buried in the Friars Convent; it has been taken and retaken, but is now in the French hands. 'Tis 6 L. S. W. of Trier, and 4 N. from Thionville. The Dukedom is one of the 17 Provinces, bounded N. by the Dukedom of Limburg and Namur, W. by Picardy and Hainault, divided by the Mosel from Trier, &c. 'Tis of various fertility and barrenness in circumference, 60 French Leagues besides its Capital; it contains the C. of Bastogne, Damvillers, Amneid, Ailin, Thionville, and 23 more besides 120,000 Vil. raised from a Country to a Dukedom, by an Emp. of the House of Luxemb. 16; one of the noblest Families in Europe, which being divided into 3 Branches, the late Marshal of Luxemburgh married the Heiress of the Branch of score a Poem, called Cassandra, since any one cou'd understand and 12 Tragedies.

LYC

Lycopolis, or the C. of Wolves near Nile in Aegypt, where Wolves ador'd. 'Tis now called Numia, L. once, whose Bp. Meletius was r of a troublelom Schism.

Lycobon, (Conradus) or Wolfsbart, in 1618. at Raffach in Alsace, thro' his studies at Heidelberg, was Professor at Basil, where rd in 1661. He was eminent s skill in the Languages and ing, and published several Books.

Lycurgus, the famous Law-giver, and Lacedaemon, he was of the fami-the Proclida, and Brother to Po-s, who being Son of Eumemus by ner Wife, succeeded his Father,

Lycurgus travelling thro' Greece, Aegypt, and India, in pursuit of ledge in Men and Manners, was d by the Death of Polydectes, to rown of the Spartans, to whom slour and Wildom had endear-im. The Widow of Polydectes o him, assuring him if he wou'd her, she wou'd miscarry of child. But he refused the offer, mking on him the Guardianship i Nephew Charilaus, 108 years e the first Olympiad, and surre-it when his Nephew was of

When retiring to Crete, he was home again by the Spartans, to he gave many good Laws, and g got them confirm'd by the ic Oracle, and swore the Spartans serve them till his return, he

to Crete again, and there killed lf.

Lycus, Brother to Admetus, and to Pheres King of Theffaly, and of the Country of Nemae, who ted the Nemaeon Games in Me-of his Son Opheltes, stung to by a Serpent, while his Nurse wile went to shew the way to the r that went to besiege Thebes Idraffus K. of Argos.

LYD

Lycurgus, a famous Athenian Orator, and as famous for his generous and noble Services to his Country, he et-created their Shipping, and Magazines, established the Prizes for Tragedy, and set up Statues to Aeschylus, Sophocles and Euripides; he built Gymnasia, or Schools of publick Exercise, ordering Prizes for the Victor, which he him-self often was; turn'd all idle and lewd people out of the C. and at the end of his Administration, he fixt a Diary of all his Actions which he had kept, on a publick Pillar to be ex-ammied by all; and on his Death-bed wou'd be brought to give an account of them to the Senate, dying soon after he was carry'd home: The Athenians thought him Divine and con-secrated the Ibis to him. Demosthe-ner's Testimony brought off his Sons Lycophron, Lycurgus, and Aphron from their Imprisonment for being ill Com-mon wealths men.

Lycurgus, taken into the Partner-ship of the Crown of Sparta by Agessi-polis III. the King, and last of the He-raculides, or Herculean Race. Lycurgus drove him from that throne he had exalted him to; he held a doubtful War long with Philip I. of Macedon, but being accused of innovations to the Ephori, he was banish'd, and dy'd in Aetolia, being the first Tyrant in Sparta, or King of a strange Blood.

Lycurgus, K. of Thrace, an enemy to Bacchus according to the Poets, and was made mad by the drunken God for dri-ving away his Nurses to Naxos, in his Lunacy he cut off his own Legs.

Lycus, Author of the Greek History of Libya and Sicily, Father to the Poet Lycophron, and was put to death by Demetrius Phalerus.

Lydia, or Mænia, now Carasia, a Country in Natalia or Asia Minor. Its chief R. Chimech, Sambat and Chiar. The C. Sardes, Philadelphia, Thyatira &c. they derive themselves from Lyc-dus, Son of Hercules XXII. and from whom C. m. Laules murdered by Gyges. His over a Rivers that divide it: it has a deep Ditch about it, and walled most part: it had great Priviledges granted by King John, and restored them by King Henry III. on the Repetition of their Loyalty. With both whom they sided against the Barons. It stands in a Marshy Ground, and was called Bps Lyn till Henry VIII. standing on Ground belonging to the Bishop of Norwich. Its present Members of Parliament are Sir Charles Turner Knt. and Robert Walpole, Esq;

Lycæus, one of the Argonauts that with Jeson went for the Golden Fleece, lab'ed to see all things above, below and on the Earth.

Lyncæus, Son of Ægyptus married Hypermetra one of the 50 Daughters of Darius King of Argos, saved by his Wife from the Fate of the rest, and flying the Court, had at last his Wife restor'd him from Prison by Darius her Father

Lyon, (John) Earl of Strathmore and Kinghorn, and Lord Glamis in Scotland, derived from the De Lyons in France, and Jenar of Italy came into England with William I. and into Scotland with Edgar Son of Malcolm III.

b A h p r
l
in fu be bi ve de Gr
les Tt
bu its tin bis
con
Ser
of gia
Ab
lig on ter des ch
ble

L Y S

Lyfander, an ambitious, cruel and deceitful General of Lacedamon, who to the prejudice of the Liberties of Greece, entering into a League with the King of Persia, and all Greece, beat the Athenian Admiral Conon, took Attalus, and would have deposed the King of Sparta; but his corruptions of Oracles, and Bribes cou'd not effect it, being killed in an Expedition against the Confederate Cities of Athens, Thebes, Corinth, and Argos, united against Lacedamon.

Lysiades, from mean Birth, arriving to the Tyranny, or Kingdom of Arcadia, voluntarily renounced it, and mediated an alliance betwixt the Achaians and them, was chose their Prætor, or Governour with Arabis, whom, on a difference betwixt them, Lysiades forc'd into Battel, and was himself killed in a fight against the Lacedemonians.

Lysias, a Tribune of the Roman Soldiers, who deliver'd St. Paul from the Jews, seeking to kill him; and sent him to Felix.

Also the General of Antiochus Epiphanes King of Syria's Army, Governour to his Son, and Deputy of that part of his Kingdom, who was defeated by Judas Maccabeus, with whom making a League on the Death of Epiphanes, he set the Crown on Antiochus Eupator's Head, but was with Eupator put to Death, by Demetrius Soter, who recover'd the Syrian Throne, his Uncle Epiphanes had usurp'd.

Lysias, Son of Cephalus of Syracusa, was educated at Athens, and proved one of the best Orators of his time, He conducted a Colony into Italy, by order of the Athenians, and having purchased Possessions, he was driven from them soon after, by the Enviars of his Vertues. He writ an Apology for Socrates, the Olympian against Dionysius the Tyrant: And dy'd in the 81. y. old.

Lysimachus, one of Alexander's Leaders or Successors, being Master of part of Thrace; he took part with Cassander and Seleucus, against Antigonus and Demetrius. He married Antipater's Daughter, but the Father being driven from his Country, and flying to him, on a disgust he killed him, and imprison'd the Daughter. Being taken by the King of the Geta in a Battel, his Son Agatocles rescu'd him, which he ill rewarded by Poison on a false Accusation of his Stepmother. He seiz'd Macedon, Demetrius being driven thence by his Subjects. But was killed in a Battel against Seleucus, who received his great Men that fled from his Cruelties.

L Y S

Lysimachus, Son of Aristides, whose Father's Vertues the Athenians rewarded in him with an Estate.

Also a Physician Disciple of Hippocrates.

Another of Alexandria, a Greek Author of the History of Ægypt, and a Treatise of Husbandry.

Also a Jewish High-Priest, who gain'd that Dignity of Antiochus Epiphanes by Bribes, but the Jews tir'd with the irregularities of his Government, removed him the year following.

Lysippus, born at Sicyone was a famous Statuary in Alexander the Great's time, made several Statues of him and his Favorites, and one of Apollo of Rhodes, and of a Man rubbing himself, as coming out of the Bath, which being remov'd by Tiberius from Agrippa's Baths to his own Apartment, he was fain to replace it again for fear of a popular Commotion. He cut the Hair softer and finer than any before him. He left 3 Sons famous in the same Art, Calippus, Bedas, and Eutbycrates, tho' the last excell'd most.

Lysis, the Master of Epaminondas, a Pythagorean Philosopher in the XCVIII. Olympiad. Supposed to be Author of the Golden Verses of Pythagoras.

the Creation to this present
Remarks. By the Learn'd Mr
8vo. Done into English by sev Miscellanea Antica: Or, a C ver before publish'd. Containin James II. in their Exile. —from Bern. Gascoign, about the inten with the Archdutchess of Inspira tion to the Dukes of Ormond an mous A. Cowley, &c.

The Law of Corporations;
stoms of the Corporations, and in England: Treating of the E a Corporation of Mayors, Bayl executing Process. Consuance of Inferiour Courts, Declarations.
Corpus, Procedendo, Bail. Error
Pleadings, Venire's, &c. Actions rations. Of Grants by or to a Co in both. By Laws, Customs. I rant's, Mandamus's, their Retu tions, with the Explication of se ting to the same. Together with Corporations in England. Necess

.

.

50 32 1935

